

CONTENTS

Foreword to Original Arabic Edition	25
Foreword to the Urdu Edition	29
Foreword by the Urdu Translator	31
Foreword to English Translation	34
Brief History	34
His thoughts	35
Quraan Verses Concerning Obedience to Allaah 迅管到岸 and His Rasool 德麗	40
Ahaadeeth Concerning Obedience to Rasulullaah 疑疑 Following him and Following the Khulafa 經過	45. مَعَالَكُ
Qur'aanic Verses Concerning Rasulullaah 優麗 and the Sahabah 極度過過	48
Verses of the Qur'aan Concerning the Sahabah 經過過過	53
Mention of Rasulullaah ఆ and the Sahabah ஊண்டு in the Divine Scriptures that Came Before th	ie
Qur'aan	56
Ahaadeeth Describing Rasulullaah	57
Chapter One	69
The Chapter Concerning Da'wah Towards Allaah and His Rasool இத்த	69
Love for Da'wah and Preoccupation With it	69
The Concern of Rasululiaah 🕮 for Manking to Accept Imaam	69
Rasulullaah Rasulullaah Preaches to his People at the Time When his Uncle Abu Taalib is about to Leave the	Nordl. 70
Rasulullaah 🕮 Presents the Kalimah to his Uncle Abu Taalib	71
Rasulullaah 🕮 refuses to Forsake Calling people to Allaah	73
Rasulullaah :s Resolve to Fight for the Duty that Allaah Sent him with	78
Rasulullaah Commands Hadhrat Ali आண் to First call People towards Islaam During the Ba of Khaybar
The Outstanding Perseverance of Rasulullaah 🕮 when Inviting Hakam bin Kaysaan to Islaam
Wahshi bin Harb Accepts Islaam
Hadith of Tameem Daari Concerning the Spreading of Islaam
Hadhrat Umar 經過過s Desire for the Renegades to Return to Islaam
Hadhrat Umar Weeps over the Exertion of a Christian Monk	84
Rasulullaah 😂 Preaches to Individuals
Rasulullaah 優麗 Invites Hadhrat Abu Bakr 登障學 to Islaam	84
Rasulullaah 過避 Invites Hadhrat Umar 多彩色 to Islaam
Rasulullaah 經過 Invites Hadhrat Uthmaan 過過過 to Islaam	86
Rasulullaah 微端 Invites Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib 氢硫酸 to Islaam	87
Rasulullaah 🕮 Invites Hadhrat Amr bin Abasa 🖽 to Islaam	88
Rasulullaah 機能 invited Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas 细胞的 to Islaam	THE RESERVE
Rasulullaah (Invites Hadhrat Dimaad (to Islaam	90
Rasulullaah ﷺ Invites Hadhrat Husayn 些碳酸 to Islaam, who was the Father of Hadhrat Imraar
Husayn 经证证的
Rasulullaah 🕮 Invites an Unnamed man to Islaam
Rasulullaah 優麗 Invites Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Haydah to Islaam	94

Rasulullaah 健健 Invites Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim 医睫蛉 to Islaam	94
Rasulullaah 伝統 Invites Dhi Jowshin Dhababi 色彩的 to Islaam	97
Rasulullaah 🕮 Invites Hadhrat Basheer bin Khasaasiyyah to Islaam	97
Rasulullaah 鏡瓣 Invites an Unnamed Person to Islaam
Rasulullaah @ Invites Hadhrat Abu Quhaafa 營運廠 to Islaam	. 100
The Da'wah Rasulullaah 🕮 Gave to Individuals who did not Accept Islaam	. 100
Rasulullaah 燈罩 Invites Abu Jahal to Islaam
Rasulullaah 🕮 Invites Waleed bin Mughiera to Islaam	101
The Da'wah Rasulullaah 優麗 Gave to Pairs
Rasulullaah 燈纜 Invites Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan 劉章德 and Hind 國軍總方 to Islaam	. 102
Rasulullaah 燈瓣 Invites Hadhrat Talha 壁影響 and Hadhrat Zubayr 壁影響 to Islaam	104
Rasulullaah 優麗 Invites Hadhrat Ammaar 劉隆德 and Hadhrat Suhayb 劉隆德 to Islaam	104
Rasulullaah 疑疑 Invites Hadhrat Sa'd bin Zurarah 劉爾德 and Dhakwaan bin Abd Qals 劉爾德 to Islaar	n 104
The Da'wah Rasulullaah 😂 Gave to Groups
Leaders of the Quraysh Dispute the Da'wah Rasulullaah 🕮 Gave them
Rasulullaah 🕮 invites Abil Haysim and some youths from the Banu Abdil Ash'hal to Islaam	107
The Da'wah Rasulullaah 🕮 gave to Large Gatherings
The Da'wah Rasulullaah @婆 gave to Various Arab Tribes During the Hajj Season	109
Rasulullaah 🕮 Invites the Banu Abs Tribe to Islaam	110
Rasulullaah 🕬 Invites the Kindah Tribe to Islaam	111
Rasulullaah 🕮 Invites the Banu Ka'b Tribe to Islaam	112
Rasulullaah 🕮 Invites the Bani Kalb to Islaam
Rasulullaah 🕮 Invites the Bani Haneefah to Islaam
Rasulullaah ြေ Invites the Banu Bakr to Islaam	114
Rasulullaah 🕮 Invites Various Tribes to Islaam at Mina	116
Rasulullaah 🕮 Invites a Large Group to Islaam at Mina
Rasulullaah 🕮 Invites the Banu Shaybaan to Islaam	117
Rasulullaah 🗯 Invites the Aws and Khazraj Tribes to Islaam	121
The Da'wah that Rasulullaah 燈鐸 gave in the Marketplaces	126
Rasulullaah 🕮 Invites His Close Relatives to Islaam
Rasulullaah 優麗 Addresses Faatima and Safiyya 阅读题。	127
Rasulullaah 🕮 Invites his Household and Other Relative for a meal to Call them towards Islam	128
Rasulullaah @ Coveys the Da'wah of Islaam while Travelling	130
Rasulullaah 🕮 Gives Da'wah During the Hijrah	130
Rasulullaah WWW Invites a Villager to Islaam while on a Journey	130
Rasulullaah 優麗 Invites Burayda bin Khusayb and his Companions to Islaam during the Hijrah Journey	131
Rasulullaah Assarting Travels by Foot to Convey the Da'wah of Islaam
Rasulullaah Welks to Taa'if	131
Inviting Towards Islaam on the Battlefield	132
Rasulullaah Weer Fought anyone Until he had Invited them to Allaah	132
Rasulullaah (2002) Instructs the Commanders of Muslims Troops to Convey the Message of Islaam	132
Rasulullaah 經經 Commands Hadhrat Ali 密範的 Not to fight until he had Invited the Enemy to Islaam	. 133
Rasulullaah ြ Commands Hadhrat Farwa Ghutayfi 日 to Convey the Da'wah of Islaam	134
Rasulullaah 编譯 Instructs Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed 细胞的 to Convey the Da'wah when he was se	ent

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (COL-1)
to Yemen	. 134
Rasulullaah 🕮 Frees Captives who had not been Invited to Islaam	13
Rasulullaah 🕮 Dispatches Individuals to give Da'wah	136
Rasulullaah 優麗 Sends Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr 墨寧寧 to Madinah	136
Rasulullaah 機能 Dispatches Hadhrat Abu Umaamah 經過過 to his People the Baahilah tribe	13
Rasulullaah 🕮 Sends a Person to the Banu Sa'd tribe	138
Rasulullaah 🕮 sends a Person to a Man who was Influential during the Period of Ignorance	139
Rasulullaah 優麗 Dispatches Groups to Give Da'wah	. 140
Resulullaah Sends Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Select to Banu Bally to Encourage the people to Accept Islaam	140
Rasulullaah 🕮 Dispatches Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 🕮 to Yemen	. 14
Rasulullaah 優麗 Dispatches Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 營運運 to Najraan
The Letter Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 经隐藏 Sent to Rasulullaah 提婆
The Letter that Rasulullaah 優麗 sent in reply to Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 劉麗德
Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 选择场 Returns to Rasulullaah 选择 with a Delegation of the Banu Haarith Rasulullaah (Calls people towards Fulfilling the Faraa'idh of Islaam Rasulullaah (Teaches Hadhrat Mu'aadh (how to Call people towards the Faraa'idh of Islaar as he Leaves for Yemen Rasulullaah (是是 Calls Hadhrat Howshab Dhi Dhulaym 医原动 towards Fulfilling the Faraa'idh of Islaam
Rasulullaah (2015) Calls the Abd Qais Delegation towards Fulfilling the Faraa'idh of Islaam
The Hadith of Hadhrat Algama (Concerning the Reality of Imaan, Giving Da'wah towards Imaan and the Faraa'idh
The Letter Rasulullaah 協識 sent to Najaashi the King of Abyssinia
The Letter of Reply that Najaashi sent to Rasulullaah
The Letter Rasulullaah & sent to Heraclius the Emperor of Rome
Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan ఆண்ண் and Heraclius
The Letter Rasulullaah ﷺ sent to Kisra the Emperor of Persia
The Letter Rasulullaah 經過 sent to Magogis the King of Alexandria
The Letter that Rasulullaah seek sent to the People of Najraan
The Letter Rasulullaah Sent to the Bakr bin Waa'il Tribe
The Letter Rasulullaah See Sent to the Banu Judhaama Tribe
Incidents About the Character and Actions of Rasulullaah (2014) that Inspired People to Accept Islaam
The Conversion to Islaam of Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na 🛎 who had been a Jewish Rabbi
The Incident of the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah
The Quraysh Prevent Rasulullaah From Visiting the Kabah
Budayl's Meeting With Rasulullaah
Urwa bin Mas'ood's Meeting with Rasulullaah
A man from the Kinaana Tribe Meets with Rasulullaah
Suhayl bin Amr's Meeting with Rasulullaah and the Clauses of the treaty
The incident of Abu Jandal 🖫 💮
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Baseer (Special and the Two Men who were sent after him Hadhrat Abu, Jandal 4919703. Joins up with Hadhrat Abu Baseer 4919703 and they attack the Caravans of

8	THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH	(Vol-1)
The Words of Hadhrat Umar 墨區區	Concerning the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah	176
The Words of Hadhrat Abu Bakr	Concerning the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah	177
Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 当场等 Acce	epts Islaam	177
Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 经隐藏	Accepted Islaam	179
The Conquest of Makkah		182
Rasulullaah (Leaves Madinah an	d Camps at Marruz Zahraan	182
The Leaders of the Quraysh Spy on th	e Muslims	182
Hadhrat Abbaas (Encourages	the Quraysh to Appeal for Amnesty	183
The Incident of Abu Sufyaan with Had	hrat Abbaas and Hadhrat Umar	183
	lature of Rasulullaah (2009) and Enters the Fold of Islaam
Those to Whom Rasulullaah 優麗 Gr	anted Amnesty on the Day the Muslims Conquered Makkah	185
The Manner in which Rasulullaah	些 Entered Makkah	186
Suhayl bin Amr Accepts Islaam and To	estifies to the Noble Character of Rasulullaah	193
Rasulullaah (2005)'s Speech to the Per	ople of Makkah on the day Makkah was Conquered	193
Hadhrat Ikrama bin Abi Jahal Accepts	Islaam	194
Hadhrat Ikrama	mnesty on the Request of his Wife	194
Hadhrat Ikrama Accepts Islaam and T	estifies to the Perfect Excellence of Rasulullaah	195
The Da'wah that Rasulullaah @ ga	ive to Hadhrat Ikrama المُوالِقَالَةُ اللهِ	196
Hadhrat Ikrama	aad and is martyred	197
Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah 劉誠德	Accepts Islaam	197
Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah &	is Granted Amnesty at the request of Hadhrat Um	nayr bin
Wahab Comment of the		197
Rasulullaah (sends his Turban to	o Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah ஊண் to Confirm his Amnes	sty 198
Hadhrat Safwaan William Marches wi	th Rasulullaah 認識 Against the Hawaazin Tribe and Accepts Isla	aam 199
	Accepts Islaam
	adhrat Huwaytib bin Abdil Uzza (1986) to Islaam and he Accep
	Accepts Islaam
Hadhrat Nudhayr bin Haarith	Accepts Islaam	202
The Banu Thageef tribe of Taa'if Acce	pt Islaam	203
Rasulullaah Leaves the Thagee	rf Tribe and Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood ఆ	203
그 그릇이 그렇게 되었다면 하셨다면 얼마를 살아야 한다면 하셨다면 하셨다면 없다.	nvites his people to Islaam and is Martyred
	Who is Inform With a Delegation to Rasulullaah بالمالية المالية المال కేత Gave to Individuals wah to Individuals nattaab 色质感 Gave Umayr 告诉的 Gave
The Da'wah that Hadhrat Mus'ab bin I	Umayr ఆయ్యం gave to Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr ఆయ్యం w	ho ah to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh t ives Da'wah to the Banu Abdil Ash'hal Tribe
	Sives Da'wah to his Mother Arwa bint Abdil Muttalib gives Da'wah and His Acceptance of Islaam
Umayr bin Wahab and Safwaan bin U		211

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Wol-1)	9
Umayr bin Wahab With Rasulullaah
Umayr bin Wahab Accepts Islaam and Gives Da'wah to the People of Makkah	212
A Large Number of People Accept Islaam at the Hands of Hadhrat Umayr	213
The Comment of Hadhrat Umar (Concerning the Conversion of Hadhrat Umayr ladhrat Abu Hurayra (Gives Da'wah to his Mother and She Accepts Islaam	214
ladhrat Ummu Sulaym Gives Da'wah	215
The Da'wah that The Sahabah 經過過 Gave to Various Tribes and Arabs
he Da'wah Hadhrat Dimaam bin Tha'laba Gave to the Banu Sa'd bin Bakr Tribe	215
'he Banu Sa'd Accept Islaam and the Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ஊண்டு Concern Hadhrat Dimaam 经递减 ladhrat Amr bin Murrah Juhani (Silves Dalwah to his People
The Dream Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah (1986) had About the Risaalat of Rasulullaah ladhrat Amr bin Murrah (Sie Meets Rasulullaah (Sie and Accepts Islaam Rasulullaah இத் Sends Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah இந்தை to Give Da'wah to his People and Advises h
Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah
Islaam and Rasulullaah : has a Letter Written for them ladhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood (Silves) gives Da'wah to the Thaqeef Tribe
Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood Accepts Islaam, Gives Da'wah to his People and they Kill him ladhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood 送過過過 Becomes Happy with his Martyrdom and Advises his People ladhrat Tufayl bin Amr Dowsi Gives Da'wah to his People
Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr 连旋器 Arrives in Makkah and His Experience with the Quraysh
Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr Sisses Accepts Islaam
Hadhrat Tufayl 劉璋德 Returns to his People to Invite them to Islaam and Allaah Assists him by Gra	inting him a Sign
Hadhrat Tufayl 当场等 invites his Father and Wife to Islaam and they Both Accept Rasulullaah Asse Du'aa for the Dows Tribe After Which They Accept Islaam and Come to Rasuluse Along with Hadhrat Tufayl
The Sahabah (2006) Dispatch Individuals and Groups to Give Da'wah
Hadhrat Hishaam bin Al Aas 签题签 and others are sent to Heraclius
The Sahabah Allaah and Islaam
Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Haarith Sudaa'ee Sends a Letter to his People
Hadhrat Bujayr bin Zuhayr bin Abi Sulma (Wittes a Letter to his Brother Ka'b
Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 经路路 Writes to the People of Persia
Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 经晚间 Writes to the People of Madaa'in Hadhrat Kaalid bin Waleed (Signer Write to Humuz
The Sahabah (Give Da'wah in the Battlefield During the Time of Rasulullaah
The Da'wah that Hadhrat Haarith bin Muslim Tameemi 🛎 Gave The Da'wah that Hadhrat Kab'b bin Umayr Ghifaari 🖽 Gave Ibn Abil Awjaa ఆయ్ Gives Da'wah
The Sahabah 過過過 Give Da'wah in the Battlefield During the Time of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 些認
Advised his Commanders to do so Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Instructs his Commanders to give Da'wah When he Dispatched Armies to Sh Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Instructions to Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (In Fight the Murtaddeen

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Gives Da'wah to the people of Heera	233
Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (invited the Roman Commander Jarja to Islaam and he Accepts
Hadhrat Khaalid 当场等: No	234
Jarja: Then why are you called the sword of Allaah ('Sayfullaah')?	234
Jarja: What about those who do not accept this?	234
The Sahabah 經濟學 Give Da'wah in the Battlefield During the Time of Hadhrat Umar 经增多 who Advised his Commanders to do so
Hadhrat Umar (Wirles to Hadhrat Sa'd (Wirles to Invite People to Islaam for Three Days
Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi invites People to Islaam for Three Days at Qasrul Abyadh
Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin (and his Companions give Da'wah to Rustam During the Battle
Qaadisiyyah
Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba 🐯 gives Da'wah to Rustam
Hadhrat Rib'ee bin Aamir 签项码 Invites Rustam to Islaam
Hadhrat Hudhayfa bin Mihsin 遊遊遊 and Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba 遊遊遊 present the Da'wah to Rustam on the Second and Third Days
Hadhrat Sa'd Sends a group of Sahabah (Sies) to give Da'wah to the Persian Leader Before Engaging in Battle
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mu'tam Gives Da'wah to the Banu Taghlib Tribe and others During the Battle for Tikrit
Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 劉岡崎 Gives Da'wah During the Battle for Egypt
The Sahabah ஊண்டு Give Da'wah During a Battle under the Leadership of Hadhrat Salama bin Qais
Ashlja'ee (Silving)
Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (Sives Da'wah to the People of Isfahan before Engaging them in Batt Incidents About the Character and Actions of the Sahabah (Signature of that Inspired People to Accept Islaam
Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 逶蜒崎 Accepts Islaam and the Role that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha ෞඛ්‍ය
The Letter that Hadhrat Umar William Wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas William Concerning Jizya and Prisoners of War
What Happened the Sahabah (Supple did during the Conquest of Alexandria
The Incident of Hadhrat Ali (1986)'s Armour and his Interaction with a Christian who then Accepted Islaar
Chapter Two	254
The Chapter Concerning the Bay'ah	254
Pledging Allegiance to Islaam	254
The Hadith of Hadhrat Jareer 经路验 in this Regard	254
The pledge of allegiance that Elders, Youngsters, Men and Women took on the Day that Makkah was Conquered
Hadhrat Mujaashi கால் and his Brother கால் pledge allegiance to Islaam and Jihaad
Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdillaah pledges allegiance to Islaam
Pledging Allegiance to the Injunctions of Islaam Hadhrat Basheer bin Khasaasiyyah Pledges Allegiance to the Fundamentals of Islaam as well a Sadaqah and Jihaad
Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdillaah 營廠區 pledges his allegiance to the Fundamentals of Islaam and wishing	3
well for Every Muslim	256

Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik 過端節 and his Companions pledge their allegiance to the Fundamentals of Isl	aam
and that they Shall not Beg from People	257
Hadhrat Thowbaan Bledges that he would not ask Anyone for Anything
Hadhrat Abu Dharr William pledges allegiance to Five Factors
Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd 经减少 and some Other Sahabah 地域 pledge their allegiance to the Injunction	ions of Islaam
Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit was and Other Sahabah word pledged their allegiance to Rasulul
Pledging Allegiance to Undertake the Hijrah Hadhrat Ya'la bin Munyah (Special Special Spec
Sahabah Pledge their Allegiance to the Hijrah during the Battle of Khandaq	260
Pledging Allegiance to Assist Others
Seventy Sahabah (from the Ansaar Pledge their Assistance in the Valley of Aqaba
The Ansaar Select Twelve Leaders
Hadhrat Abul Haytham Silves pledges allegiance and his Address to his People	263
The Statement of Hadhrat Abbaas bin Ubaadah Www when the Bay'ah took Place
Pledging Allegiance to Jihaad
Pledging to Die
Hadhrat Salama bin Akwa Pledges to Die (In Defence of Islaam)
Pledging to Listen and to Obey
The Statement of Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit (Silver) in this Regard
Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdillaah 经减少 Pledges to Listen, to obey and to Wish Well for all Muslims	266
Hadhrat Utba bin Abd 细胞的 pledges allegiance and Rasulullaah 總勢's Advice to Add the words "T	Го
the best of my Ability
Women pledged Their allegiance	266
The Ansaar Women pledged their allegiance when Rasulullaah Arrived in Madinah	266
Hadhrat Umayma bint Ruqayqa (Billiam) Pledges Allegiance to Islaam
Hadhrat Faatima bint Utba Pledges Allegiance
Hadhrat Azza bint Khaabil 電影響 pledges Allegiance to Rasulullaah 機能	269
Hadhrat Faatima bint Utba Pledges Allegiance Along with her Sister Hadhrat Hind	Who with
Was the Wife of Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan &	269
The Bay'ah of Children who Had Not Yet Come of age	271
Hadhrat Hasan, Husayn, Abdullaah bin Abbaas and Abdullaah bin Ja'far 經過過 Pledge Their Allegian	ce.271
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr 经减少 and Abdullaah bin Ja'far 经减少 Pledge their allegiance
The Sahabah 經濟學學 Pledge their Allegiance at the Hands of the Khulafaa 經濟學學
The Sahabah 過過過過 pledge their Allegiance at the Hand of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 過過過多
The Sahabah Pledge their Allegiance at the Hand of Hadhrat Umar
A Delegation from Hamraa pledge allegiance at the Hand of Hadhrat Uthmaan
The Muslims pledge their allegiance to the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Uthmaan
Chapter Three	275
The Chapter Concerning the Hadrdships that Were Borne for The Pleasure of Allaah	275
The Comments of Hadhrat Miqdaad 经减少的 Concerning the Conditions Under Which Rasulullaah 係 was Sent to Propagate Islaam	275

The Comments of Hadhrat Hudhayfa	276
Rasulullaah Eise Endures Hardship and Difficulty When Giving Da'wah towards Allah	276
The Comments of Rasulullaah (2) in this Regard
What Rasulullaah Said to his Uncle when he Thought that his Uncle would Reduce the Support Provided
The Hardships that Rasulullaah Experienced after the Death of his Uncle
The Harassment that Rasulullaah & Received from the Quraysh and his Response
The Comment of Hadhrat Ali 当场场 Concerning the Courage of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 当场场 to Deliv	er a Sermon
Some leaders of the Quraysh throw the Entrails of an Animal on Rasulullaah (29) and Abul Bakhtari ta
Revenge on his Behalf
Hadhrat Hamza 经减少 is outraged when Abu Jahal Harasses Rasulullaah 機變
Abu Jahal Resolves to Cause Harm to Rasulullaah @ and Allaah Humiliates him
Tulayb bin Umayr Avenges the harm that Abu Jahai Caused to Rasulullaah
Rasulullaah @@ Curses Utayba bin Abi Lahab because of the Hurt he caused and he is Eventually Kil
Rasulullaah 🕮 Suffers at the hands of his Two Neighbours Abu Lahab and Uqba bin Abi Mu'eet
The Pain Rasulullaah We Endured in Taa'if
The Du'aa Rasulullaah 認等 made after Leaving Taa'if
Addaas who was a Christian Accepts Islaam and Testifies that Rasulullaah (2006) is Cerrainly the Ras of Allaah
The Hardship Rasulullaah Bee Bore During the Battle of Uhud	289
The Sahabah Endure Hardships and difficulties when Giving Da'wah towards Allaah
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 登場場 Endures Hardships and difficulties
Rasulullaah 機能 Prays for Hadhrat Umar 遊職局 and he Accepts Islaam Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Busies) leaves for Abyssinia when the Muslims Face Intense Harassment and Me
Ibnud Daghina
Hadhrat Umar Sizes Endures Hardships and difficulties
Hadhrat Uthmaan Sees Endures Hardships and difficulties
Hadhrat Talha 经障碍 Endures Hardships and difficulties
Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam William Endures Hardships and difficulties
The Mu'addhin Hadhrat Bilaal bin Rabaah & Endures Hardships and Difficulties
The First Person to Make his Islaam Public with Rasulullaah
The Hardships Hadhrat Bilaal Bilaal Endured for the Sake of Allaah
On behalf of Bilaal and his Companions, may Allah abundantly reward
Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir & and his Family Members Endures Hardships and Difficulties
Rasulullaah (Sie Gives Glad Tidings of Jannah to Hadhrat Ammaar (Sie and his Family when h
경기기를 내용하는 것을 보고싶다면 이번 때문에 다른데 하나 하나 하나 아이들을 하게 되는데 하다.	301
Hadhrat Sumayya Busin the mother of Hadhrat Ammaar Busin Becomes the First Martyr in Islam Hadhrat Ammaar 送過過多 is Tortured Until he is Forced to Utter Words of Kufr While his Heart was Content with Imaan	1000
The Incident of Hadhrat Khabbaab and Hadhrat Umar
The Torture that Hadhrat Khabbaab Suffered.
Hadhrat Abu Dharr 经减少 Endures Hardships and Difficulties	304

Hadhrat Abu Dharr இந்தே Dispatches His Brother when he Hears about the Nabuwaat of Rasulullaah இத	304
Hadhrat Abu Dharr 登域總 Arrives in Makkah, Accepts Islaam and is then made to Suffer for the sake of Allaah
Hadhrat Abu Dharr ஊண் is the First Person to Greet Rasulullaah ஊ with the Greeting of Islaam	306
The Courage of Hadhrat Abu Dharr when he Announced his Conversion to Islaam and was made to Suffer for it	306
The Hardships and Difficulties Borne by Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid and his Wife Faatima Who Was the Sister of Hadhrat Umar	307
Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon Signification Endures Hardships and Difficulties
"In thinking of times of danger	311
Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr Endures Difficulties and Hardships
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa 空域砂 Endured Hardhips and Difficulties
The Hardships and Difficulties Endured by the Sahabah @ in General
The Torture the Sahabah Suffered at the Hands of the Mushrikeen
The Condition of Rasulullaah (and the Sahabah (after Migrating to Madinah	314
The Difficulties that Rasulullaah & and the Sahabah & Suffered during the Dhaatur Riqaa
Expedition	314
Enduring Hunger when Inviting People Towards Allaah and His Rasool	315
Rasulullaah (Suffers Extreme Hunger	315
A Hungry Person will not Encounter Meticulous Reckoning	315
No Lantern or Fire is Lit in the House of Rasulullaah	315
The Difficult life that Rasulullaah 疑疑 Led	317
Rasulullaah was and the Sahabah was Tie Stones to their Stomachs to Suppress their Hunger	318
The Statement of Hadhrat Aa'isha Concerning Overeating	.318
The Hunger Suffered by Rasulullaah 邊邊, His Family, Hadhrat Abu Bakr 邊路區 and Hadhrat Umar .
Rasulullaah 機能, Hadhrat Abu Bakr 些障害 and Hadhrat Umar 些障害 Suffer Extreme Hunger and Meet up with Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob 學識變。	.319
Hadhrat Faatima (Bisses) and Hadhrat Ali (Bisses) Suffer Extreme Hunger	. 321
Rasulullaah 凝緩 encourages Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym 過過過 to Endure her Hunger with Patience	. 321
The hunger Endured by Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas	.322
The Story of Hadhrat Sa'd in this Regard and the Fact that he Was the First Arab to Fire and Arrow in the Path of Allaah
The Hunger Endured by Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad and his Two Companions 經過過過	. 322
The Hunger Endured by Hadhrat Abu Hurayra
Hadhrat Abu Hurayra 送過過 ties Stones to his Stomach because of Hunger	. 323
The Extreme Hunger that Hadhrat Abu Hurayra (Suffered	. 324
The Hunger Endured by Hadhrat Asmaa bint Abi Bakr 🖭 👑	. 326
The Hunger Endured by the Sahabah (Electric in General	. 326
The Extreme Hunger and Cold that the Sahabah Williams Suffered During the Battle of Khandaq	. 326
Some Sahabah @ Collapse in Salaah because of extreme Hunger and Weakness	. 327
Thd Sahabah 過過過過 Eat Leaves While Out in The Path of Allaah and Other Incidents of how they Suffered extreme Hunger	. 327
Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah (2006) and his Companions Experience Severe Hunger on a Journey	. 329
The Hunger Rasulullagh ANE and the Sahahah ANE Suffered During the Tihaama Expedition	. 329

The lady who fed Some of the Sahabah 🕮 Every Friday	330
The Sahabah (Sahabah eat Locusts and never Ate Bread made of Wheat during the Period of Ignorance
The Intense Thirst that the Sahabah Salassi Suffered During the Expedition to Tabook	331
Hadhrat Haarith, Ikrama and Ayaash William Suffer Extreme Thirst During the Battle of Yarmook
Hadhrat Abu Amr Ansaari 医隐隐 Endures Severe Thirst in the Path of Allaah
Enduring Extreme Cold when Inviting People Towards Allaah	332
The Sahabah Dig the Trench in Extreme Cold
Enduring Lack of Clothing when Inviting People Towards Allaah	333
The Burial of Hadhrat Hamza 经联验	333
The Incident of Hadhrat Shurahbeel bin Hasanah (Silvers) with Rasulullaah (Silvers)	333
Hadhrat Abu Bakr Suffers from a Lack of Clothing and Hadhrat Jibra'eel Killing Gives him Gladings in this Regard Hadhrat Ali 劉寧多 and Hadhrat Faatima 圖爾多 Suffer from a Lack of Clothing
The Sahabah Was have only Coarse Woollen clothing to wear and Have to Constantly eat Only	66.7
Dates and Water	334
The Men of Suffa Suffer from a Lack of Clothing
Enduring fear when Inviting People Towards Allaah
The Sahabah Suffer Extreme Fear, Hunger and Cold During the Battle of Ahzaab
Enduring Injuries and Illness when Inviting People Towards Allaah
The Incident of Two Men from the Banu Abdul Ash'hal Tribe During the Battle of Uhud
The Story of Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh (Singles) and his Martyrdom During the Battle of Uhud
The Story of Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej 经路路	338
Chapter Four	339
The Hijrah of Rasulullaah 经避 and Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经通過	339
The Leaders of the Quraysh Conspire Against Rasulullaah	339
Rasulullaah (Leaves Makkah with Hadhrat Abu Bakr (and they Hide in the Cave of Thowr
The preparations that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) made for the Hijrah
Rasulullaah (2006) Leaves the Cave and Heads for Madinah
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 密域等 Fears for Rasulullaah 機能 when they Leave the Cave and Hadhrat Umar 密域等 Praises Hadhrat Abu Bakr 密域等
Hadhrat Abu Bakr Signatur Fears for Rasulullaah Signatur When they were in the Cave Hadhrat Abu Bakr Speaks about His Hijrah with Rasulullaah A and their Encounter with Suraaga bin Maalik.
Rasulullaah Arrives in Madinah, Stays in Quba and the Joy of the People of Madinah
The Hijrah of Hadhrat Umar Success and Some Other Sahabah
The First Person to Migrate from Makkah to Madinah	D. C. P. C.
The Hijrah of Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab (1966) and his Two Companions
The Hijrah of Hadhrat Uthmaan Bin Affaan
The Hijrah of Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib
Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abí Taalib ఆண்ண் and Other Sahabah ஊண் Migrate to Abyssinía and then to Madinah	351
Rasulullaah 機器 Permits the Sahabah 過端鏡 to Migrate to Abyssinia and Hadhrat Haatib 過端鏡 and Ja'far 過滤鏡 migrate there	351

The Quraysh send Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 空域感 to Najaashi to Bring the Sahabah 經域區 back to them	351
The Sahabah 避過過過 Meet Najaashi and his Views about Hadhrat Isa 總謀 and Hadhrat Maryam 電腦過過	352
The Sahabah 過過過過 Leave for Madinah, Najaashi Accepts Islaam and Rasulullaah 過過 Prays for his Forgiveness
The Virtues of those Sahabah (2006) who Migrated to Abyssinia and then to Madinah	358
Hadhrat Abu Salama ஆண்கு and Hadhrat Ummu Salama இண்கு Migrate to Madinah	360
The Hijrah of Hadhrat Suhayb bin Sinaan 送過過多 Hadhrat Suhayb bin Sinaan ஊண்டு leaves Makkah to Migrate and Encounters Some Youngsters of the Quraysh
Hadhrat Suhayb இண்ண் Arrives in Quba Where Rasulullaah இன் Gives him the Glad Tidings of a Verse of the Qurr'aan that Allaah had Revealed about him
The Hijrah of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 營運營
The Hijrah of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash 🛎 🚟
The Hijrah of Hadhral Dhamra bin Abil Ees / Hadhrat Dhamra ஆண்கு bin Ees ஆண்கு	365
The Hijrah of Hadhrat Waathila bin Asqa ఆయ్యాం
The Hijrah of the Banu Sulaym Tribe
The Hijrah of Hadhrat Junaadah bin Abi Umayyah 🕾 🎏	368
Wha Was Told to Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah 签证验 and Others Concerning Hijrah	368
The Hijrah of Women and Children	369
The Hijrah of Rasulullaah 經過's Family and the Family of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经减多	369
The Hijrah of Rasulullaah 機能 S Daughter Hadhrat Zaynab 圖識 and the Words of Rasulullaah 機能	2
Concerning the Hardships She Encountered En route	370
The Hijrah of Hadhrat Durra bint Abi Lahab	372
The Hijrah of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 經濟國 and other Children	373
Chapter Five	374
The Chapter Concerning Nusrah	374
(Assisting Others in the Propagaton of Deen)	374
A Hadith of Hadhrat Aa'isha මෙමෙන් in this Regard
A Hadith of Hadhrat Umar (Supplementary) in this Regard
A Hadith of Hadhrat Jaabir 经减少 in this Regard
A Hadith of Hadhrat Urwa (in this Regard
A Few Couplets Composed by Hadhrat Sirmah bin Qais (Signature) in this regard
The Bond of Brotherhood Between the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar
The Story of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Sawa and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Rabee
The Muhaajireen and Ansaar Inherit from Each other
The Financial Assistance that the Ansaar gave to the Muhaajireen
Sharing Dates and an Ansaari Susses to be Paid Back
How the Ansaar Severed the Ties they had During the Period of Ignorance to Strengthen the Ties of Islaam
The Jew Ka'b bin Ashraf is Killed
Abu Raafi Sallaam bin Abul Huqayq is Killed
The Jew Ibn Shayba is Killed
The Ansaar in the Battles against the Banu Qaynuqah, Banu Nadheer and Banu Qurayzah Tribes
[2] [2] 그렇게 그렇게 되어 살아왔다면 하는 그런 사람들이 되었다면 하는 것이 없는데 하는데 하는데 하는데 하는데 하는데 하는데 하는데 하는데 하는데 하	. 385

16 The Enicode of the Bar	nu Nadheer Tribe	397
	nu Qurayzah Tribe
	mselves on their Accomplishments in Deen orldly Pleasures and its Temporary possessions in Exchange for the Pleasure sool @@
	ar when Makkah was Conquered.
	ar During the Battle of Hunayn and the Statement of Rasulullaah 🕮 about the saar ACTIONS
	ulullaah 缓缓 when Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh 会認多 Passed Away vice that the Ansaar Rendered and the second second second second second second second	Nuhammad bin Maslama 当晚多 and Hadhrat Umar 当晚多
	ours Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah 營廠區 ৰ্ভ Serves Hadhrat Anas ভাইনিউ nsaari 墨寧寧 Stays with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 墨寧寧, Who Pla ice
	Abbaas (Goes out of his Way to Have the Needs of the Ansaar Fulfi
He then recited the co	uplets mentioned above, adding the following couplet to it:	40
the state of the second of the country of	nsaar
The Du'aa that Rasulu	llaah இத்த Made for the Ansaar and the Statement Hadhrat Abu Bakr இந்த	رَفِوَا
	in his Sermon
Others are Given Prefe	erence over the Ansaar in the matter of Khilaafah	40
The Incident that Occur	rred in the Hall of the Banu Saa'idah Tribe	40
Chapter Six		400
The Chapter Conce	erning Jihaad (Striving in the Path of Allaah)	40
	courages Striving in the path of Allaah and Spending One's Wealth for this Ca	use 40
	ves for the Battle of Badr after Consulting with the Sahabah es Encouragement before a Battle and the Statement of Hadhrat Umayr bin
	S. Encouragement before a battle and the statement of reading constraints	40
	ook and the wealth that the Sahabah (Spent on this Occasion
Rasulullaah 機變 Dis	patches the Sahabah 經過過 to Makkah and to Various Tribes to Recruit Pe	eole
	Spend Genrously for the Expedition to Tabook patches the Army of Hadhrat Usaama 🛎 which Included the Senior Sa and Reje	cts the Argument of those who Object to the Appointment of Hadhrat Usaama 🛎	41 . رضوالله تغال
Rasulullaah W Pas	sses Away and the Sahabah මെම්ම Return to Madinah	41
	lnsists on Dispatching the Army of Hadhrat Usaama 当题的 in Compli Rasulullaah 经第 Seeks Permission to Return to Madinah but Hadhrat Abu Bakr
	on	41
Control of the Contro	ভিউৰ্ভ Sees the Army of Hadhrat Usaama শুনিউৰ্ভ Off
	Rejects the Request of the Muhaajireen and Ansaar to hold back the Ar
	STEEDS Address - Lindbert Line Steeds (1955)
Hadnrat Abu Bakr	Addresses Hadhrat Umar (Billiam) Before he Passes Away	44

The Miles of the free later has been a	4 4
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 色彩 Censures Those who were Hesitant and who wanted to Delay Jihaad	426
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 過滤感 Encourages the Muslims to Fight in Jihaad in his Sermon	428
The Letter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ఆண்கு to Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed ఆண்கு and Other Sahabah with him Concerning Jihaad in the Path of Allaah	428
Hadhrat Abu Bakr இந்தே Consults with the Senior Sahabah இந்தே Concerning a Military Offensive
Against the Romans and Delivers a Speech in this Regard	430
The Speech of Hadhrat Umar (Speech of the Opinion of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Speech to March in Jihaad)	431
The Opinion of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Sconcerning the Battle Strategy
Hadhrat Uthmaan 当等 Supports the Opinion of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 生 and the other Sahabah	300
Echo the Same Opinion	431
Hadhrat Ali 当時等 Gives Glad Tidings to Hadhrat Abu Bakr 生物等, Who is Pleased by this and then Delivers a Lecture to Motivate the Sahabah (Sahabah March in Jihaad	432
An Exchange of Words between Hadhrat Umar (Simus) and Hadhrat Amr bin Sa'eed (Simus) and Hadhrat
Khaalid bin Sa'eed Advises his Brother to Assist Hadhrat Abu Bakr	432
The Letter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr with to the People of Yemen calling them to Fight in Jihaad
The Lecture of Hadhrat Abu Bakr When the Muslim Army Left for Shaam	434
Hadhrat Umar Bin Khattaab Signer Encourages Jihaad in the Path of Allaah and Consults with the Sahabah (Sahabah Matters Arising Before him	435
Hadhrat Umar 当時後 Encourages People Towards Jihaad	435
Hadhrat Umar 過過過 Consults with the Sahabah 過過過 Concerning a Military Offensive Against the Persians	436
Hadhrat Uthmaan 達蹄海 Encourages People Towards Jihaad	437
Hadhrat Ali 過過過多 Encourages People Wowards Jihaad	437
Hadhrat Ali Encourages the Muslims During the Battle of Siffeen	438
Hadhrat Ali 生成 Encourages the Muslims to Fight the Khawaarij	438
Hadhrat Ali Williams to March in Jihaad	439
Howshab Himyari Calls for Hadhrat Ali William During the Battle of Siffeen and the Reply he Received	440
Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Encourages the Muslims to Wage Jihaad
The Speech of Hadhral sa'd William During the Battle of Qaadisiyyah	440
The Speech of Hadhral Aasim bin Amr Billies during the Battle of Qaadisiyyah	441
The Enthusiasm of the Sahabah : to March in Jihaad for the Pleasure of Allaah	441
The Enthusiasm of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (for Jihaad	441
The Enthusiasm of Hadhrat Umar (Fig.) for Jihaad and His Statement that Jihaad is Better than Hajj	442
The Enthusiasm of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Signature) for Jihaad	442
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar William With the Person who Intended to Proceed in Jihaad	442
The Statement of Hadhrat Umar About the Virtue of the Person who Marches out and Stands Guard in the Path of Allaah	. 443
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (See and Hadhrat Abu Bakr (See Concerning the Departure of
Hadhrat Mu'aadh 😂യിൽ	443
Hadhrat Umar Gives Preference to those who were the First to Migrate over the Popular Leaders of People	. 443
The Statement of Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr (Signer to the Leaders over Whom Hadhrat Umar (Signer)
had Given preference to the Early Muhaaiireen	444

Market Charlet And Street Market in Bland and Dannin in the Date of Albah will be Double	445
Hadhrat Suhayi bin Amr Marches in Jihaad and Remains in the Path of Allaah until his Death
Hadhrat Haarith bin Hishaam 经递多 Leaves for Jihaad despite the Despondency of the People of Makkah
The Enthusiasm of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (Supplemental for Jihaad and his Desire to be Martyred
The Enthusiasm of Hadhrat Bilaal Sussi to Proceed in the Path of Allaah	440
Hadhrat Miqdaad 经减少 Refuses to Miss a Jihaad Expedition because of the verse of the Quraan Exhorting Jihaad	. 448
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Talha William in this Regard	448
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob 经证验 in this Regard
Hadhrat Abu Khaythama 经减少 Forsakes the Luxuries of this world and Proceeds in the Path of Allaah	450
The Grief of the Sahabah When they did not have the Ability to Go Out in the path of Allaah or to Spend in the Path of Allaah
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Layla 经减少 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mughaffal 经减少
The Story of Hadhrat Ulba bin Zaid 经递减多
Censuring Those Who Delayed Marching in the Path of Allaah
Rasulullaah 優麗 Censures Hadhrat Ibn Rawaaha 图域等
Rasulullaah (Rebukes one of the Sahabah (White Who Delayed Marching in the Path of Allaah
Rasulullaah (2006) Commands a Battalion to Leave by Night.
Hadhrat Umar 劉德德 Censures Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal 劉德德 for Delaying his Departure
Censuring Those Who Delayed Marching in the Path of Allaah Because of Negligence on their Part
The Story of Hadhrat K'ab bin Maalik
A Warning to Those who Forsake Jihaad to remain with their Families and Wealth destruction*
Warnings to Those who Forsake Jihaad because of their Preoccupation with Farming
Hadhrat Umar 密範屬 Rebukes Hadhrat Abdullaah Anasi 密範屬
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas (Silview) Rebukes a man who Neglected Jihaad
Moving Urgently in the Path of Allaah to Uproot Strife	. 462
The Expedition of Muraysee
Rebuking Someone Who had not Completed Forty Days in the Path of Allaah
Spending Three Periods of Forty Days in the path of Allaah	. 46
The Incident of a Woman and the Decision of Hadhrat Umar (1995)
The Keenness of the Sahabah (2006) to Encounter Dust in the Path of Allaah
Rasulullaah Rebukes those Who Disliked experiencing Dust While Out in the Path of Allaah	. 466
The Incident of Hadhrat Jaabir Bin Abdullaah in this Regard	. 46
Serving Others While Out in the Path of Allaah
Those who Were not Fasting Serve the Fasting Ones in the path of Allaah
The Sahabah 過過過多 Serve a Man Engrossed in Reciting the Qur'aan and Performing Salaah	. 46
The Freed slave of Rasulullaah (Called Hadhrat Safeena (Carries the Goods of the Sahabal
The Incidents of Hadhrat Ahmar the Freed Slave of Hadhrat Ummu Salma and Mujaahic with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar	1
Fasting While out in the path of Allaah
Rasulullaah (and the Sahabah Fast During Extreme Heat While Out in the path of Allaah Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Makhrama

.

The Fast of Hadhrat Awf bin Abi Hayya and the Statement of Hadhrat Umar (1996) in this Regard	. 469
The Fast of Hadhrat Abu Amr Ansaari	. 469
Performing Salaah While Out in the path of Allaah	470
The Salaah of Rasulullaah We On the Night Before the Battle of Badr was Fought	470
Rasulullaah 🕮 Performs Salaah in Usfaan	470
The Salaah of Hadhrat Abbaad bin Bishr ஊண்டு In the Path of Allaah	470
The Salaah of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays 🕮 in the Path of Allaah	472
Performing Salaah at Night While out in the path of Allaah	472
Engaging in Dhikr While Out in the path of Allaah	473
The Dhikr of the Sahabah (the Night they Conquered Makkah	473
The Dhikr of the Sahabah @ as they Stood over a Valley During the Battle of Khaybar	473
The Sahabah @ Recite Takbeer and Tasbeeh when Ascending and Descending Inclines	474
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1986) that the People Embarking on Military Expedition	S
are of Two types	474
Being Particular About Making Du'aa when in Jihaad in the path of Allaah	475
The Duaa of Rasulullaah & as he Left Makkah for the Hijrah	475
Making Du'aa when Within Sight of a Place	475
The du'aa Rasulullaah & when he Saw Kyaybar	475
Making Du'aa at the Beginning of the Battle	. 476
The Du'aa Rasulullaah Ame Made on the Occasion of the Battle of Badr	476
The Du'aa Rasulullaah American made on the Occasions of the Battle of Uhud and the Battle of Khandag	477
Making Du'aa During the Battle	478
The Du'aa Rasulullaah & Made While Fighting During the Battle of Badr	478
The Du'aa Rasulullaah & Made on the Night Before the Battle of Badr	478
Making Du'aa after Finishing the Battle	478
The Du'aa of Rasulullaah & after the Battle of Uhud
The Letter of Hadhrat Umar (Spiece to his Commanders about Attaining a Deep Understanding of Deen .
The Sahabah 過過過多 sit in Gatherings (To Learn and Teach) while on Journey
Spending While in Jihaad in the Path of Allaah
The Spending of Some Sahabah (Case) in the Path of Allaah
The Rewards of Spending in the path of Allaah
Proceeding in Jihaad in the Path of Allaah with a Sincere Intention
There Shall be no Rewards for the person whose Intention is to Gain Fame and Fortune
The Story of Quzmaan
The Story of Usayram
The Story of a Bedouin
The Story of a Black Sahabi (Sahabi (S
The Story of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas
The Statements of Hadhrat Umar Super Concerning Martyrs
The Story of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (Silving) and his Mother (Silving)
Obeying the Instructions of the Ameer when Proceeding in Jihaad in the Path of Allaah
Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'an Space Rebukes a Man who did not Carry out his Instructions
Staying Together While out In Jihaad in the path of Allaah
Standing Guard While Out in the path of Allaah

Rasulullaah 🚟 Criticises Separating in VAlleys and Sealing Roads	488
Hadhrat Anas bin Abi Marthad Ghanawi Stands Guard	488
Another Sahabi Stands Guard	489
Hadhrat Abu Rayhaana 劉陽德海, Hadhrat Ammaar 劉陽德海 and Hadhrat Abbaad 劉陽德海 stand guard	490
Enduring Illness while in Jihaad in the path of Allaah	490
The Story of Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b (1986) and His Du'aa to be able to Endure Fever	490
Enduring Injuries while in Jihaad in the path of Allaah	491
The Injuries that Rasulullaah & Suffered	491
The Injuries Sustained by Hadhrat Tafha bin Ubaydillah (1996) and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf	491
The Injury of Hadhrat Anas bin Nadhr
The Wounds Sustained by Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abu Taalib
The Wounds Sustained by Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh المنافقة
The Eye of Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (Spiese) is Injured During the Battle at Taa'if
The Wounds Sustained to the Eyes of Hadhrat Qataadah bin Nu'maan (Sussained and Hadhrat Rifaa'ah bin
Raafi 经减少 During the Battle of Badr
The Incident of Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej (and two other Sahabah (from the Banu Abdul Ash'hal Tribe
The Wounds Sustained by Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik (1986) and How he Lost the Flesh on his Bones	495
The Desire for Martyrdom and Praying for it
Rasulullaah Wishes to be Killed in the path of Allaah
Hadhrat Umar Wishes for Martyrdom
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash wishes for Martyrdom
Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik Hopes for Martyrdom
Hadhrat Humama 告诉证 Hopes for Martyrdom
Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin Susse Hopes for Martyrdom
The Enthusiasm of the Sahabah to Die and Give their Lives in the path of Allaah
During the Battle of Badr
The Incident of Hadhrat Khaythama and his son
The Martyrdom of Hadhrat Ubaydah bin Haarith
During the Battle of Uhud
Hadhrat Ali 🚟 Resolves to Fight to Death
The Incident of Hadhrat Anas bin Nadhar
The Incident of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Dahdaaha 🖫 💮
The Incident of Paditiat Maasit on Dandana 3333
The Incident of A Managin and an Alsaan The Incident of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Rabee ($1506)
The Incident of Naumat Sad bill Nauee Sad bill Naue Sad bill
The Martyrdom of Hadhrat Yamaan (Sizes) and Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais (Sizes)
Durino the Battle of Rajee
Hadhrat Aasim, Hadhrat Khubayb and their Companions are Martyred
"이렇지 않는 얼룩하다" 이렇지 않는 그녀가 하고 있는 이사를 하지 않는 아무네요 그 아무네요 비를 하는데 그렇게 하고 있는데 그렇게 되었다.
The Couplets that Hadhrat Assim States Recited and His Body is Protected from the Mushrikeen
The Story of Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana (Size and his Statement About his Love for Rasulullaah (Size The Story of Hadhrat Khukoth (Size and His School at the light of Double
The Story of Hadhrat Khubayb (Size in Makkah and His Salaah at the time of Death
The Statement of Hadhrat Khubayb (Concerning his Love for Rasulullaah (Signal and the Couplets
he Recited Before his Execution	. 010

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH 色质色的 (Vol-1)	21
During the Expedition to Bir Ma'oona
The Story of the Sahabah 迷迷迷 at Bir Ma'oona
The Last Words of Hadhrat Haraam 經濟學 Because of which his Killer Accepted Islaam
During the Battle of Mu'ta
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha 遊览師 Weeps upon Leaving and His Poem asking for Martyrdom
The army then left. Rasulullaah (2006) left to bid farewell to them and when he turned back (to return to Madinah), Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha 些疑惑 said:
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha இண்டு Encourages the Sahabah இண்டு towards Martyrdom
The Couplets that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha (Recited During the Journey
The Couplets that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha (Signer Recited During the Battle
Hadhrat Ja'far 密範 Disables his Horse and Recites Some Couplets as he Fights
During the Battle of Yamaamah	517
Hadhrat Zaid bin Khattaab ఆയ്ക്ക് and other Sahabah അയ്ക്ക് Encourage the Muslims to be Stead and to Seek Martyrdom	51
Hadhrat Thaabit இழியு and Hadhrat Saalim இழியு Dig Holes During a Battle to Keep them from Fleeing and to Ensure that they are Martyred
The Call Hadhrat Abbaad bin Bishr Made to the Ansaar Before he was Martyred
The Call Hadhrat Abu Ageel Made to the Ansaar Before he was Martyred	51
The Martyrdom of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais	52
During the Battle of Yarmook	52
Hadhrat 'arama bin Abu Jahal 空間節 is Martyred Together with Four Hundred Muslims	52
Miscellaneous Stories about the Enthusiasm of the Sahabah 後頭 to Fight in the path of Allaah	52
The Enthusiasm of Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir (1996) to Fight in the Path of Allaah	52
The Martyrdom of Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik 劉德德 in Persia	52
The Thoughts of Hadhrat Umar 劉德德 when Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon 劉德德 Passed Awa without being Martyred	y 52
The Bravery of the Sahabah
The Bravery of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq
The Bravery of Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab
The Bravery of Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib
Hadhrat Ali Silis Amr bin Abd Wadd
The Couplets Hadhrat Ali The Recited when he Killed Amr bin Abd Wadd
He concluded with a few verses that meant:
Hadhrat Ali 登過過 Kills the Jew Marhab During the Battle of Khaybar
Hadhrat Aamir Sies met Marhab's challenge to a duel as he recited the following:
The Bravery of Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillaah
The Bravery of Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam (1996)
Hadhrat Zubayr 出版的 Emerges with a Drawn Sword in Makkah before the Hijrah
Hadhrat Zubayr Kills Talha Abdari During the Battle of Uhud
Hadhrat Zubayr (Sills Naufal Makhzoomi and Another Person Hadhrat Zubayr (Signatura Makrizoomi and Anomer Person
The Bravery of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Siliss.
Hadhrat Sa'd 经验验 is the First Person to Fire an Arrow in the Path of Allaah Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas (Sillis Three People with a Single Arrow During the Battle of Uh

The Bravery of Hadhrat Hamza bin Abdil Muttalib	532
His Bravery During the Battle of Badar and the Statement of Umayyah bin Khalaf in the Regard Rasulullaah 過避 Weeps Bitterly as he Sees the Dead Body of Hadhrat Hamza 過過過
The Martyrdom and Mutilation of Hadhrat Hamza
The Bravery of Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib
Hadhrat Abbaas Shatches Hadhrat Handhala Shaws from the Hands of the Mushrikeen
The Bravery of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Amr bin Jamooh (Singles) and Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Afraa
How they Killed Abu Jahal During the Battle of Badar
The Bravery of Hadhrat Abu Dujaana Simaak bin Harasha
The Bravery of Hadhrat Qataadah bin Nu'maan
Hadhrat Qataadah bin N'uman 经减少 Uses his Face to Shield Rasulullaah 機能 from Arrows During the Battle of Uhud
The Bravery of Hadhrat Salama bin Akwa 🖽 🍅
His Bravery During the Fight at Dhu Qarad
The Bravery of Hadhrat Abu Hadrad Aslami
He Fights and Defeats Two Men
The Bravery of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed
Hadhrat Khalid 经递递 Breaks Nine of Mu'ta
Hadhrat Khaalid 经减少 kills Hurmuz
Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Weeps as He Passes Away on his Bed
The Bravery of Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik (1996)
Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik Sissis Scales a Wall and Fights the Enemy all by Himself
The Bravery of Hadhrat Abu Mihjin Thaqafi 😂 😂
His Frerce Fighting During the Battle of Qaadisiyyah that made people think he was an Angel
The Bravery of Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir
He Lends Courage to the Muslims and Fights Bravely During the Battle of Yamaamah	. 546
His Desire for Jannah as he Fought
The Bravery of Hadhrat Amr bin Ma'dikarib Zubaydi 學識變
His Exemplary Fighting During the Battle of Yarmook
He Fights Single-Handedly During the Battle of Qaadisiyyah	. 547
The Bravery of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr	548
His fight Against Hajjaaj and Subsequent Martydom	. 548
Admonition to Those Who Flee the Battlefield in the path of Allaah	. 551
The Sahabah 經過過多 Admonish Hadhrat Salama bin Hishaam 经间间多	. 551
A Man Admonishes Hadhrat Abu Hurayra	. 551
Remorse and Concern Because of Fleeing	. 551
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 经联验 and his Companions Regret and Grieve after retreating during the Battle of Mu'ta	. 551
The Anxiety of the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar when they Fled During the Battle for the Bridge and the Statement of Hadhrat Umar
The Anxiety of Hadhrat Mu'aadh Qaari when he Fled During the Battle for the Bridge and the Statement of Hadhrat Umar	. 553
Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubayd Qaari William Returns to the Land of the Battle from which he fled to Redeem himself	553

THE	INFS	OF	THE	SAHABAH	وضحاللة تغالفنه	(Vol-1)
IHL	LIVES	Ur	INE	SAULADAUI		(VOL-I)

THE STATE OF THE S
Preparing and Assisting a Person Going out in the path of Allaah	554
Rasulullaah 袋雞 Gives his Weapons to Hadhrat Usaama 告疑愛 or to Hadhrat Ali 告疑疑	554
An Ansaari gives everything he has Prepared to another Person when he Fell ill	554
Referring a Person Going out in the path of Allaah to Someone who can Assist him	554
Rasulullaah 🕮 Encourages the Sahabah 🕮 to Assist those Proceeding in the path of Allaah	554
An Ansaari Sahabi المعاقبة Assists Hadhrat Waathila bin Asqa المعاقبة المعا
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood المعالمة ا	555
Hiring People to Fight in Jihaad	555
The Story of a Man and Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik
The Story of a man with Hadhrat Ya'la bin Munya 🖫
Those Who Proceed in the path of Allaah Using the Wealth of Others
Hadhrat Maymoona bint Sa'd @ Asks Rasulullaah @ about this	.556
Sending another in One's Place
The Story of Hadhrat Ali Was and Another Man
Admonishing those Who Beg from People So that they may Proceed in the Path of Allaah
Hadhrat Umar Admonishes a Youngster in the path of Allaah
Taking Loans to Proceed in Jihaad
The Sahabah (Elisasia Seek Loans from Rasulullaah (Elisasia)
Encouraging People to Proceed in the path of Allaah and Seeing them Off
Rasulullaah Welks With the Mujaahideen and Advises them
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 当時時 Sees the Army of Hadhrat Usaama 当時時 off
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sees off Some People Proceeding in the path of Allaah
Welcoming those Returning from the path of Allaah
The People Came Outside Madinah When the Sahabah Returned from their Expedition to Tabook
Proceeding in the path of Allaah During the month of Ramadhaan
Rasulullaah (## Proceeds to Badar and to Makkah during the Month of Ramadhaan
Recording the Names of People Proceeding in the path of Allaah
An Incident of a Sahabi States
Performing Salaah and Eating Upon Returning from the path of Allaah
Rasulullaah Performs Salaah Upon his Return
Slaughtering an Animal upon Returning to Feed People
Women Proceed in the path of Allaah
A Woman from the Banu Ghifaar Tribe Accompanies Rasulullaah (2008) on a Military expedition
The Story of a Woman who Left in the path of Allaah and Her Goat.	., 50
Hadhrat Ummu Haraam bint Milhaan (2) the Aunt of Hadhrat Anas (3) goes Out in the path of Aliaah
The services of Women in Jihaad
Women March With Rasulullaah (2005) to Tend to the ill and Wounded
The Services of Hadhrat Rubayyi Bint Mu'awwidh (Hadhrat Ummu Atiyya (1996) and Hadhrat
Layla Ghifaariyya 過過過多 in Jihaad
The Services of Hadhrat Aa'isha Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym Research and Hadhrat Ummu Saleet
During the Battle of Uhud
Women Proceed for the Battle of Khaybar to Render Services
Women Fighting in Jihaad in the path of Allaah	56

24 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH 約到高級線 (vol-1)	2l-1)
Hadhrat Ummu Ammaara 國際國家 Fights in the Battle of Uhud	569
Hadhrat Safiyya 暖鶴鴻總 Fights During the Battle of Uhud and the Battle of Khandaq570	.570
Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym 圆弧弧弧 Takes up a Dagger to Fight in the Battle of Hunayn571	. 571
Hadhrat Asmaa bint Yazeed 圆部氯铋厂 Kills Nine of the Enemy During the Battle of Yarmook571	571
Refusing Permission for Women to Proceed in the path of Allaah571	. 571
Rasulullaah 鐵瓣 Refuses Permission for Hadhrat Ummu Kabsha 圆弧弧。 to Proceed in Jihaad571	. 571
The Reward for Obedience to One's Husband and Fulfilling His Rights Equals that of Jihaad572	. 572
Children March and Fight in Jihaad572	.572
A Child Fights and is Injured in the Battle of Uhud5	. 572
Hadhrat Umayr bin Abi Waqqaas 链滤滤迹 Weeps and is Granted Permission573	. 573
Hadhrat Umayr bin Abi Waqqaas 送途影響 is Martyred573	.573

Foreword to Original Arabic Edition

By Hadhrat Maulana Sayyid Abul Hasan Ali Nadwi وَحَبُهُاللَّهُمُانِهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلِي عَلَيْهِ عَلَّا عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْ

All praises belong to Allaah the Rabb of the universe. May the special mercies of Allaah and peace be on our master Muhammad who is the seal of all Ambiyaa (prophets). May Allaah the search and peace be on his family, all his companions and all those coming until the Day of Qiyaamah who follow him dutifully.

without a doubt, the lifestyle and history of Rasulullaah and his companions are among the most powerful sources providing strength of Imaan and love for the Deen. The Ummah and the call towards Deen has always been drawing sparks of Imaan from these sources and it is by this that the embers of their hearts have been kept burning. However, these embers are being quickly extinguished in the gale force winds of worldly love. Once they are extinguished, this Ummah will lose its might, its identity and its influence over others. It will then become a mere corpse which life will carry along on its shoulders.

The biographies of the Sahabah contain the history of men who accepted the invitation of Islaam when it was presented to them. Their hearts testified to its truth and all they said when they were called towards Allaah contains and His Rasool was, "Our Rabb, we have certainly heard the caller (Rasulullaah calling to Imaan (saying), 'Believe in your Rabb!' so we believed" (I). They placed their hands in the hands of Rasulullaah and it became easy for them to sacrifice their lives, their wealth and their families. They then began to find pleasure in the difficulties and hardships that afflicted them in the course of calling others towards Allaah contains. In this manner, conviction permeated their hearts and gained mastery over their bodies and their minds. They displayed the wonderful belief in the unseen, undying love for Allaah contains and Rasulullaah compassion for the Mu'mineen and sternness towards the Kuffaar.

They preferred the Aakhirah to this world, credit (the rewards of the Aakhirah) to cash (the rewards of this world), the unseen to the seen and guidance to ignorance. They were eager to invite people towards Islaam, thus removing the creation from their slavery to the creation and taking them towards the servitude of Allaah was alone. They removed people from the injustice of other religions, transporting them to the justice of Islaam.

They displayed no concern for the attractions and vanities of this world and aspired to meet Allaah (and enter Jannah. They also exhibited outstanding courage and farsightedness in spreading the gift of Islaam and delivering it to the world without any cost. For this purpose, they spread themselves throughout the far corners of the world, sparing no efforts to reach as far as they could. In doing this, they forgot their personal pleasures, forsook their luxuries, left their homes and selflessly spent their lives and wealth. They continued in this manner until the foundations of Deen were established, hearts turned to Allaah and the blessed and pleasant winds of Imaan blew strongly. An empire of Towheed, Imaan, Ibaadah and Taqwa was established. Jannah found a ready attraction in people, guidance spread throughout the world and people entered the fold of Islaam in droves.

The books of history are full of their stories and the chronicles of Islaam record their accounts. This has always remained a source of revival and rejuvenation in the lives of Muslims. It is because of these accounts that the concern of callers to Islaam and reformers have intensified. These narratives have always assisted in reviving the courage of Muslims and in rekindling the embers of Imaan in their hearts and their allegiance to the Deen.

However, there came a time when the Muslims grew unmindful of this history and forgot all about it. Muslims writers, lecturers and preachers then turned to narratives depicting latter-day ascetics and saints. Books and compendiums overflowed with stories about them and their miracles. People became obsessed with these narratives and they occupied pride of place in lectures, academic lessons and books.

As far as we know, the first person in our times who grew conscious of the status of the narratives and lives of the Sahabah in the fields of Da'wah and reforming the religious consciousness of people was the famous preacher and great reformer Hadhrat Sheikh Muhammad Ilyaas Kandhelwi (passed away in 1363 A.H/1944 A.D). He recognised the value of this treasure of reformation that lay buried between the pages of books and realised the value of its effect on the hearts of people. He busily engaged himself in studying these accounts, teaching them, narrating them and discussing them.

I have personally seen him display tremendous interest in the biographies of Rasulullaah and the Sahabah by discussing them with his students and friends. These used to be recited to him every night and he would listen to them with great attention and insatiability. He desired that they be relived, circulated and discussed.

His nephew the great Muhaddith Hadhrat Sheikh Muhammad Zakariyya Kandhelwi (author of "Awjazul Masaalik ilaa Mu'aata Imaam Maalik") has written a book in Urdu about the stories of the Sahabah (titled "Hikaayaatus Sahabah (hadha). Hadhrat Sheikh Muhammad Ilyaas was overjoyed with this book and instructed those engaged in Da'wah and travelling in the path of Allaah (to study and teach this book. Consequently, this book became one of the most important prescribed books for preachers and others and enjoyed wide acceptance.

Hadhrat Sheikh Muhammad Yusuf Succeeded his esteemed father (Hadhrat Sheikh Muhammad Ilyaas in assuming leadership of those engaged in the effort of Da'wah. He also followed his father's footsteps in his deep interest in the biographies of Rasulullaah and the Sahabah in It was he who used to read these narratives to his father. Even after his father passed away, he continued studying biographies of Rasulullaah in books of Islaamic history and the Sahabah in despite his demanding commitments to the effort of Da'wah.

I do not know of anyone with a wider scope of knowledge about the Sahabah and the finer details of their lives. I do not know of anyone who could quote so many of their narratives, could cite them more eloquently and string them together as beautifully as pearls of a necklace. These reports and stories inspired his discourses and caused magical affects on the hearts of large groups of people who then found it easy to give great sacrifices in Allaah and stories in Allaah

During the period of his leadership, the effort of Da'wah spread throughout the Arabian peninsula and even to places such as America, Europe, Japan and the islands of the Indian Ocean. The necessity was then felt to produce a book for those taking up the effort of Da'wah and travelling to foreign countries could study and read to each other. This was needed to provide nourishment for their hearts and minds, to motivate their spirituality and to encourage them to emulate Rasulullaah and the Sahabah in spending their lives and wealth for the sake of Islaam. It was needed to encourage them to travel and migrate for Deen, to assist others doing the same and to teach them the virtues of good deeds and noble character. A book was needed of such reports which when read, would cause the reader to fade into the background just as rivers lose themselves in the ocean and just as even a tall man would seem tiny in front of a towering mountain. In this way, they would begin to doubt the status of their conviction, they would regard their religious efforts to be inadequate (when compared to Sahbah () and then would give no importance to their lives in this world. The result would be that they would develop the courage to make greater efforts and resolutions.

Allaah Al

completed in several volumes.

With the assistance of Allaah (1994), he also compiled the book "Hayaatus Sahabah (1994)" in three large volumes, collecting in it many reports that were scattered in the various books of biography and history. The distinguished author has commenced every section with reports from the life of Rasulullaah (1994) and then added accounts from the lives of the Sahabah (1994), devoting special attention to Da'wah and spiritual reformation for the benefit of those involved in these fields. Therefore, this book offers advice to preachers, is a great provision for those engaged in the effort of Da'wah and a valuable teacher of Imaan and conviction to the Muslim public.

He has collected in these volumes such reports that cannot be found in any other book because they all have their sources in a myriad of historical and biographical books. He has prepared an encyclopaedia that depicts the lives, behaviour and attributes of those living during the time of Rasulullaah . The painstaking details mentioned in this book gives it an inspirational effect not felt in books that suffice with brief accounts. As a result, the reader is always basking in an environment of Imaan, Da'wah, courage, virtue, sincerity and asceticism.

It is generally believed that a book is a reflection of the author, that it represents the love of his life and that it will express the fervour and spirit with which it is written. If this be true, I can vouch that this book is truly inspiring, powerful and a success because the author wrote it with great passion and love for the Sahabah with had truly penetrated his very flesh and blood to the extent that it had dominated his personality and psychology. He has lived in the mould of their lives for a long period of time and continues to do so, always drinking from the refreshing fountains of these reports⁽¹⁾.

This book does not require a foreword from someone like myself because the author is an extremely eminent and sincere personality. I am convinced that he is nothing short of a divine gift and a gem from the gems of time with regard to the strength of his Imaan, the power of his Da'wah, his devotion to Da'wah and his self-sacrificial behaviour in the path of Allaah Allaah. The likes of him are not found in the annals of history except after longs period of time. He leads an Islaamic movement that is one of the most powerful, most judicious and most inspiring. However, he wanted to honour me with writing this foreword and I have every intention to be a part of this marvellous work. I have therefore written these few words hoping to achieve proximity to Allaah Allaah accept this book and make it a means of benefit to mankind.

Abul Hasan Ali Nadwi Sahaaranpur 2 Rajab 1378 (12 January 1959)

⁽I) This foreword was written during the lifetime of Hadhrat Sheikh Muhammad Yusuf 河流流流

Foreword to the Urdu Edition

By Hadhrat Maulana Sayyid Abul Hasan Ali Nadwi

This book (Hayaatus Sahabah (1966)) was originally written in Arabic, which is the official and most loved language of Islaam and the Muslims. It will always remain such because Allaah (1964) says in the Qur'aan:

"Without doubt only We have revealed the Reminder (the Qur'aan) and We shall certainly be its protectors." (Surah Hijr, verse 9)

This promise to eternally safeguard the Qur'aan automatically implies that it will always be recited and taught. This naturally means that the language of the Qur'aan will always remain protected, spoken and taught. During the time of the author Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Arabic, the effort of Da'wah and Tableegh which began in Nizaamud Deen in Delhi had already spread to Hijaaz and other Arab countries and it had tremendously influenced the scholars of these parts. It was therefore appropriate that this book should be published in Arabic and it was originally printed by the Arabic press of Daa'ira Ma'aarif Uthmaaniyyah of Hyderabad. It was favourably accepted in scholarly circles and in the Arab countries. It was later painstakingly printed and attractively bound by Daarul Qalam in Damascus. It was again received favourably in religious and academic circles and is still enjoying wide acceptance.

However, the need was long felt for a clear and reliable Urdu translation of the book for the people of the subcontinent (India/Pakistan) and those areas where people from the Indian subcontinent have settled and where Urdu is widely spoken. In this manner, the interested people of these areas and others engaged in the effort of Da'wah and Tableegh may directly benefit from the book. This would enable them to rekindle the embers of Imaan in their hearts and to cast their lives, character and inclinations into the mould of the first Mu'mineen who had been great preachers of Islaam nurtured by none other than Rasulullaah

Although the need was long felt for an Urdu translation, the time for everything has been ordained. It was the current Ameet of the effort of Da'wah and Tableegh Hadhrat Moulana In'aamul Hasan the successor and old friend of Hadhrat Moulana Yusuf who initiated the translation. The honour of translating this great work fell to the lot of Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ihsaanul Haqq (lecturer at Madrassah Arabiyyah Raiwind). He is a graduate of Mazaahirul Uloom Sahaaranpur, a successor of Hadhrat Sheikhul Hadith Moulana Zakariyyah which teaches concern for the Ummah and the importance of good deeds.

Translating a book of this type, which serves as a interpreter for the effort of Da'wah and which is filled with fervour and effect is not the work of a person who merely understands the language of the book. It is necessary that the translator should share the same fervour and be someone who promotes the same objectives that this book was written to propagate. With the grace of Allaah and supportive of the principles and objectives of the effort of Tableegh in his personal and domestic lives, his mindset, field of knowledge and heartfelt feelings also include the same. In fact, he is a forerunner in its propagation.

In addition to this, the translation has been reviewed by several leading scholars including Hadhrat Mufti Zaynul Aabideen Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ahmad Ansaari Hadhrat Moulana Zaahir Shah Hadhrat Moulana Zaahir Shah Hadhrat Moulana Jamshed Ali and numerous other pious people and scholars of Pakistan and the Nizaamud Deen Markaz. Among these, someone worthy of mention is Hadhrat Moulana Azharul Hasan Kandhelwi

May Allaah Allaah make this translation beneficial and inspiring in every way and fulfil its noble purpose. This translation was completed with the common Muslim in mind, who is generally unaware of the various Islaamic terminologies so that the book can inspire him with its simple and easily understandable style. May Allaah with increase its benefit and acceptance. Aameen.

Abul Hasan Ali Nadwi Daarul Uloom Nadwatul Ulema Lucknow 19 Rabi-ul-Awwal 1412 29 September 1991

Foreword by the Urdu Translator

Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ihsaanul Haqq 可能能

ٱلْحَمْدُلِلَّهِ وَكَفِي وَسَلَامٌ عَلَى عِبَادِهِ الَّذِيْنَ اصْطَفَى

The Sahabah are the foundation of this Deen and were the first to propagate it. They acquired the Deen from Rasulullaah and conveyed it to us. They were the blessed group whom Allaah and thosen to be the companions of His beloved Rasulullaah are therefore most worthy of being role models, whose example deserve emulation.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood weed to say, "Anyone wishing to follow the (religious) ways of another should follow the ways of those who had already left the world, namely the companions of Rasulullaah wee, who were the best people of this Ummah. Their hearts were pure, their knowledge deep and pretentiousness (showing-off) was non-existent in their lives. Allaah week has selected them to be the companions of Rasulullaah week and to propagate His Deen. You should therefore acknowledge their virtue and distinction. Follow in their footsteps and adopt their character and lifestyles with all your strength because they were the ones on the path of guidance." (1)

To understand the life of Rasulullaah , it is only the lives of the Sahabah that can be used as a criterion because they were the fortunate group who benefited most from the lamp of Nabuwaat. The inspiring rays from the sun of Nabuwaat shone directly on them without any screen. It is impossible for anyone after them to acquire the warmth of Imaan and the spiritual illumination that they received. It was only the assembly of the Sahabah that the Qur'aan pays tribute to by declaring that Allaah to pease with them, they are pleased with Him, and that they were rightly guided people as well as guides for others. It is because of this that the Ummah has always been unanimous about the fact that all the Sahabah without exception were reliable and trustworthy. Any matter on which they all agreed is regarded as an authoritative law in the Shari'ah. Anyone who rejects their virtuousness falls outside the fold of Islaam.

The Sahabah were mirror images of Rasulullaah sprace perfect character and the most comprehensive icons of his attributes. They were the truest interpreters of his praiseworthy attributes, his excellent character as well as all the rulings and proofs of the Shari'ah. It is therefore necessary to follow them so that the Muslim Ummah may save themselves from all deviated manners.

Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas المنظقة was brought up by his maternal grandmother who was affectionately called Ummi Bi. She was the fourth daughter of Hadhrat Moulana Muzaffar Husain Kandhelwi المنظقة She dearly loved Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas المنظقة and would often say, "Ilyaas, ⁽I) Mishkaatul Masaabeeh.

I smell the fragrance of the Sahabah ("Why is it that I see the images of the Sahabah ("Why is it that I see the images of the Sahabah ("Ways with you?"

In fact, Hadhrat Sheikhul Hind Moulana Mahmoodul Hasan wieed to say, "Whenever I see Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas, I think of the Sahabah wiee"." Hadhrat Moulana Manzoor Nu'maani wrote, "Myself and some of my friends blessed with spiritual light and deep insight are unanimous about the fact that the existence of Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas in present times was a sign of the power of Allaah wiee and a miracle of Rasulullaah which proved the eternity and profound effect of the Deen and which portrayed in our time an example of the love, devotion and restlessness of the Sahabah for the Deen and their special attributes."

It is probably for this reason that Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas used to have the stories of the Sahabah recited to him, causing him to become extremely happy and transporting him to another world. He made his nephew Hadhrat Sheikhul Hadith Moulana Muhammad Zakariyya write the book "Hikaayaatus Sahabah which contained stories of the Sahabah under various headings. The wide acceptance of this book can be judged from the fact that it has been translated into the major languages of the world including English, French and Japanese.

Hadhrat Moulana's son Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf inherited the love for Rasulullaah and the Sahabah from his illustrious father. Even in his childhood he used to study the lives and reports of the Sahabah He enjoyed reading to himself and to others books such as "Samsaamul Islaam" and "Muhaarabaate Sahabah "During the lifetime of his father Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas "Louring the duty of Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf" to recite the books of Rasulullaah wis biography to his father after the Isha salaah. Even after his father passed away, it remained the practise of Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf wis to recite Hayaatus Sahabah after Isha. When he explained the incidents of the Sahabah wis after Isha. When he explained the incidents of the Sahabah household or that the incidents had taken place in front of him.

Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas desired that the biographies of the Sahabah be presented in a manner that accented their efforts of Da'wah. For the compilation of such a book he chose his son Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf desired. Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf desired set aside his work on the book "Amaanil Ahbaar" to complete this work, which was titled "Hayaatus Sahabah desired" on the recommendation of Hadhrat Moulana Abul Hasan Ali Nadwi desired. Notable scholars agree that no biography of the Sahabah desired as comprehensive as this has even been compiled.

For the past few years, Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Umar Paalanpuri has been requesting me to translate this great work into Urdu. Unfortunately, because of my incompetence and my lack of experience coupled with my commitments to teaching and Da'wah in the Madrassah of the Raiwind Masjid, I had been unable to tackle the task. However, on my return to Delhi after the 1990 Raiwind Ijtima, I was at the Lahore airport when Hadhratji (Hadhrat Moulana In'aamul Hasan وَخَبَيَالِكُمُونَ and the respected Haaji Muhammad Abdul Wahhaab 如此数据 instructed me to translate "Hayaatus Sahabah 過過過過" into Urdu. Hadhrat Moulana Umar Paalanpuri a then told me that I could now not refuse the task after receiving an explicit instruction from Hadhratji. My incompetence made me shrink at the task, regarding it to be too great a responsibility. Nevertheless, I commenced the task drawing courage from the fact that the blessings, du'aas and fond attention of the pure souls who instructed me would Inshaa Allaah Therefore, I began the translation with the name of Allaah and on the 21 November 1990. I initially used a copy of "Hayaatus Sahabah "printed in Hyderabad, but completed the translation using the edition compiled by Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas Baara Bankwi, who is a "Mugeem" of the Bangla Waali Masjid of Hadhrat Nizaamud Deen in Delhi. The translation has been completed using a simple style and commonly spoken Urdu so that is would be beneficial to the common Muslim who is not learned in complex terminologies and rhetoric.

May Allaah (May Allaah) also make it of immense benefit to the Muslim Ummah. May Allaah (May) also make it a means of motivating the Ummah to engage in the noble effort of Rasulullaah (May) and to adopt the lifestyles of the illustrious Sahabah (May). Aameen.

We request readers to make pleasant du'aas for the translator and all those who assisted in the translation, typesetting and printing of this translation.

Muhammad Ihsaanul Haqq Madrassah Arabiyyah Raiwind Lahore Pakistan 5 Rajab 1412 (11 January 1992)

Foreword to English Translation

All praise is due only to Allaah. We laud Him and beseech His aid and beg forgiveness only from Him and believe in Him and rely solely on Him. We seek salvation in Him from the evils of our inner selves and the vices of our actions. There is none to misguide one whom Allaah intends to guide. I bear witness that there is no one worthy of worship but Allaah, the One who has no partner. I also testify that Hadhrat Muhammad (Sallahu Alahyi Wassalam) is the faithful servant and the Last Rasul of Allaah. May Allaah Ta'ala's mercy be on him, his family and his Sahabaah (Radia Allahu Anhum Ajmaeen) and may He bless them and raise their status.

The book "Hayatus Sahabah "Will" which is the master - piece of Hadhrat Moulana Yusuf Khandelwi (A.R) has now reached you in a fresh, reviewed, better translated version. All Praise is due to Allaah.

It would be most befitting to record some brief history, thought and ideology, concerns and dynamic concepts of Moulana Yusuf Khandelwi (A.R) so that the reader can acquaint oneself with the author. One will then realize what a revolutionary personality, noble character and one of lofty ideals was the Moulana.

Brief History

Moulana Muhammad Yusuf, son of Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas, son of Moulana Muhammad Ismaeel, son of Ghulaam Hussain, son of Hakim Bakhash, son of Hakim Ghulam Muhyuddin, son of Moulwi Muhammad Sajid, son of Moulwi Muhammad Faid, son of Moulwi Muhammad Sharif, son of Moulwi Muhammad Ashraf, son of Shaikh Jamal, son of Muhammad Shah, son Shaikh Ibni Shah, son of Shaikh Bahauddin, son of Moulwi Shaikh Muhammad Fadil, son of Shaikh Muhammad, son of Shaikh Qutub Shah. (Biography of Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib - Amire Tabligh- PG 23)

Hadhrat Shaikhul Hadith Thamis married the sister of Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib (the daughter of Moulana Muhammad Ilyas Sahib) after the demise of his first wife. In this manner, Hadhrat Shaikhul Hadith is the brother -in-law of Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib. (Ibid - PG 36)

Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib first married the eldest daughter of Hadhrat Shaikhul Hadith Sahib on the 3rd Muharram 1354 Hijri. The nikah was performed by Shaikhul Islaam Moulana Sayid Hussain Ahmad Madani (Malama) at the annual jalsa of Madrassah Mazahir e Ulum Saharanpur. In Shawwaal 1367 Hijri, she passed away while performing sajdah. She was survived by only one son, Moulana Muhammad Harun Sahib. In the year 1369 Hijri, Moulana Muhammad Yusf Sahib married the second daughter of Hadhrat Shaikhul Hadith. No children were born from this marriage. In this manner, Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib is also the son-in-law of Hadhrat Shaikhul Hadith Sahib. (Ibid -PG 36)

Moulana Yusuf Sahib was born on Tuesday the 25th of Jumadal Ula 1335 Hijri, corresponding to the 20th of March 1914. His aqiqah was performed on Monday, the 2nd of Jamaduth Thaniyah. (Ibid - PG 48)

Thereafter in 1353, he came back to Saharanpur to study Abu Dawood Sharif etc. under Shaikhul Hadith Moulana Muhammad Zakariyyah Sahib (Ibid - PG 60)

Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib mostly taught Abu Dawud Shariff. (Ibid -PG 77)

Hadhrat Shaikhul Hadith Moulana Muhammad Zakariyyah Sahib المنافق was the paternal cousin, father -in-law, brother -in-law, Ustaad and patron of Hadhrat Ji المنافق This Imani, Deeni and family relationship bonded the two closely together. (Ibid - PG 147)

Hadhrat Ji was a replica of his father, Moulana Muhammad Ilyaas Sahib Alies. His father had three outstanding qualities; the reality of knowledge, sincerity and a burning enthusiasm of striving to give Da'wah. These three qualities were found in Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib Alies to the degree of perfection. (Ibid - PG 149)

Hadhrat Ji المنافقة lived a physical life of only forty eight years. (Ibid - PG 139)
The founder of the Tablighi Movement, Hadhrat Moulana Shah Muhammad Ilyas Sahib المنافقة passed away in 1944. (Ibid - PG 163)

His thoughts

- 1.) He said: "Deen cannot be understood by remaining at one place. Deen is understood by movement. Reflect! The Qur'aan was not revealed at one place. It was revealed sometimes at home sometimes on journey and sometimes in battle." (Ibid PG 18)
- 2.) Hadhrat Ji wied to say: "The remedy for current westernization is the unlimited movement of Tablighi Jamaat and spreading of the six points." (Ibid-PG 18)
- 3.) "We regard teaching as one of the fundamental duties. Our involvement in teaching proves this. We wish involvement in teaching to be combined with Tabligh." (Ibid -PG 77)
- 4.) Once he addressed a group of businessmen in the following manner, "Earning a living is not part of the Arkan (pillars) of Islaam. It is astonishing that we are destroying the Arkan of Islaam and wasting away our lives on those activities which are not the Arkan." (Ibid PG 80)
- 5.) Finally, he explained the movement, Ikhwanul Muslimin, as follows, "When Hasan Albanna announced that his men should display their physical might in Egypt, I sent a message, through my men, stopping him from doing so. I advised him to continue the great task of reviving Deen and not to display physical force, otherwise the government would crush his profitable organization. Unfortunately he took no heed to my advice." (Ibid PG 81)
- 6.) Then Hadhrat Ji added, "This Ummah was formed when none supported only his own family, community, party, nation, area or language." (Ibid PG 86)

- 7.) "The cure and remedy for this is to involve yourselves in the effort of Sayyidina Rasulu and Allim is Connect the Muslims to the Masjid where Iman is exaplained, Ta'lim is conducted, Dhikhr is practiced and Mashwarah regarding Dini effort takes place." (Ibid PG 87)
- 8.) Hadhrat Ji Addissip said, "It is erroneous to think that the acquisition of authority and wealth will cause Islaam to prosper. In fact, political authority and wealth is causing much harm to Islaam. Today's political leaders are no longer the representatives of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Umar for the represent Qaisar, Kisra, Shaddad and Namrud. There remains no hope in them for the revival of Islaam. The condition of Islaam under their rule has caused the heart to cry out, "How will Allaah feeting revive this dead corpse." (Surah Baqarah) (Ibid PG 89)
- 10.) The following words reveal the Yaqin of Hadhrat Ji III on Am'mal: "Allaah Am'mal has made the Am'mal produced by Sayyidina Rasulullaah more powerful than the atom bomb. Each and every Am'mal of his is a means of causing a complete change in the universe. (Remember) Salatul Istisqa is a means of changing the conditions (of drought) on earth." (Ibid PG 91)
- 11.) The month of Ramadhaan is the month of the Qur'aan, Hidayat (guidance) and correction of A'mal. If we proceed in this blessed month to make effort for Deen according to its principles, then it is hoped that Allaah Will will open the path of Hidayat for the nations of the world. (Ibid PG 97)
- 12.) Ilm (knowledge) without Dhikr is darkness and Dhikr without Ilm is the door of Fitnah. (Ibid PG 112)
- 13.) Moulana also said: "The ultimate object of Tariqat is to develop a natural dislike to perpetrate the divine prohibitions." (Ibid PG 115)
- 14.) Ensure that the oppressor compensates the oppressed, though the oppressor be from one's own family, nation or country. (Ibid PG 118)
- Remember, Islaam demands unity. It does not call for individuality. (Ibid -PG 130)
- 16.) Hadhrat Ji (1864) used to say: "We do not send Jamaats to Deoband and Saharanpur for the sake of doing Da'wah and Tabligh amongst the Ulama. We send them with the sole reason of bridging the gap which currently exist between the public and the Ulama. In this lies the benefit of the public." (Ibid PG 144/145)
- 17.) He said: "The destruction of westernism lies in the universal Da'wah and propagation of the Sunnah." He propagated the Sunnah both verbally and practically. (Ibid PG 156)

- 18.) When he was informed about these remarks, he said: "I undertook this journey with the intention of following the Sunnah. It will be a bargain for me to sacrifice all my wealth in order to follow one Sunnah." (Ibid PG 158)
- 19.) He used to say: "Success is not in wealth. If success was in wealth, the Qarun would have been successful. Success is in the control of Allaah (ISSUE). If Allaah Wills, then He can make a poor person successful and, if Allaah Wills, then He can make a rich person unsuccessful." (Ibid PG 181/182)
- 20.) Hadhrat Madani and Hadhrat Raipuri said: "Why are you dispatching Jamaats during these difficult times?" I replied: "It is my conviction that peace and tranquility will prevail wherever Jamaats will go." (Ibid PG 185)
- 21.) Whenever our pious predecessors were introduced, it was never ever said: "He is the owner of so many mills," instead they were introduced in this manner, "He is a Badri," "He participated in Uhud," "He participated in these battles," "He is the one who made these sacrifices for Deen." (Ibid PG 187)
- 22.) "The time you spend for useless pursuits should be utilized for the sake of Deen. Your entire vacation period which is spent in entertainment and fun should be correctly utilised in the path of Allaah (Well). We do not want you to forsake your studies." (Ibid PG 191)
- 23.) These Jamaats proceeded to Arabia with the following message: "You brought Deen to us. At that time and even presently, you are more worthy of doing the effort of Deen. The people of the world learnt Deen from you. Hence, even now you should continue doing the same work." (Ibid PG 192)
- 24.) He said: "These two nations have been permanent enemies of Islaam. Their culture has caused much harm to Deen. It is a difficult task to rectify this harm. They have distorted the history of Islaam, the life of Sayyidina Rasulullaah and the meaning of the Holy Qur'aan in such a manner that even knowledgeable persons are deceived." (Ibid -PG 248)
- 25.) "Brother! It is better to spend as less time as possible to reach our destination. The ordinary place will take nine hours, whereas the jet will reach the destination in approximately three hours." (Ibid PG 255)
- 26.) "Our life in this world is temporary. We have to make such an effort in this short life-span that will save us from disgrace in the Aakhirat." (Ibid - PG 260)
- 27.) He said: "When a person makes effort to himself, he reaches a stage where Allaah Ta'aala becomes pleased with Him. Allaah then makes decisions (of favourable conditions) upon the actions of his limbs and the world falls at his feet. Today, we are chasing after the world, whereas the world is running away from us." (Ibid PG 264)
- 28.) "When you listen to the recitation of the Qur'aan Sharif, then think: "Allaah is addressing me. When you read or listen to the Ahadeeth, then think: Sayyidina Rasulullaah : is addressing me." (Ibid PG 296)
- 29.) "Do not prepare people to attend litima's for the sake of meeting me or to request me to make Du'aa for them. Instead, prepare them to come for the sake of pleasing Allaah "Fig., receiving rewards in the Aakhirah and becoming inviters to the Deen." (Ibid - PG 296)

- 30.) "If you fulfill the right of involvement in this effort, then those powers who possess atom and hydrogen bombs will become your slaves with all their weapons. To fear the atom and hydrogen bombs is tantamount to the fear of the idolaters for their idols." (Ibid PG 297)
- 31.) The foundation of the social life of Sayyidina Rasulullaah is based on purity, simplicity and modesty. The social life of the Jews and Christians is based on immodesty, extravagance and luxury. You are preferring the social life of those who shed the blood of your pious predecessors, dishonoured you and usurped your land. Now they are extending their help to you in a manner you feed chickens (for the sake of slaughtering them). (Ibid PG 315)
- 32.) You will spread Nur (light) in this world if you travel with it as the sun rotates. You will acquire Nur through Imaan, the A'mal and Akhlaaq (actions and character) of Sayyidina Rasulullaah and giving the Da'wah of Deen with sincerity. The sun has three qualities. Firstly it rotates with Nur, secondly, it is in continuous rotation all the time and thirdly, it does not take any benefit from those upon whom it sheds its light. Your condition should be similar, travel with this Nur, continuously proceed in the path of Allaah and make this Ayah: "I do not seek any reward from you for this work of Tabligh," your principle. You should not take any personal benefit from the effort of Da'wah. (Ibid-PG.319/320
- 33.) The purpose of our Tabligh effort is that the Muslims must live obedient to the Commands of Allaah . A life of obedience will result through developing the six qualities. (Ibid PG. 335)
- 34.) One wisdom of performing two sajdahs in every Rakaat is that we should remember our creation from sand when performing the first Sajdah. The second Sajdah should remind us of the termination of our life one day and our return to sand. Standing up from Sajdah should remind us of our standing in front of Allaah to render an account of our lives in this world." (Ibid PG 339)
- 35.) Remember! Slogans like: "my nation," "my country," "my community," disunites the Ummah. Allaah (1994) dislikes such slogans. (Ibid PG 344)
- Remember! The corruption of monetary and social dealings destroy the unity of the Ummah. (Ibid - PG 345)

His Works

This is an Arabic commentary of Imaam Tahawi's Kitaab, "Sharh Ma'aniyul Athar."
Two volumes have been published. The first volume consists of 376 pages and second 442 pages. Moulana was busy working on the manuscript of the third volume when all of a sudden he passed away. (Ibid - PG 66)

Hayatus Sahabah consists of three volumes. The first volume consists of 612 pages, the second and third volumes consist of about 714 pages. After the demise of Moulana Mohammad Yusuf Sahib, Moulana In'amul Hasan Sahib began reading the Hayatus Sahabah after Isha Salaah. (Ibid - PG 73)

The latter and former 'Ulama have unanimously approved and accepted the Kitab Sharah Am'aniyul Athar of Imam Tahawi المنافقة. First Hadhrat Moulana

Muhammad Ilyaas began abridging the Kitab. Thereafter, Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib continued abridging the Kitab. (Ibid - PG 73) Hadhrat Moulana Muhammad Yusuf Sahib also wrote an Arabic booklet on the six points of Tabligh in the light of the Ahadith. (Ibid - PG 74)

From the above one can easily assess the status of the Moulana's Ilm, his level of piety, his degree of concern, his wisdom, insight and foresight into Deeni activities.

Underlying are few observations:-

- The current translation has more sub-headings to make reading easier;
- 2. The book is an excellent Seerat Kitaab of Rasulullaah 優麗;
- 3. The book contains many signs of the hour and can be compiled separately;
- It should be simplified for children to be read at bed time, true events for spiritual and moral upbringing of children;
- Many laws and regulations of management, governance, discipline, control and mannerism can be drawn out;
- Every upright politician should read the book in their gathering to nature peace, security, accountability and justice;
- 7. Sufis to read the book for spiritual practicality;
- 8. Radio stations should serialize and read daily;
- Details of Khilaafat and inter-relationship between Sahabah found extensively within the book;
- 10. The reader should read 過過過,機能 and (A.R) relatively for
- 11. spiritual enlightment;
- Book naturally leads one away from the love of the world and creates a inner yearning for Jihaad, Martyrdom, Da'waa and Tabligh;
- 13. Reading definetly creates awareness of sacrifices of Sahabah
- 14. Book elucidates what love Sahabah the had for each other
- 15. A research scholar should group the various stories of the individual Sahabah which are narrated scattered throughout the book;
- 16. Book proves all aspects of the Tabligh and Da'wah effort;
- "The teaching of Islaam" by Sheikh Zakariyya (A.R) can be adequately referenced via Hayatus Sahabah;
- 18. We have used the translation of Quraanic text from our "Quraan Made Easy";
- We have put many texts in dark to denote importance of passage to aid future scholars in deduction;
- Some narrations may cause mis-understanding for general readers. On reaching such passages proper interpretations and explanations should be sort from reliable Ulema;
- Nevertheless, what you have in your hands is a masterpiece. Read, re-read, study, practice and propagate.

A. H. Elias (Mufti) 1425/ 2004

Qur'aanic Verses Concerning Obedience to Allaah

يسمرالله الرّخمين الرّحيم

(١) ﴿ ٱلْحَمْدُلِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَلَمِينَ ۞ الرَّحْمَٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ ۞ ملِكِ يَوْمِ الدِّيْنِ ۞ اِيَّاكَ نَعْبُدُ وَ اِيَّاكَ نَسْتَعِيْنُ ۞ اِمْدِنَا الصِّرَاطَ الْمُستَقِيمُ ۞ صِرَاطَ الَّذِيْنَ اَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ ۞ غَيْرِ الْمَغْضُوْبِ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا الضَّالَيْنَ۞ (سورة الفاتحة: ١ تا ٧)

All praise belongs to Allaah (the Rabb (the Cherisher, the Creator, the Sustainer) of the universe (and whatever it contains), Who is the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful and Master of (all affairs on) the Day of Recompense. (O Allaah (1) You Alone do we worship, and You Alone do we ask for help. Guide us to the straight path (the path of Islaam); the path of those whom You have favoured (by guiding them aright) and not the path of those with whom You are angry, nor the path of those who have gone astray. (Surah Faatiha, verses 1-7)

(٢) ﴿ إِنَّ اللَّهَ رَبِّي وَرَبُّكُمْ فَاعْبُدُوهُ * هَذَا صِرَاطٌ مُّسْتَقِيْمٌ ٥٠ (سورة ال عمران:٥١)

Verily Allaah (Conly, without ascribing partners to Him). (Surah Aal Imraan, verse 51)

(٣) ﴿ قُلُ إِنَّنِى هَدَائِى رَبِّى إِلَى صِوَاطٍ مَّسْتَقِيْمٍ ۞ دِيْنًا قِيمًا مِلَّةَ إِبْرَاهِيْمَ حَنِيْفًا * وَمَا كَانَ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ ۞ قُلُ إِنَّ صَلَاتِى ونُسُكِى وَ مَحْيَاى وَ مَمَاتِى لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ ۞ لَا شَوِيْكَ لَهُ * وَ اللهَ اللهِ وَتِي الْعَالَمِيْنَ ۞ لَا شَوِيْكَ لَهُ * وَ اللهَ اللهُ أَمِنْ وَاللهُ اللهُ الله

Say (O Rasulullaah (C), "Certainly my Rabb has guided me to the straight path. This (Deen of Islaam) is the secure Deen that is the Deen of Ibraheem (William), which is Haneef (not inclined towards any deviation but is inclined to the straight way, which is the path Allaah (Sa) sanctions). He (Ibraheem (Will)) was never from the Mushrikeen." Say, "Truly my salaah, all my acts of worship, my life and my death are for Allaah (C), the Rabb of the universe." (Also say, O Rasulullaah (C)) "He (Allaah (C)) has no partner. With this (Towheed) have I been commanded (to adhere to) and I am the first of the Muslims." (Surah An'aam, verses 161-163)

(٤) ﴿ قُلُ بِمَا يُهَا النَّاسُ الِّنِي رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ اللّٰهِ اللّٰهِ اللّٰهِ عَمِيْعًا الَّذِي لَهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَوٰكِ وَالْأَرْضِ * لَا الله اللّٰهِ اللّٰهِ وَرَسُولِهِ النَّبِيّ الْأُمِّيِّ الَّذِي يُؤْمِنُ بِاللّٰهِ وَكَلِمْتِهِ وَاتَّبِعُوهُ لَعَلَّكُمْ هُو يُحْدِى وَ يُمِينُ بِاللّٰهِ وَكَلِمْتِهِ وَاتَّبِعُوهُ لَعَلَّكُمْ

نَهُتَدُونَ كُ اللهِ (سورة الاعراف: ١٥٨)

(O Muhammad (1) Say, "O people! Indeed to all of you (to the entire mankind until the Day of Qiyaamah) I am the Rasool of that Allaah (1) to Whom belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth. There is no Ilaah besides Him and it is He Who gives life and death. So believe in Allaah (1) and His Rasool (who is) the untutored Nabi who believes in Allaah (1) and His words (the Qur'aan). Follow him so that you may be rightly guided (because there is no salvation without Imaan and belief in the Risaalah of Rasulullaah (1)."{Surah A'raaf, verse 158}

We have sent every Rasool so that he should be obeyed by the order of Allaah (In only it were that when they (the hypocrites) oppress (wrong) their souls (by referring their disputes to others), they should come to you (O Muhammad (In other Allaah (In other All

(٢) ﴿ إِنَّالَهُا الَّذِيْنَ امْنُواْ اَطِيْعُوا اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ وَلَا تَوَلَّوْا عَنُهُ وَانْتُمْ تَسْمَعُونَ ۞ ﴿ (سورة الانفال:٢٠) O you who have Imaan! Obey Allaah المَّاتِيَّةُ and His Rasool and do not turn away from him (do not oppose him by listening to evil influences) while you are listening (to the Qur'aan and other advices). {Surah Anfaal, verse 20}

Obey Allaah (Surah Aal Imraan, verse 132)

Obey (the commands of) Allaah (1994) and His Rasool and do not fall into dispute with each other, for then you will become cowardly (weak) and your strength will be lost. Exercise sabr, for verily Allaah (1994) is with those who exercise sabr. (Surah Anfaal, verse 46)

(سورة النساء: ٥٩)

O you who have Imaan! Obey Allaah المالية, obey the Rasool المنافقة and those in command among you (your leaders and authorities in all fields). If you dispute regarding any matter, then refer it to Allaah (find the solution in the Qur'aan) and the Rasool (or find the solution in the Ahaadeeth) if you believe in Allaah (and and the Last Day. This is best (for all) and gives the best result (because you will then not be basing your decisions on your personal opinions). (Surah Nisaa, verse 59)

(١٠) ﴿إِنَّمَا كَانَ قَوْلَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ إِذَا دُعُوْا إِلَى اللهِ وَرَسُولِهِ لِيَحْكُمَ بَيْنَهُمُ اَنْ يَقُولُوا سَمِعْنَا وَاَطَعْنَا وَاللهِ لَيَحْكُمَ بَيْنَهُمُ اَنْ يَقُولُوا سَمِعْنَا وَاَطَعْنَا وَاللهِكَ هُمُ اللهُ وَيَتَّقُهِ فَأُولَلِكَ هُمُ الْفَآلِزُونَ وَاللّهِكَ هُمُ الْفَآلِزُونَ لَهُ (يَخْشَ اللّهَ وَيَتَّقُهِ فَأُولَلِكَ هُمُ الْفَآلِزُونَ)
 (٥٠٥ (سورة النور: ٥٠٥٥))

When the Mu'mineen are called to appear before Allaah and His Rasool so that he may pass judgement between them, all they say is, "We hear and we obey" (they are pleased to accept Rasulullaah sis judgement). These are the successful ones. (The successful ones who reach their goal) are those who obey Allaah sis and His Rasool sis, who fear Allaah sis and do not disobey Him. (Surah Noor, verse 51, 52)

(١١) ﴿ وَلَ اَطِيْعُوا اللّٰهَ وَاَطِيْعُوا الرَّسُولُ * فَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْفَانَّمَا عَلَيْهِ مَاحُمِّلَ وَعَلَيْكُمْ مَا حُمِّلْتُمُ * وَإِنْ تَطِيْعُوهُ تَهْتَدُواْ * وَمَا عَلَى الرَّسُولِ إِلَّا أَلْبَلْغُ الْمُبِيْنُ ۞ وَعَدَ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ امَنُواْ مِنْكُمْ وَعَمِلُواْ الصَّلِحْ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهُ

(سورة النور: ٤٥ تا ٥٦)

Say, "Obey Allaah and obey the Rasool ." If they turn away, then the Rasool is responsible only for what he has been entrusted with (passing on the message) and you people are responsible for what you have been entrusted with (for accepting the message). If you obey, you will be rightly guided. The Rasool is responsible only for clear propagation. Allaah right has promised those of you who have Imaan and who do good actions that He will definitely make them successors (of the rulers) on earth just as He had made those before them successors. And He will certainly grant (great) strength to the Deen that He has chosen for them and will certainly replace their fear with peace (on condition that) they worship Me and do not ascribe any as partner to Myself. Those who are ungrateful after this are sinful indeed. Establish salaah, pay zakaah and obey the Rasool (in all matters) so that mercy may be shown to you. (Surah Noor, verses 54-56)

(١٢) ﴿ إِنَانَيْهَا الَّذِيْنَ امْنُوا اتَّقُواْ اللَّهَ وَقُولُواْ قَوْلًا سَدِيْدًا ۞ يَّصْلِحُ لَكُمْ اَعْمَالَكُمْ وَيَغْفِرُلَكُمْ ذُورًا عَظِيمًا ﴾ (سورة الاحزاب: ٧١،٠٧)

O you who have Imaan! Fear Allaah (1994) and speak what is right (speak the truth, speak with justice, speak of matters related to Deen and speak everything good, especially the Dhikr of Allaah (1994). (If you do this,) Allaah (1994) will correct (accept) your (good) deeds and forgive you your sins. Whoever obeys Allaah (1994) has succeeded tremendously. (Surah Ahzaab, verses 70, 71)

O you who have Imaan! Respond (quickly) to Allaah (and His Rasool when they call you towards that (the injunctions of the Deen) which will give you life (an eternal life of happiness in the Aakhirah). Know that Allaah (comes between a man and his heart (because of which no person can have Imaan without Allaah (so permission) and that you shall be gathered before Him (on the Day of Qiyaamah, when you will have to account for your actions). (Surah Anfaal, verse 24)

(١٤) ﴿ فَلُ اَطِيْعُواْ اللَّهَ وَالرَّسُولَ * فَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ الْكَفِرِيْنَ ﴿ اللهَ اللهَ وَالرَّسُولَ * Say, "Obey Allaah الله and the Rasool (Muhammad الله by practising the Sunnah)." If they turn away, then (bear in mind that) surely Allaah الله does not like the Kaafiroon. {Surah Aal Imraan, verse 32}

(سورة النساء: ٨٠)

Whoever obeys the Rasool (Muhammad (

Those who obey Allaah and the Rasool will be (in the Aakhirah) with those Ambiyaa, "Siddeeqeen", martyrs and righteous ones on whom Allaah has bestowed His bounties. These are indeed the best of companions. This (companionship of the pious) is a favour from Allaah suffices as the Knower (of everything). {Surah Nisaa, verses 69, 70}

(٧٧) ﴿ وَمَنْ يُطِعِ اللّٰهَ وَرَسُولَةَ يَدُخِلْهُ جَنّْتٍ تَجُرِئ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْآنَهٰرُ خلِدِيْنَ فِيْهَا * وَذٰلِكَ الْفَوْذُ الْعَظِينُ ﴿ وَمَنْ يَعْصِ اللّٰهَ وَرَسُولَةُ وَيَتَعَدَّ حُدُودَةً هُ يُدُ خِلْهُ نَارًا خَالِدًا فِيْهَا صَ وَلَهُ عَذَابٌ مُّهِيْنٌ الْعَظِينُ ﴿ وَمَنْ يَعْصِ اللّٰهَ وَرَسُولَةُ وَيَتَعَدَّ حُدُودَةً هُ يُدُ خِلْهُ نَارًا خَالِدًا فِيْهَا صَ وَلَهُ عَذَابٌ مُّهِيْنٌ

(١٤ -١٣ : ١١٠ ع ١٠)

These (laws concerning) are the limits of Allaah. Whoever obeys Allaah and His Rasool will, Allaah will enter him into Jannaat beneath which rivers flow, where they shall live forever. That is the supreme success (a great achievement). Whoever disobeys Allaah will and His Rasool and oversteps His limits (later dying as a Kaafir), Allaah whall enter him into the Fire (of Jahannam) where he shall live forever. He shall suffer a disgracing punishment. {Surah Nisaa, verses 13, 14}

They ask you (O Muhammad) about the spoils of war (about who will receive what portion of the spoils after the Battle of Badr). Say, "The spoils of war are for Allaah) and His Rasool (for them to distribute it justly among the soldiers). So fear Allaah (correct your mutual relations and obey Allaah and His Rasool (the Shari'ah) if you are (true Mu'minean)". The soldiers). So fear Allaah (the Shari'ah) if you are (true) Mu'mineen." The Mu'mineen are those whose hearts tremble when Allaah (strength of) Imaan increases when His Aayaat are recited to them and (as a result, they are those) who trust only in their Rabb. They (the Mu'mineen) are those who establish salaah (perform it with all its etiquette) and who spend (for His pleasure) from what We have provided for them.

These are the true Mu'mineen (about whose Imaan there can be no doubt). For them shall be elevated ranks by their Rabb (in Jannah), forgiveness and bountiful sustenance. (Surah Anfaal, verses 1-4)

(١٩) ﴿ وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتُ بَغْضُهُمْ اَوْلِيَآءُ بَعْضِ ﴾ يَأْمُرُونَ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَيَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِوَ يُقِيمُونَ اللّهَ عَزِيْزٌ لِيَامَةُ ﴿ أَوْلَإِكَ سَيَرْحَمُهُمُ اللّهَ ﴿ إِنَّ اللّهَ عَزِيْزٌ لَكُ اللّهَ ﴿ أَوْلَإِكَ سَيَرْحَمُهُمُ اللّهَ ﴿ إِنَّ اللّهَ عَزِيْزٌ لَكُ اللّهَ عَزِيْزٌ ﴾ (سورة التوبه: ٧٧)

The Mu'mineen men and the Mu'mineen women are supporters (helpers, protectors) of each other. They command (others and each other to do) good, prevent evil, establish salaah, pay zakaah and obey Allaah (and His Rasool). These are the ones on whom Allaah (soon shower mercy. Verily Allaah (soon shower mercy). The Wise (Surah Taubah, verse 71)

(٢٠) ﴿ قُلْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُحِبُّوْنَ اللَّهَ فَاتَّبِعُوْنِي يُخْبِبُكُمُ اللَّهُ وَيَغْفِرْلَكُمْ ذُنُوْبَكُم ۗ وَاللَّهُ غَفُوْدٌ رَّحِيمٌ

Say (O Muhammad (1995), "If you love Allaah (1995), then follow me (Muhammad (1995), Allaah (1995), Allaah (1995) will then love you (He will reward you and grant you numerous material and spiritual blessings) and forgive your sins. Allaah (1995) is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." (Surah Aal Imraan, verse 31)

There is definitely an excellent example in Allaah ("Si Rasool for the one who fears Allaah (and the Last Day, and who remembers Allaah abundantly. (Surah Ahzaab, Verse 21)

(٢٢) ﴿ مَاۤ اَفَآءَ اللّٰهُ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ مِنْ اَهْلِ الْقُراى فَلِلّٰهِ وَلِلرَّسُولِ وَلِذِى الْقُرْبَى وَالْيَتَمَى وَالْمَسْكِيْنِ وَابْنِ السَّبِيْلِ لا كَيُ لَا يَكُونَ دُولَةً ٢ بَيْنَ الْاَغْنِيَآءِ مِنْكُمْ ﴿ وَمَاۤ اَتَلَكُمُ الرَّسُولُ فَخُذُوهُ ۗ وَمَا نَهْلَكُمْ عَنْهُ فَانْتَهُواْ وَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ ﴿ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ شَدِيْدُ الْعِقَابِ ۞ ﴿ (سورة الحشو: ٧)

The booty (wealth) that Allaah granted His Rasool (without a battle being fought) from the people of the villages is for Allaah (to be distributed as Allaah pleases), for the (needs of the) Rasool (if of the relatives (of Rasulullaah pleases), for the orphans, for the poor and for the travellers so that this wealth may not remain as amassed riches with the wealthy among you (by distributing it in this manner, the wealth is circulated among people so that all may benefit). Hold fast to what (commands) the Rasool (if gives you and refrain from what (actions) He prevents you (because whatever he instructs you is from Allaah (if of the punishes very severely (Surah Hashar, verse 7)

Ahaadeeth Concerning Obedience to Rasulullaah (##), Following him and Following the Khulafa

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Whoever obeys me, obeys Allaah (Whoever obeys me, obeys Allaah (Whoever disobeys me, disobeys Allaah (Whoever obeys my Ameer (whom I have appointed), obeys me and whoever disobeys my Ameer, disobeys me." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah has also narrated that Rasulullaah said, "Everyone belonging to my Ummah shall enter Jannah except those who refuse (they will not enter Jannah)." "Who are those who refuse?" someone asked. Rasulullaah replied, "Those who obey me shall enter Jannah while those who disobey me are the ones who refuse." (2)

Hadhrat Jaabir while he was asleep. Addressing the others, one of the angels said, "There is a similitude for this friend of yours. Mention this similitude." One of them said, "But he is asleep." Another responded, "Although his eyes sleep, his heart remains awake." The angels then said, "His likeness is like that of a person who built a house and then prepared a feast there. He then sent a caller to invite people. Whoever accepted the invitation of the caller entered the house and enjoyed the meal. On the other hand, those who did not accept the invitation neither entered the house nor partook of the meal."

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari

⁽²⁾ Bukhari, as narrated in Jaami Vol. 2 Pg, 233

Some angels then said to the others, "Explain this to him (Rasulullaah) so that he may understand it." One of them said, "But he is asleep." Another responded, "Although his eyes sleep, his heart remains awake." The angels then explained, "The house is Jannah and the caller is Muhammad . Therefore, whoever obeys Rasulullaah , obeys Allaah Allaah and whoever disobeys Muhammad disobeys Allaah Muhammad sets people apart (those who obey him have obeyed Allaah and will enter Jannah while those who do not obey him have disobeyed Allaah and will not enter Jannah). (1)

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Hadhrat Abu Moosa

"So a group of his people obeyed him. They left early that evening, travelled calmly and were saved. Another group of his people regarded the warning as a lie. They therefore remained in the town and the enemy attacked them early the next morning, utterly destroying them. This is the likeness of those people who accept my word and practise the Deen I have brought and those people who disobey me and who reject the Deen I have brought." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar will narrates that Rasulullaah said, "Every condition that afflicted the Bani Israa'eel will certainly afflict my Ummah as well (and the similarity of the conditions will be so close that it will be) just as the two soles of a pair of shoes correspond with each other. (Their conditions will be so close that). Even if a person from the Bani Israa'eel committed open incest with his mother, there will be someone from my Ummah who will do the same. Whereas the Bani Israa'eel split into seventy-two groups, my Ummah will split into seventy-three. All these are headed for Jahannam except one." The Sahabah asked, "Which group will this be, O Rasulullaah ""The one that follows my ways and the ways of my Sahabah Hadhrat Irbaadh bin Saariya in arrates that once after leading the salaah, Rasulullaah turned to the Sahabah in and delivered a lecture that caused their eyes to flow with tears and their hearts to tremble. Someone then said, "O Rasulullaah is This lecture appears to be a parting advice so do tell us about the things that you wish to emphasise." Rasulullaah is said, "I advise you to fear Allaah (and to listen to and obey (your Ameer) even if he is an Abyssinian slave because those coming after me shall witness tremendous disputes. (During these times) You should keep practising my Sunnah and the Sunnah of my rightly guided Khulafa (the Khulafa Raashideen). Hold fast to this and bite hard into it. Beware of innovations (in the Deen) because every innovation (in Deen) is a Bid'ah and every Bid'ah leads to deviation." (1)

⁽I) Bukhari. Daarmi has also narrated a similar Hadith from Hadhrat Rabee'ah Jarashi, as quoted in Mishkaat (pg. 21).

⁽²⁾ Bukhari and Muslim.

⁽³⁾ Tirmidhi.

Hadhrat Umar who narrates that Rasulullaah was said, "When I asked my Rabb about the disputes to arise between my Sahabah was after me, He sent revelation to me saying, 'O Muhammad! Your Sahabah was are like stars in My opinion. While all the stars are radiant, the radiance of some exceed the radiance of others. When their opinions differ concerning a matter, a person following the opinion of any of them will be rightly guided."

Rasulullaah & added, "My Sahabah & are like stars. You will be rightly guided by following any one of them." (2)

Hadhrat Hudhayfa (Fig. 6) narrates that Rasulullaah (Fig. 6) said, "I do not know for how much longer I shall be with you." Indicating towards Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Follow these two after me, adopt the lifestyle of Ammaar (Follow these two after me, adopt the lifestyle of Ammaar (Follow these two after me) and believe whatever Ibn (Mas'ood) (Fig. 6) tells you."

Hadhrat Bilaal bin Haarith in narrates that Rasulullaah is said, "The person who revives a Sunnah of mine that had died after me shall receive the rewards of all those who practise it without any of their rewards being diminished. (On the other hand). The person who introduces any misleading ways with which Allaah is and His Rasool is are displeased with, he shall bear the sins of all those who practise it without their sins being diminished." (3) Hadhrat Amr bin Awf in arrates that Rasulullaah is said, "The Deen will recoil to Hijaaz just as a snake recoils towards its hole. The Deen will then make its home in Hijaaz just as a mountain goat makes its home on the peaks of mountains. The Deen started off as a stranger and will again become a stranger as it started off, so glad tidings for (those who are regarded as) the strangers (because of their association with the Deen). They are the ones who will rectify the distortions that people had introduced into my Sunnah." (4)

Hadhrat Anas reports that Rasulullaah addressed him saying, "O my son! If you are able to pass the day and night without any ill-feelings in your heart for anyone, then do so." Rasulullaah then added, "O my son! This (practice) is among my Sunnah. Whoever loves my Sunnah loves me and whoever loves me shall be with me in Jannah." (5)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Whoever holds fast to my Sunnah during times when my Ummah have been

⁽¹⁾ Tirmidhi and Abu Dawood

⁽²⁾ Razeen, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id Vol. 2 Pg. 201

⁽³⁾ Tirmidhi. Ibn Maajah has also reported a similar Hadith from Katheer bin Abdillaah ibn Umar, who narrates from his father and grandfather.

⁽⁴⁾ Tirmidhi.

⁽⁵⁾ Tirmidhi.

corrupted shall have the rewards of a hundred martyrs." ⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi and Tabraani have reported this Hadith from Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 劉德德, stating that the reward will be that of one martyr.

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah has reported that Rasulullaah said, "The person who holds fast to my Sunnah during times when my Ummah is corrupted shall have the reward of a martyr."

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah marrates that Rasulullaah said, "The person who holds fast to my Sunnah during times when my Ummah will be divided shall be like a person holding a burning charcoal." (3)

Hadhrat Anas was narrates that Rasulullaah said, "The person who turns away from my Sunnah has no affiliation with me." (4) Ibn Asaakir has narrated this Hadith from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar words, which begins with the words, "The person who practises my Sunnah has an affiliation with me."

Hadhrat Aa'isha will narrates that Rasulullaah said, "The one who holds fast to the Sunnah shall enter Jannah." (5)

Hadhrat Anas (Whoever revives my Sunnah, has love for me and whoever loves me shall be with me in Jannah." (6)

Qur'aanic Verses Concerning Rasulullaah

Muhammad is is not the father of any men among you, but he is Allaah Rasool and the seal of all Ambiyaa (after whom there shall never come another Nabi). Allaah is has knowledge of all things. (Surah Ahzaab, verse 40)

O Nabi Well We have certainly sent you as a witness (who will bear testimony against the Kulfaar of all nations on the Day of Qiyaamah), a carrier of good news (to the Mu'mineen that they will enjoy Jannah), a warner (to the Kulfaar that they will suffer the punishment of Jahannam if they do not accept Imaan) and as a caller to Allaah Well by His command and an illuminating lantern (who lit up the world filled with the darkness of kulf and Shirk with the light of Imaan and also produced the Sahabah Well as guiding stars to guide people after him). (Surah Ahzaab, verses 45, 46)

⁽¹⁾ Targheeb wat Tarheeb Vol. 1 Pg. 44.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani and Abu Nu'aym in "Hilya".

⁽³⁾ Kanzul Ummaal Vol. 1 Pg. 47.

⁽⁴⁾ Muslim.

⁽⁵⁾ Daar Qutni.

⁽⁶⁾ Sajzi.

Verily We have sent you (O Rasulullaah (1)) as a witness (to testify to the actions of people on the Day of Qiyaamah), a carrier of good news (to the Mu'mineen) and a warner (to the Kuffaar) so that you (O people) believe in Allaah (1), believe in His Rasool, assist Him (His Deen), revere Him and glorify Him morning and evening. (Surah Fatah, verses 8, 9)

Undoubtedly We have sent you (O Muhammad Well) with the truth, as a carrier of good news (to those who believe you) and as a warner (to those who refuse to believe you). You will not be questioned about the people of the Blaze (about those in the fire of Jahannam. Allaah Wells shall not ask you why they did not believe because your duty is to give them the message and not to force them to believe). {Surah Baqara, verse 119}

Verily We have sent you (O Rasulullaah (1886)) with the truth, as a carrier of good news (to the Mu'mineen) and (as) a warner (to the Kuffaar). (Your duty is nothing strange to people because) A warner (who cautioned people about the consequences of kufir) passed in every nation. (Surah Faatir, verse 24)

(سورة سبا: ۲۸)

We have sent you (O Muhammad (2002)) to the whole of mankind only as a carrier of good news and a warner (and not as one who has to force people to accept Imaan). However, most people (the Kuffaar) do not know (that you are Allaah (2004)) Surah Saba, verse 28)

We have sent you (O Rasulullaah (2014)) only as a carrier of good news (to the Mu'mineen) and a warner (to the Kuffaar). {Surah Furqaan, verse 56}

We have sent you (O Muhammad (2006)) as a mercy to the universe (to show mercy towards mankind, Jinn and creation at large by guiding them to the path of salvation). (Surah Ambiyaa, verse 107)

It is He (Allaah (Mass) Who sent His Rasool (Mass) with guidance and the true religion (of Islaam) so that He may make it overcome all other religions even though the Mushrikeen detest it.{Surah Taubah, verse 33}

(Do not also forget) The day when We shall raise against every nation a witness from their midst (the Ambiyaa of every nation who will testify against the Kuffaar of their nations), and We shall make you (O Muhammad (WE)) witness over them (to testify in favour of the Ambiyaa that they did fulfil their responsibilities). We have revealed the Book (the Qur'aan) to you, that explains all things to you (including the fact that all the Ambiyaa fulfilled their duties) and which is (a means of) guidance, a mercy and good news (of forgiveness, rewards and Jannah) for those who submit (the Muslims). (Surah Nahl, verse 89)

(سورة البقره: ١٤٣)

Thus (just as Allaah (i)) has guided the Muslims to the straight path) We have made you (the Ummah of Rasulullaah (iii)) such a group that is moderate in nature (free from excesses and shortcomings) so that you may be witnesses (on the Day of Qiyaamah) over people and the messenger (Rasulullaah (iii)) a witness over you (When the nations of previous prophets will deny that their prophets preached the truth to them, the prophets will call for the Ummah of Rasulullaah (iii) as witnesses for them. When the Ummah of Rasulullaah (iiii) that the prophets were truthful, they will be asked how they know this when they were not present during the times of the others. To this, the Ummah of Rasulullaah (iiii) will say that Rasulullaah (iiii) had informed them. Rasulullaah (iiii) will then make it clear that his Ummah are truthful). (Surah Baqara, verse 143)

(١٢) ﴿ قَدْاَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ اللّٰهُ اللّٰهُ الدُّورُ ۞ رَّسُولًا يَّنْلُواْ عَلَيْكُمْ اليَاتِ اللهِ مُبَيِّنَتِ لِيَحْرِجَ الَّذِيْنَ المَنُواْ وَعَمْلُ اللّٰهِ وَيَعْمَلُ صَالِحًا يَّدْخِلُهُ جَنَّتٍ تَجْرِى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهُ وَيَعْمَلُ صَالِحًا يَّدْخِلُهُ جَنَّتٍ تَجْرِى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهُ وَلَيْلَاقَ ١١٠١٠)

Allaah work has certainly revealed a Reminder (the Qur'aan) to you (so that you guard yourselves from making the same mistakes that the previous nations made). And (Allaah work has also sent to you) a Rasool who recites Allaah who do good deeds from darkness (sin, ignorance, kufr) and to bring them into light (obedience, knowledge, Imaan). Whoever believes in Allaah work and does good deeds, Allaah work shall enter him into Jannaat beneath which rivers flow. There they shall live forever. Allaah work has appointed a most excellent provision for him. (Surah Talaaq, verses 10, 11)

(١٣) ﴿ لَقَدُ مَنَّ اللَّهُ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِذْبَعَتَ فِيهِمْ رَسُولًا مِّنْ أَنْفُسِهِمْ يَتْلُواْ عَلَيْهِمُ البِّهِ وَيُزَكِّيهِمْ

وَيُعَلِّمُهُمُ الْكِتَابَ وَالْحِكُمَةَ وَإِنْ كَانُوْا مِنْ قَبُلُ لَفِي صَلَّلٍ مَّبِينِ ﴿ ﴾ (سورة ال عمران: ١٦٤)

Allaah الْمُحَمَّمَةُ وَانْ كَانُوْا مِنْ قَبُلُ لَفِي صَلَّلٍ مَّبِينِ ﴿ السورة ال عمران: ١٦٤) Allaah المُحَمَّمَةُ المُحَمَّمَةُ وَانْ كَانُوْا مِنْ قَبُلُ لَفِي صَلَّلٍ مَّبِينِ ﴿ السورة ال عمران: ١٦٤) Allaah (Rasool (Rasulullaah) from among them who recites to them His verses (of the Our ann) purifies them (from corrupt beliefs, Shirk, disobedience) and the Qur'aan), purifies them (from corrupt beliefs, Shirk, disobedience) and teaches them the Book (Qur'aan) and wisdom (the Sunnah). There is no doubt that these people were in open error before this (before the coming of Rasulullaah (Surah Aal Imraan, verse 164)

(١٤) ﴿ كَمَا ٓ أَرْسَلْنَا فِيْكُمْ رَسُولُا مِّنْكُمْ يَتُلُوا عَلَيْكُمْ النِيَنَا وَيُزَكِّيْكُمْ وَيُعَلِّمُكُمُ الْحِتْبَ وَالْحِكْمَةَ وَيُعَلِّمُكُمْ مَّالَمْ تَكُونُوا تَعْلَمُوْنَ ۞ فَاذْكُرُونِنَيْ آذْكُوكُمْ وَاشْكُرُوا لِيْ وَلَا تَكْفُرُونِ ۞﴾

(سورة البقره: ١٥١، ١٥٢)

In a similar manner (as part of Our favour to you) We have (also) sent to you a Rasool (messenger) from among yourselves (Muhammad (ME)) who recites to you Our verses (of the Qur'aan); purifies you (from Shirk); teaches you the Book (Qur'aan) and wisdom (the teachings of the Qur'aan); and teaches you what you knew not (he perfects both your knowledge and your actions). So think of Me (by performing salaah, making Dhikr, abiding by the Qur'aan and in all other matters) and I will think of you (by rewarding you and fulfilling your needs). Be grateful to Me (by obeying Me) and do not be ungrateful (by disobeying Me). (Surah Baqara, verses 151, 152)

(١٥) ﴿لَقَدْجَالَكُمْ رَسُولٌ مِّنْ اَنْفُسِكُمْ عَزِيْزٌ عَلَيْهِ مَاعَنِتُمْ حَرِيْصٌ عَلَيْكُمْ بِالْمُؤمِنِيْنَ رَنُوفُ رَّحِيْمُ ۞﴾ (سورة التوبه: ١٢٨)

Undoubtedly a Rasool from yourselves has come to you (someone whose lineage, morals, manners and integrity you know well). The difficulties that afflict you are very distressing to him. He is anxious for (good to come to) you and extremely forgiving and merciful towards the Mu'mineen. {Surah Taubah, verse 128}

(١٦) ﴿ فَبِمَا رَحْمَةٍ مِّنَ اللهِ لِنْتَ لَهُمْ ۚ وَلَوْكُنْتَ فَظًّا غَلِيْظَ الْفَلْبِ لَا انْفَضُّواْ مِنْ حَوْلِكَ فَاعْفُ عَنْهُمْ وَاسْتَغْفِرْلَهُمْ وَشَاوِرْهُمْ فِي الْأَمْرِ ۚ فَإِذَا عَزَمْتَ فَتَوَكَّلُ عَلَى اللهِ * إِنَّ اللّهَ يُجِبُّ الْمُتَوَكِّلِيْنَ ۞ ﴾ (سورة ال عمران:١٥٩)

It is because of the mercy of Allaah (I) that you (O Muhammad (II)) are lenient (gentle, forgiving, soft-hearted) with them (with the Sahabah (III)). If you had been ill-tempered and hard-hearted, they would have all dispersed from around you. So pardon them, seek forgiveness for them and consult with them in matters (Rasulullaah (III)) therefore consulted with the Sahabah (III) very often). When you have taken a firm decision (after consulting with the knowledgeable ones), then place your trust in Allaah (IIII) (and not on your resources and decision). Verily Allaah (IIII) loves those who place their trust in Him (and will surely assist them), (Surah Aal Imraan, verse 159)

(٧٧) ﴿ إِلَّا تَنْصُرُوهُ فَقَدُ نَصَرَهُ اللَّهُ إِذْاَخُرَجَهُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا ثَانِيَ اثْنَيْنِ اِذْهُمَا فِي الْغَارِ اِذْ يَقُوْلُ لِصَاحِبِهِ لَاتَخْزَنُ اِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَنَا فَاتَزَلَ اللَّهُ سَكِيْنَتَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآيَّدَهُ بِجُنُودِلَّمْ تَرَوُهَا وَجَعَلَ كَلِمَةَ الَّذِيْنَ كَفُرُوا السَّفْلَى * وَكَلِمَةُ اللّٰهِ هِيَ الْعُلْيَا * وَاللّٰهُ عَزِيْزٌ حَكِيْمٌ ۞ ﴿ (سورة التوبه: ٤٠)

If you do not assist him (Rasulullaah (Rasul

(١٨) ﴿ مُحَمَّدٌ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ * وَالَّذِيْنَ مَعْهُ اَشِدَّاءُ عَلَى الْكُفَّارِ رُحَمَاءُ بَيْنَهُمْ تَرْهُمْ رَكَّعًا سُجَدًا يَبْتَعُونَ فَضُلَّا مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَرِضُوانًا سِيْمَاهُمْ فِي وُجُوهِهِمْ مِّنْ آثَوِ السَّجُودِ * ذَٰلِكَ مَثَلُهُمْ فِي التَّوْرَةِ * وَمَثَلُهُ حُونِ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ الْخَرَجَ شَطِئنَهُ فَازَرَهُ فَاسْتَغْلَظَ فَاسْتَوَى عَلَىٰ سُوْقِهِ يُعْجِبُ الزَّرَاعَ لِيَعْفِظَ بِهِمْ الْكُفَارَ * وَعَدَاللَّهُ الَّذِيْنَ امْنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّلِحْتِ مِنْهُمْ مَّغْفِرَةً وَآجُرًا عَظِيْمًا ۞ ﴾ ليَغِيْظَ بِهِمُ الْكُفَارَ * وَعَدَاللَّهُ اللَّهُ الَّذِيْنَ امْنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّلِحْتِ مِنْهُمْ مَّغْفِرَةً وَآجُرًا عَظِيْمًا ۞ ﴾

(سورة الفتح: ٢٩)

Muhammad (In Salah (In Salah)) are stern against the Kuffaar and (yet) compassionate among themselves. You will see them sometimes bowing (in Ruku), sometimes prostrating (in Sajdah, always) seeking Allaah (In Sajdah, always) in the Torah. Their description in the Injeel (Bible) is like that of a plant that sprouts its shoots and strengthens it, after which it becomes thick and stands on its own stem, pleasing the farmer. (Allaah (In Sajdah) in this manner) So that the Kuffaar may be enraged by them (because of their animosity for Islaam and for the Sahabah (In Sajdah) has promised forgiveness and a grand reward for those of them who have Imaan and who do good deeds. (Surah Fatah, verse 29)

(١٩) ﴿ ٱلَّذِيْنَ يَتَّبِعُوْنَ الرَّسُولَ النَّبِيَّ الْأُمِّيِّ الَّذِي يَجِدُوْنَهُ مَكْتُو بَّاعِنْدَهُمْ فِي التَّوْرَةِ وَالْإِنجِيْلِ

يَأْمُوهُمْ بِالْمَعُرُوْفِ وَيَنْهِاهُمْ عَنِ الْمُنْكَوِ وَ يُحِلُّ لَهُمُ الطَّيِّبُ وَيُحَرِّمُ عَلَيْهِمُ الْخَبَيْثَ وَيَضَعُ عَنْهُمْ إِصْرَهُمْ وَالْاَغُلْلَ الَّتِيْ كَانَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ * فَالَّذِيْنَ امَنُوْا بِهِ وَ عَزَّرُوْهُ وَنَصَرُوْهُ وَاتَّبَعُوا النَّوْرَ الَّذِيْنَ انْزِلَ مَعَهُ أُولَلِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُوْنَ ۞﴾ (سورة الاعراف:١٥٦)

I shall soon (in the Aakhirah) ordain it (My mercy) for those who adopt Taqwa, who pay zakaah, who believe in My Aayaat and who follow the Rasool (who is also) the untutored Nabi (Muhammad , about) whom they find (his name and description) written in the Torah and the Injeel (both of which they have) with them. He (Muhammad) instructs them to do good, prevents (forbids) them from evil, permits pure things for them (which was forbidden in the previous religions), forbids them from impure things (such as carrion, blood, etc) and removes from them the burden and shackles (the stern laws) that were (binding) upon them (such as cutting off the portion of a garment that is impure). So the successful ones are certainly those who believe in him, honour him, assist him and follow the light (the Qur'aan) revealed with him." (Surah A'raaf, verse 156, 157)

Verses of the Qur'aan Concerning the Sahabah (地域)

(١) ﴿ لَقَدْ تَابَ اللّهُ عَلَى النّبِي وَالْمُهَجِرِيْنَ وَالْأَنْصَارِ الَّذِيْنَ اتَّبَعُوهُ فِي سَاعَةِ الْعُسْرَةِ مِنّ بَعْدِمَا كَادَ يَزِيْغُ قُلُوبُ فَرِيْقٍ مِنْهُمْ ثُمَّ تَابَ عَلَيْهِمْ * إِنَّهُ بِهِمْ رَتُوْفُ رَّحِيْمٌ ۞ وَّعَلَى النَّالثِةِ الَّذِيْنَ خُلِّفُوا * حَتَّى إِذَا صَاقَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ الْأَرْضُ بِمِا رَحُبَتْ وَضَاقَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ انْفُسُهُمْ وَظَنَّوْا اَنْ لَا مَلْجَا مِنَ اللهِ

إِلَّا إِلَيْهِ * ثُمَّ تَابَ عَلَيْهِمْ لِيَتُوبُوا * إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَا التَّوَّابُ الرَّحِيْمِرُ اللهِ (سورة النوبه: ١١٧ ،١١٨)

Allaah Allaah Ansaar who followed him in the hour of difficulty (to Tabook) after the hearts of some of them were almost shaken (causing them to hesitate). Without doubt, He is Most Compassionate and Most Merciful towards them (by blessing them with steadfastness and devotion). And Allaah (has also turned in mercy towards) the three (Sahaaba (sa namely Murara bin Rabee (forgiveness for not marching to Tabook) was postponed (for fifty days) until the earth narrowed for them despite its vastness (and they could find no place to hide themselves), their own souls narrowed for them (they became frustrated with themselves) and they were convinced that there was no safety from Allaah (sa except (in turning) towards Him. Then Allaah (turned towards them (in mercy) so that they (could) turn to Him (in repentance). Indeed Allaah (so Most Pardoning, Most Merciful. (Surah Taubah, verse 117, 118)

(٢) ﴿ لَقَدْ رَضِى اللّٰهُ عَنِ الْمُنُومِنِيْنَ إِذْ يُبَا يِعُونَكَ تَحْتَ الشَّجَرَةِ فَعَلِمَ مَافِى قُلُوبِهِمْ فَٱنْزَلَ
 السَّكِيْنَةَ عَلَيْهِمْ وَآثَابَهُمْ فَتُحًا قَرِيْبًا ۞ وَمَغَانِمَ كَثِيْرَةً يَّاخُذُونَهَا * وَكَانَ اللهُ عَزِيْزًا حَكِيْمًا

(١٩ ،١٨) (سورة الفتح: ١٨، ١٩)

Allaah (Was well pleased with the Mu'mineen (the Sahabah (Was)) when they pledged their allegiance to you (O Rasulullaah (Was)) beneath the tree (at Hudaybiyyah). Allaah (Was) knew what was in their hearts, sent tranquillity to them (causing them to accept Allaah (Was) sommands without hesitation) and rewarded them with a victory close at hand (when they conquered Khaybar soon after signing the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah) and (Allaah (Was) will also reward them with) abundant spoils of war that they will take (after conquering Khaybar). Allaah (Was) is always Mighty, Wise. {Surah Fatah, verse 18, 19}

(٣) ﴿وَالسَّبِقُونَ الْاَوْلُونَ مِنَ الْمُهَاجِرِيْنَ وَالْاَنْصَارِ وَالَّذِيْنَ اتَّبَعُوْهُمْ بِإِحْسَانٍ رَّضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ
 وَرَضُوْا عَنْهُ وَاَعَدَّلَهُمْ جَنَّتٍ تَجْرِيْ تَحْتَهَا الْاَنْهَارُ خلِدِيْنَ فِيْهَا آبَدًا * ذلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ ۞﴾

(سورة التوبه: ١٠٠)

Allaah Allaah Allaah is pleased with the first to lead the way from the Muhaajireen, the Ansaar, and those who followed them with sincerity and they are pleased with Him. He has prepared for them such Jannaat beneath which rivers flow, in which they shall live forever. This is the ultimate success. (This verse clearly illustrates the great status of the Sahabah and it will therefore be wrong to revile them. (Surah Taubah, verse 100)

(٤) ﴿ لِلْفُقَرَآءِ الْمُهُجِرِيْنَ الَّذِيْنَ أَخُرِجُواْ مِنْ دِيَارِهِمْ وَامُوَالِهِمْ يَبُتَغُوْنَ فَصُلًا مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَرِضُوانًا وَ يَنْصُرُونَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُوْلَهُ * أُولَلِكَ هُمُ الصَّدِقُونَ ۞ وَالَّذِيْنَ تَبَوَّوُ الدَّارَ وَالْإِيْمَانَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ يُحِبُّوْنَ مَنْ هَاجَرَ النَّهِمْ وَلَا يَجِدُونَ فِي صُدُورِهِمْ حَاجَةً مِّمَّا أَوْنُواْ وَيُؤْثِرُونَ عَلَى انْفُسِهِمْ وَلَوْ كَانَ بِهِمْ خَصَاصَةٌ وَمَنْ يُوْقَ شُحَّ نَفْسِهِ فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ۞ ﴿ (سورة الحشر: ١٠)

(A share of the booty received without a fight is also reserved) For the poor Muhaajireen who were removed from their homes and their possessions. They seek Allaah (I) and His Rasool and His Rasool and His Rasool (I) These are the ones who are true (in their claim to Imaan). (Part of this booty is also for) Those (the Ansaar) who adopted the place (Madinah) as their home before them (before the Muhaajireen) and (had adopted) Imaan. They (the Ansaar) love those who migrate to them (the Muhaajireen) and find no want (jealousy or envy) in their hearts for what they (the Muhaajireen) are given. They (the Ansaar) prefer (others) above themselves (they prefer to give others) even though they are themselves in need (of the things they give). (Like the Ansaar,) Those who are saved from the miserliness (and greed) of the soul are really the successful ones (who will attain salvation). (Surah Hashar, verses 8, 9)

(ه) ﴿ اللّٰهُ نَزَّلَ آحْسَنَ الْحَدِيْثِ كِتلبًا مُّتَشَابِهًا مَّقَانِي صَلَّ تَفْشَعِرُّمِنْهُ جُلُودُ الَّذِيْنَ يَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُمُ ۖ ثُمَّ تَلِيْنُ جُلُودُهُمْ وَقُلُوْبُهُمُ اللّٰي ذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ ۚ ذَٰلِكَ هُدَى اللّٰهِ يَهُدِى بِهِ مَنْ بَّشَآءُ ۖ وَمَنْ يَّضْلِلِ اللّٰهُ

فَمَالَةً مِنْ هَادٍ ١٩ ﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٢٣)

Allaah (has revealed the most superb articulation; a Book (the Qur'aan) with subject matter of similar import (to reinforce teachings), which is often repeated (by people throughout the world and throughout time). The bodies of those who fear their Rabb shiver with it, after which their hearts and bodies soften to Allaah (has seen a guide for the one whom Allaah (see sends astray. (Surah Zumar, verse 23)

(٦) ﴿إِنَّمَا يُومِنُ بِالنِّنَا الَّذِيْنَ إِذَا ذُكِّرُوا بِهَا خَرُّوا سُجَدًا وَسَبَّحُوا بِحَمْدِ رَبِّهِمْ وَهُمْ لَا يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ
 (٣) ﴿إِنَّمَا يُومِنُ بِالنِّنَا الَّذِيْنَ إِذَا ذُكِّرُوا بِهَا خَرُّوا سُجَدًا وَسَبَّحُوا بِحَمْدِ رَبِّهِمْ وَهُمْ لَا يَشْمَعُ عَنِ الْمَضَاجِعِ يَدْعُونَ رَبَّهُمْ خَوْفًا وَطَمَعًا وَمِمَّا رَزَقُنْهُمْ يُنْفِقُونَ ۞ فَلَا

Only those people (truly) believe in Our Aayaat who, when they are reminded about them, fall in prostration (out of fear and humility), glorify the praises of their Rabb and do not behave arrogantly. (These people are such that) Their sides part from their beds (they wake up for Tahajjud salaah), they make du'aa to their Rabb in fear (for His punishment) and (having) hope (in His mercy), and they spend (in charity) from what We have provided for them. No soul knows what pleasures are hidden for him (in Jannah) as a reward for the deeds he carries out. (Surah Sajdah, verses 15-17)

(٧) ﴿ فَمَاۤ ٱوۡتِيۡتُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَمَتَاعُ الْحَيٰوةِ الدُّنْيَا ۚ وَمَا عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ خَيْرٌ وَّابْقِي لِلَّذِيْنَ امْنُوْا وَعَلَى رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُونَ ۞ وَالَّذِيْنَ الْمَنُوا وَعَلَى رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُونَ ۞ وَالَّذِيْنَ الْمَنُونَ كَبْهِرَ الْإِثْمِ وَالْفَوَاحِشَ وَإِذَا مَا غَضِبُوا هُمْ يَغْفِرُونَ ۞ وَالَّذِيْنَ وَاللّٰذِيْنَ السَّتَجَابُوا لِرَبِّهِمْ وَآقَامُوا الصَّلُوةَ وَآمُرُهُمْ شُورَى بَيْنَهُمْ وَمِّمَا رَزَقْنَهُمْ يُنْفِقُونَ ۞ وَالَّذِيْنَ إِنَا الْمَابَهُمُ الْبَغْيُ هُمْ يُنْقَصِرُونَ ۞ (سورة الشورى: ١٥ تا ١٧)

Whatever you have been given is merely an article of this worldly life (something to use temporarily). (On the other hand,) What (reward) is with Allaah (in exchange for your good deeds) is better (than everything of this world) and more lasting (eternal) for those who have Imaan, who trust (only) in their Rabb (to provide for them and to protect them) who abstain from major sins and immoral behaviour and who forgive when they are angry (without taking revenge). (These people who shall have Allaah (in 's eternal reward are) Those who respond to (the commands of) their Rabb, who establish salaah, whose affairs are (decided) by mutual consultation (counsel) between themselves, and who spend (in charity) from what We have provided for them. And (they are also) those who retaliate (only) when aggression affects them (without being aggressors). (Surah Shura, verses 36-39)

(٨) ﴿ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ رِجَالٌ صَدَقُوا مَاعَاهَدُوا اللَّهَ عَلَيْهِ * فَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ قَطَى نَحْبَهُ وَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَنْتَظِرُ

Among the Mu'mineen there are men who are true to the pledge they vow to Allaah (that they will fight in Jihaad until they die). Of them is he who has fulfilled his pledge (and has been martyred), and he who is waiting (to be martyred). They have not changed (their resolve) in the least (unlike the Munaafiqeen). (Such situations of trial and hardship take place) So that Allaah may reward the truthful (those who are true in their Imaan) for their truthfulness and punish the hypocrites if He wills or forgive them (when they repent sincerely). Allaah (such salways Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (Surah Ahzaab, verses 23, 24)

(Is the Kaafir better) Or the person who is engrossed in (Allaah (1860)); s) worship throughout the hours of the night, prostrating and standing, fearing the Aakhirah and hoping for the mercy of his Rabb? Say, "Can those with (spiritual) knowledge be equal to those who do not have knowledge? Only those with (spiritual) intelligence will heed (good advice)." (Surah Zumar, verse 9)

Mention of Rasulullaah and the Sahabah in the Divine Scriptures that Came Before the Qur'aan

Hadhrat Ataa bin Yasaar proports that once when he met Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas he asked him, "Tell me about the description of Rasulullaah in the Torah." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas replied, "Alright. I swear by Allaah that the Torah describes him just as the Qur'aan does. (It says) 'O Nabi replied, "Verily We have sent you as a witness, a giver of glad tidings, a warner and a protection for the illiterate nation (the Arabs). You are My servant and My Rasool and I have named you Mutawakkil (One who relies on Allaah only). You are neither ill-tempered, hard-hearted nor one who shouts in the marketplace. You do not resist evil with evil, but rather forgives and overlooks.' (The Torah continues to say,) Allaah shall never take him (Rasulullaah from the world until people straighten their crooked religion by saying, 'Laa Ilaaha Illalaah' (There is none worthy of worship but Allaah

Hadhrat Wahab bin Munabbih المنظمة narrates that Allaah المنظمة sent the

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad. Bukhari has also reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Bayhaqi has also reported a similar narration from Ibn Salaam with the words, "Until he straightens the crooked religion." Ibn Is'haaq has also reported a similar narration from Ka'b Ahbaar, as did Bayhaqi do so in brief from Hadhrat Aa'isha following revelation to Hadhrat Dawood with in the Zaboor, "O Dawood! There shall soon come after you a Nabi whose name will be Ahmad and Muhammad. He shall be truthful and a leader and I shall never be angry with him. I have forgiven all his errors even before he can commit them. His Ummah shall be showered with My mercy. I shall grant them such Nawaafil (optional) that I have granted only to the Ambiyaa and I shall make compulsory for them such Faraa'idh that I have made compulsory only for the Ambiyaa and the Rasul. They will eventually come to me on the Day of Qiyaamah shining with the same light that shines from the Ambiyaa." Allaah with then said to Dawood with, "O Dawood! I have granted superiority to Muhammad and his Ummah over all other nations." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr 劉節動 once asked Hadhrat Ka'b 劉節動 to describe to Rasulullaah and his Ummah to him. Hadhrat Ka'b said, "I have found them (described as follows) in Allaah according book (the Torah): Verily Ahmad 🚙 and his Ummah shall praise Allaah 🐃 abundantly who will praise Allaah (by saying "Al Hamdu Lillaah") during favourable and adverse conditions. They will exalt Allaah a (by saying "Allaahu Akbar") when ascending an incline and glorify Him (by saying "Subhaa Nallaah") when descending from a raised place. Their call (the Adhaan) shall resound in the skies and during their salaah they will communicate (with Allaah المنتقبة) with humming (whispering) sounds like the sound of bees against a rock. They will form rows in their (congregational) salaah just as the angels form rows and will form rows in battle as they do in salaah. When they go to battle in the path of Allaah allaah allaah allaah allaah allaah allaah allaah bebasure), the angels will be before them and behind them with powerful spears. When they present themselves for battle in Allaah النواب spath, Allaah النواب shall shade (shelter) them just as a vulture shades her nest (while saying this, Hadhrat Ka'b 經濟節 demonstrated with his hand how a vulture protects her nest by spreading her wings over it). They shall never flee from the battlefield." (2)

According to another narration, Hadhrat Ka'b said, "(The Ummah of Rasulullaah were described in the Torah as) People who shall praise Allaah abundantly, who will praise Allaah (by saying "Al Hamdu Lillaah") during all conditions. They will exalt Allaah (by saying "Allaahu Akbar") when ascending an incline. They will keep track of the sun (to ascertain the correct times of salaah). They shall perform their five daily salaah on time even though it be at a dusty place. They will tie their lcincloths at their waists and wash their limbs (when performing wudhu)." (3)

Ahaadeeth Describing Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali William says that he once asked his uncle Hadhrat Hind bin

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah Vol. 2 Pg. 326

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya Vol. 5 Pg. 386.

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya. Another longer narration has also been reported from Hadhrat Ka'b.
Sizes in the same book.

Abi Haalah to describe Rasulullaah to because he could describe excellently. His reason for asking for a description of Rasulullaah to adopt something of the description (because Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali to say was only seven when Rasulullaah passed away, he did not have sufficient opportunity to study the appearance of Rasulullaah in much detail).

Hadhrat Hind bin Haalah began, "Rasulullaah was of outstanding stature, appearing such to others as well. His face shone brightly like the full moon at night. He was taller than the average person yet shorter than a lanky person. His head was gracefully large and his hair had gentle curls. If his hair formed a path, he would leave it that way, otherwise he never took pains to make one (while he would make a path if a path formed easily, he would not take pains to make one if it became difficult). When his hair grew long, it would be below his earlobes. His complexion was radiant and his forehead was wide. His eyebrows were full though fine and stood separately. Between the two was a vein which would swell when he became angry. His nose was smooth with a high bridge and had a lustre about it, which made an unacquainted person think that it was large (whereas its lustre only made it seem such). His beard was thick, his eyes were black and his cheeks were smooth and unobtrusive. His mouth was moderately wide, his teeth discreet with a slight gap between the two front teeth."

"The hair of his chest formed a thin line up to the navel. Because of its smoothness and clarity his neck appeared to be that of a carved silver statue. His body was firm and moderately built with his stomach in line with his chest. His chest was wide, his shoulders broad and his joints prominent and powerful. The uncovered parts of his body were always radiant. He had a line of hair running between his chest and navel and although his abdomen and breasts were hairless, his arms, shoulders and upper part of the chest had hair. He had long forearms, broad palms and his bones were well formed and straight. His hands and feet were well-built with his fingers and toes proportionately long. The inside of his foot was deep with the upper part so smooth that water easily flowed down them."

"He lifted his feet well off the ground and leaned forward when he walked. He put his steps down lightly and walked briskly, taking long strides as he went along. He walked as if he was descending from a high place. When he turned to someone, he turned his entire body towards the person. His kept his gazes lowered and would more often be looking down than up. (Out of modesty) He never looked at a person straight in the face, always walked behind his companions and greeted whoever he met before they greeted him."

Hadhrat Hasan then asked his uncle to describe the manner in which Rasulullaah talked. To this, his uncle said, "Rasulullaah always remained grieved (concerning the Aakhirat), was forever concerned (for the plight of his Ummah) and had no rest. He remained silent for long periods and would speak only when necessary. From beginning to end his speech was complete (he did not speak vaguely) and spoke most comprehensively (without wasting words). His words were distinct and conclusive with neither excess nor shortage (leaving no room for ambiguity). He spoke kindly without being harsh towards anyone or embarrassing anyone. Regardless of how insignificant they seemed, he always held favours in high esteem without belittling them or praising them excessively (so that no greed is shown)."

"When the truth was being opposed, nothing could stem his anger until the truth was avenged." Another narration states, "Matters relating to this world never made him angry. However, whenever the truth (matters of Deen) met opposition, nothing and no one could stem his anger until the truth was avenged. He never became angry for personal reasons and never took revenge for anything affecting his personal life."

"Whenever he pointed towards something, he pointed with his entire hand (and not only with one finger) and he always turned his hands over when expressing surprise. He (sometimes moved his hands when speaking and) would hit the palm of his right hand on the thumb of the left hand. When he was angry with someone, he would turn his face away from the person and then either ignore him or forgive him. When he was happy, he would lower his gaze because of modesty. Rasulullaah smiled most of the time and when he did, his teeth would shine like hailstones."

Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali says says that he did not mention this description to his brother Hadhrat Husayn bin Ali for some time afterwards, but when he did, he gathered that his brother had learned about this from their uncle even before he could. He also learned that his brother Husayn had even enquired from their father (Hadhrat Ali says) about the manner in which Rasulullaah entered his home, left the home, conducted his gatherings and about the other mannerisms and behavioural characteristics of Rasulullaah says. It appeared that there was not any detail of Rasulullaah says if had not asked about.

Hadhrat Husayn which Rasulullaah entered the house, the reply was, "His entry into his home was by (Allaah when he arrived home, he divided his time into three parts. There was a part reserved for Allaah (for Ibaadah), a part for his family (to speak to them and to see to their needs) and a part for himself. The part reserved for himself was further divided between himself and the people. The Sahabah closest to him would (discuss matters with Rasulullaah at home and) pass on whatever they heard from Rasulullaah to the public without keeping anything secret. When allowing the Sahabah to enter into discussions with him during this time, it was his practice to give preference to the Sahabah who were most virtuous in terms of their merit in Deen. Among them were those who had one need, others who had two needs and others who had more needs. Rasulullaah would engage himself with (fulfilling the needs of) these people and would advise them concerning matters leading to their (spiritual) reformation and the reformation of the Ummah at large. Rasulullaah would enquire from those visiting him about the welfare of the Muslim public and advise them accordingly."

"Rasulullaah would say to those coming to see him, 'Those present here should pass the message on to those who are absent. You should communicate to me the needs of those who are unable to present themselves (because they are too modest, afraid or living too far to appear themselves). On the Day of Qiyaamah, Allaah with shall keep firm the feet of that person who informs their leader about the needs of another person who cannot do so himself.' It was only matters of importance that were mentioned to Rasulullaah and he did not entertain anything else (such as futile talk). People used to visit him in search of Deeni knowledge and would not leave without tasting something (this either means that they would not leave without receiving the knowledge they came for or that they would not leave without having something to eat or drink). They would leave him as guides towards good."

Hadhrat Husayn and when he left the house. Hadhrat Ali replied, "Rasulullaah always guarded his tongue from everything besides matters that concerned him. He always put people at ease without ever making them feel uncomfortable (he always advised and censured them in a manner that never made them afraid being with him). He always honoured the noble persons of a tribe and appointed them as leaders of their tribes. He would warn people (about the punishment of the Aakhirah as well as about the harms they faced from other elements and people). Together with warning others, he also guarded himself from the harms of others without depriving anyone of his cheerfulness and good character. He always watched over his companions and enquired about the welfare of the masses."

"Rasulullaah would commend anything good and encourage it. On the other hand, he condemned anything evil and discouraged it. He chose the moderate path in all matters and was never contradictory. He was never negligent of the Deeni welfare of the people so that they did not grow negligent towards the Deen or turn away from it altogether. He had a method of dealing with every situation without compromising on the rights of any person nor transgressing them in any way. The best of people were in his attendance and those that he regarded as the most virtuous were the ones who wished the best for others. In his estimation, the highest ranking people were those who sympathised most with people and assisted them most."

Hadhrat Husayn (I) narrates that he further asked his father about the gatherings that Rasulullaah (IIII) held. Hadhrat Ali (IIII) replied, "Rasulullaah (IIIII) never sat or stood without Dhikr on his tongue. He would never reserve a place for himself (in the Masjid) and also forbade others from doing this. Whenever he arrived in a gathering, he sat on the fringe of the gathering and instructed people to do the same. He gave equal attention to each person in the gathering so that all of them thought that they were the most honoured. Whenever a person sat with him or stood with him to address a need, Rasulullaah remained with him patiently until the person himself took leave. When anyone asked him for anything, he would give the person his need or kindly tell the person that he did not have the means to fulfil the need."

"Rasulullaah @ generously distributed his cheerfulness and good character to every person so that he became a father to them all and fulfilled the rights of each one of them equally. His gatherings included forbearance, modesty, tolerance and confidentiality. Voices were never raised in his gatherings, reputations were never smeared and faults were never publicised. Those attending his gatherings were treated equally (no racial and social discrimination existed) and people were held in high esteem only in relation to the level of their Taqwa. Each person respected the other and just as the elderly were shown great reverence, the youngsters were shown great compassion. The needy were attended to and enquiries were made about strangers (to see to their needs)." When Hadhrat Husayn 细胞 asked his father about Rasulullaah 像谱's interaction with the people in his gatherings, Hadhrat Ali wife replied, "Rasulullaah : always smiled and displayed a tolerant attitude and a soft nature. He was never ill-tempered, never hard-hearted, never shouted, was never vulgar, never searched for the faults of people and never joked excessively. Rasulullaah pretended not to be aware of things he disliked but would not make a person lose hope in receiving something he wanted, which Rasulullaah himself disliked (he would give the person something to appease him or advise him kindly)."

"Rasulullaah divorced himself from three things and also prevented people from these three things. These were (1) arguing, (2) speaking too much and (3) indulging in futile talk. He never spoke ill of anyone, never insulted anyone and never searched for the faults of any person. He only spoke when he anticipated rewards for his speech."

"Whenever Rasulullaah spoke, the Sahabah sitting in the gathering sat with their heads bowed as if there were birds perched on their heads (they sat absolutely still like people afraid that any movement of theirs would disturb birds perched on their heads). The Sahabah spoke only when he was silent. They also took care never to argue in his presence. Rasulullaah expressed amusement when the Sahabah laughed and expressed surprise when they did. He tolerated the blunt speech and harsh manner of questioning that strangers used (when they came to ask various questions). (Seeing that Rasulullaah did not mind the questions and because they were too respectful to ask such questions,) The Sahabah used to bring such strangers to the gatherings."

"Rasulullaah we used to say, 'Help a needy person whenever you see one.' He did not tolerate anyone praising him, unless a person was expressing gratitude for a favour done (Rasulullaah allowed this so that people learned that they should express gratitude to others). He would never interrupt the speech of any person unless the person spoke something wrong, in which case, Rasulullaah would interrupt the speech by either stopping the person from continuing or by standing up and leaving."

Hadhrat Husayn states further that he even asked his father about the manner in which Rasulullaah observed silence. His father Hadhrat Ali replied, "Rasulullaah observed silence on four occasions. These were (1) when he needed to bear with something, (2) when exercising caution, (3) when considering something and (4) when pondering about something. There were two things that he always considered. These were how he could (1) see all people alike and (2) hear all of them alike. There were also two things that he usually pondered about. These were (1) that which is everlasting (the Aakhirah) and (2) that which will come to an end (this world). Allaah had granted Rasulullaah both the qualities of forbearance and fortitude because of which nothing made him so angry that he lost control of himself. (1)

Rasulullaah exercised caution with regard to four matters. These were (1) ensuring that he does good and (2) giving importance to those things that would benefit the Ummah in this world as well as in the Aakhirah (his narration mentions only two matters). However, the narration in Kanzul Ummaal states, "Rasulullaah exercised caution with regard to four matters. These were (1) ensuring that he does good so that his example should be followed (2) avoiding evil so that others also stay away from it, (3) exerting his mind in matters that will benefit the Ummah and (4) giving importance to those things that would benefit the Ummah in this world as well as in the Aakhirah. (2)

Statements of the Sahabah Concerning Their Qualities

Hadhrat Suddi المسلمة has reported the following narration from Hadhrat Umar concerning the verse:

"You were the best of all nations who have been raised for (the benefit and salvation of) mankind. You enjoin good and forbid evil and have Imaan in Allaah (Surah Aal Imraan, verse 110)

He reports that Hadhrat Umar نقطة stated, "If Allaah المحافظة had willed, He would have used the word (meaning "You are"), in which case the verse would have referred to all of us (whether a person enjoins good and forbids evil or not). However, Allaah with used the word (meaning "you were") to refer specifically to the Sahabah with Therefore, whoever does as the Sahabah did (enjoins good and forbids evil) shall be among "the best of all nations who have been raised for (the benefit and salvation of) mankind." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Tirmidhi has reported this entire lengthy Hadith in his "Shamaa'il" from Hadhrat Hasan when he starts by saying that he once asked his uncle Hadhrat Hind bin Abi Haalah when he starts by saying that he once asked his uncle Hadhrat Hind bin Abi Haalah when he starts from his father Hadith of his brother Hadhrat Husayn is also mentioned, who narrates from his father Hadhrat Ali when Reporting from Haakim, Imaam Bayhaqi who says, "I once asked my uncle Hadhrat Hind bin Abi Haalah who says, "I once asked my uncle Hadhrat Hind bin Abi Haalah who will has also reported this Hadith in his book "Al-Bidaayah" (Vol.6 Pg.33). As mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.32), this Hadith has also been reported by Ruyani, Tabraani and Ibn Asaakir. Imaam Baghawi who has also reported it, as mentioned in Al-Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.611), (2) This narration appears in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.8 Pg.275).

Hadhrat Qataadah இடிவிக்கு reports that Hadhrat Umar இடிக்கு once recited the verse:

"You were the best of all nations who have been raised for (the benefit and salvation of) mankind. You enjoin good and forbid evil and have Imaan in Allaah (Surah Aal Imraan, verse 110)

Thereafter, Hadhrat Umar said, "O people! Whoever wishes to be among this Ummah (who are the best of nations), then he should fulfil the condition that Allaah mentions in the verse (i.e. enjoin good and forbid evil)." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood stated, "Allaah looked at the hearts of all His servants and chose that of Muhammad (Ref. Allaah looked) then made him His messenger and granted him special knowledge from His own. Allaah looked then again gazed at the hearts of His servants and selected companions for Rasulullaah (The Sahabah looked) to assist (in the propagation of) His Deen and to be assistants in bearing the responsibility of Rasulullaah (Therefore, whatever these Mu'mineen (the Sahabah looked) regard as good, is good in the eyes of Allaah looked at the hearts of His and whatever they regard as unacceptable, is unacceptable in the eyes of Allaah looked." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar had mentioned, "Whoever wishes to follow the ways of another, should follow the ways of those who have passed away. These were the companions of Muhammad , who were the best people of this Ummah. Their hearts were most pious, their knowledge was deepest and they were least pretentious. They were people whom Allaah had chosen to be companions of His Nabi and for the transmission of His Deen. You people should therefore emulate their character and mannerisms. By the Rabb of the Kabah! The Sahabah of Rasulullaah were correctly guided." (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood once said to the people, "Although you people fast more often, perform more salaah and make more effort, the companions of Rasulullaah were better than you." When the people asked him the reason for this, he replied, "Because they had less concern for this

⁽I) Ibn Jurayj and Ibn Abi Haatim.

⁽²⁾ Kanzul Ummaal Vol.1 Pg.238

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.375). It is also reported by Tayaalisi (Pg.33) and Ibn Abdil Birr in Isti'aab (Vol.1 Pg.6) without the words "Therefore, whatever these Mu'mineen..."

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.305)

world and more concern for the Aakhirah." (1)

Abu Waa'il Abdullaah bin Mas'ood About once heard a person saying, "Where are the people who have no concern for this world and look forward to the Aakhirah?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood About on him, "They are the people of Jaabiya (2). They were five hundred Muslim men who pledged that they would be martyred in battle and not return home. (Therefore, according to their custom,) They shaved off their hair, fought the enemy and were all martyred besides one who lived to tell the tale." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar woo once heard a person saying, "Where are the people who have no concern for this world and look forward to the Aakhirah?" Taking the person to the graves of Rasulullaah woo, Hadhrat Abu Bakr woo and Hadhrat Umar woo, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar woo said to him, "Were you asking about these personalities?" (4)

Abu Araaka a narrates that he once performed the Fajr salaah behind Hadhrat Ali 劉範德. After the salaah, Hadhrat Ali 劉範德 turned to his right and appeared to be extremely troubled. Eventually, when the sun rose the length of a spear's length above the Masjid wall, he performed two Rakaahs of salaah. Thereafter, he turned his hands over and said, "By Allaah كالقائلية! I have seen the Sahabah 🕮 🕮 of Rasulullaah 🕮 and do not see the likes of them anywhere today. In the mornings, their faces were pale, their hair dishevelled, their bodies covered in dust and between their eyes were the marks of prostration which resembled the marks on the knees of goats. Their nights were spent prostrating (in Saidah) and standing before Allaah (in Saidah). They recited the Book of Allaah المعتقبة (the Qur'aan) and would attain comfort by standing in salaah and making Saidah. When the mornings arrived and they engaged in Dhikr, their bodies would move as the trees do when the gentle wind blows through them. Their eyes would flow with tears until their clothing got wet as if they (were remorseful because they) had spent their nights in negligence." Thereafter, Hadhrat Ali wie stood up and was never again seen laughing quietly until he was martyred by the wicked enemy of Allaah, The Muljim. (5)

Hadhrat Diraar bin Damirah Kinaani Ali Ali Hadhrat Mu'aawiya Walifa, who asked him to describe Hadhrat Ali Hadhrat Diraar bin Damirah Kinaani Said, "Would you excuse me?" Hadhrat Mu'aawiya replied, "You cannot be excused." Hadhrat Diraar bin Damirah Kinaani continued, "If I have to say something, then I swear by Allaah was a man of high objectives (with immense honour). He was a man of tremendous strength who always spoke decisively and passed judgement with utmost justice. Knowledge seemed to burst forth from his every

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.136)

⁽²⁾ The name of place in Shaam where a large Muslim army fought the Roman army during the period when Hadhrat Umar 经减少 served as Khalifa.

⁽³⁾ Hilya Vol.1 Pg.135

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.307)

⁽⁵⁾ Bidaayah (Vol.8 Pg.6), Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.76) as well as Dinowri, Askari and Ibn Asaakir as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.219).

limb (people learned something from his every word, action and even when he did nothing) and wisdom spoke through him from every angle. He kept aloof from the world and its attraction, taking comfort from the night and its darkness."

"By Allaah (Hadhrat Ali (Hadhra

"Allaah "Will" is Witness to the night when I once saw him sitting in his Mihraab when the night had already drawn its curtains and the stars had vanished. He was holding his beard and bending over, displaying the distress of a person bitten by a scorpion. He wept like a bitterly grieved person and I can still hear his cries echoing in my ears as he repeated the words, "Yaa Rabbanaa! Yaa Rabbanaa! (Oh our Rabb! Oh our Rabb!)' In this way, he humbled himself before Allaah "He then address the world saying, 'O world! Are you trying to deceive me? Are you staring expectantly at me? Get away! Get away and use your charms on someone else because I have divorced you thrice. Your life is short, your company is demeaning and people easily get into trouble because of you. Oh dear! Oh dear! The provision (for the journey to the Aakhirah) is meagre, the journey is long and the road is frightening."

(Upon hearing this,) Tears flowed uncontrollably from the eyes of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya onto his beard and he began wiping them away with his sleeve. The people present were also choked with their weeping. Hadhrat Mu'aawiya then said, "That was indeed an accurate description of Abul Hasan (Hadhrat Ali May). May Allaah May have mercy on him. O Diraar, what was your reaction to his death?" Hadhrat Diraar bin Damirah Kinaani replied, "I felt the anguish of a woman whose only child is slaughtered in her lap, whose tears neither stop nor does her grief diminish." After saying this, Hadhrat Diraar bin Damirah Kinaani

Hadhrat Qataadah (Figure 1) reports that someone once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Figure 1) if the Sahabah (Figure 1) ever laughed. He replied, "Yes. However, the Imaan in their hearts still remained firmer than mountains." (2)

Seeing the carriages of some Yemeni travellers made out of animal skin, Hadhrat Umar Temarked, "Whoever wishes to see a semblance of the Sahabah of Rasulullaah should look at these people." (3)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym (Vol.1 Pg.84). In his book Isti'aab (Vol.3 Pg.44), Ibn Abdil Barr has also reported this narration from Hirmaazi who hailed from Hamdaan and who reported the same from Diraar Sadaa'i.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.311)

⁽³⁾ Kanzul Ummaal Vol.7 Pg.163

Abu Sa'eed Maqbari The reports that when Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah contracted a plague, he instructed Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal to lead the salaah, which the latter did. When Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah passed away, Hadhrat Mu'aadh addressed the people saying, "O people! Sincerely repent to Allaah for your sins because when any servant of Allaah the sincerely repents for his sins, Allaah for some sins assured."

Hadhrat Mu'aadh then proceeded to say, "You have been grieved by the loss of a man whom I swear had a heart more free from malice than any other I have seen. I have not seen another with a purer heart, who was further from evil, who had as much love for the Aakhirah and who cared more for the well-being of the masses. Pray for mercy to be showered on him and make for the open plain to perform his funeral prayer. I swear by Allaah that you shall never have another leader like him."

The people gathered together and the bier of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah 劉德國 was taken to the plain where Hadhrat Mu'aadh William led the funeral prayer. When the corpse was brought to the grave, Hadhrat Mu'aadh & Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas was and Hadhrat Dahaak bin Qais will entered the grave to lay the body to rest. When they emerged from the grave, they closed the grave with sand and (standing at the head-side of the grave) Hadhrat Mu'aadh 鐵腳腳 addressed the deceased saying, "O Abu Ubaydah! I shall certainly heap praises on you but will say nothing untrue because I fear that it may incur Allaah "supplies wrath. By Allaah المحققة! As far as I know, you were certainly from among those people who abundantly engaged in the Dhikr of Allaah 到海河流, who walked humbly on earth and who would greet (and part company from) foolish people when they addressed you (to avoid disputes). You were among those who would neither be miserly nor wasteful when spending in charity, but who display excellent moderation between the two extremes. By Allaah a You were among those whose hearts submitted to Allaah المراقبة, who displayed humility, who were compassionate towards orphans and the poor and who detested the behaviour of treacherous and arrogant people." (1)

Hadhrat Rib'ee bin Hiraash marrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas once sought permission to meet Hadhrat Mu'aawiya was at a time when members of various tribes of the Quraysh were with him. As Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I shall present to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas who was on his right-hand side, "I sha

When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 墨寧 was seated, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 墨寧 asked him, "What have you to say about Hadhrat Abu Bakr 墨寧?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 墨寧 replied, "May Allaah 墨寧 shower his mercy on Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉範疇. By Allaah 劉節歌! He ardently recited the our'aan, stayed far from deviation, avoided immodesty, prevented (people from) evil, knew his Deen well and feared (disobeying) Allaah allaah. He engaged in Ibaadah during the nights, fasted during the days, remained uncontaminated by the world and was committed to administering justice among Allaah disale's creation. He instructed what was good and always did what was good. He was grateful to Allaah نَوْسَتُونَا in all conditions, engaged in Dhikr morning and evening and was hard on himself in matters relevant to reformation. He excelled ahead of his companions in terms of piety, contentment, abstinence, chasteness, virtue, caution, self-discipline and in repaying people for the good they do. May "s curses up to the Day of Oiyaamah be on those who deride him." Hadhrat Mu'aawiya www then asked, "What have you to say about Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab 劉陽德宗" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 劉陽德 replied, "May Allaah المنطقة shower his mercy on Abu Hafs (Hadhrat Umar المنطقة). By Allaah [[[]] He was a great supporter of Islaam, protector of the orphans, a treasure chest of Imaan and a shelter for the weak. By Allaah المنتقبات المعادية الم truly a sanctuary for the pious, a fortress for Allaah ("s creation and an ally to every person. With fortitude and confidence in Allaah (1966), he established allaah المنافقات s True Deen until the time came when Allaah المنافقات made the Deen of Islaam dominant and subjugated many lands. Allaah a subjugated was then mentioned in every direction, every hill and every spring in many parts of the world. He displayed exceptional tolerance when people spoke offensively, was always grateful to Allaah a during times of hardship and times of ease and engaged in the Dhikr of Allaah المنافقة at every moment. May Allaah المنافقة at every moment. May Allaah curse until the Day of Qiyaamah follow the person who harbours enmity for him." Hadhrat Mu'aawiya William then continued, "What do you have to say about Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan 告诉命令?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 告诉命 replied, "May Allaah 过途过度 shower his mercy on Abu Amr (Hadhrat Uthmaan 经减滤的). By Allaah (of Rasulullaah (a)) who kept the company of pious people and was among the most unfaltering soldiers. He stayed awake (performing Tahajjud salaah) for nights on end and wept excessively when engaging in Allaah and bridge's Dhikr. Throughout the day and night he remained thoughtful about matters of importance, always ready to do anything of virtue and never tiring of completing anything that would lead to salvation. Among his noble traits was that he stood firmly against every calamity and was the generous sponsor of the Muslim army (especially during the Tabook expedition) and the sponsor of the well (the well of Rooma which he bought from a Jew and donated it to the Muslims). After all, he was the husband of two of Rasulullaah & 's daughters. May remorse until the Day of Qiyaamah follow who the person speaks ill of him.", Thereafter, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya was asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas was, "What have you to say about Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib was?" The reply was, "May Allaah was shower His mercy on Abu Hasan (Hadhrat Ali இத்தி). By Allaah இத்திட்! He was a standard-bearer of knowledge, a fortune of piety, a stronghold of intelligence and a mountain of good. He was a light to those walking in the pitch darkness and an unrelenting caller to the great straight path. Hadhrat Ali william possessed profound knowledge of the earlier scriptures, propagated the teachings of the Our'aan and always imparted excellent advice. He always clung to the ways of guidance and stayed far from injustice, causing harm to others and from everything destructive. He was the best of those who possessed Imaan and Taqwa and the leader of all those who dressed in sewn garments or in unstitched shawls. He was the most noble of those who performed Hajj and Sa'ee, the most magnanimous of those who administered justice and equity and the most eloquent of people save for the Ambiyaa and the chosen Rasool of Allaah . He was also among those early Muslims who performed salaah facing towards both Qiblas (the Kabah and Baytul Magdas). Can there be any monotheist equal to him? He was the extremely fortunate one to marry the best of women (Hadhrat Faatima (1996)) and was the father of the two noble grandsons (of Rasulullaah (2014)). My eyes have never seen anyone like him and will never see anyone of his calibre until the Day of Qiyaamah, which is the Day of Meeting. May the curses of Allaah and the curses of every servant of Allaah a until the Day of Oiyaamah be on the one who curses him."

⁽¹⁾ Haakim in his Mustadrak Vol.3 Pg.264

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya then asked, "What have you to say about Hadhrat Talha and Hadhrat Zubayr "Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas replied, "May Allaah "Figure" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas replied, "May Allaah "Figure" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas replied, "May Allaah "Hadhrat Sand Pious Muslims who remained extremely pure. They were both martyrs and exceptionally learned men. Although they made an error, Allaah "Sand Shall forgive them because of the tremendous assistance they rendered (to Rasulullaah "Figure" and the propagation of Deen), because they were among the earliest Muslims, among earliest companions of Rasulullaah "Figure" and because of the many good deeds they carried out."

Then Hadhrat Mu'aawiya saked, "What have you to say about Hadhrat Abbaas said, "May Allaah shower His mercy on Abul Fadhl (Hadhrat Abbaas said, "May Allaah shower His mercy on Abul Fadhl (Hadhrat Abbaas said, "May Allaah shower His mercy on Abul Fadhl (Hadhrat Abbaas said). By Allaah shower He was the real brother of Rasulullaah and the delight of his eyes. He was a chosen servant of Allaah said, a sanctuary for all people and the leader of all the uncles of Rasulullaah said. He possessed deep insight into all matters, always considered the consequences of everything and was adorned by profound knowledge. The virtue of others fades into the background when his virtues are mentioned and the achievements of other families seem insignificant before the accomplishments of his family. Why should he not be such a great person when he was raised by none other than Abdul Muttalib, who was the most honourable of people and the most esteemed of the Quraysh who ever walked or rode."

The above is a part of a lengthy Hadith (1).

⁽¹⁾ The Hadith is reported by Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.160) who reports from Tabraani but comments that one of the narrators is not known.

Chapter One

The Chapter Concerning Da'wah Towards Allaah and His Rasool

This chapter highlights how calling people towards Allaah and towards Rasulullaah was the action that Rasulullaah and the Sahabah loved more than anything else. It also draws attention to the fact that their ardent desire was for mankind to be guided towards the Deen of Allaah and to enter its fold so that they may be immersed in Allaah's mercy. In addition to this, it focuses on their tireless efforts to achieve this so that the creation could be linked to their Creator.

L ove for Da'wah and Preoccupation with it The Concern of Rasulullaah (for Mankind to Accept Imaan

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas arrates that Rasulullaah was extremely concerned that the whole of mankind should accept Imaan and pledge allegiance to him. Allaah therefore revealed Qur'aanic verses such as:

Among them (mankind) are the fortunate (those destined for Jannah) and the unfortunate (those destined for Jahannam). {Surah Hood, verse 105}

In these verses, Allaah informed Rasulullaah that people will accept Imaan only if the good fortune of doing so has been destined for them in the Lowhul Mahfoodh. Similarly, only those people for whom ill-fortune has been destined in the Lowhul Mahfoodh will go astray. Allaah then revealed to Rasulullaah ::

(O Rasulullaah (with grief) because they (the Kuffaar) are not becoming Mu'mineen. If We willed, We could have revealed a (great) Aayah (miracle) to them from the sky, causing their necks to bow before it in humility (because of which they would be forced to accept Imaan. However, Allaah does not do this because forcing people into submission would defeat the object of testing them and rewarding or punishing them according to their merit). {Surah Shu'araa, verses 3, 4}⁽¹⁾

Rasulullaah Preaches to his People at the Time when his Uncle Abu Taalib is about to Leave the World

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that when Abu Taalib was about to leave the world, a group from the Quraysh came to see him. Among this group was Abu Jahal. They complained to Abu Taalib about what his nephew (Rasulullaah we) was saying and doing, including insulting their gods. They expressed the wish that Abu Taalib call for Rasulullaah and forbid him from what he was doing. When Abu Taalib sent for Rasulullaah he came to the promptly arrived and entered the house. When Rasulullaah came to the room, there remained a space for one person between the group of the Quraysh and Abu Taalib.

Narrating further, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas states, "The accursed Abu Jahal feared that if Rasulullaah occupied the empty space next to his uncle, Abu Taalib may become more lenient. Therefore, he jumped to occupy the place, leaving no place for Rasulullaah near his uncle. For this reason, Rasulullaah was forced to sit near the door. Addressing Rasulullaah Abu Taalib said, 'O my nephew! Why are your people complaining that you insult their gods and tell them so many things?' Upon this, those present started saying many things."

Rasulullaah finally addressed his uncle saying, "O my uncle! All I want these people to do is to accept a single statement that would make all the Arabs serve them and make all the non-Arabs pay them taxes." Taken aback by this, the people exclaimed, "Only one statement! By the oath of your father, we are prepared to accept ten such statements! What is this statement?" Abu Taalib also asked, "O my nephew! What is this statement?" Rasulullaah replied, "Laa Ilaaha Illallaah ("There is none worthy of worship but Allaah")."

Upon hearing this, the people hastily stood up and brushing down their clothing, they said, "Does he make all the (many) gods (that we worship) into one god? This is indeed something strange!"

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas states that it was with reference to this that Allaah revealed the verses:

﴿ اَجَعَلَ الْالِهَةَ اِللَّهَا وَّاحِدًا ۚ إِنَّ لِمَذَا لَشَيْءٌ عُجَابٌ ۞ وَانْطَلَقَ الْمَلْأُمِنْهُمُ أَنِ امْشُوْا وَاصْبِرُوا عَلَى الْهَتِكُمْ ۚ إِنَّ لِلذَا لَشَيْءٌ يُرَادُ۞ مَا سَمِعْنَا بِهِلذَا فِي الْمِلَّةِ

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami Additional states that the narrators of this Hadith are reliable, but adds that Ali bin Abi Talha did not hear the Hadith directly from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1996).

الْأَخِرَةِ ۚ إِنْ هَٰذَاۤ إِلَّا اخْتِلَاقُ ۞ ءَ أُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ الذِّكُرُمِنُ لَيَنِنَا ۖ بَلُ هُمْ فِي شَكِّ مِّنُ ذِكْرِي ۚ بَلُ لَمَّا يَذُوُ قُواْ عَذَابِ ۞ ﴿ (سَوَرة ص: ٥ تا ٨)

(The Mushrikeen say,) "Does he (Rasulullaah) make all the (many) gods (that we worship) into one god? This is indeed something strange!" A group of their leaders passed saying, "Carry on (with what you are doing without paying attention to what Rasulullaah says), and remain devoted to your gods (idols). Undoubtedly, there is some ulterior motive behind this. We have not heard about such a thing (this message) in the other religions. This is (therefore) merely some fabrication. Does some speech (revelation) descend on him (when he is merely a human being) from among us (and not an angel)?" (Allaah says further.) However, (the fact of the matter is that) they are in doubt concerning My revelation. The truth is that they (behave in this manner because they) have not yet tasted My punishment. (Surah Saad, verses 5-8).

Rasulullaah Presents the Kalimah to his Uncle Abu Taalib

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that several leaders of the Quraysh once went to Abu Taalib to speak to him about Rasulullaah . Among them were Utba bin Rabee'ah, Shayba bin Rabee'ah, Abu Jahal bin Hishaam, Umayyah bin Khalaf and Abu Sufyaan bin Harb. Addressing Abu Taalib, they said, "You are well aware of the high position you hold among us. The condition of your health is apparent and it makes us concerned for your life. Since you know well the differences that exist between us and your nephew, we need you to call him (so that you could mediate between us) and (in doing so) accept some of our requests as well as some of his. In this manner, he could stop opposing us, we would stop opposing him, he would leave us to our religion and we would leave him to his religion."

Consequently, Abu Taalib sent for Rasulullaah . When Rasulullaah arrived, Abu Taalib said to him, "O my nephew! These prominent leaders of your people have come to you to give you (some of your requests) and to take from you (some of their requests)." Rasulullaah replied, "Very well. I require you people to give me a single statement which would give you control of all the Arabs and which would make the non-Arabs follow you." Hearing this, Abu Jahal exclaimed, "Certainly! By the oath of your father! We are prepared to accept ten such statements." Rasulullaah said, "You should then say, 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah ("There is none worthy of worship but Allaah") and discard everything that you worship besides Him."

⁽¹⁾ This Hadith has been reported by Imaams Ahmad, Nasa'ee, Ibn Abi Haatim and Ibn Jareer in their books when discussing the commentary of Qur'aanic verses. Tirmidhi has also reported the Hadith and states that the Hadith reliable. A similar Hadith has been narrated by Ibn Katheer in his commentary of the Qur'aan (Vol.4 Pg.28), by Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.188) and by Haakim (Vol.2 Pg.432). Haakim states that the chain of narrators is authentic even though the Hadith is no narrated by Imaams Bukhari and Muslim. Imaam Dhahabi also states that the Hadith is authentic.

Those present then started clapping their hands (mockingly) saying, "Do you wish to make all our gods into one! This is indeed most strange!" They then said to each other, "By Allaah! This man will not give in to any of your requests. Let us leave and continue practising the religion of our forefathers until Allaah decides between us and him." They then dispersed.

(When they had all left) Abu Taalib said to Rasulullaah "", "O my nephew, I don't think that you asked anything difficult of them." Hopeful that his uncle would accept the message of Islaam, Rasulullaah said to him, "O uncle! Why don't you say it (the Kalimah) so that I may be permitted to intercede for you on the Day of Qiyaamah." Seeing the enthusiasm of Rasulullaah ", Abu Taalib said, "O nephew! By Allaah! I would certainly utter this Kalimah to please you if it were not for my fear that I and my progeny would become targets of insults and that the Quraysh would say that I said it only for fear of death." (1)

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyab reports from his father that Rasulullaah visited Abu Taalib when he was on his death-bed at a time when Abu Jahal was also present. Rasulullaah said, "O my uncle! Say 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah' so that I could defend you in the court of Allaah." Abu Jahal and Abdullaah bin Abi Umayyah then said to Abu Taalib, "Are you turning away from the religion of (your father) Abdul Muttalib?" The two of them continued speaking to Abu Taalib in this manner until the final words he uttered (as he passed away) were, "I remain on the religion of Abdul Muttalib."

Rasulullaah then said, "I shall continue seeking Allaah's forgiveness for you (O my uncle) until I am forbidden from doing so." Allaah then revealed the verses of the Qur'aan which state:

It is not (permissible) for the Nabi (is it permissible for) the Mu'mineen to (ever) seek forgiveness for the Mushrikeen, even if they be their relatives, after it has become clear to them (when these Mushrikeen died without Imaan) that they (the Mushrikeen) are to be residents of the Blaze (Jahannam). (Surah Taubah, verse 113)

Verily you (O Rasulullaah (See)) cannot guide (to Islaam) those whom you love (such as Abu Taalib), but Allaah guides whoever He wills. He is best aware of those who are (deserving to be) rightly guided (and who deserve to be guided to Imaan). {Surah Qasas, verse 56} (2)

Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.123). There is one unknown narrator in the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bukhari and Muslim.

Another similar report states that Rasulullaah continued presenting the Kalimah to Abu Taalib as the two Mushrikeen (Abu Jahal and Abdullaah bin Abi Umaayyah) repeated their words to him. Eventually, Abu Taalib passed away with the words, "I remain on the religion of Abdul Muttalib" without reciting, "Laa Ilaaha Illallaah" Rasulullaah then said, "Behold! I shall continue seeking Allaah's forgiveness for you (O my uncle) until I am forbidden from doing so." It was after this that Allaah revealed the two verses (mentioned above). (1)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah in narrates that Rasulullaah is came to see his uncle Abu Taalib when he was about to pass away. Rasulullaah is said to him, "O my beloved uncle! Say 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah' so that I may be witness to it on the Day of Qiyaamah." Abu Taalib said, "I would have certainly said it to please you if I did not fear that Quraysh would ridicule me by saying, 'He said it only because he feared death.' I would have then definitely said it only to please you." It was on this occasion that Allaah revealed the verse:

(سورة قصص: ٥٦)

Verily you (O Rasulullaah (EE) cannot guide (to Islaam) those whom you love (such as Abu Taalib), but Allaah guides whoever He wills. He is best aware of those who are (deserving to be) rightly guided (and who deserve to be guided to Imaan). {Surah Qasas, verse 56} (2)

Rasulullaah Refuses to Forsake

Calling people to Allaah

Hadhrat Aqeel bin Abi Taalib (the son of Abu Taalib) narrates⁽³⁾ that on one occasion when members of the Quraysh approached Abu Taalib (to discuss Rasulullaah (3)), Abu Taalib said to Rasulullaah (3), "O my nephew! By Allaah! As you well know, I have always listened to what you have to say (I now wish that you would listen to me). Your people have come to me to complain that in their gatherings and at the Kabah you tell them things that hurt them. If you think it appropriate, you should stop doing this."

Looking towards the heavens, Rasulullaah Feplied, "I do not have the ability to stop doing what I have been sent to do just as any of you do not have the ability to grab hold of a spark of fire from the sun." (4)

A narration of Bayhaqi reports that Abu Taalib called for Rasulullaah and told him that the people had come to him and told him many things about what Rasulullaah was was doing. Addressing Rasulullaah he said further, "Have

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari and Muslim, using a chain of narrators different from the narration just mentioned.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.123). There is one unknown narrator in the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Only a part of the complete narration appears here. The complete text will Insha Allaah be quoted in the chapter that discusses the tolerance that Rasulullaah and the Sahabah and the Sahabah practiced during times of difficulty.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani and Bukhari in his Taareekh.

mercy on me and on yourself and do not cast on me a burden that neither of us can bear. Stop telling the people things that they dislike." Hearing this, it crossed Rasulullaah is mind that his uncle had changed his opinions, that he would stop assisting him, that he would now hand him over to the people and that he had lost courage in supporting him. Rasulullaah is said, "O my uncle! Even if the sun were placed in my right hand and the moon in my left hand, I would not forsake this work (of propagation) until Allaah makes it (this Deen) dominant or I am destroyed in the process." After saying this, the eyes of Rasulullaah if illed with tears and he began weeping. (The complete Hadith will now be mentioned.)

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdillaah (Took for a person who is most learned in magic, fortune-telling and poetry so that he may meet this man (Rasulullaah (When he meets Rasulullaah (When he meets Rasulullaah (When he meets Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah (Magic)) He should speak to him and gauge the response." • Everyone agreed that the best person for the task was Utba bin Rabee'ah and they said to him, "Go to him, O Abu Waleed!"

When Utba met Rasulullaah (1996), he asked, "O Muhammad! Are you better than Abdullaah (your father)?" Rasulullaah @ remained silent. Utba continued, "Are you better than Abdul Muttalib (your grandfather)?" When Rasulullaah & remained silent for the second time, Utba proceeded to say, "If you think that all these people are better than you, then remember that they worshipped the very idols that you find fault with. However, if you think that you are better than them, then say so, so that we may hear you. By Allaah! We have never seen a youngster bringing more ill-fortune to his nation than yourself! You have split our community, disunited us, insulted our gods and disgraced us among the Arabs so much so that news has spread among them that the Quraysh have a magician and the Quraysh have a fortune-teller. By Allaah! (We are so disunited that) All we are waiting for is a shout of pain like that of a pregnant woman before we begin opposing each other with swords and destroy each other. O person! if you have any (financial) need, we shall pool our resources for you until you become the richest man of the Quraysh. If need a woman, you may choose any of the women of the Quraysh and let alone one, we shall marry ten of them to you."

Rasulullaah said, "Have you finished?" when Utba replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah see recited the following verses of the Qur'aan:

بِسُسِمِ اللهِ الرَّحْسِمُ الرَّحِسِيْمِ (اللهِ الرَّحِسِيْمِ () كِتْبُ فُصِّلَتُ اللَّهُ قُوْانًا عَرَبِيًّا لِقَوْمٍ ﴿ كَتْبُ فُصِّلَتُ اللَّهُ قُوْانًا عَرَبِيًّا لِقَوْمٍ لَعْلَمُونَ ۞ بَشِيْرًا وَنَذِيْرًا ۗ فَاعْرَضَ اكْتَرُهُمْ فَهُمُ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ ۞ وَقَالُوْا قُلُوبُنَا فِيْ الْكِلَهُ مِنَّا مِنْ اللهِ مِنَّالًا فَالْوَاللهِ مِنْ اللهِ مِنْ اللهِ مِنْ اللهِ مِنْ اللهِ مِنْ اللهُ اللهِ مِنْ اللهُ اللهِ مِنْ النَّا عَمِلُونَ اللهِ مِنْ اللهُ الللهُ اللهُ الل

(سورة حير السجده: ١ تا ١٣)

In the name of Allaah, the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful. HaaMeem. (This Our'aan is) A revelation from the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful. (This Qur'aan is) A Book, the verses of which have been clearly explained as an Arabic Qur'aan, for a nation with knowledge, (It is) A carrier of good news (for the Mu'mineen) and a warner (for the Kuffaar). However, (instead of listening to the warnings) most of them turn away and do not listen (They have no interest in accepting the truth). They (the Kuffaar) say (to the Ambiyaa and those who call them to Imaan), "Our hearts are veiled from what you call us towards (we do not understand you) and there are props in our ears. There is also a barrier between you and us, so do (as you please), we shall do (as we please)." Say (to them, O Rasulullaah ((cannot force you to accept because) I am just a human being like you. Revelation has been sent to me that your Ilaah is only One. So remain devoted to Him and seek forgiveness from Him. Destruction (Jahannam) be to the Mushrikeen who do not pay zakaah and who disbelieve in the Aakhirah. (On the other hand) There shall certainly be an everlasting reward (Jannah) for those who have Imaan and who do righteous deeds." Say, "Do you people really disbelieve in, and ascribe partners to the Being Who created the earth in two days? It is He Who is the Rabb of the universe." (How can you not regard Him to be your Rabb when none other has powers similar to His?) And (in addition to all of this) Allaah has (also) placed mountains on the surface of the earth, blessed the earth (so that it may produce food), and stipulated the earth's provisions (all this and the creation of the earth took place) in four complete days; (this is sufficient as a reply) for those who question (you about the creation of the earth). Thereafter, Allaah turned (His attention) to the sky, which was smoke, and said to it, as well as to the earth, "Come to Us (submit to Us) willingly or unwillingly." Both replied, "We shall come willingly." Within two days, Allaah then made them (the skies) into seven skies, and issued a suitable command to (the angels occupying) each sky. Allaah decorated the sky of the world with lanterns (stars) and made them a means of protection (to be used to pelt the Shayaateen who attempt to eavesdrop on the conversations of the angels). This is the decree of the Mighty, the Wise. If they (the Kuffaar) turn away, then say, "I warn you of a punishment like the punishment of the Aad and Thamud." {Surah HaaMeem Sajdah, verses 1-13}

Utba exclaimed, "Enough! Do you have nothing else to say?" Rasulullaah replied, "No." Utba then left. When he met with the other members of the Quraysh, he said to them, "I told him everything you wanted me to tell him." "Did he give you a reply?" they enquired. Utba started saying, "Yes," but then quickly said, "No!" He added, "By the Being Who made the Kabah a place of worship! I understood nothing from what he said except that he warns us of a punishment like the punishment that afflicted the Aad and the Thamud." To this the people said, "Woe to you! A man speaks to you in Arabic and you cannot understand what he says!" Utba replied, "No (I cannot help it)! By Allaah! I understood nothing except mention of the punishment that afflicted the Aad and Thamud." (1) Other authorities including Bayhaqi have reported a narration from Haakim in which it is added that Utba also said to Rasulullaah ." If it is leadership that you want, we will all anchor our flags for you (it was the practice in those times that leaders would have the flags of their tribes anchored at their homes) so that you become our leader for as long as you live."

This narration also adds that Utba placed his hand on the mouth of Rasulullaah when Rasulullaah reached the verse:

If they (the Kuffaar) turn away, then say, "I warn you of a punishment like the punishment of the Aad and Thamud." {Surah HaaMeem Sajdah, verse 13}

He then bade Rasulullaah for the sake of their family ties that he should recite no further. After leaving the company of Rasulullaah for the Stayed at home and did not venture to meet the other members of the Quraysh. To this Abu Jahal commented, "O Quraysh! By Allaah! It appears as if Utba has taken to the religion of Muhammad and likes his food. There can be no other reason for this but that he has become poor. Let us go to see him."

When they arrived to meet Utba, Abu Jahal said, "We have come only because you have taken to the religion of Muhammad and have taken a liking to his talk. If you have become impoverished, we shall collect money for you so that you (1) Abd bin Humayd in his Musnad from Ibn Abi Shayba.

should have no need for Muhammad's food."

Utba grew extremely angry when he heard this and swore by Allaah that he would never again speak to Rasulullaah . He then said to them, "You know well that I am one of the wealthiest people of the Quraysh." He then related the meeting with Rasulullaah and said, "I went to him and he replied with words that I swear by Allaah are neither (products of) magic, poetry or fortune-telling. He started reciting:

In the name of Allaah, the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful. HaaMeem. (This Qur'aan is) A revelation from the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful.

He continued reciting until he reached the verse:

(المورة حمر سجده: ١٥) الْفَرَرُتُكُمُ صَلِّعَةً مِثْلُ صَلِّعِقَةً عَادٍ وَ ثَمُودُ اللهِ (سورة حمر سجده: ١٦) If they (the Kulfaar) turn away, then say, "I warn you of a punishment like the punishment of the Aad and Thamud." {Surah HaaMeem Sajdah, verse 13}

I then held his mouth and beseeched him in the name of our family relations that he should stop reciting. You know very well that Muhammad never lies when he speaks, so I feared that the punishment would afflict you people." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar harrates that some members of the Quraysh once gathered to discuss about Rasulullaah as Rasulullaah sat in the Masjid (the Masjidul Haraam in Makkah). Utba bin Rabee'ah said to the rest, "Leave me to speak to him for I shall perhaps be softer on him than the rest of you." Saying this, Utba stood up and sat by Rasulullaah . He then said, "O my nephew! I have no doubts that you are certainly from the best family and enjoy the most honour from all of us. However, you have placed your people in a situation that no other has done to their people. If it is wealth that you want by propagating your message, your people will take the responsibility to ensure that they accumulate their wealth to make you the wealthiest person. If it is position that you want, we shall all honour you until there is none more honourable than you and we shall do nothing without your approval. If you are doing this because you have been afflicted by evil spirits which you are unable to get rid of, then we shall spend all our fortunes until we grow helpless finding a cure for you. If it is leadership that you want, we shall make you our leader."

Rasulullaah then said, "Have you finished O Abu Waleed?" When Utba replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah recited Surah HaaMeem Sajdah and prostrated in Sajdah when he recited the Sajdah verse (verse 37/8). However, Utba remained sitting with his hand behind him for support. When Rasulullaah completed reciting the Surah, Utba stood up and (was so astounded by the words of the Qur'aan) that he did not know what to tell the others.

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.62). Abu Ya'la has narrated a Hadith similar to that of Abd bin Humayd from Hadhrat Jaabir (Pg.75). Abu Nu'aym has also narrated such a Hadith in his Hilya (Pg.75). Bayhaqi has mentioned that among the narrators is a person named Ajlah Kindi who is reliable according to Ibn Ma'een and others, but who Imaam Nasa'ee and some other scholars regard as unreliable. Besides him, the other narrators are reliable.

Seeing him arrive, the others commented, "Utba is returning with a face quite different from the one he left you with." Utba said, "O gathering of Quraysh! I spoke to him as you instructed but when I had finished, he spoke to me with words that I swear by Allaah, my ears have never heard before. I did not know what to say to him. O gathering of the Quraysh! Obey me this once even if you disobey me forever afterwards. Leave this man alone to himself because I swear by Allaah that he will never forsake what he is doing. Allow him to do as he pleases with the Arabs because if he is dominant over them, his honour would be yours and if they dominate him, your objective would be reached without your intervention." To this the others said, "O Abul Waleed! You have forsaken your religion." (1)

Rasulullaah ('s Resolve to Fight for the Duty that Allaah Sent him with

Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhrama and Hadhrat Marwaan have reported a lengthy narration concerning the incident leading to the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah, which will be mentioned later in this chapter. Part of the narration states that while Rasulullaah and the Sahabah were stationed in the valley of Hudaybiyyah, Budayl bin Waraqa Khuzaa'ee arrived there along with a group of people from his tribe the Khuzaa'ah. This tribe were from the Tihaamah region and were the friendliest tribe of the region towards the Muslims. He told Rasulullaah that they had just passed by the tribes of Aamir bin Luway and Ka'b bin Luway, who were camped at some of the springs of Hudaybiyyah. They informed Rasulullaah that these tribes were ready to engage in battle with the Muslims and prevent them from coming to the Kabah. In fact they were so intent on fighting the Muslims that they had arrived with (all their resources and even) those camels that were close to giving birth and those that had just given birth.

Rasulullaah said, "I have not come to fight anyone, but wish only to perform Umrah. (It is surprising that the Quraysh want to fight because) Fighting has already weakened them and caused them much harm. If they want, we are prepared to enter into a treaty with them for a period. During this period, they should not interfere with my efforts on the people. If I dominate over the people (if they accept Islaam), the Quraysh have the choice of entering into the Deen which the others have entered into. On the other hand, if people get the upper hand over me, the Quraysh will have no worries. However, if the Quraysh refuse (to accept Islaam and insist on fighting), then I swear by the Being in Whose control my life lies, I shall fight them for the sake of this Deen until either my head is separated from my neck or this Deen of Allaah flourishes." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq as mentioned in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.63). Bayhaqi has also quoted the Hadith briefly from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1986).

A narration of Tabraani, also narrated by Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhrama and Hadhrat Marwaan with the words, "Woe be to the Quraysh! Waging war has certainly consumed them (although previous battles with the Muslims have weakened them, they are still intent on fighting). Why do they rather not allow me to continue my work among the people without interference? If the other Arabs gain the upper hand over me and finish me off, the heartfelt desire of the Quraysh will be accomplished. On the contrary, if Allaah grants me victory over the other Arabs, the Quraysh will also enter the fold of Islaam. However, if the Quraysh refuse to accept Islaam and still have the strength to fight me, what do they think? I swear by Allaah that I shall fight them for the sake of that (Deen) which Allaah has sent me with until Allaah grants me victory or this head is separated from my body." (2)

Rasulullaah (Commands Hadhrat Ali (Tombie to First call People towards Islaam During the Battle of Khaybar

Hadhrat Sahal bin Sa'd sign narrates that during the Battle of Khaybar, Rasulullaah announced, "Tomorrow I shall give the flag to the person on whose hands Allaah shall grant victory. He is a person who has love for Allaah and His Rasool and whom Allaah and His Rasool also love." Hadhrat Sahal sign mentioned that the entire night, the Sahabah shept thinking which of them would receive the flag (to lead the army into battle).

The following morning, all the Sahabah came to Rasulullaah announced, one hoping that he would be the one to receive the flag. Rasulullaah announced, "Where is Ali bin Abi Taalib?" The Sahabah replied, "O Rasulullaah He is suffering from pain in his eyes." Rasulullaah sent someone to call him. When he arrived, Rasulullaah applied some of his blessed saliva onto Hadhrat Ali seyes and prayed for him. His eyed were immediately cured and it appeared as if he had never suffered any pain at all. Rasulullaah then handed the flag over to him.

Hadhrat Ali siss asked, "Should I fight them until they become like us?" Rasulullaah replied, "March at a moderate pace until you reach their field. Then invite them to accept Islaam, explaining to them the rights due to Allaah that are compulsory for them to fulfil. By Allaah! If Allaah uses you to guide even a single person, it is better for you than red camels." (3)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq has also reported this from Zuhri with the words: "What do the Quraysh think? I swear by Allaah that I shall fight for the sake of this (Deen) which Allaah has sent me with until Allaah grants me victory or this head is separated from my body." This is reported in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.4 Pg.165).

⁽³⁾ Bukhari. Muslim has also reported a similar narration in Vol.2 Pg.279.

The Outstanding Perseverance of Rasulullaah  when Inviting Hakam bin Kaysaan to Islaam

Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Amr in narrates that when he took Hakam bin Kaysaan prisoner (during one of the battles), his commander wanted Hakam executed. However, he (Hadhrat Miqdaad in managed to persuade his commander not to execute Hakam but to rather take him to Rasulullaah when they brought him to Rasulullaah in the started inviting him to accept Islaam and spent a long time speaking to him.

After some time, Hadhrat Umar said, "O Rasulullaah si For what reason are you talking to him so much? By Allaah! He shall never accept Islaam! Allow me to execute him so that he may reach his destination in Jahannam!" However, Rasulullaah said paid no attention to Hadhrat Umar said (and continued speaking) until Hakam accepted Islaam.

Hadhrat Umar says, "When I saw Hakam accept Islaam, I was surrounded by thoughts of the past and future. I chided myself for addressing Rasulullaah concerning a matter about which he had more knowledge than me. I then told myself that I had done so only for the welfare of Allaah and His Rasool "Hadhrat Umar salso said, "Hakam became a Muslim and by Allaah, he was an excellent Muslim who fought for the pleasure of Allaah until he was martyred at Bir Ma'oona. Rasulullaah was pleased with him and he has entered the gardens of Jannah." (1)

In a narration of Zuhri, Hakam asked Rasulullaah . "What is Islaam?" Rasulullaah . "replied, "That you worship Allaah Alone Who has no partner and that you testify that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul." Hakam then said, "I accept Islaam." Rasulullaah . then turned to the Sahabah . and said, "Had I listened to you just now and killed him, he would have entered the fire of Jahannam." (2)

Wahshi bin Harb Accepts Islaam

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in narrates that Rasulullaah sent a messenger with the invitation of Islaam to Wahshi bin Harb who was responsible for killing Hadhrat Hamza (the uncle of Rasulullaah). The messenger returned with a message from Wahshi stating, "O Muhammad! How can you call me to Islaam when you say that a murderer, a Mushrikeen and an adulterer shall meet with a grave punishment and this punishment will be multiplied for them on the Day of Qiyaamah where they shall remain disgraced in it forever (3). I have committed all of these crimes, so is there any scope for me?"

﴿ إِلَّا مَنْ تَابَ وَامَنَ وَعَمِلَ عَمَلًا صَالِحًا فَأُولَئِكَ يُبَدِّلُ اللَّهُ سَيَّاتِهِمْ حَسَنْتٍ * وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَفُوْرًا رَّحِيْمًا ﴾ (سورة فوفان: ٧٠)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.137)

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.138)

⁽³⁾ As mentioned in verses 68 and 69 of Surah Furgaan.

Allaah then revealed the verse:

(The punishment of Jahannam is for all murderers, Mushrikeen and adulterers) Except for those who (sincerely) repent, accept Imaan and perform good actions. For such people Allaah will convert their sins into good deeds. Allaah is Ever Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. {Surah Furqaan, verse 70}

In reply to this verse, Wahshi said, "O Muhammad! The condition in this verse is uncompromising which states, 'Except for those who (sincerely) repent, accept Imaan and perform good actions.' What if I do not have the opportunity to fulfil it?" Allaah then revealed the verse:

Verily Allaah does not forgive that Shirk be committed, but may forgive all (sins) besides this for whom He wills. {Surah Nisaa, verse 48}

To this, Wahshi replied, "This forgiveness depends on the will of Allaah. I do not know whether I shall be forgiven or not. Is there any other scope for me?" Allaah then revealed the verse:

Say, "O My bondsmen who have wronged their souls (by committing kufr or other sins)! Never lose hope of Allaah's mercy. Verily, Allaah forgives all sins. Undoubtedly, He is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful." (Surah Zumar, verse 53)

Upon hearing this, Wahshi said, "Yes, this is in order." He then accepted Islaam. Other Muslims asked, "O Rasulullaah Wes! We had also committed the sins that Wahshi committed (Does this verse apply to us as well?)." Rasulullaah replied, "It applies to all Muslims in general." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that some Mushrikeen who had committed murder and adultery in abundance approached Rasulullaah They said, "What you are saying and calling towards seems extremely good. Do tell us if there is any expiation for our sins?" It was on this occasion that Allaah revealed the following two verses:

Those who do not call to (do not worship) another Ilaah with Allaah, who only kill a soul forbidden by Allaah with a warrant (when required to execute a person whom a court of Shari'ah sentences to death), and (they are those) who do not fornicate (they neither commit fornication nor adultery). {Surah Furqaan, verse 68}

Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.100) states that one of the narrators by the name of Abyan bin Sufyaan is regarded as a weak narrator by Imaam Dhahabi 四面体影。

﴿ قُلْ يَعِبَادِىَ الَّذِيْنَ اَسْرَفُواْ عَلَى انْفُسِهِمْ لَا تَقْنَطُوْا مِنْ رَّحْمَةِ اللَّهِ ﴿ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوْبَ جَمِيْعًا ﴿ إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيْمُ ۞ ﴿ (سورة زمر: ٥٣)

Say, "O My bondsmen who have wronged their souls (by committing kufr or other sins)! Never lose hope of Allaah's mercy. Verily, Allaah forgives all sins. Undoubtedly, He is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful." (Surah Zumar, verse 53) [1]

Hadhrat Faatima Weeps at the Pale Appearance of Rasulullaah Caused by his Exertion In the Duty Allaah Entrusted to Him

Hadhrat Abu Tha'laba Khushani narrates that Rasulullaah once returned from a battle and entered the Masjid to perform two Rakaahs of salaah. Whenever he returned from a journey, Rasulullaah always liked to proceed first to the Masjid to perform two Rakaahs of salaah and then go to the house of Hadhrat Faatima his daughter before proceeding to the homes of his wives. Consequently, he went to the home of Hadhrat Faatima upon returning from a particular journey before going to see his wives. Welcoming him at the door, Hadhrat Faatima started kissing Rasulullaah on his face and his eyes. She then began weeping. When Rasulullaah asked her what it was that made her weep, she replied, "O Rasulullaah it is because I see your face so pale and your clothing so tattered (because of the strenuousness of the journey)."

To this, Rasulullaah said, "Do not weep, O Faatima. Allaah has sent your father with a Deen by means of which He will enter honour or disgrace into every baked and unbaked home and every skin tent on the surface of the earth (those who accept Islaam will have the honour while the others will have the disgrace). It (the Deen) shall reach wherever the night reaches (everywhere)." (2)

Hadith of Tameem Daari Concerning the Spreading of Islaam

Hadhrat Tameem Daari in arrates that he heard Rasulullaah say, "This Deen shall definitely reach wherever the day and the night reach. Allaah shall enter this Deen into every baked and unbaked home with either great honour or terrible disgrace. Allaah will grant the honour to Islaam and the people of Islaam, while the disgrace will go to kufr (and its people)."

Hadhrat Tameem Daari says, "I saw the reality of this in my own family. Those who accepted Islaam were blessed with good, honour and respect while those who remained Kuffaar suffered disgrace, humiliation and had to pay the Jizya." (3)

Bukhari (Vol.2 Pg.710). A similar Hadith is also narrated by Muslim (Vol.1 Pg.76), Abu Dawood (Vol.2 Pg.238), Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.89) and Nasa'ee as quoted by Ayni (Vol.9 Pg.121).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, Abu Nu'aym and Haakim, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.77). Refer to Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.262) and Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.155) for commentary on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad and Tabraani as quoted in Majma (Vol.6 Pg.14) and (Vol.8 Pg.262). Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.14)

Hadhrat Umar Wisses's Desire for the

Renegades to Return to Islaam

Hadhrat Anas in arrates that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari is sent him to give the news of the conquest of Tustar to Hadhrat Umar is. He says that Hadhrat Umar is asked him about what had happened to six members of the Bakr bin Waa'il tribe who had forsaken Islaam and proceeded to live with the Mushrikeen. Hadhrat Anas is replied, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! They have renounced Islaam and joined up with the Mushrikeen. Their only treatment is their execution."

To this Hadhrat Umar said, "I prefer getting hold of them alive and well to all the gold and silver in the world." Hadhrat Anas saked, "O Ammerul Mu'mineen! What would you do with them if you got hold of them alive?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "I would present to them the door from which they left so that they may re-enter it. If they accept, I would accept it from them, otherwise I would hand them over to the prison." (1)

Abdur Rahmaan Al Qaari reports that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari so once sent a person to Hadhrat Umar so. When Hadhrat Umar saked the person about the condition of the people, he duly replied. When Hadhrat Umar saked the person if there were any recent developments, he said, "Yes, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! A person who had become a Muslim, reverted to kufr." "What did you do with him," asked Hadhrat Umar so. "We called him and executed him," came the reply. Hadhrat Umar so said, "Why did you rather not imprison him for three days, feed him bread each day and encourage him to repent? He may then have repented and re-entered Allaah's Deen. O Allaah! I was not present there. I did not command it and am not pleased with it now that it has come to my notice." (2)

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas woo once wrote to Ammerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar to ask him what was to be done about a person who had reverted to kufr after accepting Islaam, then accepted Islaam again, only to return to kufr. This he had done several times already. "Should his Islaam be accepted from him again?" was the question Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas woo posed.

In response, Hadhrat Umar worde back, "As long as Allaah accepts the Islaam of a person, you should do the same. You should therefore present Islaam to him again. If he accepts, you should set him free, otherwise you may execute him." (3) states that the narrators in the report of Ahmad are narrators of authentic Ahaadeeth, Tabraani has also reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Migdaad (1986).

Abdur Razzaaq as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.79). Bayhaqi as also reported a similar Hadith (Vol.8 Pg.207).

⁽²⁾ Maalik, Shaafi'ee, Abdur Razzaaq, Abu Ubayd in his Ghareeb and Bayhaqi (Pg.207).

⁽³⁾ Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg,79), reporting from Musaddad bin Abdil Hakam who narrates from Amr bin Shu'ayb, quoting from his father and grandfather.

Hadhrat Umar Weeps over the Exertion of a Christian Monk

Abu Imraan Jowni narrates that Hadhrat Umar wow once passed by a monk and remained standing there. Someone called the monk and told him that the Ameerul Mu'mineen was there. When the monk peeped out, the effects of difficulty, exertion and forsaking the world were clearly apparent on his face (he had grown extremely pale and haggard on account of his spiritual exertions). Looking at him, Hadhrat Umar wow began to weep. "But he is a Christian," someone commented. Hadhrat Umar replied, "I know, but I feel sorry for him because I thought of the verse in which Allaah mentions:

He who suffered affliction and who endured many difficulties (thinking that he was pleasing Allaah whereas his beliefs and actions did not conform with the injunctions of Allaah). He shall enter the blazing fire. {Surah Ghashiya, verses 3,4}

I feel sorry for him because despite his exertion and efforts in this world, he shall still end up in Jahannam." (1)

Rasulullaah Preaches to Individuals

Rasulullaah Will Invites Hadhrat

Abu Bakr to Islaam

Hadhrat Aa'isha was a close friend of Rasulullaah even during the Period of Ignorance. One day, Hadhrat Abu Bakr is left home to meet Rasulullaah was. When he met Rasulullaah he he said, "O Abul Qaasim(2)! Why is it that you are no longer present in the gatherings of your people? Why do they accuse you of speaking ill of their forefathers?" Rasulullaah said, "I am the Rasul of Allaah and am calling you towards Allaah." As soon as Rasulullaah had completed, Hadhrat Abu Bakr saicepted Islaam.

When Rasulullaah had left Hadhrat Abu Bakr when there was none between the mountains of Makkah happier than Rasulullaah whe because Hadhrat Abu Bakr had accepted Islaam. Hadhrat Abu Bakr hen met Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan when, Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillaah when, Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam when and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas when, all of whom accepted Islaam. The following day, Hadhrat Abu Bakr when met Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon when, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah when, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Awf when, Hadhrat Abu Salma bin Abdil Asad when and Hadhrat Arqam bin Abil Arqam when, all of whom also readily accepted Islaam. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi, Ibn Mundhir and Haakim as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.175).

⁽²⁾ A title of Rasulullaah 總麗, meaning father of Qaasim because Rasulullaah 總麗 had a son by the name of Qaasim.

Ibn Is'haaq reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr once met Rasulullaah and said, "O Muhammad! Is it true what the Quraysh are saying about you forsaking our gods, calling us foolish and referring to our forefathers as infidels?" Rasulullaah replied, "Yes. I am Allaah's Rasul and Nabi. Allaah has sent me to propagate His message. With conviction I am calling you towards Allaah. By Allaah! This is certainly the truth. O Abu Bakr! I call you towards the One Allaah who has no partner. Do not worship anyone but Him and always be obedient to Him." Rasulullaah then recited a part of the Qur'aan to Hadhrat Abu Bakr hadhrat Abu Bakr he neither accepted the message nor rejected it. He accepted Islaam, forsook idols, renounced all partners in worship and attested to the truth of Islaam. Hadhrat Abu Bakr returned from his meeting with Rasulullaah as a true Mu'min. (2)

According to another narration, Rasulullaah see said, "Everyone I called to Islaam expressed some hesitation and doubts except Abu Bakr. When I mentioned Islaam to him, he neither hesitated nor expressed any doubts (but accepted immediately)." (3)

There is certainly an error in the words of Ibn Is'haaq's narration when it reads, "Hadhrat Abu Bakr ineither accepted the message nor rejected it". Ibn Is'haaq himself as well as other scholars have mentioned that Hadhrat Abu Bakr was a close friend of Rasulullaah even before Rasulullaah announced his Nubuwwah (prophethood). Hadhrat Abu Bakr was well aware of the truthfulness, honesty, excellent habits and sublime character of Rasulullaah which would not allow him to even speak a lie about the creation, let alone lie about The Creator. Therefore, as soon as Rasulullaah told Hadhrat Abu Bakr that he was Allaah's Nabi, he immediately accepted without hesitation.

In fact, Bukhari narrates a Hadith in which it is reported that when there was once an argument between Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar said, Rasulullaah said, "When Allaah sent me as a Nabi to you people, you all said that I was lying while Abu Bakr said, 'You are speaking the truth.' He then rendered me great assistance with his life and wealth. For my sake, will you people not leave this friend of mine alone (and refrain from causing him any sorrow)!" Rasulullaah repeated this statement twice, after which no one ever caused any harm to Hadhrat Abu Bakr was the first to accept Islaam. (4)

Rasulullaah Invites Hadhrat

Umar المُواللَّهُ to Islaam

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (In narrates that Rasulullaah (In na

⁽¹⁾ Haafidh Abul Hasan Tarablasi as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.29).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Is'haaq narrating from Muhammad bin Abdir Rahmaan bin Abdillaah bin Husayn Tameemi.

⁽⁴⁾ Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pgs.26,27).

bin Khattaab or Abu Jahal bin Hishaam." Allaah accepted the du'aa in favour of Hadhrat Umar (1996) and made him a means of strengthening the foundations of Islaam and of destroying the idols. (1)

A narration reported by Hadhrat Thowbaan discussing the suffering of Hadhrat Umar sister Faatima and her husband Sa'eed bin Zaid shall be quoted in a forthcoming chapter concerning the suffering that the Sahabah endured for Deen. It is mentioned in that narration that when Hadhrat Umar came to Rasulullaah (after leaving his sister's home) Rasulullaah held him by his arms and shook him saying, "What do you want? Why have you come?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "Present to me what it is that you are calling towards." Rasulullaah said, "That you testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah Who is One and has no partner and that you testify that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul." Hadhrat Umar accepted Islaam there and then. Hadhrat Umar then told Rasulullaah to leave the house (and to perform salaah openly in the Masjidul Haraam without fearing the Kuffaar). (2)

Hadhrat Aslam narrates that Hadhrat Umar ("On once said to them," Do you want to hear about how I came into the fold of Islaam?" When those present begged to be informed, Hadhrat Umar ("I was one of the people most opposed to Rasulullaah ("I once came to him as he sat in a house near Safa and sat before him. Taking hold of my collar, Rasulullaah ("Said, 'O son of Khattaab! Accept Islaam.' He then prayed for me saying, 'O Allaah! Guide him.' I then said, 'I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and I testify that you are the Rasul of Allaah.' The Muslims present there exclaimed, 'Allaahu Akbar!' so loudly that it was heard in the streets of Makkah." (3)

Rasulullaah Invites Hadhrat Uthmaan

to Islaam وفوالقائقة

Hadhrat Amr bin Uthmaan reports that Hadhrat Uthmaan said, "I was once visiting my aunt Arwa bint Abdil Muttalib (my mother's sister) when Rasulullaah arrived there. I began staring at him because in those days there was some mention of his Nabuwaat. Turning to me, he asked, 'What seems to be the matter, O Uthmaan?' I replied, 'I am surprised that there is so much talk about you when you are such an honourable person among us.' Rasulullaah said, 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'. Allaah is witness to the fact that I shuddered at this. Rasulullaah then began reciting

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami has commented in Vol. 9 Pg. 61 that all the narrators of the Hadith are reliable except for one named Mujallad bin Sa'eed. However, some scholars do regard him to be reliable.
(2) Tabraani.

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.41). Bazzaar has also narrated the narration from different sources. His Hadith will be mentioned soon, Insha Allaah.

In the sky (in the "Lowhul Mahfoodh") is (the record of) your sustenance (its time, type and quantity) and (records of) what you have been promised (of Qiyaamah). (The time for Qiyaamah has been fixed but has not been made known to man.) By the Rabb of the sky and the earth, this (coming of Qiyaamah) is certainly the truth just as (it is true that) you can speak. {Surah Dhaariyaat, verses 22,23}

Thereafter, Rasulullaah stood up and left. I left after him, met him and accepted Islaam." (1)

Rasulullaah Invites Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib

Ibn Is'haaq narrates that Hadhrat Ali were performing salaah. Hadh

Hadhrat Ali spent the night in this condition (without telling anyone) and Allaah inspired him with the urge to accept Islaam. Early next morning, he set out to meet Rasulullaah see. When he met Rasulullaah he replied, "What was it that you presented to me, O Muhammad?" Rasulullaah replied, "That you testify that there is none worthy of worship but the One Allaah Who has no partner and that you renounce Laat and Uzza and absolve Him from all partners." Hadhrat Ali some complied and accepted Islaam and would visit Rasulullaah in privacy for fear of Abu Taalib. He concealed his acceptance of Islaam and did not make it known to anyone. (2)

Habba Urani narrates that he once saw Hadhrat Ali chuckle as he sat on the Mimbar (pulpit). He had never before seen Hadhrat Ali laugh in this manner that his teeth showed. Hadhrat Ali said, "I just thought about words of (my father) Abu Taalib. He arrived suddenly one day as Rasulullaah and I were performing salaah in the Valley of Nakhla. He asked, "O my nephew! What are the two of you doing?" Rasulullaah then invited him to accept Islaam. Referring to the Sajdah posture, Abu Taalib then said, "There is no harm in what you are doing but I cannot allow my buttocks to ever rise above me". Hadhrat Ali was chuckling at these words of his father and then said, "O Allaah! Besides your Nabi at her said, "I performed salaah seven years before other people." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Madaa'ini as quoted in Insti'aab (Vol.4 Pg.225).

⁽²⁾ Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol.3 Pg.24).

Rasulullaah Aur Invites Hadhrat Amr bin Abasa to Islaam

Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Abdillaah narrates that Hadhrat Abu Umaama once asked Hadhrat Amr bin Abasa why he claimed to be the fourth person to accept Islaam. He replied, "Even during the Period of Ignorance, I realised that people were astray and I had no regard for idols. When I heard about a person in Makkah who was informing about many happenings and saying many things, I rode to Makkah. Upon reaching Makkah, I realised that Rasulullaah was in hiding and that his people were unashamedly harassing him. I therefore employed subtle tactics and finally managed to meet him."

"I asked, 'What are you?' Rasulullaah "Feplied, 'I am the Nabi of Allaah.' I asked further, 'What is a Nabi?' He said, 'A Rasul of Allaah.' 'Has Allaah sent you?' I enquired. When he replied in the affirmative, I asked, 'What (message) has Allaah sent you with?' Rasulullaah responded, 'That He should be accepted as One, that no partners should be ascribed to Him, that the idols should be destroyed and that family ties should be maintained.' I asked, 'Who is with you in this?' 'A free man and a slave,' was the reply. I saw that Hadhrat Abu Bakr bin Abi Quhaafa was with him along with his slave Bilaal. I then said, 'I shall follow you in this.' Rasulullaah said, 'You cannot do so right now. Rather go home and come to meet me when you hear that I have become dominant.' I then returned home as a Muslim."

"Rasulullaah "later migrated to Madinah and I kept making enquiries about him until a caravan from Madinah arrived one day. I asked them, 'What is the condition of the person from Makkah who has come to you people?' They replied, 'His people tried to assassinate him but were unable to do so as Allaah's help came between. As we left, people were flocking to him."

Hadhrat Amr bin Abasa continues, "I immediately mounted my camel and rode off. When I reached Madinah, I appeared before Rasulullaah and then said, "O Rasulullaah Do you recognise me?" He replied, "Are you not the person who met me in Makkah?" I said, "Yes, I am the same person" and I added further, "O Rasulullaah! Teach me something that Allaah has taught you and which I do not know." There is still a considerable portion of this Hadith still to be mentioned. (2) Hadhrat Amr bin Abasa has narrated yet another Hadith. He says that he once asked Rasulullaah with the message did Allaah send you?" He replied, "Allaah has sent me with the message that family ties should be joined, human life should be preserved, roads should remain safe, idols should be broken and that only one Allaah should be worshipped Who has no partner." I

Ahmad, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.102) has mentioned that the narration has been reported by Ahmad and Abu Ya'la in brief, as well as Bazzaar and Tabraani in his Awsat with a reliable chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad (Vol. 4 Pg. 112) as mentioned by Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 4 Pg. 158)

then said to him, "These teachings from Allaah are indeed very fine. I make you a witness that I have accepted Imaan and that I accept you as a true Nabi. May I now stay with you if you decide that this is appropriate." He replied, "As you can see, the people regard this Deen which I have brought as something very evil. Therefore, you should return home and when you hear that I have reached the place of my Hijrah, then you may come to me."(1)

Rasulullaah in invited Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas to Islaam

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas was one of the first people to accept Islaam. He was of the first of his brothers to accept Islaam. His path to Islaam started with a dream that he saw. In his dream he saw himself standing on the edge of a blazing fire. He mentioned that the fire was so large that only Allaah knows its vastness. In this dream, he saw his father pushing him into the fire while Rasulullaah was holding him by the waist so that he should not fall in. This scene frightened him so much that he woke up with the shock. When he awakened, he said to himself, "This is definitely a true dream."

Thereafter, he met Hadhrat Abu Bakr and related the dream to him. Hadhrat Abu Bakr said to him, "Good is in store for you. He (Rasulullaah is the Nabi of Allaah so do follow him. (The interpretation of your dream is) You will follow him and enter into Islaam with him. Thereafter this Islaam will save you from entering the fire of the Jahannam where your father is at the moment."

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed then met Rasulullaah in the Ajyaad district and said to him, "O Muhammad !" To what do you call me?" He replied, "I call you to the One Allaah who has no partner and to believe that Muhammad is His servant and Rasul. I call you to renounce your worship of stones that cannot hear, cannot cause harm, they cannot be of benefit to you for they do not even know those who worship them from those who do not worship them!" Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed said, "I testify that there is none worthy of worship besides Allaah and I testify that you are the Rasul of Allaah." Rasulullaah was extremely happy when Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed accepted Islaam.

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed then stayed away from his home. When his father discovered that he had accepted Islaam, he sent someone to look for him. When the person brought him before his father, his father rebuked him a very harshly and started beating him with the whip he had in his hand. He beat Hadhrat Khaalid so so severely that the whip broke as it struck his head. His father then said, "By Allaah! I shall not give you anything to eat!" To this Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed said, "If you do not give me anything to eat, then Allaah shall definitely provide for me and I will pass my life." He then left and went to Rasulullaah . Thereafter he constantly remained in the company of Rasulullaah . (1)

Ahmad (Vol. 4 Pg. 111) as well as Muslim, Tabraani, Abu Nu'aym (as mentioned in Isaabah), Ibn Abdil Birr in Isti'aab (Vol. 2 Pg. 500) and Abu Nu'aym in Dalaa'ilun Nabuwwah (Pg. 86).

According to another narration his father sent their slave Raafi to look for him along with Hadhrat Khaalid wis so other brothers who had not yet accepted Islaam. When they found him, they brought him to his father Abu Uhayha. His father started rebuking him and beating him with a whip that he carried in his hand. He beat him so severely that the whip broke on his head. His father then said, "Do you follow Muhammad when he opposes his people and finds faults with their gods and their forefathers who have passed away?"

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed said to his father, "By Allaah! He's speaking the truth and I follow him." Thereupon his father became very angry in started swearing and saying, "You despicable person! Go whenever you please. I swear by Allaah that I shall stop feeding you." In reply, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed said, "If you stop feeding me and then Allaah shall grant me enough sustenance with which to live." his father chased him out of the house and said to all his other sons that they will receive the same treatment if they ever spoke to Hadhrat Khaalid sies. Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed then left his father and was the constant companion of Rasulullaah (2)

According to another report, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed hid from his father in the gullies of Makkah and when the second group of Sahabah migrated to Abyssinia, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed him accompanied them. (3) When his father Sa'eed bin Al Aas bin Umayyah fell ill, he said, "If Allaah removes this illness from me, the god of Ibn Abil Kabsha (Rasulullaah will) will never be worshipped in the valley of Makkah." To this, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed said, "O Allaah! Do not remove the illness from him." Subsequently, he died with that illness. (4)

Rasulullaah Invites Hadhrat Dimaad

to Islaam

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that Hadhrat Dimaad was a man from the Azdishanu'ah tribe who used to cure insane people and people affected with evil spirits using some words that he recited. He had heard some foolish people of Makkah saying that Muhammad was an insane man. He said to them, "where is this man? Perhaps Allaah will cure him at my hand." When he met Rasulullaah he said, "I recite certain words by which I cure people. Indeed Allaah has cured at my hand those people whom He wished to cure. Come let me cure you as well." Rasulullaah this thrice repeated the following sermon: "Verily all praise is for Allaah. We praise Him and seek help from Him. There can be none to misguide the person whom Allaah has caused to go

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 3 Pg. 32).

⁽²⁾ Haakim in his Mustadrak (Vol. 3 Pg. 248) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 4 Pg. 94).

⁽³⁾ Isti'aab (Vol. 1 Pg. 401)

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 4 Pg. 95)

astray. I testify that there is none worthy of worship besides the One Allaah Who has no partner."

Hadhrat Dimaad said, "By Allaah! I have heard of the words of fortune-tellers, the words of magicians and the words of poets. However, I have never heard such words before. Give me your hand so that I may pledge allegiance to you on Islaam." Rasulullaah then accepted his pledge of allegiance and said to him, "Is this pledge on behalf of your people as well?" Hadhrat Dimaad replied, "It is for my people as well."

It once occurred that some Muslim soldiers were passing the the tribe of Hadhrat Dimaad The leader of the soldiers asked them, "Did any of you take something from these people?" One soldier replied, "Yes, I have their water jug with me." To this, the leader replied, "Then return it to them because these are the people of Hadhrat Dimaad The people of Hadhrat Dima

According to another narration, Hadhrat Dimaad said to Rasulullaah "Repeat those words to me because they reach the depths of the ocean of eloquence."

Abdur Rahmaan Adawi reports that Hadhrat Dimaad said, "I went to Makkah to perform Umrah and was sitting in a gathering together with Abu Jahal, Utba bin Rabee'ah and Umayyah bin Khalaf. Abu Jahal said, "This man has disunited us. He makes us look foolish and claims that those of us who have passed away were misguided. He also insults our gods." Umayyah said, "There is no doubt that this man is certainly mad."

Hadhrat Dimaad was says that he said to himself, "But I am able to cure people affected with evil spirits." He then left the gathering and started looking find Rasulullaah anywhere. The following day he again set out to search for Rasulullaah and finally found him performing salaah behind the Maqaam Ibraheem. Hadhrat Dimaad Sissis says that he then sat down. When Rasulullaah had completed the salaah, Hadhrat Dimaad 经障碍 said to him, "O son of Abdul Muttalib!" Rasulullaah turned to him and replied, "What do you want?" Hadhrat Dimaad (Fig. replied, "I am able to cure people affected by evil spirits. If you wish, I can cure you as well. Do not think that your illness is of great concern because I have cured people who were even more ill than you are. I have just come from some of your people who have nothing good to say about you. They say that you are insane, that you have caused disunity amongst them and that you refer to their forefathers as being misguided. They also say that you insult their gods. I have therefore come to the conclusion that only an insane person would do such things."

Rasulullaah the following: "Verily all praise is for Allaah. I praise Him and seek help from Him. I believe in Him and have complete trust in Him. There can be none to misguide the person whom Allaah has guided and there can been none to guide the person whom Allaah has caused to go astray. I testify that there is none worthy of worship besides the One Allaah Who has no partner. I testify that Muhammad is the servant of Allaah and His Rasul." Hadhrat Dimaad was says that he had never heard such words from anyone before. He then requested Rasulullaah to repeat the words, which Rasulullaah @ repeated twice thereafter. Hadhrat Dimaad @ continues the story by saying, "I asked, 'To what are you calling people?" Rasulullaah replied, "I call people to believe in One Allaah Who has no partner. I absolve myself from worshipping idols and I testify that I am the Rasul of Allaah. "What shall I receive if I also do the same?" asked Hadhrat Dimaad (Rasulullaah 翻譯 said, "You shall receive Jannah, Hadhrat Dimaad 知識 exclaimed, "I testify that there is none worthy of worship besides the one Allaah Who has no partner. I remove the idols from my neck and express that I have absolved myself from them. I also testify that you are certainly the servant and Rasul of Allaah." Hadhrat Dimaad 细胞 says further, "I started living with Rasulullaah 總數 until I had learnt many Surahs of the Qur'aan. Thereafter I returned to my people. Abdullaah bin Abdir Rahmaan Adawi says that Rasulullaah (once dispatched an army under the command of Hadhrat Ali . The army got some camels from a certain place and were taking them along as they went. When Hadhrat Ali found out that the camels were taken from the people of Hadhrat Dimaad he commanded that the camels be returned.

⁽¹⁾ Muslims and Bayhaqi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 3 Pg. 36). The report is also narrated by Nasa'ee, Baghawi and Musaddad in his Musnad, as quoted in Isaabah.

Rasulullaah Invites Hadhrat Husayn to Islaam, who was the Father of Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn

The Quraysh highly respected Hadhrat Husayn and said to him, "Go to this person (Rasulullaah and speak to him on our behalf because he insults our gods." Consequently, these members of the Quraysh proceeded with Hadhrat Husayn until they reached the door of Rasulullaah said to the many people who had already gathered there, "Make way for the respected elder." Amongst those present was the son of Hadhrat Husayn whose name was Imraan so. Hadhrat Husayn said, "What is happening here? The news has reached me that you insult our gods whereas your father was a devout and excellent man."

Rasulullaah Feplied, "O Husayn! My father and your father are both in Jahannam⁽¹⁾. O Husayn! Tell me how many gods you worship?" Hadhrat Husayn further asked him, "Which god do you call for when you are in difficulty?" Hadhrat Husayn replied, "I then call the one in the sky." Rasulullaah said, "Who do you call when your wealth gets destroyed?" He replied, "The one in the sky." Rasulullaah said, "It is strange that only this one God comes to your assistance yet you associate the others as partners to him! Do you have permission from the gods in the sky to associate the others as His partners? Or are you afraid of these other gods thinking that they will harm you if you do not associate them as partners?" Hadhrat Husayn replied, "Neither of these two statements is correct." Hadhrat Husayn says, "It then occurred to me that I had never spoken to such a great personality before this." Rasulullaah said further, "O Husayn! Become a Muslim and you will live in peace." Hadhrat Husayn responded by saying, "What about my people and my family? (What would they say if I accept Islaam?) What am I to do now?"

⁽¹⁾ Although this narration states that Rasulullaah sees father is in Jahannam, other narrations make it clear that both his parents are in Jannah because both of them totally abstained from Shirk and followed the religion of Hadhrat Ibraheem sees. According to the research of Haafidh Suyuti as mentioned in his articles, both the parents of Rasulullaah sees were brought back to life and they both accepted Imaan. The narration mentioned above recounts an incident which took place some time before this.

Rasulullaah advised him to recite the following du'aa:

"O Allaah! I seek your guidance towards that which is more correct and increase me in knowledge that will benefit me."

Hadhrat Husayn recited this du'aa and was a Muslim before he stood up from the gathering. At that instant, his son Hadhrat Imraan immediately stood up and began kissing the head, hands and feet of his father. Rasulullaah began weeping when he saw this and said, "I am weeping because I was touched by what Imraan has done. He did not stand for his father nor pay any attention to him when he entered as a Kaafir. However, he fulfilled the right of his father once his father entered the fold of Islaam."

When Hadhrat Husayn stood up to leave, Rasulullaah said to the others, "Stand up and takehimhome." As soon as Hadhrat Husayn emerged from the doorway, the people of the Quraysh (who had been waiting there for him) saw him and said, "He has forsaken his religion." They then left him and dispersed. (1)

Rasulullaah Invites an Unnamed

man to Islaam

Hadhrat Abu Tameema Hujaymi in narrates from a man of his tribe that he once came to meet Rasulullaah is. It could have been such that Hadhrat Abu Tameema is was present there when the man came to Rasulullaah is. The man said, "Are you the Nabi of Allaah?" "Yes," replied Rasulullaah

"Whom do you pray to?" he asked. "I pray to the One Allaah Who is Most Honoured and Most High. He is the One Who removes your difficulty when you call to Him. It is He Who causes your crops to grow when you call to Him to remove your drought. It is He Who responds to your prayer when you call Him at the time when you are lost in a rocky land without transport." The man accepted Islaam immediately and then asked for advice. Rasulullaah said, "Do not swear anything⁽¹⁾." When relating this to people, the man said that since Rasulullaah gave him the piece of advice, he has not even sworn a goat. (2)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Khuzayma as quoted in Isaabah (Vol. 1 Pg. 337).

Rasulullaah Invites Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Haydah to Islaam

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Haydah in narrates that he once came to Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah ii have not come to you before this because I have sworn more times than my fingertips can count that I shall never come to you and never accept your religion." He placed his hands on top of each other as he said this to show the number of his fingertips. (However, Allaah has now sent me to you) So here I am with no knowledge of that which Allaah has given you save very little. I ask you in the name of Allaah's great countenance to tell me what Allaah has sent you with." Rasulullaah if replied, "Allaah has sent me with the Deen of Islaam."

"What is Islaam?" was his next question. Rasulullaah said, "Islaam is to say that you surrender yourself over to Allaah and renounce all others (other gods). It also entails that you establish salaah and pay Zakaah. Every Muslim deserves respect and every two Muslims are brothers to each other and help one another. When a Mushrik accepts Islaam, his deeds will be accepted from him only when he separates himself from the other Mushrikeen. Why should I be grabbing hold of your waists to save you from Jahannam? Listen! My Rabb shall call me (on the Day of Qiyaamah) and ask me, 'Did you convey the message (of Islaam) to my servants?' I shall then be able to say, 'O my Rabb! I have certainly conveyed it.' Understand this well! Those present here must convey the message to those who are absent. Behold! You will then be called forward (on the day of Qiyaamah) with your mouths sealed. The first thing to speak will be a person's thigh followed by his hands."

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Haydah (This is our Deen. Wherever you may practise on it properly, it will suffice for you." (3)

Rasulullaah Invites Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim to Islaam

Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim in narrates, "When I heard about the coming of Rasulullaah is." I disliked this very greatly. So I left and found myself close to Rome (according to another narration he said, "So I left and went to the Caesar"). However, I disliked this place more than I disliked the coming of Rasulullaah is. I then said to myself, 'By Allaah! Why do I not rather meet this person. If he is a liar, it will not harm me in the least. On the other hand, if he is speaking the

One of the narrators called Hakam was unsure whether Rasulullaah said "anything" or "anyone". The meaning does not change either way.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol. 8 Pg. 72) has mentioned that one of the narrators called Hakam bin Fudhayl is regarded as a weak narrator by Abu Zur'ah and other scholars although Abu Dawood and others regard him as a reliable narrator. The other narrators are all reliable.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abdil Birr in Isti'aab (Vol. 1 Pg. 323).

truth, I would know it."

Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim (Continues the story and says, "So I came to Rasulullaah (Continues). When I arrived, the people started shouting, 'Adi bin Haatim! Adi bin Haatim! When I came before Rasulullaah (Continues), he said to me, 'O Adi bin Haatim! Accept Islaam and stay in peace.' He repeated this three times. I said to him, 'But I already follow a Deen." He replied, 'I know more about your Deen than you do."

Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim says further, "I said, 'You know more about my Deen than I do?' He replied, 'Yes. Are you not from the Rakoosiyya sect and have taken a quarter of your people's booty. I said, 'True.' He then continued, 'This is not permissible for you according to your religion.' I admitted, 'Yes, it certainly is not permissible.' After hearing this, I was humbled before him."

Rasulullaah then added, "Listen. I am also well aware of the thing that prevents you from accepting Islaam. You say that only simple people who have no influence follow him; people whom the Arabs have cast out. Do you know the place Heera?" Hadhrat Adi then replied, "Though I have never seen the place. I have certainly heard about it." Rasulullaah then said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! Allaah shall bring this (propagation of Islaam) to such completion (and the land will be so safe) that a veiled woman shall leave from Heera all alone and perform Tawaaf of the Kabah without the need of having someone accompany her. Without doubt, the treasures of Kisra bin Hurmuz shall also be conquered." In astonishment, Hadhrat Adi said, "The treasures of Kisra bin Hurmuz?" "Yes," replied Rasulullaah for the treasures of Kisra bin Hurmuz. In addition to this, wealth will be so freely spent that there will be none to take it."

After narrating the story, Hadhrat Adi said, "There is the woman from Heera performing Tawaaf without anyone to accompany her and I was among those who conquered the treasures of Kisra. I swear by the Being in whose control is my life, the third prophesy shall also come true because Rasulullaah said it." (1)

Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim narrates that he and some others were at a place called Aqrab when a group of horsemen sent by Rasulullaah arrived there. They captured some people along with Hadhrat Adi t's aunt. When they were brought before Rasulullaah and lined up before him, his aunt said, "O Rasulullaah will My breadwinner has gone missing, my children are no more and I am just an old woman who cannot be of any service. Be kind to me and Allaah will be kind to you." "Who is your breadwinner?" Rasulullaah asked. "Adi bin Haatim" was the reply. Rasulullaah said, "The one who escaped from Allaah and His Rasool Rasulullaah showed kindness to her (by letting her go) and as she-left, a man who had been with Rasulullaah (whom they believe was Hadhrat Ali said to her, "Why do you not ask Rasulullaah for transport?" When she asked for transport, Rasulullaah ordered and had it arranged for her. Hadhrat Adi continues the story. He says, "When my aunt came back, she said to me, 'Your father would have never done what you did (deserting me like that).' Whether you like it or not, you will have to go to him (Rasulullaah she had been to meet Rasulullaah and enjoyed a favourable reception. I then proceeded to meet Rasulullaah

Ahmad as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 5 Pg. 66). Baghawi has also narrated the report as mentioned in Isaaba (Vol. 2 Pg. 468).

"When I came to Rasulullaah "I saw a woman and one or two children sitting with him. (Hadhrat Adi I also mentioned how close they set to Rasulullaah I gathered from this that he was neither like the king Kisra nor like the Caesar (but much more approachable). He said to me, 'O Adi bin Haatim! What made you run away? Did the thought of saying that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah make you run away? Is anyone worthy of worship but Allaah? What made you run away? Did the thought of saying Allaah is the Greatest make you run away? Is there anything greater than Allaah the Most High the Most Exalted?' I then accepted Islaam and I saw the face of Rasulullaah I light up with happiness and he said, 'Indeed those with whom Allaah is angry are the Jews and those who are astray are the Christians (1).""

Hadhrat Adi William continues, "Some people then began asking Rasulullaah for things (and because he had nothing with him, Rasulullaah started encouraging the Sahabah 經濟學 to assist these people). Rasulullaah 網路 then praised Allaah and said to the people, 'O people! Spend from that wealth which is extra even though it may be one Saa or even less than that; whether it may be a handful or even less than that (one of the narrators by the name of Shu'ba says that as far as he can remember, Rasulullaah also added, Whether it may be a single date or even a piece of a date). Everyone of you shall stand before Allaah (on the Day of Qiyaamah) and Allaah shall ask him exactly as I am telling you now. Allaah shall say, 'Did I not bless you with the faculties of hearing and seeing? Did I not give you wealth and children? What have you sent ahead from this? A person will then look in front of him and look behind him. He will look to his right and look to his left but he will find nothing there. He shall have nothing to save him from the fire of Jahannam besides the countenance of Allaah. Therefore, save yourselves from the fire of Jahannam even though it be with a piece of the date (that you give as charity). If you do not even have this much, then do so by speaking a kind word (to a beggar). Verily I do not fear poverty overcoming you for Allaah shall certainly assist you and shall certainly bestow his bounties upon you (according to another narration he said, "Allaah shall certainly grant you many conquests") until the time comes when a veiled woman shall travel between Heera and Madinah or even a greater distance without the fear of being robbed while sitting in her carriage." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Referring to the closing verse of Surah Faatiha.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Tirmidhi has also narrated the Hadith and classified it as "Hasan, Ghareeb" without knowing whether it is narrated by anyone besides Sammaak. Bayhaqi has narrated a part of the

Rasulullaah Filip Invites Dhi Jowshin Dhababi to Islaam

Hadhrat Dhi Jowshin Dhababi in narrates, "I came to Rasulullaah after the Battle of Badr and brought with him the foal of my horse Qar'haa. I said to Rasulullaah in, 'O Muhammad! I have brought for me the foal of my horse Qar'haa so that you may use it for yourself.' Rasulullaah replied, 'I have no need for it. However, if you wish to exchange it for a suit of armour from the Battle of Badr, you could have any suit you choose.' I replied, 'I am not prepared to exchange this pedigreed horse today.' Rasulullaah said, 'I have no need for it. O Dhi Jowshin! Will you not accept Islaam to become among the first to accept Islaam?' When I replied in the negative, Rasulullaah asked, 'Why not?' I said, 'Because I see that your people are upset with you.' He asked me, 'How did you receive the news of the defeat (of the Mushrikeen) at Badr?'"

"I said, 'All the news has reached me.' He said, 'We will have to give you guidance (to Islaam).' 'On condition that you take control of the Kabah and start living there,' I responded. Rasulullaah said, 'If you are alive then, you shall certainly see it."

Rasulullaah (Hen said to Hadhrat Bilaal (O Bilaal! Take the man's satchel and fill it with Ajwa dates as a provision for his journey." As Hadhrat Dhi Jowshin (Was leaving, Rasulullaah (Said to the Sahabah (He is among the finest horsemen of the Banu Aamir tribe."

Hadhrat Dhi Jowshin continues the story when he said, "By Allaah! I was with my family in a place called Ghowr when a rider arrived. I asked him, 'What have people been doing?' He replied, 'By Allaah! Muhammad has taken control of the Kabah and is living there.' When I heard this, I said to myself, 'If only my mother had lost me as a child. If only I had accepted Islaam that day. If I had even asked Rasulullaah for the district of Heera then, he would have allotted it to me."

According to another narration, Rasulullaah asked him, "What prevents you from Islaam?" He replied, "I see that your people belie you, have exiled you (from Makkah) and are now at war with you. I shall now watch developments. If you get the upper hand over your people, I shall accept Imaan and follow you. However, if they get the upper hand over you, I shall not be following you." (1)

Rasulullaah Khasaasiyyah to Islaam

Hadhrat Basheer bin Khasaasiyah inarrates that Rasulullaah invited him to accept Islaam on one occasion. (After he accepted Islaam,) Rasulullaah asked him, "What is your name?" When he replied that his name was end of the Hadith and Bukhari has also narrated it briefly as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 5 Pg. 65).

Tabraani. Haythami (Vol. 6 Pg. 162) has commented on the Hadith. Abu Dawood has also narrated a part of it.

Nadheer, Rasulullaah said, "(From today) Your name shall be Basheer."
Rasulullaah then made him stay on the platform (within the Masjid) called Suffa (where the poor homeless Muslims stayed). It was the practice of Rasulullaah to share all the gifts he received with the men on Suffa and to give them all the Sadaqah he received.

One night Rasulullaah We left his home and Hadhrat Basheer followed him. Rasulullaah went to the graveyard (called Baqee) and said,

"Peace be on you, O home of the Mu'mineen! We shall soon be joining you for we all belong to Allaah and shall return to Him. You people have certainly met with extreme good and have been saved from immense evil."

Rasulullaah then turned to Hadhrat Basheer and asked, "Who is there?" When Hadhrat Basheer gave his name, Rasulullaah said, Does it not please you that Allaah has diverted your hearing, your heart and your sight to Islaam whereas you had been from among the Rabee'ah tribe who breed fine horses and who claim that the earth would be turned upside down had it not been for them?" Hadhrat Basheer replied, "Indeed, O Rasulullaah replied, "Rasulullaah then asked him, "What brings you here?" Hadhrat Basheer replied, "(I followed you here because) I was afraid that no calamity should befall you or that some creature should not harm you." (1)

Rasulullaah : Invites an Unnamed Person to Islaam

A person from the Baladawiyyah tribe narrates the following from his grandfather: "As I was coming to Madinah, I pitched my tent in a valley where I saw two persons trading. The buyer was saying to the seller, 'Make me a good deal on this purchase.' I said to myself, 'Could this not be the Haashimy who is misleading his people?' As I watched them, another man approached. He was extremely handsome with a broad forehead, slender nose, fine eyebrows and a black line of hair running from his chest to his navel. He was wearing two old sheets of cloth."

"He greeted us with 'As Salaamu Alaykum' and we all replied to his greeting. He has just arrived when the buyer said, 'O Rasulullaah it Tell this seller to make a good deal with me.' To this, Rasulullaah it raised his hands and said, 'You people are the owners of your goods. All I want is to meet Allaah on the Day of Qiyaamah without any of you claiming from me any wealth, any blood or any honour that I may have wrongfully taken from you. Allaah showers His mercy on a person who is lenient when he sells, lenient when he buys, lenient when he takes, lenient when he gives, lenient when he pays his debts and lenient when he asks for payment.' After saying this, Rasulullaah it left."

"I said to myself, 'By Allaah! I must certainly have to find out about this man because his words are excellent.' I therefore followed him and shouted, 'O Muhammad!' He turned around to face me and said, 'What is it?' I asked, 'Are you the person who has misled your people, destroyed them and stopped them from worshipping what their forefathers worshipped?' He replied, 'That is Allaah.' I asked, 'To what are calling people?' 'I am calling the servants of Allaah to Allaah,' he responded. 'What have you to say?' I asked further. He said, 'That you should testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah, that Muhammad is the Rasul of Allaah, that you believe in everything revealed to me, that you renounce Laat and Uzza and that you establish salaah and pay Zakaah.' 'What is Zakaah?' I asked. 'Wealth that our rich give to our poor,' came the reply. I responded by saying, 'These are excellent things you are calling towards."'

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, Tabraani and Bayhaqi who also quote the following words of Rasulullaah , "O Basheer! Will you not praise Allaah who brought you to Islaam from among a nation who claim that had it not been for their presence, the earth would be turned upside down with all its inhabitants."

"Prior to this, there was no one on earth whom I hated more than Rasulullaah "However, it was not long that he became more beloved to me than even my children, my parents and all of mankind. I then said to him, 'I have understood.' You have understood?' he asked. 'Yes,' I replied. He asked, 'Do you testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah, that I Muhammad am the Rasul of Allaah and do you believe in everything revealed to me?' 'Yes, O Rasulullaah "I replied. I then asked him, 'There is an oasis where many people are settled. May I invite them towards that which you have invited me? I feel that they will want to follow you.' He replied, 'Yes, you may invite them."

Consequently, all the men and women of the oasis accepted Islaam and (in appreciation and happiness) Rasulullaah stroked the head of this Sahabi

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik in narrates that Rasulullaah was once visiting a man from the Banu Najjaar tribe when he said to the man, "O uncle. Say 'Laa Ilaaha Illalaah'." The man asked, "Am I your maternal uncle or paternal uncle?" Rasulullaah replied, "You are my maternal uncle. Please say 'Laa Ilaaha Illalaah'." "Will this be good for me," the man asked. "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah Hadhrat Anas inarrates that Rasulullaah once visited a Jewish boy who used to serve him but had fallen ill. Sitting by his head, Rasulullaah said to the boy, "Accept Islaam." The boy looked at his father who was also there. The father said, "Obey Abul Qaasim (Rasulullaah ." The boy accepted Islaam. When Rasulullaah left the house, he said, "All praise for Allaah Who has used me to save him from Jahannam." (3)

Hadhrat Anas has also narrated that Rasulullaah once said to a person, "Accept Islaam and you will remain in peace." The person said, "But I dislike it." Rasulullaah said to him, "Even though you dislike it." (4)

Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol. 9 Pg. 18) says that although the narrators of the report are reliable, the identity of one of them is unknown.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol. 5 Pg. 305) says that the narrators of the Hadith are all reliable.

⁽³⁾ Bukhari and Abu Dawood as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol. 1 Pg. 124),

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad and Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol. 5 Pg. 305) says that the narrators of the Hadith are all reliable.

Rasulullaah 經經 Invites Hadhrat Abu Quhaafa 题範的 to Islaam

Hadhrat Asma bint Abi Bakr reports that it was on that day that Muslims conquered Makkah when Rasulullaah said to Hadhrat Abu Quhaafa (1) "Accept Islaam and remain in peace." (1)

Hadhrat Asma bint Abi Bakr also reports that when Rasulullaah entered Makkah and was peacefully sitting in the Masjidul Haraam, Hadhrat Abu Bakr brought his father Abu Quhaafa to him. When Rasulullaah saw him, he said, "O Abu Bakr! Why did you not leave the respected man and take me to him instead?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr saw replied, "O Rasulullaah is it is more fitting that he comes to you rather than you go to him."

Rasulullaah made the old man sit in front of him, placed his hand on the old man's heart and said, "O Abu Quhaafa! Accept Islaam and remain in peace." Consequently, he accepted Islaam and recited the testimony of Imaan (the Kalimah). When Hadhrat Abu Quhaafa was brought to Rasulullaah his hair and beard were as white as the 'Thughaama' plant. Rasulullaah advised him saying, "Change the colour of these hairs but stay away from black," (2)

The Da'wah Rasulullaah Gave to Individuals who did not Accept Islaam

Rasulullaah (Invites Abu Jahal to Islaam

Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba was when Rasulullaah met him walking with Abu Jahal in one of the gullies of Makkah. Rasulullaah said to Abu Jahal, "O Abul Hakam! Come to Allaah and His Rasool is. I am inviting you to Allaah." Abu Jahal replied, "O Muhammad! Will you not refrain from insulting our gods? Do you want us to testify that you have conveyed the message? We then testify that you have conveyed the message. I swear by Allaah that I would have certainly followed you if I knew that whatever you say is the truth."

Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba says that when Rasulullaah had left them, Abu Jahal said to him, "By Allaah! I know for sure that whatever he says is the truth. However, there is only one thing that prevents me from accepting. (Rasulullaah belongs to the Bani Qusay family and) When the Bani Qusay said, 'Keeping the keys to the Kabah is our duty,' we (the other families of the Quraysh) accepted. Thereafter when they said, 'Giving water to the people performing Hajj is our duty,' we again accepted. Thereafter when they said, 'Chairing the public meetings is our duty,' we again accepted. Thereafter when they said, 'Holding the flag during times of war is our duty,' we again accepted. After that, they fed people and we also fed people until we were almost on par and then they say, 'We have a Nabi among us.' By Allaah! This I shall never accept." (1)

(2) Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 5 Pg. 451).

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol. 5 Pg. 305) says that the narrators of the Hadith are all reliable.

Rasulullaah Invites Waleed bin

Mughiera to Islaam

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that Rasulullaah once recited a part of the Qur'aan to Waleed bin Mughiera who had come to him. This caused Waleed's heart to soften. When Abu Jahal heard about this, he approached waleed saying, "O uncle! Your people intend collecting money for you." "Why is this?" asked Waleed. "They want to give it to you because you have been to Muhammad to get something from him," was the reply.

Waleed said, "But the Quraysh know well that I am among the wealthiest people (I do not need money from Muhammad)." "Then," said Abu Jahal, "you will have to tell them something to make them know that you have nothing to do with Muhammad." Waleed said, "What should I tell them? By Allaah! None of you knows as much about poetry as I do. None of you knows as much about rhyming as I do. None of you knows as much about songs as I do. None of you knows as much about the poetry of the Jinn as I do. By Allaah! What Muhammad says bears no resemblance to any of these things. By Allaah! What he said was extremely sweet, beautiful and attractive. What he said was a flourishing tree the top of which bears abundant fruit and the bottom of which is luxuriantly green. His words shall always be towering without being subdued. His speech crushes all other speech."

Abu Jahal said to him, "Your people shall never be pleased with you until you say something against him." To this, Waleed said, "Give me time to think about it." After thinking awhile, Waleed said, "This is nothing but magic recounted from (fables of) the past." It was with reference to Waleed that Allaah revealed the following verses of the Qur'aan:

﴿ ذَرُنِي وَمَنُ خَلَقْتُ وَحِيْدًا ۞ وَجَعَلْتُ لَهُ مَالًا مَّمْدُوْدًا ۞ وَبَنِيْنَ شُهُوْدًا ۞ وَمَنْ خَلَقْتُ وَحِيْدًا ۞ وَمَهَّدْتُ لَهُ مَالًا مَّمْدُوْدًا ۞ وَبَنِيْنَا عَنِيْدًا ۞ سَأَرْهِقَهُ وَمَهَّدْتُ لَهُ تَمْهِيْدًا ۞ اللهُ فَعَرَ وَقَدَّرَ ۞ فَمَّ مَا اللهِ عَنْ كَنْفَ قَدَرَ ۞ فَمَّ مَظُودًا ۞ إِنَّهُ فَكَرَ وَقَدَّرَ ۞ فَقُتِلَ كَيْفَ قَدَّرَ ۞ فَمَّ مَظَرَ ۞ فَمَّ عَبَسَ وَبَسَرَ ۞ فَمَّ أَدْبَرَ وَاسْتَكْبَرَ ۞ فَقَالَ إِنْ طَدَآ إِلَّا سِحْرٌ بُوْنَرُ ۞ إِنْ طَدَآ إِلَّا فَيْمَلَ ۞ اللهِ مَعْدُونَ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ وَاللهُ اللهُ اللهُ

Leave Me (to deal) with the one (Waleed) whom I have created single-handedly and to whom I have granted ever increasing wealth, sons who are present with him and for whom I have prepared every type of comfort. He then wishes that I grant him even more (in the

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 3 Pg. 64). Ibn Abi Shayba has also narrated a similar report as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg. 129). However, his report states that Rasulullaah said to Abu Jahal, "O Abul Hakam! Come to Allaah, to His Rasool said to His book, I am inviting you to Allaah."

Aakhirah). Never (he shall never receive any good in the Aakhirah)! He was certainly opposed to Our Aayaat. I shall soon make him climb a mountain of Jahannam. Verily, he thought and (finally he) devised something (he decided to announce that the Qur'aan was magic and that Rasulullaah was a magician). May he be destroyed! How does he plot? May he be destroyed again! How does he plot? He looked (at the Mushrikeen waiting for his reply) and then frowned (to show dislike for the Qur'aan) and scowled. Then he turned away and was proud. He said, "This is nothing but magic recounted from (fables of) the past. This is nothing but the word of man." I shall soon enter him into Jahannam. {Surah Muddathir, verses II-26}(1)

According to another narration, the verse that Rasulullaah  recited for Waleed was:

Verily Allaah instructs (people to carry out) justice, Ihsaan (do things well, as well as doing everything with the consciousness that Allaah is watching), and giving (charity) to relatives. And Allaah forbids immoral behaviour, evil and oppression. He advises you so that you may take heed (and thereby save ourselves from ruin and Jahannam). (Surah Nahl, verse 90) (2)

The Da'wah Rasulullaah Gave to Pairs Rasulullaah Invites Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan and Hind to Islaam

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya harrates that he was a young boy riding his donkey while his father Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan was riding another animal with his wife Hind sitting behind him. They were proceeding to Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan farm when they heard the voice of Rasulullaah Addressing his son, Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan said, "O Mu'aawiya! Dismount the donkey so that Muhammad may mount." When Rasulullaah mounted the donkey, he rode ahead for a while and then turned to the family saying, "O Abu Sufyaan bin Harb! O Hind bint Utba! I swear by Allaah that you shall definitely die after which you shall certainly be resurrected. Thereafter, the good shall proceed to Jannah while the evil ones shall head for Jahannam. I am telling you the absolute truth and you two are among the very first to be warned (about Allaah's punishment)." Thereafter, Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Is'haaq bin Raahway as well as Bayhaqi.

⁽²⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 3 Pg. 60). Ibn Katheer in his Talseer (Vol. 4 Pg. 443) also narrates the report from Hadhrat Ikrama (2006).

يسمرالله الرَّحْمُ مِن الرَّحِيْمِ

HaaMeem. (This Qur'aan is) A revelation from the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful. A Book, the verses of which have been clearly explained as an Arabic Qur'aan, for a nation with knowledge. (It is) A carrier of good news (for the Mu'mineen) and a warner (for the Kuffaar). However, (instead of listening to the warnings) most of them turn away and do not listen. They (the Kuffaar) say (to the Ambiyaa and those who call them to Imaan), "Our hearts are veiled from what you call us towards (we do not understand you) and there are props in our ears. There is also a barrier between you and us, so do (as you please), we shall do (as we please). "Say (to them, O Rasulullaah (1), "(I cannot force you to accept because) I am just a human being like you. Revelation has been sent to me that your Ilaah is only One. So remain devoted to Him and seek forgiveness from Him. Destruction (Jahannam) be to the Mushrikeen who do not pay zakaah and who disbelieve in the Aakhirah. (On the other hand) There shall certainly be an everlasting reward (Jannah) for those who have Imaan and who do righteous deeds." Say, "Do you people really disbelieve in, and ascribe partners to the Being Who created the earth in two days? It is He Who is the Rabb of the universe." And (in addition to all of this) Allaah has (also) placed mountains on the surface of the earth, blessed the earth, and stipulated the earth's provisions in four complete days; (this is sufficient as a reply) for those who question (you about the creation of the earth). Thereafter, Allaah turned (His attention) to the sky, which was smoke, and said to it, as well as to the earth, "Come to Us (submit to Us) willingly or unwillingly." Both replied, "We shall come willingly." {Surah HaaMeem Sajdah, verses 1-11} Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan ("Have you finished, O Muhammad?" Rasulullaah ("Yes" and then dismounted the donkey. When Hadhrat Mu'aawiya ("Did you make my son dismount for that magician?" Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan Sufyaan Sufyaan ("I swear by Allaah that he is neither a magician nor a liar." (1)

Rasulullaah (Invites Hadhrat Talha (and Hadhrat Zubayr (to Islaam Hadhrat Yazeed bin Roomaan narrates that Hadhrat Uthmaan and Hadhrat Talha followed Hadhrat Zubayr to Rasulullaah (When the two (Hadhrat Talha and Hadhrat Zubayr (Labayr (Labayr)) came to Rasulullaah (Labayr), he presented Islaam to them, recited the Qur'aan to them, informed them about the rights of Islaam and promised them Allaah's munificence. Both of them accepted Islaam and acknowledged the message. Hadhrat Uthmaan (Labayr) then said, "O Rasulullaah (Labayr) I have just arrived from Shaam. When we were between Ma'aan and Zarqaa, we fell into a slumber and then heard a caller announcing, 'O you sleeping ones! Get up because Ahmad had appeared in Makkah. We then heard of you when we reached." Hadhrat Uthmaan was among the first to accept Islaam even before Rasulullaah started coming to the house of Arqam. (2)

Rasulullaah Invites Hadhrat Ammaar and Hadhrat Suhayb to Islaam

Hadhrat Amaar bin Yaasir with narrates, "I met Suhayb bin Sanaan at the door of Arqam's house. I asked him, 'What are you doing here?' He asked me, 'What are you doing here?' I replied, 'I want to meet Muhammad and hear what he has to say.' He then said, 'I have the same intention.' We entered the house and met Rasulullaah . He presented Islaam to us and we both accepted. We then stayed there the entire day until the evening when we secretly left."

Hadhrat Amaar bin Yaasir was and Hadhrat Suhayb was accepted Islaam after thirty odd people had already accepted. May Allaah be pleased with all of them. (3)

Rasulullaah Invites Hadhrat Sa'd bin Zurarah and Dhakwaan bin Abd Qais to Islaam

Hadhrat Khubayb bin Abdir Rahmaan narrates that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Zurarah and Dhakwaan bin Abd Qais (Same to Makkah to have Utba bin

Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg. 94). Tabraani has also reported a similar narration. Hayhami (Vol. 6 Pg. 20) says that although all the narrators are reliable, nothing is known about a narrator called Humayd bin Munhab.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 3 Pg. 55).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 3 Pg. 247) narrating from Abu Ubaydah bin Muhammad bin Ammaar.

Rabee'ah settle a dispute. When they arrived and heard about Rasulullaah they both went to him. Rasulullaah presented Islaam to them, recited the Qur'aan to them and they both accepted Islaam without even getting close to Utba bin Rabee'ah. Hadhrat Sa'd bin Zurarah and Dhakwaan bin Abd Qais were therefore the first persons from Madinah to accept Islaam. (1)

The Da'wah Rasulullaah 🕮 Gave to Groups

Leaders of the Quraysh Dispute the Da'wah Rasulullaah & Gave them

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in narrates that it was after sunset when several leaders of the Quraysh gathered behind the Kabah for a meeting. Among them were Utba and Shaybah the two sons of Rabee'ah, Abu Sufyaan bin Harb, someone from the Abdid Daar tribe, Abul Bakhtari from the Banu Asad tribe, Aswad bin Abdil Muttalib bin Asad, Zam'ah bin Al Aswad, Waleed bin Mughiera, Abu Jahal bin Hishaam, Abdullaah bin Abi Umayyah, Umayyah bin Khalaf, Aas bin Waa'il and Nabeeh and Munabbah the two sons of Hajjaaj from the Banu Sahm tribe. They decided to send someone to call Rasulullaah to them in an effort to speak to him frankly and thrash out matters so that people would know that they had made every effort (to resolve matters).

Consequently, the message reached Rasulullaah that the leaders of his people have gathered to speak to him. Rasulullaah that they had changed their opinions about him (and were ready to accept Islaam) because he was always eager for their welfare, always desired that they be rightly guided and always distressed by their errant ways.

When Rasulullaah sat with them, they said, "O Muhammad! We have sent for you so that people may know that we have done our best to persuade you. By Allaah! We know of no other Arab who has distressed his people as you have done. You have insulted our forefathers, blasphemed against our religion, made our luminaries seem foolish, abused our gods and disrupted our unity. In fact, you have done everything possible to spoil relations between us. If it is wealth that you want by propagating your message, we shall accumulate wealth to make you the wealthiest person amongst us. If it is honour that you want, we shall make you our leader. If it is kingship you aspire for, we shall make you our king. If you are doing this because you have been afflicted by evil spirits that have overwhelmed you, then we shall spend all our fortunes until you are cured or until we grow helpless in finding a cure for you."

Rasulullaah replied, "I aspire for none of the things you have mentioned. I have not brought to you what I have brought (the message of Islaam) in search of your wealth nor to attain honour or kingship. However, Allaah has sent me as a messenger to you. Allaah has revealed a book to me and commanded me that I convey glad tidings to you (should you accept Islaam) and warn you at the same time. I have therefore conveyed to you the messages of my Rabb and I have given you sound advice. If you accept what I have brought to you, you shall be fortunate in this world as well as in the Aakhirah. On the other hand, should you reject this, I shall wait for the decision of Allaah when he decides matters between myself and you people."

After listening to him, the leaders of the Quraysh said, "O Muhammad! Since you would not accept any of our proposals, you know very well that there is no city more restricted than ours, no nation poorer than us and none who live lives more difficult than ours. Therefore, ask your Rabb who has sent you to move from us these mountains that have restricted us, to expand our city, to cause rivers to flow like the rivers of Shaam and Iraq. In addition to this, ask Him to bring back to life our forefathers who have passed away. Amongst these He should bring back to life Qusay bin Kilaab because he was a pious person. We shall then ask him whether you are truthful in your claim or not. If you fulfil all that we have asked you and if our forefathers verify what you say, then we shall believe you and acknowledge your status with Allaah. We shall then acknowledge that Allaah has sent you as a messenger as you claim.

In response to this, Rasulullaah said, "I have not been sent for this reason. I have been sent to you people with that which Allaah has sent me for and I have already conveyed to you that which Allaah has sent me with. If you accept it, you shall meet good fortune in this world as well as in the next. On the other hand, should you reject this, I shall patiently await the command of Allaah when He decides matters between yourselves and me."

The Mushrikeen then said, "If you do not wish to do this, then at least do this for yourself that you ask your Rabb to send an angel to verify what you say and give answers on your behalf. You should also ask Him to grant you orchards, treasures and palaces of gold and silver by which you would become independent of the things we assume you are hankering after because you merely stand in the market places and earn a living just as we do. If you do this, we shall acknowledge your high standing in the sight of your Rabb. This you would do if you are really a Nabi as you claim."

Rasulullaah said to them, "I shall not do this. I am not one to ask my Rabb for such things and I have not been sent to you for this reason. However, Allaah has sent me as a bearer of glad tidings and as a warner. If you accept what I say, you shall meet good fortune in this world as well as in the next. On the other hand, should you reject this, I shall patiently await the command of Allaah when He decides matters between yourselves and me."

Then Mushrikeen then said, "In that case, cause the sky to fall on us as you claim your Rabb is able to do if He pleases. We shall never believe you unless you do this." Rasulullaah said to them, "That is left to Allaah. If He wills, He would make it happen." They said, "O Muhammad! Did your Rabb not know that we will be sitting with you and asking you for these things? Could he not have informed you earlier about the questions we will be asking and the replies you ought to be giving? Could He not have told you what He would do with us if we refused to accept what you say? The news has reached us that you have learnt everything you say from a man in Yamama whose name is Rahmaan. By Allaah! We shall never believe in Rahmaan! O Muhammad! We have placed everything before you without leaving anything unsaid. By Allaah! We shall never leave you alone and will keep seeking vengeance for what he and you had done to us. Eventually, it will be us who will finish you off or you who will finish us off."

Thereafter one of them said, "We worship the angels who are the daughters of Allaah." Another said, "We shall never believe you until you bring Allaah and the angels all before us." When they had said this, Rasulullaah was stood up and left them. His cousin by the name of Abdullaah bin Abi Umayyah bin Mughiera bin Abdillaah bin Umar bin Makhzoom (who was the son of Rasulullaah "s"'s paternal aunt Aatika) also stood up with him and said, "O Muhammad! Your people presented to you what they had to say but you refused to accept any of their proposals. Thereafter they asked you for some things they required by which they could recognise your high status in the sight of Allaah, but you refused to do even this. Eventually they asked you to hasten the punishment about which you had been warning them. I swear by Allaah and that I shall never believe in you until I see you set up a staircase leading to the heavens, climb it and return with an open scripture together with four angels who would testify that you are as you claim you are. By Allaah! I think that I would not even believe you after you do this." He then turned away from Rasulullaah (leaving Rasulullaah to return to his family in a state of sadness and dejection because not only was his desire for them to accept Islaam left unfulfilled, but because he noticed that they were drifting further from him. (1)

Rasulullaah (invites Abil Haysim and some youths from the Banu Abdil Ash'hal to Islaam

Mahmood bin Labeed from the Banu Abdil Ash'hal tribe narrates that Abul Haysim Anas bin Raafi and some youths from the Banu Abdil Ash'hal tribe arrived in Makkah to conclude a treaty with the Quraysh on behalf of their tribe the Khazraj. Among these youths was Iyaas bin Mu'aadh. When Rasulullaah heard about their arrival, he approached them and said, "Do you desire something better than that which has brought you?" They replied, "What is it?" he said, "I am the Rasul of Allaah. Allaah has sent me to his servants to call them to worship Him without ascribing any partners to Him. Allaah has also revealed a book to me. Rasulullaah then spoke to them about the beauty of Islaam and recited a part of the Qur'aan to them. To this, Iyaas bin Mu'aadh who was still a young lad said to the people, "By Allaah! This is certainly better than that which has brought you here."

Abul Haysim Anas bin Raafi threw a handful of pebbles into the face of Iyaas and said, "Ignore this. I swear by my life that we have come for some other purpose."

⁽I) Ibn Jareer. Ibn Katheer in his Talseer (Vol. 3 Pg. 62) and Al Bidaaya Wan Nihaaya (Vol. 3 Pg. 50).

lyaas remained silent and Rasulullaah (left them. The group later left for Madinah.

This occurred during the period when the Aws and Khazraj tribes were fighting a prolonged battle called "Bu'aath". It was not long thereafter that Iyaas passed away. Hadhrat Mahmood bin Labeed narrates further that the people who were with Iyaas at the time of his death informed him that they heard Iyaas reciting the words "Laa Ilaaha Illalaah", "Allaahu Akbar" and "Subhaanallaah" until he died. There is no doubt about the fact that he died as a Muslim. He had accepted Islaam as soon as he received the invitation directly from Rasulullaah

The Da'wah Rasulullaah gave to Large Gatherings

Rasulullaah invites his close relatives to Islaam together with various tribes of the Quraysh upon the revelation of a verse

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Singles) narrates that Rasulullaah (Singles) climbed the hill of Marwah when the following verse of the Qur'aan was revealed:

﴿ وَاللَّهِ رُ عَشِيْرَتَكَ الْأَقْرِبِينَ ۞ ﴾ (سورة سوره شعراه: ٢١٤)

(O Rasulullaah Will: First) Warn your closest relatives (about the punishment due to those who reject Imaan). {Surah Shu'araa, verse 214}

From the top of the hill, Rasulullaah called out, "O the family of Fahr! to this call, the Quraysh arrived. Abu Lahab bin Abdul Muttalib said, "The Fahr tribe are present before you, so say your piece?" Rasulullaah called, "O the family of Ghaalib!" So the Banu Mahaarib and Banu Haarith tribes, who were the descendants of Fahr returned. Then Rasulullaah called, "O the family of Luway bin Ghaalib!" So the Banu Taymul Adram tribe, who were the descendants of Ghaalib returned. Thereafter, Rasulullaah called, "O the family of Ka'b bin Luway!" So the Banu Aamir tribe, who were the descendants of Luway returned. Then Rasulullaah called, "O the family of Murrah bin Ka'b!" So the Banu Adi bin Ka'b, the Banu Sahm and the Banu Jumah bin Amr bin Husays tribes, who were all the descendants of Ka'b bin Luway returned.

Then Rasulullaah called, "O the family of Kilaab bin Murrah!" So the Banu Makhzoom bin Yaqzah and Banu Taym tribes, who were the descendants of Murrah returned. Then Rasulullaah called, "O the family of Qusay!" So the Banu Zuhrah tribe, who were the descendants of Qusay returned. Then Rasulullaah called, "O the family of Abd Manaaf!" So the Banu Abdud Daar, the Banu Abdil Uzza and Banu Abd tribes, who were the descendants of Qusay returned.

Abu Lahab then said, "The Abd Manaaf tribe are present before you, so say your piece?" Rasulullaah then spoke, "Allaah has commanded me to warn my closest relatives and you are the closest to me from among the Quraysh. I can do nothing on your behalf in the court of Allaah, nor can I do anything in your favour in the Aakhirah unless you say, 'Laa Ilaaha Illalaah'. If you do so, I shall testify to this in the court of your Rabb. At the same time, all the Arabs shall be in your control and the non-Arabs shall be subservient to you."

⁽¹⁾ Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg. 11). Ahmad and Tabraani have also narrated the Hadith with reliable narrators as mentioned by Haythami (Vol. 6 Pg. 36). Many scholars have narrated it from an authentic narration of Ibn Is'haaq in his Maghaazi as mentioned in Isaaba (Vol. 1 Pg. 91).

Abu Lahab retorted by saying/ "May you be destroyed! Have you called us for this?!" It was in response to this that Allaah revealed the verses:

May the hands of Abu Lahab be shattered and may he be destroyed... {Surah Lahab} (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (I) narrates that Rasulullaah (I) climbed the hill of Safa when the following verse of the Qur'aan was revealed:

(O. Rasulullaah First) Warn your closest relatives (about the punishment due to those who reject Imaan). {Surah Shu'araa, verse 214}

He then called out, "Yaa Sabaahaa!" (2) In response to this call, everyone gathered around Rasulullaah (25), some came themselves, while others sent representatives. Addressing them, Rasulullaah (25) said, "O the family of Abdul Muttalib! O the family of Fahr! O the family of Ka'b! Tell me. Would you believe me if I told you that the enemy cavalry was preparing to attack you from the foot of this hill?" When they all responded in the affirmative, Rasulullaah (25) said, "I am then warning you of a severe punishment."

Abu Lahab snapped, "May you be destroyed for all the day! Have you called us for this?!" It was in response to this that Allaah revealed the verses:

May the hands of Abu Lahab be shattered and may he be destroyed... ${Surah Lahab}^{(3)}$

The Da'wah Rasulullaah age gave to Various Arab Tribes During the Hajj Season

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ka'b bin Maalik narrates that Rasulullaah gave Da'wah secretly for the first three years. It was during the fourth year that he openly began cailing people to Islaam. This continued for the next ten years in Makkah. During this time, Rasulullaah invited people to Islaam wherever they stayed when they arrived for Hajj, even at the marketplaces of Ukaaz, Majinna and Dhil Majaaz. He requested them to grant him asylum so that he could propagate the message of his Mighty Rabb, promising them Jannah in return. However, he could find none to assist him. Eventually, he used to even find out about the place where each individual tribe stayed.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd as quoted in Kanzul Ommaal (Vol. 1 Pg. 277).

⁽²⁾ The phrase may be translated as "Beware of an early morning assault!" and was used to alert people of an attack by the enemy because battles were waged early in the morning. In fact, in those days when battles continued until the evening, the armies would return to their camps and start again early the following morning. When such an alert was sounded, the people usually gathered around the person making the call.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad. Bukhari and Muslim have also reported the Hadith as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 3 Pg. 38).

When he finally reached the Banu Aamir bin Sa'sa'ah tribe, they ill-treated him like no other tribe did. When he left them, they actually threw stones at him. When Rasulullaah met the Banu Muhaarib tribe, he spoke to one of them who was an elder aged 120 years. Rasulullaah invited him to Islaam and requested that they offer him asylum so that he may propagate the message of Allaah. However, the old man said, "O person! Your people know your condition better. By Allaah! Whoever takes you back to their locality will have returned with the worst thing a person performing Hajj could return with this season. Stay away from us."

All this while, Abu Lahab had been listening to the conversation. He approached the old man of the Banu Muhaarib and said, "If all the people this season had been like you, he (Rasulullaah (2004)) would have forsaken the religion he practises. He is an irreligious liar." The old man said, "By Allaah! You know him better for he is your brother's son and your own flesh." Addressing Abu Lahab further, the old man said, "O Abu Utba! Is he perhaps not insane? We have with us a man from the tribe who will know how to cure him." Abu Lahab gave no reply. However, whenever Abu Lahab saw Rasulullaah (2004) standing with a tribe (calling them to Islaam) he would shout out, "He is irreligious! He is a liar!"

Rasulullaah Invites the Banu Abs Tribe to Islaam

Hadhrat Waabisa narrates from his grandfather that their tribe was stationed close to the first Jamara in Mina near the Masjid Khayf when Rasulullaah came to them riding. Mounted behind him on the same animal was Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha he says, "Rasulullaah invited us to accept Islaam but by Allaah, we failed to accept his invitation and thus committed a grave crime."

He continues, "We had already heard about the message of Rasulullaah that Hajj season and when he came to us and gave us the message, we did not accept it. With us was Maysara bin Masrooq Absi who said, 'I swear by Allaah that it will be an excellent idea to believe this man and to take him with us to our locality and keep him with us. I swear by Allaah that the words of this man shall soon be dominant and reach the entire world.' The people said to him, 'Forget this talk. Why do you present to us something that we do not have the strength to handle?"

After hearing what Maysara had to say, Rasulullaah grew hopeful that he would accept Imaan, so he spoke to him further. Maysara said to Rasulullaah www., "What you are speaking is most excellent and extremely enlightening.

However, my people are opposing me and a man has to do as his people do. If a man's own people do not support him, how can he expect his enemies to treat him?" Rasulullaah the then left.

As the people left, Maysara told them to proceed to Fidak because many Jews lived there and they could ask the Jews about Rasulullaah . When they approached the Jews (and asked about Rasulullaah . It read, "The unlettered Arab Nabi shall ride a camel and shall suffice on very little (to eat). He shall neither be too tall nor too short and his hair shall neither be very curly nor extremely straight. His eyes shall have red lines and his complexion shall be fair with tones of red." (After reading this much,) The Jews said, "If the person who invited you fits this description, you should believe in him and adopt his religion. We shall not follow him because we are jealous of him and we shall fight brutal battles against him on many occasions. There shall not be an Arab who does not either follow him or fight him, so you should be among those who follow him."

Upon hearing this, Maysara turned to his people and said, "O people! The matter is now clear." The people said, "We shall return the following Hajj season to meet him." So they returned to their homes. However, their leaders refused to let them return for the following Hajj and therefore none of them were able to follow Rasulullaah Rasulullaah later migrated to Madinah and it was when he performed the farewell Hajj that he met Maysara and recognised him. Maysara asked, "O Rasulullaah By Allaah! I was eager to follow you from the day you halted your camel by us, but matters took their course as they did. As you see, Allaah had decided that I become a Muslim much later. Most of those who were with me have passed away. Where have they gone to?" Rasulullaah replied, "All those who have passed away while following a religion other than Islaam are in the Fire of Jahannam." Maysara said, "All praise is due to Allaah who has saved me." He then accepted Islaam and was an excellent Muslim. He also enjoyed a respectable standing with Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Rasulullaah W Invites the Kindah

Tribe to Islaam

Hadhrat Ibn Roomaan, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abi Bakr and others have reported that Rasulullaah approached the Kindah tribe at their camping place near the market of Ukaaz. Never before had he met a tribe that was so soft-natured. When Rasulullaah realised how soft-natured and loving they were, he addressed them saying, "I call you towards the One Allaah Who has no partners and that if you protect me like you protect yourselves, you shall have your choice once I (the message of Islaam) become dominant."

Most of the people said, "These words are superb but we worship the gods that our forefathers used to worship." One of the youngest person there said, "O my people! Hurry to receive this man before you are beaten to it. By Allaah! The Ahlul Kitaab have been saying that the time is close when a Nabi shall emerge from the Haram." To this, a one-eyed man from the tribe stood up and said, "Be silent and hear me out! His own people have driven him out yet you want to shelter him and thus bear fighting all the Arabs! You cannot do this! I repeat: You cannot do this!" Rasulullaah the them feeling very grieved.

When the tribe returned home and informed their people about the incident, a Jew said to them, "You people have missed a golden opportunity. Had you received this man, you would have become the leaders of the Arabs. We have the description of this man in our scriptures. As he described Rasulullaah (from the scriptures), those people who had seen Rasulullaah confirmed every description he gave. The Jew said further, "We have in our scriptures that he shall appear in Makkah and then migrate to Yathrib (Madinah)." The people then decided that they would meet Rasulullaah the following Hajj season, but none of them got to meet him because one of their leaders prevented them from going for Hajj that season. When the Jew passed away, he was heard accepting Rasulullaah (as Allaah's Nabi) and believing in him. (1)

Rasulullaah W Invites the Banu Ka'b Tribe to Islaam

Abdur Rahmaan Al Aamiri narrates from the elders of his tribe that they were in the marketplace of Ukaaz when Rasulullaah approached them. When he asked them which tribe they belonged to, they replied that they belonged to the Banu Aamir bin Sa'sa'ah tribe. "Which family of the Banu Aamir?" asked Rasulullaah ... "The descendants of Ka'b bin Rabee'ah," came the reply.

Rasulullaah Asked them, "How strong are you?" They replied, "None would dare touch anything in our territory or even warm himself at our fireplace."

Rasulullaah then said to them, "I am the Rasul of Allaah. If I come to you, will you grant me protection so that I may propagate the message of my Rabb? I shall not force any of you into anything."

The people asked, "To which family of the Quraysh do you belong?" "To the family of Abdul Muttalib," Rasulullaah replied. They then asked, "How have the family of Abd Manaaf treated you?" Rasulullaah responded by saying, "They were the first to reject me and discard me." The people said, "But we shall not discard you nor shall we believe in you. However, we shall protect you so that you may propagate the message of your Rabb." Rasulullaah then joined them (intending to return with them to their territory).

In the meantime, the tribe continued trading in the marketplace when Bujra bin Qais Qushayri came to them and said, "Who is this with you? I do not recognise him." "He is Muhammad bin Abdillaah from the Quraysh," they replied. "What have you people got to do with him?" Bujra asked. They said, "He claims that he is the Rasul of Allaah and asked us to grant him asylum so that he could propagate the message of his Rabb." Bujra asked further, "What was your reply?" They said, "We welcomed him and told him that we shall protect him as we protect ourselves." Bujra told them, "As far as I am concerned, no one in this marketplace shall return with anything worse than that with which you shall return. You are doing something that will cause all the Arabs to shun you and wage war with you. His people know him better. Had there been any good in him, they would have considered it a privilege to support him. He is a foolish man whose people have discarded him and rejected him yet you people wish to give him shelter and assist him! Your decision is evil indeed!"

Bujra then went to Rasulullaah and said, "Get up and return to your people! By Allaah! Had you been among my people, I would have severed your head!" When Rasulullaah mounted his camel, the wretched Bujra stabbed the camel with a stick in its abdomen, causing it bolt and throw Rasulullaah off. Hadhrat Subaagha bint Aamir bin Qurt who was one of the ladies who accepted Islaam in Makkah happened to be visiting her cousins there. When she saw this, she said, "O children of Aamir! None of you are like Aamir to me (if you do not help Rasulullaah (). Can none of you do something when this has happened to the prophet of Allaah right in your midst?!"

In response to her plea, three of her cousins stood up and charged for Bujra, while two other men stood up to defend Bujra. The three cousins floored their opponents, sat on their chests and beat them up. Rasulullaah said, "O Allaah! Bless these (the three cousins) and curse those!" Consequently, the three who assisted Rasulullaah accepted Islaam and died as martyrs while the others died under the curse of Allaah.

The names of the two who helped Bujra were Hazn bin Abdillaah and Mu'aawiya bin Ubaadah while the three who helped Rasulullaah were Urwa bin Abdillaah and Ghitreef and Ghatfaan the two sons of Sahl. (1)

Hadhrat Zuhri Anator narrates that Rasulullaah met the Banu Aamir bin Sa'sa'ah tribe and placed Islaam and himself before them (invited them to accept Islaam and to assist him). Among the members of this tribe was a person named Bajeera bin Firaas who said, "If I could hold on to this person, I could destroy all the Arabs with him." He then said to Rasulullaah "You say that if we support you in your effort and then Allaah grants you victory over your enemies, shall we then have kingship?" Rasulullaah replied, "The decision rests with Allaah. He shall grant kingship to whoever He pleases." Bajeera exclaimed, "Hear! Hear! We should risk our necks in front of the Arabs and then when Allaah grants you victory, others receive kingship! We have no need for your effort." Upon this, all the members of the tribe rejected the message of Rasulullaah

When all the people left after performing Hajj, the Banu Aamir tribe also left. When they reached home, they would recount their experiences to a very old man of their tribe who could not perform the Hajj with them. They told him that a Qurayshi man from the family of Abdul Muttalib who claimed to be a Nabi had approached them asking for their protection, their support and to be taken back to their area. When he heard the incident, the old man held his head and said, "Oh Banu Aamir! Can there be any amends for the damage done! Can you ever grab hold of this bird's tail again! I swear by the being in whose control lies the life of a person! To this day no descendant of Ismaa'eel has ever made a false claim to prophethood. His claim to prophethood is absolutely true. Where have you lost your senses?!" (1)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Dalaa'ilun Nubuwwah (Pg. 100). Haafidh Sa'eed bin Yahya bin Sa'eed Umawi has also narrated it in his Maghaazi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya.

Zuhri has also narrated that Rasulullaah me met the Kindah tribe at the place where they were staying while one of their leaders by the name of Mulay was with them. Rasulullaah invited them to Allaah and placed himself before them (invited them to accept Islaam and to assist him). However, they refused to accept his message. (2)

Rasulullaah Invites the Bani Haneefah to Islaam

Muhammad bin Abdir Rahmaan bin Husayn narrates that Rasulullaah approached a family of the Banu Kalb tribe called the Banu Abdullaah at the place where they were staying. Rasulullaah invited them to Allaah and placed himself before them (invited them to accept Islaam and to assist him). He also said to them, "Allaah has certainly given your father a wonderful name (because Abdullaah means "the servant of Allaah") However, they refused to accept his message.

Rasulullaah Invites the Bani Haneefah to Islaam

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ka'b bin Maalik was narrates that Rasulullaah pproached the Banu Haneefah tribe at the place where they were staying. Rasulullaah invited them to Allaah and placed himself before them (invited them to accept Islaam and to assist him). However, there was not an Arab tribe that rejected his message in a manner worse than they did. (3)

Rasulullaah Invites the Banu Bakr to Islaam

Hadhrat Abbaas narrates that Rasulullaah once said to him, "I do not see any help forthcoming from yourself and your brother. Will you not take me to the marketplace tomorrow so that we may stop at the places where the various tribes are staying?" This was during the time when all the Arabs were gathered there (in Makkah for the Hajj).

⁽i) Ibn Is'haaq as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 3 Pg. 139). Abu Nu'aym has also quoted the narration (Pg. 100) from Zuhri with the words, "When the people left (for their homes), the Banu Aamir returned to an old man from their tribe..."

⁽²⁾ ibn Is'haaq

⁽³⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 3 Pg. 139).

(Consequently, they left for the marketplace, where Hadhrat Abbaas showed Rasulullaah the camps of the various tribes.) Continuing the narration, Hadhrat Abbaas says that he pointed out to Rasulullaah "This is the kindah tribe and those who are with them. They are the best of tribes from Yemen performing Hajj." Pointing towards the camps of other tribes, Hadhrat Abbaas further said, "This is the camp of the Banu Bakr bin Waa'il tribe and that is the Banu Aamir bin Sa'sa'ah camp. You may choose whichever you like (to give Da'wah to)."

Rasulullaah "Started by meeting the Kindah tribe. He approached them and said, "Where do you people come from?" They replied, "From the people of Yemen." "From which tribe of Yemen?" asked Rasulullaah "From the Kindah tribe," they responded. Rasulullaah further asked them, "From which family of the Kindah tribe do you belong?" They said, "From the Banu Amr bin Mu'aawiyah family." Rasulullaah then asked them, "Do you want something good?" "What is it?" they asked. Rasulullaah said to them, "That you should testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah, that you establish salaah and that you believe in everything that has come from Allaah."

According to a report from the elders of the Kindah tribe, the people of Kindah then said to Rasulullaah ."If you are successful, shall we receive kingship thereafter?" Rasulullaah replied, "All kingship belongs to Allaah and He shall grant it to whomsoever He pleases." The people then said, "We have no need for the message that you have brought to us."

According to a report of Kalbi, they said to Rasulullaah , "Have you come to us to prevent us from (worshipping) our gods and so that we should oppose the Arabs? Go back to your people for we have no need for you."

After leaving them, Rasulullah approached the Banu Bakr bin Waa'il tribe. He asked them, "Where do you people come from?" They replied, "We are from Banu Bakr bin Waa'il tribe." Rasulullaah further asked them, "From which family of the Banu Bakr bin Waa'il tribe do you belong?" "From the Banu Qais bin Tha'laba family," they responded. Rasulullaah asked them, "How large are your numbers?" "We are as many as the grains of sand," they boasted. "What authority do you have?" asked Rasulullaah ."None," they replied, "The Persians are our neighbours and we can neither defend ourselves against them nor defend anyone else against them." Rasulullaah said to them, "If you people steadfastly take it on your shoulders to recite 'Subhaanallaah' 33 times, 'Al Hamdu Lillaah' 33 times and 'Allaahu Akbar' 34 times, you shall see a time (if Allaah preserves you till then) when you would live in the homes of the Persians, marry their women and take their sons as your slaves." "Who are you?" they asked. Rasulullaah replied, "I am the messenger of Allaah." Rasulullaah

According to a report of Kalbi, Rasulullaah "s"'s uncle Abu Lahab always followed him and said to the people, "Do not accept what he has to say." When Rasulullaah had left the people and Abu Lahab was passing by them, they asked him, "Do you know this man?" Abu Lahab replied, "Yes. He is a man of high status among us. What do you wish to know about him?" When the people informed Abu Lahab about the Da'wah Rasulullaah had given to them and that he claimed to be Allaah's Rasul, Abu Lahab sneered, "Do not even raise your head to speak to him for he is insane and speaks without thinking." The people said, "That is what we thought when he told us about the Persians." (1)

Rasulullaah W Invites Various Tribes to Islaam at Mina

Hadhrat Rabee'ah bin Ibaad in arrates that he was a youngster with his father at Mina when Rasulullaah stopped at the camps of various Arab tribes saying to them, "O people of this tribe! I am indeed Allaah's Rasul to you, instructing you to worship Allaah Alone without ascribing any partners to Him and to forsake these idols that you worship. I further direct you to believe in me, to accept me and to offer me asylum so that I may clearly express that which Allaah has sent me with."

Hadhrat Rabee'ah bin Ibaad says further that Rasulullaah was being trailed by squint albeit handsome man whose hair was divided into two locks and who was wearing clothes from Aden. When Rasulullaah had completed his talk and the message he had to convey, this man would say to the people, "O people of this tribe! This man is calling you to remove Laat and Uzza from your necks together with the Jinns of the Banu Maalik bin Uqaysh who are your allies. He wants you to rather follow the new-found and misguided religion he has brought. Do not follow him and do not even listen to him."

Hadhrat Rabee'ah says that he asked his father, "O father! Who is this man who follows him and belies what he says?" His father replied, "That is his uncle Abdul Uzza bin Abdil Muttalib (also known as) Abu Lahab." (2)

Rasulullaah W Invites a Large Group to Islaam at Mina

Hadhrat Mudrik with his father and they found themselves amongst a large group of people, he asked his father, "What is this gathering about?" His father replied, "They have gathered for that irreligious man." When Hadhrat Mudrik was saw who his father was referring to, he noticed Rasulullaah standing there telling the people, "O people! Say Laa Ilaaha Illalaah' and you will be successful." (3)

Hadhrat Haarith bin Haarith Ghaamidi Amerika narrates that he asked his father at Mina, "What is this gathering about?" His father replied, "They have gathered for that irreligious man." When Hadhrat Haarith Amerika stretched his neck to see who his father was referring to, he noticed Rasulullaah see standing there calling the people to accept the Oneness of Allaah, but they rejected his message. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol. 3 Pg. 140).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol. 3 Pg. 138). Abdullah bin Ahmad and Tabraani have also narrated a similar report from Hadhrat Rabee'ah 知識. Haythami has commented on the Sanad (see Vol. 6 Pg. 36).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol. 6 Pg. 21) says that all the narrators are reliable.

Hadhrat Hassaan bin Thaabit reports that he performed Hajj during the time when Rasulullaah was still calling people to accept Islaam and his companions were being tortured. He says that he happened to stop by Hadhrat Umar (who was then not yet a Muslim) as he was busy torturing a slave girl of the Banu Amr bin Mu'ammil. Thereafter, he (Hadhrat Umar stopped by Hadhrat Zinneeraa and started torturing her as well. (2)

Rasulullaah : Invites the Banu Shaybaan to Islaam

Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib says, "When Allaah commanded His Nabi to present himself to the Arab tribes, Rasulullaah left for Mina with me and Hadhrat Abu Bakr would approach them first and greet them. Hadhrat Abu Bakr was always one to take the initiative and was extremely proficient in his knowledge of each Arab tribe's lineage. He asked the people, 'Where are you people from?' They replied, 'From the Rabee'ah tribe.' He then asked, 'From which family of the Rabee'ah tribe?'"

Hadhrat Ali then continues the lengthy narration until he reached the words, "We then reached a gathering filled with an air of respect where there sat several elders of high status and eminence. Hadhrat Abu Bakr was always one to take the initiative so he approached them and greeted them. When he asked them where they came from, they replied that they were from the Banu Shaybaan bin Tha'laba tribe. Hadhrat Abu Bakr then turned to Rasulullaah and said, 'May my parents be sacrificed for you! There are none more respectable in their tribe than these men.' Among them were Mafrooq bin Amr, Haani bin Qabeesah, Muthanna bin Haaritha and Nu'maan bin Shareek. The closest to Hadhrat Abu Bakr from them was Mafrooq bin Amr who was also the most eloquent speaker from among the tribe. He wore two locks of hair that fell on his chest and he sat closest to Hadhrat Abu Bakr ""

Continuing with the narration, Hadhrat Ali says that Hadhrat Abu Bakr asked Mafrooq, "How large are your numbers?" Mafrooq replied, "We are certainly more than a thousand and a thousand cannot be defeated for want of numbers." Hadhrat Abu Bakr further asked, "What authority do you wield?" "We have to work very hard, but such is the lot of every nation," he responded. Hadhrat Abu Bakr posed a further question saying, "What are the battles like between yourselves and your enemies?" Mafrooq said, "We are most angered when we fight and we fight fiercest when we are angered. (We love war so much that) We prefer pedigreed (fighting) horses to children and weapons to milk-yielding camels. All help is from Allaah Who sometimes grants victory to us and sometimes allows others to be victorious over us. Are you not from the Quraysh?"

⁽I) Bukhari in his Taareekh, Abu Zur'ah, Baghawi, Ibn Abi Aasim and Tabraani as quoted in Isaabah (Vol. 1 Pg. 275).

⁽²⁾ Waaqidi as quoted in Isaabah (Vol. 4 Pg. 312).

Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "What if you were told that the Quraysh have the Rasul of Allaah and that this is him?" Mafrooq said, "The news has already reached us that he claims to be Allaah's Rasul." Mafrooq then turned to Rasulullaah and said, "To what are you calling, O brother of the Quraysh?" Rasulullaah then stepped forward and sat down. Hadhrat Abu Bakr stood up and shaded Rasulullaah with his clothing. Rasulullaah said, "I call you to testify that there is none worthy of worship but the One Allaah and to testify that I am the Rasul of Allaah. I am also asking you to grant me asylum, to protect me and to assist me so that I may convey that message which Allaah has commanded me to pass on because the Quraysh have joined forces against the Deen of Allaah, they have rejected his Rasool, have satisfied themselves with falsehood instead of the truth. But Allaah is Independent, Worthy of all praise."

To this, Mafrooq asked further, "What else are you calling us towards, O brother of the Quraysh?" To this, Rasulullaah recited the following verse of the Qur'aan:

﴿ قُلْ تَعَالُوْا اَتُلُ مَاحَرَّمَ رَبُّكُمْ عَلَيْكُمْ اللَّا تُشْرِكُوْا بِهِ شَيْنًا وَ بِالْوَالِدَيْنَ اِحْسَانًا وَلاَ تَقْتُلُوْا اَوْلاَدَكُمْ مِنْ اِمْلاَقِ * نَحْنُ نَرْزُفُكُمْ وَايَّاهُمْ * وَلاَ تَقْرَبُوا الْفَوَاحِشَ مَا ظَهَرَ مِنْهَا وَمَا بَطَنَ * وَلاَ تَقْرَبُوا الْفَوَاحِشَ مَا ظَهَرَ مِنْهَا وَمَا بَطَنَ * وَلاَ تَقْرَبُوا الْفَوَاحِشَ مَا ظَهَرَ مِنْهَا وَمَا بَطَنَ * وَلاَ تَقْرَبُوا النَّفْسَ الَّتِيْ حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ اللَّهِ بِالْحَقِ * ذَلِكُمْ وَصَّكُمْ بِهِ لَعَلَّكُمْ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللهُ اللهُ

Say, "Draw closer, I shall recite to you the things that your Rabb has forbidden for you. (These are) That you do not ascribe any partner to Him and that you be kind towards your parents. (Allaah has also commanded) That you do not kill (abort) your children for fear of poverty (fearing that you will become poor by providing for them). We provide for you and for them as well (even though you may be poor). And (Allaah commands) that you do not draw near to immoral acts that may be open and secret. And (Allaah commands further) that you do not murder a soul which Allaah has forbidden except with a right (that permits you to kill him. Those who may be lawfully executed are married adulterers, murderers and male Murtaddeen). These are the things which Allaah has (emphatically) commanded you so that you may understand (obey). And approach (use or invest) the wealth of the orphan (who is in your care) only in a favourable (fair or profitable) manner until he reaches maturity. And (in addition to all these commands) give full measure and weight in fairness (when you trade with people). We do not place on a soul a responsibility unless it is within its capability. Adopt justice when you speak (pass judgement) even though it be your relative (for whom or against whom you judge) and fulfil the pledge of Allaah (to worship Him Alone). These are the things which Allaah has (solemnly) commanded you so that you may take heed. And (tell them, O Muhammad (in the commands) is indeed my straight path, so follow it. Do not follow other paths, for they will deviate you from Allaah's path (from Islaam). These are the things which Allaah has (solemnly) commanded you so that you may adopt Taqwa." {Surah An'aam, verses 151-153}

Impressed by this, Mafrooq further asked, "What else do you call us towards? I swear by Allaah that this is not the speech of those on earth because if it were, we would have definitely recognised it." Thereafter Rasulullaah Frecited the following verse of the Qur'aan:

Verily Allaah instructs (people to carry out) justice, Ihsaan (do things well, as well as doing everything with the consciousness that Allaah is watching), and giving (charity) to relatives. And Allaah forbids immoral behaviour, evil and oppression. He advises you so that you may take heed (and thereby save ourselves from ruin and Jahannam). (Surah Nahl, jverse 90)

Mafrooq exclaimed, "O Qurayshi! I swear by Allaah that you call towards the best of character and the most beautiful actions. Without doubt, any nation that rejects you and supports others against you are certain liars."

Mafrooq then decided to include Haani bin Qabeesah in the conversation. He therefore introduced Haani by saying, "This is Haani bin Qabeesah. He is our elder and in charge of our religious affairs." Thereafter, Haani addressed Rasulullaah saying, "O my Qurayshi brother! I have heard what you have to say and accept every word of it. However, I feel that if we forsake our religion to follow yours, it would be a mistake and would reflect upon the weakness of our understanding and lack of contemplation over the matter. The reason for this is that this is only our first meeting with each other, which may not even be the last and no one knows what the future holds. Mistakes often occur because of haste. In addition to this, we have people at home who would dislike that we enter into any agreement without consulting them. Therefore, you should return and we shall return. There after you contemplate over your matter and we shall contemplate over ours."

Haani then wished to include Muthanna bin Haaritha into the conversation. He therefore introduced him saying, "This is Muthanna bin Haaritha. He is our elder and in charge of our military affairs." Addressing Rasulullaah . Muthanna said, "O Qurayshi brother! I have listened to what you have said. I like what you said for it appealed to me very much. However, my reply to you will be the same reply that Haani bin Qabeesah has given. We find ourselves between the borders of two countries. The one is Yamaamah and the other is Samaawah."

Rasulullaah asked him, "On the borders of for which two countries you are situated?" He replied, "On one side and we have the land, the high hills and mountains of the Arabs while on the other side we have the land of the Persians and the rivers of the Kisra. The Kisra has permitted us to live there on condition that we do not start anything new and do not support any person who starts a new movement. The possibility is great that the Persian kings would not like that which you are calling us towards. Whereas the custom in the land of the Arabs is to forgive those who will have erred and to accept their excuse, the custom of the land of the Persians is that people who make mistakes are not forgiven nor are their excuses accepted. Therefore, it you wish that we take your back to our land and assist you against the Arabs, we can accept this responsibility (however, we cannot bear the responsibility of opposing the Persians)."

Rasulullaah said to them, "Your reply has not been an evil one because you have spoken frankly. However, the only people who can establish the Deen of Allaah are those who protect it from every angle." Rasulullaah sie then stood up taking the hand of Hadhrat Abu Bakr sie. Hadhrat Ali sie narrates further when he says that the three of them then proceeded to the Aws and Khazraj tribes and left them only after they had pledged their allegiance to Rasulullaah sie. Speaking about the Aws and Khazraj tribes, Hadhrat Ali says, "They were extremely truthful and extremely perseverant people. May Allaah be pleased with all of them." (1)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah said to them, "The only people who can establish the Deen of Allaah are those who protect it from every angle." Thereafter, Rasulullaah said added, "Tell me. If after a short while Allaah grants you their (the Persians') land and their wealth and takes their women to your beds (making them your wives and slaves), will you then not be prepared to glorify Him and proclaim His purity?" To this, Nu'maan bin Shareek said, "You then have our support, O brother of the Quraysh." Rasulullaah then recited the verse:

(سورة الاحزاب: ١٤٥ ٤٦)

O Nabi We! We have certainly sent you as a witness, a carrier of good news (to the Mu'mineen that they will enjoy Jannah), a warner (to the Kuffaar that they will suffer the punishment of Jahannam if they do not accept Imaan) and as a caller to Allaah by His command and an as an illuminating lantern.

⁽I) Abu Nu'aym in Dalaa'il (pg. 96).

Hadhrat Ali (says, "Rasulullaah (then stood up, taking the hand of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉漢國. He turned to us and said, 'O Ali! How excellent are the manners of the Arabs even during the time of ignorance! How noble are they! It is because of this, they protect each other in the life of this world." The three of them then proceeded to the Aws and Khazrai tribes and left them only after they had pledged their allegiance to Rasulullaah 優麗. Hadhrat Ali 劉德姆 says, "They (the Aws and Khazrai tribes) were extremely truthful and extremely perseverant people. Rasulullaah was happy that Hadhrat Abu Bakr will possessed so much knowledge about the lineage of the Arabs. Not much time had elapsed afterwards when Rasulullaah came to his companions and said, 'Praise Allaah abundantly because today the Banu Rabee'ah (amongst whom were the Banu Shaybaan tribe) have defeated the Persians. They have killed the Persian leaders and annihilated their armies. Allaah has assisted them because of me." (1) Another narration explains this further by stating that when the soldiers of the Banu Rabee'ah met the Persian army at a place called Quragir, which was close to the Euphrates River, they used the name of Muhammad as their code-word, because of which Allaah granted them victory. After this battle, the Banu Rabee'ah entered the fold of Islaam." (2)

Rasulullaah E Invites the Aws and Khazraj Tribes to Islaam

One day, while mentioning the virtues of the Ansaar and that the fact that they were pioneers in Islaam, Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib 经减少 said, "The person who does not like the Ansaar and does not recognise the rights due to them, cannot be a Mu'min. By Allaah, they used their swords, their power of speech and their generosity of their hearts to nurture Islaam just as a mare nurtures her foal in a green pasture. During the seasons of Hajj, Rasulullaah was used to go out to call the various tribes to Islaam. However, none was prepared to accept his message. He used to meet the various tribes at the marketplaces of Majinna and Ukaaz and at Mina until he would meet the same tribes returning year after a year. In fact, there were those tribes who used to say to him, "When will the time come for you to give up hope on us because you have been meeting with us for such a long time? Eventually the time came when the Most Powerful the Most Honoured Allaah decided matters in favour of the tribes of the Ansaar. Rasulullaah then presented Islaam to them and they readily accepted. They took Rasulullaah to their town, assisted him and sympathised with him. May Allaah reward them with the best of rewards. Thereafter, we (the Muhaajireen) came to them and took up residence in their homes. They preferred us above themselves to the extent that they would even draw lots to decide which of them would be host to us. Eventually, from the depths of their hearts they allowed us to have greater rights than them in their very own wealth. They even sacrificed their lives for the protection of Allaah's Nabi (May the mercies and blessings of Allaah be showered on them." (1)

Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.142). Abu Nu'aym, Haakim, Bayhaqi have also narrated this Hadith.

⁽²⁾ Haafidh Ibn Hajar has commented on this Hadith in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.7 Pg. 156).

Hadhrat Umm S'ad bint Sa'd bin Rabee says that Rasulullaah continued calling people to Islaam when he was staying in Makkah. However, he was abused and hurt. Eventually, the decision of Allaah demanded that honour come to this tribe of the Ansaar. Consequently, Rasulullaah met a group of them at a place called Aqaba as they were busy shaving off their hair (after performing Hajj). When one of the narrators asked Hadhrat Umm Sa'd who the group was, she replied, "They were six or seven persons. From the Banu Najjaar tribe were As'ad bin Zuraarah and two sons of Afraa." She did not name the rest of them.

Rasulullaah sat down with them, conveyed the message of Allaah to them and recited a part of the Qur'aan to them. They accepted Allaah and his Rasool and agreed to meet him the following year. This incident is known as the first pledge of Aqaba. Thereafter, the second pledge of Aqaba took place. One of the narrators then asked Hadhrat Umm Sa'd saying, "How long did Rasulullaah stay in Makkah?" She replied, "Have you not heard the words of Abu Sirma Qais bin Abi Anas?" The narrator responded by saying, "I do not know what he said." She then quoted the following couplet:

"He stayed with the Quraysh for a few years more than ten Advising people with the hope of meeting a suitable friend"

She then proceeded to quote an entire poem, which shall Inshaa Allaah be quoted in a Hadith of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in the chapter concerning the help that the Sahabah rendered to the cause of Islaam. (2) Hadhrat Aqeel bin Abi Taalib and Hadhrat Zuhri narrate that one day during the period when the Mushrikeen started harassing Rasulullaah to a great degree, he said to his uncle Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdil Muttalib , "O my beloved uncle! Allaah shall assist His Deen using such people to whom the oppressive opposition of the Quraysh would seem trivial and who would enjoy great honour in the eyes of Allaah. Take me to the marketplace of Ukaaz and show me where the various Arab tribes are staying because I want to call them towards Allaah and request them to protect me and grant me asylum so that I may propagate the message of Allaah to humanity." Hadhrat Abbaas said, "O my beloved nephew! Proceed to Ukaaz. I shall accompany you and show you where the tribes are staying."

Rasulullaah started by inviting the Thaqeef tribe to Islaam and then continued meeting the other tribes who were there (for Hajj) that year. The following year (which was the year in which Allaah commanded Rasulullaah to preach openly) Rasulullaah (met six persons from amongst the Aws and Khazraj tribes. They were As'ad bin Zuraarah (Abul Haytham bin At Tayyihaan (Abdullaah bin Rawaaha (Sa'd bin Rabee (

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Dalaa'il (Pg.105).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Dalaa'il Pg. 105.

Rasulullaah see sat with them, invited them to believe in Allaah, to worship Him and to assist him in the propagation of the Deen that Allaah had sent the Ambiyaa and Rusul with. When they asked Rasulullaah see to present to them what Allaah had revealed to him, he recited the following verses of Surah Ibraheem to them:

﴿ وَإِذْ قَالَ إِبْرِهِيْمُ رَبِّ اجْعَلُ هَذَا الْبَلَدَ امِنَّا وَاجْنَبْنِي وَيَنِيَّ أَنْ تَعْبُدَ الْأَصْنَامَ ۞ رَبِّ إِنَّهُنَ أَضُلَلُنَ كَثِيْرًا مِّنَ النَّاسِ ۗ فَمَنْ تَبعَنِي فَإِنَّهُ مِنِّي ۗ وَمَنْ عَصَانِي فَإِنَّكَ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيْدٌ ۞ رَبَّنَا آيِّيْ اَسْكَنْتُ مِنْ ذُرِيَّتِيْ بِوَادٍ غَيْرِ ذِيْ زَرُع عِنْدَ بَيْتِكَ الْمُحَرَّمِ لا رَبَّنَا لِيُقِيْمُوا الصَّلُوةَ فَاجْعَلُ ٱفْهِدَةً مِّنَ الْنَّاسِ تَهُونَى إِلَيْهِمْ وَازْزُقْهُمْ مِّنَ الثَّمَرَاتِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَشْكُرُوْنَ ۞ رَبَّنَا إِنَّكَ تَعْلَمُ مَا نُخْفِي وَمَا نُعْلِنُ * وَمَا يَخْفَى عَلَى اللَّهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فِي السَّمَآءِ ۞ ٱلْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي وَهَبَ لِيْ عَلَى الْكِبَرِ إِسْمُعِيْلَ وَإِسْطَقَ * إِنَّ رَبِي لَسَمِيْعُ الدُّعَآءِ ۞ رَبِّ اجْعَلْنِي مُقِيْمَ الصَّلَاوِةِ وَمِنْ ذُرِّيَّتِي فَ رَبَّنَا وَتَقَبَّلُ دُعَآءِ ﴿ رَبَّنَا اغْفِرُ لِيْ وَلِوَالِدَى وَلِلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ يَوْمَ يَقُوْمُ الْحِسَابُ ۞ وَلَا تَحْسَبَنَّ اللَّهَ غَافِلًا عَمَّا يَعْمَلُ الظُّلْمُونَ * انَّمَا يُؤَخِّرُهُمْ لِيَوْمِ تَشْخَصُ فَيْهِ الْأَبْصَارُ ١ مُهُطعينَ مُفْنعي رُءُ وْسِهِمْ لَا يَرْتَدُّ النَّهِمْ طَرُفُهُمْ ۚ وَالْهِدَتُهُمْ هَوَآءٌ ۞ وَٱلْذِرِ النَّاسَ يَوْمَ يَأْتِيْهِمُ الْعَذَابُ فَيَقُوْلُ الَّذِيْنَ ظَلَمُوْا رَبَّنَآ اَجِّرْنَآ اِلِّي اَجَلِ قَرِيْبٍ لا نُّجِبُ دَعُوَتُكَ وَنَتَّبِعِ الرُّسُلِّ * أَوَلَمْ تَكُونُوا ٱقْسَمْتُمْ مِّنْ قَبْلُ مَالَكُمْ مِّنْ زَوَالِ ۞ وَّسَكَنْتُمْ فِي مَسْكِن الَّذِيْنَ ظَلَمُواْ أَنْفُسَهُمْ وَتَبَيَّنَ لَكُمْ كَيْفَ فَعَلْنَا بهمْ وَضَرَبْنَا لَكُمُ الْأَمْثَالَ ٥ وَقَدْ مَكُرُوا مَكْرَهُمْ وَعنْدَاللَّه مَكْرُهُمْ * وَانْ كَانَ مَكْرُهُمْ لِتَزُولُ مِنْهُ الْجِبَالُ ۞ فَلَا تَحْسَبَنَّ اللَّهَ مُخْلِفَ وَعُدِهِ رُسُلَهُ * إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزِيزٌ ذُوانْتِقَامِ ٥ يَوْمَ تُبَدَّلُ الْأَرْضُ غَيْرَ الْأَرْض وَالسَّمُونُ وَبَرَزُوا لِلَّهِ الْوَاحِدِ الْقَهَّارِ ۞ وَتَرَى الْمُجْرِمِيْنَ يَوْمَبِدِ مُقَرَّنيْنَ فِي الْأَصْفَادِ اللهُ سَرَابِيْلُهُمْ مِّنُ قَطِرَانِ وَتَغْشَى وُجُوْهَهُمُ النَّارُ ﴿ لِيَجْزِى اللَّهُ كُلَّ نَفْسٍ مَّا كَسَبَتْ * إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَرِيْعُ الْحِسَابِ ۞ طِذَا بَلْغٌ لِّلنَّاسِ وَلِيُنْذَرُوْا بِهِ وَلِيَعْلَمُوْا أَنَّمَا هُوَ إِللَّهُ وَّاحِدٌ وَّلِيَدُّكِّرَ أُولُوا الْأَلْبَابِ ١٠٥ (سورة ابراهيم: ٣٠ تا٥٠) (Remember the time) When Ibraheem said (when he left his wife

Haajira and son Ismaa'eel in Makkah), "O my Rabb! Make this city peaceful and safeguard my children and myself from worshipping idols. O my Rabb! Indeed these idols have misled many people. So whoever will follow me (by believing in Towheed), then he is certainly from me (from among the adherents of my religion). And whoever will disobey me, then (I pray that you give him the abilit; to obey me because) surely You are Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. O our Rabb! I have settled some of my children (Ismaa'eel) in a valley that cannot be cultivated, close to Your sacred house (the Kabah). O our Rabb! (I have left them here) So that they establish salaah, so cause the hearts of some people to be inclined towards them (so that people may love them and settle with them). And provide for them fruits (all types of provisions) for their sustenance so that they may be grateful. O our Rabb! Indeed You know what we conceal and what we disclose (so forgive us for all the mistakes we make). Nothing in the heavens and the earth is hidden from Allaah. All praise be to Allaah, Who has gifted me with (my sons) Ismaa'eel and Is'haaq despite (my) old age. Undoubtedly, my Rabb hears all prayers. O my Rabb! Make me one who establishes salaah, and my progeny as well. O my Rabb! Accept my prayer. O our Rabb! Forgive me, my parents and the Mu'mineen on the day when reckoning shall commence (the Day of Qiyaamah)." Never think that Allaah is unaware of what the oppressors do. (Allaah does not punish them immediately because) He is only granting them respite until a day (the Day of Qiyaamah) when gazes (of people) will be fixed upwards (because of their intense fright). (On that day) They will be running (towards the Plain of Resurrection) with their heads fixed upwards (in astonishment and fright), their gazes never returning to them. And their hearts will be empty (confused and without feeling because of the intense fear). Warn people of a day when punishment will afflict them, and the oppressors will say, "O our Rabb! Grant us respite (to return to the world) for a short while. We shall accept Your call and follow the Rusul." (Their plea will be rejected and it will be said to them) "Did you not swear on oath before this (in the world) that you shall never be displaced (from the world)? You lived in the homes of those who oppressed themselves and it was clear to you how We dealt with them (you saw that they were destroyed, yet you did as they did). And We even cited examples for you (so that you may mend your ways, but you failed to listen)." They plotted their plots, but their plots rest with Allaah (He knows what they plot and makes their plots fail), even though (their plots seem so powerful that) mountains could be displaced by their plots. Never think that Allaah will break His promise to His Rusul (He promises them His help and His help shall come to them). Indeed Allaah is Mighty, Able to take vengeance (on behalf of whoever He wills from whoever He wills). (Do not forget) The day (of Qiyaamah) when the earth will be changed into another earth, and the skies (will also be changed). They will then present themselves before Allaah, the One, the Most Powerful. On that day you will see the criminals (Kuffaar) shackled together in chains. Their garments will be of tar (which smells tertibly and burns easily) and the Fire will cover their faces. (They will present themselves before Allaah) So that Allaah may repay every soul for what (good or evil) it had earned. Indeed Allaah is swift in reckoning. This (Qur'aan) is a message for people so that they are warned by it and so that they may know (by the proofs and examples it contains) that He (Allaah) is but One Ilaah, and so that the intelligent ones take heed (listen, learn and prepare for the Aakhirah). {Surah (braheem verses 35-52}

Their hearts were moved by these words of the Qur'aan and they accepted Islaam. As they were engaged in conversation with Rasulullaah . Hadhrat Abbaas passed by. Recognising the voice of Rasulullaah said, "O my nephew! Who are these people with you?" Rasulullaah said, "These are the residents of Yathrib from the Aws and Khazraj tribes. I gave them the same Da'wah that I had given to so many other tribes before them and they accepted my message and believed what I said. They have also mentioned that they shall take me back with them to their city."

Hadhrat Abbaas descended from his animal, tied it up and said, "O people of the Aws and Khazraj! This is my nephew and the person I love most. If you accept his message, believe him and intend to take him with you to your city, I want you to make a promise so that my heart may be contented. Promise me that you shall never desert him and never betray him because your neighbours are the Jews and the Jews are his enemies. I fear that the Jews may connive against him."

When Hadhrat Abbaas expressed his mistrust in Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah and his companions, Hadhrat As'ad felt insulted and said, "O Rasulullaah Permit me to reply to him in a manner that will neither upset you nor appear distasteful to you. However, the reply will confirm that we have accepted your message and it will express our Imaan in you." Rasulullaah said, "You may reply to him for I have complete confidence in you."

safe). None could ever imagine that our leader shall be someone not from amongst us, whose people have ostracised him and whose uncles have deserted him. This is not an easy task but we have accepted it. These things appear difficult for all save those whose welfare Allaah has decided and who foresee good in its results. We have accepted your call with our tongues, our hearts and our hands because we believe what you have conveyed to us and we accept it with conviction that has settled deep within our hearts. We pledge our commitment to you in all of this and we pledge it to our Rabb and your Rabb as well. Allaah's hand is above ours (approving this pledge). We shall spill our blood to protect yours and give our lives for yours. We shall protect you as we protect ourselves, our children and our wives. Should we fulfil this pledge, it shall be for Allaah. Should we betray this pledge, it shall be betraying Allaah to the cost of making us the most wretched people. O Rasulullaah [2012]. All that we have told you is the absolute truth and we seek Allaah's assistance (to help us fulfil the pledge)."

Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah then turned to Hadhrat Abbaas saying, "As for you who have used your words to be a barrier between Rasulullaah and us. Allaah knows best what you meant by your words but you have mentioned that this is your nephew and the person whom you love the most. However, we have cut ourselves off from people near and distant as well as from blood relatives. We testify that he is certainly the Rasul of Allaah whom Allaah has Himself sent. He is certainly no liar and what he has brought does not at all resemble the words of man. As for your statement that you cannot be content with us until we make a promise to you, we shall certainly not refuse such a request made out of concern for Rasulullaah. You may therefore take from us whatever promises you wish."

Turning once again to Rasulullaah . Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah said, "O Rasulullaah : Take any promises you wish from us and make any conditions from the side of your Rabb that you wish to make."

The details of their pledge of allegiance shall Inshaa Allaah be mentioned in the complete Hadith in the chapter concerning the assistance that the Ansaar rendered to Islaam at the very beginning. (1)

The Da'wah that Rasulullaah gave in the Marketplaces

Hadhrat Rabee'ah bin Ibaad belonged to the Banu Deel tribe who had all accepted Islaam after passing through the Period of Ignorance. He narrates that during the Period of Ignorance, he saw Rasulullaah in the marketplace of Dhul Majaaz saying to those gathered around him, "O people! Say 'Laa Ilaaha Illalaah' and you will be successful." Rasulullaah was being trailed by squint albeit handsome man whose hair was divided into two locks. He followed Rasulullaah wherever he went and said to the people, "He (Rasulullaah is an irreligious man and a liar."

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Dalaa'il (Pg. 105)

Hadhrat Rabee'ah bin Ibaad says that when he asked about the man, he was informed that the man was Abu Lahab the uncle of Rasulullaah (1) According to another narration, Rasulullaah used to run away from Abu Lahab who persistently hounded him. Other narrations also mention that as people used to attack Rasulullaah there would be no one to say anything. However, he would never remain silent (nothing would prevent him from propagation). (2)

Hadhrat Taariq bin Abdillaah ("In a narrates that he was in the Dhul Majaaz marketplace when a man passed by wearing a shawl with red threads. He was saying to the people, "O people! Say 'Laa Ilaaha Illalaah' and you will be successful." He was being trailed by another man who had injured his (the first man's) heels and legs, causing them to bleed. The second man was saying, "O people! Do not follow him because he is a liar!" When Hadhrat Taariq bin Abdillaah asked the people who the men were, he was told, "He (the first man) is a man from the Banu Haashim who claims to be Allaah's Rasul and the other is his uncle Abdul Uzza (Abu Lahab)." (3)

A person from the Banu Maalik bin Kinnana tribe narrates that he saw Rasulullaah in the Dhul Majaaz marketplace saying to the people, "O people! Say 'Laa Ilaaha Illalaah' and you will be successful." Abu Jahal threw sand into the face of Rasulullaah saying, "Do not let this man deceive you into leaving your religion. He wants you to forsake your gods. He wants you to forsake Laat and Uzza." However, Rasulullaah paid no attention to him.

When the narrator was asked to describe Rasulullaah , he said, "He was wearing two shawls with red threads. He was of medium height with a well-built body and extremely handsome face. His hair was very black and thick and his complexion was exceptionally fair." (4) The Da'wah that Rasulullaah gave in the marketplace of Ukaaz has already been mentioned in the chapter entitled "The Da'wah Rasulullaah gave to Various Arab Tribes During the Hajj Season."

Rasulullaah Invites His Close Relatives to Islaam

Rasulullaah Addresses Faatima and Safiyya Hadhrat Aa'isha Addresses that Rasulullaah Rasulullaah Rasulullaah

- Ahmad and Bayhaqi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.41). Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.22) and Ibn Hajar (Fat'hul Baari Vol.7 Pg. 156) have commented on this narration.
- (2) Ibn Is'haaq as quoted in Al Bidaayah wan Nihaayah (Vol. 3 Pg. 138). Abdullah bin Ahmad and Tabraani have also narrated a similar report from Hadhrat Rabee'ah (Haythami has commented on the Sanad (see Vol. 6 Pg. 36).
- (3) Tabraani. Haythami has commented on it in Vol.6 Pg.23.
- (4) Ahmad with a reliable chain of narrators as mentioned by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.21). Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.139) quotes a narration of Bayhaqi without the description of Rasulullaah 學等. Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya mentions that although a narrator may be mistaken by naming Abu Jahal, it is possible that it was sometimes Abu Jahal and sometimes Abu Lahab who took turns to harass Rasulullaah 學等.

members when Allaah revealed the verse:

(O Rasulullaah [35]: First) Warn your closest relatives (about the punishment due to those who reject Imaan). {Surah Shu'araa, verse 214}
Rasulullaah [35]: then said, "O Faatima the daughter of Muhammad [35]: O Safiyya the daughter of Abdul Muttalib! O children of Abdul Muttalib! Ask me whatever you wish from my wealth, but I can give you nothing from Allaah (I cannot assist you against Allaah's punishment)."

Rasulullaah Invites his Household and other Relatives for a meal to Call them towards Islaam

Hadhrat Ali image narrates that Rasufullaah image gathered his family members when Allaah revealed the verse:

(O Rasulullaah :: First) Warn your closest relatives (about the punishment due to those who reject Imaan). {Surah Shu'araa, verse 214}

Thirty of them gathered and had something to eat and drink. Thereafter, Rasulullaah asked them, "Who will assume the responsibility of paying my debts and fulfilling my pledges? Whoever does this shall be my companion in Jannah and my successor in my family." Someone said, "But you are an ocean (of generosity and virtue). Who could possibly assume your responsibilities?" Rasulullaah then repeated the request thrice. When Rasulullaah presented the request to the members of his household, Hadhrat Ali Hadhrat Ali narrates that Rasulullaah invited the family of Abdul Muttalib who were such people that each one of them could easily eat a young animal and drink the equivalent of a "farag" (3). Rasulullaah prepared food weighing only a "mudd" (4), from which everyone ate to their fill. The leftover food was as much as there had been at the beginning and it appeared as if it had not been touched. Thereafter, Rasulullaah sent for a small cup from which everyone drank to their fill. The leftover drink was also as much as there had been at the beginning, appearing as if it had not been touched.

Thereafter, Rasulullaah addressed them saying, "O children of Abdul Muttalib! I have been sent as a Rasul to you people in particular and to all of mankind in general. You have just witnessed one of my miracles, so which of you shall pledge his allegiance to me to become my brother and companion?" However, no one volunteered. Hadhrat Ali

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad and Muslim.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad.

⁽³⁾ A large quantity of liquid, the approximate value of which differs according to the trade of various places. However, it is roughly equal to 20 litres.

⁽⁴⁾ An old unit of measurement the approximate value of which differs according to the trade of various places, However, it is a very small quantity of mass.

I was the youngest of them all. Rasulullaah to be seated and repeated himself thrice. I stood up each time and each time he told me to be seated. Eventually, when this happened the third time, Rasulullaah struck his hand on mine (accepted my pledge of allegiance)." (1)

Hadhrat Ali has also narrated that Rasulullaah instructed him to prepare a meal using the leg of an animal and a "saa" (2) of wheat flour (for bread) when the following verse of the Qur'aan was revealed:

﴿ وَاَنْذِرْ عَشِيْرَتَكَ الْأَقْرَبِيْنَ ۞ ﴾ (سورة شعراء: ٢١٤)

(O Rasulullaah Will: First) Warn your closest relatives (about the punishment due to those who reject Imaan). {Surah Shu'araa, verse 214}

Thereafter, Rasulullaah told Hadhrat Ali to invite the Banu Haashim. During that time, the Banu Haashim numbered approximately 40 to 42 persons. Hadhrat Ali times continues the narration by saying, "(After their guests had arrived) Rasulullaah sent for the food. When he placed the food before them, they all ate to their fill even though there were people amongst them who could eat a young animal together with gravy all by themselves. Thereafter, Rasulullaah sent for a small cup of milk. When he passed the cup around for them to drink, they all managed to drink to their fill. One of them commented, "Until today, I had never seen such magic." It is widely believed that it was Abu Lahab who said this.

The following day, Rasulullaah said to Hadhrat Ali said, "O Ali! Prepare the leg of a goat together with a "saa" of wheat flour and a large cup of milk." Hadhrat Ali says, "I did as I was told. The guests ate as they had eaten the first day and drank as they had drunk on the first day. Just as it occurred on the first day, as much food was left over as we had begun with." To this, someone commented, "Never before have we seen such magic as we have witnessed today."

(On the third day) Rasulullaah said, "O Ali! Prepare the leg of a goat together with a "saa" of wheat flour and a large cup of milk." After doing as he was told, Rasulullaah saked Hadhrat Ali to invite the Banu Haashim. Consequently, he gathered them together and they ate and drank. Rasulullaah then spoke to them saying, "Which of you are prepared to settle my debts for me?" Hadhrat Ali says, "I remained silent as did everyone body else. Thereafter, Rasulullaah repeated himself. I responded by saying, 'I am prepared to do so O Rasulullaah sai! He said to me, 'You O Ali! You O Ali (You are certainly fit for the task)!" (3)

Ibn Abi Haatim has also reported a similar Hadith in which Rasulullaah see said to the people, which of you is prepared to settle my debts and to succeed me as head of my family after my demise? Hadhrat Ali sees says, "Everybody remained silent including Hadhrat Abbaas who feared that all his wealth would be used up in settling the debts. I remained silent out of respect for Hadhrat Abbaas who was much elder than me. When Rasulullaah repeated his request, Hadhrat Abbaas again remained silent. When I saw this, I said, 'O Rasulullaah I I am prepared to accept this responsibility.' On that day, I was worse off than any of them. I was suffering pain in my eyes, my stomach was bloated and my legs were extremely thin."

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg.350).

⁽²⁾ A unit of measure equal to approximately 3.2 kg.

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami has commented on the Hadith in Vol.8 Pg.302.

A similar Hadith (also concerning the Da'wah Rasulullaah gee gave to his family members) has already appeared in the chapter entitled "The Da'wah Rasulullaah gave to Large Gatherings". That Hadith has a different chain of narrators and is reported from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1966).

Rasulullaah (Conveys the Da'wah of Islaam while Travelling

Rasulullaah Gives Da'wah During the Hijrah

Hadhrat Sa'd (Aslami) was the guide who directed Rasulullaah through the Rakoobah valley. His son (Abdullaah) says, "My father informed us that Rasulullaah came to them, seeking the shortest path to Madinah. He was accompanied by Hadhrat Abu Bakr whose daughter was then being suckled by a woman from our tribe(2)." Hadhrat Sa'd informed them, "They is a road along the valley of Rakoobah but there are two thieves from the Aslam tribe there who are called "Muhaanaan". If you wish, you could use the road past them." Rasulullaah said, "Lead us to the road past them."

Consequently, they took the road and when they drew close to the thieves, one of them said to the other, "Look at this person from Yemen!" Rasulullaah then gave them Da'wah and invited them to accept Islaam. They both became Muslims. When Rasulullaah asked them their names, they said that they were called "Muhaanaan" ("The two contemptible ones"). Rasulullaah said to them, "No. You two are 'Mukramaan' ('The two honoured ones')." Rasulullaah then told them to join him in Madinah. The Hadith still continues after this (3)

Rasulullaah W Invites a Villager to Islaam while on a Journey

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was narrates that they were once traveling with Rasulullaah when a villager passed by them. As he drew close, Rasulullaah asked him, "Where are you off to?" "I am going home," he replied. Rasulullaah asked him, "Do you want to take something good with you?" "What is this good thing?" he asked.

Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg.351). Bayhaqi and Ibn Jareer have also reported this Hadith with additions as mentioned in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg.350) and Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.39).

⁽²⁾ It was customary during those times that people would send their infants to the countryside to be suckled.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad (Vol.4 Pg.74). Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.58) has also commented on the Hadith.

Rasulullaah Feplied, "That you testify that there is none worthy of worship but the One Allaah and that Muhammad Fis Allaah's servant and Rasul." The villager asked, "Are there any witnesses to verify what you say?" Rasulullaah Feplied, "Yes. This tree is a witness." Rasulullaah February then called the tree which stood at the edge of the valley, The tree ploughed through the earth as it came towards Rasulullaah February. When it stood before Rasulullaah February, he thrice asked it testify to the truth of what he said. All three times, the tree testified to the truth of his words and then returned to the place where it grew.

As he returned home, the villager said to Rasulullaah , "If my people follow me, I shall bring them all to you. Otherwise, I shall come alone and live with you." (1)

Rasulullaah Invites Burayda bin Khusayb and his Companions to Islaam during the Hijrah Journey

Hadhrat Aasim Aslami was narrates that while Rasulullaah was migrating from Makkah to Madinah, Hadhrat Buraydah bin Khusayb was met him at a place called Ghameem. When Rasulullaah invited him to accept Islaam, he and the approximately eighty families with him all accepted. Rasulullaah the invited them all in the Isha salaah. (2)

Rasulullaah Travels by Foot to Convey the Da'wah of Islaam

Rasulullaah Walks to Taa'if

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far inarrates that after his uncle Abu Taalib had passed away, Rasulullaah travelled on foot to Taa'if to invite the people to Islaam. However, they did not accept his Da'wah and he had to return. On the way back, he took shade beneath a tree, performed two Rakaahs salaah and made the following du'aa:

"اللهُمَّ إِنِّى اَشُكُوا اللَّكَ صُعُفَ قُوتِيْ وَ هَوَانِيْ عَلَى النَّاسِ يَا اَرْحَمَ الوَّاحِمِيْنَ اَنْتَ الْرُحَمُ الرَّاحِمِيْنَ اللهُمَّ الرَّحِمُ الرَّاحِمِيْنَ اللهُ عَرْفِيْ عَلَى النَّاسِ يَا اَرْحَمُ الوَّاحِمِيْنَ اللهُ اللهُمُ اللهُ عَرْفِيْ إِلَى عَدُوِيَّتَجَهَّمُنِيُ اَمْ الله قَرِيْبٍ مَّلَكُتَهُ اَمْرِيُ اِنْ لَّمُ اللهُمُ اللهُ اللهُ عَيْرَ اَنَّ عَافِيتَكَ اَوْسَعُ لِيْ اَعُودُ بِوَجُهِكَ الَّذِي اَشُرَقَتْ لَهُ اللهُ اللهُ عَيْرَ اَنَّ عَافِيتَكَ اَوْسَعُ لِيْ اَعُودُ بِوَجُهِكَ اللّهِ مَنْ اللهُ ا

TRANSLATION: "O Allaah! Only to you do I communicate my weakness and lack of importance among people. O the most Merciful of those who show mercy, You are certainly the most Merciful of those who show mercy. To whom shall you hand me over? To an enemy who will treat me harshly or to a near one to whom You shall give control over me? If You are not angry with me, I care for nothing except that Your protection should be vast enough for me, In Your Countenance by which multitudes of darkness are turned to light and by which the affairs of this world and the Aakhirah are remedied, I seek protection from being afflicted by Your wrath and displeasure. The causes of Your displeasure should be removed until You are pleased. There is no might but with Allaah." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Haakim as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.6 Pg.125). Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.292) has commented on the Hadith

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.242).

A more detailed narration from Zuhri A shall be quoted in the chapter concerning the difficulties that were borne for the sake of Da'wah.

Inviting Towards Islaam on the Battlefield Rasulullaah We Never Fought anyone Until he had Invited him to Allaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in arrates that Rasulullaah we would never fight any nation until he had already conveyed the Da'wh of Islaam to them. (2)

Rasulullaah Instructs the Muslim Battalions to First Gain People's Confidence and then to Invite them to Islaam

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Aa'idh in arrates that whenever Rasulullaah dispatched a battalion, he would brief them thus, "Gain the confidence of people and do not attack them until you have called them to Islaam. If you bring to me the residents of every baked and unbaked home (of every city and village) on earth as Muslims, it would please me more than you killing their men and bringing their women and children to me as captives." (3)

Rasulullaah Es Instructs the Commanders of Muslims Troops to Convey the Message of Islaam

Hadhrat Buraydah in arrates that whenever Rasulullaah appointed someone as commander of Muslims troops, he would instruct him to fear Allaah with regard to his personal actions and advise him to be good towards those under his command. Furthermore, Rasulullaah would brief them with the following words: "When you face your Mushrik enemies, invite them to accept one of three options. Should they accept any of these, you may not engage them in battle. First invite them to accept Islaam. If they accept, you should accept this from them and refrain from fighting them. You should then call them to move from their places to the home of the Muhaajireen. Inform them that if they do this, they shall enjoy the privileges of the Muhaajireen and will have to fulfil the same responsibilities that the Muhaajireen do. However, if they refuse to move and prefer their homes, inform them that they will fall in the category of the Muslim villagers. Allaah's commands that apply to all Muslims shall apply to them but they will have no share in the spoils of war unless they fight together with the other Muslims. If they refuse this option, ask them to pay the Jizya. Should they accept this, accept it from them and refrain from fighting them. However, if they refuse even this, seek Allaah's assistance and fight them. If you lay siege to a fort and the enemy asks you to allow them to leave on Allaah's terms, do not allow it because you have no idea what Allaah's terms are. You should rather allow them to leave on your terms. You may then decide what the terms should be." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol. 6 Pg. 35) has commented on the Hadith.

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, Haakim, Ahmad and Tabraani as quoted in Nasbur Ra'yah (Vol.2 Pg.278). Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.304) has commented on the Hadith. It may also be found in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.298) and Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.107).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Mandah and Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.294). Also reported by Ibn Shaaheen and Baghawi as mentioned in Isaabah (Vol.3 Pg.152) and by Tirmidhi (Vol.1 Pg.195).

Rasulullaah Commands Hadhrat Ali Not to fight until he had Invited the Enemy to Islaam

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik in arrates that Rasulullaah once dispatched Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib as commander of a battalion to fight a battle. Thereafter, Rasulullaah is sent a messenger with instructions to draw close to Hadhrat Ali with the message and not to call it out from a distance. The message was that he should not engage in battle until he had invited the enemy to Islaam. (2)

Hadhrat Ibn Raahway narrates from Hadhrat Ali that Rasulullaah once sent him somewhere (as commander of a battalion). Rasulullaah then instructed another person thus, "Join up (with Hadhrat Ali then instructed another person thus, "Join up (with Hadhrat

Hadhrat Ali has also mentioned that when Rasulullaah see sent him, he said, "Never fight a nation until you have invited them to accept Islaam." (4)

The narration of Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd sisses as reported by Bukhari and others has already passed in which Rasulullaah said to Hadhrat Ali sisses during the Battle of Khaybar, "March at a moderate pace until you reach their field. Then invite them to accept Islaam, explaining to them the rights due to Allaah that are compulsory for them to fulfil. By Allaah! If Allaah uses you to guide even a single person, it is better for you than red camels."

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood (Pg.358), Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.82), Ibn Majah (Pg.210), Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.184), as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.297), it is also reported by Ahmad, Shaafi'ee, Daarmi, Tahaawi, Ibn Hibbaan, Ibnul Jaarood, Ibn Abi Shayba and others.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat, Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.305) has commented on the Hadith.

⁽³⁾ Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg,297)

⁽⁴⁾ Abdur Razzaag as quoted in Nasbur Ra'yah (Vol.2 Pg.378)

Rasulullaah E Commands Hadhrat Farwa Ghutayfi to Convey the Da'wah of Islaam

Hadhrat Farwa bin Musayk (Ghutayfi) anarrates that he came to Rasulullaah and asked, "Should I not take those of my people who have progressed (accepted Islaam) to fight those of them who have retrogressed (not accepted Islaam)?" Rasulullaah replied, "Why not?" Hadhrat Farwa says, "I then had an afterthought and said, 'No (I shall be unable to fight them) for they are the people of Saba and are extremely powerful and strong. However, Rasulullaah still made me the commander and instructed me to wage war against them. When I had left, Allaah sent revelation to Rasulullaah concerning the people of Saba. He then said, "Where is the Ghutayfi person?" When Rasulullaah sent sent someone to my home, I had already left. The man sent me back and I appeared before Rasulullaah when I came to Rasulullaah said, I found him sitting with the Sahabah around him. Rasulullaah said to me, 'Invite the people to Islaam. Receive those who accept but do not be hasty to do anything to those who do not accept until you hear from me."

Someone then asked, "O Rasulullaah "I What is Saba? Is it a place or a woman?" Rasulullaah replied, "Saba was neither a place nor a woman. He was an Arab who had ten sons. Six of them settled in Yemen and the other four settled in Shaam. Those who settled in Shaam were Laghm, Judhaam, Ghassaan and Aamila. Those who settled in Yemen were Azd, Kindah, Himyar, Ash'ariyyoon, Anmaar and Madh'hij." The Sahabi then asked, "O Rasulullaah Well Who are the Anmaar?" Rasulullaah replied, "The Anmaar are those who have amongst them the Khath'am and Bajeelah tribes."

Hadhrat Farwa inarrates that he came to Rasulullaah and asked, "Should I not take those of my people who have progressed (accepted Islaam) to fight those of them who have retrogressed (not accepted Islaam)?" Rasulullaah replied, "Yes. Use those who have progressed to fight those who have retrogressed." When Hadhrat Farwa was leaving, Rasulullaah called him back and said, "Do not fight them until you have invited them to accept Islaam."

Hadhrat Farwa then asked, "O Rasulullaah !" Tell me about Saba. Was it a valley, a mountain or what?" Rasulullaah "Feplied, "No. He was an Arab who had ten sons." The Hadith continues after this. (2)

Rasulullaah Instructs Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed Is to Convey the Da'wah when he was sent to Yemen

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed 劉節節 reports that when Rasulullaah 衛輩 dispatched Ibn Sa'd, Ahmad, Abu Dawood and Tirmidhi (Vol.2 Pg.154). Tabraani and Haakim have classified the Hadith as "Hasan" as reported in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.260).

⁽²⁾ The Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg.531)

him to Yemen, Rasulullaah said to him, "If you hear the Adhaan being called out among any nation you meet, leave them alone. However, if you pass a nation and hear no Adhaan from them, you should invite them to Islaam." (1)

Rasulullaah Frees Captives who had not been Invited to Islaam

Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b harrates that when some captives from Laat and Uzza were brought before Rasulullaah har, he asked (the Muslims who captured them), "Did you invite them to accept Islaam?" When they submitted that they had not, Rasulullaah har asked the captives, "Did they invite you to accept Islaam?" When they confirmed that no Da'wah was given to them, Rasulullaah instructed, "Free them so that they may reach their place of safety." Thereafter, Rasulullaah har recited the following two extracts of the Qur'aan:

O Nabi We have certainly sent you as a witness (who will bear testimony against the Kuffaar of all nations on the Day of Qiyaamah), a carrier of good news, a warner and as a caller to Allaah by His command and an illuminating lantern. (Surah Ahzaab, verses 45,46)

(سورة الانعام: ١٩)

"This Qur'aan has been revealed to me so that I may warn you with it as well as (to warn) those whom it reaches (after you). Do you (Mushrikeen) really bear witness that there are other gods with Allaah?" Say (to them O Rasulullaah (), "I bear no such witness." Say, "He (Allaah) is but One Ilaah and I am certainly innocent of that (the idols) which you associate with Him (I openly express my aversion to all types of Shirk)." {Surah An'aam, verse 19} (2)

Another narration states that when Rasulullaah dispatched a battalion to the vicinity where the idols Laat and Uzza stood, they attacked an Arab tribe living there and captured the soldiers and their families. The captives (when brought before Rasulullaah said, "O Rasulullaah questioned the battalion about this, they confirmed that it was true. Rasulullaah then to them, "Allow them to return to their place of safety and then invite them to Islaam." (3)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.307) has commented on the Hadith.

⁽²⁾ Bayhagi (Vol.9 Pg.107).

⁽³⁾ Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2Pg.297).

Rasulullaah Dispatches Individuals to give Da'wah

Rasulullaah E Sends Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr in arrates that when the Ansaar heard what Rasulullaah had to say, became convinced and completely satisfied with his message, they believed in him and professed their Imaan. They therefore became one of the vehicles of good (for mankind at large) and returned to their people after promising to meet Rasulullaah the following Hajj season. They then sent a message to Rasulullaah requesting him to send someone to them who would call people towards the Book of Allaah because this would cause people to accept more readily.

Rasulullaah therefore sent Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr who belonged to the Banu Abdud Daar tribe. He stayed among the Banu Ghanam tribe with Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah was. There he taught them the sayings of Rasulullaah and recited the Qur'aan to them. Later on, Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr was continued his Da'wah while staying with Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh was. Allaah guided people at his hands until there was scarcely a home of the Ansaar that did not have Muslims in it. Even the leaders of the Ansaar accepted Islaam, including Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh was returned to Rasulullaah with the title of "Al Muqri" ("The Mentor"). (1)

Hadhrat Urwa has also narrated another lengthy report in which he mentions how Rasulullaah presented the Da'wah of Islaam to the Ansaar. This will Insha Allaah be quoted in the chapter discussing the condition of the Ansaar at the beginning. In this report, Hadhrat Urwa mentions that when the Ansaar returned to Madinah (after meeting Rasulullaah during the Hajj season) and started calling people to Islaam secretly. They informed the people about Rasulullaah about the teachings Allaah had sent with him and called them towards the Qur'aan. Eventually there was scarcely a home among the Ansaar that did not have Muslims. They then sent a message to Rasulullaah requesting him to send someone to them who would call people towards the Book of Allaah because this would cause people to accept more readily.

Rasulullaah therefore sent Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr who belonged to the Banu Abdud Daar tribe. He stayed among the Banu Ghanam tribe with Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah who. There he started calling people to Islaam, spreading Islaam and increasing its adherents. This he did in secrecy. Hadhrat Urwa who proceeds further to mention the Da'wah Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr who gave to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh who and how he became a Muslim, followed by the conversion of the entire Banu Abdil Ash'hal to Islaam. This will Insha Alaah be mentioned in the chapter discussing the Da'wah of (1) Abu Nu'aym (Vol. 1 Pg. 107).

Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr 墨崎崎.

Thereafter, the Banu Najjaar tribe pressurised Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr was short Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah and Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr was forced to stay with Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh was. There he continued his Da'wah and Allaah guided people at his hands until there was scarcely a home of the Ansaar that did not have Muslims in it. Even the leaders of the Ansaar accepted Islaam, including Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh was. The idols of the Ansaar were even broken. The Muslims became dominant in Madinah and their affairs ran smoothly. Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr was later returned to Rasulullaah with the title of "Al Muqri" ("The Mentor"). (1)

Another narration states that the Ansaar sent Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Afraa and Hadhrat Raafi bin Maalik to Rasulullaah to send someone to them who would call people towards the Book of Allaah because this would cause people to accept more readily. Rasulullaah therefore sent Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr signs. The rest of the narration is similar to the one above. (2)

Rasulullaah W Dispatches Hadhrat Abu Umaamah W to his People the Baahilah tribe

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah and narrates that Rasulullaah sent him to invite his people to Allaah and to present the injunctions of Islaam to them. When he arrived, his people had already watered their camels, milked them and drunk the milk. When they saw him, they exclaimed, "Welcome O Suday bin Ajlaan⁽³⁾! We heard that you have defected to that man." He replied, "I have rather believed in Allaah and His Rasool and Rasulullaah has sent me to present islaam and its injunctions to you." As they spoke, a platter of food was brought and placed before them. As they gathered around the platter to eat, they said, "Come and join us, O Suday!" He responded by saying, "Shame on you! I have just come to you from someone who forbids this sort of food save for those animals that you slaughter." They asked, "What has he to say?" Hadhrat Abu Umaamah told them that the following verse had been revealed in this regard:

﴿ حُرِّمَتُ عَلَيْكُمُ الْمَيْنَةُ وَالدَّمُ وَلَحْمُ الْحِنْزِيْرِ وَمَآ أَهِلَّ لِغَيْرِ اللهِ بِهِ وَالْمُنْخَنِقَةُ وَالْمُنْخَنِقَةُ وَالْمُنْخَنِقَةُ وَالْمُنْخَنِقَةُ وَالنَّطِيْحَةُ وَمَآ أَكَلَ السَّبُعُ إِلَّا مَاذَكَيْتُمْ فَ وَمَا ذُبِحَ عَلَى النَّصُبِ وَالْمُنْفَقِيمُوا بِالْأَزْلَامِ * ﴾ (سورة المائدة: ٣)

Forbidden for you (for you to eat) is Mayta(4), blood (that flows from an

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani and Abu Nu'aym in Dalaa'il (Pg.108). Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.42) has commented on the Hadith.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg. 107) narrating from Zuhri الكان (كا) Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg. 107)

⁽³⁾ This was his real name. Abu Umaamah was his pet name.

⁽⁴⁾ Although commonly translated as "carrion", the Arabic word "Mayta" refers to the meat of animals that die without being slaughtered in the name of Allaah as well as the meat of a limb that is removed from a living animal. The only lawful things that can be eaten without slaughtering are fish and locusts.

animal's body), the meat of pigs, (the meat of) those animals that were sacrificed with (the slaughterer taking) the name of another besides Allaah, those (animals) that were strangled to death (that suffocated to death or drowned), those that were beaten to death (died through injuries), those that fell to their deaths, those killed by collision (either by impact or after being gored by another animal) and those eaten by wild beasts; except that which you slaughter (Therefore, if an animal suffers any of the above injuries but dies only after being properly slaughtered, the animals meat will be Halaal). (Also forbidden for you are) What (that animal which) has been slaughtered at the altars (in the name of gods besides Allaah) and distribution by arrows (1). {Surah Maa'idah, verse 3}

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah says that as he invited them towards Islaam, they kept rejecting. He then said to them, "Shame on you! At least give me some water for I am extremely thirsty." They responded by saying, "No! We shall not give you any water but would rather leave you to die thirsty." He then tied his turban around his head and lay down on the scorching sand. He narrates, "When I fell asleep, I saw a person come to me with a crystal glass so beautiful as no one had ever seen. In the glass was a drink that no one has ever tasted a drink as delicious. He gave the glass to me and I drank from it. I woke up as soon as I had finished drinking and I swear by Allaah that after that I had never been thirsty nor even known what thirst is." (2)

A shorter version of this narration reported by Abu Ya'la states at the end that someone from Hadhrat Abu Umaamah ""s tribe said to the others, "One of your leaders has come to you and you could not even honour him!" The people then brought some milk for him to drink, but he said, "I have no need for it now." He then (narrated the dream to them and) showed them his (full) stomach. Every one of them then accepted Islaam. A narration of Bayhaqi in Dalaa'il states that Hadhrat Abu Umaamah "was sent to his tribe who were the Baahila tribe. (3)

Rasulullaah Sends a Person to the Banu Sa'd tribe

Hadhrat Ahnaf bin Qais in narrates that he was once performing Tawaaf around the Kabah when a man from the Banu Layth tribe grabbed hold of his hand saying, "Shall I not give you glad tidings?" When Hadhrat Ahnaf bin Qais asked to be informed, the person said, "Do you not remember the time when Rasulullaah sent me to invite your tribe to Islaam? When I presented Islaam to them and invited them to accept, you said to me, 'You are inviting us

The Mushrikeen Arabs used to predict future events using special arrows and also used such arrows in a form of gambling.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani as well as Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.94). Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.387) has commented on the Hadith.

⁽³⁾ Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.182). The Hadith is reported by Tabraani and Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.641).

towards something excellent. You are instructing us with a good thing and Rasulullaah is certainly calling towards something of great merit.' When Rasulullaah heard about this, he said, 'O Allaah! Forgive Ahnaf." It was on account of this that Hadhrat Ahnaf would always say, "I have more hope in this (du'aa of Rasulullaah wo) than any good act that I have carried out." (1) Imaam Ahmad and Tabraani have reported this Hadith thus: "Rasulullaah reported out." (2)

Rasulullaah sends a Person to a Man who was Influential during the Period of Ignorance

Hadhrat Anas was narrates that Rasulullaah once sent one of the Sahabah was to give Da'wah to a person who was influential during the Period of Ignorance. The person asked, "What is your Rabb towards whom you call made of? Is he made of iron? Is he made of copper? Is he made of silver? Is he made of gold?" When the Sahabi reported back to Rasulullaah Rasulullaah sent him back (to repeat the invitation). However, the person repeated his remark. When the Sahabi reported back to Rasulullaah the second time, Rasulullaah sent him back for the third time. However, the person repeated his remark yet again. When the Sahabi again reported to Rasulullaah said, Rasulullaah said, "Allaah has struck your friend with a bolt of lightning that incinerated him." It was then that the following verse was revealed:

Allaah sends the bolts of lightning to strike whoever He wills while they are disputing about Allaah. Allaah is fiercely Powerful. (Surah Ra'd, verse 13)⁽³⁾

A report of Bazzaar states that the person was one of the tyrannical Arab leaders and that the Sahabi said, "O Rasulullaah leaders! He is more tyrannical than Fir'oun. This version of the report states that the Sahabi was still busy inviting the person to Islaam for the third time when Allaah sent a cloud above him that started to rumble with thunder. A bolt of lightning then emerged from the cloud and decapitated the man. (4)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Aasim and Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.614).

⁽²⁾ Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.2) has commented on the Hadith.

⁽³⁾ Abu Ya'la, Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.42) has mentioned that Abu Ya'la and Bazzaar have both quoted this narration.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani has also reported a similar narration in his Awsat.

The narration of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed has already passed in the chapter entitled "Inviting Towards Islaam on the Battlefield". In that narration, he mentions that when Rasulullaah dispatched him to Yemen, Rasulullaah said to him, "If you hear the Adhaan being called out among any nation you meet, leave them alone. However, if you pass a nation/and hear no Adhaan from them, you should invite them to Islaam."

Insha Allaah, the narration shall soon be mentioned in which Rasulullaah dispatched Hadhrat Amr bin Murra to give Da'wah to his people.

Rasulullaah W Dispatches Groups to Give Da'wah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was narrates that Rasulullaah so once summoned Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was and said to him, "Prepare yourself because I want to send you out with a group." After some detail, the Hadith continues to mention that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was left and met up with the some other Sahabah was. They all then left together until they reached a place called Dowmatul Jandal (this was a fortress between Madinah and Shaam to which several villages were attached).

When he arrived there, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf spent three days inviting the people to accept Islaam. On the third day, their leader Asbagh bin Aur Kalbi spens who was a Christian accepted Islaam. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf spenson from the Juhayna tribe called Raafi bin Makeeth spenson, reporting the events to him. Rasulullaah wrote back to him with the instruction to marry the daughter of Asbagh. He therefore married her. This daughter of Asbagh was called Tumaadir from whom Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf spenson from the Juhayna tribe called Raafi bin Makeeth spenson from

Rasulullaah Sends Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas To Banu Baliy to Encourage the people to Accept Islaam

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Tameemi to narrates that Rasulullaah sent Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas out to encourage the Arabs to accept Islaam. Rasulullaah sent sent him to the Banu Baliy tribe because the mother of Aas bin Waa'il (his father) was from this tribe and he would be able to identify with them. When he reached a watering place called Salaasil (by which the Battle of Salaasil got its name) which was situated in the territory of the Judhaam, he sensed danger and sent a message for Rasulullaah to dispatch reinforcements to assist him. Rasulullaah then sent a battalion of the early Muhaajireen under the leadership of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah sons. Among this battalion were the likes of Hadhrat Abu Bakr son and Hadhrat Umar sons. The Hadith continues further and will Insha Allaah be mentioned in the chapter concerning the appointment of leaders. (2)

⁽¹⁾ Daar Qutni as quoted in Isaabah (Vol. 1 Pg. 108).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'naaq as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 4 Pg.273).

Rasulullaah W Dispatches Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed W to Yemen

Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib in arrates that he was among the group that Rasulullaah dispatched to Yemen under the leadership of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed to invite the people of Yemen to Islaam. They stayed there for six months but no one was prepared to accept Islaam. Thereafter, Rasulullaah sent Hadhrat Ali with instructions to relieve Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed and to send him back with his men except those who preferred to remain behind with Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib harrates that he was one of those who remained behind with Hadhrat Ali hadhrat

Rasulullaah W Dispatches Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed W to Najraan

Ibn Is'haaq narrates that Rasulullaah once dispatched Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed to Najraan with instructions to invite the Banu Haarith bin Ka'b to Islaam for three days before engaging them in battle. Rasulullaah told him that if the people accept Islaam, he should accept it from them, otherwise he should commence battle proceedings. Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed left Madinah and when he arrived in Najraan, he sent riders in every direction to meet the people and invite them to Islaam saying, "O people! Acept Islaam and remain in peace." Consequently, all the people accepted Islaam and entered the Deen they had been invited towards. Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed with the people to teach them Islaam, the Qur'aan and the Sunnah of Rasulullaah according to the directives that Rasulullaah had given to him in the event that the people accepted Islaam without fighting. Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed the wrote the following letter Rasulullaah

The Letter Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (Sent to Rasulullaah)

In the name of Allaah the Most Kind, the Most Merciful To Muhammad the Nabi and Rasool of Allaah

Bayhaqi. Bukhari has also narrated it in brief as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.105 Pg.5).

From Khaalid bin Waleed

May peace be to you, O Rasulullaah and the mercy and blessings of Allaah. Before you, I praise Allaah besides Whom there is none worthy of worship.

O Rasool of Allaah - may Allaah shower His special mercies on you - you sent me to the Banu Haarith bin Ka'b tribe with instructions to invite them to Islaam for three days without engaging them in battle. Your instructions were that I accept from them their conversion to Islaam, after which I should teach them the injunctions of Islaam, the Qur'aan and the Sunnah of Allaah's Nabi. Had they not accepted Islaam, I was to engage in battle with them.

When I arrived, I invited them to Islaam for three days according to the instructions of Allaah's Rasool and sent riders among them saying, 'O Banu Haarith! Accept Islaam and live in peace." They all accepted Islaam without a fight and I am presently among them instructing them with that which Allaah has instructed and forbidding them from that which had forbidden them. I shall be teaching them the injunctions of Islaam and the Sunnah of Allaah's Nabi until the Rasool of Allaah writes back to me (with fresh instructions).

May peace be to you, O Rasulullaah : and the mercy and blessings of Allaah.

Rasulullaah sent the following reply to Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed

The Letter that Rasulullaah see sent in reply to Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed

In the name of Allaah the Most Kind, the Most Merciful From Muhammad the Nabi and Rasool of Allaah (
To Khaalid bin Waleed

May peace be to you. Before you, I praise Allaah besides Whom there is none worthy of worship. Your letter sent with your messenger has reached me with the news that the Banu Haarith bin Ka'b tribe had surrendered without a fight and that they accepted the Islaam that you invited them towards. Your letter also informed me (about the excellent news) that they all testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul and that Allaah has guided them by His guidance. You should give them glad tidings (of Jannah) and warn them (against Jahannam).

Return (to Madinah) together with a delegation from them.

May peace be to you as well as the mercy and blessings of Allaah.

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Returns to Rasulullaah with a Delegation of the Banu Haarith

(After receiving the letter from Rasylullaah (After receiving the letter from Rasylullaah (After receiving the Rasylullaah (After receiving to Rasylullaah (After receiving to Rasylullaah (After receiving to Rasylullaah (After Rasylullaah (Af

When they arrived in the presence of Rasulullaah , they greeted him and said, "We testify that you are Allaah's Rasul and that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah." Rasulullaah said, "I also testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that I am Allaah's Rasul." Addressing them further, Rasulullaah asked, "Are you the people who came forward (accepted Islaam) when you were admonished?" They all remained silent without offering a reply. Rasulullaah repeated the question a second and third time and still no one replied. When Rasulullaah repeated the question the fourth time, Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abdil Madaan said, "Yes, O Rasulullaah It was us who came forward when we were admonished." He repeated the reply four times.

Thereafter Rasulullaah said, "If Khaalid had not written to me with the news that you had accepted Islaam without a fight, I would have cast your heads beneath your feet." Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abdil Madaan said, "By Allaah! (When we accepted Islaam) We neither praised you nor Khaalid." "Who then did you praise?" asked Rasulullaah said. The reply was, "We praised Allaah Who used you to guide us, O Rasulullaah saked them, "How were you able to defeat right." Thereafter, Rasulullaah saked them, "How were you able to defeat your enemies during the Period of Ignorance?" They said, "We were unable to defeat our enemies." "Why not!" Rasulullaah see exclaimed, "You were certainly victorious over those whom you fought." They said, "O Rasulullaah see! We would defeat our enemies because we remained united without breaking into factions and never oppressed anyone." Rasulullaah said, "You have spoken the truth." Rasulullaah then appointed Hadhrat Qais bin Husayn sa their leader. (1)

Rasulullaah Calls people towards Fulfilling the Rasulullaah (invites Hadhrat Jareer (towards Imaan, Reciting the Shahaadah and fulfilling the Faraa'idh Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdillaah (narrates that Rasulullaah (once sent for him and (when he arrived) said to him, "O Jareer! What brings you here?" "I have come to accept Islaam at your hands, O Rasulullaah (came the reply.

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.98) as well as Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.660).

Rasulullaah when threw his shawl over Hadhrat Jareer and turned to the Sahabah and said, "Give due honour to the noble members of a community when they come to you." Rasulullaah when then said, "O Jareer! I call you to testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah, that I am Allaah's Rasul, that you believe in Allaah, in the Last Day, in the predestination of all good and evil, that you perform Fardh salaah and that you pay the Fardh zakaah." Hadhrat Jareer says that he complied with all of this and Rasulullaah never failed to smile with him each time he saw him. (1)

Rasulullaah Teaches Hadhrat Mu'aadh how to Call people towards the Faraa'idh of Islaam as he Leaves for Yemen

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jabal to Yemen, he said to him, "You will certainly meet people from the Ahlul Kitaab. When you come to them, invite them to testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's Rasul. If they obey you in this, inform them that Allaah has made Fardh for them the five salaah during each day and night. If they obey you in this, inform them that Allaah has made Fardh for them zakaah that is taken from the wealthy amongst them and given to the poor amongst them. If they obey you in this, abstain from taking the best of their wealth (as zakaah) and beware of the curses of the oppressed because there is no barrier between it and Allaah." (2)

Rasulullaah ﷺ Calls Hadhrat Howshab Dhi Dhulaym towards Fulfilling the Faraa'idh of Islaam

Hadhrat Howshab Dhi Dhulaym narrates that when Allaah granted dominance to Rasulullaah he sent a letter with Abd Sharr and a band of forty horsemen to Rasulullaah when they arrived in Madinah, Abd Sharr asked, "Which of you is Muhammad?" When someone pointed Rasulullaah out to him, he asked "What have you brought to us? I am willing to follow you if it is good." Rasulullaah said to him, "You should establish salaah, pay zakaah, safeguard the blood of people, enjoin good and forbid from evil." Abd Sharr, "This is fine indeed. Stretch out your hands so that I may pledge my allegiance to you." Rasulullaah then asked him what his name was. When he replied that it was Abd Sharr (servant of evil), Rasulullaah said, "No, you are rather Abd Khayr (servant of good)." Rasulullaah then accepted his pledge of allegiance to Islaam and replied to the letter of Hadhrat Howshab Dhi Dhulaym who then also accepted Imaan. (3)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.78). A similar report is narrated from Hadhrat Jareer (Similar in Tabraani and Abu Nu'aym as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.19).
(2) Bukhari and others as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.100).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.325). The narration is also reported by the Mandah and Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.84) as well as by Ibnus Sakan as mentioned in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.382).

Rasulullaah (Calls the Abd Qais Delegation towards Fulfilling the Faraa'idh of Islaam

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas he narrates that when a delegation from the Abd Qais tribe met Rasulullaah he, he said to them, "Welcome to people who shall suffer neither remorse for humiliation (in both worlds because they had accepted Islaam willingly)." They said, "O Rasulullaah he! The Mushrikeen tribe of Mudhar (who are famous war-mongers) live between yourself (Madinah) and us. We are therefore able to meet you only during one of the sacred months (during which they do not fight). We request you to inform us of something excellent that will lead us to Jannah when we carry it out and towards which we may call our people who have remained behind."

Rasulullaah said to them, "I command you to do four things and forbid you from four things. (The things that I command you to do are) To believe in Allaah by testifying that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah, to establish salaah, to pay zakaah, to fast during the month of Ramadhaan and (an additional thing is) to pay one third of the spoils of war (to the public treasury). I forbid you from the following four things: From the drinks brewed in utensils made from marrow, utensils made from hollowed trunks, utensils that are oiled and green in colour and utensils covered in tar (therefore the drinks brewed in all these utensils cannot be consumed because they become intoxicating)." (1) Another narration (2) mentions that Rasulullaah added, "Always bear this in mind and convey the message to those of your people who remained behind."

The Hadith of Hadhrat Alqama (Concerning the Reality of Imaan, Giving Da'wah towards Imaan and the Faraa'idh

Hadhrat Alqama harrates that he was one of seven people from his tribe who came to meet Rasulullaah Rasulullaah replied to their greeting and when they spoke to him, he liked what they said. Rasulullaah asked them, "What are you?" "We are Mu'mineen," they replied. Rasulullaah said, "Every statement has a reality (to substantiate it). What is the reality of your Imaan?" They replied, "Fifteen attributes (prove the existence of our Imaan). Five are those that you have commanded us to do, five are those that your messengers have commanded us to do and five are those that we have adopted from the Period of Ignorance and are still practising until now unless you forbid us from them O Rasulullaah

Rasulullaah asked, "What are the five that I have commanded you to do?" They replied, "You have commanded us to believe in Allaah, in His angels, His books, His Ambiyaa and in the predestination of all good and evil." Rasulullaah asked, "What are the five that my messengers have commanded you to do?"

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.46).

⁽²⁾ Tayaalisi.

They replied, "Your messengers have commanded us to testify that there is none worthy of worship but the One Allaah Who has no partners and that you are Allaah's servant and Rasul. Furthermore, they instructed us to establish the obligatory salaah, to pay the obligatory zakaah, to fast during the month of Ramadhaan and to perform Hajj to the Kabah should we have the ability to do so."

Rasulullaah asked, "And what are the attributes that you have adopted during the Period of Ignorance?" They replied, "Expressing gratitude when enjoying good fortune, exercising patience when experiencing difficulty, speaking the truth during occasions of confrontation, being happy with the decrees of fate and not expressing pleasure when an enemy is afflicted by calamity." (Addressing the Sahabah (Addressing exclaimed, "Intellectuals and well-cultured people! Their manners are close to those of the Ambiyaa because they are so excellent."

Rasulullaah then smiled with them and said, "I shall advise you with another five attributes so that Allaah may complete your excellent attributes. Never store that which you cannot eat, never build that which you cannot live in, never compete to achieve that which you shall have to leave behind tomorrow, fear that Allaah to Whom you shall have to go and before Whom you shall be gathered and concern yourselves with that towards which you are heading and where you shall live forever." (1)

Hadhrat Suwayd bin Haarith as a narrates that he was one of seven person who met Rasulullaah as a delegation. When they arrived in his presence and spoke to him, he was impressed by their mannerisms and appearance. Rasulullaah asked them, "What are you?" They replied, "Mu'mineen." Rasulullaah asked them, "What are you?" They replied, "Mu'mineen." Rasulullaah asked them, "Every statement has a reality (to substantiate it). What is the reality of your Imaan?" They replied, "Fifteen attributes (prove the existence of our Imaan). Five are those that your messengers have commanded us to believe in, five are those that your messengers have commanded us to carry out and five are those that we have adopted from the Period of Ignorance and are still practising until now unless you dislike them (in which case we are prepared to forsake them)..." The rest of the Hadith is similar to the one mentioned above except that in place of "predestination of all good and evil", he mentioned, "resurrection after death" and instead of "not expressing pleasure when an enemy is afflicted by calamity", he said, "steadfastness when enemies rejoice at our misfortunes."

A Hadith has already passed earlier in which an unnamed person from the Baladawiyyah tribe narrates the following conversation between his grandfather and Rasulullaah : I asked, "To what are you calling people?" "I am calling the servants of Allaah to Allaah," Rasulullaah responded. "What have you to say?" I asked further. He said, "That you should testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah, that Muhammad is the Rasul of Allaah, that you believe in everything revealed to me, that you renounce Laat and Uzza and that you establish Salaah and pay Zakaah." "What is Zakaah?" I asked. "Wealth that our rich give to our poor," came the reply. I responded by saying, "These are excellent things you are calling towards."

⁽¹⁾ Haakim as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.69). Abu Sa'eed Nayshapoori has also reported the narration in Sharful Mustafa from Hadhrat Alqama bin Haarith 经通過. Askari and Rashaati have also reported the narration but from Hadhrat Suwayd bin Haarith 经通過. This is the more famous narration as mentioned in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.98). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in Hilya (Vol.9 Pg.279).

Rasulullaah (Sends Letters to Various Kings and others, calling them Towards Allaah and Towards Accepting Islaam

Rasulullaah Dispatches the Sahabah Dispatches to Faraway places and Encourages them to give Da'wah and not to Fall into Disputes

Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhrama Allam narrates that Rasulullaah once came to the Sahabah and said, "Allam has sent me as a mercy to all of mankind. Execute this responsibility on my behalf and Allam shall shower you with mercy. Hadhrat Isa Allam also placed a similar request to his disciples (to propagate the message far and wide) so do not fall into disputes as they fell into disputes before him. Those of them who were sent to far places disliked it (while only those sent nearby were prepared to do as asked) so Hadhrat Isa prayed to Allaah about this. The next day, Allaah made each one of them speak the language of the people to whom he had been sent (to propagate the religion). Hadhrat Isa then addressed them saying, "Allaah has made this task incumbent on you, so ensure that you carry it out."

The Sahabah Said, "O Rasulullaah III! We shall certainly execute the responsibility on your behalf so send us wherever you like. Rasulullaah then sent Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhafa III to Kisra (the Emperor of Persia) while Hadhrat Saleet bin Amr was sent to Howdha bin Ali the chief of Yamamah, Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami III was sent to Mundhir bin Saawa the chief of Hajar and Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas III was sent to Jayfar and Abbaad the two sons of Julunda who both ruled over Ammaan. In addition to these messengers, Hadhrat Dihya Kalbi III was sent to the Caesar (Emperor of Rome), Hadhrat Shuja bin Wahab Asadi III was sent to Mundhir bin Haarith bin Abi Shimar Ghassaani and Hadhrat Amr bin Umayyah Dhamri Was was sent to Najaashi (the King of Abyssinia).

All of these messengers returned before the death of Rasulullaah except Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami who was still in Bahrain when Rasulullaah passed away. (1)

Historians have mentioned that Rasulullaah also sent Hadhrat Muhaajir bin Abi Ummayyah to Haarith bin Abd Kulaal while Hadhrat Jareer was sent to Dhul Kulaa, Hadhrat Saa'ib was sent to Musalama and Hadhrat Haatib bin Abi Balta'ah was sent to Maqowqis (the king of Egypt). (2) Hadhrat Anas marrates that before his death, Rasulullaah sent letters to emperors of Persia, Rome and Abyssinia as well as to every dictatorial leader, inviting them towards Allaah The Glorious and Magnificent. The king of Abyssinia referred to here was not the one (who accepted Islaam and) for whom Rasulullaah like led the funeral prayer. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.306) has commented on the Hadith.

⁽²⁾ Fat'hul Baari (Vol.8 Pg.89).

Hadhrat Jaabir (1996) narrates that before his/death Rasulullaah (1996) sent letters to the Emperors of Persia and Rome and to every other dictatorial leader.

The Letter Rasulullaah & sent to Najaashi the King of Abyssinia

With reference to Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abi Taalib (who had migrated to Abyssinia), Rasulullaah (will sent the following letter with Hadhrat Amr bin Umayyah Dhamri (will sent to Najaashi:

In the name of Allaah the Most Kind, the Most Merciful From Muhammad the Rasool of Allaah (2014)
To Najaashi As'ham the king of Abyssinia

Peace be to you. Before you I praise Allaah the Supreme Sovereign, Most Pure, Giver of peace and Protector. I testify that Isa was the spirit that Allaah created and His word that He cast to the chaste, pure and innocent Maryam. She bore Isa whom Allaah created from the spirit and breath from Him just as Allaah created Aadam by His hand and breath from Him.

I call you towards the One Allaah Who has no partner and to dutifully obey Him. I invite you to follow me, to believe in me and in that which \bar{I} have brought because I am the Rasul of Allaah. I have sent my cousin Ja'far to you together with a group of Muslims. When they arrive, do treat them as your guests without arrogance.

I invite you and your forces to (the worship of) the Glorious and Magnificent Allaah. I have conveyed my message, given you good counsel so do accept my counsel.

Peace be on the one who follows the guidance.

The Letter of Reply that Najaashi sent to Rasulullaah

Najaashi sent the following letter in reply to Rasulullaah :::

In the name of Allaah the Most Kind, the Most Merciful
To Muhammad the Rasool of Allaah

⁽¹⁾ Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.262).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.305) has commented on the Hadith.

May the peace from Allaah, His mercy and blessings be showered on you, O Nabi of Allaah. There is none worthy of worship but He Who has guided me to Islaam.

O Rasulullaah (), your letter concerning Isa () has reached me. I swear by the Rabb of the heavens and the earth that Isa () himself never said more than what you have mentioned. We understand the letter you have sent to us and we have entertained your cousin and his companions.

I testify that you are the true and accepted Rasul of Allaah. I have pledged my allegiance to you at the hands of your cousin by whose hand I have accepted Islaam for the pleasure of Allaah the Rabb of the universe. I am sending to you (my son) Areeha bin As'ham bin Abjar.

I have control over none but my own self. O Rasulullaah [18]! If you wish that I come to you personally, I am prepared to do so for I testify that whatever you say is the absolute truth. (1)

The Letter Rasulullaah sent to Heraclius the Emperor of Rome

Hadhrat Dihya Kalbi (Single narrates that Rasulullaah (Single sent him with a letter to the Emperor of Rome. When he arrived there and handed over the letter, the emperor's nephew who was a blue-eyed boy with a reddish complexion and straight hair was present with him. When he opened the letter, he read, "From Muhammad the Rasool of Allaah to Heraclius the Roman leader." When he read this much, the Emperor's nephew snorted loudly and exclaimed, "This cannot be read today!" "Why not?" asked the Emperor. His nephew replied, "Because he started the letter with his name and wrote 'the Roman leader' instead of 'the Emperor of Rome." The Emperor instructed, "You shall definitely read it!"

When the letter had been read and the people dispersed from the Emperor's court, he summoned Hadhrat Dihya and also sent for the high priest who was his special advisor. The people had informed the high priest about what had happened and the Emperor also informed him and had the letter read out to him. The high priest said, "He (Rasulullaah is to be whom we have been waiting for and about whom Isa had foretold." The Emperor asked him, "What do you advise me to do?" The high priest said, "As for myself, I certainly believe him and shall follow him." The Emperor said, "As for myself, I shall lose my kingship if I do so." Thereafter, everyone left the Emperor's court.

The Emperor then sent for Abu Sufyaan who happened to be there at the time (for trade). The Emperor asked Abu Sufyaan, "Tell me about this person who has appeared in your land. How is he?" Abu Sufyaan replied, "He is a young man." The Emperor asked further, "What is his pedigree amongst you?" Abu Sufyaan replied, "He enjoys a pedigree that none can surpass." The Emperor said, "This is a sure sign of prophethood. How is his honesty?" Abu Sufyaan replied, "He has never spoken a lie." The Emperor observed, "This is a sure sign of prophethood." He then asked, "Tell me about those of your people who have joined with him. Have any of them returned to you?" "None," came the reply. The Emperor again remarked, "This is a sure sign of prophethood. Is he/ever defeated when he leads his companions to battle?" Abu Sufyaan replied, "His people have done battle with him. Sometimes they have defeated him and at other times he had defeated them." The Emperor said, "This is a sure sign of prophethood." He then sent for Hadhrat Dihya ("This is a sure sign of prophethood." He then sent for Hadhrat Dihya ("This is a prophet, I cannot forsake my kingship."

Hadhrat Dihya in arrates further that the people used to gather before the high priest every Sunday when he would deliver lectures to them and advise them. However, when Sunday came, he did not go out to meet the people and remained in his home until the following Sunday. Hadhrat Dihya is says that he used to meet with the high priest who would speak to him and ask him many questions. When the next Sunday came, the people again awaited his arrival. However, he did not meet them with the pretext of being ill. This he did for several Sundays until the people eventually delivered the ultimatum and sent a message to him stating, "You will come to us otherwise we shall come to you and killyou. We have noted the change in your attitude since the Arab has arrived."

The high priest then said to Hadhrat Dihya "Take this letter to your leader. Greet him on my behalf and inform him that I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's Rasul. I believe in Rasulullaah is, accept what he says and follow him but my people dislike this. Also inform him about what you have seen." He then went to meet the people and they killed him. (1)

Some scholars of Hadith have narrated that Heraclius said to Hadhrat Dihya , "O dear! I swear by Allaah that I know that your leader is the sent prophet and that he is the one we have been waiting for and who is described in our scriptures. However, I fear that the Romans will take my life. Were it not for this fear, I would have certainly followed him. Go to the high priest Daghaatir and tell him about your leader for he is higher than me in status and more influential in Rome. When Hadhrat Dihya proached the high priest and informed him of matters, he said, "I swear by Allaah that your leader is a sent prophet. We recognise him by his description and his name."

The high priest then entered (his rooms), removed his clothing and wore white clothing. He then went out to meet the Roman people and testified to the true Shahaadah. They immediately attacked him and killed him. (2)

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.8 Pgs.236,237) has commented on the Hadith. Tabraani has also narrates a similar report from Hadhrat Dihya (Mary Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.306) has commented on this narration. Abu Nu'aym has also narrated a similar Hadith in Dalaa'il (Pg.121), which is more brief. A more detailed narration like this has been reported by Abdaan bin Muhammad Marwazi from Abdullaah bin Shaddaad.

⁽²⁾ Abdaan from Ibn Is'haaq. Yahya bin Sa'eed Umawi has narrated a similar report in his Maghaazi as did Tabari who narrates from Ibn Is'haaq as mentioned in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.216).

Sa'eed bin Abi Raashid narrates that it was in Hims that he once saw the man from the Tanookh tribe whom Heraclius had sent to Rasulullaah as an envoy. The man was his neighbour and had was extremely old, close to death. Sa'eed bin Abi Raashid asked the man, "Will you not tell me about the letter that Heraclius sent to Rasulullaah and the letter that Rasulullaah was in Tabook when he sent Hadhrat Dihya to Heraclius. When the letter of Rasulullaah reached Heraclius, he summoned all the priests and learned scholars of Rome to his court and had all the doors locked. He then addressed them saying, "This person has reached the place you see (Tabook) and has sent to me a letter with three options. He invites me to (1) follow him in his religion, (2) to pay him our wealth (Jizya) in which case we keep our land or (3) to prepare for battle. By Allaah! You know from what you have read in the scriptures that he shall definitely take the land from beneath my feet. Come! Let us follow him in his religion or give him part of our wealth to keep our land."

(When those present heard this) They snorted simultaneously like the snort of a single person and threw down their hats shouting, "Are you proposing that we forsake Christianity and become the slaves of a villager from Hijaaz?!" When Heraclius sensed that they would incite a rebellion among the citizens if they left (in that condition), he added, Heraclius "I have said this only to test your steadfastness in your religion."

Thereafter, Heraclius sent for a person from the Tujayb tribe who had been the leader of the Arab Christians and said to him, "Get me someone with a good memory who speaks Arabic so that I may send him to that man (Rasulullaah with with a reply to his letter." (The narrator of this report from the Tanookh tribe) says that it was he who was sent to Heraclius, who handed over to him a letter inscribed on the sternum of an animal. Heraclius then said to the man, "Take this letter to that person and from everything you hear him say, take careful note of three things. See whether he mentions anything about the letter that he wrote to me. See whether he mentions the night when reading my letter and look carefully at his back to see for anything that puts you in doubt."

The envoy carried the letter to Rasulullaah in Tabook and found Rasulullaah sitting with the Sahabah rear a watering place. When he asked for their leader, one of the Sahabah pointed Rasulullaah out to him. The envoy walked up to Rasulullaah saked before him and handed over the letter to him. Placing the letter in his lap, Rasulullaah asked the man, "Which tribe do you belong to?" When he identified himself as a member of the Tanookh tribe, Rasulullaah asked him, "Do you wish to enter into the religion of your father Ibraheem which, which is far removed from all deviation and is securely on the straight path?" The envoy replied, "I am an envoy for a nation and follow their religion, I shall not leave their religion until I first return to them."

Rasulullaah the then recited the following verse of the Qur'aan:

(سورة القصص: ٥٦)

Verily you (O Rasulullaah (1866)) cannot guide those whom you love (to Islaam), but Allaah guides whoever He wills. He is best aware of those who are (deserving to be) rightly guided (to Imaan). (Surah Qasas, verse 56)

Rasulullaah then said, "O my brother from the Tanookh! I have sent a letter to Najaashi⁽¹⁾ but he tore it up. Allaah shall therefore tear him and his kingdom apart likewise. I also wrote a letter to your leader (Heraclius) who held on to the letter (without tearing it up). Therefore, as long as good is destined in his life, people shall continue living in awe of him." The envoy narrates that he said to himself, "This is one of the three things that Heraclius instructed me to take note of," He therefore removed an arrow from his quiver and etched the words on his sheath. Rasulullaah then handed over the letter to someone on his left hand side, to which the envoy asked, "Who is your scribe who reads your letters?" "Mu'aawiya," came the reply. The letter contained the following:

"Do you invite me to a Jannah the width of which spans the heavens and the earth, which has been prepared for those who have Taqwa? (If the Jannah occupies all this space) Then where is the fire?"

Rasulullaah exclaimed, "Subhaanallaah! Then where is the night when the day appears?" Taking an arrow from his quiver, the envoy etched these words on his sheath. After reading the letter, Rasulullaah said to the envoy, "You are an envoy and have a right over us. If we had anything with us, we would surely have rewarded you with it, but we are travellers whose provisions have been depleted." Then someone amongst a group called out, "I shall reward him." He then opened his satchel and brought a set of clothing from Safoora (a place in Jordan), which he placed in the envoy's lap. When the envoy asked who the donor of the clothing was, he was told that it was Hadhrat Uthmaan said.

Continuing the report, the envoy says, "Thereafter, Rasulullaah asked the Sahabah "Who shall entertain the envoy?' A youth from the Ansaar volunteered for the job and stood up. I stood up with him. When I was leaving the gathering, Rasulullaah called me back saying, 'O brother from the Tanookh!' I hastened back until I stood in the very place where I had been sitting before him. Rasulullaah then removed the shawl from his back and said, 'Here! Come over and do what you have been ordered.' I went around to his back and saw the seal of prophethood between his shoulder blades, which resembled the egg of a dove." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Not the Najaashi (king of Abyssinia) who accepted Islaam.

⁽²⁾ Abdullaah bin Ahmad and Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.235,236) has commented on the Hadith. Ahmad has also reported the Hadith as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.15). Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan has also reported it as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.6 Pg.27).

Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan William and Heraclius

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in arrates that Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan told him that he went to Shaam with a trade caravan of the Quraysh during the period when Rasulullaah had extended a peace treaty to Abu Sufyaan and the Kuffaar of the Quraysh. When they were at a place called Ilyia (Baytul Maqdas) when Heraclius summoned them. When they appeared in his court in the presence of the Roman ministers, Heraclius called for an interpreter.

Heraclius then asked, "Which of you is closest in lineage to the person who clams to be a prophet?" Abu Sufyaan replied, "I am closest to him in lineage," Heraclius then ordered that Abu Sufyaan be brought close to him while the others should be made to sit behind him. He then addressed the others through the interpreter saying, "I shall ask this man about that person (Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah)). Point out his lies if he lies to me." Abu Sufyaan thought to himself, "By Allaah! I would have certainly lied had I not feared being called a liar."

The first question Heraclius posed was: "How is his lineage amongst you?" "He is of extremely high lineage amongst us," was the reply. Heraclius asked further, "Has anyone from amongst you made such a claim before?" When Abu Sufyaan replied in the negative, the next question was, "Were there any kings amongst his forefathers?" "No," replied Abu Sufyaan. "Is it the nobles among people who follow him or the weak ones?" Abu Sufyaan replied, "The weak ones."

"Are his followers increasing or decreasing?" Heraclius asked. "They are increasing," replied Abu Sufyaan. Heraclius then asked, "Have any of them turned back to their religion out of displeasure for his religion after entering it?" When Abu Sufyaan replied in the negative, the next question was, "Have any of you accused him of lying before he made his claim?" "No," came the reply. "And has he ever broken a treaty?" came the question. "No," replied Abu Sufyaan, "But we are presently bound by a treaty with him and do not know what he will do." Abu Sufyaan says, "Besides this, there was nothing else I could add."

Heraclius continued, "Have you ever fought against him?" "Yes," replied Abu Sufyaan. "Then how did you fare?" the emperor asked. Abu Sufyaan said, "Wars are like the bucket of a well between us. Sometimes he defeats us and sometimes we defeat him." Heraclius asked, "What does he command you to do?" "He commands us to worship the One Allaah without ascribing partners to Him and to forsake what our forefathers said. He also commands us to perform salaah, to be truthful, to remain chaste and to join family ties."

Heraclius then instructed the interpreter saying, "Tell him that when I asked about his (Rasulullaah (See's) lineage, he maintained that he is of extremely high lineage. Such are the prophets who are of high birth. Then I asked you if anyone had made such a claim (of prophethood) before him and you replied in the negative. Had anyone made such a claim before him, I would have said that he is a man aping what was said before him. You again replied in the negative when I asked whether any of his forefathers were kings. Had there been kings amongst his forefathers, I would have said that he is a man seeking the kingdom of his father. Then I asked you whether any of you had ever accused him of lying before and you said that none had done so. I do realise that it is impossible for a person to abstain from lying about people and then lie about Allaah. I then asked you whether it is the nobles among people who follow him or the weak and you replied that they were the weak ones. These have always been the followers of the prophets. I also asked you whether his followers are increasing or decreasing and you said that they were increasing. Such is the case with Imaan until it is completed. Thereafter I asked you whether anyone had returned to his former religion out of displeasure after entering into his religion and you informed me that none had done so. Such is the condition of Imaan when it penetrates the depths of the heart. When I asked you whether he ever broke a treaty, you said that he had not. Such are the prophets. They never break their pledges. I then asked you what he commanded and you said that he commanded you to worship the One Allaah without ascribing partners to Him, that he forbade you from worshipping idols and that he commanded you to perform salaah, to speak the truth and to remain chaste. If whatever you say is true then he shall seize control of the ground I stand on. Although I was expecting his appearance, I had no idea that he would appear among you people. If I knew that I could reach him, I would have burdened myself to do so and had I been in his presence, I would have washed his feet."

He then called for the letter that Rasulullaah sent with Hadhrat Dihya to the chief of Busra, which the chief of Busra has subsequently forwarded to Heraclius. The letter read:

In the name of Allaah the Most Kind, the Most Merciful

From Muhammad the servant and Rasool of Allaah

To Heraclius the Emperor of Rome

Peace be on the one who follows the guidance.

I call you with the invitation of Islaam. Accept Islaam, you will live in peace and Allaah shall double your reward. However, should you turn your back, the sin of all your subjects shall be burdened on you.

﴿ قُلُ يَآ هُلَ الْكِتْبِ تَعَالُوْا إِلَى كَلِمَةٍ سَوَآءٌ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَكُمْ اِلَّا نَعْبُدَ إِلَّا اللّهَ وَلَا نُشُرِكَ بِهِ شَيْئًا وَّلَا يَتَّخِذَ بَعُصُنَا بَعْضًا آرْبَابًا مِّنْ دُوْنِ اللّهِ * فَإِنْ تَوَلُّواْ فَقُوْلُوا اشْهَدُوْا بِآنًا مُسْلِمُونَ ﴾

Say, "O People of the Book! Come to (unite on) a word (a matter of belief) that is common between us (Muslims) and You; that we worship none other but Allaah (we proclaim that we are Muslims and monotheists), that we do not ascribe any as equal (as partner) to Him and that we do not take each other as gods besides Allaah (we do not worship any prophet, saint, etc)." If they turn away (refusing to accept the proposal) then say, "Be witness that we are certainly Muslims (we have surrendered ourselves to Allaah's commands)." (1)

Abu Sufyaan narrates further, "After Heraclius had spoken and read the letter, there was a lot of noise about and people started speaking at the top of their voices. It was then that they sent us out. When we were sent out, I said to one of my companions, 'The affair of Ibn Abi Kabsha (Rasulullaah) has grown so powerful that even the king of the yellow skins (the Romans) have begun to fear him.' Thereafter, I remained convinced that Rasulullaah would dominate until Allaah blessed me with Islaam."

A person by the name of Ibn Naatoor was the governor of Ilyia, a good friend of Heraclius and the high priest of the Christians in Shaam. He narrates that once when Heraclius was visiting Ilyia (Baytul Maqdas) when he appeared extremely unwell and restless one morning. In fact, some of his pastors even told him that he did not seem himself. Heraclius was an astrologer and could read the stars so when they asked him (about the reason for his ill disposition) he said to them, "When I gazed into the stars, I saw that the king of the circumcised people had made his appearance. Which nation practices circumcision?" They told him, "It is only the Jews who practise circumcision, but you have nothing to fear from them. Simply circulate a command throughout your kingdom calling for all Jews to be killed."

They were still busy discussing this when an envoy arrived from the governor of Ghassaan, informing them about Rasulullaah Web. When Heraclius had questioned the envoy, he instructed the pastors to investigate whether the envoy was circumcised. When they determined that he had been circumcised, he was asked whether the Arabs practiced circumcision. When he informed them that circumcision was customary amongst the Arabs, Heraclius said, "It is the king of this nation who has made his appearance." Heraclius then wrote a letter to a friend in Rome who was also an expert in astrology as he was. He then left for Hims. He had not yet reached Hims when a reply came from his friend which corresponded with the opinion of Heraclius that Rasulullaah had made his appearance and that he was a Nabi.

Heraclius then invited the leading people of Rome to his castle in Hims and had all the doors locked. He then made an appearance and addressed them saying, "O leaders of the Roman people! Do you want to achieve success, good fortune and keep your kingdom? Simply follow this Nabi." When they heard this, everyone present started to flee like wild camels and headed for the doors, which they found locked. When Heraclius noticed their derision and lost hope in their accepting Imaan, he instructed his men to bring everyone back. He then said to them, "I told you this only to test your steadfastness in adhering to your religion. I have now witnessed it." They all prostrated before him and were satisfied with him. This was the final stand of Heraclius (he never accepted Imaan) (1)

⁽¹⁾ Surah Aal Imraan, verse 64

The Letter Rasulullaah sem sent to Kisra the Emperor of Persia

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas marrates that Rasulullaah sent a messenger with a letter addressed to Kisra, instructing the messenger to hand the letter over to the governor of Bahrain. The governor in turn had it sent to Kisra. However, Kisra tore the letter up and it was probably Ibn Musayyib who narrates that Rasulullaah cursed Kisra by saying that Allaah should also tear him apart completely. (2)

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abd Qaari narrates that Rasulullaah stood on the pulpit one-day to deliver a sermon. After praising Allaah, and reciting the Shahaadah, he said, "I intend sending some of you to the non-Arab kings so do not dispute before me as the Bani Israa'eel did in front of Isa the son of Maryam ." To this, the Muhaajireen said, "O Rasulullaah we shall never ever dispute with you concerning anything. Issue the command and send us (wherever you wish)."

Rasulullaah then sent Hadhrat Shujaa bin Wahab to Kisra. (When he arrived) Kisra had his palace decorated and gathered the leading personalities of his kingdom there before admitting Hadhrat Shujaa when Hadhrat Shujaa entered, Kisra ordered that the letter of Rasulullaah should be taken from Hadhrat Shujaa and handed over to him. However, Hadhrat Shujaa refused to surrender the letter and insisted that he wanted to personally hand the letter to Kisra as Rasulullaah had commanded him. Kisra permitted him to draw close and when he did, he handed the letter over. Kisra then summoned one of his scribes from Heera who read the letter out. The letter read: "From Muhammad bin Abdillaah the Rasool of Allaah to Kisra the Emperor of Persia."

The fact that Rasulullaah begun the letter with his name infuriated Kisra so much that he tore the letter to bits before being informed of what it contained. He then ordered Hadhrat Shujaa out of his court. Mounting his conveyance, Hadhrat Shujaa said, "By Allaah! Now that I have delivered the letter of Rasulullaah I have no concern about which of the two paths I am on (whether Kisra is pleased or not)."

When Kisra's anger had abated, he sent someone to call Hadhrat Shujaa was back, but Hadhrat Shujaa had already left by then. The person searched for him until he reached Heera but Hadhrat Shujaa was already far ahead. When Hadhrat Shujaa reported back Rasulullaah and informed him that Kisra had torn up the letter, Rasulullaah & commented, "Kisra has torn up his kingdom." (1)

Abu Salam bin Abdir Rahmaan narrates that after the letter of Rasulullaah had reached Kisra and he read it and tore it up, he wrote to Baadhaan the governor of Yemen instructing, "Sent two burly men to this man in Hijaaz with instructions to bring him to me." In compliance with the letter, Baadhaan sent his chief minister Abaanuh in the company of a Persian man called Jadd Jameerah. Abaanuh was a man proficient in Persian letters and numbers. Baadhaan sent a letter with them to Rasulullaah his instructing Rasulullaah to leave for the court of Kisra with the two of them. Baadhaan also instructed his chief minister to scrutinise Rasulullaah his to engage him in discussion and to report the details back to him.

The two left and finally reached Taa'if where they made enquiries about Rasulullaah from some businessmen of the Quraysh. They were informed that Rasulullaah was in Madinah. (Realising that the two men were out to take Rasulullaah to Kisra,) The businessmen became overjoyed and exclaimed, "Now that Kisra has stood up against him (Rasulullaah we nothing more to do."

When the two reached Madinah, Abaanuh spoke to Rasulullaah and said to him, "Kisra has written to Baadhaan with instructions to send someone to take you before him. He has sent me so that you come with me." Rasulullaah said to him, "You may leave now and return to see me tomorrow." When the two arrived the next day, Rasulullaah informed them of the precise night of a particular month in which Allaah has killed Kisra and handed the kingdom over to his son Sherway. The two men said, "Do you know what you are saying? May we write back to Baadhaan with this news?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah in and tell him that if he accepts Islaam, I shall hand back to him control of all the lands he presently rules." Rasulullaah then gave Jadd Jameerah a belt decorated with gold and silver that had been given to him as a gift.

When the two returned to Yemen and informed Baadhaan about the events, he said, "This is not the speech of some king. We should definitely investigate the truth of what he said." They did not have to wait long before they received a letter from Sherway which after the formalities stated, "With the support of the Persian people, I have killed Kisra in a fit of fury because he saw nothing wrong in killing Persian nobles for no reason. Secure allegiance to me from all the people in Yemen and ensure that you cause no harm to the person (Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah)) whom Kisra ordered you to capture."

After reading the letter of Sherway, Baadhaan said, "This man (Rasulullaah must certainly be a Rasul." He then accepted Islaam and so did all the Persians living in Yemen. (2)

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.269).

⁽²⁾ Abu Sa'eed Nayshapuri in his book Sharaful Mustafa where he narrates from Ibn Is'haaq who narrates form Zuhri. Abu Nu'aym has also narrated it in Dalaa'il where the name Kharkhusra is mentioned in place of "Jadd Jameerah" while his companion is also named as Abaanuh - Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.259).

Ibn Is'haaq narrates that Rasulullaah sent Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa with a letter addressed to Kisra in which Rasulullaah in invited him to accept Islaam. When he read the letter, he tore it up and wrote to Baadhaan his governor in Yemen. The rest of the Hadith is similar to the one above. However, this narration states that when the two men reached Madinah, Baadhaan spoke to Rasulullaah and told him, "Indeed the king of all kings Kisra wrote to the governor Baadhaan instructing him to send someone to him who would bring you to him. If you comply (by going to Kisra), I shall send a letter with you that will benefit you. However, if you refuse, Kisra shall destroy you and your people and turn your land into ruins." Rasulullaah said to him, "You may leave and return tomorrow." The rest of the Hadith is similar to the one above. (1)

Hadhrat Zaid bin Abi Habeeb narrates that Rasulullaah sent Hadhrat Abdullah bin Hudhaafa with a letter for Kisra bin Hurmuz who was the Emperor of Persia. The letter read:

In the name of Allaah the Most Kind the Most Merciful From Muhammad the Rasool of Allaah (

To Kisra the Emperor of Persia

Peace be on the one who follows the guidance, who believes in Allaah and His Rasool and who testifies that there is none worthy of worship but the One Allaah Who has no partners and that Muhammad is sallaah's servant and Rasul.

I call you with the invitation of Allaah for I am the Rasul of Allaah to all of mankind who warns the living so that the decree (of punishment) becomes binding on the disbelievers. If you accept Islaam, you shall live in peace and if you refuse, then the sin of the fire-worshippers shall be on you.

Kisra tore up the letter when he read it and wrote to Baadhaan. The rest of the Hadith is as mentioned earlier from the narration of Ibn Is'haaq. However, this report adds that when the two men entered the presence of Rasulullaah their faces were shaven off and their moustaches were grown very long. Rasulullaah therefore detested even looking at them and said, "Woe to you! Who instructed you to do this?" Referring to Kisra, they said, "Our Rabb commanded us to do this." Rasulullaah said to them, "My Rabb has commanded me to let my beard grow and to trim my moustache." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakrah in narrates that when Rasulullaah was sent to propagate the message, Kisra sent a message to his governor over Yemen and the surrounding areas of Arabia, who was called Baadaam. He stated in his letter, "It has reached me that a person has surfaced in your district who claims to be a Nabi. Tell him to stop what he is doing otherwise I shall send an army that will Ibn Abi Dunya in Dalaa'ilun Nabuwwah. He also narrates it very briefly from Sa'eed Maqbari as mentioned in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.169).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.269).

kill him and his people."

When Baadaam's envoy conveyed the message to Rasulullaah Rasulullaah said to him, "Had this (propagation) been something that I am doing of my own accord, I shall be able to stop it. However, the Glorious and Magnificent Allaah has sent me (to do it)."/The envoy stayed awhile and Rasulullaah once said to him, "My Rabb has killed Kisra and there is no Kisra after this day. My Rabb has also killed Caesar and there is no Caesar after this day." The envoy wrote down the statement the moment Rasulullaah said it, during the day in which he said it and during the month in which he said it. When he returned to Baadaan, he found out that Kisra had already died and that the Caesar has been killed. (1)

Hadhrat Dihya Kalbi Mai narrates that Rasulullaah sent him with a letter addressed to the Caesar. The Hadith is similar to that mentioned under the heading "The Letter Rasulullaah sent to Heraclius the Emperor of Rome". However, at the end of this narration of Bazzaar, it is stated that when Hadhrat Dihya returned to Rasulullaah he found envoys of the San'aa governors with Rasulullaah for the found envoys to Rasulullaah because Kisra had written a threat to the governor of Sa'aa instructing him to deal with the person from his region (Rasulullaah who had written to Kisra saying that he should either embrace his religion or pay Jizya. Kisra threatened the governor with death and other stern measures if he failed in his task. It was in response to this that the governor of San'aa sent the twenty five persons whom Hadhrat Dihya found with Rasulullaah

When their leader read out the letter to Rasulullaah , (he gave them no reply) and left them for fifteen nights. When the fifteen nights had passed, they came before him and when he saw them, he said, "Go to your governor and inform him that my Rabb has killed his lord (Kisra) this night." When they returned and informed the governor likewise, he said to them, "Take note of that night." He then asked them, "Tell me how you found him?" They replied, "We have not seen a king as blessed as he. He walks about freely without any fear, dresses most simply, has no bodyguards and no one raises their voice before him." Hadhrat Dihya mentioned that the news later came that Kisra was killed on the very night that Rasulullaah has mentioned. (2)

The Letter Rasulullaah sent to Maqoqis the King of Alexandria

Hadhrat Abdullah bin Abd Qaari in arrates that Rasulullaah is sent Hadhrat Haatib bin Abi Balta'ah with a letter addressed to Maqoqis the king of Alexandria. When Hadhrat Haatib is arrived with the letter, Maqoqis kissed the letter and entertained Hadhrat Haatib in most excellently. When he sent Hadhrat Haatib is back to Rasulullaah is, he sent gifts for Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.287) has commented on the Hadith. It is also narrated by Ahmad and Bazzaar.

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.309) has commented on the Hadith.

Rasulullaah with him that included a suit of clothing, a saddled mule and two slave women. The one slave woman (Maariya) was the mother of (Rasulullaah sees son) Ibraheem and Rasulullaah gave the other to Hadhrat Muhammad bin Qais Abdi Hadhrat Haatib bin Abi Balta'ah sin narrates that Rasulullaah se sent him to Maqoqis the king of Alexandria. When he delivered the letter, Maqoqis hosted Hadhrat Haatib sin his palace, where he stayed awhile. Maqoqis then gathered his high priests and called for Hadhrat Haatib sin Maqoqis said to him, "I wish to pose a few questions and want you to understand them well." "By all means," replied Hadhrat Haatib sins.

Maqoqis asked, "Tell me about your leader. Is he really a prophet?" "He certainly is the Rasul of Allaah," replied Hadhrat Haatib (Magoqis then asked further, "If he really is Allaah's prophet, why did he then not curse his people when they drove him out of his town (Makkah)?" Hadhrat Haatib responded by asking, "Do you not testify that Isa the son of Maryam was Allaah's Rasul?" "Indeed," came the reply. "Then when his people seized him to crucify him," began Hadhrat Haatib was, "why did he not pray to Allaah to destroy them when Allaah raised him to the heavens?" Maqoqis said to Hadhrat Haatib was, "You are a wise man who has come from the company of a wise man. Here are some gifts that I am sending with you to Muhammad was. I am also sending some guards with you to protect you until you reach your place of safety." Maqoqis sent two slave women to Rasulullaah was gave another to Hadhrat Hassaan bin Thaabit was. Besides this, Maqoqis also sent selected gifts that were acclaimed in their land. (2)

The Letter that Rasulullaah sent to the People of Najraan

The grandfather of Abd Yasoo who was a Christian before accepting Islaam narrates that Rasulullaah sent a letter to the people of Najraan before Surah "TaaSeen Sulaymaan" (Surah Naml) was revealed (the letter therefore does not begin with "Bismillaahir Rahmaanir Raheem" because it was only after the revelation of this Surah that Rasulullaah started including "Bismillaah ir Rahmaanir Raheem" in his letters as this Surah mentions Hadhrat Sulaymaan did). The letter read:

I begin in the name of the Ilaah of Ibraheem (Ilaah). Is'haaq

From Muhammad the Nabi and Rasool of Allaah

To the high priest and people of Najraan

Peace be to you. Before you I praise the Ilaah of Ibraheem & ,

⁽¹⁾ Bayhagi.

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.272). Ibn Shaaheen has also narrated this Hadith as mentioned in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.300).

Is'haaqoolike and Ya'qoob

I call you from the worship of Allaah's slaves to the worship of Allaah and from the friendship of Allaah's slaves to the friendship of Allaah. Should you refuse (to accept Islaam), you shall have to pay the Jizya and should you refuse even this, I shall have to declare war against you.

Was Salaam

When the high priest read the letter, he was alarmed and grew extremely frightened. He immediately sent for a person from Najraan called Shurahbeel bin Wadaa'ah who hailed from Hamdaan tribe. Whenever any problem arose, he was summoned even before the heroes, leaders and high-ranking people. The high priest handed over Rasulullaah  selecter to Shurahbeel, who read it. The high priest then asked, "O Abu Maryam! What is your opinion?" Shurahbeel said, "You know well that Allaah promised Ibraheem  prophethood in the progeny of his son Ismaa'eel . It would come as no surprise if this is the very person (who has received the promised prophethood). I can offer no opinion in the matter of prophethood. Had the matter been a worldly one, I would have advised you and exerted myself to assist you." The high priest then bade Shurahbeel to step aside and be seated, which he did.

The high priest then, sent for a man called Abdullaah bin Shurahbeel who was also from Najraan and belonged to the Dhu Asbah branch of the Himyar tribe. When the high priest read the letter to him and asked his opinion, his reply was similar to that of Shurahbeel. The high priest then bade Abdulaah to step aside and be seated, which he did.

He then sent for a man called Jabbaar bin Faydh who was also from Najraan and belonged to the Banu Haarith bin Ka'b branch of the Banul Himaas tribe. When the high priest read the letter to him and asked his opinion, his reply was similar to that of Shurahbeel and Abdullaah. He also took a seat when asked to do so.

Once they had all agreed on the matter, the high priest called for the bells to be tolled, fires to be lit and flags to be raised in the churches. This was their practice whenever trouble brewed during the day. When there was trouble during the night, they would only toll the bells and light the fires in the churches. Consequently, when the bells were tolled and the flags raised, all the people living on the top and bottom parts of the valley gathered. The valley was so long that it would take a speeding rider a complete day to pass and in it were seventy three villages comprising of one hundred and twenty thousand warriors.

When the high priest read the letter of Rasulullaah to them, everyone agreed that Shurahbeel bin Wadaa'ah from the Hamdaan tribe, Abdullaah bin Shurahbeel from the Dhu Asbah tribe and Jabbaar bin Faydh from the Banu Haarith tribe should be sent to gather news about Rasulullaah . The delegation left and finally arrived in Madinah. There they removed their traveling clothes and wore decorative long garments made in Yemen, which they had to drag along. They also wore gold rings. When they approached Rasulullaah and greeted him, he did not reply to their greeting. The entire day they sought an opportunity to speak to Rasulullaah but he refused to speak to them as long as they wore those clothes and gold rings.

They then looked for Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf who knew them and eventually found them sitting with a group of Muhaajireen and Ansaar. They said, "O Uthmaan! O Abdur Rahmaan! Your Nabi wrote a letter to us and we have arrived in response to the letter. However, when we came to him and greeted him, he did not reply to our greeting and although we searched all day for an opportunity to speak to him, we have been unable to do so. What is your opinion? Do you think that we should return?"

Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib was also in the gathering, so the two of them asked him, "What do you think of these people, O Abul Hasan?" Addressing Hadhrat Uthmaan and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was, Hadhrat Ali was, Hadhrat Ali was, Hadhrat Ali was, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was, Hadhrat Ali was, Hadhrat Rasulullaah was, Hadhrat Ali was, Hadhrat Rasulullaah was was certainly with you when you came to me the first time." Rasulullaah was, Hadhrat Rasul

Rasulullaah said to them, "I have nothing much to say about him today. Stay a while longer until I am able to inform you what my Rabb has to say about Isa said." By the following morning, the following verses of the Qur'aan had been revealed:

﴿ إِنَّ مَعْلَ عِيْسُى عِنْدَ اللهِ كَمَثِلَ ادَمَ خَلَقَهُ مِنْ تُوَابٍ ثُمَّ قَالَ لَهُ كُنْ فَيَكُونُ ۞ الْحَقُّ مِنْ تَوَابٍ ثُمَّ قَالَ لَهُ كُنْ فَيَكُونُ ۞ الْحَقُّ مِنْ حَآجَكَ فِيْهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا جَآءَ كَ مِنَ الْمُعْتَرِيْنَ ۞ فَمَنْ حَآجَكَ فِيْهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا جَآءَ كَ مِنَ الْعِلْمِ فَقُلْ تَعَالُوا نَدُعُ الْبَنَآءَ نَا وَابْنَآءَ كُمْ وَنِسَآءَ نَا وَنِسَآءَ كُمْ وَانْفُسَنَا وَانْفُسَكُمُ اللهِ لَعْنَ اللهِ عَلَى الْكَذِيئِنَ ۞ ﴿ (سورة ال عمران: ٥٠ نا ١١)

Verily the likeness of Isa (who was created without a father) with Allaah is as the likeness of Aadam (who was created with neither a father nor a mother). He (Allaah) created him (Aadam (him)) from clay then said to him, "Be!" and he became (a living man). This is the truth from your Rabb so do not be of those who doubt. Whoever disputes with you (O Muhammad (him)) concerning this (concerning the incident of Isa (him)) after the knowledge (revelation) has come to you, then say to them, "Come! We shall call your sons and our sons, your wives and our wives, yourselves and ourselves. Then we shall (collectively) pray sincerely (to Allaah) and place Allaah's curse on the liars." {Surah Aal Imraan, verses 59-61}

(After Rasulullaah Frecited these verses to them,) They refused to accept it (and rather accepted the challenge of Mubaahala offered in the last verse above). Consequently, Rasulullaah Farrived the following morning (for the challenge) together with Hadhrat Hasan and Hadhrat Husayn wrapped in his shawl. Behind him came Hadhrat Faatima and his many wives. (Seeing this) Shurahbeel said to his two companions, "You know well that the people from the entire top and bottom parts of our valley always return content with my decisions. I swear by Allaah that what I see here is an extremely serious and weighty affair. If he is a sent Rasul, we shall be the first Arabs to be an eyesore for him and the first to oppose him. This insult will not leave his heart nor the hearts of his companions until they destroy us. We are also the closest Arabs to them (and are most prone to any pending attacks). If he is a sent Rasul of Allaah, then to engage him in Mubaahala would even destroy the hairs and fingernails of each of us on earth."

The two asked him, "What then is your proposal, O Abu Maryam?" Shurahbeel said, "I propose that we negotiate (a treaty) with him for I do not see him to be one who would ever make futile clauses." The two said to him, "We leave you to do as you see appropriate." Shurahbeel went to see Rasulullaah and said, "I propose something better than Mubaahala." "What is that?" asked Rasulullaah Shurahbeel replied, "You have today and tonight to pass judgement (formulate the clauses of a treaty). We are prepared to accept whatever clauses you make." Rasulullaah asked him, "Perhaps there are people left behind who may criticise you (for this)." Shurahbeel said, "You may ask my two companions." When Rasulullaah asked them, they said, "The people from the entire top and bottom parts of our valley always return content with the decisions of Shurahbeel." Rasulullaah then returned home without carrying out the Mubaahala." The next day, they met Rasulullaah and wrote the following letter:

In the name of Allaah the Most Kind the Most Merciful

This is the treaty that the Nabi and Rasool of Allaah Muhammad has written for the people of Najraan. He has determined that all their fruit crops, their gold, their silver, their produce and their slaves would remain their property on condition that they pay two thousand sets of clothing; a thousand every Rajab and the other thousand every Safar.

Other clauses are also mentioned in the narration. (2)

A narration of Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.55) adds that the witnesses to Mubaahala: When two conflicting parties coflectively make du'aa to Allaah that He should destroy the party that is wrong.

⁽²⁾ Bayhagi as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol. 1 Pg.369).

this treaty were Abu Sufyaan bin Harb, Ghaylaan bin Amr, Maalik bin Auf of the Banu Nasr tribe, Aqra bin Haabis Handhali and Mughiera Rasulullaah had the treaty written out and the three returned with it to Najraan. With their high priest at the time was his step brother who was also his cousin. His name was Basheer bin Mu'aawiya and he was commonly known as Abu Alqama. When the three handed over the letter of Rasulullaah to the high priest. The high priest and Abu Alqama were mounted on their camels at the time and the high priest was busy reading the letter when Abu Alqama's camel tripped and fell. Abu Alqama also fell and without mincing his words, he cursed Rasulullaah as he fell.

When this happened, the high priest said to him, "By Allaah! You have cursed a sent prophet!" (Affected by the words of the high priest,) Abu Alqama said, "If he is a true prophet, then I swear by Allaah that I shall not unfasten my satchels until I meet Rasulullaah "Saying this, he turned his camel to the direction of Madinah. The high priest also turned his camel in the same direction and said, "Understand well what I have to say. I have said what I did in fear so that the Arabs may hear from me that we have acknowledged the right of Rasulullaah that we accepted his call and have submitted to him as the other Arabs did not even though we are the most noble of the Arabs and have the most homes (the largest population)." Abu Alqama said to him, "No! By Allaah! I shall never accept anything coming from your head!" Abu Alqama then hit his camel and left the high priest behind. As he rode, he spurred the camel on by reciting the following couplets:

(O Rasulullaah (1964) To you does the camel run with her rope shaking
In her belly lies her unborn child in a breeched position
Her (master's) religion is now other than Christianity

Abu Alqama met Rasulullaah (accepted Islaam and lived his life with Rasulullaah (until he was finally martyred.

In the meantime, the three man delegation returned to Najraan and approached a monk called Ibn Abi Shimr who lived at the top of his monastery. The told him that a prophet had been sent to the Tihaamah district and told him about the Najraan delegation that met Rasulullaah They also informed him that Rasulullaah had challenged them to Mubaahala, that they had declined the challenge and that Basheer bin Mu'aawiya (Abu Alqama) left to meet Rasulullaah and had accepted Islaam.

The monk said, "Take me down from here before I throw myself down from this monastery." When they took him down, he took some gifts along with him and left to meet Rasulullaah . Among these gifts were the shawl that the Khulafa wore, a cup and a staff. He stayed for some while with Rasulullaah . Iistening to the revelation but he was not destined to accept Islaam. He left Rasulullaah promising to return shortly, but his return was not to be and Rasulullaah passed away.

The high priest Abul Haarith came to Rasulullaah in the company of several leaders and high-ranking persons. They stayed some time with Rasulullaah listening to what revelation came to Rasulullaah Rasulullaah wrote the following letter to the high priest and to all the priests of Najraan after him:

In the name of Allaah the Most Kind the Most Merciful

From Muhammad the Rasool of Allaah

To the high priest Abul Haarith, the priests, fortune-tellers and monks of Najraan

Everything they possess in large and small quantities shall enjoy the protection of Allaah and His Rasool. No priest, monk or fortune-teller shall lose his position nor the rights due to him nor any authority he may be enjoying. This protection of Allaah and His Rasool shall remain intact forever as long as they continue doing what is correct and remain well-wishers without supporting oppression or oppressors.

This letter was written by Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba (1986).

The Letter Rasulullaah Sent to the Bakr bin Waa'il Tribe

Hadhrat Marthad bin Dhabiyaan was narrates that a letter from Rasulullaah reached them and that they could find no one in their tribe to read it until a man from the Dabee'ah tribe read it to them. It read:

From Rasulullaah (**
To the Bakr bin Waa'il tribe
Accept Islaam and live in peace. (1)

The Letter Rasulullaah Fee Sent to the Banu Judhaama Tribe

Hadhrat Ma'bad Judhaami (Simos) narrates that when Hadhrat Rifaa'ah bin Zaid Judhaami (Simos) met with Rasulullaah (Simos), he wrote the following letter for them:

From Muhammad the Rasool of Allaah

(This letter has been) Handed to Rifaa'ah bin Zaid whom I have sent to his people and those included amongst them to invite towards Allaah and His Rasool. Whoever accepts Imaan shall be included in the legion of Allaah and His Rasool. As for those who turn their backs, they shall have only two months respite.

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.305) has commented on the chain of narrators. Bazzaar, Abu Ya'la and Tabraani have also narrated a similar Hadith from Hadhrat Anas (the narrators of which are reliable according to Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.305).

When Hadhrat Rifaa'ah (1) came to his people, they all accepted Imaan.

Incidents About the Character and Actions of Rasulullaah that Inspired People to Accept Islaam

The Conversion to Islaam of Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na Wisse who had been a Jewish Rabbi

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Salaam in arrates that when Allaah decreed that Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na should accept Islaam, Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na himself said, "When I looked at Muhammad I, I recognised all the signs of Nabuwaat except for two signs that I had not tested; (1) that his self-control should outstrip his anger and (2) that his tolerance should conquer a display of extreme foolishness."

Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na wis narrates further that Rasulullaah what had just emerged from his rooms one day with Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib when a rider who appeared to be a Bedouin came to him. He said, "O Rasulullaah Ali Bin Abi Taalib when a rider who appeared to be a Bedouin came to him. He said, "O Rasulullaah Ali Bin Abi Taalib when a few people from a certain tribe have accepted Islaam because I told them that they will receive an abundance in sustenance if they accepted Islaam. However, no rain has fallen and they are afflicted by a drought. O Rasulullaah I fear that they may leave the fold of Islaam out of greed just as they had entered out of greed. If you agree, we could perhaps sent them something to assist them."

Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na says, "Rasulullaah looked at the person beside him whom I assume was Hadhrat Ali looked at the person beside him whom I assume was Hadhrat Ali looked at the person beside him whom I assume was Hadhrat Ali looked. He said, 'O Rasulullaah looked at looked looke Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na was narrates further that there were only two or three days left for the expiry of the term, when Rasulullaah left his home to perform a funeral prayer. With him were Hadhrat Abu Bakr was, Hadhrat Umar was, Hadhrat Uthmaan and several other Sahabah when they approached a wall to sit by it, Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na was came to Rasulullaah and grabbed hold of Rasulullaah so collar. Staring angrily into the face of Rasulullaah he said. "O Muhammad! When are you going to pay my dues? By Allaah! All that the children of Abdul Muttalib have learnt is how Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.310) has commented on the chain of narrators. Umawi has also narrated the Hadith in his Maghaazi as reported in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.441).

⁽²⁾ Approximately 400 grams.

to procrastinate! By mixing with you people, Inowhave first-hand knowledge of this!" Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na says that as he was doing this, his gaze fell on Hadhrat Umar says. He noticed that Hadhrat Umar says eyes were starting to roll with anger and he stared with fury. He said, "O enemy of Allaah! Do you speak to Rasulullaah like like that and treat him in this manner!? Had it not been for respect of being in the company of Rasulullaah says, I would have cut off your neck!" Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na says that all the while, Rasulullaah looked at him in a most calm and unruffled manner. Rasulullaah then said to Hadhrat Umar says, "O Umar! All that the two of us need is for you to tell me to pay him quickly and to tell him to place his demands in a better manner. O Umar! Go with him and give him his dues. Also give him twenty Saa of dates extra in lieu of the threat you gave him."

Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na says that Hadhrat Umar shows took him along, paid him what was due and added another twenty Saa to it. When Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na saked Hadhrat Umar shows what he twenty Saa extra were for, Hadhrat Umar said that it was the command of Rasulullaah shows because of the threat he had made. Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na shows then asked, "O Umar! Do you recognise me?" "No," replied Hadhrat Umar shows said, "I am Zaid bin Su'na." "The Rabbi?" asked Hadhrat Umar shows. "Yes, the Rabbi," was the reply. Hadhrat Umar shows then asked, "But why did you behave as you did? Why did you speak as you did?"

Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na replied, "O Umar! When I looked at Muhammad I recognised all the signs of Nabuwaat except for two signs that I had not tested; (1) that his self-control should outstrip his anger and (2) that his tolerance should conquer a display of extreme foolishness. I have now tested both these attributes. O Umar! I make you witness to the fact that I am content with Allaah as Rabb, with Islaam as the true religion and with Muhammad as the Nabi. I also make you witness to the fact that I give half of my wealth and I am one of the wealthiest people - as charity to the entire Ummah of Rasulullaah "Hadhrat Umar said, "Say that it is for a part of the Ummah because you will be unable to give all of them." "Alright," said Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na the signs of the Ummah."

Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na exclaimed, "I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul." He therefore accepted Imaan and pledged his alleglance to Rasulullaah is Hé participated in many expeditions with Rasulullaah and was eventually martyred during the expedition to Tabook as he was advancing and not retreating. May Allaah shower His mercy on Hadhrat Zaid bin Su'na

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.240) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Hibbaan, Haakim, Abu Shaykh and others have also reported the Hadith, This is mentioned in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.566) together with commentary on the chain of narrators and an addition which states that a Jew said, "I have seen every description of Muhammad a mentioned in the Torah except for

The Incident of the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah

The Quraysh Prevent Rasulullaah A from Visiting the Kabah

Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhrama in narrates that when Rasulullaah in the Madinah on the occasion of the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah, he said to the Sahabah when they had reached a particular place, "Khaalid bin Waleed and a group of horsemen have arrived at a place called Umaym to gather intelligence. Therefore, alter your course towards the right." Hadhrat Miswar weer swears by Allaah that Khaalid bin Waleed did not notice them until (the Muslims were almost on top of him) and he saw their dust fly. He then hastily returned to warn the Quraysh.

Rasulullaah (Continued riding until he reached a valley that fell on the road to Makkah. It was there that his camel sat down. The camel's name was Qaswa. (According to their custom) When the Sahabah (Continued of their custom) When the Sahabah (Continued of their custom) When the Sahabah (Continued of the Italian), she refused to budge. The Sahabah (Continued of the satisfied saying, "Qaswa has become stubborn!" Rasulullaah (Continued out to them that she was not being stubborn for she normally never behaved in this manner. He then added, "The Being that stopped the people of the elephants from entering Makkah has stopped her as well." Thereafter, Rasulullaah (Commented, "I swear by the Being in Whose control is my life that I shall grant the Kuffaar any request they make as long as it sanctifies those things that Allaah has made sacred."

Rasulullaah then scolded his camel and she stood up again. He moved away from the road and settled at the end of the valley of Hudaybiyyah where there was a spring. The spring contained so little water that the Sahabah could only draw very little. They were hardly there long when all the water was finished. When the Sahabah complained about this to Rasulullaah he took out an arrow from his quiver and instructed them to fix it at the spring (which they did). Hadhrat Miswar says, "By Allaah, the water of the spring then gushed forth for the Sahabah until they left the place."

Budayl's Meeting with Rasulullaah

While the Muslims were camped at Hudaybiyyah, Budayl bin Warqa Khuzaa'ee arrived with a group of his tribesmen from the Banu Khuzaa'a. This was the tribe who were well-wishers of the Muslims from the people of Tihaama. This tribe was from the Tihaamah region and was the friendliest tribe of the region towards the Muslims. He told Rasulullaah that they had just passed by the tribes of Aamir bin Luway and Ka'b bin Luway, who were camped at some of the springs of Hudaybiyyah. They informed Rasulullaah that these tribes were ready to engage in battle with the Muslims and prevent them from coming to the Kabah.

the trait that his self-control..." The rest of the incident is as mentioned above. Abu Nu'aym has also quoted the narration in Dalaa'il (Pg.23).

In fact they were so intent on fighting the Muslims that they had arrived with (all their resources and even) those camels that were close to giving birth and those that had just given birth.

Rasulullaah said, "I have not come to fight anyone, but wish only to perform Umrah. (It is surprising that the Quraysh want to fight because) Fighting has already weakened them and caused them much harm. If they want, we are prepared to enter into a treaty with them for a period. During this period, they should not interfere with my efforts on the people. If I dominate over the people (if they accept Islaam), the Quraysh have the choice of entering into the Deen which the others have entered into. On the other hand, if people get the upper hand over me, the Quraysh will have no worries. However, if the Quraysh refuse (to accept Islaam and insist on fighting), then I swear by the Being in Whose control my life lies, I shall fight them for the sake of this Deen until either my head is separated from my neck or this Deen of Allaah flourishes."

Budayl told Rasulullaah that he would convey this message to the Quraysh. He then left and when he met with the Quraysh. He said to them, "We have just come from that man and have heard him say something. If you wish us to convey it to you, I shall oblige." Some foolish persons present said, "We have no need to be told anything about him." However, some intelligent ones said, "Tell us what you heard." Budayl then continued to tell them everything Rasulullaah had told him.

Urwa bin Mas'ood's Meeting with Rasulullaah

Urwa bin Mas'ood then stood up and said, "O people! Am I not like a father unto you?" "Indeed," they replied. He added, "And are you not like my children?" "Certainly," they responded. He asked further, "Do you have any doubts about me?" "Of course not," they asserted. Urwa asked, "Are you not aware of the fact that I mustered the support of the people of Ukaaz to assist you but when they refused, I presented myself with my family, my children and all who would obey me?" "We are well aware of that," they agreed.

Urwa then said to them, "He (Rasulullaah) has presented a fine proposal. Accept it and allow me to negotiate with him." When they agreed that he negotiate with Rasulullaah , Urwa met with Rasulullaah and started the negotiation process. When Rasulullaah told Urwa what he had told Budayl, Urwa said, "O Muhammad! If you ever annihilate your people, have you ever heard of any Arab before you who has annihilated his family? Nevertheless, if matters take the other course (if the Quraysh get the upper hand) then I do not see a group of loyal and trustworthy people around you. I see a mixed lot around who are prone to desert you and leave you all alone." At this, Hadhrat Abu Bakr said to Urwa, "Go suck Laat's genitals! Will we ever desert Rasulullaah and leave him by himself!" "Who is this?" asked Urwa. "He is Abu Bakr," was the reply. Urwa responded by saying, "I swear by the Being in whose control is my life! Had it not been for a favour that I owe you and which I have not yet repaid, I would have certainly replied to you."

Urwa then continued speaking with Rasulullaah and would repeatedly touch the beard of Rasulullaah as he spoke. Standing by Rasulullaah (Urwa's nephew) who was wearing a helmet at the time and carrying a sword. When Urwa raised his hand to touch Rasulullaah s's beard, Hadhrat Mughiera struck Urwa's hand with the handle of his sword saying, "Keep your hand away from Rasulullaah s's beard." Raising his gaze, Urwa asked, "Who is this?" When he was informed that it was Hadhrat Mughiera who betrayer! Have I not borne the brunt of your betrayal!" During the Period of Ignorance, Hadhrat Mughiera had befriended some people whom he later killed and robbed of their possessions. He later came to Rasulullaah with all the stolen goods and accepted Islaam. However, Rasulullaah said to him, "I shall accept your conversion to Islaam, but will have nothing to do with the wealth." (Urwa was referring to this incident).

Urwa then started observing the Sahabah wery closely. He says, "By Allaah! Even when Rasulullaah would spit, someone would catch it and rub it on his face and body. Whenever he issued any command the Sahabah would immediately carry it out and when he made wudhu, they get close to fighting with each other to get the water falling off his limbs. They always lower their voices when speaking to him and do not look him in the eye out of respect for him."

Urwa then returned to his people and said to them, "O people! I have been to the royal courts of Caesars, Kisras and Najaashi. I have never seen the followers of any ruler so devoted to him as the followers of Muhammad are to him. By Allaah! Even when he spits, someone would catch it and rub it on his face and body. Whenever he issues any command the Sahabah would immediately carry it out and when he made wudhu, they get close to fighting with each other to get the water falling off his limbs. They always lower their voices when speaking to him and do not look him in the eye out of respect for him. He had indeed forwarded a fine proposal to you so accept it."

A man from the Kinaana Tribe Meets with Rasulullaah

Thereafter, someone from the Kinaana tribe said, "Allow me to meet him." "Go see him," the others said. When the man came to Rasulullaah and the Sahabah Rasulullaah said, "Here comes a man belonging to a tribe that honours sacrificial animals, so put some of them in front for him." When the animals were sent forward to him and the people met him reciting the Talbiya, he said, "Subhaanallaah! It is not correct to prevent these people from the Kabah." When he returned to his people, he said, "I saw the sacrificial animals already garlanded and marked for sacrifice. I do not think that they should be prevented from the Kabah."

Thereafter, another person by the name of Mikraz bin Hafs stood up and requested leave to meet with Rasulullaah , which was granted. When he arrived to meet Rasulullaah , Rasulullaah said, "He is Mikraz who is an evil person." Mikraz started negotiating with Rasulullaah and was still in the process of doing so when Sullayl bin Amr arrived.

Suhayl bin Amr's Meeting with Rasulullaah Amr's Meeting with Rasulullaah Amr's Meeting with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ma'mar ﷺ narrates from Ayyoob and Ikrama that when Suhayl bin Amr arrived, Rasulullaah ﷺ (took a good omen from his name and) said, "Allaah has now made matters easier." Hadhrat Ma'mar ﷺ further states that according to the narration of Zuhri ﷺ, when Suhayl bin Amr arrived he said, "Come, let us write a treaty between ourselves." Rasulullaah ﷺ sent for a scribe and instructed him to write:

"(We begin) In the name of Allaah the Most Kind the Most Merciful"

To this Suhayl bin Amr objected, "By Allaah! We do not know what 'Ar Rahmaan' is. As we usually do, why do you not rather write:

"(We begin) In Your name O Allaah"

The Muslim protested against writing anything but:

"(We begin) In the name of Allaah the Most Kind the Most Merciful" However, Rasulullaah instructed the scribe to write:

"(We begin) In Your name O Allaah"

Thereafter, Rasulullaah instructed the scribe to write, "This is what Muhammad the Rasool of Allaah has decided." Suhayl bin Amr again objected by saying, "By Allaah! Had we known that you are truly the Rasul of Allaah, we would not have prevented you from visiting the Kabah, nor would we have fought against you. Rather write, 'Muhammad the son of Abdullaah.'" To this, Rasulullaah said, "By Allaah! I am certainly the Rasool of Allaah even though you people deny it." Addressing the scribe, Rasulullaah said, "Write, 'Muhammad the son of Abdullaah."

Zuhri Alaah stated that these compromises were on account of what Rasulullaah had stated earlier when he said, "I swear by the Being in Whose control is my life that I shall grant the Kuffaar any request they make as long as it sanctifies those things that Allaah has made sacred."

Rasulullaah then said, "(The first clause is) that you allow us to perform Tawaaf of the Kabah." Suhayl bin Amr interjected by saying, "Never! By Allaah, then the Arabs would say that we bowed before you. This will only be during the following year." Consequently, this was written (that the Muslims will be allowed to perform Umrah during the following year). (Proposing the next clause) Suhayl bin Amr said, "Should any man from our ranks join you, he would be returned to us even though he follows your religion." The Muslims exclaimed, "Subhaanallaah! How can he be returned to the Mushrikeen when he has come as a Muslim?"

The incident of Abu Jandal ()

Negotiations were still underway when Hadhrat Abu Jandal the son of Suhayl bin Amr arrived there chained in fetters. He had just left the lower part of Makkah and handed himself over to the Muslims. "This man O Muhammad," said Suhayl bin Amr, "is the first person I am demanding that you return to me in accordance with the treaty." "But we have not yet concluded the treaty," said Rasulullaah Suhayl bin Amr adamantly said, "Then I shall never negotiate any treaty with you!" Rasulullaah said, "At least leave him to me." "I shall never leave him to you!" Suhayl bin Amr bellowed: "Why not? I am sure you can," Rasulullaah requested. "I shall not," Suhayl bin Amr said stubbornly. Mikraz however said, "We shall not leave him to you." Hadhrat Abu Jandal addressed the Muslim saying, "O gathering of Muslim! Why should I be returned to the Mushrikeen when I have come as a Muslim? Have you not seen how I have suffered?" Hadhrat Abu Jandal had endured severe torture at the hands of the Mushrikeen.

Hadhrat Umar then approached Rasulullaah and said, "Are you not the true Nabi of Allaah?" "I am indeed," replied Rasulullaah Hadhrat Umar asked further, "Are we not on the truth and our enemies on falsehood?" "Certainly," said Rasulullaah . "Then," asked Hadhrat Umar , "why do we have to submit?" Rasulullaah said to him, "I am certainly the Rasool of Allaah. I cannot disobey Him and He is my Helper." Hadhrat Umar saked, "Did you not tell us that we shall arrive at the Kabah and perform Tawaaf around it?" Rasulullaah replied, "Indeed I did but did I tell you that it would be this year?" "No," said Hadhrat Umar said. "Then you shall certainly arrive there and perform Tawaaf around it," Rasulullaah assured him.

Hadhrat Umar then approached Hadhrat Abu Bakr and asked him, "Is he not the true Nabi of Allaah?" "He is indeed," replied Hadhrat Abu Bakr Abu Bakr him. After narrating this incident, Hadhrat Umar says that he later carried out numerous good deeds to make amends for this behaviour.

After the treaty had been written, Rasulullaah instructed the Sahabah to slaughter their animals and to shave off their hair (an indication that they were to return without performing Umrah). The narrator of the Hadith says, "By Allaah! No one stood up to do this even though Rasulullaah thrice repeated the instruction (because they all hoped that he would perhaps reconsider the situation)." When he saw that no one was prepared to carry out the command, he went to (his tent where he met) his wife Hadhrat Umm Salma who when he informed her of the difficulty he was having, she said, "O Nabi of Allaah! Why do you rather not do this? Go out there without speaking a word to anyone, slaughter your animal, call for someone to shave your hatr and have it shaved off." Rasulullaah then went out and did accordingly. He slaughtered his animal, called for someone to shave off his hair and had it shaved off. When the Sahabah saw this, they all stood up, slaughtered their animals and started shaving each others' hair. In fact, they were so sad that it appeared that they could almost kill each other out of grief.

Thereafter, some Muslim women arrived there (to join the Muslims) and the following verse of the Qur'aan was revealed:

﴿ لِنَا يَنْهَا الَّذِيْنَ امْنُواْ إِذَا جَاءَ كُمُ الْمُؤْمِنْتُ مُهِجِرَاتٍ فَامْتَجِنُوْهُنَّ * اللهُ اَعْلَمُ الْمُؤْمِنْتُ مُهِجِرَاتٍ فَامْتَجِنُوْهُنَّ * اللهُ اَعْلَمُ وَلاَ بِإِيْمَانِهِنَّ ۚ فَإِنْ عَلَمْتُمُوْهُنَّ مُؤْمِنْتٍ فَلاَ تَرْجِعُوْهُنَّ إِلَى الْكُفَّارِ * لاَ هُنَّ حِلُّ لَهُمْ وَلاَ هُمْ يَجِلُوْنَ لَهُنَّ * وَاتُوهُمُ مَّآ اَنْفَقُواْ * وَلا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْكُمْ أَنُ تَنْكِحُوْهُنَّ إِذَا لَيْمُوهُنَّ أَجُوْرَهُنَ * وَلاَ تُمْسِكُوا بِعِصْمِ الْكَوَافِرِ وَسُنَلُواْ مَآ اَنْفَقْتُمْ وَلْيَسْتَلُواْ مَآ اَنْفَقُتُمْ وَلْيَسْتَلُواْ مَآ اَنْفَقْتُمْ وَلْيَسْتَلُواْ مَآ اَنْفَقُواْ * وَلا تُحْمُدُ اللهِ * يَحْكُمُ بَيْنَكُمْ * وَاللّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴾

(سورة الممتحنه: ١٠)

O you who have Imaan! When Mu'mineen women come to you (in a Muslim country) as immigrants, then (instead of sending them back) examine them (test whether they are sincere Muslims). (Of course, you can only judge the sincerity of their Imaan superficially because only) Allaah best knows the (true) condition of their Imaan. If (after examining them,) you determine that they really are Mu'mineen women (and not impostors), then do not return them to the Kuffaar. Neither are these women lawful (as wives) for the Kuffaar men nor are the Kuffaar men lawful (as husbands) for these women. Return to them (to their Kuffaar husbands) what they have spent (as dowry because the marriage has terminated). (Thereafter,) There is no harm if you (Muslim men) marry these women when you give them their dowry. (O Muslim husbands!) Do not stubbornly cling to your Kuffaar wives (who do no want to accept Islaam after you have accepted). (Surah Mumtahina, verse 10)

In conformance with the above verse, Hadhrat Umar William divorced two of his wives whom he had married as a Mushrik. Consequently, Mu'aawiya bin Abi Sufyaan married one of them while the other was married to Safwaan bin Umayyah.

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Baseer was and the Two Men who were sent after him

After the incident at Hudaybiyyah, Rasulullaah returned to Madinah where a Muslim from the Quraysh called Abu Baseer came to him. However, the Quraysh had dispatched two men after him to remind Rasulullaah about the treaty. Rasulullaah therefore handed him over to the two men. The two men left with him and when they stopped to eat some dates at Dhul Hulayfah, Hadhrat Abu Baseer said to one of them, "By Allaah! I see that you have an extremely fine sword." The man drew the sword from the sheath and said, "By Allaah! It is fine indeed. I have tried it again and again." Hadhrat Abu Baseer said, "Let me have a look at it." When the man handed it over, Hadhrat Abu Baseer struck him, killing him instantly.

The other person dashed for Madinah and when he came running into the Masjid, Rasulullaah commented, "It seems as if something terribly frightful has occurred to him." When the person reached the Rasulullaah he exclaimed, "My companion has been killed and I will also be killed." Following close behind him came Hadhrat Abu Baseer Hadh. He said, "O Rasulullaah Allaah has absolved you of your responsibility when you returned me. Allaah has now freed me from my captors." Rasulullaah said, "Oh dear! This man is a true warmonger. If only there was someone who could do something for him." Hadhrat Abu Baseer understood from this that Rasulullaah would return him again. He therefore left Madinah and settled along the coast.

Hadhrat Abu Jandal Joins up with Hadhrat Abu Baseer Joins and they attack the Caravans of the Quraysh

Hadhrat Abu Jandal the son of Suhayl bin Amr managed to escape from the Quraysh and joined up with Hadhrat Abu Baseer the Quraysh and joined up with Hadhrat Abu Baseer until they grew into a large group. The narrator states, "By Allaah! Every caravan of the Quraysh travelling to Shaam that they heard about, they attacked, killing the people and taking their goods." The Quraysh eventually (grew weary and) sent a message to Rasulullaah imploring him in the name of Allaah and by the family ties they shared that he should call this group to Madinah. They also added that whoever came to Rasulullaah (from Makkah) as a Muslim afterwards would be left in peace (without having to return to Makkah). Rasulullaah then called them to Madinah. It was then that Allaah revealed the following verses of the Qur'aan:

﴿ بَعْدِ اَنْ اَظْفَرِكُمْ عَلَيْهِمُ * وَكَانَ اللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ بَصِيْرًا ۞ هُمُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا وَصَدُّوْكُمْ عَنِ الْمَشْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ وَالْهَدُىّ مَعْكُوْقًا أَنْ يَّبْلُغَ مَحلَّهُ * وَلَوْ لَا رِجَالٌ مُؤْمِنُونَ وَنَسَاءٌ مُّؤْمِنْكٌ لَيْمُ تَعْلَمُوْهُمْ أَنْ تَطَوُّهُمْ فَتُصِبْكُمُمْ مِّنْهُمْ مَّعَرَّةٌ ا بغَيْر علْمَ ليُدُخلَ اللَّهُ فِي رَحْمَتِهِ مَنْ يَّشَاءُ ۖ لَوْ تَزَيَّلُواْ لَعَذَّبُنَا الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُواْ مِنْهُمْ عَذَابًا الِيُمًا ۞ اذُ جَعَلَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُواْ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ الْحَمِيَّةَ حَمِيَّةَ الْجَاهِليَّةِ. ﴾ (سورة الفتح: ٢٤ تا ٢٦) It is Allaah Who restrained their hands from (fighting) you and your hands from (fighting) them right in Makkah (at Hudaybiyyah) after granting you dominance over them (when the Muslims captured lifty Mushrikeen who intended to attack them). Allaah is always Watchful over what you do (and makes events happen for the best. Therefore, although the Muslims would have defeated the Mushrikeen had a battle been fought, Allaah knew of more benefit in the treaty and did not allow a battle to take place). They (the Mushrikeen of Makkah) are the ones who committed kufr, prevented you (Muslims) from (performing Umrah at) the Masjidul Haraam and (prevented) the sacrificial animals (which the Muslims brought to be sacrificed after Umrah), (leaving them) restrained (prevented) from reaching their destination (Makkah, where they were to be sacrificed). If it were not for your trampling (unintentionally harming) many Muslim men and many Muslim women (in Makkah) about whom you were unaware and then unknowingly suffering harm on their account (for harming them), the matter would have been concluded (you would have been allowed to fight the Mushrikeen). (However, a battle did not take place) So that Allaah enters whoever He wills into His mercy (by allowing them to accept Islaam). If they (these Muslim men and women still in Makkah) were to separate (from the Mushrikeen of Makkah), We would inflict a painful punishment on the Kuffaar of Makkah (by allowing the Muslims to kill or capture them in battle). When the Kuffaar (of Makkah) took the prejudice within their hearts, (which was) the prejudice of the period of ignorance (because of which they did not permit the writer of the treaty to write "Muhammad the Rasool of Allaah ", but "Muhammad the son of Abdullaah" instead). {Surah Fatah, verses

Rasulullaah Sends Hadhrat Uthmaan to Makkah after Setting up Camp in Hudaybiyyah Recounting Rasulullaah (stay at Hudaybiyyah, Hadhrat Urwa (narrates

24-26}(1)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari. Ibn Katheer 海域域 states in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.177) that there are valuable additions and elucidations in this narration which are not found in the narration Ibn Is'haaq narrates from Zuhri 海域域 Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.218) has also narrated the Hadith in detail.

that the Quraysh became very scared when Rasulullaah camped at Hudaybiyyah. Rasulullaah decided to send one of the Sahabah to to the Quraysh so he called for Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab for this ask. Hadhrat Umar said, "O Rasulullaah (Although I am willing to fulfil your command) I am the most detested person in their sight and if they cause me any harm, there shall be none from (my tribe) the Bani Ka'b who will stand up for me. Rather send Hadhrat Uthmaan because he has family in Makkah and he will be able to convey exactly what you want."

Rasulullaah therefore called for Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan and sent him to the Quraysh. Rasulullaah briefed him saying, "Tell them that we have not come to fight but have come only to perform Umrah. Invite them to Islaam as well." Rasulullaah also instructed him to meet the Muslim men and women in Makkah and to give them the glad tidings of victory and that Allaah shall soon make His Deen dominant in Makkah so that none would have to keep their Imaan a secret. Rasulullaah sent Hadhrat Uthmaan with this message to give the Muslims courage.

Hadhrat Uthmaan William left for Makkah and passed a group of the Quraysh at a place called Baldah. When they asked him where he was headed, he informed them that Rasulullaah had sent him to invite them towards Allaah and towards Islaam and to tell them that the Muslims have not come to fight but only to perform Umrah. Hadhrat Uthmaan then gave them the Da'wah to Islaam as Rasulullaah had instructed him. They said, "We hear what you say. You may proceed to fulfil your task." Abaan bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas then stood up, welcomed Hadhrat Uthmaan had guaranteed his safety. He saddled his horse and allowed Hadhrat Uthmaan to sit in front as they rode to Makkah.

Thereafter, the Quraysh sent Budayl bin Waraqaa and someone from the Banu Kinaana to meet Rasulullaah . After this, they sent Urwa bin Mas'ood Thaqafi. The Hadith still continues further. (1)

The Words of Hadhrat Umar (See Concerning the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in narrates that Hadhrat Umar said, "Rasulullaah entered into a peace treaty with the people of Makkah and conceded to many things. Had Rasulullaah appointed an Ameer over me who did as Rasulullaah did, I would have not listened to or obeyed him. Amongst the clauses in their favour was that anyone from the ranks of the Kuffaar who joined the Muslims was to be returned while anyone who joined the Kuffaar would not have to be returned."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir and Ibn Abi Shayba as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.288). Ibn Abi Shayba has also narrated it in detail from another source but also on the authority of Hadhrat Urwa This is also quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.290). Bayhaqi (Vol.5 Pg.286) has also quoted it from Moosa bin Aqba.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.286). The narration is authentic.

The Words of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Concerning the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah

Hadhrat Abu Bakr used to say, "There has never been a victory in Islaam greater than the victory at Hudaybiyyah but the people on that day were unable to understand what Muhammad and his Rabb were doing. While man is hasty, Allaah does not have the haste man has because of which matters condense to what Allaah has intended. On the occasion of the Farewell Hajj I have seen Suhayl bin Amr standing at the place where animals were being slaughtered, taking Rasulullaah s camel closer to him. Rasulullaah slaughtered it with his own hand and then called for someone who shaved off his hair. I then saw Suhayl snatching up the hair of Rasulullaah and even saw him placing it on his eyes. I then thought that it was the same Suhayl who on the occasion of Hudaybiyyah had refused to allow the writing of Allaah'. I then praised Allaah who had guided him to Islaam."

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Accepts Islaam

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Amr bin Al Aa

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Amr bin Al Aas Amr bin Umayyah Damri arrived. Rasulullaah had sent him to Najaashi when Amr bin Umayyah Damri arrived. Rasulullaah had sent him to Najaashi to speak to him about Ja'far and other Sahabah (who had migrated to Abyssinia). Amr bin Umayyah entered Najaasjhi's court and then came out again. I said to my companions, 'This is Amr bin Umayyah. If I go to Najaashi and ask request that he (Amr bin Umayyah) be handed over to me so that I could kill him, the Quraysh would feel that I have avenged them by killing the envoy of Rasulullaah (which is the court of Najaashi and bowed before him as I always did. He said, 'A hearty welcome to my friend. Have you brought me any gifts from your land?' 'Yes, O King,' I replied, 'I have brought you plenty leather.' I then brought it before him. He was well pleased because it was what he liked. I then said to him, 'O King! I happened to see someone leaving your presence who is an envoy of our enemy. Hand him over to me so that I may kill him because he has caused harm to our leaders and nobles."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.286).

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas was, "Najaashi became extremely angry. He extended his hand and hit his nose so hard that I thought he had broken it. Had the ground opened up just then, I would have certainly dived into it out of fear. I said to him, 'O King! I would have never mentioned this had I known that you would dislike it.' He said, 'You are asking me to hand over to you the envoy of that person who is visited by the great spirit (Hadhrat Jibra'eel (Majaashi replied, 'Shame on you, O Amr! Listen to me. Follow him for I swear by Allaah that he is certainly on the truth. He shall definitely conquer those who oppose him just as Moosa the son of Imraan (Maja defeated Fir'oun and his armies."

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas then asked Najaashi, "Will you accept my pledge of allegiance on his behalf?" "Certainly," replied Najaashi. He then stretched out his hands and Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas then met with his companions with a changed frame of mind and kept secret his conversion to Islaam. He later left to meet Rasulullaah and to accept Islaam at his hands and met Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed who was travelling from Makkah. This occurred not long before the conquest of Makkah.

Hadhrat Amr Hadhrat Khaalid Feplied, "By Allaah! Matters are now crystal clear. The man is certainly a Nabi. By Allaah! I am going to accept Islaam. Until when (will we continue avoiding the issue)?" Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Hadhrat I have also come to accept Islaam." The two then arrived in Madinah to meet Rasulullaah Hadhrat Khaalid Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Hadhrat Chaalid Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas

In a more detailed and appealing narration of Bayhaqi reported from Waaqidi, Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (I stated to have said, I travelled (from Abyssinia) until I reached a place called Hada where I noticed two men not far ahead of me who were pitching camp there. One of them was inside the tent while the other was holding on to the conveyances. When I looked carefully, I saw that it was Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (I was headed, he replied, 'To Muhammad. Everyone is accepting Islaam and there is none with any discernment who has not. By Allaah! If I were to remain (a Mushrik), our necks would be grabbed just as a badger is grabbed from its den by the neck.' I said to him, 'By Allaah! I also intend meeting Muhammad and accepting Islaam.' Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Talha then emerged from the tent and welcomed me. We all then settled down together. We travelled together until we reached Madinah."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.142). Ahmad and Tabraani have also reported the Hadith in detail from Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 经递滤 and Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.351) has mentioned that both chains of narrators are authentic.

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (Calling for his slave) He shouted, 'O Rabaah! O Rabaah! O Rabaah! (Because Rabaah means success) We took a god omen from his call, which made us very happy. He then looked at us and I heard him say, 'After these two, Makkah has already given us her leadership.' I guessed that he was referring to myself and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed He then turned and rushed towards the Masjid to give Rasulullaah the news of our arrival, I assumed. It was as I assumed. We then settled our camels at a place called Harra and wore the best of our clothing, the Adhaan was then called out for the Asr salaah and we left to meet Rasulullaah When we reached him, his face was resplendent like the full moon and the Muslims around him were delighted that we had come to accept Islaam."

"Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed went forward and pledged his allegiance to Rasulullaah . Thereafter, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Talha pledged his allegiance to Rasulullaah . I then went forward and sat before him. By Allaah! I was unable to lift my gaze out of respect for him. I then pledged my allegiance to him on condition that all my past sins be forgiven and that I am unaware of what sins may occur in the future. Rasulullaah said, 'Islaam surely obliterates all past sins and Hijrah also obliterates all past sins.' By Allaah! After accepting Islaam Rasulullaah rever equated any of the other Sahabah with myself and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed when it concerned matters that worried him (military matters)." (1)

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Accepted Islaam

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed says that when Allaah decided that good head his way, Allaah created the desire within his heart to accept Islaam and opened many avenues to him. He says, "I said to myself, 'I fought every battle against Rasulullaah but after each battle I got the feeling that all this running about was futile because there was no doubt that Rasulullaah would eventually emerge victorious. When Rasulullaah arrived at Hudaybiyyah, I led a contingent of Mushrikeen horsemen and faced Rasulullaah at a place called Usfaan where we intended launching an attack. Rasulullaah led the Sahabah in the Zuhr salaah and we saw a perfect opportunity to attack. However, we were undecided and did not attack, which was best. Rasulullaah was aware of our intention (through revelation) and when he led the Asr salaah, he performed Salaatul Khowf⁽¹⁾. This had an impact upon us and we were left saying, "This man is certainly protected (by Allaah)." Rasulullaah then steered clear of us and took a path towards the right that led away from the path of our horses."

Continuing the story, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed says, "Rasulullaah then entered into a treaty with the Quraysh at Hudaybiyyah when the Quraysh managed to save their necks (by opting for a treaty rather than a battle). I then said to myself, 'What is left now? Where shall I run? To Najaashi? He is already a follower of Muhammad and the Sahabah are living peacefully with him. Should I go to Heraclius where I will have to forsake my religion for Christianity or Judaism and live with foreigners? Should I rather stay at home with those left here?' I was still in this dilemma when Rasulullaah came to Makkah to perform the Umrah they had missed the previous year. I made myself scarce and did not see them enter Makkah. My brother Waleed bin Waleed also arrived in Makkah with Rasulullaah and looked for me. He was unable to find me and left a letter for me which read:

In the name of Allaah the Most Kind the Most Merciful

I have seen nothing more astonishing than the fact that someone as intelligent as you has not yet decided to accept Islaam. How can anyone remain in the dark about a religion as great as Islaam? When Rasulullaah asked where you were, I told him that Allaah will soon bring you. He said, "How can a person like Khaalid remain unaware of a religion like Islaam? It would be best for him to spend his efforts and energies with the Muslims and we shall put him ahead of others."

O my brother! You have missed tremendous opportunities so please make amends.

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Says, "After reading this letter, I was inspired to leave for Madinah and my inclination towards Islaam increased. It pleased me to think that Rasulullaah had actually asked about me. During this time, I dreamt that I was in a constricted and drought-stricken land after which I went to a land that was vast and fertile. This, I thought, is certainly a true dream. I thought that I should definitely relate this dream to Hadhrat Abu Bakr when I reached Madinah. (When he related it to Hadhrat Abu Bakr when I bear said, 'Your leaving the place was the guidance Allaah gave you towards Islaam and the constricted place was the Shirk you had been involved with."

⁽¹⁾ This is a special method of performing salaah during threatening situations in which a part of the congregation faces the enemy while the other part performs the salaah. During the salaah, the group facing the enemy will join the congregation while the group that had already performed part of the salaah will stand facing the enemy. The details of this salaah can be found in the detailed books of Islaamic jurisprudence.

"When I made up my mind to leave for Rasulullaah , I wondered who would accompany me. I approached Safwaan bin Umayyah and said to him, 'O Abu Wahab! Do you not see the situation we find ourselves in? We are as few as the molars (in the mouth). Muhammad has dominated the Arabs and non-Arabs. I feel that we should meet him and follow him then his honour shall be ours.' Safwaan vehemently rejected the offer and said, 'I shall never follow him even though I am the last person left!' Leaving him, I said to myself, 'Both his brother and father had been killed in the Battle of Badr (because of which he is so reluctant to accept Islaam).' I then met Ikrama bin Abi Jahal and told him what I had mentioned to Safwaan. His response was similar to that of Safwaan. Nevertheless, I told him to keep it a secret and he agreed not to breathe a word to anyone."

"I then went home and had my conveyance prepared. As I was riding out, I met Uthmaan bin Talha and said to myself, 'He is a good friend of mine. Perhaps I should tell him what I intend doing.' I then remembered that many of his relatives had been killed (by the Muslims in battle) and it would not be appropriate to mention it to him. However, it occurred to me that here was no harm in telling him since I was already on my way. I therefore spoke to him about the (unfavourable) results of our efforts (against the Muslims) and said, 'We are just like a fox in his hole who will have to emerge as soon as a bucket of water is thrown down the hole.' I also told him what I had mentioned to my two friends earlier. He immediately accepted what I said. I told him that I was leaving that very day and that my transport was ready and waiting at a place called Faj. We then decided to meet at a place called Yajuj where I was to wait for him if I arrived first, otherwise he would wait for me if he arrived first."

"My brother met me and said, 'Hurry! Rasulullaah has been informed about you and is pleased about your arrival. He is eagerly waiting for you." We walked hastily until we arrived and Rasulullaah smiled with me until I came in front of him. I greeted him as the Nabi of Allaah and he replied to my greeting with a smiling face. I then said, 'I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that you are Allaah's Rasul.' He called me closer and said, 'All praise belongs to Allaah Who has guided you. When I saw your intelligence I hoped that it would inspire you only to do good.' I then said, "O Rasulullaah !! I keep thinking of the battles I fought against you in opposition to the truth. Pray to Allaah to forgive me.' Rasulullaah said, 'Accepting Islaam obliterates all previous sins.' I said, 'O Rasulullaah !! Despite that (still pray for me).' He prayed, 'O Allaah! Forgive Khaalid bin Waleed for all the efforts he exerted to prevent people from the path of Allaah.' Thereafter, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Talha and Hadhrat Amr came forward and pledged their allegiance to Rasulullaah !! We had arrived in Madinah during the month of Safar, eight years after the Hijrah. By Allaah! Rasulullaah in never equated any of the other Sahabah !! with me when it concerned matters that worried him (military matters)." (1)

The Conquest of Makkah

(زَادَهَا اللَّهُ تَشْرِيْقًا)

Rasulullaah Leaves Madinah and Camps at Marruz Zahraan

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that when Rasulullaah left Madinah (for Makkah), he appointed Abu Ruhm Kulthoom bin Husayn Ghifaari as the Ameer of Madinah. He left on the tenth of Ramadhaan while he and the Sahabah were fasting. They broke their fasts when they reached Kudayd which was an oasis between Usfaan and Amj. Rasulullaah then proceeded with the ten thousand Sahabah until they set up camp at Marruz Zahraan. There were also a thousand people from the Muzayna and Sulaym tribes and every tribe had brought provisions and weapons. Every one of the Muhaajireen and Ansaar left with Rasulullaah without anyone remaining behind.

The Leaders of the Quraysh Spy on the Muslims

By the time Rasulullaah Freached Marruz Zahraan, the Quraysh were still in the dark. No news about Rasulullaah Freached them and they had no idea what he was doing. That night Abu Sufyaan bin Harb, Hakeem bin Hizaam and Budayl bin Warqa left Makkah on a spying expidition to see if they could see or hear any news.

Hadhrat Abbaas had joined Rasulullaah on the road and it was also on the road from Madinah to Makkah that Abu Sufyaan bin Haarith bin Abdil Muttalib (Rasulullaah see scousin) and Abdullaah bin Abi Umayyah bin Mughiera (Rasulullaah see scousin and brother-in-law) came to meet Rasulullaah to seek permission to join him. Hadhrat Umm Salma interceded on their behalf saying, "The one is your cousin (father's brother's son) and the other is your cousin (father's sister's son) as well as your brother-in-law Waaqidi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.238). Ibn Asaakir has also narrated a similar Hadith in much detail as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.30).

(my brother)." Rasulullaah said, "I have no need for either of them. As for my father's brother's son, he humiliated me in Makkah and my father's sister's son and brother-in-law is the one who made (derogatory) statements about me." When the news reached the two, Abu Sufyaan who had a child with him said, "By Allaah! If Rasulullaah does not permit me (to join him), I shall have to take this child in my hands and set out with him in the wilderness until we die of thirst and hunger." When Rasulullaah heard about this statement, he felt them sorry and permitted them to join. They both joined the Muslims and accepted Islaam.

Hadhrat Abbaas Encourages the Quraysh to Appeal for Amnesty

When the Muslims camped at Marruz Zahraan, Hadhrat Abbaas said, "The Quraysh are destroyed! By Allaah! If Rasulullaah were to enter Makkah by force before the Quraysh seek amnesty from him, it would signal the eternal destruction of the Quraysh." He then mounted the white mule belonging to Rasulullaah and set out towards Makkah until he reached a place called Araak, thinking that he may meet some woodcutter, someone milking an animal or anyone else who had come out for some need. He could then inform them of where Rasulullaah was so that they could seek amnesty from him before he entered Makkah by force.

The Incident of Abu Sufyaan with Hadhrat Abbaas and Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abbaas (continues to say that he was still searching for someone when he heard the voices of Abu Sufyaan and Budayl bin Waraqa, who were talking to each other. Abu Sufyaan was saying, "By Allaah! To this day I have never seen such a large concentration of campfires nor as large an army." Budayl bin Waraqa said, "By Allaah! These are the campfires of the Khuzaa'ah tribe. It appears as if a war has lit them." Abu Sufyaan commented, "By Allaah! The Khuzaa'ah tribe is smaller than this. This cannot be their fires and army."

Recognizing the voice of Abu Sufyaan, Hadhrat Abbaas Called out, "O Abu Handhala!" Recognising Hadhrat Abbaas t's voice, Abu Sufyaan called out, "O Abul Fadhl!" When Hadhrat Abbaas Confirmed that it was he, Abu Sufyaan asked, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! What are you doing here?" Hadhrat Abbaas Feplied, "Shame on you, O Abu Sufyaan! Here is Rasulullaah with the people! By Allaah! The Quraysh shall surely be destroyed!" Abu Sufyaan asked, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! What is the way out?" Hadhrat Abbaas Feplied, "If Rasulullaah gets hold of you, he will surely have your head. Mount this mule with me so that I may take you to Rasulullaah to seek amnesty from him." Consequently, Abu Sufyaan's two companions returned and he mounted the mule with Hadhrat Abbaas who speedily took him to Rasulullaah

Whenever they passed by any Muslim campfire, people would ask, "Who goes there?" However, when they saw the mule of Rasulullaah they would say, "The uncle of Rasulullaah on his mule." However, when they passed the campfire of Hadhrat Umar he challenged, "Who goes there?" and stood up before them. When he saw Abu Sufyaan on the back of the mule, he called out, "The enemy of Allaah! All praise belongs to Allaah who has handed you over without any truce or amnesty." He then ran to Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abbaas spurred the mule on until he beat Hadhrat Umar sa animals usually beat people on foot. Hadhrat Abbaas then leapt from the mule and met Rasulullaah he. Hadhrat Umar hadhrat Umar hadhrat Jumar hadhrat Jum

Hadhrat Abbaas intervened by saying, "O Rasulullaah in I have granted him amnesty." Hadhrat Abbaas then sat with Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah in I have granted him amnesty." There was none but I who spoke in confidence with Abu Sufyaan tonight." As Hadhrat Umar increased his protests concerning Abu Sufyaan, Hadhrat Abbaas said to him, "That will do. By Allaah! Had he been from (your tribe) the Banu Adi bin Ka'b, you would have not spoken like this. You are saying these things only because you know that he belongs to the Banu Abd Manaaf tribe." To this, Hadhrat Umar replied, "Take it easy, O Abbaas! Your entry into Islaam pleased me more than if my own father had accepted Islaam. This was only because I knew that your entry into Islaam pleased Rasulullaah more than if Khattaab (my father) had accepted Islaam." Rasulullaah more than if Khattaab (my father) had accepted Islaam." Rasulullaah then said to Hadhrat Abbaas in the morning. "Take him to your tent and bring him back in the morning." Hadhrat Abbaas then took Abu Sufyaan to his tent where he spent the night. The next morning, they proceeded to Rasulullaah

Abu Sufyaan Testifies to the Perfect Nature of Rasulullaah and Enters the Fold of Islaam

When Rasulullaah saw Abu Sufyaan, he said, "Shame on you, O Abu Sufyaan! Has the time not come for you to testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah?" Abu Sufyaan replied, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! You are so noble, lenient and good towards relatives! I am now convinced that had there been any deity besides Allaah, he would have surely been of some help to me." Rasulullaah then said, "Shame on you, O Abu Sufyaan! Has the time not come for you to testify that I am Allaah's Rasul?" Abu Sufyaan replied, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! You are so noble, lenient and good towards relatives! Until now, I have always had reservations about this." Hadhrat Abbaas then said, "Shame on you, O Abu Sufyaan! Accept Islaam and testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's Rasul before you are executed." Hadhrat Abbaas narrates that it was then that Abu Sufyaan testified to the true Shahaadah and accepted Islaam.

Those to Whom Rasulullaah Granted Amnesty on the Day the Muslims Conquered Makkah

Hadhrat Abbaas then said, "O Rasulullaah (Abu Sufyaan enjoys fame, so allow him some." Rasulullaah (agreed and said, "Whoever enters the house of Abu Sufyaan shall be safe. Whoever locks his door shall be safe.

Whoever enters the Masjid shall be safe." As Abu Sufyaan was leaving, Rasulullaah said, "O Abbaas! Keep him in the valley at the point where the mountain protrudes so that he may witness the armies of Allaah marching by." Hadhrat Abbaas says that in compliance with the instruction of Rasulullaah said, he took Abu Sufyaan to the point where the valley narrowed.

The various tribes then began passing by him, each bearing their flags. When a tribe passed by, Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are they, O Abbaas?" "They are the Banu Sulaym tribe," came the reply. To this, Abu Sufyaan would say, "What have I to do with the Banu Sulaym (Why should they be marching against us)?" When another tribe passed, Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are they, O Abbaas?" When Hadhrat Abbaas (informed him that they were the Muzaynah tribe, Abu Sufyaan said, "What have I to do with the Muzaynah tribe?" This continued until all the tribes had passed. Each time a tribe passed, Abu Sufyaan would ask, "Who are they, O Abbaas?" When informed, Abu Sufyaan would say, "What have I to do with them?"

Eventually, Rasulullaah passed by with a large group that included the Muhaajireen and Ansaar. (Because of their armour and helmets) Nothing but the whites of their eyes were visible. Abu Sufyaan exclaimed, "Subhaanallaah! Who are they, O Abbaas!" "That," replied, Hadhrat Abbaas with the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar." Abu Sufyaan said, "None has the power or capacity to resist them. O Abul Fadhl! I swear by Allaah! The empire of your nephew has certainly become enormous." Hadhrat Abbaas said, "O Abu Sufyaan! This is Nabuwaat (an not the average kingly empire)." Abu Sufyaan acknowledged this by saying, "Indeed, now that you mention it." Hadhrat Abbaas then said to him, "Go to your people (and inform them about what is happening)."

Abu Sufyaan then left and came to the people of Makkah, shouting at the top of his voice, "O Quraysh! Muhammad is on his way with an army that you have no power to restrain. Whoever enters the house of Abu Sufyaan shall be safe." His wife Hind bint Utba stood before him and grabbed hold of his moustache saying, "Kill this dark wretch! He brings ill news!" Abu Sufyaan said, "Shame on you people! Do not let this woman mislead you because Rasulullaah is certainly approaching with an army that you have no power to restrain. Whoever enters the house of Abu Sufyaan shall be safe."

The people said, "Shame on you! Your house shall never accommodate all of us." Abu Sufyaan then said, "Whoever locks the door of his house shall be safe and whoever enters the Masjid shall be safe." The people then dispersed towards their homes and the Masjid. (1)

The Manner in which Rasulullaah Estered Makkah

Ibn Asaakir has narrated from Waaqidi a narration just like that of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas that Tabraani has narrated above. It also mentions that when Abu Sufyaan left (the presence of Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah), Rasulullaah (Rasul

When Hadhrat Abbaas the held Abu Sufyaan at this point, Abu Sufyaan protested, "Is this betrayal, O family of Haashim?" Hadhrat Abbaas replied by saying, "Verily, the people of Nabuwaat never betray. I have brought you here for a reason." Abu Sufyaan said, "Then why did you not do this at the beginning and inform me that you needed to bring me here. This would have put me at ease." Hadhrat Abbaas replied, "It did not occur to me and that you would look at it this way."

Rasulullaah Abaas had already arranged the lines of the Sahabah Carrying their flags. The first battalion that Rasulullaah sent forward was the Banu Sulaym tribe under the leadership of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Same. They numbered a thousand strong. They bore a small flag carried by Hadhrat Abaas bin Mirdaas as well as another carried by Hadhrat Khufaaf bin Nudba Sufyaan asked, "Who are they?" "That is Khaalid bin Waleed," replied Hadhrat Abbaas The youngster?" asked Abu Sufyaan. "Yes," was the response. When Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Abbaas with Abu Sufyaan at his side, the soldiers cried out, "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice before passing by.

Thereafter Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam passed by leading a battalion of five hundred men comprising of Muhaajireen and many unknown people. They carried a black flag and when Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam passed Abu Sufyaan, he called out "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice. His battalion echoed after him. Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are they?" "That is Zubayr bin Awaam," replied Hadhrat Abbaas "Your sister's son?" asked Abu Sufyaan. "Yes," was the reply.

Carrying their flag, Hadhrat Abu Dharr Ghifaari then passed with three hundred soldiers of the Ghifaar tribe. According to other scholars, it was Hadhrat Imaa bin Rahdah who carried the flag. They also procalimed "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice as they passed Abu Sufyaan. Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are they, O Abul Fadhl?" "That is the tribe of Ghifaar," replied Hadhrat Abbaas "What have I to do with the Ghifaar tribe?" responded Abu Sufyaan.

Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.167) has commented on the chain of narrators. Bayhaqi has also narrated the Hadith in detail as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.291).

Next followed the Aslam tribe. They comprised of four hundred soldiers and bore two flags. One was carried by Hadhrat Buraydah bin Husayb while Hadhrat Naajiya bin A'jam carried the other. They also called out "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice as they passed Abu Sufyaan. Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are they, O Abul Fadhl?" "That is the tribe of Aslam," replied Hadhrat Abbaas "Who with the Aslam tribe?" responded Abu Sufyaan, "There has never been any dispute between us." Hadhrat Abbaas said to him, "They are a nation who have entered the fold of Islaam."

Thereafter, five hundred men belonging to the Banu Ka'b bin Amr tribe passed by with Hadhrat Bishr bin Shaybaan carrying their flag. Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are they?" "They are the Ka'b bin Amr tribe," replied Hadhrat Abbaas MM. "O yes," acknowledged Abu Sufyaan, "they are the allies of Muhammad ""." They also procalimed "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice as they passed Abu Sufyaan.

The Muzayna tribe passed next. They were a thousand strong who included a hundred horsemen and they carried three flags. Their flag bearers were Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin, Hadhrat Bilaal bin Haarith and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr William. They also cried "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice as they passed Abu Sufyaan. Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are they?" "That is the Muzayna tribe," replied Hadhrat Abbaas William. "What have I to do with the Muzayna tribe?" responded Abu Sufyaan, "They have also come to me from the peaks of their mountains with their weapons clattering."

Thereafter, came the Kinaana tribe that consisted of the Banu Layth, the Banu Dhamra and Banu Sa'd bin Bakr families. They numbered two hundred and Hadhrat Abu Waaqid Laythi bore their flag. They also cried "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice as they passed Abu Sufyaan. Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are they?" "That is Banu Bakr tribe," replied Hadhrat Abbaas Abu Sufyaan said, "Oh yes! By Allaah! They are a tribe of misfortune. It is because of them that Muhammad is attacking us. (1) Swear by Allaah that they (the Quraysh) did not consult with me and I had no knowledge of the matter. When the news of what happened reached me, I was most disgusted. Nevertheless, the matter was predestined." Hadhrat Abbaas said to Abu Sufyaan, "Allaah has destined good in this offensive of Rasulullaah against you as you all enter the fold of Islaam." Waaqidi has mentioned that he was informed by Abdullaah bin Aamir who narrates from Abu Amr bin Himaas that the Banu Layth marched all by themselves. They numbered two hundred and fifty and Hadhrat Sa'b bin ⁽¹⁾ After the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah, the Banu Bakr tribe struck up an allegiance with the Quraysh while the Banu Khuzaa'ah aligned with the Muslims. However, a joint attack on the Banu Khuzaa'ah by the Banu Bakr and the Quraysh led to the annulment of the Treaty, allowing the Muslims the opportunity to march on to Makkah. Abu Sufyaan was referring to this incident.

Juthaama Sie carried their flag. They cried "Allaahu Akbar!" thrice as they passed Abu Sufyaan. When Abu Sufyaan asked who they were, Hadhrat Abbaas informed him that they were the Banu Layth tribe. The last battalion to pass was that of the Banu Ash'ja tribe who numbered three hundred. They had a flag carried by Ma'qal bin Sanaan Sie and another carried by Hadhrat Nu'aym bin Mas'ood Sie. Abu Sufyaan remarked, "Of all the Arabs, they were the staunchest opponents of Muhammad Sie." Hadhrat Abbaas Sie commented, "Allaah has entered Islaam into their hearts. That is the grace of Allaah." Abu Sufyaan then remained silent for awhile.

Abu Sufyaan then asked, "Has the battalion of Rasulullaah not passed?" Hadhrat Abbaas replied, "He has not yet passed: If you see the battalion of Rasulullaah you will see only steel, horses, brave men and an army that none has the power to withstand." Abu Sufyaan said, "O Abul Fadhl! By Allaah! I am now convinced of this. Who has the capacity to resist them?" When the battalion of Rasulullaah appeared, all that could be seen was large masses and dust rising from the hooves of horses. As they marched by in a successive chain, Abu Sufyaan kept asking, "Has Muhammad not passed yet?" Hadhrat Abbaas kept informing him that Rasulullaah had not yet passed. Eventually, Rasulullaah passed riding his camel Qaswa. He was between Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr and speaking to the two of them.

Hadhrat Abbaas then said, "That is Rasulullaah amongst a powerful battalion of Muhaajireen and Ansaar." The battalion carried many large and small flags. Every hero of the Ansaar carried a large and small flag. They were clad in steel armour and only the whites of their eyes were visible. Hadhrat Umar was also covered in armour and he was busy arranging the lines of the army with his booming voice. Abu Sufyaan asked, "O Abul Fadhl! Who is that man talking?" "He is Umar bin Khattaab," replied Hadhrat Abbaas was about Sufyaan remarked, "The Banu Adi (the tribe of Hadhrat Umar was) were very few in number and possessed little honour. By Allaah! They have now assumed great prominence." Hadhrat Abbaas said, "O Abu Sufyaan! Allaah elevates whoever He wills as He wills. Umar is indeed amongst those whom Islaam has elevated." The narrator of this report mentions that there were two thousand coats of armour in this battalion.

Rasulullaah And given his flag to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah Abu Sufyaan with the flag of Rasulullaah And he shouted to Abu Sufyaan, "Today is the day of bloodshed! Today, the sacredness of the Haram shall be lifted! Today Allaah shall disgrace the Quraysh!" As Rasulullaah Abu Sufyaan, he called out, "O Rasulullaah Have you commanded that your people be killed as Sa'd and those with seemed to think as they passed us? He called out saying, 'O Abu Sufyaan! Today is the day of bloodshed! Today, the sacredness of the Haram shall be lifted! Today Allaah shall disgrace the Quraysh!' Taking the name of Allaah, I plead with you on behalf of your people for you are the best of all people."

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf and Hadhrat Uthmaan both said, "O Rasulullaah the fear that the Quraysh may suffer an attack from Sa'd." Rasulullaah then said, "O Abu Sufyaan! Today is a day of mercy. On this day shall Allaah give honour to the Quraysh." Then he sent a message that Hadhrat Sa'd be relieved of the post (as flagbearer) and assigned the task of bearing the flag to Hadhrat Qais (Hadhrat Sa'd's son). (In this way) Rasulullaah when it went to his son (and he would therefore not feel offended). However, Hadhrat Sa'd frefused to surrender the flag until he received a signal from Rasulullaah frefused to surrender the flag until he received a hadhrat Sa'd frefused to surrender the flag until he received a hadhrat Sa'd form Rasulullaah frefused to surrender the flag until he received a hadhrat Sa'd form Rasulullaah form Ras

Hadhrat Abu Layla who reports that they were with Rasulullaah when he informed them that Abu Sufyaan was at a place called Araak. The Sahabah with their swords still sheathed, they surrounded him and brought him before Rasulullaah said to him, "Shame on you, O Abu Sufyaan! I have brought to you the world as well as the Aakhirah. Accept Islaam and live in peace."

Hadhrat Abbaas Had been a friend of Abu Sufyaan, so he said, "O Rasulullaah Hadhrat Abbaas Habu Sufyaan loves glory, so grant him some." Rasulullaah Hadhrat Abbaas Hadhrat Thereafter, Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib (came at the head of the Muhaajireen. It was when Rasulullaah (came arrived amongst the Ansaar that Abu Sufyaan asked, "O Abbaas! Who are they?" Hadhrat Abbaas (came at the Ansaar that Abu Sufyaan asked, "O Abbaas! Who are they?" Hadhrat Abbaas (came asked, "They are the red death (people unafraid to spill the blood of their enemies). That is Rasulullaah (came with the Ansaar." Abu Sufyaan commented, "I have seen the kingdom of the Kisra and the kingdom of the Caesar but I have never seen anything like the kingdom of your nephew." Hadhrat Abbaas (came at the head of the Muhaajireen. It have seen the kingdom of your nephew." Hadhrat Abbaas (came at the head of the Muhaajireen. It was when Rasulullaah (came arrived amongst the Ansaar that Abu Sufyaan asked, "They are the red death (people unafraid to spill the blood of their enemies). That is Rasulullaah (came at the people unafraid to spill the blood of their enemies). That is Rasulullaah (came at the people unafraid to spill the blood of their enemies). That is Rasulullaah (came at the people unafraid to spill the blood of their enemies). That is Rasulullaah (came at the people unafraid to spill the blood of their enemies). That is Rasulullaah (came at the people unafraid to spill the blood of their enemies). That is Rasulullaah (came at the people unafraid to spill the blood of their enemies). That is Rasulullaah (came at the people unafraid to spill the blood of their enemies). That is Rasulullaah (came at the people unafraid to spill the blood of their enemies).

Hadhrat Urwa in narrates that Rasulullaah in left (Madinah) with an army of twelve thousand comprising of the Muhaajireen, the Ansaar, the Aslam tribe, the Ghifaar tribe, the Juhayna tribe and the Banu Sulaym tribe. They led with horses and (were so fast that) they reached Marruz Zahraan (close to Makkah) without the Quraysh even knowing about them. The Quraysh sent Hakeem bin

⁽¹⁾ Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.295).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.170) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hizaam and Abu Sufyaan to Rasulullaah with instructions to either secure a peace treaty with Rasulullaah or declare war against him. Abu Sufyaan and Hakeem bin Hizaam left (for Madinah). On the way they met Budayl bin Waraqa and asked him to accompany them.

When they reached an area of Makkah called Araak at the time of Isha, they noticed many tents and an army. They also heard the neighing of horses. This frightened them and they grew scared. They said, "This is the Banu Ka'b tribe whom war has gathered here." Budayl observed, "They are more than the Banu Ka'b. All of them combined cannot equal this number. Could the Hawaazin tribe be searching for grass in our territory? By Allaah! We cannot even say this. These numbers are like those of people performing Hajj."

Rasulullaah & had sent horsemen ahead of the army to capture spies. (In addition to this,) The Banu Khuzaa'ah tribe lived along the road and were not allowing anyone to pass. As soon as Abu Sufyaan and his companions entered the Muslim army, the horsemen captured them in the darkness of the night and took them to Rasulullaah . Abu Sufyaan and his companions now feared that they would surely lose their lives. Hadhrat Umar stood up before Abu Sufyaan and slapped him on his neck. The people stuck close to Abu Sufyaan and took him away to be presented before Rasulullaah . Abu Sufyaan feared that he would now be killed. Since Hadhrat Abbaas with had been a close friend of Abu Sufyaan during the Period of Ignorance, he called out at the top of his voice, "Will you not hand me over to Abbaas?" Hadhrat Abbaas 劉國語 arrived and dispersed everyone from Abu Sufyaan. Hadhrat Abbaas William requested Rasulullaah to make Abu Sufyaan over to him. In the meantime, the news of Abu Sufyaan being there spread throughout the army. Hadhrat Abbaas mounted his animal with Abu Sufyaan that night and rode around the army with him until they had seen him.

When he slapped Abu Sufyaan on his neck, Hadhrat Umar 劉統節 told him, "By Allaah! You shall die before you even draw near to Rasulullaah ... "He therefore sought help from Hadhrat Abbaas with and said, "I shall surely be killed." Hadhrat Abbaas 劉麗德 therefore protected him from assaulting him. When Abu Sufyaan saw the large numbers of people and their great discipline, he commented, "Never before have I seen a concentration of people as I see tonight." After rescuing him from the people, Hadhrat Abbaas said to Abu Sufyaan, "You will certainly be killed if you do not accept Islaam and do not testify that Muhammad is is Allaah's Rasool. As much as Abu Sufyaan wanted to say what Hadhrat Abbaas 经路径 had told him, he could not get his tongue to do so. He then spent the night with Hadhrat Abbaas 经超级。As for Hakeem bin Hizaam and Budayl bin Waraqa, they both went to Rasulullaah and accepted Islaam. Rasulullaah then asked them about the people of Makkah. When the Fajr Adhaan was called out, everyone gathered and waited for the salaah to begin. Abu Sufyaan became alarmed and asked, "O Abbaas! What are you people going to do?" Hadhrat Abbaas 劉誠德 replied, "The Muslims are awaiting the arrival of Rasulullaah ..." Hadhrat Abbaas took Abu Sufyaan along with him outside. When Abu Sufyaan saw the Muslims, he asked, "Do they do anything that Rasulullaah commands them?" "Yes," replied Hadhrat Abbaas ., "they will even stop eating and drinking if Rasulullaah commands them." Abu Sufyaan then asked, "Ask him if he will forgive his people." Hadhrat Abbaas then took him along to Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah ..." Here is Abu Sufyaan."

Abu Sufyaan said, "O Muhammad! I prayed to my god for help and you prayed to yours for help. By Allaah! It is evident to me that you have defeated me. Had my god been true and yours false, I would have certainly defeated you." He then testified that that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's Rasul. Hadhrat Abbaas then requested, "O Rasulullaah Permit me to go to your people (the Quraysh in Makkah) to warn them about what is about to befall them and to invite them towards Allaah and His Rasool." When Rasulullaah granted him permission, Hadhrat Abbaas asked, "What shall I tell them, O Rasulullaah ?? Give me some assurance of safety so that they may rest at ease." Rasulullaah said, "Tell them that the person will be safe who testifies that there is none worthy of worship but the One Allaah Who has no partner and that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul. The person who throws down his weapons and sits near the Kabah shall also be safe and the person who locks his door will also remain safe."

Hadhrat Abbaas then said, "O Rasulullaah !! Abu Sufyaan is our cousin and he wishes to return with me. Allow him something that will give him repute." Rasulullaah said, "(Also tell the people that) Whoever enters the house of Abu Sufyaan will be safe and whoever enters the house of Hakeem bin Hizaam will also be safe." Rasulullaah said this because Abu Sufyaan's house was in the upper end of Makkah and the house of Hakeem bin Hizaam was in the lower end. Abu Sufyaan understood these announcements well. Rasulullaah then gave Hadhrat Abbaas the white mule that Hadhrat Dihya Kalbi had given him as a gift and he left on it with Abu Sufyaan mounted behind him.

When Hadhrat Abbaas had left, Rasulullaah sent some of the Sahabah after him with instructions to catch up with him and call him back. Rasulullaah also informed them about his fears concerning Abu Sufyaan. When the messenger conveyed the message to Hadhrat Abbaas something, he did not like to return and said, "Does Rasulullaah fear that Abu Sufyaan would forsake Islaam to join the few people (in Makkah) and commit kufr after accepting Imaan?" The messenger then told Hadhrat Abbaas to keep Abu Sufyaan there, which he did. When he did this, Abu Sufyaan asked, "Is this betrayal, O family of Haashim?" To this Hadhrat Abbaas replied, "We never betray anyone. I just need you to do something." "Tell me what it is so that I may do it for you," complied Abu Sufyaan. Hadhrat Abbaas responded by saying, "You will know what it is when Khaalid bin Waleed and Zubayr bin Awaam arrive."

Hadhrat Abbaas waited by a narrow pass just ahead of Araak and Marruz Zahraan. Abu Sufyaan kept the words of Hadhrat Abbaas in mind as Rasulullaah dispatched the various battalions of horsemen one after the other. Rasulullaah divided the horsemen into two sections, the first with Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam (and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (and Qudhaa'ah tribes. Abu Sufyaan asked, "O Abbaas! Is this Rasulullaah """ "No," replied Hadhrat Abbaas (his is Khaalid bin Waleed."

Ahead of him, Rasulullaah had sent Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah together with a regiment of the Ansaar. Hadhrat Sa'd called out, "Today is the day of bloodshed! Today, the sacredness of the Haram shall be lifted!" Thereafter, Rasulullaah arrived with the battalion of Imaan, namely the Muhaajireen and Ansaar. When Abu Sufyaan saw so many faces that he did not recognise, he said, "O Rasulullaah replied, "This is the result of your people over your people?" Rasulullaah replied, "This is the result of your people's doings. These people believed in me when you people called me a liar and it was them who assisted me when you people expelled me (from Makkah)."

On that day, Hadhrat Aqra bin Haabis, Hadhrat Abbaas bin Mirdaas and Hadhrat Uyayna bin Hisn Fazaari were with Rasulullaah We. When he saw them around Rasulullaah We. Abu Sufyaan asked, "Who are these people, O Abbaas?" Hadhrat Abbaas replied, "These are the battalion of Rasulullaah With them is the red death. They are the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar. Abu Sufyaan then said, "Come on, O Abbaas! I have never seen an army or group as large as I have seen today."

Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam proceeded with his battalion until they reached Hajoon while Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed penetrated further and entered the lower end of Makkah. There he encountered some ruffians from the Banu Bakr tribe and had to fight them. Allah granted Hadhrat Khaalid victory over them and while some were killed at a place called Hazwara, others fled to their homes. Those who were mounted on horseback climbed the Handama hill as the Muslims followed in pursuit. Rasulullaah eventually entered Makkah with the last group of people.

A crier announced, "Whoever locks himself in his house without fighting shall be safe." Abu Sufyaan was also calling out in Makkah, "Accept Islaam and remain safe." It was really through Hadhrat Abbaas that Allaah had protected the people of Makkah. Hind bint Utba (Abu Sufyaan's wife) grabbed hold of his beard and shouted, "O family of Ghaalib! Kill this madman!" He shouted at her, "Let go of my beard! I swear by Allaah that you will definitely be executed if you do not accept Islaam. Woe to you! Rasulullaah has come with the truth. Go home and hide." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.173) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Aa'idh has also narrated the Hadith as quoted in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.8 Pg.4). Bukhari has also narrated it in brief from Hadhrat Urwa (Vol.9 Pg.119) has also narrated the same.

Suhayl bin Amr Accepts Islaam and Testifies to the Noble Character of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr narrates that he entered his house and locked the doors when Rasulullaah arrived victoriously in Makkah. He then sent his son Abdullaah bin Suhayl to secure amnesty for him from Rasulullaah because he feared being killed. Abdullaah went and said, "O Rasulullaah will you grant amnesty to my father?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah in he has the protection of Allaah. He may leave the house."

Addressing those around him, Rasulullaah the said, "Whoeever meets Suhayl should not even look at him sternly so that he may leave his house in peace. I swear by my life⁽¹⁾ that Suhayl surely possesses intelligence and esteem. Someone like him cannot be ignorant about (the beauty of) Islaam. He has already come to know that whatever his efforts (against Islaam) have been, they have borne no fruit."

Abdullaah bin Suhayl reported back to his father what Rasulullaah had said. Suhayl said, "By Allaah! He is an excellent person in youth and in old age. Suhayl would then go to and forth (to meet Rasulullaah and even accompanied Rasulullaah in the Battle of Hunayn as a Mushrik. He eventually accepted Islaam at Ji'irrana and Rasulullaah gave him a hundred camels from the booty. (2) Rasulullaah ('s Speech to the People of Makkah on the day Makkah was Conquered

Hadhrat Umar was narrates that when Rasulullaah was in Makkah on the day that Makkah was conquered, he sent for Safwaan bin Umayyah, Abu Sufyaan bin Harb and Haarith bin Hishaam. Hadhrat Umar then said, "Allaah has given us power over them today. I shall certainly remind them of what they had done in the past." As he was still saying this, Rasulullaah said to them, "My example and yours is like that of Yusuf and his brothers." Rasulullaah then recited (the following verse of the Qur'aan that quotes the words Hadhrat Yusuf said to his brothers):

There shall be no blame on you today (no revenge will be taken). May Allaah forgive you. He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy." {Surah Yusuf, verse 92}

Hadhrat Umar was says that he covered his head in embarrassment before Rasulullaah was because it would look very bad if he had to say something without thinking whereas Rasulullaah was had mentioned what he already did. (3)

⁽¹⁾ Taking oaths in the name of anyone besides Allaah was not yet prohibited at that stage.

⁽²⁾ Waaqidi, Ibn Asaakir and Ibn Sa'd as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.294). haakim has also narrated the Hadith in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.281).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.292).

Hadhrat Ibn Abi Husayn narrates that when Rasulullaah conquered Makkah, he entered the Kabah and when he came out, he placed his hands on the frames of the door and said (to the people gathered there), "What have you people to say?" Suhayl bin Amr said, "We say and we anticipate good from you. You are a big-hearted brother and the son of a big-hearted brother. You now have control over us." Rasulullaah said, "I shall say as my brother Yusuf said:

'There shall be no blame on you today (no revenge will be taken)." (1)

Part of a lengthy Hadith narrated by Hadhrat Abu Hurayra states that Rasulullaah came to the Kabah and while holding the doorframe, asked, "What do you people have to say? What are your expectations?" The people responded, "We say that you are our nephew and a most lenient and merciful son of our uncle." This they repeated thrice. Rasulullaah said, "I shall say as Yusuf said:

"There shall be no blame on you today (no revenge will be taken). May Allaah forgive you. He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy." Hadhrat Abu Hurayra (narrates further that the people then dispersed as if they had been revived from their graves and they accepted Islaam.

Imaam Bayhaqi states that in a narration of this incident that Imaam Shafi'ee marrated from Imaam Abu Yusuf it is mentioned that when the people gathered in the Masjidul Haraam, Rasulullaah asked them, "What do you think I shall do with you?" They said, "(You will do only) Good, for you are a big-hearted brother and the son of a big-hearted brother." Rasulullaah then said to them. "Go! You are all free." (2)

Hadhrat Ikrama bin Abi Jahal Accepts Islaam Hadhrat Ikrama (is Granted Amnesty on the Request of his Wife

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr in arrates that on the day that Makkah was conquered, Ummu Hakeem bint Haarith bin Hishaam accepted Islaam. She was the wife of Hadhrat Ikrama bin Abi Jahal and therefore said, "O Rasulullaah Ikrama has run away from you to Yemen, fearing that you would execute him. Would you please grant him amnesty." Rasulullaah is said, "He has amnesty." Hadhrat Umm Hakeem in therefore left in search of Hadhrat Ikrama in the company of her Roman slave. The slave tried to seduce her and she continuously gave him hope until they reached a tribe of the Uk from whom she sought assistance. The people caught him and tied him up.

She eventually managed to catch up with Hadhrat Ikrama who had already reached one of the Tihaama coasts where he had boarded a ship. One of the sailors said to him, "Recite the words of sincerity." Hadhrat Ikrama asked him, "What should I say, "He replied, "Say that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah." Hadhrat Ikrama said to him, "It is from this that I am fleeing." As they spoke, Umm Hakeem arrived and started waving a cloth (to attract their attention) as she shouted, "O my cousin! I have come to you from he who best maintains family ties, who is the most pious of people and the best of people. Do not destroy yourself." He waited for her until she caught up with him. She then said to him, "I have secured amnesty for you from Rasulullaah "" "Have you really?" he asked. "Yes," she replied, "I spoke to Rasulullaah and he granted you amnesty." Hadhrat Ikrama then returned with Umm Hakeem when she informed him about the details of her experiences with the Roman slave. (In a fit of rage) He killed the slave but had not yet accepted Islaam.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Zanjway in Kitaabul Amwaal as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.93).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.118).

Hadhrat Ikrama Accepts Islaam and Testifies to the Perfect Excellence of Rasulullaah

When Hadhrat Ikrama drew close to Makkah, Rasulullaah said to the Sahabah william, "Ikrama the son of Abu Jahal is coming to you as a Mulmin and a Muhaajir so do not curse his father because cursing the dead only hurts the living without ever reaching the dead." Hadhrat Ikrama kept making efforts to cohabit with his wife but she refused saying, "You are Kaasir while I am a Muslim." Hadhrat Ikrama william remarked, "That which prevents you from me must be something very great."

When Rasulullaah was saw Hadhrat Ikrama was, he hastened towards him without wearing his upper shawl out of happiness at seeing Hadhrat Ikrama 劉岡崎. Rasulullaah 智麗 then sat down while Hadhrat Ikrama 劉國崎 stood before him alongside his wife who donned a veil. Hadhrat Ikrama (said, "O Muhammad! This lady has informed me that you have granted me amnesty. Rasulullaah responded by saying, "She has spoken the truth. Your safety is assured." Hadhrat Ikrama (Towards what do you invite?" Rasulullaah replied, "I invite you to testify that that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that I am Allaah's Rasul. I also invite you towards establishing salaah and paying zakaah." Rasulullaah & then mentioned several other things that he was to do. Hadhrat Ikrama wife said, "By Allaah! You have invited to nothing but the truth and excellent and beautiful actions. By Allaah! Even before you started inviting towards your invitation, you had been the most truthful of us and the most righteous. I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad We is Allaah's servant and Rasul." This pleased Rasulullaah tremendously.

Hadhrat Ikrama 多屬屬 then asked, "O Rasulullaah 優麗! Teach me the best thing to say." Rasulu laah 優麗 told him to say:

"أَشْهَدُأَنْ لا إِلهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَ أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَ رَسُولُهُ"

"I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and messenger"

Hadhrat Ikrama which then asked what else he could say. Rasulullaah with told him to say, "I make Allaah and all present witness to the fact that I am a Muslim, Mujaahid and Muhaajir." Hadhrat Ikrama which then said what Rasulullaah which told him.

The Da'wah that Rasulullaah gave to Hadhrat Ikrama

Rasulullaah then said to Hadhrat Ikrama asked, "I shall grant you anything you ask for if I am able to." Hadhrat Ikrama asked, "I ask you to seek forgiveness from Allaah for every type of enmity I have shown towards you, for every journey I have undertaken to oppose you, for every battle I have fought against you and for every harsh word I have said in your face or behind your back." Rasulullaah and made du'aa this, "O Allaah! Forgive him for every type of enmity he has displayed and for every journey he undertook to any place with the intention of extinguishing Your light. Also forgive him for every defamatory remark he has made in my face or behind my back." Hadhrat Ikrama semarked, "I am pleased, O Rasulullaah .""

Hadhrat Ikrama then went on to say, "O Rasulullaah !! I swear by Allaah that every expense I bore opposing the Deen of Allaah, I shall spend double that amount in the path of Allaah. I swear also that every battle I fought opposing the Deen of Allaah, I shall fight double the number of battles in the path of Allaah." (True to his word) Hadhrat Ikrama exerted every effort to fight in Jihaad until he was martyred. Rasulullaah upheld the marriage of Hadhrat Ikrama to his wife without renewing the Nikah.

Waaqidi has narrated that during the Battle of Hunayn (when the Muslims were suffering a temporarily defeat at the beginning), Suhayl bin Amr remarked, "The Muslims have never before experienced the likes of these two tribes (the Thaqeef and Hawaazin) before." To this, Hadhrat Ikrama responded by saying, "One should not speak like this. Everything lies in the control of Allaah and Muhammad has no control over things. If he is defeated today, tomorrow shall hold promising results (1)." Suhayl mocked, "By Allaah! It was not long before this that you opposed Rasulullaah "I Hadhrat Ikrama then replied by saying, "By Allaah! All our previous efforts have been futile. Considering ourselves to be intelligent people, we used to worship stones that could neither harm nor give any benefit." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr has also narrated their incident but in fewer words. He says that when Hadhrat Ikrama reached the door of Rasulullaah Rasulullaah was so overjoyed at his arrival that he jumped up into a standing position. A narration of Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr quotes from Hadhrat Ikrama that when he met Rasulullaah he said, "O Muhammad! This woman has informed me that you have granted me amnesty." Rasulullaah the replied, "Indeed. You have been granted amnesty." Hadhrat Ikrama then said, "I testify that there is none worthy of worship but the one Allaah Who has no partner and that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul. I also would testify that you are the best of people, the most truthful person and one who best fulfils his promises." Hadhrat Ikrama says that out of embarrassment, his head was bowed as he said this.

⁽¹⁾ The Muslims shall either win victory or at least they shall learn that they ought to place all their trust in Allaah rather than in their superior numbers.

⁽²⁾ Waaqidi and Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.75).

He then said, "O Rasulullaah! Do seek forgiveness from Allaah for every type of enmity I displayed towards you and for every journey I undertook to promote Shirk." Rasulullaah made the following du'aa, "O Allaah! Forgive Ikrama for all the enmity he displayed towards me and for every journey he undertook with the intention of preventing people from the Deen." Hadhrat Ikrama then said, "O Rasulullaah! Teach me the best that you know so that I may learn it (and practise)." Rasulullaah divised him that together with striving in the path of Allaah, he should recite:

"I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul"

Hadhrat Ikrama then went on to say, "O Rasulullaah Hadi-I swear by Allaah that every expense I bore to oppose the Deen of Allaah, I shall spend double that amount in the path of Allaah. I swear also that every battle I fought opposing the Deen of Allaah, I shall fight double the number of battles in the path of Allaah."

Hadhrat Ikrama (1996) strives in Jihaad and is martyred

Hadhrat Ikrama continued fighting in Jihaad and in turn he was martyred in the Battle of Ajnaadeen during Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Rasulullaah appointed Hadhrat Ikrama to collect the zakaah of the Hawaazin tribe during the year that Rasulullaah performed the farewell Hajj. When Rasulullaah passed away, Hadhrat Ikrama was in a place called Tabaalah (in Yemen) (1)

Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah Accepts Islaam

Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah (is Granted Amnesty at the request of Hadhrat Umayr bin Wahab (Wahab ())

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr William narrates that when Makkah was Haakim has also reported the narration in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.241). The incident of how Hadhrat Ikrama (Vol.6 Pg.174).

conquered, the wife of Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah accepted Islaam. Her name was Baghoom bint Mu'addal and she belonged to the Kinaanah tribe. Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah had run away from Makkah and reached some valley. (As they sat there) He said to his slave Yasaar who was alone with him, "O dear! What do you see?" Yasaar replied, "That is Umayr bin Wahab." "What am I to do with Umayr? By Allaah! He has come to kill me and has assisted Rasulullaah against me." When Hadhrat Umayr bin Wahab met him, Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah said, "Are you not satisfied with what you have already done to me? You placed the burden of settling your debts and caring for your family on me and now you have come to kill me?"

Hadhrat Umayr bin Wahab said to him, "O Abu Wahab! May my life be said rificed for you! I have come to you from the best of people and the one who best maintains family ties." (Before coming to Hadhrat Safwaan (December 1998) Hadhrat Umayr bin Wahab had mentioned to Rasulullaah (December 1998). "O Rasulullaah (December 1998) Hadhrat Umayr bin Wahab had mentioned to Rasulullaah (December 1998) Hadhrat Umayyah) has run away from Makkah to throw himself into the ocean fearing that you shall not grant him amnesty. May my parents be sacrificed for you! Do grant him amnesty." Because Rasulullaah had granted the amnesty, Hadhrat Umayr bin Wahab had now come to Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah to inform him that he had been granted amnesty.

Rasulullaah sends his Turban to Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah siss to Confirm his Amnesty

Hadhrat Safwaan then said, "By Allaah! I shall never return with you (to Makkah) until you bring me a sign which I may identify." (When Hadhrat Umayr returned to Rasulullaah with this request) Rasulullaah said, "Take this turban of mine." Hadhrat Umayr then returned to Hadhrat Safwaan with the turban which was actually a striped shawl that Rasulullaah with tied on his head as a turban on the day the Muslims conquered Makkah. Searching for Hadhrat Safwaan the second time, Hadhrat Umayr found him and bringing him the turban said, "O Abu Wahab! I have come to you from the best of people, the one who best maintains family ties, the most righteous of people and the most tolerant. His honour is yours, his dignity is yours and his kingdom is yours for his forefathers and yours are the same. I advise you to fear Allaah for your own good."

Hadhrat Safwaan said, "I fear that I shall be killed." Hadhrat Umayr said, "Rasulullaah invites you to accept Islaam. It would be best if you accept willingly. If not, you have two month's grace. Of all people, he best keeps his word and had even sent to you the shawl he wore as a turban when he entered Makkah. Do you recognise it?" "Certainly," replied Hadhrat Safwaan when Hadhrat Umayr took out the turban, Hadhrat Safwaan said, "That it certainly is."

Hadhrat Safwaan then returned and reached Rasulullaah as he was busy leading the Asr salaah in the Masjidul Haraam. While the two stood waiting, Hadhrat Safwaan asked, "How many salaahs do the Muslims perform each day and hight." When Hadhrat Umayr informed him that they performed five salaahs daily, he asked, "Is Muhammad is leading them in salaah?" "Yes," came the reply.

When Rasulullaah said the Salaam (to end the salaah), Hadhrat Safwaan called out, "O Muhammad! Umayr bin Wahab has brought me here with your shawl and says that you have asked me to come to you. He says that it would be best if I accept Islaam willingly otherwise you shall allow me two month's grace." Rasulullaah said, "Dismount, O Abu Wahab." "By Allaah!" exclaimed Hadhrat Safwaan said, "I shall never dismount until you verify this for me." Rasulullaah said, "In fact, you may have a grace period of four months." Hadhrat Safwaan she then dismounted.

Hadhrat Safwaan Marches with Rasulullaah Against the Hawaazin Tribe and Accepts Islaam

When Rasulullaah marched against the Hawaazin tribe, Hadhrat Safwaan marched with him while still a Kaafir. Rasulullaah sent someone to him to request that he loan some weapons to the Muslims. Hadhrat Safwaan sent a hundred coats of armour together with all the equipment that went with it and asked, "Shall this be taken with my permission or by force?" When Rasulullaah set told him that it was on loan and that it would be returned, he loaned it. According to the request of Rasulullaah set, he loaded it on his animal and took it to Hunayn. He therefore witnessed the Battles of Hunayn and Taa'if. He then accompanied Rasulullaah set to Ji'irraanah.

As Rasulullaah was walking amongst the booty to have a look at it, Hadhrat Safwaan was with him. Hadhrat Safwaan then started looking at a valley filled with camels, goats and shepherds. Rasulullaah watched his long stares at the scene and said to him, "O Abu Wahab! Do you like this valley?" When he repiied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah said to him, "It is all yours." Hadhrat Safwaan accepted Islaam on the spot and said, "It is only be the heart of a Nabi that can be so generous. I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul." (1) Another narration quotes from Hadhrat Safwaan that Rasulullaah asked him to give some weapons on loan. He said, "Are you taking it away from me by force?" Rasulullaah answered, "I wish to borrow them and damages shall be paid back." It so happened that some of the coats of armour were destroyed. Rasulullaah therefore approached Hadhrat Safwaan to pay for the damages. Hadhrat Safwaan (than to be reimbursed)." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Waaqidi and Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.294). Ibn Is'haaq and Mhammad ibn Ja'far bin Zubayr have also narrated the Hadith from Hadhrat Urwa Subset who narrates from Hadhrat Aa'isha 2006 as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.308).

Hadhrat Huwaytib bin Abdil Uzza Accepts Islaam

Hadhrat Abu Dharr invites Hadhrat Huwaytib bin Abdil Uzza to Islaam and he Accepts

Hadhrat Mundhir bin Jahm in arrates from Hadhrat Huwaytib bin Abdil Uzza that he was terrified when Rasulullaah entered Makkah when it was conquered. He left his house and scattered his family in various places where they would be safe. He then hid himself in an orchard belonging to the Aufclan. He narrates, "One day, Abu Dharr suddenly arrived. We had been good friends before and friendship always bears fruit. However, as soon as I saw him, I started to run away." Hadhrat Abu Dharr called out, "O Abu Muhammad!" When Hadhrat Huwaytib responded, Hadhrat Abu Dharr asked, "What is the matter?" "Fear," replied, Hadhrat Huwaytib "Have no fear," said Hadhrat Abu Dharr replied, Hadhrat Huwaytib then went back and greeted Hadhrat Abu Dharr

"You may go home," said Hadhrat Abu Dharr "How am I to go home?" asked Hadhrat Huwaytib "Bus," "By Allaah! I do not see myself returning home alive. I shall be met on the street and killed or be killed by someone barging intomy house. In addition, my family are scattered in various places." Hadhrat Abu Dharr "Hadhrat Abu Dharr "Hadhrat Abu Dharr "Hadhrat Abu Dharr "Hadhrat Abu Dharr "Huwaytib has been granted amnesty and may not be harmed." When Hadhrat Abu Dharr "Went to Rasulullaah "Hadhrat Abu Dharr "Hadhrat Huwaytib to Rasulullaah "Hadhrat Huwaytib to Beart at ease and he took his family home.

Hadhrat Abu Dharr again came to Hadhrat Huwaytib and said, "O Abu Muhammad! Until when? Where to? You have participated in all the battles. Although you have lost tremendous good, much good is still left for you. Go to Rasulullaah is and accept Islaam. You will then be able to live in peace. Rasulullaah is is the most righteous of people, the one who best maintains family ties and the most tolerant of all people. His honour is yours and his dignity is yours." Hadhrat Huwaytib then said to Hadhrat Abu Dharr is if I am prepared to accompany you to Rasulullaah is I'm The two then met Rasulullaah is at Bat'haa while Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar were with him. Hadhrat Huwaytib then asked Hadhrat Abu Dharr 劉德德, "What should be said when Rasulullaah 疑惑's is greeted?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr 劉德德 told him to say:

"May peace, the mercy of Allaah and His blessings be showered on you, O Nabi of Allaah"

When Hadhrat Huwaytib greeted Rasulullaah with these words, Rasulullaah replied, "Peace be to you too, O Huwaytib." Hadhrat Huwaytib then said, "I testify that that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that you are Allaah's Rasul." Rasulullaah then said, "All praise belongs to Allaah Who has guided you." Hadhrat Huwaytib in narrates that Rasulullaah was happy that he accepted Islaam. Rasulullaah asked him for a loan and he borrowed forty thousand Dirhams. He then participated in the Battles of Hunayn and Taa'if after which Rasulullaah gave him a hundred camels from the booty received from the Battle of Hunayn. (1)

In a narration reported by Hadhrat Ja'far bin Mahmood bin Muhammad bin Salma 劉德德, it is mentioned that Hadhrat Huwaytib 劉德德 said, "Amongst the elders of the Quraysh who remained on their religion up to the conquest of Makkah, there was none who disliked the conquest more than myself. However, whatever is predestined must take place. I was present with the Mushrikeen during the Battle of Badr when I witnessed many eye-opening lessons. I saw the angels descending from the heavens to the earth and killing and shackling the Kuffaar. I then said to myself that Rasulullaah will is a protected person, but I did not mention this to anyone. We were defeated and returned to Makkah where people gradually started accepting Islaam. I was also present when the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah was signed and was one of the people who took part in the negotiations until it was completed. However, it served only to promote Islaam further because Allaah does as He wills. Being the last witness when the treaty was signed, I said (to myself), 'Although the Quraysh are pleased to have forced Rasulullaah to leave, they shall be seeing from him only what displeases them."

"When Rasulullaah arrived to complete the missed Umrah and the Quraysh left Makkah, Suhayl bin Amr and myself were amongst those who remained behind to expel Rasulullaah as soon as their time (of three days) expired. When the third day was over, Suhayl and myself approached Rasulullaah and said, 'Your term has expired, so leave our town.' Rasulullaah then called out, "O Bilaal! (Announce that) No Muslim who has come with us should be in Makkah after the sun has set." (2)

Hadhrat Haarith bin Hishaam Accepts Islaam

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ikrama (1) narrates that when Makkah was (1) Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.493) as well as Ibn Sa'd in his Tabagaat as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.1 Pg.364).

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.492).

conquered, Haarith bin Hishaam and Abdullaah bin Abi Rabee'ah went to Hadhrat Ummu Haani the daughter of Abu Taalib to seek protection. When they requested her protection, she granted amnesty to them both. Hadhrat Ali there brother) then arrived, saw the two of them and drew his sword. When Hadhrat Ummu Haani there came between them and grabbing Hadhrat Ali around the neck, she said, "From all people, you do this to me? You shall have to kill me before you get to them!" Hadhrat Ali Hadhrat Ummu Haani herself narrates that she then went to Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah From the treatment I received from my own mother's son Ali, I seem unable to escape him. I granted amnesty to two of my Mushrikeen brothers-in-law and he attacked them to kill them." Rasulullaah said, "He should not have done that. We shall protect whoever you protect and we grant amnesty to whoever you grant amnesty." When Hadhrat Ummu Haani returned and informed the two about this, they returned to their homes.

When Rasulullaah was informed that Haarith bin Hishaam and Abdullaah bin Abi Rabee'ah were wearing saffron coloured clothing and sitting without fear, he said, "You can do nothing to harm them because we have already granted them amnesty." Hadhrat Haarith bin Hishaam says that he then started feeling shy when Rasulullaah saw him because he remembered that Rasulullaah also saw him in all the battles the Mushrikeen fought (against the Muslims). Then calling to mind the kind and merciful nature of Rasulullaah he met Rasulullaah in the Masjid. Rasulullaah met him with a smile and waited for him. He then went to Rasulullaah met him with a smile and waited for him. He then went to Rasulullaah for him and recited the Shahaadah. Rasulullaah then said, "All praise is for Allaah Who has guided you. It was not possible that someone like you could ever remain in the dark about Islaam." Haarith bin Hishaam says, "By Allaah! The likes of Islaam can never be unknown." (1)

Hadhrat Nudhayr bin Haarith Accepts Islaam

Muhammad bin Shurahbeel Abdari narrates that Hadhrat Nudhayr bin Haarith was amongst the most learned of people and used to say, "All praises belong to Allaah Who has honoured us with Islaam, has blessed us with Muhammad and saved us from dying as our forefathers died (as Mushrikeen). I used to apply myself with the Quraysh every effort (against the Muslims) until the year arrived when Rasulullaah conquered Makkah and then went to Hunayn. We left with him with the intention that should Muhammad be defeated, we would assist (the enemy) against him. However, we never got the opportunity. By Allaah! I was still as I was (planning against the Muslims) when Rasulullaah left for Ji'irraanah and I saw none but he meet me with a smiling face. He asked, 'Is it Nudhayr?' 'It is I,' I replied. He said, 'This opportunity is better than the one (which you lost) during the Battle of Hunayn?' I jumped up and drew closer to him. He said, 'The time has come for you to think about your religion.' When I told him that I had been thinking about this, he said, "O Allaah! Increase his steadfastness."

"By the Being Who sent Rasulullaah with the truth! (The effect of this du'aa was that) My heart became a rock of steadfastness in Deen and in assisting the cause of the true Deen. I had just returned to my tent when a man from the Banu Duwal came to me and said, 'O Abu Haarith! Rasulullaah has ordered that a hundred camels be given to you. Would you please give me some because I have debts.' I decided not to take the camels thinking to myself that it was being given to me only to win me over and I would not want to be bribed to accept Islaam. However, I then thought to myself that I had not wanted it nor asked for it. So I accepted the camels and gave ten to the man from the Banu Duwal tribe." (1)

The Banu Thageef tribe of Taa'if Accept Islaam

Rasulullaah Leaves the Thaqeef Tribe and Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood Accepts Islaam

Ibn Is'haaq narrates that when Rasulullaah left the Thaqeef tribe, Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood (who belonged to the Thaqeef) followed him and caught up with him just before he reached Madinah. He accepted Islaam and requested permission to take the message of Islaam to his people. Rasulullaah said to him, "They would kill you." (Rasulullaah said this because) He knew from his experience with them that they were extremely proud and obstinate. However, Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood said to Rasulullaah sai, "I am more beloved to them than their virgins." The fact was that he was greatly loved and obeyed by the Thaqeef.

Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood Wis Invites his people to Islaam and is Martyred Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood then left to invite his people to Islaam expecting that they would not oppose him because of his high status among them. However, when he invited them to Islaam standing on the balcony of his house and made his Deen clear to them, they fired arrows at him from every angle. He was martyred when one of the arrows struck him. He was asked, "What have you to say about your blood?" He replied, "Allaah has blessed me with great honour and brought to me the rank of martyrdom. I have also attained the rank of those martyrs who were killed while fighting with Rasulullaah before leaving this world. Bury me with them." He was therefore buried with those Sahabah to Sahabah the Sahabah believed that it was concerning him that Rasulullaah said, "His example amongst his people is like that of the person of Surah Yaaseen(1)."

⁽¹⁾ Waaqidi as mentioned in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.558).

The Thaqeef Tribe Sends Abd Yaaleel bin Amr with a Delegation to Rasulullaah , who is Informed of their Arrival

It was only a few months after killing Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood that the Thaqeef tribe consulted with each other and decided that they did not have the strength to fight all the Arabs around them who had already pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah and accepted Islaam. They decided to send one of their people to Rasulullaah The person they sent was Abd Yaaleel bin Amr together with two persons from their allies and a third person from the Banu Maalik tribe. When they came close to Madinah and camped at a spring, they met Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba who was taking his turn to graze the riding animals of the Sahabah After meeting them, he rushed to Rasulullaah to give him that glad tidings of their arrival.

He first met Hadhrat Abu Bakr and informed him that some riders from the Thaqeef had arrived and were prepared to pledge their allegiance and accept Islaam if Rasulullaah accepted a few of their conditions and if a letter is written to their people. Hadhrat Abu Bakr said to Hadhrat Mughiera he first to inform him." Hadhrat Mughiera allowed this. Hadhrat Abu Bakr simple then went to Rasulullaah and be informed him about their arrival. In the meanwhile, Hadhrat Mughiera went back to the delegation and brought them together with the grazing animals. Although Hadhrat Mughiera taught the delegation how to greet Rasulullaah the, they still greeted him like people greeted during the Period of Ignorance.

When the delegation arrived at the Masjid, a tent was pitched for them. The person who conducted negotiations between them and Rasulullaah was Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas Weed. Whenever he brought food to them, they would not touch it until he had eaten from it himself. It was also he who wrote the letter to their people. Amongst the conditions that they made with Rasulullaah was that he leaves their idol (Laat) alone for three years. However, Rasulullaah and refused to allow this and they continued reducing the number of years until they requested for a single month starting from the day they arrived in Madinah. They requested for this period so that foolish people amongst them could gradually be won over. Rasulullaah refused to allow them this period and decided to send Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba and Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan bin Harb with them to destroy their idol. Another condition was that they should not be required to perform salaah and that they should not have to break their idols with their own hands. Rasulullaah said to them, "As for the breaking of your idols with your own hands, we shall overlook this (we shall send people to it for you). However, as for the salaah, there is no good in a religion without salaah." They gave in saying, "We shall grant you this even though it is humiliating."

⁽¹⁾ A person known as Habeeb Najjaar who was also killed by his people when he exhorted them to accept the message of the Ambiyaa. His story is mentioned in Surah Yaaseen.

Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abil Aas sizes narrates that when the Thaqeef delegation came to Rasulullaah so, he accommodated them in the Masjid so that it would soften their hearts. They made the conditions that they should not be conscripted for Jihaad, that Ushr (zakaah on crops) should not be taken from them, that they should not be required to perform salaah and that a person from outside their tribe should not be appointed as their leader. Rasulullaah said to them, "Granted that you will not be conscripted for Jihaad, that Ushr shall not be taken from you and that a person from outside your tribe should not be appointed as your leader. However, there is no good in a religion without Ruku (without salaah. This condition will therefore not be accepted)." Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abil Aas said, "O Rasulullaah sei". Teach me the Qur'aan and appoint me as the Imaam of my people."

Hadhrat Wahab Analysis narrates that he asked Hadhrat Jaabir About the Thaqeef (delegation) when they pledged their allegiance to Rasulullaah He replied by saying that they made the conditions that they should not be required to pay zakaah or to fight in Jihaad. (Rasulullaah accepted their conditions and) Hadhrat Jaabir says that he later heard Rasulullaah say, "Soon when they accept Islaam, they will pay zakaah and wage Jihaad (without being told to do so)." (2)

Hadhrat Aws bin Hudhayfa with narrates, "We came to meet Rasulullaah with the Thaqeef delegation. While the allies of the Thaqeef stayed with Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba with, Rasulullaah accommodated the delegates of the Banu Maalik tribe in a tent of his. He would meet us daily after Isha and address us while standing. He stood so long that he had to lean on each foot. He often told us about the treatment that he received from his tribe the Quraysh and would say, 'I have no anguish about it. In Makkah we were regarded as the weak ones and were looked down upon. When we reached Madinah, victory in battles alternated between us and the Quraysh.' One night when Rasulullaah arrived later that he usually did, we asked, 'You are late tonight?' He replied, 'A part of the portion of the Qur'aan I recite daily was not rendered and I disliked coming to you without completing it."

The Da'wah that The Sahabah Gave to Individuals

Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉節節 Gives Da'wah to Individuals

Ibn Is'haaq المنابقة narrates, "When Hadhrat Abu Bakr المنابقة accepted Islaam

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad and Abu Dawood.

⁽²⁾ Abu Dawood as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.29).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, Abu Dawood, Ibn Majah as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.32). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.5 Pg.510) has also narrated it.

and made his Islaam known, he started inviting people towards Allaah. He was well acquainted with the people, well liked by his people, soft-natured and from all of the Quraysh he possessed the most knowledge of their family trees and the good and bad conditions that prevailed over them. He was a good-natured businessman of excellent character and because of his vast knowledge, his business expertise and his entertaining nature, his people used to come to him and confide in him in numerous matters. He therefore started calling all those people to Allaah and to Islaam who confided in him when they met him and sat in his company. As far as I am told, the following persons accepted Islaam at his hands: Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam, Uthmaan bin Affaan, Talha bin Ubaydillaah, Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas and Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

They all came to Rasulullaah with Hadhrat Abu Bakr in and Rasulullaah presented Islaam to them, recited the Qur'aan to them and informed them about the rights Islaam had on them. They all accepted Imaan. These eight persons were the forerunners in Islaam who believed in Rasulullaah and believed everything he brought from Allaah." (2)

The Da'wah that Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab

Hadhrat Asbaq narrates that he was a slave of Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab and a Christian. Hadhrat Umar used to present Islaam to him saying, "If you accept Islaam, I could take assistance from you in safeguarding my trusts because it is not permissible for me to use you to safeguard the trusts of the Muslims when you do not belong to their religion." However, when Asbaq refused to accept Islaam, Hadhrat Umar would say, "There is no compulsion in Deen." Hadhrat Asbaq narrates further, "When Hadhrat Umar was on his deathbed, he freed me while I was still a Christian and said, "You may go wherever you please." (Asbaq did accept Islaam afterwards.) (3) Hadhrat Aslam (also a slave of Hadhrat Umar (also) narrates that when they were in Shaam, he brought some water for Hadhrat Umar to make wudhu with. Hadhrat Umar (b) asked, "Where have you brought this water from? I have never seen any sweet water nor any rainwater as good as this." Hadhrat Aslam informed him that he had obtained the water from the house of an old Christian lady. When Hadhrat Umar (b) had completed his wudhu, he approached the old lady and said, "O lady! Accept Islaam for Allaah has sent Muhammad (c) with the truth." The old lady then opened her hair which was as

⁽¹⁾ The five named together with Hadhrat Abu Bakr 墨陽崎, Hadhrat Ali 墨陽崎 and Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha 墨陽崎.

⁽²⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.29).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd, Sa'eed bin Mansoor, Ibn Abi Shayba, Ibn Mundhir and Ibn Abi Haatim have all narrated similar reports in brief as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.50). Abu Nu'aym has reported a similar narration in Hilya (Vol.9 Pg.34) from a Roman slave called Wasaq. The only difference in this narration is that Hadhrat Umar Said, "...in safeguarding the trusts of the Muslims because it is not befitting for me to use anyone to safeguard their trusts who does not belong to their religion."

white as the blossoms on a tree. She then said, "I am an extremely old woman and shall die at any moment." Hadhrat Umar said, "O Allaah! You be witness." (1)

The Da'wah that Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr Gave

The Da'wah that Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr gave to Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr who Accepts Islaam

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abi Bakr bin Muhammad bin Amr bin Hazm and many others narrate that Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah took Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr to the locality of the Banu Abdil Ash'hal and the Banu Zafar tribes. They entered one of the orchards of the Banu Zafar tribe where there was a well called Bir Maraq. The two of them sat in the orchard and many Muslims gathered there with them. During those days, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh and Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr were two leaders of the Banu Abdil Ash'hal tribe and were still Mushrikeen steadfast on the religion of their forefathers. Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh also happened to be the cousin of Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah

When these two leaders heard about the gathering, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh said to Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr will, "Have you no father (no self-respect)?! Go to those two men who have come to our locality to make fools of our gullible people. Admonish and reprimand them for coming to our area. I would have done this for you had it not been for the relation As'ad bin Zuraarah has with me as you know. He is my cousin and I cannot confront him." Hadhrat 'Usayd will took his spear and went to them. When Hadhrat As'ad will saw him approach, he said to Hadhrat Mus'ab will, "He is the leader of his people. He is coming to you so be sincere to Allaah when speaking to him." Hadhrat Mus'ab willing to sit down."

Hadhrat Usayd stood in front of them and began swearing them. He said, "Why have you come to us? Have you come to make fools of our gullible people? You will leave us alone if of you want to preserve your lives!" Hadhrat Mus'ab said to him, "Will you not be seated and listen awhile. If you like what you hear, you may accept it. Otherwise, we shall stop doing what you dislike." Hadhrat Usayd said, "That is a fair proposition." He then stuck his spear into the ground and sat down. Hadhrat Mus'ab said then spoke to him about Islaam and recited the Qur'aan to him. Hadhrat Mus'ab say that from the radiance and gentleness they saw in the face of Hadhrat Usayd say that from the radiance and gentleness they saw in the face of Hadhrat Usayd say they recognised that he would accept Islaam before he could even mention it.

Hadhrat Usayd said, "How excellent and beautiful this is! What do you do when you want to enter the fold of this religion?" They said to him, "Take a bath, cleanse yourself well, purify your two (upper and lower) clothes, recite the Shahaadah of truth and perform salaah." Hadhrat Usayd stood up, took a bath, washed his clothes, recited the Shahaadah and then stood up to perform two Rakaahs salaah. He then said to the two, "Behind me is a man whom I shall soon send to you. If he follows you, not a soul from his people will fail to follow him. He is Sa'd bin Mu'aadh."

⁽¹⁾ Daar Qutni and (bn Asaakir as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.142).

Hadhrat Usayd where Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh was saw Hadhrat Usayd was approaching, he said, "I swear by Allaah that Usayd is coming to you with a look that is very much different from the one he left you with." When Hadhrat Usayd with stopped by the gathering, Hadhrat Sa'd was asked, "What did you do?" Hadhrat Usayd replied, "I have spoken to the two men and see nothing wrong with what they say. I have also forbidden them from what they do and they accepted to do as I tell them. I have also found out that the Banu Haaritha tribe have left to kill As'ad bin Zuraarah because they have learnt that he is your cousin and thereby wish to insult you." Fearing the news that had reached him about the Banu Haaritha, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh filled with fury. He stood up and quickly grabbed hold a spear saying, "By Allaah! You have done nothing!"

He then went to Hadhrat As'ad when he saw Hadhrat As'ad and Hadhrat Mus'ab sitting in peace, he realised that Hadhrat Usayd had wanted him to listen to them. He also stood in front of the two and swore them. He said to Hadhrat As'ad when, "O Abu Umaamah! By Allaah! If it were not for the relationship between you and I, you would have never thought of doing this. You dare to introduce into our locality something that we detest!" Already before his arrival, Hadhrat As'ad had mentioned to Hadhrat Mus'ab when, "O Mus'ab! By Allaah! Here comes the leader of all those behind him. Should he follow you, no two persons of his community would remain behind."

Hadhrat Mus'ab said to him, "Will you not be seated and listen awhile. If you like what you hear, you may accept it. Otherwise, we shall stop doing what you dislike." Hadhrat Sa'd said, "That is a fair proposition." He then stuck his spear into the ground and sat down. Hadhrat Mus'ab then spoke to him about Islaam and recited the Qur'aan to him. One of the narrators by the name of Moosa bin Aqba says that Hadhrat Mus'ab frecited the beginning of Surah Zukhruf. Hadhrat Mus'ab from the radiance and gentleness they saw in the face of Hadhrat Sa'ad from the recognised that he would accept Islaam before he could even mention it. Hadhrat Sa'ad said, "What do you do when you want to enter the fold of this religion?" They said to him, "Take a bath, cleanse yourself well, purify your two (upper and lower) clothes, recite the Shahaadah of truth and perform salaah." Hadhrat Sa'ad stood up, took a bath, washed his clothes, recited the Shahaadah and then stood up to perform two Rakaahs salaah. He then took his spear and returned to the gathering of his people who were still in the company of Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh Gives Da'wah to the Banu Abdil Ash'hal Tribe

When his people saw him return, they said, "We swear by Allaah that Sa'd is returning to you with a look very different to the one he left you with." When Hadhrat Sa'd stopped by them, he said, "O Banu Abdil Ash'hal! How do you rate my status amongst you?" They replied, "You are our leader, the one with the best opinions and the most far-sighted." He then said, "It is now forbidden for me to speak to any of your men or women until you all believe in Allaah and His Rasool ." The narrator says, "By Allaah! There was not a man or woman amongst the Banu Abdil Ash'hal tribe that did not accept Islaam by the evening."

Hadhrat As'ad was and Hadhrat Mus'ab then returned to Hadhrat As'ad t's house where Hadhrat Mus'ab continued calling people to Allaah. Eventually, there was not a single Ansaar household that was devoid of Muslim men or women. The only exceptions were the homes of the Banu Umayyah bin Zaid, the Khatma, the Waa'il and Waaqif, all of whom belonged to the Aws tribe. (1)

Tabraani and Abu Nu'aym in Dalaa'ilun Nubuwwah have narrated a lengthy report from Hadhrat Urwa mentioning the Da'wah Rasulullaah gave to the Ansaar and how they accepted Islaam. This will appear in the chapter concerning the condition of the Ansaar at the beginning, Inshaa Allaah. The narration then continues to mention that the Ansaar then secretly invited their people to Islaam and finally asked Rasulullaah to send someone to give Da'wah to the people. Rasulullaah complied by sending Hadhrat Mus'ab to Dispatches Individuals to give Da'wah". The narration then continues to state that Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah and Hadhrat Mus'ab to once came to the well of Bir Maraq or close to it. There they sat and sent a message that the people of the area should come secretly.

As Hadhrat Mus'ab was speaking to the people and reciting the Qur'aan to them, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh was informed about them. Taking his weapons and spear along, he came and stood before them. He said, "Why have you come to us in our locality with this lonesome man who is an outcast and a stranger? With falsehood he is making fools of our guilible ones and inviting them. I do not want to see you two again in our vicinity." The people all returned.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg. 152).

However, they returned a second time to Bir Maraq or nearby. When Hadhrat Sa'd was again informed about them, he gave them another warning which was less harsh than the first. When Hadhrat As'ad noticed that he had somewhat softened, he said to him, "O cousin! Give him a hearing at least. If you hear anything unpleasant, O Sa'd, you may refuse to accept it from him (another narration states, "You may rebut it with something better"). However, if you hear something good, then respond to this call from Allaah."

Hadhrat Sa'd said, "What has he to say?" Hadhrat Mus'ab then recited the following verses of the Qur'aan:

(سورة الزخرف: ١ تا ٣)

HaaMeem. By the oath of the Clear Book (the Qur'aan)! We have made it an Arabic Qur'aan so that you (O people of Arabia, who are the first recipients of the Qur'aan) understand. {Surah Zukhruf, verses I-3}

Hadhrat Sa'd said, "I can certainly relate to what I hear." Allaah guided him and he returned to his people without announcing his acceptance of Islaam until he reached them. When he returned to his people, he invited the Banu Abdil Ash'hal to Islaam, thereby disclosing his acceptance of Islaam. He said, "Any young or old person, male or female who has doubts should present something better and we shall readily accept it. By Allaah! Such a thing had appeared before which necks are forced to bow." When Hadhrat Sa'd saccepted Islaam and gave Da'wah to his people, the entire Banu Abdil Ash'hal accepted Islaam besides a negligible number of people. The Banu Abdil Ash'hal were therefore the first family of the Ansaar whose members all accepted Islaam. The rest of the narration isthesameasappeared in the chapter entitled, "Rasulullaah Dispatches Individuals to give Da'wah". The last part of the narration states that Hadhrat Mus'ab then returned to Rasulullaah it.e. to Makkah.

Hadhrat Tulayb bin Umayr (Gives Da'wah to his Mother Arwa bint Abdil Muttalib Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ibraheem bin Haarith narrates that when Hadhrat Tulayb bin Umayr accepted Islaam, he went to his mother Arwa who was the daughter of Abdul Muttalib (Rasulullaah is maternal aunt). He said to her, "I have accepted Islaam and am the follower of Muhammad is Relating the incident, he also mentioned to her, "What prevents you from accepting Islaam and following Muhammad is Even your brother Hamza has accepted Islaam." She replied, "I am waiting to see what my sisters do. I shall then do as they do." Hadhrat Tulayb states that he then said to his mother, "In the name of Allaah I beseech you to go to Rasulullaah is, to greet him, to believe in him and to testify that that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's Rasul."

She immediately uttered:

آشْهَدُأَنْ لا إلله إلا الله وَاشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ الله

"I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad & is Allaah's Rasul."

Thereafter, she continuously assisted Rasulullaah with her words and encouraged her son to assist Rasulullaah and to establish the Deen. (1)

Abu Salma bin Abdir Rahmaan in narrates that Hadhrat Tulayb bin Umayr accepted Islaam in the house of Hadhrat Arqam in After leaving, he went to his mother who was Arwa bint Abdil Muttalib. He said to her, "I follow Muhammad is and have submitted to Allaah the Rabb of the universe Whose mention is most exalted." His mother said, "Your maternal uncle's son (Rasulullaah is is certainly most deserving of your assistance. By Allaah! If we women had the strength of men, we would certainly follow him and defend him." Hadhrat Tulayb is says that he then asked her, "O beloved mother! Then what is it that prevents you from accepting Islaam?" The rest of the narration is the same as the one quoted above. (2)

Hadhrat Umayr bin Wahab Jumhi William gives Da'wah and His Acceptance of Islaam

Umayr bin Wahab and Safwaan bin Umayyah

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr narrates that shortly after their defeat at Badr, Umayr bin Wahab Jumhi who had been a Shaytaan from amongst the Shayaateen of the Quraysh was sitting with Safwaan bin Umayyah in the Hateem. Umayr bin Wahab used to harm Rasulullaah and the Sahabah who, who suffered tremendous difficulty at his hands when in Makkah. His son Wahab bin Umayr was also one of the captives whom the Muslims had captured during the Battle of Badr. When Umayr bin Wahab mentioned what had happened to the people of the well (the well in Badr in which the corpses of seventy Mushrikeen were thrown), Safwaan bin Umayyah commented, "By Allaah! There is no enjoyment in life after their deaths." Umayr bin Wahab remarked, "That is true. By Allaah! Had it not been for the debts I have which I am unable to settle, and for my family whom I fear shall be destroyed without me, I would certainly ride to Muhammad and kill him. In fact, I have an excuse to see him, my son is a captive in the hands of the Muslims."

Taking advantage of the situation, Safwaan bin Umayyah said, "I take the responsibility of settling your debts and I shall care for your family with my own and I shall do everything in my capacity to care for them as long as they live." Umayr bin Wahab said to him, "Keep this matter a secret between us." Safwaan bin Umayyah agreed and Umayr bin Wahab proceeded to have his sword sharpened and poisoned. He then left on his journey until he reached Madinah.

⁽¹⁾ Waaqidi as quoted in Isti'aab (Vol.4 Pg.225).

⁽²⁾ Haakim in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.239). Ibn Sa'd has also reported a similar narration in his Tabaqaat (Vol.3 Pg.123). Comments on the chain of narrators have been made by Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.239) as well as in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.234).

In the meanwhile, Hadhrat Umar was in the company of a group of Sahabah who were busy discussing the Battle of Badr. They spoke about the victory that Allaah had blessed them with and the defeat of their enemy that Allaah had shown them. As they spoke, Hadhrat Umar who noticed Umayr bin Wahab settling his camel at the door of the Masjid and carrying a sword around his neck. Hadhrat Umar week exclaimed, "That dog and enemy of Allaah Umayr bin Wahab is up to no good. It was he who caused trouble during the Battle of Badr and who estimated our numbers for the enemy."

Umayr bin Wahab With Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Umar then came to Rasulullaah and said, "O Nabi of Allaah! The enemy of Allaah Umayr bin Wahab has come with a sword hanging from his neck. Rasulullaah said, "Allow him to meet me." Hadhrat Umar grabbed hold of the handle of Umayr bin Wahab's sword and pulled him towards Rasulullaah by the collar. He then said to the men of the Ansaar who were with him, "Go to Rasulullaah and sit with him. Watch this wretch closely for he cannot be trusted." He then brought Umayr bin Wahab to Rasulullaah when Rasulullaah saw him with Hadhrat Umar pulling him by the handle of his sword at his collar, Rasulullaah said, "Leave him, O Umar! You may come closer, O Umayr."

When Umayr bin Wahab came closer to Rasulullaah he greeted with the words, "Blessed is your morning." This was the manner in which people greeted during the Period of Ignorance. Rasulullaah said, "Allaah has blessed us with a greeting better than your greeting, O Umayr. He has blessed us with the greeting of Salaam which is the greeting of the people of Jannah." "Well," said Umayr, "By Allaah! This is new to me, O Muhammad." Rasulullaah asked, "What brings you here, O Umayr?" Umayr replied, "I have come regarding this prisoner that you have with you. Please be kind to him." Rasulullaah asked, "Why then the sword around your neck?" Umayr cursed, "These swords! Have they ever done us any good?!" Rasulullaah said, "Tell me the truth. What have you come for?" "I have come only for this," lied Umayr.

Rasulullaah then said to him, "You and Safwaan bin Umayyah were sitting in the Hateem and discussing what had happened to the people of the well when you said, 'Had it not been for my debts and the family I have, I would have gone to kill Muhammad "".' Safwaan then assumed responsibility for your debts and your family if you would kill me. However, Allaah stands between you and I."

Umayr bin Wahab Accepts Islaam and Gives Da'wah to the People of Makkah

Umayr exclaimed, "I testify that you are certainly the Rasool of Allaah. O Rasulullaah We used to treat as a lie everything that you brought to us from the heavens and the revelation that descended on you. However, this is a matter that none witnessed but Safwaan and I. By Allaah! I am convinced that none besides Allaah could have brought you this news. All praises belong to Allaah Who has guided me to Islaam and has pulled me in this way." He then recited the Shahaadah of truth. Rasulullaah said to the Sahabah ("Educate your brother about his Deen, teach him the Qur'aan and free his prisoner."

When the Sahabah who had done as they were commanded, Hadhrat Umayr said, "O Rasulullaah will I made tremendous efforts to extinguish the Deen of Allaah and I used to cause great harm to those who followed the Deen of Allaah. I would now like you to permit me to go to Makkah and invite the people towards Allaah, His Rasool will and Islaam. Perhaps Allaah shall guide them. If they do not accept, I shall cause harm to them because of their religion as I used to cause harm to your companions because of their Deen." Rasulullaah was gave his permission and he arrived in Makkah.

After Hadhrat Umayr had left Makkah, Safwaan bin Umayyah had been telling the people, "Rejoice at the news that will come to you in a few days, which will make you forget the incident of Badr." Safwaan used to enquire about Hadhrat Umayr from every traveller (coming from Madinah) someone arrived and informed him that Hadhrat Umayr had accepted Islaam. Safwaan then took an oath saying that he will never speak to Umayr again and will never do him any good turn. (1)

A Large Number of People Accept Islaam at the Hands of Hadhrat Umayr

Ibn Jareer has also narrated this incident from Hadhrat Urwa but with the addition that when Hadhrat Umayr arrived in Makkah, he stayed there inviting people to Islaam and harassing those who opposed him. A large number of people accepted Islaam at his hands. (2)

The Comment of Hadhrat Umar Concerning the Conversion of Hadhrat Umayr t

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr (I) has also reported a harration which states that the Muslims were overjoyed when Hadhrat Umayr bin Wahab (I) accepted Islaam. Hadhrat Umar (I) used to say, "There is no doubt that I liked a pig more than him the day he arrived. However, today he is more beloved to me than some of my own children." (3)

Hadhrat Amr bin Umayyah was narrates that when Hadhrat Umayr returned to Makkah after accepting Islaam, he proceeded straight to his house without meeting Safwaan bin Umayyah. He made it public that he had accepted

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.313).

⁽²⁾ Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.81). Tabraani has narrated a similar report and Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.286) has verified that the chain of narrators is sound.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani has also narrated a similar report from Hadhrat Anas (No.8 Pg.287) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Mandah has also narrated it but Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.36) has commentary on the chain of narrators.

Islaam and started inviting people to Islaam. When this news reached Safwaan, he said, "When he went to his family before coming to me, I knew that Umayr had become involved in the very thing he feared and had forsaken his religion. I shall never speak to him again and never do a good turn to him or his family." As Safwaan stood in the Hateem one day, Hadhrat Umayr (called for him. When Safwaan ignored him, Hadhrat Umayr (said to him, "You are one of our leaders. Tell me. When we worshipped stones and sacrificed animals for them, was this any religion? I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad (said is Allaah's servant and Rasul." Safwaan did not utter a word in response. (1) The effort Hadhrat Umayr (said made to get Safwaan to accept Islaam has already been mentioned. (2)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra Gives Da'wah to his Mother and She Accepts Islaam

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra says that he used to invite his mother to Islaam when she was still a Mushrik. One day as he was giving her the Da'wah, she told him things about Rasulullaah that he did not like. He went crying to Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah when I invite my mother to Islaam, she refuses to accept. When I did so today, she told me things about you that I did not like. Pray to Allaah to guide the mother of Abu Hurayra." Rasulullaah made du'aa saying, "O Allaah! Guide the mother of Abu Hurayra."

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra marrates further, "Happy with the du'aa of Rasulullaah for I left but when I tried to open the door of the house, I found it locked. Hearing my footsteps, my mother shouted, 'Stay where you are, O Abu Hurayra.' I then heard the pattering of water (as my mother took a bath to accept Islaam). She then wore her clothes and hastily donned a scarf. She opened the door and said, 'O Abu Hurayra!

اَشْهَدُانُ لا إِلهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَاَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ

'I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's Rasul."

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra says that he then returned to Rasulullaah and informed him about what had happened. Rasulullaah praised Allaah and made du'aa in their favour. (3)

According to another narration, Hadhrat Abu Hurayra weed to say, "By Allaah! Whenever any male or female Muslim hears my name, they take a liking to me." "How do you know this?" the narrator asked. He then mentioned that he used to invite his mother to Islaam and the narration continues like the one mentioned above. However, this narration states at the end, "I then hurried back to Rasulullaah crying out of happiness as I had been crying out of sorrow earlier. I said, 'Hear the good news. Allaah has accepted your du'aa and has guided the mother of Abu Hurayra to Islaam.' I then added, 'O Rasulullaah Pray to Allaah to make my mother and I beloved to every Mu'min male and female.' Rasulullaah made du'aa saying, 'O Allaah! Make this little servant of Yours and his mother beloved to every Mu'min male and female.' Therefore whenever any male or female Muslim hears my name, they take a liking to me."(1)

⁽¹⁾ Waaqidi as quoted in Isti'aab (Vol.2 Pg.486).

⁽²⁾ Refer to the subheading "Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah was accepts Islaam" in the chapter concerning the conquest of Makkah.

⁽³⁾ Muslim as well as Ahmad as mentioned in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.241)

Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym Gives Da'wah

Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym Invites Hadhrat Abu Talha to Islaam when he Proposes to Her and he Accepts Islaam

Hadhrat Anas in narrates that before he accepted Islaam, Hadhrat Abu Talha proposed for Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym Solvers. She said to him, "O Abu Talha! Do you not know that the god you worship is a tree growing from the ground?" He replied, "I do indeed." She then said, "Do you not feel ashamed to worship a tree? If you accept Islaam, I require no other dowry from you." Hadhrat Abu Talha said that he would ponder over the matter and left. He later came back and said:

اَشْهَدُانَ لا إِله إلا الله واَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ الله

"I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad (1888) is Allaah's Rasul,"

Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym then said (to her son), "O Anas! Get Abu Talha married." Hadhrat Anas

The Da'wah that The Sahabah Cave to Various Tribes and Arabs

The Da'wah Hadhrat Dimaam bin Tha'laba Gave to the Banu Sa'd bin Bakr Tribe

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas was narrates that the Banu Sa'd bin Bakr tribe sent Hadhrat Dimaam bin Tha'laba as their representative to Rasulullaah was. When he arrived (in Madinah), he seated his camel at he door of the Masjid and tied it up. He then entered the Masjid where Rasulullaah was sitting with the Sahabah was. Hadhrat Dimaam was a large, hairy and heavily built man. He went forward and stood before Rasulullaah and the Sahabah was. He then asked, "Which of you is the descendant of Abdul Muttalib?" Rasulullaah was replied, "I am the descendant of Abdul Muttalib." "Are you Muhammad?" Hadhrat Dimaam was clarified. "Yes," confirmed Rasulullaah ask you some questions and I will be very blunt. So please do not take offence."

Hadhrat Dimaam William then said, "O descendant of Abdul Muttalib! I want to

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.328).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Ibn Sa'd has also narrated a similar report as mentioned in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.461).

Rasulullaah said, "I will not take offence. You may ask whatever you please." Hadhrat Dimaam said, "I ask you in the name of that Allaah Who is your deity, the deity of those before you and the deity of those coming after you. Has Allaah sent you to us?" Rasulullaah replied, "Yes, by Allaah!" Hadhrat Dimaam saked further, "I ask you in the name of that Allaah Who is your deity, the deity of those before you and the deity of those coming after you. Has Allaah commanded you to instruct us that we should worship only He Who is The One and that we should not ascribe anyone as partner to Him?"

Hadhrat Dimaam which then enquired, "I ask you in the name of that Allaah Who is your deity, the deity of those before you and the deity of those coming after you. Has Allaah issued the command to you that we should perform these five salaahs?" Rasulullaah again responded by saying, "Yes, by Allaah!" In this manner, Hadhrat Dimaam asked about each of the Faraa'idh of Islaam, about zakaah, fasting, Hajj as well as the other injunctions of the Shari'ah. Each time he asked about any Fardh injunction, he asked Rasulullaah in the name of Allaah as he had done initially. When he had completed the questioning, he said:

أَشْهَدُانَ لا إِله إلا الله وَالشَّهَدُ انَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ الله

"I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad  is Allaah's Rasul."

He said further, "I shall fulfil all these Faraa'idh and abstain from everything you have forbidden. Neither shall I add to this, nor reduce anything." He then went to his camel to return home. Rasulullaah (## commented, "If this man with two locks of long hair is truthful, he shall definitely enter Jannah."

The Banu Sa'd Accept Islaam and the Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Concerning Hadhrat Dimaam (Masses))

Hadhrat Dimaam went to his camel, untied the rope and then rode away until he reached his people. The first thing he said was, "Laat and Uzza are most terrible!" The people said, "Do not say that Dimaam! Beware of white liver! Beware of leprosy! Beware of insanity!(The idols will inflict you with these diseases for saying this)." Hadhrat Dimaam said said to them, "Shame on you! By Allaah! These two idols can neither do harm nor give benefit. Allaah has sent a Rasul and revealed a book to him to save you from what you are involved in. I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul. I have just come from him with the details of things he has commanded and those that he has forbidden."

The narrator of the reports states, "By Allaah! By the same evening every male and female present with Hadhrat Dimaam was a Muslim. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas states, "We have never heard of any representative of his tribe who was nobler than Hadhrat Dimaam bin Tha'laba (4). A narration of Waaqidi mentions that by the same evening every male and female present with Hadhrat Dimaam (4) was a Muslim and that they built Masaajid and called out the Adhaan for salaah. (1)

Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah Juhani Gives Da'wah to his People

The Dream Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah had had About the Risaalat of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah (Period of Ignorance, While in Makkah he had a dream in which he saw a light rising from the Kabah which extended its illumination to the mountains of Yathrib (now called Madinah) and the Ash'ar mountains in the region of the Juhayna tribe. He also heard a voice in the light saying, "Darkness has been dispersed, light has spread and the seal of the Ambiyaa has been sent." He then saw another light which illuminated for him the palaces of Heera and white buildings of Madaa'in. He again heard a voice in the light which said, "Islaam has become manifest, the idols are destroyed and family ties are fostered." He then woke up with a fright and said to his people, "By Allaah! Something astounding is going to take place amongst the tribe of the Quraysh." He then related the dream to them.

Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah Meets Rasulullaah Mar and Accepts Islaam

When Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah reached his locality, the news reached him that a person called Ahmad has been sent as a Rasul. He left home and came to Rasulullaah when he informed Rasulullaah about his dream, Rasulullaah is said, "O Amr bin Murrah! I am the Rasul of Allaah sent to all of mankind. I invite you to Islaam and command you to protect life, to foster good family ties, to worship Allaah Alone, to forsake idols, to perform Hajj to the Kabah and to fast during Ramadhaan which is one of the twelve months of the year. Whoever accepts this shall have Jannah and whoever disobeys shall have the fire of Jahannam. Accept Imaan, O Amr bin Murrah and Allaah shall rescue you from the terror of Jahannam."

Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah said, "I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that you are Allaah's Rasul. I believe in everything Halaal and Haraam that you have brought even though a great number of people reject it. The tribe of Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah had an idol and it was his father who tended to it. However, Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah broke the idol before coming to meet Rasulullaah . (After accepting Islaam,) Hadhrat Amr bin

⁽i) Ibn Is'haaq, Ahmad and Abu Dawood as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.60). Haakim has also reported it in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.54) with commentary. Imaam Dhahabi has verified the authenticity of the narration.

Murrah 劉璋等 then recited to Rasulullaah 繼續 some couplets he had composed when he heard of Rasulullaah 繼續. These are translated as follows:

"I testify that Allaah is True and without doubt

I am the first to forsake the gods of stone

I have folded up my trousers to migrate

Over difficult roads and inhospitable lands I travel to you (O Rasulullaah (2014))
To be in the company of him who is the best of people in personality and lineage Who is the messenger of the King of mankind and of everything above the heavens"

Rasulullaah congratulated him on these couplets

Rasulullaah Sends Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah to Give Da'wah to his People and Advises Him

Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah then said to Rasulullaah F, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! Do send me to my people. Perhaps Allaah shall bestow His grace on them through me as He has bestowed His grace on me through you." When Rasulullaah sent him, he first advised him saying, "Always adopt gentleness and honest speech. Never be ill-tempered, proud or jealous."

Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah then went to his people and said, "O Rifaa'ah or I should rather say O gathering of the Juhayna tribe! I am the messenger of the Rasul of Allaah. I invite you to accept Islaam and command you to protect life, to foster good family ties, to worship Allaah Alone, to forsake idols, to perform Hajj to the Kabah and to fast during Ramadhaan, which is one of the twelve months of the year. Whoever accepts this shall have Jannah and whoever disobeys shall have the fire of Jahannam. O gathering of the Juhayna! Allaah has made you the best of the Arab tribes and even during the Period of Ignorance you detested the evil practices of that other Arab tribes liked. They used to join two sisters in one marriage, wage wars during the sacred months and succeed their fathers as husbands of their mothers. Accept the call of the Nabi that Allaah has sent from the lineage of Luway bin Ka'b and you will attain the honour of this world and great distinction in the Aakhirah."

Only one person came to him saying, "O Amr bin Murrah! May Allaah make your life bitter! Do you command us to forsake our gods and to create divisions within ourselves. Do you command us to oppose the religion of our forefathers who were all of extremely high character and to adopt the religion towards which the person of the Quraysh from the people of Tihaamah is calling? We have neither love for him nor any respect. The wretch then proceeded to say the following couplets, which mean:

"Ibn Murrah has come with a statement

A statement that cannot be from one who wishes reformation

I am sure that the words and actions of Ibn Murrah

Shall prove to be a lump in the throat even though some time may elapse He makes fools of our noble predecessors And whoever dares to do this can never attain success"

Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah said to the man, "May Allaah make life bitter for the one who is lying from the two of us. May Allaah make him dumb and blind as well." A narrator says, "By Allaah! Before the man died, he lost all this teeth, he became blind, went insane and was unable to taste any food."

Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah Comes to Rasulullaah with Those from his Tribe who Accepted Islaam and Rasulullaah has a Letter Written for them

Hadhrat Amr bin Murrah left his locality with those of his people who accepted Islaam and came to Rasulullaah . Rasulullaah greeted them and welcomed them. He also had the following letter written to their people:

In the name of Allaah The Most Kind The Most Merciful

This is a letter from the Mighty Allaah, expressed on the tongue of His Rasool who has come with the absolute truth and a Book that speaks the truth.

It is entrusted with Amr bin Murrah and addressed to the Juhayna bin Zaid tribe.

You may have for yourselves the low-lying lands and plains as well as the hills and backs of the valleys. You may also tend its crops and drink its water. All this is on condition that you pay one-fifth of booty, perform five salaahs, give two goats (as zakaah) for every flock of sheep or goats when they are together (and they number between 120 and 200) and one goat for every flock that is separate (and number between 40 and 119). There shall be no zakaah on animals used for ploughing fields and for drawing water, Allaah and all the Muslims present are witness to this settlement between us.

Hadhrat Qais bin Shammaas wrote this letter. (1)

Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood gives Da'wah to the Thaqeef Tribe

Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood Accepts Islaam, Gives Da'wah to his People and they Kill him

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr marrates that when the Muslims started performing Hajj during the ninth year after Hijrah, Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood came to Rasulullaah mas as a Muslim. When he requested permission to go back to his people to preach Islaam, Rasulullaah said, "I fear that they will kill you." He said, "(They have so much respect for me that) If they find me asleep, they would not even wake me up." Rasulullaah permitted him and he returned to his people.

⁽¹⁾ Rooyaani and Ibn Asaakir as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.64), Abu Nu'aym has also reported it in length as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.2 Pg.351). Tabraani has also narrated it as mentioned in Majma (Vol.8 Pg.244).

It was at night when he returned and all the people of the Thaqeef tribe came to greet him. However, when he started calling them to Islaam, they levelled accusations against him, became furious at him, swore at him and finally killed him. Rasulullaah said, "Urwa's example is like that of the person of Surah Yaaseen who called his people towards Allaah and they killed him." (1)

Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood Becomes Happy with his Martyrdom and Advises his People

Numerous scholars have reported this narration at length. Their reports mention that Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood reached home at night and went to his house. The people of the Thaqeef came to his house and greeted him in the manner people greeted during the Period of Ignorance. He refused to allow their greeting and said, "You should adopt the greeting of the people of Jannah which is Salaam." The people then started abusing him and hitting him but he tolerated it all. They then left him and started discussing about him.

When dawn broke, he went up to his balcony and called out the Adhaan for salaah. The people of the Thaqeef came out of their homes and came to him from every direction. A person from the Banu Maalik tribe called Aws bin Auf shot an arrow at Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood (Despite efforts) The blood would not stop flowing. When this happened, Ghaylaan bin Salma, Kinaana bin Abd Yaleel, Hakam bin Amr and several leading figure of their allied tribes took up their arms and got together. They announced, "Either we are killed orweshall takethelives of ten leaders of the Banu Maalik tribe in retaliaton."

When Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood saw the developments, he said, "Do not take any lives for my sake. I have donated my blood to the person who took it to preserve your unity. This death is a blessing that Allaah has bestowed on me for he has brought martyrdom to me. I testify that Muhammad is Allaah's Rasul because he informed me that you would kill me." He then called for his family and said, "When I die you should bury me with those martyrs who were killed while fighting with Rasulullaah before he left you." They then buried him with these martyred Sahabah when he passed away. When the news of his martyrdom reached Rasulullaah he when he passed away. When the news of the Hadith is the same as the one mentioned above. The narration describing the way in which the Thaqeef accepted Islaam has already been mentioned in the chapter entitled "Incidents About the Character and Actions of Rasulullaah that Inspired People to Accept Islaam" (2). (3)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.386) has commented on the chain of narrators. Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.616) has also reported a similar narration.

⁽²⁾ This is found under the subheading "The Conquest of Makkah" and a further subheading titled "The Banu Thaqeef Tribe of Taa'if accepts Islaam".

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.5 Pg.369).

Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr Dowsi (Sives Da'wah to his People

Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr (1996) Arrives in Makkah and His Experience with the Quraysh

Muhammad bin Is'haaq says that despite the harsh treatment that Rasulullaah saw his people mete out to him, he exerted all his efforts to guide them and to save them from the evils they were involved in. When Allaah protected Rasulullaah when them, the Quraysh started warning the Arabs about Rasulullaah when they came to meet him. Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr was a highly respected and intelligent poet. He narrates that when he arrived in Makkah during the time when Rasulullaah was still living there, some men from the Quraysh came to him and asked, "O Tufayl! You have come to our city. This person amongst us has caused us great difficulty and has disunited us. His speech is bewitching and he has caused division between fathers and sons, between brothers and between husband and wife. We fear that you and your tribe should not suffer as we have. Do not speak to him and do not even listen to him."

Hadhrat Tufayl says, "By Allaah! They did not let go of me until 1 resolved not to hear anything Rasulullaah said and not to speak to him. I even went to the extent of stuffing pieces of wool in my ears when 1 proceeded to the Masjid the following morning, fearing that any of his words may reach me without me intentionally listening to him."

Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr Will Accepts Islaam

Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr says, "When I went to the Masjid in the morning, Rasulullaah was standing there, performing salaah near the Kabah. I stood close to him and Allaah destined that I should hear some of his words. What I heard were excellent words and I said to myself, 'Shame on you! I am supposed to be an intelligent poet who can distinguish between good and bad. What prevents me from listening to what this man has to say? If what he says is good, I shall accept and if it is not, I shall ignore it."

Hadhrat Tufayl what then waited until Rasulullaah left for home. He then followed Rasulullaah what the Quraysh had told him and added, "By Allaah! They were so convincing that I even plugged my ears with wool so that I do not hear your words. Thereafter, Allaah destined that I should listen to you. What I heard were excellent words indeed. Present to me your case." Rasulullaah then presented Islaam to him and recited the Qur'aan to him. Hadhrat Tufayl remarked, "I swear by Allaah that I have never heard words more beautiful (than the Qur'aan) nor any matter as balanced (as Islaam)." After accepting Islaam and reciting the Shahaadah, Hadhrat Tufayl said, "O Rasulullaah My people obey me so I shall return to them and invite them to Islaam.

Pray to Allaah to grant me a sign which will assist me in inviting them." Rasulullaah made du'aa saying, "O Allaah! Grant him a sign."

Hadhrat Tufayl Returns to his People to Invite them to Islaam and Allaah Assists him by Granting him a Sign

Hadhrat Tufayl says that he then went to his people and was at a valley from which he could see the people present there when a light radiated from between his eyes like a lantern. He then prayed, "O Allaah! Not on my face because my people will think that this is a form of punishment affecting my face because I had left my religion." He narrates further, "The light then moved to the top of my whip. The people present then showed each other the light on my whip which resembled a suspended lantern as I descended the valley towards them. When I reached them it was still morning."

Hadhrat Tufayl (invites his Father and Wife to Islaam and they Both Accept

Hadhrat Tufayl who narrates that when he came to his people, his father who was an extremely old man came to him. Hadhrat Tufayl said, "Keep away from me, O father because you are not mine and I am not yours." "Why is it, O beloved son?" his father asked. Hadhrat Tufayl replied, "Because I have accepted Islaam and am a follower of Muhammad "I His father said, "Your religion is mine." His father then took a bath, cleaned his clothes and came back to Hadhrat Tufayl who presented Islaam to him. He accepted Islaam.

When his wife came to him, Hadhrat Tufayl said to her, "Keep away from me for I am not yours and you are not mine." "Why is it? May my parents be sacrificed for you!" Hadhrat Tufayl replied, "Islaam has separated me from you." She also accepted Islaam. Hadhrat Tufayl further says that when he invited the rest of the Dows tribe to Islaam, they displayed reluctance.

Rasulullaah Makes Du'aa for the Dows Tribe After Which They Accept Islaam and Come to Rasulullaah Makes Along with Hadhrat Tufayl

Hadhrat Tufayl then went to Rasulullaah in Makkah and said, "O Nabi of Allaah! The Dows tribe has overpowered me. Please invoke Allaah's curses on them." (Instead) Rasulullaah prayed, "O Allaah! Guide the Dows tribe." Rasulullaah then said to him, "Return to your people, give them Da'wah and be gentle with them." Hadhrat Tufayl then returned to his people and continued giving them Da'wah all the time until Rasulullaah ingrated (to Madinah) and the battles of Badr, Uhud and Khandaq were over. Thereafter, Hadhrat Tufayl went to Rasulullaah together with all those from his people who had accepted Islaam. At the time Rasulullaah was in Khaybar. Hadhrat Tufayl eventually reached Madinah with seventy or eighty families from the Dows tribe. (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas has also narrated from Hadhrat Tufayl bin Amr the story of how he accepted Islaam, how he gave Da'wah to his father, his wife and his people and his arrival in Makkah, just as it was mentioned in the previous narration. However, the narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas adds that Rasulullaah sent Hadhrat Tufayl to burn an idol called Dhul Kaffayn. In addition, it also mentions that Hadhrat Tufayl thereafter left for Yamaamah where he saw a dream and was then martyred in the Battle of Yamaamah. (2)

Another narration states that when Hadhrat Tufayl arrived in Makkah, some people from the Quraysh told him about Rasulullaah and requested him to assess Rasulullaah. He therefore went to Rasulullaah then recited some of his poetry to Rasulullaah. Rasulullaah then recited Surah Ikhlaas and the Mu'awwadhatayn (Surahs Falaq and Naas) to him. He accepted islaam on the spot and then returned to his people. The narration then goes on to speak about his whip and its light. The narrator mentions further that Hadhrat Tufayl then invited his parents to Islaam. His father accepted Islaam but his mother did not. When he invited his tribesmen, it was only Hadhrat Abu Hurayra who accepted.

Thereafter, Hadhrat Tufayl went to Rasulullaah and said, "Would you like a fortified stronghold with strong defences?" he was referring to the territory of the Dows tribe (which he wanted Rasulullaah to take hold of after cursing the Dows tribe). However, when Rasulullaah made du'aa for the Dows tribe instead, Hadhrat Tufayl said, "This is not what I wanted." Rasulullaah said, "There are many of them who are just like you."

Amongst the Dows tribe was a person called Jundub bin Amr bin Humama bin Auf who used to say during the Period of Ignorance, "I know that the Creation has a Creator but I do not know who it is." When he heard of Rasulullaah we along with seventy five men of his tribe and they all accepted Islaam. Hadhrat Abu Hurayra narrates that Jundub placed each man individually before Rasulullaah

(Apart from the above,) Many narrations have already passed (that are also relevant to this discussion) such as the narrations mentioning the Da'wah Hadhrat Ali was gave to the Hamdaan tribe⁽³⁾, the Da'wah Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed was gave to the Banu Haarith bin Ka'b⁽⁴⁾ tribe and the Da'wah Hadhrat Abu Umaama was gave to his tribe⁽⁵⁾

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Dalaa'il (Pg.78) as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.100). Commentary on the chain of narrators is mentioned in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.225). Ibn Sa'd has also narrated the Hadith.

⁽²⁾ Isti'aab (Vol.2 Pg.232).

⁽³⁾ In the chapter entitled "Rasulullaah Wis dispatches groups to give Da'wah" under the subheading "Rasulullaah Wis dispatches Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Wis to Yemen".

⁽⁴⁾ In the chapter entitled "Rasulullaah 總確 dispatches groups to give Da'wah" under the subheading "Rasulullaah 總確 dispatches Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 金融等 to Yemen".

⁽⁵⁾ In the chapter entitled "Rasulullaah dispatches individuals to give Da'wah" under the

The Sahabah William Dispatch Individuals and Groups to Give Da'wah

Hadhrat Hishaam bin Al Aas (and others are sent to Heraclius

Hadhrat Hishaam bin Al Aas Umawi (during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (during)) he and another person were sent with the invitation to Islaam to Heraclius the Emperor of Rome. He says that when they arrived at Ghowtha meaning Damascus, they went to see Jabala bin Ayham Ghassaani who happened to be lying on his bed at the time. He sent a messenger to speak to them. When the messenger came, the Sahabah (him) said, "By Allaah! We shall never speak to a messenger for we have been sent to see the king. If he grants permission, we shall speak to him but not to a messenger." When the messenger returned to the king with the news, he permitted them to enter and to speak. Hadhrat Hishaam bin Al Aas (him) spoke to him and invited him to accept Islaam.

The king was wearing black clothing. When Hadhrat Hishaam bin Al Aas asked him why he was dressed in that manner, he replied, "I have vowed never to remove this clothing until I expel you from Shaam." The Sahabah said to him, "By Allaah! We shall soon be taking from you this place where you sit and we shall also be taking the kingdom of your high emperor (Heraclius), Inshaa Allaah! Our Rasul Muhammad has informed us of this." The king said, "You are not those people. They will be people who fast during the day and stand in worship during the night." The narration continues further and will Inshaa Allaah be quoted in the chapter dealing with the help received from the unseen. (1)

Hadhrat Moosa bin Uqba narrates that Hadhrat Hishaam bin Al Aas (Hadhrat Nu'aym bin Abdillaah (Hadhrat Abu and another person whom the narrator did name were sent to the Emperor of Rome during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Hadhrat Hishaam (Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Hadhrat Hishaam (Hadhrat Hoose (Hadhrat Hishaam (Hadhrat Hishaam (Hadhrat Hadhrat Hishaam (Hadhrat Hadhrat Hishaam (Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hishaam (Hadhrat Hadhrat H

The Sahabah Semily send Letters to Invite Towards Allaah and Islaam

Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Haarith Sudaa'ee Sends a Letter to his People

Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Haarith Sudaa'ee 🐯 narrates that he met Rasulullaah subheading "Rasulullaah 認識 dispatches Hadhrat Abu Umaamah 認識 to his people the Baahilah tribe".

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi as quoted in The Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.2 Pg.251).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Dalaa'il (Pg.9).

Accepted and pledged his allegiance to Islaam at the hand of Rasulullaah He then heard that Rasulullaah had already dispatched an army to his people. He said, "O Rasulullaah He! Call the army back for I take the responsibility of ensuring that my people accept Islaam and remain obedient." When Rasulullaah He told him to go and call the army back and he was forced to excuse himself because his camel was too slow. Rasulullaah he then sent someone else who called them back.

Hadhrat Ziyaad which wrote a letter to his people in response to which a delegation came to inform Rasulullaah which that they had accepted Islaam. Rasulullaah which said to Hadhrat Ziyaad which, "Dear Sudaa'ee brother! It appears as if your people really obey you." Hadhrat Ziyaad which replied, "(I cannot accept the credit because) It was Allaah Who has guided them to Islaam." Rasulullaah which then asked, "Can I appoint you as their leader?" When Hadhrat Ziyaad which accepted, Rasulullaah who wrote a letter to confirm his appointment. Hadhrat Ziyaad which then asked Rasulullaah which to reserve a share of the zakaah for them. Rasulullaah was agreed and then wrote another letter in this regard.

Hadhrat Ziyaad continues to relate that all this occurred during one of Rasulullaah pourneys. When Rasulullaah camped at a place, the people there came to him and complained about the person who was appointed to collect their zakaah. They told Rasulullaah that because there had been some friction between their tribe and his during the Period of Ignorance, he was being harsh with them. Rasulullaah asked, "Is he really doing this?" "Yes," they confirmed. Rasulullaah then turned to the Sahabah with Hadhrat Ziyaad amongst them and said, "There is no good for a Mu'min in being appointed as a leader." Hadhrat Ziyaad says that this statement lingered in his heart.

Another person later came to Rasulullaah to ask for something. Rasulullaah said, "The person who begs from people despite possessing sufficient wealth, his begging shall earn him nothing besides a headache and stomach disease." The person then asked to be given from the zakaah money. Rasulullaah said to him, "Allaah does not sanction the command of a Nabi or anyone else regarding the distribution of zakaah but issues the command Himself. Allaah has distributed it into eight parts so if you are amongst the eight, I shall give you." Hadhrat Ziyaad says that it then occurred to him that he had asked for zakaah even though he had sufficient wealth.

The Hadith then continues to a point where Hadhrat Ziyaad says that after Rasulullaah had completed salaah, he approached Rasulullaah with the two letters saying, "O Rasulullaah see! Absolve me of these two." Rasulullaah saked, "What has happened to you?" He replied, "O Rasulullaah say I I heard you say that there is no good for a Mu'min in being appointed as a leader and I am a Mu'min who believes in Allaah and His Rasool. I also heard you say to the beggar that the person who begs from people despite possessing sufficient wealth, his begging shall earn him nothing besides a headache and stomach disease. I had asked from you despite having sufficient wealth."

Rasulullaah said, "That being as it is, you still have the option to either accept it to leave it." Hadhrat Ziyaad said, "I would rather leave it." Rasulullaah then said to him, "Show me someone whom I may appoint as your leader." Hadhrat Ziyaad pointed out one of the persons who had come with the delegation and Rasulullaah appointed him as the leader. (1)

Hadhrat Bujayr bin Zuhayr bin Abi Sulma Writes a Letter to his Brother Ka'b

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Ka'b narrates that the two sons of Zuhayr who were Bujayr and Ka'b left on a journey and had reached a spring called Abraqal Azzaaf. Bujayr then said to Ka'b, "Stay here with the animals. I am going to see that person (Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah)) and hear what he has to say." Ka'b stayed and Bujayr left to meet Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah). Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah) presented Islaam to him and he accepted. When the news reached Ka'b, he recited a few couplets which mean:

"Will you not convey this message to Bujayr

Woe be on another (Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1966)). To what has he led you?

He has led you to a way on which you will not find your parents

Neither will you find your brother

Abu Bakr has made you drink from a terrible cup

That slave has made you drink from it time and time again"

When Rasulullaah heard about these couplets, he permitted Ka'b's execution when he said, "Whoever finds Ka'b should kill him!" Bujayr wrote to Ka'b informing him that Rasulullaah had ordered his execution. He also wrote, "Save yourself! However, I do not think that you will be able to escape."

Bujayr later wrote back to Ka'b saying, "Rasulullaah accepts the word of anyone who comes to him to testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's Rasul. You should therefore accept Islaam and come here as soon as this letter reaches you." Ka'b accepted Islaam and recited a poem in praise of Rasulullaah is. He then came (to Madinah) and sat his mount down at the door of the Masjid. He then entered the Masjid where he found Rasulullaah is sitting in the middle of the Sahabah is just as a tablecloth is placed at the center with people sitting around it. The Sahabah thronged around Rasulullaah forming several rings. At times, he turned towards a group while addressing them and at other times he turned towards another group.

Hadhrat Ka'b himself says, "I sat my mount down at the door of the Masjid and recognised Rasulullaah by his features. I took a few steps forward and sat by him where it declared that I had accepted Islaam when I said, ⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.83). Baghawi and Ibn Asaakir have also reported the narration at length and verified its authenticity as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.37). Ahmad has also reported it as mentioned in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.557) as did Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.204) has commented on the chain of narrators.

'I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that you are Allaah's Rasul. I seek amnesty, O Rasulullaah !!" Rasulullaah asked, "Who are you?" "I am Ka'b bin Zuhayr." Rasulullaah said, "Was it you who said..." He then turned to Hadhrat Abu Bakr said asked, "What was it that he said, O Abu Bakr?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr recited the couplet which meant, "Abu Bakr has made you drink from a terrible cup. That slave has made you drink from it time and time again."

Ka'b interjected by saying, "I did not say it like this, O Rasulullaah "I"."
"Then how did you say it?" asked Rasulullaah "I. Ka'b said, "I said (he then altered a few words to compose a couplet which meant) 'Abu Bakr has made you drink from a quenching cup. That trustworthy man has made you drink from it time and time again." Rasulullaah "I then said, "By Allaah! He certainly is a trustworthy man." Ka'b then recited the entire poem he had composed, which will be quoted shortly. (1)

Hadhrat Moosa bin Aqba says that Hadhrat Ka'b bin Zuhayr recited his poem "Baanat Su'aad" to Rasulullaah in his Masjid in Madinah until he reached the couplets which meant:

"Without doubt, Rasulullaah is a sword from which light is derived And a drawn rapier from amongst the swords of Allaah.

He was with some youths of the Quraysh who had accepted Islaam When one of them said (to the Kuffaar), 'Move out of the way!"

Rasulullaah then signalled to the Sahabah with his sleeve for them to listen attentively.

The narrator says that Hadhrat Bujayr which had written to his brother Ka'b to warn him and to invite him to accept Islaam. He also wrote a few couplets in the letter which meant:

"Who will convey the message to Ka'b? Is he inclined towards that which he wrongly criticised whereas it is most resolute
Come to the One Allaah and not towards Uzza nor Laat
Then you will attain salvation if you do this and will remain safe
You will then attain salvation on the day when none shall escape from the Fire except the pure-hearted Muslim
The religion of (our father) Zuhayr is nothing but falsehood
And the religion of (our grandfather) Abu Sulma is forbidden to me" (2)

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed William Writes to the People of Persia

Hadhrat Abu Waa'il (1986) narrates (3) that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (1986) wrote the following letter to the Persian people, inviting them to Islaam.

(1) Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.579).

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.582). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.583) and Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.394) have commented on the chain of narrators. Others have also narrated the Hadith as mentioned in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.395) and Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.382).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.310) has commented on the chain of narrators. Haakim has also reported a similar narration in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.299).

In the name of Allaah The Most Kind The Most Merciful From Khaalid bin Waleed

To Rustam, Mahraan and the Persian leadership

Peace be on those who follow the guidance.

We invite you to accept Islaam. Should you refuse, you may pay the Jizya by hand as subjects. If you refuse even this, then I have people with me who love to be killed while fighting in the path of Allaah more than you Persians love wine.

Peace be on those who follow the guidance.

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Wiles Writes to the People of Madaa'in

Hadhrat Sha'bi Anarrates that Banu Buqayla read to him the letter that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed William wrote to the people of Madaa'in. It read:

From Khaalid bin Waleed
To the Persian leadership

Peace be on those who follow the guidance.

All praises belong to Allaah Who has fragmented your unity, taken away your kingdom and weakened your plans. Take note that whoever performs our salaah, faces our Qibla and eats what we slaughter, he is a Muslim who shall enjoy the privileges we have and also bear the responsibilities we bear.

After this I wish to add that when this letter reaches you, you should send securities to me (to ratify our peace agreement) and you may rest assured that I shall give you your protection. Otherwise, I swear by the Being besides Whom there is no other deity that I shall dispatch against you people who love death as you love life.

When the Persians in the Madaa'in district read this letter, they were taken aback. This occurred in the year 12 A.H. (1)

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Writes to Hurmuz

Imaam Sha'bi Says⁽²⁾ that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Wrote a letter to Hurmuz before he left with Uzaadhiba the father of Ziyaadhiba, who was from Yamaamah. In those days, Hurmuz was in charge of defending the Persian borders. The letter read:

Accept Islaam and you will remain safe. Otherwise you may subject yourself and your people to our protection and accept to pay the Jizya. If not, you have none but yourself to blame for I shall march with people who love death as much as you people love life.

⁽I) Ibn Jareer (Vol.2 Pg.553).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer in his Taareekh (Vol.2 Pg.554).

Another narration⁽¹⁾ states that when Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed conquered one of the two regions of Iraq's fertile plains, he summoned a person from the people of Heera. With this person he sent a letter to the Persians who were scattered in different groups in Madaa'in and taking support from each other after the death of (their leader) Ardsher. However, they had appointed Bahman Jaadhway as their leader stationed in a place called Buharseer where he commanded the army's frontline. With Bahman Jaadhway was Uzaadhiba and several other generals.

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed summoned another person from Salooba and sent two letters with the two envoys. One letter was addressed to the senior leadership while the other was addressed to the regular commanders. The one envoy was therefore from Heera while the other was a Nabti (from the non-Arab settlers of Iraq). When Hadhrat Khaalid saked the envoy from Heera what his name was, the man said that it was Murra (meaning 'bitter'). Hadhrat Khaalid said to him, "Take this letter to the Persians. Perhaps Allaah shall make their lives bitter or they shall accept Islaam and turn in repentance (to Allaah)." Hadhrat Khaalid then asked the Nabti envoy what his name was. When the man said that it was Hizqeel (derived from a word similar to one that means 'to destroy'), Hadhrat Khaalid told him to deliver the letter and then prayed, "O Allaah! Destroy them." Ibn Jareer says that the two letters contained the following:

In the name of Allaah The Most Kind The Most Merciful From Khaalid bin Waleed To the Persian royal family

All praises belong to Allaah Who has thrown your establishment in mayhem, Who has weakened your plans and fragmented your unity. It would have been worse for you if He had not done this. Enter our Deen and we shall leave you and your land and pass by you to proceed to other people. Otherwise (if you do not willingly enter the Deen) you will still be subject to our authority and forced to suffer defeat at the hands of people who love death like you love life.

In the name of Allaah The Most Kind The Most Merciful From Khaalid bin Waleed To the Persian leaders

Accept Islaam and you may live in peace. If not, you may submit to my protection and pay the Jizya. Otherwise I shall march to you with people who love death more than you people love to drink wine."

The Sahabah Give Da'wah in the Battlefield During the Time of Rasulullaah

The Da'wah that Hadhrat Haarith bin Muslim Tameemi Will Gave

Hadhrat Haarith bin Muslim Tameemi narrates that Rasulullaah once sent them on a military expedition. When they reached the place they intended to attack, he spurred his horse and soared ahead of the others. However, the people of the town were weeping as they met them. Hadhrat Haarith bin Muslim said to them, "Say 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah' and you will be saved." The people then said what they were told. When the other Sahabah arrived there, they rebuked Hadhrat Haarith bin Muslim and said, "You have deprived us of the booty after it already become cold in our hands."

When they returned to Madinah and mentioned the incident to Rasulullaah he called Hadhrat Haarith bin Muslim and congratulated him for what he had done. Rasulullaah also told him that Allaah had granted him tremendous rewards for every one of the people of the town. One of the narrators by the name of Abdur Rahmaan says that it was he who forgot the specific rewards that Rasulullaah mentioned. Rasulullaah then said to him, "I shall write a bequest in your favour to all the Muslim leaders who come after me." Rasulullaah did did so, sealed the letter and handed it over to him. Thereafter, Rasulullaah said to him, "When you have performed your Fajr salaah, recite seven times:

"O Allaah! Save me from the Fire" أَلَلُّهُمَّ أَجِرُنِي مِنَ النَّادِ

If you die during that day, Allaah shall record your safety from the Fire. Then when you have performed your Maghrib salaah, again recite seven times:

"O Allaah! Save me from the Fire" النَّادِ مِنَ النَّادِ مِنَ النَّادِ

If you die during that night, Allaah shall record your safety from the Fire."

Hadhrat Haarith bin Muslim says, "When Allaah took Rasulullaah way, I went to Hadhrat Abu Bakr who opened the seal, read the letter and gave me some wealth (as Rasulullaah instructed). Thereafter, he sealed the letter. Afterwards (after the death of Hadhrat Abu Bakr word) I went to Hadhrat Umar who who did the same. Thereafter, I went to Hadhrat Uthmaan who was the Khalifah) and he did exactly the same."

Muslim bin Haarith says, "(My father) Hadhrat Haarith bin Muslim passed away during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Uthmaan and the letter stayed with us until Hadhrat Umar bin Abdul Aziz became the Khalifah. He wrote a letter to the governor of the region where we stayed instructing him to send Muslim the son of Haarith bin Muslim to him with the letter that Rasulullaah had written for his father. When I was sent to him, he read the letter, ordered that I be given some wealth and then sealed it." (1)

Hasan bin Sufyaan and Abu Nu'aym as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.28) and Muntakhab (Vol.5 Pg.162).

The Da'wah that Hadhrat Ka'b bin Umayr Ghifaari Gave

Hadhrat Zuhri with a group of fifteen men. They rode to a place in Shaam called Dhaat Itlaa where they encountered a very large concentration of people. When they invited these people to Islaam, they refused to accept and started firing arrows at them. Seeing this, the Sahabah started fighting them most fiercely but all of them were martyred except one man who was left wounded amongst the dead. When night arrived, he somehow managed to get himself to Rasulullaah Rasulullaah was on the verge of sending a battalion after them when the news reached him that the people had moved on to another place. (1)

Ibn Abil Awjaa ﷺ Gives Da'wah

Imaam Zuhri Imaam Zuhri Imaam narrates that it was in Dhul Hijjah 7 A.H. that Rasulullaah ireturned from performing the Umrah he had missed. He then sent Hadhrat Ibn Abil Awjaa Sulami imaam on a military expedition with fifty horsemen. However, an enemy spy forewarned his people and informed them (about the Sahabah imaam). The people therefore prepared a very large army. When Hadhrat Ibn Abil Awjaa imaam arrived, they were already prepared (for battle). When he saw them all there, he invited them to accept Islaam but they started firing arrows at him without even listening. They said, "We have no need for what you are calling us towards." They continued firing arrows for a long time and reinforcements started pouring in until the Sahabah image were surrounded on all sides. The Sahabah in fought very fiercely until eventually most of them were martyred. Hadhrat Ibn Abil Awjaa image was seriously wounded but managed to carry himself back to Madinah along with the other survivors. They returned on the first of Safar 8 A.H. (2)

The Sahabah Give Da'wah in the Battlefield During the Time of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Will who Advised his Commanders to do so

" Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) Instructs his Commanders to give Da'wah When he Dispatched Armies to Shaam

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyab එක්ක්රීම් narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr

⁽¹⁾ Waaqidi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.241). Ibn Sa'd has also reported the narration in his Tabaqaat (Vol.2 Pg.127). Many others have also reported it as mentioned in isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.301). These narrations mention that Hadhrat Ka'b bin Umayr was also martyred on that day and that the incident occurred in Rabee'ul Awwal 8 A.H.

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.235). Ibn Sa'd has also narrated it in his Tabaqaat (Vol.2 Pg.123).

sent armies to Shaam, he appointed Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abi Sufyaan Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas and Hadhrat Shurahbeel bin Hasana as commanders. When they were mounted, Hadhrat Abu Bakr walked with them up to Thaniyyatul Wadaa to see them off. The commanders said, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah you are walking while we ride?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "I am taking these steps with the intention of being rewarded for taking them in the path of Allaah."

He then advised them saying, "I advise you to be ever-conscious of Allaah. Wage war in the path of Allaah and fight all those who reject Allaah. Indeed, Allaah shall assist His Deen. Do not steal from the booty, do not deceive, do not be cowardly, do not spread corruption on earth and do not go against your orders. If Allaah decrees that you meet the enemy who are Mushrikeen, invite them to accept one of three options. Should they accept any of the option, acknowledge it and refrain from harming them. (Firstly) Invite them to accept Islaam. If they accept, acknowledge it and refrain from harming them. Thereafter (if they accept Islaam) invite them to move from their homes to the home of the Muhaajireen. If they are prepared to do this, inform them that they shall enjoy the privileges that the Muhaajireen enjoy and shall have to bear the same responsibilities that the Muhaajireen bear. If after accepting Islaam they prefer their own homes to that of the Muhaajireen, inform them that they will assume the status of the Muslims in the outlying areas. The injunctions that Allaah has enjoined for all Muslims shall still apply to them but they shall receive no share of Fay(1) or booty unless they participate in the battle."

"However, if they refuse to enter the fold of Islaam then invite them to (the second option which is to) pay the Jizya. If they accept, acknowledge it and refrain from harming them. If they refuse this, then (the third course of action is that you) entreat Allaah for help and fight them if this is what Allaah decrees. (When you are fighting) You should never chop down or burn any date palms nor destroy any animals or any fruit-bearing trees. Do not destroy any places of worship or kill any children, elderly people or women. You will also find people who have secluded themselves in monasteries. Leave them to that which they have secluded themselves. You will also find people who have made nests for Shaytaan on their heads. (3) When Allaah decrees that you find these people, cut off their heads.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Simon's Instructions to Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (Simon when he Sent him to Fight the Murtaddeen

Hadhrat Urwa 劉節節 narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉節節 sent Hadhrat

(1) The booty received from conquered lands when the enemy surrenders without a fight.

⁽²⁾ They always entertain the whispers of Shaytaan and do as he commands. It may also refer to people who have shaved off the top part of their hair in the shape of a nest as a form of recognition.

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.85) and Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.295). Many others have also narrated it as mention in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.295,296).

Khaalid bin Waleed to fight those Arabs who had forsaken Islaam (the Murtaddeen), he instructed him to invite them back to Islaam and to explain to them their privileges and responsibilities. Hadhrat Abu Bakr deagerly desired that they receive guidance and also instructed Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed that the should acknowledge their acceptance whether they are white or black. He said that this was because the only people to be fought were those who chose to disbelieve in Allaah rather than believe in Him. Once a person accepted Islaam and displays sincere Imaan, there was no way to harm him because Allaah shall judge him. Only those Murtaddeen were to be fought who do not accept the Islaam they are invited towards. (1)

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Gives Da'wah to the people of Heera

Hadhrat Saalih bin Kaysaan Allaah narrates that when Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Arrived in Heera, the nobles of Heera accompanied by Qabeesa bin Ayaas bin Hayya Taa'ee left to meet him. Qabeesa had been appointed governor of Heera by the Kisra after Nu'maan bin Mundhir. Addressing Qabeesa and the others, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed said, "I invite you towards Allaah and towards Islaam. If you accept, you shall be part of the Muslim Ummah and shall enjoy the privileges that the Muslims enjoy and shall have to bear the same responsibilities that the Muslims bear. If you refuse, you will have to pay the Jizya. If you refuse even this, then bear in mind that I have come with people who are greedier for death than you are for life. We shall then fight you until Allaah decides the matter between us."

Qabeesa said to him, "We have no need to fight you. We shall remain as adherents to our religion and pay you the Jizya." Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed then entered into an agreement, with them to pay seventy thousand Dirhams. (2)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed said to them, "I invite you to Islaam and to testify that there is none worthy of worship but the One Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul. I call you to establish salaah, to pay zakaah and to accept all the injunctions binding on the Muslims. In exchange you shall enjoy the privileges that the Muslims enjoy and shall have to bear the same responsibilities that the Muslims bear." Haani asked, "If I do not accept this, then what?" Hadhrat Khaalid if replied, "If you do not accept this, you shall have to pay the Jizya by hand." "And if we refuse to do this?" was the next question. "Then," replied Hadhrat Khaalid you refuse even this, such people shall crush you underfoot to whom death is more beloved than life is to you."

Haani requested, "Allow us the night to think the matter over." Hadhrat Khaalid granted the request. The next morning, Haani came back to Hadhrat Khaalid was and said, "We have decided to pay the Jizya. Let us now enter into an agreement." The narration continues. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.201) as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.143).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer Tabari (Vol.2 Pg.551)

Another narration adds that when the two armies faced each other before the Battle of Yarmook, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah and Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abi Sufyaan together with Hadhrat Diraar bin Azoor for Hadhrat Haarith bin Hishaam and Hadhrat Abu Jandal bin Suhayl stepped forward and announced, "We want to meet your leader." When they were permitted to meet Tadhaaruk (the brother of Heraclius), they found him sitting on a tent made of silk. The Sahabah said, "It is not permissible for us to enter this." Tadhaaruk then had a silken rug spread out for them but they refused to sit on it. He then sat where they chose to sit. They agreed to enter into a treaty and the Sahabah returned after inviting him to accept Islaam. However, the treaty did not materialise (and the battle was fought). (2)

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (invited the Roman Commander Jarja to Islaam and he Accepts

Waaqidi reports that during the Battle of Yarmook, one of the most senior Roman commanders by the name of Jarja stepped forward from the line of soldiers and asked to meet Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed William. Hadhrat Khaalid went to meet him and drew so close that the necks of their horses met. The following conversation ensued:

Jarja: O Khaalid! I want you to tell me something, but do speak the truth and do not lie because a free man never lies. Do not deceive me either because a respectable person never deceives someone who trusts him. Has Allaah given your Nabi a sword from the heavens which he has given to you by virtue of which you defeat anyone against whom you draw it?

Hadhrat Khaalid (No

Jarja: Then why are you called the sword of Allaah ('Sayfullaah')?

Hadhrat Khaalid (Allaah sent His Nabi amongst us who preached to us. However, we expressed resentment and kept our distance from him. Even I was amongst those who treated him like a liar and ostracised him. Thereafter, Allaah seized our hearts and forelocks and guided us through him. We then pledged allegiance to him. He once said to me, 'You are a sword from the swords of Allaah whom Allaah has drawn against the Mushrikeen.' He then prayed to Allaah to assist me. This is why I am called the sword of Allaah. I am therefore amongst the sternest of Muslims against the Mushrikeen.

Jarja: O Khaalid! Towards what do you call?

Hadhrat Khaalid (We call people to testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad (is Allaah's servant and Rasul. We also call them to accept everything that Rasulullaah (has brought from Allaah.

Jarja: What about those who do not accept this?

Hadhrat Khaalid 劉節節: They will have to pay the Jizya and we will protect them.

⁽¹⁾ Bayhagi (Vol.9 Pg.187).

⁽²⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.7 Pg.9).

Jarja: What if they do not pay it?

Hadhrat Khaalid 经减少: We then declare war against them and fight.

Jarja: What is the status of a person who accepts what you say and enters the fold of your religion?

Hadhrat Khaalid (We all share the same status with respect to the injunctions that Allaah has made binding on us regardless of whether we have a high social standing or not and regardless of whether we accepted Islaam earlier or later.

Jarja: Will a person entering Islaam today have the same reward as yourself? Hadhrat Khaalid (Certainly! In fact, his rewards shall be greater.

Jarja: How can such a person be rated equal to you when you have accepted Islaam before him?

Hadhrat Khaalid (Week): We had no option but to accept Islaam because our allegiance was pledged while our Nabi was alive and in our midst. Revelation from the heavens would come to him and he would recite the Qur'aan to us and show us miracles. For anyone who saw what we saw and who heard what we heard there was no option but to accept Islaam and to pledged allegiance to him. As for you people, you have not seen the miraculous events and signs (of his Nabuwaat) that we saw and heard. Therefore, whoever of you will enter this Deen with sincerity shall be better than us.

Jarja: I swear by Allaah that you have been honest with me and did not deceive me either.

Hadhrat Khaalid (By Allaah! I have certainly spoken the truth and Allaah is Witness to the fact that I have responded to your questions to the best of my ability.

Jarja then turned his shield around (an indication that he did not intend fighting) and turned to Hadhrat Khaalid saying, "Teach me Islaam." Hadhrat Khaalid took him to his tent, poured a waterbag of water over him (to assist him to bath) and then led him as he performed two Rakaahs salaah. Thinking that the Muslims were scheming something when Jarja left with Hadhrat Khaalid so, the Romans launched an offensive that caught the Muslims completely by surprise. Every Muslim regiment was rooted from their position besides the Muhaamiya regiment led by Hadhrat Ikrama bin Abi Jahal and Hadhrat Haarith bin Hishaam for the Romans were already in the midst of the Muslim camp when Hadhrat Khaalid mounted his horse with Jarja following closely. The Muslims called to each other and managed to regain their foothold. The Romans were then forced to return to their base.

Hadhrat Khaalid then gradually advanced the Muslim army until they crossed swords with the enemy. Hadhrat Khaalid and Jarja continuously fought the Romans from noon until the sun was about to set. (The fighting was so fierce that) The Muslims performed the Zuhr and Asr salaahs with indications. Jarja was mortally injured in the battle (and passed away the same day). The only salaah he therefore performed for Allaah were the two he performed with

Hadhrat Khaalid (1) May Allaah shower His mercy on him. (1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (Singles) once delivered a lecture to the Muslims and encouraged them to go to the non-Arab countries and leave the Arabian lands. He also told them, "You have not seen the many types of foods that are there. By Allaah! Even if Jihaad in the path of Allaah and calling people towards Islaam were not obligatory for us and all we needed to do was earn a living, I would still propose that we fight for these fertile lands to gain control over it. We would then hand over hunger and hard living to those who are weighed down (at home) and not fighting as you are." (2)

The Sahabah Give Da'wah in the Battlefield During the Time of Hadhrat Umar Will who Advised his Commanders to do so

Hadhrat Umar William Writes to Hadhrat Sa'd William to Invite People to Islaam for Three Days

Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abi Habeeb narrates that Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab wrote to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas saying, "I have already written to you to tell you that you should invite people to Islaam for three days. Whoever accepts what you say before you start fighting shall be one of the Muslims. He shall enjoy the privileges of the Muslims and shall receive a share in the booty. However, whoever accepts Islaam after the battle or after being defeated, his wealth shall become part of the booty to be shared by the Muslims because they had already become its owners before he accepted Islaam. This is my instruction and the reason writing this letter." (3)

Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi Invites People to Islaam for Three Days at Qasrul Abyadh

Hadhrat Abul Bakhtari narrates that when a Muslim army under the command of Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi laid siege to a Persian fortresses, the soldiers said to him, "O Abu Abdullaah! Shall we not attack them?" Hadhrat Salmaan said, "Let me first invite them to Islaam as I have heard Rasulullaah do." Addressing the Persians, he then said, "I am a Persian like you and as you see, the Arabs obey me. If you accept Islaam, you shall enjoy the privileges that we enjoy and shall have to bear the same responsibilities that we bear. However, should you refuse to accept anything but your own faith, we shall not fight you but you will have to pay the Jizya by hand as subjects submitting to Muslim authority." Hadhrat Salmaan separated to them in Persian that they will then have no authority.

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.7 Pg.12). Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.260) contains some further commentary on the narration.

⁽²⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.6 Pg.345). Ibn Jareer (Vol.2 Pg.559) has also reported the narration from a different source.

⁽³⁾ Abu Ubayd as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.297).

Hadhrat Salmaan (The Persians said, "We are not the type to accept Imaan nor the type that will pay Jizya. We shall rather fight you." When the Muslim soldiers again requested permission to attack, Hadhrat Salmaan (February 1) refused until he had presented the same invitation for three days. It was only after this that he commanded the Muslims to attack, which they obligingly did and conquered the fortress. (1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi was the commander of the Muslim army and had been appointed to invite the enemy to Islaam. Hadhrat Atiyya was states that it was Hadhrat Salmaan who was also appointed to invite the people of Bahursher to Islaam and again given the task at Qasrul Abyadh. All of these people he invited to Islaam for three days. The Da'wah he presented is the same as mentioned in the Hadith above. (2)

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin and his Companions give Da'wah to Rustam During the Battle of Qaadisiyyah

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas sent a group of leading Sahabah to invite Rustam to Islaam. The group included Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin, Hadhrat Furaat bin Hayyaan, Hadhrat Handhala bin Rabee Tameemi, Hadhrat Utaarid bin Haajib, Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Qais, Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba and Hadhrat Amr bin Ma'dikarib selection. When Rustam asked them why they had come, they replied, "We have come because Allaah has promised us that we shall take over your lands, capture your women and children and take ownership of your wealth. We are convinced that this is going to happen."

Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba (1996) gives Da'wah to Rustam

Hadhrat Sayf narrates from his teachers that when the two armies (Muslim and Persian) faced each other, Rustam sent a message to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas requesting him to send someone intelligent with the knowledge to answer his questions. Hadhrat Sa'd sent Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba when Hadhrat Mughiera came to meet him, Rustam said to him, 'You are our neighbours. We have always been good to you and have never caused you any harm. Why do you rather not return to your land and we will not prevent you from trading with in our land."

Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.189). Ahmad and Haakim have also narrated the Hadith as mentioned in Nasbur Ra'ya (Vol.3 Pg.378)

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer (Vol.4 Pg.173) and Ibn Abi Shayba as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.298).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Katheer in his Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 7 Pg. 38).

Hadhrat Mughiera said to him, "We have no desire for this world. Our concern and our sole objective is the Aakhirah. Allaah has sent a Nabi to us and said to him, 'I shall give this group (Sahabah (Said)) control over those who do not adopt My Deen. Thus shall I use them to exact revenge from those who reject the Deen. I shall allow them to dominate as long as they adhere to the Deen. It is the true Deen and whoever turns away from it shall be disgraced. On the other hand, whoever holds fast to it shall have great honour."

Rustam asked, "What is this Deen?" Hadhrat Mughiera said, "Its pillars without which no part of it can be correct are testification that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah, that Muhammad is Allaah's Rasul and accepting everything that Rasulullaah has brought from Allaah." Rustam exclaimed, "How excellent! And what else?" Hadhrat Mughiera said, "To remove people from being slaves of people and to take them towards being the slaves of Allaah." Rustam remarked, "This is also excellent. What else?" Hadhrat Mughiera added, "All of mankind are the children of Aadam and have a single father and mother."

Rustam said, "This is also excellent. Tell me. If we were to enter your religion, would you then leave our land?" "Certainly," replied Hadhrat Mughiera "By Allaah! In that case, we shall not draw close to your land except for trade or some other necessity." Rustam said, "This is also excellent." The narrators says, "When Hadhrat Mughiera left Rustam, he spoke to his commanders about Islaam but they were unhappy and refused to accept Islaam. May Allaah destroy and disgrace them! In fact, Allaah did just that."

Hadhrat Rib'ee bin Aamir Invites Rustam to Islaam

The narrators state further that at the request of Rustam, Hadhrat Sa'd sent another envoy who happened to be Hadhrat Rib'ee bin Aamir saws. When Hadhrat Rib'ee sarrived, the court of Rustam had been decorated. There were cushions decorated with gold, rugs of silk, gleaming emeralds, priceless pearls and other elaborate decorations. Rustam wore his crown and other expensive garments and accessories as he sat on a throne of gold. Wearing old clothing, Hadhrat Rib'ee sentered with his sword, his shield and undersized horse. He continued riding the horse, even trampling on the edges of the rugs. He then dismounted and tied his horse on one of the couches. He then walked along with his weapons and armour still wearing his helmet.

When the courtiers asked him to remove his weapons, he said, "I have not come of my own accord but have come on your request. Either leave me as I am or grant me leave." Rustam instructed them to grant him entry and he came with his spear, which tore most of the rug as he walked while leaning on it. The courtiers asked, "What brings you here?" Hadhrat Rib'ee replied, "(We have not come on our own accord but) Allaah has sent us to remove those whom He wills from the slavery of man to take them to the slavery of Allaah, to remove them from the narrowness of this world towards its vastness and from the oppression of other religions towards the justice of Islaam. Giving us His Deen, Allaah has sent us to call His creation towards it. Whoever accepts it, we shall acknowledge it and leave him alone. As for those who refuse, we shall fight them forever until we reach Allaah's promised place."

They asked, "What is Aliaah's promised place?" He replied, "It is Jannah, which shall be the lot of people who die fighting those who reject (Islaam). Victory shall be the lot of those who survive." Rustam asked, "I have heard what you have to say. Will you allow us grace so that you and us may look into the matter?" "Certainly," Hadhrat Rib'ee responded, "How much time do you require? One day? Two days?" "No," said Rustam, "We need time to write to our consultative assembly and our leaders." Hadhrat Rib'ee said, "Rasulullaah has not set such a precedent that allows enemies more than three days respite at the time of battle. Look into the matter for your benefit and for the benefit of your people and then choose one of the three options before the expiry of the (three day) term." Rustam asked, "Are you the leader of your people?" "No," replied Hadhrat Rib'ee sweep, "but all Muslims are like a single body. The lowest of them may grant amnesty (to an enemy) which is binding on the highest of them."

Rustam gathered the leaders of his people and asked, "Have you ever heard words more powerful yet as gentle as those of that man?" They said, "Allaah forbid that you should have taken a liking to anything that he said and forsake your religion for that dog! Did you not see his clothing?" Rustam said to them, "Shame on you! Do not look at clothing but rather look at the prudence, the speech and the personality. The Arabs care little for clothing and food but are covetous about their lineage."

Hadhrat Hudhayfa bin Mihsin was and Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba was present the Da'wah to Rustam on the Second and Third Days

The next day, the Persians asked for another person and Hadhrat Sa'd sent Hadhrat Hudhayfa bin Mihsin who addressed them in the manner that Hadhrat Rib'ee did. On the third day, Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba was sent and he spoke to them in a very pleasant manner and in great detail. In their discussion, Rustam said to Hadhrat Mughiera ("Your coming to our land is like a fly that saw some honey and announced, 'Whoever takes me to the honey shall receive two Dirhams.' However, when the fly fell into the honey, it started drowning and could find no escape despite all its efforts. It then announced, 'Whoever removes me from the honey shall receive four Dirhams.' Your example is also like a weak fox that entered a vineyard through a hole in the wall. Seeing that it was so weak and frail, the owner of the vineyard took pity on it and left it alone, However, when the fox became fat, it started causing great damage to the vineyard so that owner came with a stick and sought help from two of his slaves. When the fox tried to escape through the hole, it was unable to do so because it had grown so fat and the owner of the vineyard hit it until it died. This is how you people will leave our land." Rustam then filled with rage and took an oath by the sun saying, "I shall kill you all tomorrow!"

Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba (almly said, "You will soon find out." Rustam then said to Hadhrat Mughiera (i), "I have issued the command that each of you should receive a set of clothing and that your commander should receive a thousand Dinaars together with a set of clothing and a conveyance. You should then leave us." Hadhrat Mughiera (You wish to do this after we have weakened your kingdom and diminished your respect? We have been a while in your kingdom and shall take the Jizya from you, which you shall pay by hand as subjects submitting to our authority. Regardless of what you think, you will soon become our slaves." When Hadhrat Mughiera (1)

Hadhrat Sa'd Sends a group of Sahabah Sends to give Da'wah to the Persian Leader Before Engaging in Battle

Hadhrat Abu Waa'il was narrates, "Hadhrat Sa'd was marched with the Muslim army until they set up camp at a place called Qaadisiyya. I cannot tell precisely but we numbered no more than seven or eight thousand while the Mushrikeen numbered thirty thousand." This is the figure according to this narration. However, according to a narration of Hadhrat Sayf⁽²⁾, the Kuffaar army numbered eighty thousand. Another narration places the figure of Rustam's army at a hundred and twenty thousand with another eighty thousand reinforcements. In addition to this, Rustam had thirty three elephants, led by the largest which was a white elephant belonging to Saaboor. All the other elephants obeyed this elephant. Like this narration, there are others citing various figures. (Because of their might) The Persians told the Sahabah was, "You have no strength, no power and no weapons to resist us. You should rather go back home."

Undeterred, the Sahabah reiterated that they were not going back. The Persians also laughed at the arrows of the Sahabah and would say, "Dook! Dook!" By this they compared the arrows to spindles (because "dook" is a Persian word referring to knitting needles). However, when the Sahabah refused to return, the Persians said, "Send to us one of your intellectuals to explaintouswhatbringsyouhere." Hadhrat Mughierabin Shu'ba volunteered for the task. When he went, he sat on Rustam's throne, causing the courtiers to snort and shout. Hadhrat Mughiera said to them, "This neither elevates my status nor reduces that of your leader." "True," said Rustam, "Now tell me why you have come?"

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.7 Pg.38). Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.105) has also narrated it and mentioned the detailed Da'wah that Hadhrat Zuhra, Hadhrat Mughiera, Hadhrat Rib'ee and Hadhrat Hudhayfa gave.

⁽²⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.7 Pg.38).

(To agitate Rustam,) Hadhrat Mughiera said, "We were a nation that were involved in evil and deviant acts. Allaah then sent a Nabi to us by means of which Allaah guided us and provided sustenance for us. Amongst the foods Allaah granted us were grains which grow in these parts. When we ate this and fed it to our families, they said, 'This is not sufficient. Take us to that land so that we may eat those grains.'" Rustam exclaimed, "We shall then kill you all!" Hadhrat Mughiera said, "If you kill us, we shall enter Jannah but if we kill (defeat) you, (those of) you (who die) will enter Jahannam and (those who survive will have to) pay the Jizya."

When Hadhrat Mughiera spoke about paying the Jizya, the courtiers snorted and shouted, "There can be no agreement between you and us!" Hadhrat Mughiera then asked, "Should we cross the river to come to you or will you be crossing the river to come to us?" Rustam said, "We shall be crossing over." The Muslim army then withdrew a short distance for the Persians to cross the river and then attacked them and defeated them. (1)

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Qurra was narrates that when the Battle of Qaadisiyya took place, Hadhrat Mughiera was sent to meet the Persian leader. Hadhrat Mughiera was asked for ten men who were then sent with him. He straightened his clothes, took his shield and then left. When they reached, Hadhrat Mughiera would told his companions to put down a shield, which he sat on. The large Persian commander said, "O Arabs! I know well what has brought you here. You people do not have sufficient food in your country to fill your bellies. We shall give all the food you need for we are fire-worshippers and do not like fighting you. You will only make our land impure."

Hadhrat Mughiera said to him, "By Allaah! This is certainly not the reason that brought us. We were a nation that used to worship stones and idols. Whenever we found a stone that looked better than another, we discarded the first one and adopted the next. We knew no deity until Allaah sent to us a Rasul from amongst our own people. He called us to Islaam and we followed him. We have not come for food but we have been commanded to fight those enemies of ours who reject Islaam. We have not come for food but have come to kill your soldiers and capture your families. As for what you have mentioned about the scarcity of food in our land, I swear by my life that we certainly do not have enough to fill our bellies and sometimes we do not even find anything to drink for a long while. However, after coming to your lands, we have found an abundance of food and water. By Allaah! We shall now not leave here until this land belongs either to you or us." The large Persian said in his language, "He has spoken the truth." He then said, "Your eye shall lose an eye tomorrow." (As Allaah decreed) Hadhrat Mughiera stray arrow struck him. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.7 Pg.40). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.451).

Hadhrat Sayf narrates that Hadhrat Sa'd sent a group of Sahabah to the Persian leader to invite him to Islaam before the battle. When they requested permission to see him, permission was granted and the people of the city came to have a look at their appearance. The Sahabah were wearing their shawls over their shoulders, carried their whips in their hands, were wearing sandals and their horses were extremely weak because of which they tread heavily on the ground. The people were struck with inexplicable astonishment when they saw them. They wondered how people like these could defeat their larger and well-equipped armies.

When the Sahabah were allowed to meet the Persian king Yazdajird, he made them sit in front of him. He was a haughty man who had little respect for others. He questioned them about the names of their garments, their shawls, their shoes and their whips. Each time they told him the name, he took an omen from them in his favour. However, Allaah ensured that each omen backfired against him. He then asked them, "What has brought you to our lands? Have you become bold because our civil war has started?"

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin 劉節節 said, "Allaah has showered his mercy on us when He sent a Rasul to us who guided us towards good and commanded us with virtue. He defined evil for us and forbade us from it. He promised us the good of this world as well as the Aakhirah if we accepted his call to good. Whenever he invited a tribe towards this, they divided into two groups, one that drew close to him and the other that distanced itself from him. It was only the few selected ones who drew close to him. He continued his preaching in this manner for as long as Allaah wanted him to. Thereafter, Allaah commanded him to tackle those Arabs who opposed him and he started with them (before proceeding to the non-Arabs). When he did this, they all joined him as two groups; those who were forced to join but were then happy that they had done so and those who did so happily and whose happiness then increased. We all realised that the Deen he called us towards was far superior to the hostility and the narrow lives we had been leading. He then instructed us to start tackling the nations around us and to invite them towards justice. We are therefore inviting you towards our Deen the Deen of Islaam which regards all good as good and all evil as evil. However, if you refuse (to accept Islaam), the options are two unpleasantries, the one being more demeaning than the other. The one option is to pay the Jizya and if you refuse, then the other is war. On the other hand, if you accept our Deen, we shall leave the Book of Allaah behind with you. We shall give you a grounding in it so that you may rule by its laws and we shall leave you to your affairs and your territories. If you wish to pay the Jizya, we shall accept it from you and give you protection. Otherwise (if you refuse Islaam and Jizya), we shall fight you."

Yazdajird said, "I do not know of any nation on earth that is more wretched then you people, fewer in number than you and experiencing as much internal strife as you people. We have already handed over to you the regions around you so that it may suffice for you from our side (so that you may be content with it and not need to come to our principle lands). The Persians have never fought you so do not think that you can stand in their way. If your numbers have increased, let this never fool you about (thinking that you can overpower) us. If it is poverty that has called you here, we shall provide relief for you until you become prosperous. We shall also honour your leaders, provide clothing for you and appoint for you a king who will be kind towards you."
(1) Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.451). Haakim and Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.215) have both commented on the chain of narrators.

The Sahabah remained silent until Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba stood and said, "O King! These are all leaders of the Arabs and their aristocrats. They are all respectable people and it is only respectable people who show consideration for respectable people and who honour respectable people. Only they give importance to the rights of respectable people. They have not yet told you everything they were sent to tell you and have not replied to all of your questions. They have done well to do this and it is only people like them who can act this respectfully. You should rather be conversing with someone like me. I shall convey the message to you and they will testify to what I say."

Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba (continued, "By the way in which you have described us, it appears that you are unaware of our situation. Concerning the statement you made about our poor condition, (it is true because) there was none in a poorer condition than we had been. With regard to hunger, none suffered the hunger we suffered. Regarding them to be food, we used to even eat dung beetles, other insects, scorpions and snakes. As for our homes, it used to be the bare earth and our clothing consisted of only what we wove from the skins of camels and hairs of goats. Killing and oppressing each other was our way of life and there were even those amongst us who would bury his infant daughter alive because he disliked that she should share his food. Our condition in the past was exactly as I have described."

"Allaah then sent to us a man whom we knew and whose lineage we were well aware of. We were well acquainted with his personality and his place of birth. His land was the best of our lands, his lineage the best of our lineages, his family the best of our families and his tribe the best of our tribes. Despite the terrible conditions prevailing then, he was also the best person amongst us, the most truthful and most forbearing. When he called us towards Islaam, none of us accepted besides his childhood friend who became the Khalifah after him.

When he spoke, we said something else and when he told us the truth, we regarded them as lies. However, his followers increased while ours decreased. Whatever he said became reality and Allaah eventually inspired us to believe in him and to follow him. He then became our link with Allaah. Whatever he told us was actually from Allaah and whatever he commanded was actually Allaah's commands."

"He told us, 'Your Rabb says, 'I am the One Allaah Who has no partner. I have been existing when nothing else existed and everything besides My countenance shall eventually perish. I have created everything and everything shall return to me. My mercy has reached you and I have sent to you this man to guide you towards the path by which I shall save you from My punishment after you die and lead you to the home I have created, which is the Home of Peace (Jannah)." We testify that Rasulullaah certainly brought the truth from the True Allaah. Allaah also said, 'Whoever follows you in this Deen shall enjoy the privileges you enjoy and shall bear the responsibilities you bear. As for those who refuse to accept, propose the option of Jizya to him and then protect him as you would protect your own lives. You should then fight those who refuse even this. I shall be the Judge between you. I shall enter into My Jannah those of you who are martyred and those of you who survive shall have My assistance with them against those who oppose you."

Hadhrat Mughiera then issued the ultimatum to Yazdajird when he said, "You may choose to pay the Jizya if you wish, in which case you will live as subjects. You may also choose the sword if you wish. Otherwise, you are at liberty to save yourselves by accepting Islaam." Yazdajird retorted by saying, "You dare face me with these proposals!" Hadhrat Mughiera said, "I address whoever is speaking to me. Had another person been speaking to me, I would have presented them to him." Yazdajird burst out saying, "Had it not been for the principle that envoys cannot be killed, I would have surely killed you for you have no status in my estimation." Yazdajird then said (to his courtiers), "Bring me a basket of sand and place it on the head of the person of the highest birth amongst them. Then lead him to the outskirts of Madaa'in."

(Addressing the Sahabah (Addressing the Sahabah (Addressing the Sahabah (Addressing the Sahabah). Yazdajird said,) "Go back to your leader and inform him that I shall send Rustam to him who will bury him along with his army in the trenches of Qaadisiyyah. Those coming afterwards shall learn a lesson from what is to happen to him and to you people. I shall then send Rustam to your land and he shall torture you worse than Saaboor⁽¹⁾ did."

Yazdajird then asked, "Which of you is of the highest birth?" After a brief silence, Hadhrat Aasim bin Amr Wood volunteered to take the sand without consulting the others and said, "I am of the highest birth amongst them all. Let me carry the sand." "Is that so?" asked Yazdajird. When the other Sahabah word agreed, the basket of sand was placed on his neck. He carried it out of the palace and to the outskirts where he mounted his animal and loaded the basket on it. He then raced his mount to take it to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas word. He rode ahead of the other Sahabah word and passed by the gates of Qudays (a palace in Qaadisiyyah) calling, "Give the Ameer glad tidings of victory! Insha Allaah, we shall certainly be victorious!" Hadhrat Aasim word then rode on until he placed the sand on Arabian soil. Returning to Hadhrat Sa'd word, he informed him about what had happened. Hadhrat Sa'd word, "Glad tidings! By Allaah! Allaah has already given us the keys of their kingdom." The Muslims took a good omen from this that they would capture the lands of the Persians. (1)

⁽¹⁾ A prince from the Persian Sassanid dynasty who was extremely harsh towards the Arabs.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mu'tam Gives Da'wah to the Banu Taghlib Tribe and others During the Battle for Tikrit

Hadhrat Muhammad Amai, Hadhrat Talha Amai and others narrate that during the Battle for Tikrit, the Romans saw that every offensive they launched against the Muslims backfired on them and that they were defeated every time they clashed with the Muslims in battle. They therefore deserted their leaders and loaded their belongings on their boats (to leave the area). When the spies from the (Arab-Christian) Taghlib, Iyaad and Namir tribes brought the news to (the Muslim commander) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mu'tam Mai, they requested that he enter into a peace treaty with these Arab tribes and added that these tribes were willing to accept Islaam.

Hadhrat Abdullaah sent a message to them stating, "If you people are sincere, you should testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's Rasul. In addition to this, you should accept everything that Rasulullaah brought from Allaah. You should then inform us of your plan of action." The messengers went with the message and returned with news that the people had accepted Islaam. (2)

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Gives Da'wah During the Battle for Egypt

Hadhrat Khaalid was and Hadhrat Ubaadah was narrate that Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas was marched to Egypt after Hadhrat Umar show had returned to Madinah (from Shaam). Hadhrat Zubayr show followed him (with another battalion) and the two joined up when Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas show reached a place called Ilyoon. There they were met by the chief priest of Egypt Abu Maryam who was there with another high priest and the Egyptian army. Maqoqis (the king of Egypt) had sent them to defend the country. When Hadhrat Amr show arrived there, they immediately prepared to attack but Hadhrat Amr show sent a message telling them that they should not be hasty and should first listen to their reason for coming, after which they could make a decision. The Egyptians were then called off and Hadhrat Amr send a message stating, "I am coming forward (to talk), so send Abu Maryam and Abu Maryam should come forth. The Egyptians accepted and each party guaranteed the safety of the other."

Hadhrat Amr said to the two men, "You two are senior priests of this country, so do listen. Allaah has sent Muhammad with the truth and commanded us to follow it. Muhammad has conveyed this command to us together with every other command Allaah has issued. Muhammad then passed on. May Allaah's choicest blessings and mercies be showered on him.

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.7 Pg.41). Ibn Jareer Tabari 西海海河 (Vol.4 Pg.94) has also narrated it. (2) Ibn Jareer (Vol.4 Pg.186).

However, he fulfilled his duty and left us on a clear path. Amongst his instructions to us was to wish people well and we therefore invite you to accept Islaam. Whoever accepts shall be one of us and whoever refuses to accept shall be given the option of paying Jizya. We shall then do everything in our capacity to provide protection. Rasulullaah has informed us that we shall certainly conquer you people and advised us to be good to you to maintain the family ties that exist between us (1). If you accept this option (of paying Jizya), you shall have in your favour another right (of being family) in addition to the right of protection (that we will be obliged to give you). Amongst the commands that out Ameer had given are his words, "Treat the Copts well because Rasulullaah has advised that the Copts should be treated well by virtue of the fact that they are relatives and deserve protection as well."

To this, the Egyptians said, "It is only the Ambiyaa who would maintain such distant relations. (Referring to Haajira the wife of Hadhrat Ibraheem with, they said) She was a celebrated and honourable lady who was the daughter of our king. She belonged to the House of Manf who were the ruling family. However, the House of Aynush Shams attacked them, killed many of them, seized the kingdom and the rest of them were forced into exile. She then became the wife of Hadhrat Ibraheem with. His coming was most welcome and a happy event for us. Do leave us in peace until we return to you (after consulting with the others). Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas said, "You will be unable to fool the likes of me. You therefore have three days to ponder over the matter and to consult with your people. Otherwise (if you fail to return within three days) we shall have to attack you." When the two priests requested an extension of time, Hadhrat Amr gave them an additional day. They then asked for more time and he added another day.

They then returned to Maqoqis who seriously considered the alternatives. However, a person called Artaboon⁽²⁾ refused to submit and ordered an attack against the Muslims. The two priests said to the people, "We shall do our best to defend you without returning to the Muslims. However, there are still four days left in which we can hope for nothing but peace from them." The people of Farqab launched a surprise attack against Hadhrat Amr was and Hadhrat Zubayr at night but Hadhrat Amr was prepared for the attack. He engaged the enemy and killed the people of Farqab along with those with them (Artaboon was also killed with them), after which the rest of them fled. Hadhrat Amr and Hadhrat Zubayr then left for Aynush Shams. (3)

Hadhrat Abu Haaritha and Abu Uthmaaan narrate that when Hadhrat Amr set up camp at Aynush Shams, the Egyptian people said to their king, "What do you wish to do against people who have defeated Kisra and Caesar and occupied their lands? Enter into negotiations with them and draw up a treaty without yourself fighting them or leading us against them." This took place on the fourth day. However, the king refused and the Egyptians attacked the Muslims. The Muslims repulsed the attack and Hadhrat Zubayr managed to climb the wall of their stronghold. When the Egyptians noticed this, they opened the gates for Hadhrat Amr managed to came out to enter into negotiations. Hadhrat Amr accepted their submission and Hadhrat Zubayr descended the wall as conqueror. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Hadhrat Haajira the wife of Hadhrat Ibraaheem was from Egypt as was Hadhrat Maariya the mother of Rasulullaah ses son Ibraheem.

⁽²⁾ Aratboon was a Roman general whom Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (2) had defeated in Palestine and had then fled to Egypt.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Jareer (Vol.4 Pg.227).

The Sahabah Give Da'wah During a Battle under the Leadership of Hadhrat Salama bin Qais Ash'ja'ee

Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Buraydah narrates that whenever a Muslim regiment was gathered, the Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar appointed someone with knowledge and sound judgment as their commander. Therefore, he once appointed Hadhrat Salama bin Qais Ash'ja'ee as the Ameer of a particular regiment and addressed them saying, "March in the name of Allaah and for the pleasure of Allaah you should fight those who commit kufr. When you meet the enemy of Mushrikeen, invite them to accept one of three options. (Firstly) Invite them to Islaam. If they accept Islaam and choose to remain in their hometowns, then they will have to pay zakaah from their wealth and will have no share in the Fay that the Muslims receive. On the other hand, if they choose to join you, they will enjoy the same privileges that you do and will have to bear the same responsibilities that you bear. (Secondly) If they refuse to accept Islaam, call them to pay the Jizya. If they agree to pay the Jizya, then fight their enemies for them thereby freeing them to pay the Jizya and do not place responsibilities on them that are beyond their capability."

"(Thirdly) If they refuse even this, fight them for Allaah shall assist you against them. If they take refuge in a fortress and ask you to allow them to emerge on the conditions of Allaah and His Rasool (Allaah), do not allow them to emerge on these conditions because you do not know what instructions Allaah and His Rasool (Allaah) will issue concerning them. If they ask to be allowed to emerge into the protection of Allaah and His Rasool (Allaah), do not allow them this, but rather allow them to emerge into your protection. If they fight you, ensure that you do not steal from the booty, do not deceive, do not mutilate and do not kill any child."

Hadhrat Salama says, "We then marched and when we met the Mushrikeen enemy, we gave them the Da'wah as the Ameerul Mu'mineen had instructed. When they refused to accept Islaam, we called them to pay the Jizya, which they also refused. We then fought them and Allaah assisted us to defeat them. We killed their soldiers, captured their families and collected their wealth (as booty)." The narration continues in great detail. (2)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer (Vol.4 Pg.228).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer (Vol.5 Pg.9).

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Gives Da'wah to the People of Isfahan before Engaging them in Battle

Hadhrat Bau Umayya narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari set up camp at Isfahan, he invited the people to accept Islaam. When they refused to accept Islaam, he proposed the Jizya and they opted to enter into negotiations with him. Whereas they opted for peace that night, the following morning they betrayed the Muslims and launched a surprise attack. However, it was very soon that Allaah granted the Muslims victory over them. (1)

Incidents About the Character and Actions of the Sahabah that Inspired People to Accept Islaam

Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh 数隔鏡 Accepts Islaam and the Role that his son and Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal 数隔鏡 Played In this Ibn Is'haaq narrates that after some of the Ansaar had pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah (in Makkah), they came back to Madinah and Islaam started manifesting itself in Madinah. However, there were still those Mushrikeen amongst the Ansaar who adhered to their religion. Amongst these was Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh (in whose son Mu'aadh (in had also pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah (in at Aqaba. Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh (in was one of the leaders of the Banu Salma tribe and one of the most respected persons amongst them. As was the practice of the noble people of those times, Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh (in his house that he named Manaat. He regarded it to be his deity and always kept it clean.

After accepting Islaam, some of the youngsters of the Banu Salma tribe together with others who had pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah at Aqaba such as Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal and Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh some son Mu'aadh with the word of Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh at night and then throw it head first into one of the pits they used as a rubbish dump. In the mornings, Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh word used to say, "Woe be to those who have manhandled our god last night!" He would then go looking for the idol. When he found it, he would wash it, clean it thoroughly and apply perfume to it. Thereafter, he would say, "I swear by Allaah that if I found out who did this, I would certainly disgrace him." However, as soon as Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh went to sleep, the youngsters again repeated their deed.

One day, when they had carried out their deed once too often for him, he took the idol out from where they had thrown it after cleaning it and applying perfume, he hung his sword around its neck. He then said to it, "By Allaah! I have no idea who is doing this to you. However, if you have the courage, you should defend yourself for you now have this sword with you." When night fell and

Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh went to sleep, the youngsters again seized the idol and after removing the sword from its neck, they tied a dead dog to it and threw it into an unused well of the Abu Salma that will be full of rubbish. The following morning when Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh did did not find the idol in its place, he went out in search of it and found it lying on its head in the well with the dead dog tied to it. Seeing this, he realised the helplessness of the idol and after the Muslims of his tribe had spoken to him, he accepted Islaam, becoming an excellent Muslim. May Allaah shower His mercy on him. (1)

Another narration states that when a few members of the Banu Salma tribe accepted Islaam, the wife and son of Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh also accepted Islaam. Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh said said to his wife, "Do not allow any of the children to go to your family until I investigate what they are doing." She said, "I shall do as you say, but will you not listen to what your son has heard from that person (Rasulullaah)?" Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh said, "Perhaps he has become irreligious." "No," replied his wife, "he was merely one of the people." Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh then sent for his son and said, "Tell me what you have heard from that person." His son then recited:

بِسُسِمِ اللهِ الرَّحْمُنِ الرَّحِمُنِ اللهِ يَوْمِ الدِّيْنِ الْعَلَمُ الْاَعْمُنَ عَلَيْهِمُ لَا عَيْدِ وَاللَّاكِمُنَ الْمُسْتَقِيمَ لَى صِرَاطَ الَّذِيْنَ الْعَمْنَ عَلَيْهِمُ لَا عَيْدِ الْمُسْتَقِيمَ لَى صِرَاطَ الَّذِيْنَ الْعَمْنَ عَلَيْهِمُ لَا عَيْدِ الْمُسْتَقِيمَ لَا عَلَيْهِمُ اللهِ الصَّالَيْنَ فَي (سورة الفاتحة: ١ تاه)

All praise belongs to Allaah, the Rabb of the universe (and whatever it contains), Who is the Most Compassionate, the Most Merciful and Master of (all affairs on) the Day of Recompense (the Day of Qiyaamah, when resurrection, accountability, rewards and punishment will take place). You Alone do we worship, and You Alone do we ask for help. Guide us to the straight path (the path of Islaam)." (Surah Faatiha, verses 1-5)

Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh work His son said, "Even better than this, dear father. Do you wish to follow him? Most of your people are already doing so." Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh work said, "I shall not do so until I have consulted with Manaat and see what he says." When the Mushrikeen usually spoke to Manaat, an old woman used to stand behind the idol and speak on its behalf. However, the woman was not there when Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh work approached the idol. He stood by the idol, praised it excessively and then said, "O Manaat! You should know that you are being faced with a serious danger that you are unaware of. A man has arrived who forbids us from worshiping you and who instructs us to get rid of you. I did not want to pledge allegiance to him until I had consulted with you." Hadhrat Amr spoke to the idol for a long time but received no response. He then said, "You seem to be angry with me whereas I have done nothing impolite to you." He then stood up and broke the idol. (1)

Yet another narration adds that when Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh accepted Islaam and recognised the authority of Allaah, he composed some couplets speaking about the helplessness of the idols that he had experienced. He also thanked Allaah for saving him from the spiritual blindness and deviation that he was trapped in. (His couplets are translated as follows:)

"I repent to Allaah for the wrongs I had committed in the past

And I desire that Allaah rescue me from the fire of Jahannam

I praise Him for His bounties

He Who is the Rabb of the Kabah and its covering

May He be glorified to the extent of the numbers of sinners

And the extent of the raindrops falling from the skies

He guided me when I was in darkness

When I was worshipping Manaat and other stones

After my hairs had turned white because of old age, He saved me

From the blight of idol worship and its shame

I was on the verge of being totally destroyed in darkness

But He rescued me by His tremendous might

I therefore praise Him and thank Him as long as I live

He Who is the Rabbb of mankind and All Powerful over them

When I say these words my only desire is

To earn proximity to Allaah in His home (Jannah)" Condemning his idol, Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh (composed the following couplets, the meaning of which is:

"By Allaah! Had you, been a true god, you would never have been Right down a well, bound tightly to a dog

Curses to the place where you have been thrown, lying there in disgrace despite being a god

We have now discovered your tremendous harmfulness

All praises belong to the Exalted Allaah Who bestows favours

The Giver, the Sustainer and the One Who rewards every good practice

It was He Who rescued me

Before I became a grave trapped in darkness" (2)

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Accepts Islaam and the Role that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha Played In this

Waaqidi says that it is commonly believed that Hadhrat Abu Dardaa was the last person from his family to accept Islaam. He was extremely dedicated to the worship of his idol and kept it covered in a cloth. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha had been his bosom friend during the Period of name of each idol as he hymned the couplet:

⁽¹⁾ Narrated by Minjaab from Ziyaad who narrates from Ibn Is'haaq.

⁽²⁾ Narration of Ibraheem bin Salma also reported from Ibn Is'haaq.

Ignorance and now called him to accept Islaam, but he constantly refused. One day, when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha wow noticed Hadhrat Abu Dardaa leaving the house, he entered the house and surprised Hadhrat Abu Dardaa t's wife who was busy combing her hair. When he asked her where Hadhrat Abu Dardaa wow, she replied, "Your brother has just left." With an axe in his hand, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha then entered the room where the idol stayed and smashed it to bits. As he did this, he took the

"Behold! Everything that is worshipped besides Allaah is a fake"
Hadhrat Abu Dardaa t's wife had been hearing the noise of the axe and when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha emerged from the room, she burst out, "O son of Rawwaaha! You have ruined me!" He had just left the house when Hadhrat Abu Dardaa entered the house and found his wife sitting there crying out of fear for his reaction. When he asked her what was wrong, she said, "Your brother Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha came here by surprise and did what you see." Hadhrat Abu Dardaa flew into a towering rage but then thought to himself that if his idol was of any good, it would have defended itself. He then went to Rasulullaah who was with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha

The Letter that Hadhrat Umar Wood Wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Concerning Jizya and Prisoners of War

Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Jaz Zubaydi narrates a lengthy report about what happened after the Muslims conquered Alexandria during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar with this report he also mentions that they stopped at a place called Balheeb where they waited for the letter of Hadhrat Umar to reach them. When it arrived, Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas with read the letter to the Muslims, which stated:

Your letter has reached me with the news that the king of Alexandria has opted to pay the Jizya on condition that all the prisoners of his country are returned to him. By my life! The Jizya that we receive and that the Muslims after us shall receive is more beloved to me than the booty that is distributed and then finished. Suggest to the king of Alexandria that he should pay the Jizya on condition that the prisoners in your custody should be given the choice of either accepting Islaam or remaining faithful to their religion. Whoever amongst them accepts Islaam would become one of the Muslims and shall enjoy the privileges all Muslims enjoy together with bearing the responsibilities all Muslims bear. Those who choose the religion of their people shall have to pay the same amount of Jizya fixed for the people of his faith. As for those prisoners who have dispersed into Arabia and reached places like Makkah, Madinah or Yemen, we shall be unable to return them to him and we cannot enter into an agreement that we will be unable to fulfil.

⁽¹⁾ Haakim in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.336).

What the Sahabah did during the Conquest of Alexandria

Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Jaz states further, "Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas then sent a letter to the king of Alexandria, explaining to him the instructions that the Ameerul Mu'mineen had written to him. The king accepted the proposal and we then gathered all the prisoners with us. When all these Christian prisoners had gathered, we approached each one of them and allowed him to choose between Islaam and Christianity. When any of them accepted Islaam, we shouted 'Alaahu Akbar' louder than we did when conquering any town and took him into our protection. If any of them chose Christianity, the Christians would make a noise and take him into their protection. We would then impose the Jizya on him. When this happened, we were so grieved that it appeared as if one of us had defected to them. This continued until all the prisoners had been given the choice. Amongst those who came to us was Abu Maryam (whose name was) Abdullaah bin Abdur Rahmaan." Another narrator by the name of Qaasim says that he met Abu Maryam when he was chief of the Banu Zubayd tribe.

Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Jaz continues saying, "When we approached Abu Maryam whose parents and brothers were all Christians and gave him the choice between Islaam and Christianity, he opted to accept Islaam. As we took him into our protection, his parents and brothers darted across to pull him away from us and actually tore his clothing apart. However, he is now our chief as you can see." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Ali ('s Armour and his Interaction with a Christian who then Accepted Islaam

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that when (the Ameerul Mu'mineen) Hadhrat Ali once went to the marketplace, he found a Christian selling a coat of armour. Recognising the coat of armour, Hadhrat Ali said, "That armour belongs to me. Let us have the judge of the Muslims decide the matter between us." The presiding judge at that time was Qaadhi Shuray and Hadhrat Ali saked him to rule in the matter.

When Qaadhi Shuray saw the Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali (), he got up from his place and made the Ameerul Mu'mineen sit there. He then sat in front of the Ameerul Mu'mineen next to the Christian. Hadhrat Ali () said, "O Shuray! Had my adversary been a Muslim, I would have sat with him. However, I have heard Rasulullaah () say (about the non-Muslims living in a Muslim country), 'Do not shake hands with them, do not be first to greet them, do not visit them when they fall ill, do not perform their funeral prayers, make them use the narrow part of the pathway and keep them in a lowered position as Allaah has kept them in a lowered position'. Do pass judgement between us, O Shuray."

Qaadhi Shuray asked, "What do you have to say, O Ameerul Mu'mineen?" Hadhrat

Ali declared, "This coat of armour belongs to me. I had lost it a long time ago." Qaadhi Shuray then asked, "What have you to say, O Christian?" The Christian pleaded, "No. The Ameerul Mu'mineen is mistaken. The armour is mine." Qaadhi Shuray ruled, "The armour cannot be taken from the Christian unless you have proof (of your ownership, O Ameerul Mu'mineen)." Hadhrat Ali

The Christian then said, "As for me, I testify that it is certainly the judgement of the Ambiyaa that the Ameerul Mu'mineen can come to a judge under his power who passes judgement against him. O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I swear by Allaah that the armour belongs to you. As I walked behind you one day, the armour fell off your brown camel and I picked it up." He then declared:

"I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's Rasul."

Hadhrat Ali said to him, "Now that you have accepted Islaam, you may have it." The man then loaded it on his horse. (1)

A narration of Haakim states that the armour of Hadhrat Ali wood once fell off his camel and was found by a person who sold it. When the armour was found in the possession of a Jew, Hadhrat Ali took the case to Qaadhi Shuray. (Hadhrat Ali soos son) Hadhrat Hasan and his freed slave Qambar testified in fayour of Hadhrat Ali open of Hadhrat Ali open of Hasan." "Do you not accept the testimony of Hasan?" asked Hadhrat Ali open of Hasan." "Do you not accept the testimony of Hasan?" asked Hadhrat Ali open of Hasan. "No," replied Qaadhi Shuray, "but I recall that you told me that it is not permissible for a son to testify in favour of his father."

Hadhrat Yazeed Tameemi reports a lengthy narration in which he states that Qaadhi Shuray said to Hadhrat Ali Wee, "We shall accept the testimony of your freed slave but not that of your son." Hadhrat Ali Said, "Good grief! Have you not heard Umar report that Rasulullaah said, 'Hasan and Husayn shall be the leaders of the youth of Jannah?" Turning to the Jew, Hadhrat Ali then said, "You may have the armour, O Jew!" The Jew said in astonishment, "The Ameerul Mu'mineen takes the case before the judge of the Muslims who passes judgement against him and he still accepts it! O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I swear by Allaah that you have spoken the truth. The armour is yours. I picked it up when it fell off your camel." He then declared:

"I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's Rasul."

Hadhrat Ali then gave him the armour as a gift along with seven hundred Dirhams. The man then faithfully stayed close to Hadhrat Ali the was martyred in the Battle of Siffeen. (2)

⁽¹⁾ Tirmidhi and Haakim.

⁽²⁾ Haakim in Kunna and Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.4 Pg. 139) as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.6)

Chapter Two

The Chapter Concerning the Bay'ah (pledge of allegiance)

This chapter highlights how the Sahabah pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah and to the Khulafaa after Rasulullaah and the conditions on which they pledged their allegiance

Pledging Allegiance to Islaam

The Hadith of Hadhrat Jareer (in this Regard Hadhrat Jareer inarrates, "The condition on which we (the male Sahabah pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah was similar to the conditions on which the females pledged allegiance (1). Rasulullaah stood guarantee that any of us would enter Jannah if he died without perpetrating any of these sins. If anyone did perpetrate any of them before dying but the due Shari'ah punishment had been meted out to him, this would be a source of expiation for him. Whoever died after perpetrating any of these but his crime had been kept secret, Allaah shall decide his case (Allaah may then either forgive him or punish him)." (2)

The pledge of allegiance that Elders, Youngsters, Men and Women took on the Day that Makkah was Conquered

These conditions included not committing Shirk, not stealing, not committing fornication or adultery and other conditions as mentioned in verse 12 of Surah Mumtahina (Surah 60).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.36) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Jareer has also narrated the Hadith as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.82). This shall Insha Allaah appear in the chapter concerning the pledged of allegiance that women took.

Allaah's servant and Rasul. (1)

A narration of Bayhaqi adds that everyone from the youngsters to the elders as well as men and women all pledged their allegiance to Islaam and to the Shahaadah at the hands of Rasulullaah (2).

Hadhrat Mujaashi (and his Brother (b) pledge allegiance to Islaam and Jihaad

Hadhrat Mujaashi bin Mas'ood narrates that he and his brother went to Rasulullaah and he said, "Accept our pledge of allegiance to Hijrah." Rasulullaah said to them, "Hijrah (to Madinah) has finished with those who have already made Hijrah (the compulsion to migrate to Madinah no longer exists)." When Hadhrat Mujaashi saked what was it that he could pledge his allegiance to, Rasulullaah replied, "Pledge your allegiance to Islaam and to Jihaad." (3)

Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdillaah pledges allegiance to Islaam

Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Ilaaqa narrates that when Hadhrat Mughiera bin Shu'ba way, he heard Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdillaah address the people saying, "I advise you to fear the One Allaah Who has no partner and to remain graceful and calm. With these hands of mine did I pledge allegiance to Islaam at the hands of Rasulullaah and he stipulated that I always remain a well-wisher for every Muslim. I swear by the Rabb of the Kabah that I wish well for each one of you." He then sought forgiveness from Allaah and descended from the pulpit. (4)

Bayhaqi and others have narrated from Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Haarith Sudaa'ee that he approached Rasulullaah and pledged allegiance to Islaam. The rest of the Hadith has already been mentioned in the Chapter of Da'wah. (5)

Pledging Allegiance to the Injunctions of Islaam Hadhrat Basheer bin Khasaasiyyah Pledges Allegiance to the Fundamentals of Islaam as well as Sadaqah and Jihaad

Hadhrat Basheer bin Khasaasiyyah (Inc.) narrates that when he approached Rasulullaah (Inc.) Rasulullaah (Inc.) To

- Ahmad as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.318). Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.37) has commented on the chain of narrators.
- (2) Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.318). Tabraani has also quoted the Hadith as mentioned in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.6 Pg.37). Others have also narrated it as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.82).
- (3) Bukhari and Muslim as narrated by Allaama Ayni (Vol.7 Pg.16). Ibn Abi Shayba has also narrated the Hadith and added that when one of the narrators asked the brother of Hadhrat Mujaashi subset about the incident, he confirmed it. This is reported in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pgs.26,83).
- (4) Abu Awaana in his Musnad, Bukhari (Vol.) Pg.14) has narrated a more detailed account.
- (5) The Hadith is quoted under the heading "The Sahabah @ send Letters to Invite Towards what should I pledge my allegiance?" Rasulullaah stretched out his hand and said, "Testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul. Perform your five salaahs on their times, pay the obligatory zakaah, fast during the month of Ramadhaan, perform Haji and fighting in the path of Allaah."

Hadhrat Basheer said, "O Rasulullaah !! I can carry out all of these besides two of them. (The first is) Zakaah, for I possess only ten camels. The milk of which my family needs to subsist on and who are the only beasts of burden they have. (The second is) Fighting in Jihaad because I am a timid person. Since people say that the one who flees from the battlefield returns with the wrath of Allaah, I fear that when a battle is fought and I flee for fear of my life, I shall also return with the wrath of Allaah."

Rasulullaah then retracted his hand and shaking his hand said, "O Basheer! By virtue of what deed will you enter Jannah without zakaah and Jihaad?"

Hadhrat Basheer then said, "O Rasulullaah !! Extend your hand." When Rasulullaah !! Extend gour hand." When Rasulullaah !! Extend your hand."

Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdillaah pledges his allegiance to the Fundamentals of Islaam and wishing well for Every Muslim

Hadhrat Jareer was narrates that he pledged allegiance at the hand of Rasulullaah that he would establish salaah, pay zakaah and wish well for every Muslim. (2)

Another narration states from Hadhrat Jareer states that he said, "O Rasulullaah Do state the conditions (of the pledge) for you are best aware of the conditions." Rasulullaah said, "I require you to pledge that you would worship none but the One Allaah without ascribing any partners to Him, that you would establish salaah, pay zakaah, wish every Muslim well and absolve yourself from Shirk." (3)

Another narration states that when Hadhrat Jareer came to Rasulullaah Rasulullaah asked him to stretch out his hand (to pledge his allegiance). Hadhrat Jareer asked, "On what should I pledge my allegiance?" Rasulullaah replied, "That you would surrender yourself to Allaah and wish well for every Muslim." Hadhrat Jareer accepted the conditions. Since he was an intelligent man, he said, "O Rasulullaah [25]! (I shall Allaah" and Islaam" and under the subheading "Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Haarith Sudaa'ee Sends a Letter to his People".

(2) Ahmad and Ibn Jareer as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.82). Bukhari, Muslim and Tirmidhi have also reported it, as mentioned in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.236).

⁽¹⁾ Hasan bin Sufyaan. Tabraani in his Awsat, Abu Nu'aym, Haakim, Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.12). Ahmad has also narrated it from authentic sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.1 Pg.42).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad and Nasa'ee as reported in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.78). A narration of Ibn Jareer as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.82) is the same except that the words state, "...that you wish every Muslim well and separate yourself from Shirk."

abide by these conditions) As far as I am able to do so." This concession was then allowed for everyone after him. (1)

Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik and his Companions pledge their allegiance to the Fundamentals of Islaam and that they Shall not Beg from People

Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik Ash'ja'ee narrates that he was with seven, eight or nine persons in the company of Rasulullaah when he said, "Will you not pledge allegiance to the Rasool of Allaah?" When Rasulullaah repeated this three times, they stretched out their hands and pledged their allegiance at the hands of Rasulullaah . They then asked, "O Rasulullaah Now that we have pledged our allegiance, do inform us what the conditions of our pledge are." Rasulullaah replied, "You have pledged that you will worship Allaah without ascribing any partners to Him, that you will perform the five salaahs..." Rasulullaah then whispered another condition, which was, "...that you will not ask anything from people."

Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik says that he had seen persons from this group who would not even ask anyone to pass them their whip which had fallen (from their hands as they rode their animals). (2)

Hadhrat Thowbaan pledges that he would not ask Anyone for Anything

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah in arrates that Rasulullaah once asked, "Who would like to pledge their allegiance?" Hadhrat Thowbaan who was the slave of Rasulullaah in Said, "Do accept our pledge of allegiance, O Rasulullaah in Rasulullaah in Said, "Pledge that you would not ask anyone for anything." Hadhrat Thowbaan in Said, "Pledge that you would not ask anyone for anything." Hadhrat Thowbaan in Rasulullaah in Rasul

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.82).

⁽²⁾ Rooyaani, Ibn Jareer and Ibn Asaakir as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.83). Muslim, Tirmidhi and Nasa'ee have also reported the Hadith as mentioned in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.98).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani in his Kabeer as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.100). Ahmad, Nasa'ee and others have narrated the incident from Hadhrat Thowbaan 当時時.

⁽⁴⁾ Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.99,101).

Hadhrat Abu Dharr pledges allegiance to Five Factors

Hadhrat Abu Dharr mass narrates that he pledged allegiance at the hands of Rasulullaah five times, that Rasulullaah took promises from him seven times and Rasulullaah made Allaah witness over him seven times that he should never fear the criticism of any critic when it concerned (the Deen/commands of) Allaah.

Hadhrat Abul Muthanna reports from Hadhrat Abu Dharr with that Rasulullaah once called him and asked, "Do you wish to pledge allegiance in exchange for Jannah?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr with complied and stretched out his hands. Rasulullaah stipulated that he should never ask anything from anyone. When Hadhrat Abu Dharr with agreed, Rasulullaah with added, "Even if your whip falls from your hand you should (not ask anyone to retrieve it but) rather dismount and get it yourself."

Another narration states that Rasulullaah said to Hadhrat Abu Dharr that after six days he should take heed of what would be said to him. On the seventh day, Rasulullaah told him, "I advise you to adopt Taqwa in privacy and in public. In addition to this, when you do a wrong, immediately carry out a good deed, never ask anyone for anything even if your whip falls from your hand and never accept any trust." (1)

Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd (and some Other Sahabah (pledge their allegiance to the Injunctions of Islaam

Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd when the was with Hadhrat Abu Dharr, Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit, Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri, Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama and a sixth Sahabi when they pledged that they would never be affected by the criticism of any critic when it concerned (the Deen/commands of) Allaah. When the sixth person requested to be relieved of the pledge, Rasulullaah were relieved him. (2)

Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit (of Madinah) who pledged their allegiance to Rasulullaah (wee. He adds that they pledged that they would not ascribe partners to Allaah, would not steal, would not fornicate, would not kill a soul whose killing Allaah has prohibited unless it be with a warrant, would not plunder and would not be disobedient. They were promised Jannah if they abided by this and if they perpetrated any of these sins, their decision would rest with Allaah. (3)

Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit (Sie narrates that they were with Rasulullaah) when he said, "Pledge allegiance at my hand that you will not ascribe any as partner to Allaah, that you will not steal and not fornicate. Whoever fulfils this pledge shall have his reward guaranteed by Allaah and whoever perpetrates any of these sins and Allaah conceals them (without being subjected to the Shari'ah penal code), then his matter rests with Allaah Who may either punish him or forgive him." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.99).

⁽²⁾ Shaashi and Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.82). Tabraani has also quoted a similar narration. Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.264) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Muslim.

Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit and Other Sahabah pledged their allegiance to Rasulullaah for the First Time at Aqaba

Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit in arrates that they were eleven persons when the pledge of allegiance was taken for the first time at Aqaba. He says that because fighting in Jihaad was not then compulsory, their pledge was the same that the women took. They therefore pledged that they will not ascribe any partner to Allaah, that they will not steal, that they will not fornicate, that they will not come forth with slander which they fabricate before their hands and legs (by claiming that their child is another's), that they will not kill their children and that they will not disobey Rasulullaah in any good (deed that he commands them to do). They were assured that whoever fulfils this pledge shall have his reward guaranteed by Allaah and whoever perpetrates any of these sins, his matter rests with Allaah Who may either punish him or forgive him. The same people returned (to Makkah) the following year to again pledge their allegiance. (2)

Pledging Allegiance to Undertake the Hijrah Hadhrat Ya'la bin Munyah pledges allegiance on Behalf of his father

Hadhrat Ya'la bin Munyah harrates that he approached Rasulullaah the day after Makkah was conquered and said, "O Rasulullaah Allow my father to pledge that he will undertake the Hijrah." Rasulullaah said, "I shall rather allow him to pledge his allegiance to Jihaad because (the compulsory) Hijrah (to Madinah) has been terminated on the day Makkah was conquered."

The narration of Hadhrat Mujaashi in this regard has already passed at the beginning of this chapter (3) in which he asked Rasulullaah said, "Accept our pledge of allegiance to Hijrah." Rasulullaah said to them, "Hijrah (to Madinah) has finished with those who have already made Hijrah (the compulsion to migrate to Madinah no longer exists)."

The Hadith of Hadhrat Jareer has also passed in which Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.82).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, Ibn Jareer and Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.82). Bukhari and Muslim have also reported this narration as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.150).

⁽³⁾ Under the heading "Pledging Allegiance to Islaam" and the subheading "Hadhrat Mujaashi and his Brother (Subsection Pledge Allegiance to Islaam and Jihaad".

⁽⁴⁾ Under the heading "Pledging Allegiance to Islaam" and the subheading "Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdillaah (Simon) pledges his allegiance to the Fundamentals of Islaam and wishing well for Every Muslim".

told him to pledge that he would separate himself from Shirk. Another narration states that Rasulullaah told Hadhrat Jareer to pledge that he would wish well for every Mu'min and separate himself from the Mushrikeen. (1)

Sahabah Pledge their Allegiance to the Hijrah during the Battle of Khandaq

Hadhrat Haarith bin Ziyaad Saa'idi narrates that he approached Rasulullaah during the Battle of Khandaq while people were busy pledging their allegiance to Hijrah at his hands. Thinking that everyone (residents and non-residents of Madinah) was being called to take this pledge Hadhrat Haarith asked, "Will you accept this man's pledge to undertake the Hijrah?" "Who is he?" asked Rasulullaah ... Hadhrat Haarith replied, "He is my cousin Howt bin Yazeed (or Yazeed bin Howt according to another narration)." Rasulullaah said, "The pledge to undertake Hijrah cannot be taken from you (Ansaar). People make Hijrah to you while you need not make Hijrah towards them. I swear by the Being in Whose control is my life! The person who loves the Ansaar until he meets Allaah, Allaah shall love him when He meets him. The person who hates the Ansaar until he meets Allaah, Allaah shall hate him when He meets him." (2)

Abu Usayd Saa'idi anarrates that when the trench was being dug (for the Battle of Khandaq), people came to Rasulullaah to pledge that they would undertake the Hijrah. When Rasulullaah completed, he said, "O assembly of Ansaar! The pledge to undertake Hijrah cannot be taken from you, for people make Hijrah towards you. The person who loves the Ansaar until he meets Allaah, Allaah shall love him when He meets him. The person who hates the Ansaar until he meets Allaah, Allaah shall hate him when He meets him." (3)

Pledging Allegiance to Assist Others

Seventy Sahabah (Fig. 6) from the Ansaar Pledge their Assistance in the Valley of Aqaba

Hadhrat Jaabir (after announcing his Nabuwaat), he would visit people at the places where they stayed during the seasons of Hajj. This was at the market places of Ukaaz and Majinna. He would ask the people, "Who will give me asylum? Who will assist me so that I could propagate the message of my Rabb? Whoever does this shall receive Jannah." However, he found none to grant him asylum and assistance. However, (instead of assisting him) matters reached such a low ebb that when a person from Yemen or from the Mudhar tribe left (for

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.13)

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, Bukhari in his Taareekh, Ibn Abi Khaythama, Abu Awaana, Baghawi, Abu Nu'aym and Tabraani as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg. 134). Abu Dawood has also narrated it as reported in Isaaba (Vol. 1 Pg. 279). Haythami (Vol. 10 Pg. 38) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.38) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Makkah), the people of his tribe and his relatives would say to him, "Beware that the man from the Quraysh does not get you into trouble." People even pointed at Rasulullaah as he passed between their camps.

Hadhrat Jaabir continues, "This situation prevailed until Allaah sent us (the Ansaar) to him from Yathrib. We offered him asylum and believed in him. Whenever a person from us left (for Makkah), he would believe in Rasulullaah who would recite the Qur'aan to him. He would then return to his family (in Madinah) and they would all accept Islaam by virtue of his Islaam. Eventually there was scarcely a family from the Ansaar that did not have a group of Muslims who made their Islaam public."

Hadhrat Jaabir 经验验 says further that they all then discussed with each other saying, "Until when will we leave Rasulullaah the to call on people, to be kicked about in the mountains of Makkah and face the threats of others?" Consequently, seventy men of the Ansaar rode off and met Rasulullaah was during the Haji season. After agreeing to meet at the valley of Aqaba, they arrived there one-by-one and in twos until they were all present. They then asked, "O Rasulullaah [22]! To what should we pledge allegiance at your hands?" Rasulullaah ar replied, "You should pledge that you would always listen and obey (instructions) whether your hearts are willing or not. You should also pledge that you would spend during times of hardship and ease and that you would command good and forbid evil. In addition to this, you should pledge that you would speak for (the pleasure of) Allaah and will not fear the criticism of a critic when it concerns (the Deen/commands of) Allaah. You should also pledge that you would assist me and when I come to you, you should protect me as you would protect your own lives, wives and children. If you comply, you shall have Jannah."

The Ansaar then stood before Rasulullaah and Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah who was among the youngest present there, took hold of Rasulullaah hand. According to the narration of Bayhaqi, Hadhrat Jaabir was the youngest after him. Hadhrat As'ad was the youngest after him. Hadhrat As'ad who was the youngest after him.

then said to them, "Take it easy, O people of Yathrib! We have undertaken this journey only because we are convinced that he is the Nabi of Allaah. Taking him away will signal the enmity of all the Arabs, the killing of the best of you and swords will then make pieces of you. If you people can endure this, then take Rasulullaah way away and you will receive your reward from Allaah. However, if you have some fears then leave him and make yourselves clear, this will be a better way of excusing yourselves before Allaah."

Ahmad. Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.159), Fat'hul Baari (Vol.7 Pg.158) and Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.46) have all commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Ka'b bin Maalik in narrates that when they (the Ansaar) gathered in the valley (of Aqaba), they waited for Rasulullaah in until he arrived with Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdil Muttalib in Although Hadhrat Abbaas was then still following the religion of his people, he wished to be present with his nephew and take sureties (from the Ansaar) on his behalf. When Rasulullaah sat down, the first to speak was Hadhrat Abbaas in He said, "O assembly of the Khazraj! As you well know, Muhammad is one of us and we have been shielding him against people who share our opinion about him (people who have not accepted Islaam as we have not). He enjoys respect amongst his people and protection in his city. However, he has made up his mind to move to you and join forces with you. If you feel that you will be able to fulfil the claim you have made to him and that you will protect him from his enemies, then I leave you to your responsibility. On the other hand, if you feel that you may surrender him to his enemies and betray him after he has come to you, then leave him now, for he enjoys respect amongst his people and protection in his city."

The Ansaar said, "We have heard what you have to say." Addressing Rasulullaah they said, "O Rasulullaah they! Take from us whatever promises you require for yourself and for your Rabb." Rasulullaah then addressed them, recited the Qur'aan, gave Da'wah towards Allaah and encouraged them to be steadfast in Islaam. Rasulullaah then said, "I wish you to pledge that you will protect me just as you would protect you wives and children." Hadhrat Baraa bin Ma'roor took hold of Rasulullaah the shand and said, "Certainly! I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that we shall definitely protect you just as we protect our families. Do accept our pledge of allegiance. By Allaah! We are the children of war and have inherited war from generation to generation."

As Hadhrat Baraa spoke, Hadhrat Abul Haytham bit Tayyihaan interrupted by saying, "O Rasulullaah we! We have a long-standing relationship with some people viz. the Jews. We shall now (for your sake) be severing this relationship. Could it be that we do this and then when Allaah gives you victory, you would return to your people and leave us?" Rasulullaah smiled and said, "My blood is yours, my grave shall be with yours for I am from you and you are from me. I shall fight those whom you fight and make peace with those with whom you make peace."

The Ansaar Select Twelve Leaders

Hadhrat Ka'b said to them, "Send to me twelve leaders from among you who will head their people in all matters." The Ansaar then selected twelve leaders who comprised of nine from the Khazraj tribe and three from the Aws tribe. (1)

^(!) Ibn Is'haaq as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.60). Ahmad and Tabraani have also narrated it in detail as mentioned in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.6 Pg.42). Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.45) and Haafidh Ibn Hajar (Vol.7 Pg.157) have commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Abul Haytham pledges allegiance and his Address to his People

Hadhrat Urwa was Hadhrat Abul Haytham bit Tayyihaan was He said, "O Rasulullaah was Hadhrat Abul Haytham bit Tayyihaan was He said, "O Rasulullaah was Hadhrat Abul Haytham bit Tayyihaan was He said, "O Rasulullaah was I' There are pledges and treaties existing between us and others. Could it ever happen that you return to your people after we have severed these relations and fought against their people?" Rasulullaah smiled and said, "My blood is yours and my grave shall be where your graves lie." Pleased with this response from Rasulullaah was, Hadhrat Abul Haytham was turned to his people and said, "This is truly the Nabi of Allaah and I testify to his truthfulness. Today he is in the sacred land and protection of Allaah and in the midst of his tribe and family. You should take careful note of the fact that once you take him away with you, the Arabs shall attack you from a united platform. Therefore, if you are content to fight in the path of Allaah and to lose your wealth and children, you may call him to your land for he certainly is the Nabi of Allaah. On the other hand, if you fear that you will be unable to assist him, then say so now."

Upon hearing this, the others said, "We accept whatever duties Allaah and His Rasool  entrust us with. O Rasulullaah  We shall do with our lives as you request. O Abul Haytham! Leave us to pledge our allegiance to Rasulullaah  Hadhrat Abul Haytham  said, "I shall be the first to pledge my allegiance." Thereafter, they all followed him. The Hadith continues further. (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abbaas bin Ubaadah when the Bay'ah took Place

Hadhrat Aasim bin Umar bin Qataadah arrates that when the Ansaar gathered to pledge their allegiance to Rasulullaah ar, Hadhrat Abbaas bin Ubaadah bin Nadhla who belonged to the Banu Saalim bin Awf tribe said, "O assembly of the Khazraj! Do you know on what conditions you are pledging allegiance to this man?" When they replied in the affirmative, he said, "You are pledging to wage war against every fair and dark skinned person! If you fear that you will surrender him to his enemies when your wealth starts getting destroyed and your leaders start getting killed, you better leave him now. By Allaah! If you do that (desert him afterwards), it would mean disgrace in this world as well as in the Aakhirah. However, if you feel that you would be able to fulfil the claim you have made to him despite the destruction of your wealth and the killing of your leaders, you should take him with you. By Allaah! This would mean the best for you in this world as well as in the Aakhirah."

The Ansaar confirmed, "We are prepared to take him even though it means the destruction of our wealth and the deaths of our leaders. O Rasulullaah What will we gain if we fulfil our pledge?" Rasulullaah replied by saying, "Jannah." They then asked Rasulullaah to stretch out his hand and when he (1) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.47) has commented on the chain of narrators.

did, they pledged their allegiance to him. (1)

According to a narration reported by Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ka'b Rasulullaah said to the Ansaar (after they had pledged their allegiance), "Leave for your camps." It was then that Hadhrat Abbaas bin Ubaadah said, "O Rasulullaah I I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that if you wish, we shall attack the people at Mina with our swords by tomorrow." Rasulullaah said, "You have not been commanded to do this. You may however leave for your camps." (2)

Pledging Allegiance to Jihaad

Hadhrat Anas narrates that when Rasulullaah wet went to the trench (before the Battle of Ahzaab) early one morning, he found the Muhaajireen and Ansaar digging in the cold because they had no slaves to do the work for them. When he saw the fatigue and hunger they were suffering, he said:

"O Allaah! There is no life but the life of the Aakhirah
Do forgive the Ansaar and the Muhaajirah (the Muhaajireen)"
In response to this, the Sahabah

"We are those who have pledged allegiance to Muhammad Pledged to wage Jihaad as long as we are alive" (3)

The Hadith of Hadhrat Mujaashi which states that when Hadhrat Mujaashi asked what was it that he could pledge his allegiance to, Rasulullaah replied, "Pledge your allegiance to Islaam and to Jihaad."

Similarly, the Hadith of Hadhrat Basheer bin Khasaasiyyah has also passed in which Rasulullaah said, "O Basheer! By virtue of what deed will you enter Jannah without Zakaah and Jihaad?" Hadhrat Basheer then said, "O Rasulullaah said! Extend your hand." When Rasulullaah did so, Hadhrat Basheer pledged his allegiance to all the actions.

In the same regard, the Hadith of Hadhrat Ya'la bin Munyah (has passed has passed in which he said, "O Rasulullaah (has led in the said, "O Rasulullaah (has led in the said, "I shall rather allow him to pledge his allegiance to Jihaad."

(4) Under the heading "Pledging Allegiance to Islaam" and the subheading "Hadhrat Mujaashi 经路路 and his Brother 银路路 Pledge Allegiance to Islaam and Jihaad".

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq as reported in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg. 162).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq as reported in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg. 164).

⁽³⁾ Bukhari (Pg.397)

⁽⁵⁾ Under the heading "Pledging Allegiance to the Injunctions of Islaam" and the subheading "Hadhrat Basheer bin Khasaasiyyah Pledges Allegiance to the Fundamentals of Islaam as well as Sadaqah and Jihaad".

⁽⁶⁾ Under the heading "Pledging Allegiance to undertake the Hijrah" and the subheading "Hadhrat Ya"la bin Munyah (Surah) pledges allegiance on Behalf of his father".

Pledging to Die

Hadhrat Salama bin Akwa (In Defence of Islaam)

Hadhrat Salama bin Akwa hat narrates that after he pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah hat he took shade beneath a tree. When there were fewer people, Rasulullaah said to him, "O Ibn Akwa! Are you not going to pledge allegiance?" When he submitted that he had already pledged allegiance, Rasulullaah told him to do so again and he pledged allegiance for the second time. The narrator says that when he asked Hadhrat Salama what it was that they pledged, he replied, "Death." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid (in 63 A.H.), someone came to him and said that people were pledging to die at the hands of Ibn Handhala. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid ("None may pledge this after the demise of Rasulullaah ((2))

Pledging to Listen and to Obey

The Statement of Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit in this Regard

Hadhrat Ubaydullaah bin Raafi harrates that when a few containers of wine arrived from somewhere, Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit tore them open. He then said, "We pledged to Rasulullaah that we would always listen and obey (instructions) whether our hearts are willing or not. We also pledged that we would spend during times of hardship and ease and that we would command good and forbid evil. In addition to this, we pledged that we would speak for (the pleasure of) Allaah and will not fear the criticism of a critic when it concerns (the Deen/commands of) Allaah. We also pledged that we would assist Rasulullaah and that when he came to Yathrib, we would protect him as we protect ourselves, our wives and our children. We were promised Jannah in exchange. This was the pledge of allegiance that we made with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Ubaadah is is also reported to have said, "We pledged a wartime pledge at the hands of Rasulullaah that we will listen and obey instructions regardless of whether we were in difficulty or ease, whether we were willing or unwilling and even if others were given preference over us. We also pledged that we would not wrestle power from those in authority, that we would speak the truth wherever we are and that we would not fear the criticism of a critic when it concerns (the Deen/commands of) Allaah." (4)

Bukhari (Vol.1 Pg.415). Muslim, Tirmidhi and Nasa'ee have also reported the Hadith as quoted by Allaama Ayni (Vol.7 Pg.16). Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.146) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.39) have also reported it.

⁽²⁾ Bukhari (Vol.1 Pg.415) as well as Muslim as mentioned by Allaama Ayni (Vol.7 Pg.15) and Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.146).

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Is'haaq as reported in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.163). Bukhari and Muslim have also

Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdillaah Pledges to Listen, to obey and to Wish Well for all Muslims

Ibn Jareer narrates from Hadhrat Jareer that he pledged to listen, to obey and wish well for all Muslims. Ibn Jareer also reports another narration from Hadhrat Jareer in which he states that he approached Rasulullaah and said, "May I pledge at your hands that I shall listen and obey whether I am willing or unwilling?" Rasulullaah asked, "Do you have the ability to do this? Refrain from saying so and say rather that you will do so to the best of your ability." Hadhrat Jareer then added, "To the best of my ability." Rasulullaah accepted the pledge together with the pledge to wish well for all Muslims. (1)

Abu Dawood and Nasa'ee narrate from Hadhrat Jareer (whenever Hadhrat Jareer bought or sold anything, he would say to the opposite person, "The thing I have taken from you is more beloved to me than that which I have given to you, so decide (whether you want to go ahead with the transaction or not)." (2)

Hadhrat Utba bin Abd pledges allegiance and Rasulullaah 's Advice to Add the words "To the best of my Ability"

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Similar) narrates that whenever the Sahabah (Pledged to listen and to obey at the hands of Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah), he told them to add the clause: "To the best of my ability." (3) Hadhrat Utba bin Abd (narrates that he pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah seven times. On five occasions he pledged obedience and on two he pledged his love. (4)

Hadhrat Anas was says, "With these very hands did I pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah that I would listen and obey to the best of my ability." (5)

Women pledged Their allegiance

The Ansaar Women pledged their allegiance when Rasulullaah Arrived in Madinah

Hadhrat Ummu Atiyya arrived in Madinah. Rasulullaah sent Hadhrat Umar to them and standing at the door of the house, he greeted the women. After they had replied to his greeting he said, "I am the envoy of reported a similar narration mentioned in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.3).

⁽¹⁾ Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.82).

⁽²⁾ Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.237).

⁽³⁾ Bukhari. Nasa'ee and Ibn Jareer have reported similar narrations as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.83).

⁽⁴⁾ Baghawi, Abu Nu'aym and Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.83).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Jareer (Vol. Pg.) as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 1 Pg.82).

Rasulullaah and to the envoy of Rasulullaah "He then asked them, "Do you pledge that you will not ascribe any partner to Allaah, will not steal, will not fornicate, will not kill your children, will not come forth with slander which you fabricate before your hands and legs (by claiming that another man's child is her husband's) and that you will not disobey (Rasulullaah) in any good (deed that he commands you to do)?"

when the women confirmed that they agreed to the terms, Hadhrat Umar stretched out his hand from outside the door and all the women stretched out their hands from inside (without any of their hands touching Hadhrat Umar hen instructed the women to take even menstruating women and girls who have just come of age for the Eid salaah (although they would not participate in the salaah, they would increase the numbers of the Muslims). He also forbade them from following funeral processions and informed them that the Jumu'ah salaah was not compulsory for them. The narrator says that when he asked his teacher for the meaning of 'slander' and the phrase 'that they will not disobey you in any good' he replied that it referred to screaming and waling when a person died. (2)

Hadhrat Salma bint Qais was one of Rasulullaah sim maternal aunts. She belonged to the Banu Adi bin Najjaar tribe and had performed salaah facing both Qiblas behind Rasulullaah sim. She narrates that together with a few ladies from the Ansaar, she approached Rasulullaah and pledged allegiance to him. Rasulullaah stipulated that they should not ascribe any partner to Allaah, not steal, not fornicate, not kill their children, not come forth with slander which they fabricate before their hands and legs (by claiming that another man's child is their husbands') and not disobey him (Rasulullaah sim) in any good (deed that he commands them to do). Rasulullaah sim also added that they should not deceive their husbands.

Hadhrat Salma says that they then pledged allegiance to these factors and as they were returning, she asked one of the ladies to ask Rasulullaah what he meant when he said that they should not deceive their husbands. When the lady asked, Rasulullaah replied, "That the wife takes her husband's money and gives it to another person (against the husband's wishes)." (3)

Hadhrat Uqayla bint Ateeq bin Haarith Atee narrates that she, her mother Qareera bint Haarith Utwaariyyah and other women from the Muhaajireen approached Rasulullaah to pledge their allegiance as he was pitching his tent at Abtah. Rasulullaah asked them to pledge that they would not ascribe partners to Allaah together with all the other clauses mentioned in the verse of

⁽¹⁾ As referred to in verse 12 of Surah Mumtahina (Surah 60).

⁽²⁾ Abu Dawood has also narrated it in brief as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.6 Pg.38). Bukhari has also narrated it briefly and Abd bin Humayd in detail as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.81).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, Abu Ya'la, Tabraani with an authentic chain of narrators as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.38).

the Qur'aan⁽¹⁾. After accepting all the conditions, the ladies stretched out their hands to affirm the pledge. Rasulullaah said to them, "I cannot touch the hands of strange women." Rasulullaah then sought Allaah's forgiveness for the ladies. This was their Bay'ah. (2)

Hadhrat Umaymah bint Ruqayqah are narrates that she approached Rasulullaah together with a few other ladies to pledge their allegiance. They said, "O Rasulullaah we! We pledge that we shall not ascribe any partner to Allaah, not steal, not fornicate, not kill our children, not come forth with slander which we fabricate before our hands and legs (by claiming that another man's child is our husbands') and that we shall not disobey you in any good (deed that you command us to do)." Rasulullaah added, "To the best of your ability and according to your capability." The ladies commented, "Allaah and His Rasool are more merciful towards us than we are to ourselves. Come (give us you hand), O Rasulullaah said, "I cannot shake the hand of a woman. What I say to a hundred women is the same as I say to one woman (their pledge is confirmed merely by speech)." (3)

Hadhrat Umayma bint Ruqayqa Pledges Allegiance to Islaam

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr hadrat Umayma bint Ruqayqa approached to pledge her allegiance to Islaam. Rasulullaah said to her, "I require you to pledge that you shall not ascribe any partner to Allaah, not steal, not fornicate, not kill your child, not come forth with slander which you fabricate before your two hands and legs, not wail at the death of anyone and not to make a spectacle of yourself as women made spectacles of themselves during the first Period of Ignorance." (4)

Hadhrat Faatima bint Utba (Pledges Allegiance

Hadhrat Aa'isha came to pledge her allegiance at the hand of Rasulullaah Rasulullaah asked her to pledge that she would not ascribe partners to Allaah, will not fornicate and added all the other clauses mentioned in the verse of the Qur'aan (5). Out of modesty, Hadhrat Faatima bin Utba placed her hand on her head, an act that impressed Rasulullaah Hadhrat Aa'isha then said to her, "Confirm this, O woman because I swear by Allaah that all of us pledged this." She responded by saying, "In that case, I also accept."

⁽¹⁾ Verse 12 of Surah Mumtahina (Surah 60).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani in his Kabeer and Awsat. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.39) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Maalik, Ibn Hibbaan, Tirmidhi and others as mentioned in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.240).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani as appears in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.6 Pg.37). It is also narrated by Nasa'ee, Ibn Maajah, Ahmad and Tirmidhi as mentioned in the Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.352).

⁽⁵⁾ Verse 12 of Surah Mumtahina (Surah 60).

Rasulullaah the then accepted her pledge of allegiance in conformance with the verse of the Qur'aan. (1)

Hadhrat Azza bint Khaabil pledges Allegiance to Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Azza bint Khaabil process approached Rasulullaah and pledged that she would not fornicate, would not steal and would not bury her children alive neither in public nor in secrecy. Hadhrat Azza says, "I knew well what Rasulullaah meant by publicly burying children alive but I did not ask Rasulullaah what burying them alive in secrecy meant, neither did he inform me. However, it occurred to me that it refers to spoiling children. By Allaah! I shall never spoil any child of mine." (2)

Hadhrat Faatima bint Utba Pledges Allegiance Along with her Sister Hadhrat Hind who was the Wife of Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan

Hadhrat Faatima bint Utba bin Rabee'ah bin Abdish Shams arrates that Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfa bin Utba took her along with (her sister) Hadhrat Hind bint Utba to Rasulullaah so that they could pledge their allegiance to him. Rasulullaah took their promises and made some conditions with them. Hadhrat Faatima bint Utba they asked Rasulullaah "O my cousin! Have you noticed any of these evils or deficiencies in your people?" Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfa said, "Be quiet and make your pledge! It is with these words and conditions that the pledge of allegiance is made.

Hadhrat Hind then said, "I shall not pledge to abstain from stealing because I steal from my husband." At this, both she and Rasulullaah held back until Rasulullaah sent someone to (her husband) Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan to get him to permit her (to take from his possessions without seeking permission). Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan permitted her to take from the wet things (referring to foodstuffs) but did not permit her to take from the dry things (referring to non-food items such as money and clothing) or from luxuries.

Hadhrat Aa'isha (narrates that when Hadhrat Hind bint Utba (came to pledge allegiance to Rasulullaah (he looked at her hands and said, "Go and transform your hands (by applying henna)." After she had applied henna, she returned to Rasulullaah who said to her, "I require you to pledge that you will not ascribe any partners to Allaah, will not steal and will not commit adultery." She interrupted by saying, "Does a free woman ever commit adultery?" Rasulullaah continued, "And that you will not kill your children for fear of poverty."

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad and Bazzaar as mentioned in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.6 Pg.37).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.39) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Haakim (Vol.2 Pg.486).

"You have not left us any child to kill," she interjected (referring to her children who were killed while fighting against the Muslims). She then pledged allegiance and with reference to the two gold bangles she wore on her hand, she asked, "What do you say about these two bangles?" Rasulullaah "replied, "These are two coals from the fire of Jahannam (when zakaah is not paid for them)." (1)

Another famous narration⁽²⁾ states that when Rasulullaah said, "That you do not commit adultery", she said, "Does a free woman ever commit adultery?" and when Rasulullaah said, ""And that you will not kill your children for fear of poverty", she said, "We grew them up as children and then you killed them when they were big."

According to yet another narration⁽³⁾, when Rasulullaah said, "That you do not commit adultery", she said, "Does a free woman ever commit adultery?" and when Rasulullaah said, "And that you will not kill your children for fear of poverty", she said, "It is you who killed them". A similar narration quotes her as saying, "Have you left us any children after the Battle of Badr?"

Another narration states at the beginning that Hadhrat Hind said (to her husband Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan is said, "I wish to pledge allegiance to Muhammad Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan said, "But I have noticed that you have always been rejecting what he says." She replied, "By Allaah! That it true. However, I swear by Allaah that before this night I have never seen Allah being worshipped in this Masjid as He deserves to be worshipped. By Allaah! The Muslims spent the entire night performing salaah standing, bowing down and prostrating." Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan said, "But you have done many things (against Islaam). Take someone from your people along with you."

Hadhrat Hind then went to Hadhrat Umar to allow her in. She entered the presence of Rasulullaah wearing a veil. The episode of her Bay'ah then followed. This narration of Imaam Sha'bi to allow her in. She entered the presence of Rasulullaah represence of Rasulullaah represence

Ibn Jareer has reported the same narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in great detail. This narration states that Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan said to Hadhrat Hind (1) permit for you whatever wealth you have taken Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.37) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Abi Haatim has also narrated it in brief as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.354).

⁽²⁾ Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.425)

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd from Imaam Sha'bi كَانَالُهُ اللهُ اللهُ

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Mandah.

from me whether it is used up or still existing." When Rasulullaah heard this, he recognised who she was. He then smiled and called her. Hadhrat Hind grabbed hold of Rasulullaah she hand and pleaded her case. When Rasulullaah asked her if she was indeed Hind, she said, "May Allaah forgive what has happened in the past."

Rasulullaah then turned away from her (towards the other women present) and (continuing with the formal pledge of allegiance), he said, "And will not commit adultery." Hadhrat Hind said, "Does a respectable woman ever commit adultery?" Rasulullaah replied, "By Allaah! A respectable woman never commits adultery." Continuing further, Rasulullaah said, "And will not kill their children." Hadhrat Hind again interrupted by saying, "It was you who killed them during the Battle of Badr. However, you and they know more." Rasulullaah completed the Bay'ah by reciting the rest of the verse, "That they will not kill their children, that they will not come forth with slander which they fabricate before their hands and legs and that they will not disobey you (O Rasulullaah in any good."

The narrator says that here Rasulullaah forbade the women from wailing when someone died because during the Period of Ignorance, (when wailing) women used to tear their clothes, scratch their faces, pull their hair and pray for (their own) destruction and death. (1)

Hadhrat Usayd bin Abi Usayd Barraad narrates from one of the women who pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah that amongst the things that Rasulullaah required them to pledge was that they would not disobey him in any good, would not scratch their faces, would not dishevel their hair, would not tear their collars and would not pray for destruction. (2)

The Bay'ah of Children who Had Not Yet Come of Age

Hadhrat Hasan, Husayn, Abdullaah bin Abbaas and Abdullaah bin Ja'far Pledge Their Allegiance

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ali bin Husayn marrates that Rasulullaah accepted the pledge of allegiance from Hadhrat Hasan, Husayn, Abdullaah bin Abbaas and Abdullaah bin Ja'far while they were all still youngsters who had not yet grown beards or come of age. Rasulullaah did did not accept the pledge of allegiance from any other children besides those of his family. (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (1996) and Abdullaah bin Ja'far (1996) pledge their allegiance

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr 劉範疇 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far 劉範疇

⁽¹⁾ The Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.353).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Haatim as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.355).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.40) has commented on the chain of narrators?

have stated that they went to pledge their allegiance to Rasulullaah when they were only seven years of age. When Rasulullaah saw the two of them, he smiled, stretched out his hands and accepted their pledges. (1)

Hadhrat Hirmaas bin Ziyaad in narrates that he was still a child when he stretched out his hands to pledge his allegiance to Rasulullaah in hut Rasulullaah in did not accept the pledge from him. (2)

The Sahabah Pledge their Allegiance at the Hands of the Khulafaa

The Sahabah Pledge their Allegiance at the Hand of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Muntashir narrates from his father that when the Sahabah pledged their allegiance at the hands of Rasulullaah he he stipulated that their pledges be solely for the pleasure of Allaah and that they pledge to always obey the truth. This was after the revelation of the verse:

"Indeed those who pledge their allegiance to you (O Rasulullaah (her)) they really pledge their allegiance to Allaah." (Surah Fatah, verse 10)

When Hadhrat Abu Bakr wook the pledge of allegiance from people, he said to them, "You are obliged to honour your pledge to me as long as I am obedient to Allaah." Thereafter, the pledge of allegiance that Hadhrat Umar and those after him took from people was like the pledge that Rasulullaah took from people. (3)

Hadhrat Ibn Afeef harrates that he saw Hadhrat Abu Bakr accepting the pledge of allegiance form people after the demise of Rasulullaah when a group of Sahabah would gather before him, he would say to them, "Do you pledge at my hands that you would listen and obey Allaah, His Book and then the Ameer?" Only when they agreed to this did Hadhrat Abu Bakr accept their pledges of allegiance.

Hadhrat Ibn Afeef says further, "It was when I came of age or some time afterwards that I used to stand by Hadhrat Abu Bakr and memorised the conditions he made with people (when they came to pledge their allegiance). I then approached and started saying, 'I pledge at your hands that I will listen and obey Allaah, His Book and then the Ameer.' He hen looked at me from top to bottom. I guessed that I must have impressed him. (He then accepted my pledge of allegiance) May Allaah shower His mercy on him." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.285) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Nu'aym and Ibn Asaakir have also reported the Hadith from Hadhrat Urwa 劉德美, who states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr 劉德美 and Abdullaah bin Ja'far 劉德美 both pledged their allegiance to Rasulullaah 劉美 when they were only seven years of age. This is also mentioned in Muntakhab (Vol.5 Pg.227).

⁽²⁾ Nasa'ee as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.1 Pg.14).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Shaaheen as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.458).

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg. 146).

Hadhrat Abu Safar Mass narrates that whenever Hadhrat Abu Bakr Mass sent an army to Shaam, he would make them pledge that they would fight with spears (if need be) and remain steadfast if they encountered a plague. (1)

The Sahabah Pledge their Allegiance at the Hand of Hadhrat Umar

Hssadhrat Anas In narrates, "I arrived in Madinah after Hadhrat Abu Bakr In had passed away and Hadhrat Umar In had assumed the post of Khalifah. I said to Hadhrat Umar In had so that I may pledge at your hand what I pledged at the hand of your companion i.e. Abu Bakr In hat I will always listen and obey instruction to the best of my ability." (2)

Hadhrat Umayr bin Atiyya Laythi (Image narrates that he went to Hadhrat Umar and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Raise your hand - may Allaah always keep it high - so that I may pledge my allegiance at your hand in the manner shown by Allaah and His Rasool (Image Hadhrat Umar Image) smiled and raised his hand saying, "This pledge gives us some rights over you and gives you some rights over us."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ukaym says, "With these hands did I pledge to Hadhrat Umar that I would always listen to and obey him." (3)

A Delegation from Hamraa pledge allegiance at the Hand of Hadhrat Uthmaan

Saleem Abu Aamir (In Internated International Internationa

The Muslims pledge their allegiance to the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhrama had appointed (to select a Khalifah from amongst themselves) had gathered and were consulting with each other when Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf said to them, "I do not want to compete with you to become the Khalifah. However, if you agree, I shall select one of you on your behalf. The others granted him this privilege, after which the attention of the people was focussed on him without anyone paying any attention to the others. Everyone then turned to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf and presented their opinions to him. Eventually when the morning after the (final) night arrived, the people pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Uthmaan

⁽¹⁾ Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.323).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd, Ibn Abi Shayba and Tayaalisi as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.181).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.81).

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.81).

Hadhrat Miswar was says, "Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was once came to me after some portion of the night had already passed and knocked at the door until I awoke. He then said to me, 'I see that you were sleeping peacefully. By Allaah! I have hardly had any sleep the entire night. Go and call Zubayr and Sa'd.' After I had called them and he had consulted with them, he called me and said, 'Call Ali.' When I had called for Hadhrat Ali was, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan spoke to him in confidence until half the night had passed. When Hadhrat Ali left Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan he seemed hopeful (of becoming the Khalifah) but Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan had seemed to fear something about (appointing) Hadhrat Ali hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan then then asked me to call Hadhrat Uthmaan when I called him, he spoke to him in private until the Mu'adhin separated them with the Fajr Adhaan."

Hadhrat Miswar harrates further that after the Fajr salaah was completed, the group (of six Sahabah (Sahabah)) gathered around the pulpit. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan (Sahabah) (Sahabah) gathered around the pulpit. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan (Sahabah) then sent for all the Muhaajireen and Ansaar who were present and for the leaders of all the groups that had accompanied Hadhrat Umar (Sahabah) on that year's Hajj. When everyone had gathered, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan (Sahabah) recited the Shahaadah and then said, "O Ali! I have looked deeply at the opinions of the people and they all do not see anyone equal to Uthmaan. Please do not harbour anything in your heart." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan (Sahabah) then took hold of Hadhrat Uthmaan (Sahabah) shaha and said, "I pledge allegiance to you according to manner shown by Allaah, His Rasool (Sahabah) and the two Khalifahs (Sahabah) after him." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan (Sahabah) then pledged his allegiance to Hadhrat Uthmaan (Finst) the Muhaajireen, (followed by) the Ansaar, the leaders of the armed forces and then the Muslim public. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari. Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.147) has also reported a similar narration.

Chapter Three

The Chapter Concerning the Hardships that Were Borne for The Pleasure of Allaah

This chapter highlights how Rasulullaah and the Sahabah conduced hardships and difficulties, hunger and thirst to propagate the sound Deen and how they attached little importance to themselves when striving to elevate the word of Allaah

Enduring Hardships for the Pleasure of Allaah

The Comments of Hadhrat Miqdaad (Concerning the Conditions Under Which Rasulullaah (Was Sent to Propagate Islaam

Hadhrat Nufayr narrates that they were once sitting with Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad when someone passed by. The person said, "Blessed are the eyes that saw Rasulullaah well By Allaah! We dearly wish that we had seen what you saw and were present in the gatherings you were present in!" Hadhrat Nufayr says that he had heard the man carefully and (when Hadhrat Miqdaad became angry) he was surprised because the man had good words to say. Turning to the man, Hadhrat Miqdaad said said, "What makes you people wish to be present at a time that Allaah made you absent from without you knowing what would have become of you had you been present then? By Allaah! There were many people who were present during the time of Rasulullaah but Allaah had thrown then headlong into Jahannam because they did not accept him and refused to believe him. Will you people rather not thank Allaah for being born as people who know only Allaah as your Rabb and believing in everything that Rasulullaah brought? (You were fortunate that) Hardships had been borne by people other than yourselves."

"I swear by Allaah, that Allaah sent Rasulullaah as a Rasul during a time that was more difficult was prevalent than any other time in which Allaah had sent Ambiyaa. It was a time when the succession of Ambiyaa had long been paused and when people were steeped in ignorance. People saw no religion better than idol-worship. Rasulullaah arrived with a criterion (the Qur'aan) that differentiated between truth and falsehood and even divided father and son. The situation was (so heartbreaking) that a (Muslim) person whose heart was unlocked to be filled with Imaan had to see his father or his son or his brother live as a Kaafir knowing well that whoever enters Jahannam shall be destroyed. He was therefore unable to experience any coolness (comfort) knowing that his close relative was destined for Jahannam. It is about this that Allaah says in the Qur'aan:

O our Rabb! Grant us the coolness (comfort) of our eyes from our spouses and children. (Surah Furqaan, verse 74)(1)

The Comments of Hadhrat Hudhayfa (in this Regard

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ka'b Qurazi narrates that a person from Kufa once asked Hadhrat Hudhayfa , "O Abu Abdillaah! Did you people see Rasulullaah and associate with him?" "Yes, my dear nephew," replied Hadhrat Hudhayfa . The person then asked, "What was it that you people used to do?" Hadhrat Hudhayfa replied, "By Allaah! We used to exert ourselves tremendously." The person then said, "By Allaah! Had we been in the time of Rasulullaah , we would not have allowed him to walk on the earth but we would have carried him on our shoulders."

Hadhrat Hudhayfa said, "My dear nephew! I swear by Allaah that I have been with Rasulullaah during the Battle of Khandaq..." He then proceeded to relate the extreme fear, hunger and cold that they had to endure. A narration of Muslim states that Hadhrat Hudhayfa said to the man, "Is that what you would have done? I have been with Rasulullaah on the night of the Battle of Ahzaab when there blew an extremely fierce and icy wind." He then proceeded to relate the entire incident. The narration of Haakim and Bayhaqi states that Hadhrat Hudhayfa said to the man, "Do not wish for that." Thereafter, he mentioned the details as will appear in the chapter discussing the fears that Rasulullaah and the Sahabah had to endure. (2)

Rasulullaah E Endures Hardship and Difficulty when Giving Da'wah towards Allaah

The Comments of Rasulullaah in this Regard

Hadhrat Anas Feports that Rasulullaah Fe said, "I have been harassed for the sake of Allaah like none other and I have been threatened for the sake of Allaah like none other. Thirty consecutive days and nights would pass by without myself and Bilaal Fe having enough for a living being to eat. All that we (I) Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.) Pg.175). Tabraani has also narrated a similar Hadith and Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.17) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq.

could get was so little that it could be hidden in the armpit of Bilaal (1)

What Rasulullaah said to his Uncle when he Thought that his Uncle would Reduce the Support he Provided

Hadhrat Aqeel bin Abi Taalib in arrates that members of the Quraysh approached Abu Taalib and complained, "Your nephew (Rasulullaah complained) comes to us in our homes and gatherings and tells us things that upset us. So if you feel that you have the ability to stop him, please do so." (Turning to his son,) Abu Taalib said, "O Aqeel! Would you please look for your cousin and bring him to me." Hadhrat Aqeel says, "I found Rasulullaah in one of Abu Taalib's smaller rooms. As he walked with me, he looked for shade to walk in but was unable to find any until he reached Abu Taalib."

Abu Taalib said, "Dear nephew! By Allaah! You know well that I am always willing to obey you. Your people have come with the complaint that you visit them in their homes and gatherings and tell them things that upset them. Do you not think that you should stop this?" Raising his eyes to the sky, Rasulullaah said, "I am unable to forsake the responsibility I have been sent to fulfil just as any of you is unable to harness a spark of flame from the sun." Abu Taalib said (to the members of the Quraysh still present there), "I swear by Allaah that my nephew never lies. You may all return peacefully to your homes." (2)

A narration of Bayhaqi reports that Abu Taalib called for Rasulullaah and told him that the people had come to him and told him many things about what Rasulullaah was doing. Addressing Rasulullaah he he said further, "Have mercy on me and on yourself and do not cast on me a burden that neither of us can bear. Stop telling the people things that they dislike." Hearing this, it crossed Rasulullaah is mind that his uncle had changed his opinions, that he would stop assisting him, that he would now hand him over to the people and that he had lost courage in supporting him. Rasulullaah is said, "O my uncle! Even if the sun were placed in my right hand and the moon in my left hand, I would not forsake this work (of propagation) until Allaah makes it (this Deen) dominant or I am destroyed in the process." After saying this, the eyes of Rasulullaah illed with tears and he began weeping. When Rasulullaah turned to leave and Abu Taalib realised his firm resolve, he called out, "Dear nephew!" When Rasulullaah turned to him, Abu Taalib said, "Continue with your message and do as you please because I swear by Allaah that I shall never desert you." (3)

Ahmad as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.47). Tirmidhi and Ibn Hibbaan have also reported the Hadith as mentioned in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.159). Ibn Maajah and Abu Nu'aym have also narrated it.

⁽²⁾ Tabaani in his Awsat and Kabeer. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.14) has commented on the chain of narrators. Bukhari has reported a similar narration in his Taateekh as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.42).

⁽³⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.42).

The Hardships that Rasulullaah Experienced after the Death of his Uncle

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far harrates that when Abu Taalib passed away, a fool from amongst the fools of the Quraysh approached Rasulullaah and threw sand at him. When Rasulullaah returned home, one of his daughters came to wipe the sand from his face and then began weeping. He said to her, "O beloved daughter! Do not weep for Allaah shall protect your father." Amongst other things, he also said to her, "Until Abu Taalib passed away, the Quraysh dared not do anything unpleasant to me. Now they have started." (1) Hadhrat Abu Hurayra had mentioned that when Abu Taalib passed away, the Quraysh started treating Rasulullaah very harshly. Rasulullaah then said, "O my uncle! I am very quickly feeling your loss." (2)

The Harassment that Rasulullaah Received from the Quraysh and his Response

Hadhrat Haarith bin Haarith was narrates that he once asked his father, "What is this gathering all about?" His father replied, "These people have gathered around an irreligious man from amongst them." Hadhrat Haarith says that when they dismounted they saw that it was Rasulullaah there calling people towards the Oneness of Allaah and towards Imaan. However, they were rejecting what he was saying and harming him. The people eventually left him when half the day had passed. A lady whose neck was exposed then came to him with a dish full of water and a cloth. Taking water from the dish, Rasulullaah drank some and then made wudhu. He then raised his head and said, "Dear daughter! Wear a scarf around you neck and do not fear for your father." Hadhrat Haarith says that when they asked who the lady was, people informed them that she was Zaynab for the daughter of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Muneeb Azdi saying to the people, "O people! Say 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah' and you will be successful." However, some people spat on his face, some threw sand at him and others swore him. This continued until midday when a girl would come to him with a dish of water. He then washed his face and hands and would say to her, "O beloved daughter! Do not fear that your father will ever be killed suddenly or humiliated." Hadhrat Muneeb says that when he asked some people who the girl was, they informed him that it was Rasulullaah says daughter Zaynab says. He also adds that she was a very pretty girl. (4)

Hadhrat Urwa size narrates that he once asked Hadhrat Abul Aas size about the worst thing that the Mushrikeen did to Rasulullaah size. He said, "When Rasulullaah was once performing salaah in the Hateem of the Kabah, Uqba

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.134).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Dalaa'il Hilya (Vol.3 Pg.134).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.21).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.21) has commented on the chain of narrators.

bin Abi Mu'eet came and placed a cloth around the neck of Rasulullaah . He then started throttling Rasulullaah very severely. Hadhrat Abu Bakr then arrived and grabbing Uqba by the shoulders, pushed him away from Rasulullaah . Hadhrat Abu Bakr then recited the following verse of the Qur'aan:

(اسورة المومن: ۲۸) اللهُ وَقَدُ جَاءَ كُمْ بِالْبَيّنَاتِ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ (سورة المومن: ۲۸) "Will you kill a man for saying, 'Allaah is my Rabb', when he has brought the truth to you from your Rabb?" (Surah Mu'min, verse 28) (1)

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas marrates that he had never seen the Quraysh try to assassinate Rasulullaah except on one occasion when a group of them were sitting together and discussing while Rasulullaah was performing salaah near the Maqaam of Ibraheem (Upba bin Abi Mu'eet then stood before Rasulullaah and wrapping his shawl around the Rasulullaah fell to his knees. The people started shouting and thought that Rasulullaah had been killed. Hadhrat Abu Bakr came running and from the back he grabbed hold of Rasulullaah under his armpits. He then said, "Will you kill a man for saying, 'Allaah is my Rabb'."

When the people had left Rasulullaah . he stood up and continued performing salaah. After completing his salaah, he passed by the group of Quraysh as they sat in the shade of the Kabah. He said to them, "O assembly of Quraysh! I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Muhammad that I have been sent to slaughter you." As he spoke, Rasulullaah passed his finger across his throat as an indication. Abu Jahal said to Rasulullaah , "You have never been one to make foolish statements." Rasulullaah said to him, "You are also amongst them (those who shall be killed)." (2)

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr in arrates that he once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr in venting their enmity, what was the worst that you saw the Quraysh do to harm Rasulullaah in Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr is said that he was once with a group of leaders from the Quraysh who had gathered in the Hateem. They were saying to each other, "We have never had to tolerate so much as we have tolerated from this man (Rasulullaah in Hateem)! He has made fools of our intelligent people, insulted our forefathers, found fault with our religion, disunited our people and abused our gods. We have tolerated him to a very great extent."

As they were speaking words like this, Rasulullaah arrived and walked up to the Black Stone. He then passed by the gathering while performing Tawaaf of the Kabah. As he passed by them, they poked fun at him with the things they said. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr says, "I noticed from the face of Rasulullaah that he felt offended. However, when he passed by them the second time, they again poked fun at him and I again noticed that he felt offended. Yet again, he continued (without saying anything). However, when they repeated themselves the third time, he said to them, 'Will you not listen, O assembly of Quraysh? I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Muhammad that I have come to slaughter you.' This statement took such a grip on their hearts that each one of them was stunned motionless. In fact, even the person who had been most harsh towards Rasulullaah just a moment before, meekly uttered the best words that he could muster when he said, 'O Abul Qaasim! Do proceed in peace. By Allaah! You have never been one to make foolish statements.' Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.46).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Shayba as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.327). Abu Ya'la and Tabraani have also narrated a similar report but Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.16) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Nu'aym has also reported it in Dalaa'll (Pg.67).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr says says that he was again with them the following day when they gathered in the Hateem. They said to each other, "You have mentioned the hardships you have given him and the problems he has given us but when (in reply) he told you something you did not like, you left him alone (without doing anything. Something ought to be done)." Rasulullaah arrived as they were busy discussing and they all confronted him together. They surrounded him and, stating everything they had heard about what he said concerning their gods and religion, they asked him whether it was he who had levelled these insults. Rasulullaah replied, "It was certainly I who said this." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr continues, "I then saw one of them grab hold of Rasulullaah are sollar. Hadhrat Abu Bakr stood up in defence of Rasulullaah and was in tears when he said, 'Will you kill a man for saying, 'Allaah is my Rabb'?' They then left Rasulullaah alone. This was the worst that I had seen the Quraysh behave against Rasulullaah ""." '(1)

Some people once asked Hadhrat Asmaa bint Abi Bakr what was worst she had seen the Mushrikeen do to Rasulullaah She replied by saying, "The Mushrikeen used to sit in the Masjidul Haraam to discuss Rasulullaah and what he had to say about their gods. As they were doing this one day, Rasulullaah arrived and they all attacked him. The shouts reached my father Abu Bakr as the people called out, 'Help your friend!'. As my father left us (I can still clearly recall that) his hair had four locks and he was saying:

'Will you kill a man for saying, 'Allaah is my Rabb', when he has brought the truth to you from your Rabb?' {Surah Mu'min, verse 28} (2)

The mob then left Rasulullaah and turned on Abu Bakr . When he returned to us, (he was beaten so badly that) merely touching the locks of his hair would cause it to fall off. However, he was saying, 'You are most Blessed, O the Possessor of Majesty and Honour." (3)

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik William narrates that the Mushrikeen once beat Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.16) has commented on the chain of narrators. Bayhaqi has narrated a similar Hadith as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.46).

 ⁽²⁾ Bukhari, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.46).
 (3) Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.17) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Abdil Birr has reported a similar narration in his Isti'aab (Vol.2 Pg.247) as did Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.31).

Rasulullaah we up so badly that he fell unconscious. Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said, "Shame on you people! Will you kill a man for saying, 'Allaah is my Rabb'?" When someone asked who he was, the others replied, "He is the madman Abu Bakr." (1) Another narration(2) states that at this juncture, the people left Rasulullaah and attacked Hadhrat Abu Bakr. (2)

The Comment of Hadhrat Ali Concerning the Courage of Hadhrat Abu Bakr to Deliver a Sermon

While addressing the people, Hadhrat Ali once asked, "O people! Who is the most courageous person?" "You are, O Ameerul Mu'mineen," the people submitted. Hadhrat Ali then said, "Although I have defeated everyone who has confronted me, the most courageous person is Abu Bakr We had constructed a shed for Rasulullaah (during the Battle of Badr) and then asked who would remain with Rasulullaah so that the Mushrikeen do not attack him. By Allaah! Whenever a Mushrik even drew close to us Abu Bakr was there with his sword drawn near the head side of Rasulullaah Research He attacked anyone who dared attack Rasulullaah He was certainly the bravest of people."

Hadhrat Ali with one person treating him angrily and another shaking him while they said to hiim, 'Do you make all the gods into one?!' By Allaah! None of us dared go close to Rasulullaah (for fear of being beaten) besides Abu Bakr (for fear

Some leaders of the Quraysh throw the Entrails of an Animal on Rasulullaah and Abul Bakhtari takes Revenge on his Behalf

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (narrates that while Rasulullaah (was performing salaah in the Masjidul Haraam, seven members of the Quraysh were

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ya'la.

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.17). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.67) has also narrated the Hadith.

⁽³⁾ The Mu'min referred to in verses 28 to 45 of Surah Mu'min (Surah 40).

⁽⁴⁾ Bazzaar as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.271). Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.47) has commented on the chain of narrators.

sitting in the Hateem. They were Abu Jahal bin Hishaam, Shayba bin Rabee'ah, Utba bin Rabee'ah, Uqba bin Abi Mu'eet, Umayyah bin Khalaf and another two persons. Whenever Rasulullaah went into Sajdah (prostration), he lengthened his Sajdah. Abu Jahal asked the others which of them would volunteer to go to a certain tribe that had slaughtered some camels and bring back the entrails of a camel to throw on Rasulullaah to the worst of them who was Uqba bin Abi Mu'eet brought it and threw it on the shoulders of Rasulullaah while he was in Sajdah.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood says that he stood there watching but was unable to say anything because there was no one there to protect him (if the mob attacked him). As he was leaving, the daughter of Rasulullaah Hadhrat Faatima heard about the incident and came there. After she had removed the filth from Rasulullaah shoulders, she turned to the members of the Quraysh present there and admonished them. None of them were able to give her a reply. Rasulullaah then lifted his head as he normally lifted it after completing the Sajdah and when he had finished his salaah, he prayed, "O Allaah! You deal with the Quraysh; deal with Utba, Uqba, Abu Jahal and Shayba." Rasulullaah made this du'aa three times and then left the Masjid.

Wearing his whip as a belt, Abul Bakhtari met Rasulullaah Wearing the disturbed look on Rasulullaah Wearing is face, he asked, "What is the matter?" Rasulullaah Wearing said, "Please leave me to myself." Abul Bakhtari insisted, "Allaah knows that I shall never leave you to yourself until you tell me what had happened. Have you been hurt?" When Rasulullaah Wearing realized that Abul Bakhtari would not leave him alone, he informed him that the entrails of a camel were thrown on him by the instruction of Abu Jahal. Abul Bakhtari said, "Come to the Masjid." When Rasulullaah Wearing and Abul Bakhtari entered the Masjid, Abul Bakhtari confronted Abu Jahal and asked, "O Abul Hakam! Is it you who instructed that the entrails of a camel should be thrown on Muhammad?" When Abu Jahal admitted that he did, Abul Bakhtari lifted his whip and smote Abu Jahal on the head. As the people started fighting with each other, Abu Jahal shouted, "Shame on you people! Muhammad wants us to be at loggerheads while he and his companions remain safe." (1)

Bukhari, Muslim, Tirmidhi and others have also reported the incident of Abul Bakhtari in brief. The narration of Bukhari states that after they had thrown the entrails on Rasulullaah the Mushrikeen started laughing so much that they actually fell on top of each other. The narration of Ahmad quotes from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood that he saw all seven of these Mushrikeen killed during the Battle of Badr. (2)

Hadhrat Hamza (is outraged when Abu Jahal Harasses Rasulullaah)

Hadhrat Ya'qoob bin Utba narrates that Abu Jahal once approached Rasulullaah

(1) Bazzaar and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.18) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Nu'aym has reported a similar narration in Dalaa'il (Pg.90).

(2) Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.44).

was an avid hunter and was out hunting that day. His wife had seen what Abu Jahal did and when Hadhrat Hamza returned, she said to him, "O Abu Umaarah! If only you had seen what that man (Abu Jahal) had done to your nephew!" Hadhrat Hamza was furious and without even entering his home, he proceeded as he was. With his bow still hanging from his shoulders, he entered the Masjidul Haraam where he found Abu Jahal sitting in a gathering of the Quraysh. Without saying a word, he lifted his bow above Abu Jahal's head and wounded him. When some others members of the Quraysh stood up to restrain Hadhrat Hamza he said, "My religion is the same as that of Muhammad Liber. I testify that he is the Rasul of Allaah. I swear by Allaah that I shall never budge from this. You may try to stop me if you are true in your religion!"

When Hadhrat Hamza accepted Islaam, Rasulullaah and the Muslims were strengthened and they became more steadfast in their affairs. The Quraysh became frightened because they knew that Hadhrat Hamza would be there to protect Rasulullaah (1)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ka'b Qurazi narrates that once when Hadhrat Hamza was returning from doing some archery, a woman met him and told him that his nephew (Rasulullaah) had suffered terribly at the hands of Abu Jahal who had sworn at him, hurt him and done many terrible things to him. Hadhrat Hamza saked, "Did anyone see him doing this?" When she informed him that many people had witnessed the incident, he proceeded to a gathering near Safa and Marwa. There he found the gathering still present with Abu Jahal sitting amongst them. Leaning on his bow, Hadhrat Hamza told the people what he had shot with his bow and other things he had done. He then took hold of the bow with both hands and struck Abu Jahal so hard on the middle of his head that the bow broke. He then said, "Take that with a bow, Next time it will be a sword. I testlfy that he (Muhammad is the Rasul of Allaah who had brought the truth from Allaah." The people said, "O Abu Umaarah! He insults our gods and although you are better than him, we would never tolerate that even from you. However, O Abu Umaarah, you have never been an unpleasant person." (2)

Abu Jahal Resolves to Cause Harm to Rasulullaah and Allaah Humiliates him

Hadhrat Abbaas in arrates that he was once in the Masjidul Haraam when Abu Jahal arrived and said, "I have vowed for Allaah that if I see Muhammad in Sajdah, I will tramp on his neck." Hadhrat Abbaas says, "When I informed Rasulullaah about this, Rasulullaah left angrily for the Masjidul Haraam and was in such a hurry to get there that instead of using the door, he scaled the wall. I said, 'This is bound to be a horrible day.' I tied my lower garment tightly and followed Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.267) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.267) has commented on the chain of narrators. Haakim has also reported the narration in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.192).

When Rasulullaah entered the Masjidul Haraam, he recited:

"Read in the name of your Rabb Who created (everything), created man from a clot of blood..." {Surah Alaq, verses 1,2} Rasulullaah (continued reciting the Surah until he reached the verses referring to Abu Jahal, which read:

"It is a fact that man (the Kaafir like Abu Jahal) is rebellious (even exceeding the bounds of humanity) because he considers himself to be independent." {Surah Alaq, verses 6,7}

When someone informed Abu Jahal that Rasulullaah had arrived, he said, "Do you not see what I see? By Allaah! The horizons have been shut before me!" Rasulullaah then went into Sajdah when he had completed reciting the Surah. (1)

Tulayb bin Umayr Avenges the harm that Abu Jahal Caused to Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Barra bint Abi Tajra and cause him much harm. Tulayb bin Umayr and cause him much harm. Tulayb bin Umayr went to Abu Jahal and gave him a blow that wounded his head. When the other Mushrikeen grabbed hold of Tulayb (Tulayb), Abu Lahab stood up to defend him. When news of the incident reached Hadhrat Arwa (Tulayb's mother), she exclaimed, "Verily, the best day of Tulayb's life is the day he assisted his cousin (Rasulullaah)."

When Abu Lahab was told that (his sister) Hadhrat Arwa had accepted Islaam, he came to reproach her. She said, "You should also stand in defence of your nephew because if he dominates, you shall have some choice and if he does not, you will be excused because he is your nephew." Abu Lahab said, "Do we have strength (to fight) against all the Arabs? Nevertheless, he has introduced a religion." (2)

Rasulullaah EEE Curses Utayba bin Abi Lahab because of the Hurt he caused and he is Eventually Killed

Hadhrat Qataada narrates that Rasulullaah s daughter Ummu Kulthoom was married to Utayba the son of Abu Lahab. At the same time, (Rasulullaah s other daughter) Ruqayya was married to Abu Lahab's other son Utba. However, she had not yet started living with her husband when

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.43). Tabraani has also narrated it in his Kabeer and Awsat. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.227) has commented on the chain of narrators. Haakim has narrated a similar Hadith in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.325) and commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.227).

Rasulullaah announced his Nabuwaat. Allaah then revealed the Surah:

May the hands of Abu Lahab be shattered and may he be destroyed. Neither his wealth nor the things he earned shall benefit him (when he faces the terrible punishment of the Aakhirah). He shall soon enter the flaming fire (of Jahannam) and his wife as well. (Evil is) That woman (his wife) who carries firewood. (This refers to her evil act of collecting thorny branches to place on the path that Rasulullaah (frequented.) Around her neck (in Jahannam) shall be a securely-woven string (a yoke). {Surah Lahab, verse 1-5}

Abu Lahab then said to his sons Utba and Utayba, "I shall have nothing to do with you two if you do not divorce the daughters of Muhammad." Their mother was the daughter of Harb bin Umayyah and she is referred to (in the above Surah) as "That woman who carries firewood". She said, "My beloved sons! Divorce them for they have forsaken their religion." The sons therefore divorced their wives. After Utayba divorced Hadhrat Ummu Kulthoom have divorced your daughter so that you never come to me and I never have to come to you." He then assaulted Rasulullaah and even tore his upper garment. This occurred when he was bound to leave for Shaam on business. Rasulullaah said, "I pray that Allaah unleashes one of his dogs on you."

Utayba then left with a group of traders from the Quraysh. When they pitched camp at a place called Zarqaa one night, a lion circled their camp. Utayba said, "May my mother be destroyed! By Allaah this lion is certainly going to eat me as Muhammad had mentioned. Ibn Ai Kabsha (Rasulullaah (1864)) has killed me while he is in Makkah and I am in Shaam." Ignoring the others, the lion attacked Utayba and killed him with a single bite. Narrating from Hishaam bin Urwa and his father, Zuhayr bin Alaa states that after circling them that night, the lion left. The traders then slept, placing Utayba between them all. However, the animal leapt over all of them and bit Utayba's head off. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan married Hadhrat Ummu Kulthoom after (her sister and his wife) Hadhrat Ruqayya passed away. (1)

Rasulullaah Suffers at the hands of his Two Neighbours Abu Lahab and Uqba bin Abi Mu'eet

Rabee'ah bin Ubayd Deeli woo once said to the people around him, "I hear you people talking a lot about the difficulties that the Quraysh gave Rasulullaah was I have seen much of this harassment. The house of Rasulullaah was between those of Abu Lahab and Uqba bin Abi Mu'eet. When Rasulullaah would return home, he used to find entrails of animals, blood and filth hanging on his door. Removing these with the end of his bow, Rasulullaah www would say, "O Quraysh! These are terrible neighbours indeed!" (1)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg. 18) has commented on the chain of narrators.

The Pain Rasulullaah Endured in Taa'if

Hadhrat Urwa that she once asked Rasulullaah "Have you experienced a day more difficult than the day the Battle of Uhud was fought?" Rasulullaah replied, "Although I have experienced tremendous hardship from your people, the worst occurred on the day of Aqaba (Taa'if) when I presented my case to (their chief) Ibn Abd Yaleel bin Abd Kulaal (asking him to accept Islaam and grant me asylum). However, he refused to accept. I then walked away in great distress and my depression abated only when I reached Qarn Tha'aalib."

"When I lifted my head, I saw a cloud shading me. When I looked closer, I noticed Jibra'eel in the cloud, he called me saying, 'Your Rabb has certainly heard what your people have said to you and how they responded to you. Allaah has sent the angel in charge of the mountains to you so that you may command him as you like.' The angel in charge of the mountains then greeted me and said, 'O Muhammad White! What Jibra'eel white said is true. What do you wish? Do you want me to make the two mountains meet (and crush the people between them)?"

Rasulullaah (2)'s reply to him was, "I rather wish that Allaah creates people from their progeny who will worship only the One Allaah without ascribing any partners to Him." (2)

Ibn Shihaab narrates that after Abu Taalib passed away, Rasulullaah went to Taa'if hoping that the people there would grant him asylum. There he met three leaders of the Thaqeef clan who were all brothers. Their names were Abd Yaleel, Habeeb and Mas'ood who were all the sons of Amr. Rasulullaah presented his case to them and told them about the impudent treatment he received from his people. However, their response was most appalling. (3)

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr rarrates that after Abu Taalib passed away, the harassment that Rasulullaah experienced increased tremendously. He then went to the Thaqeef tribe (in Taa'if), hoping that they would grant him asylum and assist him. There he met three chiefs of the Thaqeef clan. They were all brothers whose names were Abd Yaleel bin Amr, Habeeb bin Amr and Mas'ood bin Amr. Rasulullaah presented his case to them and told them about the torment and impudent treatment he received from his people.

However, one of them said, "If Allaah has sent you with anything at all, I shall steal the covering of the Kabah!" The other said, "By Allaah! I shall never speak a word to you again after this! If you are really a Nabi, you are too honourable to speak to me." The third one said, "Was Allaah unable to find anyone besides you to make a Nabi?"

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.21) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bukhari (Vol. 1 Pg. 458). Muslim and Nasa'ee have also reported this narration.

⁽³⁾ Moosa bin Uqba in his Maghaazi. Ibn Is'haaq has also narrated it in more detail as quoted in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.6 Pg.198).

When news of what the chiefs said to Rasulullaah spread throughout the town, the people gathered to poke fun at Rasulullaah spread in rows on either side of the road and took stones in their hands. Rasulullaah was unable to even lift a foot or put it down without them throwing a stone at him. Together with this, they continued poking fun at him and mocking him. After Rasulullaah had passed through their rows, he proceeded to one of their vineyards with blood flowing down to his feet. There he took shade beneath some vines and sat down on the ground in great distress and pain. Blood was still running down his feet.

In the vineyard, Rasulullaah saw Utba bin Rabee'ah and Shayba bin Rabee'ah. However, even though he was suffering tremendous pain and difficulty, he did not want to approach them because he knew the enmity they bore for Allaah and His Rasool saw. They then sent some grapes to Rasulullaah with their slave Addaas who was a Christian from Nineveh. Addaas brought the grapes and placed it in front of Rasulullaah was awas amazed. Rasulullaah recited – "In the name of Allaah" (before eating), Addaas was amazed. Rasulullaah was asked, "Where are you from, O Addaas?" When he informed Rasulullaah that he was from Nineveh, Rasulullaah said, "You are from the town of the pious man Yunus bin Matta saked, "How do you know about Yunus bin Matta Rasulullaah then informed him what he knew about Hadhrat Yunus said. It was the nature of Rasulullaah that he never regarded anyone to be inferior to himself and (even though Addaas was a slave) he conveyed the message of Allaah to him.

When Addaas asked to know more about Hadhrat Yunus and Rasulullaah told him what had been revealed to him, Addaas prostrated to Rasulullaah He then started kissing the feet of Rasulullaah although blood was flowing from them. Utba and his brother Shayba kept silent when they saw what their slave was doing and when he returned to them, they asked him, "What is the matter with you that you were prostrating before Muhammad and kissing his feet? We have never seen you do this for anyone else." Addaas explained, "That is a pious man. The things he told me reminded me of a Nabi that Allaah had sent to us by the name of Yunus bin Mata he also told me that he is Allaah's Rasul." Utba and Shaybah laughed and said, "Let him not take you away from Christianity because he is a man who deceives." Rasulullaah then returned to Makkah. (1)

Another narration states that the people of Taa'if sat in two rows along the road of Rasulullaah and when he passed, he could not even lift a foot or put it down without them throwing stones at him. Because of this, he was covered in blood and by the time he had passed through them, blood flowed down to his feet.

A narration of Ibn Is'haaq states that after Rasulullaah when had lost all hope of any good coming from them, he stood up and among other things, he said to them, "Although you have done (to me) what you did, at least do me the favour of not mentioning any of this to my people." Rasulullaah did not want his people to know about what had happened to him because it would embolden them against him. However, they would not do this and the ruffians and slaves amongst them attacked Rasulullaah did and forced him to seek shelter in an orchard belonging to Utba bin Rabee'ah and Shayba bin Rabee'ah, who happened to be there. The ruffians who were chasing him then returned and Rasulullaah took shade under some grape vines where he sat as Utba and Shayba looked on. They had already witnessed the treatment he had received from the Taa'if hooligans. The narrator says that among the reports he received was that Rasulullaah met a woman from the Banu Jamh tribe and said to her, "Your in-laws certainly gave me great difficulty!"

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Dalaa'il (Pg. 103).

The Du'aa Rasulullaah made after Leaving Taa'if

Once Rasulullaah felt that he was safe from the Taa'if mob, he made the following du'aa:

"اَللّٰهُمَّ النَّكُ أَشْكُواْ صُعُفَ قُوَّتِي وَقِلَّه حِيْلَتِي وَهَوَائِي عَلَى النَّاسِ يَا أَرْحَمَ الرَّحِمِيْنَ أَنْتَ رَبَّ الْمُسْتَضْعَفِيْنَ وَأَنْتَ رَبِّي الِّي مَنْ تَكِلَّنِيُ اللّٰي عَدُوِّ يَّتَجَهَّمُنِي أَمْ الَي قَرِيْبٍ مَّلَّكُتَهُ أَمْرِي إِنْ لَمْ يَكُنُ بِكَ عَصَبُ فَلَا أَبَالِي وَلَكِنَّ عَافِيَتَكَ هِيَ أَوْسَعُ لِي أَعُودُ بِنُوْدٍ مَلْكُتَهُ أَمْرُ الدَّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ أَنْ يَنُولَ بِي غَضَبُكَ وَجَهِكَ اللّهِ يَكُنُ بِكُ غَضَبُكَ وَصَلَحَ عَلَيْهِ أَمْرُ الدَّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ أَنْ يَنْوِلَ بِي غَضَبُكَ وَجُهِكَ اللّٰهِ اللهِ سَخَطُكَ لَكَ الْعُنْبَى حَتَّى تَرْضَى وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةً إِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ."

TRANSLATION: "O Allaah! Only to you do I communicate my weakness, my lack of ingenuity and lack of importance among people. O the most Merciful of those who show mercy, You are certainly the Rabb of the weak and You are my Rabb. To whom shall you hand me over? To an enemy who will treat me harshly or to a near one to whom You shall give control over me? If You are not angry with me, I care for nothing. All I require is that Your protection should be vast enough for me. In the light of Your Countenance by which multitudes of darkness are turned to light and by which the affairs of this world and the Aakhirah are remedied, I seek protection from being afflicted by Your wrath and displeasure. The causes of Your displeasure should be removed until You are pleased. There is no power and no might but with Allaah."

Addaas who was a Christian Accepts Islaam and Testifies that Rasulullaah is Certainly the Rasul of Allaah

When Utba and Shayba, the two sons of Rabee'ah saw what had happened to Rasulullaah moved them and they said to their Christian slave Addaas, "Take a stalk of this grape vine, put it in a plate and take it to that man. Tell him that he should eat it." Addaas did as he was told. He took the grapes, placed it in front of Rasulullaah man and told him to eat.

When Rasulullaah put his hand in the plate, he recited - "In the name of Allaah". Addaas looked into Rasulullaah is face and said, "By Allaah! The people of this area do not say such words." Rasulullaah asked, "From the people of which area do you belong O Addaas? What is your religion?" Addaas replied, "I am a Christian from the people of Nineveh." Rasulullaah commented, "You are from the town of the pious man Yunus bin Matta "I". "How do you know about Yunus bin Matta "I" asked Addaas. "He is my brother. He was a Nabi and I am a Nabi." Addaas then bowed in front of Rasulullaah and kissed his head, hands and feet. One of Rabee'ah's sons said to the other, "He has caused problems for you with your slave."

When Addaas returned to them, they said to him, "Shame on you, O Addaas! What overcame you that you kissed the head, hands and feet of that man?" Addaas replied, "O my master! There is no person on this earth better than that man. He told me things that only a Nabi could know." They said to him, "Shame on you, O Addaas! Let him never shift you from your religion because your religion is better than his." (1)

Another narration states that Addaas said to Rasulullaah (###, "I testify that you are the servant and messenger of Allaah." (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha rarrates that (her father) Hadhrat Abu Bakr once said, "If only you had seen Rasulullaah and myself as we climbed up to the cave (of Thowr en-route to Madinah)! The feet of Rasulullaah were dripping with blood while mine had become (numb) like a stone." Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "Rasulullaah was never used to walking barefoot." (3)

The Hardship Rasulullaah Bore During the Battle of Uhud

Hadhrat Anas in arrates that the canine teeth of Rasulullaah were broken during the Battle of Uhud and he was severely injured on the head. Wiping the blood from his face, he said, "How can a nation be successful when they have injured his head and broken his teeth when he calls them to Allaah?!" It was on this occasion that Allaah revealed the verse:

(سورة ال عمران: ١٢٨)

You have no choice in the matter (of punishing the Mushrikeen. Only Allaah decides if and when people ought to be punished). (If Allaah wills,) He shall grant them the ability to repent (and become Muslims) or He may punish them (if He chooses not to guide them to Islaam), for they are indeed oppressors (oppressing themselves by not becoming Muslims). {Surah Aal Imraan, verse 128} (1)

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.135)

⁽²⁾ Sulaymaan Taymi in his biography of Rasulullaah (2) as mentioned in Isaaba (Vol. 2 Pg. 466).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Mardway as reported in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.329).

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri was narrates that when Rasulullaah sustained an Injury to his face during the Battle of Uhud, Hadhrat Maalik bin Sinaan turned to him, wiped the wound and then swallowed the blood. Rasulullaah then said, "Whoever wishes to see someone whose blood is mixed with mine, should look at Maalik bin Sinaan." (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha harrates that whenever Hadhrat Abu Bakr spoke about the Battle of Uhud, he would say, "Every credit for that day goes to Talha." He then continued to explain, "I was the first person to return to the fight (after the Muslims were taken by surprise) and I saw someone very fiercely defending Rasulullaah is I said (to myself) '(I hope that it would) Be Talha!' Since I had missed what (rewards of defending Rasulullaah is I had missed, I wanted him to be a man from amongst my people (so that we may have the honour, and Talha was from amongst my people). Between the Mushrikeen and myself was another person whom I did not recognise. While I was closer to Rasulullaah he was running much faster than I could. He turned out to be Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah."

"When we reached Rasulullaah his canine tooth was already broken and his face was injured when two links of his helmet pierced his cheeks. Rasulullaah said, 'See to your companion!' Rasulullaah was referring to Talha who had become weak due to loss of blood. However, (seeing the condition of Rasulullaah was to remove the links from his face. Abu Ubaydah pleaded to me, 'By the right that I have (as your Muslim brother), do leave it to me.' So I left it for him. Because of the pain that it would have caused Rasulullaah had, Abu Ubaydah disliked pulling the links out with his hand so he bit hard onto it and pulled out one of the links. However, one of his front teeth fell out in the process. When I motioned to do as he had done, he again pleaded, 'By the right that I have, do leave it to me.' He then repeated what he had done the first time and another front tooth fell out with the link. Abu Ubaydah was one of the best looking people without front teeth."

"After tending to Rasulullaah , we went to Talha who had fallen into a ditch. He had suffered seventy odd wounds inflicted by spears, arrows and swords. We then nursed him." (3)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari, Muslim and Tirmidhi as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.47).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani in his Kabeer as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.47).

⁽³⁾ Tayaalisi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 4 Pg.29). The narration has also been reported by Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 3 Pg.298), Shaashi, Bazzaar, Tabraani in his Awsat, Ibn Hibbaan, Daar Qutni in his Afraad, Abu Nu'aym in his Ma'rifah and Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 5 Pg.274).

The Sahabah Endure Hardships and difficulties when Giving Da'wah towards Allaah

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Endures Hardships and difficulties

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Sime) Insists on Preaching Islaam Openly and is Grievously Hurt after Delivering a Sermon

Hadhrat Aa'isha for permission to preach Islaam openly. Rasulullaah for permission to preach Islaam openly. Rasulullaah said, "O Abu Bakr! We are too few." However, Hadhrat Abu Bakr for permission to preach Islaam openly. Rasulullaah continued insisting until Rasulullaah gave the permission. The Muslims then scattered in different areas of the Masjidul Haraam, each one taking a place amongst his tribesmen. Hadhrat Abu Bakr then stood up to deliver a sermon as Rasulullaah remained seated. This was the very first public sermon dedicated to inviting people towards Allaah and His Rasool

The Mushrikeen then attacked Hadhrat Abu Bakr (and the Muslims and wherever they were in the Masjidul Haraam, they were beaten very severely. Hadhrat Abu Bakr (and was trampled and beaten most savagely. The wretched Utba bin Rabee'ah started hitting Hadhrat Abu Bakr (with his shoes that had a sole stuck onto another (making them thick and hard). He hit Hadhrat Abu Bakr (so much and also jumped on his stomach that the soles actually twisted and the nose of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (could not be differentiated from his face.

The Banu Taym tribe (to which Hadhrat Abu Bakr belonged) came running and pushed the Mushrikeen away from Hadhrat Abu Bakr he would he mushed and took him home. By then they were convinced that he would die. The Banu Taym then returned to the Masjidul Haraam and announced, "By Allaah! We shall definitely kill Utba bin Rabee'ah if Abu Bakr dies!" thereafter, they returned to Hadhrat Abu Bakr and together with (his father) Abu Quhaafa, they started talking to Hadhrat Abu Bakr him to respond. Hadhrat Abu Bakr finally spoke after the day had passed and asked, "How is Rasulullaah finally spoke after the day had passed and asked, "How is Rasulullaah finally spoke after the day had passed and asked, "How is Rasulullaah finally spoke after the day had passed and asked, "How is Rasulullaah finally spoke after the day had passed and asked, "How is Rasulullaah finally spoke after the day had passed and asked, "How is Rasulullaah finally spoke after the day had passed and asked, "How is Rasulullaah finally spoke after the day had passed and asked, "How is Rasulullaah finally spoke after the day had passed and asked, "How is Rasulullaah finally spoke after the day had passed and asked, "How is Rasulullaah finally spoke after the day had passed and spoke after the day h

When his mother was alone with him, she insisted that he eat, but he kept asking, "How is Rasulullaah "?" She said, "I swear by Allaah that I have no knowledge about your friend." He said, "Go and ask Ummu Jameel bint Khattaab about Rasulullaah "." His mother left to meet Ummu Jameel and asked her, "Abu Bakr wants to know from you about Muhammad bin Abdillaah." Ummu Jameel responded by saying, "I neither know Abu Bakr nor Muhammad bin Abdillaah. However, if you like, I shall go with you to see your son." Ummul Krayr agreed and Ummu Jameel accompanied her until they came to Hadhrat Abu Bakr who was lying down (unable to even sit) and extremely ill. Coming closer, Ummu Jameel cried, "By Allaah! Those who did this to you must be people of kufr and sin! I hope that Allaah takes revenge from them on your behalf."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then asked, "How is Rasulullaah "" 'Ummu Jameel said, "Your mother is listening." He said, "You have nothing to fear from her." She then replied, "Rasulullaah is safe and sound." "Where is he?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr saked further. Ummu Jameel said, "He is in the house of Arqam." Hadhrat Abu Bakr sowed, "I swear by Allaah that I shall neither eat or drink until I go to Rasulullaah ""." The two ladies then waited for a time (late at night) when the movement of people had calmed down and people were resting. Giving him support, they then took him to Rasulullaah (When he saw Hadhrat Abu Bakr (When he saw Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah)) Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah) Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah rhere is nothing wrong with me except for what that wretch did to my face. This is my mother who has been exceptionally good to me. You are a most blessed person so invite her towards Allaah and pray for her. Perhaps Allaah shall use you to save her from the Fire of Jahannam." Rasulullaah then made du'aa for her and invited her to believe in Allaah. She then accepted Islaam.

For a month, the Muslims who numbered thirty-nine individuals stayed with Rasulullaah in that house. Hadhrat Hamza bin Abdil Muttalib (the uncle of Rasulullaah (26)) accepted Islaam on the day that Hadhrat Abu Bakr was beaten up.

Rasulullaah Prays for Hadhrat Umar and he Accepts Islaam

Rasulullaah as made du'aa for (Allaah to guide) Hadhrat Umar or Abu Jahal bin Hishaam. The du'aa was made on a Wednesday and Hadhrat Umar accepted Islaam on Thursday. (When Hadhrat Umar accepted Islaam) The Muslims shouted "Allaahu Akbar" so loudly that their shout was heard in the upper parts of Makkah. The father of Hadhrat Arqam who was a blind man and a Kaafir came out of his house saying, "O Allaah! Forgive my child Arqam for he has rejected our religion."

(When he accepted Islaam) Hadhrat Umar said to Rasulullaah we keep our religion secret when we are on the truth while the false religion of the Kuffaar is made public?" Rasulullaah replied, "We are too few and you have just seen the beating we received." Hadhrat Umar said, "I swear by the Being that has sent you with the truth that I shall make my Imaan known to all the gatherings of kufr which I had been part of." Hadhrat Umar then performed Tawaaf around the Kabah and passed by the leaders of the Quraysh as they watched.

Abu Jahal bin Hishaam said, "Someone has mentioned that you have forsaken your religion?" Hadhrat Umar (declared):

"وَ أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَ رَسُولُه"

"I testify that there is none worthy of worship but the One Allaah Who has no partner and that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul."

When the Mushrikeen got up to assault him, Hadhrat Umar attacked Utba bin Rabee'ah and (after overpowering him) squatted over him and continued beating him up and poking his fingers in his eyes until Utba screamed. (Fearing that Hadhrat Umar would make their leader blind, the others retreated.) Hadhrat Umar stood up (and left Utba) once the others had moved away. In the same way, whenever any group approached him (to assault him), he would grab hold of their leader (would beat him up and threaten to blind him) until the others gave up. He then proceeded to all the gatherings he used to frequent (as a Kaafir) and proclaimed the message of Imaan there.

After asserting his dominance over the Mushrikeen, Hadhrat Umar went to Rasulullaah and said, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! By Allaah! You now have no fear. Without any fear or trepidation, I have proclaimed the message of Imaan in every gathering I used to frequent as a Kaafir." With Hadhrat Umar went in front of him, Rasulullaah went with Hadhrat Hamza where they performed Tawaaf of the Kabah and then performed the Zuhr salaah without any fear. Thereafter, Rasulullaah returned to house of Hadhrat Arqam with in the company of Hadhrat Umar was later left by himself and then Rasulullaah also left.

The most correct opinion is that Hadhrat Umar (See accepted Islaam only after some Sahabah (See had migrated to Abyssinia, which was six years after Rasulullaah (1) announced his prophethood. (1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr leaves for Abyssinia when the Muslims Face Intense Harassment and Meets Ibnud Daghina

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "I never knew my parents to be adherents of any religion besides the Deen of Islaam. Not a day passed when Rasulullaah did not visit us every morning and night. When the Muslims were being harassed greatly, (my father) Abu Bakr decided to migrate to Abyssinia. When he reached a place called Barkul Ghimaad, Ibnud Daghina who was the leader of the Qaara tribe met him and asked, 'Where are you off to, O' Abu Bakr?' Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, 'My people have exiled me and I intend travelling about and (1) Haafidh Abul Hasan Taraablisi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (vol.3 pg.30). It is also Haafidh Abul Hasan Taraablisi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.30). It is also narrates in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.447).

worshipping my Rabb."

Hadhrat Aa'isha anarrates further that Ibnud Daghina said, "O Abu Bakri A person like you cannot leave and cannot be made to leave. You give people what they cannot find, you maintain family ties, you carry the burdens of others, you entertain guests and you assist in all good avenues. I shall grant you protection go and worship your Rabb in your town." Ibnud Daghina then returned with Hadhrat Abu Bakr and he went around to all the leaders of the Quraysh telling them, "A person like Abu Bakr cannot leave and cannot be made to leave. How can you exile a person who gives people what they cannot find, who maintains family ties, who carries the burdens of others, who entertains guests and who assists in all good avenues." The Quraysh did not oppose the amnesty that Ibnud Daghina had granted but said to him, "Tell Abu Bakr that he should worship his Rabb in his house, perform his salaah there and recite as much of the Qur'aan he wishes. However, he should not annoy us by doing this in public because we fear that he would then mislead our women and children." Ibnud Daghina conveyed this message to Hadhrat Abu Bakr Hadhrat Abu Bakr then stayed like this. He worshipped Allaah in his house, did not perform salaah in public and did not recite Qur'aan in any house but his own. It then occurred to him that he should construct a Masjid in the courtyard of his house and here he used to perform salaah and recite the Qur'aan. The women and children of the Mushrikeen crowded around to look at him for they were overwhelmed by him. He was a man who wept easily and could not control his eyes when he recited the Qur'aan. This development alarmed the leaders of the Quraysh and they send for Ibnud Daghina.

When Ibnud Daghina met them, they said to him, "We sanctioned the amnesty that you granted to Abu Bakr on condition that he worships his Rabb within the confines of his house. He has now overstepped the bounds by building a Masjid in the courtyard of his house where he openly performs salaah and recites the Qur'aan. We greatly fear that he shall mislead our women and children. You had better stop him. If he confines the worship of his Rabb to his house, he may do so. However, if he is adamant to do so publicly, ask him to absolve you of your amnesty because we would hate to break our promise to you. We cannot (under any circumstances) allow Abu Bakr to make things public."

Hadhrat Aa'isha ("You know well the conditions of the agreement I made with you. You may either confine yourself to these conditions or absolve me of the amnesty I have granted because I would not like to hear the Arabs say that I had reneged on an agreement I had made with someone." Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("I absolve you of the amnesty you have granted and am pleased with the protection of Allaah." The details of the Hadith shall be mentioned in the discussion of Hijrah. (1)

A similar narration of Ibn Is'haaq states that after leaving Makkah with the intention of migrating, Hadhrat Abu Bakr was one or two days journey away when Ibnud Daghina met him. Ibnud Daghina was then the leader of the Ahaabeesh (various clans that form part of the Qaara tribe). When he asked Hadhrat Abu Bakr where he was headed, Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "My people have exiled me after, harassing me and making things difficult for me." Ibnud Daghina said, "Why should they do this? By Allaah! You are the pride of the family, you assist in all good causes, you are always doing good and you give people what they cannot find. Return (to Makkah) for you are under my protection."

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari (Vol.1 Pg.552).

Hadhrat Abu Bakr therefore returned with Ibnud Daghina and when they entered Makkah, Ibnud Daghina stood beside Hadhrat Abu Bakr and announced, "O Quraysh! I have taken the son of Abu Quhaafa into my protection so everyone should treat him well." The people therefore stopped harassing Hadhrat Abu Bakr

The concluding part of this narration states that Ibnud Daghina said, "O Abu Bakr! I did not grant you amnesty so that you may annoy your people. They dislike the place you have adopted (in your courtyard) and it annoys them, Go into your house and do as you please." Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经减少 said, "Should I rather absolve you of your protection and content myself with the protection of Allaah?" Ibnud Daghina said, "Do absolve me of the protection I have granted you." When Hadhrat Abu Bakr 遊遊遊 absolved Ibnud Daghina, he stood up and announced, "O assembly of the Ouraysh! The son of Abu Ouhaafa has absolved me of the protection I have granted him. You may do as you please with him." (1) Another narration of Ibn Is'haaq states that after Hadhrat Abu Bakr www gave up the protection that Ibnud Daghina had given him, one of the foolish people from the Quraysh who passed him on the way to the Kabah threw some sand on his head. When Waleed bin Mughiera or Aas bin Waa'il passed by, Hadhrat Abu Bakr said to him, "Did you not see what that fool did?" The reply was, "You have done this to yourself." Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉國國 then said, "O my Rabb! How tolerant are You! O my Rabb! How tolerant are You! O my Rabb! How tolerant are You!" (2)

The narration reported by Hadhrat Asmaa has already passed has already passed which states, "The shouts reached my father Abu Bakr as the people called out, 'Help your friend!'. As my father left us (I can still clearly recall that) his hair had four locks and he was saying:

'Will you kill a man for saying, 'Allaah is my Rabb', when he has brought the truth to you from your Rabb?' {Surah Mu'min, verse 28}

The mob then left Rasulullaah 🕮 and turned on Abu Bakr. When he returned to us, (he was beaten so badly that) merely touching the locks of his hair would cause it to fall off. However, he was saying, 'You are most Blessed, O the Possessor of Majesty and Honour."

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.94).

⁽²⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.95).

⁽³⁾ Under the heading "Rasulullaah (3) Endures Hardship and Difficulty when Giving Da'wah towards Allaah" and the subheading "The Harassment that Rasulullaah (3) Received from the Quraysh and his Response".

Hadhrat Umar Endures Hardships and difficulties

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Mission narrates, "When (my father) Hadhrat Umar accepted Islaam, he asked, 'Which person of the Quraysh is the best informant?' When he was told that it was Jameel bin Ma'mar Jumhi, he went to him early in the morning. I followed my father to see what he was doing. Although I was then still a child, I understood everything I saw. When he arrived, Hadhrat Umar said, 'O Jameel! Do you know that I have accepted Islaam and entered into the religion of Muhammad "B"?' By Allaah! Jameel gave no response and left, pulling his shawl along with him. Hadhrat Umar followed him and I followed my father."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar inarrates further that Jameel arrived at the door of the Masjidul Haraam as the people were sitting in their gatherings around the Kabah. He then screamed at the top of his voice, "O assembly of the Quraysh! The son of Khattaab has become a heretic!" Standing behind him, Hadhrat Umar said, "He is lying! The fact is that I have accepted Islaam and I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's Rasul." The people then attacked Hadhrat Umar and they continued fighting him until the sun stood above their heads (midday). Exhausted, Hadhrat Umar then sat down and the people stood over him. He said, "Do as you please. I swear by Allaah that we now number three hundred strong and we shall either leave Makkah for you or you leave it for us."

As they were talking, an old man from the Quraysh arrived wearing clothes made in Yemen with a striped upper garment. He asked, "What is the matter with you lot?" When they told him that Hadhrat Umar had accepted Islaam, he said, "Then stop this. Do you think that the Banu Adi tribe (to which he belongs) will hand their man over to you just like that? Leave the man alone." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar had says, "By Allaah! The people then (disappeared so fast that it) seemed as if a sheet had been lifted from Hadhrat Umar had After migrating to Madinah, I once asked my father, 'Dear father! Who was that old man who drove those people away from you in Makkah when they were fighting with you on the day you accepted Islaam?' He replied, 'That man, dear son, was Aas bin Waa'il Sahm!." (1)

Another narration quotes Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (who says, "As he (Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar)))))))) was sitting at home in fear, Aas bin Waa'il Sahmi (also known as) Abu Ameerul Mu'mineen arrived wearing clothing made in Yemen with an upper garment threaded with silk. He belonged to the Banu Sahm tribe who were our allies during the Period of Ignorance. He asked, 'What is the matter?' Hadhrat Umar replied, 'Your people want to kill me because I have accepted Islaam.' Aas bin Waa'il said, 'They can do nothing to you (for you are in my protection).' I felt safe once he said this. He then left and met up with so many people that they filled the valley. When he asked them where they were headed, they replied, 'We want that son of Khattaab who has forsaken his religion.' Aas bin Waa'il said, 'You can do him nothing.' The people then all dispersed." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn is'haaq as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.82).

Hadhrat Uthmaan Endures Hardships and difficulties

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ibraheem Taymi narrates that when Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan accepted Islaam, his uncle Hakam bin Abil Aas bin Umayyah securely bound him in ropes. He then said to Hadhrat Uthmaan "Have you turned away from the creed of your forefathers and turned to a new religion?" I swear by Allaah that I shall never release you until you forsake the religion you follow." Hadhrat Uthmaan "replied, "I swear by Allaah that I shall never leave it." When Hakam saw how steadfast Hadhrat Uthmaan was in his religion, he released him. (2)

Hadhrat Talha Endures Hardships and difficulties

Hadhrat Mas'ood bin Khiraash ("While we were walking between Safa and Marwa, we saw a large group of people following a young man whose arm was in a sling around his neck. When I asked who the man was, I was told that he was Talha bin Ubaydillaah who had accepted Islaam. Behind him was a woman who was furious and swearing him. When I asked who the woman was, I was informed that she was his mother Sa'ba bint Khadrami." (3)

Hadhrat Ibraheem bin Muhammad bin Talha narrates that Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillaah once told him, "I once visited the fair in Busra (in Shaam) when I heard a monk announce from his monastery, 'Ask the people in this fair if anyone of them is from the Haram.' I said, 'Yes! I am.' He asked, 'Has Ahmad made his appearance yet?' 'Who is Ahmad?' I asked. He replied, 'He is the son of Abdullaah and the grandson of Abdul Muttalib.' This is the month when he will make his appearance and he is the last of all the Ambiyaa. His origin will be from the Haram and the place to which he will migrate will be a place with date orchards and land that is rocky and salty. Beware that others do not beat you to him."

Hadhrat Talha says further, "His words affected my heart and I rushed back to Makkah. When I arrived and asked people if anything had developed recently, they replied, 'Yes. Muhammad the son of Abdillaah (who is known by the title of) Al Ameen ('the trustworthy') claims that he is a Rasul and the son of Abu Quhaafa (Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Hadhr

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari (Vol.1 Pg,545).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.37).

⁽³⁾ Bukhari in his Taareekh as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.410).

When Hadhrat Talha informed Hadhrat Abu Bakr about what the monk had said, Hadhrat Abu Bakr took Hadhrat Talha to Rasulullaah and he accepted Islaam. Rasulullaah was pleased to hear what the monk had to say. After Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Talha had accepted Islaam, Naufal bin Khuwaylid bin Adawiyyah who was known as the "Lion of the Quraysh" captured them both and tied them up with the same rope. Even the Banu Tauym tribe (to which Hadhrat Abu Bakr belonged) could not rescue them. (Because the two were tied together) Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Talha were named "The Two Companions". The narration of Bayhaqi states that Rasulullaah then made the following du'aa: "O Allaah! Save us from the evil of Ibn Adawiyya." (1)

Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam Elie Endures Hardships and difficulties

Hadhrat Abul Aswad narrates that Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam (accepted Islaam when he was only eight years of age and migrated (to Madinah) when he was eighteen years old. The uncle of Hadhrat Zubayr (used to hang him up in a straw mat and use a fire to make smoke from the bottom. He would then say, "Return to kufr!" Hadhrat Zubayr (subayr used to say, "I shall never be a Kaafir again!" (2) Hadhrat Hafs bin Khaalid narrates that an old man from Mosul came to them and said that he had accompanied Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam (on a journey). He said, "We were in an arid land when Hadhrat Zubayr (required a bath). He therefore told me to arrange for some privacy, which I did. (As he was bathing,) My gaze accidentally fell on his body and I noticed his entire body scarred by sword wounds. I said, 'By Allaah! The scars I have seen on you I have never seen on anyone else.' He asked, 'Did you see them?' 'Yes,' I replied. He responded by saying, 'Every wound of these was sustained with Rasulullaah (in the path of Allaah.'" (3) Hadhrat Ali bin Zaid narrates that someone who saw Hadhrat Zubayr (informed him that there were scars resembling eyes on his chest which were made by arrows and spears. (4)

⁽¹⁾ Haakim in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.369) as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.29).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.89) and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.151) has commented on the chain of narrators. Haakim has also reported it in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.360).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym, Tabraani, Haakim in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.360) and Ibn Asaakir as reported in Muntakhab (Vol.5 Pg.70). Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.150) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.90).

The Mu'addhin Hadhrat Bilaal bin Rabaah Endures Hardships and Difficulties

The First Person to Make his Islaam Public with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood in arrates that seven persons were the first to make their conversion to Islaam public. These were Rasulullaah in Hadhrat Abu Bakr in Hadhrat Ammaar in Hadhrat Sumayya in Hadhrat Bilaal in Hadhrat Bilaal in Hadhrat Miqdaad in Hadhrat Abu Bakr in Hadhrat Abu Bakr in Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Abu Bakr in Hadhrat Bilaal in Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Bilaal in Hadhrat Hadhrat Bilaal in Hadhrat Hadhrat Bilaal in Hadhrat Hadhrat Bilaal in Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Bilaal in Hadhrat Had

The Hardships Hadhrat Bilaal Endured for the Sake of Allaah

A narration of Mujaahid states that the other Muslims were made to wear coats of steel armour and then left to swelter in the sun. They therefore suffered terribly from the combined heat of the sun and the scorching armour. When night fell, Abu Jahal would come to them with his spear and start taunting and threatening them. (2)

Another narration of Hadhrat Mujaahid states that the Mushrikeen used to lead Hadhrat Bilaal through the two mountains of Makkah with a rope around his neck. (3)

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr (Irwa bin Iraka bilaal (Irwa bin Iraka bin Irak

Hadhrat Urwa wife narrates that when Waraqa bin Naufal used to pass by

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad and Ibn Majah as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.28), The narration is also reported by Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.284), Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.149), Ibn Abi Shayba as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.14) and Ibn Abdil Barr in Isti'aab (Vol.1 Pg.141).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.140).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg. 166).

⁽⁴⁾ Zubayr bin Bakkaar as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.634).

Hadhrat Bilaal ("Allaah is One, O Bilaal." Waraqa bin Naufal would then turn to Umayyah bin Khalaf who was responsible for torturing Hadhrat Bilaal ("Bilaah is and say, "I swear by Allaah that if you kill this man, I shall definitely make his grave a place of attracting Allaah's blessings and mercy."

Eventually, when Hadhrat Abu Bakr (he said to Umayyah, "Do you not fear Allaah for (what you are doing to) this poor man? Until when will you continue?" Umayyah said, "It is you who had landed him into this trouble. You may rescue him from this treatment you are witnessing." Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("I am prepared to do so. I have an Abyssinian slave who is stronger than him and more steadfast on your religion. I shall give him to you in exchange for this man." When Umayyah accepted the proposal, Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("You have a deal." Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("You have a deal

A narration of Ibn Is'haaq states that when the afternoon heat grew intense, Umayyah would take Hadhrat Bilaal would be outside and throw him down on the burning sands of Makkah. He would then command others to place a heavy rock on the chest of Hadhrat Bilaal would and say to him, "You shall be left like this until you die or reject Muhammad and worship Laat and Uzza!" Despite his extreme suffering, Hadhrat Bilaal would continuously say, "Ahad! Ahad!" Speaking about the torture that Hadhrat Bilaal would continuously say, "Ahad! Ahad!" Speaking about the torture that Hadhrat Bilaal would be of which Hadhrat Abu Bakr would continuously say, "Rhad! Ahad!" and about how Hadhrat Abu Bakr would freed them (because of which Hadhrat Abu Bakr would continuously say, "Ahad! Ahad!" and about how Hadhrat Abu Bakr would say freed them (because of which Hadhrat Abu Bakr

On behalf of Bilaal and his companions, may Allaah abundantly reward

Ateeq and humiliate Faakih (2) and Abu Jahal
I shall never forget the night when the two of them resolved to hurt Bilaal Without having a concern for doing the evil that intelligent men stay far from They tortured him only because of his belief in the Oneness of the Rabb of all creation and because of his statement

'I testify that Allaah is my Rabb and my heart is content with this'
'If they kill me, let them kill me but I shall never associate partners with Ar Rahmaan because of fear for death'
O the Rabb of Ibraheem, Yunus
Moosa and Isa, rescue me and do not let me be tested by those from the family of Ghaalib who continue plunging into deviation

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.148).

⁽²⁾ Faakih bin Mughiera, the paternal uncle of Abu Jahal.

who are neither righteous not just"(1)

Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir and his Family Members Endures Hardships and Difficulties

Rasulullaah Gives Glad Tidings of Jannah to Hadhrat Ammaar Gives and his Family when he sees them being Tortured

Hadhrat Jaabir (his parents) as they were being tortured by the Mushrikeen, he said, "O family of Yaasir! Hear the glad tidings that your promised abode shall be Jannah."

Hadhrat Uthmaan in narrates that he was once walking with Rasulullaah in Bat'haa (a rocky area of Makkah) when they saw Hadhrat Ammaar and his parents being tortured in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam. Hadhrat Ammaar is father (Yaasir in the sun to make them forsake Islaam.)

Hadhrat Sumayya the mother of Hadhrat Ammaar Becomes the First Martyr in Islaam

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far and his family (his parents) as they were being tortured by the Mushrikeen, he said, "Be patient, O family of Yaasir. Be patient, O family of Yaasir for your promised abode is Jannah." (4) The narration of Hadhrat Kalbi states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Yaasir (3) was also being tortured (with his brother Hadhrat Ammaar and his parents (3). The narration also adds that Hadhrat Sumayya (3) was martyred when Abu Jahal pierced his spear into the most private part of her body. Hadhrat Yaasir was martyred during the torture and (his son) Abdullaah fell (dead) when an arrow was fired at him. (5)

Hadhrat Mujaahid stated, "The first martyr was Hadhrat Sumayya the

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.148).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, Haakim, Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.293) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Haakim in his Kuna, Ibn Asaakir, Ahmad, Bayhaqi, Baghawi, Uqayli, Ibn Mandah, Abu Nu'aym and others as reported in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.72). Ibn Sa'd has also narrated it in his Tabaqaat (Vol.3 Pg.177) from Hadhrat Uthmaan (Vol.3 Pg.177).

⁽⁴⁾ Haakim Qazweeni. Ibn Kalbi has also reported the narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas
(3) Haakim Qazweeni.

⁽⁵⁾ Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.647).

mother of Hadhrat Ammaar who was martyred during the early days of Islaam when Abu Jahal pierced his spear into the most private part of her body." (1)

Hadhrat Ammaar is is Tortured Until he is Forced to Utter Words of Kufr While his Heart was Content with Imaan

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Muhammad bin Ammaar narrates that the Mushrikeen captured Hadhrat Ammaar and tortured him so brutally that (to save his life) he was eventually forced to blaspheme against Rasulullaah and praise the gods of the Mushrikeen. When he came to Rasulullaah Rasulullaah asked him what had happened. He replied, "Happenings have been foul indeed, O Rasulullaah R

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ammaar narrates that Rasulullaah met Hadhrat Ammaar as he was weeping. Wiping the tears from his face, Rasulullaah said, "The Kuffaar captured you and immersed you in water so many times that you were forced to say certain things (words of kufr), Should they do so again, you may say it to them again,"

Hadhrat Ameerul Mu'mineen bin Maymoon narrates that Rasulullaah was passing by as the Mushrikeen used open fire to burn Hadhrat Ammaar was. Passing his hand over the head of Hadhrat Ammaar was, Rasulullaah was said, "O fire! Become cool and comfortable for Ammaar as you had become for Ibraheem was." Rasulullaah was then informed Hadhrat Ammaar that (he would not die from the torture but that) a group of rebels would martyr him. (3)

Hadhrat Khabbaab bin Arat Elicibis Endures Difficulties and Hardships

The Incident of Hadhrat Khabbaab and Hadhrat Umar

Imaam Sha'bi narrates that when Hadhrat Khabbaab bin Arat (a) once came to the gathering of Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab (hadhrat Umar (hadhrat U

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.59).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg!140), Ibn Sa'd has also narrated it in his Tabaqaat (Vol.3 Pg. 178).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd in his Tabaqaat (Vol.3 Pg.177).

Khabbaab ("He is really not more deserving than me because there were people amongst the Mushrikeen whom Allaah used to protect him while there was none to protect me. I had seen myself on a day when they captured me, lit a fire and then put me to roast in it. A man then placed his foot on my chest and there was only my back to extinguish the fire." Hadhrat Khabbaab then exposed his back which seemed to be affected by leprosy. (1)

The Torture that Hadhrat Khabbaab Suffered

Imaam Sha'bi narrates that when Hadhrat Umar asked Hadhrat Khabbaab about the tortures he suffered at the hands of the Mushrikeen, he said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Take a look at my back." Hadhrat Umar says, "I have never before seen anything like it." Hadhrat Khabbaab then related, "They made a fire for me and (after throwing me in) there was nothing but the fat on my back to extinguish it." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Layla Kindi narrates that when Hadhrat Khabbaab came to Hadhrat Umar hadhrat Umar told the people to allow him to come to the front and said, "Besides Ammaar bin Yaasir, there is none on the surface of this earth who deserves to occupy this place more than you." It was on that occasion that Hadhrat Khabbaab showed Hadhrat Umar the scars on his back that were made by the torture that Mushrikeen put him through. (3)

Hadhrat Khabbaab says, "I was a blacksmith and Aas bin Waa'il owed me some money. When I approached him to settle the debt, he said, 'By Allaah! I shall never pay you until you reject Muhammad!' I responded by saying, 'Never! I swear by Allaah that I shall never reject Muhammad ever even after you die and are resurrected!' He said, "Then come to me after I have died and am resurrected. There I shall have plenty of wealth and children and I shall then pay you." It was then that Allaah Levealed the following verses of the Qur'aan:

Have you seen him who rejects Our Aayaat and says, "I shall certainly be granted (abundant) wealth and children (in the Aakhirah just as I have them in this world)." Has he peeked into the unseen or has he made a pact with Ar Rahmaan (because of which he seems convinced of this)? Never! We shall shortly record what he says and continue to intensify the punishment for him (in the Aakhirah). (On the Day of

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd in his Tabaqaat (Vol.3 Pg.117) as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.31).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.144)

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym, Ibn Sa'd and Ibn Abi Shaybah as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.71).

Qiyaamah) We shall inherit from him (We shall be the complete owners of) all that (wealth and children which) he speaks about and he will come to Us all alone (without anything in his possession). (Surah Maryam, verses 77-80)(1)

Hadhrat Khabbaab harrates that he once approached Rasulullaah as a he lay in the shade of the Kabah using a shawl as a pillow. It was a time when the Muslims were suffering terrible torture at the hands of the Mushrikeen. Hadhrat Khabbaab saked Rasulullaah sat up straight and his face was red as he said, "Before you there were people whose flesh and tissues were scraped to the bone with iron combs. However, even this did not make them turn away from their religion. Allaah shall definitely bring this Deen to a completion until a time comes when a lone rider will travel from Sa'aa to Hadramaut fearing nothing but Allaah and wolves attacking his goats. However, you people want to rush it." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Dharr Endures Hardships and Difficulties

Hadhrat Abu Dharr Dispatches His Brother when he Hears about the Nabuwaat of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas was sent as a Rasul, he said to his brother, "Ride to that valley (of Makkah) and find out for me about the man who claims that he is a Rasul and that revelation comes to him from the heavens. Hear what he has to say and then report back to me." His brother arrived in Makkah, heard what Rasulullaah said and then reported back to Hadhrat Abu Dharr saying, "I saw him teaching sterling character and reciting words that are not poetry." Hadhrat Abu Dharr said, "Your report has not informed me what I needed to know."

Hadhrat Abu Dharr Arrives in Makkah, Accepts Islaam and is then made to Suffer for the sake of Allaah

Hadhrat Abu Dharr with took some provisions and a filled waterbag along with him and rode off to Makkah. When he entered the Masjidul Haraam, he searched for Rasulullaah but did not recognise him. He did not want to ask anyone about Rasulullaah either and when night fell, he lay down to sleep. Hadhrat Ali saw saw him and realised that he was a stranger. (Hadhrat Ali offered to be his host for the night and) Hadhrat Abu Dharr then went with Hadhrat Ali saw. Neither person asked the other any questions until morning.

Ahmad as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.59), Ibn Sa'd has also narrated it in his Tabaqaat (Vol.3 Pg.116).

⁽²⁾ Bukhari, Abu Dawood and Nasa'ee as quoted by Allaama Ayni (Vol.7 Pg.558). Haakim has reported a similar narration in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.383).

Hadhrat Abu Dharr 连脚弯 took his waterbag and provisions along with him to the Masjidul Haraam and spent the day there. However, when evening arrived, he had not yet seen Rasulullaah @ He had returned to the place where he intended to lie down when Hadhrat Ali (passed by and said, "Has the man not yet found his destination?" Hadhrat Ali 经遗迹 then helped him up and took him home without any of them exchanging questions. When things turned out the same on the third day and Hadhrat Abu Dharr was again stayed with Hadhrat Ali 劉爾德, Hadhrat Ali 劉爾德 asked, "Will you not tell me what brings you here?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr 劉節節 replied, "I shall inform you if you give me your word that you would give me proper direction." When Hadhrat Ali 劉節節 agreed, Hadhrat Abu Dharr 经原金的 informed him. Hadhrat Ali 经收益 said. "It is true that he is the Rasul of Allaah. Follow me closely tomorrow morning. If I see anything that may jeopardise your safety, I shall stop with the pretence of needing to relieve myself (but you should proceed). When I continue walking, you should follow me once more and enter the place I enter. Hadhrat Abu Dharr 塑厂 did this and followed in the footsteps of Hadhrat Ali 型厂 until Hadhrat Ali 劉麗姆 came to Rasulullaah 劉麗 and Hadhrat Abu Dharr 劉麗姆 entered with him.

Hadhrat Abu Dharr said listened to Rasulullaah and accepted Islaam on the spot. Rasulullaah said to him, "Return to your people and convey the message to them until I send further instructions." Hadhrat Abu Dharr said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I shall shout it aloud amongst them all!" He then proceeded to the Masjidul Haraam where he called out at the top of his voice:

"I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad (2008) is Allaah's Rasul."

The Mushrikeen then beat him to the ground. Hadhrat Abbaas arrived and threw himself over Hadhrat Abu Dharr (to shield him) saying, "Fools! Don't you realise that he belongs to the Ghifaar tribe and that your traders have to pass them on the route they use to Shaam?!" In this manner, Hadhrat Abbaas saved him. The following day, Hadhrat Abu Dharr frepeated himself. The Mushrikeen again assaulted him and Hadhrat Abbaas had to throw himself over him (to save him). (1)

Another narration of Bukhari states that Hadhrat Abu Dharr announced, "O assembly of Quraysh! I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul." The Mushrikeen shouted, "Get that heretic!" They then beat him up with the intention of killing him when Hadhrat Abbaas arrived and threw himself over him. Turning to the people, Hadhrat Abbaas said, "Fools! You wish to kill a man from the Ghifaar when your trade route goes by them and you have to pass by them?!" The people then left Hadhrat Abu Dharr Elimes.

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari (Vol.1 Pg.544).

Hadhrat Abu Dharr Issue narrates further, "The following day I returned and repeated what I had said the previous day. The people again called out, 'Grab that heretic!' and they did what they had done the previous day. Abbaas issue found me there and threw himself over me and again told the people what he had told them the previous day." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Dharr wis is the First Person to Greet Rasulullaah with the Greeting of Islaam

Imaam Muslim describes Hadhrat Abu Dharr that after his brother differently. He reports from Hadhrat Abu Dharr that after his brother returned from Makkah, he said to Hadhrat Abu Dharr to Makkah and saw the man whom the people call a heretic. He looks very much like you." Hadhrat Abu Dharr says, "When I arrived in Makkah, I saw a person taking his name and asked, 'Where is the heretic?' The man raised his voice above mine and shouted, 'Here is the heretic! Here is the heretic!' The people then started stoning me until I looked like a red idol⁽²⁾. I then hid between the Kabah and its covering, where I remained hidden for approximately fifteen days and nights without food or drink. All I had to drink was Zamzam water. I then met Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr when they entered the Masjidul Haraam one day. By Allaah! I was the first person to greet Rasulullaah with the greeting of Islaam when I said:

Rasulullaah (replied by saying:

'Peace be on you too as well as Allaah's mercy.'

Rasulullaah then asked, 'Who are you?' I replied, 'I am a man from the Banu Ghifaar tribe.' His companion (Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1) said, 'O Rasulullaah Allow me to entertain him for the night.' He then took me home in the lower part of Makkah and brought for me a few handfuls of raisins. Afterwards, I went to my brother and informed him that I had accepted Islaam. He said, 'I shall follow your Deen.' We then went to our mother, who also said, 'I shall follow your Deen.' Thereafter, when I invited my people to accept Islaam, a few of them did follow me."

The Courage of Hadhrat Abu Dharr when he Announced his Conversion to Islaam and was made to Suffer for it

Hadhrat Abu Dharr with stated that he stayed a while in Makkah with

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari (Vol. 1 Pg.500).

⁽²⁾ During the Period of Ignorance, the Mushrikeen used to anoint their idols with the blood of their sacrifices, making them red. Here Hadhrat Abu Dharr (1986) refers to his appearance as a person covered with blood.

Rasulullaah www who taught him about Islaam. He also learnt a part of the Qur'aan. He then said, "O Rasulullaah well I wish to declare my Islaam in public." Rasulullaah we said, "I fear that you may be killed." Hadhrat Abu Dharr insisted, "I have to do it even if I am killed." When Rasulullaah we remained silent, Hadhrat Abu Dharr proceeded. The members of the Quraysh were sitting in various groups in the Masjidul Haraam and talking when Hadhrat Abu Dharr was announced:

"I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad & is Allaah's Rasul."

In his own words, Hadhrat Abu Dharr Inarrates, "The groups then broke up and the people beat me up until they left me like a red idol, thinking that they had killed me. When I regained consciousness, I went to Rasulullaah when he saw my condition, he said, 'Did I not forbid you?' I replied, 'O Rasulullaah I I was a need in my heart that I had to fulfil.' I then remained with Rasulullaah one day, Rasulullaah said to me, 'Go back to your people and come to me when you hear that I am victorious." (1)

Another narration quotes that Hadhrat Abu Dharr said, "When I came to Makkah, all the people of the valley turned on me with lumps of earth and bones until I fell unconscious. When I eventually stood up, I looked like a red idol." (2)

The Hardships and Difficulties Borne by Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid, and his Wife Faatima who was the Sister of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Umar Wies Hits Hadhrat Sa'eed Wies and his Wife Faatima wies and then Accepts Islaam by Virtue of the Du'aa of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Qais narrates that in the Masjid of Kufa he heard Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid bin Amr bin Nufayl say, "By Allaah! I saw the time when Hadhrat Umar would tie me up in ropes because I had accepted Islaam." He then continued to relate the complete account. (3) Another narration states that he said, "If only you had seen me bound in ropes by Hadhrat Umar when he was not yet a Muslim because I had accepted Islaam." (4)

Hadhrat Anas harrates that Hadhrat Umar once left home with his sword hanging from his neck when a person from the Banu Zuhra tribe asked him where he was going. He replied, "I intend killing Muhammad." The man asked, "How will you remain safe from the Banu Haashim and Banu Zuhra tribes (who will kill you) if you kill him." Hadhrat Umar said, "It appears to me that you have also become a heretic and forsaken the religion you had been following." The man said, "Should I not inform you of something even more

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani and Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg. 158).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg. 159) and Haakim (Vol.3 Pg. 338)...

⁽³⁾ Bukhari (Vol.1 Pg.545).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhari (Vol.1 Pg.546).

astonishing?" "What is it?" asked Hadhrat Umar (William). The man replied, "Your sister and brother-in-law have both become heretics and forsaken the religion that you follow."

Hadhrat Umar was walked away in a rage and when he came to them, someone from amongst the Muhaajireen called Khabbaab was with them. When Hadhrat Khabbaab heard Hadhrat Umar proaching, he hid somewhere in the house. When Hadhrat Umar was arrived, he asked, "What were those whispers I heard?" They had been busy reciting Surah TaaHaa, but they replied, "It was nothing but something we were discussing."

Hadhrat Umar said, "O Umar! What if the truth lies in a Deen other than yours?" Hadhrat Umar spin jumped at him and trampled him most violently. When his sister intervened to push him away from her husband, he smote her so fiercely that her face started to bleed. Furious, she said, "O-Umar! What if the truth lies in a Deen other than yours? I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that Muhammad is Allaah's Rasul!" Hadhrat Umar gave up and said, "Give me that book you have with you so that I may read it." Hadhrat Umar was literate. However, his sister said, "You are impure and only pure people may touch it. First take a bath or wash yourself."

After washing himself, Hadhrat Umar took the book and started reciting Surah Taahaa up to the verse:

"Verily I am Allaah. There is no Ilaah but Me, so worship Me and establish salaah for My remembrance." {Surah TaaHaa, verse 14}

Hadhrat Umar when said, "Take me to Muhammad we"." When Hadhrat Khabbaab heard this, he came out from inside the house and said, "Glad tidings for you, O Umar! I have strong hope that the du'aa Rasulullaah made on Wednesday night was accepted in your favour when he said, 'O Allaah! Strengthen Islaam with either Umar bin Khattaab or Abu Jahal bin Hishaam."

Rasulullaah was then in a house at the foot of Safa and Hadhrat Umar went to the house. At the door of the house were Hadhrat Hamza, Hadhrat Talha and several other Sahabah when. When Hadhrat Hamza noticed that they were frightened of Hadhrat Umar he said, "Yes, it is Umar. If Allaah intends good for him, he will accept Islaam and follow Rasulullaah when we can be comediated in the control of the house and revelation was descending on him. Rasulullaah was inside the house and revelation was descending on him. Rasulullaah was inside the house and grabbing hold of Hadhrat Umar work then came out of the house and grabbing hold of Hadhrat Umar work of Allaah to send the humiliation and punishment that he sent to Waled bin Mughiera? O Allaah! Here is Umar bin Khattaab. O Allaah! Strengthen the Deen with Umar bin Khattaab."

he had accepted Islaam, he told Rasulullaah (1) to come out of the house (and to perform salaah openly in the Masjidul Haraam).

Hadhrat Thowbaan inarrates that Rasulullaah prayed, "O Allaah! Strengthen the Deen with Umar bin Khattaab." Early one night, Hadhrat Umar had heard his sister recite:

"Read in the name of your Rabb Who created..." {Surah Alaq, verse 1}.

He then beat her up so badly that he thought he had killed her. When he awoke before dawn the next morning, he heard her voice again reciting:

"Read in the name of your Rabb Who created..." {Surah Alaq, verse 1}

He then said, "I swear by Allaah that this is neither poetry nor unintelligible whispers." He therefore went to Rasulullaah and found Hadhrat Bilaal asked at the door. When he knocked at the door, Hadhrat Bilaal asked who he was. When he said that he was Umar bin Khattaab, Hadhrat Bilaal told him to wait until he sought permission from Rasulullaah for him to enter. Hadhrat Bilaal then said to Rasulullaah "Umar bin Khattaab is at the door." Rasulullaah said, "If Allaah intends good for Umar, he will enter the Deen."

Rasulullaah permitted Hadhrat Bilaal is to open the door and then grabbed hold of Hadhrat Umar is collar and shook him saying, "What do you want? Why have you come?" Hadhrat Umar is replied, "Present to me what you call people towards." Rasulullaah is said, "You should testify that there is none worthy of worship but the One Allaah Who has no partner and that Muhammad is Allaah's servant and Rasul." Hadhrat Umar is accepted Islaam on the spot and then told Rasulullaah is to come out of the house (and to perform salaah openly in the Masjidul Haraam). (2)

Hadhrat Umar wish's slave Aslam narrates that Hadhrat Umar once asked him, "Do you wish to know about the days when I first accepted Islaam?" When Hadhrat Aslam asked to be informed, Hadhrat Umar said, "I used to be one of Rasulullaah is strongest opponents. It was during an extremely hot day in one of the alleyways of Makkah when someone saw me and asked the where I was going. When I informed him that I was going after Rasulullaah is, he said, 'O son of Khattaab! You are saying this when this Deen has entered your very household! 'What are you saying?" I asked. He explained, 'Even your sister has gone to the Deen.' In a rage, I returned and knocked at her door."

"It was the practise of Rasulullaah (to bond people without any wealth to others who were able to spend on them. There were therefore two Sahabah who were bonded in this manner to my sister's husband. When I knocked at the door and was asked to identify myself, I said, 'Umar bin Khattaab.' They

Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.191) as quoted by Allaama Ayni (Vol.8 Pg.68). Ibn Is'haaq has reported a similar narration in detail as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.81).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.62) has commented on the chain of narrators.

(the two Sahabah (with my brother-in-law) had been busy reading a manuscript they had with them and when they heard my voice, they hid somewhere inside the house, forgetting to take the manuscript with them. When my sister opened the door, I shouted, 'O enemy of yourself! Have you become a heretic?' I then lifted something in my hand and hit her on the head. She wept and said, 'O son of Khattaab! Do what you like for I have already accepted Islaam.' She went in and I took a seat. It was then that I noticed the manuscript by the door. 'What is that manuscript over there?' I asked. My sister replied, 'Keep away from it, O son of Khattaab because you do not take the ceremonial bath or clean yourself thoroughly. Only pure people may touch it.' However, I insisted until she gave it to me." The rest of the narration continues. (1)

Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon Endures Hardships and Difficulties

Hadhrat Umar 劉節節 narrates that Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon 劉節節 noticed that while he could walk about in safety under the protection of Waleed bin Mughiera, the other Sahabah were suffering great torment. He then said to himself, "There must be a great deficiency in me because my days and nights are spent in safety under the protection of a Mushrik while my companions and members of my Deen are suffering torture and hardships." He then went to Waleed bin Mughiera and said to him, "O Abu Abdish Shams! You have certainly fulfilled your duty, but I wish to absolve you of the protection you have granted me." Waleed asked, "Why is it, O nephew? Has one of my people perhaps harmed you?" "No," replied Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon 氫烷酸, "I prefer rather the protection of Allaah and do not want to seek protection from anyone besides He." Waleed said, "Let us proceed to the Masjidul Haraam to announce that I have been absolved of my protection just as I had announced the granting of my protection in the first place." The two men proceeded to the Masjidul Haraam where Waleed announced to the people, "Uthmaan here has come to absolve me of the protection I had been giving him." Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon then addressed the people saying, "What he says is true. He has been true to his word and an honourable guardian. However, because I prefer not to seek protection from anyone other than Allaah, I have absolved him of his protection." Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon was returning when he noticed (the famous poet) Labeed bin Rabee'ah bin Maalik bin Kilaab Qaysi reciting poetry to a gathering of the Quraysh. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon sat with them as Labeed was reciting a couplet which meant, "Behold! Everything other than Allaah has no substance." Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon (congratulated him by saying, "That's true." Labeed then recited another couplet which meant, "And every bounty must definitely come to an end." To this, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon (You are mistaken because the bounties of Jannah will never come to an end."

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.64) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Labeed said, "O assembly of Quraysh! A person in your company is usually never offended (no one has objected to my poetry before). Since when has this started amongst you?" Someone in the gathering said, "This person is one of many fools like him who have forsaken our religion. Think nothing of what he says." Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon replied to the man and their dispute became so intense that the man stood up and slapped Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon so hard that his eye was blackened.

Watching what had happened from close by, Waleed bin Mughiera said, "Dear nephew! By Allaah! Your eye would not have received what it did (had you still been in my protection). You were enjoying a secure protection," Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon replied by saying, "True! However, dear Abu Abdish Shams, my good eye is very much in need of what its sister eye received for the sake of Allaah. I am now in the protection of One Who is much more honourable and more powerful than you."

Concerning what happened to his eye, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon weed to say a few couplets which mean:

"So what if my eye suffered for the pleasure of my Rabb at the hands of an irreligious and misguided person?

Ar Rahmaan has already granted His rewards in exchange
And whoever pleases Ar Rahmaan is certainly most fortunate Without doubt, even though you call me one who is misguided, astray and a fool, I shall still adhere to the Deen of Muhammad

In this I seek only the pleasure of Allaah and our Deen is undoubtedly the truth Even though this displeases those who oppress us and who overstep the limits" Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib composed the following couplets concerning the blackened eye of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon .

"In thinking of times of danger

Have you become grieved and weep like a distraught person?

Or do you weep in thinking of foolish people

Who harshly oppress those who invite towards the Deen

These people shall never desist from immoral behaviour as long as they remain healthy

While deception is way with them and they cannot be trusted Have you not seen that Allaah has reduced the good in them

And that we are upset about what happened to Uthmaan bin Madh'oon

When they fearlessly slapped him over the eye

Persistently taunting and hitting without abate

Although he did not die instantly, Allaah shall certainly punish them Measure for measure, they shall be punished without any reduction"(1)

A narration of Ibn Is'haaq states that Waleed invited Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon to return to his protection, but Hadhrat Uthmaan bin

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.103)

Madh'oon (1)

Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr Endures Difficulties and Hardships

Hadhrat Muhammad Abdari narrated from his father that Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr was an extremely handsome youth of Makkah whose hair was exceptionally well groomed. His parents loved him dearly. His mother was a very affluent and wealthy woman who clothed him in the best and most exquisite clothing. He wore the best perfume in Makkah and shoes made in Hadhramaut (considered the best). When speaking of Hadhrat Mus'ab would say, "I have never seen anyone in Makkah with better hair, finer clothes and enjoying as many bounties as Mus'ab bin Umayr."

When Hadhrat Mus'ab heard that Rasulullaah was inviting people to Islaam in the house of Arqam bin Abi Arqam, he went to the house where he accepted Islaam and believed in Rasulullaah After leaving the house, he kept his conversion a secret for fear of his mother and family. He frequently visited Rasulullaah in secret but Uthmaan bin Talha once saw him performing salaah and informed his mother and family about it. They therefore captured him and kept him jailed until he finally managed to migrate to Abyssinia with the first group of Muslims immigrants. He later returned to Makkah with the other Muslims but his condition had changed because he lived a difficult life. His mother then stopped rebuking him. (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa Endured Hardhips and Difficulties

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa William Suffers at the Hands of the Roman Emperor and Hadhrat Umar William Kisses his head afterwards

Hadhrat Abu Raafi narrates that Hadhrat Umar once dispatched and army to fight the Romans. With this army was a Sahabi by the name of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa However, he was taken prisoner and brought before the Roman Emperor. When the soldiers informed the emperor that Hadhrat Abdullaah was one of the companions of Rasulullaah the tyrant said, "I shall share my kingdom and my authority with you if you become a Christian." Hadhrat Abdullaah replied, "If you offer me your kingdom coupled with the kingdom of all the Arabs in exchange for leaving the Deen of Muhammad for a duration equal to the blinking of an eye, I would still not do so." The emperor said, "I shall then have you killed." "Do as you please," said Hadhrat Abdullaah

The emperor commanded his men to tie Hadhrat Abdullaah to a cross and then instructed his archers to shoot their arrows close to his hands and then close to his legs (without killing him) as the emperor continued telling him to forsake Islaam. However, Hadhrat Abdullaah & kept refusing. The emperor then had him untied and commanded his men to fill a cauldron with water and bring it to a boil. Two Muslim prisoners were then brought and one of them was thrown into the cauldron. (After showing him this) The emperor again asked Hadhrat Abdullaah 劉陽德 to/become a Christian, but he again refused. The emperor then gave orders that Hadhrat Abdullaah William should be thrown into the cauldron.

Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.93), Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.34) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.82).

As Hadhrat Abdullaah was being led to the cauldron, he began weeping. When the emperor was informed about this, he thought that Hadhrat Abdullaah 细胞的 was frightened, so he called him back. Again he asked Hadhrat Abdullaah 细胞的 to become a Christian, but the offer was again refused. The emperor then asked, "Then what made you weep?" Hadhrat Abdullaah 望障心 replied, "I wept when I thought to myself that once I am thrown into the fire, I will be killed instantly. I wish that I had as many lives as the hairs on my body so that each one could be given for the pleasure of Allaah."

The tyrant said, "Would you kiss my head in exchange for your freedom?" Hadhrat Abdullaah was asked, "In exchange for all the prisoners?" The emperor agreed, "In exchange for all the prisoners." Hadhrat Abdullaah 劉範疇 said to himself, "Although he is an enemy of Allaah, I don't mind kissing his head in exchange for my freedom as well as the freedom of all the Muslim prisoners." Hadhrat Abdullaah 遊遊遊 therefore drew closer and kissed his head, after which all the prisoners were handed over to him.

Hadhrat Abdullaah 過節節 then brought them all back to Hadhrat Umar 過節節. When Hadhrat Umar was informed about the events, he said, "It is compulsory for every Muslim to kiss the head of Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa 劉範節 and I shall be the first." Hadhrat Umar (then stood up and kissed his head (so that Hadhrat Abdullaah 劉德德 should forget the unpleasant experience of kissing the emperor's head). (1)

The Hardships and Difficulties Endured by in General وَفُواللَّهُ قَالُونُهُمُ الْحُواللِّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمُ الْحُواللَّهُ الْحُواللَّهُ الْحُواللَّهُ اللَّهُ الْحُواللَّهُ الْحُواللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللّلْمُ اللَّهُ اللَّاللَّا اللَّهُ اللَّا اللَّهُ اللَّا اللَّا اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّاللَّاللَّا ال

The Torture the Sahabah كالمنافقة Suffered at the Hands of the Mushrikeen

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Jubayr narrates that he once asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas المنافقة, "Was the torture that the Mushrikeen put the Sahabah المنافقة through so severe that they would have been excused if they had to forsake Islaam?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 經過過 replied, "Certainly. By Allaah! The Mushrikeen would beat one of the Muslims up and keep him so hungry and thirsty that he would be unable to even sit up because of his intense suffering. He was eventually forced to do whatever evil they asked him to do. They would torture him so much that he would even agree with them if they told him that (1) Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.62). Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.297) contains commentary on the chain of narrators.

Laat and Uzza were deities apart from Allaah. In fact, the torture was so harsh that if a dung beetle was passing and they asked, 'Is this dung beetle your deity apart from Allaah?' he would say, 'Yes.' They were forced to say this to save their lives because the torture was too much to bear." (1)

The Condition of Rasulullaah and the Sahabah after Migrating to Madinah

Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b says that once Rasulullaah and the Sahabah arrived in Madinah and were hosted by the Ansaar, the Arabs started fighting them from a united platform. They were then forced to carry their weapons day and night. They would say to each other, "Will the time ever come when we can spend the night in peace without having to fear anything besides Allaah?" It was on this occasion that Allaah revealed the following verse of the Qur'aan:

﴿ وَعَدَ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ الْمَنُوا مِنْكُمْ وَعَمِلُوا الصَّلِحْتِ لَيَسْتَخْلِفَنَّهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ كَمَا السَّنَخُلَفَ الَّذِي ارْتَصَلَى لَهُمْ وَلَيُبَدِّلَنَّهُمْ السَّنَخُلَفَ الَّذِي ارْتَصَلَى لَهُمْ وَلَيُبَدِّلَنَّهُمْ السَّنَخُلَفَ الَّذِي ارْتَصَلَى لَهُمْ وَلَيُبَدِّلَنَّهُمْ مِنْ اللَّهُمْ وَلَيْبَدِّلُونَ مِنْ اللَّهُمْ وَلَيْبَدِّلُونَ مِنْ اللَّهُمْ وَلَيْبَدِلُونَ مِنْ اللَّهُ مَنْ اللَّهُ اللّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّالِي اللَّهُ اللَّا اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ الللَّالَا الللّهُ اللّهُ اللللّهُ الللّهُ الللّهُ اللللّهُ الللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ الللل

Allaah has promised those of you who have Imaan and who do good actions that He will definitely make them successors (of the rulers) on earth just as He had made those before them successors. And He will certainly grant (great) strength to the Deen that He has chosen for them and will certainly replace their fear with peace (on condition that) they worship Me and do not ascribe any as partner to Myself. Those who are ungrateful after this are sinful indeed. (Surah Noor, verse 55) (2)

Another narration quotes from Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b that the above verse of the Qur'aan was revealed when the Arabs started fighting the Muslims from a united platform once Rasulullaah and the Sahabah migrated to Madinah and were accommodated by the Ansaar. (3)

The Difficulties that Rasulullaah and the Sahabah Suffered during the Dhaatur Riqaa Expedition

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari in arrates that during one of expeditions they fought with Rasulullaah (transport was so scarce that) six people had to take turns riding a camel. He says further that (because of walking barefoot on rocky land) their feet were cut and not only were his feet cut, his nails actually fell off. They then had to tie bandages on their feet and it was because of tying these bandages that the expedition was known as Dhaatur Riqaa ('An expedition of bandages'). (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.59).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Mundhir, Tabraani, Haakim, Ibn Mardway, Bayhaqi and Sa'eed bin Mansoor as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.259).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.83) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Burda states that after narrating the incident, Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari said, "I would not have liked to mention this incident." He said this because he disliked that his good deeds should be made known. He would also say, "Allaah shall reward this." (2) (Although it is best to keep one's good deeds a secret to avoid pride, there are times when they are best mentioned.)

Enduring Hunger when Inviting People Towards Allaah and His Rasool

Rasulullaah E Suffers Extreme Hunger

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Basheer once said, "Do you not enjoy as much food and drink as you like? I have seen your Nabi during times when he could not even find poor quality dates to fill his belly." (3)

In another narration, Hadhrat Nu'maan (See narrates that when the Muslims received large amounts of wealth (as booty during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar (See Said to the people, "I have seen Rasulullaah (Restless the entire day because he could not even find poor quality dates to fill his stomach." (4)

A Hungry Person will not Encounter Meticulous Reckoning

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra was performing salaah in a sitting position. He asked, "O Rasulullaah was performing salaah in a sitting position. He asked, "O Rasulullaah was performing salaah in a sitting position?" Rasulullaah replied, "Hunger, O Abu Hurayra." Hadhrat Abu Hurayra was burst out in tears. Rasulullaah comforted him by saying, "Do not weep, O Abu Hurayra. Verily the hungry person will not encounter meticulous reckoning on the Day of Qiyaamah if he hopes for reward (by enduring the hunger with patience) in this world." (5)

No Lantern or Fire is Lit in the House of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Aa'isha (a) narrates that the family of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (a) once sent the leg of a goat to them. She then held it as Rasulullaah (a) cut it or it

- (1) Ibn Asaakir and Abu Ya'la as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.310).
- (2) Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.260)
- (3) Muslim and Tirmidhi.
- (4) Muslim as reported in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.154). The Hadith is also narrated by Ahmad, Tayaalisi, Ibn Sa'd, Ibn Majah, Abu Awaanah and others as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.40).
- (5) Abu Nu'aym in Hilya, Khateeb, Ibn Asaakir and Ibn Najjaar as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.41).

was she who cut it as Rasulullaah held it. The narrators states that whenever Hadhrat Aa'isha narrated this she would add that this was done without using a lantern. (1) Another narration adds that the narrator asked Hadhrat Aa'isha hour of Ummul Mu'mineen! Was this done in the light of a lantern?" She replied, "If we had oil to light a lantern, we would have rather ate the oil." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra without any of them being able to light a lantern or make a fire (to cook). If they ever got any oil (then instead of using it to light a lantern) they would rub it on their bodies and if they ever got any fat, they would eat it." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra says, "The new moon would pass by the family of Rasulullaah followed by another new moon (two months would pass) and still a fire would not be lit in their rooms to bake bread or to cook any food." People asked, "O Abu Hurayra! What was it that they used to live on?" He replied, "Two black things, dates and water. They had Ansaar neighbours - may Allaah reward them with the best rewards - who owned milk-giving animals and would send them some milk." (4)

Hadhrat Urwa was narrates that Hadhrat Aa'isha was used to say, "Dear nephew! I swear by Allaah that we (the wives of Rasulullaah was) used to look at one new moon go by followed by another and yet another without a fire being lit in the rooms of Rasulullaah was during this period of two months with the new moons." Hadhrat Urwa saked, "Dear aunt! What was it that you lived on?" She replied, "Two black things, dates and water. The only exceptions were the times when the Ansaar neighbours of Rasulullaah who possessed milk-giving animals would send some milk to him, which he would give us to drink." (5)

Hadhrat Aa'isha (a) narrates that they would spend periods of forty days without a fire or anything else being lit in the house of Rasulullaah (b). The narrator asked, "What was it that you lived on?" She replied, "Two black things, dates and water whenever we could find some." (6)

Hadhrat Masrooq narrates that he once visited Hadhrat Aa'isha and she invited him to share a meal. She then said to him, "Whenever I eat to my fill I cannot fight the urge to cry." "Why is that?" asked Hadhrat Masrooq. Hadhrat Aa'isha replied, "Because I think of the condition in which Rasulullaah left this world. By Allaah! There was never a day when Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.155). Ibn Jareer has also narrated it as mentioned in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.38).

⁽³⁾ Abu Ya'la as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.154). Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.325) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad and Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol. 10 Pg.215) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Bukhari and Muslim as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.155). Similar narrations are reported by Ibn Jareer, Ahmad and Bazzaar from Hadhrat Abu Hurayra (Vol.10 Pg.315).

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Jareer as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.38).

twice ate his fill with bread or meat." (1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "From the time Rasulullaah arrived in Madinah until the time he passed away, he was never able to eat barley bread to his fill for three consecutive days."

Yet another narration from Hadhrat Aa'isha states that until Rasulullaah passed away, the family of Rasulullaah were never able to fill themselves with bread made of wheat flour for two consecutive days.

A third narration from the same source quotes the following words of Hadhrat Aa'isha ("When Rasulullaah passed away, he could not fill himself with even the two black things, dates and water." (2)

A narration of Bayhaqi states that Hadhrat Aa'isha said, "Rasulullaah never filled himself for three consecutive days though we would do so if we pleased because he always preferred others above himself (and would give others rather than eat himself)." (3)

The Difficult life that Rasulullaah Led

Hadhrat Hasan says, "Rasulullaah we used to assist people personally and even patch his clothing with pieces of leather. Until his demise, he could never eat both lunch and dinner for three consecutive days." (4)

Hadhrat Anas says that until he passed away, Rasulullaah rever ate on a table and never ate bread made from finely ground flour. Another narration states that Rasulullaah rever even saw a roasted kid (a specially prepared delicacy during those times). (5)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas marrates that many consecutive nights would pass by Rasulullaah when his family would be hungry without anything to eat for dinner. The bread they ate most often was made from barley. (6)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra woo once passed by some people who were busy eating a roasted goat. When they invited him to eat, he refused saying, "Rasulullaah left this world without being able to eat his fill of even barley bread." (7)

Hadhrat Anas piece of barley bread to eat, he said, "This is the first food your father has eaten in three days." A narration of Tabraani adds that Rasulullaah asked, "What is this?" Hadhrat Faatima said, "I baked a loaf of bread and could not allow myself to eat it until I brought you this piece." Rasulullaah then told her what is mentioned above. (8)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra will narrates that when some hot food was brought to

⁽¹⁾ Tirmidhi as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.148).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.38).

⁽³⁾ Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.149).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya.

⁽⁵⁾ Bukhari as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg 154).

⁽⁶⁾ Tirmidhi

⁽⁷⁾ Tirmidhi and Bukhari as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.148,151).

⁽⁸⁾ Ahmad, Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.316) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Rasulullaah (he ate it and then said, "All praise be to Allaah. I have not eaten hot food for such a long time." (1)

Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd says, "From the time Allaah instructed Rasulullaah to announce his Nabuwaat until he demise, Rasulullaah did not even see fine white flour." When someone asked Hadhrat Sahl whether there were sifts during the time of Rasulullaah he he replied, "From the time Allaah instructed Rasulullaah to announce his Nabuwaat until his demise, Rasulullaah did did not even see a sift." Someone asked, "Then how were you able to eat unsifted barley?" He replied, "After grinding the barley, we used to blow it and whatever could fly away, would fly. The rest we used to make dough." (2)

Rasulullaah A and the Sahabah Tie Stones to their Stomachs to Suppress their Hunger

Hadhrat Abu Talha (the Sahabah (the Sahabah (the Sahabah)) once complained of hunger to Rasulullaah (the sahabah (the stomachs that had stones tied to them. Rasulullaah (the showed them his stomach to which two stones were tied. (4)

A Sahabi by the name of Ibn Bujayr states that when Rasulullaah suffered severe hunger one day, he tied a stone to his stomach and said, "Behold! Many are those who eat well and enjoy many bounties in this world, but will be hungry and naked on the Day of Qiyaamah. Behold! Many are those who appear to be generous to themselves (by doing as they desire) but are actually humiliating themselves (because their desires lead them to Jahannam). Behold! Many are those who appear to be humiliating themselves (by suppressing their desires to abide by Allaah's commands) but are actually being generous to themselves (because they are heading for Jannah)." (5)

The Statement of Hadhrat Aa'isha Concerning Overeating

Hadhrat Aa'isha wise once said, "The first calamity to befall this Ummah after the demise of its Nabi wise is overeating because when a nation fills their bellies too much, their bodies become obese, their hearts become weak and their carnal passions get out of control." (6)

- (1) Ibn Majah and Bayhaqi as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.149).
- (2) Bukhari as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg. 153).
- (3) Tabraani as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.151). Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.313) has commented on the chain of narrators.
- (4) Tirmidhi as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.156).
- (5) Ibn Abi Dunya as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.422). Khateeb and Ibn Mandah have also reported this narration as quoted Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.486).
- (6) Bukhari in Kitaabut Du'afaa and Ibn Abi Dunya as quoted Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg. 420).

The Hunger Suffered by Rasulullaah (###, His Family, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (###) and Hadhrat Umar (####) Rasulullaah (Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Hadhra Umar (Suffer Extreme Hunger and Meet up with Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob) (Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas left for the Masjid. Hearing him, leave Hadhrat Umar asked, "O Abu Bakr! What has made you leave your house at this hour?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "It is the extreme pangs of hunger that as made me leave home." Hadhrat Umar said, "By Allaah! It is nothing else that has made me leave my home." As they spoke, Rasulullaah arrived there and asked, "What has made you two leave your homes at this hour?" "It is the extreme pangs of hunger that has made us leave home." Rasulullaah said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! It is nothing else that has made me leave my home. Stand up."

The three then went to the door of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob who always used to keep some food or milk aside for Rasulullaah However, Rasulullaah had been late that day and did not arrive at the usual time (to receive the food). Subsequently, Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob fed the food to his family and had left to work in his orchard. When they arrived at the door, the wife of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob came and said, "Welcome to the Nabi of Allaah and to those with him." When Rasulullaah asked her where Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob was, Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob happened to overhear this as he was working in his orchard and came running.

Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Said, "Welcome to the Nabi of Allaah and to those with him. O Nabi of Allaah Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob then left to cut off a branch of a date palm which contained a variety of ripe dates, juicy dates and dry dates. Rasulullaah asked him, "Why have you done this? Why did you not rather select a few ripe dates from the branch?" Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob replied, "O Rasulullaah I wanted to you to eat from the variety of ripe, juicy and dry dates. Say what you may, I am now going to slaughter an animal to eat with this." Rasulullaah said, "If you are slaughtering something, do not slaughter a milk-giving animal."

Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob then slaughtered a kid and said to his wife, "Make some dough for us and bake some bread because you know better how to bake." Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob then cooked half of the kid and roasted the other half. When the food was prepared and placed in front of Rasulullaah and his companions, Rasulullaah took a piece of meat and placing it in a piece of bread, said, "O Abu Ayyoob! Send this to Faatima who because she has not had anything like it for many days." Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob who took it to Hadhrat Faatima who.

After they had all eaten to their fill, Rasulullaah se's eyes filled with tears as he said, "Bread, meat, ripe dates, juicy dates and dry'dates. I swear by the Being Who controls my life! These are the bounties about which you will be questioned on the Day of Qiyaamah." Noticing that this statement had a profound effect on his companions, Rasulullaah added, "When you receive something like this and start eating, recite - 'In the name of Allaah' and once you have eaten to your fill, recite:

"ٱلْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي هُوَ اَشْبَعَنَا وَ ٱنْعَمَ عَلَيْنَا فَٱفْصَلَ"

'All praise is due to Allaah Who has filled our bellies, showered His bounties on us and granted us plenty.'

Rasulullaah further told them that reciting this du'aa shall compensate for the food (and one will not be questioned about it on the Day of Qiyaamah).

When they got up to leave, Rasulullaah told Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob to see him the following day because whenever someone did him a good turn, he liked to repay it. However, Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob did not hear what Rasulullaah saidso Hadhrat Umar told him, "Rasulullaah commands you to see him tomorrow." When Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob the met Rasulullaah the following day, Rasulullaah gave him a slave woman he possessed and said, "O Abu Ayyoob! I request you to treat her well because we have only seen good in her since she has been with us." After leaving Rasulullaah see, Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob said to himself, "I see no better way of complying with the request of Rasulullaah to other than setting her free." He therefore set her free. (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas left home one afternoon and found hadhrat Abu Bakr in the Masjid. "What brings you here at this hour?" asked Rasulullaah hadhrat Abu Bakr hadhrat Umar hadhrat brought the two of you here." Rasulullaah hadh then started talking to them. He then said, "Do you two have the strength to walk to an orchard where we shall find, food, drink and shade?" Rasulullaah hadh then took them to the house of Hadhrat Abul Haytham bin Tayyihaan hadh was from the Ansaar. A lengthy Hadith follows. (2) Imaam Mundhir! says that this incident probably occurred once with Hadhrat Abul Ayyoob had and once with Hadhrat Abul Haytham hadhrat Ab

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani and Ibn Hibbaan as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.431).

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar, Abu Ya'la, Uqayli, Ibn Mardaway, Bayhaqi and Sa'eed bin Mansoor as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.40). Muslim and Maalik have also narrated it briefly.

⁽³⁾ Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.167)...

Hadhrat Faatima (2006) and Hadhrat Ali (2006) Suffer Extreme Hunger

Hadhrat Faatima in narrates that when Rasulullaah once came to visit her, he asked, "Where are my two sons?" He was referring to (his grandsons) Hadhrat Hasan in and Hadhrat Husayn in Hadhrat Faatima in replied, "This morning there was nothing to even taste in our house so Ali told me that he would take them out with him because they would only cry with me and I will have nothing to give them. He then went to a certain Jewish man (to find some work)."

Rasulullaah left to meet Hadhrat Ali and found the two boys playing in a pond with some dates in front of them. Rasulullaah said, "O Ali! Should you not take my boys home before the heat gets intense?" Hadhrat Ali replied, "We had nothing to eat this morning. Why don't you sit awhile until I gather some dates for Faatima." Rasulullaah sat down until Hadhrat Ali had gathered some dates, placed them in a bag and left. Rasulullaah carried one of the boys and Hadhrat Ali the other until they brought them home. (1)

Hadhrat Ataa narrates that he was told that Hadhrat Ali said, "Many days passed by when neither us nor Rasulullaah had anything (to eat). I left home one day and found a lost Dinar lying on the road. For a moment, I thought to myself whether I should pick it up or not. Because of the hardship we were suffering, I ventured to pick it up and took it to a shop where I bought some flour. Taking the flour to Faatima some, I told her to make dough and bake some bread. As she made the dough, (she could not even stand up straight and in her bent over position) her forelock kept hitting against the dish because of the extreme hardship (and weakness) she was suffering. After she had made the bread, I went to Rasulullaah and informed him about what had happened. Rasulullaah said, 'Eat the bread (2) because it is a provision that Allaah has provided for you (from unseen sources)."

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ka'b Qurazi narrates that Hadhrat Ali said, "I have seen the time when I was with Rasulullaah and had a stone tied to my stomach because of hunger whereas the zakaah I now pay equals forty thousand Dinaars." Another narration states that he said, "...whereas the zakaah I pay nowadays is forty thousand Dinaars." (4)

Rasulullaah em encourages Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym to Endure her Hunger with Patience

Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym American that Rasulullaah we once said to her,

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.171) with a reliable chain of narrators as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.316).

⁽²⁾ This incident took place before the prohibition of using lost items. Nevertheless, the situation was extreme, in which case, a person is permitted to use such means to save one's life.

⁽³⁾ Hanaad and Adani as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.328). Abu Dawood (Vol.1 Pg.240) has also narrated the Hadith from Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd William.

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.123) has commented on the chain of narrators.

"Be patient for I swear by Allaah that the family of Muhammad has had nothing to eat for seven days and no fire has been lit under their pots for three days. By Allaah! If I pray to Allaah to turn the mountains of Tihaama into gold, he would certainly do it." (1)

The hunger Endured by Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas

The Story of Hadhrat Sa'd (in this Regard and the Fact that he was the First Arab to Fire an Arrow in the Path of Allaah

Hadhrat Sa'd say, "Together with Rasulullaah we used to experience harsh and difficult lives in Makkah. Whenever difficulties came, we accepted it, prepared for it and exercised patience. I saw a time when we were with Rasulullaah in Makkah and I went out one night to pass urine. As I passed urine, I heard something making a sound as my urine fell on it. When I saw that it was a piece of camel leather, I picked it up, washed it and then toasted it. Thereafter, I placed it between two stones and ground it. I then swallowed the powder and drank water over it. This gave me strength for three days," (2)

Hadhrat Sa'd says, "I was the first Arab to fire an arrow in the path of Allaah. When we used to fight battles with Rasulullaah say, the only food we had were the leaves of the acacia and lotus trees. In fact, when any of us relieved himself, his droppings resembled those of a goat because it was not at all sticky." (3)

The Hunger Endured by Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad and his Two Companions

Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad Aswa

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.42).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.93).

⁽³⁾ Bukhari and Muslim as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.179). It is also reported by Abu Nu'aym in Dalaa'il Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.18) and Ibn Sa'd in his Tabaqaat (Vol.3 Pg.99).

"While my two companions had drunk their share and fallen asleep, I could not sleep. I was wearing a shawl which was so small that when I covered my head, my feet would be exposed and when I covered my feet, my head would be exposed. Rasulullaah then entered as he usually did and performed salaah for a while. He then looked for his drink and when he found nothing, he raised his hands in prayer. I said to myself, 'He will now curse me and I will be destroyed!' However, Rasulullaah prayed, 'O Allaah! Feed the one who feeds me and give drink to the one who gives me something to drink.' Taking my shawl along, I also took a knife and went towards the goats. Checking all of them for the fattest one to slaughter for Rasulullaah for the fattest one to slaughter for Rasulullaah for the milk (whereas they has just been emptied earlier). I then took the utensil belonging to the wives of Rasulullaah which they used for the milk they drew from the goats. I then milked the goats and (so much milk came out that) foam began to rise to the top."

"I took the milk to Rasulullaah and after he drank. He then passed it to me and I drank. I passed it back to him and after he drank, he again passed it to me. I drank the milk and then burst out laughing so much that I fell to the ground. He said to me, 'Is this one of your antics, Miqdaad?' When I informed him about what had happened, he said, 'This (the milk appearing in the udders) is only the mercy of Allaah. If you would kindly awaken your two companions so that they may also have some.' I said, 'I swear by the Being Who sent you with the truth! After you have drunk and then given me the left-over milk to drink, I care not who receives it or not."

Another narration states that Hadhrat Miqdaad said, "When we arrived in Madinah, Rasulullaah grouped us in groups of ten, each group attached to a household of the Ansaar. I happened to be in the group of ten that included Rasulullaah we had only one goat, the milk from which we shared between ourselves," (1)

The Hunger Endured by Hadhrat Abu Hurayra

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra ties Stones to his Stomach because of Hunger

Hadhrat Mujaahid narrates that Hadhrat Abu Hurayra used to say, "By Allaah! I used to press my stomach on the ground to suppress my hunger and also tie stones to my stomach for this reason. One day, I sat by the road which the Sahabah frequented. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr passed by, I asked him about a verse of the Qur'aan only with the hope that he would ask me to follow him home. However, he did not do this. When Hadhrat Umar passed by, I asked him about a verse of the Qur'aan again only with the hope that he would ask me to follow him home. However, he also did not do so. When Abul Qaasim passed, he immediately recognised the look on my face and what I needed. He said, 'O Abu Hurayra!' 'I am at your service, O Rasulullaah exclaimed. He asked me to accompany him home and (when he entered the house) I asked permission to enter, which was granted."

"I noticed a cup of milk and Rasulullaah asked (his wife), "From where did you get this milk?' The reply came that a certain person or family had sent it. Rasulullaah then said, 'O Abu Hirr!' 'I am at your service, O Rasulullaah I responded. He said, 'Go and call the men of Suffa for me.' The men of Suffa were the guests of the Muslims who had neither any families or wealth to go to. Whenever Rasulullaah received any gift, he took some of it and sent the rest to them. On the other hand, whenever Rasulullaah received any Sadaqah, he gave everything to them without taking anything for himself. This depressed me because I thought that I would at least have a sip of the milk which would give me strength for the rest of the day and night. I thought that since I was to invite them, I would have to serve them once they arrived. What would then be left for me? However, obedience to Allaah and His Rasool is compulsory and I left to call them."

"When they all arrived, they requested permission to enter. When Rasulullaah permitted them to enter, they took their seats. Rasulullaah then said, 'O Abu Hirr, take the cup and serve.' I therefore took the cup and served it to them. Each person took the cup and drank to his fill before returning it. Eventually, I reached the last person and then came to Rasulullaah for took the cup in his hand and lifted his head to look at me. He smiled and said, 'O Abu Hirr! It's just you and I left.' 'That's right, O Rasulullaah [1]! I replied. He then told me to sit down and drink, which I did. He then bade me to drink more which I did. He then continued bidding me to drink more until I submitted, 'I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth! I have no space for more.' Rasulullaah then told me to hand the cup over to him and when I handed it over, he drank what was left." (1)

The Extreme Hunger that Hadhrat Abu Hurayra Suffered

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra says, "I had not eaten for three days and as I was proceeding towards the Suffa (a raised platform in the Masjid), I started to fall down. (Seeing this) Two children said, 'Abu Hurayra has gone mad.' I called out to them, 'It is you who are mad!' As I reached the Suffa, I saw that two dishes of Thareed⁽²⁾ were brought to Rasulullaah and he had invited the men of Suffa to eat with him. As they ate, I hoped that Rasulullaah would invite me as well. When they stood up (after eating), all that was left in the dish was a little on the sides. Rasulullaah gathered the leftovers together into a morsel and Ahmad, Bukhari and Tirmidhi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.6 Pg.101). Haakim has also narrated it.

⁽²⁾ A dish prepared when bread is broken into curried meat.

taking it in his fingers said, 'Eat in the name of Allaah.' I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I continued eating until I was full." (1)

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen narrates that they were with Hadhrat Abu Hurayra who was wearing two reddish coloured cloths made in Kattaan. Wiping his nose with one of them, he said, "Wow! Abu Hurayra is wiping his nose with a cloth from Kattaan whereas there was a time when I seen myself fall down unconscious in front of Rasulullaah is pulpit and the room of Hadhrat Aa'isha www. Someone would then come and place his foot on my neck thinking that I was insane⁽²⁾ whereas I was suffering extreme hunger." (3)

Another narration adds that Hadhrat Abu Hurayra said, "I had seen the time when I was the servant of the son of Affaan and the daughter of Ghazwaan. My payment was my food and a turn to ride the animal when travelling. When they rode, I would drive the animal from the rear and when they dismounted, I would see to their needs. The daughter of Ghazwaan once said to me, 'You should come barefoot to the animal and mount it while it is standing (because we cannot wait for you whilst you wear your shoes and then you get to the animal and then wait for it to sit down for you).' Now that Allaah has brought the daughter of Ghazwaan into my marriage, I (jokingly) tell her, 'You should come barefoot to the animal and mount it while it is standing'."

Yet another narration from Saleem bin Hayaan quotes from his father that Hadhrat Abu Hurayra said, "I was brought up as an orphan, migrated as a pauper and worked for Bujra the daughter of Ghazwaan for a wage that was only food for my stomach and a turn to ride the animal when travelling. I used to serve them when they were not travelling and goaded the animals along when they rode. Allaah has now given her to me in marriage. All praise be to Allaah Who has made the Deen a means by which the affairs of people are stabilised and Who has made Abu Hurayra a leader in the matters of Deen." (4)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Shaqeeq narrates that he stayed in the company of Hadhrat Abu Hurayra for a year in Madinah. One day, they were near the room of Hadhrat Aa'isha when Hadhrat Abu Hurayra said to him, "I saw the time when we had nothing to wear besides coarse cloths and days would pass when we would not have anything to eat that could keep our backs straight. Eventually, we had to tie stones to our stomachs and then wrap our clothes around so that we could keep our backs straight. (5)

Another narration quotes that Hadhrat Abu Hurayra said, "All the food we had to eat with Rasulullaah was dates and water. By Allaah! We never used to see wheat and did not even know what it was. The only clothing we wore during the time of Rasulullaah was were the (untidy and hot) woollen shawls

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Hibbaan as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.176).

⁽²⁾ This was a form of treatment for insane people during those times.

⁽³⁾ Bukhari and Tirmidhi as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.39).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.378), Abdur Razzaaq and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.53).

⁽⁵⁾ Ahmad as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.177) with a reliable chain of narrators as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.321).

that Bedouins wore." (1)

The Hunger Endured by Hadhrat Asmaa bint Abi Bakr

Hadhrat Asmaa with the daughter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr with says, "I was once in the land in the Banu Nadheer district that Rasulullaah was had apportioned to Hadhrat Abu Salma (my husband) Hadhrat Zubayr 图像 Hadhrat Zubayr 图像 had left with Rasulullaah 像學 on a journey. Our neighbour was a Jew who had then slaughtered a goat and cooked it. When I smelt the aroma, I experienced a desire like I never felt before. At that time, I was expecting my daughter Khadeeja and could not bear the desire. I then went to the Jewish woman to ask for some fire with the hope that she would give me some to eat because I really had no need for the fire. When I smelt the aroma (from inside the house) and saw the food, my desire grew even more intense and extinguished the fire (she had given me). I then returned a second time to ask for fire and again a third time. (When she did not give me anything) I eventually sat down to cry and prayed to Allaah. When the Jewish lady's husband returned, he asked her, 'Has anyone been to you?' 'Yes,' she replied, 'an Arab lady came to ask for some fire.' He said, 'I shall never eat the food until you send some to her.' A plate of food was then sent to me. There was nothing on earth that I enjoyed more than that meal." (2)

The Hunger Endured by the Sahabah in General

The Extreme Hunger and Cold that the Sahabah Suffered During the Battle of Khandaq

The son of a Sahabi called Abu Jihaad once told him; "Dear father! You have seen Rasulullaah and enjoyed his company." The son then went on to describe the many feats that he would have carried out had he seen Rasulullaah. His father said, "Fear Allaah and continue doing what is correct. I swear by the Being Who controls my life that we experienced a time with Rasulullaah during the Battle of Khandaq when Rasulullaah announced, 'The person who will go and gather intelligence about the enemy, Allaah shall make him my companion on the Day of Qiyaamah.' No one stood up (to volunteer) because of the intense hunger and cold that we were suffering. Eventually (when no one responded), Rasulullaah announced the third time, 'O Hudhayfa (come forward for the task)."' (3) The detailed Hadith of Hadhrat Hudhayfa will Insha Allaah be quoted in the chapter discussing the extreme cold the Sahabah Ahmad with a reliable chain of narrators as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.321). Bazzaar has also quoted it in brief.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.284). Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.166) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym and Duwali as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.35) had to endure.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood narrates that when Rasulullaah once saw from their faces the extreme hunger that his companions were suffering, he said, "Hear the glad tidings that the time will soon come when each of you shall have a dish of Thareed to eat every morning and evening." They asked, "O Rasulullaah Will we be better off then?" "No," replied Rasulullaah "you are better off today than during that time." (1)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen says, "Three consecutive days would pass by a companion of Rasulullaah without him having anything to eat. He would then toast a piece of leather and eat it. If he found nothing, he would tie a stone to (his stomach to keep) his back (straight)." (2)

Some Sahabah (Collapse in Salaah because of extreme Hunger and Weakness

Hadhrat Fudhaala bin Ubayd in arrates that when Rasulullaah used to lead the salaah, many men used to collapse in the salaah because of starvation. They were the men of Suffa. (Seeing them) Some Bedouins would comment that they were insane. After completing the salaah, Rasulullaah would turn to them and say, "If you knew what Allaah has for you (as reward for your suffering), you would wish that your hunger and poverty should increase." (3)

The Sahabah Esse Eat Leaves while Out in The path of Allaah and Other Incidents of how they Suffered extreme Hunger

Hadhrat Anas signed narrates that seven Sahabah signed used to survive by sucking onto one date and eating fallen leaves until their mouths would be filled with sores. (4)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra says that they were seven Sahabah who were suffering from intense hunger when Rasulullaah gave him seven dates, one for each of them. (5)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra harmonic narrates that severe hunger caused him to leave his house one day and head for the Masjid. There he met a group of Sahabah who asked him what it was that made him leave home at that hour. When he informed them that it was hunger that made him leave the house, they said, "By Allaah! It is nothing but hunger that has also made us also leave our homes." They stood up and went to Rasulullaah who asked them, "What brings you here at this hour?" They replied, "O Rasulullaah we! Severe hunger brings us here." Rasulullaah then sent for a plate that contained some dates and gave

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.179).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg. 179).

⁽³⁾ Tirmidhi and Ibn Hibbaan as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.176). Also reported briefly by Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.339)

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.322) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Majah as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.178).

each person two dates. He then said to them, "Eat these two dates and drink some water. It will suffice for you for the day."

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra says that he ate one date and kept the other in his lower garment. Rasulullaah asked, "O Abu Hurayra! Why have you kept that date away?" Hadhrat Abu Hurayra replied, "I have kept it for my mother." "Eat it," said Rasulullaah "I shall give you two dates for her as well." Rasulullaah then gave him another two dates. (1)

Hadhrat Anas marrates that when Rasulullaah went to the trench (before the Battle of Ahzaab) early one morning, he found the Muhaajireen and Ansaar digging in the cold because they had no slaves to do the work for them. When he saw the fatigue and hunger they were suffering, he said:

"O Allaah! There is no life but the life of the Aakhirah

Do forgive the Ansaar and the Muhaajirah (the Muhaajireen)"
In response to this, the Sahabah

"We are those who have pledged allegiance to Muhammad Pledged to wage Jihaad as long as we are alive"

Another narration from Hadhrat Anas sizes states that as the Muhaajireen and Ansaar dug the trench around Madinah and carried the sand on their backs, they sang:

"We are those who have pledged allegiance to Muhammad Pledged to wage Jihaad as long as we are alive"

In response to this, Rasulullaah would say:

"O Allaah! There is no real good but the good of the Aakhirah Do bless the Ansaar and the Muhaajirah (the Muhaajireen)"

Hadhrat Anas makes further that even when two handfuls of barley was brought, it was cooked with decaying fat and served to people who were extremely hungry (and ate it) even though it would not go down easily and had an unpleasant odour. (2)

Hadhrat Jaabir says, "As we were digging the trench for the Battle of Khandaq, a very hard large boulder got in our way. We went to Rasulullaah and said, 'This large boulder in the trench has come in the way. Rasulullaah said, 'I shall come down (to see).' As Rasulullaah stood up, (we noticed that) he had a stone tied to his stomach and we had not as much as tasted any food for three days." The Hadith continues in detail. (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in arrates that Rasulullaah and the Sahabah dug the trench while they had stones tied to their stomachs because of hunger. (4) The details of the above two narrations shall Insha Allaah

⁽I) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.329).

⁽²⁾ Bukhari as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.95).

⁽³⁾ Bukhari as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.97).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg. 100).

be mentioned in the chapter discussing the assistance that the Sahabah received from unseen sources. Another narration⁽¹⁾ states that the Sahabah numbered eight hundred when they were digging the trench.

Hadhrat Aamir said, "Rasulullaah once sent us on a military expedition with only a bag of dates as provisions. The commander would (initially) distribute handfuls of it amongst us until he could give us only one each." His son asked, "Of what use is one date?" Hadhrat Aamir said, "Do not say that, dear son. We realised the value of the one date when we did not even have one date." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah and his Companions Experience Severe Hunger on a Journey

Hadhrat Jaabir says, "Rasulullaah appointed Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah as our commander and sent us to intercept a caravan of the Quraysh. Unable to find anything else, we took a bag of dates with us for our provisions. From there, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah sused to give us each a single date." The narrator asked Hadhrat Jaabir with "What would you do with just a single date?" He replied, "We would suck on it as a child suckles and then drink water. This would meet our requirements for the day until the night. We also used our staffs to bring leaves down from the trees, which we soaked in water to eat." The Hadith continues. (3)

A narration of Maalik, Bukhari, Muslim and others state that the Sahabah numbered three hundred on the expedition while a narration of Tabraani places the figure above six hundred. (4) A narration of Imaam Maalik states that a student of Hadhrat Jaabir asked him, "Of what use was the one date?" He replied, "When all the dates were finished, we missed even that one date."

The Hunger Rasulullaah and the Sahabah Suffered During the Tihaama Expedition

Hadhrat Abu Khunays Ghifaari In narrates that he accompanied Rasulullaah on the Tihaama expedition. When they reached Usfaan, the Sahabah approached Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah We are suffering extreme hunger. Permit us to eat one of the riding animals." Rasulullaah granted the permission. When Hadhrat Umar was informed about this, he came to Rasulullaah and said, "O Nabi of Allaah We! What have you done? If you have instructed the people to slaughter their riding animals, what will they ride?" "What do you suggest, O son of Khattaab?" asked Rasulullaah Hadhrat Umar replied, "I suggest that you instruct them to bring all their leftover provisions which you should gather together and place in a dish. You

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 4 Pg.98).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.179). Ahmad, Bazzaar and Tabraani have also reported it. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.319) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.276). The complete narration will Isha Allaah appear in the chapter discussing the assistance that Allaah gave to the Sahabah (2006).

⁽⁴⁾ Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.322) has commented on the chain of narrators.

should then pray to Allaah for them."

Rasulullaah then gave the order to collect all their leftover provisions in a dish, after which he made du'aa. Thereafter, he told them all to bring their satchels and each person's satchel was filled. (1)

Hadhrat Umar harrates that they were, with Rasulullaah on an expedition when they said, "O Rasulullaah !! The enemy is here. They have eaten well while our people are hungry." The Ansaar offered, "Should we not slaughter our camels and feed the people?" Rasulullaah said, "Whoever has any leftover food should bring it here." While some people brought a Mudd, others brought a Saa⁽²⁾. Some brought more while others brought less. The sum of all the food the people brought was twenty-odd Saa. Rasulullaah then sat aside and prayed to Allaah to bless the food. Thereafter, he said, "Take but do not loot."

The Muslims then started taking, someone in his basket and another in his bag. Everyone filled their satchels and people even tied knots in the sleeves and filled them (sleeves were made very wide in those days). When everyone had finished taking, the food was still the same as it had been at the beginning. Rasulullaah them said, "I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that I am Allaah's Rasul. Whoever says this with sincerity, Allaah will save him from the heat of Jahannam." (3)

The lady who fed Some of the Sahabah Every Friday

Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd says, "There was a woman from amongst our tribe who used to grow beetroot in her garden. Every Friday she would remove the beetroot, place it in a pot together with a handful of barley which she would grind. The beetroot then served the purpose of meat. After the Jumu'ah salaah, we used to go to her and greet her. She would then serve the dish to us. We looked forward to Fridays because of this meal." Another narration states that there was no fat and no stickiness in the meal and that the Sahabah would be very happy on Fridays (because of this food). (4)

The Sahabah eat Locusts and never Ate Bread made of Wheat during the Period of Ignorance

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abi Awfa (1986) narrates that they fought seven battles with Rasulullaah (1986) in which they ate locusts. (5)

Hadhrat Abu Barzah (Sie narrates, "During an expedition, we confronted some Mushrikeen and managed to chase them away from their place where they had

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar and Tabraani as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.10 Pg.303).

⁽²⁾ The Mudd and Saa were units of weight used in those days.

⁽³⁾ Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.304) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhari as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.173).

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.36). Abu Nu'aym has also narrated it in his Hilya (Vol.7 Pg.242)

ovens in the ground (to bake bread with wheat flour). Settling there, we ate the bread. Because we used to hear during the Period of Ignorance that eating bread made of wheat flour made a person fat, each one of us started looking at his sides after eating the bread to see whether he had grown fat." (1)

Another narration states, "We were with Rasulullaah will during the Battle of Khaybar when we chased off the enemy from the bread they made from fine wheat flour (they fled, leaving the bread behind)." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra says, "After winning the Battle of Khaybar, we passed by some Jews who were baking bread made of wheat flour in ovens made in the ground. We chased them off and shared the bread. I received a piece of it, part of which was burnt. Because I had heard that eating this bread made one fat, ?after eating it, I looked at my sides to see whether I had ?become any fatter."? (3) Enduring Thirst when Inviting People Towards Allaah and His Rasool

The Intense Thirst that the Sahabah Suffered During the Expedition to Tabook

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas was narrates that Hadhrat Umar was once asked to give an account of "The Hour of Difficulty" (the expedition to Tabook). Hadhrat Umar said, "When we left for Tabook, the heat was intense and when we stopped over at a place, we were so thirsty that we thought our necks would fall off (that we would die). In fact, when any of us went out in search of his mount, he really thought that he would die by the time he returned. The situation was so severe that when one of us slaughtered a camel, he would extract the liquids from its entrails to drink and then rub the remainder on his stomach (so that the coolness could penetrate his stomach)."

"Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said, 'O Rasulullaah !! Allaah is always good to you so make du'aa to Allaah on our behalf.' 'Do you really want me to do so?' asked Rasulullaah !! 'Please do,' entreated Hadhrat Abu Bakr !! Rasulullaah then raised his hands to the heavens (to make du'aa) and had not yet dropped his hands when clouds started gathering in the sky. First a drizzle fell and then the rains came pouring down. The Sahabah !! filled whatever containers they had and when we left the place, we discovered that the rain had not fallen further than the area where the army was camped." (4)

Hadhrat Haarith, Ikrama and Ayaash Suffer Extreme Thirst During the Battle of Yarmook

Hadhrat Habeeb bin Abi Thaabit (narrates that Hadhrat Haarith bin

Tabraani as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.177). Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.324) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani.

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym has narrated it in his Hilya (Vol.6 Pg.307)

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Wahab as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.9). Ibn Sa'd has also narrated it as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.2 Pg.396). Bazzaar and Tabraani have also reported it with a reliable chain of narrators as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.194).

Hishaam, Ikrama bin Abi Jahal and Ayaash bin Rabee'ah were all fatally wounded during the Battle of Yarmook. When Hadhrat Haarith bin Hishaam asked for some water and was about to drink it, Hadhrat Ikrama looked at him. Hadhrat Haarith said, "Give the water to Ikrama." When Hadhrat Ikrama took the water, Hadhrat Ayaash looked at him. Hadhrat Ikrama therefore asked that the water be given to Hadhrat Ayaash However, before the water could reach Hadhrat Ayaash he had already passed away. By the time the water reached the others, they had also passed away. (1)

Hadhrat Abu Amr Ansaari Endures Severe Thirst in the Path of Allaah

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Hanafiyyah says, "Hadhrat Abu Amr Ansaari had participated in the Battles of Badr, Uhud and the pledge at Aqaba. I once saw him fasting (on the battlefield), restless because of severe thirst. He asked his slave to pass him his shield and when the slave did so, he fired an arrow which did not go far (because he had grown weak with thirst). When he had fired three arrows, he said that he had heard Rasulullaah say, Whoever fires an arrow in the path of Allaah, the arrow shall be a source of light for him on the Day of Qiyaamah whether it reaches its target or not.' Hadhrat Abu Amr was martyred before sunset of that day." (2) Another narration states that he asked his slave for water, which the slave gave.

Enduring Extreme Cold when Inviting People Towards Allaah

The Sahabah 經過過 Dig the Trench in Extreme Cold

Hadhrat Abu Rayhaana who was with Rasulullaah in a battle narrates, "We took shelter near a hill one night when the cold was so severe that some men dug holes in the ground, got in and covered holes with their shields. When Rasulullaah noticed this, he announced, "Who will stand guard over us tonight? I shall make such a du'aa for him, the virtues of which he will certainly receive." A man from the Ansaar stood up and volunteered. When Rasulullaah asked who he was, he gave his name. Rasulullaah asked him to come closer and when he did, Rasulullaah held a part of his clothing and started making du'aa for him. When I heard the du'aa, I also volunteered. Rasulullaah asked me who I was and I informed him that I was Abu Rayhaana. Rasulullaah then made a du'aa for me that was shorter than the one he made for the other person. Thereafter, Rasulullaah said, "The fire of

(2) Tabraani as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.404). Haakim has also narrated it in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.395)

⁽I) Abu Nu'aym and Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.310), Haakim has reported it in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.242). A similar report from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mus'ab (cites the name of Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr (Similar instead of Hadhrat Ayaash (Ibn Sa'd has also narrated a similar narration as quoted in Isti'aab (Vol.3 Pg.150).

Jahannam has been forbidden for the eye that stands guard in the path of Allaah." (1)

Enduring Lack of Clothing when Inviting People Towards Allaah

The Burial of Hadhrat Hamza

Hadhrat Khabbaab bin Arat marrates, "I saw the burial of Hadhrat Hamza when we could find nothing to shroud his body besides a single shawl. However, (the shawl was so small that) when we covered his feet, his head would be exposed and when we covered his face, his feet would be exposed. We eventually covered his head and put some Idhkhir grass over his feet." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Shurahbeel bin Hasanah with Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Shafaa bint Abdillaah for narrates that she once went to Rasulullaah to ask for some charity. However, (because he had nothing to give her) Rasulullaah for excused himself and (because she knew him well) she started to tell him off. When the time for salaah arrived she left and then went to her daughter who was married to Hadhrat Shurahbeel bin Hasanah when we was married to Hadhrat Shurahbeel at home, she asked, "Salaah has started and you are still at home?" She then started to rebuke him. He said, "Dear aunt! Do not scold me because I have only one cloth (to wear) and Rasulullaah has borrowed it (I therefore have nothing decent to wear to the Masjid). She then said, "May my parents be sacrificed! I had been telling Rasulullaah off for the past day (for not giving me anything) whereas I was unaware that his condition is so bad that he has to borrow clothes from others." Hadhrat Shurahbeel said, "That too is only an upper garment that we had to patch up." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Suffers from a Lack of Clothing and Hadhrat Jibra'eel

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says that Rasulullaah was once sitting with Hadhrat Abu Bakr says, who was wearing a robe on which he used thorns as buttons at the chest. At that moment, Hadhrat Jibra'eel says descended from the heavens and after conveying Allaah's greetings to Rasulullaah says, he asked, "Why do I see Abu Bakr wearing a robe that he buttons at the chest with thorns?" Rasulullaah replied, "O Jibra'eel says! He had spent all his wealth on me before the conquest of Makkah (and has nothing left for himself)." Hadhrat Jibra'eel said to Rasulullaah says, "Convey Allaah's greetings to him and tell Ahmad, Nasa'ee and Tabraani as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.156). Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.287) has commented on the chain of narrators. Bayhaqi has also narrated the Hadith (Vol.9 Pg.149).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Muntakhab (Vol.5 Pg. 170).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani and Bayhaqi as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.396); Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.41); Ibn Abi Haatim as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.342); Ibn Mandah as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.271) and Haakim in his Mustadrak (Vol.4 Pg.58).

him that his Rabb asks, 'Are you pleased with Me in this state of poverty or unpleased?""

Rasulullaah Furned to Hadhrat Abu Bakr Hadhrat Jibra'eel Furned to Hadhrat Abu Bakr! Hadhrat Jibra'eel Furned is here. He conveys to you the greetings from Allaah Who asks, 'Are you pleased with Me in this state of poverty or unpleased?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr Furned to cry and said, "Can I ever be displeased with my Rabb? I am pleased with my Rabb!" I am pleased with my Rabb!" [1]

Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Faatima Suffer from a Lack of Clothing

Hadhrat Ali marrates that when he married Hadhrat Faatima marrates, all they had as a bedding was a sheepskin that they slept on by night and on which they served food to their camel during the day. They also had no servant. (2)

The Sahabah have only Coarse Woollen clothing to wear and Have to Constantly eat Only Dates and Water

Hadhrat Abu Burda says that his father (Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari when we would be caught in the rain! You would have thought that we smelt just like sheep (because our clothes were made from sheepskin)." (3) Another narration (4) from Hadhrat Abu Burda states that his father Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari when we were caught in the rain, you would have found us smelling like sheep because of our woollen clothing. Yet another narration adds that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari woosa Ash'ari woollen clothing. Yet another narration adds that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari woollen clothes were made of sheepskin while our food was the two black things, dates and water." (5)

The Men of Suffa Suffer from a Lack of Clothing

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra says, "I saw seventy men of Suffa, none of whom possessed a large shawl. They either wore a lower garment only or a small sheet that they tied around their necks. Whereas the garment of some reached halfway past their calves, there were those whose garments just reached their ankles. However, they would hold the garment together because they did not like their private parts to be exposed." (6)

Hadhrat Waathila bin Asqa William says, "I was one of the men of Suffa. None of

- (1) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.7 Pg.105) and his Fadhaa'ilus Sahabah 紀章節, narrating from Hadhrat Abu Hurayra 劉節節, Ibn Katheer has commented on the chain of narrators as mentioned in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.353).
- (2) Hannaad and Deenowri as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg. 133).
- (3) Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi and Ibn Majah as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.394).
- (4) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.80).
- (5) Tabraani with reliable narrators as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.325), Abu Dawood has also narrated it briefly.
- (6) Bukhari as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.397) and Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.341).

us had a complete set of clothing and (because our bodies were exposed) our perspiration would form lines of dirt and dust on our bodies." (1)

Someone came to Hadhrat Aa'isha while she had with her a slave woman who was wearing a shirt worth five Dirhams. Hadhrat Aa'isha will said to the person, "Lift your gaze and look at this slave woman of mine. Look at her! She is not happy to wear this shirt in the house whereas during the time of Rasulullaah is I had a shirt just like it and every woman in Madinah would borrow it when she was being beautified (for marriage)." (2)

Enduring fear when Inviting People Towards Allaah

The Sahabah Suffer Extreme Fear, Hunger and Cold During the Battle of Ahzaab

Hadhrat Abdul Azeez who was the nephew of Hadhrat Hudhayfa had marrates that that when Hadhrat Hudhayfa had mentioned the battles that the Sahabah fought by the side of Rasulullaah for the people sitting in the gathering cited various brave deeds they would have done had they been present then. Hadhrat Hudhayfa said to them, "Do not wish for that. I have seen the time one night during the Battle of Ahzaab when we were sitting in rows with the army of Abu Sufyaan above us (outside Madinah) and the Jews of the Banu Qurayzah beneath us (inside Madinah) as we feared that they would attack our families. We had never before experienced a night that was darker than that night nor a night in which the wind blew more fiercely. The wind made sounds resembling thunder and the darkness was so intense that we could not even see our fingers."

"The Munaafigeen started asking Rasulullaah & for permission to return home with the excuse that their houses were exposed (to attack) whereas they were really not. Rasulullaah es permitted every one of them to return. As Rasulullaah granted them permission, they stealthily left and we were left with approximately three hundred. Rasulullaah approached each man until he came to me. I had no protection against the enemy and all the protection I had against the cold was my wife's woollen shawl that barely covered my knees. I was squatting on my knees when Rasulullaah are came to me and asked who I was. When I informed him that I was Hudhayfa. He called me saying, 'O Hudhayfa!' Reluctant to stand up, I shrunk lower down to the ground as I replied, 'Yes, O Rasulullaah (學學!' When I stood up, Rasulullaah (學學 said, 'Something has happened amongst the enemy. I want you to bring me some information from them.' Although I was the most frightened at the time and feeling the coldest, I left. Rasulullaah with then prayed, 'O Allaah! Protect him from the front, from the back, from the right, from the left, from above and from beneath." Hadhrat Hudhayfa 劉國國 says, "I swear by Allaah, that (after this du'aa) every bit of fear and cold in me then left and I experienced none of it. As I left, Rasulullaah instructed, 'O Hudhayfa! Do not do anything amongst them until you return.' When I drew close to the enemy army, noticed the light of a fire that they had lit. There I saw a large dark-skinned man warming his hands at the fire and rubbing them on his sides as he said, 'Let us leave! Let us leave!' I had not known Abu Sufyaan before this. I removed an arrow with a white feather from my quiver and placed it on my bow to fire at him in the light when I recalled the instruction of Rasulullaah 'Do not do anything amongst them until you return.' I then restrained myself and put the arrow back into the quiver. I then gathered my courage and proceeded amongst the army."

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya.

⁽²⁾ Bukhari as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg. 164).

"The closest people to me was the Banu Aamir tribe who were announcing, 'O family of Aamir! Leave! Leave! You cannot stay here!' The wind was raging within their ranks without blowing even a hand's span outside their quarters. By Allaah! I could hear the sounds of rocks smashing against their carriages and beddings as the wind threw them up. I then left to return to Rasulullaah When I had reached halfway or close to halfway, I met approximately twenty horsemen all wearing turbans. They said to me, 'Inform your leader that Allaah has acted on his behalf."

"When I returned to Rasulullaah , I found him performing salaah wrapped in a small shawl. By Allaah! The cold returned to me as soon as I returned and I started shivering. While performing salaah, Rasulullaah motioned me with his hand. When I drew closer to him, he put the edge of the shawl on me. It was the practice of Rasulullaah to perform salaah whenever anything worried him. I then informed Rasulullaah about what had happened and told him the enemy were leaving when I left them. It was then that Allaah revealed the following verses of the Qur'aan:

﴿ يَانَيْهَا الَّذِيْنَ الْمَنُوُا اذْكُرُواْ يِغْمَةَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ إِذْ جَآءَ تُكُمْ جُنُودٌ فَاَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ رِيْحًا وَّجُنُودًا لَّم تَرَوْهَا * وَكَانَ اللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ بَصِيْرًا ۞ وَرَدَّ اللَّهُ الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوا بِغَيْظِهِمْ لَمْ يَنَالُوْا خَيْرًا * وَكَفَى اللَّهُ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ الْقِتَالَ * وَكَانَ اللَّهُ قَوِّيًّا عَزِيْزًا ۞﴾

(سورة الاحزاب: ٩ تا ٢٥)

O you who have Imaan! Remember Allaah's favour (to you) when the armies approached you, against which We sent (in your defence) a (fierce) wind and troops (of angels) that you could not see (thus causing fear in the hearts of the enemy, causing them to retreat). Allaah is Watchful over what you do ... (Afterwards.) Allaah returned the Kuffaar (to Makkah) with their fury without them achieving any good (without them attaining their objective of destroying Islaam and the Muslims). Allaah suffices for the Mu'mineen in battle (causing them to defeat the Kuffaar despite their lack of physical resources). Allaah is Omnipotent, Mighty (and none can fight Him). {Surah Ahzaab, verses

9-25}(1)

Hadhrat Yazeed Taymi narrates that they were with Hadhrat Hudhayla when someone asked him, "Had I met Rasulullaah is aid, "Would have fought fiercely and sacrificed my life." Hadhrat Hudhayla said, "Would you really have? I saw a time when we were with Rasulullaah during the Battle of Ahzaab. There blew that night an extremely violent and icy wind. Rasulullaah then announced, 'The person who will go and gather intelligence about the enemy, Allaah shall make him my companion on the Day of Qiyaamah." The rest of the Hadith is similar to the narration of Abdul Azeez quoted above. This narration however, quotes that Hadhrat Hudhayla said, "When I returned to Rasulullaah in, the cold struck me as soon as I arrived and I shivered. When I informed Rasulullaah about events, he covered me with the extra part of the shawl he was performing salaah in. I then slept until dawn. When dawn arrived, Rasulullaah was said, "Wake up, O sleepy head." (2)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah announced, "Who will go and see what the enemy is doing and return (with the news)?" Rasulullaah stipulated that the person will return and added, "I shall make du'aa to Allaah that he should be my companion in Jannah." However, no one stood up because of the intense fear, hunger and cold that everyone was suffering. (3)

Enduring Injuries and Illness when Inviting People Towards Allaah

The Incident of Two Men from the Banu Abdul Ash'hal Tribe During the Battle of Uhud

Hadhrat Abu Saa'ib inarrates that a man from the Banu Abdul Ash'hal tribe reported, "My brother and I participated in the Battle of Uhud and we both returned wounded. When Rasulullaah is caller announced that we should march in pursuit of the enemy, I said to my brother or he said to me, 'Can we miss this opportunity to march with Rasulullaah is By Allaah! Although we had no transport to ride and were both heavily wounded, we went with Rasulullaah is Since my wounds were less serious than my brother's, I carried him when he could not manage and he walked at other times. In this manner, we eventually reached the place where the other Muslims were." (4)

Another narration states that it was Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Sahl was and his brother Hadhrat Raafi bin Sahl wounded to Hamraa'ul Asad in a wounded condition and without transport as the one carried the other. (5)

⁽¹⁾ Haakim and Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.148) as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.114). Abu Dawood and Ibn Asaakir have also reported the Hadith in detail as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.279).

⁽²⁾ Muslim.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Is'haaq reporting from Muhammad bin Ka'b Qurazi

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Is'haaq as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.49)

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.21).

The Story of Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh and his Martyrdom During the Battle of Uhud

Several elders of the Banu Salma tribe have reported that Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh was badly crippled while his four sons were like lions and participated in every battle by the side Rasulullaah Week. When the Battle of Uhud took place, his sons tried to prevent him from participating saying, "Allaah has excused you." He then approached Rasulullaah was saying, "My sons want to stop me from leaving with you to participate in this battle. By Allaah! I wish to walk in Jannah with my paralysis." Rasulullaah & said to him, "Allaah has excused you. Jihaad is not compulsory for you." Rasulullaah then said to his sons, "You need not prevent him (from participating) because Allaah may perhaps grant him the high rank of martyrdom." Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh with then left with Rasulullaah and was martyred during the Battle of Uhud. (1) Hadhrat Abu Oataadah Www who participated in the Battle of Uhud says that Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh 登域砲 who was crippled once approached Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah (If I fight in the path of Allaah and am killed, will I walk with a healthy leg in Jannah?" "Certainly,' replied Rasulullaah Subsequently, the Kuffaar martyred Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh (his nephew and their slave during the Battle of Uhud. When Rasulullaah was passed by (the corpse of Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh (he said, "I can see him walking in Jannah with a healthy leg." Rasulullaah with then instructed that Hadhrat Amr bin Jamooh (1), his nephew and slave should be buried in one grave. (2)

The Story of Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej

Hadhrat Yahya bin Abdul Hameed narrates from his grandfather that an arrow struck Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej William during either the Battle of Uhud or the Battle of Hunayn(3). He then went to Rasulullaah and asked him to remove the arrow. Rasulullaah said, "O Raafi! If you want, I could remove the shaft together with arrowhead. Otherwise, I could remove only the shaft without arrowhead and testify on the Day of Qiyaamah that you are a martyr." Hadhrat Raafi said, "O Rasulullaah Remove the shaft without the arrowhead and testify for me on the Day of Qiyaamah that I am a martyr." Rasulullaah did this. Hadhrat Raafi William lived until the period when Hadhrat Mu'aawiya was Khalifah, when the wound reopened and he passed away after Asr. Such is the report according to this narration. However, the correct version of the story according to Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya is that Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeei passed away after the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 📆 isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.496) states that a period elapsed between the time his wound reopened and the time that he passed away. (4) Several such Ahadeeth shall insha Allaah be quoted in the chapter discussing patience..

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.37).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.9. Pg.315) has commented on the chain of narrators. Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.24) has also reported the narration.

⁽³⁾ One of narrators Amr bin Marzoog is unsure which battle it was.

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi. The narration is also reported by Baawardi, Ibn Mandah and Tabraani as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.474) as well as Ibn Shaaheen as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.496).

Chapter Four

The Chapter Concerning Hijrah (Migration)

"This chapter highlights how the Sahabah (Fig. 1) left their dearly loved homelands, an act that is extremely difficult for a person. They also left with the intention of never returning until their deaths. This chapter also highlights the fact that doing this was more beloved to them than the world and all its pleasures and that they gave preference to the Deen above mundane pleasures and were not concerned when these pleasures were lost. The chapter also emphasises how the Sahabah (Fig. 1) travelled from place to place to protect the Deen from evil, as if they were specially created for the Aakhirah and were its sons. It therefore appeared as if this world was created for them."

The Hijrah of Rasulullaah American and Hadhrat Abu Bakr

The Leaders of the Quraysh Conspire Against Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Urwa harrates that after the Hajj season, Rasulullaah was in Makkah during the remaining days of Dhul Hijjah, Muharram and Safar. The Mushrikeen then gathered to conspire against him, thinking that he would soon be leaving Makkah since they knew that Allaah had created a place of safety and protection for him in Madinah. They had also found out that the Ansaar had accepted Islaam and that the Muhaajireen were going to them. The Mushrikeen therefore planned to capture Rasulullaah and then either assassinate him, imprison him⁽¹⁾, exile him or keep him tied up. Allaah informed Rasulullaah about their plot and revealed the following verse:

(O Muhammad Remember the time) When the Kuffaar schemed against you to imprison you, kill you or exile you (drive you out of

⁽¹⁾ The narrator Amr bin Khaalid is unsure whether the term is "imprison him" or "drag him on the ground" (the first seems more correct).

Makkah). They plan and Allaah plans. Allaah is the best of planners." {Surah Anfaal, verse 30}

The day when Rasulullaah went to the house of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Nabi was informed that the Mushrikeen planned to assassinate him as he slept that night.

Rasulullaah Leaves Makkah with Hadhrat Abu Bakr Abu and they Hide in the Cave of Thowr

Under the veil of the night, Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr left for the cave in the Thowr mountain, which is mentioned in the Qur'aan (1). Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib slept on Rasulullaah is bed so that Rasulullaah is asleep in the house). The Mushrikeen spend the night walking about and discussing how they would leap on to the person sleeping and tie him up. They continued in this manner until dawn broke and they saw Hadhrat Ali stand up from Rasulullaah is bed. When they asked Hadhrat Ali where Rasulullaah was, he said that he did not know. They then realised that Rasulullaah had left Makkah.

The Mushrikeen then took to their mounts and started searching for Rasulullaah. They also sent messages to the people at the various oases, instructing them to capture Rasulullaah and promising them large rewards. They reached the cave of Thowr where Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr hid and had even climbed on top of the cave (where the entrance was). Rasulullaah heard their voices and Hadhrat Abu Bakr became worried and frightened. Rasulullaah then said to him

﴿ لَا تَحْزَنُ إِنَّ اللَّهُ مَعَنَا ﴾ (سورة توبه: ١٠)

"... Do not grieve (do not fear for my safety). Verily Allaah is with us (and He will protect us from the Kuffaar)..." {Surah Taubah, verse 40} Rasulullaah then made du'aa to Allaah and Allaah sent peace and tranquility to them as referred to in the following verse:

... So Allaah caused His tranquillity (serenity, mercy and peace) to descend on him, assisted him with an army (of angels and other creation) that you had not seen. And (Allaah) placed the word of the Kuffaar (the call to Shirk) at the very bottom while the word of Allaah (the Kalimah) is right at the top. Allaah is Mighty, The Wise. {Surah Taubah, verse 40}

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Simo) had several milk-giving goats that would be brought to him and also taken to his family in Makkah. He also had an honest and trustworthy slave by the name of Hadhrat Aamir bin Fuhayra who was a very good Muslim. Hadhrat Abu Bakr & sent him to hire a guide (to take them to Madinah) and Hadhrat Aaamir 🖫 🐃 hired a man called Ibnul Aygadh. He belonged to the Banu Abd bin Adi tribe who were allies of the Banu Sahm branch of the Banu Aas bin Waa'il tribe that belonged to the Quraysh. This guide from the Banu Adi tribe was a Mushrik then and it was his occupation to guide people on the journeys. During those nights (that they hid the cave), the two of them (Hadhrat Aamir 选择等 and the guide) hid in the camels of Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr while Hadhrat Abdullaah the son of Hadhrat Abu Bakr would come to them every evening and relate to them the events taking place in Makkah. Every night, Hadhrat Aamir would bring them some goats, which they would milk and then slaughter one to eat. Early in the mornings, he would take the goats away to the grazing fields that the people used for their goats and no one realised what was happening.

⁽¹⁾ In verse 40 of Surah Taubah where Allaah says, "...when the two of them were in the cave".

This continued until talk of Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr died down and they learnt that things were quiet. Their two companions then arrived with the camels and they left. They had already been in the cave for two days and two nights. They took Hadhrat Aamir bin Fuhayra along with them, who drove the camels, served them and assisted them. Hadhrat Abu Bakr would let him ride the camel behind him in turns. Besides Hadhrat Aamir and the guide from the Banu Adi, no one else accompanied Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr Hadhrat Aa'isha during one of the ends of the day. He either visited during the mornings or during the evenings. This was his practice until the day arrived when Allaah permitted him to migrate and to leave Makkah in the midst of all the people. That day, Rasulullaah came to our house at midday which was a time that he usually never visited. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr saw him come, he said, 'Rasulullaah will come during this hour only if something important has cropped up.' When Rasulullaah arrived, Hadhrat Abu Bakr moved back on his bed (to make way for him) and Rasulullaah sat down. There was nobody with Hadhrat Abu Bakr besides myself and my sister Asmaa bint Abi Bakr. Rasulullaah said, 'Send everyone else away from you.' Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, 'It is only my two daughters. May my parents be sacrificed for you, there is no harm in them being here."

The preparations that Hadhrat Abu Bakr made for the Hijrah

Narrating further, Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "Rasulullaah the then said, 'Allaah has permitted me to migrate and to leave Makkah.' Hadhrat Abu Bakr asked, 'May I accompany you?' Rasulullaah replied, 'You may (I) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.51) has commented on the chain of narrators.

accompany me.' I swear by Allaah that before then I had never known anyone to cry out of joy until I saw Hadhrat Abu Bakr cry that day. Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said, 'O Nabi of Allaah li I have kept those two camels ready for this purpose.' He then hired Abdullaah bin Urayqidh as a guide to show them the way. He was a Mushrik from the Bahu Du'il bin Bakr tribe whose mother belonged to the Bahu Sahm bin Amr tribe. They gave him their two camels and he kept them and grazed them until the appointed day." (1)

A reliable narration from Hadhrat Aa'isha whether he could accompany him and Rasulullaah agreed, Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "I have two camel that I have fed for the past six months for this purpose. Take any one of the two." Rasulullaah said, "I shall rather buy it." Rasulullaah then bought the camel from Hadhrat Abu Bakr and they both left. They then stayed in the cave. (2)

Hadhrat Asmaa who who was the daughter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr usually visited that that when they were staying in Makkah Rasulullaah usually visited them twice each day. However, one day he arrived in the afternoon. She said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr who, "Father, here comes Rasulullaah May May my parents be sacrificed! It must be something important that has brought him at this hour." Rasulullaah came and said, "Do you know that Allaah has permitted me to leave Makkah?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr who asked, "May I accompany you, O Rasulullaah "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "I have two camels that I have been rearing from a long time in anticipation for this day. You may take one." Rasulullaah said, "Only at a price, Abu Bakr." Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! You may have it at a price if you so wish."

Hadhrat Asmaa says, "We then prepared the food for their journey. I cut my belt and used part of it to fasten their provisions." Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr she then left and stayed in a cave in the Thowr mountain. When they arrived at the cave, Hadhrat Abu Bakr she entered first and placed his finger in every hole, fearing that there may be an insect there (which would harm Rasulullaah she). When the Quraysh found out that they were gone, they set out in search of them and fixed a reward of a hundred camels for anyone who captured Rasulullaah she. They scoured the mountains of Makkah and eventually reached the mountain where Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr were hiding. Referring to a person who was facing the cave, Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "O Rasulullaah she I He will surely see us." "Never," replied Rasulullaah said, "because the angels are hiding us with their wings." Still facing the cave, the man then sat down to pass urine. Rasulullaah said, "Had he seen us, he would never have done that."

They stayed three nights in the cave and every evening Hadhrat Aamir bin Fuhayra would bring the goats of Hadhrat Abu Bakr to them. At night, he would take them back and by the morning they would be grazing with the shepherds in the grazing lands. Hadhrat Aamir will used to return the goats in the evening with the other shepherds, but would walk very slowly (so that he would be left behind) and then take the goats to Hadhrat Abu Bakr once the night became dark. Hadhrat Abullaah the son of Hadhrat Abu Bakr used to spend the day in Makkah finding out the news and then inform Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr about this when he met them at night. He then left them late at night and was in Makkah by the dawn.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq.

⁽²⁾ Baghawi. The complete narration appears in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.334).

Rasulullaah Leaves the Cave and Heads for Madinah

(After three nights) Rasulullaah (過避 and Hadhrat Abu Bakr 過避 left the cave and took a route along the coast. Hadhrat Abu Bakr 细胞的 travelled in front of Rasulullaah but whenever he felt any danger from the rear, he travelled at the back. The entire journey passed in this manner. Hadhrat Abu Bakr william was a well known man. Therefore, whenever someone met him, they asked who was with him. He would reply, "He is a guide who is showing me the way." By saying this, he meant that Rasulullaah was guiding him in Deen but the person thought that Rasulullaah was someone showing him the road. When they reached the settlement of Qudayd which lay on their route, someone told the Banu Mudlai tribe (who lived there). "I have seen two riders near the coast. I think that they are the men from the Quraysh whom you are searching for." Suraaga bin Maalik said to the person, "Those are two men whom we have sent out to do some work for the people." (Suraaga knew that that the riders were Rasulullaah was and Hadhrat Abu Bakr said this so that he could have them to himself and earn the reward). Suraaga then called for his slave woman and whispered to her to get his horse. He then set out on the trail of Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1) The story of Suraaqa will shortly be related, Insha Allaah.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Fears for Rasulullaah when they Leave the Cave and Hadhrat Umar Praises Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen narrates that during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar mention was made of some Sahabah made and it appeared as if the people regarded Hadhrat Umar to be better than Hadhrat Abu Bakr when Hadhrat Umar heard about this, he said, "I swear by Allaah that a single night of Hadhrat Abu Bakr is better than the entire family of Umar and single day of Hadhrat Abu Bakr is better than the entire family of Umar. When Rasulullaah is left for the cave that night, Hadhrat Abu Bakr was with him. At times he walked ahead of Rasulullaah and at other times he walked at the back. When Rasulullaah onticed this, he asked, 'O Abu Bakr! Why do walk sometimes ahead of me and sometimes at the back?' He said, 'When I think that there may be someone searching for you, I walk at the back but I then walk ahead when T think that someone may be lying in ambush.' Rasulullaah said, 'O Abu Bakr! If anything has to happen, do you prefer that it happens to you rather than me?' 'Certainly! I swear to this by the Being Who has sent you with the truth!' replied Hadhrat Abu Bakr

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.54) has commented on the chain of narrators.

"When they reached the cave, Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, 'O Rasulullaah You stay here until I have cleaned the cave for you.' He then entered the cave and cleaned it. When he came out and remembered that he had not cleaned the holes, he said, 'O Rasulullaah You stay here until I have cleaned it.' He then entered the cave and cleaned out the holes. He then told Rasulullaah to enter and Rasulullaah did. I swear by the Being Who controls my life! That single night is better than the entire family of Umar!" (1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Fears for Rasulullaah when they were in the Cave

Hadhrat Hasan Basri narrates that that when Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr went to the cave, the Quraysh came to search for Rasulullaah However, when they saw that a spider had spun a web on the entrance, they concluded that no one could have entered the cave. Rasulullaah was busy performing salaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr was keeping watch when Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Here comes your people in search for you. By Allaah! I have no concern for myself but I fear that I should not see anything unpleasant happen to you." Rasulullaah comforted him saying, "O Abu Bakr! Do not fear for Allaah is with us." (2)

Hadhrat Anas in narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr told him, "(When we were in the cave) I said to Rasulullaah if, 'If any of them has to look to his feet, he would certainly spot us beneath his feet.' Rasulullaah if said, 'O Abu Bakr! What do you think of two who have Allaah as the third?" (3)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Speaks about His Hijrah with Rasulullaah and their Encounter with Suraaga bin Maalik

Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr some bought a saddle from (his father) Hadhrat Aazib for thirteen Dirhams. Hadhrat Abu Bakr some then asked Hadhrat Aazib to tell (his son) Baraa to help him carry it to his house. Hadhrat Aazib replied, "I shall not tell him, until you relate to us your experience when Rasulullaah left Makkah with you." Hadhrat Abu Bakr related, "We left (the cave) early at night and travelled speedily the entire day and night the afternoon when the heat became intense. I then strained my eyes to see whether I could see any shade to take shelter. When I spotted a large boulder, I hurried to it and found that it still offered some shade. I then levelled the ground for Rasulullaah and spread out a coat for him. I then bade him to lie down and he did. Thereafter, I went to see whether I could spot anyone who was searching for us."

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.180). Haakim has also narrated as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.348). As quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.335), Baghawi has also narrated it from Hadhrat Umar was and the Hadith is reliable, as confirmed by Ibn Katheer.

⁽²⁾ Haafidh Abu Bakr Qaadhi.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.181,182). As quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.329), the narration has been reported by Bukhari, Muslim, Tirmidhi, ibn Sa'd, ibn Abi Shaybah and others.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr William related further, "When I saw a shepherd and asked him who he worked for, he took the name of a man from the Quraysh whom I knew. 'Do any of the goats have milk?' I asked. 'Yes,' he replied. 'Will you milk some for me?' I enquired. When he agreed, he held the animal still as I had asked. I then asked him to wipe off the sand from the udders (which he did with his hands) and I then asked him to dust his hands off. I had a container with me that had a cloth tied to the mouth. After he had milked a bit of milk for me, I threw water onto a cup so that its bottom got cold (and the milk as well). I then went to Rasulullaah and found him awake. I said, 'Drink, O Rasulullaah He then drank so much that I became very pleased. 'Is it not time to leave?' I said. We then left."

"Although people were searching for us, no one caught up with us besides Suraaqa bin Maalik bin Ju'shum, who did so on his horse, (Seeing him approach.) I said, "O Rasulullaah : Here comes someone in search of us. He has caught up with us.' Rasulullaah was said, 'Do not grieve because Allaah is with us.' When Suraaqa drew close and was only the distance of one or two spear lengths away from us, I cried and said, 'O Rasulullaah : He has caught up with us!' Rasulullaah was asked, 'What makes you weep?' I replied, 'I swear by Allaah that it is not for my own safety that I weep but I am crying for your safety.' Rasulullaah then made du'aa saying, 'O Allaah! Deal with him on our behalf as You please.' Suraaqa's horse suddenly sank into the ground up to its belly although the ground was hard. Suraaga sprang off the horse and said. 'O Muhammad! I know that you have done this. Please pray to Allaah to save me from this predicament and I swear by Allaah that I shall throw every other tracker I meet off your trail. Take an arrow from my quiver here and when you pass by a certain place where you will see my camels and goats (show this arrow to the shepherds) and take whatever you need.' Rasulullaah 🕮 said, 'I have no need for that.' Rasulullaah then made du'aa to Allaah and Suraaqa was freed. He then returned to his people."

"Rasulullaah and I continued until we reached Madinah where the people came to welcome him. They climbed the roofs on either side of the road as servants and children ran on the road saying, 'Allaahu Akbar! Rasulullaah had arrived! Muhammad has come!' When the people started quarrelling about who would be his host, Rasulullaah said, 'I shall stay the night with the Banu Najjaar tribe who are the maternal relatives of Abdul Muttalib so that I may honour them.' The following morning, Rasulullaah stayed where he was commanded to stay (by Allaah)." (1)

Rasulullaah Arrives in Madinah, Stays in Quba and the Joy of the People of Madinah

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr harrates that Hadhrat Zubayr who was with a caravan of Muslim traders met Rasulullaah as they were returning from Shaam. He gave both Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr white clothing to wear. When the Muslims in Madinah heard that Rasulullaah had left from Makkah, they left for Harra every morning to wait for him until the extreme afternoon heat made them return home. After waiting for a long time one day, they returned and took shelter in their homes. It was then that a Jew who had climbed on top of a Jewish fortress to see if something happened spotted Rasulullaah and his companions all dressed in white. As they arrived, the mirage on the horizon started to recede. The Jew could not help calling out at the top of his voice, "O Arabs! Here comes the chief you have been waiting for!"

The Muslims rushed for their weapons (to ceremoniously receive Rasulullaah at Harra. Rasulullaah led them to the right of Harra where they stopped in the neighbourhood of the Banu Amr bin Awf tribe. This happened onthesecondof Rabee'ul Awwal. Hadhrat Abu Bakr remained standing while Rasulullaah sat down quietly. Those Ansaar who had never before seen Rasulullaah started greeting Hadhrat Abu Bakr (thinking that he was Rasulullaah started greeting Hadhrat Abu Bakr (thinking that he was Rasulullaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr started shading him with his shawl that the people realised who Rasulullaah was.

Rasulullaah stayed with the Banu Amr bin Awf tribe for more then ten nights where he laid the foundation for the Masjid that Allaah refers to in the Qur'aan when He says:

﴿ لَمَسْجِدٌ أُسِّسَ عَلَى التَّقُوئُ ﴾ (سورة توبه: ١٠٨)

"... The Masjid that was established on Taqwa ... " {Surah Taubah, verse 108} Rasulullaah performed salaah there and then mounted his camel. The people walked with him until the camel sat at the location of Rasulullaah salaah (Masjid (Masjidun Nabawi). It was there that the Muslim males had been performing their salaah at the time. It was a piece of land where dates were dried and it belonged to two orphaned children called Sahl and Suhayl who were under the guardianship of Hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah shall when the camel sat there, Rasulullaah said, "Insha Allaah, this shall be the place where we shall stay."

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad. The narration is also reported by Bukhari and Muslim as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.181,182); Ibn Abi Shaybah and Ibn Sa'd (with some additions), Ibn Khuzaymah and others as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.330).

Rasulullaah then called for the two orphans to buy the land so that a Masjid could be built on it. They said, "(Instead of selling the land) We would rather give it to you as a gift, O Rasulullaah Rasulullaah refused to accept it from them as a gift until they he was able to buy it from them. Rasulullaah then had the site fixed for a Masjid. Rasulullaah himself carried the unbaked bricks for the Masjid with the Sahabah As he carried the bricks he sang:

"Lifting these bricks is not like lifting the dates and grapes of Khaybar O our Rabb! This is more virtuous and purer"

Another couplet Rasulullaah www would recite was:

O Allaah! The true rewards are those of the Aakhirah

So do shower Your mercy on the Ansaar and Muhaajirah (Muhaajireen)
The narrator says that Rasulullaah also recited the poem of a Muslim whose name he was not told. Ibn Shihaab says, "Besides these couplets, no Hadith has reached us in which Rasulullaah has recited a complete poem."

(1)

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik Says, "I was one of the children running as the people said, 'Muhammad has arrived!' I ran on but could not see anything. When the people again called, 'Muhammad has arrived!' I ran again but could still not see anything. Rasulullaah and his companion Hadhrat Abu Bakr says eventually arrived and sat down in an uninhabited area of Madinah. They then sent a Bedouin to announce to the Ansaar that they had arrived. Consequently, approximately five hundred of the Ansaar came out to welcome them. When the Ansaar came, they said, 'Come along. You are both safe and will be obeyed.' Rasulullaah and his companion walked amongst us and the people of Madinah all came out to welcome them. In fact, even the young girls stood above the houses vying with each other to look as they asked, 'Which of them is Rasulullaah 'We'?' We had never seen a sight like this."

Hadhrat Anas (a) also said, "I have seen Rasulullaah (a) the day he arrived in Madinah and the day he passed away and have never seen any days like them." (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha narrates that when Rasulullaah arrived in Madinah, the women and children sang:

"The full moon has risen above us from the Valley of Wadaa

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg. 186).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad and Bayhaqi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg. 197).

Gratitude is incumbent on us as long as a caller calls to Allaah" (1)

The Hijrah of Hadhrat Umar 经通過 and Some Other Sahabah 經過過

The First Person to Migrate from Makkah to Madinah

Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib says, "The first Muslims (from Makkah) to migrate to us (in Madinah) were Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr and Hadhrat Ibn Ummu Maktoom The two of them started teaching us the Qur'aan. Thereafter, Hadhrat Ammaar, Bilaal and Sa'd migrated, followed by Hadhrat Umar caccompanied by twenty others. I have never seen the people of Madinah happier on any occasion than the occasion when they arrived. By the time they arrived, I had already learnt Surah A'la amongst other Mufassal Surahs." (2)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib said, "The first from amongst the Muhaajireen to come to us was Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr who belonged to the Banu Abdid Daar tribe. Then came Hadhrat Ibn Ummu Maktoom who was a blind man belonging to the Banu Fihr tribe. Thereafter, Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab arrived with twenty mounted men. When we asked him what had happened to Rasulullaah he had hadhrat Abu Bakr arrived afterwards. By the time Rasulullaah arrived, I had already learnt several Surahs from the Mufassal Surahs." (3)

The Hijrah of Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab and his Two Companions

Hadhrat Umar says, "When I decided to migrate to Madinah, Ayaash bin Abi Rabee'ah, Hishaam bin Aas and I arranged to meet at the valley of Tanaadhib which was a place after Sarif at the oasis of the Banu Ghifaar tribe. We agreed that if any of us was not there by dawn, it meant that he was stopped and the other two were to proceed. Consequently, Ayaash and I were at Tanaadhib by dawn and Hishaam was prevented from coming. He was put in difficulty (by the Mushrikeen) and he succumbed to it (forsook Islaam). When we arrived in Madinah, we stayed with the Banu Amr bin Awf tribe at Quba. Ayaash was the cousin and uterine brother of Abu Jahal bin Hishaam and Haarith bin Hishaam. The two of them therefore came for him in Madinah (to take him back to Makkah) at a time when Rasulullaah was still in Makkah."

The two of them spoke to Ayaash and said, 'Your mother has taken a vow never to comb her hair and never to take shade from the sun until she sees you.'

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.197).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.331).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad. Bukhari and Muslim have also narrated it as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.188).

Ayaash took pity on his mother. I said to him, 'Beware of them because I swear by Allaah that all they want is to take you away from your Deen. By Allaah! When the lice start harassing your mother, she will start combing her hair and when the heat of Makkah becomes unbearable, she will have to take shade.' However, Ayaash said, 'I shall fulfil the vow of my mother. In any case, I still have some wealth in Makkah that I need to collect.' I pleaded with him saying, By Allaah! You know that I am one of the wealthiest people of the Quraysh. You can have half of my wealth if you do not go with them.' In spite of this, he refused my offer and insisted on going with them. When I saw that he was adamant to go, I said to him, 'Since you want to do as you want to do, at least take this camel of mine for she is of good pedigree and very obedient. Stay on her and if you doubt anything your people do, use her to (escape and) save yourself."

Hadhrat Umar marrates further, "Ayaash then left with the two and on the road, Abu Jahal said to him, 'Dear brother! By Allaah, this camel of mine has become very lazy. Will you not allow me to ride with you on that camel?' 'Certainly,' replied Ayaash. He therefore made the camel sit down and the two others also made their camels sit so that Abu Jahal could change camels. When they were on the ground, the two men attacked Ayaash and tied him up very securely. They then took him to Makkah and when they pressurised him to forsake Islaam, he succumbed to the pressure. We believed that Allaah would never accept the repentance of a person who forsakes Islaam and this is what those who forsook Islaam also thought. It was only when Rasulullaah arrived in Madinah that Allaah revealed the following verses of the Qur'aan:

﴿ قُلُ يَعِبَادِىَ الَّذِيْنَ اَسْرَفُوا عَلَى الْفُسِهِمْ لَا تَقْنَطُوا مِنْ رَّحْمَةِ اللهِ ﴿ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَغْفِرُ الدُّنُوْبَ جَمِيْعًا ﴿ إِنَّ اللَّهَ مِنْ قَبْلِ اَن اللَّهُ عَلَى الْفَوْرُ الرَّحِيْمُ ﴿ وَالْنِيْبُوْا اللَّهِ رَبِّكُمْ وَاَسْلِمُوا لَهُ مِنْ قَبْلِ اَن اللَّهُ عَلَى اللَّهُ الْعَدَابُ ثُمَّ لَا تُنْصَرُونَ ۞ وَاتَّبِعُوا اَحْسَنَ مَا أَنْزِلَ اللَّهُ كُمْ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ مِنْ قَبْلِ اللَّهُ عَلَى اللَّهُ الْعَذَابُ ثُمَّ لَا تَنْصَرُونَ ۞ وَاتَّبِعُوا اَحْسَنَ مَا أَنْزِلَ اللَّهُ مُن رَبِّكُمْ مِنْ وَبِكُمْ مِنْ فَبْلِ اللَّهَ عَلَى اللَّهُ اللَّ

Say, "O My bondsmen who have wronged their souls (by committing kulir or other sins)! Never lose hope of Allaah's mercy (so do not abstain from seeking forgiveness thinking that you will not be forgiven). Verily, Allaah forgives all sins (that are free of kulir and Shirk). Undoubtedly, He is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful." Turn to your Rabb and surrender to Him before punishment afflicts you, after which you will not be assisted. Follow the best (the injunctions of Islaam), which your Rabb has revealed to you before punishment suddenly afflicts you (for not accepting Islaam) without your realising it. {Surah Zumar, verses 53-55}

Hadhrat Umar says that he wrote down these verses and sent them to Hishaam bin Aas. Hishaam says, "When the verses reached me, I started reading them at Dhu Tuwa and looked at them from top to bottom but could not understand them. I then prayed to Allaah to make me understand and Allaah inspired my heart that they were revealed with reference to people like me and the belief we entertained (that we will never be forgiven after forsaking Islaam). I then returned to my camel, sat on it and (rode off until I) met Rasulullaah in Madinah. (1)

The Hijrah of Hadhrat Uthmaan Bin Affaan

Hadhrat Uthmaan Migrates to Abyssinia and Becomes the First Person After Hadhrat Loot to migrate with his Family for the Pleasure of Allah Hadhrat Qataadah says, "The first person to migrate with his family for the pleasure of Allah was Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan say. I heard Hadhrat Nadhar bin Anas say that he heard Hadhrat Abu Hamza viz. Hadhrat Anas say, 'Hadhrat Uthmaan say left for Abyssinia with his wife Hadhrat Ruqayya who was the daughter of Rasulullaah say. News about them was slow in reaching Rasulullaah until a woman from the Quraysh came to him and said, 'O Muhammad! I have seen your son-in-law with his wife.' How were they?' asked Rasulullaah she said, 'I saw him mount his wife on a very weak donkey as he drove it along from the rear.' Rasulullaah commented, 'May Allaah go with them. Uthmaan is the first person to migrate (with his family) after Loot

Another narration adds that when Rasulullaah  received no news of them, he went out of his house to wait for some news. Eventually a woman came to him and gave him news about them. (3)

The Hijrah of Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib

Hadhrat Ali says, "When Rasulullaah is left for the Hijrah to Madinah, he told me to stay behind to return the trusts that people had left with him. It was because of this that people called him "Al Ameen" ("The Trustworthy"). I stayed on for three days (after Rasulullaah is left) and made myself seen without hiding from the people for even a single day. I then left Makkah and followed the road Rasulullaah took until I reached the neighbourhood of the Banu Amr bin Awf tribe (in Quba) where Rasulullaah was staying. I stayed at the house of Kulthoom bin Hidm and Rasulullaah was also staying there." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.172). The narration is also reported by Ibnus Sakan as referred to in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.604); by Bazzaar [from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.61)]; by Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.13); by IbnSa'd (Vol.3 Pg.164), by Ibn Mardaway and by Bazzaar in brief as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.262); by Tabraani and by Ibn Shihaab as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.6 Pg.62).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.66). Ibn Mubaarak has also reported a similar narration as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.305).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.81) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.335).

Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abi Taalib (and Other Sahabah (Migrate to Abyssinia and then to Madinah)

Rasulullaah Permits the Sahabah to Migrate to Abyssinia and Hadhrat Haatib and Ja'far migrate there

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Haatib (once said, "I have seen (in a dream) a land of dates. You people should go there." Consequently, (my father) Hadhrat Haatib (and Hadhrat Ja'far (1)) left for the sea and I was born on the very ship (they took)."

Hadhrat Ja'far (O Rasulullaah (F)) Permit me to go to a land where I will be able to worship Allaah without having to fear anyone." When Rasulullaah (F) Permitted him, he went to Najaashi (the king of Abyssinia). The detailed Hadith will follow soon, Insha Allaah.

The Quraysh send Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas to Najaashi to Bring the Sahabah back to them

Hadhrat Ummu Salama ito narrates that a time came when it became too difficult for the Sahabah ito live in Makkah. They were being tortured and put through many difficulties. They realised that these great difficulties and tests were directed at them because of their Deen and that Rasulullaah was unable to protect them. Under the protection of his tribe and his uncle, Rasulullaah was not suffering as they were. Rasulullaah therefore said to them, "The land of Abyssinia has a king who does not oppress anyone in his kingdom. Go to his country and stay there until Allaah creates an escape for you from your suffering."

Hadhrat Ummu Salama says further, "We therefore left in several groups until a number of us had gathered there. We had settled in a nice place with good neighbours where we could peacefully practise our Deen without fearing any oppression. However, when he Quraysh saw that we had found a safe haven, they disliked it very much. They therefore decided to send a delegation to Najaashi to have us removed from his country and returned to them. The persons they sent were Amr bin Al Aas and Abdullaah bin Abi Rabee'ah. They also collected many gifts for Najaashi and for his generals. There was not a person for whom they did not have a gift that was exclusively for him."

Hadhrat Ummu Salama (Inc.) narrates further that the Quraysh briefed the two delegates saying, "Give every general his gift before you speak about the Muslims. Thereafter, give Najaashi his gifts. If possible, try to have the Muslims handed over to you before you have to speak about them to Najaashi." The two men left and gave every general his gift and spoke to them. They said, "We have come to your king concerning some fools from our people who have forsaken the religion of their people and have not even embraced your religion. Their people have sent us (to negotiate with you) so that the king should send them back to us. When we speak to the king we would appreciate it if you could advise him to do this." They all agreed to comply.

⁽I) Ahmad and Tabraani as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.6 Pg.27).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani and Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.29) has commented on the chain of narrators.

They then went to Najaashi and gave him his gifts. The gift Najaashi loved most was the leather of Makkah. After giving him the gifts, they said to him, "O King! Some foolish lads from our people have forsaken the religion of their people and have not even embraced your religion. They have fabricated a religion that is strange to us and have sought asylum in your country. Their tribes, parents, uncles and people have sent us to bring them back for they know them best. Because they are people who will not enter into your religion, you need not keep them here."

Najaashi became furious and said, "Never by the life of Allaah! I shall never send them back to their people until I have called them, spoken to them and looked into the matter. They are people who have sought asylum in my country and chosen to be my neighbours rather than that of others. If they are as you claim, I shall return them. However, if they are not like you say, I shall keep them here. I shall not come in between them and their people (by returning them) neither shall give their people the pleasure (of having them back). (Najaashi then sent for the Muslims.)

The Sahabah Wiews Meet Najaashi and his Views about Hadhrat Isa Wie and Hadhrat Maryam

When the Muslims came to Najaashi, they greeted him with Salaam without prostrating before him. Najaashi said, "O people! Tell me why you have not greeted me (by prostrating) as the others from your people have greeted me when they arrived? Tell me also what you have to say about Isa with and what your religion is. Are you Christians?" When the Muslims replied in the negative, Najaashi asked, "Are you then Jews?" "No," they replied. "Then what is your religion?" he asked. When they informed him that they followed Islaam, he asked them what is Islaam is. They replied, "We worship Allaah and do not ascribe any as partner to Him."

Najaashi asked further, "Who has brought this religion to you?" They replied, "A man from amongst our own people brought it to us. We knew him and his lineage very well. Allaah sent him as a Rasul to us just as Allaah sent many Ambiyaas before us. He instructed us to do good, to be charitable, to fulfil promises and to return trusts. He prohibited us from worshipping idols and to rather worship the One Allaah Who had no partner. We believed in him and recognised the word of Allaah. We are convinced that whatever he taught is from Allaah. When we did what he told us, our people became our enemies and they also became the enemies of the true Nabi . They called him a liar and also wanted to kill him. They wanted us to worship idols and we therefore fled from them and came to you with our Deen and lives still intact."

Najaashi exclaimed, "By Allaah! This is the same light that has come from Moosa "Hadhrat Ja'far then said, "Regarding the greeting, Rasulullaah has informed us that the greeting of the people of Jannah is the Salaam and he has commanded us to greet in this manner. It is therefore with the same greeting we use between ourselves that we have greeted you. Regarding Hadhrat Isa with the son of Hadhrat Maryam with he servant of Allaah, His Nabi, His word that he cast on Hadhrat Maryam with and the spirit that Allaah created. He was the son of a chaste virgin."

Najaashi picked up a stick and said, "I swear by Allaah that the son of Maryam would not add even the weight of this stick to what you have mentioned." The Abyssinian leaders exclaimed, "By Allaah! If the people of Abyssinia hear what you have said, they will certainly overthrow you." Najaashi replied, "By Allaah! I shall never say anything more about Isa Will. When Allaah returned my kingdom to me, He did not bother about what the people had to say, so why should I bother about what they say about the Deen of Allaah? Allaah forbid that I should do such a thing!" (1)

A lengthy narration also from Hadhrat Ummu Salama with the wife of Rasulullaah 繼續 states that Najaashi sent a message to the Sahabah 過過過 to come to him. When the message reached them, they convened a gathering. They consulted with each other saying, "What will we say about him (Hadhrat Isa when we go to Najaashi?" the response was, "By Allaah! We will say what we know and what Rasulullaah was instructed us regardless of what the consequences may be." Najaashi had also called his priests, who were sitting around him with the pages of their scriptures opened when the Muslims arrived. Najaashi asked, "What is this religion with which you have separated from your people and for which you will neither embrace my religion nor the religion of any other nation?" The spokesperson for the Muslims was Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abi Taalib 遗憾, He responded by saying, "O King! We were a nation steeped in ignorance. We worshipped idols, ate carrion, perpetrated acts of immorality, severed family ties, behaved badly towards our neighbours and the strong amongst us lived off the weak. We were in this pathetic condition when Allaah sent a Rasul to us who was from among us. We were well aware of his lineage, his truthfulness, his honesty and his chaste behaviour. He called us to believe in the oneness of Allaah, to worship Allaah and to forsake the stones and idols that we and our forefathers worshipped other than Allaah. He enjoined us to always speak the truth, to return trusts, to maintain family ties, to behave well with our neighbours and to abstain from unlawful things and from spilling people's blood. He had forbidden us from immoral behaviour, from giving false evidence, from usurping the wealth of orphans and from slandering chaste women. He has also commanded us to worship Allaah without ascribing any partners to Him and to establish salaah and pay zakaah."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.72).

As Hadhrat Ja'far enumerated the injunctions of Islaam, the other Muslims confirmed what he said until he said, "So we believed in him and followed whatever he brought to us. We worshipped the one Allaah without ascribing any partners to him. We also regarded as forbidden all those things that Allaah had made Haraam for us just as we regarded permissible all those things that he had made Halaal for us. However, our people became our enemies. They started torturing us and putting us through many difficulties because of our Deen so that we should revert to worshipping idols instead of worshipping Allaah. They wanted us to regard the many vices as lawful which we used to regard as lawful in the past. When their high handedness and oppression became too much for us and became an obstacle between us and our Deen, we left for your country. O King! We preferred you over others and preferred to be your neighbours hoping that we will not be oppressed by you."

Relating further, Hadhrat Ummu Salama says, "When the two left Najaashi, Amr bin Al Aas said, "I swear by Allaah that tomorrow I shall definitely defame them so much in front of Najaashi that they will be uprooted!" Abdullaah bin Rabee'ah who was the softer of the two towards the Muslims said, "Do not do so. They are after all our relatives even though they have opposed us." Amr bin Al Aas then said, "By Allaah! I shall then tell Najaashi that they regard Isa bin Maryam to be a servant of Allaah." The following day, they returned to the king and said, "O King! These people say awful things about Isa bin Maryam. Summon them and ask them what they have to say about him." When Najaashi called for them to question them, the Muslims again convened a meeting because nothing like this had happened before. They asked each other what their reply to Najaashi would be when he asked about Hadhrat Isa will. They finally resolved, "By Allaah! We shall say what Allaah has said about him and what our Nabi will has brought regardless of what the consequences are."

When they went to Najaashi and he asked them what they had to say about Hadhrat Isa Hadhrat Ja'far replied, "We say what our Nabi has brought to us about him that he was the servant of Allaah, His Nabi, the spirit that Allaah created and His word that he cast on the chaste virgin Hadhrat

Maryam (2006). Najaashi slapped his hands on the ground and picked up a little stick. He then said, "By Allaah! Even Isa bin Maryam will not add to what you said more than the extent of this little stick." When Najaashi said this, all the priests gathered around snorted in anger. Najaashi said to them, "(This is the truth) Even though you may snort. (Turning to the Muslims, he said,) Go. You are safe in my land and whoever swears at you shall be penalised." He then reiterated, "Whoever swears at you shall be penalised. Whoever swears at you shall be penalised. Even in exchange for a mountain of gold, I would not want to harm any one of you." (Addressing his courtiers.) Najaashi then said, "Return the gifts to the two of them for I have no need for it. By Allaah! When Allaah restored to me my kingdom. He took no bribes. Why should I then accept any bribes. When Allaah did not bother about what the people had to say about me, why should I bother about what they say about Allaah?" Hadhrat Ummu Salama @ narrates further, "The two (delegates of the Quraysh) therefore had to return in humiliation with their gifts thrown back at them. We then stayed in a nice place with excellent neighbours. By Allaah! Najaashi remained as he was until he was suddenly attacked by people who wanted to take his kingdom. By Allaah! I do not know a time when we were more grieved than we were on that occasion because we feared that if Najaashi was defeated, another person would not accord us our rights as Najaashi had done."

"Najaashi marched against the enemy. Between him and the enemy was the River Nile (which Najaashi crossed with his army and engaged the enemy in battle). The Sahabah said, 'Who will go to witness the battle and report back to us?' Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam who was one of the youngest persons there volunteered. Everyone agreed that he was best suited for the task and they blew up a water bag filled with air, which they tied to his chest. He swam across to the bank where the battle was raging and then walked the rest of the way until he reached the armies."

Narrating further, Hadhrat Ummu Salama says, "We all made du'aa to Allaah for Najaashi's victory over his enemy and for the stability of his kingdom. We were making du'aa and waiting for the result of the battle when Hadhrat Zubayr suddenly came running. He was waving a cloth saying, 'Glad tidings for you. Najaashi has been victorious. Allaah has destroyed his enemy and restored stability to his kingdom.' By Allaah! We never knew joy like the joy we experienced on that occasion. Najaashi returned after Allaah had annihilated his enemy, stabilised his kingdom and restored his control over the land of Abyssinia. We remained with him in the best of places until we returned to Rasulullaah while he was still in Makkah." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经减少 narrates that Rasulullaah 缓缓 sent approximately eighty of them to Najaashi. Amongst them were Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经减少, Hadhrat Ja'far 经减少, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.27) has commented on the chain of narrators. The narration is also reported by Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.115); by Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.9) and in his Siyar (Vol.9 Pg.144).

Ufuta 医畸形, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon 医畸形 and Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 医畸形, When they went to Najaashi (to Abyssinia), the Quraysh sent Amr bin Al Aas and Umaarah bin Waleed with gifts (for Najaashi). When they arrived, the two of them prostrated before Najaashi and then quickly sat on his right and left hand sides.

They then said to Najaashi, "Turning away from us and our religion, some of our cousins have come to settle in your country." "Where are they?" asked Najaashi. The two replied, "They are here in your country. Why do you not send for them." When Najaashi sent for the Muslims, Hadhrat Ja'far said, "I shall be your spokesman today." The Muslims followed him and (when he entered the court of the king) Hadhrat Ja'far saked, "What is wrong with you that you did not prostrate before him. The courtiers asked, "What is wrong with you that you did not prostrate before the king?" Hadhrat Ja'far said replied, "We prostrate only before Allaah saked, "What is this all about?" Hadhrat Ja'far explained, "Allaah has sent a Rasul to us who has commanded us not to prostrate before anyone but Allaah said. He has also commanded us to perform salaah and to pay zakaah."

Amr bin Al Aas said to Najaashi, "They differ with you concerning Isa bin Maryam." When Najaashi asked them what they had to say about Hadhrat Isa and his mother, Hadhrat Ja'far responded by saying, "We say what Allaah says, that Isa was the word of Allaah and the spirit He created and cast on to the chaste virgin whom no man had touched and who had not lost her virginity by any child (before the birth of Isa ("Picking up a little stick from the ground, Najaashi said, "O assembly of Abyssinians, priests and monks! These people have not added even the extent of this stick to what we have to say. (Turning to the Muslims, he said,) Welcome to you and to the man from whom you have come. I testify that he is certainly the Rasul of Allaah and the one whose mention we find in the Injeel (Bible). He is undoubtedly the Rasul about whose coming Isa gave glad tidings. I swear by Allaah that had I not been occupied with ruling my kingdom, I would have surely gone to him and been the one who carries his shoes."

Najaashi then ordered that the gifts (sent by the Quraysh) should be returned. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (suckly returned afterwards and participated in the Battle of Badr. (1)

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari harrates that Rasulullaah instructed them to leave for Abyssinia with Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abi Taalib when the news reached the Quraysh (that they had settled there), they sent Amr bin Al Aas and Umaarah bin Waleed (to have the Muslims sent back). The rest of the narration is similar to that quoted above from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood however, this narration adds that Najaashi said, "Had I not been occupied with ruling my kingdom, I would have definitely gone to him and kissed his feet," He then told the Muslims that they were free to stay wherever they liked and even gave them food and clothing. (1)

Ahmad from reliable sources as confirmed by Ibn Katheer in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.69) and by Ibn Hajar in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.7 Pg.130). Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.24) has also commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abi Taalib says that the Quraysh sent Amr bin Al Aas and Umaarah bin Waleed to Najaashi with gifts from Abu Sufyaan. When the Muslims were already staying by Najaashi (in Abyssinia), the two men said to Najaashi, "Some foolish and low class people from our community have come to your country. Do hand them over to us." Najaashi said, "I shall not do so until I have heard them out." He then sent for the Muslims and when they arrived, he asked, "What are these men (Amr and Umaarah) saying?" The Muslims replied, "These people worship idols while we believe and accept the Rasul whom Allaah has sent to us." Najaashi asked the two, "Are they your slaves?" When they replied in the negative, Najaashi said, "Then leave them alone." The Muslims then left Najaashi's court.

Amr bin Al Aas then said to Najaashi, "Their beliefs concerning Isa with is different from that which you believe." Najaashi remarked, "If they say anything about Isa that is different from what I say, I shall not allow them to stay for a moment in my country." Najaashi again sent for the Muslims. This second summoning was more difficult for them than the first. When Najaashi asked them about what Rasulullaah said concerning Hadhrat Isa salle, they replied, "He believes that Isa wife is the spirit that Allaah created and His word that He cast on to the chaste virgin." Najaashi then sent for certain priests and monks. When several of them appeared before him, he asked them, "What do you say about Isa bin Maryam?" "You know better than us," they submitted, "What do you say?" Picking up something small from the ground, Najaashi said, "Isa did not say any more than what these people say even to the extent of this little thing." Najaashi then asked the Muslims, "Has anyone harmed you?" "Yes," they replied. Najaashi then had a public crier announce that whoever harms the Muslims shall have to pay a penalty of four Dirhams, "Is this enough?" he then asked the Muslims. When the Muslims said that it was not enough, Najaashi had the amount doubled.

The Sahabah Leave for Madinah, Najaashi Accepts Islaam and Rasulullaah Prays for his Forgiveness

Hadhrat Ja'far inarrates further that when Rasulullaah imigrated to Madinah and was dominant, the Muslims approached Najaashi and said, "Rasulullaah is has become dominant, has migrated to Madinah and had killed those whom we used to complain to him about. We now intend to go to him. Do grant us leave." Najaashi gave them his blessings and even provided transport and provisions for the journey. He then said to them, "Inform your leader about how I have treated you. My heir apparent here shall go with you. I testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that he is Allaah's messenger, Ask him to seek forgiveness for me."

Tabraani from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.31) and Bayhaqi and mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.71). Abu Nu'aym has also quoted it in his Hilyal (Vol.1 Pg.114)

Hadhrat Ja'far was says, "We left and when we reached Madinah, Rasulullaah met me and hugged me. He then said, 'I do not know whether I am happier without conquest at Khaybar or with the arrival of Ja'far." The arrival of Hadhrat Ja'far was coincided with the Muslims' victory at Khaybar. When Rasulullaah sat down, Najaashi's envoy said, "Ask Ja'far how our leader treated him." Hadhrat Ja'far was said, "Why of course!" He then explained the excellent treatment that Najaashi gave them and that he had even provided transport and provisions for their journey. Hadhrat Ja'far was also said, "Najaashi has testified that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah and that you are Allaah's Rasul. He also told me to ask you to seek forgiveness on his behalf." Rasulullaah stood up, made wudhu and then said thrice, "O Allaah! Forgive Najaashi." All the Muslims said "Aameen" to this du'aa.

Hadhrat Ja'far then said to the envoy, "Go and tell your leader what you have seen Rasulullaah do." (1)

The Virtues of those Sahabah (who Migrated to Abyssinia and then to Madinah Hadhrat Ummu Abdillaah bint Abi Hathma @ says, "By Allaah! We were preparing to leave for Abyssinia when (my husband) Aamir had to leave for something we needed. In the meantime, Hadhrat Umar who was still a Mushrik came to me. We had been suffering difficulties and cruel treatment at his hand. He said, 'O Ummu Abdillaah! Are you leaving?' 'We certainly are!' I replied, 'By Allaah! We are going to a land from the lands of Allaah because you people have harassed us and acted cruelly towards us until Allaah has made an escape for us.' Hadhrat Umar 劉輝 said, 'May Allaah go with you.' I saw such gentleness in him that I had never seen before. He then left and he seemed to be truly grieved by our departure. When Hadhrat Aamir returned after fulfilling the task, I said to him, 'O Abu Abdillaah! If only you had seen Umar just now. He was extremely gentle and actually grieved by our departure.' He asked, 'Are you hopeful that he will accept Islaam?' 'I certainly do,' I replied. Because Hadhrat Aamir had lost hope of Hadhrat Umar was accepting Islaam after seeing his harshness and opposition against Islaam, he commented, 'The man you saw (Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat (Hadh accepts Islaam!" (2) The name of Hadhrat Ummu Abdillaah was Layla. (3) Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas (and his brother Amr (were amongst those who migrated to Abyssinia. He narrates that it was a year after the Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.71). Tabraani has also quoted the Hadith and Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.29) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.79). Tabraani has also reported the narration and Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.24) has commented on the chain of narrators. Haakim in his Mustadrak (Vol.4 Pg.58).

⁽³⁾ Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.400).

Battle of Badr that they returned from Abyssinia and Rasulullaah met them when they arrived. Because they were sad that they were unable to be participate in the Battle of Badr, Rasulullaah said to them, "Why should you be sad? Whereas other people have undertaken only one Hijrah, you have undertaken two. You made Hijrah when you went to the king of Abyssinia and after returning from him, you made Hijrah to me." (1)

Many people used to tell those Sahabah who had been on the ship, "We beat you to the Hijrah." Hadhrat Asmaa bint Umays was also amongst those who had been on the ship and had migrated to Abyssinia. One day she was visiting Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Hassa when Hadhrat Umar who came there. When he saw Hadhrat Asmaa who there with (his daughter) Hadhrat Hassa was, he asked, "Who is this?" When his daughter informed him that the lady was Hadhrat Asmaa bint Umays was, Hadhrat Umar was asked, further, "Is she the one who has been to Abyssinia and at sea?" As soon as Hadhrat Asmaa woo confirmed that it was her, he commented, "We beat you to the Hijrah. We therefore have more right to Rasulullaah was."

Hadhrat Asmaa who became furious and said, "Never! By Allaah! You people were with Rasulullaah who fed your hungry amongst you and advised the ignorant amongst you while we were in a land where the people were far from Deen and hated it. All this we did for the pleasure of Allaah and His Rasool who is swear that I shall neither take food or drink until I tell Rasulullaah what you said and ask him about it. I swear that I shall neither lie to him nor distort or add to what you have said." She then went to Rasulullaah and informed him about what Hadhrat Umar had said. "What did you then tell him?" asked Rasulullaah who said. After she had informed about her reply to Hadhrat Umar said, Rasulullaah said, "He does not have a greater right to me than you. He and his companions have only one Hijrah to their credit while you and the people on the ship have two Hijrahs to your credit."

Hadhrat Asmaa (2006) says, "I saw Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (2006) and the other people on the ship came to me in groups to ask about this statement of Rasulullaah (2006). Nothing in the world made them happier and they regarded nothing to be greater than this statement that Rasulullaah (2006) had made in their favour." She also mentioned, "I saw Hadhrat Abu Moosa (listening to this Hadith from me over and over again."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Mandah and Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.332)

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari in narrates that Rasulullaah is said, "I recognise the voices of the Ash'ariyyeen travellers (the tribesmen of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari in when they enter by night and by their (melodious) voices I can locate their camps at night even though I had never seen their camps by day." Amongst them was a person called Hakeem who (was extremely brave) and would say to the enemy (who intend to flee), "My companions ask you to wait for them (so do not leave without a fight)". He would also say to the Muslim cavalry, "My companions (from the infantry) ask you to wait for them (so do not begin the fight without us)." (1)

Hadhrat Asmaa bint Umays in arrates that she once asked, "O Rasulullaah is some people are boasting to us and saying that we are not amongst the first Muhaajireen." Rasulullaah is said, "In fact, you people have two Hijrahs to your credit. You migrated to Abyssinia and then migrated again afterwards." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Salama William and Hadhrat Ummu Salama William Migrate to Madinah

Hadhrat Ummu Salama says, "When (my husband) Hadhrat Abu Salama decided to migrate to Madinah, he tied a carriage for me on his camel and put me on it. He then put our son Salama bin Abi Salama on my lap and led the camel away with me. When some men from the Banu Mughiera tribe saw him, they stood before him and said, 'While you may have authority over yourself (you may go where you like) but why should we allow you to go away with that woman from our tribe?' They then snatched away the reins of the camel and took me away from my husband. When this happened, the Banu Asad tribe to which Abu Salma selonged became angry and said, 'We swear by Allaah that we shall never leave our son with his mother since you have snatched her away from our tribesman.' The people of the two tribes then started pulling my son Salama until they dislocated his arm. The Banu Asad then left with him while the Banu Mughiera kept me with them. My husband Abu Salama proceeded to Madinah."

"I was thus separated from my husband and son. Every morning, I would go out to Abtah where I would sit and cry continuously until the evening. This continued for a year or close to a year. Eventually, one of my cousins also from the Banu Mughiera tribe passed by and seeing my condition, he took pity on me. He said to the Banu Mughiera tribesmen, 'Will you not allow this poor woman to leave? You have already separated her from her husband and son.' My tribesmen then permitted me to join my husband and when this happened, the Banu Asad returned my son to me. I fastened my carriage to my camel and taking my son in my lap, I prepared to leave to my husband in Madinah without anyone to accompany me."

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari and Muslim as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.205).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd as quoted in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.7 Pg.341). Ibn Abi Snaybah has narrated it in more detail as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.18). Hasan bin Sufyaan has also reported the Hadith of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (2008) as did Abu Nu'aym as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.333).

"When I reached Tan'eem, I met Uthmaan bin Talha bin Abi Talha who belonged to the Abd Daar tribe. He asked, 'Where are you heading, O daughter of Abu Umayyah?" 'I am off to meet my husband in Madinah," I replied. "Is there nobody with you?' he queried. I replied, 'None besides Allaah and this little son of mine.' He said, 'By Allaah! You cannot be left alone.' He then took hold of the reins of my camel and led my camel with great speed. By Allaah! I have never been with any Arab man more dignified than him. Whenever we reached a stop, he made the camel sit and then moved away. After I had dismounted, he would take the camel away, remove the carriage and tie the camel to a tree. He then went to some tree and lay down beneath it. Whenever the time came to leave, he would get up, fasten the carriage on the camel and bring it to me. He then moved away and told me to mount it. After I had mounted and settled on the camel, he would return to take hold of the reins and lead the camel away until we reached the next stop. This procedure continued until he brought me to Madinah. When we reached the locality of the Banu Amr bin Awf in Quba where Abu Salma 经证证的 had taken up residence, he said, 'Your husband is in that locality so go there with the blessings of Allaah.' He then returned to Makkah."

Hadhrat Ummu Salama was used to say, "I do not know of any Muslim family who experienced the hardships that the family of Abu Salama experienced and I have never seen a travelling companion as dignified as Uthmaan bin Talha. The same Uthmaan bin Talha bin Abi Talha Abdari accepted Islaam after the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah was signed and migrated together with Khaalid bin Waleed." (1)

The Hijrah of Hadhrat Suhayb bin Sinaan 🕮 🚟

Hadhrat Suhayb bin Sinaan leaves Makkah to Migrate and Encounters Some Youngsters of the Quraysh

Hadhrat Suhayb in arrates that Rasulullaah said, "I have been shown the place to which you people will migrate. It is a salty land that lies between two rocky plains. It is either Hajar or Yathrib." In the company of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Rasulullaah then left for Madinah. I had intended to leave with him, but some youngsters from the Quraysh stopped me. When I spent the night standing without being able to sit, the youngsters (keeping watch over me) said, 'Allaah has alleviated your concerns about him by giving him a stomach ailment (we need not worry about him because he cannot go anywhere).' They then fell soundly asleep. However, there was nothing wrong with me so I left."

"After I had left, some of them came after me to bring me back. I said to them, 'Will you leave me if I give you several Awqiya of gold? Are you prepared to fulfil such an undertaking?' When they agreed, I followed them back to Makkah where,

I said to them, 'Dig under the threshold of that door. There are many Awqiya of gold lies buried there and then go to a certain woman and take the two sets of clothing she has (of mine).' I then left and arrived in Quba before Rasulullaah moved from there. When Rasulullaah saw me, he said, 'O Abu Yahya! Your transaction has been profitable.' I submitted, 'O Rasulullaah so one could have come to you before me (with the news). It can be none but Hadhrat Jibra'eel who has informed you." (1)

Hadhrat Suhayb Arrives in Quba Where Rasulullaah Gives him the Glad Tidings of a Verse of the Qur'aan that Allaah had Revealed about him

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib in arrates that when Hadhrat Suhayb left to migrate to Rasulullaah is a group of Mushrikeen from the Quraysh pursued him. Hadhrat Suhayb idismounted and emptied his quiver saying, "O assembly of Quraysh! You know well that I am the best archer of you all. I swear by Allaah that none of you shall get close to me until I have fired every arrow in my quiver at you. I shall then fight you with my sword as long as it is in my hand. You may therefore decide what you want to do. On the other hand, if you agree I can direct you to my wealth in Makkah, if you leave me alone." When the men agreed, the deal was made and he gave them the directions. It was with regard to this event that Allaah revealed to Rasulullaah in following verse of the Qur'aan:

(سورة البقره: ٢٠٧)

From mankind is he who would sell himself seeking Allaah's pleasure and Allaah is Most Compassionate towards His bondsmen. {Surah Baqarah, verse 207}

When Rasulullaah was saw Hadhrat Suhayb was, he said, "Your transaction has been profitable, O Abu Yahya! Your transaction has been profitable, O Abu Yahya!" Rasulullaah was then recited the above verse to him. (2)

Hadhrat Ikrama narrates that when Hadhrat Suhayb left to migrate to Madinah, some people of Makkah pursued him. Hadhrat Suhayb emptied his quiver and found forty arrows. He then said to them, "None of you shall come close to me without me placing an arrow into every one of you. Thereafter, I shall use my sword and you know well that I am a man (of great strength and courage). However, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar has left two slave women behind in Makkah whom you can have (if you let me go)." (1) Hadhrat Anas (1) has narrated similar report with the addition that it was on that occasion that Allaah revealed the following verse of the Qur'aan:

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.173). Tabraani has also narrated a similar Hadith and Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.60) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.152) has also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.162) as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.237). Ibn Abdil Birr has also reported the narration his Isti'aab (Vol.2 Pg.180).

(سورة البقره: ۲۰۷)

From mankind is he who would sell himself seeking Allaah's pleasure and Allaah is Most Compassionate towards His bondsmen. {Surah Baqarah, verse 207}

When Rasulullaah saw Hadhrat Suhayb saw, he said, "Your transaction has been profitable, O Abu Yahya!" Rasulullaah saw then recited the above verse to him. (2)

Hadhrat Suhayb in arrates that when he decided to migrate from Makkah to Rasulullaah in, the Quraysh said to him, "O Suhayb! When you came to us, you had no wealth. You are now leaving as a wealthy man. By Allaah! We can never allow this!" Hadhrat Suhayb proposed to them, "Will you let me go if i give you all my wealth?" When they agreed, he gave his wealth to them and they let him go. By the time Hadhrat Suhayb reached Madinah, Rasulullaah was already aware of the incident and said, "You've earned a grand profit, O Suhayb!" (3)

The Hijrah of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ஊண்

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Zaid narrates that whenever Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (im) passed by his house (in Makkah) from which he migrated, he would close his eyes and would not even look at it or stop there. (4) Another narration (5) states that whenever Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (in) spoke about Rasulullaah (iii), he would cry and whenever he passed his house (in) Makkah), he would close his eyes.

The Hijrah of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in arrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash (actually his brother Abd become blind. When he resolved to migrate, his wife who was the daughter of Abu Sufyaan bin Harb bin Umayyah disliked it. She advised him to rather migrate to someone else other than Rasulullaah (actually in Badinah (became to Rasulullaah) in Madinah. (His brother-in-law) Abu Sufyaan (became very angry and)

⁽¹⁾ Haakim in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.398).

⁽²⁾ Haakim and Ibn Abi Khaythama as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.195). Ibn Sa'd has also reported the narration from Abu Uthmaan Nahdi as has Kalbi in his Tafseer from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas immediately sold his house in Makkah. Afterwards leather was kept in the house to cure (causing it to stink). When Abu Jahal bin Hishaam, Utba bin Rabee'ah, Shaybah bin Rabee'ah, Abbaas bin Abdil Muttalib and Huwaytib bin Abdil Uzza passed by the house, Utba's eyes flowed with tears as he recited the following couplets (which mean):

⁽³⁾ Ibn Mardaway as quoted by Ibn Katheer in his Talseer (Vol.1 Pg.247). Ibn Sa'd has also narrated it in his Tabaqaat (Vol.3 Pg.162).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.303).

⁽⁵⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.349).

"Despite how long it remains intact, every house shall one day face ruin and desertion"

Abu Jahal then turned to Hadhrat Abbaas and said, "You people (the family of Rasulullaah (a) have caused these problems for us." When Rasulullaah conquered Makkah and entered, Hadhrat Abu Ahmad (Abd bin Jahash) stood up to ask for his house. On the instruction of Rasulullaah (Abd bin Hadhrat Uthmaan stood up and took Abu Ahmad aside. (After speaking to him) Hadhrat Abu Ahmad stopped asking for his house.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas says that as Rasulullaah was sitting with his body taking support on one hand, Hadhrat Abu Ahmad recited the following couplets (which mean):

"How beloved a valley is Makkah where I can walk without a guide

It is there (in Makkah) that my visitors are many And it is there where my pegs are securely fixed" (1)

Ibn Is'haaq narrates that after Hadhrat Abu Salama ﷺ, the first person from the Muhaajireen to arrive in Madinah was Hadhrat Aamir bin Rabee'ah ﷺ an Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash ﷺ arrived with his family and his brother Abd (who was known as) Abu Ahmad. Hadhrat Abu Ahmad was blind man who could walk to the upper and lower parts of Makkah without a guide. He was also a poet. His wife was Faari'ah the daughter of Abu Sufyaan bin Harb and his mother was Umay'ma the daughter of Abdul Muttalib bin Haashim. The family home of the Jahash family was therefore locked because they had all migrated. Whenever Utba would pass by the house, he would recite some couplets as quoted in the aforementioned Ahadeeth. (2) It is clear that the Hadith (of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (3) refers to Abd bin Jahash (6) because it was he who was blind and not his brother Abdullaah bin Jahash (7). Referring to the Hijrah of his family, Hadhrat Abu Ahmad bin Jahash recited the following couplets (which mean):

"When (my wife) Ummu Ahmad saw me leaving in the protection of the One I fear without having seen Him She said, 'If you have to migrate somewhere then take us somewhere else far from Yathrib' I said to her, 'Yathrib is no bad place and a servant must do what Ar Rahmaan wants'

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.64) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.170).

My attention is towards Allaah and His Rasool

And whoever focuses his attention to Allaah someday will never be deprived How many were the bosom friends and well-wishers that we left behind

And how many were those well-wishers who cried and wailed

While the wailers thought that being distant from our land brought our destruction

We think that the rewards for good deeds is something to look forward to I called the Banu Ghanam towards the protection of their lives

And towards the truth when the clear path became apparent to people

Allaah be praised because they all accepted when

The caller called them towards the truth and towards success and they marched in battle

Some of our companions veered away from guidance

They aligned themselves and gathered to take up weapons against us

We are like two armies, the one being guided to the truth

And rightly guided while the other is being punished

They transgressed and entertained false hopes

For Iblees misled them from the truth, because of which they were at a loss and deprived

We had turned to the words of the Nabi Muhammad

So the allies of the truth from amongst us and pure and have been purified

By the ties we have with our near relatives we seek to be close

Were it not for these ties of kinship, there would be no closeness to them

After us, which nephew will feel safe from you

And which brother-in-law will you consider after me

On the day when people and their words will be separated

You will come to know which of us had been adopting the truth

The Hijrah of Hadhrat Dhamra bin Abil Ees / Hadhrat Dhamra bin Ees bin Ees

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Jubayr sign narrates that many poor Muslims in Makkah thought that they were exempted from making Hijrah when the following verses of the Qur'aan were revealed:

﴿ لَا يَسْتَوِى الْقَعِدُونَ مِنْ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ غَيْرُ أُوْلِى الضَّرَدِ وَالْمُجْهِدُونَ فِى سَبِيْلِ اللَّهِ بِآمُوالِهِمُ وَٱنْفُسِهِمُ * فَضَّلَ اللَّهُ الْمُجْهِدِيْنَ بِآمُوالِهِمُ وَآنْفُسِهِمْ عَلَى الْقَعِدِيْنَ دَرَجَةً * وَكُلَّا وَعَدَاللَّهُ الْحُسْنَى * وَفَضَّلَ اللَّهُ الْمُجْهِدِيْنَ دَرَجْتٍ مِّنْهُ وَمَعْفِرَةً وَرَحْمَةً

وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَّحِيْمًا ٢ عَلَى الْقَعِدِيْنَ أَجْرًا عَظِيْمًا ١٩٥ (سورة النساء: ٩٦، ٩٥)

The Mu'mineen who sit back without excuse cannot be equal to those who strive in Allaah's way (for Allaah's pleasure) with their wealth and their lives. Allaah has elevated the stages (status) of those who strive in

His way with their wealth and lives over those who sit back. Allaah has promised the Most Beautiful (Jannah) for each of them (the Mu'mineen who strive as well as those who do not). (However,) Allaah has preferred (increased the rewards for) those who strive over those who sit back (without an excuse) by granting them a tremendous reward (in the form of) many ranks (above the rest), forgiveness and mercy from Him. Allaah is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (Surah Nisaa, verses 95,96)

However, (they realised that the compulsion still stood when) the following verse was then revealed:

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ تَوَفَّهُمُ الْمَلَيِّكَةُ ظَالِمِنَ انْفُسِهِمُ قَالُوْا فِيمْ كُنْتُمْ * قَالُوا كُنَّا مُسْتَضْعَفِيْنَ فِي الْأَرْضِ * قَالُوَّا الْمَرْ تَكُنُ اَرْضُ اللهِ وَاسِعَةً فَتُهَاجِرُوْا فِيْهَا * فَأُولَيِّكَ مَأُولُهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ * وَسَاءَتْ مَصِيْرًا ۞﴾ (سورة النساء: ٩٧)

Indeed those whose lives the angels seize (take away) while they oppress themselves (by not making Hijrah when it became compulsory for them despite the ability to do so), they (the angels) say to them, "What was your condition?" They reply, "We were oppressed (helpless) on earth." They (the angels) say, "Was Allaah's land not vast enough for you to make Hijrah in it?" The abode of such folk is Jahannam, and it is the worst of destinations. {Surah Nisaa, verse 97}

The Muslims then said, "This verse is certainly quaking (sounds a fearful warning)." Allaah then revealed the following verses (which exempted those Muslims with physical disabilities):

﴿ الَّا الْمُسْتَضْعَفِينُنَ مِن الرِّجَالِ وَالنِّسَآءِ وَالْوِلْدَانِ لَا يَسْتَطِيْعُوْنَ حِيْلَةً وَّلَا يَهُتَدُوْنَ سَبِيْلًا ۞ فَاُولَلْكِكَ عَسَى اللهُ أَنْ يَعُفُوا عَنْهُمْ ﴿ وَكَانَ اللهُ عَفُوًّا غَفُوْرًا ۞ وَمَنْ يُهَاجِرُ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللهِ يَجِدُ فِي الْآرُضِ مُراغَمًا كَذِيْرًا وَّسَعَةً ﴾ (سورة النساء: ٨٥ تا ١٠٠)

(Jahannam will be the abode of all such people) Except for those oppressed (helpless) men, women and children who were unable to devise a plan (do not have the means to make Hijrah) and do not know the road (to a better place). These are the ones for whom it is hoped that Allaah forgives them. Allaah is Most Pardoning, Most Forgiving. He who makes Hijrah in Allaah's way (for Allaah's pleasure) shall find on earth many places to emigrate to and abundance (of food and other means). {Surah Nisaa, verses 98-100}

After this verse was revealed, Hadhrat Dhamra bin Ees who was a wealthy blind man from the Banu Layth tribe said, "Although I am blind, I am still able to devise a plan (to make Hijrah) for I have wealth and slaves." He then gave instructions that he should be put on to his mount. He was then very ill and when he was put on to his conveyance, he travelled very slowly. However, he passed away when he reached Tan'eem and is buried by the Masjid at Tan'eem.

With special reference to him, the following verse of the Qur'aan was revealed:

Whoever leaves his home to make Hijrah towards (a place where he can fulfil the commands of) Allaah and His Rasool and then death finds him (en route), without doubt his reward is assured (set aside) by Allaah. Allaah is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (Surah Nisaa, verse 100) (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that when Hadhrat Dhamra bin Jundub left his house to make Hijrah, he told his family members, "Put me on my mount. Remove me from the land of the Mushrikeen and take me to Rasulullaah ." However, he passed away en route before reaching Rasulullaah . It was then that the following verse of the Qur'aan was revealed:

Whoever leaves his home to make Hijrah towards (a place where he can fulfil the commands of) Allaah and His Rasool and then death finds him (en route), without doubt his reward is assured (set aside) by Allaah. Allaah is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (Surah Nisaa, verse 100) (2)

The Hijrah of Hadhrat Waathila bin Asqa المنابعة

Hadhrat Waathila bin Asga 经超過6 narrates that he left home with the intention of accepting Islaam and came to Rasulullaah 微麗. Since Rasulullaah 微麗 was leading the salaah at the time, he joined the rows at back and performed salaah with the Sahabah 過過過。After completing the salaah, Rasulullaah 過過 went to Hadhrat Waathila 邊際海 at the back and asked him what it was that he wanted. When he replied that he intended accepting Islaam, Rasulullaah said, "That is best for you." Rasulullaah was then asked him whether he intended making Hijrah. When he replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah was asked, "Will it be a Hijrah Baadi or a Hijrah Baati?" "Which is better?" asked Hadhrat Waathila 劉隆德. "The Hijrah Baati," replied Rasulullaah 是語. Rasulullaah 是語 then went on to explain, "The Hijrah Baati is that you live with Rasulullaah 💥 (in Madinah) while the Hijrah Baadi is that you return to your locality. (In any event) You will be required to obey (my commands and the commands of Allaah) in conditions of ease and adversity, whether you are willing or not and even though others are given preference over you." After Hadhrat Waathila had agreed, Rasulullaah 🐲 stretched out his hand and Hadhrat Waathila stretched out his hand (to pledged allegiance). When Rasulullaah saw that Hadhrat Waathila 氢硫酚 was not going to make any exceptions to the pledge, Rasulullaah prompted him to add, "As far as I am able." Hadhrat Waathila 劉麗媛 added, "As far as I am able." Rasulullaah 優麗 then took his hand (so that he could pledge his allegiance). (1)

⁽¹⁾ Firyaabi, Ibn Mandah and Ibn Abi Haatim as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.212).

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la, from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.7 Pg. 10).

The Hijrah of the Banu Sulaym Tribe

Hadhrat Salama bin Akwa harrates that when the Banu Sulaym tribe were affected by an epidemic, Rasulullaah advised them to live outside the town. They said, "We dislike to turn back on our heels and return to the outskirts." Rasulullaah said to them, "You shall be our country people and we shall be your city people. We shall respond if you call for us and you would respond when we call for you. You will be regarded as Muhaajireen wherever you are." (2)

The Hijrah of Hadhrat Junaadah bin Abi Umayyah 🕮

Hadhrat Junaadah bin Abi Umayyaah Azdi in narrates that there was a difference of opinion amongst them when they made Hijrah during the time of Rasulullaah with While some Sahabah in maintained that making Hijrah had come to an end, others were of the opinion that it did not. Hadhrat Junaadah says that he then asked Rasulullaah about this and Rasulullaah said, "Hijrah shall not come to an end as long as Jihaad is waged against the Kuffaar." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Sa'di in arrates, "I was the youngest amongst a delegation of seven or eight people from the Banu Sa'd bin Bakr tribe. When the delegation met Rasulullaah it, they all had their needs fulfilled, leaving me behind to look after the animals. I later approached Rasulullaah and said, 'O Rasulullaah it is asked me what my need was, I posed the question (to which I needed a reply), 'People are saying that making Hijrah has come to an end.' Rasulullaah it replied, 'Your need is the best (or he said), your need is better than theirs. Hijrah shall not come to an end as long as Jihaad is waged against the Kuffaar." (4)

What was Told to Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah and Others Concerning Hijrah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas arrates that while Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah was in the upper part of Makkah, he was told that the person who did not undertake Hijrah has no Deen. He therefore said, "I shall never go home until I have first been to Madinah." When he arrived in Madinah, he stayed with Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdil Muttalib was and then went to see Rasulullaah was asked him what had brought him, he informed Rasulullaah that he was told that the person who did not undertake the Hijrah had no Deen. Rasulullaah was said, "O Abu Wahab! Return to the rocky

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.333).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.142).

 ⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.331).
 (4) Ibn Mandah, Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.333). Abu Haatim, Ibn Hibbaan and Nasa'ee have also reported the narration from reliable sources as confirmed in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.319).

plains of Makkah and stay in your homes. Hijrah has come to an end (after the conquest of Makkah). All that is left is Jihaad and the intention (of waging Jihaad). You should therefore respond when you are called for Jihaad." (1)

Another narration states that someone said to Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah that the person who did not perform the Hijrah is destroyed. Hadhrat Safwaan wore an oath that he would never wash his hair until he went to Rasulullaah at the took to his mount and rode off (to Madinah). Finding Rasulullaah at the door of the Masjid, he asked, "O Rasulullaah at the person who does not make Hijrah is destroyed. I have therefore taken a vow never to wash my hair until I have come to you (to ask about it)." Rasulullaah replied, "When Safwaan heard about Islaam, his heart was content to accept it as his Deen. (Compulsory) Hijrah (to Madinah) has come to an end after the conquest of Makkah. However, there still remains Jihaad and the intention (of waging Jihaad). You should therefore respond when you are called for Jihaad." (2)

Hadhrat Saalih bin Basheer bin Fudayk narrates that his grandfather Hadhrat Fudayk once approached Rasulullaah and asked, "O Rasulullaah some people say that the person who does not migrate is destroyed." Rasulullaah replied, "O Fudayk! Establish salaah, pay zakaah, migrate away from evil and live wherever you want in the land of your people, you will still be regarded as one who has migrated." (3)

Hadhrat Ataa bin Abi Rabaah narrates that he once visited Hadhrat Aa'isha in the company of Hadhrat Ubayd bin Umayr Laythi was. When they asked her about Hijrah, she replied, "There is no (compulsory) Hijrah nowadays. (In the past) A person used to flee with his Deen towards Allaah and His Rasool fearing that he would be severely tested (tortured and forced to forsake Islaam). However, Allaah has made Islaam dominant today and a person can worship his Rabb wherever he pleases. Nevertheless, there still remains Jihaad and the intention (to wage Jihaad)." (4)

The Hijrah of Women and Children

The Hijrah of Rasulullaah ('s Family and the Family of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Hadhrat Aa'isha Aa'isha marrates, "When Rasulullaah Aa'isha made Hijrah, he left us and his daughters behind (in Makkah). When he had settled, he sent Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha and his slave Abu Raafi (to fetch us). He gave them two camels and five hundred Dirhams which he had taken from my father (Hadhrat Abu Bakr Make). With this he was to purchase as many camels as he required. Hadhrat Abu Bakr Make sent Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Urayqidh

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.333). Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.17) has also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.84).

⁽³⁾ Baghawi, Ibn Mandah and Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.331).

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhari as well as Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.17).

with the two men along with two or three camels. He also wrote a letter to (my brother) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Bakr (instructing him to mount my mother Ummu Roomaan (instructing him to mount my sister Asmaa (instructing him to mount my mother Ummu Roomaan (instruction) on the camels."

"The three men left together and when they reached Qudayd, Hadhrat Zaid used the five hundred Dirhams to purchase three camels. They happened to meet Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillaah who intended making Hijrah and left Makkah with him. Hadhrat Zaid was and Abu Raafi took along with them (Rasulullaah was's two daughters) Hadhrat Faatima and Hadhrat Ummu Kulthoom together with (Rasulullaah wis's wife) Hadhrat Sauda bint Zam'ah was. Hadhrat Zaid was also took on his camel (his wife) Hadhrat Ummu Ayman was and (his son) Hadhrat Usaama wis. When we reached Bayda, my camel bolted as I sat in the carriage together with my mother Ummu Roomaan was. My mother started shouting, "Oh my beloved daughter! Oh the new bride!" (Hadhrat Aa'isha was by then already married to Rasulullaah was.) Our camel was eventually caught after it had already crossed the Valley of Harsha. Allaah had kept us safe."

"When we reached Madinah, I stayed with the family of Hadhrat Abu Bakr while the family of Rasulullaah stayed with him. Rasulullaah was building his Masjid and several rooms around the Masjid that he intended to be the living quarters for his wives. We stayed like this for a while." The rest of the Hadith concerns the details of the marriage of Hadhrat Aa'isha

Another narration from Hadhrat Aa'isha quotes that she said, "As we were making Hijrah, we were passing by a difficult (dangerous) valley when the camel I was on suddenly bolted very furiously. By Allaah! I shall never forget the words of my mother as she screamed, 'Oh my little bride!' However, the camel continued bolting. When I heard someone shout, 'Throw down its reins,' I threw it down and the camel stood still in a daze as if someone was holding it up." (2)

The Hijrah of Rasulullaah 's Daughter Hadhrat Zaynab 's and the Words of Rasulullaah 's Concerning the Hardships She Encountered En route

Rasulullaah says, "As I was preparing the provisions for my journey (Hijrah), Hind bint Utba met me. She said, 'O daughter of Muhammad! Do you think that the news has not reached me that you wish to meet up with your father?' 'I have no such intention,' I replied. She said, 'Dear cousin! Do not do this. If you require any goods for your journey or any money to help you reach your father, I have what you need. You should therefore not keep secrets from me because the disputes between men should not creep between us women." Hadhrat Zaynab (I) narrates further when she says, "By Allaah! I certainly think that she meant what she said but I was scared for her and denied that I intended to migrate."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abdil Birr in his Isti'aab (Vol.4 Pg.450). Zubayr has also reported the narration as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.450). Haythami has also reported the narration in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.227) and has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.227). Tabraani has also reported the narration as has Haakim in his Mustadrak (Vol.4 Pg.4).

Ibn Is'haaq further narrates that Hadhrat Zaynab continued her preparations and when it was completed, her husband's brother Kinaana bin Rabee brought her a camel which she mounted. He took his bow and quiver along with him. He took her out of Makkah during the day and led the camel as she sat in her carriage. When some men of the Quraysh started talking about this, they set out after her and eventually caught up with her at Dhu Tuwa. The first to catch up with her was Habbaar bin Aswad Fihri. As she sat in her carriage, he frightened the camel with his spear until it threw her off. According to what people say, she was expecting at the time. Kinaana sat on his knees, emptied his quiver and said, "By Allaah! I shall place an arrow into anyone who even draws close to me." The men drew back from him.

Just then, Abu Sufyaan arrived with a group of senior members of the Quraysh. He called out (to Kinaana) saying, "Dear man! Hold back your arrows until we have a chance to speak to you." Kinaana held back and Abu Sufyaan came forward until he stood before Kinaana. He said, "You have made a great mistake. You have taken the lady openly in full view of everyone when you know the hardships and difficulties we have experienced at the hand of (her father) Muhammad. If you take her away from our midst so openly and in full view of the people, it would be an embarrassment to us and people would regard this to be a sign of our weakness. I swear by my life that we have no need to keep her away from her father and have no revenge to exact from her. However, you should take her back now and secretly take her away to be reunited with her father only once people have quieten down and the word spreads that we have made her return (to Makkah)." Kinaana then did this. (1)

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr the daughter of Rasulullaah they were intercepted by two men from the Quraysh who fought him and after gaining the upper hand, pushed her down. She fell on to a rock and miscarried, causing her to bleed profusely. They then took her to Abu Sufyaan, who handed her over to some women from the Banu Haashim who had come to him. It was only after this that she eventually managed to make Hijrah. However, the injury persisted until she finally passed away on account of the injury. People therefore considered her to be a martyr. (2)

Another narration from Hadhrat Aa'isha states that after Rasulullaah had left Makkah, his daughter Hadhrat Zaynab states also left with Kinaana or his brother. The Mushrikeen left in search of her and it was Habbaar bin Aswad who caught up with her. He continued sticking his spear into her camel until it dropped her down, causing her to miscarry. She bore the injury with patience and the Banu Haashim and Banu Umayyah tribes disputed about who will care for her. The Banu Umayyah claimed to have a greater right to her because she was married to their cousin Abul Aas. However, she ended up in the care of Hind bint Utba bin Rabee'ah who used to say to Hadhrat Zaynab ("This is all because of your father."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.330).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.216).

Rasulullaah "Certainly, O Rasulullaah "" replied Hadhrat Zaid Sie Rasulullaah "Certainly, O Rasulullaah "" replied Hadhrat Zaid Sie Rasulullaah "Sie Said, "Take my ring and give it to her." Hadhrat Zaid Subtly used various means to reach Hadhrat Zaynab and eventually met a shepherd. He asked the shepherd, "For whom are you grazing?" When the shepherd informed him that he was grazing for Abul Aas (the husband of Hadhrat Zaynab), Hadhrat Zaid saked him to whom the goats belonged. "To Zaynab the daughter of Muhammad," was the reply. Hadhrat Zaid walked awhile with the shepherd and (after gaining his confidence) then said to him, "May I give you something to give to her without informing anyone?" When the shepherd agreed, Hadhrat Zaid save him the ring. Hadhrat Zaynab recognised the ring and asked the shepherd, "Who gave this to you?" "Some man," he replied. "Where did you leave this man?" she enquired further. When he described the place to her, she remained silent and went there once night had fallen.

When she met Hadhrat Zaid (he to sit in front of him on the camel. She refused, telling him to sit in the front. He mounted the camel and she mounted behind him (the laws of Hijaab were not revealed at that time). They eventually arrived in Madinah. Rasulullaah (he used to say about Hadhrat Zaynab (This is the best of my daughters who has suffered for my sake."

When this Hadith reached Hadhrat Ali bin Husayn, he approached Hadhrat Urwa and said, "What is this Hadith I hear you are reporting in which the status of Hadhrat Faatima is being reduced?" Hadhrat Urwa said, "I swear by Allaah that I would not want to reduce the status of Hadhrat Faatima in exchange for everything between the east and the west. I shall therefore not be reporting this Hadith again." (1)

The Hijrah of Hadhrat Durra bint Abi Lahab

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Hadhrat Abu Hurayra (Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir (Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir (Hadhrat Care)) all report that when Hadhrat Durra (Hadhrat Raafi bin Mu'allaa Zuraqi (Hadhrat Abu Hurayra (Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir (Hadhrat Abu Hurayra (Hadhrat Abu Hurayra (Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir (Hadhrat Raafi bin Mu'allaa Zuraqi (Hadhrat Raafi bin Mu'allaa Raafi bin Mu'allaa Zuraqi (Hadhrat Raafi bin Mu'allaa Raafi bin Mu'all

May the hands of Abu Lahab be shattered and may he be destroyed. Neither his wealth nor the things he earned shall benefit him. (Surah

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani in his Kabeer and Bazzaar, as quoted by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.213).

Lahab, verses 1,2}

They then said, "You will therefore be of no use to me." Hadhrat Durra then went to Rasulullaah to complain about what the women had said. Rasulullaah consoled her and asked her to be seated. After leading the Zuhr salaah, Rasulullaah sat on the pulpit for a while and said, "O people! What is it that I should be harmed through my family? I swear by Allaah that on the Day of Qiyaamah, I shall even intercede on behalf of the Haa, Hakam, Suda and Sahlab tribes (therefore I shall obviously intercede on behalf of my family as well)." (1)

Also pertinent to this chapter concerning the Hijrah of women are the narrations that have passed about the Hijrah of Hadhrat Ummu Salama under the subheading "Hadhrat Abu Salama under the subheading "Hadhrat Abu Salama under the Hijrah of Hadhrat Ummu Salama under to Madinah". Also relevant is the Hijrah of Hadhrat Asmaa bint Umays under the Hadhrat Ummu Abdillaah Layla bint Abi Hathma under the heading "Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abi Taalib under the heading "Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abi Taalib under the Sahabah under the Abyssinia and then to Madinah".

The Hijrah of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas and other Children

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas says, "We reached Rasulullaah if ive years after he had made Hijrah and were with the Quraysh when they marched during the year in which the Battle of Ahzaab was fought. I was with my brother Fadl and our slave Abu Raafi was with us. When we reached a place called Arj, we lost our way and instead of taking the Rakooba road, we took the Jathjaatha road. We eventually arrived in the locality of the Banu Amr bin Awf (Quba) from where we entered Madinah. We found Rasulullaah in the trench (that was dug around Madinah). I was then eight years old while my brother was thirteen "(2)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.257) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.64) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Chapter Five

The Chapter Concerning Nusrah (Assisting Others in the Propagation of Deen)

This chapter highlights how rendering assistance to the upright Deen and the Straight Path was more beloved to the Sahabah that they prided themselves for this more than they prided themselves for worldly honour. It also brings to light how they sacrificed their pleasures for it, doing it all in search of Allaah's pleasure and in compliance with the commands of Rasulullaah (May Allaah shower His mercy, blessings and peace on him, his family and all his companions).

The Beginning of the Nusrah that the Ansaar Rendered

A Hadith of Hadhrat Aa'isha (2006) in this Regard

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "Every year Rasulullaah we used to present his case to the various Arab tribes, asking them to grant him asylum with their people so that he could propagate Allaah's word and message. He promised them Jannah in return for their assistance. However, no Arab tribe accepted his offer until the time came when Allaah decided that His Deen should become dominant, that his Nabi should receive assistance and that His promises should be fulfilled. It was then that Allaah pulled forward the tribe of the Ansaar. They accepted the offer of Rasulullaah and Allaah thus created a place to which Rasulullaah could migrate."(1)

A Hadith of Hadhrat Umar 🖦 in this Regard

Hadhrat Umar says, "When Rasulullaah stayed in Makkah, he went to every Arab tribe and presented his case to them during the Hajj season. However, he could find none to respond to him until Allaah brought this tribe of the Ansaar because of the good fortune that Allaah had decreed for them and the honour He wished to bestow on them. They therefore granted him a sanctuary and assisted him. May Allaah reward them with abundant good on behalf of His Nabi see." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.42) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.134).

Another narration adds that Hadhrat Umar ("By Allaah! We failed to fulfil the pledge we made with the Ansaar when we said to them that while we remain the leaders, they shall be the viziers. If I live to the end of the year, every governor of mine shall be from the Ansaar." (1)

A Hadith of Hadhrat Jaabir William in this Regard

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdillaah says, "Rasulullaah presented his case to the people as they stayed at their camps (during the Hajj season). He would say, "Who will take me to his people because the Quraysh are preventing me from propagating the word of Allaah says?" Eventually a man from Hamdaan came to Rasulullaah was saked him where he hailed from and he said that he was from Hamdaan, Rasulullaah asked further, 'Do your people have military might?" They do,' he replied. However, when the man feared that his people may not honour his word (to Rasulullaah and came back to Rasulullaah and said, 'I shall first go to my people and inform them. Thereafter, I shall come back to you.' Rasulullaah agreed and the man left. A delegation from the Ansaar then approached Rasulullaah in the month of Raiab." (2)

In the chapter entitled "Pledging Allegiance to Assist Others" (3), the narration has passed in which Hadhrat Jaabir narrates that during the ten years that Rasulullaah lived in Makkah (after announcing his Nabuwaat), he would visit people at the places where they stayed during the seasons of Hajj. This was at the marketplaces of Ukaaz and Majinna. He would ask the people, "Who will give me asylum? Who will assist me so that I could propagate the message of my Rabb? Whoever does this shall receive Jannah." However, he found none to grant him asylum and assistance. However, (instead of assisting him) matters reached such an ebb that when a person from Yemen or from the Mudhar tribe left (for Makkah), the people of his tribe and his relatives would say to him, "Beware that the man from the Quraysh does not get you into trouble." People even pointed at Rasulullaah as he passed between their camps.

Hadhrat Jaabir continues, "This situation prevailed until Allaah sent us (the Ansaar) to him from Yathrib. We offered him asylum and believed him. Whenever a person from us left (for Makkah), he would believe in Rasulullaah who would recite the Qur'aan to him. He would then return to his family (in Madinah) and they would all accept Islaam by virtue of his Islaam. Eventually there was scarcely a family from the Ansaar that did not have a group of Muslims who made their Islaam public."

Hadhrat Jaabir says further that they all then discussed with each other saying, "Until when will we leave Rasulullaah to call on people, to be kicked Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.30). Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.6 Pg.42) contains commentary on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.35). Refer also to Fat'hul Baari (Vol.7 Pg.156).

⁽³⁾ And under the subheading "Seventy Sahabah (2006) from the Ansaar Pledge their Assistance in the Valley of Aqaba".

about in the mountains of Makkah and face the threats of others?" Consequently, seventy men of the Ansaar rode off and met Rasulullaah during the Hajj season. After agreeing to meet at the valley of Aqaba, they arrived there one-by-one and in twos until they were all present. They then asked, "O Rasulullaah r! To what should we pledge allegíance at your hands?" The narration continues further. (1)

A Hadith of Hadhrat Urwa William in this Regard

Hadhrat Urwa harrates that when one of the Hajj seasons arrived, a group of individuals from the Ansaar left for Hajj. Amongst them from the Banu Maazin bin Najjaar tribe was Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Afraa hadhrat As'ad bin Zuraarah hadis. From the Banu Zurayq tribe was Hadhrat Raafi bin Maalik and Hadhrat Dhakwaan bin Abdil Qais had, from the Banu Abdil Ash'hal tribe was Hadhrat Abul Haytham bit Tayyihaan had from the Banu Amrbin Awfwas Hadhrat Uwaym bin Saa'idah had chosen him for Nabuwaat and great honour. Rasulullaah had also recited the Qur'aan to them.

They were silent when they listened to Rasulullaah and their hearts were satisfied with his Da'wah. By the appearance of Rasulullaah and by the Da'wah he gave, the Ansaar recognised in him what they had been hearing the Ahlul Kitaab say about him. They therefore accepted what he said, believed in him. And became the vehicles of good. They said to Rasulullaah , "You know about the bloodshed that takes place between the Aws and Khazraj tribes. We like Allaah has guided your effort and we are prepared to make every effort for Allaah and for you. We would also advise you to do as you have, but (for now) you should wait (here in Makkah) with your trust in Allaah until we return to our people to inform them about you and invite them towards Allaah and towards His Rasool . Perhaps Allaah shall reconcile between us and reunite us. At present, we are far from each other and harbour enmity for each other. Therefore, if you were to come to us right now while we have not yet reconciled, we shall be unable to unite around you. However, we promise to meet you in the forthcoming Hajj season."

Rasulullaah was happy with what they said and they returned to their people. They started giving Da'wah to the people in secret and informing them about Rasulullaah and informed the people about the message Allaah had sent with Rasulullaah and to which he called with the Qur'aan. Eventually, there was scarcely a home amongst the households of the Ansaar that did not have some Muslims. (2) The rest of the Hadith is similar to that quoted earlier under the subheading "The Da'wah that Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Umayr gave" (this appears under the heading "The Da'wah that the Sahabah gave to individuals").

⁽¹⁾ Haakim has also reported the narration in his Mustadrak (Vol.2 Pg.625).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.42) has commented on the chain of narrators.

A Few Couplets Composed by Hadhrat Sirmah bin Qais in this regard Hadhrat Yahya bin Sa'eed narrates from an old lady from the Ansaar that she used to see Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (frequently visit Hadhrat Sirma bin Qais (which mean):

"He stayed with the Quraysh for a few years more than ten

Advising people with the hope of meeting a suitable friend

Offering himself to the people coming for Hajj

Without seeing anyone to offer asylum nor anyone offering an invitation

When he came to us (Ansaar) and settled

He became happy and pleased in Tayba (Madinah)

He then had no fear of a distant tyrant oppressively taking something away

Nor any fear of people revolting

For him we spent most of our wealth

As well as our lives in battles and in comforting (the Muhaajireen)

We were enemies of all those who were his enemies

Even though they had been the best of our friends

(All this because) We were convinced that there is nothing (worthy of worship) but Allaah

And that the Book of Allaah is our guide"(1)

The Bond of Brotherhood Between the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar

The Story of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

Hadhrat Anas harrates that when Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf arrived in Madinah, Rasulullaah established a bond of brotherhood between him and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Rabee Ansaari said. Hadhrat Sa'd said to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan said, "Dear brother! I am the wealthiest person in Madinah and you may have half of my wealth. I also have two wives. You may choose the one you like best and I shall divorce her." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan replied, "May Allaah bless you in your family and wealth. Just show me the way to the marketplace." When Hadhrat Sa'd showed Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan where the marketplace was, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan started buying and selling until he had made a profit. He returned with some cheese and butter.

He continued like this for a while until one day he appeared with the colour of saffron on his clothes. "What is this all about?" asked Rasulullaah ..." I have married," he replied. "What dowry did you give your wife?" Rasulullaah ... asked further. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan ... replied, "The weight of a date stone in gold." Rasulullaah ... then advised, "Host a Waleema even if you have to feed a (1) Haakim in his Mustadrak (Vol. 2 Pg.626).

goat." (Referring to the tremendous blessings that Allaah had granted him in business,) Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan with used to say, "Even if I were to pick up a stone, I could hope to receive gold or silver in exchange." (1)

The Muhaajireen and Ansaar Inherit from Each other

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in arrates that when the Muhaajireen first arrived in Madinah, a Muhaajir would inherit from his Ansaar brother because of the bonds of brotherhood that Rasulullaah created between them. In fact, even the relatives of the Ansaar would not inherit from their families as the Muhaajireen would. However, this practice was abrogated when Allaah revealed the following verse of the Qur'aan:

﴿ وَلِكُلَّ جَعَلْنَا مَوَالِي ﴾ (سورة النساء: ٣٣)

For each (man and woman) We have appointed heirs. (Surah Nisaa, verse 33) (2) While this narration states that the above verse abrogated the inheritance of a confederate (the Muhaajir whom Rasulullaah appointed as a brother to an Ansaari), the next narration makes it clear that the verse which abrogated the practice was:

Those who are relatives are closer to each other in Allaah's Book (and will therefore inherit from each other before anyone else). Undoubtedly (Only) Allaah knows everything (He knows who deserves what). {Surah Anfaal, verse 75}

Haafidh Ibn Hazar states that this narration is more reliable. However, he also points out that this practice could have been abrogated twice. It is possible that in the early stages, the only form of inheritance was between those whom Rasulullaah appointed as brothers, without any inheritance being stipulated for relatives. However, relatives were also given a share of inheritance together with the confederates when Allaah revealed the verse:

For each (man and woman) We have appointed heirs. {Surah Nisaa, verse 33} This is the interpretation of the narration reported by Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (However, inheritance was left exclusively for relatives and the inheritance of confederates was completely abrogated by the following verse of Surah Ahzaab:

Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.228). Bukhari and Muslim have also reported the Hadith as quoted isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.26). Ibn Sa'd has also narrated it in his Tabaqaat (Vol.3 Pg.89).

⁽²⁾ Bukhari.

تَفْعَلُواْ إِلَى أَوْلَلْهِكُمْ مَعْرُوفًا "كَانَ ذَلِكَ فِي الْكِتْبِ مَسْطُورًا ١٠ (سورة الاحواب: ١٦)

In Allaah's Book (the "Lowhul Mahfoodh"), relatives are closer to each other (and therefore have a greater right of inheriting from each other) than the (other) Mu'mineen (who are not related) and the Muhaajireen, (they will not receive any portion of your estate as inheritance) unless you wish to do a good turn to your (unrelated Mu'mineen or Muhaajireen) friends (in which case you may bequest a maximum of one third of your estate to them). This (injunction) has been documented in the Book (the "Lowhul Mahfoodh"). {Surah Ahzaab, verse 6}

After this verse was revealed, all that the confederates could have from the inheritance of the Ansaar was what the Ansaar gave them as goodwill to assist them. By this interpretation, all the Ahadeeth have their explanation. (1)

A large group of Taabi'een have narrated that when Rasulullaah arrived in Madinah, he forged ties of brotherhood between the Muhaajireen themselves and between the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar so that they may care for each other. They used to inherit from each other and numbered seventy individuals from amongst the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar. Some say that they numbered a hundred. Nevertheless, they stopped inheriting from each other on the basis of this brotherhood when Allaah revealed the verse:

﴿ وَٱوْلُوا الْأَزْحَامِ بَعْضُهُمُ أَوْلَى بِبَعْضِ فِي كِتْبِ اللَّهِ ﴾ (سورة الاحزاب: ٦)

Those who are relatives are closer to each other in Allaah's Book ... $\{\text{Surah Ahzaab, verse 6}\}^{(2)}$

The Financial Assistance that the Ansaar gave to the Muhaajireen

Sharing Dates and an Ansaari Refuses to be Paid Back

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra narrates that the Ansaar once said to Rasulullaah "Share out our date plantations between us and our (Muhaajireen) brothers." Rasulullaah said, "No. (Instead of giving up ownership of the land) Will you rather not absolve us (Muhaajireen) of working on the plantations and share the dates with us?" The Ansaar replied, "We hear and we obey."

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Zaid bin Aslam in arrates that Rasulullaah said to the Ansaar, "Your (Muhaajireen) brothers have left behind their wealth and their families to come to you." The Ansaar said, "Distribute our land and plantations between us and them." Rasulullaah "Why not do something else?" "What else, O Rasulullaah "Preplied, "Since the Muhaajireen do not know how to work on the plantations, will you rather not do the work for them and share the dates with them?" "We shall indeed," replied the Ansaar. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Fat'hu/ Baari (Vol.7 Pg.191).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.7 Pg.191).

Hadhrat Anas was narrates that the Muhaajireen said, "O Rasulullaah we! We have never seen people better than those to whom we have come (the Ansaar). They are prepared to assist even though they have little and when they have plenty, they spend most generously. They do all the work on the plantations for us and share the dates with us. They do so much for us that we actually fear that they should not take all the rewards." Rasulullaah said, "This will not happen as long as you keep praising them and making du'aa for them." (2)

Hadhrat Jaabir would into two parts, the one part being smaller than the other. They would then place branches with the smaller portion (to make it look bigger than the other portion). Thereafter, they gave the Muhaajireen the choice between the two portions. The Muhaajireen would choose the larger portion (the portion without the branches, thinking that they were leaving the larger portion for the Ansaar). The Ansaar would then take the smaller portion for themselves. This practise continued until Khaybar was conquered.

When Khaybar was conquered, Rasulullaah said to the Ansaar, "You have fulfilled your duty towards us. Now, if you please, you may hand over your shares (of plantations) in Khaybar (to the Muhaajireen) and have your date crops (in Madinah all for yourselves without sharing it with the Muhaajireen, who will now receive from Khaybar)." The Ansaar (accepted the proposal and) said, "You have placed several responsibilities on us while you have taken the responsibly that (in exchange for this) we shall have Jannah. We have now fulfilled what you had asked of us and require your condition to be met." Rasulullaah said, "You have it." (3)

Hadhrat Anas in arrates that Rasulullaah once called for the Ansaar to distribute the land of Bahrain amongst them. However, they refused to have any of it unless the Muhaajireen also received an equal amount of land. Rasulullaah then said to them, "In that case, we cannot (distribute the land)." Rasulullaah then added, "You Ansaar should exercise patience until you meet me (on the Day of Qiyaamah) because (after my death) others will be given preference over you."

How the Ansaar Severed the Ties they had During the Period of Ignorance to Strengthen the Ties of Islaam

The Jew Ka'b bin Ashraf is Killed

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdillaah wis narrates that Rasulullaah wis once said,

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari (Vol.1 Pg.312), as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.228).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. In his Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.228), Ibn Katheer has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Jareer, Haakim and Bayhaqi have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.136).

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.40) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Bukhari (Vol. 1 Pg.535).

"Who is there to see Ka'b bin Ashraf because he has caused great harm to (the Deen of) Allaah and to His Rasool "Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama" stood up and said, "Do you want me to kill him?" "Yes," replied Rasulullaah 🕮 Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama 🕮 then said, "Do permit me to say something to him as well." Rasulullaah @ granted him permission. (Taking some companions along with him) Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama 劉德德 went to Ka'b bin Ashraf and said, "That man (Rasulullaah 樂麗) had asked us for charity and had tired us with requests. We have therefore come to you for a loan." Ka'b said, "By Allaah! He will again tire you out afterwards." Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama William said, "We have started following him and do not like to leave him until we see what happens to him in the end. We want you to lend us a Wasaq or two of grain." Ka'b replied, "Fine, but I need collateral first." Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama (1966) and the other Sahabah 德斯德多 asked, "What collateral do you want?" Ka'b said, "Give me your women as collateral." They responded by saying, "How can we give you our women as collateral when you are the most handsome of the Arabs?" Ka'b said, "Then give me your children." They said. "How can we give our children as collateral when people will taunt by saying that these are the children who were given as collateral for a mere one or two Wasaq of grain? This would be too embarrassing for us. We shall rather give you our weapons as collateral." When Ka'b agreed, they arranged to meet at night.

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama (arrived at night with Hadhrat Abu Naa'ilah 劉麗媛 who was Ka'b's foster brother by virtue of being suckled by the same woman. Ka'b called them to a fortress and came down to meet them. Ka'b's wife asked, "Where are you going at this hour?" he replied, "It is only Muhammad bin Maslama and my brother Abu Naa'ilah." According to another narration, she said, "I hear a sound resembling the dripping of blood." Ka'b reassured her saying, "It is only my brother Muhammad bin Maslama and my foster brother Abu Naa'ila. A brave person responds even if he is called to a confrontation at night." Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama 劉節節 brought another two or three men with him and said to them, "When he arrives, I shall hold his hair to smell it and you shall also ask them to smell. When you see that I have a good hold of his head, you should attack him." Ka'b arrived wearing a belt studded with jewels and exuded the fragrance of perfume. Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama exclaimed, "To this day have I never smelt anything so good!" Ka'b said, "I have the most fragranced Arab women and the most beautiful ones." Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama (Williams said, "Do allow me to smell your head." "Why certainly," said Ka'b smugly. Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama 🖫 smelt Ka'b's head and allowed his companions to do so as well. Thereafter, Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama (will you permit me a second time?" When Ka'b allowed him, Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama 過過過 took firm hold of Ka'b's head and said to the others, "Get him!" They then killed him and reported back to Rasulullaah

According to a narration of Hadhrat Urwa (Rasulullaah), Rasulullaah (Rafer killing Ka'b) when Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama (Randhard Maslama), and his companions reached Baqee Gharqad (the graveyard), they shouted "Allaahu Akbar!". Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah) was busy performing salaah that night and when he heard them shout "Allaahu Akbar!", he also shouted "Allaahu Akbar!" because he guessed that they had already killed Ka'b. When they came to him, Rasulullaah (You have the) Faces of successful people." "Your face is too, O Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah)," they responded. They then threw Ka'b's head before Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah) and he praised Allaah for Ka'b's death.

A narration of Hadhrat Ikrama states that (after Ka'b's death) the Jews became terrified and came to Rasulullaah . They said, "Our leader was killed by deception." Rasulullaah reminded them of Ka'b's treacherous ways and about how he instigated against Islaam and harmed the Muslims. Ibn Sa'd adds that after this, the Jews became scared and kept silent. (1)

Ibn Is'haaq narrates that Rasulullaah once announced, "Who will see to Ibn Ashraf for me?" Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama said, "I shall see to him for you, O Rasulullaah is I shall kill him." Rasulullaah said, "Do so if you can." Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama spent the next three days without eating or drinking anything besides what was needed to preserve his life. When Rasulullaah was informed about this, he called Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama and asked him why he had stopped eating and drinking. He replied, "I have promised you something that I am unsure whether I will be able to fulfil." Rasulullaah said to him, "All you have to do is to try."

Another narration of Ibn Is'haaq from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas states that Rasulullaah even walked with Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama and his companions up to Baqee Gharqad and pointed them in the direction saying, "Proceed with the name of Allaah. O Allaah! Assist them." (2)

Abu Raafi Sallaam bin Abul Huqayq is Killed

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ka'b bin Maalik (to facilitate the effective propagation of Deen) was that the two (Ansaar) tribes of the Khazraj and Aws were always competing to serve Rasulullaah is just as two wrestlers compete. Whenever the Aws did something to benefit Rasulullaah is, the Khazraj would say, "By Allaah! By doing this you shall not surpass our standing with Rasulullaah is." They would then stop at nothing to match the feat. Similarly, whenever the Khazraj did something to win Rasulullaah is favour, the Aws would say the same thing.

Therefore, when the Aws managed to kill Ka'b bin Ashraf for his hostilities towards Rasulullaah . the Khazraj said, "By Allaah! You people shall never surpass us by doing this." They then discussed who was as hostile towards Rasulullaah as Ka'b bin Ashraf was. They arrived at the conclusion that such a person was Ibn Abul Huqayq who lived in Khaybar. They therefore sought permission from Rasulullaah to kill him and when permission was granted, five men from the Banu Salama family of the Khazraj left. They were Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ateek Abdullaah bin Ateek Hadhrat Abu Qataadah Haarith bin Rib'ee and Hadhrat Khuzaa'ee bin Aswad who was their ally from the Bani Aslam family. When they left, Rasulullaah appointed Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ateek as their Ameer and forbade them from killing any women and children.

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari, as quoted in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.7.Pg.239).

⁽²⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.7). In his Fat'hul Baari (Vol.7 Pg.237), Ibn Hajar has confirmed that the narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1996) is reliable.

When the Sahabah reached Khaybar, they went to the house of Ibn Abul Huqayq at night. Every room in the house was locked from outside so that none could come out. Ibn Abul Huqayq had an upstairs room to which a ladder made of date fibres led. The Sahabah climbed the ladder and standing at his door, they sought permission to enter. When Ibn Abul Huqayq's wife came out to ask who they were, they said that they were Arabs looking for grain supplies. She pointed them to Ibn Abul Huqayq and they entered the room.

The Sahabah was narrate, "When we entered the room, we locked the door behind us fearing that nothing should become an obstacle between us and him. His wife started screaming to alert him about our arrival and we rushed to him brandishing our swords as he lay on the bed. By Allaah! It was only the whiteness of his body that led us to him in the darkness of the night. He appeared to be a white Coptic cloth thrown on the bed. When his wife gave us away, one of our men lifted his sword over her but immediately retrained himself when he remembered the instructions of Rasulullaah . Had it not been for this, we would have killed her that night. When we attacked him with out swords (and he was still not dead) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays word pushed his sword into Ibn Abul Huqayq's belly with such force that the sword went right through him as he pleaded, "Enough! Enough!" We then left the room."

"Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ateek was poor sighted and fell from a step, injuring his leg very badly. We carried him until we reached one of the water inlets of a Jewish fortress. We crept in as the Jews lit fires and vigorously searched for us everywhere. When they eventually lost hope of finding us, they returned to Ibn Abul Huqayq and surrounded him as he was dying. We asked ourselves, 'How would we get to know whether the enemy of Allaah has died?' One of us volunteered togo and find out. He proceeded and walked amongst the Jews." The Sahabi who went says, "I found his wife and several Jewish men around Ibn Abul Huqayq. His wife carried a lantern in her hand and was speaking to the others as she looked at her husband's face. She was saying, 'I swear by Allaah that I heard the voice of Ibn Ateek but I then disagreed with myself and said, 'How can Ibn Ateek be in this place?!' She then looked properly at the face of Ibn Abul Huqayq and exclaimed, 'By the lord of the Jews! He is dead!' Nothing pleased me more than hearing this."

The Sahabi reported back to his companions and carrying Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ateek , they returned to Rasulullaah and informed him of the death of Allaah's enemy. They then started disputing about who had killed him, each one of them claiming to have done it. Rasulullaah asked them to give him their swords and after inspecting them, Rasulullaah said about the sword of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays This one had killed him for I see traces of food on it." (1)

Hadhrat Baraa hara harates that Rasulullaah appointed Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ateek has as their Ameer. Abu Raafi used to harm Rasulullaah greatly and assist others against him. He was staying in a fortress somewhere in Hijaaz (Khaybar). When the Sahabah had drew close to the fortress, the sun had already set and the people had already returned home with their animals. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ateek said to the others, "Sit here. I shall go and devise a plan with the gatekeeper to enter the gate." When he approached the gate of the fortress, he covered himself with his clothes so that he resembled a person answering the call of nature. By then all the people had already entered. The gatekeeper then shouted to him, "O servant of Allaah! If you wish to enter, please do so because I want to lock the gates."

Hadhrat Abdullaah 经减少的 narrates further. He says, "So I entered and hid myself away. Eventually, when everyone had entered, the gatekeeper locked the gates and hung the keys on a nail. I went to the keys, took them and opened the gates. Stories used to be recited every night to Abu Raafi who was in the upper story of his home. When the story- tellers had left, I climbed the ladder to his room. As I opened each door, I locked it behind me saying to myself that if the people find out about me, they will only reach me after I had killed Abu Raafi. When I reached him, he was in a dark room with his wife and I had no idea where he was in the room. I said, 'Abu Raafi!' When he replied, 'Who is it?' I charged in the direction of the voice and struck him with my sword. However, because I was afraid, my strike did not kill him. When he started screaming, I left the room and waited awhile. I then entered and asked, "What is all this commotion, O Abu Raafi?' He said, 'Woe to your mother! Someone in the room has just struck me with a sword.' I then struck him again but rather than killing him, I only succeeded in wounding him. I then pushed the bade of my sword into his belly until it reached his back and I was convinced that I had killed him."

"I then started opening door after door until I reached the ladder. (As I climbed down, I reached a place where) I placed my foot down thinking that I had reached the ground, but I fell in the moonlit night. My shinbone broke and I carried on walking after bandaging it with my turban. I then sat at the gate telling myself that I shall not leave until I am certain that I had killed him. When the cock crowed, an announcer stood on the wall and announced, 'Abu Raafi the trader of Hijaaz has died.' I walked back to my companions and said, 'Success! Allaah has killed Abu Raafi.' When I got back to Rasulullaah and informed him about the events, he asked me to stretch out my leg. When I did so, he passed his and over my leg and it (was cured so well that it) felt as if nothing was ever wrong with it." (1)

Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.137) and the Seerah of Ibn Hishaam (Vol.2 Pg.190)

Another narration states that when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ateek and the others came back to Rasulullaah in he was on the pulpit and (seeing them approach he) said, "The faces of success!" They replied, "It is your face that is successful, O Rasulullaah in He then asked, "Have you killed him?" When they replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah asked to see the sword. Rasulullaah then drew the sword from its sheath and (after inspecting it he) said, "Yes! Here are traces of food on the blade." (2)

The Jew Ibn Shayba is Killed

The daughter of Hadhrat Muhayyisa is narrates from her father that when Rasulullaah is once permitted the Sahabah is to kill any Jew they could, Hadhrat Muhayyisa attacked and killed a Jewish trader called Ibn Shayba who interacted and traded with the Muslims. When Hadhrat Muhayyisa is who was not yet a Muslim started hitting Hadhrat Muhayyisa saying, "You enemy of Allaah! You have killed him whereas I can swear by Allaah that most of the fat in your stomach has come from his wealth." Hadhrat Muhayyisa is replied, "I swear by Allaah that had Rasulullaah is commanded me to kill you, I would have decapitated you." This was the beginning of Hadhrat Huwayyisa's conversion to Islaam. (Surprised by this statement of his brother's), Hadhrat Huwayyisa is saked, "Had Muhammad is commanded you to kill me, you would have done it?" Hadhrat Muhayyisa is replied, "By Allaah! I certainly would." Hadhrat Huwayyisa is then commented, "By Allaah! The religion that has taken you to this must certainly be astounding." (3)

Another narration quotes that Hadhrat Muhayyisa said, "That personality has commanded me to kill Ibn Shayba for whom I shall even kill you if he so commands me." This narration also adds that Hadhrat Huwayyisa then accepted Islaam. (4)

The Ansaar in the Battles against the Banu Qaynuqah, Banu Nadheer and Banu Qurayzah Tribes

The Episode of the Banu Qaynuqah Tribe

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 劉德德 narrates that after Rasulullaah 經經 had

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari,

⁽²⁾ Bukhari, narrating from sources exclusive to him and not used by the other Imaams of the Silta. The narration is quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.137)

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.90).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Is'haaq. Abu Dawood has also reported the narration in which he quotes that Hadhrat Huwayvisa (1996) only said, "You have his wealth in your stomach."

defeated the Quraysh in the Battle of Badr, he gathered the Jews (of Madinah) in the marketplace of the Banu Qaynuqah tribe. He then said to them, "O Jews! Accept Islaam before you suffer the same fate as the Quraysh suffered in the Battle of Badr." The Jews said, "The Quraysh do not know how to fight. If you were to fight against us, you would learn that we are real men." It was then that Allaah revealed the following verse of the Qur'aan:

﴿ قُلُ لِلَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْ سَتُغْلَبُوْنَ وَتُحْشَرُوْنَ اللَّى جَهَنَّمَ * وَيِنْسَ الْمِهَادُ ۞ قَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ البَهُ فِي فِنتَيْنِ الْتَقَتَا * فِنَهُ تَقَاتِلُ فِي سَبِيْلِ اللهِ وَأَخْرَى كَافِرَةٌ يَّرَوْنَهُمْ مِّمْلَهُمِيمُ رَأَى الْعَيْنِ * وَاللّٰهُ يُؤَيِّدُ بِنَصْرِهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ * إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَعِبْرَةً لِأُولِي الْأَبْصَارِ ۞﴾

(سورة ال عمران: ١٢ ، ١٢)

Say to the Kaafiroon, "You shall be overpowered (by the Muslims in this world) and gathered in Jahannam (in the Aakhirah), which is the worst of beddings (places)." Indeed there was a sign for you in the two groups which met (during the Battle of Badr). One group fought in the way of Allaah (in the obedience of Allaah, this was the Muslim army led by Rasulullaah (in the obedience of Allaah, this was the Muslim army led by Rasulullaah (in the Muslims) as twice their number with their very eyes (Allaah made the Muslims seem twice their number to the Kuffaar). Allaah strengthens with His aid whoever He wills. Truly in this is a lesson for those with foresight. {Surah Aal Imraan, verses 12,13} (1)

Another narration states that the Jews said to Rasulullaah We, "O Muhammad! Do not pride yourself on the fact that you have killed some people of the Quraysh who were unseasoned in the art of warfare and did not know how to fight. Should you fight against us, you would soon learn that we are real men and that you have not met the likes of us in battle." (2)

Imaam Zuhri Anarrates that after the Mushrikeen were defeated at Badr, the Muslims said to their Jewish acquaintances, "Accept Islaam before Alaah makes you suffer a day like the day of Badr." Maalik bin Sayf commented, "Are you deceived by that fact that you have defeated a group of people from the Quraysh who have no knowledge of warfare? If we resolve to amass all our forces against you, you would have no power to fight us."

Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit then said, "O Rasulullaah !! I have many Jewish friends who are powerful men with plenty weapons and great influence. However, I release myself from their friendship to adopt the friendship of Allaah and His Rasool !! I shall have no protecting friend besides Allaah and His Rasool !" To this, (the hypocrite) Abdullaah bin Ubay commented, "On the contrary, I shall not release myself from the friendship of the Jews for I am a person who needs them." Addressing Abdullaah bin Ubay, Rasulullaah !! said,

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.7 Pg.334).

⁽²⁾ Abu Dawood (Vol.4 Pg.141).

"O Abu Hubaab! You have opted for the friendship of the Jews in defiance of what Ubaadah bin Saamit has said. You may have their friendship for he does not." Abdullaah bin Ubay said, "In that case, I am content with this state of affairs." It was then that Allaah revealed the following verses of the Qur'aan:

O you who have Imaan! Do not take the Jews and Christians as friends (confidantes). They (all Kuffaar) are only the friends of each other (and cannot be your friends). Whoever of you befriends them, then he is surely from among them (because all the Kuffaar are one community). Verily Allaah does not guide a nation of wrong-doers (who befriend the Kuffaar) ... Allaah shall protect you from the people. {Surah Maa'idah, verses 51-67}(1)

Another narration states that when the Jewish Banu Qaynuqah tribe started hostilities against Rasulullaah . Abdullaah bin Ubay bin Salool sided with them and stood in their defence. Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit who was also an ally of the Banu Qaynuqah just like Abdullaah bin Ubay was, went to Rasulullaah and made it clear that he was forsaking them in favour of Rasulullaah and releasing himself from the alliance he had previously forged with them so that he could adopt complete allegiance to Allaah and His Rasool . He said, "O Rasulullaah !! I choose to adopt the friendship of Allaah, His Rasool and the Mu'mineen while I release myself from the alliance and friendship of those Kuffaar." It was with reference to Hadhrat Ubaadah and Abdullaah bin Ubay that the following verses of Surah Maa'idah were revealed:

O you who have Imaan! Do not take the Jews and Christians as friends (confidantes). They (all Kuffaar) are only the friends of each other (and cannot be your friends) ... Whoever befriends Allaah, His Rasool and the Mu'mineen (instead of befriending the Kuffaar), then indeed only the party of Allaah (those with Him) shall be victorious (in both worlds). {Surah Maa'idah, verses 51-56} (2)

The Episode of the Banu Nadheer Tribe

A Sahabi marrates that before the Battle of Badr, the Kuffaar of the Quraysh wrote to (the hypocrite) Abdullaah bin Ubay and others like him who worshipped idols. In their correspondence, they intimidated them for granting shelter to Rasulullaah and the Sahabah and threatened to attack them with a combined force of all the Arabs. Abdullaah bin Ubay and the others therefore resolved to fight the Muslims. Rasulullaah then approached them and said, "No one has schemed against you as the Quraysh have done. All they intend doing is to sow discord amongst you (because the members of your own families are Muslims)." They realised that Rasulullaah was right and dispersed (gave up the idea of fighting the Muslims).

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.2 Pg.69).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.4).

After the Battle of Badr, the Kuffaar of the Quraysh wrote to the Jews, telling them that they (the Jews) were well fortified and well armed (and could therefore fight the Muslims). In their letter, they also threatened the Jews (with aggression if the Jews refused to fight the Muslims). The Jews of the Banu Nadheer tribe therefore resolved to betray the trust of the Muslims. They sent a message to Rasulullaah was saying, "Come to us with two of your companions and three of our scholars will meet you. If they (accept Islaam and) follow you, we shall all follow suit." As Rasulullaah prepared to meet them, the three Jews hid daggers in their cloaks. However, before Rasulullaah 🚒 met with them, a (Jewish) woman from the Banu Nadheer whose brother had accepted Islaam and was living amongst the Ansaar sent a message to her brother informing him about the scheme of the Banu Nadheer. Rasulullaah then returned and marched with a battalion against them early in the morning. The Muslims laid siege to their fortress that day and the following day Rasulullaah marched on to the fortress of the Banu Qurayzah. Rasulullaah also laid siege to their fortress and they entered into a treaty with him.

Rasulullaah then returned to the Banu Nadheer and (when they refused to enter into a treaty, he) fought them until they finally surrendered on condition that they go into exile and be allowed to take with them anything besides weapons that could be loaded on their camels. They then loaded their camels to the extent that they even loaded the doors of their houses. They therefore demolished their homes with their own hands and loaded on their camels the scraps of wood that suited them. This expulsion was the first exile to Shaam. (1) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that Rasulullaah maintained the siege of the Banu Nadheer until they could not hold out any longer and were forced to give in to all his demands. They eventually agreed that their lives would be spared and that they would be expelled from their hearth and home to settle in Adhra'aat in Shaam (a place close to Amman and Balqaa). Rasulullaah allowed them a camel and a water bag between every three persons. (2)

Another narration states that Rasulullaah see sent Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama to the Banu Nadheer with instructions to allow them three days to leave. (3) According to another narration, the message that Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Mardaway and Abd bin Humayd narrating from Abdur Razzaaq. Refer to Fat'hul Baari (Vol.7 Pg.232). Abu Dawood, Abdur Razzaaq, Ibn Mundhir and Bayhaqi have also reported the narration as mentioned in Badhlul Majhood (Vol. Pg.) quoting from Durrul Manthoor.
(2) Bayhaqi.

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in the Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.4 Pg.333).

sent with Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama (Fread, "Leave my land and never live with me as long as you intend to be treacherous. I am giving you ten days to leave." (1)

The Episode of the Banu Qurayzah Tribe

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "I came out of the house during the Battle of Khandaq and was following the people when I heard footsteps on the ground behind me. It was Sa'd bin Mu'aadh says and his nephew Haarith bin Aws carrying a shield. I immediately sat down on the ground and Sa'd passed by wearing a coat of steel armour. (Because of his extraordinary height) Part of his body was exposed and I feared for those parts (that an enemy should not strike him there). Sa'd says was one of the largest and tallest of people and was reciting the following couplets as he passed:

'Wait awhile until Hamal reaches the battle

How beautiful is death when its term arrives'

I then stood up and entered an orchard where I found a group of Muslims sitting. Amongst them was Hadhrat Umar and a person wearing a helmet. (When he saw me) Hadhrat Umar said said, 'What brings you here? By Allaah! You are certainly a brave woman. Do you not fear that a calamity may befall us or that we are defeated?' He continued reprimanded me until I wished that the earth should open up at that moment so that I could enter it. The other person then lifted his helmet and I saw that he was Talha bin Ubaydilaah said. He said, 'Shame on you Umar. You have been overdoing things since today. Where else can we run to except to Allaah?"

"A man from the Quraysh called Ibn Arqa shot an arrow at Sa'd bin Mu'aadh and said, 'Take that for my name is Ibn Arqa!' the arrow struck an artery in his arm and cut it wide open. Sa'd had been an ally of the Banu Qurayza during the Period of Ignorance and prayed to Allaah saying, 'O Allaah! Do not let me die until I have had the pleasure of seeing what is to become of the Banu Qurayza'. His artery then stopped bleeding. Allaah then sent a cyclonic wind against the Mushrikeen, thereby alleviating the Mu'mineen of having to fight. Allaah is Most Powerful and Mighty."

Hadhrat Aa'isha continues narrating. She says that (since the Mushrikeen were forced to retreat,) Abu Sufyaan and those with him returned to Tihaama while Uyayna bin Badr and his people returned to Najd. The Banu Qurayza returned and locked themselves up in their fortresses. Meanwhile, Rasulullaah returned to Madinah and had a tent pitched for Sa'd in the Masjid. Hadhrat Jibra'eel then arrived and had sand on his front teeth (indicating that he was still engaged in battle). He asked Rasulullaah for their weapons. You should now fight the Banu Qurayza." Rasulullaah therefore wore his armour and had an announcement made that the Sahabah should march for battle. As they passed by the Banu Ghanam tribe who lived in the neighbourhood of the Masjid, Rasulullaah asked them if anyone had passed by them. They told him that Hadhrat Dihya Kalbi had passed by. The beard, age and face of Hadhrat Jibra'eel appeared that of Hadhrat Dihya Kalbi (because Hadhrat Jibra'eel papeared in the semblance of Hadhrat Dihya It was therefore Hadhrat Jibra'eel whom the Banu Ghanam tribesmen had seen passing). When Rasulullaah arrived at the fortresses of the Banu Qurayza, he laid siege to them for twenty-five nights.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.7 Pg.233).

When the Banu Qurayza could no longer bear the siege and their suffering grew intense, they were asked to surrender to the decision of Rasulullaah . When they consulted with Hadhrat Abu Lubaba . he indicated to them that they would be killed. They then asked to surrender to the decision of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh . Rasulullaah . Rasulullaah allowed them to do so and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh was brought on a donkey fitted with a carriage made from the bark of a date palm. He was lifted on to the donkey and his people surrounded him. (Interceding on behalf of the Banu Qurayza) The people said to Hadhrat Sa'd . O Abu Amr! They are your allies, your friends, they are of assistance during times of need and people whom you know." However, Hadhrat Sa'd . Gave no reply and did not even pay any attention to them.

Eventually, when he drew close to the settlement of the Banu Qurayza, Hadhrat Sa'd turned to his people and said, "The time has come for me not to be concerned about the criticism of critics when it concerns Allaah." Hadhrat Aa'isha narrates further from Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri that when Hadhrat Sa'd arrived, Rasulullaah said to the Sahabah stand, "Stand up for your leader and help him to dismount." Hadhrat Umar remarked, "Our leader is Allaah." Rasulullaah repeated, "Help him down." After the Sahabah had helped Hadhrat Sa'd said, "I have decided that all their warriors should be executed, that their families should be taken captive and that their wealth be distributed as booty." Rasulullaah commented, "You have decided their fate according to the decision of Allaah and His Rasool Hadhrat Sa'd hen made the following du'aa, "O Allaah! If you have reserved any battle for your Nabi against the Quraysh, then preserve me for it. However, if You have terminated all battles between him and them, then take me to You." Although his wound had already healed by then and the only sign of it was a mark resembling an earring, it opened up again. He then had to return to the tent that Rasulullaah had pitched for him in the Masjid. Hadhrat Aa'isha 11 narrates further, "Rasulullaah had hadhrat Abu Bakr had hadhrat Umar went to visit him. I swear by the Being in Whose control is the life of Muhammad had! As I sat in my room, (when Hadhrat Sa'd hadhrat Umar passed away after a few days) I could recognise the crying of Hadhrat Umar from that of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (The Sahabah (William) were just as Allaah described them in the Qur'aan when He says:

"Compassionate amongst themselves" (Surah Fatah, verse 29)

Hadhrat Alqama narrates that he then asked Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Dear mother! What did Rasulullaah then do?" Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Felied, "Although Rasulullaah would not cry often upon the death of anyone, when he was really grieved, he would hold his beard." (1) Hadhrat Aa'isha (Bissis also narrates that when Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh (Bissis passed away, Rasulullaah (Bissis and the Sahabah (Bissis cried whereas Rasulullaah (Bissis usually only held his beard when his grief grew intense. She says further, "I could also recognise the crying of my father (Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Bissis)) from that of Hadhrat Umar (Bissis)."(2)

Another narration states that when Rasulullaah Will returned from the burial of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh William, his tears flowed on to his beard, (3)

The Ansaar Prided themselves on their Accomplishments in Deen

Hadhrat Anas says that on one occasion the Aws and Khazraj tribes boasted to each other. The Aws said, "Amongst us was the person whom the angels bathed (after his martyrdom). He was Handhala bin Raahib says. Also amongst us was the person for whom the throne of Allaah shook (when he passed away). He was Sa'd bin Mu'aadh says. Amongst us was also the person who was protected by a swarm of wasps (when the Mushrikeen intended to mutilate his body). He was Aasim bin Thaabit bin Abil Aflah says, we also had in our ranks the person whose testimony was allowed (by Rasulullaah says) in place of the testimony of two people. He was Khuzayma bin Thaabit says. May Allaah be pleased with all of them."

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad. This narration is authentic and there are many others like it, as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.123). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.3) has also reported the narration. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.138) and the author of Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.274) have commented on the chain of narrators. As quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.40). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration and then mentioned several other Ahadeeth concerning the merits of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh (Wol.7 Pg.40).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer in his Tahdheeb, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.42).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.309) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Ya'la, Bazzaar, Tabraani all narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.41). Abu Awaana and Ibn Asaakir have also reported the narration, as quoted in Muntakhab (Vol.5 Pg.139).

The Ansaar Sacrifice worldly Pleasures and its Temporary possessions in Exchange for the Pleasure of Allaah and His Rasool

The Story of The Ansaar when Makkah was Conquered

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rabaah says, "Hadhrat Abu Hurayra during were part of many delegations that came to Hadhrat Mu'aawiya during Ramadhaan. We used to prepare food for each other and Hadhrat Abu Hurayra very often invited us (to his camp(1)) for meals. I once told myself that I should also invite everyone to my camp for meals. I therefore had meals prepared and when I met Hadhrat Abu Hurayra for the Isha salaah, I said to him, 'O Abu Hurayra Meals will be served at my place tonight.' He commented, 'You have beat me to it.' I certainly have,' I replied. When the people were with me after I had called them, Hadhrat Abu Hurayra said, 'O gathering of Ansaar! Should I not inform you about an incident about your people?"

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra then continued to relate the incident of the conquest of Makkah. He said that when Rasulullaah entered Makkah, he appointed Hadhrat Zubayr to take charge of one of the flanks of the army. He then appointed Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed to take charge of the other flank of the army while Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah was put in charge of those Muslims who had no armour. As Rasulullaah remained with his contingent, the rest marched through the centre of the valley. The Quraysh gathered the riffraff of their society and said, "We will send this lot forward (against the Muslims). If they achieve any success, we shall join them. If they are defeated, we shall have to give in to the demands of Rasulullaah ..."

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra harrates further that when Rasulullaah fifted his gazes, he saw him and called for him. Hadhrat Abu Hurayra replied, "I am at your service, O Rasulullaah fift Rasulullaah said, "Call the Ansaar for me and ensure that none but them come." Hadhrat Abu Hurayra called for them and they arrived. When they had gathered around Rasulullaah fift, he said to them, "Do you see the riffraff of the Quraysh and those with them?" Passing his one hand over the other, Rasulullaah fifther then said, "Mow them down and then meet me at Safa." Hadhrat Abu Hurayra says, "We then proceeded. We were in a position of killing as many of the Quraysh as we pleased, while none of them were in a position to offer any resistance."

Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan then said, "O Rasulullaah "" You have permitted the extermination of all the Quraysh. There shall be none of the Quraysh left after today." Rasulullaah said, "Whoever locks his door shall be safe and whoever enters the house of Abu Sufyaan shall be safe." The people then locked their houses. Rasulullaah the then went to the Kabah and starting from the Black Stone, he performed Tawaaf. As he performed Tawaaf, Rasulullaah passed an idol standing next to the Kabah, which people used to worship. He was holding a bow on one end and poked the eye of the idol as he recited the following verse of the Qur'aan:

⁽¹⁾ An addition reported by a narrator called Haashim.

﴿ جَآءَ الْحَقُّ وَزَهَقَ الْبَاطِلُ * إِنَّ الْبَاطِلَ كَانَ زَهُوْقًا ١٨ ﴾ (سورة بني اسرانيل: ٨١)

... The truth has arrived and falsehood has disappeared. Indeed, falsehood was bound to disappear. {Surah Bani Israaeel, verse 81}

Rasulullaah then went to Mount Safa and climbed it until he could see the Kabah. He then raised his hands and engaged in Dhikr and Du'aa for some time. Standing below him, the Ansaar said to each other, "It seems like the love for his city and pity for his people has overtaken Rasulullaah "Hadhrat Abu Hurayra says further, "Revelation then started to descend on Rasulullaah and when this happened it was no secret to any of us and no one would look at Rasulullaah until it was finished."

Once the revelation had stopped, Rasulullaah ilifted his gazes and said, "O assembly of Ansaar! Was it you who said, 'It seems like the love for his city and pity for his people has overtaken Rasulullaah ilifted that they had made the statement, Rasulullaah is said, "What will my name then be? I am certainly the servant of Allaah and His Rasul. I have made Hijrah towards Allaah and towards you people. My life shall be with you and my death as well." The Ansaar then came weeping to Rasulullaah is saying, "By Allaah! We only said what we did so that Allaah and His Rasool is should remain exclusively ours (we feared that you should not leave us to settle in Makkah)." Rasulullaah is said, "Verily Allaah and His Rasool is believe you and accept your excuse (believing that you said it out of extreme love)." (1)

The Story of The Ansaar During the Battle of Hunayn and the Statement of Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Anas in narrates that when the Battle of Hunayn took place, the Hawaazin, Ghitfaan and other tribes came (to the battlefield) with their stock animals as well as their families (indicating that they intended to fight until the end). Rasulullaah arrived with ten thousand Sahabah and many others who had been granted amnesty (when Makkah was conquered).

However, (when the Muslim army was caught by surprise, the Muslims fled the battlefield and) Rasulullaah was left all alone. Rasulullaah then made two distinct announcements. Turning to his right, Rasulullaah said, "O Assembly of Ansaar!" The Ansaar responded by saying, "We are at your service, O Rasulullaah Accept the glad tidings that we are with you." Rasulullaah then turned to his left and announced, "O Assembly of Ansaar!" The Ansaar again responded by saying, "We are at your service, O Rasulullaah Accept the glad tidings that we are with you." Rasulullaah then dismounted his white mule saying, "I am the servant of Allaah and His Rasul." The Mushrikeen were later defeated and Rasulullaah received a vast amount of booty.

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, Muslims and Nasa'ee, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.307). Ibn Abi Shayba has also reported the narration in brief, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.135).

Rasulullaah distributed the booty amongst the Muhaajireen and those who had been granted amnesty. The Ansaar received nothing. Some people of the Ansaar then commented, "We are called when times are difficult, but the booty is given to others." When this statement reached Rasulullaah is, he gathered the Ansaar in a tent and asked, "O Assembly of Ansaar! What is this that has reached me?" when they remained silent, Rasulullaah is said, "O Assembly of Ansaar! Does it not please you that while people return home with worldly articles, you would be returning with the Rasool if of Allaah, who you shall keep in your homes?" The Ansaar replied, "It certainly does please us." Rasulullaah is added, "If everyone walks a valley and the Ansaar walk another valley, I shall walk the valley of the Ansaar." A narrator by the name of Hishaam says that he then asked Hadhrat Anas is O Abu Hamza! Were you present here?" Hadhrat Anas is replied, "How could I absent myself?" (1)

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri in arrates that when Rasulullaah received the booty from the Battle of Hunayn, he distributed it amongst the members of the Quraysh whose hearts he wanted to win over and amongst the Arabs who asked for a share. When the Ansaar neither received a small or large part of it, they were so hurt that one of them said, "By Allaah! Rasulullaah has rejoined with his people." Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah went to Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah in This tribe of Ansaar feel hurt about you." "Why is that?" asked Rasulullaah in Hadhrat Sa'd in the people in the way in which you distributed the booty amongst your people and the other Arabs without giving them anything."

Rasulullaah asked, "What are your feelings, O Sa'd?" Hadhrat Sa'd replied, "I am but one of my people (I feel the same way)." Rasulullaah said, "Gather your people (the Ansaar) in this enclosure and call me once they have gathered." Hadhrat Sa'd went out and shouted for them. Once he had gathered them in the enclosure, some Muhaajireen also arrived and Hadhrat Sa'd permitted them to enter. When some other Muhaajireen came, he sent them away. When every member of the Ansaar had arrived, Hadhrat Sa'd went to Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah the The Ansaar tribe have all gathered in the place where you instructed me to gather them."

Rasulullaah then went there and stood up to deliver a sermon. After praising Allaah, Rasulullaah said, "O Assembly of Ansaar! When I came to you, were you not all astray, after which Allaah guided you? Were you not poverty stricken after which Allaah enriched you? Were you not enemies after which Allaah bonded your hearts?" "Certainly," they replied. Rasulullaah then said, "O Assembly of Ansaar! Why do you not respond?" They submitted "What can we say, O Rasulullaah ? What response should we make? The favour is from Allaah and His Rasool ." Rasulullaah  said, "By Allaah! You would be speaking the truth and you would be believed in, if you were to say (to me), 'You came to us as an outcast and we granted you shelter. You came to us as a destitute person and we granted you financial assistance. You came to us as in fear and we granted you security. You came to us as without any helpers and we granted you the assistance you needed." The Ansaar repeated, "The favour is from Allaah and His Rasool ***."

Bukhari, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.357). Ibn Abi Shayba and Ibn Asaakir have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.307).

Rasulullaah then comforted them by saying, "O Assembly of Ansaar! Do you feel hurt because of some short-lived sprouts of this world that I have given to some new Muslims whose hearts I intend winning over whereas I have left you to the bounty of Islaam that Allaah has granted you? O Assembly of Ansaar! Does it not please you to know that while other people return home with goats and camels, you should return home with the Rasool of Allaah . I swear by the Being Who controls my life that if everyone walks a valley and the Ansaar walk another valley, I shall walk the valley of the Ansaar. Had it not been for (the great virtue of) Hijrah, I would have been a man from the Ansaar. O Allaah! Shower Your mercy on the Ansaar, on the children of the Ansaar and the grandchildren of the Ansaar."

The Ansaar then wept until their beards were soaked and they said, "We are pleased with Allaah as our Rabb and with the distribution of Rasulullaah **
Rasulullaah **
then returned to his tent and the Ansaar dispersed. (1)

Hadhrat Saa'ib bin Yazeed in arrates that as a gesture of goodwill, Rasulullaah distributed the booty received from the Hawaazin in the Battle of Hunayn amongst the Quraysh and others. This made the Ansaar upset. When Rasulullaah heard about this, he went to the Ansaar where they were staying and said, "Whoever is amongst the Ansaar (from other tribes) should go to his tent." Thereafter, Rasulullaah recited the Shahaadah, praised Allaah and said, "O Assembly of Ansaar! I have heard about your feelings concerning the booty that I preferred to give others to win over their hearts and so that they should participate in Jihaad after this day after Allaah has entered Islaam deep into their hearts. O Assembly of Ansaar! Has Allaah not favoured you by granting you Imaan, by granting you special virtue and by granting you the best of names, namely the Ansaar (helpers) of (the Deen of) Allaah and the Ansaar (helpers) of Allaah's Rasool ? Had it not been for (the great virtue of) Hijrah, I would have been a man from the Ansaar. If everyone walks a valley and the Ansaar walk another valley, I shall walk the valley of the Ansaar. Does it not please you to know that while other people return home with goats, animals and camels, you should return home with the Rasool of Allaah (2008)?"

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq and Ahmad also narrating from Ibn Is'haaq. None else have narrated from this source, which is authentic, as mentioned in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.358). Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.30) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Abi Shayba has also reported the narration at length from Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri (Martin Abullaah bin Zaid bin Aasim (Vol.7 Pg.135). Bukhari has quoted a part from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid bin Aasim (Vol.7 Pg.135). Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.358), Ibn Abi Shayba has also quoted a part as reported in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.136).

When the Ansaar heard this, they exclaimed, "This pleases us." Rasulullaah then said, "Respond to what I have said." They said, "O Rasulullaah You found us in darkness and through you Allaah removed us (from the darkness) taking us into light. You found us on the crumbling edge of Jahannam and through you Allaah saved us. You found us astray and through you Allaah guided us. We are pleased with Allaah as our Rabb, with Islaam as our Deen and with Muhammad as our Nabi. O Rasulullaah is will with an open heart we say that you may do as you please." Rasulullaah is said, "By Allaah! Had you responded by saying something else, I would have said that you have spoken the truth. You could have said (to me), 'Did you not come to us as an outcast and we granted you shelter? Were people not calling you a liar when we believed you? Did we not accept what people were rejecting from you?' You would be true had you said this."

The Ansaar then said, "On the contrary, the favour is from Allaah and from His Rasool . It is the favour and grace of Allaah's Rasool that is upon us and on others." The Ansaar then started weeping excessively and Rasulullaah wept with them. (1)

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik narrates that when Allaah gave the wealth of the Hawaazin tribe as booty to Rasulullaah in he started giving as much as a hundred camels to some people. It was then that some people from the Ansaar commented, "May Allaah forgive Rasulullaah in He is giving the Quraysh and leaving us out whereas it is our swords that are dripping with blood of the Hawaazin." When Rasulullaah was informed about what they said, he called for the Ansaar and gathered them in a leather tent. He did not call anyone besides them. When they had gathered, Rasulullaah stood up and said, "What is it that has reached me about you?" Some Ansaar of understanding replied, "O Rasulullaah in Our seniors have said nothing but it was some youngsters who said, 'May Allaah forgive Rasulullaah in He is giving the Quraysh and leaving us out whereas it is our swords that are dripping with blood of the Hawaazin"

Rasulullaah said, "I have only given to some people who have newly accepted Islaam to win them over. Does it not please you to know that while other people return home with wealth, you should return home with the Rasool of Allaah ?? I swear by Allaah that what you return with is much better than what they return with." When the Ansaar submitted that they were pleased with this, Rasulullaah said to them, "You people will soon find that others will be given great preference over you. Exercise patience until you meet Allaah and His Rasool says. I shall be (waiting for you) at my pond (of Kowthar)." Hadhrat Anas says that it so happened that the Ansaar were unable to exercise the necessary patience. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.31) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Another narration from Hadhrat Anas states that Rasulullaah said to the Ansaar, "You are like under clothing to me while others are like outer garments. Does it not please you to know that while other people return home with goats and camels, you should return home with the Rasool of Allaah "Messe" "Most certainly!" they replied. Rasulullaah then added, "The Ansaar are like an abdomen to me and a place where special clothing is kept (they are very close to me). If everyone walks a valley and the Ansaar walk another valley, I shall walk the valley of the Ansaar and had it not been for (the great virtue of) Hijrah, I would have been a man from the Ansaar." (2)

The Qualities of the Ansaar

Hadhrat Anas in arrates that when some wealth came to Rasulullaah from Bahrain whilst the Muhaajireen and Ansaar heard about it from each other, they came to Rasulullaah early in the morning. The rest of the Hadith is lengthy, but in it Rasulullaah mentioned to the Ansaar, "As far as I know, you people turn out in large numbers when situations are hazardous and turn out in small numbers when the occasion arrives for receiving something (you are always there to assist others and care little about receiving things for yourselves)." (3)

Hadhrat Anas in arrates that Rasulullaah once said to Hadhrat Abu Talha inform them that as far as I know, they are extremely chaste and patient people." (4) Another narration from Hadhrat Anas is states that when Hadhrat Abu Talha visited Rasulullaah during the illness in which Rasulullaah passed away, Rasulullaah said to him, "Convey my Salaam to your people (the Ansaar) for they are extremely chaste and patient people." (5)

The Statement of Rasulullaah when Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh was Passed Away

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Shaddaad in narrates that Rasulullaah visited Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh is as he was on his deathbed. Rasulullaah said, "O chief of his people! May Allaah reward you well. You have fulfilled the pledge you made to Allaah and Allaah shall certainly fulfil His pledge to you." (6) Hadhrat Aa'isha is narrates that Rasulullaah is said, "No harm can come to a woman whether she stays between two homes of the Ansaar or between her own parents." (7)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.356)

⁽³⁾ Askari, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg. 136).

⁽⁴⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.41) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁵⁾ Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.136). Haakim (Vol.4 Pg.79) has also reported the narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi.

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.9).

⁽⁷⁾ Ahmad and Bazzaar narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.40).

The Hospitality and service that the Ansaar Rendered

The Hospitality of the Ansaar and the Story of Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr

Hadhrat Anas who had just finished distributing food. Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr who had just finished distributing food. Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr mentioned to Rasulullaah that a family of the Ansaar from the Banu Zafar tribe were very needy. He also added that most of the members of that family were women. Rasulullaah said to him, "O Usayd! You left us (without saying anything) until everything has left our hands. However, if you hear that we receive anything, do remind me of that family." A while later, some barley and dates came to Rasulullaah from Khaybar. Rasulullaah then distributed it amongst the Muslims and especially gave a large amount to the Ansaar and to that particular family.

Expressing his gratitude, Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr said, "May Allaah grant you the most sublime rewards, O Nabi of Allaah Rasulullaah said, "In fact, may Allaah grant the most sublime rewards to you, O assembly of Ansaar. As far as I know, you have always been most chaste and most patient. However, after I die, you shall soon see that others will be given preference over you in leadership and in distribution of wealth. I urge you to be patient until you meet me at the pond (of Kowthar)." (1)

Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr harrates that two families approached him requesting that he ask Rasulullaah to include them in the distribution of food or to give them something from it. The one family was from the Banu Zafar tribe while the other was from the Banu Mu'aawiya tribe. When he spoke to Rasulullaah for Rasulullaah said to him, "Certainly. I shall grant each of them a portion. When Allaah gives us again, we shall give them." Hadhrat Usayd said, "May Allaah grant you the best rewards, O Rasulullaah Rasulullaah said, "In fact, may Allaah grant the best rewards to you Ansaar. As far as I know, you have always been most chaste and most patient. However, after I die, you shall see that others will be given preference over you."

Hadhrat Usayd says, "When Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab (became the Khalifah) and was distributing some clothing amongst the people, he sent me a set of clothing, which I regarded to be very little. As I was performing salaah, I noticed a youngster from the Quraysh wearing the same set of clothing which (was so big for him that) he was dragging along. I then recalled the words of Rasulullaah . 'After I die, you shall see that others will be given preference over you'. I then said, 'Allaah and His Rasool have spoken the truth.' When someone informed Hadhrat Umar should be about this, he came to me as I was still performing salaah. He bade me to continue my salaah and when I had finished, he asked, 'What is it that you said?' After informing him, he said, 'I had given that set of clothing to a Sahabi who had participated in the Battle of Badr, the Battle of Uhud and the Pledge of Aqaba. The youngster from the Quraysh (who you saw) went to him, bought it from him and then wore it. Did you think that it (giving preference to others over the Ansaar) would occur during my time?' I conceded by saying, 'I swear by Allaah that I do not think that it would occur during your rein as Khalifah.'" (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Adi, Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.135). Haakim has also reported the narration in his Mustadrak (Vol.4 Pg.79), narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by himself and by Haythami.

The Story of Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama in arrates that as he was going to the Masjid, he noticed a man from the Quraysh wearing a set of (good) clothing. When he asked the man who gave him the clothing, the man replied, "The Ameerul Mu'mineen." After he had passed by Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama noticed another man from the Quraysh wearing a set of (good) clothing. When he asked the man who gave him the clothing, the man also replied that the Ameerul Mu'mineen had given it to him. When Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama entered the Masjid, he exclaimed in a loud voice, "Allaahu Akbar! Allaah and His Rasool have spoken the truth! Allaahu Akbar! Allaah and His Rasool

When Hadhrat Umar who heard this, he sent someone to call him. Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama with the man that he first had to perform two Rakaahs of salaah. Hadhrat Umar with sent the messenger again with the message that he insists that Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama was should go to him. However, Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama was adamant that he would not go to Hadhrat Umar with until he had performed two Rakaahs of salaah. He therefore started his salaah. Hadhrat Umar who then came himself and sat beside Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama who when he had complete his salaah, Hadhrat Umar was asked, "Do tell me why you raised your voice calling the Takbeer in the place where Rasulullaah we performed salaah. And why did you say, 'Allaah and His Rasool we have spoken the truth'."

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama replied, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I was proceeding to the Masjid when I noticed a certain man from the Quraysh wearing a set of (good) clothing. When I asked him who gave him the clothing, the man replied that the Ameerul Mu'mineen had given it to him. After he had passed by I noticed another man from the Quraysh wearing a set of (good) clothing. When I asked the man who gave him the clothing, the man also replied that the Ameerul Mu'mineen had given it to him. After he had passed by I noticed a man from the Ansaar wearing a set of clothing that was less expensive than the two others. When I asked him who given him the clothing, he informed me that the Ameerul Mu'mineen had given it to him. Although Rasulullaah had stated: 'After I die, you shall see that others will be given preference over you', I do not want it to happen at your hands, O Ameerul Mu'mineen."

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.33) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Umar then started to weep and said, "I seek forgiveness from Allaah! I shall never do it again." Thereafter, Hadhrat Umar was never seen giving preference to a person from the Quraysh over a person from the Ansaar. (1)

Rasulullaah Honours Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah His

Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit with his son. When he greeted with Salaam, Rasulullaah with his son. When he greeted with Salaam, Rasulullaah sit said, "Here and here." Rasulullaah then made Hadhrat Sa'd with sit on his right and said, "Welcome to the Ansaar. Welcome to the Ansaar." (Out of respect for Rasulullaah sit.) Hadhrat Sa'd then made his son stand in front of Rasulullaah sit. Rasulullaah told the youth to sit and when he did, Rasulullaah bade him to sit closer to him. The youth came closer and started kissing the hands and feet of Rasulullaah Rasulullaah said, "I am from the Ansaar and from the children of the Ansaar." Hadhrat Sa'd said, "I am from the Ansaar and from the children of the Ansaar." Hadhrat Sa'd said, "Werily Allaah honour you as you have honoured us." Rasulullaah said, "Verily Allaah has honoured you before I could honour you. However, after I die, you shall soon see that others will be given preference over you. I urge you to be patient until you meet me at the pond (of Kowthar)." (2)

Hadhrat Jareer Serves Hadhrat Anas

Hadhrat Anas (In a narrates that Hadhrat Jareer (In served him greatly as they travelled together on a journey. Hadhrat Jareer (In a said, "I have seen the Ansaar do great services to Rasulullaah (In and I therefore serve every person from the Ansaar whom I see." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari Stays with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Moo, Who Places himself at his Service

Hadhrat Habeeb bin Abi Thaabit narrates that Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari once went to Hadhrat Mu'aawiya to complain about a debt he had (asking Hadhrat Mu'aawiya for financtal assistance). However, Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari did not receive the desired response, but rather received a response that was unpleasant. He then said, "I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'After I die, you shall see that others will be given preference over you (Ansaar)'." Hadhrat Mu'aawiya said, "What else did Rasulullaah say say to you?" Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (Teplied that Rasulullaah (Feb. advised them to exercise patience. Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Then said, "Then be patient." Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (Temarked, "I swear by Allaah that I shall never again ask you for anything!"

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.329).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir. The author of Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.134) and Bukhari have commented on the chain of narrators. Nasa'ee, Daar Qutni and Ali bin Madeeni have also reported the narration. Refer to Mizaan (Vol.2 Pg.3).

⁽³⁾ Baghawi, Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg. 136).

Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob then went to Basra where he stayed with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas them. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas emptied his home for Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob and said, "I shall do for you as you had done for Rasulullaah "He then instructed his family to leave the house, which they did. Thereafter, he said to Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob "You may use anything in the house." In addition, he left with him forty thousand Dirhams and twenty slaves." (1)

Another narration adds that Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob then went to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in Basra, who had been appointed as its governor by Hadhrat Ali which Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas said, "O Abu Ayyoob! I wish to leave this house for you just as you left your house for Rasulullaah whi." He then instructed his family to leave, which they did. Thereafter, he gave everything in the house to Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob was leaving the place, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas was leaving the place, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas asked him, "How much do you need?" Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob was told him that he required the amount that he usually received as a grant and eight slaves to work in his fields. His grant was four thousand Dirhams, so Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas gave him five times the amount, which was a sum of twenty thousand Dirhams and forty slaves. (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Goes out of his Way to Have the Needs of the Ansaar Fulfilled

Hadhrat Hassaan bin Thaabit narrates that they were a group of the Ansaar who needed to place a request before the Ameerul Mu'mineen who was either Hadhrat Umar or Hadhrat Uthmaan (3). They proceeded with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas and a group of other Sahabah all spoke to the Ameerul Mu'mineen and mentioned the virtues of the Ansaar. However, the Ameerul Mu'mineen had to make an excuse. The need of the Ansaar was an urgent one and the Sahabah repeated the request several times. However, they all eventually accepted the excuse and just stood there. Not Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1). He persisted and said, "Never! By Allaah! (1) shall never accept the excuse because) Then the Ansaar will have no status. They assisted Rasulullaah (4) and granted him protection."

Rooyaani and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.95). Haakim has also reported the narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.323). Haythami has commented on the chain of narrators. Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.461) has also reported the narration with an extended chain of narrators and commentary.

⁽³⁾ One of the narrators by the name of Ibn Abi Zinaad was unsure about who the Ameerul Mu'mineen was during that time.

He then continued recounting the virtues of the Ansaar and (referring to Hadhrat Hassaan bin Thaabit (he) added, "Here stands the poet of Rasulullaah who used to compose poems in defence of Rasulullaah (he)." In this manner, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas continued presenting convincing arguments and replied to all objections until the Ameerul Mu'mineen had no option but to accede to the request.

"When he (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (William) speaks, he leaves nothing for another to speak

Because of his concise speech that contains nothing superfluous

His speech is so convincing and comforting for the soul

That it leaves nothing for a needy person to add

(Hadhrat Abdullaah You have reached towering heights without difficulty And have reached the apex without being wretched or weak" (1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Hassaan said to the other Sahabah wow, "By Allaah! He (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas said to the other Sahabah you (of being sympathetic towards us) for this is the filtration of Nabuwaat and the legacy of Nabi Ahmad said. It is his lineage and excellent character that guides him." The others said, "Do be brief (and give us a poem), O Hassaan." "What they say is true," agreed Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas said to the other Sahabah him Abbaas said to th

"When Ibn Abbaas shows you his face You will see virtue and grace in every gathering"

He then recited the couplets mentioned above, adding the following couplet to

"You have been created as an ally of affection and benevolence

And as an orator without being inefficient nor incompetent"

The Ameerul Mu'mineen said, "In using the word 'inefficient', Hassaan was referring to none but me. However, Allaah shall decide between him and L (2)

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.544).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.284).

Du'aas made for the Ansaar

The Du'aa that Rasulullaah Made for the Ansaar and the Statement Hadhrat Abu Bakr made about them in his Sermon

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik in narrates that when it became difficult for the Ansaar to continuously use camels to draw and carry water, they gathered before Rasulullaah to request that a flowing river be made for them. Rasulullaah said, "A warm welcome to the Ansaar! A warm welcome to the Ansaar! I shall grant you anything that you ask from me today and anything I ask Allaah for you will be granted." The Ansaar said to each other, "Make the most of the situation and ask him to pray for our forgiveness." They then asked, "O Rasulullaah representation and ask him to pray for our forgiveness." Rasulullaah then made du'aa saying, "O Allaah! Forgive the Ansaar, the children of the Ansaar and the grandchildren of the Ansaar." Another narration states that Rasulullaah also asked Allaah to forgive the spouses of the Ansaar.

Yet another narration states that Rasulullaah said, "O Allaah! Forgive the Ansaar, the children of the Ansaar, the grandchildren of the Ansaar and their neighbours." (2)

Another report ⁽³⁾ mentions that Rasulullaah said, "O Allaah! Forgive the Ansaar, the children of the Ansaar and the friends of the Ansaar."

Hadhrat Uthmaan harrates that he heard Rasulullaah have say, "Imaan belongs to Yemen and in the progeny of Qahtaan (an ancient king to whose progeny belongs all the people of Yemen as well as the Ansaar). Hard-heartedness is to be found amongst the progeny of Adnaan whereas in the Himyar tribe is the commander and leader of the Arabs. While the Madh'hij tribe is the chief and defence of the Arabs and the Azd tribe is their shoulders and head (bearing the weight of important matters), the Hamdaan tribe is their crest and their summit. O Allaah! Give honour to the Ansaar through whom Allaah established the Deen; who gave me shelter, who assisted me and who gave me their undaunted support. They are my companions in this world, shall be my party in the Aakhirah and the first of my Ummah to enter Jannah." (4)

Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Muhammad Zubayri narrates that in one of his sermons, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Silver) related the relationship between the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar to the poem that states:

"May Allaah reward Ja'far (the Ansaar) on our behalf

Who helped us when our shoes made us slip and fall in the path of those who

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad (Vol.3 Pg.139). Haythami has commented on the narration.

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.40) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.41) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Bazzaar, narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.41).

wished to trample us

They refused to become frustrated with us (through times) that even our mothers Would become frustrated with us, were our mothers to suffer what they (the Ansaar) suffered because of us"(1)

Others are Given Preference over the Ansaar in the matter of Khilaafah

What Rasulullaah said about the Quraysh

Hadhrat Humayd bin Abdur Rahmaan Himyari narrates that when Rasulullaah passed away, Hadhrat Abu Bakr was at one end of Madinah (where he lived). When he arrived, he opened the face of Rasulullaah and said, "May my parents be sacrificed for you! You are so pure in life and death. I swear by the Rabb of the Kabah that Muhammad was has indeed passed away."

(When he heard that the Ansaar had gathered to discuss the Khilaafah,) Hadhrat Abu Bakr followed by Hadhrat Umar went to the Ansaar. In his talk to the Ansaar, Hadhrat Abu Bakr did not omit to mention any verse of the Qur'aan or statement of Rasulullaah concerning the virtues of the Ansaar. He also said, "I am also aware that Rasulullaah said, 'If everyone walks a valley and the Ansaar walk another valley, I shall walk the valley of the Ansaar.' O Sa'd⁽²⁾! Because you were sitting there, you know that Rasulullaah said, 'The Quraysh are the successors of this matter (Khilaafah). Righteous people will follow the righteous of the Quraysh while sinful people will follow the sinful of the Quraysh." Hadhrat Sa'd some confirmed this when he said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr for you have spoken the truth. We shall be viziers while you are the leaders." (3)

The Incident that Occurred in the Hall of the Banu Saa'idah Tribe

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri narrates that after Rasulullaah passed away, several speakers from the Ansaar delivered lectures (in the orchard of the Banu Saa'idah tribe where the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar had gathered to discuss the Khilaafah). One of them said, "O assembly of Muhaajireen! Whenever Rasulullaah appointed one of you to a post, he would also put one of us with him. We therefore feel that two persons should take this post, one from us and one from you." The other speakers from the Ansaar followed suit until Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit stood up and said, "Since Rasulullaah was from amongst the Muhaajireen, the leader should be from the Muhaajireen. We shall be his Ansaar (helpers) just as we were the Ansaar (helpers) of Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Dunya in Ashraaf, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg. 134).

⁽²⁾ Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah (3), one of the leaders of the Ansaar.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad and Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.137), Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.191) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then stood up and said, "O Assembly of Ansaar! May Allaah reward you all tremendously. May Allaah keep this speaker of yours steadfast. By Allaah! Should you do otherwise (other than what Hadhrat Zaid has mentioned), we would not reconcile with you." Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit then took hold of the hand of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and said, "This is the man. Pledge your allegiance to him." (1)

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Muhammad narrates that when Rasulullaah passed away, the Ansaar gathered around Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah sides. Hadhrat Abu Bakr sides, Hadhrat Umar sides and Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah also arrived there. Hadhrat Hubaab bin Mundhir sides who had participated in the Battle of Badr stood up and said, "One leader from you (Muhaajireen) and one from us (Ansaar). O honoured group (of Muhaajireen)! I swear by Allaah that we do not begrudge you this position but we fear that such a person may become the leader whose fathers or brothers we (Ansaar) may have killed (when fighting for Islaam. He should then not wish to take revenge from us)." Hadhrat Umar said, "If it ever happens, you should rather die (fighting him) if you are able to."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr will then started to speak. He said, "We shall be the leaders while you be the viziers. This matter will be shared equally between us just as the frond of a date palm divides at the centre." The first person to pledge his allegiance was Hadhrat Basheer bin Sa'd (also known as) Abu Nu'maan 送版過去. After everyone had united under the leadership of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 🕸 😘 an occasion arrived when he had to distribute some wealth amongst the people. He sent Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit 经原验的 to an old lady from the Banu Adi bin Najaar tribe with her share of the wealth. When she asked what it was, Hadhrat Zaid 劉隆節 told her that it was her share of the wealth that Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉隆節 had given to the women. She remarked, "Do you wish to bribe me away from my Deen?" "Certainly not," replied Hadhrat Zaid 经减少, She then asked, "Do you fear that I shall leave the Deen I follow?" "Definitely not," responded Hadhrat Zaid She then said, "I swear by Allaah that I shall never accept anything from him in future." When Hadhrat Zaid William returned and informed Hadhrat Abu Bakr 墨蓝鲈 about what the old lady had expressed, Hadhrat Abu Bakr 墨蓝鲈 said, "We shall also not take back anything that we have given her." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Tayaalisi, Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.151), Ibn Abi Shayba, Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.134) and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.131), Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.183) says that Tabraani and Ahmad have also reported the narration from reliable sources. Tabraani has also reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Abu Talha (Wol.3 Pg.140), ⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd and Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg. 130).

Chapter Six

The Chapter Concerning Jihaad (Striving in the Path of Allaah)

This chapter highlights how Rasulullaah see and the Sahabah strove in the path of Allaah and how they went out to give Da'wah towards Allaah and towards His Rasool regardless of whether their circumstances were favourable or unfavourable, or whether they had a choice or not. The chapter also makes clear how they prepared for this during times of difficulty and ease, summer or winter.

Rasulullaah Encourages Striving in the path of Allaah and Spending One's Wealth for this Cause

Rasulullaah leaves for the Battle of Badr after Consulting with the Sahabah

Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari narrates that they were all in Madinah when Rasulullaah said, "I have been informed that the trade caravan of Abu Sufyaan is arriving (from Shaam with plenty of wealth). Do you want to march to the caravan so that Allaah should perhaps give you plenty of booty?" When the Sahabah agreed, Rasulullaah marched out of Madinah with them. After marching a day or two, Rasulullaah said to the Sahabah for "The Quraysh have received intelligence about us (and have prepared an army to fight us), so what do you say (about fighting them)?" The Sahabah said, "By Allaah! We do not have the strength to fight them because we intended taking on only the caravan." Rasulullaah repeated, "What do you say about fighting them?" When the Sahabah gave the same response, Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad stood up and said, "In that case, O Rasulullaah (if we have to fight them), we shall not say to you what the people of Moosa said to him when they said:

﴿ فَاذْهَبُ آنْتَ وَرَبُّكَ فَقَاتِكَ إِنَّا لَهُ نَا قَعِدُوْنَ ۞ ﴾ (سورة المائده: ٢٤)

'... You and your Rabb both go ahead and fight. We shall remain sitting here." {Surah Maa'idah, verse 24}

Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob says, "We Ansaar wished that we had said what Miqdaad had had said. This would have been more beloved to us than having an abundance of wealth." It was then that Allaah revealed the following verse of the Qur'aan:

(سورة الانفال: ٥)

Just as your Rabb took you (O Muhammad (W)) from your home with the truth (with good cause to fight the battle) while there was certainly a group of the Mu'mineen who were unhappy (to fight the Kuffaar because they were not prepared for battle). {Surah Anfaal, verse 5} (1)

Hadhrat Anas to march to Badr, Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave his opinion (in favour of marching). Rasulullaah again asked for opinions and Hadhrat Umar gave his. When Rasulullaah again asked for opinions, someone from the Ansaar said, "O assembly of Ansaar! It is your opinion that Rasulullaah wants." A person from the Ansaar then said, "In that case, O Rasulullaah (if we have to fight them), we shall not say to you what the Bani Israa'eel said to Moosa when they told him, 'You and your Rabb both go ahead and fight. We shall remain sitting here.' In fact, we swear by the Being Who sent you with the truth that we shall follow you even if you travel to (the distant city of) Barkul Ghimaad (in Yemen)."

Another narration from Hadhrat Anas Silver states that when Rasulullaah heard about the arrival of (the caravan of) Abu Sufyaan, he consulted with the Sahabah 過過過. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr 過過過 voiced his opinion (to march), Rasulullaah turned away from him. Thereafter, when Hadhrat Umar voiced his opinion, Rasulullaah turned away from him as well. Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah (from the Ansaar) then said, "It is our opinion that Rasulullaah wants." Addressing Rasulullaah kas, he then said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! If you command us to ride our animals into the sea, we shall readily do so and if you command us to travel to (the distant city of) Barkul Ghimaad (in Yemen), we shall certainly do so." It was only then that Rasulullaah gave the command (for the Sahabah to march). (3) Hadhrat Algama bin Waggaas Laythi was narrates that after leaving for Badr, when he reached a place called Rowhaa, Rasulullaah addressed the Sahabah (1996) asking, "What is your opinion?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) responded by mentioning the news that had reached them about the extensive battle preparations that Mushrikeen had made. When Rasulullaah 🗯 again asked for Ibn Abi Haatim and Ibn Mardaway, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.263). The complete narration appears in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.6 Pg.73) and in (Vol.6 Pg.74), Imaam Haythami has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Ibn Katheer in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.263). The narration is "Thulaathi" in nature.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.263) and Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.273).

opinions, Hadhrat Umar المعتقبة responded as Hadhrat Abu Bakr done. When Rasulullaah again asked for opinions, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh (from the Ansaar) said, "O Rasulullaah (##! It seems like it is our opinion that you are asking for. I swear by the Being Who has honoured you and revealed the Our'aan to you that although I have never travelled the road and have no knowledge about it, we shall definitely travel with you even if you were to travel up to Barkul Ghimaad which lies in Yemen. We shall also not be like those people who said to Moosa Willie, 'You and your Rabb both go ahead and fight. We shall remain sitting here.' We shall rather say, 'You and your Rabb both go ahead and fight. We shall be there right behind you.' You had possibly left for a purpose after which Allaah intended you to do something else. Look into the matter that Allaah intends you to do and then do it. You may join ties with whoever you please, severe ties with whoever you please, initiate hostilities towards whoever you please, enter into peace treaties with whoever you please and take as much of our wealth as you please." It was with reference to this statement of Hadhrat Sa'd (that Allaah revealed the following verse of the Our'aan:

Just as your Rabb took you (O Muhammad ()) from your home with the truth (with good cause to fight the battle) while there was certainly a group of the Mu'mineen who were unhappy (to fight the Kuffaar because they were not prepared for battle). {Surah Anfaal, verse 5}(1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Sa'd also said to Rasulullaah Take as much of our wealth as you please and leave as much as you please but what you take from us is more beloved to us than what you leave. Our wills are subservient to the commands you give us. I swear by Allaah that even if you continue travelling until you reach Barkul Ghamdaan, we shall travel with you."(2)

Ibn Is'haaq has narrated that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh was said, "It appears as if it is our opinion that you want, O Rasulullaah "We have believed in you, accepted you and testified that whatever you have brought to us is the truth. For this, we have pledged to you that we will always listen to and obey you. Therefore, O Rasulullaah you may proceed to do as you please for we are with you. I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that even if you take us to the sea and then dive inside, we shall dive with you without any of us staying behind. We do not mind if you lead us in battle against the enemy tomorrow because we are unfaltering in battle and fearless when we encounter the enemy. Allaah shall perhaps show you actions from us that will bring you

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Mardaway, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.264).

⁽²⁾ Umawi in his Maghaazi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.264)

great pleasure. Proceed with the blessings of Allaah."

Rasulullaah was greatly pleased with these words of Hadhrat Sa'd and was rejuvenated. He then said, "March and hear the glad tidings that Allaah had promised me that one of the two groups (either capturing the caravan or the defeating the Quraysh army). By Allaah! It is as if I can actually see the places where the Mushrikeen will fall dead." (1)

Rasulullaah Gives Encouragement before a Battle and the Statement of Hadhrat Umayr bin Hamaam

Hadhrat Anas says, "Rasulullaah sent Basbas so to spy on what the caravan of Abu Sufyaan was doing. When he reported back to Rasulullaah there was none with him in the room besides myself." The narrator says that Hadhrat Anas says also mentioned the names of some wives of Rasulullaah (who were in the room) but he (the narrator) does not remember who they were. After Hadhrat Basbas had informed Rasulullaah about the news, Rasulullaah left the house and announced, "We are leaving in pursuit (of the caravan). Whoever has his mount present should ride with us." When some Sahabah requested permission to fetch their animals that were in the upper part of Madinah, Rasulullaah said, "No. Only those whose mounts are present may ride."

Rasulullaah and the Sahabah with then rode off and arrived at Badr before the Mushrikeen. When the Mushrikeen arrived, Rasulullaah and said to the Sahabah ("None of you should do anything until I act." When the Mushrikeen came close, Rasulullaah said, "Stand up and advance to a Jannah that is as wide as the heavens and the earth!" Hadhrat Umayr bin Hamaam (I) from the Ansaar asked, "O Rasulullaah (I) A Jannah that is as wide as the heavens and the earth?" "Certainly," confirmed Rasulullaah Hadhrat Umayr 過過過 exclaimed, "Wow!" When Rasulullaah 過過 asked him why he said this, Hadhrat Umayr 细胞 replied, "O Rasulullaah 過避! By Allaah! There is no reason other than that I should be among its inhabitants." Rasulullaah assured him, "You are certainly from amongst its inhabitants." Hadhrat Umayr 数域域 took out some dates from his quiver and started eating them. However, he then said, "If I live until I have eaten these dates, it would take too much time." He then threw down the dates he had left and jumped into the thick of battle until he was martyred. May Allaah shower His mercy on him. (2) Ibn Is'haaq narrates that Rasulullaah 優麗 went to the Sahabah 過煙變 to give them encouragement saying, "I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Muhammad! Allaah shall enter into Jannah every man who fights the Mushrikeen today and is martyred while he is patient, hoping for rewards from Allaah, advancing against the enemy and not fleeing from the battlefield." Hadhrat Umayr bin Hamaam who who belonged to the Banu Salama tribe was eating some dates he had with him. (When he heard what Rasulullaah said,) He exclaimed, "Wow!" All that stands between me and my entry into Jannah is the Mushrikeen killing me." He then threw down the dates in his hand, grabbed his sword and fought until he was killed.

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.262).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad and Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.277). Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.99) has narrated it in detaji while Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.426) has narrated it in brief.

Ibn Jareer has mentioned that when he was martyred, Hadhrat Umayr was reciting the following couplets (which mean):

"I am running to Allaah without any (physical) provisions besides Taqwa, deeds for the Aakhirah and steadfastness in Jihaad for the sake of Allaah Certainly, all provisions shall come to an end besides those of Taqwa, righteousness and correct guidance" (1)

The Expedition to Tabook and the wealth that the Sahabah Spent on this Occasion

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas returned from Taa'if. Allaah had then commanded Rasulullaah to march to Tabook, which Allaah refers to as "the hour of hardship" in the Qur'aan. This took place when the heat was intense, when hypocrisy was rife and the men of Suffa were plenty. Suffa was a platform (in the Masjid) where the very poor Muslims gathered. The Sadaqah that came to Rasulullaah (for distribution) and the Sadaqah of the Muslims went to them. Whenever there arose a military expedition, a Muslim would take one or more of them, feed him well, equip him for battle and they would fight with the other Muslims. In this way, the Muslims anticipated more reward (for spending on them).

Rasulullaah instructed the Muslims to spend in the path of Allaah with the intention of gaining rewards. They therefore spent most generously with the expectation of reward. However, there were others (the Munaafiqeen) who did not spend with the intention of gaining rewards from Allaah (they spent for show and to conceal their true identities). While transport was provided for many poor people, many were left without transport. The person who donated the most on that day was Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf wife, who gave two hundred Awqiya of silver (eight thousand Dirhams). Hadhrat Umar gave a hundred Awqiya of silver (equal to four thousand Dirhams) while Hadhrat Aasim Ansaari gave ninety Wasaq of dates.

Hadhrat Umar said, "O Rasulullaah see I think that Abdur Rahmaan has committed a sin because he has not left anything for his family." Rasulullaah then asked Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan see if he had left anything behind for his family. He replied, "Yes, what I have left is more than what I have spent and better." When Rasulullaah asked him how much he had left for them, he replied, "The sustenance and good that Allaah and His Rasool have promised."

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.277).

A Sahabi from the Ansaar by the name of Abu Aqeel brought a mere Saa of dates, which was his donation. When the Munaafiqeen saw the donations, they started mocking. If someone donated a large sum, they would say that he was a show-off and when another donated a small amount of dates, which was all he could afford, they would say, "He is more in need of what he has brought." When Hadhrat Abu Aqeel brought his Saa of dates, he said, "I spent the entire night pulling a rope (to draw water from a well) in exchange for two Saa of dates. By Allaah! I have nothing besides this." In an effort to excuse his small contribution and feeling embarrassed about it, he concluded by saying, "I have brought one Saa and left the other for my family." The Munaafiqeen commented, "He needs the Saa more than anyone else." The Munaafiqeen continued in this manner as the wealthy and poor amongst them waited to receive a share of the donations.

When the time drew close for Rasulullaah to leave, the Munaafiqeen came in large numbers to seek exemption. They complained about the intense heat and also said that if they had to embark on the expedition, they would face many tests. They even went to the extent of taking oaths to substantiate their lies. Not knowing what their hearts concealed, Rasulullaah exempted them. It was a group from amongst them who built the Masjid of hypocrisy in expectation of the arrival of the evildoer Abu Aamir as well as Kinaana bin Abd Yaleel and Alqama bin Ulaatha Aamiri. Abu Aamir had aligned himself with (the Roman emperor) Heraclius (with whom he plotted to attack the Muslims. The 'Masjid' was built as a meeting place for him). It was with reference to them that Surah Baraa'ah was revealed part by part.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas continues to narrate that it was also in Surah Baraa'ah that a verse was revealed which does not exempt anyone from marching in Jihaad. The sincere Muslims who were loyal to Allaah and His Rasool were weak, unwell or poor and complained to Rasulullaah when the following verse of the Qur'aan was revealed:

Proceed (in the path of Allaah) when light or heavy (happily or reluctantly, rich or poor, in good conditions and adverse conditions)...

{Surah Baraa'ah, verse 41}

They said, "There is now no exemption from this (we cannot miss the expedition)." At that stage, many of the sins of the Munaafiqeen were still concealed and only became apparent afterwards. Many of them stayed behind the expedition without any physical ailment because they had no conviction (in Allaah). The Surah (Baraa'ah) was revealed to Rasulullaah with great clarification and detail, informing him about the people who had joined him.

When he reached Tabook, Rasulullaah die dispatched Hadhrat Alqama bin Mujazzar with to Palestine and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed with to Dowmatul Jandal. Rasulullaah with said to Hadhrat Khaalid with, "Move quickly for you may find him (the ruler of Dowmatul Jandal) out hunting and will be able to capture him." Hadhrat Khaalid with found the ruler out hunting and captured him.

In the meantime, the Munaafiqeen in Madinah were anxious to hear bad news (about the Muslims). Consequently, when they heard that the Muslims were suffering great hardships and difficulties, they rejoiced and said, "We expected this and therefore steered clear from it." On the other hand, when they heard that the Muslims were safe and sound, they grew very depressed. Every enemy of the Munaafiqeen in Madinah could clearly see this (enmity towards the Muslims) in the Munaafiqeen. Every Bedouin and non-Bedouin Munaafiq was engaging in some clandestine act, which was eventually exposed.

Every indisposed Muslim was anxiously awaiting for Allaah to reveal verses of the Qur'aan that would excuse them. As Surah Baraa'ah was being revealed bit by bit, the Muslims started entertaining all types of thoughts about themselves. Until the entire Surah was revealed, they feared that some punishment would be cited about every major and minor sin that they ever committed. Eventually, (once the revelation was complete) the position of every person became clear. It was then apparent who was rightly guided and who was wandering astray. (1)

The Response of Rasulullaah when Jadd bin Qais Sought Exemption from the Expedition and the Verses of Qur'aan Revealed in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Bakr bin Hazam inarrates that whenever Rasulullaah intended to leave on a military expedition, he made it seem as if he was going in another direction. However, when he intended leaving for Tabook, he made it clear to the people and announced that he intended fighting the Romans. This happened at a time when people were experiencing difficulty, when the heat was intense, the land was drought-stricken and the crops were ripe and ready for harvesting. The people therefore preferred to stay behind to tend to their crops and sit in the shade. They were very reluctant to separate (from their comforts).

As Rasulullaah was busy with preparations one day, he asked Jadd bin Qais (one of the Munaafiqeen), "O Jadd! Are you ready to fight the Romans?" Jadd replied, "O Rasulullaah replied, "O Rasulullaah ⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir (Vol. 1 Pg.105). Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 1 Pg.249) has also reported the narration in detail from Ibn Asaakir and Ibn Aa'idh.

Among them (the Munaasiqueen) is he who says, "Excuse me (from fighting) and do not expose me to temptation (because I will be unable to control myself when I see the enemy women)." Behold! In temptation did he (already) fall (by being reluctant to sight)...! {Surah Baraa'ah, verse 49}

This verse tells us that staying behind from the expedition and have greater concern for himself than for Rasulullaah is a worse crime than his falling for the Roman women. Jadd had therefore already fallen for temptation before even leaving on the expedition. Referring to all those after Jadd as well, the verse goes on to state:

... Verily Jahannam shall surround the Kaafiroon (and they will be unable to escape). {Surah Baraa'ah, verse 49}

When one of the Munaafiqeen said to the others, "Do not march in the heat," Allaah revealed the following verse:

... Tell them, "The fire of Jahannam is much more intense in heat." If only they understood. (If they understood that the heat of Jahannam is unbearable and everlasting, they would not fear the temporary heat of this world which is bearable.) {Surah Baraa'ah, verse 81}

Rasulullaah then intensified his preparations for the journey and gave the Muslims encouragement to fight in Jihaad. He gave special encouragement to the wealthy Muslims to spend their wealth and to provide transport for the pleasure of Allaah. Many wealthy Sahabah provided transport only with the intention of earning reward from Allaah. In this regard Hadhrat Uthmaan spent most generously and none was able to match his spending. He provided two hundred camels. (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas narrates that as Rasulullaah was preparing for the expedition to Tabook, he asked Jadd bin Qais, "What do you say about fighting the Romans?" He said, "O Rasulullaah !! I am a man who is obsessed by women. When I see the Roman women, I shall be cast into temptation. Will you permit me to stay behind and not expose me to temptation?" It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

Among them (the Munaafiquen) is he who says, "Excuse me (from fighting) and do not expose me to temptation (because I will be unable to control myself when I see the enemy women)." Behold! In temptation did he (already) fall (by being reluctant to fight) ...! {Surah Baraa'ah, verse 49}

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi narrating from Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted by Ibn Asaakir (Vol.1 Pg.108). Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.33) and Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.3) have also reported the narration.

Rasulullaah Dispatches the Sahabah to Makkah and to Various Tribes to Recruit People for Jihaad

Ibn Asaakir narrates that Rasulullaah sent Sahabah so to several tribes and to Makkah to recruit people to fight their enemies. For this purpose, Rasulullaah sent Hadhrat Buraydah bin Husayb so to the Banu Aslam tribe with instructions to proceed to a place called Fura. Rasulullaah sent Abu Ruhm Ghifaari so to his people with instructions to gather them all in their territory. Hadhrat Abu Waaqid Laythi so went to his people and Hadhrat Abu Ja'd Dhamri so went to his people who were on the coast. Rasulullaah salso dispatched Hadhrat Raafi bin Makeeth so and Hadhrat Jund bin Makeeth so to the Juhayna tribe, Hadhrat Nu'aym bin Mas'ood to the Ash'ja tribe and several Sahabah so to the Banu Ka'b bin Amr tribe. Amongst these Sahabah so was Hadhrat Budayl bin Waraqa so, Hadhrat Amr bin Saalim so and Hadhrat Bishr bin Sufyaan so. Amongst the many Sahabah Rasulullaah sent to the Banu Sulaym tribe Hadhrat Abbaas bin Mirdaas so so so so sent to the Banu Sulaym tribe Hadhrat Abbaas bin Mirdaas so so so so sent to the Banu Sulaym tribe

The Sahabah Spend Generously for the Expedition to Tabook

Rasulullaah gave the Sahabah plenty of encouragement to fight in lihaad and asked them to spend for the pleasure of Allaah. The Sahabah therefore donated most generously. The first to spend so generously was Hadhrat Abu Bakr who donated everything he owned, equalling four thousand Dirhams. Rasulullaah asked him, "Have you left anything for your family?" he replied, "I have left Allaah and His Rasool for them." Hadhrat Umar then arrived with half of his belongings. When Rasulullaah asked him if he had left anything for his family, he replied, "Yes, I have left half of what I have brought." (Another narration states that he had left as much as he had brought.) When Hadhrat Umar heard about what Hadhrat Abu Bakr had brought he said, "He has beaten me each time we have vied to do good."

Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdil Muttalib (Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillaah (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah (Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama all donated large sums. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Hadhrat Abour Rahmaan bin Auf (Hadhrat Aasim bin Adi (Hadhrat Contributed ninety Wasaq of dates. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan (Hadhrat Contributed ninety Wasaq of dates. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan (Hadhrat Contributed ninety Wasaq of dates. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan (Hadhrat Contributed ninety Wasaq of dates. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan (Hadhrat Contributed ninety Wasaq of dates. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan (Hadhrat Contributed ninety Wasaq of dates. Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan date) (Hadhrat Uthmaan does after this can cause him any harm."

With great enthusiasm, the wealthy Sahabah spent in this good cause anticipating the rewards from Allaah. Those Sahabah who were less wealthy assisted those who were poorer than them. They would even bring their camels to one or two persons, asking them to ride in turns. Some people would even bring some money and give it to someone leaving on the expedition. In fact, even the ladies assisted those in every way they could. Hadhrat Ummu Sinaan Aslamiyya says that she saw a cloth spread out in front of Hadhrat Aa'isha in her room, which was filled with bangles, bracelets, anklets, earrings, rings and other jewellery that the women had sent to assist the Muslim army in its preparations. The Muslims were suffering poverty at that time and because it was a time when the fruit crops were ripe and shady areas were sought after. People therefore preferred to stay at home and disliked leaving.

Rasulullaah Amerikan hastened and intensified preparations and made the army camp at Thaniyyatul Wadaa (just outside Madinah). The army was so large that their names could not be contained in one register. Few were those who intended to absent themselves for they knew that their absence would be unknown only until Allaah reveals some revelation to Rasulullaah ((a time when they would suffer much embarrassment). When Rasulullaah was ready to leave, he appointed Hadhrat Sibaa bin Urfuta Ghifaari (as his deputy in Madinah. According to others, Rasulullaah appointed Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama 劉本德, Rasulullaah 德華 instructed the Sahabah 經濟德 saying, "Take many pairs of shoes along because as long as a person is wearing shoes, he is like one who is riding." As Rasulullaah es travelled, Ibn Ubay and other Munaafiqeen drew back saying, "Muhammad wants to fight the Romans despite his arduous condition coupled with the extreme heat and the long journey towards an army he has no power to combat. Does he think that fighting the Romans is child's play?" The Munaafigeen with Ibn Ubay expressed the same opinions. To make people panic about the safety of Rasulullaah was and the Sahabah (, he also added, "By Allaah! It is as if I can already see the companions of Muhammad tied up in ropes tomorrow."

When Rasulullaah left from Thaniyyatul Wadaa for Tabook, he had already flown the large and small flags. He handed over the biggest flag to Hadhrat Abu Bakr sie, another large flag to Hadhrat Zubayr sie, the flag of the Aws tribe to Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr sie and the flag of the Khazraj tribe to either Hadhrat Abu Dujaana sie or to Hadhrat Hubaab bin Mundhir sincluding ten thousand horsemen. Rasulullaah sie instructed every tribe of the Ansaar to carry its own large and small flags. The other Arab tribes also carried their large and small flags, (1)

Rasulullaah is Particular about Dispatching the Army of Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid ween on his Deathbed, after which Hadhrat Abu Bakr ween also ⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir (Vol. 1 Pg. 110).

Gives the Same Importance to the Matter When he Becomes the Khalifah

Rasulullaah Dispatches the Army of Hadhrat Usaama Which Included the Senior Sahabah and Rejects the Argument of those who Object to the Appointment of Hadhrat Usaama

Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid in arrates that Rasulullaah gave him instructions to attack the inhabitants of Ubna (in Palestine) at dawn and to raze their town to the ground. Rasulullaah then said to him, "Proceed in the name of Allaah." Hadhrat Usaama then left flying the flag (that Rasulullaah gave him) and handed it over to Hadhrat Burayda bin Husayb from the Banu Aslam tribe, who then carried it to the house of Hadhrat Usaama to the instruction of Rasulullaah from the army of Hadhrat Usaama camped at a place called Jurf, which is today called Siqaaya Sulaymaan (close to Madinah). The soldiers then started to leave. Whoever had fulfilled his necessities would leave for his camp and whoever did not, would engage in completing it.

Every one of the earliest Muhaajireen were part of this expedition including Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas (Hadhrat Abu A'war Sa'eed bin Zaid bin Amr bin Nufayl (Hadhrat Abu A'war Sa'eed bin Zaid bin Amr bin Nufayl (Hadhrat Abu A'war Sa'eed bin Zaid bin Amr bin Nufayl (Hadhrat Abu A'war Sa'eed bin Zaid bin Amr bin Nufayl (Hadhrat Qataadah bin Nu'maan (Hadhrat Salama bin Aslam bin Hareesh (Hadhrat Salama))

Many of the Muhaajireen, Hadhrat Ayaash bin Abi Rabee'ah being the most vociferous of them, remarked, "This youth has been appointed as Ameer of the earliest Muhaajireen!" This talk then became rife, When Hadhrat Umar heard some of the talk, he refuted what the speaker said and then reported it to Rasulullaah : Rasulullaah became extremely angry and although he had a bandage tied to his head (because of his illness) and was covered in a shawl, he left his room and ascended the pulpit. After praising Allaah, he said, "O people! What is this talk of yours that has reached me concerning the appointment of Usaama as Ameer? By Allaah! If you object to my appointing him as Ameer, you must have objected to my appointing his father (Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha before him. I swear by Allaah that just as he was fit for leadership, his son after him is also fit for it. Just as his father was the most beloved person to me, he is the most beloved to me. They are both the most suitable people for any good. Accept my bequest to treat Usaama well for he is amongst the best of you." Rasulullaah went to his room. This took place on Saturday 10th Rabee'ul Awwal.

 Usaama." (Hadhrat Usaama Wee's mother) Hadhrat Ummu Ayman came to Rasulullaah (O Rasulullaah (Do leave Usaama to stay at the camp (in Jurf) until you are well. If you send him like this, he will not be able to even help himself (because of his concern for you)." However, Rasulullaah repeated, "Dispatch the army of Usaama." The Muslims therefore returned to the camp and spent Saturday night there. On Sunday morning, Hadhrat Usaama came to Madinah (to see Rasulullaah). Rasulullaah was extremely ill and unconscious. This was the day in which Rasulullaah was given medicine.

With tears in his eyes, Hadhrat Usaama will entered the room of Rasulullaah where Hadhrat Abbaas 經濟節 and the wives of Rasulullaah 經濟 sat around him. Hadhrat Usaama William bent down to kiss Rasulullaah Rasulullaah was unable to speak and lifted his hands towards the sky and then placed them on Hadhrat Usaama 劉德德. Hadhrat Usaama 劉德德 says that he knew that Rasulullaah was making du'aa for him. Hadhrat Usaama then returned to the camp. On Monday, Rasulullaah was well and Hadhrat Usaama was came to meet him early in the morning. Rasulullaah said to him, "Travel with the blessing of Allaah." When Hadhrat Usaama wis bade farewell to Rasulullaah he was looking well. Rasulullaah 's wives were even combing each others' hair out of happiness at Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah With the grace of Allaah, you look well this morning. Today is my day with (my wife) Bint Khaarijah. Permit me to go to her." When Rasulullaah permitted him, he left for the Sunh district (in the upper part of Madinah).

In the meanwhile, Hadhrat Usaama (went to the army's camp and called for the others to join up with the army. When he reached the camp, he descended and commanded the men to leave. By then, the sun was already high.

Rasulullaah Passes Away and the Sahabah Return to Madinah

As Hadhrat Usaama was was preparing to leave from Jurf, a messenger came to him from Hadhrat Ummu Ayman who was his mother. The messenger informed him that Rasulullaah was in the throes of death. Hadhrat Usaama therefore returned to Madinah together with Hadhrat Umar was in the last few moments. Rasulullaah then passed away close to midday on Monday 12th Rabee'ul Awwal. All the Muslims camping at Jurf returned to Madinah. Hadhrat Buraydah bin Husayb was came with the flag of Hadhrat Usaama still flying and stuck it in the ground at the door of Rasulullaah room. After Hadhrat Abu Bakr became the Khalifah, he instructed Hadhrat Buraydah was to take the flag to the house of Hadhrat Usaama was and not to remove it from the staff until Hadhrat Usaama had led the Muslims in battle. Hadhrat Buraydah says, "I then took the flag to the house of Hadhrat Usaama for after which I took it flying to Shaam with Hadhrat Usaama for the house of Hadhrat Usaama where it stood flying until he passed away."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Insists on Dispatching the Army of Hadhrat Usaama in Compliance with the Orders of Rasulullaah

When the news of Rasulullaah 's demise reached the other Arabs, many of them renounced Islaam. Hadhrat Abu Bakr 短腳腳 then said to Usaama 空腳腳。 "Proceed whence Rasulullaah had commanded you to go." Consequently, the army started to march and camped where they were previously camped. Hadhrat Buraydah was also took the flag to the previous camp. This (decision to dispatch the army) did not appeal to the senior Sahabah المنافقة. Consequently, Hadhrat Umar 经减少的,Hadhrat Uthmaan 经减少的,Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah 经减少的。 Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waggaas 经通過 and Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid 经通過 approached Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉陽德. They said, "O successor of Rasulullaah 學學! Everywhere the Arabs are rebelling against you and you will not be able to do anything by separating this large army from yourself. Rather use them to combat the Murtaddeen (those who have forsaken Islaam). Another concern we have is that we fear that Madinah may be attacked while there are only women and children here. Why do you not postpone the dispatching of this army against the Romans until stability returns and the Murtaddeen have either returned to the Deen they have left or are destroyed by the sword. You are then at liberty to dispatch Usaama . We are confident that the Romans will not be marching against us yet."

After listening to everything they had to say, Hadhrat Abu Bakr asked, "Does anyone have anything else to add?" They replied, "No. you have heard everything we have to say." Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! I shall dispatch this army even if I knew that wild animals would eat me in Madinah (without them here to defend me). This has to be the first task I shall undertake (as Khalifah). How can I not do it when revelation had been descending on Rasulullaah from the heavens as he kept saying, 'Dispatch the army of Usaama.' Of course, there is one thing that I need to speak to Usaama about. It is that Umar stays behind with us (in Madinah) because we cannot do without him. By Allaah! I have no idea whether Usaama will do so or not. I swear by Allaah that if he refuses I shall not compel him to concede." The Sahabah that if he refuses I shall not compel him to concede." The Sahabah that Usaama Hadhrat Abu Bakr with then went to see Hadhrat Usaama with at his house and spoke to him about leaving Hadhrat Umar with behind. When Hadhrat Usaama was agreed, Hadhrat Abu Bakr with said to him, "Are you giving permission with a happy heart?" "I certainly am," replied Hadhrat Usaama (Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Hen left the house and instructed someone to announce, "I strongly emphasise that no one who had marched with Usaama during the lifetime of Rasulullaah (Hadhrat Should remain behind. If anyone is brought to me who had stayed behind, I shall make him join the army on foot." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Hadhrat Usaama (Hadhrat Usaama

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then left to see Hadhrat Usaama and the Muslims off. When they left from Jurf, they numbered three thousand men and had a thousand horses. As they rode off, Hadhrat Abu Bakr walked by the side of Hadhrat Usaama for a while and said to him, "I entrust to Allaah your Deen, your belongings and the result of your actions. Rasulullaah has already briefed you, so fulfil the instructions of Rasulullaah. I shall neither command nor prevent you from proceeding for I am merely executing the instruction that Rasulullaah. issued."

Hadhrat Usaama set off speedily and passed through peaceful areas where the people had not forsaken Islaam, such as the areas of the Juhayna clan and other tribes belonging to the Qudaa'ah tribe. When he reached Waadi Qura, Hadhrat Usaama sent a spy ahead from the Banu Udhra tribe, whose name was Hurayth. Taking to his mount, he rode ahead of Hadhrat Usaama until he reached Ubna (their intended destination). He surveyed the area and searched for the best route (for the army to take). He then returned quickly and rejoined Hadhrat Usaama at a place that lay a distance of two nights journey from Ubna. He informed Hadhrat Usaama that the people were oblivious of the (Muslim) army and had not even mustered their own army. Hadhrat Usaama then ordered the Muslim army to move speedily and attack the enemy unawares before they had a chance to muster their forces. (1)

Hadhrat Usaama Seeks Permission to Return to Madinah but Hadhrat Abu Bakr Refuses Permission

Rasulullaah formed an army comprising of the people of Madinah and surrounding areas. Included in this army was Hadhrat Umar Rasulullaah appointed Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid as the Ameer of this army. The last man of the army had not yet passed by the trench when Rasulullaah passed away. Hadhrat Usaama halted the army and said to Hadhrat Umar Request the Khalifah of Rasulullaah to permit me to return the army to Madinah for I have with me the noblest and leading ⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir (Vol.1 Pg.130). The narration also appears in Mukhtasar Ibn Asaakir. Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.312) has reported the narration from Ibn Asaakir using another chain of narrators. Reference is also made to this narration in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.8 Pg.107).

Sahabah And I fear that the Mushrikeen may attack the Khalifah and the families of Rasulullaah and the Muslims." Some of the Ansaar said to Hadhrat Umar that if Hadhrat Abu Bakr is determined to dispatch the army, he should convey the message from them that an Ameer who is older than Hadhrat Usaama should be appointed.

Upon the instruction of Hadhrat Usaama and informed him about what Hadhrat Usaama and informed him about what Hadhrat Usaama and had said. Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "I would not reverse a decision that Rasulullaah made even if wild dogs and wolves were to snatch away my body." Hadhrat Umar then said, "The Ansaar have requested me to convey the message that they want you to appoint an Ameer over them who is elder than Usaama." Hadhrat Abu Bakr had been sitting, but (when he heard this, he) sprang up and grabbed hold of the beard of Hadhrat Umar he then said, "May your mother lose you, O son of Khattaab! You are asking me to relieve him of a post to which Rasulullaah appointed him?!" When Hadhrat Umar returned and the people asked him what had happened, he said, "March on. May your mothers lose you because of what I have suffered today at the hands of the Khalifah of Rasulullaah on your account."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sees the Army of Hadhrat Usaama Good Off

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then proceeded to see the army off and to give them encouragement. Hadhrat Abu Bakr walked as Hadhrat Usaama worde while Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf led Hadhrat Abu Bakr is animal. Hadhrat Usaama said, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah it Either you ride or I dismount." Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "By Allaah! You should not dismount. By Allaah! I shall not ride, What harm is there if I make my feet dusty for a while in the path of Allaah? In fact, every step taken by the person leaving in Jihaad earns the reward of seven hundred good deeds, has his ranks raised by seven hundred stages and erases seven hundred sins from his account."

When he was about to leave, Hadhrat Abu Bakr asked, "If you feel that you could help me by leaving Umar bin Khattaab with me, could you please do so." Hadhrat Usaama granted permission. (1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Rejects the Request of the Muhaajireen and Ansaar to hold back the Army of Hadhrat Usaama

Hadhrat Urwa sings narrates that after the Sahabah sings had pledged their allegiance (to Hadhrat Abu Bakr sings) and were satisfied, Hadhrat Abu Bakr sings said to Hadhrat Usaama sings, "Proceed whence Rasulullaah had commanded you." Several individuals from the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar discussed the matter with Hadhrat Abu Bakr William. They said to him, "Hold back Usaama and his army because we fear that the other Arabs may attack us when they hear about the demise of Rasulullaah "Being more resolute (and knowledgeable) about the situation, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) said, "How can I hold back an army that Rasulullaah had dispatched? I would then be doing something very bold! I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I would prefer having all the Arabs attack me rather than restraining an army that Rasulullaah & had dispatched! O Usaama! Proceed with your army whence Rasulullaah had commanded you and fight in the area of Palestine where Rasulullaah had commanded. Fight the people of Mu'ta for Allaah shall be sufficient for those whom you are leaving behind (in Madinah). However, if you would, could you please permit Umar with to remain behind. I need his counsel and his assistance for he has excellent opinions and is a great well-wisher to the cause of Islaam. Hadhrat Usaama @ permitted Hadhrat Umar to remain behind.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as it appears in Mukhtasar Ibn Asaakir (Vol.1 Pg.117), Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.314) and Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.6 Pg.305).

Most of the Arab tribes had by then renounced Islaam. They included most of the tribes in the east as well as the Ghitfaan tribe, the Banu Asad tribe and most of the Ash'ja tribe. The Banu Tay tribe though held on to their Deen. For this reason, most of the Sahabah were of the opinion that the army of Hadhrat Usaama 劉璋夢 should be held back and rather used against the Ghitfaan and other tribes who had renounced Islaam. Refusing to withhold the army of Hadhrat Usaama 经联合的,Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经联合的 said,"You know well that from the period of Rasulullaah it had been our practice to consult with each other concerning matters about which no practice of Rasulullaah was found and about which no verse of the Qur'aan was revealed. You have expressed your opinions and I shall now express mine. If it is correct, you should practise accordingly for Allaah shall never make you all unite on anything that is misguided. I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I do not see anything better than fighting those who refuse to give me even a piece of rope that Rasulullaah we used to take from them (as zakaah)." The Muslims approved of the opinion of Hadhrat Abu Bakr was and agreed that it was better than theirs.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then dispatched Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid in the direction that Rasulullaah had commanded. Hadhrat Usaama reaped a large booty in the battle and Allaah returned him and his army safely. When Hadhrat Usaama had left, Hadhrat Abu Bakr took an army of Muhaajireen and Ansaar (to fight the Murtaddeen) but (when they heard of his army approaching) the Bedouins fled with their families. When the Muslims received intelligence about the Bedouins fleeing with families, they said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr freeing, "Return to Madinah to our families and women and appoint an Ameer (in your place) from amongst your companions, handing over your command to him." They kept insisting until Hadhrat Abu Bakr eventually decided to return. He appointed Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed sas commander of the army with instructions that any of them was at liberty to return to Madinah as soon as the Murtaddeen returned to Islaam and paid their zakaah. Hadhrat Abu Bakr sas then returned to Madinah. (1)

Hadhrat Urwa harrates that when the pledge of allegiance was taken on the hand of Hadhrat Abu Bakr have, the Ansaar became united in the matter of Khilaafah about which they had differed. Hadhrat Abu Bakr his dispatched the army of Hadhrat Usaama have and many Arab tribes renounced Islaam. While in some cases, complete tribes renounced Islaam, it was only individuals in other tribes who renounced Islaam. Hypocrisy started to surface and Judaism and Christianity began raising their heads. Because they had just lost their Nabi and because they were so few compared to the horsed enemy, the Muslims appeared to be like wet sheep on a cold night.

It was then that people said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (These men (forming the army of Hadhrat Usaama (These)) are the most distinguished of the Muslims and as you see, the Arabs are refusing to follow you. It is therefore not the appropriate time to split up the ranks of the Muslims (by dispatching the army). Hadhrat Abu Bakr (These responded by saying, "I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Abu Bakr! I shall ensure that the army of Usaama is sent according to the instruction of Rasulullaah (These even though I know that wild animals will (attack me as I remain all alone in Madinah and) steal away my body. I shall dispatch the army even though there is none left in any of the towns besides myself." (2)

Hadhrat Aa'isha says, "After Rasulullaah passed away, all the Arab tribes renounced Islaam and hypocrisy reared its ugly head. By Allaah! Such conditions faced my father (Hadhrat Abu Bakr passed) that would crush a mighty mountain. The Sahabah for of Rasulullaah appeared to be wet sheep on a rainy night in a forest infested with wild animals. By Allaah! Whenever the Sahabah disputed any matter, my father would eliminate its harm, take control of the reins and pass decisive judgement." (3)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra says, "I swear by the Being besides Whom none other is worthy of worship that none would have been worshipping Allaah had Abu Bakr says not been appointed as Khalifah." He then repeated this a second and a third time. When someone bade him to stop repeating himself, Hadhrat Abu Hurayra sadded, "Rasulullaah dispatched an army of seven hundred under the command of Usaama bin Zaid says. However, when they had just reached Dhi Khushub when Rasulullaah passed away and the Arab tribes around Madinah renounced Islaam. It was then that the Sahabah for Rasulullaah came to Hadhrat Abu Bakr sand said, 'O Abu Bakr Recall the army. How can they be heading to Rome when the Arabs

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as it appears in Mukhtasar Ibn Asaakir (Vol.1 Pg.118), Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.314).

⁽²⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.6 Pg.304).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.50).

⁽⁴⁾ These seven hundred belonged to the Quraysh while the entire army numbered three thousand.

around Madinah are renouncing Islaam?! Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, 'I swear by the Being besides Whom there is none worthy of worship! Even though wild dogs should drag the legs of the wives of Rasulullaah (because there is none in Madinah to defend them), I shall never recall an army that Rasulullaah had dispatched nor untie a flag that Rasulullaah had tied."

Hadhrat Usaama (with the army) and whenever they passed by a tribe that was contemplating renouncing Islaam, the people of the tribe would say, "If the Muslims are not still powerful, an army like this would never have left them. We shall presently leave them until they meet the Roman army (then we shall see their strength)." When the Muslim army engaged the Romans in combat, they defeated the Romans and returned safe and sound. Those who were intending to renounce Islaam therefore remained as Muslims. (1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Addresses Hadhrat Umar Before he Passes Away

Hadhrat Sayf narrates that after Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed & had left for Shaam, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Sillie) fell ill. It was as a result of this illness that he passed away a few months later. Hadhrat Abu Bakr was close to death and had already appointed Hadhrat Umar (1966) as the next Khalifah when Hadhrat Muthanna 過過過多 arrived (from Shaam) and informed Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉陽爾 about events there. Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉陽爾 sent for Hadhrat Umar 细胞的 and when he arrived, Hadhrat Abu Bakr 短脚的 said, "O Umar! Listen carefully to what I say and then carry it out. I expect that I shall die today (it was a Monday). If I die now, you should prepare people to leave with Muthanna (for Shaam) before the evening and if I die later, you should prepare people to leave with Muthanna before dawn. Regardless of the magnitude of any hurdle, never let it prevent you from the matters of Deen and the commands of your Rabb. You have seen how I acted when Rasulullaah passed away although it was a time when the creation was afflicted with a calamity like no other. By Allaah! Had I postponed the command of Allaah and His Rasool Allaah's would not have assisted us and would have punished us instead. The whole of Madinah would then have been engulfed in flames." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Siew) Ensures that Jihaad is Waged Against the Murtaddeen and Those Who Refused to Pay Zakaah

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Consults with the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar about Waging Jihaad and Delivers a Sermon in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Massim narrates that when Rasulullaah passed away, hypocrisy reared its ugly head in Madinah. At the same time, many Arab tribes left the fold of Islaam while the non-Arab nations began issuing threats. They posed a danger (to Muslim security) and gathered at Nahaawind, where Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.6 Pg.305) and Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Mukhtasar (Vol.1 Pg.124). Allaama Ibn Katheer has commented on the chain of narrators.

 Ibn Jareer (Vol.4 Pg.43).

they made statements to the effect that the person who had been a cause for the domination of the Arabs had passed away.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr assembled the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar and said to them, "The Arabs refuse to pay (the zakaah) for their goats and camels and have turned away from their Deen. On the other front, the non-Arabs have gathered at Nahaawind to fight you from a united platform, smugly thinking that the person who had been the cause for your domination has passed away. Do give me your opinions, for I am merely a man from amongst you who is most heavily burdened with this load."

After they had their heads bowed for long while, it was Hadhrat Umar who spoke first. He submitted, "O successor of Rasulullaah !! By Allaah! I am of the opinion that you content yourself with accepting only salaah from them and waive the zakaah because they have only recently accepted Islaam after the Period of Ignorance and Islaam has not yet prepared them fully. Perhaps Allaah shall take them back towards good or if Allaah grants further strength to Islaam (and they still refuse to yield), we shall be able to wage war against them. The Muhaajireen and Ansaar who are left do not have the might to take on the Arabs and the non-Arabs all at once." When Hadhrat Abu Bakr turned to Hadhrat Uthmaan who is offered a similar opinion. Thereafter, Hadhrat Ali and the rest of the Muhaajireen echoed the same view. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr turned to the Ansaar, they also agreed.

When Hadhrat Abu Bakr realised that they all felt the same way, he mounted the pulpit and after praising Allaah, he said, "When Allaah sent Muhammad, the truth was undermined and without support. Islaam was a stranger and an outcast, hanging only by a thread. Although its adherents were few, Allaah assembled them through Muhammad, and formed them into the best of nations destined to survive. I swear by Allaah that I shall remain devoted to the laws of Allaah and continue fighting in Jihaad until Allaah fulfils His promise to us. Those of us who are killed shall be martyrs bound for Jannah while those who survive shall remain as Allaah's deputies on His earth and successors of His bondsmen. Allaah has spoken the truth and there can be no going back on His word. Allaah has declared:

﴿ وَعَدَ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ امَنُوا مِنْكُمْ وَعَمِلُوا الصَّلِحْتِ لَيَسْتَخْلِفَنَّهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ كَمَّا اسْتَخْلَفَ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ صَ وَلَيُمَكِّنَنَّ لَهُمْ دِيْنَهُمُ الَّذِي ارْتَضَى لَهُمْ وَلَيْبَدِّلَنَّهُمْ مِنْ بَعْدِ خَوْفِهِمْ امّنًا * يَعْبُدُونَنِيْ لَا يُشْرِكُونَ بِي شَيْئًا * وَمَنْ كَفَرَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَلِكَ هُمُ الْفُلِيقُونَ ۞ (سورة النور: ٥٠)

Allaah has promised those of you who have Imaan and who do good actions that He will definitely make them successors (of the rulers) on earth just as He had made those before them successors. {Surah Noor, verse 55}

I swear by Allaah that if they (the Arabs refusing to pay zakaah) refuse to pay me even a string which they used to pay to Rasulullaah (as zakaah) and then confront me together with the trees, the rocks, all of Jinn and all of mankind, I shall fight them until my soul meets with Allaah! Allaah has never separated salaah and zakaah and then combined them again (how is it then possible for me to acknowledge their salaah and ignore zakaah?)."

had fixed the resolve in the heart of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉節節 to wage Jihaad against those who refused to pay zakaah. I also realised that this was right." (1) Hadhrat Saalih bin Kaysaan المجالة narrates that when people started leaving the fold of Islaam (after the demise of Rasulullaah (Hadhrat Abu Bakr stood up to address the Muslims, After extolling the praises of Allaah, he added, "All praises are due to Allaah who guides and suffices (whose guidance is sufficient) and Who gives and (gives so much that He) makes (others) independent (of the creation). When Allaah sent Muhammad , he was treated as a fugitive while true Deen was treated as a stranger and an outcast. It hung by a thread and was already around for a very long time. (As a result) Its adherents had gone astray and Allaah was displeased with the Ahlul Kitaab. He gave them no good because of any good in them nor did He avert evil from them because of evil predominant in them. They had distorted their scriptures and introduced in it things that did not belong there. On the other hand, the illiterate Arabs had no relationship with Allaah. Neither did they worship Him nor were they praying to Him. They lived the hardest lives, their religion was most deviated and they lived in a most inhospitable land. Although Rasulullaah is had only a few companions, Allaah assembled them around him through his blessings and formed them into the best of nations. Allaah assisted them by those who followed them and made them dominate others until Allaah finally took His Nabi away. Shaytaan then climbed back on to the Arabs to assume the position he had been enjoying formally when Allaah removed him from there. He has now taken them by the hand and intends destroying them." Hadhrat Abu Bakr then recited the following verse of the Qur'aan:

﴿ وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ * قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ الرُّسُلُ * آفَاْبِنْ مَّاتَ آوْ قُتِلَ انْقَلَبْتُمْ عَلَى أَعْقَابِكُمْ * وَمَنْ يَنْقَلِبْ عَلَى عَقِبَيْهِ فَلَنْ يَّضُرَّ اللّٰهُ شَيْنًا * وَسَيَجْزِى اللّٰهُ الشَّكِرِيْنَ ﴾ أعقابِكُمْ * وَمَنْ يَنْقَلِبْ عَلَى عَقِبَيْهِ فَلَنْ يَّضُرَّ اللّٰهُ شَيْنًا * وَسَيَجْزِى اللّٰهُ الشَّكِرِيْنَ ﴾ (سورة ال عمران ١٤٤)

Muhammad is but a Rasool (of Allaah). Indeed many Rusul have passed before him. If he passes away or is martyred, would you (Muslims) then turn back on your heels (and forsake Islaam)? He who turns back on his heels can never harm Allaah in the least (because he will be harming only himself). Allaah shall soon reward the grateful ones (so be firm and strive for His Deen). {Surah Aal Imraan, verse 144}

The Arabs around you are refusing to pay (the zakaah due) for their goats and camels. Although they have only now reverted to their former religions, their inclination to do so was never more than it is today. On the other hand, your resolve in the Deen is no stronger today than it had been the day you lost the blessing of your Nabi Rasulullaah had handed you over into the custody of the very first Being Who had always been sufficient for you; the very Being Who had found Rasulullaah without a Shari'ah and then granted him one and Who had found him without wealth and then made him wealthy. It was He Who saved you people when you were on the crumbling edge of a precipice over the fire (of Jahannam). I swear by Allaah that I shall never shirk fighting for a single command of Allaah until Allaah fulfils His promise to us. Those of us who are killed shall be martyrs bound for Jannah while those who survive shall remain as Allaah's deputies and successors on His earth. Allaah has spoken the truth and there can be no going back on His word when He declares:

⁽¹⁾ Khateeb, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.142).

﴿ وَعَدَ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ امْنُوا مِنْكُمْ وَعَمِلُوا الصَّلِحْتِ لَيَسْتَخْلِفَنَّهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ كَمَا اسْتَخْلَفَ اللَّهِ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ صَ وَلَيُمَكِّنَنَّ لَهُمْ دِيْنَهُمُ الَّذِي ارْتَطَى لَهُمُ وَلَيُبَدِّلَنَّهُمْ اسْتَخْلَفَ النَّذِي ارْتَطَى لَهُمُ وَلَيُبَدِّلَنَّهُمْ مِنْ اللَّهُمُ اللَّهِمُ اللَّهُمُ اللَّهُمُ اللَّهُمُ اللَّهُمُ اللَّهُمُ اللَّهُمُ اللَّهُمُ اللَّهُ الللَّهُ اللَّهُ الللَّهُ اللَّهُ الللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ الللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّ

Allaah has promised those of you who have Imaan and who do good actions that He will definitely make them successors (of the rulers) on earth just as He had made those before them successors. {Surah Noor, verse 55}"

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then stepped down from the pulpit, (1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Censures Those who were Hesitant and who wanted to Delay Jihaad

Hadhrat Umar Main narrates that when the Arab tribes forsook Islaam, the Muhaajireen together with himself arrived at a common conclusion. They said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr Main, "O successor of Rasulullaah Leave the people to continue performing salaah without paying zakaah because they will soon accept the obligation of zakaah once true Imaan enters their hearts." Hadhrat Abu Bakr responded by saying, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! I prefer falling headlong from the sky rather than neglecting to fight for something that Rasulullaah fought for."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then fought (those who refused to pay zakaah) until they all returned to the fold of Islaam. Hadhrat Umar says, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life that that single day (of Hadhrat Abu Bakr says) is better than (the life's deeds of) the family of Umar." (2)

Hadhrat Umar when Rasulullaah passed away, many

Ibn Asaakir. Ibn Katheer has commented on the chain of narrators, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.142). A similar narration appears in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.6 Pg.311).
 Adani, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.141).

Arab tribes left the fold of Islaam when they said that they would perform salaah without paying zakaah. He narrates further that he then approached Hadhrat Abu Bakr and said, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah Be sympathetic towards the people and show mercy towards them for they are like wild animals." Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Whereas I was hopeful of your help, you have come to inform me that you will not render any assistance. While you had been powerful during the Period of Ignorance, have you become weak in Islaam? Why should I sympathise with them using composed verse or concocted magic? Farfetched! Farfetched! Rasulullaah has passed away and revelation has stopped. I swear by Allaah that I shall fight them as long as my hand can hold a sword and (if) they refuse to pay even a string (that is due from them as zakaah)."

Hadhrat Umar says, "I found Hadhrat Abu Bakr to be more competent and resolute than myself. He trained the people in many matters which made many of my tasks easy when I was appointed as Khalifah." (1)

Hadhrat Dabba bin Mihsin Anzi narrates that he once asked Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab ("Are you better than Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("Hadhrat Umar began to weep and said, "A single night of Hadhrat Abu Bakr will and a single day of his is better than (the life's deeds of) Umar and the entire family of Umar. Should I not inform you of that night and that day of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 细胞。" When Hadhrat Dabba asked to be informed, Hadhrat Umar 细胞 said, "The night was the night when Rasulullaah left the people of Makkah. He left at night and Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Sillowed him." He then proceeded to narrate the incident as reported in the Chapter Concerning Hijrah (2). Hadhrat Umar then continued, "The day of his was when Rasulullaah had passed away and many Arab tribes forsook Islaam. While some of them said that they would perform salaah without paying zakaah, others said that they would neither perform salaah nor pay zakaah. I then approached him with the sincere intention of offering good counsel. I said to him, 'O Khalifah of Rasulullaah Be compassionate towards the people..." The rest of the Hadith is similar to the one quoted above. (3)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra narrates that after Rasulullaah had passed away and Hadhrat Abu Bakr succeeded him, many Arab tribes forsook Islaam. It was then that Hadhrat Umar approached Hadhrat Abu Bakr and said, "O Abu Bakr! How can we fight these people when Rasulullaah said, 'I have been commanded to fight people until they declare 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'. When someone declares 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah', his property and life is safe from me except by the right of Allaah (a warrant by which his property or life may be taken as a penalty). Thereafter, Allaah shall reckon with him."

⁽¹⁾ Ismaa'ili, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.300).

⁽²⁾ Under the heading "The Hijrah of Rasulullaah 認識 and Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉國語 Fears for Rasulullaah 認識 when they Leave the Cave and Hadhrat Umar 劉國語 Praises Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉國語".

⁽³⁾ Dinowri in his Majaalasah, Abul Hasan bin Bishraan in his Fawaa'id, Bayhaqi in his Dalaa'il and La'lakaai in his Sunnah, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.348).

Hadhrat Abu Bakr responded by saying, "I swear by Allaah that I shall definitely fight anyone who differentiates between salaah and zakaah for zakaah is a right of wealth (just as salaah is a right due from the body). By Allaah! If they refuse to pay to me (as a part of zakaah) a string that they were paying to Rasulullaah is, I shall certainly fight them for it!" Hadhrat Umar says, "I swear by Allaah that Hadhrat Abu Bakr said this because he had assurance from Allaah that he ought to wage Jihaad. I was therefore convinced that this was the right thing to do." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Ensures that Armies are Dispatched in the Path of Allaah. He Encourages the Muslims to March in Jihaad and Consults with the Sahabah

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Encourages the Muslims to Fight in Jihaad in his Sermon

In a narration reported by Hadhrat Qaasim bin Mahmood (it is mentioned that Hadhrat Abu Bakr once stood up to deliver a sermon. After praising Allaah and sending salutations to Rasulullaah he said, "Everything has principles which shall meet the requirements of the one who adheres to them. Whoever does something solely for Allaah, Allaah shall see to his needs. You should ensure that you work hard and exercise moderation, for it is moderation that will take you to your destination. Listen attentively! There is no Deen in one who has no Imaan, there is no reward for the one who does not expect any and no deed for one who has no Niyyah (intention). Listen carefully! There are such rewards promised in the Book of Allaah for those engaged in Jihaad in the path of Allaah that it is only appropriate for a Muslim to wish that they are reserved for him. This is the trade that Allaah has pointed towards⁽²⁾, which shall provide deliverance from humiliation and secure honour in both worlds." (3)

The Letter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1966) to Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (1966) and Other Sahabah (1966) with him Concerning Jihaad in the Path of Allaah

Hadhrat Ibn Is'haaq bin Yasaar narrates from Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed that they were still on the battlefield of Yamaamah after the battle when Hadhrat Abu Bakr wrote a letter to Hadhrat Khaalid www. The letter read:

From Abdullaah, Abu Bakr the Khalifah of Rasulullaah

Bukhari, Muslim, Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi, Nasa'ee, Ibn Hibbaan and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.301).

⁽²⁾ See Surah Saff (Surah 61), verse 10.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir (Vol.1 Pg.133), as quoted in Mukhtasar. Similar narrations are quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.207) and by Ibn Jareer Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.30).

all those who follow them in good faith

Peace be on you all

Before you all, I praise Allaah besides Whom there is none worthy of worship.

All praises belong to Allaah Who has fulfilled His promise, assisted His servant, granted honour to His friends, disgraced His enemies and defeated the coalition of forces by Himself. The very Allaah besides Whom there is no deity has declared:

﴿ وَعَدَ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ امَنُوا مِنْكُمْ وَعَمِلُوا الصَّلِحْتِ لَيَسْتَخْلِفَنَّهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ كَمَا اسْتَخْلَفَ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ صَ وَلَيُمَكِّنَنَّ لَهُمْ دِيْنَهُمُ الَّذِي ارْتَضَى لَهُمْ وَلَيُبَدِّلَنَّهُمْ مَنْ اللّٰهِ عَرْفَهِمْ النَّذِي ارْتَضَى لَهُمْ وَلَيُبَدِّلَنَّهُمْ مِنْ اللّٰهِ عَرْفِهِمُ امْنًا * يَعْبُدُونَنِيْ لَا يُشْرِكُونَ بِيْ شَيْئًا * وَمَنْ كَفَرَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَلْكَ مُمُ الْطَيفُونَ ۞ ﴾ هُمُ الْطَيفُونَ ۞ ﴾

Allaah has promised those of you who have Imaan and who do good actions that He will definitely make them successors (of the rulers) on earth just as He had made those before them successors. And He will certainly grant (great) strength to the Deen that He has chosen for them and will certainly replace their fear with peace (on condition that) they worship Me and do not ascribe any as partner to Myself. Those who are ungrateful after this are sinful indeed. (1)

This is a promise from Allaah which cannot be left unfulfilled and statement that cannot be doubted. Allaah has made Jihaad obligatory on the Mu'mineen. He declares:

Warfare (Jihaad for the pleasure of Allaah against the enemies of Islaam) has been made obligatory for you (when necessary) though you may dislike it (because of the hardship involved). It may be that you dislike something that is good for you and you may like something that is bad for you. Allaah knows (what is good for you) and you do not know. (2)

You should therefore adopt those avenues by which the promises of Allaah to you will be fulfilled and continue obeying Him in everything He has made obligatory on you even though the effort may seem tremendous, the hardship may be intense, the journey may be distant and you may suffer loss to your wealth or health. All of this fades into insignificance before the great rewards of Allaah. So fight in the way of Allaah, may Allaah have mercy on you.

⁽I) Surah Noor, verse 55.

⁽²⁾ Surah Bagara, verse 216.

﴿ إِنْفِرُواْ حِفَافًا وَيْقَالًا وَجَامِدُواْ بِآمُوالِكُمْ وَٱنْفُسِكُمْ فِي سَبِيْلِ اللَّهِ * ﴾

Proceed (in the path of Allaah) when light or heavy (happily or reluctantly, rich or poor, in good conditions and adverse conditions), and exert yourselves (for the welfare of the Deen) with your wealth and lives in Allaah's way (for Allaah's pleasure). (1)

I have commanded Khaalid bin Waleed to march to Iraq and to remain there until I issue further instructions. You should all proceed with him without hesitation because this is a path in which Allaah has multiplied the rewards for those whose intentions are good and who are enthusiastic about good things. When you reach Iraq, stay here until my instructions reach you. May Allaah take care of mine and your every concern of this world and the Aakhirah.

Peace be on you together with the mercy and blessings of Allaah. (2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Consults with the Senior Sahabah Concerning a Military Offensive Against the Romans and Delivers a Speech in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abi Awfa harrates that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr intended launching a military offensive against the Romans, he first called for Hadhrat Ali hadhrat Umar hadhrat Uthmaan hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abi Abi Badr and those who did not. Amongst them was Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abi Awfa hadhrat Sa'eed bin Rahmaar. He called both those who participated in the Battle of Badr and those who did not. Amongst them was Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abi Awfa hadhrat Sa'eed them saying, "Verily the bounties of Allaah on His servants cannot be counted and all our deeds can never compensate for these. All praises belong to Allaah who has united you, reconciled you, guided you to Islaam and distanced Shaytaan from you. Shaytaan now has no hope of you committing Shirk or of you taking a deity other than Allaah. The Arabs are the children of a single father and mother."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr continued, "I have decided that the Muslims should march in Jihaad against the Romans in Shaam so that Allaah may strengthen the Muslims and elevate the Kalimah. Together with this, the Muslims shall have a tremendous share because whoever is killed shall die as a martyr and the rewards with Allaah are best for the righteous. On the other hand, whoever survives shall survive to defend the Deen and will be deserving of the great rewards due to those who wage Jihaad. This is merely my opinion. Any one of you is at liberty to advise me."

⁽¹⁾ Surah Taubah, verse 41.

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi in his Sunan (Vol.9 Pg. 179).

The Speech of Hadhrat Umar in Support of the Opinion of Hadhrat Abu Bakr to March in Jihaad

Hadhrat Umar (here then stood up and said, "All praises are due to Allaah Who blesses those of His servants with good Whom He pleases. By Allaah! Whenever we competed for good, you always beat us to it. This is the bounty of Allaah Whom Allaah grants to whoever He wills. Allaah is the One Who possesses the greatest bounties. As a matter of fact, I had intended to approach you concerning the very matter you have raised. However, it was destined that you should be the first to mention it. Your opinion is most accurate. May Allaah always guide you to what is correct. Dispatch troops of cavalry one after the other and troops of infantry one after the other. Armies should march in succession and Allaah shall assist His Deen and grant honour and strength to Islaam and the Muslims."

The Opinion of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf

Thereafter, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Stood up and said, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah They are Romans and the progeny of Romans. They are extremely powerful and as solid as a pillar. I do not think that you should launch a full frontal attack but you should rather dispatch cavalry battalions to start skirmishes along their borders and then return to you. When this is done several times, the Romans will suffer many losses and our battalions will capture many outlying areas. By then the Romans will also have grown weary. Thereafter, you should send a message to the various areas of Yemen and to the furthest members of the Rabee'ah and Mudhar tribes so that they may all gather around you. You may then lead an attack by yourself or appoint another leader (while you attend to affairs from Madinah)." After this address, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Fremained silent, as did the others present.

Hadhrat Uthmaan Supports the Opinion of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Mass and the other Sahabah Echo the Same Opinion

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then asked the others what their opinions were. A response came from Hadhrat Uthmaan who said, "(O Khalifah of Rasulullaah) I believe that you are truly a well-wisher of everyone who follows this Deen and are concerned about them. Therefore, whenever you have an opinion that you think is in the best interests of the masses, do feel free to carry it out for you can never be slandered for it."

In response to this, Hadhrat Talha, Zubayr, Sa'd, Abu Ubaydah, Sa'eed bin Zaid and all the other Muhaajireen and Ansaar present there said, "Uthmaan has spoken the truth. Do feel free to carry out what you feel for we shall never oppose you or slander you." With this, they made other similar statements as well. Although Hadhrat Ali was also present, he remained silent all the while.

Hadhrat Ali Gives Glad Tidings to Hadhrat Abu Bakr Gives, Who is Pleased by this and then Delivers a Lecture to Motivate the Sahabah to March in Jihaad

(Addressing Hadhrat Ali (Addressing Hadhrat Abu Bakr (What is your opinion, O Abul Hasan?" Hadhrat Ali (Addressing Said, "I feel that whether you march against them yourself or whether you send others against them, you will have Allaah's assistance, Inshaa Allaah." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (May Allaah always give you good news! How do you know this?" Hadhrat Ali (May Allaah always dominate those who oppose it until the Deen and its adherents are victorious." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Subhaanallaah! What a beautiful Hadith! You have made me very happy with this. May Allaah always keep you happy."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then stood up to address the people. After duly praising Allaah and sending salutations to Rasulullaah he he he said, "O people! Allaah has certainly blessed you with Islaam and honoured you with the institution of Jihaad. Through this Deen Allaah has elevated your status over the people of other religions. Therefore, O servants of Allaah, prepare to fight the Romans in Shaam. I shall appoint commanders over you and make flags for you. Obey your Rabb, do not disobey your commanders and make good your intentions and your provisions for food and drink for Allaah is with those who have Taqwa and who do things well."

An Exchange of Words between Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Amr bin Sa'eed Advises his Brother to Assist Hadhrat Abu Bakr

(After listening to the address of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (After listening to the address of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (After listening any response. Hadhrat Umar (After listening) then said, "O assembly of Muslims! What is the matter with you that you do not respond to the Khalifah of Rasulullaah (After listening) when he is calling you towards that which will give life to you?" Had the gains been near at hand and the journey an easy one, you would have certainly jumped to it (1)."

In response to this, Hadhrat Amr bin Sa'eed stood up and retorted, "O son of Khattaab! Are you comparing us to the example of the Munaafiqeen? What prevented you from taking the initiative to do that which you accused us of not doing?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "Hadhrat Abu Bakr knows well that I will surely respond if he calls me and fight if he asks me to." Hadhrat Amr bin

⁽¹⁾ Here Hadhrat Umar was referring to a statement in verse 42 of Surah Taubah.

Sa'eed rejoined, "If we fight, it will not be for you because we fight only for Allaah." Hadhrat Umar then said, "May Allaah guide you! You have spoken well."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Please be seated. May Allaah shower His mercy on you. In saying what you heard him say, Umar did not intend to hurt or to insult any Muslim. All he intended by what he said was to encourage those who were hesitant to fight in Jihaad."

Thereafter, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed (the brother of Hadhrat Amr bin Sa'eed (the brother of Hadhrat Amr bin Sa'eed (the brother) stood up and said, "The Khalifah of Rasulullaah is is right. Do be seated, dear brother." When Hadhrat Amr bin Sa'eed (the brother) sat down, Hadhrat Khaalid (the continued, "All praises belong to Allaah besides Whom none is worthy of worship. Who has sent Muhammad (the with guidance and the true Deen to make it dominate over all other religions even though the Mushrikeen abhor it. All praises are due to Allaah Who fulfils His promises, Who makes them come to realisation and Who destroys His enemies. We neither oppose you nor have any opposition amongst ourselves. You are a well-wishing and concerned leader and we are prepared to march whenever you command and prepared to obey you whenever you issue an order."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr was extremely pleased by this speech and said, "May Allaah reward you well, my brother and friend! You had accepted Islaam willingly, migrated with the hope of reward when you escaped from the Kuffaar with your Deen so that Allaah and His Rasool may be pleased and so that the Kalimah may be elevated. You are one of the commanders of the people, so prepare to march. May Allaah shower His mercy on you." Thereafter, Hadhrat Abu Bakr was descended from the pulpit.

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed 选择通過 then left to make the necessary preparations. In the meanwhile, Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经验证 instructed Hadhrat Bilaal 经证证 to make the following announcement: "O people! March in Jihaad against the Romans in Shaam!" There were no doubts amongst the people that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed was their commander. He was the first to reach the army camp, after which people started arriving there in tens, twenties, thirties, forties, fifties and hundreds. Eventually, a very large army had gathered. Accompanied by several leading Sahabah 過減過過,Hadhrat Abu Bakr 過減過 proceeded to the camp one day. Although he saw an impressive number of men, he did not think that the number was adequate to fight the Romans. Turning to his companions, he asked, "What would you say if I send this number of men to Shaam?" Hadhrat Umar will replied, "I do not think that this number is sufficient for the large Roman army." Turning to the others, Hadhrat Abu Bakr was asked, "What do you men think?" they replied, "We second the opinion of Umar." Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said, "Should I then rather not write to the people of Yemen, calling them to Jihaad and encouraging them with the rewards for Jihaad?" All his companions shared his opinion and said, "That is an excellent idea! Go ahead." Hadhrat Abu Bakr then wrote the letter.

The Letter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr to the People of Yemen calling them to Fight in Jihaad

In the name of Allaah the Most Kind the Most Merciful From the Khalifah of Rasulullaah to every Muslim and Mu'min of Yemen to whom this letter is read.

Peace be to you.

Before you all, I praise Allaah besides Whom there is none worthy of worship. Verily Allaah has made Jihaad obligatory for the Mu'mineen and has commanded them to Proceed (in the path of Allaah) when light or heavy and exert themselves with their wealth and lives in Allaah's way. Jihaad is a greatly emphasised obligation and its rewards with Allaah are tremendous, We have prepared the Muslims to march in Jihaad against the Romans in Shaam. They have hastened to it with noble intentions and with great hopes of being rewarded. Therefore, O servants of Allaah, you should also hasten to that towards which they have hastened, ensuring that your intentions are good. You are assured one of two excellent virtues; either martyrdom or victory and booty. Remember that Allaah is not pleased with only words from His servants that are not accompanied by actions. Furthermore, Jihaad against the enemies of Islaam shall perpetuate until they accept the true Deen and accept the injunctions of the Qur'aan.

May Allaah preserve your Deen for you, guide your hearts, purify your deeds and bless you with the rewards of those who wage Jihaad and who are steadfast."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉德德 sent this letter with Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik 劉德德 (1)

The Lecture of Hadhrat Abu Bakr When the Muslim Army Left for Shaam

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Jubayr Abdur Nama narrates that when Hadhrat Abdur Bakr was seeing the army off to Shaam, he stood up amongst them. He praised Allaah, instructed them to march to Shaam and gave them the glad tidings that Allaah would grant them victory to the extent that they would even build Masaajid there. He said, "You should never think that you are going there for sport. Shaam is a land of plenty that has plenty of food for you so beware of developing pride for I swear by the Rabb of the Kabah that pride and boastfulness will certainly come to you. I advise you with ten things, so always keep them in mind. Never kill a helpless old man..." The Hadith continues further. (2)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir (Vol.1 Pg.126), as quoted in Mukhtasar (Vol.2 Pg.126) and Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.143).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.143).

Hadhrat Umar Bin Khattaab (1996) Encourages Jihaad in the Path of Allaah and Consults with the Sahabah (1996) in Matters Arising Before him

Hadhrat Umar Encourages People Towards Jihaad

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Muhammad narrates that Hadhrat Muthanna bin Haaritha once addressed the people saying, "O people! You should never regard marching against the Persians as something difficult. We have already captured their fertile grounds and the best half of Iraq. We already have half of their kingdom and have caused them tremendous losses. Our people are bold against them and Inshaa Allaah we shall soon also have their remaining lands."

Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat Umar) then stood up and said, "The region of Hijaaz is not your original homeland. You only stay where you can find some vegetation and it is only by that the people of Hijaaz manage to survive. Where are those Muhaajireen who were always leaping towards the promises of Allaah? March to the lands that Allaah has promised in His Book that He would make you inherit. Allaah has declared:

﴿لِيُظُهِرَهُ عَلَى الدِّينِ كُلِّهِ * ﴾

'To make it (Islaam) dominate over all other religions.' (1)

Allaah shall therefore make His Deen dominate, give honour to those who assist His Deen and make its adherents the inheritors of (the territories) all nations. Where are the righteous servants of Allaah then?"

The first to respond was Hadhrat Abu Ubayd bin Mas'ood, followed by either Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubayd or Hadhrat Saleet bin Qais When the party gathered, Hadhrat Umar was told to appoint someone from the senior Muhaajireen and Ansaar as their commander. However, Hadhrat Umar said, "By Allaah! I shall not do this. Allaah only gives status on account of your eagerness and enthusiasm to fight the enemy. Therefore, should you shrink away and dislike meeting the enemy, then the most deserving of leadership will be he who was the first to come forward and respond to the call. By Allaah! I shall appoint as commander only he who was the first to respond."

Hadhrat Umar which then summoned Hadhrat Abu Ubayd, Hadhrat Saleet and Hadhrat Sa'd which and said (to Hadhrat Saeet and Sa'd which), "If you two had beaten him, I would have appointed you as commander and you would have deserved it because you are Muslims longer." Hadhrat Umar which then appointed Hadhrat Abu Ubayd as commander of the army and said to him, "Listen to the Sahabah which of Rasulullaah and consult with them. Never do anything hastly until you have verified the facts. This is warfare and only that person succeeds in it who is calm and who knows when to attack and when not to attack." $^{(1)}$

In another report narrated by Hadhrat Sha'bi (it is mentioned that when Hadhrat Umar (was told to appoint a Sahabi (it is as commander, he said, "The virtue of the Sahabah (it is on account of them being the first to volunteer and being present when others refused to present themselves. However, when they express reluctance and others do what they had been doing, then those who are prepared to march when heavy or light become more deserving. By Allaah! I shall only appoint as their commander the one who had been first to respond." Hadhrat Umar (it) then appointed Hadhrat Abu Ubayd as the commander and advised him concerning the army. (2)

Hadhrat Umar Consults with the Sahabah Concerning a Military Offensive Against the Persians

Hadhrat Umar bin Abdul Azeez says that when the news of the martyrdom of Hadhrat Abu Ubayd bin Mas'ood reached Hadhrat Umar and he learnt that the Persians aligned behind someone from the family of the Kisra, he had an announcement (of Jihaad) made amongst the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar (and instructed them to meet at a place called Siraar). Hadhrat Umar left for Siraar and sent Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillaah left ahead to a place called Ahwas. He then appointed Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf left as commander of the army's right flank, Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam left as commander of the left flank and appointed Hadhrat Ali left as his deputy in Madinah. When Hadhrat Umar left consulted with the Sahabah left, they all shared the opinion that he should march against the Persians. However, Hadhrat Umar left did not consult with them before reaching Siraar and before Hadhrat Talha left had returned (from Ahwas).

When Hadhrat Umar was consulted with the eminent Sahabah was, Hadhrat Talha was also expressed the same opinion as the others (to march against the Persians) but Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was against the idea. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was said, "After the demise of Rasulullaah and in have never before this day and shall never afterwards say that I shall sacrifice my parents for anyone. However, now I say that may my parents be sacrificed for you (O Ameerul Mu'mineen)! Leave this matter to me. You remain in Madinah and send out an army. I have noticed that the decree of Allaah has always been in favour of your armies. The defeat of your army is not (as demoralising) as your defeat. I fear that if you are martyred or defeated in battle, the Muslims (will be so demoralised that they) will never again cry out 'Allaahu Akbar' or recite 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah'."

Hadhrat Umar (accepted this opinion and) was looking for a commander

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.61).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.61).

and they were still busy consulting when a letter arrived from Hadhrat Sa'd who had been employed to collect zakaah of the people of Najd. When Hadhrat Umar was asked those with him to suggest who should command the army, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was said, "You have just found him." "Who is he?" asked Hadhrat Umar was. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan replied, "He is the clawed and valiant lion Sa'd bin Maalik was." The other members of the consultative assembly agreed. (1)

Hadhrat Uthmaan Encourages People Towards Jihaad

Hadhrat Abu Saalih who was the freed slave of Hadhrat Uthmaan saying from the pulpit, "O people! I had kept secret from you a Hadith that I had heard from Rasulullaah fearing that you would disperse from around me (and proceed in Jihaad). I then decided to mention it to you so that each person may decide to do as he pleases. I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'A single day spent guarding the borders (of the Muslim state) for the pleasure of Allaah is better than a thousand other days spent at other places'." (2)

Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Thaabit bin Abdullaah bin Zubayr in arrates that Hadhrat Uthmaan mentioned the following in a sermon from the pulpit: "I intent narrating to you a Hadith that I had heard from Rasulullaah. All that prevented me from narrating it to you previously was to keep you behind with me (here in Madinah to tend to the affairs of the capital city). I heard Rasulullaah say, 'A single day spent guarding the borders (of the Muslim state) for the pleasure of Allaah is better than a thousand other days spent in salaah coupled with days spent fasting'." (3)

Hadhrat Ali Encourages People Towards Jihaad

Hadhrat Zaid bin Wahab narrates that Hadhrat Ali concession once stood up to address the people. He said, "All praises belong to Allaah Who when He crushes something, none can mend it and when He wants something to remain intact, none can smash it. If Allaah wills, no two persons would have a quarrel and the Ummah would never dispute any of His laws. Similarly, if He wills, no underling would reject the virtue of his superiors. Fate has drawn us and the others to this place. Allaah sees and hears us and if He wills, He could hasten our punishment. Allaah controls change and has the power to expose the oppressor and make it known where the truth lies. Nevertheless, Allaah has made this world a place of actions and has made the Aakhirah a place to live forever.

﴿ لِيَجْزِى الَّذِيْنَ اَسَآءُ وَا بِمَا عَمِلُوا وَيَجْزِى الَّذِيْنَ ٱحْسَنُوا بِالْحُسْنَى ٥٠ (سورة النجم: ٣١)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer Tabari (Vol. 1 Pg.65).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad (Vol. 1 Pg.65).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad (Vol.1 Pg.61).

He may punish the evil-doers for their (evil) actions and reward those who do good with the best (of rewards, namely Jannah). {Surah Najm, verse 31}

Listen attentively! Tomorrow you will face your enemy so spend a long time in salaah tonight, recite Qur'aan abundantly and beseech Allaah for assistance and steadfastness. Fight them with determination and caution and remain staunch." Hadhrat Ali (1)

Hadhrat Ali Elie Encourages the Muslims During the Battle of Siffeen

Hadhrat Abu Amra Ansaari narrates that when giving courage to the Muslims during the Battle of Siffeen, Hadhrat Ali said, "Allaah has shown you a trade which will save you from a painful punishment and take you closer to all goodness⁽²⁾; (the trade is) Imaan in Allaah and His Rasool and Jihaad in the path of Allaah Whose mention is most high. Allaah has determined that the rewards for this shall be forgiveness from Allaah and wonderful mansions in the eternal Jannah. Allaah has also informed you that He loves those who fight (the enemies of Islaam) in His path (standing) in rows (in front of the enemy with steadfastness and unity) as if they are a solid building. You should therefore straighten your rows like a solid building. Those wearing armour should be in front and those without armour should fall behind. Then persevere with tenacity." (3)

Hadhrat Ali Eximis Encourages the Muslims to Fight the Khawaarij

Hadhrat Abul Wadaak Hamdaani narrates that when Hadhrat Ali camped at a place called Nukhayla (close to Kufa) and had lost hope in the Khawaarij, he stood up (to address the people). After praising Allaah, he said, "He who discards Jihaad and compromises the laws of Allaah, borders on the fringe of destruction unless Allaah rescues him by His grace. Fear Allaah and fight those who oppose Allaah, who attempt to extinguish the light of Allaah, who are in error, deviant, oppressive and sinful. They are not proficient in reciting the Qur'aan, have no understanding of the Deen, have no knowledge of interpreting the Qur'aan and are not even long in the Deen that they could be worthy of Khilaafah. By Allaah! If they become your rulers, they will rule you in the way that Kisra and Heraclius ruled. Prepare well for your march against your enemies from the West. I have sent a message to your brothers from Basrah to come to (assist) you. Inshaa Allaah, we shall all march together (against the Khawaarij) as soon as they arrive. There is no power or might but with Allaah."

⁽¹⁾ Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.9).

⁽²⁾ Here Hadhrat Ali was referring to verses 10-13 of Surah Saff (Surah 61).

⁽³⁾ Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.11).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.57).

Hadhrat Ali delivers a lecture Concerning the Reluctance of the Muslims to March in Jihaad

Hadhrat Zaid bin Wahab narrates that in his first address to the Muslims after the Battle Nahrwaan, Hadhrat Ali said, "O people! Prepare to march against the enemy in a Jihaad that will draw you close to Allaah and secure a great status for you near Him. They are people who are confused about the truth, know nothing about the Qur'aan, are far from the Deen, are bewildered in rebellion and have fallen headlong into the abyss of deviation. Prepare (to use in battle) against them whatever forces of strength (weapons) you can muster, as well as trained horses. Trust in Allaah for Allaah suffices as Defender and Allaah suffices as Helper."

When the people failed to march and to prepare, Hadhrat Ali Williams left them alone for a few days. Eventually, when he lost hope that they would prepare, he summoned their leaders and influential people. When Hadhrat Ali Williams asked them for their opinions and about what it was that caused them to procrastinate, some of them complained of illness while others excused themselves on account of some pressing circumstances. Only a few of them were willing.

Hadhrat Ali 劉德德 then stood up to deliver a lecture. He said, "O servants of Allaah! What is the matter with you that you cling to the ground when you are commanded to march? Do you prefer the life of this world to that of the Aakhirah? Do you prefer humiliation and dishonour over respect? Each time I call you to wage Jihaad, your eyes start to turn like a person in the throes of death. It then seems as if your hearts have lost their senses, leaving you without any understanding and as if your eyes have been blinded so that you see nothing. By Allaah! When there is comfort and luxury, you are like the lions of the Shira forest but when you are called towards battle, you become sly foxes. I have permanently lost confidence in you people. You are not the type of horsemen with whom an attack can be launched neither people of nobility with whom refuge can be sought. I swear by Allaah that you people are the worst and most incompetent in battle. The plots of the enemy are sure to succeed against you whereas your strategies would be useless against them. Your limbs are being severed and you cannot defend each other. Your enemies are not asleep whereas you are oblivious. A fighter is vigilant and intelligent whereas one who bows to a truce becomes humiliated. Those who fight amongst themselves are soon defeated and defeated people are suppressed and looted."

Hadhrat Ali wow continued, "You should now understand that I have rights over you just as you have rights over me. Your rights over me are that I should be your well-wisher as long as I am with you, that I should increase your shares of booty, that I should educate you so that you do not remain ignorant and that I should teach you etiquette and manners so that you are able to learn. My rights that are due from you are that you fulfil your pledge of loyalty to me and that you remain my well-wishers in my presence as well as in my absence. In addition to this, you ought to respond to me when I summon you and obey me when I issue an order. If Allaah intends good for you, you would forsake that which displeases me and return to that which pleases me. By doing this, you will receive what you want and achieve what you aspire for." (1)

Howshab Himyari Calls for Hadhrat Ali Good During the Battle of Siffeen and the Reply he Received

Hadhrat Abdul Waahid Damishqi narrates that during the Battle of Siffeen, Howshab Himyari called to Hadhrat Ali saying, "O son of Abu Taalib! Leave us alone for the sake of yours and our blood! We shall leave Iraq for you and you leave Shaam for us. In this way, the blood of Muslims will be spared." Hadhrat Ali say replied by saying, "Farfetched, O son of Umm Zulaym! I swear by Allaah that I would do this if I knew that I am permitted to compromise the Deen of Allaah. In fact, this would cause me less trouble. However, when Allaah is disobeyed and the people of the Qur'aan have the might to take a stand and wage Jihaad until Allaah's commands dominate, Allaah does not like them to remain silent and to compromise the Deen." (2)

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Elisasi Encourages the Muslims to Wage Jihaad

The Speech of Hadhrat Sa'd (during the Battle of Qaadisiyyah Hadhrat Muhammad, Hadhrat Talha and Hadhrat Ziyaad Allaah all narrate that during the Battle of Qaadisiyyah, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas to address the Muslims. After praising Allaah, he said "Allaah is definitely True. He has no partner in His kingdom and never goes back on His word. Allaah The Majestic declares:

(سورة الانبياء: ١٠٥)

Without doubt, We have already written in the Zaboor after the reminder (the Torah) that My pious bondsmen shall inherit the land. {Surah Ambiyaa, verse 105}

This earth is your legacy and the promise of your Rabb. For the past three years, Allaah has given you use of this land. You are feeding others from it and yourselves eating from it. To this day, you have killed its people (in the wars that took place), collected their wealth and taken prisoners from amongst them. In the previous battles, those before you have caused much harm to them. Now their army has come to you (the army of Yazdgird, numbering approximately two hundred thousand). You are amongst the pride of the Arabs, their nobles, the cream of every tribe and the most honourable of those you have left behind you. If you are detached from the world and aspirant to the Aakhirah, Allaah shall grant you both worlds. This battle cannot take you any closer to your deaths (because death is predestined). However, if you lose courage, become cowardly and weak, your strength will leave you and you will be destroying your Aakhirah."

⁽¹⁾ Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.67).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abdil Birr in Isti'aab (Vol.) Pg.391) as well as Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.) Pg.85).

The Speech of Hadhrat Aasim bin Amr during the Battle of Qaadisiyyah

Thereafter, Hadhrat Aasim bin Amr stood up and said, "Allaah has subjected the people of this land (of Iraq) to you for the past three years and the harm you have done to them (in weakening their military strength) is more than the harm they have caused to you. You are now in a position of superiority and Allaah shall remain with you on condition that you are steadfast and use your swords and spears properly. You will then have possession of their wealth, their women, their children and their country. On the other hand, if you weaken and become cowardly - may Allaah protect you from this - their large army shall not leave a single survivor from amongst you for fear that you would return to destroy them. Fear Allaah! Fear Allaah and remember the previous battles in which Allaah had blessed you. Do you not look back to the land (of Arabia) behind you that is barren without any vegetation. It had neither any shade nor offers any sanctuary where refuge can be taken and a defence organised. Make the Aakhirah your objective."

The Enthusiasm of the Sahabah (to March in Jihaad for the Pleasure of Allaah

The Enthusiasm of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah for Jihaad

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah intended leaving for the Battle of Badr. His uncle Hadhrat Abu Burda bin Niyaar advised him to rather stay behind with his mother. To this, Hadhrat Abu Umaamah said, "Why do you rather not stay behind with your sister (my mother)?" when this was mentioned to Rasulullaah he instructed Hadhrat Abu Umaamah to remain with his mother while Hadhrat Abu Burda left (with Rasulullaah). When Rasulullaah returned, Hadhrat Abu Umaamah some smother had just passed away and Rasulullaah led the Janaazah (funeral) prayer. (2)

⁽¹⁾ Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.44).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.9 Pg.37).

The Enthusiasm of Hadhrat Umar for Jihaad and His Statement that Jihaad is Better than Hajj

Hadhrat Umar (is reported to have said, "I would have preferred to meet Allaah had it not been for three things; for walking in the path of Allaah, for placing my head on the sand in prostration before Allaah and for sitting in the company of people who choose their words just as the best dates are selected."(1) Hadhrat Umar (is also reported to have said (to the people), "Ensure that you perform Hajj for it is a virtuous deed that Allaah has commanded. However, Jihaad is even more virtuous." (2)

The Enthusiasm of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar for Jihaad

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar once said, "When I was brought before Rasulullaah to participate in the Battle of Badr, Rasulullaah thought that I was too young and did not accept me. I had never experienced no night like that night. Because Rasulullaah did not accept me (to fight in Jihaad), I did not sleep a wink, was overcome with grief and wept incessantly. When I was brought before him the following year and Rasulullaah accepted me, I praised Allaah for it." Someone then asked him, "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Did you people turn back on the day the two armies met (during the Battle of Uhud)?" "Yes," replied Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar of but Allaah forgave all of us, and all thanks are due to Him," (3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar William With the Person who Intended to Proceed in Jihaad

Hadhrat Anas I narrates that a man came to Hadhrat Umar and requested, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Please provide me with transport because I want to proceed in Jihaad." Hadhrat Umar then told someone to take the man to the public treasury so that he could take whatever he required form there. When the man entered the treasury and found gold and silver, he asked, "What is all this? I need none of this. All I require are provisions for a journey and transport." The people took the man back to Hadhrat Umar and informed him about what he had said. Hadhrat Umar then issued instructions that the man should be provided with provisions and transport. (When these were brought) Hadhrat Umar himself tied the saddle to the animal. After mounting the animals, the man raised his hands (in du'aa) and praised Allaah for the treatment he received and for what Hadhrat Umar had given him. In the meanwhile, Hadhrat Umar was was walking behind him with the hope that the man would make du'aa for him. After praising Allaah, the man said, "O

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad in his Zuhd, Sa'eed bin Mansoor, Ibn Abi Shayba and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal. (2) Ibn Abi Shayba, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.288).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanz (Vol.5 Pg.231).

Allaah! Also grant Hadhrat Umar (1) the best of rewards." (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar About the Virtue of the Person who Marches out and Stands Guard in the Path of Allaah

Hadhrat Artaat bin Mundhir narrates that Hadhrat Umar once asked those sitting in his company, "Which person deserves the greatest rewards?" The people started making mention of salaah and fasting and mentioning the names of people who are best after the Ameerul Mu'mineen. Thereafter, Hadhrat Umar said, "Shall I not inform you of those whose rewards are greater than those you have mentioned and who is even better than the Ameerul Mu'mineen?" When the people asked to be informed, Hadhrat Umar replied, "A small (seemingly unimportant) man in Shaam leading his horse by its reins as he walks while guarding the capital city of the Muslims (guarding Madinah against any attack from the Kuffaar in Shaam). He neither knows whether a wild animal may maul him, whether a poisonous reptile may bite him or whether an enemy may overpower him. That is the person whose rewards are greater than all those you have mentioned and who is even better than the Ameerul Mu'mineen." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (1996) and Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) Concerning the Departure of Hadhrat Mu'aadh (1996)

Hadhrat Ka'b bin Maalik was narrates that Hadhrat Umar was an event that presented much difficulty to Madinah and its people with regard to questions of Islaamic jurisprudence and the religious rulings (Fataawa) that Hadhrat Mu'aadh was issued. I had spoken to Hadhrat Abu Bakr was about keeping Hadhrat Muaa'dh was behind (in Madinah) because the people needed him but Hadhrat Abu Bakr was refused this request saying, 'I cannot stop a man who wants to go somewhere in search of martyrdom.' I responded by saying, 'By Allaah! When a person is serving important interests of his townspeople, he will be blessed withthestatus of amartyr even as he lies on his bed in his own home." Hadhrat Ka'b bin Maalik was says that Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal was used to issue Fataawa (religious rulings) during the lifetime of Rasulullaah as well as during the time that Hadhrat Abu Bakr was Khalifah. (3)

Hadhrat Umar Gives Preference to those who were the First to Migrate over the Popular Leaders of People

Hadhrat Naufal bin Amaarah narrates that Hadhrat Haarith bin Hishaam and

⁽¹⁾ Hannaad, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.288).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.289).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.87).

Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr (Composition of them) and sat with Hadhrat Umar (Composition of them). Thereafter, the first among those to migrate to Madinah started arriving. (As each one of them arrived.) Hadhrat Umar (Move aside, O Suhayl! Move aside, O Haarith!" In this manner, Hadhrat Umar (Move aside) moved the two of them further from himself. As the Ansaar started coming to Hadhrat Umar (Move), he moved the two men further in a like manner until they were behind everyone.

When the two men left the presence of Hadhrat Umar , Hadhrat Haarith bin Hishaam said to Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr , "Did you see how we were treated?" Hadhrat Suhayl replied, "Dear man! We should not blame Hadhrat Umar , but should blame ourselves. When those people were invited to accept Islaam, they were quick to do so while we procrastinated." When the Muhaajireen and Ansaar had left Hadhrat Umar , the two men approached him and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! We noticed what you did today and realise that is was due to our own shortcomings. However, is there any way in which we could gain the status we have not been able to achieve?" Hadhrat Umar said to them, "I know of no other way but in that direction." He then pointed towards the Roman borders (where the Muslims were waging Jihaad against the Romans). The two men then left for Shaam, where they both passed away. (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr to the Leaders over Whom Hadhrat Umar had Given preference to the Early Muhaajireen

Hadhrat Hasan Amongst them were Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan bin Harb And other prominent leaders of the Quraysh Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat Imae of Badr such as Hadhrat Suhayh Hadhrat Bilaal Hadhrat In the Battle of Badr such as Hadhrat Hasan Hadhrat Suhayh, "I swear by Allaah that Hadhrat Umar Had Abu Sufyaan said, "I have never before seen a day like today! He allows these slaves to enter without paying any attention to us sitting there." Hadhrat Hasan marrates further by saying, "Hadhrat Suhay! bin Amr is responded to him. What an excellent and intelligent man he was! He said, 'O people! By Allaah! I see the expressions on your faces. If you are angry, be angry with yourselves. You were also invited to accept Islaam when these people were invited. However, they were quick to respond while you procrastinated. Listen well! I swear by Allaah that the virtue (of accepting Islaam early) by which they have excelled ahead of you is a greater loss to you than their beating you to this door (of the Ameerul Mu'mineen) for which you are competing." Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr the then continued to say, "As you see, these men have beaten you and I swear by Allaah that you have no way of reaching the status that they have to beat you. You should therefore look towards waging Jihaad and hold tightly to it. Perhaps Allaah shall bless you with the honour of (waging sincere) Jihaad and martyrdom."

Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.136). Ibn Abdil Birr has also quoted it in his Isti'aab (Vol.2 Pg.111).

Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr (1966) then stood up, dusted his clothing and proceeded to Shaam. Hadhrat Hasan (1966) added, "Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr (1966) had spoken the truth. By Allaah! Allaah has not made the person who is quick like the person who procrastinates (they cannot share the same status)." (1)

Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr Marches in Jihaad and Remains in the Path of Allaah until his Death

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed bin Fudaala was a Sahabi who narrated, "Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr was and myself went together to Shaam. I heard him say, 'I heard Rasulullaah say, 'A moment spent standing in the path of Allaah is better than a lifetime of deeds one of you can do while with his family.' I shall therefore remain guarding the borders of the Islaamic state until I die and shall never return to Makkah." Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed was says that Hadhrat Suhayl bin Amr was then remained in Shaam until he passed away in the plague of Amwaas. (2)

Hadhrat Haarith bin Hishaam Leaves for Jihaad despite the Despondency of the People of Makkah

Hadhrat Abu Naufal bin Abi Aqrab narrates that when Hadhrat Haarith bin Hishaam left Makkah, the people of Makkah became extremely sad and besides suckling infants, everyone left to see him off. When he reached an elevated spot of Bathaa or somewhere close to it, he stopped and the people around him also stopped. They were all weeping. Seeing the sorrow of the people, he said, "O people! I swear by Allaah that I am not leaving because I love myself more than you nor because I prefer another city to yours. However, when Islaam came, there were many men of the Quraysh who left (Makkah and left in Jihaad) for the sake of Islaam even though they were not from amongst the prominent people of the Quraysh nor from its nobility. By Allaah! Our condition at present is that even if the mountains of Makkah were solid gold and we spent all of it in the path of Allaah, we would never equal a day of theirs. By Allaah! Although they have surpassed us in this world, we hope that we shall be Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.282) and Isti'aab (Vol.2 Pg.110). Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.46) has commented on the chain of narrators. Bukhari in his Taareekh and Baawardi have also narrated it in brief, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.94).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sad (Vol.5 Pg.335), as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.94). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.282) has also narrated on par in the Aakhirah. Every person who carries out any deed should fear Allaah." He then left for Shaam together with all those who followed him and was later martyred. May Allaah shower His mercy on him. (1)

The Enthusiasm of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed For Jihaad and his Desire to be Martyred

Hadhrat Ziyaad who was a freed slave of the family of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed marrates that on his deathbed, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed said, "There is no night on earth more beloved to me than a night out on a military expedition with the Muhaajireen which is so cold that water turns to ice and we are to attack the enemy the following dawn. You people should steadfastly cling to Jihaad." (2)

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed has also mentioned, "The night in which my newly-wed bride whom I love dearly is brought to my house or from whom I am given the news of a son to be born is not dearer to me then that night out on a military expedition with the Muhaajireen which is so cold that water turns to ice and we are to attack the enemy the following dawn." (3)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed said, "Involvement in Jihaad in the path of Allaah prevented me from learning much of the Qur'aan." (4) It is also narrated that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed said, "Involvement in Jihaad has preoccupied me from learning much about the Qur'aan." (5)

Hadhrat Abu Waa'il narrates that when Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed was about to pass away, he said, "I searched for martyrdom wherever I anticipated it to be but I was destined to die on my bed. After my recitation of 'Laa Ilaaha Illallaah', there is no deed I have more hope in than the night I spent wearing my helmet as the rain poured all the time until dawn. Thereafter, we launched a surprise attack on the enemy positions. When I die, I want you to gather my weapons and my horse and donate it as equipment in the path of Allaah."

After Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (Simons) had passed away, Hadhrat Umar (Simons) came for the Janaazah (funeral prayer) and said, "There is no harm if the family of Waleed shed their tears as long as they do not tear their clothes and wail loudly." (6)

The Enthusiasm of Hadhrat Bilaal to Proceed in the Path of Allaah

The fathers of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Muhammad, Umar bin Hafs and Ammaar

- (1) Isti'aab (Vol.1 Pg.310). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.278) has also narrated it.
- (2) Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.414).
- (3) Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.350).
- (4) Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.350) has commented on the chain of narrators.
- (5) Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.414).
- (6) Ibn Mubaarak in his Kitaabul Jihaad, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.415). Although majority of scholars believe that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (Vol.2 Pg.415) passed away in Hims, this narration indicates that he passed away in Madinah. Tabraani has also narrated this report in brief and Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.350) has commented on the chain of narrators.

bin Hafs all narrate from their fathers that Hadhrat Bilaal once approached Hadhrat Abu Bakr saying. "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah I have heard Rasulullaah say that the best deed of the Mu'mineen is Jihaad in the path of Allaah. I have therefore decided to guard the borders for the pleasure of Allaah until I die." Hadhrat Abu Bakr responded by saying, "O Bilaal! I plead to you in the name of Allaah and for the sake of my honour and the rights I have (not to leave me). My age has advanced, my strength has weakened and my death is near."

Hadhrat Bilaal had had passed away, Hadhrat Abu Bakr had passed away, Hadhrat Umar gave Hadhrat Bilaal had a similar reply (when he requested to proceed in Jihaad). However, Hadhrat Bilaal had refused to accept the reply. Hadhrat Umar then asked, "Who then (will call out the Adhaan)?" Hadhrat Bilaal had replied, "Leave it to Sa'd, for he also called out the Adhaan in Quba during the time of Rasulullaah." Hadhrat Umar he appointed Hadhrat Sa'd had to call out the Adhaan and decided that his progeny after him should call out the Adhaan. (1)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ibraheem Taymi narrates that after the demise of Rasulullaah Hadhrat Bilaal called out the Adhaan before Rasulullaah was buried. The people in the Masjid started to weep uncontrollably when he called out the words:

"I testify that Muhammad is is the Rasul of Allaah."

After Rasulullaah was buried and Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "If you had freed me so that I should always remain with you, then it is alright (I shall do so). However, if you freed me for Allaah then leave me to the One for Whom you had freed me." When Hadhrat Abu Bakr made it clear that he had freed Hadhrat Bilaal solely for the pleasure of Allaah, Hadhrat Bilaal said, "I therefore prefer not to call out the Adhaan for anyone else after the demise of Rasulullaah." Hadhrat Abu Bakr acknowledged this by saying, "The choice is yours." Hadhrat Bilaal sole then remained in Madinah until an army was leaving for Shaam. He then joined them to Shaam.

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib marrates that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr once ascended the pulpit on the day of Jumu'ah, Hadhrat Bilaal called for him. "At your service," replied Hadhrat Abu Bakr hadhrat Bilaal asked, "Did you free me for the pleasure of Allaah or for yourself?" "Only for Allaah's pleasure," was the reply. "Then," continued Hadhrat Bilaal permit me to wage Jihaad in the path of Allaah." With the permission of Hadhrat Abu Bakr hadhrat Bilaal then left for Shaam where he passed away. (2)

Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.274) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.168) has also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd and Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg. 150).

Hadhrat Miqdaad Refuses to Miss a Jihaad Expedition because of the verse of the Qur'aan Exhorting Jihaad

Hadhrat Abu Yazeed Makki narrates that Hadhrat Miqdaad was and Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob weed to say, "We have been commanded to proceed in Jihaad in all conditions." This was their interpretation of the verse:

Proceed (in the path of Allaah) when light or heavy (happily or reluctantly, rich or poor, in good conditions and adverse conditions) {Surah Taubah, verse 41} (1)

Hadhrat Abu Raashid Habraani who was part of Rasulullaah se's cavalry. He was sitting on the box of a currency exchanger and because his body was sizeable (he had put on extra weight in his old age), part of his body hung over the box. This was in Hims and Hadhrat Miqdaad was intending to march in Jihaad. Hadhrat Abu Raashid said to him, "Allaah has excused you (from Jihaad because of your condition)." Hadhrat Miqdaad replied, "The verse of Surah Bu'hooth⁽²⁾ has come to us (in which Allaah says):

Proceed (in the path of Allaah) when light or heavy (happily or reluctantly, rich or poor, in good conditions and adverse conditions) {Surah Taubah, verse 41} (3)

Hadhrat Jubayr bin Nufayr marrates that they were sitting in the company of Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad in Damascus. Hadhrat Miqdaad was sitting on a box which had no space left on it (because his weight had become uncontrollable). Someone said to him, "You should sit out the year without fighting in Jihaad (because of your ill health)." He replied by saying, "The verse of Surah Bu'hooth has come to us." He was referring to Surah Taubah. He continued, "Allaah says:

'Proceed (in the path of Allaah) when light or heavy' (Surah Taubah, verse 41) I find myself to be light (and therefore have no excuse to remain behind)." (4)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Talha (in this Regard

Hadhrat Anas 劉德德 narrates that Hadhrat Abu Talha 劉德德 was reciting Surah

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.9 Pg.47).

⁽²⁾ Surah Taubah.

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.176). Tabraani has also reported the narration and Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.30) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.115) and Haakim have also narrated it from reliable sources as confirmed by Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.349).

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.21).

Baraa'ah when he came to verse:

"Proceed (in the path of Allaah) when light or heavy' (Surah Taubah, verse 41) He said, "I have no doubts that our Rabb intends to encourage us to proceed (in Jihaad) whether we are young or old. O my sons. Prepare my provisions for the journey. Prepare my provisions for the journey." His sons said to him, "May Allah have mercy on you! You fought with Rasulullaah until he passed away. Thereafter, you fought with Hadhrat Abu Bakr until he passed away and then with Hadhrat Umar until he passed away. Now let us fight on your behalf." "Never!" exclaimed Hadhrat Abu Talha (Just prepare my provisions."

He then joined the naval expedition and passed away while at sea. It was only after seven days that an island could be found on which to bury him. When he was buried there, his body had not even started to decay. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (in this Regard

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen has mentioned that Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari was present at the Battle of Badr with Rasulullaah. Thereafter, apart from one year, he never missed a single military expedition. He sat out that year because a youngster had been appointed as commander of the army. However, after that year, he was always remorseful and would repeat three times, "I care not who is appointed as commander over me." He fell ill while with an army under the command of Yazeed bin Mu'aawiya. When he came to see Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob was, Yazeed asked, "Is there anything you need?"

Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob replied, "When I die, I want you to place my body on an animal and take me as far as you can into the land of the enemy. Eventually, when you are unable to take me any further, you may bury me." Consequently, after Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob passed away, Yazeed had his body placed on an animal and took him as far as he could into enemy territory. When he could no longer take him along, he buried him and then left the area. Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob used to recite the verse:

﴿ إِنْفِرُوا خِفَالاً وَّثِقَالًا ﴾ (سورة البراء: ١١)

Proceed (in the path of Allaah) when light or heavy {Surah Taubah, verse 41}

Thereafter, he would say, "I always find myself to be either light or heavy (never being excused from marching in Jihaad)." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Dhabyaan narrates from his teachers from Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari that he fell ill as he was on a military expedition during the rule of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (When his illness worsened, he said to his companions, "Load me on an animal after I die and bury me beneath your feet when you stand in your rows in front of the enemy." They did as he requested. The narration still continues further. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Isti'aab (Vol.1 Pg.550). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.66), Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.21) and Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.353) have also reported the narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Haakim. Abu Ya'la has also reported the narration from reliable sources as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.312).

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.458) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.49), as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.405). A narration of Abu Is'haaq Fazaari names the youngster as Abdul Malik bin Marwaan.

Hadhrat Abu Dhabyaan also narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob was on a military campaign under the command of Yazeed bin Mu'aawiya, he said, "Take me to enemy territory after I die and bury me beneath you feet wherever you clash with the enemy." Thereafter he said, "The person who dies without ascribing partners to Allaah shall enter Jannah." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Khaythama Forsakes the Luxuries of this world and Proceeds in the Path of Allaah

Hadhrat Ibn Is'haaq Ishaaq Inarrates that it was a few days after Rasulullaah had already left (for Tabook) that Hadhrat Abu Khaythama returned home on an extremely hot day. He found his two wives beneath their shelters in his orchard. Each one of them had sprinkled water on their shelters and kept cold water for him together with food they had prepared. When he entered the orchard and stood at the door of a shelter, he saw his wives and what they had done for him. He then said, "Rasulullaah is sweltering in the sun, hot winds and heat while Abu Khaythama is enjoying cool shade, prepared meals and beautiful wives as he remains with his wealth. This is not fair! I swear by Allaah that I shall not enter the shelter of any of you before meeting with Rasulullaah. Prepare my journey's provisions."

They prepared the provisions and brought his camel. He saddled the camel and left in search of Rasulullaah until he finally caught up when Rasulullaah had set up camp in Tabook. Hadhrat Abu Khaythama met up with Hadhrat Umayr bin Wahab Jamahi on the road, who was also looking for Rasulullaah for the two rode together until they came close to Tabook. Hadhrat Abu Khaythama for then said to Hadhrat Umayr for "Since I am at fault (for not joining the army earlier and have to meet Rasulullaah as soon as possible), why do you not ride behind me (for you have no hurry) so that I may reach Rasulullaah (first)." Hadhrat Umayr for complied and when Hadhrat Abu Khaythama for drew close to Rasulullaah in Tabook, the Sahabah said, "Here comes a rider on the road." Rasulullaah said, "Let it be Abu Khaythama." The Sahabah then said, "O Rasulullaah By Allaah! It really is Abu Khaythama!"

When Hadhrat Abu Khaythama had made his camel sit down, he approached Rasulullaah After he had greeted Rasulullaah Rasulullaah Rasulullaah Rasulullaah Rasulullaah After Hadhrat Abu Khaythama had explained the incident to Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Isti'aab (Vol.1 Pg.404).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 8 Pg. 59). Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 3 Pg. 49) has also reported the narration.

Rasulullaah commended him and prayed for him. (1)

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Khaythama says, "I was unable to march with Rasulullaah. When I entered my orchard, I saw a shelter sprinkled with water and my wife. I then said, 'This is not fair! Rasulullaah. is suffering in hot winds and heat while I am enjoying shade and luxury.' I then went to load my camel and took along some dates as my provisions. My wife called out, 'Where are you heading, O Abu Khaythama?' 'I am going to Rasulullaah. I replied."

Narrating further, Hadhrat Abu Khaythama says, "I then left to find Rasulullaah. On the road Umayr bin Wahab met me. I said to him, 'You are a brave man (and have nothing to fear being alone). I know where Rasulullaah is and I am at fault (for not joining the army sooner). Do ride behind me so that I may meet Rasulullaah. I alone.' Umayr did as I bid and as I set sight on the Muslim army, they also spotted me. Rasulullaah. Said, 'Let it be Abu Khaythama.' I approached Rasulullaah. and said, 'I had almost destroyed myself, O Rasulullaah. After narrating my story to him, Rasulullaah. had good words to say and made du'aa for me." (2)

The Grief of the Sahabah When they did not have the Ability to Go Out in the Path of Allaah or to Spend in the Path of Allaah

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Layla 墨蠟鳟 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mughaffal 墨蠟鳟

Hadhrat Ibn Is'haaq says that the report reached him that Hadhrat Ibn Yaameen Nasri once met Hadhrat Abu Layla and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mughaffal once met Hadhrat Abu Layla and Hadhrat Ibn Yaameen asked, "What makes you two weep?" They replied, "We approached Rasulullaah to provide transport for us (so that we could proceed in Jihaad) but we found nothing with him that we could use as transport. We also have nothing which could enable us to leave (in Jihaad) with Rasulullaah. Hadhrat Ibn Yaameen then gave them his camel and some dates for the journey's provision. The two then left with Rasulullaah.

A narration of Yunus bin Bukayr also from Ibn Is'haaq adds that another Sahabi by the name of Hadhrat Ulba bin Zaid (who also did not have the means to proceed in Jihaad) left at night and engaged in salaah for a considerable portion of the night. Thereafter, he started weeping and said, "O Allaah! You have issued the command to wage Jihaad and encouraged it. However, You have not given me the means with which to do it and have also not given to Your Rasulullaah the means to provide transport for me. Now I wish to distribute as Sadaqah to all the Muslims (the rewards for me forgiving) every injustice that has been done to me in my wealth, my body and my honour."

⁽¹⁾ Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr and Moosa bin Uqba have also reported the story of Hadhrat Abu Khaythama (hadhrat A

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.6 Pg.192). Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.193) has commented on the chain of narrators.

When he came out in the morning with the other Muslims, Rasulullaah asked, "Where is the person who gave Sadaqah last night?" when no one replied, Rasulullaah repeated, "Where is the person who gave Sadaqah? Let him stand up." Hadhrat Ulba stood up and related his story. Rasulullaah commended him saying, "Hear the good news! I swear by the Being Who controls my life that your Sadaqah has been recorded as an accepted act of zakaah." (1)

The Story of Hadhrat Ulba bin Zaid 经顺畅

Hadhrat Abu Abs bin Jabar narrates that amongst the companions of Rasulullaah was Hadhrat Ulba bin Zaid bin Haaritha when the Sahabah were encouraged to spend in Sadaqah, each one of them brought whatever he could afford and whatever he had. Hadhrat Ulba said, "O Allaah! I have nothing to spend in Sadaqah. O Allaah! I therefore spend (the rewards for me forgiving) every insult to my honour caused by any of Your creation." (The next morning) Rasulullaah appointed someone to announce, "Where is the person who donated his honour as Sadaqah last night?" When Hadhrat Ulba stood up, Rasulullaah said, "Your Sadaqah has been accepted." (2)

Censuring Those Who Delayed Marching in the Path of Allaah

Rasulullaah Censures Hadhrat Ibn Rawaaha

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in arrates that when Rasulullaah as the commander. Rasulullaah also added that if Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha is martyred, Hadhrat Ja'far was to take command and if he were martyred, Hadhrat Ibn Rawaaha was to take command. However, Hadhrat Ibn Rawaaha delayed in leaving and performed the Jumu'ah salaah behind Rasulullaah when Rasulullaah sawa him, he asked, "What has delayed you?" Hadhrat Ibn Rawaaha replied, "Performing the Jumu'ah salaah with you." Rasulullaah told him, "A single morning or evening in the path of Allaah is better than the entire world and its contents." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (In narrates that it happened to be the day of Jumu'ah when Rasulullaah (In Rawaaha)

Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.5). The author of Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.500) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Mandah. Bazzaar has reported the narration in the words of Hadhrat Ulba Misself. Bazzaar then says that Hadhrat Ulba Misself was a famous Ansaari Sahabi about whom this is the only report narrated. A similar report is narrates by Ibn Abi Dunya and Ibn Shaheen. Ibn Najjaar has also reported the narration in brief, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.80).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.242). Ibn Abi Shayba have also reported the narration, as quoted Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.309).

with an army. Hadhrat Ibn Rawaaha let the others proceed ahead and said to them, "I shall remain behind to perform the Jumu'ah salaah with Rasulullaah II shall then catch up with you." Rasulullaah caught sight of him after performing the salaah and asked, "What prevented you from leaving with your companions in the morning?" Hadhrat Ibn Rawaaha replied, "I wanted to perform the Jumu'ah salaah with you and catch them up later." Rasulullaah said, "Even if you spent everything on earth you would be unable to gain (the rewards of) their morning." (1)

Rasulullaah Rebukes one of the Sahabah Who Delayed Marching in the Path of Allaah

Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Anas har narrates that Rasulullaah once commanded some Sahabah to march on a military expedition. One of them said to his wife, "I shall stay behind to perform salaah with Rasulullaah Thereafter, I can make salaam with him and bid him farewell. He would then make a du'aa for me that would reach the Day of Qiyaamah (and benefit me then)." After Rasulullaah had completed the salaah, the man came forward to greet him. Rasulullaah asked, "Do you know how far ahead your companions have gone?" "Yes," replied the Sahabi had of me by half a day." Rasulullaah said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! They have excelled you in virtue by a measure that is greater than the distance between the east and the west." (2)

Rasulullaah Commands a Battalion to Leave by Night

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra in arrates that Rasulullaah once commanded a battalion to leave. They asked, "O Rasulullaah sie! Should we leave tonight or wait until the morning?" Rasulullaah said, "Would you not like to spend the night in a garden from amongst the magnificent gardens of Jannah?" (3)

Hadhrat Umar 劉璋 Censures Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal 劉璋 for Delaying his Departure

Hadhrat Abu Zur'ah bin Amr bin Jareer narrates that Hadhrat Umar (Silver) once dispatched an army that included Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal (Silver). After the army had left, Hadhrat Umar (Silver) saw Hadhrat Mu'aadh (Silver) and asked, "What has kept you back?" Hadhrat Mu'aadh (Silver) replied, "I wanted to leave after performing the Jumu'ah salaah." Hadhrat Umar (Silver) scolded him by saying, "Have you not heard Rasulullaah (Silver) say, 'A single morning or evening in Tirmidhi with commentary on the chain of narrators, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.242).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.284) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.158). Tabraani has also reported the narration and Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.276) has commented on the chain of narrators.

the path of Allaah is better than the entire world and its contents'?" (1)

Censuring Those Who Delayed Marching in the Path of Allaah Because of Negligence on their Part

The Story of Hadhrat K'ab bin Maalik 經過過

Hadhrat Ka'b bin Maalik says, "Besides the military expedition to Tabook, I did not miss a single military expedition in which Rasulullaah participated. Of course, I did miss the Battle of Badr, but no one was reprimanded for missing that expedition because Rasulullaah had only intended to intercept a caravan of the Quraysh, after which Allaah brought the Muslims and their enemy together without any prearrangement. I was present on the night that the Pledge of Aqaba took place with Rasulullaah. This was the night that we pledged our allegiance to Islaam. I would not like to exchange that night for being at the Battle of Badr even though the Battle of Badr is more popularly spoken about amongst people. This is my story:

I was never more healthier or more financially prosperous than the time when I missed the (Tabook) expedition with Rasulullaah. I had never before owned two animals as I had at the time of the expedition. Until this expedition took place, it was always the practice of Rasulullaah. to conceal the destination and make it seem that he was heading in a different direction. When Rasulullaah intended to march on this expedition, the heat was extreme, the journey was long and across barren land and the enemy were large in number. Rasulullaah therefore disclosed the matter to the Muslims so that they could make proper preparations for the expedition. He informed the Muslims exactly where he intended marching. The Muslims marching with Rasulullaah were so many that a single register could not contain their names. In fact, anyone who intended absenting himself knew that his absence would not be noted unless Allaah sent revelation about it.

Rasulullaah left on this expedition at a time when the date crop and the shade was most appealing (because the dates were ripe for the picking and the intense heat drew everyone towards the shade). However, the Muslims started their preparations along with Rasulullaah Each morning I left to start my preparations with the other Muslims but returned home every time without doing anything, telling myself that I have the means to prepare (and can even do so at short notice). This procrastination continued until others had prepared in earnest and the morning arrived when Rasulullaah marched with the Muslims. By then I had still not yet made any preparations but told myself that I would get ready in a day or two and then catch up with them. After they had left, I started the morning with the intention of making preparations, but returned home without accomplishing anything. The next morning was the same and again I returned home without accomplishing anything. This continued happening to me and the Muslims marched very fast until every chance of catching up with the expedition was lost. I had a firm resolve to ride out to meet them and wish that I had. However, I was never destined to do so.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Raahway and Bayhagi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.289).

When I walked amongst the people after Rasulullaah had left, it saddened me greatly to see only people whose hearts were tainted by hypocrisy or ailing people whom Allaah had excused (staying behind). Rasulullaah made no mention of me until the Muslims had reached Tabook. As he was sitting amongst the others at Tabook, he asked, 'What has happened to Ka'b?' Someone from the Banu Salma tribe commented, 'O Rasulullaah !! His fine clothing (wealth) has obstructed him.' Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal interjected by saying, 'You have made a terrible statement! O Rasulullaah I I swear by Allaah that we only know him to be an excellent person.' Rasulullaah remained silent."

Hadhrat Ka'b bin Maalik was returning. I became worried and started thinking of false excuses. I asked myself what I could do to avert the anger of Rasulullaah and I also sought advice from every wise person of my family. When the news arrived that Rasulullaah was about arriving, all false excuses vanished from my mind and I knew that I could never come out of the situation with anything connected to lies. I therefore resolved to tell Rasulullaah the truth.

Rasulullaah arrived and according to his normal practice after returning from a journey, he proceeded to the Masjid where he performed two Rakaahs of salaah. He then sat to meet with people. As Rasulullaah did this, those who stayed behind started approaching him and to present their excuses. They numbered eighty odd men and even took oaths before Rasulullaah (to substantiate their excuses). Rasulullaah accepted their excuses at face value, renewed their pledges of allegiance and sought Allaah's forgiveness on their behalf. He then handed over the inner details of their affairs to Allaah.

When I approached Rasulullah and greeted him with Salaam, he smiled the smile of an angry person and said, 'Do come forward.' I walked to him and sat in front of him. He asked, 'What kept you behind? Had you not already purchased your conveyance?' I responded by saying, 'That's true. By Allaah! Had I been sitting before someone other than you from amongst worldly men, I would have certainly escaped your anger by making some excuse because I have been given the ability to present convincing arguments. However, I swear by Allaah that if I lie to you today and manage to secure your pleasure, the time will soon come when Allaah shall make you angry with me. On the other hand, if I tell you the truth and you become angry with me, I have strong hopes of Allaah's forgiveness. I swear by Allaah that I really had no excuse. By Allaah! I was never more healthier or more financially prosperous than the time when I missed the expedition.' Rasulullaah said, 'At least this man had spoken the truth. You may leave (and wait) until Allaah decides your matter.'

As I stood up, some men from the Banu Salma tribe (to which I belonged) also stood up and followed me. They said to me, 'By Allaah! We have never known you to commit a sin before this! Could you not make an excuse like the others who stayed behind had made excuses? The forgiveness that Rasulullaah would have sought on your behalf should have then sufficed for our sin.' They kept scolding me in this manner so much that I actually made up my mind to return to Rasulullaah and deny whatever I had told him. I then asked them, 'Has anyone else experienced the same treatment as I have?' They replied, 'Yes. Two others said what you did and received the same reply you received.' Who are they?' I asked. 'Muraarah bin Rabee Amri and Hilaal bin Umayyah Waaqifi,' came the reply. The two men they named were two righteous men who had participated in the Battle of Badr and who made excellent examples to follow. I therefore went on my way when they mentioned these two names to me.

Rasulullaah subsequently prevented people from speaking only to the three of us as opposed to the others who had missed the expedition. People avoided us and ignored us so much so that even the earth seemed like a different place to me. It was not the same place I had been used to. We remained in this condition for fifty days. My two companions became helpless and confined themselves to their homes, weeping excessively. Since I was the youngest and most daring of us, I used to go out and join the Muslims for salaah. I even walked about in the marketplace but no one spoke to me. When Rasulullaah sat in gatherings after salaah, I would approach him and greet him with Salaam. I would then ask myself whether his lips moved in reply to my Salaam or not. I also performed salaah close to Rasulullaah and steal a glance at him. I noticed that whenever I was engaged in salaah, he looked at me and would avert his glance as soon as I turned towards him.

The time eventually arrived when the attitude of the people became to much to bear, I walked to the orchard of Abu Qataadah and scaled the wall. He was my cousin and my best friend. I swear by Allaah that he did not even reply to my Salaam when I greeted him. I protested by saying, 'O Abu Qataadah! I ask you in the name of Allaah to tell me whether I have love for Allaah and His Rasool When he gave no reply, I repeated the question and again asked in the name of Allaah. He remained silent. Yet again, I repeated myself and took the name of Allaah. All he said was, 'Allaah and Rasulullaah know best.' My eyes welled with tears and I turned around to again scale the wall."

Continuing with the story, Hadhrat Ka'b says, "As I was walking in the marketplace one day, I heard the voice of a farmer from the farmers of Shaam who had come to Madinah to sell his grains. He was announcing, 'Who will show me where is Ka'b bin Maalik?' As the people pointed him in my direction, he handed over to me a letter from the king of Ghassaan (wrapped in a silken cloth). The letter read:

The news has reached me that your master is being harsh towards you. Allaah has not made you a lowly and ruined person. Join forces with us and we shall honour you.'

After reading the letter, I said to myself, 'This is part of the test.' I then went to an oven where I burnt the letter. When forty of the fifty days had passed, a messenger of Rasulullaah suddenly came to me with the message that I was to separate from my wife. 'Should I divorce her?' I asked. 'No,' he replied, 'Just be separated from her and do not go near her.' The same message was sent to my two companions. I then said to my wife, 'Go to your family and stay with them until Allaah decides this matter.'

The wife of Hadhrat Hilaal bin Umayyah approached Rasulullaah and pleaded, 'O Rasulullaah Hilaal bin Umayyah is an extremely old and helpless man who has no servant. Would you object if I serve him?' 'No,' replied Rasulullaah Hilaal Hilaal Hadhrat Ka'b continues, "Some of my family members advised me to also request that my wife stays to serve me as Hilaal bin Umayyah had requested permission. I told them that I would never seek such permission from Rasulullaah for I do not know what reply Rasulullaah would give me as a young man (who can care for himself). I then remained in this condition (without my wife) for ten days until full fifty nights had passed since Rasulullaah banned others from speaking to us. After performing the Fajr salaah on the morning of the fiftieth night, I was still on the roof of my house and sitting there in the condition that Allaah describes in the Qur'aan (in verse 118 of Surah Taubah); the earth had narrowed for me despite its vastness (I could find no place to hide myself) and my own soul had narrowed for me (I had become frustrated with myself). It was then that I heard the voice of a caller who had climbed to the top of Mount Sala. He announced at the top of his voice, 'Rejoice, O Ka'b!' I immediately fell prostrate in Sajdah for I knew that relief had arrived.

After performing the Fajr salaah, Rasulullaah had announced to the people that Allaah had accepted our repentance. Many people came to congratulate us and went to congratulate my two companions. As someone (Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awaam (Hadhrat Hamzah bin Amr Aslami (Hadhrat Hamzah bin Aslami the person whose voice I had heard came to me, I took off the two sheets of cloth I was wearing and gave them to him (in thanks) for the good news he had given me. I swear by Allaah that I had no other clothes besides this at the time. I therefore borrowed some clothes and went to Rasulullaah (Hasali Droves of people came to congratulate me on my repentance saying, 'Congratulations! Allaah has accepted your repentance.' When I eventually reached the Masjid, Rasulullaah (Hasali Was Sitting there surrounded by people. It was Talha bin Ubaydillaah (Hasali Was Sitting there surrounded towards me to shake my hands and to congratulate me. By Allaah! No other person from amongst the Muhaajireen stood up to receive me. I shall never forget this gesture of Talha I then greeted Rasulullaah With his face beaming with delight, Rasulullaah said, 'Rejoice about the best day that has passed you since the day you were born. I asked, 'Is this from your side, O Rasulullaah or from Allaah?' Rasulullaah replied, 'It is from Allaah's side.' Whenever Rasulullaah was happy, his face would shine and appear to be a portion of the moon. We would therefore always recognise when he was happy. When I sat in front of Rasulullaah , I said, 'O Rasulullaah ! As part of my Taubah, I wish to give all my wealth as Sadaqah for the pleasure of Allaah and His Rasool Rasulullaah advised, 'It would be best if you keep some of your wealth for yourself.' 'I shall then keep my allotted piece of land in Khaybar,' I said. I added, 'O Rasulullaah Allaah has saved me because of the truth I spoke and as part of my repentance, I shall speak only the truth as long as I live.'

By Allaah! I do not know of any Muslim whom Allaah had given a better reward than Allaah had given me from the time I spoke the truth to Rasulullaah. From the time I mentioned this to Rasulullaah. I have not spoken any lies up to this day and hope that Allaah protects me from it as long as I remain alive. Allaah has revealed the following verse to Rasulullaah.

﴿ لَقَدْ تَآبَ اللّٰهُ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ وَالْمُهَاجِرِيْنَ وَالْأَنصَارِ الَّذِيْنَ اتَّبَعُوهُ فِي سَاعَةِ الْعُسُرَةِ مِنْ اللّٰهِ مَا كَادَ يَزِيْعُ قُلُوبُ فَرِيْقِ مِنْهُمْ ثُمَّ نَابَ عَلَيْهِمْ " إِنَّهُ بِهِمْ رَءُ وَفْ رَّحِيْمُ ۞ وَعَلَى النَّلْقَةِ اللّٰهِ الَّذِيْنَ خُلِفُوا شَحَتَّى إِذَا صَاقَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ الْاَرْضُ بِمَا رَحُبَتُ وَصَاقَتُ عَلَيْهِمْ الْفَرْضُ اللّهِ اللّهِ اللّهِ اللّهِ اللّهِ اللّهِ اللّهُ وَكُونُوا * مَعَ الصَّدِقِيْنَ ﴾ اللّه مُوَ النّهُ وَكُونُوا * مَعَ الصَّدِقِيْنَ ﴾ اللّه مُوَ النّهُ وَكُونُوا * مَعَ الصَّدِقِيْنَ ﴾

(سورة التوبه: ١١٧ تا ١١٩)

Allaah has certainly turned in mercy towards the Nabi and towards the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar who followed him in the hour of difficulty (to Tabook) after the hearts of some of them were almost shaken (causing them to hesitate). Without doubt, He is Most Compassionate and Most Merciful towards them (by blessing them with steadfastness and devotion). And Allaah (has also turned in mercy towards) the three (Sahaaba and Hilaal bin Umayyah (hose matter (forgiveness for not marching to Tabook) was postponed (for fifty days) until the earth narrowed for them despite its vastness (and they could find no place to hide themselves), their own souls narrowed for them (they became frustrated with themselves) and they were convinced that there was no safety from Allaah except (in turning) towards Him. Then Allaah turned towards them (in mercy) so that they (could) turn to Him (in repentance). Indeed Allaah is Most Pardoning, Most Merciful. O you who have Imaan! Fear (the punishment of) Allaah (by doing good and abstaining from sin) and stay (associate) with the truthful. (Surah Taubah, verses 117-119)

I swear by Allaah that after guiding me to Islaam, Allaah has not granted me a greater blessing than making me speak the truth to Rasulullaah rather than lying, thereby causing me to be destroyed like those who had lied. When Allaah sent revelation, he used the worst of terms for those who had lied than for anyone else. Allaah states:

﴿ سَيَحْلِفُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ لَكُمْ إِذَا انْقَلَيْتُمُ إِلَيْهِمُ لِتُعرِضُوْا عَنْهُمُ * ۞ فَآغْرِضُوْا عَنْهُمُ * إِنَّهُمْ رِجْسٌ لَا وَمَا وَلِهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ * جَزَآءٌ بِمَا كَانُوْا يَكْسِبُوْنَ ۞ يَحْلِفُوْنَ لَكُمْ لِتَرْضَوُا عَنْهُمُ * فَإِنْ تَرْضَوُا عَنْهُمُ * فَإِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَايَرْطِلَى عَنِ الْقُوْمِ الْفُلِيقِيْنَ ﴾

(سورة التوبه: ٩٥، ٩٦)

When you (O Rasulullaah Per) return to them (the Munaafiqeen) shortly (in Madinah) they will swear before you by Allaah (that they had valid reasons for not accompanying you), so that you may leave them alone (and do not admonish them). Pay no attention to them! They (their beliefs and actions) are impure! Their abode shall be Jahannam as a punishment for what (evil deeds) they earned. They swear (oaths) before you (O Rasulullaah) so that you may be pleased with them. (However,) Even if you are pleased with them, Allaah is certainly not pleased with the disobedient ones (Muslims should therefore not maintain close ties with such people). {Surah Taubah, verses 95,96}

The matter of the three of us was postponed until after the matter of those whose excuses Rasulullaah accepted. When they swore oaths before Rasulullaah he renewed their pledges of allegiance and sought Allaah's forgiveness for them. Rasulullaah then postponed our matter until Allaah had passed judgement. It is with reference to this that Allaah says:

And Allaah (has also turned in mercy towards) the three whose matter was postponed... {Surah Taubah, verse 118}

In this verse, Allaah is not referring to our staying behind from the expedition but to the postponement of our case after deciding the case of the others who had sworn oaths before Rasulullaah and who had made excuses that Rasulullaah accepted. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari, Muslim and Ibn Is'haaq. Ahmad has also reported the narration with some additions, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.23). Abu Dawood and Nasa'ee have also reported the narration in parts and with more brevity and Tirmidhi has reported a part of the beginning. These are quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.366). Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.33) has also reported the narration in detail.

A Warning to Those who Forsake Jihaad to remain with their Families and Wealth

Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob (Signification)'s Interpretation of the Verse: "and do not throw your own hands into destruction"

Hadhrat Abu Imraan in narrates that they were in Constantinople with Hadhrat Uqba bin Aamir is as the commander of the Egyptian forces and Hadhrat Fudhala bin Ubayd is as commander of the forces from Shaam. When an extremely large Roman army marched from Constantinople, the Muslims formed their rows to face them. One of the Muslims assaulted the Roman army so tenaciously that he penetrated their ranks and then returned to his own ranks. The other Muslims shouted at him saying, "Subhaanallaah! He is throwing himself into destruction by his own hands."

It was then that Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari (a) a Sahabi of Rasulullaah (b) stood up and said, "O people! You people are interpreting this verse in this manner whereas it was actually revealed with reference to us the Ansaar community. When Allaah gave strength to Islaam and there were many people to assist its cause, we said to each other without the knowledge of Rasulullaah (c). Our fields have been destroyed (out of neglect). We should therefore stay in Madinah to repair the damage done. In response to what we had intended, Allaah revealed the verse:

Spend in the path of Allaah and do not throw (do not lead yourselves) into destruction by (the doing of) your own hands. (Surah Baqara, verse 195)

The destruction referred to is our staying behind (in Madinah) to tend to our fields, as we had intended to do." Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari thereafter instructed the others to fight and remained fighting in the path of Allaah until Allaah took him away. (1)

In another narration, Hadhrat Abu Imraan narrates that when they were attacking the city of Constantinople under the leadership of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Khaalid bin Waleed, the Romans had their backs against the walls of the city. As one of the Muslim soldiers courageously attacked the enemy, the others shouted, "Stop! Stop! Laa Ilaaha Illallaah! He is throwing himself into destruction by his own hand." Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari then said, "That verse was revealed with reference to us the Ansaar community. When Allaah's assistance came to His Nabilities and Islaam became dominant, we said, 'Let us stay in our fields and tend to them.' Allaah then revealed the verse:

﴿ وَأَنْفِقُواْ فِي سَبِيْلِ اللَّهِ وَلاَتُلْقُواْ بِآيْدِيْكُمْ اللَّي التَّهْلُكَةِ * وَأَحْسِنُواْ * إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ ۞ ﴾ (سورة البقرة: ١٩٥)

Spend in the path of Allaah and do not throw (do not lead yourselves) into destruction by (the doing of) your own hands. (Surah Baqara, verse 195)

The destruction by our own hands refers to staying behind in our fields and tending to them while neglecting Jihaad." Hadhrat Abu Imraan says that Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob continued fighting in the path of Allaah until he was eventually buried in Constantinople. (1)

Hadhrat Abu Imraan narrates that someone from amongst the Muhaajireen attacked the ranks of the enemy soldiers at Constantinople and actually penetrated them. To this, some people commented, "He is throwing himself into destruction by his own hand!" In the army was Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari who then said, "We know this verse best for it was revealed with reference to us. We remained in the company of Rasulullaah fought many battles with him and were there to assist him. However, when Islaam spread and became dominant, we the Ansaar community gathered together for the love of Islaam and said, 'Allaah has honoured us with the companionship of Rasulullaah and giving us the ability to assist him until Islaam has spread and its adherents have multiplied greatly. We had given preference to Islaam over our families, our wealth and our children and now that the wars have stopped, we should return to our families and children and tend to them. With reference to this, the verse was revealed:

Spend in the path of Allaah and do not throw (do not lead yourselves) into destruction by (the doing of) your own hands. (Surah Baqara, verse 195)

The destruction being referred to is staying with our families and properties and neglecting Jihaad." (2)

Warnings to Those who Forsake Jihaad because of their Preoccupation with Farming Hadhrat Umar Rebukes Hadhrat Abdullaah

Anasi فَعَالِينَا الْعَالَةُ الْعَالِينَا Anasi

Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abi Habeeb narrates that the news reached Hadhrat Umar

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.99).

⁽²⁾ Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi, Nasa'ee, Abd bin Humayd in his Tafseer, Ibn Abi Haatim, Ibn Jareer, Ibn Mardway, Abu Ya'la in his Musnad, Ibn Hibbaan in his Sahih and Haakim in his Mustadrak. The Hadith is authentic, as confirmed by Tirmidhi and Haakim. The narration is reported in the Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol. 1 Pg.228).

that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Harr Anasi had started farming on his land in Shaam. Hadhrat Umar therefore took the land away from him and gave it to someone else saying, "You have taken the disgrace and humiliation from the necks of these prominent people and placed it on your neck." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas Rebukes a man who Neglected Jihaad

Hadhrat Yahya bin Abi Amr Shaybaani narrates that a group of people from Yemen once passed by Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas . They asked him, "What is your comment about a person who accepts Islaam in a most beautiful fashion, then undertakes Hijrah in a most perfect manner and also wages Jihaad most superbly. However, he then returns to his parents in Yemen to serve them and to care for them." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas asked them, "What is your comment on such as person?" They replied, "In our opinion, he has turned back on his heels."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas (corrected them saying, "In fact, this person shall be in Jannah. Let me tell you of someone who has turned back on his heels. He is a man who accepts Islaam in a most beautiful fashion, then undertakes Hijrah in a most perfect manner and also wages Jihaad most superbly. However, he then goes to the land of a non-Muslim farmer in Shaam and takes over the land together with the Jizya that was being paid and the monthly quota of produce which is given to the Muslim state. Thereafter, he develops the land and forsakes Jihaad. This man is one who has turned back on his heels." (2)

Moving Urgently in the Path of Allaah to Uproot Strife

The Expedition of Muraysee

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah was narrates that they (the Sahabah were once on an expedition when someone from the Muhaajireen punched another Sahabi from the Ansaar on the back. When the Ansaari called the other Ansaar for help, the Muhaajir called for the other Muhaajireen to help him as well. When Rasulullaah heard this, he exclaimed, "What are these calls of the Period of Ignorance?" When the Sahabah will informed Rasulullaah that a Muhaajir had punched an Ansaari, Rasulullaah said, "Forget these talks for they are foul-smelling."

When Abdullaah bin Ubay (the leader of the Munaafiqeen) heard about this, he commented, "Are they (the Muhaajireen) doing this? By Allaah! If we return to Madinah, the honourable ones among us (the people of Madinah) shall certainly exile the humiliated ones (the Muhaajireen)." When the news of this statement reached Rasulullaah . Hadhrat Umar stood up and said, "O

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Aa'idh in his Maghaazi, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.88).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.291).

Rasulullaah Permit me to cut off the neck of that Munaafiq!" Rasulullaah replied, "Leave him. We do not want people to say that Muhammad kills his companions."

Whereas the Ansaar were in the majority when the Muhaajireen arrived in Madinah, the Muhaajireen later outnumbered them. (1)

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr was and Hadhrat Amr bin Thaabit Ansaari marrates that Rasulullaah was on the expedition of Muraysee when he demolished the idol Manaat that stood between Qala Mushallal and the coast. Rasulullaah had dispatched Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed to destroy the idol.

It was during the same expedition that two men started fighting with each other. The one belonged to the Muhaajireen while the other belonged to the Bahz tribe who were allies of the Ansaar. The man from the Muhaajireen had floored the man from the Bahz tribe and was on top of him when the man from the Bahz cried out, "O assembly of Ansaar!" When some members of the Ansaar came to his assistance, the Muhaajir called to the Muhaajireen for help. A few Muhaajireen responded. When a fight was about to break out between the group from the Ansaar and the group from the Muhaajireen, they were stopped.

When this occurred, every Munaafiq and those with the disease (of hypocrisy) in their hearts went to Abdullaah bin Ubay bin Salool (the leader of the Munaafiqeen) saying, "We used to entertain hopes in you previously and you always used to defend us. However, you can no longer cause any harm nor any benefit. These Jalaabeeb have assisted each other against us." They referred to the new Muhaajireen as Jalaabeeb. Allaah's enemy Abdullaah bin Ubay responded by saying, "By Allaah! If we return to Madinah, the honourable ones among us (the people of Madinah) shall certainly exile the humiliated ones (the Muhaajireen)." Another Munaafiq by the name of Maalik bin Dukhshun commented, "Did I not tell you people not to spend on those who are with Rasulullaah." until they disperse."

When Hadhrat Umar who heard about this, he went to Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah Permit me to cut off the neck of that man who is causing dissension." Here Hadhrat Umar was referring to Abdullaah bin Ubay. Rasulullaah said to Hadhrat Umar who, "Will you really kill him if I give the command?" "Certainly," replied, Hadhrat Umar who, "I swear by Allaah that I shall cut off his neck as soon as you issue the command to kill him." Rasulullaah then told Hadhrat Umar who be seated.

Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr who belonged to the Banu Abdul Ash'hal family of the Ansaar then approached Rasulullaah and said, ""O Rasulullaah Permit me to cut off the neck of that man who is causing dissension." Rasulullaah said to Hadhrat Usayd will, "Will you really kill him if I give the command?" "Certainly," replied, Hadhrat Usayd will, "I swear by Allaah that I shall strike my sword beneath his earlobes as soon as you issue the command to kill him." Rasulullaah then told him to be seated.

Rasulullaah then instructed the Sahabah to announce that the army would be leaving. Rasulullaah left with the Sahabah during the afternoon and travelled the entire day and night until the following afternoon. Rasulullaah then set up camp and again left with the Sahabah in the afternoon as he did previously until after the third day of travelling they reached Qafa Mushallal in the morning.

When Rasulullaah reached Madinah, he sent for Hadhrat Umar and said to him, "O Umar! Would you have killed him if I issued the command?" When Hadhrat Umar replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah said, "Had you killed him on that day, many of the Ansaar would have felt insulted (because the skirmish had just taken place in which the Ansaar were in a weaker position). However, if I issue the command today, even they would be prepared to execute him. (Had you killed him then) People would have said that I attack my own companions, take them out of their homes (in Jihaad) and then kill them after having them bound."

It was with reference to this incident that Allaah revealed the verses:

﴿ هُمُ الَّذِيْنَ يَقُوْلُونَ لَا تُنْفِقُواْ عَلَى مَنْ عِنْدَ رَسُولِ اللهِ حَتَّى يَنْفَضُّوا * وَلِلهِ حَزَآبِنُ السَّمُوكِ وَالْآرُضِ وَلَكِنَّ الْمُنْفِقِيْنَ لَا يَفْقَهُونَ ۞ يَقُوْلُونَ لَبِنْ رَّجَعُنَآ إِلَى الْمَدِيْنَ لَا يَشْقَهُونَ ۞ يَقُولُونَ لَبِنْ رَّجَعُنَآ إِلَى الْمَدِيْنَ لَا يَخُوجَنَّ الْمُنْفِقِيْنَ لَا لَيُحُرِجَنَّ الْاَعَزُّ مِنْهَا الْاَذَلُ * وَلِلْهِ الْعِزَّةُ وَلِرَسُولِهِ وَلِلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَلَكِنَّ الْمُنْفِقِيْنَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ۞ (سورة المنافقون: ٧٠ ٨)

They (the Munaafiqeen) are the ones who said, "Do not spend on those with Rasulullaah (the Muhaajireen) until they disperse (leave Madinah)." (However, they fail to realise that Allaah can sustain people without them because) To Allaah belongs the treasures of the heavens and the earth but the hypocrites do not understand (this). They (the Munaafiqeen) say, "If we return to Madinah, the honourable ones among us (the people of Madinah) shall certainly exile the humiliated ones (the Muhaajireen)." (However, they fail to realise that it is the true Mu'mineen who are truly honourable because) All honour belongs to Allaah, His Rasool

Ibn Is'haaq has also reported the narration with the addition that Rasulullaah travelled with the Sahabah the entire day until the evening and throughout the night until the morning. They also travelled the following day until the sun hurt them. Rasulullaah then set up camp and (because of exhaustion) they all fell sound asleep as soon as they touched the ground. Rasulullaah did this so that the Sahabah do not have the opportunity to discuss what had been said the previous day by Abdullaah bin (1) Ibn Abi Haatim. Ibn Katheer in his Talseer (Vol.4 Pg.372) and Ibn Hajar in his Fathul Baari (Vol.8 Pg.458) have commented on the chain of narrators.

Ubay.

Rebuking Someone Who had not Completed Forty Days in the Path of Allaah

Hadhrat Zaid bin Abi Habeeb narrates that when a man once came to Hadhrat Umar with, Hadhrat Umar asked, "Where have you been?" "I have been guarding the borders," the man replied. Hadhrat Umar asked further, "How many days did you spend on guard?" "Thirty days," was the reply. Hadhrat Umar commented, "Why did you rather not complete forty days?" (1)

Spending Three Periods of Forty Days in the path of Allaah

The Incident of a Woman and the Decision of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Ibn Jurayj narrates that someone whom he regards to be a truthful person informed him that as Hadhrat Umar was was patrolling (the streets of Madinah), he overheard a woman saying:

فَلَوْلاً حِذَارُ اللهِ لَاشَنَى مِثْلُهُ لَوْعَزِعَ مِنْ هَذَا السَّوِيْرِ جَوَانِبُهُ

"The night is long and its ends have become dark
I am unable to sleep because I have no beloved to fondle
Were it not for fear of Allaah, which is something without a match every end of this bed would be shaken furiously"

When Hadhrat Umar was asked her what the matter was, she replied, "My husband has been away for several months and I have great desire for him." Hadhrat Umar was asked, "Have you no evil intentions?" "Allaah forbid!" she exclaimed. Hadhrat Umar was then said to her, "Control yourself for I shall sent a message to him."

When Hadhrat Umar which had done this, he went to (his daughter) Hadhrat Hafsa and asked, "I wish to ask you something that worries me, so do remove my worries from me. Tell me after how long a period does a woman start desiring for her husband?" Hadhrat Hafsa which cast down her gazes out of modesty. Hadhrat Umar which said, "Verily Allaah does not shy away from the truth." She then motioned with her hands to indicate three months, otherwise four.

Hadhrat Umar them wrote (to the governors of all the regions) that no army was to be kept away (from home) for more than four months. (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sizes narrates Hadhrat Umar sizes once left the house at night. He then happened to overhear a woman recite the following couplet:

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg. 157).

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.308).

"The night is long and its ends have become dark
I am unable to sleep because I have no beloved to fondle"

Hadhrat Umar the then asked his daughter Hadhrat Hafsa ("What is the maximum period that a woman can do without her husband?" She replied, "Four to six months." Hadhrat Umar then said, "I shall then not keep an army (away from home) for more than this period." (1)

The Keenness of the Sahabah (Common to Encounter Dust in the Path of Allaah

Rasulullaah Rebukes those who Disliked experiencing Dust While out in the Path of Allaah

Hadhrat Rabee bin Zaid in arrates that while Rasulullaah was once in the centre of the road, he noticed a youngster from the Quraysh walking off the road. When Rasulullaah took the youngster's name and asked whether it was he, the Sahabah to confirmed that it was. Rasulullaah then asked the Sahabah to call for him. When he arrived, Rasulullaah asked him, "Why are you walking off the road?" "I dislike the dust," he replied. Rasulullaah then said, "Do not walk off the road because I swear by the Being Who controls my life that this dust is a special fragrance from Jannah." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Jaabir Bin Abdullaah in this Regard

Hadhrat Abul Musabbih Muqra'ee narrates that they were once travelling in the Roman territories as a group under the command of Hadhrat Maalik bin Abdullaah Khath'ami Who. Hadhrat Maalik passed by Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah Who was leading his mule along. Hadhrat Maalik who said to Hadhrat Jaabir Who, "O Abu Abdullaah! Ride because Allaah has provided you with a conveyance." Hadhrat Jaabir replied, "I have kept my animal in a good condition and require nothing from my people. However, (I am walking because) I have heard Rasulullaah say that Allaah has forbidden Jahannam for the person whose feet become dusty in the path of Allaah."

Hadhrat Maalik then proceeded further until he was just within earshot of Hadhrat Jaabir within, he then shouted at the top of his voice, ""O Abu Abdullaah! Ride because Allaah has provided you with a conveyance." Hadhrat Jaabir with understood what Hadhrat Maalik wanted (that everyone should hear his reply) so he called out, "I have kept my animal in a good condition and require nothing from my people. However, (I am walking because) I have heard Rasulullaah say that Allaah has forbidden Jahannam for the person whose feet become dusty in the path of Allaah." Hadhrat Abul Musabbih says, "At that instant all the people jumped off their animals and I have never seen so many people walking as I saw that day." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.29).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.287).

A narration of Abu Ya'la says that Hadhrat Jaabir said, "I heard Rasulullaah says, 'Whenever the feet of a servant (of Allaah) gets dusty in the path of Allaah, Allaah forbids Jahannam from them'." It was then that Hadhrat Maalik said and the other people dismounted form their animals and more people were not see walking as on that day. (2)

Serving Others While Out in the Path of Allaah

Those who Were not Fasting Serve the Fasting Ones in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Anas harrates that on a certain expedition with Rasulullaah. some of them were fasting while others were not. When they stopped to set up camp, the heat was extreme and those with the most shade were those with shawls (who used their shawls to shade themselves). Others used their hands to shield themselves from the blazing sun. Those who were fasting fell to the ground while those who were not fasting stood up to pitch the tents and water the animals. Rasulullaah. commented, "Today those who are not fasting have taken all the rewards." (3)

A narration of Bukhari states that those with the most shade with Rasulullaah were those who used their shawls to shade themselves. Whereas the fasting ones could do nothing, those who were not fasting sent the animals (for watering), exerted themselves to serve and did other tedious tasks. Rasulullaah commented, "Today those who are not fasting have taken all the rewards."

The Sahabah Serve a Man Engrossed in Reciting the Qur'aan and Performing Salaah

Hadhrat Abu Qilaaba inarrates that after returning from a journey, the Sahabah were full of praise for one of their companions. They said, "We have not seen anyone like him. Whenever we traveled, he was busy reciting the Qur'aan and whenever we set up camp, he was engaged in salaah." Rasulullaah asked, "Who did his errands for him?" Asking about several things, Rasulullaah also asked, "Who used to feed his animal?" When the others replied that they had been doing this, Rasulullaah said, "Then all of you are better than him (because you have gained all his rewards by serving him)." (4)

The Freed slave of Rasulullaah Called Hadhrat Safeena Carries the Goods of the Sahabah

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Jumhaan narrates that he once asked Hadhrat Safeena

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Hibbaan and Abu Ya'la.

⁽²⁾ Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.396). Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.286) and Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.126) have commented on the chain of narrators. Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.162) has also reported the narration.

⁽³⁾ Muslim (Vol.1 Pg.356).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Dawood in his Maraaseel, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 4 Pg. 172)

about his name. He replied, "I shall inform you about my name. It was Rasulullaah who gave me the name Safeena (ship)." "But why did Rasulullaah call you Safeena?" Hadhrat Sa'eed asked. Hadhrat Safeena replied, "Rasulullaah once left on a journey with his Sahabah who. When their goods became too heavy for them, Rasulullaah said (to me), 'Spread out your shawl'. When I spread it out, Rasulullaah tied up all the goods in it and placed it on me, saying, 'Carry this for you are Safeena (a ship).' Had Rasulullaah loaded on me the load of not only one or two but five camels, it would not have been heavy for me." (1)

The Incidents of Hadhrat Ahmar (1996) the Freed Slave of Hadhrat Ummu Salma (1996) and Mujaahid with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1996)

Hadhrat Ahmar who was the freed slave of Hadhrat Ummu Salma narrates that they were travelling with Rasulullaah on an expedition when they passed by a stream. As Hadhrat Ahmar who started transporting people across the stream, Rasulullaah commented, "You are certainly a Safeena (a ship) today."

Hadhrat Mujaahid Make narrates, "I used to accompany Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Make on his journeys. Whenever I would mount my animal, he would come and hold the stirrup and whenever I got on to the animal, he would put my clothes right. When he came to me once (to give me the same service) I expressed my annoyance. He then said, 'O Mujaahid! You have a very straitened personality." (3)

Fasting While out in the path of Allaah

Rasulullaah A and the Sahabah A Fast During Extreme Heat While Out in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa says, "I saw us on some journeys with Rasulullaah during such extreme heat that people would place their hands over their heads because of the severity of the heat. None would be fasting then besides Rasulullaah himself and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha says (4) Another narration states that this was during the month of Ramadhaan.

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri says, "We went on expeditions with Rasulullaah during the month of Ramadhaan. Whilst some of us fasted, others did not. Neither would the fasting ones get upset with the non-fasting ones, nor would the non-fasting ones get upset with the fasting ones. Each one thought that if someone had the strength, he would fast and that was best for

⁽I) Abu Nuaym in Hilya (Vol. I Pg.369).

⁽²⁾ Hasan bin Sufyaan, Ibn Mandah, Maalini and Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Muntakhab (Vol.5 Pg.194).

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.3 Pg.285).

⁽⁴⁾ Muslim (Vol.1 Pg.357).

him. On the other hand if someone felt weak, he would not fast and that was best for him." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Makhrama (Fig. 6) fasts during the Battle of Yamaamah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with narrates that during the Battle of Yamaamah he approached Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Makhrama with stopped by him, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with stopped by him, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Makhrama with asked him whether the time had come to break the fast. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with replied that the time had already come, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Makhrama with said, "Fill some water in that wooden shield so that I may break my fast with it."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar which was brimming with water and used his leather shield to scoop up water to fill the wooden shield. However, when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with returned to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Makhrama with he found that he had already passed away. (2)

The Fast of Hadhrat Awf bin Abi Hayya and the Statement of Hadhrat Umar (Statement of Hadhrat Orange)

Hadhrat Mudrik bin Awf Ahmis states that he was once with Hadhrat Umar when a messenger from Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin when arrived. When Hadhrat Umar asked him about the condition of the people, he mentioned those Muslims who had been martyred. He mentioned the names of the martyrs and added that there were many whom he did not recognise. Hadhrat Umar commented, "But Allaah knows them all." Some people then said that there was a person who had sold his soul. They were referring to Hadhrat Awf bin Abi Hayya Ahmisi, also known as Abu Shubayl. Hadhrat Mudrik bin Awf interjected by saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! These people are of the opinion that that uncle of mine threw himself into destruction." Hadhrat Umar replied, "They are wrong. In fact, he bought the Aakhirah in exchange for this world."

Hadhrat Awf had been fasting on the day that he was wounded. He was still alive when he was removed from the battlefield and refused to drink any water until he eventually passed away (in the state of fasting). (3)

The Fast of Hadhrat Abu Amr Ansaari

In the chapter entitled "Enduring Thirst when Inviting People Towards Allaah and His Rasool ((4); it has already been narrated from Hadhrat Muhammad bin Hanafiyyah  who says, "Hadhrat Abu Amr Ansaari * had participated

⁽¹⁾ Muslim (Vol.1 Pg.356).

⁽²⁾ Isti'aab (Vol.2 Pg.316), Ibn Abi Shayba and Bukhari in his Taareekh, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.366). Ibn Mubaarak has also reported the narration in his Jihaad.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.122).

⁽⁴⁾ Under the subheading "Hadhrat Abu Amr Ansaari William Endures Severe Thirst in the Path of Allaah".

in the Battles of Badr, Uhud and the pledge at Aqaba. I once saw him fasting (on the battlefield), restless because of severe thirst. He asked his slave to pass to him his shield and when the slave did so, he fired an arrow which did not go far (because he had grown weak with thirst). When he had fired three arrows, he said that he had heard Rasulullaah say, 'Whoever fires an arrow in the path of Allaah, the arrow shall be a source of light for him on the Day of Qiyaamah whether it reaches its target or not,' Hadhrat Abu Amr says was martyred before sunset of that day.

Performing Salaah While Out in the path of Allaah The Salaah of Rasulullaah On the Night Before the Battle of Badr was Fought

Hadhrat Ali says, "There was not a single horseman amongst us during the Battle of Badr besides Miqdaad says. I noticed that each one of us was asleep (the night before the battle) besides Rasulullaah says. He was performing salaah beneath a tree and weeping until dawn broke." (1)

Rasulullaah Performs Salaah in Usfaan

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas arrates that they were with Rasulullaah at a place called Usfaan when the Mushrikeen army under the command of Khaalid bin Waleed confronted them. The Mushrikeen army was positioned between the Muslims and the Qibla. When Rasulullaah led the Sahabah in the Zuhr salaah, the Mushrikeen said, "If only we had taken advantage of the state of obliviousness that they were in (during their salaah) and attacked them!" However, they consoled themselves by saying, "A salaah is approaching (the Asr salaah) that is more beloved to them than their children and even their own selves (we can attack them then)." However, between the Zurh and Asr salaahs, Hadhrat Jibra'eel came with the revelation of the following verses of the Qur'aan describing the Salaatul Khowf:

When you (O Muhammad (1996)) are with them (present with the Muslims on the battlefield) and you lead them in salaah... (Surah Nisaa, verse 102) (2)

A narration of Muslim from Hadhrat Jaabir states that the Mushrikeen said, "There shall soon come a salaah which is more beloved to them than even their own children." (3)

The Salaah of Hadhrat Abbaad bin Bishr In the Path of Allaah

Hadhrat Jaabir 劉德多 narrates that they were accompanying Rasulullaah 機器 to a place called Nakhl during the expedition of Dhaatur Riqaa. It so happened that one of the Muslims killed (or captured) the wife of one of the Mushrikeen. The woman's husband had been away and only returned after Rasulullaah had left. When he was informed about what had happened, he took an oath that he would never rest until he spilt the blood of the companions of Rasulullaah had the therefore set off to follow the tracks of Rasulullaah.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Khuzayma, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.1 Pg.316).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad.

⁽³⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.81).

When Rasulullaah set up camp, he asked, "Who shall stand guard over us tonight?" A volunteer from amongst the Muhaajireen and another from amongst the Ansaar stood up and said, "We shall do so, O Rasulullaah sei" Rasulullaah gave them instructions to stand guard at the mouth of the valley. The two volunteers were Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir sei and Hadhrat Abbaad bin Bishr sei. When the two men reached the mouth of the valley, the Ansaari (Hadhrat Abbaad sei) said to the Muhaajir (Hadhrat Ammaar seis), "For which part of the night would you like me to relieve you (as we take turns to keep watch)? Will it be the first part of the night or the second?" the Muhaajir replied, "Relieve me for the first part of the night."

The Muhaajir then lay down to sleep as the Ansaari stood up to perform salaah. Subsequently, the man (who swore to spill the blood of the Muslims) arrived there and when he saw the silhouette (external shape) of a person, he took the Ansaari to be a spy and immediately fired an arrow which struck the Ansaari. The Ansaari removed the arrow from his body, threw it aside and continued standing (in salaah). The Mushrik fired another arrow which also struck the Ansaari. The Ansaari also removed this arrow from his body, threw it aside and continued standing (in salaah). When the Mushrik fired a third arrow which also struck the Ansaari, the Ansaari removed the arrow from his body, threw it aside and then completed his Ruku and Sajdah (and his salaah). He then awoke his companion saying, "Sit up because I have been incapacitated." The Muhaajireen jumped up and when the Mushrikeen saw the two of them, he realised that they had been alerted and he fled.

When the Muhaajir saw the blood on the Ansaari, he exclaimed, "Subhaanallaah! Why did you not wake me up when he shot at you the first time?" the Ansaari replied, "I had started reciting a Surah and did not like to cut it short before completing it. However, when the firing persisted, I went into Ruku (completed my salaah) and informed you. I swear by Allaah that had it not been for (fear of) jeopardising the mouth of the pass that Rasulullaah had instructed me to guard, I would have given my life rather than cut the Surah short." (1)

Another narration state that while Hadhrat Ammaar when went to sleep, Hadhrat Abbaad with stood in salaah. The narration also adds that Hadhrat Abbaad with said, "I was reciting Surah Kahaf in my salaah and did not like to cut it short."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq and Abu Dawood (Vol.1 Pg.29), as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.85). Ibn Hibbaan in his Saheeh, Haakim in his Mustadrak (certified authentic by Daar Qutni), Bayhaqi in his Sunan and Bukhari (Ta'leeqan) have also reported the narration, as quoted in Nasbur Ra'ya (Vol.1 Pg.43).

The Salaah of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays in the Path of Allaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays intelligence that Khaalid bin Sufyaan bin Nubay of the Banu Hudhayl tribe had mustered up a force to attack me. He is now at Urna. Go there and kill him." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays asked, "O Rasulullaah said, "When you see him, you will find him shivering." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays relates further that he then left with his sword hanging around his neck and proceeded until he found him at Urna with his wives. The time for Asr had already arrived and Khaalid was looking for a place to settle his wives.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays says, "When I saw him, I recognised the shivering that Rasulullaah described and I advanced towards him. Fearing that nothing should prove an obstacle to prevent me from my salaah as I attempted to kill him, I performed my salaah as I walked towards him. I performed Ruku and Sajdah by making gestures with my head. When I reached him, he asked, 'Who is this man?' I replied, 'I am an Arab who has heard about you and about your mustering forces against that person (Rasulullaah (1)). I have come to you in this regard." He said, 'Yes, I am busy with that."

Continuing further, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays says, "I then travelled with him for awhile until I found an opportunity. I then attacked him with my sword and killed him. I then left, leaving his wives falling over him. When I came to Rasulullaah and he saw me, he said, 'A look of success.' I have killed him,' I said. 'True,' was the reply. Rasulullaah then stood up with me, took me in his room and gave me a staff saying, 'Keep this staff with you, O Abdullaah bin Unays.' When I left with the staff and came to the people, they asked, "What is this staff?' I replied, 'Rasulullaah gave it to me with instructions to keep it with me.' When they told me to return to Rasulullaah to ask him about it, I complied. When I got to Rasulullaah I asked, 'O Rasulullaah Why have you given me this staff?' Rasulullaah replied, 'It is a token between you and me on the Day of Qiyaamah because on that day there shall be few people carrying staffs (few people with the support of their good deeds)."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Unays tied the staff to his sword and it remained with him throughout his life. When he passed away, he instructed that it should be included in his burial clothes and buried with him. (1)

Performing Salaah at Night While out in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Urwa (marates that when the two armies confronted each other for the Battle of Yarmook, Qubqulaar (a Roman commander) dispatched an Arab (to spy on the Muslims). The last portion of the narration states that (after the spy returned) Qubqulaar asked him what he had noticed. The spy replied, "They (1) Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg. 140).

Muslims are engaged in worship by night and seasoned horsemen by day." (1) In a lengthy narration of Abu Is'haaq, it is mentioned that Heraclius (the Roman Emperor) asked (his generals), "What is the matter? Why are you being defeated (by the Muslims)?" An old man from amongst his senior officers replied, "Because the Muslims stand in worship during the night and fast during the day." (2)

More Ahadeeth on this subject will be discussed in the chapter dealing with the reasons for which divine assistance came. In the chapter titled "Women pledged Their allegiance" (3), the narration has passed which states that Hadhrat Hind said (to her husband Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (1), "I wish to pledge allegiance to Muhammad (2)." Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (3) said, "But I have noticed that you have always been rejecting what he says." She replied, "By Allaah! That it true, However, I swear by Allaah that before this night I have never seen Allaah being worshipped in this Masjid as He deserves to be worshipped. By Allaah! The Muslims spent the entire night performing salaah standing, bowing down and prostrating."

Engaging in Dhikr While Out in the path of Allaah

The Dhikr of the Sahabah the Night they Conquered Makkah Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib anarrates that on the night after the Muslims entered Makkah as conquerors, they continuously recited "Allaahu Akbar", "Laa Ilaaha Illallaah" and performed Tawaaf of the Kabah until dawn broke. Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan then said to his wife Hind this is from Allaah?" "Yes," she replied, "this certainly is from Allaah." The next morning Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan went early to Rasulullaah Rasulullaah and she replied, 'You said to Hind, 'Do you not see that all this is from Allaah? and she replied, 'Yes, this certainly is from Allaah." Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan exclaimed, "I testify that you are certainly the servant and Rasul of Allaah! I swear by the Being in Whose name I take oaths that no one but Hind heard this statement of mine." (4)

The Dhikr of the Sahabah (as they Stood over a Valley During the Battle of Khaybar

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari harrates that when Rasulullaah har left on a military expedition to Khaybar, the Sahabah had reached a valley when they raised their voices reciting, "Allaahu Akbar! Laa Ilaaha Illallaah!" Rasulullaah said to them, "Have mercy on yourselves (do not exert yourselves) for you are not calling someone who is deaf or absent. You are calling One Who is All Hearing, Who is close and Who is always with you."

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari www narrates further that he was behind the

⁽¹⁾ Tabari (Vol.2 Pg.610).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad bin Marwaan Maaliki as well as Ibn Asaakir (Vol.1 Pg.143), narrating from Ibn Is'haaq.

⁽³⁾ Under the subheading "Hadhrat Faatima bint Utba (2005) Pledges Allegiance Along with her Sister Hadhrat Hind (2005) who was the Wife of Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan t".

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.304). Ibn Asaakir has also reported the narration authentically, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.297).

animal of Rasulullaah when Rasulullaah overheard him say, "Laa Howla wa Laa Quwwata Illaa Billaah (There is no power or might except with Allaah)." Rasulullaah ithen said, "O Abdullaah bin Qais!" Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari feplied by saying, "I am at your service, O Rasulullaah it laa told him, "Should I not inform you of words that are from the treasures of Jannah?" Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari said, "Please do, O Rasulullaah it May my parents be sacrificed for you." Rasulullaah enlightened him by saying, "(The words are) Laa Howla wa Laa Quwwata Illaa Billaah (There is no power or might except with Allaah)." (1)

The Sahabah Ascending Recite Takbeer and Tasbeeh when Ascending and Descending Inclines

Hadhrat Jaabir (the Sahabah (the Sahabah (the Sahabah (the Sahabah)) ascended an incline, they recited Takbeer and whenever they descended from an incline, they recited Tasbeeh. (2)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar that the People Embarking on Military Expeditions are of Two types

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "On an expedition, people are of two types. One type are those who go out and abundantly engage in the Dhikr of Allaah together with maintaining the consciousness of Allaah. They stay away from evil on their journey, assist their companions (physically and financially) and spend the best of their wealth. They are more keen on the wealth they spend (in the path of Allaah) than the wealth they use to benefit their worldly lives. When they are in war situations, they feel ashamed that Allaah should discover any doubts in their hearts or that He should find them failing to assist the Muslims. Even if they are in a position of misappropriating the booty, they cleanse their hearts and deeds from any such activity. Shaytaan is therefore unable to involve them in sin or to whisper evil into their hearts. It is through such people that Allaah strengthens and gives honour to His Deen and defeats His enemies."

"As for the second type. They go out without engaging in abundant Dhikr and without being conscious of Allaah. They do not abstain from evil and are reluctant to spend their wealth. They regard whatever they spend as a tax and this is what Shaytaan tells them. In the battle situation they remain with those right at the back and those who render absolutely no help. They stick to the tops of mountains watching what the others are doing and speak the worst of lies when Allaah grants victory (by boasting about feats they did not achieve). Should they have the opportunity to misappropriate the spoils of war, they boldly do so with the booty of Allaah, as Shaytaan tells them that these are merely spoils of war (and they therefore have a right to do as they please with it). When conditions are favorable, they boast and when they encounter any obstacle, Shaytaan misleads them to place their needs before people. They shall have no share of the rewards of the Mu'mineen. All they shall have to show is that their bodies were with the bodies of the Mu'mineen and that they travelled with the Mu'mineen. Their intentions and deeds vary and Allaah shall judge them when He gathers them on the Day of Qiyaamah." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari and the other five. As quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.213), this incident occurred during the return from Khaybar because Hadhrat Abu Moosa William arrived in Madinah only after the conquest of Khaybar.

⁽²⁾ Bukhari and Nasa'ee in Yawm wal Layla, as quoted by Ayni (Vol. 7 Pg. 36).

Being Particular About Making Du'aa when in Jihaad in the path of Allaah

Making Du'aa when Leaving a Place

The Duag of Rasulullagh As he Left Makkah for the Hijrah Hadhrat Muhammad bin Is'haaq says that he was informed that when Rasulullaah we left Makkah to make Hijrah to Madinah for the pleasure of Allaah, he said, "All praises belong to Allaah Who has created me when I had been nothing. O Allaah! Assist me against the fears of this world, the evils of the times and the calamities of the nights and days. O Allaah! Be my companion on my journey, be my deputy amongst my family and grant me blessings in that which You provide for me. Make me humble before You, keep me steadfast on good character, make me beloved to You and never hand me over to people. O Rabb of the weak ones, you are my Rabb as well. I seek refuge in Your munificent countenance by which the skies and the earth are illuminated, by which darkness is dispersed and by which the affairs of the past people were set right. I seek Your protection from attracting Your wrath on me and having Your anger descend on me. I seek Your protection from losing Your bounties, from Your sudden punishment, from losing Your safety and from all causes of Your wrath. Securing Your pleasure is better than all the deeds I am capable of doing. There is no power or might except with You." (2)

Making Du'aa when Within Sight of a Place

The Du'aa Rasulullaah when he Saw Khaybar

The grandfather of Hadhrat Abu Marwaan Aslami narrates that they accompanied Rasulullaah to Khaybar. When they got close (to Khaybar) and could see it, Rasulullaah instructed the Sahabah to stop. When they came to a halt, Rasulullaah prayed, "O Allaah the Rabb of the seven skies and whatever they shade! O Rabb of the seven earths and whatever they bear! O Rabb of the Shayaateen and whoever they mislead! O Rabb of the winds and whatever they carry! We beg of you the best of this town, the best of its inhabitants and the best of whatever it contains. We seek Your protection from the evii of this town, the evil of its inhabitants and the evil of whatever it contains." Rasulullaah then said (to the Sahabah (1), "Proceed in the name of Allaah!" (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.290).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.178)...

A narration of Tabraani states that Rasulullaah (1) used to make this du'aa each time he entered a town.

Making Du'aa at the Beginning of the Battle The Du'aa Rasulullaah Made on the Occasion of the Battle of Badr

Hadhrat Umar how narrates that on the day of the Battle of Badr, Rasulullaah looked at his Sahabah who numbered just over three hundred. He then looked at the Mushrikeen who numbered over a thousand. Wearing only an upper and lower garment, Rasulullaah who then turned towards the Qibla and prayed, "O Allaah! Fulfil Your promise to me. O Allaah! If this group of Muslims is destroyed, Youwill never again be worshipped on earth." Rasulullaah continued seeking Allaah's help and praying to Him until his upper garment fell off. Hadhrat Abu Bakr came to put the garment on again and then held on to Rasulullaah from behind saying, "O Rasulullaah who what you have so persistently asked from your Rabb is sufficient for He will certainly fulfil the promise He made to you." It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

(O Muhammad , remember the time before the Battle of Badr) When you sought help from your Rabb and He accepted your du'aa saying, "I shall strengthen (reinforce) you with a housand angels who will appear one after another (to help you fight the Mushrikeen)." (Surah Anfaal, verse 9) (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas was narrates that Rasulullaah selection of Badr with three hundred and fifteen men. When they reached Badr, Rasulullaah prayed, "O Allaah! They (my Sahabah selection) are barefoot, so do grant them transport. O Allaah! They are scantily clothed, so do clothe them. O Allaah! They are hungry, so do fill their bellies." When Allaah granted them victory in the Battle of Badr and they returned, there was not a single one of them who did not possess one or two camels. They also had clothing to wear and had eaten to their fill. (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 🖽 says that he had never heard a du'aa

Bayhaqi and Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.183). Tabraani has also reported the narration and Haythami (Vol.10 Pg.135) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, Muslim, Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi, Ibn Jareer and others, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.275). Ibn Abi Shayba, Abu Awaana, Ibn Hibbaan, Abu Nu'aym, Ibn Mundhir, Ibn Abi Haatim, Abu Shaykh, Ibn Mardway and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.266).

⁽³⁾ Abu Dawood, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.38). Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.57) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.2 Pg.13) have also reported the narration.

more persistent than the du'aa Rasulullaah made on the occasion of the Battle of Badr. He prayed, "O Allaah! I am beseeching You in the name of Your promise and pledge. O Allaah! If this group is destroyed, You will not be worshipped." When Rasulullaah turned around, his face appeared to be a part of the moon as he said, "It is as if I can see the places where they (the dead Mushrikeen) will lie by tonight." (1)

The Du'aa Rasulullaah and made on the Occasions of the Battle of Uhud and the Battle of Khandaq

Hadhrat Anas (India) narrates that on the day that the Battle of Uhud was fought, Rasulullaah (India) repetitively said, "O Allaah! (Do assist us) If You (choose not to assist us) none would worship You on earth."

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri was narrates that on the occasion of the Battle of Khandaq; the Sahabah was asked Rasulullaah , "O Rasulullaah Is there any du'aa that we could make on this occasion because our hearts have reached our throats." Rasulullaah replied, "Yes," and then recited the following du'aa:

"O Allaah! Conceal our faults and calm our fears."

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri (When we started reciting the du'aa) Allaah smote the faces of His enemies (defeated them) by sending a powerful wind against them." (3)

Hadhrat Jaabir in arrates that Rasulullaah once went to Masjid Ahzaab and placed his shawl aside. He then stood up and stretched his hands out to curse the Mushrikeen army. On this occasion, he did not perform any salaah. Rasulullaah then went there again, again cursed them and this time performed (two Rakaahs) salaah. (4)

A narration of Bukhari and Muslim state that Rasulullaah cursed the conglomeration of Kuffaar forces (when they attacked Madinah) by saying, "O Allaah Who has revealed the Qur'aan, Who is quick in reckoning and Who will defeat the mass of troops! O Allaah! Defeat them and shake (destabilise) them." Another narration states that Rasulullaah prayed, "O Allaah! Defeat them and assist us against them." Another narration of Bukhari related by Hadhrat Abu Hurayra mentions that the du'aa Rasulullaah made was: "There is none worthy of worship but the One Allaah Who has given honour to His army, assisted His servant and defeated the coalition of forces all by Himself. There is nothing after Him." (5)

Nasa'ee, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.276). Tabraani has also reported the narration and Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.82) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad and Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.28):

⁽³⁾ Ahmad and Ibn Abi Haatim.

⁽⁴⁾ Muslim and Ahmad.

⁽⁵⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.111).

Making Du'aa During the Battle

The Du'aa Rasulullaah Made While Fighting During the Battle of Badr

Hadhrat Ali says, "After fighting for a while during the Battle of Badr, I rushed to see how Rasulullaah was keeping. When I arrived there, Rasulullaah was in Sajdah praying, 'Yaa Hayyu! Yaa Qayyoom! Yaa Hayyu! Yaa Qayyoom! ('O The Living, The Controller!').' Rasulullaah said nothing more. I then returned to the fight and when I got back to Rasulullaah was still in Sajdah repeating the same words. Rasulullaah continued in this manner until Allaah gave him victory." (1)

Making Du'aa During the night (of a Battle)

The Du'aa Rasulullaah A Made on the Night Before the Battle of Badr

Hadhrat Ali in narrates that on the night before the Battle of Badr, Rasulullaah is spent the night in salaah praying, "O Allaah! If this group is destroyed, You will never again be worshipped on earth." That night, some rain fell (causing the firm ground where the Mushrikeen stood to become muddy and the soft ground where the Muslims stood to become firm). (2) Another narration from Hadhrat Ali states that although Rasulullaah is was a Musaafir (traveller), he had spent the entire night in Ibaadah till the morning that the Battle of Badr was fought. (3)

Making Du'aa after Finishing the Battle The Du'aa of Rasulullaah after the Battle of Uhud

Hadhrat Rifaa'ah Zuraqi harrates that when the Mushrikeen had returned after the Battle of Uhud, Rasulullaah said, "Stand straight so that I may praise my Rabb had arranged themselves into rows behind Rasulullaah had, he said, "O Allaah! Every type of praise belongs to You. O Allaah! There is none to restrain what You give in abundance and none to give anything that You restrain. None can guide the one whom You cause to deviate and none can deviate the one whom You guide. None can give what You hold back and none can hold back what You give. None can bring close that which You make distant and none can make distant that which You bring close. O Allaah! Grant us in abundance Your blessings, Your mercy, Your grace Bayhaqi and Nasa'ee in his "Al Yown wal Layla", as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.275). Bazzaar, Abu Ya'la, Firyaabi and Haakim have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.267).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Mardway and Sa'eed bin Jubayr, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.267).

⁽³⁾ Abu Ya'la and Ibn Hibbaan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaai (Vol.5 Pg.267)...

and Your sustenance. O Allaah! I ask from You Your everlasting bounties that never change and are never lost. O Allaah! I beseech You for bounties on that day of poverty (Qiyaamah) and for safety on the day of fear. O Allaah! I seek Your protection from the evil of that which You have given us and from the evil of that which You have held back from us. O Allaah! Make Imaan beloved to us and beautify it in our hearts. Make kufr, sin and disobedience abhorrent to us and make us amongst the rightly guided ones. O Allaah! Grant us death as Muslims, keep us living as Muslims and allow us to meet up with the righteous ones (in the Aakhirah) without suffering any humiliation and without having to endure any trials. O Allaah! Destroy the Kuffaar who call Your messengers liars and who prevent others from Your path. Set on them Your punishment and chastisement. O Allaah! O the True Deity! Destroy also those Kuffaar to whom You have given scriptures." (1)

The du'aa that Rasulullaah made after giving Da'wah to the people of Taa'if has already been related in the chapter entitled: "Rasulullaah Endures Hardship and Difficulty when Giving Da'wah towards Allaah". (2)

Being Particular About Ta'leem (Learning and teaching) when in Jihaad in the path of Allaah

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Concerning the Verse "It is not for the Mu'mineen to proceed (in Jihaad) all together..."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 🖫 says, "Allaah has stated:

﴿ لِنَا يَّهُا الَّذِيْنَ امْنُواْ خُذُواْ حِذُرَكُمْ فَانْفِرُوْ ثَبَاتٍ أَوِانْفِرُواْ جَمِيْعًا ۞ ﴿ (سورة النساء: ٧١) Take your precautions (your weapons and other means to guard

Take your precautions (your weapons and other means to guard yourselves against your enemies) and advance (in Jihaad against them) in groups or all together. {Surah Nisaa, verse 71}

Proceed (in the path of Allaah) when light or heavy (happily or reluctantly, rich or poor, in good conditions and adverse conditions). {Surah Taubah, verse 41}

If you do not go forth, Allaah shall punish you severely...{Surah Taubah, verse 39}

However, these verses were later abrogated when Allaah revealed the verse:

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad and Nasa'ee in his "Al Yowm wal Laylah", as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.38). Bukhari in his Adab, Tabraani, Baghawi, Baawardi, Abu Nu'aym in Hilya, Haakim and Bayhaqi have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.276). Dhahabi and Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.122) have both commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Under the subheading: "The Du'aa Rasulullaah after Leaving Taa'if".

﴿ وَمَا كَانَ المُؤْمِنُونَ لِيَنْفِرُواْ كَافَّةً " فَلُولًا نَفَرَ مِنْ كُلِّ فِرْقَةٍ مِّنْهُمْ طَآبِفَةٌ لِيَتَفَقَّهُواْ فِي اللَّذِينِ وَلِيَنْذِرُواْ قَوْمَهُمْ اِذَا رَجَعُواْ الِيَهِمُ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَخُذَرُونَ ﴾ (سورة التوبه: ١٢١) It is not (correct) for the Mu'mineen to proceed (in Jihaad) all together (simultaneously when it is not Fardh for all to participate). (Surah Taubah, verse 122)

Then was the practice that while a party of Muslims would march with Rasulullaah we, another party would remain behind. Those that remained behind with Rasulullaah would attain a deep understanding of Deen so that they may warn their people (those who had been engaged in Jihaad) when they return to them from the expeditions. In this manner, they were aware of what Allaah revealed in the Qur'aan, about their obligations and about the limits that Allaah had set." (1)

The Letter of Hadhrat Umar to his Commanders about Attaining a Deep Understanding of Deen

Hadhrat Ahwas bin Hakeem bin Umayr Absi narrates that Hadhrat Umar wrote the following in a letter addressed to the commanders of the various Muslims armies, "Endeavour to attain a deep understanding of Deen because no person can be excused for pursuing falsehood thinking that it is the truth. Similarly, no one can be excused for forsaking the truth in the belief that it is falsehood." (2)

The Sahabah (sit in Gatherings (To Learn and Teach) while on Journey

Hadhrat Hitaan bin Abdullaah Raqaashi narrates that they were once part of an army under the command of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari . They were travelling along the banks of the Tigris River when the time for salaah arrived. After someone had called out the Adhaan for the Zuhr salaah, the people started making wudhu and Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari also made wudhu. He then led them in salaah, after which they all sat in groups. When the time for the Asr salaah arrived, someone called out the Adhaan for Asr and the people again stood up to make wudhu. Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari she then instructed the Mu'adhin to announce, "Take note that none should make wudhu besides those whose wudhu had broken." Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari she then said, "It seems imminent that knowledge shall disappear and ignorance will prosper to the extent that because of ignorance, a man will use his sword to kill his own mother." (3)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.47).

⁽²⁾ Aadam bin Abi Ayaas in his Ilm, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.228).

⁽³⁾ Abdur Razaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.114) and Tahaawi in his Sharhu Ma'aanil Aathaar (Vol.1 Pg.27).

Spending While in Jihaad in the Path of Allaah The Spending of Some Sahabah in the Path of Allaah

Hadhrat Abu Mas'ood Ansaari in arrates that a man came with a reined camel and said, "(I am donating) This camel in the path of Allaah." Rasulullaah said, "You shall have seven hundred camels in exchange for it on the Day of Qiyaamah. Each one of those will also have reins." (I) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Saamit narrates, "I was with Hadhrat Abu Dharr when he received his allowance (from the state treasury). Hadhrat Abu Dharr had his slave girl with him, who started paying off all his expenses (with the money). Only seven Dirhams were left over, which he instructed her to convert into change. I said to him, '(Wouldn't it be better) If you kept it back for a need that may arise or for a guest that may come to you?' He replied, 'My beloved friend (Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah (Rasulullaah)) advised me saying, 'Any gold or silver that is tied up in a bag (put away for the future) is live coal for its owner until he spends it in the path of Allaah."

A narration of Ahmad and Tabraani states that Rasulullaah see said, "When a person ties gold or silver in a bag and does not spend it in the path of Allaah, it will be live embers on the Day of Qiyaamah which will be used to brand him." (2)

Hadhrat Qais bin Sala Ansaari when they alleged that he wasted his wealth and gave out plenty. However, Hadhrat Qais wasted his said, "O Rasulullaah will I take only my share of the dates and spend it in the path of Allaah and on those in my company." Rasulullaah then placed his hand on the chest of Hadhrat Qais was and thrice said, "Spend and Allaah will spend on you." Hadhrat Qais says, "Thereafter I always had transport when I went out in the path of Allaah and today I am the wealthiest person in my family (because of the blessings of spending in the path of Allaah)." (3)

The Rewards of Spending in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal narrates that Rasulullaah said, "Glad tidings for the person who abundantly engages in the Dhikr of Allaah while out in Jihaad in the path of Allaah because for every word he shall receive the rewards of seventy thousand good deeds. The reward for each one of these good deeds shall be multiplied ten times together with the extra that (he will receive which) is with Allaah." Someone asked, "O Rasulullaah see replied, "Spending is (rewarded) likewise."

⁽¹⁾ Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.37) and Nasa'ee, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.3)

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg. 178).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.173). Ibn Mandah has also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.250).

One of the narrators by the name of Abdur Rahmaan says that he then asked Hadhrat Mu'aadh ("But the reward of spending (in the path of Allaah) is multiplied seven hundred times." Hadhrat Mu'aadh ("Your understanding is wanting. That (reward multiplied seven hundred times) is for people who spend (on others in the path of Allaah) while they are themselves with their families (at home) and not out on an expedition. However, when they march out themselves and then spend, Allaah keeps aside for them such things from the treasures of His mercy that far transcends the knowledge of man and his ability to describe it. Such people are the party of Allaah and the party of Allaah are always victorious." (1)

Hadhrat Ali Hadhrat Abu Dardaa Hadhrat Abu Hurayra Hadhrat Abu Umaama Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas Hadhrat Jaabir Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn

﴿ وَاللَّهُ يُطْغِفُ لِمَنْ يَّشَاءُ ﴾ (سورة البقره: ٢٦١)

And Allaah multiplies (rewards) for whoever He wills. (Surah Baqara, verse 261) (2) In the chapter entitled "Rasulullaah Encourages Striving in the path of Allaah and Spending One's Wealth for this Cause", it has already been narrated how much was spent by Sahabah Such as Hadhrat Abu Bakr Such, Hadhrat Umar Such, Hadhrat Uthmaan Such, Hadhrat Talha Such, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Such, Hadhrat Abbaas Such, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah Such, Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama Such, Hadhrat Aasim bin Adi Such, More details will be mentioned in a forthcoming chapter specifically dealing with the spending of the Sahabah

Proceeding in Jihaad in the Path of Allaah with a Sincere Intention

There Shall be no Rewards for the person whose Intention is to Gain Fame and Fortune

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra harrates that someone asked, "O Rasulullaah (Tell me about) A person who intends to wage Jihaad and also has the intention of earning some worldly profits." Rasulullaah replied, "He shall not be rewarded." Regarding this to be a very serious matter, the Sahabah said to the person, "Please repeat what you have asked Rasulullaah Perhaps you did not explain yourself to him properly." The man asked for the second time, "O

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.282) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Qazweeni, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.2 Pg.3).

Rasulullaah [18] (Tell me about) A person who proceeds in Jihaad with the intention of earning some worldly profits?" Rasulullaah [18] repeated, "He shall not be rewarded." Again regarding this to be a very serious matter, the Sahabah instructed the person to again repeat the question. The man asked for the third time, "O Rasulullaah [18] (Tell me about) A person who proceeds in Jihaad with the intention of earning some worldly profits?" Rasulullaah [18] again repeated, "He shall not be rewarded." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Umaamah harrates that a man approached Rasulullaah with the query, "Tell me about a person who wages Jihaad in search of fame and fortune. What is there for him?" "There shall be nothing for him," replied Rasulullaah when the man repeated his question three times, Rasulullaah replied each time, "There shall be nothing for him." Thereafter, Rasulullaah added, "Allaah accepts only those actions that are carried out solely for Him, through which His pleasure is sought." (2)

The Story of Quzmaan

Hadhrat Aasim bin Amr bin Qataadah (Inc.) narrates that a man lived amongst them whose identity no one really knew. He was only known as Quzmaan. Whenever his name was mentioned, Rasulullaah (Inc.) used to say, "He is from the inmates of Jahannam." He fought very fiercely during the Battle of Uhud and single-handedly killed seven to eight Mushrikeen. He was a true warrior. However, he was eventually incapacitated by a nasty wound. When he was carried to the Banu Zafar district, many Muslims said to him, "You fought with great courage today, O Quzmaan! Glad tidings to you!" He said, "Glad tidings for what? By Allaah! I fought only for the good name of my people. Had it not been for this, I would never have fought." When his wound became too much for him to bear, he took an arrow from his quiver and used it to commit suicide. (3)

The Story of Usayram

It is reported that Hadhrat Abu Hurayra wise used to often ask (the people around him), "Tell me about the person who entered Jannah without ever performing a single salaah?" When the people were unable to identify the person, they asked Hadhrat Abu Hurayra would then say, "He was Usayram from the Banu Abdul Ash'hal tribe (whose real name was) Amr bin Thaabit bin Qais."

(One of the narrators) Hadhrat Husayn says that when he asked Hadhrat Mahmood bin Labeed about the story of Hadhrat Usayram (he narrated, "He always refused to accept Islaam when his people invited him. On the day that the Battle of Uhud was fought, it suddenly occurred to him to accept Islaam and he did so. He then took his sword and proceeded until he entered the flanks of the enemy. There he fought until a wound crippled him. As some people from the

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood, Ibn Hibbaan and Haakim in brief, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 2 Pg.419). (2) Abu Dawood and Nasa'ee, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol. 2 Pg.421).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.36).

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra had narrates that because Hadhrat Amr bin Uqaysh had given out a loan on interest during the Period of Ignorance, he disliked accepting Islaam until he had received the payment. When the Battle of Uhud took place, he asked, "Where are my cousins?" When he was informed that they were at Uhud, he exclaimed, "At Uhud!" He then donned his helmet, mounted his horse and rode towards them. Seeing him arrive, the Muslims called out, "Go away, O Amr!" He responded by saying, "I have already accepted Imaan." He then fought fiercely until he was wounded and carried off to his family as a wounded man. Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh had then arrived there and asked his sister to ask Hadhrat Amr whether he fought because of his camaraderie (friendship, allegiance) with his people or because he felt for Allaah and His Rasool had he had hever had the opportunity to perform a single salaah for Allaah. (2)

The Story of a Bedouin

Hadhrat Shaddaad ibnul Haad narrates that a Bedouin once came to Rasulullaah Accepted Imaan and became a devoted follower of Rasulullaah Image (in Madinah). After the Battle of Khaybar, much booty came to Rasulullaah Image and he distributed it (amongst the Muslim soldiers). Rasulullaah Image also stipulated a share for that particular Bedouin Sahabi Image and handed it over to his friends (to give it to him) since he was busy grazing the animals. When they came to give his share (of the booty) to him, the Sahabi Image asked, "What is this?" "It is your share of the booty that Rasulullaah Image has stipulated for you," they replied. He said, "I did not follow him for this. Instead, I followed him so that I may die and enter Jannah when an arrow strikes me here." He then pointed towards his throat. Rasulullaah Image said, "If you are true, Allaah will make it come true."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.37) with a reliable chain of narrators as confirmed in Isaaba (Vol.6 Pg.526). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration in his Ma'rifah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.8). Ahmad has also reported the narration as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.362).

⁽²⁾ Abu Dawood and Haakim narrating from reliable sources as confirmed in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.526). Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.167) has also reported the narration.

The Sahabah then engaged in battle against the enemy and (after fighting and being martyred) the Sahabi was brought to Rasulullaah He had been struck by an arrow at exactly the same spot he had pointed towards. Rasulullaah asked, "Is it he?" When the Sahabah confirmed that it was him, Rasulullaah said, "He was true to Allaah and Allaah made his intention come true." Rasulullaah then shrouded the Sahabi in a coat that belonged to Rasulullaah in a fire which he placed the corpse before him and led the Janaazah salaah (funeral prayer). Whilst making du'aa for the Sahabi in the following words of Rasulullaah were heard: "O Allaah! Here lies Your servant who migrated in Your path. He was killed as a martyr and I am his witness." (1)

The Story of a Black Sahabi

Hadhrat Anas in arrates that a man came to Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah I I am a man with a black skin, an ugly face and without any wealth. Will I enter Jannah if I fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II I fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II I fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II I fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fight those people (the Kuffaar army)?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah II i fi

The Story of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 經過過

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas in arrates that Rasulullaah once sent a message to him stating, "Get your clothes and weapons on and come to me." When he got to Rasulullaah is said, "I wish to send you out in command of an army. Allaah will keep you safe and grant you much booty. I shall also grant you a fine portion of the booty." Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas is said, "O Rasulullaah is I did not accept Islaam for wealth but accepted Islaam for the love of Islaam." Rasulullaah is said, "O Amr! Good wealth is a fine thing for a good man." (3)

According to another narration, Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas also said, "I accepted Islaam for the love of Islaam and to be with the Rasool of Allaah ""." Rasulullaah said, "Indeed, but good wealth is a fine thing for a good man." (4)

The Statements of Hadhrat Umar Concerning Martyrs

Hadhrat Abul Bakhtari Taa'ee narrates that many people in Kufa gathered with

⁽I) Bayhaqi and Nasa'ee, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.191). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.595) has also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.191). Haakim has also reported the narration, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.447).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.3).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat and Kabeer, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.353).

Hadhrat Abul Mukhtaar the father of Mukhtaar bin Abu Ubayd at the bridge of Abu Ubayd. This was the place where Hadhrat Abu Ubayd (Thaqafi) was martyred (along with his entire battalion in the year 13 A.H.). All were martyred save for two or three men who used their swords to attack the enemy lines with such force that they opened up a path for themselves through which to escape. They eventually reached Madinah.

As the three were sitting one day and discussing about the others (those who were killed in the battle), Hadhrat Umar came to them and asked, "Tell me what you have been discussing about them?" They replied, "We were seeking forgiveness on their behalf and making du'aa for them." Hadhrat Umar threatened, "You will have to tell me what you were saying about them otherwise you will receive harsh treatment from me." They said, "We were saying that they are martyrs."

Hadhrat Umar then said, "I swear by the Being besides Whom there is no deity, Who has sent Muhammad with the truth and without Whose command Qiyaamah will never take place! No living being knows what a dead person will receive by Allaah except for the Nabi of Allaah because Allaah has forgiven all his past and future errors. I swear by the Being besides Whom there is no deity, Who has sent Muhammad with the truth and guidance and without Whose command Qiyaamah will never take place! There are people who fight to show off, others who fight because of their tribal fanaticism, those who fight to attain worldly gain and those who fight for wealth. All those who fight will receive by Allaah only that which was in their hearts."

Hadhrat Maalik bin Aws bin Hadathaan in narrates that they were busy discussing an army that was martyred during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar when one of them commented, "They were the workers of Allaah out in the path of Allaah so their rewards will be with Allaah." Another person observed, "Allaah will resurrect them (on the Day of Qiyaamah) according to the intentions they died with." To this, Hadhrat Umar remarked, "Correct. I swear by the Being Who controls my life that Allaah will certainly resurrect them according to the intentions they died with. There are people who fight for show and boasting while others fight with the intention of gaining things of this world. There are also those whom the battle takes by surprise and they have no option but to fight. Then there are those who fight with perseverance and with hope of rewards from Allaah. These are the true martyrs. In fact, even I have no idea of what will happen to me (in the Aakhirah) or of what will happen to you. All I do know is that the occupant of this grave (Rasulullaah in has all his past and future errors forgiven." (2)

Hadhrat Masrooq narrates that when mention was made of some martyrs in front of Hadhrat Umar (William), he addressed the people saying, "Whom do you regard to be martyrs?" The people replied, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Martyrs are those who are killed in these battles." When he received this reply, Hadhrat Umar said, "In that case, martyrs will be plenty. Let me enlighten you on the subject. Bravery and cowardliness are natural traits amongst people which Allaah places wherever He wills. The truly brave person is therefore the one who fights with fervour without caring whether he returns to his family. On the other hand, the coward is the one who flees from the battlefield on account of his wife. The true martyr is he who gives his life with the hope of earning rewards from Allaah. The true Muhaajir is he who leaves the acts that Allaah forbids and the true Muslim is he from whose tongue and hands other Muslims are safe." (1)

Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.292). Haafidh Ibn Hajar 海路路路 has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Tammaam.

The Story of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr And his Mother

Hadhrat Dimaam narrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr sent a message to his mother (Hadhrat Asmaa saying, "People have deserted me while those people (my enemies) are calling for a truce." Her reply was, "If you are out to revive the Book of Allaah and the Sunnah of Allaah's Nabi saying, then die on the truth. However, if you are out in search of worldly gain, then there is no good in you whether you are alive or dead." (2)

Obeying the Instructions of the Ameer when Proceeding in Jihaad in the Path of Allaah

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Rebukes a Man who did not Carry out his Instructions

Hadhrat Abu Maalik Ash'ari 等障碍 narrates, "Rasulullaah 震響 sent us on an expedition and appointed Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waggaas ﷺ as our commander. We set out and later set up camp somewhere. When a man stood up to saddle his horse, I asked him where he was off to. He replied, 'I am off to get fodder.' I said, 'Do not do anything until we ask our Ameer.' We then went to Abu Moosa Ash'ari 医障碍 (in command of our battalion) and spoke to him about it. He said, 'It seems as if you want to return to you family.' When the man denied it, Abu Moosa Ash'ari (cautioned him, 'Watch what you say.' 'No (I do not wish to return home), repeated the man. Abu Moosa Ash'ari with then said, 'You may proceed on the path of righteousness.' The man left and returned after a considerable portion of the night had passed. Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 经证证 asked, 'Did you perhaps go to your family?' When the man denied it, Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 劉國國 cautioned, 'Watch what you say.' The man then admitted that he did. Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari المنافقة then said, 'You went to your family in fire, sat there in fire and returned in fire. Now start afresh (to do good so that your sin should be annulled)." (3)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Shayba, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.292).

⁽²⁾ Nu'aym bin Hammaad in his Fitan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.57).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.169).

Staying Together While out In Jihaad in the path of Allaah

Rasulullaah E Criticises Separating in Valleys and Sealing Roads

Hadhrat Abu Tha'laba Khushani narrates that when the Muslims camped at a valley, they separated and dispersed. Rasulullaah said, "Your separating in valleys is from Shaytaan." Thereafter, whenever they set up camp, they would stay together. (1) Another narration(2) adds that (the Sahabah stayed so close together thereafter that) if a sheet was thrown over them, it would cover them all.

Hadhrat Mu'aadh Juhani when the Muslims (because they separated) they made the camp small (making it difficult for others to find space) and crowded the road (so that no one could pass). Rasulullaah then sent someone to announce, "There is no (rewards for) Jihaad for the person who makes the camp small or seals a road." (3)

Standing Guard While Out in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Anas bin Abi Marthad Ghanawi Stands Guard

Hadhrat Sahl bin Handhaliyya in arrates that they marched with Rasulullaah for the Battle of Hunayn and were marching with great speed until the afternoon. Hadhrat Sahl is narrates further that he had completed the Zuhr salaah with Rasulullaah when a horseman came to Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah is I rode ahead of you and got to the top of a certain mountain where I chanced to see the Hawaazin tribe watering their camels of their fathers along with their women, their animals and goats. They have all gathered at Hunayn. Rasulullaah smiled and said, "Inshaa Allaah, that will all be booty for the Muslims tomorrow."

Rasulullaah then announced, "Who will stand guard over us tonight?" Hadhrat Anas bin Abi Marthad Ghanawi said, "I will, O Rasulullaah Rasulullaah then instructed him to get mounted. When he mounted his horse and came to Rasulullaah Rasulullaah briefed him by saying, "Go to that ravine in front and get to the top of it. (Be vigilant as you stand guard there and) Let not the enemy deceitfully get to you tonight." The next morning, Rasulullaah went to the place where they performed salaah and performed two Rakaahs salaah. He then asked, "Do you people know anything about your rider?" "No," replied the Sahabah ("We know nothing of him."

⁽¹⁾ Abu Dawood and Nasa'ee, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.5 Pg.40).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.152) and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.341).

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.152) as well as Abu Dawood, as quoted in Mishkaat (Pg.332)

The Iqaamah was then called out and as Rasulullaah led the salaah, he kept glancing towards the ravine. When Rasulullaah completed the salaah and had made the Salaam, he said, "Listen to the glad tidings that your rider has arrived." When the Sahabah looked between the trees of the ravine, they saw him come. He stopped before Rasulullaah ge, greeted with Salaam and said, "I went up to the highest point of the ravine as Rasulullaah had instructed me. In the morning I studied both walls of the ravine but saw no one." Rasulullaah ge asked, "Did you dismount during the night?" "No," replied Hadhrat Anas bin Abi Marthad ge, "except for salaah and to relieve myself." Rasulullaah ge commented, "You have made it (Jannah) compulsory for yourself. (Your rewards are so great that) It matters not if you do no (Nafl) deeds after this." (1)

Another Sahabi ﷺ Stands Guard

Hadhrat Abu Atiyya reports that Rasulullaah was once sitting when he was informed that a man had passed away. Rasulullaah asked, "Has any of you seen him do any good deed?" "Yes," replied another Sahabi and those with him stood up and Rasulullaah was led the Janaazah salaah (funeral prayer) for the deceased. When the Sahabi was placed in the grave, Rasulullaah threw some sand with his hands and then said, "Although your companions think that you are amongst the inmates of Jahannam, I testify that you are from amongst the inhabitants of Jannah." Addressing Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab Rasulullaah for then said, "Do not ask about the (evil) actions of people, but rather enquire about their (good deeds which are acts of) Islaam." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Atiyya in arrates that when a person passed away during the time of Rasulullaah is, some of the Sahabah in said, "O Rasulullaah in the Janaazah salaah for him." Rasulullaah in then asked, "Has anyone seen him (do any good deed)." The Hadith continues further. (3) Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Aa'idh is states that Rasulullaah in once left for the Janaazah of a Sahabi in When the deceased was placed (before Rasulullaah in Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab in Said, "Do not lead the Janaazah salaah for him, O Rasulullaah in because he was a sinful man." Rasulullaah in then turned to the other Sahabah in and asked, "Has anyone seen him (do any good deed)." The Hadith continues further like the one quoted above. (4)

Abu Dawood and Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.149). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration, as quoted in Muntakhab (Vol.5 Pg.143).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.288) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.291).

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi in Shu'abul Imaan, as quoted in Mishkaat Pg. 328.

Hadhrat Abu Rayhaana ఆడ్డ్ , Hadhrat Ammaar ఆడ్డ్ and Hadhrat Abbaad ఆడ్డ్ stand guard

The Hadith of Hadhrat Abu Rayhaana has passed in the chapter entitled "Enduring Extreme Cold when Inviting People Towards Allaah" (1) In the narration, he states, "Rasulullaah announced, 'Who will stand guard over us tonight? I shall make such a du'aa for him, the virtues of which he will certainly receive.' A man from the Ansaar stood up and volunteered. When Rasulullaah asked who he was, he gave his name. Rasulullaah asked him to come closer and when he did, Rasulullaah held a part of his clothing and started making du'aa for him. When I heard the du'aa, I also volunteered. Rasulullaah asked me who I was and I informed him that I was Abu Rayhaana. Rasulullaah then made a du'aa for me that was shorter than the one he made for the other person. Thereafter, Rasulullaah said, 'The fire of Jahannam has been forbidden for the eye that stands guard in the path of Allaah." (2)

In the chapter entitled "Performing Salaah While Out in the path of Allaah" (3), the narration is reported by Hadhrat Jaabir in which it is mentioned that Rasulullaah asked, "Who shall stand guard over us tonight?" A volunteer from amongst the Muhaajireen and another from amongst the Ansaar stood up and said, "We shall do so, O Rasulullaah in Rasulullaah gave them instructions to stand guard at the mouth of the valley. The two volunteers were Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir in and Hadhrat Abbaad bin Bishr in The Hadith continues further as already narrated. (4)

Enduring Illness while in Jihaad in the path of Allaah

The Story of Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b (1986) and His Du'aa to be able to Endure Fever

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri in narrates that Rasulullaah in Said, "Whenever a Mu'min is hurt on his body, Allaah uses it as a means to annul some of his sins." Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b then prayed, "O Allaah! I beseech You to allow a fever to inflict the body of Ubay bin Ka'b until the day he meets you (until I die). However, it should not prevent him from salaah, fasting, Hajj, Umrah or Jihaad in Your path." A fever then overcame him where he stood and did not leave him until he passed away. Even while suffering the fever, he was always present for salaah, observed his fasts, performed Hajj and Umrah and participated in military expeditions. (5)

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri (1986) narrates that a person came to Rasulullaah

⁽¹⁾ Under the subheading "The Sahabah Dig the Trench in Extreme Cold".

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, Nasa'ee, Tabraani and Bayhaqi.

⁽³⁾ Under the subheading "The Salaah of Hadhrat Abbaad bin Bishr (3) In the Path of Allaah".

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Is'haaq.

⁽⁵⁾ Ibn Asaakir.

and asked, "Tell me what we receive in exchange for these illnesses that keep afflicting us?" Rasulullaah replied, "They annul sins." He Ubay asked, "Even if it is something mild?" Rasulullaah said, "Even if it be a prick of a thorn or something milder." It was then that Hadhrat Ubay prayed to Allaah that fever should never leave him until his death but should not prevent him from Hajj, Umrah, Jihaad in the path of Allaah or salaah in congregation. Whenever someone touched him, the heat of the fever could be felt. This continued until the day he passed away. (1)

Enduring Injuries while in Jihaad in the path of Allaah

The Injuries that Rasulullaah W Suffered

Hadhrat Jundub bin Sufyaan (Fig. 1) reports that as Rasulullaah (Fig. 1) was walking, his foot struck a stone and he fell. This caused his finger to start bleeding. Rasulullaah (Fig. 1) then said:

You are merely a finger that is bleeding But whatever you suffer is in the path of Allaah

The Hadith of Hadhrat Anas has already passed in the chapter entitled "Rasulullaah Endures Hardship and Difficulty when Giving Da'wah towards Allaah" (2). There he narrates that the canine teeth of Rasulullaah were broken during the Battle of Uhud and he was also severely injured on the head. The Hadith is narrated by Bukhari, Muslim and others.

The Injuries Sustained by Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillah (Subaya) and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Subaya)

The Hadith has also passed⁽³⁾ in which Hadhrat Aa'isha whenever Hadhrat Abu Bakr spoke about the Battle of Uhud, he would say, "Every credit for that day goes to Talha." Later on in the narration, Hadhrat Abu Bakr says further, "When we reached Rasulullaah his canine tooth was already broken and his face was injured when two links of his helmet pierced his cheeks. Rasulullaah said, 'See to your companion!' Rasulullaah was referring to Talha who had become weak due to loss of blood. Later on in the Hadith, Hadhrat Abu Bakr continues, "After tending to Rasulullaah who had fallen into a ditch. He had suffered seventy odd

⁽I) Ibn Asaakir, Ahmad and Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.153). The author of Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.20) states that the narration is also reported by Ahmad, Abu Ya'la, Ibn Abi Dunya, Ibn Hibbaan and Tabraani, Another narration of Ibn Asaakir appears in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.2). Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration from Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b (Vol.1 Pg.255).

⁽²⁾ Under the subheading "The Hardship Rasulullaah W Bore During the Battle of Uhud".

⁽³⁾ Under the heading "Rasulullaah Findures Hardship and Difficulty when Giving Da'wah towards Allaah" and the subheading "The Hardship Rasulullaah Be Bore During the Battle of Uhud".

wounds inflicted by spears, arrows and swords. We then nursed him." (1) Hadhrat Ibraheem bin Sa'd says that the report reached him that during the Battle of Uhud, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf sussained twenty one wounds. An injury to his leg caused him to limp. (2)

The Injury of Hadhrat Anas bin Nadhr المُعَلِينَةُ

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik says that his paternal uncle, Hadhrat Anas bin Nadhar bitterly regretted his inability to participate in the battle of Badr. He addressed Rasulullaah saying, "I was unable to participate in the first opportunity to fight the Mushrikeen. If Allaah affords Muslim the opportunity to fight them, I shall (show my mettle and) Allaah will see what I can do."

Consequently, he participated in the battle of Uhud. When the Muslims suffered a reversal in the battle, he supplicated to Allaah saying, "O Allaah! I apologise for what they (the Mu'mineen) have done and I absolve myself from what they (the Kuffaar) have done." Saying this, he advanced into the enemy lines. He passed by Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh and said, "O Sa'd! I swear by the Rabb of (my father) Nadhar that I can smell the fragrance of Jannah coming from the direction of Uhud." Hadhrat Sa'd later said, "O Rasulullaah !! I would never have been able to do what he did."

Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik reports that there were more than eighty sword, spear and arrow wounds on his body. When his corpse was found, it was badly mutilated and it was only his sister who could recognise his body and that too by his fingertips. Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik says that they all believed that it was with reference to people like his uncle that Allaah revealed the verse:

Among the Mu'mineen there are men who are true to the pledge they vow to Allaah (that they will fight in Jihaad until they die). Of them is he who has fulfilled his pledge (and has been martyred), and he who is waiting (to be martyred). They have not changed (their resolve) in the least (unlike the Munaafiqeen). {Surah Ahzaab, verse 23} (3)

⁽¹⁾ Tayaalisi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.29).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym, as guoted in Muntakhab (Vol.5 Pg.77).

⁽³⁾ Bukhari, Muslim and Nasa'ee, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.2 Pg.436). Ahmad and Tirmidhi have also reported the narration.

fragrance of Jannah that I smell coming from behind Mount Uhud!' He then fought until he was martyred. Over eighty sword, spear and arrow wounds were found on his body. His sister and my paternal aunt Rubayyi bint Nadhar said that she recognised his body only by his fingertips. It was then that Allaah revealed the following verse of the Qur'aan:

Among the Mu'mineen there are men who are true to the pledge they vow to Allaah (that they will fight in Jihaad until they die). Of them is he who has fulfilled his pledge (and has been martyred), and he who is waiting (to be martyred). They have not changed (their resolve) in the least (unlike the Munaafiqeen). {Surah Ahzaab, verse 23}

The Sahabah were of the opinion that this verse was revealed with reference to people like him." (1)

The Wounds Sustained by Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abu Taalib ﷺ

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar in arrates, "Rasulullaah in appointed Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha is as commander of the expedition to Mu'ta. Rasulullaah in then added, 'If Zaid is killed, Ja'far should take command and if Ja'far is killed, then Abdullaah bin Rawaaha should take command.' I was with the Muslim army in this battle and when we searched for Ja'far bin Abu Taalib, we found him already dead. We counted over ninety sword and arrow wounds on his body." Another narration adds that not a single wound was on the back of his body (indicating that he advanced all the time and never turned his back to the enemy). (2)

The Wounds Sustained by Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh

Hadhrat Amr bin Shurahbeel reports that when Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh was struck with an arrow during the Battle of Khandaq, his blood spilled on Rasulullaah . Hadhrat Abu Bakr arrived and (seeing the condition of Hadhrat Sa'd (Oh, my back has been broken!" (This was an expression of shock.) After Rasulullaah bade him to be silent, Hadhrat Umar arrived and exclaimed, "Innaa Lillaahi wa innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon!"

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, Tirmidhi and Nasa'ee, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.32). Tayaalisi, Ibn Sa'd, Ibn Abi Shayba, Haarith, Ibn Jareer, Ibn Mundhir, Ibn Abi Hattim and Ibn Mardway have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.15). Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.121) and Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.44) have reported it as well.

⁽²⁾ Bukhari, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.245) and Tabraani, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.238). Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.117) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.26) have also reported the narration.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Shayba, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.122).

The Eye of Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (is Injured During the Battle at Taa'if Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Ubayd Thaqafi Feports, "During the battle at Taa'if, I spotted Abu Sufyaan bin Harb sitting and eating on the wall of Abu Ya'la. I shot an arrow at him, which struck his eye. He then went to Rasulullaah and said, 'This eye of mine has been injured in the path of Allaah." Rasulullaah said to him, 'If you wish, I could pray to Allaah to return the eye to you. If you wish otherwise, you could have Jannah (in return for your injury).' Abu Sufyaan seplied, 'Let it be Jannah instead." (1)

The Wounds Sustained to the Eyes of Hadhrat Qataadah bin Nu'maan and Hadhrat Rifaa'ah bin Raafi During the Battle of Badr

Hadhrat Qataadah bin Nu'maan in narrates that when his eye was injured during the Battle of Badr, his eyeball hung on his cheek and the Sahabah wanted to cut it off. The rest of the Hadith will be quoted in the chapter concerning the manner in which the Sahabah received assistance. (2) Hadhrat Rifaa'ah bin Raafi says, "The Mushrikeen amassed around Umayyah bin Khalaf during the Battle of Badr as we approached him. When I noticed that a portion of his armour was broken below his armpit, I struck the area with my sword. I was also struck by an arrow during the Battle of Badr because of which my eye was ruptured. Rasulullaah applied some of his saliva to the eye and prayed for me. I then experienced absolutely no pain." (3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej and two other Sahabah from the Banu Abdul Ash'hal Tribe

The incident reported by Hadhrat Yahya bin Abdul Hameed has already passed (4) in which he narrates from his grandfather that an arrow struck Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej in the chest during either the Battle of Uhud or the Battle of Hunayn (5). He then went to Rasulullaah and asked him to remove the arrow. In the same chapter entitled "Enduring Injuries and Illness when Inviting People Towards Allaah", another narration from Hadhrat Abu Saa'ib t (6) states that a man from the Banu Abdul Ash'hal tribe reported, "My brother and I participated in the Battle of Uhud and we both returned wounded. When Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.307). Zubayr bin Bakkaar has also reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.178).

⁽²⁾ Baghawi and Abu Ya'la.

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar and Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.82) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ In the chapter entitled "Enduring Injuries and Illness when Inviting People Towards Allaah", under the subheading "The Story of Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej t".

⁽⁵⁾ One of narrators Amr bin Marzoog is unsure which battle it was.

⁽⁶⁾ Appearing under the subheading "The Incident of Two Men from the Banu Abdul Ash'hal Tribe During the Battle of Uhud".

Rasulullaah se's caller announced that we should march in pursuit of the enemy, I said to my brother or he said to me, 'Can we miss this opportunity to march with Rasulullaah se's' By Allaah! Although we had no transport to ride and we were both heavily wounded, we went with Rasulullaah se's. Since my wounds were less serious than my brother's, I carried him when he could not manage and he walked at other times. In this manner, we eventually reached the place where the other Muslims were."

The Wounds Sustained by Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik and How he Lost the Flesh on his Bones

Hadhrat Anas reports that during the battle against Musaylama (Kadhaab), Hadhrat Baraa threw himself on to the people in the orchard (the defenders of Musaylama locked themselves in an orchard. Hadhrat Baraa scaled the wall of the orchard to get in and) He then fought them (single-handedly) until he was able to open the gate of the orchard. Hadhrat Baraa sussained over eighty arrow and sword wounds and had to be carried away to the camp for treatment. Hadhrat Khaalid stayed with him (and nursed him) for a month. (1)

Hadhrat Is'haaq bin Abdullaah bin Abu Talha some narrates that Hadhrat Anas and his brother were (fighting) at an enemy fortress in Hareeq, a place in Iraq. The Kuffaar were throwing hooks fixed to heated chains and when it caught hold of someone, they would pull him up to them (in the fortress). They managed to get hold of Hadhrat Anas some in this manner (and were pulling him in). However, Hadhrat Baraa solvent advanced, kept watch at the wall (for an opportunity) and then grabbed at the chain. He kept holding on to the (burning hot) chain until the rope gave way. When he then looked at his hand, the bone was visible because all the flesh on it had burnt away. In this way, Allaah had saved Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik solvent.

Another narration states that the hooks caught Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik and the Kuffaar started pulling at him until he was lifted off the ground. While his brother Hadhrat Baraa was fighting the enemy, he was told to catch hold of his brother. He came running, jumped on to the wall and grabbed the chain as it kept turning. He then kept tugging the chain from the Kuffaar with his hands burning until the rope finally gave way. Thereafter when he looked at his hands and saw that the bone was visible because all the flesh on it had burnt away. (3)

The Desire for Martyrdom and Praying for it Rasulullaah Wishes to be Killed in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra 墨崎崎 reports that he heard Rasulullaah 經歷 say, "I swear

⁽¹⁾ Khalifah and Baqi bin Makhlad, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg. 143)

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.143).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.325).

by the Being Who controls my life! I would not have missed a single expedition in the path of Allaah if it were not for many men who would dislike staying behind me and for whom I am unable to provide transport. I swear by the Being Who controls my life! I wish that I was killed in the path of Allaah and then given life again, then again killed and again given life, again killed and given life once more and then killed." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra 劉德國 narrates that Rasulullaah 優麗 said, "Allaah stands surety for the person who goes out in the path of Allaah. (Allaah says) For the person who leaves home for no other reason but to strive in My path with belief in Me and belief in My Ambiyaa, I stand guarantee to either enter him into Jannah (if he is martyred) or (if he survives) to return him to his family together with great rewards or a share of the booty. I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Muhammad! Every wound sustained in the path of Allaah shall appear on the Day of Qiyaamah as (fresh as) it was the day it took place. While the colour shall be that of blood, the smell will be the fragrance of musk. I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Muhammad! Had it not been for the difficulty it would cause to the Muslims, I would not have missed a single expedition marching in the path of Allaah. However, neither can I provide nor do they have the necessary means of transport (to proceed in the path of Aliaah) and (without transport) they will find it most distressing to stay behind me. I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Muhammad! I wish that I was killed in the path of Allaah and then given life again, then again killed and again given life, again killed and given life once more." (2)

Hadhrat Umar Wishes for Martyrdom

Hadhrat Qais bin Abi Haazim narrates that Hadhrat Umar once delivered a sermon in which he said, "There is a palace in the everlasting Jannah that has five hundred doors. At each door there are five thousand wide-eyed damsels. None but a Nabi can enter it." He then turned to the grave of Rasulullaah and said, "All the best to you, O occupant of this grave." Thereafter, he continued, "Or a Siddeeq (may enter it)." He then turned to the grave of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and said, "All the best to you, O Abu Bakr." Then he continued saying, "Or a martyr (may enter it)." He then turned to himself saying, "How will you ever attain martyrdom, O Umar?" He then added, "The same Allaah Who took me out of Makkah to migrate to Madinah has the power to pull martyrdom to me." (3) Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood says, "Allaah then gave martyrdom to him at the hands of the worst of creation who was a slave of Mughiera." (4)

Hadhrat Aslam narrates that Hadhrat Umar wies used to make the following du'aa: "O Allaah! Bless me with martyrdom in Your path and make my death in

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari.

⁽²⁾ Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.133). Ahmad and Nasa'ee have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.255).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.275).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.55) where Haythami has commented on the chain of narrators.

the city of Your Rasool (1) Another narration from Hadhrat Hafsa states that Hadhrat Umar prayed, "O Allaah! Let me be killed in Your path and have my death in the city of Your Nabi (1) When Hadhrat Hafsa sked him how this was possible, he replied, "Allaah shall make it happen when He wills."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash Wishes for Martyrdom

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas says that on the day that he Battle of Uhud was to take place, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash said to him, "Will you not make du'aa to Allaah?" The two men then stepped aside and Hadhrat Sa'd prayed, "O my Rabb! When we meet the enemy, let me clash with an excellent fighter and fierce warrior. Let me engage him in fierce combat and let him also fight aggressively. Thereafter, allow me to gain the upper hand over him, kill him and have his possessions as booty." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash said "Aameen" to the du'aa.

Thereafter, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash prayed, "O Allaah! Allow me to meet in combat a man who is a fierce warrior and an excellent fighter. Let me fight him for You and let him also fight back. Let him then kill me and sever my nose and my ears and then when I meet You tomorrow You may ask, "Who has severed your nose and ears?" I may then reply, 'It was done for Your pleasure and the pleasure of Your Rasool ." You may then confirm by saying, 'You have spoken the truth.""

(Narrating the account) Hadhrat Sa'd said, "O my son! The du'aa of Abdullaah bin Jahash was better than mine. By the end of the day, I saw his nose and ears strung in a thread." (3)

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib marrates that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash said, "O Allaah! I beseech You on oath that I should meet an enemy tomorrow who should kill me, tear my belly open and then sever my nose and my ears. You should then ask me (on the Day of Qiyaamah) why this has happened so that I may reply, 'It was for You." Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib says, "I have strong hope that just as Allaah fulfilled the first part of his entreaty, Allaah will also fulfil the last part." (4)

Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik Hopes for Martyrdom

Hadhrat Anas 劉德德 reports that Rasulullaah 德德 said, "There are many people

⁽I) Bukhari.

⁽²⁾ Ismaa'eeli, as quoted in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.4 Pg.71).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.301). The narration is also reported by Baghawi as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.278), by Ibn Wahab as quoted in Isti'aab (Vol.2 Pg.274) and by Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.207). Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.109) has also reported the narration without the du'aa of Hadhrat Sa'd 劉國國. He suffices with the du'aa of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Jahash 國國國 only.

⁽⁴⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.200) with commentary on the chain of narrators. Ibn Shaaheen and Ibn Mubaarak in his Jihaad have also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.287). Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.109) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.63) have also reported the narration.

wearing two old pieces of cloth and who are not given any attention but Allaah will certainly fulfil their vows if they make any. Amongst them is Baraa bin Maalik." When the Battle for Tustar was raging and the Muslims were suffering a reverse, they said, "O Baraa! Make a vow to your Rabb (so that we could win the battle)." He then prayed, "(O Allaah! I swear in Your name that) You should give us the shoulders of the enemy in our hands and allow me to meet with Your Nabi "He was then martyred. (1)

Hadhrat Anas harrates that Rasulullaah said, "There are many weak people whom others regard as weak and who wear two old pieces of cloth. However, Allaah will certainly fulfil their vows if they make any in His name. Amongst them is Baraa bin Maalik." Hadhrat Baraa once clashed with a Mushrikeen army who had inflicted heavy casualties to the Muslims. The Muslims therefore called to him saying, "O Baraa! Rasulullaah had mentioned that Allaah would certainly fulfil the vows you make. Therefore make a vow to your Rabb." Hadhrat Baraa he then said, "O my Rabb! I make a vow in Your name that You should give us their shoulders." (Allaah then gave the Muslims victory.)

Thereafter the Muslims clashed with an enemy at the bridge of the town Sus where the Mushrikeen again inflicted heavy casualties to the Muslims. Again the Muslims called to Hadhrat Baraa to make a vow to Allaah. Consequently, Hadhrat Baraa prayed, O Allaah! I make a vow in Your name that You should give us the shoulders of the enemy in our hands and allow me to meet with Your Nabi see." The Muslims were then given victory and Hadhrat Baraa was martyred. (2)

Hadhrat Humama Hopes for Martyrdom

Hadhrat Humayd bin Abdur Rahmaan Himyari narrates that a Sahabi by the name of Hadhrat Humama when once fought a battle in Isfahan during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar when he prayed thus: "O Allaah! Humama claims that he loves to meet You. O Allaah, if he is true, grant him the resolve (to search for martyrdom) and if he is false, then give him death in Your path even though he dislikes it." The remainder of the Hadith states that he was finally martyred and that Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari was also testified that he was a true martyr. (3) A narration of Imaam Ahmad adds that Hadhrat Humama was also said, "Give Humama death in Your path even though he dislikes it. O Allaah! Let Humama not return home from this journey. He passed away on the journey. One of the narrators called Affaan once said that Hadhrat Humama was afflicted with a stomach disease because of which he passed away in Isfahan. (After his death) Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari was said, "O people! By Allaah as far as we have heard from our Nabi (2) and as far as our knowledge reaches, Humama passed away as a martyr." (1)

Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.11) and Tirmidhi, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.144).

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.292), narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi, Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.7) has also reported the narration.

⁽³⁾ Abu Dawood, Musaddad, Haarith, Ibn Abi Shaybah and Ibn Mubaarak, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol. I Pg.355).

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin Hopes for Martyrdom

Hadhrat Ma'qal bin Yasaar Feports that Hadhrat Umar once consulted with the Hurmuzaan (a Persian leader who accepted Islaam after being defeated by the Muslims). Hadhrat Umar asked, "What are your opinions? Should we start with Faaris, Azerbaijan or Isfahan?" Hurmuzaan replied, "Faaris and Azerbaijan are wings while Isfahan is the head. If you cut one wing, the other wing will take over but if you cut the head, both wings will become useless. Start with the head." Hadhrat Umar then entered the Masjid where he found Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin for performing salaah. Hadhrat Umar sat beside Hadhrat Nu'maan said, "I wish to appoint you as commander." Hadhrat Nu'maan said, "Not as a collector but as a warrior." "As a warrior indeed," confirmed Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat Umar then sent him to Isfahan.

In the remainder of the Hadith, it is reported that Hadhrat Mughiera said to Hadhrat Nu'maan May Allaah have mercy on you! Launch the attack because we are being pressed (the arrows of the enemy are coming fast and furious)." Hadhrat Nu'maan Preplied, "You are undoubtedly a man of many virtues. However, I have fought with Rasulullaah May and whenever he did not launch an attack at the beginning of the day, he would postpone it for the time when the sun had passed the meridian, when the wind started to blow and Allaah's help would descend."

Thereafter, Hadhrat Nu'maan said, "I shall wave my flag thrice. When I wave it the first time, every man should attend to the call of nature and then perform wudhu. When I wave it the second time, every man should check his weapons and shoe straps and fix them. Then when I wave it for the third time, you should attack and should not turn your attention to each other. If Nu'maan is killed, none should turn their attention to him either for I am to make a du'aa to Allaah which I stress that every person say Aameen to. (He then made the du'aa saying) O Allaah! Grant Nu'maan martyrdom today with your assistance to the Muslims and make them victorious."

Hadhrat Nu'maan then waved his flag the first time, followed by the second and then the third. He then wore his armour and launched the attack. He was the first to fall in battle. Hadhrat Ma'qal to reports, "I went up to Hadhrat Nu'maan then but then recalled his instruction. I therefore marked the spot and proceeded. Whenever we killed an enemy soldier, his companions immediately became oblivious of us (to tend to him). (The Persian leader) Dhul Haajibayn fell from his mule, causing his abdomen to cut open. Allaah then granted us victory. I then went to Hadhrat Nu'maan with a container of water. As I washed the sand from his face, he asked who I was. When I informed him that I was Ma'qal bin Yasaar, he asked, 'What has happened to the Muslims?' 'Allaah has given them victory,' I replied. He then said, 'All praise to Allaah! Write to Hadhrat Umar informing him of this.' It was then that his soul departed." (1) Hadhrat Jubayr has narrated the Battle of Nahaawind in detail. In his narration he quotes (the following words of Hadhrat Nu'maan ("Whenever Rasulullaah fought a battle and did not launch an attack at the beginning of the day, he did not rush until the time of (Zuhr) salaah had arrived, the winds started to blow and the battle could take place in a pleasant manner. It was this practice of Rasulullaah that prevented me from attacking. (He then prayed) O Allaah! Bring comfort to my eyes today by granting such a victory to the Muslims that gives honour to Islaam and disgrace to the Kuffaar. Thereafter, grant me death as a martyr." He then address the Muslims saying, "Say 'Aameen', may Allaah bless you." The others then said "Aameen" and started to weep. (2)

Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.400) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abu Nu'aym has also reported the narration, as quoted in Muntakhab (Vol.5 Pg.170).

The Enthusiasm of the Sahabah to Die and Give their Lives in the path of Allaah

During the Battle of Badr

The Incident of Hadhrat Khaythama (1966) and his son

Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Bilaal narrates that as Rasulullaah was leaving for the Battle of Badr, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Khaythama and his father Hadhrat Khaytama both decided to leave with Rasulullaah when Rasulullaah heard about this, he instructed that only one of them should leave and (to decide who it would be) that they draw lots. It was then that Hadhrat Khaytama said to his son Sa'd wife, "One of us will have to remain behind. Why don't you staywith the women?" Hadhrat Sa'd replied, "Had it not been to attain Jannah, I would have certainly given you preference (to have it your way). However, I really do aspire for martyrdom on this trip." When they drew lots, Hadhrat Sa'd where he was martyred by Amr bin Abd Wadd. (3)

The Martyrdom of Hadhrat Ubaydah bin Haarith

وصحالفان تعاليف

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ali bin Husayn narrates that when Utba called for challengers during the Battle of Badr, Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib stood up to challenge Waleed bin Utba. The two were young and of equal physique. By turning the palm of his hand and placing it on the ground, the narrator indicated that Hadhrat Ali William floored Waleed and killed him. Thereafter, Shayba bin Rabee'ah stood up and Hadhrat Hamza 劉麗德 got up to accept the challenge. These two men were also of equal build. Raising his hands even higher, the narrator indicated in a like manner that Hadhrat Hamza 送版範 killed Shayba. Thereafter, when Utba stood up, Hadhrat Ubaydah bin Haarith was got up to accept his challenge. The narrator pointed to two pillars and added that the two men were like those pillars. When the two men exchanged blows, the blow of Hadhrat Ubaydah William left Utba's left arm dangling. However, Utba got close and struck at Hadhrat Ubaydah 遙遙過多 leg with his sword, severing his calf. Hadhrat Ali 劉德國 and Hadhrat Hamza 劉德國 then returned and settled Utba's affair, Theythen carried Hadhrat Ubaydah 劉德多 away to Rasulullaah 優麗 beneath a canopy. When they made him over to Rasulullaah (the Nabi of Allaah () made him lie down. Rasulullaah took his head on his lap and started to wipe the dust from his face when Hadhrat Ubaydah & said, "O Rasulullaah Had Abu Taalib seen me now, he would be convinced that his words are more applicable to me than him when he said (with regards to protecting Rasulullaah (學學):

⁽¹⁾ Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.249).

⁽²⁾ Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.235). Tabraani has also reported the narration of Hadhrat Ma'qal bin Yasaar 题题。Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.217) has commented on the chain of narrators. Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.293) has also reported the narration of Hadhrat Ma'qal 题题 in detail.

⁽³⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.189). Ibn Mubaarak has also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.25).

وَنُسُلِمُهُ حَتَّى نُصَرَّعَ حَوْلَهُ وَنَدُهَلَ عَنْ آبْنَانِنَا وَا لُحَلَائِلِ

We shall protect him until we are wounded and fall dead around him Being totally oblivious of our own children and wives"

Hadhrat Ubaydah then asked, "Am I not a martyr?" "Certainly," replied Rasulullaah am witness to the fact." He then passed away. Rasulullaah buried him in (a valley called) Safraa and himself went into the grave (to lay the body). Rasulullaah had never before that entered the grave of any person. (1)

Hadhrat Zuhri narrates that when Hadhrat Ubaydah and Utba exchanged blows, the blow of each one incapacitated the other. Returning to the battlefield, Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Hamza approached Utba and killed him. They then carried their companion away. When they came to Rasulullaah Hadhrat Ubaydah so 's leg was severed and his arteries were bleeding profusely. When the two men brought Hadhrat Ubaydah to Rasulullaah he asked, "Am I not a martyr, O Rasulullaah "Certainly," came the reply. Hadhrat Ubaydah then said, "Had Abu Taalib been alive, he would be convinced that his words are more applicable to me than him when he said:

وَنُسْلِمُهُ حَتَّى نُصَرَّعَ حَوْلَهُ وَنَذْهَلَ عَنْ آبْنَانِنَا وَا لُحَلَائِلِ

We shall protect him until we are wounded and fall dead around him Being totally oblivious of our own children and wives"

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.272).

During the Battle of Uhud

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (Singles) and his brother Zaid (Singles) Concerning not Wearing Armour with the Intention of being Martyred

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was narrates that on the day that the Battle of Uhud was fought, Hadhrat Umar said said to his brother, "Take my armour, dear brother." His brother replied, "I desire martyrdom just as you do." They both therefore left the armour. (1)

Hadhrat Ali Resolves to Fight to Death

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Mansoor reports that Hadhrat Ali said, "Once the people had left Rasulullaah during the Battle of Uhud, I looked through all the dead and did not see Rasulullaah there. I then said to myself, 'By Allaah! It is impossible for Rasulullaah to flee and I do not see him amongst the dead. I think that Allaah has become angry with us because of what we did and had lifted his Nabi . It is therefore best for me to fight until I am killed.' I then broke the sheath of my sword and attacked the Mushrikeen. When they gave way, I suddenly saw Rasulullaah in their midst." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Anas bin Nadhar

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Raafi who belonged to the Banu Adi bin Najjaar tribe narrates that Hadhrat Anas bin Nadhar the uncle of Hadhrat Anas bin Maalik came across some men from the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar (during the Battle of Uhud) who had lost all morale to fight. Amongst them was Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab was and Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillaah was. Hadhrat Anas bin Nadhar was asked them, "What makes you sit here?" "Rasulullaah was has been martyred," they replied. He then said to them, "What is the use of living after him? Stand up and die for that which Rasulullaah died for!" He then faced the enemy and fought until he was killed. (3)

The Incident of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Dahdaaha

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ammaar Khatmi reports that Hadhrat Thaabit bin Dahdaaha came before the Muslims during the Battle of Uhud when they were all scattered and without morale. He shouted, "O assembly of Ansaar! Come to me! I am Thaabit bin Dahdaaha! If Muhammad has been killed, remember that Allaah is Living and never dies. Fight for your Deen, Allaah shall give you victory and shall assist you." A group of the Ansaar jumped towards him and Hadhrat Thaabit started attacking the Kuffaar with the Muslims by his side.

A fully armed and powerful battalion stood before them comprising of leading Tabraani narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.298). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.275) and Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.367) have also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la, Ibn Abi Aasim, Boraqi and Sa'eed bin Mansoor, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.274). Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.112) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.34).

commanders such as Khaalid bin Waleed, Amr bin Al Aas, Ikrama bin Abu Jahal and Daraar bin Khattaab. A fierce fight ensued and Khaalid bin Waleed lunged a spear at Hadhrat Thaabit (which went through his body. He then fell as a martyr. All the Ansaar with him also fell as martyrs. They are reputed to be the last Muslims to fall (during that battle). (1)

The Incident of a Muhaajir and an Ansaari

Hadhrat Abu Najeeh reports that during the Battle of Uhud, a Muhaajir passed by an Ansaari lying in a pool of blood. The Muhaajir said to the Ansaari, "Do you know that Muhammad has been martyred?" The Ansaari responded by saying, "If Muhammad has been martyred, then (his duty is complete because) he has already passed on the message. You people should continue fighting for your Deen." It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

Muhammad is is but a Rasool (of Allaah). Indeed many Rusul have passed before him. If he passes away or is martyred, would you (Muslims) then turn back on your heels (and forsake Islaam)? He who turns back on his heels can never harm Allaah in the least (because he will be harming only himself). Allaah shall soon reward the grateful ones (so be firm and strive for His Deen). {Surah Aal Imraan, verse 144} (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Rabee

Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit in narrates, "During the Battle of Uhud, Rasulullaah sent me to look for Hadhrat Sa'd bin Rabee Rasulullaah instructed, 'If you see him, convey my Salaams to him and tell him that Rasulullaah asks how he is keeping.' I searched for him amongst the dead and found him in his dying moments with seventy wounds inflicted by swords, spears and arrows. I informed him that Rasulullaah had sent Salaams and wished to know how he was feeling. He said, 'Salaams to Rasulullaah and to you. Tell Rasulullaah that I can smell the fragrance of Jannah and tell my Ansaar brothers that they will have no excuse to offer before Allaah if the Kuffaar reach him while they have the power to wink an eye.' He then passed away. May Allaah shower His mercy on him." (3)

Another narration reported by Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Sa'sa'a states that Rasulullaah said, "Who will see what has happened to Sa'd bin Rabee for me?" The rest of the Hadith is similar to the one above. It states also that Hadhrat Sa'd said, "Inform Rasulullaah sim that I am amongst the dead. Also convey my Salaams to him and tell him that Sa'd says, 'May Allaah reward you with the best rewards on our behalf and on behalf of the entire Ummah." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Waagidi, as guoted in Isti'aab (Vol.1 Pg.194).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi in Dalaa'ilun Nubuwwah, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.31).

⁽³⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.201) narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi.

The Incident of Seven Men of the Ansaar Martyred During the Battle of Uhud

Hadhrat Anas reports that when the Mushrikeen surrounded Rasulullaah during the Battle of Uhud, Rasulullaah was with seven men from the Ansaar and one from the Quraysh. Rasulullaah and said, "Who will repulse them from us and be my companion in Jannah?" An Ansaari stepped forward and fought until he was martyred. When the Mushrikeen again surrounded Rasulullaah he he again announced, "Who will repulse them from us and be my companion in Jannah?" (Another Ansaari went forward and fought until he was also martyred. Rasulullaah and the others were repeatedly surrounded and repulsed by each one of the seven Ansaar until) Eventually all seven had been martyred. Rasulullaah then said, "We have not been fair to our companions (by leaving them to fight single-handedly)." (2)

Another narration from Hadhrat Jaabir states that after being overwhelmed during the Battle of Uhud, the Muslims dispersed from around Rasulullaah and the only people with him were eleven men from the Ansaar and Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydillaah Rasulullaah had begun climbing the mountain when the Mushrikeen caught up with him. Rasulullaah then asked, "Is there none to repulse them?" "I am here, O Rasulullaah responded Hadhrat Talha Rasulullaah." "Stay where you are, O Talha," Rasulullaah instructed. One of the Ansaar then said, "I shall, O Rasulullaah responded in their defence, Rasulullaah and the others with him continued climbing. The Ansaari was eventually martyred and the Mushrikeen were again catching up with Rasulullaah Rasulullaah again asked, "Is there none to repulse them?" When Hadhrat Talha again volunteered for the task, Rasulullaah gave him the same instruction as before. One of the Ansaar said, "Then I shall, O Rasulullaah struction as before. One of the Ansaar said, "Then I shall, O Rasulullaah struction as before. One of the Ansaar said, "Then I shall, O Rasulullaah struction as before again started catching up with Rasulullaah structure and the Mushrikeen again started catching up with Rasulullaah structure as before (every time an Ansaari was martyred defending them) to which Hadhrat Talha repeatedly volunteered himself. Rasulullaah however, kept holding him back, to which an Ansaari volunteered himself and received permission to fight. Each one then fought as the others had fought until none but Hadhrat Talha was left with Rasulullaah.

However, the Mushrikeen again surrounded Rasulullaah Wes. When Rasulullaah announced, "Is there none to repulse them?" Hadhrat Talha Wese replied,

(2) Ahmad and Muslim.

⁽¹⁾ Haakim, narrating from Ibn Is'haaq. Dhahabi has commented on the chain of narrators. The complete narration of Ibn Is'haaq is reported in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.39). Imaam Maalik has also reported the narration in his Mu'atta (Pg. 175) as has Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.523).

"I shall". Hadhrat Talha then fought as much as all the previous Sahabah combined. When his fingertips became severely injured, he exclaimed, "Hass!" (An Arabic expression roughly equivalent to "Oh Dear!".) Rasulullaah said to him, "Had you exclaimed Bismillaah, the angels would have lifted you to the heavens in full view of the people and enter you into the skies." Rasulullaah then climbed to the top of the mountain where he joined the other Sahabah who had regrouped there. (1)

The Martyrdom of Hadhrat Yamaan And Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais

Hadhrat Mahmood bin Labeed says that when Rasulullaah American marched to Uhud, Hadhrat Yamaan bin Jaabir (the father of Hadhrat Hudhayfa and Hadhrat Thabit bin Qais were taken to a fortress together with the women and children since they were very old men. The one said to the other, "Shame on you! What are we waiting for? By Allaah! What is left of any of our lives is equivalent to the amount of thirst a donkey can bear (of all animals, the donkey is least capable of enduring thirst). We shall have to die either today or tomorrow. Why don't we take our swords and join Rasulullaah

The two men then joined the Muslim army without the knowledge of anyone. While Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais was killed by the Mushrikeen, the father of Hadhrat Hudhayfa was killed by the swords of the Muslims who did not recognise him. Hadhrat Hudhayfa shouted, "My father! My father!" but the Muslims (who had killed him) truthfully said, "We swear by Allaah that we did not recognise him." Hadhrat Hudhayfa sacknowledged what they said by saying, "May Allaah forgive you for He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy." When Rasulullaah wanted to pay the blood money, Hadhrat Hudhayfa forgave it. This increased the status of Hadhrat Hudhayfa in the eyes of Rasulullaah (2)

During the Battle of Rajee

Hadhrat Aasim, Hadhrat Khubayb and their Companions are Martyred

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra (Inc.) narrates that Rasulullaah (Inc.) once sent an expedition on a spying duty under the command of Hadhrat Aasim bin Thaabit

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.26).

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.202), narrating from reliable sources.

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Muntakhab (Vol.5 Pg. 167).

khattaab when their presence was reported to a clan from the Hudhayl tribe known as the Banu Lihyaan. With close to a hundred archers, the people of this tribe set out after the Sahabah when the Sahabah and traced their tracks until they arrived at a place where the Sahabah when the Sahabah was and traced their tracks until they arrived at a place where the Sahabah was had set up camp earlier. There they found some date stones from the provisions that the Sahabah had brought from Madinah. Seeing this, they said, "These are dates from Yathrib." They then continued tracing the tracks until they eventually caught up with the Sahabah

Hadhrat Aasim and his companions took shelter on a hillock as the Banu Lihyaan surrounded them. The Banu Lihyaan called out, "We make a promise that we shall not kill any of you if you surrender to us." Hadhrat Aasim asid, "As for myself, I shall never surrender into the custody of a Kaafir." He then prayed, "O Allaah! Inform Your Nabi about us." The Sahabah then fought the Banu Lihyaan, who martyred Hadhrat Aasim and another seven Sahabah with arrows. The only ones who survived were Hadhrat Khubayb, Hadhrat Zaid and another Sahabi

When the Banu Lihyaan again offered their promise, these Sahabah agreed to it and came down from the hillock. However, no sooner did the Banu Lihyaan have control over them then they removed the strings from their bows and used it to tie the Sahabah up. To this, the third Sahabi said, "This is the first breach of your promise." He then refused to accompany them. Despite their efforts to pull and drag him, he would not budge. They eventually killed him.

They then took Hadhrat Khubayb and Hadhrat Zaid way and sold them in Makkah. The sons of Haarith bin Aamir bin Naufal bought Hadhrat Khubayb because he had killed (their father) Haarith bin Aamir in the Battle of Badr. He lived as a prisoner with them until they eventually decided to kill him. Hadhrat Khubayb asked one of the ladies of the household for a razor to shave with and she lent it to him. (Narrating the incident later) She says, "I was unmindful of one of my little children who went towards him. When the child came to him, he put the child on his lap. When I saw this, I became terribly alarmed for he was holding the razor in his hand (I thought that he would use the razor to kill the child). Sensing fear, he said, "Are you afraid that I will kill this child? By the will of Allaah, I shall never do such a thing."

The lady narrates further, "I have never seen a prisoner better than Hadhrat Khubayb .! saw him eating a bunch of grapes at a time when there was no fruit in Makkah and he was bound in chains. It was nothing short of (unseen) sustenance that Allaah had provided for him."

When Hadhrat Khubayb was led outside the area of the Haram to be executed, he requested to be left to perform two Rakaahs of salaah. After performing the salaah, he turned to the people and said, "I would have lengthened the salaah if it were not for you thinking that (I am doing so because)

I am afraid to die." Hadhrat Khubayb was the first to start the practice of performing two Rakaahs salaah at the time of execution. He then said, "O Allaah! Do not leave any of them alive." He then recited some couplets which meant:

When I am killed as a Muslim, I care not on which side I fall

This is all for Allaah and if He wills, He could bless the severed limbs of my body

Thereafter, Ugba bin Haarith martyred him.

Because Hadhrat Aasim (Miles) had killed one of the leaders of the Quraysh during the Battle of Badr, the Quraysh sent some people to bring a portion of his body to them which they may recognise as his. However, Allaah sent a swarm of wasps to his body and they protected him from the people whom the Quraysh had sent. They were therefore unable to get anything from the body. (1)

Hadhrat Aasim bin Amr bin Qataadah reports that after the Battle of Uhud, a delegation from the Adhal and Qaara tribes came to Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah Islaam has come to us so send with us a group of your Sahabah to make us understand the Deen, to teach us the Qur'aan and to educate us about the Shari'ah of Islaam." Rasulullaah therefore sent with them six Sahabah

These Sahabah proceeded with these people until they reached Rajee, which was a well of the Hudhayl tribe situated at one end of Hijaaz where the Hada'a region commences. There the people accompanying the Sahabah betrayed them and solicited help from the Hudhayl tribe. Unaware of what was happening, the Sahabah were in their camp when they were suddenly surrounded by many men brandishing their swords. When the Sahabah grabbed their swords to fight them, the men said, "We swear by Allaah that we do not wish to kill you. All we want is to get some money from the people of Makkah in exchange for you. We give you assurance in the name of Allaah that we shall not kill you." However, Hadhrat Marthad hat we shall not kill you." However, Hadhrat Marthad hat we shall never ever accept a promise or pledge from a Mushrik."

The Couplets that Hadhrat Aasim Recited and His Body is Protected from the Mushrikeen

Hadhrat Aasim which meant:

"Far from being a sick man, I am a powerful archer

And my bow has a sturdy string

Arrows with long and wide shafts glide over it

Death is true whereas life is a fake

Whatever Allaah has destined will certainly happen to a man

And man will have to return to Him

May my mother forsake me if I do not light you"

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari, Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.145), Abdur Razzaaq (as quoted in Isti'aab Vol.3 Pg.132) and Abu Nu'aym in Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.112).

Hadhrat Aasim also said the following:

I am Abu Sulaymaan with arrow made by (the expert arrow-maker) Muq'ad And with a bow that is like a kindled fire

I feel no fear when a warrior comes storming on a speedy camel

And my shield is made from the hide of a bull with little hair

(To top it all) I am a firm believer in everything revealed to Muhammad
He is also reported to have said:

I am Abu Sulaymaan and warriors like me are excellent archers I am also from a tribe that is a most honourable one Hadhrat Aasim then fought the Mushrikeen until he and his two companions were martyred. After killing Hadhrat Aasim the Hudhayl intended to severe his head to sell it to Sulaafa bint Sa'd bin Shuhayd. When her son was killed in the Battle of Uhud, she made a vow that if she ever got the head of Hadhrat Aasim the body, she would drink wine from his skull. However, a swarm of wasps protected his body. When the Mushrikeen were prevented from getting to it, they said, "Leave him until the evening when the wasps would have left. We can then have him." Allaah then sent heavy rains flowing down the valley, which carried his body away.

Hadhrat Aasim which had made a promise to Allaah that because the Mushrikeen were impure, none of them should ever touch him and he would not touch any of them either. When the news of the wasps protecting the body of Hadhrat Aasim was reached Hadhrat Umar was, he said, "Allaah protects the Mu'min servant. Aasim wowed that no Mushrik should touch him and that he would not touch any Mushrik during his lifetime, so Allaah prevented it from happening after his death just as Allaah prevented it during his lifetime."

The Story of Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana and his Statement About his Love for Rasulullaah

(The other three Sahabah (The group) Hadhrat Khubayb (The Abdulla Hadhrat Abdulla Hadhrat Khubayb (The Chose the easier option and chose to remain alive. They therefore surrendered and were taken prisoner. The Mushrikeen took them to Makkah to sell them. When they reached a place called Zahraan, Hadhrat Abdulla hin Taariq (The Sahabaya) slipped his hands from the bonds and grabbed a sword. The Mushrikeen stepped away from him started throwing rocks at him until they eventually martyred him. His grave is in Zahraan.

This left Hadhrat Khubayb (hey were taken to Makkah and exchanged for two prisoners from the Hudhayl who had been in Makkah. While Hujayr bin Abi Ihaab Tameemi bought Hadhrat Khubayb (Safwaan bin Umayyah bought Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana to execute him for the death of his father. Safwaan sent Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana (but) outside the Haram to Tan'eem with his slave Nistaas so that he could be executed there.

Amongst the group of the Quraysh that gathered there was Abu Sufyaan bin Harb. When Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana was brought for execution, Abu Sufyaan said to him, "O Zaid! I ask you to swear by Allaah whether you wish that Muhammad was here with us in your place to have his head severed while you could be with your family." Hadhrat Zaid replied, "I swear by Allaah that I would not even like a thorn to prick Muhammad where he is while I am sitting with my family." Abu Sufyaan said, "I have never seen people love anyone as much as the companions of Muhammad loved Muhammad Will." Nistaas then executed Hadhrat Zaid

The Story of Hadhrat Khubayb (in Makkah) and His Salaah at the time of Death

Hadhrat Ibn Is'haaq narrates the story of Hadhrat Khubayb bin Adi (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Najeeh who was informed by Maariya, the freed slave of Hujayr bin Ihaab. After accepting Islaam, she narrated, "He (Hadhrat Khubayb (Hadhrat Khubayb) was held prisoner in my home. I once saw him eating from a bunch of grapes the size of a human head at a time when there was not a grape to be eaten in all of Allaah's land."

Ibn Is'haaq narrates further from Aasim bin Umar bin Qataadah and Abdullaah bin Najeeh that she said, "When the time for his execution drew near, he asked me to send him a razor so that he may clean himself before his death. I gave the razor to the little boy from the family and told him to give it to the man in the house. By Allaah! I had just sent the boy with the razor to him when I exclaimed, "What have I done! By Allaah! That man will have his revenge by killing the boy and have a life in exchange for his own!' However, when the boy handed the razor over to Hadhrat Khubayh when she sent you with this razor?' He then sent the boy off." Ibn Hishaam says that it is commonly believed that the boy was the son of Maariya.

Ibn Is'haaq narrates further from Aasim that the Mushrikeen took Hadhrat Khubayb out of the Haram to Tan'eem where they intended to crucify him. He then requested, "If you permit, could I please perform two Rakaahs salaah." "Go ahead," they agreed, "Perform your salaah." Hadhrat Khubayb then performed two complete and perfect Rakaahs of salaah. Thereafter, he turned to the people and said, "By Allaah! But for the fact that you would say I lengthened the salaah for fear of death, I would have performed a longer salaah." It was Hadhrat Khubayb who was the first to initiate the practice of Muslims to perform two Rakaahs salaah at the time of being executed.

The Mushrikeen then lifted him up and when they tied him on the wooden structure, he prayed, "O Allaah! We have conveyed the message of Your Rasool Do inform him tomorrow of what has happened to us." He then added, "O Allaah! Count each one of them (these Mushrikeen), kill each one of them and leave not one of them alive." He was then martyred.

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Abu Sufyaan week used to say, "I was also present on that day with (my father) Abu Sufyaan and others. I saw my father throw me down on the ground out of fear for the curse of Hadhrat Khubayb week. He did this because people used to say that if a person lies on his back when he is cursed, the curse would miss him."

The Maghaazi of Moosa bin Uqba narrates that Hadhrat Khubayb and Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana were both martyred on the same day and it was on that day that Rasulullaah was heard saying, "Salaams to you (two) as well. The Quraysh have martyred Khubayb." It is also narrated that when the Mushrikeen crucified Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana well, they first speared him to make him forsake his Deen. However, this only increased his Imaan and faith in Islaam. Mosa bin Uqba also narrates that when Hadhrat Khubayb was lifted on to the wooden structure the Mushrikeen asked him to swear by Allaah whether he preferred to have Rasulullaah in his place (in exchange for his own freedom). Hadhrat Khubayb replied, "Never! I swear by the Exalted Allaah that I would not even accept a thorn pricking the foot of Rasulullaah as ransom for my life." The Mushrikeen laughed at this. Ibn Is'haaq has reported this with reference to Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana Allaah knows best. (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Khubayb (Concerning his Love for Rasulullaah (Couplets he Recited Before his Execution

A lengthy narration of Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr states that the children of the Mushrikeen killed at Badr executed Hadhrat Khubayb Wille. While he was tied to the cross they were using their weapons on him, they asked him in a loud voice to swear whether he preferred Rasulullaah to be in his place. He responded by saying, "I swear by the Magnificent Allaah that I would not even accept a thorn pricking the foot of Rasulullaah as ransom for my life." The Mushrikeen laughed at this. When he was lifted on to the cross, Hadhrat Khubayb Wille recited some couplets which meant:

"The groups have amassed around me and have also gathered their tribes and have collected a large gathering

They have also gathered their women and children

As I have been brought to a large trunk of a palm tree (to be crucified)

To Allaah do I plead my case of estrangement and my grief

And the place these groups have prepared for my death

O Master of the Glorious Throne! Grant me fortitude against what they intend to do to me

They have cut through my flesh and my hopes have been exposed

This is all for Allaah and if He wills,

He could bless the severed limbs of my body

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.63).

By my life! When I am killed as a Muslim I care not
In what condition will my resting place be for Allaah"(1)
Another narration adds the following line after the first couplet:
"They all express their hatred for me and make every effort to oppose me because I am in fetters and in a place of destruction"
The following lines are then added after the fifth couplet:
"They have given me a choice between kufr and death whereas death is better
My eyes are tearing but not out of any fear
I have no fear for death because I have to die
I have fear only for the leaping flames of the raging fire
By Allaah! When I die as a Muslim, I care not on which side I shall fall for the sake of Allaah
I shall express no fear to my enemy
Because my return shall be to Allaah" (2)

During the Expedition to Bir Ma'oona

The Story of the Sahabah 過過過 at Bir Ma'oona

Rasulullaah then sent Hadhrat Mundhir bin Amr who was called "Al Mu'niq Liyamoot" ("one who is eager to die") together with seventy Sahabah who were amongst the best of the Muslims. They included Hadhrat Haarith bin Simma who, Hadhrat Haraam bin Milhaan who of the Banu Adi bin Najjaar, Hadhrat Urwa bin Asmaa bin Silt Sulami who, Hadhrat Naafi bin Budayl bin Warqaa Khuzaa'ee who and Hadhrat Aamir bin Fuhayra who was the freed slave of Hadhrat Abu Bakr who. The group travelled until they reached Bir Ma'oona, which was a well located between the lands of the Banu Aamir tribe and the rocky plain of the Banu Sulaym tribe.

When they set up camp there, Hadhrat Haraam bin Milhaan sent the letter of Rasulullaah to Aamir bin Tufayl. When the messenger arrived, Aamir did not even look at the letter before attacking the messenger and killing him. He then solicited help from the Banu Aamir tribe but they declined to respond to his call. They made it clear that they would never betray Abu Baraa who had entered into a treaty with them. Aamir then sought help from Usayya, Ri'al and Dhakwaan clans who belonged to the Banu Sulaym tribe. They responded to his call and left (with him). They amassed around the Sahabah was and surrounded their camp. When the Sahabah was saw the enemy they grabbed their swords and fought until all of them were martyred. May Allaah shower His mercies on them. The only survivor was Hadhrat Ka'b bin Zaid was from the Banu Dinaar bin Najjaar tribe. There was still life in him when the attackers left and he was removed from amongst the dead. He still lived afterwards until he was martyred during the Battle of Khandaq.

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.200) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.67).

Hadhrat Amr bin Umayyah Dhamri was and an Ansaari from the Banu Amr bin Auf tribe were busy grazing the animals and were unaware of the attack on the other Sahabah (All that made them aware was (carrion-eating) birds hovering above the camp. They said, "By Allaah! Something must have happened for these birds (to be here)." The two men then went to investigate and found the Muslims lying in pools of blood. The horsemen (who had attacked the Sahabah 後期後後) were still there. The Ansaari asked Hadhrat Amr bin Umayyah 知識論, "What do you suggest?" "I suggest that we go and inform Rasulullaah about what had happened," he replied. The Ansaari then said, "To save my life I would not like to leave a place where someone like Mundhir bin Amr with has been martyred. I would also not like to just inform others about people who have been martyred (I prefer to be amongst them)." He then fought until he was martyred. Hadhrat Amr bin Umayyah 劉節節 was taken prisoner but later released by Aamir bin Tufayl when he informed them that he belonged to the Mudhar tribe. However, Aamir cut off Hadhrat Amr (1966)'s forelocks and gave him freedom because his mother was required to free a slave (so he freed Hadhrat Amr 劉節節 on her behalf). (1)

The Last Words of Hadhrat Haraam Because of which his Killer Accepted Islaam

Hadhrat Anas in narrates that Rasulullaah once dispatched Hadhrat Haraam the brother of Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym together with seventy riders on an expedition. The leader of the Mushrikeen (in the region where the expedition went) was Aamir bin Tufayl. He had given Rasulullaah a choice between three options (when he said), "Either (1) you have the villagers for yourself and leave the city dwellers to me or (2) you appoint me as your successor or (3) I shall fight you with the support of thousands of men from the Ghitfaan tribe."

However, Aamir was afflicted with a plague in the home of a certain woman. He said, "It is a sore like that which afflicts camels and in the house of some woman (he regarded it below his dignity to die in the house of some simple woman by whom he stayed during his travels). Bring me my horse." He then died on the back of his horse.

Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.73). Tabraani has also reported the narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.129).

Hadhrat Haraam which the brother of Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym left, a crippled Sahabi and another Sahabi from some tribe left (to deliver the letter). Hadhrat Haraam said said to the other two, "Stay close until I return to you. If they grant me safety, you join me, and if they kill me, you can go back to your companions." Hadhrat Haraam then approached the Mushrikeen and said, "Will you grant me safety so that I may deliver the message of Rasulullaah from the was busy talking to them, they motioned to a man to come up to Hadhrat Haraam from the back and stabbed him with a spear. One of the narrators by the name of Hammaam says that he was stabbed with a spear that pierced right through his body. He then exclaimed, "Allaahu Akbar! By the Rabb of the Kabah, I am successful!" The Sahabah (who were with Hadhrat Haraam (had been on top of a hillock).

It was with reference to these martyred Sahabah (C) that Allaah revealed the following verse of the Qur'aan that was later abrogated:

"We have met our Rabb Who is happy with us and has made us happy."

For thirty mornings afterwards, Rasulullaah (2008) cursed the Ri'al, Dhakwaan, Banu Lihyaan and Usayya tribes who opposed Allaah and His Rasool (2008).

Another narration of Bukhari states that when Hadhrat Haraam the uncle of Hadhrat Anas was stabbed with a spear on the expedition to Bir Ma'oona, he wiped his blood on his face and was heard saying, "By the Rabb of the Kabah, I am successful!" A narration reported by Waaqidi says that the person who martyred Hadhrat Haraam with was Jabbaar bin Salma Kilaabi. When he stabbed Hadhrat Haraam with a spear, Hadhrat Haraam cried out, "By the Rabb of the Kabah, I am successful!" Afterwards when Jabbaar asked about the meaning of the statement "I am successful", the people told him that Hadhrat Haraam was referring to his successful entry into Jannah. He then said, "By Allaah! He has spoken the truth." Jabbaar then accepted Islaam. (2)

During the Battle of Mu'ta

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha Weeps upon Leaving and His Poem asking for Martyrdom

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr reports that Rasulullaah sent an expedition to Mu'ta in Jumaadal Ula 8 A.H. Rasulullaah appointed Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha sas as commander of the expedition. Rasulullaah then added, "If Zaid is killed, Ja'far bin Abi Taalib should take command and if Ja'far is killed, then Abdullaah bin Rawaaha should take command." The Sahabah prepared their provisions for the journey and then got ready to leave. They were three thousand in number. When they started leaving, the people came to bid farewell to the commanders that Rasulullaah appointed.

As Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha was being greeted along with the others, he started weeping. When the people asked him what it was that made him weep, he said, "I swear by Allaah that it is neither love for this world nor my attachment to you that makes me weep. However, I have heard Rasulullaah recite a verse for the Qur'aan that speaks of the fire of Jahannam:

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari.

⁽²⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.71).

Every one of you shall pass by it (everyone shall pass over Jahannam as they cross the bridge of Siraat that spans Jahannam). This is a decreed command of your Rabb. {Surah Maryam, verse 71}

I have no idea how am I to return after this crossing." The other Muslims said to him, "May Allaah be your companion. May He remove your worries and return you to us hail and healthy." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha then recited the following couplets which meant:

"I implore Ar Rahmaan for forgiveness

And the strike of a wide sword that causes foaming blood to spurt forth Or (I implore Allaah for) the fatal strike of a blood-thirsty enemy's spear That pierces through my intestines and liver

And when people pass by my grave, it will be said,

'May Allaah care for this warrior' who has already been cared for"

As the army were preparing to leave, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha went to greet Rasulullaah . He then recited the following couplets which meant:

"May Allaah preserve all the good He has granted you

As He did for Moosa (and may He assist you as others were assisted I see you ever increasing in good

And Allaah knows that my sight is excellent

You are the Rasul and whoever is deprived of your munificence and your attention truly is ill-fated"

The army then left. Rasulullaah Feft to bid farewell to them and when he turned back (to return to Madinah), Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha Said:

"May peace remain with the great man whom I have greeted amongst the date palms, who is the best of those who bid farewell and the best of friends"

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha Encourages the Sahabah Essential towards Martyrdom

The expedition marched until they set up camp at a place called Ma'aan which was located in Shaam. There they received intelligence that Heraclius had arrived in Ma'aab in the district of Balqaa with a hundred thousand Roman soldiers. In addition to this, he had been reinforced by another hundred thousand soldiers from the Lakhm, Judhaam, Qayn, Bahraa and Baly tribes. Commanding the reinforcements was a man named Maalik bin Zaafila who belonged to the Iraasha clan, an offshoot of the Baly tribe. When this news reached the Muslims, they stayed in Ma'aan for two nights, discussing their situation.

They said, "We should send a message to Rasulullaah informing him about the numbers of the enemy. He will then either send reinforcements to us or issue further instructions for us to follow." It was then that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha bolstered the courage of the Muslim by saying, "O people! By Allaah! The thing that you seem to dislike is the very thing for which you have left, martyrdom. We have never fought with reliance in our numbers and our strength. We have always fought on the strength of this Deen that Allaah had blessed us with. March ahead! You will have either one of two excellent things, victory or martyrdom." The others echoed, "By Allaah! Ibn Rawaaha has spoken the truth!"

The Sahabah the proceeded to the border of Balqaa, where the coalition of Heraclius's Roman army and the Arab forces met them at one of the villages of Balqaa called Mashaarif. As the enemy forces drew closer, the Muslims regrouped at a village called Mu'ta. It was there that the armies clashed. The Muslims arranged their army by appointing a Sahabi from the Banu Udhra tribe called Qutba bin Qataadah was as commander of the right flank and a Sahabi from the Ansaar called Abaaya bin Maalik as commander of the left flank. In this way they met the enemy and started fighting.

Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha fought courageously with the flag of Rasulullaah until he was martyred by a spear. Hadhrat Ja'far then grabbed hold of the flag and fought until he was also martyred. He was the first Muslim in the history of Islaam who disabled his animal (to dispel thoughts of fleeing from the battlefield). (1)

Another narration of Hadhrat Urwa States that afterwards (after the martyrdom of Hadhrat Zaid Hadhrat Ja'far grabbed hold of the flag and fought with it until when the battle became pitched, he dismounted his red horse and hamstrung it. He then fought until he was also martyred. He was the first Muslim in the history of Islaam to disable his animal. (2)

The Couplets that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha Recited During the Journey

Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam says, "I was an orphan in the care of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha says, "I was an orphan in the care of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha he took me along on the journey (to Mu'ta) and seated me behind him on his satchel. By Allaah! He was travelling one night when I heard him recite the following couplets (which mean):

'(O my camel) When you take me closer, carrying my carriage along for four days after leaving Hisaa

May you then have comfort and not any more hardship

For I shall not be returning to my wife and family (because I shall become a

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.241).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg. 157). Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg. 118) has also reported the narration.

martyr, you will have no more work to do)
The Muslims shall return and leave me there in the land of Shaam where my final stay will be My close relatives who are close to Allaah will take you back
Whereas (by my death) my relationship with them shall cease
At this stage I neither have concern for date palms that grow by themselves
Nor for those that need to be watered"

Hadhrat Zaid bin Arqam (Simo) continues to narrate, "When I heard these couplets from him, I began to weep. He struck me with his whip and said, 'You little imp! Why should it be a bother for you if Allaah blesses me with martyrdom and you can ride back (to Madinah) on my camel?" (1)

The Couplets that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha Recited During the Battle

Hadhrat Abbaad bin Abdullaah bin Zubayr from the Banu Murrah clan that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha grabbed hold of the flag after Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abi Taalib was martyred. He then took it forward riding on his horse. Because his heart seemed reluctant to dismount (to engage the enemy), he said to himself:

"O my heart! I command you in the name of Allaah to dismount You will have to dismount either willingly or unwillingly (Especially) If the enemy gather and shout out in loud voices (as they attack) Why do I see you displaying an aversion for Jannah For a long time you have enjoyed a good life

You are merely like a drop in a waterbag (will come to an end very soon)"

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha also recited the following couplets which mean:

"O my heart! If you are not killed, you will still have to die some day This is the pronounced decree of death that you will have to enter You have been granted whatever you desire

Now if you do what those two (Hadhrat Zaid and Ja'far (1996) have done, you will have been rightly guided"

He then dismounted his horse. As he did so, his cousin came to him with a piece of meat saying, "Strengthen yourself with this because you have experienced much hunger the last few days." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha took the meat and had taken just one bite from it when he heard an uproar at one end of the battlefield. He said to himself, "(The Muslims are giving their lives) And you are still engrossed in worldly affairs?" Throwing the meat from his hand, he grabbed his sword and went forward, fighting until he was martyred. (2)

Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.243), Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.119) and Tabraani, as quoted Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.6 Pg.158).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.245). Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.120) and Tabraani have also reported the narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.160).

Hadhrat Ja'far Disables his Horse and Recites Some Couplets as he Fights

Hadhrat Abbaad bin Abdullaah bin Zubayr in narrates that his foster father from the Banu Murrah who participated in the Battle of Mu'ta said, "By Allaah! It is as if I can still see Ja'far if dismounting his red horse and then hamstringing it. He then fought the enemy until he was martyred. As he fought, he was reciting the following couplets (which meant):

'O how delightful is Jannah and drawing close to it

With its pure and cool waters

Their punishment has drawn close to the Romans

Who are non-believers without any mutual relations

When I meet them on the battlefield, I shall have to strike at them with my sword!"(1)

During the Battle of Yamaamah

Hadhrat Zaid bin Khattaab (and other Sahabah (Encourage the Muslims to be Steadfast and to Seek Martyrdom

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan who was the son of Hadhrat Zaid bin Khattaab narrates that (his father) Hadhrat Zaid bin Khattaab carried the flag of the Muslims during the Battle of Yamaamah. The Muslims were on the verge of being defeated when (their enemy) the Haneefa tribe (2) overwhelmed the Muslim infantry. Hadhrat Zaid bin Khattaab then said to the Muslims, "Do not return to the camp for the infantry has been defeated." Shouting at the top of his voice, he then said, "O Allaah! I beg Your pardon on behalf of my companions who have fled and I exonerate myself from the evil that Musaylama and Muhakkam bin Tufayl (the commander of Musaylama's army) have casued." He then firmly grabbed hold of the flag and advanced with it in the midst of the enemy, where he fought courageously with his sword until he was martyred. May Allaah shower His mercies on him.

When the flag fell from his hand, it was taken up by Hadhrat Saalim the freed slave of Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfa (150). The Muslims said to him, "We fear that the enemy would attack us from your side." He replied, "I would be a terrible bearer of the Qur'aan if the enemy attacks from my side (I shall fight any attacks they launch form my side)." Hadhrat Zaid bin Khattaab (150) was martyred in 12 A.H. (3)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.244), Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.118) and Abu Dawood, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.238).

⁽²⁾ They were the tribe of Musaylama Kadhaab who falsely claimed to be a prophet.

⁽³⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.227) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.274).

Hadhrat Thaabit and Hadhrat Saalim Dig Holes During a Battle to Keep them from Fleeing and to Ensure that they are Martyred

The daughter of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr requested the Muslim to fight against those who forsook Islaam from Yamaamah and the followers of Musaylama, Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas was amongst those who marched. When the Muslim army clashed with Musaylama and the Banu Haneefa tribe, the Muslims were defeated in three battles. It was then that Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas and Hadhrat Saalim the freed slave of Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfa said, "This was not how we fought during the time of Rasulullaah ." They then dug a foxhole for themselves, got in and fought until they were both martyred. (1)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Thaabit bin Qais bin Shammaas harrates that when the Muslims were initially defeated during the Battle of Yamaamah, Hadhrat Saalim the freed slave of Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfa said, "This was not how we fought during the time of Rasulullaah ""." He then dug a foxhole for himself and stood in it. Carrying the flag of the Muhaajireen with him, he then fought until he was martyred. May Allaah shower His mercy on him. This occurred during the Battle of Yamaamah during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

The Call Hadhrat Abbaad bin Bishr Made to the Ansaar Before he was Martyred

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri Feports that Hadhrat Abbaad bin Bishr said to him, "O Abu Sa'eed! Last night I saw (in a dream) that the sky opened up for me and then shut behind me (after I had entered). Inshaa Allaah, this indicates martyrdom." Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri Fees says, "I told him that he had seen an excellent dream. During the Battle of Yamaamah, I then saw him calling to the Ansaar, 'Break the sheaths of your swords and separate from the others. Let us Ansaar separate! Let us Ansaar separate (from the other soldiers so that we may show our courage and encourage the others thereby)!' Four hundred soldiers only from the Ansaar gathered aside. Abbaad bin Bishr Dujaanah and Baraa bin Maalik led them to the orchard (where the enemy had fortified themselves) and fought very hard. Abbaad bin Bishr was martyred. May Allaah shower His mercies on him. I saw so many wounds on his face that I could recognise him only by signs on his body." (3)

Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.322) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Abdul Birr has also reported the narration in Isti'aab (Vol.1 Pg.194), as has Baghawi, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.196).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.88).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.441).

The Call Hadhrat Abu Aqeel Made to the Ansaar Before he was Martyred

Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abdullaah bin Aslam Hamdaani was narrates that the first casualty during the Battle of Yamaamah was Hadhrat Abu Aqeel Unayfi was. An arrow struck him between his shoulder and heart. The arrow bent and therefore did not kill him. When the arrow was removed, the left side of his body became paralysed because of the injury. This occurred during the early part of the day and he was taken to the camp. When the fighting grew intense, the Muslims were being defeated and driven back behind their camp.

As Hadhrat Abu Aqeel Week lay in a weak condition because of his wound, he heard Hadhrat Ma'n bin Adi Calling to Ansaar, "Trust in Allaah! Trust in Allaah and attack the enemy once again." Hadhrat Ma'n Week was walking quickly ahead of the others. This was during the time when the Ansaar were shouting, "Let us Ansaar separate! Let us Ansaar separate!" One by one, the Ansaar started separating from the others (and grouping together to launch an attack that would encourage the others).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says, "Abu Aqeel sign jumped up to join his people (the Ansaar). I said to him, "What are you doing, Abu Aqeel? You are in no condition to fight." He replied, 'A caller has announced my name. 'He has called for the Ansaar and is not referring to the injured, I explained. He replied, 'I am from the Ansaar and I shall respond even though I have to crawl."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with narrates further that Hadhrat Abu Aqeel then fastened his back and took a naked sword in his right hand. He then started calling, "O Ansaar! Attack the enemy once more like the Battle of Hunayn." The Ansaar then regrouped and spearheaded an extremely fierce attack on the enemy, forcing them to retreat to an orchard. The Muslims and the enemy met at close quarters and crossed swords with each other.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says that he saw the injured arm of Hadhrat Abu Aqeel severed from the shoulder and lying on the ground. Hadhrat Abu Aqeel sussained fourteen wounds, each of which were fatal by themselves. Musaylama was killed and when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reached Hadhrat Abu Aqeel sussained, he was lying on the ground breathing his last. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sussained Hadhrat Abu Aqeel t's name, he responded by muttered in a faint voice, "At your service! Who has won the battle?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sussained him, "Glad tidings (we have been victorious)!" Raising his voice, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar sadded, "The enemy of Allaah had been killed!" Hadhrat Abu Aqeel sussained him, singer towards the heavens, praised Allaah and then passed away. May Allaah shower His mercy on him.

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says that after returning, he informed (his father) Hadhrat Umar says about the events that transpired, to which Hadhrat Umar says commented, "May Allaah shower His mercy on him. He continued asking for martyrdom and searching for it. As far as I know, he was amongst the best of Rasulullaah sees s companions and was one of the early Muslims." (1)

The Martyrdom of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais

Hadhrat Anas says that when the Muslim army suffered defeat initially during the Battle of Yamaamah, hesaw Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais applying perfume (in preparation for entering the battlefield). Hadhrat Anas said to him, "O uncle! Do you not see what is happening (the Muslim are busy retreating)?" He replied, "This is not how we used to fight during the time of Rasulullaah see! Terrible is the habit that you people have made the enemy accustomed to (by being repeatedly defeated)! O Allaah! I absolve myself from what these people (the Muslims) have done (by fleeing) and from what those people (the enemy) have done." He then fought until he was killed. (2)

Another narration states that when the Muslims were being defeated during the Battle of Yamaamah, Hadhrat Thaabit said, "Shame on those people (the enemy) and whatever they worship and shame on these people (the Muslim) for what they have done!" He then killed a man standing on a depression of a wall (of the orchard they were using as a fortress). Hadhrat Thaabit was then martyred. (3)

During the Battle of Yarmook

Hadhrat Ikrama bin Abu Jahal (is Martyred Together with Four Hundred Muslims

Hadhrat Thaabit Bunaani Isaan narrates that during a certain battle (the Battle of Yarmook), Hadhrat Ikrama bin Abu Jahal Isaanimal and was walking when Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Isaanimal to him, "Do not do that for your death will be a hard blow to the Muslims." Hadhrat Ikrama bin Abu Jahal Isaanimal replied, "Leave me alone, O Khaalid. You were one of the early ones with Rasulullaah while my father and I were amongst his staunchest opponents." He then continued on foot until he was martyred. (4) Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan Ghassaani narrates from his father that during the Battle of Yarmook, Hadhrat Ikrama bin Abu Jahal Isaanimas said, "I fought several battles against Rasulullaah Isaanimas Should I now flee from you people today?!" He then announced, "Who will pledge to fight to their deaths?" His uncle Hadhrat Haarith bin Hishaam Isaanimas hadhrat Diraar bin Azwar Isaanimas and four hundred other prominent Muslims and horsemen took the pledge at his hand. They then fought in front of Hadhrat Khaalid Isaanimas tent until their wourds incapacitated all of

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.473)

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.! Pg.195) from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.323). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.235) has also reported the narration.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.6 Pg.405). Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.44) has also reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Anas 经减少。

⁽⁴⁾ Ya'qoob bin Abu Sufyaan and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.75). Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.44) has also reported the narration.

them. A large number of them were martyred. Amongst those martyred was Hadhrat Diraar bin Azwar (1)

Another narration while most of the four hundred men were martyred, some of them survived. Amongst them was Hadhrat Diraar bin Azwar . The next morning, Hadhrat Ikrama bin Abu Jahal and his son Amr were both brought to Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed in badly wounded conditions. Hadhrat Khaalid placed the head of Hadhrat Ikrama bin Abu Jahal on his thigh and that of his son Hadhrat Amr on his calf. He then started wiping their faces and putting drops of water into their throats saying, "The son of Hantama (Hadhrat Umar said) said that we would not be martyred (but Allaah has blessed us with martyrs)."

Miscellaneous Stories about the Enthusiasm of the Sahabah (E) to Fight in the path of Allaah

The Enthusiasm of Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir to Fight in the Path of Allaah

Hadhrat Abul Bakhtari and Hadhrat Maysara narrate that Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir was fighting in the Battle of Siffeen but was not being martyred. He then approached Hadhrat Ali was and said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! This is that very day (about which Rasulullaah was said that I would be martyred. How come I am still alive?)." Hadhrat Ali was replied, "Do not worry about that." This occurred three times until Hadhrat Ammaar was given some milk. He drank it and said, "Indeed, Rasulullaah was said that this (milk) will be the last drink that I shall drink in this world." He then stood up and fought until he was martyred. (2)

Hadhrat Abu Sinaan Duwali who was a Sahabi reports that he saw Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir call to his slave to bring him something to drink. The slave brought a cup of milk, which Hadhrat Ammaar draw drank. He then said, "Rasulullaah has spoken the truth. Today I shall meet my beloved friends, Muhammad and his companions." The rest of the Hadith follows. (3) Hadhrat Ibraheem bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf narrates that during the Battle of Siffeen, which was the day when Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir was martyred, he heard Hadhrat Ammaar call out, "I am to meet Al Jabbaar (Allaah) and marry the damsels of Jannah! Today I shall meet my beloved friends, Muhammad and his companions because Rasulullaah informed me that the last provision of my worldly life shall be the curds of milk." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Sayf bin Umar, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.7 Pg.11).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani and Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.297) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.298).

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.296) has commented on the chain of narrators and stated that a narration of Imaam Ahmad states that when the milk was brought to Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir Specific plants.

The Martyrdom of Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik in Persia

Hadhrat Anas while he was singing something. I said, 'Allaah has given you something (the Qur'aan) that is better (than the poems you sing).' He replied, 'Do you fear that I shall die on my bed? Never! I swear by Allaah that He will never deprive me (of martyrdom). I have already killed a hundred Kuffaar apart from those whom I killed with the help of others." (1)

Another narration states that when the Muslims retreated during the Battle of Aqaba in Persia, Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik stood up and mounted his horse as another person guided it from behind. He then said to his companions, "Terrible is the habit that you people have made the enemy accustomed to (by being repeatedly defeated)!" He then led the attack against the enemy and Allaah gave victory to the Muslims. It was on that day that Hadhrat Baraa was martyred. (2)

The Thoughts of Hadhrat Umar when Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon Passed Away without being Martyred

Hadhrat Ubaydullaah bin Abdullaah bin Utba says that the news reached him that Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab said, "When Uthmaan bin Madh'oon died naturally without being martyred, his status dropped in my eyes. I said to myself, 'Look at this man who was extremely abstinent from the world and then passed away without being martyred! Uthmaan stayed in this position in my estimation until Rasulullaah passed away. I then said, 'Shame on me! Even the best of people pass away naturally.' When Abu Bakr passed away naturally, I said, 'Shame on me! Even the best of us pass away naturally.' The status of Uthmaan bin Madh'oon was then restored to the position it previously enjoyed in my sight." (3)

The Bravery of the Sahabah 經過節

The Bravery of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq

Hadhrat Ali woo once asked, "O people! Who is the bravest person?" "You are, O Ameerul Mu'mineen," the people submitted. Hadhrat Ali woo then said, "Although I have defeated everyone who has confronted me, I want you people to tell me who is the bravest person." "Who then?" the people said, "Who is the bravest person?" Hadhrat Ali woo replied, "He was Abu Bakr woo. We had constructed a shed for Rasulullaah woo during the Battle of Badr and then asked Baghawi, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.143) from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.324). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.291) and Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.350) have also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Haakim.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd and Abu Ubayd in his Ghareeb, as quoted Muntakhab (Vol.5 Pg.240).

who would remain with Rasulullaah sees so that the Mushrikeen do not attack him. (Hadhrat Abu Bakr so volunteered for the task when all others were unable to.) By Allaah! Whenever a Mushrik even drew close to us Abu Bakr sees was there with his sword drawn near the head side of Rasulullaah sees. He attacked anyone who dared attack Rasulullaah sees. He was certainly the bravest of people." (1)

The Bravery of Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab

Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib says, "I know of no person who did not make Hijrah secretly except for Umar bin Khattaab when he decided to make Hijrah, he hung his sword from his neck, carried his bow on his shoulder and took a few arrows in his hand. He then proceeded to the Kabah where the leaders of the Quraysh were sitting in their gatherings. He went around the Kabah seven times and then performed two Rakaahs salaah by the Maqaam Ibraheem. Thereafter, he approached each gathering separately, saying, "May your faces be disfigured! Whoever wants his mother to mourn him, his children to become orphans and his wife to become a widow should meet me behind this valley (to try and stop my Hijrah)." None dared follow him out. (2)

The Bravery of Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib

The Poem of Hadhrat Ali after the Battle of Uhud

Hadhrat Jaabir (Faction) narrates that after the Battle of Uhud, Hadhrat Ali came home to Hadhrat Faatima (Which meant):

"O Faatima! Take this flawless sword from me

I am neither shaken (with fear) nor a worthless man

By my life! I have truly exerted myself to assist Muhammad and for the pleasure of my Rabb Who has complete knowledge about His bondsmen" Rasulullaah then said, "If you think that you fought well, so have Sahal bin Hunayf and Ibn Simma." Rasulullaah also mentioned the name of a third Sahabi whose name a narrator called Mu'alla had forgotten. Hadhrat Jibra'eel commented, "O Muhammad is I I swear by your father that this is certainly an occasion of grief." Rasulullaah said, "O Jibra'eel! He (Hadhrat Ali is from me." To this, Hadhrat Jibra'eel said, "And I am from the two of you (with you two always)." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Files) narrates that after the Battle of Uhud, Hadhrat Ali (Files) came home to Hadhrat Faatima (Files) and said, "O

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar, as quoted Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol. 9 Pg. 46).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg 387).

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.122) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Faatima! Take this flawless sword from me." Rasulullaah then said, "If you think that you fought well, so have Sahal bin Hunayf and Abu Dujaana Simaak bin Harasha." (1)

Hadhrat Ali Kills Amr bin Abd Wadd

Hadhrat Ubaydullaah bin Ka'b bin Maalik says says that during the Battle of Khandaq, Amr bin Abd Wadd donned himself recognisable so that his presence should be noticed by also bringing a flag in his hand. As he stood with his horse, Hadhrat Ali saked, "O Amr! Did you make a pledge to the Quraysh in Allaah's name that if anyone called you to accept two matters, you would surely accept one of them?" "I certainly have," replied Amr. Hadhrat Ali says continued, "I then call you towards Allaah, His Rasool and towards Islaam." "I have no need for that!" retorted Amr. "Then," said Hadhrat Ali says, "I challenge you to dismount and fight me on the battlefield." Amr responded by saying, "Why, O nephew? By Allaah, I would not like to kill you." Hadhrat Ali says then incensed Amr by smirking, "However, I swear by Allaah that I would like to kill you." At this, Amr stormed forward. Both men dismounted their animal, circled the battlefield and started a furious duel. Hadhrat Ali says then killed Amr. (2)

The Couplets Hadhrat Ali Recited when he Killed Amr bin Abd Wadd

A narration of Ibn Is'haaq states that Amr bin Abd Wadd was covered in armour when he stepped forward and called, "Who will fight me?" Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib stood up and said, "I shall accept the challenge, O Nabi of Allaah Rasulullaah said, "That is Amr. Be seated." Amr then called out again saying, "Is there nobody to fight me?" He then started making fun of the Muslims by saying, "Where is that Jannah of yours about which you claim that anyone killed from you will enter? Can you not send even one man to fight me?" Hadhrat Ali again stood up and volunteered for the task. However, Rasulullaah again bade him to be seated. When Amr pronounced his challenge for the third time and also recited some poetry (to ridicule the Muslims), Hadhrat Ali got up and said, "O Rasulullaah replied, "(I am prepared to fight) Even though it is Amr." With the permission of Rasulullaah Hadhrat Ali walked towards Amr with the following couplets on his lips (which meant):

"Do not be hasty because coming your way is a respondent to your challenge who is not at all helpless
He comes with true resolve and foresight
For it is truth that brings salvation to every successful person
I have great hope of setting on you
Women who wail over the bodies of the dead

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.123).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.281).

Using such a powerful strike of the sword That will be spoken about in all battles"

"Who are you?" Amr asked. "I am Ali," came the reply. "The son of Abd Manaaf?" asked Amr. Hadhrat Ali "Feplied, "I am Ali the son of Abu Taalib." Amr said, "Dear nephew! Have you any uncles who are elder than you, (rather send them to fight me) for I do not like to spill your blood." Hadhrat Ali "Femarked, "However, I swear by Allaah that I would love to spill your blood." Amr flew into a rage at this. He dismounted from his animal and drew his sword which appeared to be a spark of fire. He then stormed angrily at Hadhrat Ali "Who faced him with his leather shield."

Amr struck the shield with such force that the sword cut right through it and injured Hadhrat Ali sweets head. Hadhrat Ali sweets then struck an artery of Amr's shoulder so forcefully that Amr fell to the ground. Dust then began to fly and when Rasulullaah see heard "Allaahu Akbar", the Sahabah knew that Hadhrat Ali sweets had killed Amr. Hadhrat Ali sweets then recited the following couplets which meant:

"Will a band of horsemen launch a surprise attack against me?

O my companions, retreat and leave them to me

Today my anger prevents me from fleeing from the battlefield

As did the unmistaken strike of a sword to my head"

He concluded with a few verses that meant:

"By his foolish judgement, he worshipped stones

while by my correct judgement, I worship the Rabb of Muhammad

When I returned, I left him lying on the ground

Like a fallen trunk of a palm lying somewhere between sand dunes and higher ground

I preserved my dignity by not taking his clothes

But had I been the one to fall, he would have snatched away all my clothing

O coalition of forces! Never think that Allaah will stop assisting

His Deen and His Nabi

Hadhrat Ali then went to Rasulullaah , whose face was gleaming. Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab asked him, "Why did you not take his armour? No Arab has armour better than his." Hadhrat Ali replied, "When I struck him with my sword, he used his groin area to shield himself (because of which his private parts became exposed) so I felt too shy for this cousin of mine to take off his armour." (1)

Hadhrat Ali Kills the Jew Marhab During the Battle of Khaybar

Hadhrat Salama bin Akwa (in Madinah) for three days when they had to march to Khaybar. Hadhrat Salama (Salama says that (his uncle) Hadhrat Aamir (Salama also left (with the army) as he recited the following couplets (which meant):

"By Allaah! Were it not for You (O Allaah) we would not have received guidance Nor would we have given charity or performed salaah

We can never be independent of Your grace

So do send tranquillity to us

And make our feet firm when we clash (with the enemy)"

Rasulullaah sked, "Who is saying that?" When the Sahabah simple informed Rasulullaah that it was Hadhrat Aamir simple, he said, "May your Rabb forgive you." Hadhrat Salama says, "Whenever Rasulullaah said this to anyone, they were always martyred." Riding his camel, Hadhrat Umar commented, "(O Rasulullaah simple) You should have allowed us to benefit more from Aamir." When the Sahabah simple reached Khaybar, (one of the bravest Jewish warriors) Marhab came out brandishing his sword and reciting the following couplets (which meant):

"All of Khaybar knows that I am Marhab

A well-armed and experienced hero

(Who thrives) When the leaping flames of war arrive"

Hadhrat Aamir (met Marhab's challenge to a duel as he recited the following:

"All of Khaybar knows that I am Aamir

A well-armed hero who throws himself in the thick of battle"

The two men exchanged blows with their swords. When Marhab's sword got stuck in Hadhrat Aamir she shield, he attacked Marhab from beneath but his sword accidentally severed an artery in his own arm. This caused the death Hadhrat Aamir she was passing by a group of Sahabah she was, he overheard them say, "All Aamir's deeds have been wasted because he killed himself." Hadhrat Salama she was. Hadhrat Salama who asked him what the matter was. Hadhrat Salama replied, "They are saying that all the deeds of Aamir are wasted." "Who is saying this?" asked Rasulullaah she in A group of your Sahabah she in Came the reply. Rasulullaah she in then said, "They are wrong. In fact, his reward will be double."

Rasulullaah then sent for Hadhrat Ali who, who was experiencing some pain in his eyes. "Tomorrow," declared Rasulullaah we, "I shall give this flag to someone who loves Allaah and His Rasool we," Hadhrat Salama says that he was he who led Hadhrat Ali who to Rasulullaah we, Rasulullaah then applied some of his saliva to Hadhrat Ali who seyes, which cured them instantly. He then handed the flag over to Hadhrat Ali who (When the battle started) Marhab then again came forward to issue a challenge as he said:

"All of Khaybar knows that I am Marhab A well-armed and experienced hero (Who thrives) When the leaping flames of war arrive"

Hadhrat Ali Suss stepped forward to accept his challenge as he said:

"I am the one whose mother calls a lion

Like the lion of a terrifying jungle

I give the enemy his full measure just like an open scale"

Hadhrat Ali then swung his sword to deliver a blow that decapitated Marhab's head. This led to the conquest of Khaybar. (1)

Hadhrat Abu Raafi who was the freed slave of Rasulullaah an narrates that they marched with Hadhrat Ali to Khaybar, where Rasulullaah sent him ahead with the flag. When Hadhrat Ali approached one of the fortresses, the people inside came out to fight him. One of the Jews struck Hadhrat Ali ships shield, causing it to fall from his hand. Hadhrat Ali then ripped off one of the doors of the fortress and used it as a shield. He kept fighting with it in his hand until Allaah gave victory to the Muslims. He then threw it away. Hadhrat Abu Raafi says, "I saw myself with a group of seven others of which I was the eighth. Try as we did to turn that door over, we did not succeed." (2)

Hadhrat Jaabir (Fig. 1) reports that during the Battle of Khaybar, Hadhrat Ali (Fig. 2) lifted up the door of a fortress, which the Muslims used to climb over the walls. This led to their victory. When the people tried to lift the door afterwards, forty of them were unable to do so. (3) Another narration states that seventy men had to exert themselves before they were able to put the door back on its place. (4) Yet another narration from Hadhrat Jaabir bin Samura (5) states that during the Battle of Khaybar, Hadhrat Ali (Fig. 2) lifted up the door of a fortress, which the Muslims used to climb over the walls. This led to their victory. When the people tried to lift the door afterwards, it took forty of them to do so. (5)

The Bravery of Hadhrat Talhabin Ubaydillaah 過過過多

Hadhrat Talha (which meant):

"We are the protectors of the Ghaalib and Maalik tribes

Fighting in defence of our blessed Rasulullaah

Striking people with our swords on the battlefield for him

As we strike the hump of a large-humped camel (when cleaning it after

- (1) Muslim and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.187). This narration therefore makes it clear that it was Hadhrat Ali (1966) who killed Marhab. A narration from Imaam Ahmad confirms this when it quotes that Hadhrat Ali (1966) said. "After killing Marhab, I brought his head to Rasululiaah (1966)." However, Moosa bin Aqaba narrates that it was Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama (1966) who killed Marhab. The same has been reported by Muhammad bin Is'haaq and Waaqidi from Hadhrat Jaabir (1966) and others.
- (2) The chain of narrators in this narration is flawed and clearly broken.
- (3) Bayhaqi and Haakim. The chain of narrators in this narration is weak.
- (4) Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.189). The chain of narrators in this narration is also weak.
- (5) Ibn Abi Shayba, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Limmaal (Vol.5 Pg.44). The chain of narrators in this narration is reliable.

slaughtering)"

As the Muslims were leaving Uhud, Rasulullaah (told (the famous poet) Hadhrat Hassaan (to says something in praise of Hadhrat Talha (the obliged by saying the following couplets (which meant):

"On the day of the valley (the Battle of Uhud), Talha assisted Muhammad During a time of extreme hardships and difficulties

With his bare hands he shielded (Rasulullaah (##) from the arrows

And placed his hand beneath the swords (to shield Rasulullaah (2013) because of which it was paralysed

After Muhammad , he led all the others

He erected the mill of Islaam until it could function by itself"

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then recited the following (which meant):

"Talha defended the Nabi of guidance as the cavalry chased him

When they eventually caught up, he defended all of Deen

He patiently bore the injuries when his comrades had left

At that time, people were either rightly guided or misguided

O Talha bin Ubaydillaah! Incumbent for you is the gardens of Jannah and marriage to its beautiful wide-eyed damsels"

Hadhrat Umar 选择的 then said the following couplet (in praise of Hadhrat Talha 选择的):

"He defended the Nabi of guidance with his drawn sword at a time when everyone had fled and dispersed"

Rasulullaah then commented, "What you have said is true, O Umar." (1) The manner in which Hadhrat Talha fought during the Battle of Uhud has already been narrated (in the chapter "Rasulullaah Endures Hardship and Difficulty when Giving Da'wah towards Allaah" under the subheading "The Hardship Rasulullaah Bore During the Battle of Uhud").

The Bravery of Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam Hadhrat Zubayr , Emerges with a Drawn Sword in Makkah before the Hijrah

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib says that the first person to draw a sword for the pleasure of Allaah was Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam was assassinated. He immediately left home with a drawn sword when he came face-to-face with Rasulullaah Rasulullaah enquired, "What is the matter, Zubayr?" "I heard that you had been assassinated," he replied. "What were intending to do in that case?" Rasulullaah saked. "By Allaah!" replied Hadhrat Zubayr in had intended to tackle all the people of Makkah." Rasulullaah then prayed for him. It is with reference to this that Asadi said the following poem (which meant):

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.68) with commentary on the chain of narrators, Ibn Hibbaan has also reported the narration, as quoted in Lisaan (Vol.3 Pg.77).

"That was the first sword drawn for the pleasure of Allaah The sword of the beloved leader Zubayr & Salaah

In the defence of Deen, it happened by the grace of his courage

It occasionally happens that one who hears a lot musters many forms of courage"(1)

Hadhrat Urwa har narrates that after accepting Islaam, Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam once heard a whisper from Shaytaan stating that Rasulullaah had been captured. Although he was only a boy of twelve years, he drew his sword and searched the gullies of Makkah. At that time, Rasulullaah was in the upper area of Makkah when Hadhrat Zubayr met him with sword in hand. Rasulullaah enquired, "What is the matter?" "I heard that you had been captured," he replied. "What were intending to do in that case?" Rasulullaah asked. Hadhrat Zubayr replied, "I had intended to use this sword on whoever it was who captured you." Rasulullaah then prayed for Hadhrat Zubayr and for his sword and told him that he could leave. His was the first sword drawn in the path of Allaah. (2)

Hadhrat Zubayr Kills Talha Abdari During the Battle of Uhud

Ibn Is'haaq narrates that Talha bin Abu Talha Abdari bore the flag of the Mushrikeen during the Battle of Uhud. When he called for someone to challenge him to a duel, the Muslims hesitated. The only person to accept the challenge was Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam Hadhrat Zubayr leapt on to Talha's own camel, threw him off and killed him with his own sword. In praise of him, Rasulullaah said, "Every Nabi has a devoted friend in Jannah and mine shall be Zubayr." Rasulullaah also said, "Had Zubayr not accepted the challenge, I would have done so myself after seeing the hesitance of the others." (3)

Hadhrat Zubayr Kills Naufal Makhzoomi and Another Person

Ibn Is'haaq narrates that during the Battle of Khandaq, Naufal bin Abdullaah bin Mughiera Makhzoomi stepped ahead of the ranks of the Mushrikeen and issued a challenge for someone to fight him. Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam responded and struck Naufal so forcefully with his sword that Naufal's body was split into two and Hadhrat Zubayr t's sword was dented. Hadhrat Zubayr then returned reciting the following couplets (which meant):

"I am a man who defends himself and also defends The chosen and unlettered Nabi" $^{(4)}$

⁽I) Ibn Asaakir.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir and Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.89), as quoted in Mutakhab Kanzul Ummaai (Vol.5 Pg.69). The narration has also been reported by Zubayr bin Bakkaar as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.545) and by Abu Nu'aym in his Dalaa'il (Pg.226).

⁽³⁾ Yunus, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.20).

⁽⁴⁾ Yunus, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg. 107).

Hadhrat Asmaa bint Abu Bakr with a narrates that a fully-armed man from the Mushrikeen advanced (from the ranks of the enemy) and climbed on top of a high place. He then announced, "Who will come out for a challenge?" Rasulullaah asked one of the Sahabah with "Will you take him on?" "If it pleases you, O Rasulullaah with the man replied. When Hadhrat Zubayr started peering to look, Rasulullaah in noticed him and said, "Stand up, O son of Safiyya!" Hadhrat Zubayr with then walked up to the man until he stood level to him. The two men started exchanging blows with their swords, after which one of them grabbed the other in a bear hug. They both then started rolling down. Rasulullaah commented, "Whichever of them first falls into the ditch will be killed." Rasulullaah and the Sahabah with their started making du'aa. It was the Kaafir who landed first in the ditch. As soon as this happened, Hadhrat Zubayr with fell on to the Kaafir's chest and killed him. (1)

Hadhrat Zubayr Fights During the Battles of Khandaq and Yarmook

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr says, "During the Battle of Khandaq, myself and Umar bin Abu Salama were put with the women and children in a fortress (because we were both very young). He would bend over for me to get on to his back so that I could watch (the battle). I watched my father (Hadhrat Zubayr sometimes fighting here, sometimes there and tackling anyone that confronted him. When he came to us in the fortress that evening, I said to him, 'Dear father, I watched you today and saw what you were doing.' 'Did you really see me?' he asked. 'I sure did,' I replied. He then said, 'May my parents be sacrificed for you." (2)

Hadhrat Urwa says that during the Battle of Yarmook, the Sahabah said to Hadhrat Zubayr said to them, "Will you not lead an attack so that we may join you?" Hadhrat Zubayr said to them, "If I lead the attack, you will fail in your word (to fight with me)." "We will not," they assured him. Hadhrat Zubayr then attacked the enemy so fiercely that he penetrated past their ranks without the support of anyone else. However, as he returned, the enemy grabbed the reins of his horse and inflicted two wounds on his shoulder on either side of the wound that he sustained during the Battle of Badr.

Hadhrat Urwa was says that (the wounds were so deep that) as a child he used to playfully put his finger into those wounds. With Hadhrat Zubayr on that day was his son Abdullaah who was only ten years of age. Hadhrat Zubayr put Hadhrat Abdullaah on a horse and left him in the care of one of the men. (3)

Another narration states that when the Sahabah (approached Hadhrat Zubayr (b) with the same request a second time, he complied and did as he had done the first time. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.69)

⁽²⁾ Bayhagi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 4 Pg. 107).

⁽³⁾ Bukhari.

The Bravery of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas

Hadhrat Sa'd (is the First Person to Fire an Arrow in the Path of Allaah

Hadhrat Zuhri reports that Rasulullaah so once sent an expedition to a place called Raabigh that was situated on one end of Hijaaz. Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas was also part of this expedition. When the Mushrikeen attacked the Muslims, Hadhrat Sa'd so defended them with his arrows and was the first person to fire and arrow in the path of Allaah. This was the first battle fought in Islaam. Concerning his archery, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas so recited the following couplets (which meant):

"Behold! Has the news reached Rasulullaah by yet that I have defended my companions with my arrowheads? Using them, I made the enemy flee over every type of ground, hard and soft No archer fighting the enemy can be counted Who has fired an arrow before me, O Rasulullaah

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Kills Three People with a Single Arrow During the Battle of Uhud

Hadhrat Ibn Shihaab narrates that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas Killed three people with a single arrow during the Battle of Uhud. When the Mushrikeen first shot the arrow at the Mushrikeen again fired the same arrow back, Hadhrat Sa'd Shot it back at them (killing one of them). When the Mushrikeen again fired the same arrow back, Hadhrat Sa'd Shot it back at them a second time, killing another man. When the arrow came back, Hadhrat Sa'd Shot it back at them a third time, taking the life of yet another Mushrik. Everyone was astonished by what Hadhrat Sa'd Shad done. He said to them, "The arrow was handed to me by none other than Nabi Kasulullaah Rasulullaah R

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood says that during the Battle of Badr, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas fought with Rasulullaah in the roles of both cavalry and infantry (according to another interpretation, although Hadhrat Sa'd was part of the infantry, he fought as efficiently as a cavalryman). (4)

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.7 Pg.11).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.72)

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.72).

⁽⁴⁾ Bazzaar. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.82) has commented on the chain of narrators.

The Bravery of Hadhrat Hamza bin Abdil Muttalib

His Bravery During the Battle of Badr and the Statement of Umayyah bin Khalaf in this Regard

Hadhrat Haarith Taymi narrates that during the Battle of Badr, Hadhrat Hamza bin Abdil Muttalib distinguished himself by wearing ostrich feathers. One of the Mushrikeen asked, "Who is the man who marks himself with ostrich feathers?" "He is Hamza bin Abdil Muttalib," came the reply. The man then commented, "It was he who carried out all those major offensives against us." (1) Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf says that Umayyah bin Khalaf once asked him, "O Abdul Ilaa! Who was the man who marked his chest with ostrich feathers during the Battle of Badr?" "He was the uncle of Rasulullaah says. He was Hamza bin Abdil Muttalib," replied Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Umayyah then commented, "It was he who carried out all those major offensives against us." (2)

Rasulullaah Weeps Bitterly as he Sees the Dead Body of Hadhrat Hamza

Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah could not find Hadhrat Hamza these people (Abu Sufyaan and the others) have done and I seek pardon from what these people (the Muslims) have done (by causing their own defeat)." Rasulullaah went in that direction and started crying when he caught sight of Hadhrat Hamza could was mutilated, he wept uncontrollably. Rasulullaah was mutilated, he wept uncontrollably. Rasulullaah then asked, "Is there no Kafan (burial shroud)?" One of the Ansaar stood up and threw a cloth over the body. Thereafter, Rasulullaah said, "In the sight of Allaah, Hamza shall be the leader of all martyrs on the Day of Qiyaamah." (3)

The Martyrdom and Mutilation of Hadhrat Hamza

Hadhrat Ja'far bin Amr bin Umayyah Dhamri says that it was during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya when he and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Adi bin Khiyaar went out. He then goes on to report a lengthy narration in which he states that when the two of them sat before Hadhrat Wahshi when, they asked, "We have come here so that you may relate to us how you managed to martyr Hadhrat Hamza when he responded by saying, "I shall relate the incident to you as I had related it to Rasulullaah when he asked me about it. I had been a slave of Jubayr bin Mut'im, whose uncle Tu'ayma bin Adi was killed in the Battle of Badr. When the Quraysh marched to Uhud, Jubayr said to me, 'You will be a free man if you manage to kill Hamza the uncle of Rasulullaah to compensate for the death of my uncle.'

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.81) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.81) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.199) narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Dhahabi.

I was an Abyssinian man who could throw the spear with the accuracy of the Abyssinians. I seldom ever missed a target. I therefore marched with the others and when we engaged the Muslims in battle, I set out to locate Hamza 经原验。I searched for him until I eventually saw him at one end of the army. (With his brawny body covered in dust) He looked like a brown camel, smashing people with his sword so fiercely that nothing could stand before him. By Allaah! I prepared well for him and hid myself behind a tree or a rock until he drew close to me. However, Sibaa bin Abdul Uzza beat me to him. When Hamza 曼瑙屬 saw Sibaa, he called to him, "Come to me, O son of a circumcised woman!" Hamza 送腦絕多 then struck Sibaa so forcefully that his head was taken off as if by mistake. I then shook my spear until I was satisfied (that it would hit the target) and then let it fly. The spear struck him beneath the navel and penetrated his body until it emerged from between his legs. He started to come to me, but fell unconscious, I then left him like that until he passed away, I later returned, took my spear and returned to the camp. I then sat there because I had no need for anything else. I had killed Hamza with only to secure my freedom. I then returned to Makkah and was set free.

I remained there until Rasulullaah conquered Makkah, after which I escaped to Taa'if. I stayed there until the time when a delegation from Taa'if went to Rasulullaah to accept Islaam. All avenues were then shut for me and I thought, 'Should I go to Shaam, to Yemen or someplace else?' By Allaah! I was still engrossed in these thoughts, when someone said to me, 'Shame on you! (Do you still not know that) Muhammad never kills anyone who enters his Deen and recites the Shahaadah of truth.' I then set out until I reached Rasulullaah in Madinah. (Rasulullaah had no idea of my arrival and) Nothing warned him of my presence besides me standing over his head reciting the Shahaadah of truth. When he saw me, Rasulullaah asked, 'Are you Wahshi?' 'Yes, O Rasulullaah in I replied. He then said to me, 'Sit down and tell me how you managed to kill Hamza

I then related the incident to Rasulullaah as I have related it to you. Once I had completed the narration, Rasulullaah said to me, 'Hide your face from me so that I do not have to see you (do not let me see you because it reminds me of my uncle's death).' I would then avoid the places where Rasulullaah was so that he did not have to look at me. I continued doing this until Allaah took the life of Rasulullaah

When the Muslims marched to fight the great liar Musaylama from Yamaamah, I marched with them. I took along with me the same spear I had used to martyr Hamza (from before), I recognised Musaylama standing with sword in hand. As I prepared to kill him, someone from the Ansaar was also preparing to kill him from another direction. I then shook my spear until I was satisfied (that it would hit the target) and then let it fly. As the spear struck him, the Ansaari attacked him and struck him with his sword. Only your Rabb knows which of us had killed him. If I had killed him, then although I had martyred the best of people after Rasulullaah (Hamza Hamza), I had also killed the worst of people (Musaylama)."

A similar narration of Bukhari also narrated by Hadhrat Ja'far bin Amr adds that when the armies formed their rows for the battle, Sibaa stepped forward and said, "Is there anyone to fight me?" Hadhrat Hamza bin Abdil Muttalib accepted the challenge and said, "O Sibaa! O son of Ummu Anmaar the circumcised woman! Do you oppose Allaah and His Rasool ?" He then attacked Sibaa (and finished him off so thoroughly) as if he was a bygone day.

The Bravery of Hadhrat Abbaas bin Abdul Muttalib

Hadhrat Abbaas Snatches Hadhrat Handhala from the Hands of the Mushrikeen

Hadhrat Jaabir som narrates that during the Battle of Taa'if, Rasulullaah sent Hadhrat Handhala bin Rabee to the people of Taa'if. However, when Hadhrat Handhala shows had spoken to them, they captured him and were taking him up to their fortress when Rasulullaah called out, "Who will take care of them (and rescue Hadhrat Handhala som)? Such a person will receive the reward of this entire expedition." It was only Hadhrat Abbaas who rose to the occasion. He intercepted the enemy as they were taking Hadhrat Handhala into the fortress. Hadhrat Abbaas was a powerful man and he wrestled Hadhrat Handhala from them until he was able to snatch him away from their hands. Rasulullaah prayed for him all the time and he brought Hadhrat Handhala to Rasulullaah despite the rocks that the people in the fortress rained down on him. (2)

The Bravery of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Amr bin Jamooh (Simos) and Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Afraa (Simos)

How they Killed Abu Jahal During the Battle of Badr

Hadhrat Abdur Ramaan bin Auf (Suppless Says, "As I stood in file during the Battle of Badr, I looked to my right and left and saw two boys from the Ansaar who were very young in age. I was hoping that I had rather been between two stronger men, when one of them nudged me saying, 'Dear uncle! Do you know who Abu Jahal is?' 'Certainly," I replied, 'What have you to do with him?' He replied, 'I have been told that he abuses Rasulullaah . I swear by the Being Who controls my life that if I see him, I shall not leave him until the first of us dies.' I was very impressed with this. The other boy then nudged me and we had a similar conversation.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.18).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.307).

No sooner did I spot Abu Jahal doing his rounds amongst his people, when I said to the boys, 'Look over there! There is the man you were asking me about.' The two darted towards him with their swords and struck him until they had killed him. They then went to Rasulullaah and reported it to him. When Rasulullaah asked them which of them killed Abu Jahal, they both claimed to have done so. 'Have you wiped your swords yet?' Rasulullaah asked. 'No,' they replied. Rasulullaah then examined their swords and said, 'You have both killed him.' Rasulullaah however decided to award Abu Jahal's possessions to Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Amr bin Jamooh the other youngster was Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Afraa

Another narration from Bukhari quotes that Hadhrat Abdur Ramaan bin Auf said, "I was standing in the rows during the Battle of Badr and happened to look to my right and my left when I noticed two youngsters on either side. I began to feel unsafe in my position when one of them addressed me in a manner that the other should be unaware of. He requested, 'Dear uncle! Do show me who Abu Jahal is?' 'Dear nephew,' I asked, 'What will you do about him?' He responded by saying, 'I have taken a pledge with Allaah that as soon as I see him, I will either kill him or I shall be killed in the attempt.' Thereafter, the second youngster also had a similar conversation with me that the first was unaware of. (Impressed by their courage) I then did not want to be between any other men other than them. When I pointed Abu Jahal out to them, they attacked him like two peregrine falcons and struck him with their swords. They were the two sons of Afraa (Mu'aadh and Mu'awwadh. Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Amr bin Jamooh was most probably with them).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Bakr' both narrate from Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Amr bin Jamooh of the Banu Salma tribe that he said, "(During the Battle of Badr) Abu Jahal seemed to be in a dense forest (because he was surrounded by soldiers on all sides). The people therefore said that it was impossible for anyone to reach him. No sooner had I heard this, then I resolved to get to him and went in his direction. I attacked him as soon as I got the opportunity and struck him with my sword, causing his foot to fly off from halfway down his calf. By Allaah! The only comparison I can draw of his foot flying off is like a date stone flies off a grindstone when it is thrown against it. Abu Jahal's son Ikrama then struck me on the shoulder. The blow severed my arm and it hung by its skin to my side. The battle occupied me from feeling the pain and I fought most of the day with the arm trailing behind me. However, when it became too cumbersome, I placed my foot on the dangling arm and pulled hard until (the skin gave way and) I could cast the arm aside. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari. Muslim, Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.425) And Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.305).

The Bravery of Hadhrat Abu Dujaana Simaak bin Harasha William from the Ansaar

Hadhrat Abu Dujaana 登場等 Takes a Sword from Rasulullaah 優麗 and Fulfils its Rights During the Battle of Uhud

Hadhrat Anas reports that Rasulullaah took hold of a sword during the Battle of Uhud and announced, "Who will take this sword from me?" When several Sahabah took the sword to have a look at it, Rasulullaah said, "(I am not giving it for looking) Who will take this sword and fulfil it rights." This made everyone hesitate and it was Hadhrat Abu Dujaana Simaak bin Harasha who said, "I shall take it and fulfil its rights." He then used it to efficiently kill the Mushrikeen. (2)

Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam in narrates that that Rasulullaah took hold of a sword during the Battle of Uhud and announced, "Who will take this sword and fulfil its rights." It was Hadhrat Abu Dujaana Simaak bin Harasha who said, "O Rasulullaah it I shall take it and fulfil its rights, but what are its rights?" Rasulullaah it then handed the sword over to him and he left. Hadhrat Zubayr says that he followed Hadhrat Abu Dujaana and (saw that) he destroyed everything he used the sword on. He eventually came across some Mushrikeen women at the foot of the mountain. Amongst them was Hind who was reciting the following couplets (to incite the Mushrikeen men, which meant):

"We are the daughters of prominent people
Who walk on exquisite cushions
We wear musk on our heads
And are ready to embrace you when you arrive
We shall however separate from you if you flee the battlefield
'Separate in a manner after which there shall be no reconciliation"

When Hadhrat Abu Dujaana with intended to attack her (because she was an active participant in the battle), she started calling (for help) to the battlefield. However, no one came to her assistance. He then left her. Hadhrat Zubayr said to him, "I have been extremely impressed by everything I have seen you do besides the fact that you did not kill that woman." Hadhrat Abu Dujaana said, "When no one responded to her call for help, I did not want the sword of Rasulullaah to strike a helpless woman." (3)

Hadhrat Zubayr www narrates, "During the Battle of Uhud, Rasulullaah took hold of a sword and announced, 'Who will take this sword with its rights.' I said, 'I shall, O Rasulullaah will Rasulullaah ignored me and again

⁽I) Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.287).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad and Muslims, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.15). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.101) has also reported the narration.

⁽³⁾ Bazzaar, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.109).

announced, 'Who will take this sword with its rights.' Abu Dujaana Simaak bin Harasha then responded by saying, 'I shall take it with its rights, O Rasulullaah Will What are its rights?' Rasulullaah replied, '(Its rights are) That you do not use it to kill any Muslim and do not flee the battlefield with it.' Rasulullaah then handed the sword over to him. Whenever he intended to fight, he would make himself distinguishable by wearing a (red) bandanna. I said to myself, 'I shall watch him closely today to see what he does.' (I saw that) He destroyed everything he used the sword on..." The rest of the Hadith is similar to the one quoted above. (1)

Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam is reported to have said, "I was disappointed when I asked Rasulullaah for the sword and he refused to give it to me, giving it to Abu Dujaana instead. I said to myself, 'I am the son of his aunt Safiyya and from the Quraysh. However, when I stood up and asked for the sword before Abu Dujaana Rasulullaah gave it to him instead of myself! By Allaah! I shall certainly watch him to see how he performs.' I then started following him. When he took out his red bandanna and tied it around his head, the Ansaar said, 'Abu Dujaana has taken out his bandanna of death.' This they always said whenever he wore his bandanna. He then left with the following couplets on his lips (which meant):

'It was with me that my good friend took an undertaking as we stood at the foot of a mountain among the date palms

(The undertaking was) That throughout my life I should never stand in the rear end of the battlefield

So I shall now be using the sword of Allaah and His Rasool (4) (to light the enemy)"

Hadhrat Zubayr Some continues to narrate, "Abu Dujaana some killed every enemy soldier who confronted him. One of the Mushrikeen was such that (after searching for the wounded Muslims) he did not leave any of them alive. When this Mushrik drew close to Abu Dujaana some, I prayed to Allaah to let them confront each other. The two men then clashed and exchanged blows with their swords. When the Mushrik struck at Abu Dujaana some with his sword, Abu Dujaana some defended himself with his shield, which trapped the sword. Abu Dujaana then killed the Mushrik with a single blow. I also saw him raise the sword over the head of Hind bint Utba and then turning the sword away from her. I said, 'Allaah and His Rasool know best (who most deserves to be killed by this sword)." (2)

Hadhrat Moosa bin Uqba narrates that when Rasulullaah offered the sword to the Sahabah Hadhrat Umar first asked for it. When Rasulullaah ignored him, Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam sked for it. Rasulullaah ignored him as well. The two felt very disappointed about it. When Rasulullaah offered it for the third time, Hadhrat Abu Dujaana asked to have it. Rasulullaah gave it to him and he truly fulfilled the rights of that sword.

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.230), narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Dhahabi.

^{(2) 1}bn Hishaam, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol. 4 Pg. 16).

Hadhrat Ka'b bin Maalik says, "I was also part of that battle with the Muslims. However, what I saw of the Mushrikeen mutilating the bodies of the Muslims made me stand still in my tracks. When I proceeded ahead, I saw a fully-armed Mushrik passing by the Muslims saying, 'Herd together (to be slaughtered) as goats herd together!' I then noticed that a Muslim wearing a helmet was waiting for the approach of this Mushrik. I went ahead until I stood behind him. I then visually assessed the strength of the Muslim and the Mushrik, arriving at the conclusion that the Mushrik was better armed and better prepared for battle. I then waited until the two men clashed. The Muslim struck the Mushrik so powerfully that after the sword struck the artery of his shoulder, it penetrated through his body and emerged from his posterior. His body was therefore cut into two. The Muslim then removed his helmet and said, 'How was that, Ka'b? I am Abu Dujaana." (1)

The Bravery of Hadhrat Qataadah bin Nu'maan

Hadhrat Qataadah bin Nu'maan Will Uses his Face to Shield Rasulullaah Will from Arrows During the Battle of Uhud

Hadhrat Qataadah bin Nu'maan was narrates, "Rasulullaah was given a bow as a gift, which he gave to me during the Battle of Uhud. I used it to fire arrows in front of Rasulullaah until the string broke. I then remained standing where I was, shielding the face of Rasulullaah with my own. When ever an arrow headed for the face of Rasulullaah I turned my head to protect the face of Rasulullaah for I had no bow to use. The last of the arrows to come was one that caused my eyeball to fall into my hand. I rushed to Rasulullaah with the eyeball in my palm and when he saw me, tears rolled from his eyes. He then said, 'O Allaah! Qataadah shielded Your Nabi with his face so make this (injured) eye the better of his two eyes and the one with sharper vision. (After Rasulullaah placed the eyeball back into its place) The eye did turn out to be the better one and the one with sharper vision. (2)

Hadhrat Qataadah harrates, "During the Battle of Uhud, I was standing in front of Rasulullaah har, shielding Rasulullaah harasha was behind during the Battle of Uhud, Abu Dujaana Simaak bin Harasha was behind Rasulullaah harasha harasha was behind Rasulullaah harasha harasha was behind kasulullaah harasha was sold until his back was full of arrows." (3)

⁽¹⁾ Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.17).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.113) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami has commented on the chain of narrators.

The Bravery of Hadhrat Salama bin Akwa 🖽 🏐

His Bravery During the Fight at Dhu Qarad

Hadhrat Salama bin Akwa harrates, "It was during the period when the Peace Treaty of Hudaybiyyah was being abided by that we returned to Madinah with Rasulullaah (to graze and water) and I also took the horse of Talha bin Ubaydullaah to water and graze with the camels. It was during the last vestiges of night that Abdur Rahmaan bin Uyayna (with a band of Mushrikeen) launched an attack and killed the shepherd tending to Rasulullaah is camels. He and those with him then started taking the camels away when I said to Rabaah is, 'Take this horse back to Talha and inform Rasulullaah that his camels are being stolen.' I then stood on the top a hill facing towards Madinah and thrice shouted, 'Yaa Sabaahaa!' (This was a call for help when under attack from an enemy).

I then chased after them with my sword and arrows. I started shooting arrows at them and hamstringing their animals every time I came by an outcrop of trees. Whenever any rider turned on me, I sat by the roots of a tree and shot an arrow. In this manner, I managed to injure the horse of every rider that approached me. As I fired the arrows, I was chanting the following couplet (which meant):

'I am the son of Akwa

and today is the day of (destroying) the wretches'

When I (on foot) caught up with one of them as he rode, I let fly an arrow. As the arrow struck his leg, I (was so close that I) could almost strike his shoulder when I said:

'Take that! For I am the son of Akwa and today is the day of (destroying) the wretches'

Whenever I found some trees, I would assault them with my arrows and when a valley narrowed, I would climb to the top and throw stones at them. This is how I kept pursuing them and reciting my couplets until I had recaptured and put behind me every camel of Rasulullaah ... I then continued shooting arrows at them until, in an effort to lighten themselves, they had thrown off more than thirty spears and more than thirty shawls. Whenever they threw anything down, I placed a stone on it and placed it on the road that Rasulullaah would be taking. By midmorning, Uyayna bin Badr Fazaari arrived to reinforce them at a narrow valley. I then climbed to the top of the hill and was high above them.

Uyayna asked them, 'Who is this person I see (chasing you)?' They replied, 'He has given us a difficult time. He has been chasing us from daybreak until now and had taken everything we had and left it behind him.' Uyayna said, 'If he had known that a search party was coming up after him, he would certainly have left you. A few of you will have to get him.' Four of them then stood up and climbed the hill. As soon as they came within earshot, I called out, 'Do you know who I am?' 'Who are you?' they enquired. I responded by saying, 'I am the son of Akwa. I swear by the Being Who has honoured Muhammad that none of you can ever catch me if he chases me whereas he would never escape me if I chase him.' One of them commented, 'I think so too.'

I kept my position there until I saw Rasulullaah si riders weaving between the trees. In the lead was Akhram Asadi www and close on his heels was Abu Qataada who was Rasulullaah se special rider. Behind him was Migdaad bin Aswad Kindi 劉輝鏡, The Mushrikeen took flight and I descended from the hill. I grabbed hold of the reins of Akhram while's horse and said. Beware of them for I fear that they would cut you to pieces. Wait until Rasulullaah and his companions arrive.' He said, 'O Salama! If you believe in Allaah and the Last Day and know that Jannah and Jahannam are true, you would not stand between me and martyrdom.' I then let go of his horse's reins and he caught up with Abdur Rahmaan bin Uyayna. Abdur Rahmaan turned to fight him and the two exchanged blows with their spears. As Akhram which hamstrung Abdur Rahmaan's horse, Abdur Rahmaan stabbed Akhram was and martyred him. Abdur Rahmaan then got on to Akhram 墨斯德 s horse just as Abu Qataadah 细胞的 confronted him. When the two started their duel using spears, Abdur Rahmaan hamstrung Abu Qataadah's horse and Abu Qataadah 🗒 🚳 killed Abdur Rahmaan, Abu Oataadah William then took Akhram's horse."

Hadhrat Salama bin Akwa Continues, "I then started running after the bandits until (we had gone so far that) I could not see the dust of the Sahabah Dust before sunset, they entered a valley where there was a watering place called Dhu Qarad. They had intended to drink some water there but when they saw me in hot pursuit, they abandoned the idea and climbed up the ridge of Dhu Bir. As the sun set, I caught up with one of them and while shooting an arrow at him, I said:

'Take that! For I am the son of Akwa and today is the day of (destroying) the wretches'

(When the arrow struck him) He groaned, 'If only the mother of Akwa had lost him early in the morning! 'Is that so, O enemy of himsel?' I shouted. He was the same person whom I had shot early that morning. I then fired another arrow at him. Both arrows were now stuck to him. They left behind two horses and I brought them down to Rasulullaah who was at the watering place from which I had chased the bandits off, namely Dhu Qarad. Rasulullaah was there with five hundred men. Bilaal had slaughtered one of the camels I had left behind and was busy roasting for Rasulullaah parts of its liver and hump.

I said, 'O Rasulullaah [36]! Allow me to choose a hundred of your companions so that I may capture those Kuffaar at night. I shall not leave any of them to tell the tale. 'Would you really be able to do so, Salama?' asked Rasulullaah [36]. 'Certainly, I swear by the Being Who had honoured you!' Rasulullaah then smiled so broadly that I could see his molar teeth in the light of the fire. He then said, 'By now they would already be entertained in Banu Ghitfaan territory.' A man from the Banu Ghitfaan later informed us that some people from the Ghitfaan tribe passed by him and he slaughtered a camel for them. However, they were still busy skinning the animal when they saw a dust trail. They then left the camel as it were and fled for their lives.

The next morning, Rasulullaah announced, 'Our best cavalryman is Abu Qataadah and our best infantryman is Salama.' Rasulullaah then gave me the share of a cavalryman as well as the share of an infantryman. As we returned to Madinah, Rasulullaah seated me behind him on his camel Adhbaa. Eventually all that was left of the journey equalled the distance travelled between sunrise and midmorning. Amongst us was a person from the Ansaari who was undefeated in a road race. He started to announce, 'Is there anyone to race? Will anyone race me to Madinah?" He repeated himself several times as I was seated behind Rasulullaah . I said to him, 'Don't you respect any honourable person or fear any respectable person?' The Ansaari said, 'I care for none after Rasulullaah . Thereupon, I said, 'O Rasulullaah . May my parents be sacrificed for you! Permit me to race him.' Rasulullaah replied, 'If you wish.' I said to the man, 'I am on my way.' He jumped off his camel. I doubled up my legs and also jumped from the camel.

(We then started the race) I initially held myself back for one or two hills (so that he could run ahead) and then I ran faster until I caught up with him and hit my hands between his shoulders. I said something like, 'By Allaah! I have beaten you.' He laughed and said, 'I think so too.' We then reached Madinah." A narration of Muslim adds that Hadhrat Salama said, "I then beat him to Madinah. We had not even stayed three days in Madinah when we marched for Khaybar." (1)

The Bravery of Hadhrat Abu Hadrad Aslami He Fights and Defeats Two Men

Hadhrat Abu Hadrad says, "I married a woman from my tribe and agreed to give her a dowry of two hundred Dirhams. I then approached Rasulullaah for some financial assistance for my marriage. 'How much did you agree to pay her as dowry?' asked Rasulullaah (thinking it to be too much for someone like myself), 'Had you married any lady from the town, you would not have had to pay so much (they demand higher because she is from your tribe). I swear by Allaah that I have nothing to assist you with.'

I then stayed like that for a few days when a man from the Jusham bin Mu'aawiya tribe arrived with a large group from the Jusham tribe and others and camped at a place called Ghaaba (close to Madinah). His name was either Rifaa'ah bin Qais or Qais bin Rifaa'ah and he was a prominent person amongst the Jusham tribe. His intention was to rally the Qais tribe to fight against Rasulullaah Rasulullaah then summoned me and two other Muslims and instructed us saying, 'Go to this man and gather any information you can.' Rasulullaah then gave us a frail and old camel. When even one of us mounted her, she was unable to stand because of her weakness, it was only with the assistance of several men supporting her from behind that she was able to stand. Rasulullaah said, 'You will reach there on her.'

(With the blessing of Rasulullaah subside source of the strength and we rode her) We left with our weapons, which included arrows and swords and reached their camp as the sun was setting. As I hid in a corner, I instructed my two companions to hide in another corner of the camp. I then said to them, 'When you hear me shout 'Aliaahu Akbar' as I attack them, you two should also shout 'Aliaahu Akbar' and attack with me.' By Aliaah! We then sat waiting for an opportunity to attack when they became unmindful. The night covered us until there was only darkness. There was a shepherd of theirs who had gone out to graze the flocks and had not yet returned. They feared for his life and their leader Rifaa'ah bin Qais stood up and hung his sword around his neck. He said, 'By Aliaah! I shall find out for sure what has happened to our shepherd. Some harm must have come to him.' A group of his men said, 'Do not go. We shall do it for you.' However, he instructed, 'No! I shall go alone.' 'Let us accompany you,' they appealed. 'No!' he insisted, 'None of you should follow me.'

He then left and passed by me. When I had him perfectly in my sights, I fired an arrow that penetrated his heart. By Allaah! He made not a sound. I then jumped at him and severed his head. I then attacked one end of the camp, calling 'Allaahu Akbar!' My two companions also sprung to the attack shouting 'Allaahu Akbar!' By Allaah! Whoever was there only thought of getting to safety as they called out, 'Save yourselves! Save yourselves!' They made a dash for it, taking with them only their wives and children and the lightest of their possessions. We managed to take a great number of camels and goats, which we brought to Rasulullaah I also took Rifaa'ah's head along with me. Rasulullaah gave me thirteen camels from the booty, which I could use for the dowry and to get my wife home." (1)

The Bravery of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed

Hadhrat Khaalid Breaks Nine Swords During the Battle of Mu'ta

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (Sign) says, "Nine swords broke in my hand during the Battle of Mu'ta. Eventually, it was only a Yemeni sword that remained in my hand." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.223). Imaam Ahmad and others have also reported the narration but using the name Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad 图像的, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.295).

⁽²⁾ Bukhari, as quoted in Isti'aab (Vol.1 Pg.408). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.42) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.2) have also reported the narration.

Hadhrat Khaalid 學師師 kills Hurmuz

Hadhrat Aws bin Haaritha bin Laam was narrates, "There was none who hated the (Muslim) Arabs more than Hurmuz. After we had finished fighting Musaylama and his people, we marched towards Basrah. We clashed with Hurmuz with an extremely large army at a place called Kaadhima. Khaalid was stepped forward and challenged Hurmuz to a duel. Hurmuz accepted the challenge and Khaalid word killed him. When Hadhrat Khaalid wrote to Hadhrat Abu Bakr word about this, Hadhrat Abu Bakr was awarded Hurmuz's belongings to Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed was Hurmuz's crown was valued at a hundred thousand Dirhams because the Persians always gave their leaders crowns valued at a hundred thousand Dirhams." (1)

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Weeps as He Passes Away on his Bed

Hadhrat Abu Zinaad narrates that when Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed was about to pass away, he started weeping. He named the various battles he had participated in and said, "There is not an area on my body equal to a hand's span that does not have wound inflicted on it either by a sword, a spear or an arrow. However, here I am dying a natural death on my bed like a camel dies. May the eyes of cowards never have any sleep." (2)

The Bravery of Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik

Hadhrat Anas said reports that during the Battle of Yamaamah, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed said to Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik mounted his horse, he praised Allaah and said, "O people of Madinah! There should be no Madinah for you today (you should prepare yourselves to die in Jihaad and not return to Madinah). All that should remain for you should be the One Allaah and Jannah." He then led the attack with the others and the people of Yamaamah were defeated. Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik cencountered (the enemy leader) Mukakkam Yamaamah and floored him with a blow from his sword. He then took Muhakkam's sword and struck him so forcefully that the sword broke. (3) Another narration quotes that Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik said, "On the day that we fought Musaylama, I encountered a man who was called the donkey of Yamaamah. He was a large and powerfully built man who carried a white sword. When I struck his legs, they came off as if by mistake and he fell on his back. I then sheathed my sword, took his and attacked him with it until it broke." (4)

Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik Scales a Wall and Fights the Enemy all by Himself

Ibn Is'haaq narrates that the Muslims drove back the Mushrikeen during the

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.299).

⁽²⁾ Waaqidi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.7 Pg.114).

⁽³⁾ Sarraaj in his Taareekh.

⁽⁴⁾ Baghawi, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.143).

Battle of Yamaamah until they were forced to take refuge in an orchard. With them was the enemy of Allaah Musaylama. Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik then said, "O Muslims! Throw me on to them." He was then lifted up and when he was level with the top of the wall, he threw himself upon the enemy and fought them until he was able to open the gate for the Muslims. The Muslims then stormed the orchard and Allaah had Musaylama killed. (1)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen reports that (during the Battle of Yamaamah), the Muslims reached the orchard where in the Mushrikeen were and found the gate locked. Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik sat on a shield and said to the others, "Lift me up with your spears and throw me on them." They lifted the shield with their spears and threw him over the wall. When the Muslims joined up with him afterwards (after he had opened the gate for them), they found that he had already killed ten Mushrikeen. (2)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen narrates that Hadhrat Umar with decreed that Hadhrat Baraa bin Maalik who should not be appointed as the commander of any expedition because this would spell destruction (because he cared not for his life and would lead the others to places where the risk may be too much for them). (3)

The Bravery of Hadhrat Abu Mihjin Thaqafi

His Fierce Fighting During the Battle of Qaadisiyyah that made People think he was an Angel

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen reports that Hadhrat Abu Mihjin Thaqafi was always being lashed for drinking wine. Eventually, when his drinking became too much, he was jailed and kept in fetters. When he saw the Muslims fighting the Battle of Qaadisiyyah, it appeared to him that the Mushrikeen were causing great harm to the Muslims. He therefore sent a message through the slave girl or the wife of (the Muslim commander) Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas saying, "Abu Mihjin says that if you set him free, give him a horse and weapons, he will be the first to return to you (after the battle) if he is not martyred." He then recited the following couplets (which meant):

"It is enough to make me grieve that a horse is carrying spears to the fight While I am left in fetters in the jailhouse

When I stand up, my shackles restrain me

All avenues to martyrdom have been closed to me as the caller (to Jihaad) makes me deaf*

When the slave girl passed the message on to Hadhrat Sa'd (swife, she had his shackles removed, gave him a horse that was at home and some weapons. He then spurred the horse on until he reached the Muslim army. He killed every Mushrik soldier he met, breaking the man's back. When he saw this, Hadhrat Sa'd was astonished and asked, "Who is that horseman?" It was not long thereafter that Allaah had the enemy defeated. Hadhrat Abu Mihjin then returned, gave the weapons back and secured his legs to the shackles as they had been.

⁽¹⁾ Isti'aab (Vol. 1 Pg. 138).

⁽²⁾ Bayhagi, (Vol.9 Pg.44).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Muntakhab (Vol.5 Pg. 144).

When Hadhrat Sa'd we returned, his wife or slave girl asked, "How was the battle?" Informing them of the battle, Hadhrat Sa'd we replied, "We were being defeated until Allaah sent a rider on a black and white horse. Had I not left Abu Mihjin where in shackles, I would have thought that certain features of the man were that of Abu Mihjin we." The lady then said, "By Allaah! That was Abu Mihjin!" She then narrated the story to Hadhrat Sa'd we called for Hadhrat Abu Mihjin we, removed his shackles and said, "I swear by Allaah that I shall never again have you lashed for drinking wine." Hadhrat Abu Mihjin when said, "And I swear by Allaah that I shall never drink it again. I had been repeatedly drinking because of the lashings that you were giving me." He then never drank wine ever again. (1)

Another lengthy narration from Muhammad bin Sa'd states that after joining the Muslim army, every flank that Hadhrat Abu Mihjin attacked was defeated by the permission of Allaah. The Muslims gaped, "He must be an angel!" As Hadhrat Sa'd watched, he observed, "The horse's leap is that of (my horse) Balqaa and the man's style is that of Abu Mihjin. However, Abu Mihjin is in prison." When the enemy was defeated, Hadhrat Abu Mihjin returned secured his feet back in the shackles.

When the daughter of Hasfah informed Hadhrat Sa'd was about what had happened with Hadhrat Abu Mihjin Hadhrat Sa'd said, "I swear by Allaah that I shall never again penalise the person through whom Allaah has granted honour to the Muslims." When Hadhrat Sa'd had set him free, Hadhrat Abu Mihjin said, "I always continued drinking when I was being punished because I would then be cleansed from the sin. Now that you have decided not to punish me, I swear by Allaah that I shall never drink wine ever again." (2)

In a narration of Hadhrat Sayf, other couplets are reported. The narration also states that Hadhrat Abu Mihjin fought extremely well and that he shouted "Allaahu Akbar" each time he attacked. No enemy soldier could stand before him as he massacred them. Although the Muslims were unable to recognise him, they marveled at his performance. (3)

Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Isti'aab (Vol.4 Pg.184), narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.174).

⁽²⁾ Abu Ahmad Haakim and Ibn Abi Shayba with a minor difference. Ibn Abdul Birr has also reported the narration in his Isti'aab (Vol.4 Pg.187).

⁽³⁾ Isaaba.

The Bravery of Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir

He Lends Courage to the Muslims and Fights Bravely During the Battle of Yamaamah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reports that during the Battle of Yamaamah, he saw Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir standing on a boulder and shouting, "O Assembly of Muslims! Are you running away from Jannah? I am Ammaar bin Yaasir! Are you running away from Jannah? I am Ammaar bin Yaasir! Come to me!" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says says that he watched Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir sighting extremely fiercely even though his ear was cut and it hung loose. (1)

His Desire for Jannah as he Fought

Hadhrat Abu Abdur Rahmaan Sulami says that he participated in the Battle of Siffeen by the side of Hadhrat Ali says. They had appointed two men to guard Hadhrat Ali says, who kept launching attacks whenever he could catch the opposition unawares. Hadhrat Ali says would then not return from the attack until his sword was well coloured with blood. He would then say, "Do excuse me (for returning but) I swear by Allaah that I do not return until my sword has been dented."

Hadhrat Abu Abdur Rahmaan Sulami anarrates further that he saw Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir and Hadhrat Haashim bin Utba as Hadhrat Ali was fighting between two rows of the enemy. (Looking at Hadhrat Ali hadhrat Ammaar said said, "O Haashim! By Allaah, this man's commands are being violated and his army is being deserted. O Haashim! Jannah lies beneath flashing swords. Today I shall meet those I love, Muhammad and his group. O Haashim! You are one-eyed and one-eyed people are no good if they do not swamp the battlefield." (With this incitement from Hadhrat Ammaar said) Hadhrat Haashim waved the flag and said (the following couplets which mean):

"This one-eyed man has spent his life in search of a home for his family until he has become tired

He will now fight until he defeats the opposition or is defeated"

He then went into one of the valleys of Siffeen (to fight). Hadhrat Abu Abdur Rahmaan Sulami 劉德 says, "I then saw the Sahabah 他等 of Rasulullaah follow Hadhrat Ammaar 劉德 as if he were their flag. (2)

In another narration, Hadhrat Abu Abdur Rahmaan Sulami 多數 says, "I noticed that (during the Battle of Siffeen) whenever Hadhrat Ammaar 级 went into any of the valleys of Siffeen, all the Sahabah 多數 of Rasulullaah 如 who were there followed him. I also saw him approach Haashim bin Utba 经 who bore the flag of Hadhrat Ali (Singles)'s army. He said, 'O Haashim! Advance! Jannah lies beneath the shadow of swords and death lies at the points of spears. The doors of Jannah have been flung wide open and the damsels of Jannah have been beautified. Today I shall meet those I love, Muhammad (Singles) and his group. He then launched an attack with Haashim (Singles) and they were both martyred. At that moment, Hadhrat Ali (Singles) and his army also launched an attack on the people of Shaam as if they were all one man. It seemed as if the two men - Hadhrat Ammaar (Singles) and Hadhrat Haashim (Singles) - were their banner."

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.385) and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.254).

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.394).

The Bravery of Hadhrat Amr bin Ma'dikarib Zubaydi

His Exemplary Fighting During the Battle of Yarmook

Hadhrat Maalik bin Abdullaah Khath'ami says, "I have not seen anyone step forward (to challenge an opponent) in the Battle of Yarmook who was better than a certain Muslim. When a powerfully built Kaafir came to meet his challenge, he effectively killed him. When another came forward, he killed him as well. When the Kuffaar were defeated (and fled) he gave chase and then proceeded to his huge tent. There he called for a large utensil (of food) and invited all those around him (to eat). 'Who is this?' I asked. 'He is Amr bin Ma'dikarib,' came the reply." (2)

He Fights Single-Handedly During the Battle of Qaadisiyyah

Hadhrat Qais bin Abi Haazim reports that he was present during the Battle of Qaadisiyyah with Hadhrat Sa'd commanding the Muslim army. Hadhrat Amr bin Ma'dikarib passed through the rows saying, "O assembly of Muhaajireen! Be fierce lions (and launch such an attack that will prompt the enemy cavalry to throw their spears) because riders soon lose hope after throwing their spears." Just then, one of the Persian commanders shot and arrow at Hadhrat Amr which struck the edge of his bow. Hadhrat Amr which struck the edge of his bow. Hadhrat Amr which struck the man's back was broken. He then dismounted and took the man's possessions. (3)

Ibn Asaakir has narrated a longer version of the story. At the end of his narration, it is stated that when an arrow struck the front of Hadhrat Amr (b)'s saddle, he attacked the man who fired it and lifted him up like a little girl is lifted up. He then placed him between the rows (of the Muslims and the Kuffaar) and cut off his head while telling the others, "Do it this way."

Waaqidi had narrated from Isa bin Khayyaat that during the Battle of Qaadisiyyah

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.7 Pg.270). Tabraani and Abu Ya'la have reported the narration in detail while Imaam Ahmad has reported it briefly and authentically, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.241).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Aa'idh in his Maghaazi.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ibn Aa'idh, Ibn Sakan, Sayf bin Amr, Tabraani and others, all narrating from reliable sources.

Hadhrat Amr bin Ma'dikarib (See attacked the Mushrikeen all by himself and fought with his sword until the other Muslims could join him. When the Muslims saw that the Mushrikeen had surrounded Hadhrat Amr (See who was still wielding his sword, they drove the Mushrikeen away from him.

Tabraani narrated from Muhammad bin Sallaam Jumhi (Tabraani narrated from Muhammad bin Sallaam Jumhi (Tabraani Umar (Tabraani Washing)), "I shall reinforce yo'u with two thousand men. They are Hadhrat Amr bin Ma'dikarib (Tabraani Tulayha bin Khuwaylid (Tabraani Tulayha bin Tulayha bin Khuwaylid (Tabraani Tulayha bin Tulayha bin

Hadhrat Abu Saalih bin Wajeeh says, "The Battle of Nahaawind took place during the year 21 A.H. and the Muslims were defeated when Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin was martyred. Hadhrat Amr bin Ma'dikarib then resumed the fight on that day until he had transformed the defeat into victory. However, an injury incapacitated him and he passed away in the village of Rowdha."

The Bravery of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr 🕮 💮

His Fight Against Hajjaaj and Subsequent Martyrdom

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr reports that after Hadhrat Mu'aawiya passed away, it became very difficult for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr to be subservient to Hadhrat Mu'aawiya son Yazeed. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr sonce insulted Yazeed in public, Yazeed vowed that if Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr was not brought before him wearing a yoke around his neck, he would send an army to get him. The people said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr sonce, "Should we not make for you a yoke out of silver which you could wear under your clothing so that his vow could be fulfilled? It is best that you make peace with him." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr sexclaimed, "May Allaah never fulfil his vow!" He then recited the following couplet (which meant):

"I shall never soften to his demands that oppose the truth Until rock is softened for the molars to chew"

He then declared, "By Allaah! The strike of a sword in honour is better than the lash of a whip in disgrace." Thereafter, he started calling for support and proclaimed his opposition to Yazeed bin Mu'aawiya. Yazeed then dispatched an army from Shaam under the command of Muslim bin Uqba Murri with explicit instructions to fight the people of Madinah and to then march to Makkah. When Muslim entered Madinah, the Sahabah who were left there were already gone. Muslim humiliated the people of Madinah and went on a killing spree. He then left Madinah and was on the way (to Makkah) when he died. However, he had already appointed Husayn bin Numayr Kindi as his successor and said to him, "O bearer of the donkey's carriage! Beware of the plotting of the Quraysh. First wage war agianst them and then kill them selectively." Husayn then proceeded to Makkah and when he reached there, he fought Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr for a few days.

⁽I) Dowlaabi, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.18).

Later on the narration states that when the news reached Husayn bin Numayr that Yazeed had passed away, he fled. When Yazeed bin Mu'aawiya had passed away, Marwaan bin Hakam canvassed for support. Further on, the narration states that after Marwaan died, Abdul Malik called people to pledge their allegiance to him. The people of Shaam responded to him and he delivered a sermon in which he said, "Who will kill Abdullaah bin Zubayr 遊览過言!" When Hajjaaj volunteered, Abdul Malik silenced him. However, after being silenced for a second time, he again volunteered saying, "I shall do it, O Ameerul Mu'mineen because Isawinadreamthat I had snatched his cloak away from him and wore it." Abdul Malik then appointed Hajjaaj as commander and dispatched him with an army. He started the war against Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (1996) as soon as he reached Makkah. Addressing the people of Makkah, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr William said, "Guard the two mountains because you will always remain in good stead and dominant as long as they do not climb the mountains. It was not much later that Hajjaaj and his men managed to climb Mount Abu Oubays, where they set up a catapult. They then relentlessly rained down rocks on Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr 告诫 and his men who were stationed in the Masjidul Haraam.

On the morning of the day in which Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr was martyred, he went to his mother Hadhrat Asmaa with, the daughter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr with. Although she was then a hundred years old, not a single tooth had fallen out nor had she lost her eyesight. She asked her son, "O Abdullaah! What has happened to your battle?" He informed her of the extent to which the enemy had advanced and then laughed as he said, "There is peace in death." She said, "Dear son! I hope that you do not wish death to me because I do not want to die until I see one of two results. Either you become the ruler and thus give pleasure to my eyes or either you are martyred and I may expect rewards from Allaah (by exercising patience)." As he bade farewell to her, she said, "Dear son! Ensure that you never compromise on any facet of your Deen for fear of being killed."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr then proceeded to the Masjidul Haraam where they had placed two thresholds across the Hajar Aswad (Black Stone) to protect it from the catapult. As Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr was sitting near the Hajar Aswad, someone came to him and asked, "Should we not open the door of the Kabah for you so that you go inside (and be saved from them)?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr was looked at the person and said, "You may protect your brother from everything except his death. Has the Kabah not have any sanctity that this place does not have (if the enemy do not revere the Masjid itself, they will not revere the Kabah either)? I swear by Allaah that they would kill you even if you were clinging on to the shroud of the Kabah." Someone then suggested, "Should you not discuss making peace with them?" He replied, "Is this the time for making peace? I swear by Allaah that even if they find you inside the Kabah, they would slaughter you all." He then recited the following couplets (which meant):

"I shall not sell my life for something that is flawed nor shall I climb a ladder for fear of death

I aspire for an arrow that strikes and cannot be shifted

How can one who desires death have any other aspiration?"

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr then addressed the family of (his father) Hadhrat Zubayr saying, "Each one of you should look after his sword as he looks after his face. He should ensure that it does not break otherwise he will have to defend himself with his hands as if he were a woman. By Allaah! I have always been in the front line of every battle and I have never felt the pain of any wound unless I applied medicine to it."

As they were talking, some people suddenly entered through the door of Banu Jumh. Amongst them was black man. "Who are they?" asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr William. When he was informed that they were people from Hims, he attacked them carrying two swords. The first person he met was the black man, whom he attacked with his sword and severed his leg. The man shouted in pain and said, "O son of an adulteress!" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr responded by saying, "Get lost, O son of Haam⁽¹⁾! Was Asmaa ever an adulteress?!" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr then removed them all from the Masjid and returned.

Just then another group of people barged through the Banu Salam door. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr was asked who they were, he was informed that they were people from Jordan. He then attacked them as he recited the following couplets (which meant):

"I do not trust an attack that comes in floods

The dust of which does not settle until the night"

After he had removed them also from the Masjid, another group of people rushed in through the Banu Makhzoom door. This time, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr attacked them reciting the following couplet (which meant):

"Had my opponent been a single person, I would have been more than able to settle with him"

There were many supporters of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (on the roof of the Masjid who were throwing bricks on the invaders. However, as Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr (attacked the enemy, a brick struck the centre of his head, causing a terrible gash. He paused for a while as he said:

"Our wounds do not bleed on to our heels

On the contrary, our blood drops on to our feet (rather than having wounds on the back of our bodies as cowards have, our wounds are on the front parts of our (1) Historians are of the opinion that Negroid people are the descendants of Haam, who was one of Hadhrat Nooh Addis's sons.

bodies instead)"

He then fell to the ground. His two slaves bend over him saying:

"The slave protects his master as well as himself"

However, the enemy soon closed in on him and cut off his head. (1)

Hadhrat Is'haaq bin Abi Is'haaq says, "I was present when Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr was martyred in the Masjidul Haraam. The armies continued entering through the doors of the Masjid and each time one entered, he drove them back single-handedly. As he was doing this, one of the rocks of the Masjid fell on his head and floored him. He was then reciting the following couplet (which meant):

"O (beloved mother) Asmaa! Do not weep for me if I am killed For my ancestry and Deen are still intact So is my sword that my right hand is now too weak to hold" (2)

Admonition to Those Who Flee the Battlefield in the path of Allaah

The Sahabah Admonish Hadhrat Salama bin Hishaam

Hadhrat Ummu Salama (Why once asked the wife of Hadhrat Salama bin Hishaam bin Mughiera (Why do I not see (your husband) Salama attend the salaah with Rasulullaah (Why and the Muslims?" She replied, "By Allaah! He is unable to leave the house because whenever he does so, people shout at him saying, 'Deserter! Did you flee in the path of Allaah?!' This reached the extent that he now sits at home and is unable to leave." He had participated in the Battle of Mu'ta with Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (3)

A Man Admonishes Hadhrat Abu Hurayra

Hadhrat Abu Hurayra says, "There was a problem between my cousin and myself. However, I had no reply to give him when he provoked me by saying, "Were you not one of those who fled during the Battle of Mu'ta?" (4)

Remorse and Concern Because of Fleeing

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and his Companions Regret and Grieve after retreating during the Battle of Mu'ta Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was says, "I was part of an expedition that

- (1) Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.255) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Abdil Birr has also reported the narration in detail in his Isti'aab (Vol.2 Pg.203) while Abu Nu'aym has reported it briefly in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.331). Haakim has reported a portion of the beginning in his Mustadrak (Vol.3 Pg.550).
- (2) Abu Nu'aym and Tabraani.
- (3) Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.42) narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Dhahabi. Ibn Is'haaq has also reported the narration, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.249).
- (4) Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.42).

Rasulullaah dispatched. I was amongst some of them who had retreated. (As we were returning to Madinah) We said, 'What shall we do? We had fled the battlefield and are returning with the wrath of Allaah. Perhaps we should return to Madinah and spend the night (before approaching Rasulullaah (immediately upon returning). If we can be forgiven, it is fine, otherwise we shall have to leave (Madinah).' We then went to Rasulullaah before the Fajr salaah. When he emerged (from his room), he asked, 'Who are you?' We replied, 'We are those who have fled.' 'No,' Rasulullaah assured them, 'You are those who have returned (to your base) only to (seek reinforcements and then to again) return to the fight. I am your base and the base for all Muslims.' (1) We then came forward and kissed Rasulullaah shand." (2)

In another narration, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says, "Rasulullaah once dispatched us on an expedition. When we met the enemy and were defeated in the very first attack, some of us returned to Madinah at night and hid away. We then decided to approach Rasulullaah and plead our case to him. We then left and when we met him, we said, 'O Rasulullaah we I we are those who have fled.' Rasulullaah responded by saying, 'You are rather those who shall attack a second time and I am your base (to whom you have returned for reinforcements before returning to the battle)." The narration of Aswad quotes that Rasulullaah added, "I am also the base for every Muslim." (3)

A similar narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar reads, "We then said, 'O Rasulullaah We I' We are those who have fled.' He said, 'You are only those who shall return to the fight (after returning to base).' We said, 'O Rasulullaah (Because of embarrassment) We had intended not to enter Madinah, but to undertake a sea voyage (to a foreign land).' Rasulullaah reassured us saying, 'Do no such thing for I am the base of every Muslim." (4)

The Anxiety of the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar when they Fled During the Battle for the Bridge and the Statement of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Aa'isha (Fig. 1) reports that as Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid (Fig. 1) was passing the door of her room, she heard Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 2) call out, "Let us hear the news, O Abdullaah bin Zaid!" Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 3) was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid (Fig. 4) was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid (Fig. 4) was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid?" Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 4) was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid (Fig. 4) was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid (Fig. 4) was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid (Fig. 4) was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid (Fig. 4) was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid (Fig. 4) was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid (Fig. 4) was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid (Fig. 4) was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.) Was inside the Masjid. (When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid.)

⁽¹⁾ Here Rasulullaah was referring to verse 16 of Surah Anfaal.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.248).

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.77). Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi, Ibn Majah and Ahmad have also reported the narration, as quoted in the Talseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.2 Pg.294). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.107) has also reported a similar parration.

Zaid informed him about what had transpired. Hadhrat Aa'isha says that she had never heard a more detailed and accurate account of any incident given by someone who had been present there. When the defeated Muslim army returned and Hadhrat Umar incident the anxiety of the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar because they had fled the battlefield, he said, "Do not worry, O assembly of Muslims! I am your base to which you have withdrawn (to replenish your strength before returning to battle)."

The Anxiety of Hadhrat Mu'aadh Qaari when he Fled During the Battle for the Bridge and the Statement of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Husayn and others report that Hadhrat Mu'aadh Qaari from the Banu Najjaar tribe was amongst those who were present and had fled during the battle for the Bridge of Abu Ubayd. He always wept whenever he recited the following verse of the Qur'aan:

On such a day (of battle), whoever will turn his back to them with a reason other than altering the course of battle (such as pretending to flee so that the enemy follows them into an ambush) or (flees with a reason other than) retreating to (join with) another group (of Muslim soldiers so that their combined force can fight the enemy), then indeed he shall return with Allaah's anger and his abode shall be Jahannam (because deserting the battlefield is a major sin). What an evil place to return to! (Surah Anfaal, verse 16)

Hadhrat Umar would then say to him, "Do not weep, O Mu'aadh. I am your base to whom you have retreated (to regroup and have reinforcements before launching another attack)." (1)

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubayd Qaari Returns to the Land of the Battle from which he fled to Redeem himself

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Layla says that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubayd was a companion of Rasulullaah who was with the army that was defeated on the day that Hadhrat Abu Ubayd was martyred (at the bridge). He received the title of Qaari, a title that no other companion of Rasulullaah received. Hadhrat Umar once said to him, "Do you wish to go to Shaam where the Muslims are in a weak position and the enemy are becoming bold against them. Perhaps you will be able to cleanse the mistake of your fleeing." Hadhrat Sa'd replied, "No. I shall go only to the land from which I fled and fight only that enemy who forced me to do what I did." He then went to Qaadisiyyah where he was martyred. (1)

Preparing and Assisting a Person Going out in the path of Allaah

Rasulullaah 疑疑 Gives his Weapons to Hadhrat Usaama 毀滅變 or to Hadhrat Ali 對源變

Hadhrat Jabala bin Haaritha 劉德 narrates that whenever Rasulullaah (was not participating in a battle, he would give his weapons to Hadhrat Usaama 劉德 or to Hadhrat Ali 劉德 (2)

An Ansaari gives everything he has Prepared to another Person when he Fell ill.

Hadhrat Anas reports that a youngster from the Banu Aslam tribe said, "O Rasulullaah I wish to proceed in Jihaad but do not have any wealth with which to make the necessary preparations." Rasulullaah sent him to a certain Ansaari saying, "He had made the necessary preparations for Jihaad but had fallen ill. Tell him that Rasulullaah has sent Salaams to him and ask him to give you whatever he had prepared." The youngster went to the Ansaari and conveyed the message to him. The Ansaari then said to his wife, "Give him everything you have prepared for me without holding anything back. By Allaah! Allaah will never bless anything that you hold back from him." (3)

Referring a Person Going out in the path of Allaah to Someone who can Assist him

Rasulullaah Emcourages the Sahabah to Assist those Proceeding in the path of Allaah Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah (was reports that when Rasulullaah (was once embarking on an expedition, he said, "O assembly of Muhaajireen and Ansaar! There are many of your brothers who have neither wealth nor families (who can assist them). Therefore each of you should attach two or three of them to himself." Hadhrat Jaabir (was says further, "As a result, each one of us who

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.300).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani and Ahmad, narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.283).

⁽³⁾ Abu Dawood, Muslim (Vol.2 Pg.137) and Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.28).

⁽⁴⁾ Muslims (Vol.2 Pg.137) and Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.28).

had an animal would share a turn to ride the animal just as the others (without animals) shared their turns. I attached two or three men to myself and my turn to ride was just like the turns that they had," (1)

An Ansaari Sahabi Assists Hadhrat Waathila bin Asqa

Hadhrat Waathila bin Asqa had announced the pending march to Tabook, I just went to my family and had returned when the first group of Sahabah had already left. I then started going around Madinah announcing, 'Who will provide transport for a man in exchange for his share of booty?' An old man from the Ansaar responded by saying, 'We shall take his share of the booty on condition that he rides in turns with us and eats with us.' When I agreed, he bade me, 'Let's proceed with the blessings of Allaah.' I then travelled with the man who was the best of travelling companions. When Allaah granted us the booty, I received a few young camels as my share and led them away to my companion. Emerging from his tent, he sat on one of the saddle bags of his camel and said, 'Take them backwards.' (After I had done so,) He then said, 'Now take them forward.' (After doing this) He commented, 'These are fine camels you have here.' I said, 'This is the booty that I had stipulated shall be yours.' 'Keep your camels, dear nephew,' he said, 'for I had intended to have something else."

Imaam Bayhaqi says that what the Ansaari meant to say was: "By doing what I did, I had never intended to take remuneration from you. All that I want is to share in your rewards." (2)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

رضى الله تعالى

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood said, "Providing a rope (to someone proceeding) in the path of Allaah is more beloved to me than performing Hajj after Hajj." (3)

Hiring People to Fight in Jihaad

The Story of a Man and Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik

Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik says, "When Rasulullaah se sent me on a military expedition, a man came up to me and said, 'I shall go with you on condition that you grant me a share of booty.' He then added, 'I swear by Allaah that I do not even know whether there shall be any booty at all. You will therefore be unable to stipulate a specific share for me.' I therefore fixed a payment of three Dinaars for him. We then left on the expedition and happened to receive some booty. When I asked Rasulullaah se about the situation, ⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.172) and Haakim (Vol.2 Pg.90).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.28).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.284).

Rasulullaah said, 'I see nothing in this world and in the Aakhirah for him besides the three Dinaars that he has taken." (1)

The Story of a man with Hadhrat Ya'la bin Munya

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Daylami narrates that Hadhrat Ya'la bin Munya said, "I was an old man with no servant when Rasulullaah an announced that an expedition was to leave. I therefore looked for someone to hire and stipulated that he would receive a full share from the booty. I finally found someone. When the time was close for our departure, he came to me and said, 'I have no idea whether there shall be any booty and I cannot say what my share will be. Why don't you rather specify a fixed amount that I would receive whether there is any booty or not.' I therefore fixed an amount of three Dinaars. When (my share of) the booty came to me, I intended to give him his complete share but then remembered the three Dinaars. For this reason, I approached Rasulullaah and narrated the account to him. Rasulullaah said, 'I see nothing in this world and in the Aakhirah for him as reward for this expedition besides the three Dinaars that he has specified (these Dinaars are all that he will receive)." (2)

Those Who Proceed in the path of Allaah Using the Wealth of Others

Hadhrat Maymoona bint Sa'd Asks Rasulullaah Asks about this

Hadhrat Maymoona bint Sa'd reports that she once asked, "O Rasulullaah like"! Inform us about a person who cannot proceed in the path of Allaah but sponsors the means by which Jihaad can be carried out. Will this person receive the reward or the person who actually goes out?" Rasulullaah replied, "He shall receive the reward for his wealth while the one who goes out shall be rewarded for the intention he makes (he shall therefore receive no rewards if his intentions are incorrect)." (3)

Sending another in One's Place

The Story of Hadhrat Ali was and Another Man

Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Rabee'ah with his son whom he intended to send on an expedition in his place. Hadhrat Ali with his said to him, "I prefer the judgement of an adult to the fighting of a youngster." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.323) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.2 Pg.331).

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.323) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhagi and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.164).

Admonishing those Who Beg from people so that they may Proceed in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Umar Admonishes a Youngster Who Begged from people so that he Could Proceed in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Naafi narrates that a robust and healthy youngster once entered the Masjid. He held a large arrow in his hand and announced, "Who will assist me to proceed in the path of Allaah?" Hadhrat Umar who sent for him and when he was brought, Hadhrat Umar who announced, "Who will hire this man from me to work his fields?" One of the Ansaar said, "I shall hire him, O Ameerul Mu'mineen. What do you ask as his monthly salary?" When the Ansaari specified an amount, Hadhrat Umar who handed the youngster over to him. The youngster had worked in the fields for several months when Hadhrat Umar who asked the Ansaari, "How is our labourer?" "He is a fine man, O Ameerul Mu'mineen," replied the Ansaari. Hadhrat Umar who then instructed the Ansaari to bring the youngster along together with his salaries that he had collected. The Ansaari then brought the youngster together with a bag of Dirhams. Hadhrat Umar who then said (to the youngster), "Take this. If you wish, you may proceed now in the path of Allaah and if you wish, you may sit at home." (1)

Taking Loans to Proceed in Jihaad

The Sahabah Seek Loans from Rasulullaah Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood William narrates that someone asked, "Have you heard Rasulullaah say anything about horses?" "Yes," he replied, "I have heard Rasulullaah say, Virtue has been secured to the forelocks of horses until the Day of Qiyaamah. Buy with trust in Allaah and take loans with trust in Allaah.' When someone asked Rasulullaah who could a person buy with trust in Allaah and take loans with trust in Allaah, Rasulullaah (## replied, 'Tell (the borrower) to give you the loan until (you are able to pay him back when) the spoils of war are distributed and tell (the seller) to sell to you now until (you are able to pay him when) Allaah grants victory in battle (and you are able to pay from the share you receive of the booty). You will always remain in good stead as long as your Jihaad remains fresh (as long as you fight with enthusiasm). Towards the end of time there shall be people who will have doubts about Jihaad. You should however continue waging Jihaad during their time and continue fighting because Jihaad will be fresh during those times as well (Allaah's assistance and booty will be found then as well)." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.217).

⁽²⁾ Abu Ya'la. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.280) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Encouraging People to Proceed in the path of Allaah and Seeing them Off

Rasulullaah Walks with the Mujaahideen and Advises them

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas reports that Rasulullaah we walked with them up to Baqee Gharqad when he sent them off on an expedition. He then said to them, "Proceed in the name of Allaah. O Allaah! Assist them." (1)

When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Yazeed was once invited for a meal, he mentioned to the people that whenever Rasulullaah bade farewell to an army, he prayed, "In Allaah's care do I hand over your Deen, your trusts and the results of your deeds." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sees the Army of Hadhrat Usaama For off

In a narration discussing the dispatching of Hadhrat Usaama had sarmy, Hadhrat Hasan harrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr had left his home to meet the army. As he saw them off, Hadhrat Abu Bakr had was walking while Hadhrat Usaama had rode his animal. In the meanwhile, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf had was leading Hadhrat Abu Bakr had leither said, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah had! Either you ride or I shall dismount." Hadhrat Abu Bakr his instructed, "By Allaah! Neither should you dismount nor shall I ride! What harm can there be if my feet get dusty for a while in the path of Allaah? A person proceeding in the path of Allaah receives the reward of seven hundred good deeds for every step he takes. In addition to this, his status is elevated by seven hundred degrees and seven hundred of his sins are forgiven." After Hadhrat Abu Bakr had seen them off, and was returning, he requested, "If you deem it appropriate to assist me with (leaving) Hadhrat Umar had been them off, and was returning, he requested, "If you deem it appropriate to assist me with (leaving) Hadhrat Umar then allowed Hadhrat Umar to stay back. (3)

Hadhrat Yahya bin Sa'eed reports that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr dispatched several armies to Shaam, he walked with Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan who was in command of one of the four armies. Hadhrat Yazeed said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr dispose, "Either you ride or I shall dismount." Hadhrat Abu Bakr instructed, "By Allaah! Neither will you dismount nor shall I ride! I hope to be rewarded for these steps in the path of Allaah." (4)

Hadhrat Jaabir Ru'ayni harrates that as Hadhrat Abu Bakr was walking as he saw an army off. He then said to them, "All praises are for Allaah Who has allowed our feet to accumulate dust in His path." Someone asked, "How

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.2 Pg.98).

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.2 Pg.98).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.314).

⁽⁴⁾ Maalik and Bayhagi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.295).

have our feet become dusty (in the path of Allaah) when we are merely seeing them off?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "Because we have helped them prepare, have seen them off and are making du'aa for them (we shall therefore also share in the rewards of going out in the path of Allaah)." (1)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sees off Some People Proceeding in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Mujaahid reports that as he was proceeding in the path of Allaah, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar came to see them off. As Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was about to part from them, he said, "I have nothing to give you, but I have heard Rasulullaah say that whenever something is handed over in Allaah's care, Allaah protects it. I therefore hand over in Allaah's care, your Deen, your trusts and the results of your deeds." (2)

Welcoming those Returning from the path of Allaah

The People Came Outside Madinah when the Sahabah Returned from their Expedition to Tabook

Hadhrat Saa'ib bin Yazeed says, "The people (of Madinah) came to welcome Rasulullaah when he returned from the expedition to Tabook. I also met him along with other children at Thaniyyatul Wadaa." (3)

Hadhrat Saa'ib bin Yazeed also reports, "When Rasulullaah Freturned from the expedition to Tabook, the people came out of Madinah to Thaniyyatul Wadaa to welcome him. Still a boy then, I also accompanied the others." (4)

Proceeding in the path of Allaah During the month of Ramadhaan

Rasulullaah Proceeds to Badr and to Makkah during the Month of Ramadhaan

Hadhrat Umar was says that it was during Ramadhaan that they marched with Rasulullaah for the Battle of Badr and for the conquest of Makkah. (5)

Another narration quotes that Hadhrat Umar said, "We marched on two military expeditions with Rasulullaah during Ramadhaan; the Battle of Badr and the conquest of Makkah. On both occasions, we did not fast." (6)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.173). Ibn Abi Shayba has also reported the narration as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.288).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.173).

⁽³⁾ Abu Dawood.

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.175).

⁽⁵⁾ Tirmidhi, as quoted in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.4 Pg. 131).

⁽⁶⁾ Ibn Sa'd and Ahmad, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 329).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas says, "Three hundred and thirteen Muslims participated in the Battle of Badr. Amongst these, seventy six were from the Muhaajireen. It was on Friday the 17th of Ramadhaan that the Mushrikeen were defeated in the Battle of Badr." (1) Another narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas states that the Sahabah participating in the Battle of Badr numbered just more than three hundred and ten. The narration also adds, "The Ansaar numbered two hundred and thirty six and it was Hadhrat Ali (2) who carried the flag of the Muhaajireen." (2)

Yet another from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas states, "When Rasulullaah left for the journey, he appointed Hadhrat Abu Ruhm Kulthoom bin Husayn bin Utba bin Khalaf Ghifaari as his deputy in Madinah. It was on the tenth of Ramadhaan that he left. Rasulullaah fasted and so did the Sahabah with him. However, when they reached Kudayd, an oasis located between Usfaan and Amaj, Rasulullaah terminated his fast. Rasulullaah then proceeded until he set up camp at Marruz Zahraan along with the ten thousand Sahabah with him." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1996) has also narrated that Rasulullaah (1996) proceeded in Ramadhaan to conquer Makkah and fasted until he reached Kudayd. (4)

Another narration states that when Rasulullaah left to conquer Makkah during Ramadhaan, he was fasting until the road passed by Qudayd at midday. The Sahabah were thirsty and started craning their necks (in search of water). They had started becoming uneasy when Rasulullaah asked for a cup of water. He then took it in his hand so that everyone could clearly see it. Thereafter, he drank the water and the Sahabah followed suit. (5)

Recording the Names of People Proceeding in the path of Allaah

An Incident of a Sahabi

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in arrates that Rasulullaah once said, "No strange (non-Mahram) man should ever be alone with a strange (non-Mahram) woman and no woman can travel without a Mahram." A Sahabi stood up and said that his name had been written for a particular military expedition while his wife had left to perform Hajj (he queried whether he should continue with the expedition or join his wife for Hajj). Rasulullaah instructed him to perform Hajj with his wife instead. (6)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.269).

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar. Tabraani have also reported the narration and Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.93) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Is'haaq and Bukhari, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.285). Tabraani has also reported the narration from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.167).

⁽⁴⁾ Abdur Razzaaq and Ibn Abi Shaybah.

⁽⁵⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.330). Bukhari, Muslim and Nasa'ee have also reported the narration, as quoted in Jam'ul Fawaa'id (Vol.1 Pg.159).

⁽⁶⁾ Bukhari.

Performing Salaah and Eating Upon Returning from the path of Allaah

Rasulullaah Performs Salaah upon his Return

Hadhrat Ka'b significant from a journey during the morning, he would first enter the Masjid and perform two Rakaahs salaah before being seated. (1)

Another narration from Hadhrat Jaabir states that he accompanied Rasulullaah on a journey and when they returned, Rasulullaah said to him, "Enter the Masjid and perform two Rakaahs salaah." (2)

Slaughtering an Animal upon Returning to Feed People

Hadhrat Jaabir has also narrated that when Rasulullaah once returned to Madinah, he slaughtered a cow or a camel. Another narration quotes that Hadhrat Jaabir said, "Rasulullaah purchased a camel from me for two Awqiya and a Dirham or for two Dirhams. When he reached Siraar, Rasulullaah had a cow slaughtered and the Sahabah ate from it. Thereafter when he reached Madinah, Rasulullaah instructed me to first go the Masjid to perform two Rakaahs salaah. Rasulullaah then weighed out the price for my camel and paid me." (3)

Women Proceed in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Aa'isha was Participated in the Banu Mustaliq expedition
Hadhrat Aa'isha was says, "Whenever Rasulullaah was embarked on an expedition, he would draw lots between his wives and whoever's name was drawn would accompany him. When the Banu Mustaliq expedition was to take place, Rasulullaah was again drew lots as he usually did. This time my name emerged as the one to accompany him. Rasulullaah therefore took me along. During those times women ate just enough to sustain themselves. The flab on their bodies was therefore less and they were lighter in weight. For this reason I would sit in my carriage when it was loaded on my camel. The men who fastened the carriage to the camel for me would lift the carriage from the bottom, lift me up and place the carriage on to the camel. They would then secure it with ropes, take the camel by the head and lead it along.

After the journey was done, Rasulullaah left (for Madinah) and we were close to Madinah when we set up came and spent part of the night there. When the announcer announced that it was time to depart, everyone got ready to move. Wearing a necklace of mine that was decorated with onyx from the Yemeni tribe of Dhifaar, I went (out of the camp) to relieve myself. When I had completed, the necklace had slipped from my neck without me knowing it. It was only after returning to my carriage that I felt my neck and could not find it. The people had already started leaving when I returned to the place I had been. There I looked for it until I eventually found it. The men who usually tied my carriage had by then already tied it to the camel. Thinking that I was inside, they did what they always did and took the carriage away. Without even once suspecting (that I was not inside), they picked up the carriage and loaded it on to the camel. They then took the camel by the head and led it away. When I eventually returned to the camp, there was not a soul in sight. Everyone had left. I then spread out my shawl at the place where I had been and lay down. I knew that once my absence was detected, people would return to where I was (to search for me).

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari.

⁽²⁾ Bukhari.

⁽³⁾ Bukhari.

By Allaah! I was still lying there when Safwaan bin Mu'attal Sulami passed by. He had fallen behind the expedition for some reason and had not spent the night in the camp. Seeing my silhouette, he came closer until he stopped by me. He had seen me before we were instructed to don the Hijaab and when he saw that it was I lying there, he exclaimed in astonishment, 'Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon! The wife of Rasulullaah [1] I was properly wrapped up in my clothing when he said, 'May Allaah have mercy on you. How did you get left behind?' I did not speak a word to him. He brought his camel next to me and said, 'Mount the camel and stay behind me.' I mounted the camel and he led it quickly along by its head, in search of the rest. By Allaah! Neither did we catch up with the others until the morning, nor did they notice my absence. The army had set up camp and were resting when Safwaan was seen leading me on the camel. It was then that the slanderers said what they did (about me being and adulteress), causing much tumult amongst the army. I swear by Allaah that I was then still in the dark concerning what was happening.

After we had returned to Madinah, no news had still reached me (about the slander) when I happened to fall terribly ill. In the meanwhile, the news had reached Rasulullaah and my parents, none of whom breathed a word to me. All that I noticed was a lack in the affection that Rasulullaah usually showed towards me. Whereas he expressed tremendous love and affection towards me whenever I fell ill, he did not do so this time. This greatly disappointed me. When he came to me as my mother was nursing me, he asked, 'How are you feeling?' That was all he said. I eventually grew upset with his apparent indifference and asked, 'O Rasulullaah Permit me to move to my mother's place for she has been nursing me all along. When Rasulullaah indicated that it was not a problem, I moved to my mother's. I was then still completely in the dark about what had been happening until I had started to recover from my illness after twenty odd days.

We Arabs were not accustomed to building toilets inside our houses like the non-Arabs do. We disliked this and regarded it as something deplorable. We used to go outside Madinah (to relieve ourselves) and every night us women would go there (together). I had gone out to relieve myself one day in the company of Ummu Mistah who was the daughter of Abu Ruhm bin Abdul Muttalib. By Allaah! We were still walking when she tripped over her shawl and exclaimed; 'May Mistah be destroyed!' 'By Allaah!' I reproved, 'What a terrible thing to say about a man from amongst the Muhaajireen who has participated in the Battle of Badr!' She then asked, 'Has the news not yet reached you, O daughter of Abu Bakr?' 'What news?' I enquired. She then informed me about what the slanderers were saying. 'Has all this really been happening?' I asked in disbelief. 'Yes,' she replied, 'I swear by Allaah that it certainly has.' By Allaah! (After hearing all of this) I was unable to even relieve myself properly and returned. I then wept continuously until I actually thought that my liver would burst.

I said to my mother, 'May Allaah forgive you! The people have been saying what they have said and you didn't even mention a word to me!' my mother responded by saying, 'Take it easy, dear daughter! When a beautiful woman has a husband who loves her greatly and has co-wives as well, it does happen that the wives and other people pick on her.'

Unknown to me, Rasulullaah had already delivered a sermon to the people. After praising Allaah, he said, 'O people! What is the matter with some of you who cause me hurt with regards to my family by saying things that are not true? I swear by Allaah that I see only good in my wives. They are also making allegations about a man (Hadhrat Safwaan bin Mu'attal) about whom I also swear that I know only as a good man. He never enters any of my rooms without me with him.' Most of the slander was publicised by (the Munaafiq) Abdullaah bin Ubay bin Salool along with some men from the Khazraj tribe. Also involved were Mistah and Hamna bint Jahash was involved because her sister Zaynab bint Jahash was a wife of Rasulullaah and from all the other wives of Rasulullaah was a wife of Rasulullaah because of her piety, she had only good words to say (and did not slander me). On the other hand, Hamna passed around plenty of slander to spite me for the sake of her sister. In this manner, she defamed only herself.

After Rasulullaah As had delivered the sermon, Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr (of the Aws tribe) said, 'O Rasulullaah As! Had the slanderers been from the Aws tribe, we would have dealt with them on your behalf. However, if they are from our brothers of the Khazraj tribe, we shall do as you command. By Allaah! They ought to be executed! It was then that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah stood up. Although he was always regarded as a good man, he retorted by saying (to Hadhrat Usayd sayin), 'By Allaah! You are lying! They shall not be executed! I swear by Allaah that you say this only because you know that they are from the Khazraj. You would never have said it had you known that they were from your tribe!' Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr replied, 'By Allaah! It is you who are lying! You must be a Munaafiq since you are defending the Munaafiqeen!' The Sahabah (belonging to the Aws and the Khazraj tribes) stood up to confront each other until a fight almost erupted between the two tribes.

Rasulullaah we descended from the pulpit and came to me. After some time revelation had stopped coming to him, he called for Ali bin Abi Taalib and Usaama bin Zaid to consult with them about separating from his wife (myself). Usaama had only good to say and added, 'O Rasulullaah we only know your family to be good. The news is a blatant lie.' On the other hand, Ali only said, 'O Rasulullaah we women are plenty and you are able to get others in their place. Ask the slave girl (Bareerah of or she will give you the truth.' When Rasulullaah summoned Bareerah of or she will give you the quite harshly and said, 'Be truthful to Rasulullaah are rapped her quite harshly and said, 'Be truthful to Rasulullaah are rapped her besides the fact that after I have kneaded the dough and instructed her to look after it, she falls asleep and along comes the goat to eat it up."

Continuing the story, Hadhrat Aa'isha says further, "Rasulullaah then came to me when I was staying with my parents. A woman from the Ansaar was with me at the time and she wept with me as I wept. Rasulullaah sat down and after praising Allaah, he said, 'O Aa'isha! The talk of people has already reached your ears. Do fear Allaah. If you have come close to what the people are saying, repent to Allaah for He accepts the repentance of His servants.' By Allaah! As soon as Rasulullaah said this, my tears immediately stopped and I could not even feel them. I waited for my parents to reply to Rasulullaah but they said nothing. By Allaah! I never regarded myself so distinguished that verses of the Qur'aan should be revealed about me (to clear my name), which would be recited (forever) and read in salaah. However, all I wished for was that Rasulullaah should see a dream in which Allaah would deny the allegations on my behalf, for Allaah knew that I was innocent. (All that I expected was that) Allaah would inform (Rasulullaah accordingly. In no way did I regard myself worthy of having verses of the Qur'aan revealed about me.

Nevertheless, when I noticed that my parents were not going to say anything (in my defence), I said to them, 'Are you two not going to reply to Rasulullaah 'B'?' 'By Allaah!' they replied, 'We do not know what to say.' By Allaah! I do not know of any family that had so much difficulty come upon them as had come to the family of Abu Bakr 'B' during that period. When my parents said nothing, tears welled in my eyes and I burst out crying. I then snapped, 'By Allaah! I shall never repent to Allaah for what they say I did! By Allaah! Should I admit to what they say when Allaah knows well that I am innocent of it, I shall only be admitting to something I have never done. On the other hand, if I deny it, they will never believe me.' I then searched for the name of Ya'qoob 'B' but could not remember it. Nonetheless, I said that I would say exactly what the father of Yusuf 'B' said:

﴿ فَصَبْرٌ جَمِيْلٌ * وَاللَّه الْمُسْتَعَانُ عَلَى مَا تَصِفُونَ ١٨ (سورة اليوسف: ١٨)

'However, I shall exercise patience without any complaint, and I shall seek Allaah's assistance against what you have devised.' {Surah Yusuf, verse 18}

Rasulullaah was still sitting where he was when (revelation started descending on him and) he started swooning as he did when revelation descended. A shawl was placed over Rasulullaah and a leather pillow was placed beneath his head. By Allaah! When I saw this happen, I neither felt any fear nor was I worried in the least because I knew that I was innocent and that Allaah would never be unjust towards me. Not so for my parents. I swear by the Being Who controls the life of Aa'isha that as long as the condition did not leave Rasulullaah I thought that the two of them would die out of fear that Allaah would prove the slander of the people to be true. Rasulullaah sat up after the condition had passed and although it was a cold day, beads of perspiration decorated his face like pearls. As he wiped the perspiration from his face, he said, 'Good news, O Aa'isha! Allaah has confirmed your innocence.' 'All praise be to Allaah!' I exclaimed.

Rasulullaah then went out to the people and delivered a sermon. He recited to them the verses of the Qur'aan that Allaah had revealed in this regard and instructed that Mistah bin Uthaatha the Hassaan bin Thaabit that and Hamna bint Jahash the be lashed according to the prescribed penalty because of the part they played in spreading the accusation of immoral behaviour. (1)

Another detailed narration quoted that Hadhrat Aa'isha added, "(After the verses of my innocence were revealed) My mother said to me, 'Stand up and go to Rasulullaah (to thank him).' I said, 'I swear by Allaah that I shall not go to him and shall thank none but Allaah for it was Allaah Who confirmed my innocence.' Allaah revealed ten verses beginning with:

It was indeed a (hypocritical) group from you that brought (initiated) the slander... {Surah Noor, verse 11}

(My father) Abu Bakr was used to support Mistah was because he was related to us and because he was very poor. However, after the verses attesting to my innocence were revealed, Abu Bakr was said, 'I swear by Allaah that I shall never support him because of what he said about Aa'isha!' It was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

The high ranking and wealthy ones among you (like Abu Bakr (1866)) should not take an oath not to spend on their relatives, the poor and on those who migrate in Allaah's path. (Instead of bearing a grudge against these people,) They should (rather) forgive and pardon. Do you not like Allaah to forgive you? (Just as you would like Allaah to forgive you for your shortcomings, you should also forgive the shortcomings of others. Be like) Allaah (Who) is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (Surah Noor, verse 22)

Ibn Is'haaq. Bukhari and Muslim have also reported the narration from Zuhri, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.160).

(Upon revelation of this verse,) Abu Bakr said, 'By Allaah! Of course I would like Allaah to forgive me.' He then continued giving Mistah the allowance he had been giving him and said, 'I swear by Allaah that I shall never stop giving it to him ever." (1)

A Woman from the Banu Ghifaar Tribe Accompanies Rasulullaah au on a Military expedition

A lady from the Banu Ghifaar tribe narrates, "Together with a few women from the Banu Ghifaar, I approached Rasulullaah and requested, 'O Rasulullaah we may nurse the wounded and assist the Muslims in any way we can.' Rasulullaah replied, '(You are welcome) With the blessings of Allaah.' We then went with Rasulullaah since I was a very young girl, Rasulullaah put me to sit behind him on the satchel of his camel. When Rasulullaah dismounted from the camel the next morning, I also dismounted from the satchel and was surprised to find blood on it. It was the first time that I had menstruated so I was terribly embarrassed and clung on to the camel. Gauging what had happened to me, Rasulullaah said, 'What's the matter? Have you perhaps menstruated?' When I replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah said, 'Get yourself organised and then get a utensil of water. Add some salt to the water and then wash off the part of the satchel that had blood on it. You may then return to your seat.""

She continues the story by saying, "After Allaah had given us victory at Khaybar, Rasulullaah gave us (women) a small share of the spoils. Rasulullaah took this necklace you see on my neck and gave it to me. Rasulullaah personally hung it on my neck and I have sworn by Allaah that it would never leave my neck." The necklace remained on her neck until she passed away, when she requested that it be buried with her. Whenever she took a bath after menstruating, she always added salt to the water and even made a request that salt be added to the water used to bathe her dead body. (2)

The Story of a Woman who Left in the path of Allaah and Her Goat

Hadhrat Humayd bin Hilaal narrates that a man from the Banu Tufaawa tribe often passed by them and would narrate Ahadeeth to their tribe. He once Ahmad, as quoted in the Tafseer of Ibn Katheer (Vol.3 Pg.270). Tabraani has also reported the narration in detail, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.232).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted by Ahmad and Abu Dawood. Waaqidi has reported the narration from Hadhrat Umayyah bint Abu Silt (2014), as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.204).

narrated, "I arrived in Madinah with one of our caravans. After selling our wares, I told myself that I should meet with Rasulullaah and inform the others at home about him. When I came to him, Rasulullaah pointed out a house to me and said, 'A woman who lived in that house went out on an expedition with the army and left behind twelve goats and her needle with which she used to knit. However, she lost one of her goats and her needle. She then prayed, 'O my Rabb! You have undertaken to protect those who go out in Your path in every way. I have however lost one of my goats and my needle. I ask You in Your name for my goat and my needle.' Rasulullaah then described to me the determined manner in which she prayed to Allaah. By the next morning she had her goat and another just like it as well as her needle with another needle just like it. There she comes. There she is. You may ask her if you like.' 'No,' I replied, 'I believe what you say.'" (1)

Hadhrat Ummu Haraam bint Milhaan the the Aunt of Hadhrat Anas to goes Out in the path of Allaah

Hadhrat Anas narrates that Rasulullaah once visited Hadhrat Ummu Haraam bint Milhaan where he lay down to sleep. He then woke up smiling. When she asked him why he smiled, Rasulullaah replied, "I saw (in a dream) some people from my Ummah who were navigating the green seas in the path of Allaah looking as if they were kings on their thrones." Hadhrat Ummu Haraam was said, "O Rasulullaah Pray to Allaah that I should be amongst them." Rasulullaah prayed, "O Allaah! Make her from amongst them." Rasulullaah then again fell asleep and again woke up smiling. When she again asked him the reason for the smiling, he gave her the same reply. When she again asked him to pray that she should be amongst them, he said, "You are with the first group and not with the second."

Hadhrat Anas was says that Hadhrat Ummu Haraam was married Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit and joined the naval expedition with Bint Qaradha (the wife of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya was). However, upon return she was riding an animal when it bolted. This caused her to fall and she passed away. (2)

The services of Women in Jihaad

Women March with Rasulullaah to Tend to the ill and Wounded

Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym in narrates that several women from the Ansaar proceeded on military expeditions with Rasulullaah in where they would provide water for the ill and treat the wounded. (3)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.277).

⁽²⁾ Bukhari.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.324).

Hadhrat Anas (I) narrates that Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym (I) and other women of the Ansaar would march with Rasulullaah (II) expeditions. Their function was to provide water and tend to the wounded. (1)

The Services of Hadhrat Rubayyi Bint Mu'awwidh William, Hadhrat Ummu Atiyya William and Hadhrat Layla Ghifaariyya William in Jihaad

Hadhrat Rubayyi Bint Mu'awwidh reports that when they (women) were with Rasulullaah on military expeditions, they would provide water (for the soldiers), treat the wounded and retrieve the bodies of the dead. (2) Another narration of Bukhari quotes that she said, "We (women) would proceed on military expeditions with Rasulullaah where we would fetch water for the people, serve them and return the dead and wounded to Madinah (when the battlefield was close to Madinah)." (3)

Hadhrat Ummu Atiyya who was from the Ansaar says, "I accompanied (the army of) Rasulullaah on seven military expeditions. I would stay behind in their camp preparing food for them, nursing their wounded and tending to those with various diseases." (4)

Hadhrat Layla Ghifaariyya (1996) narrates, "I used to proceed on military expeditions with Rasulullaah (1996) to nurse the wounded." (5)

The Services of Hadhrat Aa'isha (1966), Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym (1966) and Hadhrat Ummu Saleet (1966) During the Battle of Uhud

Hadhrat Anas says, "When the Muslims suffered some defeat during the Battle of Uhud and were unable to stay with Rasulullaah and I saw Aa'isha the daughter of Abu Bakr and Ummu Sulaym with their shawls folded high (to allow free movement). I could see their ankle bracelets as they ran with water bags." Another narration states that the two of them were carrying water bags on their backs, emptying the water into the mouths of the wounded and then returning to refill them. They then again returned to empty the water into the mouths of the injured. (6)

Hadhrat Tha'laba bin Abu Maleek (narrates that Hadhrat Umar (was once distributing some cloth amongst the women of Madinah. When a single good cloth was still left over, some people with him said, "O Ameerul

⁽¹⁾ Muslim and Tirmidhi.

⁽²⁾ Bukhari.

⁽³⁾ Ahmad has also reported the narration, as quoted in Muntaga.

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad, Muslim and Ibn Maajah, as quoted in Muntaga.

⁽⁵⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.324) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁶⁾ Bukhari, Muslims and Bayhagi (Vol.9 Pg.30).

Mu'mineen! Give it to the granddaughter of Rasulullaah married to you." They were referring to Hadhrat Ummu Kulthoom which, the daughter of Hadhrat Ali (and Hadhrat Faatima who). Hadhrat Umma Saleet is more deserving." Hadhrat Ummu Saleet was a woman from the Ansaar who had pledged allegiance to Rasulullaah who hadhrat Umar went on to explain, "Because she sewed water bags for us during the Battle of Uhud." (1)

Women Proceed for the Battle of Khaybar to Render Services

The grandmother of Hadhrat Hashraj bin Ziyaad in arrates that women also accompanied Rasulullaah for the Battle of Khaybar. In her narration she mentions that when Rasulullaah asked them the reason for going, they replied, "We are going out to weave ropes from animal hair to assist in the path of Allaah. We shall also nurse the wounded, retrieve arrows and give the soldiers barley porridge to drink." (2)

Hadhrat Zuhri narrates that women also participated in the battles with Rasulullaah by providing water for the Mujaahideen and nursing the wounded. (3)

Women Fighting in Jihaad in the path of Allaah Hadhrat Ummu Ammaara Fights in the Battle of Uhud

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Abu Zaid Ansaari in narrates from Hadhrat Ummu Sa'd bint Sa'd bin Rabee that she used to go to her maternal aunt Hadhrat Ummu Ammaara would say, "It was at the beginning of the day that I ventured out with a bag of water to see what was happening to the Muslims. When I reached Rasulullaah would say, he was with his companions and the Muslims were enjoying victory and steadfastness. When the Muslims later started losing the battle, I drew close to Rasulullaah and openly started fighting. As I fended off the Mushrikeen from Rasulullaah I also fired some arrows with a bow until I sustained many injuries."

The narrator Hadhrat Ummu Sa'd says that she noticed a very deep wound on the shoulder of Hadhrat Ummu Ammaara and asked her who had afflicted it. She replied, "It was Ibn Qami'Ahmad. May Allaah disgrace him! When the Sahabah had withdrawn from Rasulullaah he he came shouting, 'Show me where is Muhammad! I cannot be safe if he is safe!' Myself, Bukhari. Abu Nu'aym and Abu Ubayd have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.97).

⁽²⁾ Abu Dawood.

⁽³⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Fat'hul Baari (Vol.6 Pg.51).

Mus'ab bin Umayr and a few others who had remained with Rasulullaah also confronted him. It was then that he afflicted this wound to me. Although I struck several blows at him with my sword, the enemy of Allaah was wearing two coats of armour." (1)

Hadhrat Umaarah bint Ghaziyyah narrates that during the Battle of Uhud, Hadhrat Ummu Ammaara killed a Mushrik horseman. Another narration quotes that Hadhrat Umar said, "I heard Rasulullaah say, 'Whether it was to the right or to the left, in whichever direction I turned I saw her (Hadhrat Ummu Ammaara said) fighting in my defence." (2)

In yet another narration, Hadhrat Hamza bin Sa'eed (In a narrates that some woollen shawls were once brought to Hadhrat Umar (In a name). Amongst them was a very large one of excellent quality. Some people indicated that it was of great value and should be sent to Safiyya bint Ubayd who was recently married to Hadhrat Umar (In a said, "I shall send it to someone who is more deserving to it, namely Ummu Ammaara Nusayba bint Ka'b (In about whom I heard Rasulullaah (In say, Whether it was to the right or to the left, in whichever direction I turned I saw her fighting in my defence." (3)

Hadhrat Safiyya Fights During the Battle of Uhud and the Battle of Khandaq

Hadhrat Hishaam narrates from his father that when the Muslims were being defeated during the Battle of Uhud, Hadhrat Safiyya arrived with a spear in her hand to smite the (retreating) Muslims in the face (and send them back to the battlefield). Rasulullaah  then said (to her son Hadhrat Zubayr ), "O Zubayr! Look after the lady (your mother)."

Hadhrat Abbaad narrates that (during the Battle of Khandaq), Hadhrat Safiyya bint Abdul Muttalib was in a fortress called Faari, which belonged to Hadhrat Hassaan bin Thaabit was. She narrates, "Hassaan was with us women and children in the fortress when a Jew passed by and started circling the fortress. The Jewish Banu Qurayzah tribe had also declared war on Rasulullaah and had severed the ties they had with him. There was none to defend us from the Jews since Rasulullaah and the Muslims were at the necks of the enemy and were unable to turn their attention towards us. When this intruder suddenly came upon us, I said, 'O Hassaan! As you can see, this Jew is circling the fortress. By Allaah! I fear that he will inform the Jews behind us about our secrets while Rasulullaah and his companions are occupied elsewhere. Go down and kill him.' Hassaan replied, 'May Allaah forgive you, O Daughter of Ibn Hishaam, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.34). Waaqidi has also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.479).

⁽²⁾ Waaqidi, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.479).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd narrating from Waaqidi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.98).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.439).

Abdul Muttalib. By Allaah! You know well that I am unable to do that.'

When he said this to me and I saw that I could expect no support from him, I took a tent peg and came down from the fortress. I then struck the Jew until he was dead. After finishing off with him, I returned to the fortress and said, 'O Hassaan! Go down and take his possessions. The only thing that prevented me from taking them myself was that he is a man.' Hassaan was said, 'I have no need for his possessions, O daughter of Abdul Muttalib." (1)

Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym Takes up a Dagger to Fight in the Battle of Hunayn

Hadhrat Anas was narration during the Battle of Hunayn, Hadhrat Abu Talha was came laughing to Rasulullaah was. He said, "O Rasulullaah was! Have you seen (my wife) Ummu Sulaym with a dagger in her hand?" Rasulullaah was asked, "O Ummu Sulaym! What do you intend doing with that?" She replied, "My intention is to use it to stab any Mushrik who comes close to me." (2)

Hadhrat Anas reports that during the Battle of Hunayn, Hadhrat Ummu Sulaym took a dagger and kept it with her. When Hadhrat Abu Talha saw her with it, he said to Rasulullaah , "Look at Ummu Sulaym with a dagger!" "What is this dagger for?" Rasulullaah asked her. She replied, "I am keeping it to tear the belly of any Mushrik who approaches me." This made Rasulullaah simile. (3)

Hadhrat Asmaa bint Yazeed Kills Nine of the Enemy During the Battle of Yarmook

Hadhrat Muhaajir narrates that Hadhrat Asmaa bint Yazeed bin Sakan was the cousin of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal www. Using a tent peg, she killed nine Romans during the Battle of Yarmook. (4)

Refusing Permission for Women to Proceed in the path of Allaah

Rasulullaah Refuses Permission for Hadhrat Ummu Kabsha to Proceed in Jihaad

Hadhrat Ummu Kabsha belonged to the Banu Qudhaa'a clan of the Udhra tribe. When she once requested permission from Rasulullaah to participate in a particular expedition, Rasulullaah refused. She said, "O Rasulullaah I intend doing is to nurse the wounded and sick

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.108). Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.308) has also reported the narration from various sources. One of his narrations state that Hadhrat Safiyya was the first women to kill a Mushrik. Refer also to Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.349), Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.99) and Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.6 Pg.133) for further references.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Shayba, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.307). Ibn Sa'd has also reported the narration, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.461).

⁽³⁾ Muslim.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol. 9 Pg. 260).

and to give water to the ill." Rasulullaah replied, "Had I not feared that this would become a regular practice and that people would say, 'But she went out (why can't I)', I would have granted you permission. You should rather stay at home." (1)

The Reward for Obedience to One's Husband and Fulfilling His Rights Equals that of Jihaad

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in arrates that a woman once came to Rasulullaah and said, "O Rasulullaah is I have been sent to represent all the women before you. Allaah has made Jihaad compulsory on the men. They are rewarded when they suffer any injuries and if they are martyred, they remain alive by their Rabb and are sustained. On the other hand, all we women do is to serve the men. What rewards will we then receive?" Rasulullaah is replied, "Make it clear to every woman you meet that the reward for obedience to the husband and for fulfilling his rights equals this (reward for Jihaad). However, there are few of you who do this."

Towards the end of a narration in Tabraani, it is reported that a woman came to Rasulullaah and asked, "I have been sent to you as an envoy from the other women. Every woman who knows about my coming here and every woman who does not know about it have wished me to come. Allaah is the Rabb of men and women alike and he is also the Rabb of women. Similarly, you are Allaah's Rasool to men and women. Allaah has made Jihaad compulsory on the men. They receive the booty when they do well (and are victorious) and if they are martyred, they remain alive by their Rabb and are sustained. Which good deed (of a woman) can equal these deeds of men?" Rasulullaah replied, "Obedience to their husbands and recognising the rights they owe. However, there are few of you who actually do this."

Children March and Fight in Jihaad

A Child Fights and is Injured in the Battle of Uhud

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that when the Battle of Uhud was to take place, a woman gave her son a sword. Because he was unable to carry it, she tied it securely to his arm using leather straps. She then took him to Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah said to the saying saying for you." (As the battle progressed) Rasulullaah said to the boy, "Dear son! Attack here" and "Dear son! Attack there". The boy was later wounded and fell to the ground. When he was brought to Rasulullaah said, "Rasulullaah said, "Dear son! You must be terrified?" "No, O Rasulullaah said," he replied, "Not at all." (4)

⁽I) Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.323).

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.336).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Shayba, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.277).

Hadhrat Umayr bin Abi Waqqaas Weeps and is Granted Permission

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas back as they were proceeding to Badr because Rasulullaah back as they were proceeding to Badr because Rasulullaah back thought that he was too young. However, when Hadhrat Umayr started weeping (out of disappointment), Rasulullaah granted him permission. Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas says, "I then tied a knot on the belt that held his sword (because it was too large for him). I also participated in the Battle of Badr at a time when there was only a single hair on my face that I could hold in my fingers (because my beard had just started growing)." (1)

Hadhrat Umayr bin Abi Waqqaas 🗒 is Martyred

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas says, "Before we presented ourselves to Rasulullaah for the Battle of Badr, I noticed my brother Umayr bin Abi Waqqaas hiding from Rasulullaah would see me and send me back (to Madinah) thinking that I am too young whereas I would love to march so that Allaah should bless me with martyrdom.' When he was presented to Rasulullaah Rasulullaah asked him to return. However, when he started weeping, Rasulullaah permitted him. I then tied knots to the belt that held his sword because of his small size. He was later martyred at the tender age of sixteen." (2)

Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.270). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.88) and Baghawi have also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.135). Bazzaar has also reported the narration from reliable sources as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.69).

outsed Edition

حياة الصحابة إ

The Lives of The Sahabah

By:

Hazrat Maulana Muhammad Yusuf Kandehelvi رحمهاللهرحمةُ واسعةً (1917 - 1965)

Translated By: Mufti Afzal Hossen Elias

> Published By: ZAM ZAM PUBLISHER KARACHI - PAKISTAN

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED ©

No part of this book many be reproduced or utilized in any from or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying and recording or by information storage and retrieval system, without the permission of the publisher.

Copyright delegated to

Islamic Book Service New Dehli-2 India Phone: 23253514

حباةالصحلة باللغة الإنحليزية

Second Edition March 2006 By: Hazrat Maulana Muhammad Yusuf Kandehelvi Translated By: Mufti Afzal Hoosend Elias

I.S.B.N. No. 1 91812 70 9

(VOL-2)

Supervised By:

MUHAMMAD RAFIQUE ABDUL MAJEED

Books Available also in:

- Aostralia

Ahlan wa Satton.

1-8 Boird Street off Majo: Road, Fowkner Virtorio 3060, Australia

Near Does Blaza College of Victoria

Phane: 935-90564

- United Kingdom

Affarceq International ! Atkinson Street,

Seicester LES 30A

Plane 253-7640

- South Africa

Multi Mad Hooser Flies

8, Aietto St. rynsoord Sesoni Squith Africa

Phone: 423-1072

" United State of America

Dural Cloom Al-Madanio inc

182 Sobieski St. Buffels, NY 14212, 6.5.A

Frome: 892750h

Saudi Arabia

Makkuh

Al-Abelie yest

Backshap Mokkeli Makenerio

Soudi Austrio

Phone: 5755618

Madina Maktaba Drew

Zamen.

Modino Suressword

Sacrá Arybig

Plane : 5755618

. Conada

Al-Zahru Distribelice

1065, Dunforth Ave.

Toronto Ontona M41 1M) Conado

- Westindes

Noore-Islam Mosel El Sororro Rood Son Juno

Tricidad West Indies

Phone: 6757145 ✓ India Isa Tir Book Service

New Dehli-2 (index)

Phase: 23253514 Fax: 23277913

→ Srilanko

Is ornic Book Centre

- Singapore Batul Hikmah Black 44 Telak Blongoh

Dive # 39-45 Blangah

Coort Singupore

Phone: 62760724

Published By:

Zam Zam Publishers

Shop # 2, Shahzeb Centre Urdu Bazar Karachi-Pakistan Phones : +92-21-2760374 +92-23-2761671 Fax : +92-21-2725673 E-mail::zamzam01@cyber.net.pk, info@zamzampub.com Website: http://www.zamzampub.com

CONTENTS

Chapter Seven:
The Chapter Concerning the Importance that the Sahabah Attached to Unity 47
Statements of the Sahabah @ Concerning the Evil of Dissension
The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Bakar ($1500) Concerning Dissension
The Statement of Hadhrat Umarr
The Sermon of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经减额 in which he Warned about the Dangers of Dissension 48
The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Specific Concerning Dissension
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 🕮 🎉
The Statement of Hadhrat Ali 经减少 Concerning Dissension, Bid'ah, Unity and Disunity49
The Standpoint of the Sahabah ஊண்டு Concerning the Khilaafah after the demise of Rasulullaah இது 50
The Sahabah ஊண்டு Unanimously Accept Hadhrat Abu Bakr ஊண்டு as Khalifah50
The Demise of Rasulullaah and the Sermon of Hadhrat Abu Bakr
The Sermon of Hadhrat Umar ఆడికి when Most of the Sahabah இண்ண pledge their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经膨胀的
The Sahabah 避難變 pledge their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr 變變變 in the Orchard
The Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 墨際藝 and the Lecture that Hadhrat Umar 墨ლ藝 delivered Concerning what Happened in the Orchard of the Banu Saa'idah
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ఆయ్ Concerning the Talk of Khilaafah that took Place in the Orchard of the Banu Saa'idah56
The Narration of Hadhrat Ibn Seereen Concerning what Happened in the Hall of the Banu Saa'idah58
The Sahabah 經過過多 Place Hadhrat Abu Bakr 經過過多 Ahead for Khilaafah, Are Pleased to Select him and Condemn Anyone who desires to Divide their Unity
A narration of Ibn Asaakir and the Statement of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (1966) Concerning the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 營運等
A Hadith of Ahmad and the Statement of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah ($1000) and Hadhrat Uthmaan
S9 Concerning the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 密線線 declines to Accept the post of Khalifah and the statements of Hadhrat Ali 密線線 and Hadhrat Zubayr (####################################
The narration of Ibn Asaakir Concerning the Difference of Opinion between Hadhrat Ali 墨峽崎 and Hadhrat
Abu Sufyaan 🍪 🍪
A Narration of Abdur Razzaaq and Haakim Concerning What Happened between Hadhrat Ali William and Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan 變減變
The Differences between Hadhrat Umar Sales and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sales Sales Concerning the Khifaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经膨胀
A Narration of Hadhrat Ummu Khaalid @USSS Concerning what Happened between Hadhrat Abu Bakr প্রমঞ্জ and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed t Hadhrat Abu Bakr 些碳酸 Marches for Jihaad by Himself and the statement of Hadhrat Ali 经减少 in

6 THE LIVES OF THE SAFIABAH	(Vol-2) رَضِّحُالِلْهُ اللَّهُ
this Regard	62
Relinquishing the Post of Khilaafah	62
The Lecture of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (See Concerning the Khilaafah and his Statement that he	Never
Desired it for a Single Day of Night	62
The Response of the Sahabah 經濟學 to Hadhrat Abu Bakr 經濟學 and their Statement Co.	nfirming that he was the Best Amongst them	63
The Reply that Hadhrat Ali (gave to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Emphasising that they	would never Accept his Relinquishing the Khilaafah nor would they ever ask him to relinquish it	63
Accepting Leadership for the Welfare of Deen	64
What Happened between Hadhrat Abu Bakr 色彩彩 and Hadhrat Ibn Abu Raafi 色彩彩	64
Being Grieved After Acceding to the Post of Khilaafah	64
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 墨海峽 says to Hadhrat Umar 墨海峽, "It was you who forced me to assume th	nis post" 64
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经延延分 Last Words to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf 经减少。	65
A Leader Appointing his Successor	65
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 經過過多 Consults with other Sahabah 經過過多 On his deathbed Concerningh his	s Successor. 65
The Letter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ($1000) Detailing the Appointment of Hadhrat Umar
as his Successor, his Advice to him and to the Public	66
The Reply Hadhrat Abu Bakr ஊண் gave to Hadhrat Talha ஊண் Concerning the Appoint	ment of
Hadhrat Umar ఆడుతు	68
The Narration of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha @@@@ in this Regard	69
The narration of Hadhrat Zaid bin Haarith 告诉经验	69
Appointing a Consultative Assembly of Competent People to Decide who Should be the Khalifa	h69
The Assassination of Hadhrat Umar 邊際節 and His Selecting Six Persons to Decide who Should t	oe Khalifah , 69
The Narration of Ibn Sa'd Concerning the Debts of Hadhrat Umar (1986), his Burial with his T	`wo
Companions and his Appointment of Six Men to Decide which of the Them Would be the K	(halifah, 72
The Narration of Ibn Abi Shaybah and Ibn Sa'd in this Regard	73
Who is Most Worthy of Assuming the Office of Khilaafah	74
The Lecture that Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经延延 Gave in this Regard	74
The Qualities of a Khalifah as Described by Hadhrat Umar (1986)	75
Leniency and Firmness of a Khalifah	78
Detaining People by Whom Divisions will be Caused in the Ummah	79
Rasulullaah ﷺ Consults with knowledgeable People	80
Rasulullaah 提響 Consults with the Sahabah 迷迷感	80
Concerning the Caravan of Abu Sufyaan and Concerning the Prisoners Taken at Badar	80
The Narration of Hadhrat Anas (About the Consultation Regarding the Prisoners of Bar	dar 82 Rasulullaah (是語 Consults with Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah 经通過 and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh 经减少 Hadhrat Abu Bakr 登職總 Concults with Men of Knowledge and Insight who Constituted the Consultative

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (C) (Vol-2)	,
Assembly During his Period and the Period of Hadhrat Umar (1986)
The incident Between Hadhrat Abu Bakr కుపుత్తు and Hadhrat Umar కుపుత్తు Concerning the Dem of Land for Certain Sahabah 經過過多
The Question of the Kharaaj from Bahrain
Consultation with the Sahabah 經過過多 in Battle
Hadhrat Umar ఆయ్డ్ Consults with Men of knowledge
Hadhrat Umar 🕮 🕮 Informs his Consultative Assembly about his Proposal to the Daughter of H
Al 3506
Hadhrat Umar පිමුමිණ and Hadhrat Uthmaan පිමුමිණ Consult with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas පි	وموالله الفالم and the Good Comments that Hadhrat Umar 學經過多 and Hadhrat Sa'd 學經過多 made about	him 89
A Remarkable Lecture of Hadhrat Umar (1986) Concerning Consultation	89
The Letter that Hadhrat Umar 经延延多 wrote to Hadhrat Sa'd 经延延多	91
Appointing an Ameer
The First Commander Appointed in Islaam	9
Appointing an Ameer over Ten Persons	92
Appointing an Ameer for a Journey	92
Who Qualifies to be an Ameer?	9:
Those who Know Most Qur'aan Qualify to be Ameer	92
The Narration of Hadhrat Uthmaan ఆయు about those Knowing the Most Qur'aan to be the Most	t qualified for the Post of Ameer	9
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经延延 Refuses to give Authority/ Leadership to the Veterans of Badr and the S	tatement of Hadhrat Umar (1996) in this Regard	9;
The letter of Hadhrat Umar Concerning the Appointment of Commanders and his descript	tion of an Ameer	94
Who will be Successful as an Ameer	9
Refusing to be an Ameer	9
Hadhrat Migaad bin Aswad (SIGO) Refuses to be an Ameer and the Statement of Hadhrat Anas	31506
in this Regard
The Narration of Tabraani about the Incident of Hadhrat Migdaad	9
The Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉榮德 gave to Hadhrat Raafi Taa'i About Being an Ameer
The Incident that Occurred between Hadhrat Abu Bakr ($1000) and Hadhrat Raafi ($1000) Concrete that Occurred between Hadhrat Abu Bakr
Leadership	•
The Sahabah 過過過 Prefer Fighting Rather than Taking Command
The Incident that Occurred between Hadhrat Umar Signing and Hadhrat Abaan bin Sa'eed Signing C an Appointment to Command and Hadhrat Umar Suppositions Dispatches Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhr	•
Bahrain
Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 经减少 Refuses to Accept an Appointment as Ameer
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 學過過 Refuses to be Appointed as Judge
The Incident that Occurred Between Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1986) and Ummul Mu'mineen
The incident that Occurred between Hadarat Abdullaan bin Omar 多級多 and Ommul Mumineen Hafsah 認識多 Concerning Downatul Jandar
	113

Respecting the Khalifahs and Ameers and Obeying their Commands	102
The Incident that occurred Between Hadhrat Khaalid (1986) and Hahrat Ammaer (1986) During an Expedition	102
The Incident that occurred Between Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed
9606	103
The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar ஊண்டு and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas ஊண்டு Concerning
Respect for a Leader	. 104
The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar ఆడితి and Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ఆడితి	104
The Narration of Hadhrat Ayaad bin Ghanam కుడుతు Concerning Respect for the Ameer	105
The Statement of Hadhrat Hudhayfah இம்மு Concerning Drawing Weapons Against the Ameer	105
A Narration of Hadhrat Abu Bakrah 🕸 Concerning Respect for an Ameer	106
The Ameer is Obeyed only when he Instructs what is Right	106
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Concerning Respecting the Ameer	107
The Advice Rasulullaah gave to Hadhrat Abu Dharr ఆముత్తు Concerning Showing Respect to the Ameer	107
The Narration of Hadhrat Umar ($1000) Concerning Showing Respect for the Ameer and his Incident with Hadhrat Algama in this Regard	. 108
An Incident of a Leper Concerning Respect for the Ameer	. 109
The Consequences of Disobeying the Ameer	109
Co-operation between Leaders	109
The Incident Between Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ஆக்க், Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah கோக்க் and Hadhrat
Umar 🖽 🍪 🍪	. 109
The Rights that Subjects Owe to their Ameer	.111
The Statement of Hadhrat Umar (1996) in this Regard	. 111
Prohibition from Speaking III of the Ameer	. 111
The Narration of Hadhrat Anas 🐯 in this Regard	. 111
Refraining from Speaking the Truth Before Leaders	. 111
In this Regard, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 經濟經過 Tells Hadhrat Urwa 經濟經過 that they used to consider this as an act of Hypocrisy	.111
The Narration of Hadhrat Algama bin Waqqaas Concerning the Prohibition of Laughing and Jesting in the Presence of the Ameer	. 112
The Statement of Hadhrat Hudhayfa (Singles) that the Doors of the Rulers are Dens of Evil	. 113
The Advice Hadhrat Abbaas 袋雞雞 gave his Son in this Regard
Speaking the Truth to the Ameer and Rejecting his Command if it Conflicts with the Commands of Allaah	. 113
The Incident between Hadhrat Ubay (Silvers) and Hadhrat Umar (Silvers) and his Statement that there is	, no Good in an Ameer in whose Presence The Truth Cannot be Spoken	. 113
Hadhrat Basheer bin Sa'd Says to Hadhrat Umar ($100%): "If you do that, we will Set you Straight as an Arrow is Straightened*	. 114
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (1996) and Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama (1996) in this Regard Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (1986) tells Someone who Objected to his words, "This Man has Given me Life,
May Allah give his Life"	. 115
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah 经减少 and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 经减少 in this Regard.

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (2006) (Vol-2) The Narration of Hadhrat Hasan (2006) in this Regard.	116
The Way that Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn (Wiles Dealt with the Zakaah Monies
The Rights that the Ameer Owes to his Subjects
Hadhrat Umar Sizes Enquires from Delegations about the Qualities of Their Governors
The Conditions Hadhrat Umar
The Statement of Hadhrat Umar (See Section 2014) The Statement of Hadhrat Umar (See Se
The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 國際語 In this Regard Condemning Rulers who Live Lives Above the Standards of the Common People and who Veil Them from people in Need
An Incident Between Hadhrat Umar Supers and Hadhrat Arm bin Al Aas Supers in this Regard Hadhrat Umar (Sures) Writes to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (Sures) to Demolish a Pulpit
The Letter of Hadhrat Umar 劉節節 to Hadhrat Ulba bin Farqad about not Raising his Standards ab that of the Public
Hadhrat Umar Takes the Ameer of Hims to Task for Constructing a Lofty Residence	119
Hadhrat Umar 瓷罐罐 Takes Hadhrat Sa'd 瓷罐罐 to task for Building a Mansion	120
The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar specific and a group of Sahabah make in Shaamin
Enquiring about the Condition of the Citizens
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar in this Regard	123
Passing Judgement by what is Apparent
The Statement of Hadbrat Umar (Spice) in this Regard
Inspecting the Performance of those Appointed to Posts
The Statement of Hadhrat Umar (Silving in this Regard	124
Continuously dispatching Troops	125
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ka'b bin Maalik (Silassia) in this Regard
The Consideration the Ameer ought to Give to the people when hey are Faced with a Problem	125
The Incident between Hadhrat Umar ఆయకత్త and Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah ఆయకత్త During the Plague
Amwaas
Compassion of the Ameer
The Hadith of Hadhrat Abu Usayd 瓷蕊鈣 in this Regard
The Lecture of Hadhrat Umar (1996) in this Regard	127
A Hadith of Abu Uthmaan Nahdi in this Regard	12
The Justice and Equity that Rasulullaah Fig. and the Sahabah Practised	128
The incident of the Makhzoomiyyah Woman and the Lecture Rasulullaah & Gave	128
The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Qataadah & in this Regard	128
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad 🕬 with a Jew	129
The Incident of Two Men from the Ansaar in this Regard	130
An Incident of a Bedouin in this Regard	130
The Narration of Hadhrat Khowla bint Qais (2009) in this Regard	13′
The Justice of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 🕾 🚟	13
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr (September 1) in this Regard	13'
The Justice of Hadhrat Umar Faroog	132

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar 链距距 and Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b 些距离	132
The Dispute Between Hadhrat Umar (1966) and Hadhrat Abbaas (1966) Concerning the Expansion of the Masjidun Nabawi	132
Hadhrat Umar 密端鏡 then left Hadhrat Abbaas 密端鏡 and Hadhrat Abbaas 密端鏡 himself included	l
it in the Masjid at a later stage.	133
A Narration of Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib in this Regard	133
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Umar bin Khattaab and Abu Saroo'ah	134
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar 🐯 and a Woman whose Husband was Missing	134
The Practice of Hadhrat Umar 🕮 During the Hajj season to Ensure Justice Between the people	135
The Incident of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ஊண் and an Egyptian	136
Hadhrat Umar 登禪師 takes the Governor of Bahrain to Task	136
The Hadith of Zaid bin Wahab in this Regard	137
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ఆయత and another man and the Letter Hadhrat Umar
উট্টেভির্ড Wrote in this Regard	137
The Incident of Hadhrat Fayrooz Daylami الشخاصة and a Youngster from the Quraysh	138
The Incident of a Slave Woman and the Justice of Hadhrat Umar &	139
The Incident Between a Farmer and Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit and the Justice of Hadhrat
Umar 🖽 😅 in the Matter	139
The Incident of Hadhrat Awf bin Maafik Ashja'ee ﷺ with a Jew and the Justice of Hadhrat Umar
性質質 in this Matter	140
The Incident of Hadhrat Bakr bin Shaddaah 經過過過 with a Jew and the Justice of Hadhrat Umar 經過過過	141
The Letter that Hadhrat Umar 签譯圖多 Wrote to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah 签譯圖多 Concerning the Murder of a Jew,	. 141
Hadhrat Umar 戀蹊 Writes to the Commander of an Army Forbidding the Killing of Mushrikeen
(who surrender)	142
The Incident of Hurmuzaan and Hadhrat Umar (1986)	142
Hadhrat Umar 🛎 Fixes an Allowance from the State Treasury for an Old Dhimmi	143
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar and a Dhimmi	143
Hadhrat Umar ன் Passes Judgement in Favour of a Jew Against a Mulsim	.143
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar ಆರೋಪ್ and Hadhrat Salama	. 144
The Justice of Hadhrat Uthmaan 卷端雾	. 144
An Incident that Transpired between him and his Slave	. 144
His Justice with a Bird	. 144
The Justice of Hadhrat Ali 😂 😂 🖰	. 145
Hadhrat Ali 色質等 Distributes the Booty Won at Isfahan	. 145
An Incident that took place between Hadhrat Ali 經濟經濟 and Hadhrat Ja'dah bin Hubayrah	. 145
The Narration of Hadhrat Asbagh bin Nabaatah in this Regard
The Justice of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha 🕮 💮
The Incident Concerning his Justice with the people of Khaybar	. 146
The Justice of Hadhrat Migdaad bin Aswad 3000
The Narration of Hadhrat Haarith bin Suwayd in this Regard and the statement of Hadhrat Miqdaad

HE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-2)	11
劉範範 who said, "I Shall die while Islaam is Dominant"	146
e Fear that the Khulafaa had for Allaah	147
e Narration of Hadhrat Dahhaak about the fear that Hadhrat Abu Bakr ஊண் had for allaah	147
Narration of Ibn Asaakir and Abu Nu'aym about the Fear that Hadhrat Umar 笠蜒蜒 had for Allaah	147
re Incident Between Hadhrat Umar ஊண்டு and Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ஊண்டு	148 ie Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas आண்டு Concerning the Fear Hadhrat Umar இண்டு
d for Allaah	148
ie Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ఆడుత్త and Hadhrat Miswar Concerning the Fear Hadh	rat
Umar 🕾 had for Allaah	149
nould an Ameer Fear Anybody's Criticism?	150
ne Narration of Hadhrat Saa'eb bin Yazeeed 🖽 in this regard	150
ne Advices that the Khulafaa Gave to other Khulafaa and Leaders	150
ne Advice that Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉端鰺 gave to Hadhrat Umar 劉端鄉 when He intended to Appo	oint hm as his Successor
ne Advice that Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉麗勢 gave on his deathbed about the Appointment of Hadhrat
Umar 登單級 as his Successor and his Advice to Hadhrat Umar 经减少	150
ne Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Saabit and Others About the Advice that Hadhrat Abu
Bakr 🕮 gave to Hadhrat Umar 😘 Before his death	152
ne Advice that Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经减少 Gave to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 经减少 and Others
ne Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr ஆண்கு gave to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ஆண்கு when He Appointed him	ı Commander of the Armies Proceeding to Shaam ne Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr المستخدة Gave to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas المستخدة and to Hadhrat Wale bin Ugaba 登場過多
ne Letter Hadhrat Abu Bakr 密路線 Wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 密路線 Concerning Hadhrat
Khaalid bin Waleed (1986)	153
ne Narration of Ibn Sa'd About the Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr ﷺ Gave to Hadhrat Amr bin
Al Aas 登場時	. 154
ne Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉德勢 gave to Hadhrat Shurahbeel bin Hasanah 劉德德 ne Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1986) gave to Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan (1986)
ne Advices of Hadhrat Umar ne Advice Hadhrat Umar 经递递 gave to his Successor ne Advice that Hadhrat Umar 医斑疹 gave to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah 医斑疹 adhrat Umar 🖫 😘 Advice to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas 🕒 💮 ne Advice that Hadhrat Umar இய்த்த் gave to Hadhrat Utba bin Ghazwaan இய்தே ne Advice that Hadhrat Umar Sisses Gave to Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami Sisses ne Advice that Hadhrat Umar (Sie gave to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (Sie Sie Sie Sie Sie Sie Sie Sie Sie Sie adhrat Dahhaak reports that Hadhrat Umar ($1000) wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 😅 😅
ne Parting Advices of Hadhrat Uthmaan Dhun Nurayn 104 he Narration of Abu Salama bin Abdur Rahmaan in this Regard

'he Narration of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah শুইজ্জ in this Regard
The Advice that Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib	162
lis Letter to his Governors	162
Another of His Letters to his Governors	163
fis Advice to the Governor of Ukbara
The Advice that the Populace give to their Rulers
'he Advive that Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir gave to Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar 遊過過	164
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Buraydah in this Regard	164
The Letter that Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah উটেউৰ্ভ and Hadhrat Mu'aadh উটিউৰ্ভ Wrote to Hadhrat Umar and his Response	165
ladhrat Umar (1996) wrote the following letter back to the two:	166
The Advice of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah 密路線。	166
lis advice to the Muslims at the Time of his Death in Jordan	166
The Lives of the Khulafaa and Leaders	167
The Life of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq	167
lis Life Before Becoming the Khalifah and Afterwards	167
The Incident of Hadhrat Umayr bin Sa'd Ansaari	169
The Incident When Hadhrat Umar ఆయ్య appointed him as Governor of Hims	169
The Incident of Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir bin Hudhaym Jumhi 经减少。	172
His Behaviour as the Governor of Hims	. 172
The incident of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 鐵廠廠	174
The Chapter Eight	175
The Chapter About How the Sahabah Spent in the Path of Allaah	175
The Encouragement Rasulullaah 🕮 gave and the Fervour the Sahabah 🕮 had for Spending in the Path of Allaah	175
The Encouragement that Rasulullaah 🗱 Gave to Spend in the path of Allaah	. 175
The Narration of Hadhrat Jareer (1996) in this Regard
A Narration from Hadhrat Jaabir (1996) in this Regard	. 176
The Sermon of Rasulullaah 🕮 concerning the Virtues of Generosity and the Abomination of Miserliness
The fervour that Rasulullaah (and the Sahabah (had to Spend in the Path of Allaah
The Hadith of Hadhrat Umar (1996) in this Regard.
A Narration from Hadhrat Jaabir (1986) in this Regard
The narration of Hadhrat Ibn Mas'ood (about Rasululiaah (Instruction to Hadhrat Bilaal	, .
Sizes to Spend	178
The narration of Hadhrat Anas (Concerning What transpired Between Rasululiaah) and his Servant	. 178
A narration of Hadhrat Ali (Alice) About what Transpired Between Hadhrat Umar (Alice) and the People with regards to Excess Wealth.	179
The Incident between Hadhrat Umar ఆయక and Hadhrat Ali ఆయక Concerning the Distribution of and underly correctly regular വലർ. ത്രത്ത് and parties വു ത്രത്ത് concerns in pipelionion of

HE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-2)	13
some wealth	179
he Narration of Hadhrat Ummu Salama இல்லே About the spending of Rasulullaah இத்	180
he Narration of Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd 🛎 in this Regard	180
'he narration of Hadhrat Ubaydullaah bin Abbaas ఆయోత Concerning Spending wealth	181
he Incident of Hadhrat Abu Dharr 医球球肠 and Hadhrat Ka'b 经路额的 in the Presence of Hadhrat Uthmaan 医肠窦炎	181
he Statement of Hadhrat Umar শুড়েজ্জ Concerning how Hadhrat Abu Bakr শুড়েজ্জ was Always in	the lead when it Came to Spending in Charity	182
he incident of Hadhrat Uthmaan 🕮 and another Man in this Regard	18
The Incident of Hadhrat Ali 经减减 and a Beggar	18:
A Sahabi المعاقبة Gives a Larger Camel as Zakaah	183
The Generosity of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha இஇத்த and her Sister
Hadhrat Asmaa 😂 👑	184
An Incident Concerning the Generosity of Hadhrat Mu'aadh	18
The Narration of Hadhrat Jaabir இத்தே Concerning the Generosity of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal இத்த	ة 18
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'cod
Mu'aadh 等等等。	18
Spending That Which One Loves	18
Hadhrat Umar 登览等 Donates his Land in Khaybar
Hadhrat Umar (1996) Frees a Slave Woman whom he had obtained from Hadhrat Abu Moosa
Ash'ari	18
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1986) and a Slave Woman	18
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar when he heard a Verse of the Qur'aan	18
The Narration of Hadhrat Naafi Concerning the Spending of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar	18
Fhe Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 📆 when he Stayed Over in Juhfa Hadhrat Abu Talha Signates the Orchard of Bir Haa Hadhrat Zaid bin Haantha ﷺ Gives his Horse away as Sadagah
The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Dharr ($15505) that there are Three Partners in one's Wealth Spending in Charity while in Need
The Incident of Rasulullaah 🕬 in this Regard
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Aceel ఆయ్యం
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zaid (%)($366)
The Incident of a man from the Ansaar.
The Incident of the Seven houses
Siving a Loan to Allaah
Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa 连延碳 Sells His Orchard for a Date Palm in Jannah
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Dahdaa (1986) when he said, "I have lent my Orchard to my Rabb"
Spending to Encourage people Towards Islaam An Incident of a Person in this Regard
A narration of Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit William in this Regard
The Cause of Hadhrat Safwaan bin Umayyah (Signatural Statement About

ΉE	LIVES	OF THE	: SAHABAH	وضح الناب تغالظن	(Vol-
$\overline{}$					-

Spending in Jihaad in the path of Allaah	19
The Spending of Hadhrat Abu Bakr
His Spending on the Occasion of the Hijrah and the Incident between Hadhrat Abu Quha	aafa 🗐ເພີເອີຣ໌
and Hadhrat Asmaa 🍪
The Spending of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan (1986)	19
His Spending on the 'expedition of Difficulty' and the Statement of Rasulullaah : Ab	out Him 19
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Samura 逃避絕 About the Spending of H	ladhrat Uthmaan
அத்த on the 'expedition of Difficulty'	19
The Narration of Hadhrat Hudhayfa bin Yamaan (About the Spending of Hadhra	it Uthmaan en the 'expedition of Difficulty'	19
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf కముతు, Hadhrat Qataadah and Had Regard
The Spending of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ($100)	19
He Donates Seven Hundred Camels together with their Carriages and Supplies
His Spending in the path of Allaah during the Lifetime of Rasulullaah
A Narration of Zuhri about the Spending of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (2006)
The Spending of Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam
He Spends on those Proceeding in the path of Allaah	19
He Donates his House in the path of Allaah for the Poor and for Slaves
The Spending of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 竖顶弯 and other Sahabah 避啶霉
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Section Donates a Hundred Camels in the path of Allaah)	20
Hadhrat Umar ఆయుత్త, Hadhrat Aasim bin Adi ఆయుత్త and others Spend in the path o
The Spending of Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash (2006) and Other Women	20
Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash Spends in the path of Allaah and What Other Wor	men Contributed
Towards the Expedition to Tabook	20
Spending on the Poor and Those in Need	21
The Incident of a Bedouin Lady and Hadhrat Umar	21
The Incident of the Daughter of Hadhrat Khufaaf bin Eerna Ghifaari ఆయ్ with Hadhrat	2 2 Umar
The Spending of Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir bin Judhaym Jumhi	2
His Spending as the Governor of Shaam.	2
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Saabit Concerning this	2
The Spending of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar	2
A Narration of Hadhrat Naafi About the Spending of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar
Another Narration from Hadhrat Naafi in this Regard	2
The Spending of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Abul Aas (S)	2
The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Nadhra	2
The Spending of Hadhrat Aa'isha 🕬 💮	2
The Incident of a Poor Person with Her	2
Giving the Poor with One's own Hand	2
The Incident of Hadhrat Haaritha bin Nu'maan (Single) in this Regard and the Statemer	nt of Rasulullaah
Concerning Giving the Poor with One's own Hand

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAII	15
The Virtue of Personally Giving a Beggar Something
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 等認能 in this regard Spending on Beggars
The Incident of a Bedouin with Rasulullaah 🕮
Another Incident in this Regard
The Narration of Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Muqarrin ஊண்டு in this Regard	20
The Incident of Hadhrat Dhukayn bin Sa'eed Khath'ami 🚟 🍪 in this Regard
Another narration of Hadhrat Dhukaym ఆయ్యత్	20
The Behaviour of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with Beggars
Spending in Sadaqah	20
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ఆయుత్రం
Hadhrat Uthmaan 劉範齡 Purchases the Well of Roomah and Donates it to the Muslim Public	20
The Narration of Ibn Asaakir About the Incident	20
Hadhrat Talha (1986) Donates a Hundred Thousand Dirhams in a Single Day	21
The Sadagah of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf & during the Lifetime of Rasulullaah	21
The Sadagah of Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah when Allaah Accepted his Taubah Hadhrat Salmaan Salmaan
Giving Gifts	21
The Gift Hadhrat Uthmaan 登錄跨 gave to Rasulullaah 證錄 During one of the Military Expeditio
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Concerning the Virtues of Giving Gifts FEEDING People
The Statement of Hadhrat Ali (1986) About the Virtue of Feeding Others
The Narration of Hadhrat Jaabir 经减少 in this Regard
The Narration of Hadhrat Anas (in this Regard
The Narration of Hadhrat Shageeg bin Salama (in this Regard
The Incident between Hadhrat Suhayb (1996) and Hadhrat Umar (1996) in this Regard Rasulullaah Feeds People
The Story of Hadhrat Jaabir (1986)
The Story of Hadhrat Uthmaan The St
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Busr (2006) in this Regard Hadhrat Abu Bakr & Wes Feeds People
An Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr
Hadhrat Umar 🖫 🕮 Feeds People.
The Practice of Hadhrat Umar
Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah Feeds People
The Practice of Hadhrat Talha (1996) and the Statement of Rasulullaah (1996) in this Regard Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abu Taalib (Sizes) Feeds People
The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ఆయుత్త in this Regard Hadhrat Suhayb Roomi 经递减 Feeds People
The Incident of Hadhrat Suhayb 登時級 with Rasulullaah 经等	21

16 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH ELIGIBLE (I	Zol. 21
The Narration of Muhammad bin Qais
An Incident with an Orphan
The Narration of Hadhrat Maymoon bin Mahraan about this
A Similar Incident when he was at Juhfa
The Practice of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Special on his Journeys)
The Narration of Hadhrat Ma'n about this Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas 劉德德 Feeds People
He Hosts His Brothers, His Guests and the People of Various Towns
Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah 🖽 Feeds People	218
An Incident of him with Rasulullaah	218
The Narration of Hadhrat Anas (Singles) about the Du'aa that Rasulullaah (Singles) made for Hadhrat
Sa'd Sie	218
Another Incident of his Hospitability	219
Hadhrat Abu Shu'ayb Ansaari 營運廠 Feeds people	219
The Incident of him with Rasulullaah	219
A Tailor Feeds people	219
A Tailor Invites Rasulullaah 🕮 for a Meal that he Prepared	219
Hadhrat Jaabir bin Abdullaah 營廠營 Feeds People	220
His Story During the Battle of Khandaq	220
The Narration of Tabraani about such an incident	221
Hadhrat Abu Taiha Ansaari Feeds People Feeds People	222
An Incident Between him and Rasulullaah	222
Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Qais Kindi 选择场 Feeds People	222
His Waleema Celebration	222
Hadhrat Abu Barzah 当識跡 Feeds People	223
Entertaining People who visited Madinah Tayyibah	223
The Narration of Hadhrat Talha bin Amr 选项级 in this Regard	223
The Narration of Hadhrat Fudaalah Laythi 🐑 🌃 in this Regard	224
The Narration of Hadhrat Salama bin Akwa 卷節節 in this Regard	224
The Narration of Hadhrat Muhammad bin Seereen in this Regard	224
Rasulullaah (2005) Invites all the Men of Suffa	224
The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Dharr (1998) Concerning the Manner in Which the Men of Suffa Were Entertained	224

Entertaining those Who Intended Accepting Islaam 225 The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abu Bakr (226)

THE LIVES OF THE SAILABAH (Vol-2)	1
The Story of Hadhrat Umar 經經過多 with a Poor Family	22
Sharing Food	23
A Narration of Hadhrat Anas in this Regard	23
A Narration of Hadhrat Hasan ஊண்டு in this Regard	23
Rasulullaah 微變 Shares some Dates with The Sahabah 經過過	23
The Letter Hadhrat Umar 瓷瓣鳗 sent to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 瓷瓣鳗 During the Year of Ashes His Reply
Hadhrat Umar ട്രാര്ക്ക് Distributes the Food that Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ട്രാര്ക്ക് sent Amongst the Residents of Madinah	23
Giving Clothing to People	23
Rasulullaah 😂 Gives Away his Two shawls	23
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (1966) and the Grandsons of Rasulullaah	23
The Practice of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar (1986)	23
The Practice of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali	23
The Reward of giving a Muslim Clothing to wear	23
Feeding the Mujaanideen
The Practice of Hadhrat Qais bin Sa'd 🕾 💮	23
A Giant Fish comes to the Shore for the Mujaahideen	23
The Incident between Hadhrat Umar కుప్రాంత and Hadhrat Bilaal క్రాంత్రం About Feeding the Mujaahideel	n 23
How was the Spending of Rasulullaah 提達?	23
The Incident of Hadhrat Bilaal 经减少 and a Mushrik	23
Distribution of Wealth	23
The Manner in which Rasulullaah 🕬 Distributed Wealth	23
The Narration of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ummu Salama	23
Rasulullaah இத் Distributes the Eighty Thousand that Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami இண்டு had Sei	nt 23
The Manner in which Hadhrat Abu Bakr 告题题 Distributed Wealth	23
The Practice of Hadhrat Abu Bakr গ্রাইজিজ in this Regard and the Public Treasury during his Period as Khalifah	23
The Narration of Hadhrat Ismaa'eel bin Muhammad and others about the Fairness in the Manner that
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经减减 Distributed Wealth	24
The incident of the Wealth that Arrived from Bahrain	24
His Practice in this Regard and the Allowances he Stipulated for People According to their Status	24
The Narration of Hadhrat Anas (1996) in this Regard
The Narration of Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam in this Regard
The Narration of Hadhrat Naashira bin Sumay Yazani in this Regard Hadhrat Umar 氢氯酸 Files a Register for the Allowances Issued
The Condition of Hadhrat Umar இண்ணு when Hadhrat Abu Mcosa Ash'ari இண்ணு Brought a great of Wealth	deal
The Register of Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and His Giving First to the Relatives of Rasulullaah
The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar (1996) and the Banu Adi Tribe Concerning the Distribution of Weal

Concerning the Distribution of Wealth	. 247
The Monetary Gifts that Hadhrat Umar ఆయుత్త Gave	247
Hadhrat Umar 墨斯德多 Gives Hadhrat Abbaas 墨斯德多 What Remained in the Baytul Maal	247
The Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha இத்தின் in this Regard	247
The Narration of Hadhrat Anas (1986) in this Regard	248
Hadhrat Umar 選擇感 Gives a Gift to a Person Injured in the Path of Allaah	248
Hadhrat Ali bìn Abi Taalib 營廠區 Distributes Wealth	. 248
Hadhrat Umar இண்ணு and Hadhrat Ali ఆయ్య Distribute Everything in the Baytul Maal	., 249
Hadhrat Umar ఆண்ண் Distributes all the wealth and Rejects the Proposal of a person who Advocated
Keeping Reserves	249
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 🕮 in this Regard	249
The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar (2006) and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (2006)	249
The Letter Hadhrat Umar 医肾髓炎 Wrote to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 医环腺炎	250
The Letter of Hadhrat Umar కుడుతు to Hadhrat Hudhayfah కుడుతు	250
Hadhrat Ali 告诫多 Distributes all the Wealth	250
The Opinion of Hadhrat Umar ఆయ్య About the Rights of the Muslims in Wealth	25
The Narration of Hadhrat Aslam in this Regard	25
The Narration of Hadhrat Maalik bin Hadathaan	25
Hadhrat Umar % then said, "The spoils of war are for these people." He then continued reciting:	25
Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah 遥延远 Distributes Wealth	25
The Incident of Hadhrat Talha and a Woman	25
The Narration of Hadhrat Hasan (in this Regard	25
Talha 'Fayyaadh' (The Very Generous) 🖫 🚟	25
Hadhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam ఆయ్య Distributes Wealth	25
The Incident of Hadhrat Zubayr and his Slaves	., 25
The Incident Between Hadhrat Zubayr ఆయిత్ and his Son Abdullaah ఆయిత్ Concerning his Debts	25
Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ఆడుతు Distributes Wealth	25
The Incident with the Banu Zuhrah Tribe, the Poor Muslims and the Wives of Rasulullaah ﷺ	25
Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah উদ্ভিক্ত Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal উট্টেক্ত and Ḥadhrat Hudhaytat	1
登場過多 Distribute Wealth	25
The Incident of these Three Sahabah 🕮 with Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar 🕮	25
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ఆడుత్త Distributes Wealth	26
He Distributes a Large Amount of Money all at Once and Spends in the path of Allaah Everything that Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 经膨胀 Sent to him	26
He Spends Thousands in Cash in a Single day	26
Another Similar Incident About him	26
Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Qais 營運等 Distributes Wealth	26
Hadhrat Aa'isha வெல்ல Distributes Wealth	26
Hadhrat Sauda bint Zam'ah ඔ호를 Distributes Wealth	26
Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash ஊண்ண் Distributes Wealth	26
The Incident of her and Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar (1986)	26

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH ((Vol-2)	19
Another Similar Incident About her @@@@@	263
Allowances for Babies	263
An incident of a Woman and Hadhrat Umar when he Stipulates an Allowance for every Muslim baby	263
Abstention from using Public Funds for Personal use and for Close Relatives	264
Hadhrat Umar 经递滤多 Handling of Public Funds and his Abstention from it	264
The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar (1996) and the public Treasurer
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (Similes) and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Similes)	265
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (Size) and the Honey from the public treasury
The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar (1996) and his Daughter Hadhrat Hafsah (1996) Concerning
Public Funds	265
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (1996) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Argam (1996)
The Incident of the Musk and Ambergris from Bahrain
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar with his father Hadhrat Umar
The Narration of Hadhrat Aasim the Son of Hadhrat Umar ఆయోతోత
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (Supple)'s Wife
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (1996) and his Son's Carnel.
Hadhrat Umar ﷺ Rebukes his In-Laws for asking from the Baytul Maal
The Incident of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali (Signer) in this Regard Giving Back Wealth
Rasululiaah Refuses to Accept wealth given to him.
The incident of Rasulullaah We With Hadhrat Jibra'eel We and another Angel
Another Incident with Hadhrat Jibra'eel in this Regard
The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah 領域等 About this
The Narration of Hadhrat Ali & About this
The incident of the Money for a Dead Mushrik
The Clothing of Dhu Yazan
The Gift of a Horse and a Camel
Hadhrat Abu Bakr William Refuses to Accept wealth given to him
He Refuses to Accept his Allowance from the Baytul Mgal
The Incident Between him and Hadhrat Aa'isha @@@@@
Hadhrat Umar 場面後 Refuses to Accept wealth given to him
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (1966) with Rasulullash (1966)
An Incident with Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ఆయు
The Sale of the Foot of the Mugattam Hill
Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah 登越越 Refuses to Accept wealth given to him
The Incident with Hadhrat Umar (1996) During the "Year of Ashes"
Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir 登過等 Refuses to Accept wealth given to him
Hadhrat Umar 登過過多 gives him a Thousand Dinaars
The Narration of Haakim and Bayhaqi
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Sa'di 설계되어 Refuses to Accept wealth given to him
The Incident with Hadhrat Umar ($1000)
The increase with paging Utild Company	∠/b

Hadhrat Hakeem bin Hizaam Refuses to Accept wealth given to him	. 277
The Incident with Rasulullaah	. 277
The Incident with Hadhrat Umar	.277
Hadhrat Aamir bin Rabee'ah 巒瞬鹤 Refuses Land	. 278
The Incident with another Arab	. 278
Hadhrat Abu Dharr (Spiese) Refuses to accept Wealth Given to him	. 278
The Incident with Hadhrat Uthmaan 🕮 and Hadhrat Ka'b 🗐 💮	. 278
The Incident with Hadhrat Habeeb bin Maslamah 🖫 💮	. 279
The Incident with Hadhrat Haarith Qurashi	. 279
Hadhrat Abu Raafi 🕮 the Freed Slave of Rasulullaah 🕮 Refuses to Accept Wealth Given to him	. 280
The Incident with Rasulullaah 🕮	. 280
Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan ஊண்கு the son of Hadhrat Abu Bakr அண்க Refuses to Accept Wealth
Given to him	. 280
The Incident with Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 🕮	. 280
Hadhrat Abdullaah ఆண்ண் the Son of Hadhrat Umar ఆண்ண Refuses to Accept Wealth Given to him
An Incident with Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 😂 💢	. 281
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ja'far ஊண் Refuses to Accept Money Given to him	. 282
The Incident with a Chief	. 282
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Arqam 逕蜒蜒 Refuses to Accept Money Given to him	. 282
The Incident with Hadhrat Uthmaan 🕮 🍪	. 282
Hadhrat Amr bin Nu'maan bin Muqarrin ఆయు Refuses to Accept Money Given to him	. 282
The Incident with Mus'Ab bin Zubayr	. 282
Hadhrat Aa'isha இழுத்த and Hadhrat Asmaa இழுத்த The Two daughters of Hadhrat Abu Bakr
图 Refuse to Accept Money Given to Them	. 283
The Incident of Hadhrat Asmaa @8000000 and her Mother	283
The Incident of Hadhrat Aa'isha আইউউ and a Poor Lady	. 283
Abstention from Asking from People	. 283
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri 經濟節 and Rasulullaah 經濟	. 283
The incident of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf కార్యంతో and Rasulullaah 🕮	. 284
The incident of Hadhrat Thowbaan 🕮 🎒	. 284
The incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 邊域經過	285
Fear for Worldly Prosperity	285
The Fear of Rasulullaah 설명	. 285
The Narration of Hadhrat Uqba bin Aamir ப்பட்டியில் பிறும் பிற்கிரைய் பிறும் பிற்கிற்கள் பிறும் பிறும் பிறும் பிறும் பிறும் பிற	. 285
The Statement of Rasulullaah 🕮 when Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah 🕮 brought the Wealth from Bahrain	285
The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Dharr (2006) in this Regard	286
The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Saleed Khudri 经海绵的 in this Rogard	286
The Narration of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas @@@ in this Regard	286
The Narration of Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik 遊遊遊遊 in this Regard	286
The Fear of Hadhrat Umar and his Weeping Over Worldly Prosperity	287
The Narration of Hadhrat Miswar bin Makhrama @DESSE about the Booty Won at Quadisiyyah	287

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (CVol-2)	_21
The Narration of Hadhrat Ibraheem bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (1996)	287
The Narration of Hadhrat Hasan Basri About the Crown of the Kisra
The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Sinaan Duwali
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 🕮 🚟 About the Crying of Hadhrat Umar 🕮 📖	288
The Incident with Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf ఆయ్రాత్	289
The Fear of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf and his Weeping Over Worldly Prosperity	29 0
He Weeps While Eating	290
Another Incident About him	290
He Asks Hadhrat Ummu Salamah @@@@ About Worldly Prosperity and her Reply	290
The Fear of Hadhrat Khabbaab bin Arat and his Weeping Over Worldly Prosperity	29
The Incident when some Sahabah ###### Visited him	29
The Incident when he Passed Away	29
The Narration of Bukhaari about the Fear of Hadhrat Khabbaab t	29
The Fear of Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi المعاقبة and his Weeping Over Worldly Prosperity	29
An Incident with a Man from the Banu Abs Tribe	29
Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas ఆడుత్తు visits Hadhrat Salmaan ఆడుత్తు	29
Why Hadhrat Salmaan 经路路 was Concerned at the Time of Death	29
The Fear of Hadhrat Abu Haashim bin Utba bin Rabee'Ah Qurashi	29
The Incident with Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 🕬 at the time of death	29
Fear of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jaraah 🐯 and his Weeping Over Worldly Prosperity
The Abstinence of Rasulullaah (and the Sahabah (and How they Left the World Without Bothering About it	29
The Abstinence of Rasulullaah
The Narration of Hadhrat Umar 经递滤 About the Imprint of a Mat on Rasululiaah 经验 Side
The Bedding of Rasulullaah	29
The Food and Clothing of Rasulullaah	29
The incident of Rasulullaah
A narration of Hadhrat Salma (1995)
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1986) About the Abstinence of Rasulullaah	29
The Narration of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha
The Abstinence of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经隐藏
The Narration of Hadhrat Zaid bin Argam (in this Regard)
The Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha (1996) Stating that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) left Nothing Behind
The Incident Between him and Hadhrat Umar
The Narration of Hadhrat Humayd bin Hilaal

The Narrations of Hadhrat Anas and Hadhrat Saa'ib bin Yazeed Concerning the Food of Hadhrat Umar 经连运	. 305
Hadhrat Umar 🕮 Reminds People of a Verse of the Qur'aan	. 306
The Incident with Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'an 😂 🏎	. 307
The Incident with Hadhrat Utba bin Farqad	. 308
His Fear when Served Water Mixed with Honey	. 308
His Clothes, his Spending and Other Facets of his Biography	. 309
The Abstinence of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan 繼繼續	. 310
His Clothing and Food and Sleeping on a Straw Mat in the Masjid	. 310
The Abstinence of Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib 经减少 His Food	. 310
His statement when he was Served some Faalooda	. 311
His clothing	. 311
He Sells his Sword to Buy a Garment	. 311
His Statement about How Much of Public Funds are Permissible for the Khalifah	. 312
The Abstinence of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah 🚟 🚟	. 312
The Narration of Hadhrat Urwa 😂🍑	. 312
The Abstinence of Hadhrat Mus'ab Bin Umayr (1986)	. 312
The Narration of Hadhrat Ali இத்த and the Statement of Rasulullaah இத	. 312
The Hardships Hadhrat Mus'ab Bin Umayr ஆண்கு Endured after Becoming a Muslim	. 313
The Abstinence of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon 🖫	. 314
His Clothing	. 314
His Demise	. 314
The Abstinence of Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi ($1500)	. 315
His Statement when he was Forced to eat More	. 315
His Abstinence as Governor	. 315
The Incident between him and Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Concerning Building a Room	315
Another Incident in this Regard	. 316
The Abstinence of Hadhrat Abu Dharr Ghifaari 🖽 🌃	316
While Living in Rabdha	316
His Food	316
The Abstinence of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 😇 💮	317
He Forsakes Trade to Engage in Ibaadah	317
The Reason for his Abstinence	317
The Incident between him and Hadhrat Umar 😂 😂	318
The Abstinence of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Afraa 🕮 🐷	., 319
The Incident with Hadhrat Umar (1996) Concerning his Attire	319
The Abstinence of Hadhrat Jalaaj Ghitfaani	319
His Abstinence from Eating to his Fill after Accepting Islaam	319
The Abstinence of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 🖽 🏎
His Life	320
His Statement when he was Presented with 'Jawaarish'	320

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-2)	23
His Abstinence After the Demise of Rasulullaah	321
The Narration of Hadhrat Jaabir 🚟 😂 and Suddi	321
The Abstinence of Hadhrat Hudayfah bin Yamaan 🕮 🚟	321
Rebuking and Advising Caution to those who Do Not Abstain from Worldly Luxuries and Who Indulge themselves	322
Rebuking Hadhrat Aa'isha ஊண்கு for eating Twice in a Day	322
The Parting Advice Rasulullaah 🕮 gave to Hadhrat Aa'isha 🖾 👑	322
The Advice Rasulullaah (gave to Hadhrat Abu Juhayfah (Gassal)	322
The Incident Between Rasulullaah 🕮 and a man with a Large Stomach	323
Hadhrat Umar ஊண் Rebukes Hadhrat Jaabir ஊண் for Buying Meat for his Family	323
Hadhrat Umar അൽ Rebuked his Son Abdullaah എൽ when he sees Meat with him	324
The Advice Hadhrat Umar Signes gave to Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan Signes	324
Hadhrat Umar இண்டு Criticises the world Before the Sahabah இண்டு	324
The Letter Hadhrat Umar ඡමුම්ම Wrote to Hadhrat Abu Dardaa පමණ when he Built a Tall Building	j 324
Yet another narration states that Hadhrat Umar added:	325
The Letter Hadhrat Umar 劉寧懿 Wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 劉寧懿 to Demolish the Double
Storey Building of Hadhrat Khaanjah bin Hudhaafah 🛎	325
Hadhrat Ummu Talq and the Instruction of Hadhrat Umar	325
The Letter Hadhrat Umar ఆయుత్త Wrote to Hadhrat Sa'd ఆయుత్త when he Sought Permission to Build a House	326
Hadhrat Umar 經過過 Rebukes a Man who Built with Baked Bricks	326
Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari இத்தே Rebukes Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar இத்தே for Decorations on the Walls when his Son got Married	326
The Parting Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) gave to Hadhrat Salmaan (1996)	327
The Parting Words Hadhrat Abu Bakr spoke to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf	327
Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (See Section Rebukes his Companions about their Lack of Abstinence and his Narration Concerning the Abstinence of Rasulullaah	327
What Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said to his Son who asked him for a New Garment	328
The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Dharr ($1000) and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ($1000)	328
What Hadhrat Abu Bakr ஊண்டு said to his Daughter Hadhrat Aa'isha ஊண்டு when he saw her Wearing New Clothes	206
-
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经通路的 and a son of his who was About to Pass Away
What Hadhrat Ammaer 当场间 said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 多项间 when he called him to See the House he Had Built
The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri 戀暖變 when Invited for a Waleema	329
Chapter Nine:	330
The Chapter About How the Sahabah (Chapter About How))	330
Severing Ties with the Period of Ignorance to Strengthen Ties with Islaam	330
Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah 锰黝铋 Kills his Father During the Battle of Badr	33(
The Incident of Two Sahabah 海洋海峡 with their fathers	331

The Son of Abdullaah bin Ubay Seeks Permission to Execute his Father	331
The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Bakr উর্জেঞ্জ and his Son Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan during the Battle of Badr	332
The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar শুদ্ৰভুৱ and Hadhrat Saleed bin Al Aas শুদ্ৰভুৱ Concerning the Death of his Father	332
Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah (1998)'s reaction when he Saw his Father's Body being Dragged to the Well
After the Battle of Badr	333
The Incident of Hadhrat Mus'ab bin Urnayr (and his Brother who was Taken Captive during the Battle of Badr	333
The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan 🕮 and his Daughter Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat
Ummu Habeebah 🐯 🕮	334
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Singles) Concerning a Sparrow and its Fledglings	335
The Statement of Hadhrat Umar 送過避 About the Prisoners from Badr	335
The Love that the Sahabah 🛎 had for Rasulullaah 🕮	336
The Love that Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh 설패생 had for Rasulullaah @	336
The Incident of the Love a Sahabi 🕮 Expressed for Rasulullaah 🕮 and the verse Revealed
in this Regard	. 336
The Incident of the Sahabi ($1000) whose Preparation for the Day of Qiyaamah was His Love for Allaah
and Rasulullaah ﷺ	. 337
The Statement of Rasulullaah 🕮: "You, O Abu Dharr, shall be with Those whom you love"	.338
The Incident of Hadhrat Ali 🕮 with Rasulullaah 🕮 when he was Experiencing Extreme Hunger.	. 338
The Incident of Hadhrat Ka'b bin Ujrah 🕮 😘	. 339
The Love that Hadhrat Talha bin Baraa 🕬 had for Rasulullaah 🕮
The Love that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa (1986) Had for Rasulullaah (1986)
The Statement of Rasulullaah 機器 when the Corpse of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Dhul Bijaadayn 電腦器
was Carried	. 341
The Incidents of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 经减少。Hadhrat Zaid bin Dathana MM and Hadhrat
Khubayb bin Adi 经减少	. 341
The Sahabah
The Incident between Hadhrat Umar 经减额 and Hadhrat Abbaas 经减额。
The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri
The Affection Hadhrat Umar 经现金多 had for Rasulullaah 经等's Daughter Hadhrat Faatima 经现金
because Rasulullaah 🕮 Loved her	344
Honouring and Respecting Rasulullaah
The Respect the Sahabah (Showed by Not Raising their Gazes in Front of Rasulullaah ()
The Manner in Which the Sahabah & sat Around Rasulullaah &
The Awe that Hadhrat Baraa bin Aazib & Self for Rasulullaah & Self Self for Rasulullaah
The Sahabah (2006) Seek Blessings from the Water left over from Rasulullaah (2006)'s Wudhu and	. 545
from his Saliva	345
The Statement of Hadhrat Urwa bin Mas'ood 變減變多 Concerning the Respect the Sahabah 經濟變多	249
had for Rasulullash (2004)	345
ude or i federillical i Meature and an analysis and an analysi	. 5.40

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Haanth 遗迹感 Concerning the Sahabah 避難過多
Seeking Blessings from the Leftover Wudhu Water and Saliva of Rasulullaah	346
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr 经联码多 Drinks the Blood of Rasulullaah 经经	346
Hadhrat Safeenah 過過過 Drinks Rasulullaah 機變 s Blood	347
The Incident of Rasulullaah ﷺ and Hadhrat Maalik bin Sinaan ﷺ During the Battle of Uhud	347
The Narration of Hadhrat Hakeemah bint Umaymah Concerning the Drinking of Rasululiaah 🕮 s Urine	347
The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob 竖踩圆 Concerning the Respect he Showed to Rasulullaah ﷺ	348
The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar 遥远感到 and Hadhrat Abbaas 瓷迹感 Concerning a Gutter	349
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 經經過 and the Other Sahabah 經經過 Honour the Pulpit of Rasulullaah 機能.	349
Kissing the Body of Rasulullaah
The Incident of Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr 📆 🎞 💮	350
Hadhrat Sawaad bin Ghuzayyah ఆண்டு Kisses Rasulullaah இதி s Bellys Belly	350
The Incident of Another Sahabi இண்ண who Kissed Rasulullaah இது s Belly	350
The Incident of Hadhrat Sawaad bin Amr	351
Hadhrat Talha bin Baraa 经降场 Kisses Rasulullaah 提識's Feet	351
The Crying of the Sahabah (when they Heard that Rasulullaah
What Happened to them when he Passed Away	352
The Incident of a Lady from the Ansaar When she Heard that Rasulullaah (had Been Martyred in the Battle of Uhud	352
The Behaviour of Hadhrat Abu Talha 認識感 During the Battle of Uhud Because of his Love for Rasulullaah 機應.	353
The Bravery of Hadhrat Qataadah 经延延多 for the Love of Rasulullaah 经递	353
The Sahabah (See Weep at the Mention of Rasulullaah (See Separating from them	353
The Weeping of Hadhrat Abu Bakr	353
The Weeping of Hadhrat Faatima @@@@@	354
The Weeping of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal 遊遊遊	355
The Sahabah (Weep out of Fear of Rasulullaah (See Passing Away	355
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (2006) In this Regard	355
The Statement of Hadhrat Ummul Fadhl (2006) At the Dernise of Rasulullaah (2006)	355
Rasulullaah 🕮 Bids Farewell (to the Ummah)	356
The Direction Rasulullaah (Gave Prior to his Demise Concerning his Burial, Bathing, Janaazah
salaah and other Matters	, 356
The Demise of Rasulullaah	357
The incident of his Demise and the Statements of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) and Hadhrat Umar (1996)	357
The Buriaf of Rasulullaah (#299	359
The Narration of Hadhrat Ali	359
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ($300) in this Regard
The Janaazah salaah for Rasulullaah 🕮	360
The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 🕮 💮	360
The Narration of Hadhrat Sahl bin Sa'd 🕸 🌃	360
The Narration of Hadhrat Ali 🖽 🚟	361
The Condition of the Sahabah ஊண் when Rasulullaah இச் Passed away and Their Weeping at trieli deparation iloni nini	100

Hadhrat Abu Bakr ട്രൂട്ട് Weeps and the Lecture he gave to the People	361
The Grief of Hadhrat Uthmaan 🕮 🚟	362
The Grief of Hadhrat Ali 😂 🚟	363
The Weeping of Hadhrat Ummu Salamah @	. 363
The Waiting of the people of Madinah	363
The Condition of the Sahabah ஊண்டு in Makkah when they Heard about Rasulullaah இசிs Demise	363
The Condition of Hadhrat Faatima 🕮 👑	. 364
What the Sahabah 🕮 Said When Rasulullaah 🕮 Passed Away	364
The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ఆయ్యాం: "Today we have Lost Revelation"	. 364
The Statement of Hadhrat Ummu Ayman 🕮 Concerning the Loss of Revelation	. 364
The Statement of Hadhrat Ma'n bin Adi 等障心	. 365
The Statement of Hadhrat Faatima 🖾 🍪 the Daughter of Rasulullaah 🕮	. 365
The Couplets of Hadhrat Safiyya இத்தே the Aunt of Rasulullaah இத	. 366
The Sahabah 😂 👀 Weep as they Think of Rasulullaah 🕮	. 367
The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar 🕮 and an Old Lady	. 367
The Condition of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ఆయిత్త and Hadhrat Anas ఆయిత్త when Mentioning
Rasululiaah ($66)	. 367
How the Sahabah @ Hit Out Against Anyone who Reviled Rasulullaah @ Hit Out Against Anyone who Reviled Rasulullaah	. 368
The Incident Between Hadhrat Gharfa Kindi ఆమోతిత and Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas ఆయోతిత	. 368
Obeying the Instructions of Rasulullaah ::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::	. 369
Rasulullaah 🕮 s Instructions are Obeyed during the Expedition to Nakhla	. 369
Obeying the Instructions of Rasulullaah : When Marching Against the Banu Qurayzah	. 372
Obeying the Instructions of Rasululiaah @ During the Battle of Hunayn	. 372
The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan ஊக்கு and the Sahabah ஊக்க Concerning the Breach of the Treaty of Hudaybiyyah	. 373
How the Sahabah 經過過 treated the Captives of Badr	. 374
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha 🛎 🕮 When he Hastened to Fulfil the Command of Rasulullaah	. 374
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Command of Rasulullaah)	. 375
A Dome is Demolished because Rasulullaah (### Disliked it	. 375
Burning A Red Shawl because Rasulullaah (### Distiked it	. 376
Hadhrat Khuraym 營運運多 Cuts his Long Hair and Lifts his Lower Garment	. 376
Hadhrat Kanani (Gess off a Golden Throne in Obedience to the Command of Rasulullaah (Gess)	. 376
The Narration of Hadhrat Raafi bin Khadeej 🛎 🖽	. 377
The Incident of Hadhrat Muhammad bin Aslam	. 377
The Incident of Hadhrat Fataa 🕮 a Lady from the Ansaar	. 377
Hadhrat Abu Dharr ஊண்க் Fulfils the Command of Rasulullaah இத்த	. 377
Being Stern with those who Oppose the Commands of Rasulullaah	. 378
The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar (300) and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (300)
Tearing the Garments of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 學學學 and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed 學學學	. 379

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol. 2)	27
Hadhrat Umar 🖼 🕮 Cuts Off Silk Buttons from a Garment	379
Hadhrat Ali 密範疇 Pulls off the Cloak of Hadhrat Sa'eed Qaari to tear it up	379
Hadhrat Umar ஊண்டு Lashes his Governor Hadhrat Qudaamah ஊண்டு who was the Maternal Unc	le of Hadhrat Hafsah 認識變多	380
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 邊際過過 Rebukes Someone Laughing during a Funeral	382
The Fear of the Sahabah when An Instruction of Rasulullaan was Opposed	382
Hadhrat Abu Hudhayfah 🕮 Fears Something he said during the Battle of Badr	382
Hadhrat Abu Lubaabah 🕮 Fears that he Betrayed Rasulullaah 🕮 and Repents
The Fear of Hadhrat Thaabit bin Qais 🕮 and the Glad Tidings Rasululaah 🗱 Gave him	384
Emulating Rasulullaah	385
The Sahabah 密導等 Follow Rasulullaah 穩勢 in Salaah	385
The Sahabah 😂 😘 Remove their Rings Because Rasulullaah 🍪 Did	385
Hadhrat Uthmaan 經濟學 Emulates Rasulullaah 爆響	386
The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Bakr இக்கு, Hadhrat Umar இக்கு and Hadhrat Zaid இக்கு
Concerning the Compilation of the Qur'aan	387
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经减少 Dispatches the Army of Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid 经现金	38
The incident between Hadhrat Umar (1996) and his Daughter Hadhrat Hafsah (1996) Concerning Clothing and Food
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar 迷蹤變 when he was Presented with a New Garment Statements of the Sahabah Concerning Kissing the Black Stone and Touching the Two West Pillars of the Kabah
The Incident between Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Sassa and a Bedouin	39
Incidents About How Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 劉寧寧 Followed in the Footsteps of Rasulullaah 經濟	39
Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Qurra ఆண்க் opens his buttons to Emulate Rasulullaah இத்
A Group of Sahabah (Argue About their Relationship with Rasulullaah (and He Confirm What they Say
Rasulullaah 👺 Forbids Hadhrat Khaalid కుంత from Hurting the Veterans of Badr and Forbids
the People from Hurting Hadhrat Khaalid (1986)	39
Rasulullaah ﷺ Says, "Allaah has Selected my Companions from All in the Universe"
The Advice Rasulullaah agave Concerning the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar Rasulultaan (編集 Forbids People from Reviling the Sahabah 編集
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 經濟學 Warns Those who Speak ill of the Sahabah 經濟學
Rasulullaah  s Advice Concerning the Members of his Household
Hadhrat Umar (Superior) is Overjoyed to be Related to Rasulullaah (Superior)
The Status of the Quraysh
Harbouring Enmity for the Banu Haashim, the Ansaar and for Arabs
The Quraysh shall be First to Meet Rasulullaah	40
The Quraysh shall be First to Meet Rasulullaah ﷺ Rasulullaah ﷺ Gives Glad Tidings to those to Come After him
The Quraysh shall be First to Meet Rasulullaah	40

The Sanctity of the Blood and Wealth of the Muslims	402
Ahadeeth Warning Against Killing a Muslim	402
Rasulullaah 🕮 Rebukes Hadhrat Usaama ഘട്ട് and other Sahabah ഘട്ട് for Killing People who Recited the Shahaadah
Rasulullaah 微端 Rebukes Hadhrat Bakr bin Haaritha 營運總 as well	404
Rasulullaah ﷺ Is Cold Towards Someone who Killed a Mu'min	404
A Verse of the Qur'aan is Revealed when Hadhrat Miqdaad Kills a man Who Recited the Shahaadah .	405
Hadhrat Muhallim bin Jathaamah 經濟感 Kills Aamír bin Athbat	406
The Earth Brings up the Body of a Man who Killed a Mu'min	407
The Incident of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (1996) and the Banu Jadheema Tribe	408
The Incident between Rasululiaah இது and Hadhrat Sakhar Ahmasi இயித்த	409
Refraining from Killing Muslims and the Abomination of Fighting for Land	410
Rasulullaah Forbids Killing anyone who Atlests to the Oneness of Allaah and the Nabuwaat
of Rasulullaah 🕮	410
Hadhrat Uthmaan 登場場 Prohibits Fighting when he was Besieged in his House	411
Hadhrat Uthmaan ஊண்க் narrates that Rasulullaah இன் said, "A Person's Blood is Forbidden unless for one of Three Reasons"	411
The Lecture Hadhrat Uthmaan ఆண்கு delivered to those who Besieged him	. 412
The incident between Hadhrat Mughiera පිළිමුණ and Hadhrat Uthmaan පිළිමුණ when he was Under Siege	412
Hadhrat Uthmaan ആര്ക്ക് Forbids some of the Sahabah അത്രം From Fighting when he was Under Siege	413
Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas ఆண்ண் Restrains Himself from Fighting	. 414
The Incident Between Hadhrat Sa'd පිරිමිණ, Hadhrat Usaama පිරිමිණ and another Person About not Fighting	415
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ﷺ Restrains Himself from Fighting During the Troubled times of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr 🕾 😘 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮	. 415
What Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 密範數 said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr 密範數 and Ibn Safwaan
യയാട്ട് Concerning his Reluctance to pledge allegiance to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr ആയാട്ട്	. 417
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ஊண்டு Refuses to Allow People to piedge their allegiance to him	. 418
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 竖端鏡 Concerning Unity and Disunity	. 418
Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali 劉琰ண் Dislikes Killing Mu'mineen and Reconciles with Hadhrat Mu'aawiya 劉琰ண்	. 419
What Hadhrat Hasan said to Hadhrat Jubayr bin Nufayr Concerning the Khilaafah	. 420
Hadhrat Ayman Asadi 經經濟 Refuses to Fight with Marwaan	. 420
What Hadhrat Hakam bin Amr 劉雄夢 said to Hadhrat Ali 劉璋夢	. 421
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Awfa 壁跡跡 Refuses to Fight for Yazeed	. 421
Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslamah Abides by the Advice of Rasulullaah	. 421
The Statement of Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Significance Fighting
The Incident Between Hadhrat Muaa'wiya 🕾 and Hadhrat Waa'il bin Hujar	. 422
The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Barzah Aslami ఆതിയം about the Fight Between Marwaan and Hadhrat .
Abduliaah bin Zubayr	424
The Statement of Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Concerning Killing	425
Abstaining from Wasting the Life of a Muslim
Rescuing a Muslim from the Clutches of the Kuffaar	. 425

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH	29
Frightening a Muslim Rasulullaah (## Forbids Frightening a Muslim
Other Narrations in this Regard	426
Belittling and Looking Down at a Muslim	427
The Narrations of Hadhrat Aa'isha இண்ண், Hadhrat Ataa and Hadhrat Urwa இண்ண் About	Hadhrat
Usaama bin Zaid తోయిత్తు	427
The Statement of Hadhrat Umar (1986) in this Regard	427
Making a Muslim Angry	428
The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Bakr আණை and Hadhrat Salmaan ஊண்கு, Suhayb கூ	and وَكُوْلَاتُهُمُا
Bilaal 空间间 with Regard to Abu Sufyaan 经间间	428
Cursing a Muslim	428
The Narration of Hadhrat Umar Concerning Rasulullaah Ses Prohibition from Cursin	ig Someone who Drank Wine	428
The Narration of Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam, Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ஊண்க் and Hadhrat Salam	ah bin
Akwa উটার্জিন্ত in this Regard	429
Swearing a Muslim	430
A Narration of Hadhrat Aa'isha ஊண்க் Concerning a man who Swore his Slave	430
The Incident Between Rasulullaah 🕮 and Hadhrat Abu Bakr 🖘 🐝 when Someone was Swe	earing him, 430
Hadhrat Umar ஊண் Vows to Cut Off his Son's Tongue for Swearing Hadhrat Miqdaad 🕸	431 وَحَقَالَةُ
Speaking III of a Muslim	431
Rasulullaah 愛麗 Admonishes a Sahabi 靈彩疹 for this	431
The Incident Between Hadhrat Khaalid 墨瑙姆 and Hadhrat Sa'd 墨瑙姆	431
Backbiting a Muslim	432
Rasulullaah இத் Admonishes Those Who Backbit a Sahabi இற்ற who was punished for	Adultery 432
The Narrations of Hadhrat Aa'isha ఆయోతుత్త and Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam Concerning Hadhrat అయితుత్త and a Another Lady	• •
Rasulullaah (rebukes Some Sahabah (for their Backbiting)
The Incident of Two Ladies who Ruined their Fasts by Backbitting
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr speed and Hadhrat Umar speed with a Man who Used to S
Spying to Discover Faults in Muslims
Hadhrat Umar
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar Signs with an Individual and a Group of people
Hadhrat Umar States Scales the Wall of a Singer's House
An Incident of Hadhrat Umar (2006) with an Old Man
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar Success with Hadhrat Abu Mihjin Thagafi Success
Concealing the Faults of Muslims
Hadhrat Umar ﷺ Instructions to the Family of a Young Lady in this Regard
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (1986), a Little Child and Four Women
Hadhrat Anas & Issue on the land of the Exposed.
The Incident of Hadhrat Ugba bin Aamir 🖫 Soribe and a Group of People who had been
The moreon of harmar odna bill warms assessed a property a promb of Leoble Muo uso peel	n Drinking 439 Damascus 440

30 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH 機能够 (vol-2)	,
The Incident Between Hadhrat Jareer (Spiece and Hadhrat Umar (Spiece) in this Regard 440	-
Forgiving and Overlooking the Faults of a Muslim
The Letter of Hadhrat Haatib bin Abi Balta'ah ﷺ
The Incident of Hadhrat Ali William with a Thief
The Instruction of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Susse Concerning a Drunk 442
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari
Supply Wrote to him	3
Interpreting the Actions of Muslims in a Favourable Manner	1
The Incident of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (and Hadhrat Maalik bin Nuwayrah () 444	ı
Hating the Sin and not the Sinner445	Ś
Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ஊண்க் and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ஊண்க் Forbid Swearing a Sinner 445	j
Keeping The Heart Free from ill-Feelings and Jealousy	j
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr 🕮 and a Sahabi 🕮 Whom Rasulullaah 🕮 had Given the Glad Tidings of Jannah445	j
The Face of Hadhrat Abu Dujaanah Sie Shines During his Illness	,
Deriving Pleasure from the Happiness of the Muslims	,
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Signature) is Happy for the Happiness of the Muslims	7
Behaving Cordially towards People	1
Rasulullaah Behaves Cordially Towards a Man of Evil Disposition	,
The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 劉維德 Concerning the Cordial Treatment of the Sahabah 經濟學 448	3
Making a Muslim Happy)
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 些範疇 Regrets his Exchange of Words with Hadhrat Umar 些範疇 and seeks Forgiveness 449)
Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah இத்தித்த Forgives Hadhrat Aa'isha இத்தித்த and Hadhrat Ummu Salamah at the Time of her death)
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 竖顶圆窗 Goes to Hadhrat Faatima 隐顷圆窗 to Make her Happy	j
Hadhrat Umar (####################################	j
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr 医凝固的 Seeks Pardon from Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali 医凝固的	Į
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr ఆయ్ Seeks Pardon from Hadhrat Husayn bin Ali ఆయ్	2
Fulfilling the Need of a Muslim	3
Standing to Fulfil the Needs of a Muslim	3
Hadhrat Umar 🖽 Stands Still for An Old Lady who Stopped him	3
Walking to Fulfil the Needs of a Muslim	4
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 逕蜒蜿 Leaves His l'tikaaf to Fulfil a Need of a Muslim	4
Visiting a Muslim	4
Rasulullaah (### Often Visited the Ansaar	4
The Sahabah 海海海 Visit each Other	5
Behaving Hospitably towards Visitors	5
Rasulullaah 經歷 Behaves Hospitably towards Hadhraf Abdullaah bin Umar 密域感	5
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉本德 Beha es Hospitably towards the Daughter of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Rabee 劉本德 45	5
Hadhrat Umar 链距距 and Hadhrat Salmaan 连旋距 Behave Hospitably towards each other	ő

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-2)	31
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Haarith ஊண் Shows Hospitality towards Hadhrat ibraheem bin Nasheet	456
Hospitality towards Guests
Hadhrat Abu Usayd Saa'idi இத்த Entertains Rasulullaah (இத்த	456
The Statement of Hadhrat Ibn Jaz Zubaydi ఆయ్యేత్ Concerning Hospitality towards Guests	457
Being Hospitable Towards a Prominent Person
Rasulullaah 震響 Throws his Shawl for Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah 些障害 to Sit on	457
Rasulullaah Makes Hadhrat Uyanah bin Hisn sit on a Duvet	458
Rasutuliaah 德婆 Gives a Cushion to Hadhrat Adi bin Haatim 选证绝多	458
Rasulullaah 编码 Honours Hadhrat Abu Raashid 图码	458
Winning over the Hearts of Certain Leaders
Rasululiaah 😂 Endearing the Leader of a Tribe	459
Honouring the Household Members of Rasulullaah 🕮 s Family
The Parting Advice of Rasulullaah (### Concerning the Members of his Household	459
Rasulullaah 袋錘 Honours his Uncle Hadhrat Abbaas 经延000000000000000000000000000000000000	460
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经减少 Vacates his Place for Hadhrat Abbaas 经减少	461
Rasulullaah 協能 Encourages People to have Love for Hadhrat Abbaas 选择的	461
The Incident between Hadhrat Umar ($1000) and Hadhrat Abbaas ($1000) and the Du'aa Rasulullaa	ih
學器 Made for Hadhrat Umar 医肠肠 because of his Honouring Hadhrat Abbaas 医肠肠	462
Hadhrat Abbaas 登峰區 Slaps a Man who Insulted his Father	463
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 密端感 and Hadhrat Umar 密端感 Honour Hadhrat Abbaas 密端 during their Terms as Khaiifah	463
Hadhrat Uthmaan 受疑疑 Lashes a man who Ridiculed Hadhrat Abbaas 经现金	463
Hadhrat Abu Bakr Honours Hadhrat Ali and Vacates his Place for him	464
A Group of the Aasaar Address Hadhrat Ali 🕮 as "O Moulana"	464
Rasulullaah 😂 Says, "For those to whom I am their Friend, then Ali should also be their Friend"	464
Rasulullaah @ Says, "Whoever Hurts Ali has Hurt me"
Hadhrat Sa'd 🕮 Seeks Protection from the Anger of Rasulullaah 🕮 when he Insulted Hadhra	at
Ali 5066	465
Hadhrat Umar (Singles) Reproaches Someone who Insulted Hadhrat All (Singles)	465
Hadhrat Sa'd (Signal Says, "I shall never Revile him even if a Saw is Placed on my Head"	465
Hadhrat Sa'd ఆయుత్త Forbids Hadhrat Mu'aawiya ఆయుత్త from Insulting Hadhrat Ali ఆయుత్త	466
Hadhrat Ummu Salamah 過過過過 Rebukes Someone who Reviled Hadhrat Ali 過過過過	467
The Statement of Hadhrat Ali Concerning his Lineage and Deen	467
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经间等 Honours Hadhrat Hasan 经间间	467
Hadhrat Umar 墨瑙瑙 honours Hadhrat Husayn 墨瑙瑙	468
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 色彩彩 Honours Hadhrat Hasan 色彩彩	468
Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah இண்கு Kisses Hadhrat Hasan இண்கு's Stomach	469
Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 劉德德 Uses the Words "My Guide" when Addressing Hadhrat Hasan 劉德德	⊛ 469
The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah ($300) and Marwaan Concerning Having Love for Hadhr	at
Hasan 生活等 and Hadhrat Husayn 生活等	469

Honouring Ulema, Elders and Men of Virtue470

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 劉榮齡 and Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit 劉榮德 Honour each other	470
Rasulullaah 海海 Honours Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah 海流海	471
Rasulullaah 🕮 Instructs that the Eldest Should be First to Speak	471
Rasulullaah 繼繼 Honours Hadhrat Waa'il bin Hujar 鐵罐廠	471
Rasulullaah 靉癜 Honours Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh 锰碱硷 on his Deathbed	472
Hadhrat Umar 經濟營 Honours a Sahabi Called Hadhrat Mu'ayqeet 經濟學	473
Hadhrat Umar 🖫 😅 Honours Hadhrat Amr bin Tufayl 🖫 👑	473
Hadhrat Umar ஊண்க் Writes to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari ஊண் about Giving Precedence to People of Virtue	474
Giving Leadership to Seniors	474
The Advice Hadhrat Qais bin Aasim gave to his Sons	474
Honouring People Despite Differences in Opinion and Deed	474
The Instruction Hadhrat Ali 经海险 gave the people During the Battle of Jamal	474
The Statement of Hadhrat All 😂ເຂື້ອ Concerning the People who Fought him in the Battle of Jamal	475
Hadhrat Ali 劉潔德多 Welcomes the Son of Hadhrat Talha 劉潔德多 and his Statements Concerning
Hadhrat Talha 劉英等 and Hadhrat Zubayr 劉章等	476
Hadhrat Ammaar 劉榮德 Rebukes those who Spoke 附 of Hadhrat Aa'isha @能能	477
Following The Elders Despite Believing Differently	477
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Instructs that Hadhrat Umar (Inst	477
Setting Annoyed for the Sake of One's Elders	478
Hadhrat Umar 空降感 is Annoyed by a Man who Insulted Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 空降感。	478
Hadhrat Umar (2006) Rebukes and Warns a Person who Regarded him to Be Superior to Hadhrat Abu
Bakr 🛎 🐷	478
Hadhrat Ali 空障障 Rebukes a Person who Regarded him to Be Superior to Hadhrat Abu Bakr 空間障局	479
The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Bakr , Hadhrat Mughierah and Another Man	480
Hadhrat Umar 劉德德 hits Two Men for their Insolence Towards Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 劉德德	481
Hadhrat Umar இந்தேத் Hits a Man for the Sake of Hadhrat Ummu Salamah இந்தேத்	481
Hadhrat All 经减减多 Expresses the Intention to Execute Ibn Saba for Regarding him to be Superior to Hadhrat Abu Bakr 遥延延ら and Hadhrat Umar ఆయ్యాల్లం	481 Hadhrat Ali ఆయం Rebukes a Man for Regarding him to be Superior to Hadhrat Abu Bakr ఆయం
and Hadhrat Umar 😂 😂	482
A Historic Lecture of Hadhrat Ali ఆయ్య Concerning the Superiority of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ఆయ్య
and Hadhrat Umar Signers	482
The Incident Between Hadhrat Ali ఆయుత్త and another Person Concerning Hadhrat Uthmaan ఆయుత్త	484
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ஊண்டு about Someone who Complained about Hadhrat
Uthmaan 😂 🕮	484
The Du'aa of Hadhrat Sa'd আലை is Accepted Against Someone who Reviled Hadhrat Ali আലை,
Hadhrat Talha 🕮 and Hadhrat Zubayr 👑 💮	484
Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid ఆயியுள் is Annoyed by a man who Swore Hadhrat All ఆயியுள்	485
Weeping Over the Deaths of Elders	486
Hadhrat Suhayb ఆడుతు Weeps upon the Death of Hadhrat Umar ఆడుతు and the Statement of

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-2)	33
Hadhrat Hafsah 🕮 🕮 on this Occasion	486
Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid இண்டு and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood இண்டு Weep at the Death of
Hadhrat Umar 營備總	487
Hadhrat Umar ఆయోత్త Weeps Over the Death of Hadhrat Nulmaan bin Muqarrin ఆయోత్త	487
Hadhrat Thumaamah இத்தை, Hadhrat Zaid இத்தை, Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah இத்தே and Hadhrat
Abu Humayd 经联通等 Weep at the Death of Hadhrat Uthmaan 经联通等	488
Finding a Change in Oneself at the Death of an Elder	488
The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri ఆడ్యాంక్, Hadhrat Ubay ఆడ్యాంక్ and Hadhrat Anas
细胞 about the Changes within themselves after the demise of Rasulullaah 機響	488
The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Talha 營廠廠 the Day Hadhrat Umar 營廠廠 Passed away	489
Honouring the Weak and Poor Muslims	489
Rasulullaah 🞏 Honours the Poor Muslims	489
Rasulullaah (ﷺ Honours Hadhrat Ibn Umm Maktoom (ﷺ After being Chided	490
Allaah Instructs Rasululiaah 🕮 to Remain in the Company of the Poor Muslims	491
The Incident Between (bn Mataatiyyah and Hadhrat Mu'aadh and the Lecture that Rasulullaah
Delivered in this Regard	493
Honouring Parents	494
What Rasulullaah 🕮 said to a Man who asked about Fulfilling his Debt of Gratitude to his Mother	494
The Advice Rasulullaah ﷺ Gave a Man Concerning his Father	494
The Advice Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Gave Abu Ghassaan Concerning his Father	494
Rasulullaah (1998) Commands a Person to Care for His Parents when he Came to Fight in Jihaad	494
Rasulullaah 😂 Stops Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 😂 From Participating in the Battle of Khaybar because of his Mother	495
Rasulullaah 🕮 Commands Some Sahabah 🕮 to Forsake Jihaad to Care for their Parents	498
The Incident Between Hadhrat Ali ఆయ్యత్త and his two Sons when Hadhrat Umar ఆయ్యత్త Proposed for his Daughter	497
Hadhrat Usaama (Excess) Feeds the Sap of a Date Palm to his Mother	49
Showing Mercy To Children and Treating them with Equality	498
Rasulullaah 機變 Descends the pulpit for Hadhrat Husayn 學過過	498
Hadhrat Hasan উট্টেভ্র and Hadhrat Husayn উট্টেভ্র Climb on Rasululiaah (ইঞ্র s Shoulders
During salaah and He Prolongs the Sajdah because of it	49
Rasulullaah 🕮 Performs Salaah with Hadhrat Urnaamah 😂 😂 on his shoulders	49
Rasulullaah 🗱 Carries Hadhrat Hasan 🕮 and Hadhrat Husayn 🕮 on his shoulders and his Statement about Them	499
Rasulullaah 🕬 Sucks the Tongue of Hadhrat Hasan 😇	49
The Incident between Rasulullaah இத்த and Hadhrat Agra ஊண்டு when Rasulullaah இத்த Kissed
Hadhrat Hasan 银笔笔	499
Rasulullaah 微端s Statement Concerning Children and his Visit to His Son Ibraheem 图像多	500
Rasulullaah @ Gives Glad Tidings to People who are Compassionate Towards their Children and who Strive to Treat them Equally 500

Honouring One's Neighbour 501

34 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (C) (V	'ol-2)
The Rights of Neighbours According to the Ahadeeth	501
The Incident of Hadhrat Muhammad bin Abdullaah bin Salaam (2) and his Troublesome Neighbour Rasulullaah ﷺ Forbids a Person from Accompanying him in Battle because he Had Caused Harm to his Neighbour	501
The Amplified Severity of Committing Adultery with one's Neighbour's Wife and of Stealing from him	502
The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Dharr Silver Stating that Allaah Loves Three Persons and Detests
Three Persons	502
Honouring a Righteous Travel Companion	503
Rasulullaah Advises Two Sahabah Advises to Honour Hadhrat Rabaah bin Rabee	503
Treating People According to their Status	503
The Action of Hadhrat Aa'isha @@@@in this Regard	., 503
Greeting a Muslim	504
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 😂 🕮	504
The Advice of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah (1986) in this Regard and the Behaviour of the Sahabah (1986)	505
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar William with Hadhrat Tufayl	505
The Practice of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah 🕮 💮	505
Replying to a Greeting	506
The Incident of Rasulullaah with Some of the Sahabah
The Incident of Hadhrat Aa'isha William with Rasulullaah Will and Hadhrat Jibra'eel Will	506
The Incident of Rasulullaah We with Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah See See See See See See See See See Se	507
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (1986) with Hadhrat Uthmaan (1986)	507
The Incident of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas المنظمة and Hadhrat Uthmaan	509
Conveying Salaams	509
The Incident of Hadhrat Salmaan with Hadhrat Ash'ath bin Qais wife and Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah 等場場。	509
Shaking Hands and Embracing	510
Narrations of Hadhrat Jundub 些蹊蕊, Hadhrat Abu Dharr 些蹊蕊 and Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah
ട്രാള്ള് Concerning the Practice of Rasulullaah ക്രൂള് With Regard to Shaking Hands	510
Narrations of Hadhrat Anas (See and Hadhrat Aa'isha (Election Concerning the Practice of Rasulullaah W With Regard to Embracing and his Prohibition from Bowing	511
The Practice of the Sahabah (With Regard to Shaking Hands and Embracing	5 1 1
Kissing the Hand, Foot and Head of a Muslim	512
Rasulullaah 🕮 Kisses Hadhrat Ja'far bin Abu Taalib 🕮 💮	512
The Sahabah 經過過 Kiss the Hands and Feet of Rasulullaah 優邊	512
Hadhrat Umar ఆడుయిత Kisses the Head of Hadhrat Abu Bakr ఆడుయిత and Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah
উটিউর্জ Kisses the Hand of Hadhrat Umar উটিউর্জ	513
Kissing the Hand of Hadhrat Waathilah bin Asqa (Sixua) to Attain Blessings of the pledge of allegiance	}
it took With Rasulullaah 🕮	.,, 513
Kissing the Hands of Hadhrat Salamah bin Akwa (1986), Hadhrat Anas (1986) and Hadhrat
Abbaas 🖽 💮	514
Standing Out of Respect for a Muslim	514

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-2)	35
Rasulullaah 🕬 Welcomes his Daughter Hadhrat Faatima 🙉 🚧 and She Welcomes him	514
The Sahabah வேண்டு Stand up for Rasulullaah இது	515
Rasulullaah ﷺ Prohibits the Sahabah ﷺ from Standing up for him	515
The Practice of the Sahabah in this regard	515
Shifting Oneself for Another Muslim	516
Rasulullaah ﷺ shifts for a Person who Entered the Masjid	516
Honouring the Person Sitting with One	516
Statements of the Sahabah (2006) in this Regard	516
Accepting the Hospitality of a Muslim	516
The Incident of Hadhrat Ali 戀隱變 with Two Men	516
Concealing the Secret of a Muslim	517
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 等導變 Conceals Rasulullaah 震變 s Secret Concerning Marrying Hadhrat
Hafsah 🕮 🌃 🍪 🍎	517
Hadhrat Anas 遥远遥遥 Conceals Rasulullaah 缓缓 s Secret	517
Honouring Orphans	517
The Advice Rasulullaah @ gave To Soften a hard Heart	517
The Incident of Hadhrat Basheer bin Agrabah (Silver) with Rasulullaah	518
Honouring The Friends of One's Father	518
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar William Honours a Bedouin whose Father was a Friend of Hadhrat
Umar $666	518
Treating Parents well after their Demise	519
Accepting the Invitation of a Muslim	519
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Ayyoob Ansaari 😂 😂 and Other Soldiers at Sea	519
Some Statements of the Sahabah (2) Some Statements	519
Removing an Obstacle from the Path of a Muslim
The Incident of Hadhrat Ma'qal Muzani (Salas) and Hadhrat Mu'aawiya bin Qurra	520
Responding to a Sneeze	520
The Guidance Rasulullaah @@ gave in this Regard.	520
Rasulullaah ﷺ Prohibits Replying to the Sneeze of Someone who does not say (اَلْحَنْدُلْكَ)
"('Alhamdu Lillaah')"	52
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 劉慶德 with his Son and Wife	52
The Practices of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1996) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1996)
in this Regard	522
Visiting the III and What to say to them	522
Rasulullaah Www Visits Hadhrat Zaid bin Argam William and Hadhrat Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi
Waqqaas 🖭 🚟	522
Rasulullaah 經歷 Visits Hadhrat Jaabir 經過的
Rasufullaah 😂 Visits Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah 😂 😘	523
Rasulullaah 😂 Visits a Bedouin
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 空影響 and Hadhrat Bilaal 空影響 Fall III Upon Arrival in Madinah
A Collection of Good Traits in Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq 🕾 💮

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 🛎 Visits Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali 🛎 🚟 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮 💮	. 525
Hadhrat Amr bin Hurayth 劉範國 Visits Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali 劉範國	. 526
What Hadhrat Salmaan ($1566) Said to a Sick Man in Kindah	. 526
What Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar ఆడుతు said to a Sick Person and what Hadhrat Abdullaah bin
Mas'ood (Singles) said to Someone who was with a Sick Person	. 527
What Rasulullaah We Would Say to a Sick Person and do For him	. 527
Requesting Permission to Enter	. 529
The Narration of Hadhrat Anas (3) About Rasulullaah (3) Greeting Thrice	. 529
The Incident of Rasulullaah (### with Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah (####################################	. 529
The Incident of a man Who Sought Permission to Enter without first Greeting	. 530
Hadhrat Umar 签题参考, Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 签题参多 and Hadhrat Ali 签题参多 Seek Permission to see Rasulullaah	. 530
Rasulullaah @ Forbids Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah @ from Seeking Permission to Enter while Standing Directly in Front of the Door	. 530
Rasulullaah 🕮 Rebukes a Man who Looked Inside his Room	. 531
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 经联验的 when Hadhrat Umar 选择的 did not Granted him Permission to Enter after Thrice Seeking Permission	. 531
Some Incidents of the Sahabah @@@@ Concerning Seeking Permission	. 532
Loving a Muslim for the Pleasure of Allaah	. 534
Rasululiaah ﷺ Asks About the Strongest Link of Islaam	. 534
Rasulullaah (變變 has Love for People of Tagwa and for Hadhrat Ammaar 密域緣 and Hadhrat
Abdullaah bin Mas'ood &	. 534
Hadhrat Ali 墨麗娜 and Hadhrat Abbaas 劉麗娜 Ask Rasulullaah 變麗 Which of His Family he Liked Most.	. 535
Rasulullaah 總濟 s Love for Hadhrat Aa'isha 建硫酸 and Hadhrat Abu Bakr 經濟學	. 536
Rasulullaah : Tells the Sahabah (Elisabet to Inform the Person they Liked Solely for the Pleasure of Allaals that they Liked him	. 536
Miscellaneous Incidents of the Sahabah @ Concerning their Love for Each Other	. 536
Severing Ties with a Muslim	. 537
The Incident of Hadhrat Aalisha Wallas and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr	. 537
Reconciling Between People	. 539
Rasufullaah 機能 Resolves The Dispute Between the people of Quba	539
Rasulullaah 🕮 settles a dispute when he went to Visit Abdullaah bin Ubay	539
Rasulullaah 🐯 Reconciles Between the Aws and the Khazraj Tribes	. 540
Making True Promises to Muslims	541
The Parting Words of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr (1996) About a Man to Whom he had Promised to Marry his Daughter	54
Abstaining from Harbouring III thoughts Against a Fellow Muslim	54
The Incident of Two Sahabah المحافظة ال	54
Praising a Muslim and the Type of Praise that is Detestable	542
The Incident Between Rasulullaah 🕮 and a Man from the Banu Layth Tribe
Hadhrat Usaamah bin Zaid 经减少 Praises Hadhrat Khallaad bin Saa'ib 经减少

What Rasulullaah Said to the Person who Overstated His Words of Praise	542
What Rasulullaah 變變 Said to a Man who Praised Another in his Face and Rasulullaah 變變 Guidance	e
in this Regard	543
The Incident of Hadhrat Mihjin Aslami 營運等	543
Praising a Muslim angers Hadhrat Umar 🛎 😂	544
The Incident of Hadhrat Umar 经间距多 and Hadhrat Jaarood 经间距多	544
Hadhrat Miqdaad 塑廠廠 Throws Sand in the Faces of People who Praised him	545
The Statement and Practice of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 🛎 in this Regard	545
Fostering and Severing Family Ties	546
The Incident of Rasulullaah 🕮 and Abu Taalib	546
The Incident of Rasulullaah 🕮 with Hadhrat Juwayriyyah 🎉 🕉 and Hadhrat Faatimah 😂 🖽 .	546 Rasulullaah (2006)'s Advice to the Person who Complained About the III Treatment he received from his Relatives	546
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 🖽 with a Man who Severed Family Ties	547
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 逕蜒蜒蜒 Requests people who severe Family ties to leave when he Intended Making Du'aa	547
Chapter Ten:	E40
VIIUPIUI I VIII	548
•
The Chapter Concerning the Character of the Sahabah and their Noble Traits	.548
The Chapter Concerning the Character of the Sahabah and their Noble Traits The Noble Character of Rasululiaah	548 548
The Chapter Concerning the Character of the Sahabah (Character of Rasulullaah (Character of Character of Rasulullaah (Character of Character of Char	548 548 548
The Chapter Concerning the Character of the Sahabah (Character of Rasulullaah (Character of Rasu	548 548 548
The Chapter Concerning the Character of the Sahabah (2006) and their Noble Traits The Noble Character of Rasulullaah (2006). The Statements of Hadhrat Aarisha (2006). The statement of Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit (2006) in this Regard A Narration of Hadhrat Safiyya (2006).	548 548 548 549
The Chapter Concerning the Character of the Sahabah 過過過 and their Noble Traits	548 548 548 549
The Chapter Concerning the Character of the Sahabah 過過過 and their Noble Traits	548 548 548 549 550
The Chapter Concerning the Character of the Sahabah and their Noble Traits The Noble Character of Rasulullaah Arisha Concerning the Character of Rasulullaah Concerning the Character of Rasulullaah	548 548 549 549 550
The Chapter Concerning the Character of the Sahabah and their Noble Traits The Noble Character of Rasulullaah Concerning the Character of Rasulullaah Concerning	548 548 549 550 550
The Chapter Concerning the Character of the Sahabah And and their Noble Traits The Noble Character of Rasulullaah And Sahabah Concerning the Character of Rasulullaah Concerning the Character of Rasulu	548 548 549 550 550
The Chapter Concerning the Character of the Sahabah and their Noble Traits The Noble Character of Rasulullaah Concerning the Character of Rasulullaah And their Noble Traits	548 548 549 550 550 551 552
The Chapter Concerning the Character of the Sahabah and their Noble Traits The Noble Character of Rasulullaah Concerning the Character of Rasulullaah Concerning Rasulullaah Con	548 548 549 550 550 551 552
The Chapter Concerning the Character of the Sahabah and their Noble Traits The Noble Character of Rasulullaah Concerning the Character of Rasulullaah And their Noble Traits	548 548 549 550 550 552 552 553

Rasulullaah W Testifies to the Excellent Character of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah W 554

The Excellent Character of Hadhrat Umar (Section 1995) The Excellent Character of Hadhrat Mus'ab ఆడిత్తు and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood ఆడిత్తు 556 The Noble Character of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 医疏滤 and Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal 医疏溶 ... 557

Rasulullaah : Comments about the Character of Hadhrat Ja'far (Hadhrat Zaid Rasulullaah (25%'s Tolerance with the Person who Criticised the Manner in which he Distributed the

Booty of the Battle of Hunayn	557
Rasulullaah 🕮 is Tolerant towards Dhu Khuwaysarah	558
Rasulullaah 變變 is Tolerant with Hadhrat Umar 經過過 at the Death of Abdullaah bin Ubay	558
Rasumalleah 優麗 Shows Tolerance Towards the Jew who Cast a Spell over him	560
Rasulullaah @ Shows Tolerance Towards the Jewish Woman who Served him Poisoned Meat	561
Rasulullaah 疑疑 Expressed Tolerance towards a Man who Wished to Assassinate him	562
Rasulullaah 🕮 Behaves Tolerantly Towards a Party of the Quraysh who Planned an Ambush	562
Rasulullaah ('s Tolerance with the Daus Tribe	563
The Tolerance of the Sahabah	563
Compassion and Mercy	564
The Compassion of Rasulullaah	564
Rasulullaah (2005) shortens the Salaah because of a Childs Cries and another Incident of his Compassionate Nature	564
The Incident of Rasulullaah A and a Bedouin who Addressed him Very Harshly	564
The Compassion of the Sahabah	565
Modesty	565
The Modesty of Rasulullaah	565
The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri (2006) Concerning the Modesty of Rasululiaan (2006)	565
Rasululiaah Dislikes Telling People what would Displease them	566
The Statement of Hadhrat Aa'isha @@@@ Concerning His Modesty with his Wives	566
Rasululaah (SE's Statement about the Modesty of Hadhrat Uthmaan (SE's)	566
A Narration of Hadhrat Hasan Concerning the Modesty of Hadhrat Uthmaan (1996) and Hadhrat Abu
Bakr 曼斯德	567
The Modesty of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon (Silvers)	567
The Modesty of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'an 🕾 💮	568
The Modesty of Hadhrat Ashaj Abdul Qais 经路场	568
Humility	568
The Humility of Rasulullaah	568
The Incident of Rasulullash with Hadhrat Jibra'eel with and Another Angel
A Narration of Hadhrat Abu Umaamah Baahili 🛎 🐷	569
A Narration of Hadhrat Anas (E) (Constitution of Hadhrat Anas (E) (Constit	569
The Narrations of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (1986), Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1986) and Hadhrat Anas 劉節節 in this Regard	569
A Narration of Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab	570
The Incident of Rasulullaah Well with a Women	570
The Incident of Rasululiaah with a Man who was Shivering before him	570
Rasulullaah Dislikes being treated Differently from his Companions	571
Narrations of Hadhrat Aa'isha Wasses Concerning what Rasulullaah Wass did at Home Narrations of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (1986) and Hadhrat Jaabir (1986) concerning the Humility of 只asulullaah 機變	572
•

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (C) (Vol-2)
The Humility of Rasulullaah ﷺ when he Victoriously Entered Makkah	57:
Rasulullaah 🕮 Stops Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 🕬 from Carrying his goods and from Kissing his hands when Selling	57:
The humility of the Sahabah 經濟學學	57
Hadhrat Umar 🕮 ides a carnel on his journey to Shaam	57
Hadhrat Umar (4) Teaches Women to make Flour	57
Hadhrat Umar ஊண்டு Goes Barefoot to the Masjid and Ridicules Himself in his Sermon	57
Hadhrat Umar 🕮 Rides Behind a Young Boy on a Donkey	57
Hadhrat Umar (Walks with a Boy to Protect him from other boys	57
Hadhrat Umar පිවීමෙන් and Hadhrat Uthmaan පිරීමෙන් allow People to Ride with them on their Animal	s 57
The Humility of Hadhrat Uthmaan (1986)	57
The Humility of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经延延%	57
Episodes of the Humility of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali 🚟 🚟	57
The Humility of Hadhrat Faatima @#### and Hadhrat Ummu Salamah ###################################	57
Episodes of the Humility of Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi	57
The Humility of Hadhrat Hudhayfah bin Yamaan 🕮 🍪 🏐
The Humility of Hadhrat Jareer bin Abdullaah ﷺ
Hadhrat Ali 经延迟 says, "Three Factors form the Core of Humility"
Humour and Jest	58
The Humour of Rasulullaah	58
The Humour of Rasulullaah
Rasulullaah 🕮 s Jokes with his Wife 🖼 🍇	58
Rasulullaah ﷺ Jokes with Abu Umayr Rasulullaah (Jokes with Someone
Rasulullaah ﷺ Jokes with Hadhrat Anas
Rasulullaah 過過 Jokes with Hadhrat Zaahir 過過過
Rasulullaah Jokes with Hadhrat Aa'isha and his Other Wives
Rasululiaah Jokes with an Old Woman
The Humour of the Sahabah
Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik Ashja'ee 空间 Jokes with Rasulullaah 提響
Hadhrat Aa'isha Aa'isha Aaba Sufyaan Saasa Joke with Rasulullaah
The Sahabah (Sahabah Malons at each other and the Statement of Hadhrat Ibn Seereen about their Humour	53
Hadhrat Nu'aymaan 登场场 Plays a Trick on Hadhrat Suwaybit 登场场
Hadhrat Nu'aymaan 空間間 plays a trick on a Bedouin
Hadhrat Nu'aymaan இத்தே Plays a Trick on Hadhrat Makhramah bin Naufal இத்தே
The Generosity of Rasulullaah
Statements of the Sahabah (2006) Concerning the Generosity of Rasulullaah (2006)
Rasulullaah Sees Generosity towards Hadhrat Rubayyi bint Mu'awwidh and to Hadhrat Ummu	00
Sumbula 	E
The Generosity of the Sahabah (2006)

Preferring others Above Oneself	589
Patience and Perseverance	589
Exercising Patience in Illness.	589
The Sahabah (2006) Exercise Patience with liness	590
The People of Quba and the Ansaar Patiently Bear Fever	590
One of the Sahabah @@@ Patiently Bears with his Fever	591
The Patience of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 😘 and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 🖎	591
The Patience Hadhrat Mu'aadh 🕮 and his Family Exercised During the Plague	592
Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah % and Other Muslims Persevere Through the Plague	593
The Statement of Hadhrat Mu'aadh (S) Concerning the Plague of Amwaas	594
Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah 氢硫铋矿s Joy at the Plague	594
Patiently Bearing Loss of Sight	595
The Sahabah 😂 😘 of Rasulullaah 🗯 Patiently Bear the Loss of Sight	595
Hadhrat Zaid bin Argam ﷺ Exercises Patience when he Loses his Sight	595
A Sahabi 🕾 Exercises Patience upon the Loss of his Eyesight	595
Exercising Patience Upon the Demise of Children, Family and Friends	596
Rasulullaah (1998)'s Patience Upon the Demise of his Son Ibraheem	596
Rasulullaah 😂 s Patience upon the Death of his Grandson	596
Rasulullaah 🕮 's Patience Upon the Martyrdom of his Uncle Hadhrat Hamzah 🕮	597
Rasulullaah 陰跨's Grief upon the Demise of Hadhrat Zaid bin Haaritha と呼ばら	598
Rasulullaah (###)'s Grief upon the Demise of Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon	598
The Sahabah Exercise Patience on the Occasions of Death	599
Hadhrat Umme Haaritha 🕮 Exercises Patience upon the Demise of her Son	599
Hadhrat Ummu Khallaad 障礙藥 Exercises Patience upon the Demise of her Son	599
Hadhrat Abu Talha ஊண் and Hadhrat புmmu Sulaym ஊண்க் Exercise Patience upon the Demise of their Son	600
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 密範診 Exercises Patience upon the Demise of his son Abdullaah 密範診	602
The Patience of Hadhrat Uthmaan 🖫 and Hadhrat Abu Dharr	602
The patience of Hadhrat Umar (SURGES) upon the Demise of his Brother Hadhrat Zaid (SURGES)	603
The Patience of Hadhrat Safiyyah இக்கு upon the Death of her Brother Hadhrat Hamzah இக்கை	603
The Patience of Hadhrat Ummu Salamah இஇத்த upon the Demise of her Husband	605
The Patience Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr William Exercised Upon the Death of his Wife	605
The Patience of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 🕮 upon the death of his Brother Hadhrat
Utba 登錄過多	606
The Patience of Hadhrat Abu Ahmad bin Jahash 🛎 upon the death of his Sister Hadhrat
Zaynab bint Jahash 🖼 🍩	606
The Patience of the Muslims upon the death of Hadhrat Umar (1996)	607
Hadhrat Abu Bakr ఆయ్ and Hadhrat Ali ఆయ్ Advise People to Exercise Patience upon the Deaths of Close Relatives
Exercising Patience upon Misfortunes in General
An Ansaari Woman Perseveres with her Epilepsy	607

e incident of a Man with a Woman who had been a Prostitute during the Period of Ignorance ie statement of Hadhrat Umar 多達多 that everything which Affects a Mu'min is a Calamity if he does not Like it	609
does not Like it	609
adhrat Umar ఆయ్యం Commands Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah இண்ண to Persevere Against the Enemy and The Perseverance of Hadhrat Uthmaan ఆయ్యం until he was Martyred atitude	609 and The Perseverance of Hadhrat Uthmaan উইজ্জৈ until he was Martyredatitude atitude
	610
- Continue of Continue (SOUT
asulullaah 🕮 Prolongs his Sajdah in Gratitude to Allaah	610
ne Gratitude Rasulullaah 協選 showed when he saw a man Suffering from a Terminal Disease	611
asulullaah 🕮 Thanks Allaah for Returning his Family Members Safely from an Expedition	611
ne Gratitude of the Sahabah (1996)	611
ne Gratitude of a man To Whom Rasulullaah 🎏 gave a Single Date	611
ne Gratitude Hadhrat Umar 笠岡崎 Showed to Allaah for Elevating his Status and his Words Concerning Patience and gratitude	612
ne Statement of Hadhrat Umar ఆண்ண Concerning a Leper and Another Man	612 hat Hadhrat Umar ﷺ said to a man Who Greeted him, His Letter to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (and his Statement Concerning People who are Grateful	613
adhrat Uthmaan shows Gratitude for not Encountering some people who Were Involved in Evil	613
ne Statement of Hadhrat Ali ఆడుత్త Concerning Bounties and Gratitude	613
ne Statements of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ஊண்கு, Hadhrat Aa'isha ஊண்ணு and Hadhrat Asmaa
Concerning Gratitude	614
ervour for Earning Rewards	615
ne Fervour of Rasulullaah 😂	615
he Fervour of the Sahabah (2006) to earn Rewards	615
ne Sahabah ஊக்கு Exert themselves to Stand in Salaah to earn rewards	615
he Incident of Hadhrat Rabaa'ah bin Ka'b 🕸 🕬 with Rasulullaah 🍪	616
adhrat Abdul Jabbaar bin Haarith 锰碳酸多 Seeks rewards for his Companionship with Rasulullaah 霞鹟	碧617
he Statement of Rasulullaah 經歷 Concerning Hadhrat Amr bin Taghlib 經過過 and Hadhrat
Amr Single's Response	617
he Incident of Hadhrat All 送路路 and Hadhrat Umar 路路路 with a Man who Performed Tawaaf with his Mother	617
adhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 💥 🚟 Looks forward to the Rewards for his Stolen Came! and for Free
Its Shepherd and Marries to Earn rewards	618
he Words of Hadhrat Ammaar ($1000) on the Way to the Battle of Siffeen he Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr 劉隆德 Concerning his Actions after the Demise of Rasylullaah	619
xertion in Worship
he Exertion of Our Guide Rasulullaah 😂 🖟
he Exertion of the Sahabah he exertion of Hadhrat Uthmaan இய்வத் and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Zubayr இய்வு ravery

The Bravery of Our Guide Rasulullaah 🕮	. 620
Statements of Hadhrat Anas 密域圖 and Hadhrat Ali 密域圖 Conceming the Bravery of Rasulullaah 編譯	. 620
Rasulullaah ﷺ S Bravery During the Battle of Hunayn and the Statement of Hadhrat Baraa ஊண்டு in	l
this Regard	. 621
Piety and Scrupulousness	622
The Piety and Scrupulousness of Our Guide Rasulullaah	622
The Piety and Scrupulousness of the Sahabah @@@@	. 622
The Piety and Scrupulousness of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1986)	. 622
The Piety and Scrupulousness of Hadhrat Umar আരെ and Hadhrat Ali இண்டு	. 623
The Piety and Scrupulousness of Hadhrat Mu'aadh ఆయ్య్ and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ఆయ్య్	. 624
Tawakkul (Trust in Allaah)	. 624
The Tawakkul of Our Guide Muhammad Rasulullaah 🕮	. 624
The Incident of a Bedouin who Wanted to Kill Rasulullaah 👺 as he Slept Beneath a Tree	. 624
The Tawakkul of the Sahabah (2006)	. 625
The Tawakkul of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Ali	. 625
The Tawakkul of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood	. 626
Being Content with Allaah's Decision.	. 627
The Statements of Hadhrat Umar 医斑疹, Hadhrat Abu Dharr 医环壳, Hadhrat All 医蝶呤 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经跨域的 in this Regard	. 627
Taqwa	. 627
Hadhrat Ali Addresses the People in a Graveyard and His Statement Concerning Taqwa	. 627
The Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood இயின், Hadhrat Abu Dardaa இயின் and Hadhrat
Ubay bin Ka'b 🖰 Concerning Taqwa	. 628
Fear for Allaah	. 628
The fear of Our Guide Muhammad Rasulullaah 機器	. 628
The Fear of the Sahabah 後期後	. 629
An Incident of a Young Ansaari (2006)	. 629
The Statements of Hadhrat Umar 經經過多 and Hadhrat Abu Bakr 經過過 Concerning Fear and Hope	. 630
The Statements that Hadhrat Uthmaan ఆయ్యం, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah ఆయ్యం and Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn (1996) Made about Fear	630
The Fear of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood 经通過多	631
The Fear of Hadhrat Abu Dharr 链距弧线, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 链旋弧线 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin
Umar @ises	631
The Fear of Hadhrat Mu'aadh 瓷碟等 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 瓷碟等	632
The Fear of Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws Ansaari	632
The Fear of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha @@@@	632
Weeping	633
The Weeping of Our Guide Muhammad Rasulullaah	633
The Weeping of the Sahabah 營廠廠	633
The Men of Suffa Weep when a Verse is Revealed	633
An Abyssinian Weeps In front of Rasulullaah 🕮 when he Recited a verse of the Qur'aan	634

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (Vol-2)	4
The Weeping of Hadhrat Abu Bakr అణంత and Hadhrat Umar అణంత	63
The Weeping of Hadhrat Uthmaan 🖽 🕮	63
The Weeping of Hadhrat Mu'aadh 🕮 🚟
The Weeping of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (####################################	63
The Weeping of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 🕮 and Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit
The Weeping of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr (1986) and Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (1986)	63
Contemplation and Meditation	65
The Contemplation and Meditation of the Sahabah
The Deep Meditation of Hadhrat Abu Rayhaanah (2006)	6
The Meditation of Hadhrat Abu Dharr
The Meditation of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 😂 😂	6
Taking Stock of Oneself	6
The Statements of Hadhrat Abu Bakr இக்கு and Hadhrat Umar இக்கு in this Regard Remaining silent and Guarding the Tongue
The Silence of our Guide Rasulullaah	6
The Silence of the Sahabah	6
Rasulullaah 🕮 says about a Martyr, "He may have mentioned something that was futile"	6
The silence of Hadhrat Ammaar ఆయ్యాక్, Hadhrat Mu'aadh ఆయ్యా and the statement of Hadhrat
Bakr 经间隔额	6
Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood පිමුමිනි and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas පීමෙනි rebuke their Tong	ues 6
The Silence of Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws (Silence of Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws)	,
Rasulullaah 提響	6
The statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (About the Dangers of the tongue	6
Hadhrat Ali 문화장 and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 문화장 encourage Silence	6
The Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar இன்னே and Hadhrat Anas இன்னே about Guard the Tonque	6
Speech	6
The Speech of Rasulullaah	6
The Sahabah @ Describe the Speech of Rasulullaah @ Describe the Speech of Rasulullaah	6
Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (Regrets the Many Questions he Posed to Rasulullaah (Regrets Linn)	6
Smiling and Laughing
The Smilling and Laughing of Rasulullaah
The Smiling of Rasulullaah
•
Hadhrat Amrah questions Hadhrat Aa'isha 😂 😂 about Rasulullaah 😂 's Domestic Life
Hadhrat Amrah questions Hadhrat Aa'isha 😂 🥪 about Rasulullaah 😂 s Domestic Life Rasulullaah 😂 Laughing
Rasulullaah 🕮 s Laughing	6
Rasulullaah இத்த Laughing
Rasulullaah 過過了 Laughing	6
Rasulullaah 過避 Laughing	6

44 THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH	Vol-2)
Suppressing One's Anger	649
Possessiveness	649
The Possessiveness of Hadhrat Ubay bin ka'b 经通过多	649
The possessiveness of Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah المحتودة ا	649
The Possessiveness of Hadhrat Aa'isha 🕮 👑	650
Hadhrat Ali 链球硬形 Rebukes People Bereft of any Possessiveness	651
Enjoining what is Good and Forbidding what is Evil	651
Rasulullaah Rasulu
is Good andForbidding what is Evil	651
Rasulullaah WWW Warns those who do not Enjoin what is good and do not forbid what is evil	652
The Rank on the Day of Qiyaamah of those who enjoin what is good and forbid what is evil	652
When will this Ummah Forsake enjoining what is good and forbidding what is evil?	653
Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经减减多 Explains the verse; "Take Care of your Own Selves"	653
Hadhrat Umar இண்ணு and Hadhrat Uthmaan இண்ணு Instruct People to enjoin what is good and forbi	d
what is evil	654
Hadhrat Ali 🕮 Encourages people to Enjoin Good and Warns them against Giving up Forbidding Evil	654
The Statements of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Sales) concerning enjoining what is good and forbidding what is evil	655
The Statements of Hadhrat Hudhayfah 继続變 concerning enjoining what is good and forbidding what is evi	I . 656
The Statements of Hadhrat Adi 经路路 and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 图路路	657
Hadhrat Umar (Signess) Forbids his Family from Something he Forbade the People from Doing and his Comment about Hishaam bin Hakeem (1986)	657
The Advice Hadhrat Umayr bin Habeeb (Space and Space and	657
Hadhrat Abu Bakrah (1986) Fears Living in a Time when there is no enjoining good and forbidding evil.	658
Hadhrat Anas 密端鏡 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 鉴颜鏡 shun Preventing Hajjaaj from Evil Ou	ıt
of Fear for being Harmed	658
Keeping to Oneself	659
The Statement of Hadhrat Umar (Supplementary Concerning Keeping to Oneself	659
The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (About keeping to oneself and his Advice to his Son and to another Person	659
Hadhrat Hudhayfah 劉隆德多, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 劉德德多, Hadhrat Abu Jahm 劉隆德多 and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (all Encourage Keeping to Oneself	660
The Solitude of Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal 🚟 🌼	660
Contentment	661
Hadhrat Umar ($1000) Encourages Contentment	661
The Contentment of Hadhrat Ali 磁磁磁 and the Advice that he and Hadhrat Sa'd 磁磁磁 gave in this Regard	661
The Marriages of Rasulullaah Asses and the Sahabah	662
Rasulullaah 🕮 's Marriage to Hadhrat Khadeeja 🕮 💮
Rasululiaah இத்த Marnage to Hadhrat Aa'sha இன்று and Hadhrat Sauda இன்று
Rasulullaah ﷺ s Marriage to Hadhrat Hafsah المعتبية the daughter of Hadhrat Umar	666

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH (CVol-2)	45
Rasulullaah இது s Marnage to Hadhrat Ummu Salamah bint Abu Umayyah இய்கு	, 666
Rasulullaah 's Marriage to Hadhrat Ummu Habeebah ஊண்டு the Daughter of Hadhrat Abu
Sufyaan 📆 💢 💮	667
Rasulullaah 🕮 s Marriage to Hadhrat Zaynab bint Jahash 🕬 👑	669
Rasululiaah 🕮 s Marriage to Hadhrat Safiyya bint Huyay bin Akhtab 😂 👑	673
Rasulullaah 🕮 s Marriage to Hadhrat Juwayriyya Bint Haarith Khuzaa'ee 🗱	675
Rasulullaah 🕬 s Marriage to Hadhrat Maymoonah bint Haarith Hilaaliyyah 🛍 🎉	676
Rasulullaah 🕮 Marries his Daughter Hadhrat Faatima 🖼 to Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib 🖘	676 وَهُوْ
The Marriage of Hadhrat Rabee'ah Aslami (1996)	680
The Marriage of Hadhrat Julaybeeb (1986)	681
The Marriage of Hadhrat Salmaan Faarsi	681
The Marriage of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa 🐯 👑	684
Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ఆయిత్త gets his Daughter Dardaa Married to One of the Poor and Simple Mus	ilms 684
Hadhrat Ali Sings Married his Daughter Ummu Kulthoom to Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab
Hadhrat Adl bin Haatim (1996) Marries his Daughter to Hadhrat Amr bin Hurayth	686
The Marriages of Hadhrat Bilaal & and his Brother Condemning Those whose Marriages Resemble The Kuffaar Dowry
The Dowry of Rasulullaah
Hadhrat Umar (Signature) Forbids Exorbitant Dowries and a Woman's Objection to this
The Practices of Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar প্রত্তের and Hadhrat Hasan bin Ali প্রত্তের in the Matter of Dowry
Relationships between Men, Women and Children
The Relationship between Hadhrat Aa'isha @@@@@ and Hadhrat Sauda @@@@@
The Relationship Between Hadhrat Aa'isha @@@@ and Hadhrat Hafsah @@@@ with Hadhrat
Sauda Yamaaniyyah 😜 💮	589
Rasulullaah 经验的 Relationship with Hadhrat Aa'isha 电影场
The Relationship between Rasulullaah and his Wives and Between the Wives themselves
The Incident of Rasulullaah when he Intended Divorcing his Wives
Rasulullaah Ses Relationship with Hadhrat Aa'isha Resulullaah
Rasulullaah 😂 s Kind Treatment of an Old Woman
Resulullaah Relationship with an Abyssinian Slave and With Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood Rasuiuliaah 😂 s Relationship with Hadhrat Anas 🖽 😘
The Services that the Ansaar Youth and the Sahabah Rasulullaah (###'s Relationship with his Son Ibraheem and other Children of his Family
The Incident of Rasulullash (with Hadhrat Hasan they Got Lost
Mutual Relationships between the Sahabah
Rasulullaah (25%) Tells Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Madh'oon (25%) to Treat his Wife Better Rasulullaah (Tells Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas (Tells this Wife Better
The Incident Between Hadhrat Salmaan ఆయ్య and Hadhrat Abu Dardaa ఆయ్య in this Regard	z 704

ladhrat Zubayr bin Awwaam இத்தே possessiveness over his Wife Hadhrat Asmaa இத்தே	705
The Incident of a Woman who Complained to Hadhrat Umar about her Husband	706
The Incident of Another Woman and her Husband with Hadhrat Umar 🕮 🍩	707
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Gharzah 经减少 and Hadhrat Umar 经减少	708
The Incident of Hadhrat Aatika இண்ணு the Daughter of Hadhrat Zaid bin Amr இண்ணு	708
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas అయితి with his Wife and what His Aunt Hadhrat
Maymoonah வேற்ற Said to Him	709
The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas and a Cousin of his with a Slave Woman	710
The Incident of A Slave Woman with the Wife of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 營廠總	710
Some Incidents About the Mutual Relations Between the Sahabah 經濟學	710
The Practices of Rasululiaah 🕮 and the Sahabah 🕮 with Food and Drink	712
The Practices of Rasulullaah 🕮	712
Rasulullaah 🕮 Teaches the Sahabah 🕮 See The Etiquettes of Eating and to Recite Bismillaah at the Beginning	714
Rasulullaah 🕮 is Entertained by the Sahabah 🕮 👑	715
The Practices of Hadhrat Ali (1996) and Hadhrat Umar (1996) with Food and Drink	715
The Practices of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (2006) and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (2006) with Food and Drink	716
The Practices of Hadhrat Salmaan 劉德德多, Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah 劉德德多 and Hadhrat Ali 劉德德多 with Food and Drink	717
The Practices of Nabi and the Sahabah with Regard to Clothing	717
The Practices of Rasulullaah 😂	717
The Sahabah @ Describe the Attire of Rasulullaah @	718
Rasulullaah ﷺ s Bedding	718
What Rasulullaah 經歷 Recited when Wearing New Clothing	719
Rasulullaah (ﷺ Praises the Trousers	719
The ident of Rasulullaah 認識 with Hadhrat Dihya 戀障局 and Hadhrat Usaamah 戀障局局	720
The Incident of Hadhrat Aa'isha 🕮 🍪 and her Father when she Wore Clothing that Appealed to her	720
The Practices of Hadhrat Umar (1996) and Hadhrat Anas (1996) With Regard to Clothing	720
The Practices of Hadhrat Uthmaan William With Regard to Clothing	721
The Practices of Hadhrat Aff 经减减多 With Regard to Clothing	722
The Practices of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf 鉴疑過過, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 鉴疑過過 and Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ఆయ్యత్ With Regard to Clothing	723
The Practices of Hadhrat Aa'isha @@@@@ and Hadhrat Asmaa @@@@@ With Regard to Clothing	724
The Practice of Hadhrat Umar with Clothing	724
The Homes of Rasululiaah 🕮 s Wives	725

Chapter Seven

The Chapter Concerning the Importance that the Sahabah Attached to Unity

This chapter highlights how the Sahabah attached great importance to unity in word and in deed and how they abstained from dissension and dispute in matters that had ramifications on Da'wah to Allaah and His Rasool and matters of lihaad

Statements of the Sahabah (Concerning the Evil of Dissension

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Concerning Dissension

Ibn Is'haaq reports the historic sermon that Hadhrat Abu Bakr delivered in the orchard of the Banu Saa'idah. Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "It is not permissible for the Muslim to have two leaders. As soon as this happens, dissension springs up in all their affairs and all the commands issued. Their unity is then fragmented and they start to fight amongst themselves. At this point, the Sunnah is forsaken, Bid'ah rears is ugly head and anarchy intensifies. No one can then set matters right." (1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar Concerning Dissension

In the narration discussing the scenario before the pledge of allegiance was taken at the hand of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Who do we not appoint) A leader from amongst us (Ansaar) and another from amongst you (Muhaajireen)." Hadhrat Umar (Passon) responded to this by saying, "Two swords in one sheath!? They will never fit." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.145).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.145).

The Sermon of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood in which he Warned about the Dangers of Dissension

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood woo once said, "O people! You should hold fast to obedience to your leader and preserving your unity because unity is the rope of Allaah that Allaah has commanded you to hold fast to. What you dislike in staying united is much better than what you like in being divided. In everything that Allaah has created. He has also predetermined its end. Islaam is thriving right now and the time will soon come when it will also draw near to its end. It will then flourish and weaken until the Day of Oiyaamah. The sign of this is extreme poverty. Poverty will be so great that a poor man will not find anyone to give him anything and even a rich man will not regard what he has to be sufficient for him. In fact, a person will place his need before his blood brother and cousin, but none will give him anything. The situation will be so bad that a beggar will beg from Friday to Friday without anyone putting anything in his hand. When matters reach this ebb, a splitting sound will emerge from the earth. which will lead the people of every area to think that it is coming from the ground beneath them. There will then be silence for as long as Allaah wills, after which the earth will stir and start to vomit out all her prized possessions." When someone asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood what the prized possessions of the earth are, he replied, "Pillars of gold and silver. From that day onwards, none shall benefit form gold and silver until the Day of Qiyaamah." (1) Another narration states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (1996) said, "Family ties will be severed to the extent that the rich will only fear poverty and the poor will have none to show compassion towards him. In fact, even if a person has to place his need before his own brother or cousin, none would show a bit of sympathy to give him a thing." (2)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Dharr Concerning Dissension

A man related that they once took some things for Hadhrat Abu Dharr Williams. However, when they reached Rabdha (the place where he lived) and asked for him, he was not available. Someone told them that Hadhrat Abu Dharr Williams had requested (the Ameerul Mu'mineen) to perform Hajj and had received permission. The men then left for Mina (where they found him). They were once sitting in his company when someone informed him that (the Ameerul Mu'mineen) Hadhrat Uthmaan Williams had performed four Rakaahs salaah (in Mina) (3). This upset Hadhrat Abu Dharr Williams greatly and he had strong words to say. He also said, "When I performed salaah behind Rasulullaah (ii)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.328) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.9 Pg.249).

⁽³⁾ Hadhrat Uthmaan (3) Was had married in Makkah and had intended to stay a few Jays in Makkah, because of which he was not a Musaafir

Mina), he performed only two Rakaahs salaah. I then performed salaah behind Abu Bakr said and Umar said (both of whom also performed two Rakaahs)." (Despite saying this) Hadhrat Abu Dharr when stood up (when the salaah was performed) and performed four Rakaahs salaah (behind Hadhrat Uthmaan المناقبة). Someone said to him, "You have just criticised the Ameerul Mu'mineen but you now do the same thing he did?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr (replied, "Causing dissension (by opposing the Ameerul Mu'mineen) is even worse. I have heard Rasulullaah see say. There shall be kings after me. Never disgrace them because whoever ventures to do so will have taken off the rope of Islaam from his neck and cast it away. The repentance of such a person will never be accepted until he fills the void he has created (by repairing the damage he has done to the Deen), which he will be unable to do and he then returns to the ranks of those who honour the king. Rasulullaah and has commanded us not to allow the kings to overpower us with regards to three factors (although we should honour them, this should not prevent us from three things): (1) that we enjoin people to do good, (2) that we prevent them from evil and (3) that we teach them the Sunnah."(1)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood

Hadhrat Qataadah narrates that Rasulullaah (Fardh) salaah in Makkah and in Mina. Hadhrat Uthmaan (Fardh) salaah in Makkah and in Mina. Hadhrat Uthmaan (Fardh) salaah in Makkah and in Mina. Hadhrat Uthmaan (Fardh) salaah in Makkah and in Mina. Hadhrat Uthmaan (Fardh) salaah in Makkah in Mina. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Fardh) he recited "Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon" but (when the salaah was performed), he then stood up and performed four Rakaahs salaah (behind Hadhrat Uthmaan (Fardh) Someone sala to him, "You have just recited 'Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon' but you have performed four Rakaahs salaah?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood (Fardh) sepiled, "Causing dissension (by opposing the Ameerul Mu'mineen) is even worse."

The Statement of Hadhrat Ali (Concerning Dissension, Bid'ah, Unity and Disunity

Hadhrat Ali some once said (to the people), "Continue doing as you have been doing (during the terms of the previous Khalifahs) because I hate disunity. Either people remain an undivided nation or I die (without seeing any disunity) as my companions (Hadhrat Abu Bakr some), Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Uthmaan some) had passed away." For this reason Hadhrat Ibn Seereen was of the opinion that most of the narrations that some people of extreme viewpoints narrated from Hadhrat Ali some were false (they fabricated narrations to cause more disunity), (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.216) has commented on the chain of narrators

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.242).

Hadhrat Saleem bin Qais Aamiri narrates that Ibnul Kawwaa once asked Hadhrat Ali was about the Sunnah, Bid'ah, unity and disunity. Hadhrat Ali was replied, "O Ibnul Kawwaa! Just as you have memorised the question, so too should you remember the reply. By Allaah, the Sunnaah is the way of Rasulullaah while Bid'ah is everything that contradicts it. By Allaah, unity is the consensus of the people of truth even though they may be few while disunity is the consensus of the people of falsehood even though they may be many." (2)

The Standpoint of the Sahabah Concerning the Khilaafah after the demise of Rasulullaah

The Demise of Rasulullaah and the Sermon of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr says that (after hearing about the demise of Rasulullaah (Abu Bakr came on his animal from the Sunh district of Madinah. He then dismounted at the door of the Masjid. He was filled with heartache and grief as he sought permission to enter the room of his daughter Hadhrat Aa'isha (When she gave permission, he entered the room where Rasulullaah (When she gave permission, he entered the room where Rasulullaah (When she gave permission, he entered the room where Rasulullaah (When she gave permission, he entered the room where Rasulullaah (When she gave permission, he entered the room where Rasulullaah (When she gave permission, he entered the room where Rasulullaah (When she gave permission, he entered the room where Rasulullaah (When she who veiled their faces and concealed themselves from Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Of course, there was no need for Hadhrat Aa'isha (What the son of Shattaab says is not true (3)). I swear by the Being Who controls my life that Rasulullaah (What the son of Khattaab says is not true (3)). I swear by the Being Who controls my life that Rasulullaah (What he son of R Hadhrat Abu Bakr with then covered the face of Rasulullaah and hastened to the Masjid, skipping over the shoulders of people sitting there until he reached the pulpit. When he saw Hadhrat Abu Bakr with approach, even Hadhrat Umar with sat down. Standing at the side of the pulpit, Hadhrat Abu Bakr with called the people and they all sat down and kept silent. He recited the Shahaadah as he knew it and said, "Allaah with had given the news of the demise of His Nabi with he was still alive amongst you. He has also given you the news of your own deaths. Death is a reality and there will come a time when none but Aljaah 智範亞 will be alive. Aljaah has declared:

⁽¹⁾ Bukhari, Abu Ubayd in Kitaabul Amwaal and Isfahaani in Hujjah, as quoted in Muntakhab (Vol.5 Pg.50).

⁽²⁾ Askari, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.96).

⁽³⁾ Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab (2006) had been telling people that Rasulullaah (2006) had not passed away but his soul had merely been transported away to the heavens and would soon return.

"Muhammad is is but a Rasool (of Allaah). Indeed many Rusul have passed before him. If he passes away or is martyred, would you (Muslims) then turn back on your heels (and forsake Islaam)? He who turns back on his heels can never harm Allaah in the least (because he will be harming only himself). Allaah shall soon reward the grateful ones (so be firm and strive for His Deen) " (1)

Hadhrat Umar (I) exclaimed, "Is this verse in the Qur'aan? By Allaah, to this day, I had never known that it was ever revealed (I had completely forgotten about it)!" Hadhrat Abu Bakr (I) continued, "Allaah has also mentioned the following about Muhammad (II):

'Indeed, you (O Rasulullaah (E)) shall certainly die, and they shall all die as well. (2)

· Allaah has also mentioned:

'Everything shall perish but His Countenance. All decisions rest with Him and to Him shall you all be returned (after death). (3)

Allaah also says:

(رحمن آیت ۱۳ (رحمن آیت ۱۳ گُلُّ مَنْ عَلَیْهَا فَانِ ﴿ وَبَیْقَا وَجُهُ رِبَّكَ ذُوْالْجُلْلِ وَالْإِکْرَامِ ﴿ اللهِ وَمِن آیت ۱۳ الله Everything on earth shall perish (on the Day of Qiyaamah if not sooner). (When this happens,) Only the countenance of your Rabb the Possessor of majesty and benevolence shall remain (forever, without ever perishing). (4)

Allaah says in another verse:

"Every soul shall taste death and it is only on the Day of Qiyaamah that you will be given your rewards in full (although partial rewards are received in this world and in the grave)." (5)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉德國 continued, "Allaah had given a lifetime to Rasulullaah wa and kept him alive until he established the Deen of Allaah, made the

⁽¹⁾ Surah Aal Imraan, verse 144.

⁽²⁾ Surah Zumar, verse 30.

⁽³⁾ Surah Qasas, verse 88.

⁽⁴⁾ Surah Rahmaan, verses 26, 27.

⁽⁵⁾ Surah Aal Imran, verse 185.

commands of Allaah explicit, passed on the message of Allaah and exerted himself in the path of Allaah. In this condition, Allaah then took him away after he had left you on a path. Now whoever dies will die after being exposed to the clear proofs (of Imaan) and the great cure (to kufr, which is the Qur'aan). Therefore, whoever took Allaah as his Rabb should know that Allaah is Alive and shall never die. On the other hand, whoever worshipped Muhammad was and took him as a god should know that their god is no more. Fear Allaah, O people! Hold fast to your Deen and rely on your Rabb because the Deen of Allaah has been established and the word of Allaah is complete. Allaah will assist whoever assists the Deen of Allaah and it is Allaah Who will strengthen His Deen. Indeed, the Book of Allaah that is amongst you is a light and a source of healing. It is through this Book that Allaah had guided Muhammad was and it contains the details of the things that Allaah has made Halaal and what He has made Haraam. By Allaah! We have no concern for any of Allaah's creation that wishes to attack us because the swords of Allaah are drawn and we shall never put them down. We shall continue fighting those who oppose us just as we did with Rasulullaah Whoever now seeks to oppress shall be oppressing only himself." The Muhaajireen then left together with Hadhrat Abu Bakr to (tend to the burial of) Rasulullaah (1)

The Sermon of Hadhrat Umar when Most of the Sahabah pledge their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Anas reports that he heard the closing sermon of Hadhrat Umar as he sat on the pulpit the day after Rasulullaah passed away. Hadhrat Abu Bakr sat in silence without saying a word. Hadhrat Umar said, "I wished that Rasulullaah www. would remain alive until we had all passed away, so that he would be the last of us alive. (However, we have nothing to fear because) Even though Muhammad has passed away, Allaah has left in our midst a light (the Qur'aan) by which we are guided and which has also guided Muhammad has. Abu Bakr is the close companion of Rasulullaah has. He was the second of the two' (in the cave with Rasulullaah during the Hijrah⁽²⁾) and he is the most worthy of administering the affairs of the Muslims. You should therefore stand up and pledge your allegiance to him." Although a large group had already pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr in the orchard of the Banu Saa'idah, the general pledge of all the Muslims took place in the Masjid. (3) Imaam Zuhri narrates from Hadhrat Anas in that on that day Hadhrat Umar keps kept insisting that Hadhrat Abu Bakr mount the pulpit until he was forced to do so. The general public then pledged their allegiance to him.

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.243).

⁽²⁾ This refers to verse 40 of Surah Taubah in which Allaah says. "If you do not assist him (Rasulullaah ﷺ), then indeed Allaah had assisted him when the Kuffaar drove him out (of Makkah). He was the second of the two (the other being his bosom friend Abu Bakr 劉德勒 when they were (hiding from the Kuffaar) in the cave (outside Makkah) and he (Rasululiaah 劉德) told his companion (Abu Bakr 劉德勒) (when the Kuffaar were on the verge of capturing them), "Do not grieve (do not fear for my safety). Verily Allaah is with us (and He will protect us from the Kuffaar)."

⁽³⁾ Bukhari.

The Sahabah pledge their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr in the Orchard

Imaam Zuhri narrates from Hadhrat Anas with the day after the Sahabah had pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr 等區域 in the orchard, Hadhrat Abu Bakr sat on the pulpit (in the Masjid) as Hadhrat Umar 劉璋爾 stood by. Speaking before Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉璋爾, Hadhrat Umar duly praised Allaah and then said, "O people! What I told you yesterday (that Rasulullaah 經濟 had not passed away) was incorrect. Neither have I found this in the Book of Allaah nor has Rasulullaah is instructed me to say it. However, I always thought that Rasulullaah www would be the last of us (and found it difficult to accept that he had left the world before us). Nevertheless, Allaah has left with you His Book by which he guided Rasulullaah 凝躁. If you hold fast to it, Allaah shall guide you to that which He has guided Rasululiaah 機關. Allaah has also united you under the leadership of the best amongst you. namely the close companion of Rasulullaah 🕮 who was 'the second of the two when they were in the cave', So stand up and pledge your allegiance to Abu Bakr 🕾 "The general public then pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr after some had already pledged their allegiance in the orchard.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Hadhrat Abu Bakr Hen addressed the people. After duly praising Allaah, he said, "O people! Although I have been appointed as your leader, I am by no means the best of you⁽²⁾. Should I do what is right, do assist me and should I do wrong, do correct me. To be truthful is a great trust while lying is a terrible misappropriation of trust. The weak amongst you are powerful in my eyes and I shall see that I remove the causes for his complaint. On the other hand, the powerful ones amongst you are weak in my eyes and I shall endeavour to take from them the dues (they owe to others), Inshaa Allaah. Whenever a nation forsakes Jihaad, Allaah humiliates them and whenever immoral behaviour becomes widespread amongst them, Allaah surrounds them with calamities. Obey me as long as I obey Allaah and His Rasool . However, should I ever disobey Allaah and His Rasool you are not obliged to obey me at all. You may now stand up for your salaah. May Allaah shower His mercies on you all." (1)

The Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) and the Lecture that Hadhrat Umar (1996) delivered Concerning what Happened in the Orchard of the Banu Saa'idah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ways that he used to teach the Qur'aan to

⁽¹⁾ Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经减额 said this because of his humility. Otherwise, the Ulema of the Ummah unanimously agree that he is the best of all the Sahabah 被逐步。

⁽²⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.247).

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was waiting for Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (one day in Mina during the final Hajj that Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab 🕮 performed. When Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf 🕮 😘 returned to the place where they were staying, he informed Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 送過過過 that a man had approached Hadhrat Umar 经递减分 and told hìm about someone else who had said. "When Umar 劉範範 passes away. I shall pledge my allegiance to a certain man (Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah (1996)) because the pledge of allegiance taken to Abu Bakr was a very sudden thing and came to a completion (I shall also do so all of a sudden and he will automatically become the Khalifah)," Hadhrat Umar (said, "Inshaa Allaah I shall deliver a lecture to the people tonight to warn them about this group that wishes to snatch away the Khilaafah." However, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf said, "Do not do that, O Ameerul Mu'mineen because Hajj brings together even the riff-raff and people of low understanding. When you stand up to address the people, it is these types of people who will dominate the gathering and when you speak, they will exaggerate your words without understanding them and give them interpretations they were never intended to mean. Wait until you reach Madinah because it is the place of Hijrah and the Sunnah. There you should gather the learned scholars and prominent people and address them at ease. They will understand you and interpret your words as you intend them," Hadhrat Umar William then said, "If I reach Madinah, I shall definitely address the people about this at the first opportunity."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (February 1988) relates further, "When we returned to Madinah on a Friday during the end of Dhul Hijjah, I hastened to the Masjid at midday without bothering about the intense heat. There I saw that Sa'eed bin Zaid (February 1989) had preceded me and was sitting on the right hand side of the pulpit. I sat in front of him with my knees touching his. It was not long before Umar (February 1989) arrived. I said, 'This afternoon he will say such things on this pulpit that were never said before.' Sa'eed bin Zaid (February 1989) refuted what I said by saying, 'It is unlikely that he will say anything that no other has mentioned before.' Umar (February 1989) sat down and after the Mu'adhin had finished, he stood up. After duly praising Allaah, he said, 'O people! What I wish to say today has been predestined for me to say for I know not whether death may be lurking before me. Therefore, whoever understands what I say and remembers it should take it as far as his conveyance can carry him. However, I do not give permission for anyone who does not understand it well to go and lie about me."

Hadhrat Umar (Allaah had sent Muhammad (We with the truth and revealed a Book to him. Amongst the verses revealed to him were the verses of Rajm (stoning to death of a married person found guilty of adultery). We read the verse, memorised it and understood it. Rasulullaah (We therefore had people stoned and we did so after him. I fear that as lengthy periods of time pass by you, people would begin to say, 'We do not find the verse of Rajm in the Qur'aan.' They will therefore go astray by forsaking a compulsory injunction that Allaah has detailed. Rajm is therefore established in the Book of Allaah to be enforced on married males and females when either proven guilty beyond doubt, when pregnancy takes place or when the person confesses.

Take note that we also used to read, 'Do not turn away from your forefathers (by associating yourselves with others) because turning away from them is extreme ingratitude.' (Just as it was with the verse of Rajm, the words of this verse were abrogated without the injunction being cancelled). Listen well! Verily Rasulullaah said, 'Never be excessive in praising me as people were excessive in praising Isa the son of Maryam . I am only a servant of Allaah, so refer to me as Allaah's servant and His Rasool passes away, I shall pledge my allegiance to so-and-so.' No person should ever be fooled into saying that the pledge of allegiance taken to Abu Bakr was a very sudden thing and came to a completion. Although it did happen very quickly, Allaah had saved the entire Ummah from any evil (that would have been the result of it being delayed). In addition to this, you have no one today of the calibre of Abu Bakr for whom people would sacrifice their very lives.

What happened on the day that Rasulullaah passed away was that Ali and those with them stayed behind in the house of Faatima with the daughter of Rasulullaah in the other hand, every one of the Ansaar stayed behind in the orchard of the Banu Saa'idah while the Muhaajireen gathered around Abu Bakr is aid, 'O Abu Bakr is us go to our Ansaar brothers.' As we walked towards them, we met two righteous men (Hadhrat Uwaym Ansaari is and Hadhrat Ma'n is who informed us about what the Ansaar were doing. They asked, 'Where are you off to, O assembly of Muhaajireen?' We are off to see our brothers from the Ansaar,' we replied. 'No!' they said, 'There is no need for you to do that. Why don't you Muhaajireen rather discuss your own affairs.' I said, 'By Allaah! We shall definitely go to them.' We then went to the orchard of the Banu Saa'idah where we found the Ansaar gathered together.' In their midst we saw someone wrapped in a blanket. 'Who is that?' I asked. 'Sa'd bin Ubaadah,' they replied. I asked further, 'What is wrong with him?' 'He is ill,' came the reply.

What is wrong with him? 'He is ill,' came the reply.

After we were seated, one of the Ansaar stood up to give a lecture. After duly praising Allaah, he said, 'We are the Ansaar (helpers) of Allaah's Deen and the army of Islaam. You, O assembly of Muhaajireen, are the group of our Nabi and one of you has mentioned things that give us the impression that you wish to snub us and keep the Khilaafah away from us.' When he was silent, I intended to say something that I had prepared. It was an impressive speech that I intended saying before Abu Bakr will be in which (my usual) harshness was well concealed. However, Abu Bakr who bade me to be quiet and I did not wish to oppose him since he was more knowledgeable and more composed than me (so I remained seated). By Allaah! (When he spoke) Abu Bakr will did not omit to say anything that impressed me from what I had prepared. Until he had completed, he either said exactly what I wanted to say or better than that. He said, 'You (Ansaar) are most worthy of whatever good you have already mentioned. However, the Arabs associate leadership only with the Quraysh tribe because their lineage and their city is the best. I have selected two persons for you. You may pledge your allegiance to whichever one of them you choose.'

Abu Bakr then took hold of my hand and the hand of Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah Besides this, there was nothing of his speech that I disliked. By Allaah! I would prefer being led to be executed for committing no crime rather than being the leader of a community that includes Abu Bakr Besides. This is what I felt at that time and I do not know whether this opinion would change at the time of my death.

Someone from the Ansaar then said, 'I have the perfect solution and the best medicine for this. O assembly of Ouravsh! Let there be an Ameer from amongst us and another from amongst you.' Order was then lost and voices started being raised. This reached such a point that we feared serious dissension. I then said, 'Stretch out your hand, O Abu Bakr!' When he stretched out his hand, I pledged my allegiance to him and all the Muhaajireen followed suit. The Ansaar then also pledged their allegiance to him. (In the furore) We happened to bump Sa'd bin Ubaadah 🖫 over. When someone said, 'You have killed Sa'd,' I replied, 'Allaah has killed Sa'd.' By Allaah! From all matters that we have jointly participated in, there was no matter more timeously done than the pledge of allegiance taken at the hand of Abu Bakr 劉輝極美. (We acted quickly because) We feared that if we left the Ansaar without any pledge of allegiance being taken. they would take the pledge of allegiance by themselves (at the hands of someone else). We would then either be forced to pledge our allegiance as they had done against our wishes or we would have to oppose them, the obvious result of which would have been anarchy and disorder. (The crux is that) Whoever pledges his allegiance to another without consulting the Muslims has not pledged any allegiance and neither has the other person any authority (as a leader). In fact, it is feared that they would both be killed.

A narration of Zuhri from Hadhrat Urwa Sizios states that the two men who met Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sizios and Hadhrat Umar Sizios were Hadhrat Uwaym bin Saa'idah Sizios and Hadhrat Ma'n bin Adi Sizios. A narration of Sa'ccd bin Musayyib clarifies that the Sahabi Sizios who said, "I have the perfect solution and the best medicine for this" was Hadhrat Hubaab bin Mundhir Sizios. (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Concerning the Talk of Khilaafah that took Place in the Orchard of the Banu Saa'idah

Hadhrat Umar (1986) narrates that what actually happened after Rasulullaah (1986) passed away was that someone came and informed them that the Ansaar had gathered with Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah (#1566) in the orchard of the Banu Saa'idah where they intended taking the pledge of allegiance. Hadhrat Umar প্রাইজ্জি, Hadhrat Abu Bakr স্থাইজ্জি and Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah প্রাইজ্জি stood up in alarm and hastened towards the Ansaar fearing that they may introduce something strange into Islaam. En route they happened to meet two truthful men: Hadhrat Uwaym bin Saa'idah 🚉 🚳 and Hadhrat Ma'n bin Adi Wies. When the two men asked where the others were off to, the others replied. "We are off to see your people (the Ansaar) concerning what we have heard about their activities." The two men said, "You may return because you can never be opposed and nothing can be done without your approval." Hadhrat Umar Subset says, "We refused to listen to them and continued. In the meantime, I was preparing a speech to say to them. When we eventually reached them, we found them all around Sa'd bin Ubaadah who was lying on a bed due to illness." When the Muhaajireen arrived, the Ansaar addressed them saying, "O assembly of the Quraysh! Let there be an Ameer from amongst us and another from amongst you." Hadhrat Hubaab bin Mundhir 经验证 added. "I have the perfect solution and the best medicine for this. By Allaah! If you agree, we could make this as pleasant as a young camel." "Take it easy," said Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996). As he started talking, he first bade Hadhrat Umar with to be silent. Thereafter, he praised Allaah and said, "O assembly of Ansaar! I swear by Allaah that we do not deny your virtues. We neither deny the high status that you have reached in Islaam nor the rights that we owe you. However, even you acknowledge that no other tribe enjoys the status that the Quraysh enjoys amongst all the Arabs. You also know well that the Arabs will unite only under the leadership of one of them. While we (from the Quraysh) shall be the leaders, you (Ansaar) shall be our ministers. Fear Allaah! Do not cause divisions in Islaam and do not be the first to introduce something strange into Islaam. I have selected two men (referring to Hadhrat Umar 劉斯德多 and Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah 劉斯德多). Whicheyer of them you choose to pledge your allegiance, you may be rest assured that he is dependable."

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, Maalik and many others, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.5 Pg.245), Bukhari, Abu Ubayd in his Gharaa'ib (Vol. Pg.), Bayhaqi and Ibn Abi Shayba have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.138,139).

Hadhrat Umar was says, "By Allaah! There was nothing that I wanted said which Abu Bakr was did not say except this part (where he named me as a potential candidate). I swear by Allaah that I would prefer being killed, then brought back to life and then being killed again for no crime on my part rather than being appointed leader of a community that includes Abu Bakr was." Hadhrat Umar was then addressed the gathering saying, "O assembly of Ansaar! O assembly of Muslims! Indeed the person most worthy of leadership after Rasulullaah was is the second of the two when they were in the cave! He is Abu Bakr who was clearly the very first (to enter islaam)."

Hadhrat Umar (Line) then grabbed the hand of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Line) but before he could pledge his allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Line), an Ansaari beat him to it. All the other people followed suit and no attention was given to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah (Line).

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Shayba, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.139).

The Narration of Hadhrat Ibn Seereen Concerning what Happened in the Hall of the Banu Saa'idah

Hadhrat Ibn Seereen A narrates from a man from the Banu Zuravo tribe that on that fateful day (when Rasululiaah ﷺ passed away), Hadhrat Abu Bakr প্রাম্ভেট্ট and Hadhrat Umar শ্রম্ভেট্ট went to the Ansaar, Hadhrat Abu Bakr শ্রম্ভেট্ট said, "O assembly of Ansaar! We certainly do not deny the rights owed to you. In fact, no Mu'min can deny these rights. By Allaah! You have always shared in any good that came to us. However, the Arabs will never accept and shall never be happy with any leader that does not belong to the Ouraysh. This is because from all Arabs the Ouraysh are the most eloquent of people, have the best lineage, have the best city and feed the most people. So come to Umar and pledge your allegiance to him." "No!" replied the Ansaar. "Why not?" asked Hadhrat Umar Exist. The Ansaar replied, "Because we fear that he will give others preference over us." Hadhrat Umar 📆 🕮 said. "Never! I shall never do this as long as I live. Ratherpledge your allegiance to Abu Bakr 经趋势。" Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经趋势 said to Hadhrat Umar ("You are stronger than me," "But you are more virtuous than me," responded Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar three times. On the third time, Hadhrat Umar (added, "Together with your virtue, you shall have my strength with you." Addressing the people, he then said, "Pledge your allegiance to Abu Bakr ($1000)." As people were pledging their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (2006), some people approached Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (to pledge allegiance to him). Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah said to them, "How can you come to me when you have amongst you 'the second of the two'?" (1)

The Sahabah Place Hadhrat Abu Bakr Ahead for Khilaafah, Are Pleased to Select him and Condemn Anyone who desires to Divide their Unity

A narration of Ibn Asaakir and the Statement of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (Concerning the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Muslim narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr sent a message to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah saying, "Come forward so that I may make you the Khalifah because I have heard Rasulullaah say say that every nation has an Ameen (someone most trustworthy) and that you are the Ameen of this Ummah." Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah signs replied, "I can never step ahead of a person (yourself) whom Rasulullaah say had instructed to lead us in salaah." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Shayba, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg. 140).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.136), Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.267) has also reported

A Hadith of Ahmad and the statements of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (See and Hadhrat Uthmaan (See Concerning the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Hadhrat Abul Bakhtari narrates that Hadhrat Umar (See Said to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (See Said to Hadh

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah ("Since accepting Islaam I have never seen you do something so ridiculous! How can you pledge allegiance to me when you have amongst you As Siddeeq who is 'the second of the two?" (2)

Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan (Khilaafah) because he was 'the second of the two' and the close companion of Rasulullaah (Kasulullaah) (1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (William) declines to Accept the post of Khalifah and the statements of Hadhrat Ali (William) and Hadhrat Zubayr (William) he is most (Worthy of the Position)

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ibraheem bin Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was narrates that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was with Hadhrat Umar when Hadhrat Muhammad bin Masalama broke the sword of Hadhrat Zubayr Hadhrat Abu Bakr was then stood up to address the people and excused himself (from accepting the post as Khalifah). He said, "I swear by Allaah that there was not a single day or night in which I desired leadership. Neither was I inclined towards leadership nor have I ever prayed to Allaah for it in secret or in public. However, (I accepted the post because) I feared great anarchy (amongst the Muslims without a leader). I derive no peace in leadership. I have been burdened with a formidable task that I have no power to do without the strength provided by Allaah. I still wish that someone more powerful than me was in my position today."

Although the Muhaajireen accepted what Hadhrat Abu Bakr (William) had to say, Hadhrat Ali (William) and Hadhrat Zubayr (William) said, "The only grievance we have is that we were excluded from the consultations. However, we are also of the the narration from Muslim Bateen as have Ibn Asaakir, Ibn Shaaheen and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.126).

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.183) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd and Ibn Jareer.

⁽³⁾ Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.140).

opinion that Abu Bakr (is most worthy of the post after Rasulullaah (is most worthy of the post after Rasulullaah (is most worthy of the post after Rasulullaah (is most worthy in the cave and the 'second of the two'. We definitely acknowledge his status and his seniority. After ali, Rasulullaah (is did instruct him to lead the Muslims in salaah while Rasulullaah (is was alive." (1)

The narration of Ibn Asaakir Concerning the Difference of Opinion between Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan

Hadhrat Suwayd bin Ghafala narrates that Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (O Ali and Abbaas! What is wrong that leadership is with the clan of the Quraysh that is the lowest in rank and the fewest in number? By Allaah! If you wish, I could fill Madinah with cavalry and infantry (to oppose Hadhrat Abu Bakr (No, by Allaah! I have no desire for you to fill Madinah with cavalry and infantry. Had we not believed that Abu Bakr was worthy of the post, we would have never left it to him. O Abu Sufyaan! The Mu'mineen are a people who wish well for each other. They love each other even though their homes and bodies may be far apart. On the other hand, it is the Munaafiqeen who endeavour to deceive each other."

Another similar narration adds about the Munaafiqeen, "Even though their homes and bodies are close by, they are people who deceive each other. We have pledged our allegiance to Abu Bakr and he is most worthy of the post." (3)

A Narration of Abdur Razzaaq and Haakim Concerning What Happened between Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan

Hadhrat Ibn Abjar reports that after the pledge of allegiance was taken at the hand of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan (Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan) went to Hadhrat Ali (Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan) went to Hadhrat Ali (Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan) went to Hadhrat Ali (Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Hadhrat Ali (Hadhrat Abi Hadhrat Ali (Hadhrat Ali (Hadhrat Abi Hadhrat Abi Hadhrat Ali (Hadhrat Abi Hadhrat Abi (Hadhrat Abi (Hadhrat Abi Hadhrat Abi (Hadhrat Abi (Hadh Hadhrat Murra bin Tayyib narrates that Hadhrat Abu Sufyaan bin Harb sporoached Hadhrat Ali sporoached Hadhrat Ali sporoached to say, "How is it that leadership has gone to that clan of the Quraysh who are the smallest in number and the lowest in rank

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.66) and Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.152).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.141).

⁽³⁾ Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.140).

⁽⁴⁾ I'm Mubaarak, as quoted in Isti'aab (Vol.4 Pg.87).

(referring to the clan of Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉德德). By Allaah! If you wish, I could fill Madinah with cavalry and infantry (to oppose Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉德德)." Hadhrat Ali 劉德德 responded by saying, "For as long as you wish to bear enmity for Islaam and its people, Abu Sufyaan, you will not be able to harm them in the least. We have found Abu Bakr 劉德德 to be worthy of the post." (1)

The Differences between Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed Concerning the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

Hadhrat Sakhar who was Rasulullaah was bodyguard (2) narrates that Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Aas was in Yemen when Rasulullaah was passed away. He arrived in Madinah a month after Rasulullaah was demise wearing a silken cloak. When he met Hadhrat Umar was and Hadhrat Ali was hadhrat Umar was called out to the people, "Toar up his cloak! How can he wear silk when he is a Muslim man in times of peace?" After the people had torn his cloak up, Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed was said, "O Abu Hasan (Hadhrat Ali was)! O family of Abd Manaaf! Have you been overpowered in leadership?" Hadhrat Ali was said to him, "Do you view this as a power struggle or Khilaafah?" Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed was said, "O family of Abd Manaaf! No person better than you should overpower you in this matter (how could you allow Abu Bakr was do so when he does not belong to the family of Abd Manaaf?)." Hadhrat Umar was then said to Hadhrat Khaalid was, "May Allaah smash your mouth! By Allaah! If any liar contemplates on what you have mentioned, he will do harm only to himself."

A Narration of Hadhrat Ummu Khaalid (2006) Concerning what Happened between Hadhrat Abu Bakr (2006) and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed t

Hadhrat Ummu Khaalid (Sales) who was the daughter of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed (Sales) narrates that her father returned from Yemen only after the Muslims had already pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Mose). Addressing Hadhrat Ali (Mose) and Hadhrat Uthmaan (Mose), he said, "Do you people who are from the family of Abd Manaaf accept that a person who does not belong to your clan should be appointed as your leader?" When Hadhrat Umar (Mose) is reported this to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Mose). Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Mose) is for three months without pledging his allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Mose).

When Hadhrat Abu Bakr wow once passed by the house of Hadhrat Khaalid bin

⁽¹⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.78).

⁽²⁾ Rasulullaah (2) used bodyguards during a while, but then stopped using them when Allaah revealed verse 67 of Surah Maa'idah where Allaah says, "Allaah shall protect you from the people".

⁽³⁾ Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.28). Sayf and 1bn Asaakir have also reported the narration in brief, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.59).

Sa'eed (Mission one afternoon, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Mission greeted him. Hadhrat Khaalid (Mission said, "Do you want me to pledge my allegiance to you?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Mission replied, "All I want you to do is to enter into the agreement that all the Muslims have entered into." Hadhrat Khaalid (Mission then said, "Let us make an appointment for tonight when I shall pledge my allegiance to you." Hadhrat Khaalid (Mission arrived when Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Mission was seated on the pulpit and pledged his allegiance.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr was always had a good opinion of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed was and respected him. When Hadhrat Abu Bakr was once dispatched an army to Shaam, he appointed Hadhrat Khaalid was as the commander (and gave him the flag). When Hadhrat Khaalid was took the flag home, Hadhrat Umar was said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr was, "How can you give command to Khaalid when he had made those statements in the past?" Hadhrat Umar was insisted so much that Hadhrat Abu Bakr with the message, "The Khalifah of Rasulullaah was requestsyoutoreturntheflag to us." Hadhrat Khaalid was took out the flag and handed it over. He then said, "By Allaah! Just as the appointment to command did not please me, the dismissal does not grieve me. The one to be blamed is someone other than the Khalifah (i.e. Hadhrat Umar was)."

Hadhrat Ummu Khaalid narrated further, "It was not long afterwards that Abu Bakr. Sizes came to apologise to my father and took a promise from him not to every speak ill of Umar Sizes. By Allaah! My father then always prayed for Umar Sizes until he passed away." (1)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) Marches for Jihaad by Himself and the statement of Hadhrat Ali (1996) in this Regard

Hadhrat Aa'isha was narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr so once drew his sword and rode his animal towards Dhu Qassah. Hadhrat Ali took hold of the animal's reins and said, "Where are you off to, O Khalifah of Rasulullaah as roday I shall say to you what Rasulullaah as said to you during the Battle of Uhud; 'Sheath your sword and do not cause me grief (by getting yourself injured or martyred)'. I swear by Allaah that if we suffer any grief through you (coming to harm), Islaam shall never regain its form." Hadhrat Abu Bakr so then returned and dispatched an army instead. (2)

Relinquishing the Post of Khilaafah

The Lecture of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Concerning the Khilaafah and his Statement that he Never Desired it for a Single Day or Night

Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉陽德 once said, "O people! You may think that I assumed the post as Khalifah because I had aspirations for it and because I desired to gain superiority over you. This is not true! I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I have never assumed the post because of any aspirations and neither to attain superiority over you people or over any Muslim. I have never desired the position for a single night or day and I have never prayed to Allaah for it either secretly or in public. However, I have been burdened with this extremely formidable task which I have no strength to carry out without the assistance of Allaah. I do wish that it be handed over to any other companion of Rasulullaah provided that he exercises justice. I am therefore returning the portfolio to you and acknowledge no pledge of allegiance from you. You may hand the post over to whoever you please for I am just an ordinary man amongst you." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.97).

⁽²⁾ Saaji, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.143). Daar Qutni has also reported the narration, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.6 Pg.315).

The Response of the Sahabah (to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (and their Statement Confirming that he was the Best Amongst them

Hadhrat Isa bin Atiyya reports that the day after the Sahabah with had pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr with, he stood up to deliver a lecture. He said, "O people! I am cancelling your decision (to appoint me as Khalifah) for I am not the best of you. You should therefore pledge your allegiance to the person who is best amongst you." The Sahabah with stood up and replied, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah will we swear by Allaah that you are the best amongst us."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then said, "O people! There are people who entered into Islaam willingly and those who entered unwillingly. However, they are now all in Allaah's protection and His neighbours. Therefore, if it is possible that Allaah does not find you guilty of wronging anyone in His protection, then make sure that you do so. I also have a Shaytaan with me so when you see me angry, stay away from me so that I may not harm even your hair or your skin. O people! Keep watch over the income of your slaves because flesh nourished with Haraam cannot enter Jannah. Hear this well! Inspect me with your eyes and assist me when I do good. However should I deviate, then do correct me. Obey me as long as I obey Allaah and disobey me if I disobey Allaah."

The Reply that Hadhrat Ali gave to Hadhrat Abu Bakr Emphasising that they would never Accept his Relinquishing the Khilaafah nor would they ever ask him to relinquish it

Hadhrat Abul Jahhaaf narrates that for three days after people pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996), he kept his door locked and on each day he would come out to say to the people, "O people! I have cancelled the pledge of allegiance that you have given me. You may therefore pledge your allegiance to whoever you please." Each time that he said this, Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib responded by saying, "Neither will we accept your relinquishing the Khilaafah nor will we ever ask you to relinquish it. When Rasulullaah had placed you ahead, who can ever pull you back?" (1)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Fadhaa'ilus Sahabah (2013), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.131).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg. 135). Haythami (Vol.5 Pg. 184) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Zaid bin Ali narrated from his seniors that on three occasions, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Simes) announced from the pulpit, "Is there anyone who is displeased (with me being the Khalifah) so that I may relinquish the post?" Each time it was Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib (Simes) who replied, "Neither will we accept your relinquishing the Khilaafah nor will we ever ask you to relinquish it. When Rasulullaah (Simes) had placed you ahead, who can ever pull you back?" (2)

Accepting Leadership for the Welfare of Deen

What Happened between Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996) and Hadhrat Ibn Abu Raafi (1996)

Hadhrat Raafi ibn Abu Raafi as narrated, "After the people had appointed Hadhrat Abu Bakr as Khalifah, I said (to myself), 'This is the very man who told me never to assume leadership over even two persons (contrary to his own advice, he has now become the leader of all the Muslims).' I then left (home) and rode to Madinah. I then confronted Hadhrat Abu Bakr and said, 'O Abu Bakr! Do you recognise me?' I certainly do,' he replied. I asked further, 'Do you remember something that you once told me that I should not assume leadership over even two persons? However, you have assumed leadership over the entire Ummah.' He replied, 'When Rasulullaah left this world, the people were still new in Islaam. Although I disliked it, I then assumed the post because I feared that (without leadership) they would revert to kufr and dispute with each other. In addition to this, my companions also kept insisting.' Abu Bakr then continued giving me his reasons until my heart was content (that he assumed the post solely for the welfare of the Deen)."

Being Grieved After Acceding to the Post of Khilaafah

Hadhrat Abu Bakr says to Hadhrat Umar "It was you who forced me to assume this post"

A man from the family of Rabee'ah says that news reached him that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1986) sat at home in grief after he was appointed as Khalifah. When Hadhrat Umar (1986) came to the house, Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1986) scolded him saying, "It was you who forced me to assume this post." When Hadhrat Abu Bakr worrisome task, Hadhrat Umar wise said, "Don't you know that Rasulullaah said, "Men a leader applies himself (and passes a ruling,) he will receive twice the reward if he is correct. On the other hand, if he errs (in his ruling) after applying himself, he will still receive a single reward." This statement seemed to ease matters for Hadhrat Abu Bakr

⁽¹⁾ Ushaari, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.141).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Najjaar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.140).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Raahway, Adani, Baghawi and Ibn Khuzaymah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.125).

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1996)'s Last Words to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (1996)

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Rahmaan bin Auf Indian narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr said the following to him on his deathbed, "I have no regrets about anything that I have done except for three things that I wish I had never done. There are also three things I have never done that I wish I had. There are three other things that narration contains is that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (3) said, "I wish that on the day that we were (selecting the Khalifah) in the orchard of Banu Saa'idah, I had forced the post on to one of two persons, either Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah or Umar. One of them would then have been the Ameer while I could have served as his minister." Another thing mentioned in the narration is that he said, "I wish that at the time I had dispatched Khaalid bin Waleed to Shaam, I had also dispatched Umar to Iraq. In that way, I would have spread my right and left arms out in the path of Allaah. As for the three things that I wished I had enquired from Rasulullaah Will I wish that I had asked him to identify those amongst whom Khilaafah would be so that none would contest it from those who deserve it. I also wish that I had asked Rasulullaah we whether the Ansaar would have any part in the Khilaafah." (2)

A Leader Appointing his Successor

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Consults with other Sahabah on his deathbed Concerning his Successor

Hadhrat Abu Salama bin Abdur Rahmaan and others narrate that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr Grew extremely ill and was close to death, he called for Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf Grew and said, "Tell me about Umar bin Khattaab Grew." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Grew replied, "You are asking me about someone whom you know better than me." Hadhrat Abu Bakr Grew said, "I still want you to tell me." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Grew then said, "He is the best of all those whom you see fit as your successor."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉德德 then summoned Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan 劉德德 and asked him, "Tell me about Umar bin Khattaab." "You know him the best from all of us," responded Hadhrat Uthmaan ("Despite this, O Abu Abdullaah." Hadhrat Uthmaan (I swear by Allaah that as far as I know, his inner self is even better than his (exemplary) outer appearance and there is none like him amongst us." Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("May Allaah shower His mercy on you. By Allaah! Should I leave him (as my successor), I would not be doing you any wrong."

⁽I) Ibn Raahway, Khaythama in his Fadh'aailus Sahabah 微端鏡 and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.135).

⁽²⁾ Abu Ubayd, Uqayli, Tabraani, Ibn Asaakir, Sa'eed bin Mansoor and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.135). Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.203) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr William then also consulted with Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Zaid Abu A'war William, Hadhrat Usayd bin Hudhayr William and several other Sahabah william from amongst the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar. Hadhrat Usayd William had the following to say, "By Allaah! I rate him the best after you. He is pleased with that which pleases Allaah and angry with that which angers Allaah. His inner self is even better than his (excellent) outer appearance and there is none as capable for the post of Khilaafah as he is."

When some other Sahabah where heard that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf and Hadhrat Uthmaan where hadseen Hadhrat Abdur Bakr when privately, they went to Hadhrat Abdur Bakr where and one of them said, "What would you reply to your Rabb if He asked you about appointing Umar as your successor when you have already seen his harshness?" Hadhrat Abdur Bakr where asked someone to help him sit up and then said, "Do you wish to make me fear Allaah?! Ruined is the person who carries injustice as his provision to the Aakhirah! I would tell my Rabb that I have appointed the best of Your creation as my successor. Convey what I have told you to everyone else." Hadhrat Abdur Bakr when lay down, called for Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan when and told him to write the following:

The Letter of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Detailing the Appointment of Hadhrat Umar as his Successor, his Advice to him and to the Public

"In the name of Allaah the Most Kind, the Most Merciful. The following is the arrangement made by Abu Bakr bin Abu Quhaafa during his last moments in the world, as he prepares to leave it and during the first moments of his life in the Aakhirah as he prepares to enter it. This is a point where even Kuffaar accept Imaan, wrong-doers become convinced and liars speak the truth. I have appointed Umar bin Khattaab as my successor over you. You should listen to him and obey his commands. (In doing this) I have not forfeited any good owing to Allaah, His Rasool [18]. His Deen, myself nor owing to you people in any way. If he exercises justice, then this is exactly what I had expected from him. On the other hand, if he has changed, then every man is accountable (to Allaah) for the wrong he does. I have only intended good and have no knowledge of the unseen. (Allaah declares:) Shortly (after death) the oppressors (wrongdoers) will come to know to which place they will return (Jahannam).

Peace be to you all together with the mercy of Allaah.

According to the orders of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat (Hadhrat Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat (Hadhrat Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat (Hadhrat Hadhrat Uthmaan) Hadhrat (Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat (Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat (Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat (Hadhrat Hadhrat Ha

In compliance with the orders of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Usayd bin Sa'eed Quradhi (Hadhrat Usayd bin Sa'eed Quradhi (Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Usayd bin Sa'eed Quradhi (Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Volumer) (Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Hadhrat Uthmaan Hadhrat Uthmaan

Hadhrat Abu Bakr then called Hadhrat Umar in private and gave him advice. When Hadhrat Umar had left, Hadhrat Abu Bakr raised his hands and prayed, "O Allaah! I have done this only for their welfare and because I feared anarchy. You know best what I have done and I have truly applied my mind to the decision. I have appointed as their leader the one who is the best amongst them, who is the most capable and who has the greatest desire for their welfare. O Allaah! The death that You have decreed for me has already arrived, so do succeed me amongst them because they are Your servants and their forelocks are in Your hands. Make their leader righteous for them and make him amongst the Khulafaa Raashideen who follow the way of the Nabi of mercy and the way of the pious ones after him. Also make his subjects righteous for him." (1)

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr fell ill and was certain that he would soon leave the world, he gathered the people and said, "You can all see my condition. I am quite certain that I am soon to die, Allaah has freed you from your obligation towards the allegiance you have pledged to me. Allaah has undone the hold I have over you and returned your self-determination to you. You may now appoint whoever you please as your leader. If you appoint someone during my lifetime, it will be more conducive to your unity after my death."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol. 3 Pg. 199), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 3 Pg. 145).

The people then left Hadhrat Abu Bakr alone and left (to consult with each other) but were unable to reach any decision. They then returned to Hadhrat Abu Bakr and said, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah Fou choose someone on our behalf." You people may perhaps disagree with my decision," remarked Hadhrat Abu Bakr said. When they assured him that they would not, Hadhrat Abu Bakr reaffirmed their resolution by saying, "Will you promise in Allaah's name that you would be happy with my decision?" "We certainly will," they confirmed. Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Then allow me some time to see what is in the best interests of Allaah, His Deen and His servants."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Field In the Hadhrat Uthmaan (Field In the Mach) and said, "Recommend someone to me. By Allaah! In my opinion, you are certainly most worthy of the post yourself." When Hadhrat Uthmaan (Field In the William Hadhrat Uthmaan (Field In the William Hadhrat Uthmaan (Field In the William Hadhrat Uthmaan (Field In the Hadhrat Uthmaan (Field In the Hadhrat In the Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Field In the Hadhrat Uthmaan (Field In the Hadhrat In the Hadh

The Reply Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave to Hadhrat Talha Concerning the Appointment of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Ubaydullaah bin Abdullaah bin Umar Abu Bakr Was about to pass away, he summoned Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan was and dictated his last testament to him. However, he passed out before he could name his successor. Hadhrat Uthmaan when then himself named Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab when Hadhrat Abu Bakr regained consciousness, he asked Hadhrat Uthmaan whether he had written anyone's name. Hadhrat Uthmaan whether he had written anyone's name. Hadhrat Uthmaan would not regain consciousness and that the people would then fall into dispute. I therefore wrote the name of Umar bin Khattaab."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (May Allaah shower His mercies on you. Had you written your name instead, you are certainly worthy of the post." Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah (They are saying that knowing the harshness of Umar during your lifetime, how will be after your death when you hand over our affairs to him? Allaah will certainly question you about this, so think well what reply you shall give." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (May asked someone to help him sit up and then said, "Do you wish to make me fear Allaah?! Ruined is the person who employs guesswork in deciding (who should take charge of) your affairs! If my Rabb questions me, I shall say, I have appointed the best of Your creation as my successor'. Convey what I have told you (to all those who have sent you)." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir and Sayf.

The Narration of Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha in this Regard

Hadhrat Aa'isha (Aa'isha (Aa'i

The narration of Hadhrat Zaid bin Haarith

Hadhrat Zaid bin Haarith (Fig. 7) reports that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Fig. 7) was on his deathbed, he sent for Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 7) to appoint him as his successor. Some people commented, "You wish to appoint Umar as your successor when he is harsh and ill-tempered? When he becomes our leader, he will be even more harsh and ill-tempered. What reply will you give to your Rabb when you meet Him after appointing Umar as your successor over us?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Fig. 7) by you wish to make me fear Allaah?! I shall say, 'O Allaah! I have appointed the best of Your creation as my successor over the people'."

Appointing a Consultative Assembly of Competent People to Decide who Should be the Khalifah

The Assassination of Hadhrat Umar (Selecting Six Persons to Decide who Should be Khalifah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar marrates that when Abu Lu'lu'ah attacked Hadhrat Umar marrates, he stabbed him twice with his spear. Hadhrat Umar then thought that he had perhaps wronged the people in a manner that he was unaware of. He therefore sent for Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas marrates in close confidence and would listen to what he had to say. Hadhrat Umar marrates said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas marrates in close confidence and would listen to what he had to say. Hadhrat Umar marrates that when Abdullaah bin Abbaas marrates that when Abdullaah bin Abb

⁽I) La'alkalaa'i.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.192), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.146). Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.149) has also reported the narration from Hadhrat Aa'isha 電影器 while Ibn Jareer has reported it from Hadhrat Asmaa bint Umays 劉維羅廷.

^{(3) 1}bn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.146).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas went out to investigate, he found that every group of people that he passed was weeping bitterly. He therefore returned to Hadhrat Umar was and reported, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I saw every group of people that I passed weeping as if they had lost their first child."

"Who was responsible for the attack?" asked Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Feplied, "It was the fire-worshipper Abu Lu'lu'ah who was the slave of Mughiera bin Shu'ba." The signs of happiness were then visible on the face of Hadhrat Umar (Haal Ilaha Ilaha Ilallaah) who could debate with me. Remember that I had prevented you people from bringing any foreign non-Muslim slaves here but you did not obey my instruction. Call my brothers here." When he was asked who his brothers were, Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Hadhrat Talha (Hadhrat Zubayr (Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Wagqaas (Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Wagqaas (Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Wagqaas (Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Wagqaas (Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Wagqaas (Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Wagqaas (Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Wagqaas (Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Abdur Rahmaa

When these Sahabah (were sent for, Hadhrat Umar (rested his head in the lap of his son Hadhrat Abdullaah (), who informed him when the men had arrived. Hadhrat Umar () then said to them, "When I pondered deeply about the affairs of the Muslims, I found that you six men are the leaders of the people and the most influential. Leadership can only be amongst you and the affairs of the people will always be properly managed as long as you men remain straight. Should there arise any disputes, it would be amongst you first."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar related further, "When I heard my father mention disputes and division, I knew that this would soon take place even though he used the words 'Should there arise'. This is because he seldom mentioned something that I did not see happen. He then started bleeding profusely and I noticed the six men enter into such urgent discussions that I feared they would already pledge their allegiance to one of them. I then said, 'The Ameerul Mu'mineen is still alive! There can never be two Khalifahs staring at the faces of each other."

Hadhrat Umar then asked them to help him up, which they did. He then said, "You men should discuss for three days, during which period Suhayb should lead people in salaah. "With whom should we consult?" the men asked. Hadhrat Umar freelied, "You should consult with the Muhaajireen, the Ansaar and the commander of every army present here." Hadhrat Umar then asked for some milk to drink but when he drank it, the milk emerged from his two wounds. When this happened, Hadhrat Umar realised that his death was imminent. He then said, "If I possessed the entire world, I would offer it as ransom to be saved from the terror of what is to come after death. However, with the grace of Allaah, I envisage only good."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Signes) commented, "May Allaah reward you with the best of rewards. Did Rasulullaah (Signes) not pray that Allaah should strengthen the Deen and the Muslims through you when they were living in fear in Makkah?

It was a tremendous reinforcement when you accepted Islaam, because of which Islaam, Rasulullaah and his Sahabah could come out in the open. When you migrated to Madinah, your migration was a great victory and since those very early days you did not miss a single military expedition that Rasulullaah fought against the Mushrikeen. Rasulullaah was pleased with you when he left the world, after which you advised his successor according to the pattern shown by Rasulullaah was Using those who accepted, you struck those who were averse until people entered into Islaam willingly and unwillingly. The Khalifah of Rasulullaah was also happy with you when he left this world. You then assumed the role of Khalifah in the best manner that any person could do. Using you, Allaah has populated many cities, brought plenty of wealth (to the Muslims) and destroyed many enemies. In addition to this, Allaah has also used you to bring abundance into every home in terms of Deen and in terms of their sustenance. Allaah has now brought your life to an end with the great status of martyrdom. How fortunate are you not?"

Hadhrat Umar (Abdullaah) He one whom you manage to deceive is truly deceived. O Abdullaah! Will you testify on my behalf in front of Aliaah on the Day of Qiyaamah?" "I certainly would," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Abbaas (Abbaas) assured him. Hadhrat Umar (Abbaas) then praised Aliaah (for having the cousin of Rasulullaah (Abbaas) as a witness in his favour) and asked his son Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Abbaas) for place his cheek on the ground. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Abbaas) placed his father's cheek on his lap instead, Hadhrat Umar (Abbaas) insisted that his cheek be placed directly on the ground. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Abbaas) then left his father's beard and cheek, allowing it to touch the ground. Addressing himself, Hadhrat Umar (Abbaas) said, "O Umar! Your mother and you would be destroyed if Allaah does not forgive you." He then passed away, May Allaah shower His mercy on him.

summoned Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar . However, he responded by saying that he would not come to them until they carried out the instruction of Hadhrat Umar to consult with the Muhaajireen, the Ansaar and the commanders of the armies present in Madinah. When someone mentioned to Hadhrat Hasan Basri the actions of Hadhrat Umar to before his demise and his fear of Allaah, Hadhrat Hasan commented, "Such is a true Mu'min. He carries out good deeds in the proper manner together with having fear for Allaah. On the other hand, the Munaafiq combines evil deeds with the false hope of being forgiven. I swear by Allaah that in times past and present I have never seen a servant of Allaah who excels in doing good deeds without excelling in his fear of Allaah. In times past and present I have also not seen any person excel in evil deeds without excelling in the false hope of being forgiven." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources as conformed by Haythani (Vol.9 Pg.76).

The Narration of Ibn Sa'd Concerning the Debts of Hadhrat Umar (Sa), his Burial with his Two Companions and his Appointment of Six Men to Decide which of the Them Would be the Khalifah

In his narration concerning the assassination of Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat Amr bin Maymoon also says that Hadhrat Umar Hold his son Hadhrat Abdullaah Hadhrat to check on his debts and add them up. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat that the debts amounted to eighty six thousand. Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Hadhrat Newelth is also not sufficient, then ask the Quraysh. However, you should not ask from anyone else besides them and (do your best to) settle my debts. I also want you to go to the mother of the Mu'mineen Hadhrat Aa'isha Hadhrat Abu Bakr Hadhrat Abu Bakr Hadhrat Abu Bakr However, do not say that the Ameerul Mu'mineen requests for permission because I am not the Ameerul Mu'mineen any more."

When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar weet to Hadhrat Aa'isha weef, he found her sitting and weeping. He greeted her and then addressed her saying, "Umar bin Khattaab requests permission to be buried beside his two companions." Hadhrat Aa'isha week replied, "By Allaah! Although I had originally reserved the place for myself, I shall today give him preference over myself." When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar week came back to his father, Hadhrat Umar week week. "What news do you have?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar week informed Hadhrat Umar week that Hadhrat Aa'isha week had granted the permission. Hadhrat Umar week then commented, "There was nothing more important to me than this. When I die, I want you to carry me on my bed and (when you arrive at the door of Hadhrat Aa'isha week permission saying. Umar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter.' If she permits my entry, then take me in, otherwise take me to the graveyard of all the Muslims."

When the body of Hadhrat Umar was taken (for burial), it appeared as if the Muslims had never before experienced any tragedy. (Upon arrival at the door of Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Umar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Umar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Ab'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Aa'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Ab'isha ("Tumar bin Khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Ab'isha ("Tumar bin khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Ab'isha ("Tumar bin khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Ab'isha ("Tumar bin khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Ab'isha ("Tumar bin khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Ab'isha ("Tumar bin khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Ab'isha ("Tumar bin khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Ab'isha ("Tumar bin khattaab requests permission to enter." Hadhrat Ab'isha ("Tumar bin khattaab requests permission

When Hadhrat Umar was about to pass away, the people told him to appoint a successor. He said, "I find none more worthy of leadership than the six men with whom Rasulullaah was pleased when he passed away. Whoever they appoint shall be the Khalifah after me." Hadhrat Umar then named Hadhrat Uthmaan was, Hadhrat Ali was, Hadhrat Talha was, Hadhrat Ali was, Hadhrat Talha was, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas was. He then added, "If Sa'd becomes the Khalifah, that will be fine. Otherwise, whichever of them becomes the Khalifah should request his assistance because I had not dismissed him (from his post as governor of Kufa) because of any inability or treachery on his part." Hadhrat Umar was then detailed the role of his son Abdullaah was as someone with whom the six could consult, emphasising that he should not be allowed to assume the post as Khalifah.

When the six Sahabah 經過過 got together (after the demise of Hadhrat Umar 劉麗麗). Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf 劉麗麗 proposed that three of them forfeit their entitlement to the other three. Hadhrat Zubayr then handed his over to Hadhrat Ali 🛎 🐯, Hadhrat Talha 🛎 🐯 gave his to Hadhrat Uthmaan said and Hadhrat Sa'd said gave his to Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf William. The three remaining nominees then consulted with each other when the decision was left to them entirely. Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf 经路通路 then said to the other two (Hadhrat Uthmaan 经基础的 and Hadhrat Ali 鑑定的), "Which of you wishes to absolve himself (from making the decision) and hand over the decision to me. I pledge to Allaah that I shall not be negligent in selecting the one from amongst you who is the best and shall be best for the people." When the two Sahabah @ agreed, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf relative of Rasulullaah was and amongst the earliest Muslims. I ask you to tell me in Allaah's name whether you would exercise justice if you were appointed Khalifah and that if I appointed Uthmaan as Khalifah, you would listen to him and obey him." When Hadhrat Ali was attested that he would do so, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf which then said the same thing in confidence to Hadhrat Uthmaan 劉璋德. When Hadhrat Uthmaan 劉璋德 agreed to do as asked, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf 紫斑鹟 asked Hadhrat Uthmaan 紫斑鹟鹟 to stretch out his hand. When Hadhrat Uthmaan William did so, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf 營運營 pledged his allegiance to Hadhrat Uthmaan 學運營 and was followed by Hadhrat Ali was and the general public. (1)

The Narration of Ibn Abi Shaybah and Ibn Sa'd in this Regard

Hadhrat Amr bin Maymoon reports that when Hadhrat Umar was on his death bed, he called for Hadhrat Uthmaan 安徽, Hadhrat Ali 安徽, Hadhrat Talha 安徽, Hadhrat Zubayr 安徽, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf 安徽, and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas 安徽, (When they came) Hadhrat Umar 安徽, then addressed only Hadhrat Ali 安徽, "O Ali! These people recognise your kinship to Rasulullaah (that you are his cousin and son-in-law) and the tremendous knowledge and insight that Allaah has granted you (because of which they may select you to be the Khalifah). If you are nominated to be the Khalifah, you should fear Allaah and never lift that tribe (your tribe the Banu Haashim) on to the necks of people."

Hadhrat Umar 劉璋爾 then addressed Hadhrat Uthmaan 劉璋爾 saying. "O Uthmaan! These people know well that you were the son-in-law of Rasulullaah and they recognise your age and your respectability. If you are nominated to be the Khalifah, you should fear Allaah and never lift that tribe (your tribe) on to the necks of people." Hadhrat Umar then asked the people to summon Hadhrat Suhayb 劉國語. (When he arrived) Hadhrat Umar 劉國語 said to him, "Lead the people in salaah for three days during which period this group will gather in a room (to discuss which of them should be the Khalifah). When they agree on one person, any person who opposes them should be executed." (1) Hadhrat Abu Ja'far reports that Hadhrat Umar 經濟學 said the following to the (six) members of the consultative assembly: "Consult with each other about who should be appointed as Khalifah. If your votes are tied at two, two and two (each pair nominating a different person of three candidates), then repeat the consultation. However, if the votes are four to two, accept the opinion of the majority." (2) A narration from Hadhrat Aslam quotes that Hadhrat Umar said, "If the opinions are tied at three to three, adopt the side of Abdur Rahmaan, Thereafter, you should listen to and obey (the new Khalifah),"

Another narration from Hadhrat Anas states that a short while before Hadhrat Umar states passed away, he sent for Hadhrat Abu Talha states and said, "O Abu Talha! Be the fifth of a group of your people from the Ansaar to be with the consultative assembly. I suppose that they will gather in a house belonging to one of them, so I want you and your group to stand at the door of that house. You should not allow anyone to enter with them and you should not allow the third day to pass by without them having appointed one of them (as Khalifah)." Hadhrat Umar states then prayed, "O Allaah! You are my Successor over them." (3)

Who is Most Worthy of Assuming the Office of Khilaafah

The Lecture that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Gave in this Regard

Hadhrat Aasim narrates that during his final illness, Hadhrat Abu Bakr the had the people gathered together and then had some men carry him to the pulpit. This was the last lecture that he ever delivered. After praising Allaah, he said:

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah and Ibn Sa'd.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd.

⁽³⁾ Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.156,157)

"O people! Beware of this world and never place your trust in it for it is extremely deceptive. Rather give preference to the Aakhirah over the world and inculcate great love for it. The love for any one of the two develops hatred for the other. It is by this matter of Khilaafah that all our affairs are governed and its end will be set right only by those factors that set right its initiation. Therefore, the only person worthy of assuming this office is the one who is most powerful amongst you, who can exercise the greatest control over his desires, who is most strict when the occasion demands austerity and most compassionate when the occasion demands leniency. He should be one who is most willing to act on the opinions of people with knowledge and insight and does not engross himself in futilities. He does not grieve over matters that do not present themselves to him, is not shy to learn and is not alarmed by emergencies. He is meticulous about managing finances and will neither embezzle any funds nor fail in his duty towards it in a fit of anger or enmity. He is prepared for things to come and his preparation consists of fear for Allaah and obedience to Him. Such a person is none other than Umar bin Khattaab."

After saying this, Hadhrat Abu Bakr descended from the pulpit. ⁽¹⁾

The Qualities of a Khalifah as Described by Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas says, "I served Umar says in a manner that no other member of his family served him. I was also very informal with him in a manner that no member of his household was. He would sit with me and show me a lot of respect. We were sitting alone in his house one day when he heaved such a sigh that made me think he was about to die. I asked, 'Some grave matter of concern, O Ameerul Mu'mineen?' He replied, 'Some grave concern indeed.' 'What is it?' I asked. He then asked me to come closer to him. When I did so, he said, 'I can find no one worthy of this post of Khilaafah.' I then named certain individuals and asked him what he thought of them. These happened to be the six men whom he chose as the consultative assembly. Umar said something about each one of these men and then said, 'No person is suitable for the post of Khilaafah except someone who is strong without being harsh, who is lenient without being weak, who is generous without being extravagant and who is cautious about monetary affairs without being miserly.'"(2)

Another narration also from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas sizes states, "I was sitting with Umar sizes one day when he heaved such a sigh that I thought his ribs would crack. I said to him, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! It can only be a grave worry that would cause you to sigh like that.' He agreed by saying, 'It is indeed something grave. I do not know to whom I should hand the post of Khilaafah over to.' He then turned to me and said, 'Perhaps you deem your companion (Ali

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.147) (2) Ibn Sa'd.

细胞的) to be worthy of the post?' 'I certainly do,' I replied, 'he was one of the first Muslims and he possesses great qualitics.' Umar 细胞的 commented, 'He is indeed as you say, but he is a man who enjoys jest and humour."

The narration then continues up to the point where Hadhrat Umar (Says, "No person is suitable for the post of Khilaafah except someone who is strong without being harsh, who is lenient without being weak, who is generous without being extravagant and who is cautious about monetary affairs without being miserly." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (West used to say, "These traits were combined in no other person besides Umar (1))."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas mentioned, "I used to serve Umar and always stood in awe of him. I went to his house one day as he sat there all alone. He then heaved such a heavy sigh that I thought he was about to die. He then raised his head to the sky and again breathed a heavy sigh. I then plucked up the courage and said to myself," By Allaah! I am certainly going to ask him about this. I then said to him, 'By Allaah! It must have been a grave concern that has made you sigh like this O Ameerul Mu'mineen. 'He replied, 'By Allaah! The concern is grave indeed! I cannot find anyone suitable to fill this post of Khilaafah. Perhaps you feel that your companion (Ali (Alia)) is worthy of the post.' I responded by saying, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Is he not worthy of the post since he had made Hijrah? Is he not worthy of the post because of his close companionship with Rasulullaah (See) Umar commented, 'He is indeed as you say, but he is a man who enjoys jest and humour."

The narration then continues up to the point where Hadhrat Umar Says, "No person can bear the post of Khilaafah except someone who is strong without being harsh, who is lenient without being weak, who is generous without being extravagant and who is cautious about monetary affairs without being miserly." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Abb Hadhrat Umar some once said, "It is improper for anyone to assume his post of Khilaafah except someone who possesses four qualities. Someone who is lenient without being weak, who is strong without being harsh, who is cautious about monetary affairs without being miserly and who is generous without being extravagant. If any one of these qualities is missing, the other three will become useless." (3) Another narration quotes Hadhrat Umar some as saying, "None can shoulder this responsibility from Allaah besides a person who does not compromise on principles, who does not behave ostentatiously who does not give in to vain desires, who is not concerned with developing his standing and who never conceals the truth even when angry." $^{(1)}$

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ubayd in his Gharaa'ib and Khateeb in Ruwaatul Maalik.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.158,159).

⁽³⁾ Abdur Razzaaq.

Hadhrat Sufyaan bin Abi Awjaa narrates that Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab once said, "By Aliaah! I know not whether I am a Khalifah or a king. If I am a king, then the matter is serious indeed." Someone from the audience said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! There is a distinct difference between the two. A Khalifah only takes something rightfully and then uses it rightfully. By the grace of Aliaah, you are exactly like this. On the other hand, a king oppresses people by usurping things from some and then giving them to others." Hadhrat Umar Hadhrat Salmaan (1966) reports that Hadhrat Umar (1966) once asked them, "Am I a king or a Khalifah?" Hadhrat Salmaan (1966) replied, "If you had ever (unlawfully) taken even a Dirham or less from the property of the Muslims and then used it illegally, you would be a king and not a Khalifah." Hadhrat Umar stigms then began to weep bitterly. (3) A man from the Banu Asad tribe narrates that he was present when Hadhrat Umar 劉寧寧 once addressed his companions. Amongst them was Hadhrat Talha 劉麗德方, Hadhrat Salmaan 劉麗德方, Hadhrat Zubayr 劉麗德方 and Hadhrat Ka'b 墨寧夢. He said to them, "I want to ask you something. However, you should beware not to lie to me because you would then destroy me as well as yourselves. I ask you to tell me in the name of Allaah whether I am a Khalifah or a king." Hadhrat Talha 🕮 and Hadhrat Zubayr 🕮 said, "You are asking us something that we have no knowledge of. We are unable to distinguish a Khalifah from a king." Hadhrat Salmaan (1986) then testified with full conviction that Hadhrat Umar 經濟學 was a Khalifah and not a king. Hadhrat Umar 經濟學 responded by saying, "You have a right to comment because you had been frequenting the company of Rasulullaah 🕮 "Hadhrat Salmaan 🕮 then qualified his statement by saying, "I say this because you exercise justice amongst your subjects, you distribute between them with fairness, you treat them with the compassion that a man treats his own family and you pass judgement according to the Book of Allaah."

Hadhrat Ka'b wise then said, "I was under the impression that none in this gathering besides me could differentiate between a king and a Khalifah. However, it is evident that Allaah has filled Salmaan with wisdom and knowledge." Hadhrat Ka'b wise then addressed Hadhrat Umar wise saying, "I testify that you are definitely a Khalifah and not a king." Hadhrat Umar wise then asked, "How is this?" Hadhrat Ka'b wise (who had been scholar of the previous scriptures) replied, "I have found mention of you in Allaah's scriptures." "Was mention made of me by my name?" enquired Hadhrat Umar wise. I have found mention of you by your qualities. I have found (the following) 'Nubuwwah and then Khilaafah and mercy on the pattern of Nubuwwah. Thereafter again Khilaafah and mercy on the pattern of Nubuwwah, followed by kingship with a bit of oppression'." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, Ibn Asaakir and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.165).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.221).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.383).

Leniency and Firmness of a Khalifah

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib (Signer) reports that when Hadhrat Umar (Signer) was appointed as Khalifah, he delivered a lecture to the people from the pulpit of Rasulullaah (Signer). After praising Allaah, he said:

"O people! I know well the feelings of you people that I am too harsh and stern, However, I was like that because I had been with Rasululiaah 經濟 as his servant and attendant and Rasulullaah Will was as Allaah describes him in the Our'aan: "extremely forgiving and merciful towards the Mu'mineen". I was therefore like a drawn sword for him unless he chose to sheath me or prevent me from doing something, in which case I would desist. Otherwise, I would be stern with people in place of the leniency that Rasulullaah & showed. This was my behaviour alongside Rasulullaah until Allaah took him from this world in a condition that he was pleased with me. I thank Allaah tremendously for that extremely good fortune. I then adopted the same attitude with the Khalifah of Rasulullaah 劉麗 Abu Bakr 生物的. You people know well his respectability, his humility and his leniency. I was also at his service like a sword in his defence, combining my sternness with his leniency. If he took the initiative in any matter before I could. I would restrain myself. Otherwise, I would forge ahead. This was my behaviour alongside him until Allaah took him from this world in a condition that he was pleased with me. I thank Allaah tremendously for that extremely good fortune. Now that the Khilaafah has been handed over to me. I know well that some of you would say. 'He was stern with us when someone else was the Khalifah, what will now happen once he is himself the Khalifah?' You people have no need to ask anyone about me because you know me and have had experiences with me. You know as much about the practices of your Nabi was as I do. I have asked Rasulullaah ee everything that I needed to ask and I now have no regrets about not asking him anything that I had wanted to ask. Now that I am Khalifah, you should understand well that the sternness you have been seeing in me shall be multiplied against an oppressor and a criminal. It will also be employed to take back from the strong ones what they had taken from the weak. However, despite all of this sternness, I shall still place my cheek on the ground for people who abstain from immoral behaviour and evil and who are obedient. If there ever arises any differences between myself and any of you concerning any matter of judgement, I shall not refuse to walk with him to (a third party) whom you choose, who will look into the matter causing the conflict. So fear Allaah, O servants of Allaah and assist me against yourselves by restraining yourselves from carrying rumours and also assist me against myself by enjoining what is good and forbidding me from evil and presenting me with (I) Nu'aym bin Hammaad in his Fitan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.389).

good counsel in the task that Allaah has appointed me to." (1)

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Zaid William reports that Hadhrat Ali William, Hadhrat Zubayr William, Hadhrat Talha William, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf William and Hadhrat Sa'd William once got together. Because Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf William was the most at ease with Hadhrat Umar William, the others said to him, "O Abdur Rahmaan! Why don't you speak to the Ameerul Mu'mineen on behalf of all the people and tell him that it often happens that a person in need approaches him for his need but then returns without having his need tended to because his fear for the Ameerul Mu'mineen prevents him from presenting his case."

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf with then went to Hadhrat Umar and addressed him saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Do be more lenient towards the people because it often happens that a person in need approaches you for his need but then returns without having his need tended to because his fear for you prevents him from presenting his case." Hadhrat Umar with said, "O Abdur Rahmaan! I want you to swear in the name of Allaah whether or not it was Ali, Uthmaan, Talha, Zubayr and Sa'd who asked you to speak to me." Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf with replied, "I swear by Allaah that it was certainly them." Hadhrat Umar with the people that I began to fear (the wrath of) Allaah that I had been so lenient with the people that I began to fear (the wrath of) Allaah because of my leniency. Thereafter, I was so stern with the people that I began to fear (the wrath of) Allaah because of my leniency. Thereafter, I was so stern with the people that I began to fear (the wrath of) Allaah because of my leniency. Thereafter, I was so stern with the people that I began to fear (the wrath of) Allaah because of my leniency. Thereafter, I was so stern with the people that I began to fear (the wrath of) Allaah because of my leniency. Thereafter, I was so stern with the people that I began to fear (the wrath of) Allaah because of my leniency. Thereafter, I was so stern with the people that I began to fear (the wrath of) Allaah because of my leniency. Thereafter, I was so stern with the people that I began to fear (the wrath of) Allaah because of my leniency. Thereafter, I was so stern with the people that I began to fear (the wrath of) Allaah because of my leniency. Thereafter, I was so stern with the people that I began to fear (the wrath of) Allaah because of my leniency.

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that Hadhrat Umar (Sim) once said, "I swear by Allaah that for the sake of Allaah my heart had become so soft that it was softer than butter and at times it had become so hard for Allaah's sake that it was harder than a stone." (3)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas was narrates that when Hadhrat Umar became the Khalifah, someone said to him, "Some people had made an effort to ensure that this post should be turned away from you." When Hadhrat Umar saked the reason fro this, the person replied, "They felt that you were too harsh." To this, Hadhrat Umar commented, "All praise be to Allaah Who has filled my heart with mercy for them and filled their hearts with awe for me." (4)

Detaining People by Whom Divisions will be Caused in the Ummah

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that when Hadhrat Umar 🕮 passed away, certain

⁽¹⁾ Haakim, Laalkalaa'i and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.147).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.206) and Ibn Asaakir.

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya.

⁽⁴⁾ Mutakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.382).

members of the Quraysh had already become irritated by him. They were people whom Hadhrat Umar whom had detained in Madinah (did not permit them to leave the city). However, Hadhrat Umar wis still continued showering favours on them. Hadhrat Umar wis used to say, "What I fear most for this Ummah is that you should disperse into the various cities (and neglect the seat of Khilaafah)." Besides the few individuals from the Muhaajireen whom Hadhrat Umar whom had confined to Madinah, Hadhrat Umar with did not impose the restriction to other people of Makkah.

Whenever one of these Muhaajireen who had been confined to Madinah would seek permission to fight in a battle, Hadhrat Umar seek said to him, "Your expeditions with Rasulullaah see had been sufficient to enter you (to Jannah). Better for you than fighting in battles today, is for you not to see the world and for the world not to see you." (Hadhrat Umar see wanted these Sahabah to remain in Madinah so that Muslims from other parts would come to Madinah to benefit from them. In this manner, Muslims would preserve their attachment with the seat of Khilaafah, thereby strengthening their unity.)

When Hadhrat Uthmaan where the Khalifah, he allowed them to go free and they dispersed in the various cities. Large numbers of people then started affiliating with them (and staying where they stayed). (Two of the narrators named) Hadhrat Muhammad and Hadhrat Talha commented, "This was the first weakness that entered Islaam and was certainly the first tragedy to befall the Ummah (because instead of developing their affiliation with the seat of Khilaafah, it caused Muslims to rather develop local ties, thus weakening the capital city)."(1)

Hadhrat Qais bin Abi Haazim reports that when Hadhrat Zubayr sought permission from Hadhrat Umar to march for a battle, Hadhrat Umar said to him, "You should rather remain scated in your house because you have already fought by the side of Rasulullaah Film However, Hadhrat Zubayr repeated the request and it was on the third or fourth occasion that Hadhrat Umar said, "Rather remain seated at home because I swear by Allaah that if you and your companions leave the borders of Madinah, you may start insurrection against the companions of Muhammad Film (2)

Rasulullaah Consults with knowledgeable People

Rasulullaah (Consults with the Sahabah (Concerning the Caravan of Abu Sufyaan and Concerning the Prisoners Taken at Badr

Hadhrat Anas Susses states that when Rasulullaah was heard about the arrival of (the caravan of) Abu Sufyaan, he consulted with the Sahabah Susses. When (1) Sayf and ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.139). Tabari (Vol.5 Pg.134) has also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.120), narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Dhahabi.

Hadhrat Abu Bakr William voiced his opinion (to march), Rasulullaah wit turned away from him. Thereafter, when Hadhrat Umar William voiced his opinion, Rasulullaah wit turned away from him as well. Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah (from the Ansaar) then said, "It is our opinion that Rasulullaah www..." The complete narration has passed at the beginning of "The Chapter Concerning Jihaad"(1).

In his narration describing the Battle of Badr, Hadhrat Umar says that when Rasulullaah 經過 consulted with Hadhrat Abu Bakr 經過過, Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Ali (about what to do with the prisoners of war captured at Badr). Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "O Rasulullaah Filese people are our cousins, our relatives and our brothers. My opinion is that we take ransoms for them, which would assist us against the Kuffaar. Perhaps Allaah would guide them and they would eventually become our allies." Rasulullaah will then asked Hadhrat Umar what his opinion was. He replied, "I swear by Allaah that I do not share the opinion of Abu Bakr. I strongly feel that you should hand so-and-so (a relative of Hadhrat Umar (1998)) over to me for execution, that you hand Ageel over to Ali for execution and that you hand over to Hamza his brother (Abbaas ﷺ) so that he could execute him. In this manner. Allaah would know that we have no inclination towards the Mushrikeen in our hearts because these men are their leaders and the most influential people they have." Hadhrat Umar (Sie Felates further, "Rasulullaah (Fee opted for the opinion of Abu Bakr and chose not to accept what I proposed. He therefore took ransom from the prisoners. The following day I found Rasulutiaah and Abu Bakr weeping. 'O Rasulullaah (2004)! I asked, 'Do inform me what makes you and your companion weep like this so that I may also weep with you if I am able to. If I am unable to weep, I shall pretend to do so to sympathise with your weeping." Rasulullaah Fee replied by saying, "I am weeping because of the opinion that your companions presented to me to accept ransom from the prisoners. I had been shown their punishment from as close as that tree (referring to a tree nearby). Allaah has also revealed a verse of the Qur'aan stating:

It is not for a Nabi (not becoming of a Nabi) that he takes prisoners until he has thoroughly beaten (the enemy) in the land (However, since this was not yet achieved during the early days of Islaam after the Battle of Badr, it was not appropriate for the Muslims to release the enemy prisoners). You desire the things (wealth) of this world (for yourselves by accepting the ransom) while Allaah desires the Aakhirah (for you). Allaah is Mighty, the Wise (what He desires for you is best)(1)(2)

⁽¹⁾ Under the heading "Rasulullaah 愛媛 Encourages Striving in the path of Aliaah and Spending One's Wealth for this Cause" and the subheading "Rasulullaah 愛媛 leaves for the Battle of Badr after Consulting with the Sahabah y".

The Narration of Hadhrat Anas (Mission About the Consultation Regarding the Prisoners of Badr

Hadhrat Anas was narrates that when Rasulullaah consulted with the Sahabah was about what was to be done with the prisoners captured during the Battle of Badr, he said, "Allaah has now granted you control over them." Hadhrat Umar was then said, "Execute them all O Rasulullaah will However, Rasulullaah was ignored his remark and said, "O people! Allaah had now granted you control over them whereas they had been your brothers just yesterday." When Hadhrat Umar was repeated his remark, Rasulullaah was again ignored it. When Rasulullaah was once again repeated what he had said, Hadhrat Abu Bakr was said, "O Rasulullaah will feel that we should forgive them and take ransoms from them." The worry on the face of Rasulullaah then disappeared and he subsequently forgave them and took the ransom. Allaah then revealed the following verse of the Qur'aan:

(الانفال آب مَا اللهِ سَبَقَ لَمَسَّكُمْ فِيْمَاۤ آخَذُتُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيْمُ ﴿ الانفال آب ١١ it were not for an order that Allaah had already been preordained (that some of the prisoners were to become Muslims), a great punishment would have afflicted you on account of what (ransom) you took (in exchange for the freedom of the prisoners). {Surah Anfaal, verse 68}(3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Ibn Mas'ood in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood reports that after the Battle of Badr, Rasulullaah said, "What is your opinion concerning these prisoners?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr responded by saying, "O Rasulullaah Free Perhaps Allaah shall forgive them." Hadhrat Umar then said, "O Rasulullaah They exiled you and called you a liar. Bring them closer so that I may execute them all." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha then spoke. He said, "O Rasulullaah I Look for a valley that had plenty of firewood. Put them all there and then set it alight upon them." Rasulullaah decision. In the meanwhile some people said that Rasulullaah www would adopt the opinion of Hadhrat Abu Bakr will others felt that he would accept the opinion of Hadhrat Umar will while another group felt that it would be the opinion of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawaaha will that would be accepted.

⁽¹⁾ Surah Anfaal, verse 67. The verses after this read as follows "If it were not for an order that Allaah had already been preordained (that some of the prisoners were to become Muslims), a great punishment would have afflicted you on account of what (ransom) you took (in exchange for the freedom of the prisoners). So partake of (enjoy) the spoils (tansom) you have received (regarding it to be) lawful and pure (for you). Fear Allaah (and sincetely seek forgiveness from Him)! Verily Allaah is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful (and will therefore forgive your shortcomings)."

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, Muslim, Abu Dawood, Tirmidhi, Ibn Abi Shaybah, Abu Awaanah, Ibn Jareer, Ibn Mundhir, Ibn Abi Haatim, Ibn Hibbaan, Abu Shaykh, Ibn Mardway, Abu Nu'aym and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.265).

⁽³⁾ Ahmad, as quoted in Nasbur Ra'ya (Vol.3 Pg.403). Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.87) has commented on the chain of narrators.

When Rasulullaah emerged, he said, "Verily Allaah has softened the hearts of some men so much that they have become softer than milk. Allaah has also hardened the hearts of other men so much that their hearts have become harder than stones. Your likeness, O Abu Bakr, is like that of Ibraheem who prayed:

'So whoever will follow me (by helieving in Towheed), then he is certainly from me (from among the adherents of my religion). And whoever will disobey me, then (I pray that you give him the ability to ohey me because) surely You are Most Forgiving, Most Merciful.' {Surah Ibraheem, verse 36}

Your likeness, O Abu Bakr, is also like that of Isa who will pray:

(المائدة آيت ١١٨)

'If You punish them (my followers), then verily they are Your slaves (and You are at liberty to treat them as You please), and if You forgive them, then surely You are the Mighty, the Wise (and Your reason for doing so is filled with wisdom).' {Surah Maa'idah, verse 118}

Your likeness, O Umar, is like that of Nooh who prayed:

'O my Rabb! Do not leave even one of the Kaafiroon (alive) on earth.' (Surah Nooh, verse 26)

Your likeness, O Umar, is also like that of Moosa who prayed:

O our Rabb! Destroy their wealth (so that they cannot use it for evil purposes) and harden their hearts so that they do not have Imaan until they witness a painful punishment (a time when having Imaan will be tutile since it will be too late). {Surah Yunus, verse 88}

Because you people are poverty-stricken, no prisoner shall be freed without either ransom or execution."

Narrating further, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood says, "I then said, 'O Rasulullaah says! Do exclude Sahl bin Baydaa from this because I have heard him accept Islaam.' Rasulullaah says then remained silent and there was not a day that I saw myself more fearful than that day when I thought that a rock from the sky would soon fall on me. Rasulullaah ### then said, 'Sahl bin Baydaa is excluded.' It was after this incident that Allaah revealed the verses:

﴿ مَا كَانَ لِنَبِيّ آنُ يَكُونَ لَهَ آسُرى حَتَّى يُنْخِنَ فِى الْأَرْضِ * تُرِيْدُوْنَ عَرَضَ الدُّنْيَا * وَاللّٰهُ يُرِيْدُ الْأَخِرَةَ * وَاللّٰهُ عَزِيْزٌ حَكِيْمٌ ۞ لَوْ لَا كِتْبٌ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ سَبَقَ لَمَسَّكُمُ فِيمَآ آخَذُتُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيْمٌ ۞ ﴿ (سورة الانفال: آبن ١٦٠ ٨٠)

It is not for a Nabi (not becoming of a Nabi) that he takes prisoners until he has thoroughly beaten (the enemy) in the land (However, since this was not yet achieved during the early days of Islaam after the Battle of Badr, it was not appropriate for the Muslims to release the enemy prisoners). You desire the things (wealth) of this world (for yourselves by accepting the ransom) while Allaah desires the Aakhirah (for you). Allaah is Mighty, the Wise (what He desires for you is best). If it were not for an order that Allaah had already been preordained (that some of the prisoners were to become Muslims), a great punishment would have afflicted you on account of what (ransom) you took (in exchange for the freedom of the prisoners). (Surah Anfaal, verses 67.68).

Rasulullaah A Consults with Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah A and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh Concerning the Produce of Madinah

Hadhrat Zuhri narrates that when the Muslims were suffering extreme hardship (during the Battle of Áhzaab), Rasulullaah see sent for Uyayna bin Hisn and Haarith bin Auf Murri who were the two leaders of the Banu Ghitfaan tribes. He offered them a third of the produce of Madinah on condition that they withdraw their men from fighting the Muslims. The treaty was being concluded between Rasulullaah and the two leaders and they were already in the process of writing the document. Verbal discussions were still underway and the treaty was not yet concluded. The witnesses had also not yet been called. However, when Rasulullaah intended to conclude the agreement, he first summoned the two Sa'ds (Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh see and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah see). He presented the situation to them and asked them for their opinions.

platform and are ravaging you from all sides. By engaging in this treaty, I wish to dilute their strength somewhat."

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh then said, "O Rasulullaah I These people and us had been ascribing partners to Allaah and worshipping idols. Neither did we worship Allaah nor did we recognise who He was. (During those times) These people had never entertained hopes of eating a single date from Madinah unless it was offered to them as a token of hospitality or they bought it. How can we now give them any portion of our wealth once Allaah has honoured us with Islaam, guided us to it and accorded us tremendous respect because of it. By Allaah! We have no need for this treaty. By Allaah! All that we are willing to give them are the strokes of our swords until the time arrives when Allaah passes judgement between us and them." Rasulullaah is said, "You know best what you want." Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh then took hold of the script and erased whatever was written on it. He then said, "They may now do their best to try to harm us!" (1)

The narration of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Concerning this consultation Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah in arrates that Haarith once approached Rasulullaah and said, "if you do not give us half the produce of Madinah, we shall fill her with cavalry and infantry." Rasulullaah replied by saying, "Wait until I consult with the Sa'ds (referring to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh and Hadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah (When Rasulullaah We consulted with them.) They said, "By Allaah! Even during the Period of Ignorance we never gave in to such humiliation, why should we do so now when Allaah has blessed us with Islaam." Rasulullaah we then got back to Haarith and informed him accordingly. Haarith responded by scowling, "You have betrayed me, O Muhammad!" (2)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah also reports that Haarith from the Banu Ghitfaan tribe once approached Rasulullaah with the demand, "Give us half the produce of Madinah." Rasulullaah with replied, "Not until I have consulted with the Sa'ds." Rasulullaah with the sent for Hadhrat Sa'd bin Mu'aadh with Jiadhrat Sa'd bin Ubaadah with Jiadhrat Sa'd bin Mas'ood with Rabee with Jiadhrat Sa'd bin Khaythama with Jiadhrat Sa'd bin Mas'ood with Rabee with Jiadhrat Sa'd bin Khaythama with Jiadhrat Sa'd bin Mas'ood with Rabee with Jiadhrat Sa'd bin Khaythama with Jiadhrat Sa'd bin Mas'ood with Rabee wat Jiadhrat Sa'd bin Khaythama with Jiadhrat Sa'd bin Mas'ood with Rabee wat Jiadhrat Sa'd bin Khaythama with Jiadhrat Allahah and Jiadhrat Sa'd bin Khaythama with Jiadhrat Hadhrat Sa'd bin Khaythama with Jiadhrat Sa'd bin Khaythama with Jiadhrat Hadhrat Sa'd bin Khaythama with Jiadhrat Sa'd bin Khaythama with Jiadhrat Sa'd bin Khaythama with Jiadhrat Jiadhr

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.104).

⁽²⁾ Bazzaar.

this out of compassion for us, then by Allaah, there was a time when they and us were on an equal footing. They were then unable to take a single date from us unless it was bought or given as a token of hospitality." Rasulullaah then said to them, "It is as you say (I am doing this out of compassion for you)." Rasulullaah then addressed Haarith (and those with him) and said, "You have heard what they have to say." Haarith (and the others) glowered, "You have betrayed us, O Muhammad!" (1)

Hadhrat Musaddad reports from Hadhrat Umar Williams that he would also be present when Rasulullaah Williams would spend nights discussing the affairs of the Muslims with Hadhrat Abu Bakr Williams (2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Consults with Men of knowledge

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Consults with Men of Knowledge and Insight who Constituted the Consultative Assembly During his Period and the Period of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Qaasim narrates that whenever a matter arose and Hadhrat Abu Bakr seeded to consult with men of knowledge and wisdom, he would summon certain men from the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar. They included Hadhrat Umar see, Hadhrat Uthmaan see, Hadhrat Ali see, Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf see, Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal see, Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b sees and Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit sees. These men used to issue Fataawaa (rulings) during his period and people would go to them for rulings. The period of Hadhrat Abu Bakr sees passed like this, and when Hadhrat Umar sees became the Khalifah afterwards, he also used to summon these men. When Hadhrat Umar swas was the Khalifah, the task of issuing Fataawaa was entrusted to Hadhrat Uthmaan swas, Hadhrat Ubay said and Hadhrat Zaid swas. (3)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar Concerning the Demarcation of Land for Certain Sahabah

Hadhrat Ubaydah reports that Uyayna bin Hisn and Aqra bin Haabis once approached Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1998) saying, "O successor of Rasululiaah (1998). There is a barren piece of land in our area that bears no grass and is useless. If you see it fit, do make it over to us so that we may work on it and cultivate it." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1998) decided to make it over to them and had the title deed written in their favour. He appointed Hadhrat Umar (1998) as witness to the deed, but because Hadhrat Umar was not present there, the two men had to take the deed to him so that he may be witness to it.

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.132) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Kanzui Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.45).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg. 134).

When Hadhrat Umar William heard what the deed contained, he took it from the two men, spat on it and thereby erased what was written on it. The two men were infuriated and addressed him with harsh words. Hadhrat Umar William said, "Rasulullaah William used to appease you (by granting you properties) at a time when Islaam was weak. Allaah has now strengthened Islaam (and there is no need to appease you), so you may go and do whatever you can against me. May Allaah offer you no protection even if you ask for it!" The two men stormed back to Hadhrat Abu Bakr William in a fury and said, "By Allaah! We do not know whether the Khalifah is yourself or Umar!" Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "In fact he could have been the Khalifah if he chose to."

Hadhrat Umar then arrived in a rage and when he stood before Hadhrat Abu Bakr he asked, "Tell me about this land that you handed over to these two men. Does it belong to you or is it the public property of the Muslims?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "It is the public property of the Muslims." "Then why did you give it to these two men rather than anyone else from amongst the Muslims?" Hadhrat Umar had demanded to know. Hadhrat Abu Bakr replied, "I had consulted with these people around me and they indicated that I do so." Hadhrat Umar said, "Although you consulted with those around you, did you obtain the opinion and consent of every Muslim?" (Because it is not possible to seek the opinion of every person in every matter,) Hadhrat Abu Bakr (chose not to reply to Hadhrat Umar had and rather) said, "I did tell you that you are more capable of Khilaafah than I am, but you overpowered me (and forced me to assume the task instead)." (1)

The Question of the Kharaaj from Bahrain

Hadhrat Atiyya bin Bilaal and Hadhrat Sahm bin Minjaab both narrate that Agra and Zabargaan approached Hadhrat Abu Bakr was and said, "Hand over to us the Kharaaj from Bahrain and we shall give you the guarantee that no one from our tribe will ever leave Islaam." Hadhrat Abu Bakr was acceded to the request and wrote a declaration to the effect. Amongst the witnesses appointed was Hadhrat Umar 经减少。 Since the agreement was facilitated by Hadhrat Talha bin Ubaydullaah (Millia), it was he who brought the written agreement to Hadhrat Umar 劉璋德. When Hadhrat Umar 劉璋德 looked at it, he refused to be a witness and exclaimed, "There is no need to honour (appease) people anymore!" He then erased the content and tore it up. Hadhrat Talha was became extremely angry and returned to Hadhrat Abu Bakr ($150) saying, "Are you the Ameer or Umar?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr (See replied, "He is the Ameer although it is me who has to be obeyed." Upon hearing this, Hadhrat Talha was silent (because while his remark was such that it would have led to disunity, the (1) Ibn Abi Shayba, Bukhari in his Taareekh, Ibn Asaakir, Bayhaqi and Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.189). The author of Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.55) and (Vol.1 Pg.59) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abdur Razzaag has also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 1 Pg.80).

reply of Hadhrat Abu Bakr was one that engendered unity). (1)

Consultation with the Sahabah 😂 🗯 in Battle

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr (1976) reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1976) once wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (1976) saying, "Rasulullaah (1976) used to consult in matters of war, so ensure that you do the same."

A narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abi Awfa (1986) has already passed discussing the consultation of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1986) with men of knowledge before engaging the Romans in battle. (3)

Hadhrat Umar Consults with Men of knowledge

Hadhrat Umar Informs his Consultative Assembly about his Proposal to the Daughter of Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Abu Ja'far narrates that Hadhrat Umar requested Hadhrat Ali for his daughter Ummu Kulthoom's hand in marriage. Hadhrat Ali said, "I had intended to marry all my daughters only to the sons of Ja'far." To this, Hadhrat Umar said, "O Ali! Marry her to me because I swear by Allaah that there is no other person on earth who anticipates as much as I do by treating her well (this he explains later)." Hadhrat Ali said then agreed to let Hadhrat Umar said marry his daughter. Hadhrat Umar said then approached the gathering of Muhaajireen who always sat in the Masjid between the grave of Rasulullaah and the pulpit. They included Hadhrat Ali said, Hadhrat Uthmaan said, Hadhrat Zubayr said, Talha said and Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf said. Whenever any matter presented itself to him from far off places, Hadhrat Umar would always inform the members of this gathering and then seek their opinions about the matter.

This time he came to them and said, "Congratulate me on my new marriage!" They all congratulated him and then asked, "Who did you marry, O Ameerul Mu'mineen?" "The daughter of Ali bin Abi Taalib," he replied. He then started to explain, "Indeed Rasulullaah said, 'Every connection and relation shall be severed on the day of Qiyaamah except my connections and my relations.' I had been a companion of Rasulullaah said and now I wish to become his relative as well." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Sayl and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 390).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.319). BAzzaar and Ugayli have also reported the narration authentically, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.163).

⁽³⁾ This narration is found under the heading "Hadhrat Abu Bakr 學過過 Ensures that Armies are Dispatched in the Path of Allaah. He Encourages the Muslims to March in Jihaad and Consults with the Sahabah 經過過 About Fighting the Romans" and the subheading "Hadhrat Abu Bakr 医遗憾 Consults with the Senior Sahabah 經過過 Concerning a Military Offensive Against the Romans and Delivers a Speech in this Regard".

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Sa'd, Sa'eed bin Mansoor and Ibn Rahway in brief, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.98).

Hadhrat Umar (Simon) and Hadhrat Uthmaan (Simon) Consult with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Simon) and the Good Comments that Hadhrat Umar (Simon) and Hadhrat Sa'd (Simon) made about him

Hadhrat Ataa bin Yasaar reports that Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Ithmaan (Hadhrat Ithmaan (Hadhrat Ithmaan (Hadhrat Ithmaan (Hadhrat Ithmaan (Hadhrat Uthmaan (Hadhrat Ithmaan (Hadhra

Hadhrat Ya'qoob bin Zaid narrates that Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab (b) seed to consult with Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (b) about every matter of importance and would say to him, "Dive into the matter, dear diver (because he was capable of reaching the essence of the problem at hand)."

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas (Sies said, "I have not seen any person as quick-witted, as intelligent, as knowledgeable and as tolerant as Abdullaah bin Abbaas (I have seen Umar (Sies) summon him to solve intricate problems and say, 'An intricate problem has presented itself to you.' Umar (Sies) would then do only what Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Proposed even though he was surrounded by Muhaajireen and Ansaar who had participated in the Battle of Badr." (1)

Hadhrat Ibn Shihaab reports that whenever an intricate problem presented itself before Hadhrat Umar (1986), he would summon some young men to consult and choose to act according to the sharpness of their intellect. (2)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab (would engage in so much consultation that he would even consult women (when the need arose). In fact, there were several occasions when he liked the opinions that they expressed and acted on it. (3)

A Remarkable Lecture of Hadhrat Umar (1996) Concerning Consultation

Hadhrat Muhammad, Talha and Ziyaad all report that Hadhrat Umar (3 miles from Madinah) where he instructed that the army comes to a halt. The soldiers did not know whether he intended to camp there or proceed further. Whenever the Muslims intended to know something from Hadhrat Umar (3 miles), they always sent either Hadhrat Uthmaan (3 miles) or Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf (3 miles). In fact, during the period of Hadhrat Umar (3 miles) Khilaafah, Hadhrat Uthmaan (3 miles)

Haakim has also reported the narration claiming that it is authentic, but Dhahabi has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Said

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi and Ibn Sam'aani.

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi and Ibn Seercen, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.163).

was known as "Radeef". According to the Arabs, a "Radeef" is a person who is regarded as the leader's second-in-command and the term is coined for the one whom the people popularly see as the leader's successor. However, whenever these two men were unable to extract from Hadhrat Umar the information the people required, they would then send Hadhrat Abbaas hadhrat Uthmaan then asked Hadhrat Umar the information the people required, they would then send Hadhrat Umar the information the people should gather as they do for salaah and when they had assembled around him, he informed them of the latest intelligence. He then waited for their response. Majority of the people echoed that Hadhrat Umar then waited for their response. Majority of the people echoed that Hadhrat Umar the should march ahead with them in tow. Hadhrat Umar the commended this opinion for he did not like to disregard their opinion. He chose to rather dissuade them in a kind manner. He therefore said, "Prepare yourselves and prepare others. I shall continue with you unless I receive an opinion that is more appropriate."

Hadhrat Umar with then sent for men of insight and the cream of Rasulullaah companions and the most prominent Arab leaders gathered together. Hadhrat Umar said said to them, "I feel that I should proceed with the army, but I wish you to give me your opinion on the matter." The men gathered for discussion and unanimously agreed that another companion of Rasulullaah sistematically should be sent (as commander of the army) while Hadhrat Umar says stayed behind (in Madinah) to dispatch reinforcements. They felt that if victory is achieved, the result would be what everyone desired and if not, another commander and another army could always be sent. In this manner (they said), the Kuffaar would be further enraged, the Muslims would guard against making mistakes and Allaah's assistance would arrive according to His promise.

Hadhrat Umar when again announced that the people should gather as they do for salaah and they did. Hadhrat Umar who also sent for Hadhrat Ali whom he had appointed as his deputy in Madinah and for Hadhrat Talha whom he had sent ahead with the scouting party. At the same time, he also sent for Hadhrat Zubayr whom he had appointed as commanders of the two flanks of the army. (When everyone was present,) Hadhrat Umar who then stood amongst the people and said:

"Verily Aliaah has gathered the Muslims around Islaam, has created love between their hearts and made them brothers in Islaam. The Muslims are therefore like a single body in their relationship with each other. No part is free from pain when another part is suffering. It is therefore incumbent on the Muslims that their matters be decided by mutual consultation between their men of insight (the consultative assembly). The masses need to follow the one who is their leader and are also bound by the decision of the consultative assembly. The people will have to adopt the course that these men plan. In fact, even the Ameer is bound by the decision that the consultative assembly make. People are also bound to follow the battle strategies that these men outline and approve of. O people! I was also a man like the rest of you (marching in Jihaad) until the men of knowledge and insight amongst you stopped me from proceeding ahead. I am now also of the opinion that I should rather stay behind (in Madinah) and send someone else (as commander of the army). I have already presented this matter to all whom I have sent ahead and all who have been left behind."

Although Hadhrat Umar (1) has appointed Hadhrat Ali (1) as his deputy in Madinah and had made Hadhrat Talha (1) the commander of the scouting group that had already reached a place called Ahwas, he ensured that even they were present to make the decision. (1)

Hadhrat Umar bin Abdul Azeez This in arrates that when Hadhrat Umar This was informed about the martyrdom of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Mas'ood and that the Persians had rallied around a common leader from the house of the Kisra, he summoned the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar and marched until they reached a place called Siraar. The rest of the narration is similar to the one mentioned above. (2)

The Letter that Hadhrat Umar wrote to Hadhrat Sa'd wrote

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Sallaam Baykindi narrates that even during the Period of Ignorance Hadhrat Amr bin Ma'diyakrib had achieved many feats. He became a Muslim after arriving with a delegation to meet Rasulullaah Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab sees sent him to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas (who was commanding the Muslim army) in Qaadisiyyah, where he (his military genius) was being put to the test. Hadhrat Umar sees wrote to Hadhrat Sa'd sees saying, "I am reinforcing you with two thousand men. They are Amr bin Ma'diyakrib sees and Tulayha bin Khuwaylid (Asadi) sees. Consult with them in military matters but do not appoint them to posts of command (because their daunting courage would place the lives of others at risk)." (3)

Appointing an Ameer

The First Commander Appointed in Islaam

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas in arrates, "When Rasulullaah arrived in Madinah, the Juhayna tribe approached him with the request, 'Now that you have arrived in our midst, do make a treaty with us so that we may bring our people to you.' After Rasulullaah had made the treaty with them, they accepted Islaam. Rasulullaah the dispatched us during the month of Rajab with instructions to attack the Banu Kinaana tribe, who lived close to where the Juhayna tribe lived. We were not even a hundred men when we attacked them,

⁽I) Ibn Jareer.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.319) has commented on the chain of narrators.

whereas they were greater in number. When we sought assistance from the Juhayna tribe, they refused to render any saying, 'Why are you fighting during a sacred month.' We told them that we were only fighting people who had exiled us from a sacred place (Makkah) during a sacred month⁽¹⁾."

"We then asked each other what to do. While some of us felt that we should report the matter to Rasulullaah , others were of the opinion that we should remain where we were. Me and a few others opted to rather attack a caravan of the Quraysh. During those times, the practice was that whoever took anything as booty from the enemy, the possessions became his own property. So while we proceeded to attack the caravan, our companions went back to Rasulullaah and reported the incident to him. Rasulullaah face face became red with anger and he stood up saying, 'You left me as a united group and return separated! It was this very disunity that destroyed the nations before you. I shall now appoint as your commander a man who may not be the best of you but who is certainly the most enduring through hunger and thirst.' Rasulullaah the hasadi are appointed himser as our commander, who was the first commander appointed in Islaam." (2)

Appointing an Ameer over Ten Persons

Hadhrat Shihaab Ambari narrates, "I was the first to set alight the gates of Tustar when Hadhrat Ash'ari 劉德國 was struck down by an arrow. When the city was conquered, Hadhrat Ash'ari 劉德國 appointed me as Ameer over ten members of my tribe." (3)

Appointing an Ameer for a Journey

Hadhrat Umar (1985) once said, "When there are three person travelling, they should appoint one of them as Ameer. This appointment has been commanded by Rasulullaah (1985)." (4)

Who Qualifies to be an Ameer?

Those who Know Most Qur'aan Qualify to be Ameer

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah (Suissi narrates that Rasulullaah (Suissi once dispatched an exceptionally large expedition. Rasulullaah (Suissi made each one of them recite whatever portion of the Qur'aan he knew. When Rasulullaah (Suissi oame to a man who was one of the youngest and asked him what portion of the Qur'aan he knew, he named several Surahs that he knew including Surah Baqara. "Do you ⁽¹⁾ The Arabs considered the months of Dhui Qa'dah, Dhui Hijjah, Muharram and Rajab as sacred months in which fighting was forbidden.

⁽²⁾ Ahmad. ibn Abi Shayba has also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaai (Vol.7 Pg.60), as did Baghawi, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.278). Bayhaqi has also reported the narration in his Dalaa'il with the following difference: They asked, "Why are you fighting during a sacred month." We said to them, "In this sacred month we are only fighting people who had exiled us from a sacred place (Makkah)." This is reported in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.3 Pg.248). Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.66) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Shayba, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.159).

⁽⁴⁾ Bazzaar, Ibn Khuzayma, Daar Qutni and Haakim, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.344).

know Surah Baqara?" Rasulullaah enquired. When the man replied in the affirmative, Rasulullaah said, "Go ahead! You are now their Ameer." One of the prominent persons amongst them said, "The only thing that prevented me from learning Surah Baqara was the fear that I would be unable to recite it in Tahajjud salaah." Rasulullaah said, "Learn the Qur'aan and recite it because the example of a person who learns the Qur'aan and recites it is like a bag full of musk, from which fragrance emanates and spreads in every direction. On the other hand, the example of a person who learns the Qur'aan and then sleeps with it in his heart is like a bag of musk, the mouth of which has been sealed." (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Uthmaan was about those Knowing the Most Qur'aan to be the Most qualified for the Post of Ameer

Hadhrat Uthmaan see narrates that Rasulullaah see once dispatched an expedition towards Yemen and appointed as their Ameer someone who was the youngest amongst them. However, a few days had passed and they had not yet left. Rasulullaah see met one of the men and addressing him by his name asked, "What is the matter? Why have you not yet left?" He replied, "O Rasulullaah see! Our Ameer has a problem with his leg." Rasulullaah see then went to the man and seven times recited:

"I commence in the name of Allaah, I seek refuge in Allaah, in the power of the bad in all things (in it!"

Thereafter, Rasulullaah blew on him and he was cured. An elderly person (belonging to the expedition) said, "O Rasulullaah less! How can you appoint him as our Ameer when he is the youngest of us all?" When Rasulullaah mentioned the man's knowledge of the Qur'aan, the elderly person said, "O Rasulullaah less! I would have certainly learnt the Qur'aan had I not feared that I would be complacent and not recite it in the Tahajjud salaah." Rasulullaah then mentioned, "The example of the Qur'aan is like a bag that you fill with musk. Such is the example of the Qur'aan when the Qur'aan is in your heart and you recite it." (2)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr Refuses to give Authority/ Leadership to the Veterans of Badr and the Statement of Hadhrat Umar In in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Bakr bin Muhammad Ansaari reports that it was once said to Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("O successor of Rasulullaah ("E")! Why do you not give command to the veterans of Badr?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr ("Foreigner replied, "I certainly acknowledge their high status, but (I do not give them command because) I do not like to taint them with this world." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Tirmidhi, Ibn Majah and Ibn Hibbaan, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.12).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.7 Pg.161) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Imraan bin Abdullaah reports that Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b 劉德 once asked Hadhrat Umar 劉德 , "What is it that you do not give me command?" Hadhrat Umar 劉德 replied, "I do not like to taint your Deen." (2)

The letter of Hadhrat Umar (Concerning the Appointment of Commanders and his description of an Ameer

Hadhrat Haaritha bin Mudarrib narrates that Hadhrat Umar ﷺ wrote the following letter to them:

I have sent Ammaar bin Yaasir was as your Ameer and Abdullaah bin Mas'ood as your teacher and minister. They are both amongst the chosen companions of Rasulullaah and veterans of Badr. Learn from them and follow their example. By sending Abdullah to you, I have actually sacrificed my own need for him. I have also sent Uthmaan bin Hunayf was as to survey the rural areas of Iraq. I have stipulated that their wages should be a goat every day. Half the goat and its innards should be given to Ammaar (because as the Ameer, he would naturally have guests to feed) and the other half should be shared between the other three men (i.e. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mas'ood was, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Hunayf was and Hadhrat Hudhayfa bin Yamaan who was sent as an assistant surveyor)." (3)

Hadhrat Sha'bi narrates that Hadhrat Umar wow once asked, "Tell me who I should appoint to take charge of a public matter that is of great concern to me?" When the name of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Auf was suggested, Hadhrat Umar was noted that he was not up to the task. When another name was suggested, Hadhrat Umar was said, "I have no need for him." When Hadhrat Umar was asked who it was that he required, he replied, "Someone who will be like one of the people when he becomes the Ameer (because of his humility) and when he is not the Ameer, he appears to be the Ameer (because of his high sense of responsibility)." The people (with Hadhrat Umar wow) then said, "We know of none suitable besides Rabee bin Ziyaad Haarithi." "That is true," confirmed Hadhrat Umar wow. (4)

Who will be Successful as an Ameer

Hadhrat Abu Waa'il Shaqeeq bin Salama reports that Hadhrat Umar (Sie once appointed Hadhrat Bishr bin Aasim (Sie ot collect the Zakaah of the Hawaazin tribe. However, when Hadhrat Bishr (Sie failed to do so, Hadhrat Umar (Sie of the him and asked, "What has kept you back? Is it not necessary to listen to me

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.146).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.60).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd, Haakim and Sa'eed bin Mansoor, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.314). Tabraani has also reported the narration without the part mentioning Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Hunayi 经证券, Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.291) has commented on the chain of narrators and Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.136) has also reported the narration in detail with another chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Ahmad Haakim in his Kuna, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.164).

and to obey me?" "Of course," replied Hadhrat Bishr "", "but I have heard Rasulullaah "say, "Whoever is appointed to carry out a public task shall be brought forward on the Day of Qiyaamah and made to stand on the bridge spanning Jahannam. If he carried out the task well, he will be saved, but if he did not fulfil the responsibility, the bridge will shatter and he will fall for seventy years into Jahannam."

Hadhrat Umar William left in a very distressed and worried state. Hadhrat Abu Dharr then met him and asked, "Why do I see you so distressed and worried?" Hadhrat Umar (See replied, "Why should I not be distressed and worried when I have heard Bishr bin Aasim say, "I have heard Rasulullaah 🕮 say, 'Whoever is appointed to carry out a public task shall be brought forward on the Day of Oiyaamah and made to stand on the bridge spanning Jahannam. If he carried out the task well, he will be saved, but if he did not fulfil the responsibility, the bridge will shatter and he will fall for seventy years into Jahannam." Hadhrat Abu Dharr (asked, "Did you not hear Rasulullaah say this?" When Hadhrat Umar (said that he had not, Hadhrat Abu Dharr 墨寧寧 said, "I testify that I had certainly heard Rasulullaah ﷺ state, "Whoever is appointed to carry out any public task shall be brought forward on the Day of Qiyaamah and made to stand on the bridge spanning Jahannam. If he carried out the task well, he will be saved, but if he did not fulfil the responsibility, the bridge will shatter and he will fall for seventy years into Jahannam, and Jahannam is extremely black and dark.' Now which of these two narrations instils more fear in your heart?" Hadhrat Umar replied, "They have both instilled great fear in my heart. Who will then be able to accept the responsibility and do justice to it?"

Hadhrat Abu Dharr Messer replied, "The person whose nose Allaah intends cutting and whose cheek Allaah wishes to bring to the ground (whom Allaah wishes to disgrace). However, we know only good of your Khilaafah. Then again, it is possible that if you hand over the post to someone who does not exercise justice, you will also not be saved from the sin (of his injustice)." (1)

Refusing to be an Ameer

Hadhrat Miqaad bin Aswad Refuses to be an Ameer and the Statement of Hadhrat Anas in this Regard

Hadhrat Anas 經濟等 reports that Rasulullaah 經濟 once appointed Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad 经减多 as Ameer of a troop of cavalrymen. When he returned from the expedition, Rasulullaah 經濟 asked him what he thought about being an Ameer. He replied, "I was helped to sit and to stand (the men gave me great honour) to the extent that I feel as if I am no longer myself (my humility has been diminished)." Raşulullaah see commented, "Leadership it like that (it does that to a person)." Hadhrat Miqdaad see then said, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that I shall never again assume any post of leadership." Thereafter, Hadhrat Miqdaad see would even decline when people asked him to lead them in salaah. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.44). Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.205) has commented on the chain of narrators. Abdur Razzaaq, Abu Nu'aym, Abu Sa'eed Naqqaash, Baghawi and Daar Qutni have also reported the narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.163). Ibn Abi Shayba and Ibn Mandah have also reported it with another chain of narrators, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.152).

Another narration from Hadhrat Anas was quotes that Hadhrat Miqdaad said, "I was helped on to my conveyance and helped to dismount until I felt as if I was superior to the others." Rasulullaah the then told him, "Such is leadership. You may therefore either accept it or reject it." Hadhrat Miqdaad then swore, "I swear by the Being Who has sent you with the truth that I shall never again assume command of even two persons." (2)

The Narration of Tabraani about the Incident of Hadhrat Miqdaad

Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad Says, "Rasulullaah See sent me on an expedition. When we returned, he asked me, 'How do you find yourself?' I replied, 'I gradually started to think that the others were my servants. I swear by Allaah that after this I shall never again take command of even two persons." (3) It is reported that Rasulullaah see once appointed someone to lead an expedition. When the man had completed his duties and returned, Rasulullaah asked him, "How was it to be the Amcer?" The man replied, "Although I behaved like one of them, they all mounted when I did and dismounted when I did." Rasulullaah see commented, "Leaders stand at the door of oppression care prone to oppress) except for those whom Allaah saves (from committing oppression)." The man then said, "I swear by Allaah that I shall never again accept command from you or from anybody else." Rasulullaah

The Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave to Hadhrat Raafi Taa'i About Being an Ameer

Hadhrat Raafi Taa'i saas narrates that he accompanied Hadhrat Abu Bakr sais on an expedition and when they were returning, he asked Hadhrat Abu Bakr sais for some advice. Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Establish the Fardh saiaah at its fixed hours, pay the Zakaah due on your wealth with the pleasure of your heart, fast during the month of Ramadhaan and perform pilgrimage to the House of Allaah (Hajj). Remember well that Hijrah in Islaam is an excellent virtue, and to make Jihaad in Hijrah is very good. Also remember that you should never broadly until even his back teeth were visible. (4)

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.201) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.174). A similar narration has also been reported from Badhrat Miqdaad 经路额 himself, albeit briefly.

⁽³⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.201) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽⁴⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.201) has commented on the chain of narrators.

become an Ameer. This post of leadership that appears to be so pleasurable today will soon become so widespread that people who are not fit for it will have it. The person who becomes an Ameer shall be amongst those to experience the longest reckoning (on the Day of Qiyaamah) and also the harshest of punishment (for failing in his duties). On the other hand, the person who does not become an Ameer will be amongst those to experience the shortest reckoning and the lightest of punishment. This is because leaders are most prone to oppress the Mu'mineen and whoever oppresses the Mu'mineen has breached his pledge with Allaah since the Mu'mineen are Allaah's neighbours and His slaves. By Allaah! If even the goat or camel of your neighbour has to come to some harm, you would spend the night with swollen veins (in anger) repeatedly saying, 'My neighbour's goat!' or 'My neighbour's camel!' (More than this) Allaah has a greater right to get angry for the sake of His neighbours." (1)

The Incident that Occurred between Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Raafi Concerning Leadership

Hadhrat Raafi was narrates that Rasulullaah was dispatched Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas was as commander of the army that marched to the Battle of Dhaatus Salaasil. Together with him in the army Rasulullaah was also sent Hadhrat Abu Bakr was, Hadhrat Umar was and other leading Sahabah was. The army proceeded until they set up camp at the two mountains of the Tay tribe. When Hadhrat Umar was suggested that they find a guide to show them the road, the others said that the only guide can be Raafi bin Amr because he had been a 'rabeel'. The narrator of the Hadith says that he asked his teacher Hadhrat Taariq what a 'rabeel' was and he was informed that a 'rabeel' was a robber who single-handedly tackles a group of people and robs them all.

Hadhrat Raafi Anarrates further, "When we had completed the expedition and returned to the place from where we had left, I had already judged Abu Bakr to be an excellent man, so I approached him and said, 'O man of Halaal! From amongst all your companions, I have judged you to be the best, so tell me something that will make me part of your people and just like you if I remember it.' Abu Bakr Asid, 'Can you remember your five fingers?' When I replied in the affirmative he said, 'Testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allaah the One Who has no partner, that Muhammad is the Rasul of Allaah, establish salaah, pay Zakaah if you have wealth, perform the pilgrimage to the Kabah and fast during Ramadhaan. Can you remember this?' 'Of course,' I replied. He then added, 'And there is also something else, that you should never become the Ameer of even two persons.' I said, 'Can anyone be given command other than you veterans of Badr?' He replied, 'This post will soon spread until it reaches you and even people whose status is inferior to yours.'

Abu Bakr then continued, Verily when Alfaah sent His messenger, people

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Mubaarak in his Zuhd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.162).

started entering the fold of Islaam. Amongst them were those whom Allaah had guided and who (gladly) entered Islaam. Others were those whom the sword had compelled (to accept Islaam). All these people have sought Allaah's protection and are Allaah's neighbours in his custody. When a man becomes the Ameer and the people (under his command) oppress each other. Allaah will take revenge from him if he does not give back to the oppressed what the oppressors had taken from them. This is just like the case when your neighbour's goat is taken away and you spend the entire day with swollen veins out of feeling for your neighbour. In the same way, Allaah also lends his support to His neighbours." Hadhrat Raafi 岩域崎 reports further, "It was a year later that Abu Bakr 劉城崎 was made the Khalifah. I then rode off to meet him. I introduced myself as Raafi and reminded him where I had been his guide. When he confirmed that he remembered who I was. I said, 'You used to prevent me from becoming an Ameer and now you have mounted a much greater task as the Ameer of the entire Ummah of Muhammad (He replied, Indeed, because the one who does not enforce the Book of Allaah amongst the people shall earn the curse of Allaah." (1)

The Sahabah Prefer Fighting Rather than Taking Command

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Amr bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas narrates that his uncles Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas (Hadhrat Abaan bin Sa'eed bin Al Aas (Hadhrat Abaan

The Incident that Occurred between Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Abaan bin Sa'eed Concerning an Appointment to Command and Hadhrat Umar Dispatches Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Sa'eed bin Yarboo narrates that when Hadhrat Abaan bin Sa'eed (Madinah, Hadhrat Umar (Madinah) said to him, "You have no right to come here and leave your post without the permission of your leader, especially under the present circumstances (when people are revolting and the enemy is ready to pounce on us). It however seems that you have no fear "Hadhrat Abaan (Madinah) replied, "I swear by Allaah that I shall never accept command from anyone after Rasulullaah (Madinah)." If I were to accept command from anyone after Rasulullaah (ﷺ, I would accept a post from Abu Bakr (ﷺ) because of his virtue and his early entry into (slaam. However, I would still not want to accept any post of command from anyone after Rasulullaah (ﷺ)

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.202) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Haakim, Abu Nu'aym and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg:126):

When Hadhrat Abu Bakr See consulted with the Sahabah See about whom to send to Bahrain, Hadhrat Uthmaan See said, "Send the person whom Rasulullaah Re had sent to them (the people of Bahrain), the one who made them Muslims and subservient. Someone whom they will recognise, who recognises them and who knows their land." Hadhrat Uthmaan See was referring to Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami See. Hadhrat Umar See however, refused to accept the proposal and said, "Force Abaan bin Saleed bin Al Aas to return because he is a man who has been there several times." Hadhrat Abu Bakr See refused to force him saying, "I shall not do it. I cannot force a person who says that he will not accept a post of command from anyone after Rasulullaah Rese." Hadhrat Abu Bakr See then confirmed that Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami See would be sent to Bahrain. (1)

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Refuses to Accept an Appointment as Ameer

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah reports that Hadhrat Umar once summoned him to accept a post as governor, but he refused to accept the post. Hadhrat Umar said, "You dislike an appointment to a post when someone better than you actually asked for it." When Hadhrat Abu Hurayran saked who it was that asked for a post, Hadhrat Umar said, "Yusuf bin Ya'qoob said." Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah said, "Yusuf was the Nabi of Allaah and the son of a Nabi, while I am merely Abu Hurayrah the son of Umayma. I fear three and two things (equalling five)." "Why don't you just say five things?" enquired Hadhrat Umar said. Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah say replied, "I fear that I should say anything without knowledge, pass wrong judgement (as a governor, because of which I would) have my back lashed, have my wealth taken away and my reputation insulted." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (1996) Refuses to be Appointed as judge

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Mowhab reports that Hadhrat Uthmaan so once said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar so requested, "Will you not excuse me. O Ameerul Mu'mineen?" Hadhrat Uthmaan so emphatically said, "Never! I have sworn that you must be the judge." "Do not be hasty," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar spoke, "have you heard Rasulullaah so. The person who seeks protection from Allaah has sought a great source of protection." When Hadhrat Uthmaan (Sees) confirmed that he had heard the Hadith, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Sees) said, "I then seek Allaah's protection from being a judge."

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.133).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.380). Abu Moosa has also reported the narration in his Dhayl. but the author of Isaaba (Vol.4 Pg.241) has commented on the chain of narrators. Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.59) has also reported the narration with some additions at the beginning.

Hadhrat Uthmaan then asked, "What prevents you when your father was a judge?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar replied, "I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'The person who is a judge and passes judgement in ignorance shall be one of the inmates of Jahannam. As for the one who is a knowledgeable judge and passes correct and just judgement, he will plead (before Allaah on the Day of Qiyaamah) for an acquittal (that he should neither receive any rewards nor any sin).' What have I to hope for after this?" (1) A narration of Ahmad adds that after this, Hadhrat Uthmaan we excused Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was and told him not to inform anyone else about it (otherwise none would be prepared to act as judge and society would suffer).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was narrates that Hadhrat Uthmaan was wanted him to act as judge, but he refused saying, "I have heard Rasulullaah say, Judges are of three types; one will attain salvation while two will end up in Jahannam. Those who pass judgement unjustly or by the dictates of their desires shall be destroyed while the one who passes judgement with the truth will attain salvation." (2)

The Incident that Occurred Between Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and Ummul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Hafsah Concerning Dowmatul Jandal

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar was narrates, "It was on the day that Hadhrat Ali seconcile their differences) that (my sister) Ummul Mu'mineen Hafsa said to me, 'It is really not nice that you refrain from participating in a reconciliation that Allaah has brought about between the Ummah of Muhammad since you are the brother-in-law of Rasuhullaah sand the son of Umar bin Khattaab mad announced, "Who is desirous of Khilaafah? Who is willing to risk his neck for it?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says, "Never before had my heart ever aspired for worldly things and I almost said, 'That person (myself) desires the Khilaafah who had hit your neck and the neck of your father to accept Islaam until he made you two enter its fold!' However, I thought of Jannah and its Tabraani in his Kabeer and Awsat, Bazaar and Ahmad narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.4 Pg.193).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani in his Kabeer and Awsat, narrating from reliable sources in his Kabeer, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.4 Pg.193). Abu Ya'la has reported a similar narration and Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.108) as well, but in more detail.

⁽³⁾ According to Haythami (Vol.4 Pg.208), it was actually Hadhrat Hasan bin All 等等 and not Hadhrat Ali 等等。One of the narrators had erred.

bounties and refrained from saving it." (1)

A narration of Abu Husayn states that Hadhrat Mu'aawiya said, "Who is more worthy than us of this post (of Khilaafah)?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "I wanted to say, 'More worthy than you is the one who hit your neck and your father's neck (to bring you into Islaam).' However, I then thought about the bounties of Jannah and feared that I would be spoiling them (by saying this)." (2)

A narration of Imaam Zuhri states that when Hadhrat (Hasan bin) All was and Hadhrat Mu'aawiya so together, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya announced, "Who is most worthy of the post of Khilaafah then me?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "I wanted to say, 'More worthy than you is the one who hit your neck and your father's neck because of your Kufr (myself).' However, I feared that (if I said this) thoughts would be entertained about me that are not true (people would think that I desired to be the Khalifah which was not true)."

Imraan bin Husayn Will Refuses to be an Ameer

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Saamit (French that when Ziyaad wanted to dispatch Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn (French as governor of Khurasan, he refused to accept the post. His friends asked, "Are you forsaking the opportunity to be governor of Khurasan?" He replied, "It does not please me at all that I should suffer the heat of Khurasan (do the hard work of governing) while they (Ziyaad and his followers) enjoy its coolness (by using the income from the region). I fear that if I am ever facing the enemy in battle and then a letter would come to me from Ziyaad, which if I obey will result in my destruction and if I ignore it, will result in my execution (at the hands of Ziyaad)."

Ziyaad then appointed Hadhrat Hakam bin Amr Ghifaari was as governor of Khurasan and Hadhrat Hakam accepted the post. Hadhrat Imraan then asked someone to summon Hadhrat Hakam to him. A messenger went to Hadhrat Hakam and when he arrived, Hadhrat Imraan said to him, "Did you hear Rasulullaah say that no person should be obeyed when it (obedience to the person) entails disobedience to Allaah?" When Hadhrat Hakam confirmed that he had heard this from Rasulullaah say, Hadhrat Imraan exclaimed, "Alhamdu Lillaah!" or "Allaahu Akbart"

Another narration from Hadhrat Hasan states that when Ziyaad appointed Hadhrat (Hakam) Ghifaari was as commander of the army, Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn went to see him. Hadhrat Imraan when him in public and asked, "Do you know why I have come to you?" When Hadhrat Hakam was asked why he had come, Hadhrat Imraan was said, "Do you remember what Rasulullaah was said to the person whose Ameer told him to throw himself into the fire and he was then stopped and prevented (by others from doing what he was commanded). When the incident was reported to Rasulullaah was, he said to the person, 'Had he fallen into the fire, both of them would have entered Jahannam. There is no obedience (to anyone) when it entails disobeying Allaah." Hadhrat Hakam (confirmed that he remembered the Hadith. Hadhrat Imraan then said, "I only wished to remind you of this Hadith."

(2) Ibn Sa'd.

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani in his Kabeer, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.4 Pg.208). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.134) has reported a similar narration.

Respecting the Khalifahs and Ameers and Obeying their Commands

The Incident that occurred between Hadhrat Khaalid Ammaar Mass During an Expedition

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Ames narrates that Rasulullaah Ames once dispatched Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed bin Mughiera Makhzoomi on expedition. With him was Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir Ames. The expedition left and finally drew close to the people whom they intended to ambush early in the morning. They set up camp there late at night. However, someone warned the people (about the presence of the Sahabah Ames) and they all fled to a place of safety. One of the men amongst them who had accepted Islaam together with his family stayed behind. He instructed his family to load their goods and then told them to wait until he returned.

He then proceeded to meet Hadhrat Ammaar was and said, "O Abu Yaqdhaan! My family and I have accepted Islaam. Will this help me if I stay behind (in the town) because all my people had fled when they heard about your arrival?" Hadhrat Ammaar said said to him, "You may stay behind, for you are safe." The man and his family then went back. When Hadhrat Khaalid said launched the attack the next morning, he found that the people had all fled. He then captured the man and his family. Hadhrat Ammaar said said, "You can do nothing to a man who has accepted Islaam." Hadhrat Khaalid said, "What have you to do with this? When I am the Ameer, how could you grant a person amnesty without my permission?" Hadhrat Ammaar replied, "I can indeed grant amnesty without your permission even though you are the Ameer. This man has accepted Imaan and if he wished to, he could have left with the others. Because he has Imaan, I instructed him to stay behind." The two Sahabah states then argued until they started abusing each other.

When they returned to Madinah, they both went to Rasulullaah was and Hadhrat Ammaar was told him about the man and what he had done. Rasulullaah then authorised the amnesty that Hadhrat Ammaar was had granted but at the same time also forbade people from granting amnesty to others without the permission of the Ameer. The two Sahabah was then again started arguing in the presence of Rasulullaah (Fig. 7). To this, Hadhrat Khaalid Fremarked, "O Rasulullaah (Fig. 7). This slave is insulting me in your presence! I swear by Allaah that had you not been here, he would have never used such terms for me." Rasulullaah (Fig. 7). Khaalid! Do not harass Ammaar because Allaah dislikes anyone who dislikes Ammaar and Allaah curses anyone who curses Ammaar." Hadhrat Ammaar (Fig. 7) then stood up and left. Hadhrat Khaalid (Fig. 7) followed him, grabbed hold of his clothing and continuously made attempts to please Hadhrat Ammaar (Fig. 7) until Hadhrat Ammaar (Fig. 7) until Hadhrat Ammaar (Fig. 7) was pleased with him.

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.226). Tabraani has also reported the narration and according to some of his narrations, Rasuluillaah said, "There is no obedience to the creation when it entails disobeying the Creator."

Another narration states that it was then that Allaah revealed the verse:

(سورة نساء آيت ٥٩)

Obey Allaah, obey the Rasool A and those in command among you (your military commanders). If you dispute regarding any matter, then refer it to Allaah and the Rasool A (so that Allaah and His Rasool May may pass judgement in the matter i.e. find the solution in the Qur'aan or in the Ahaadeeth) if you believe in Allaah and the Last Day, This is best (for all) and gives the best result (because you will then not be basing your decisions on your personal opinions). {Surah Nisaa, verse 59}(1)

The Incident that occurred Between Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed

Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik Ashja'ee Feports that he was amongst those Muslims who marched with Zaid bin Haaritha For the Battle of Mu'ta. His companion was a man who had come with reinforcements from Yemen. He had nothing but his sword with him. When one of the Muslims slaughtered a camel, the man (from Yemen) asked him for a piece of the leather, which he gladly gave. The man made the piece of leather into a shield for himself and we then proceeded. When we faced the large Roman army there was a man amongst them riding a red horse. His saddle and his weapons were gold plated and he attacked the Muslims very fiercely. The man from Yemen waited for him behind a boulder and when the Roman passed by, the Yemeni hamstrung his horse. As the Roman fell, the Yemeni attacked and killed him. He then took possession of the Roman's belongings. After Allaah had granted victory to the Muslims. Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed William (who was made the commander after the other commanders had been martyred) sent for the Yemeni and took away the belongings he had taken from the Roman.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.242). Abu Ya'la, Ibn Asaakir, Nasa'ee, Tabraani and Haakim have reported the narration in detail from Hadhrat Khaalid (1996), while Ibn Abi Shaybah, Ahmad and Nasa'ee have also reported it briefly, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.73). Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.390) has attested to its authenticity, as confirmed by Dhahabi. Haythami (Vol.9 Pg.294) mentions that Tabraani has also reported the narration both in detail and in brief, similar to the narration of Ahmad and with reliable chains of narrators.

Hadhrat Auf bin Maalik 劉寧夢 approached Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 劉寧夢 and said, "O Khaalid! Don't you know that Rasulullaah as has decreed that the one who kills an enemy soldier should take all his possessions?" Hadhrat Khaalid 送路過多 replied, "Certainly, but I think that these possessions are too much," Hadhrat Auf 劉璋德 objected by saving, "You must return it to him otherwise 1 shall definitely expose you before Rasululiaah 優麗." Hadhrat Khaalid 劉璋區 still refused to return it.

Hadhrat Auf when they both got to Rasulullaah he related to Rasulullaah the entire story of the Yemeni and how Hadhrat Khaalid 鉛硬硬 had treated him. When Rasulullaah 過離 asked Hadhrat Khaalid 經濟節 the reason for his action, he replied. "O Rasulullaah 經濟! I thought that the possessions were too much." Rasulullaah 😂 then instructed Hadhrat Khaalid to return the goods to the Yemeni, At this, Hadhrat Auf commented, "So there! Did I not tell you that I would do this (complain about you to Rasulullaah and have you punished)?" "What was that all about?" Rasulullaah : enquired. When Hadhrat Auf : informed Rasulullaah 🕮 (about his threat to Hadhrat Khaalid 🕮), Rasulullaah 🕮 became extremely angry and said, "Do not return the goods Khaalid! Will you people not leave my commanders alone for my sake (will you not show them respect)?! You people (under their command) receive the benefit of the good they command while they suffer the consequences of their improper commands." (1)

Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas القابقة Concerning Respect for a Leader

Hadhrat Raashid bin Sa'd reports that some wealth once came to Hadhrat Umar sand he was distributing it amongst the people when they started crowding around him, Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas William arrived and forced his way through the crowd until he reached Hadhrat Umar 鐵腳屬. Hadhrat Umar উটিউটি lifted up his whip over Hadhrat Sa'd উটিউটি and said, "You came here as if you have no fear for Allaah's commander on earth! I wish to teach you that Allaah's commander on earth also has no fear for you." (2)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar ﷺ and Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 經過過

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Yazced narrates that Rasulullaah and once dispatched Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (as commander of a military expedition that included Hadhrat Abu Bakr sees and Hadhrat Umar sees. When they reached the place where the battle was to be fought, Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas sees issued the command that no fires were to be lit. This angered Hadhrat Umar sees and he was about to object when Hadhrat Abu Bakr sees stopped him and said to him, "Rasulullaah sees has made him your commander because of his knowledge of warfare." Hadhrat Umar sees then simmered down. (1)

(2) Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.206)

⁽¹⁾ Ahmad, Muslim and Abu Dawood, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.249). Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.310) has also reported a similar narration.

The Narration of Hadhrat Ayaad bin Ghanam Concerning Respect for the Ameer

Hadhrat Jubayr bin Nufayr seports that Hadhrat Ayaadh bin Ghanam Ash'ari severely punished the governor of Daaraa when the Muslims conquered the place. Hadhrat Hishaam bin Hakeem see came to him and harshly reprimanded him (for this act). After a few days, Hadhrat Hishaam sapologetically came back to Hadhrat Ayaadh see and said, "Do you not know that Rasulullaah see said, "The people who will be most severely punished on the Day of Qiyaamah will be those who punished people most severely in this world?"

Hadhrat Ayaadh responded by saying, "O Hishaam! We have heard what you heard, we have seen what you have seen and we have been in the company of Rasulullaah is just as you have been. O Hishaam! Did you not hear Rasulullaah say, 'Whoever wishes to advise their leader should never address it to him in public. He should rather take him by the hand and address him in private. If the leader accepts it, he accepts it. Otherwise, the advisor has discharged the obligation and the right he owes to his leader.' However, O Hishaam, you have been very bold against Allaah's commander. Do you not fear that Allaah's commander would have you killed and you would be known as one whom the commander had executed?" (2)

The Statement of Hadhrat Hudhayfah (Signer) Concerning Drawing Weapons Against the Ameer

Hadhrat Zaid bin Wahab reports that during the time of Hadhrat Hudhayfah 學學學, some people complained to him about the Ameer. A man then entered the large (Jaami) Masjid and weaved his way through the people until he reached Hadhrat Hudhayfah 學學學, He stood by the head of Hadhrat Hudhayfah 學學學 will you not enjoin good and forbid evil?" Knowing what the man meant (that Hadhrat Hudhayfah 學學學) ought to

- (1) Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.41). Haakim has reported the narration from Hadhrat Abduilaah bin Buraydah who narrates from his father that Rasulullaah (1) had dispatched Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (2) had commander of the expedition that fought the Battle of Dhaatus Salaasii. The rest of the report is the same. The chain of narrators are reliable, as confirmed by Imaam Dhahabi.
- (2) Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.290), but Dhahabi has commented on the chain of narrators. Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.164) has reported the narration from the same narrators. The narration also appears in Majma'uz Zawaa'd (Vol.5 Pg.229) with confirmation of its reliability. A narration of hamad states that when Daaraa was conquered, Hadhrat Ayaadh 知識 had its leader lashed, after which Hadhrat Hishaam 劉潔德 harshly reprimanded him. The rest of the narration is similar as the above. Hayhami (Vol.5 Pg.229) has commented on the chain of narrators.

oppose the Ameer), Hadhrat Hudhayfah (looked up and said to him, "Undoubtedly, enjoining good and forbidding evil is an excellent deed. However, drawing weapons against your Ameer is certainly not a Sunnah practice." (1)

A Narration of Hadhrat Abu Bakrah (Concerning Respect for an Ameer

Hadhrat Ziyaad bin Kusayb Adawi reports that Abdullaah bin Aamir used to deliver lectures to the people while wearing fine clothing and with well groomed hair. After leading the salaah one day and entering his room, Mirdaas Abu Bilaal commented, "Would you look at the people's Ameer and leader! He wears fine clothes and adopts the appearance of the sinners!" Hadhrat Abu Bakrah was sitting next to the pulpit. When he heard this, he told his son Usayli to call Abu Bilaal. When Abu Bilaal arrived, Hadhrat Abu Bakrah was said to him, "I have heard the comment you have just made about the Ameer. I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'Allaah will honour the person who honours His Ameer and will disgrace the person who disgraces Allaah's Ameer." (2)

The Ameer is Obeyed only when he Instructs what is Right

Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib reports that Rasulullaah once appointed a Sahabi form the Ansaar as commander of an expedition. Rasulullaah dispatched the expedition with instructions to listen to and to obey their commander. However, the others happened to aggravate their commander in some way and he ordered them to gather firewood. When they did as they were ordered, he instructed them to light a fire. After they had lit the fire, he said to them, "Did Rasulullaah for instruct you listen to me and to obey me?" When they acknowledged the instruction, he said, "Then enter this fire." The men started looking at each other saying, "It was the fire (of Jahannam) that we were escaping from when we went to Rasulullaah ."" In the meantime, the commander's anger abated and the fire died off.

When the men returned and reported the incident to Rasulullaah (), he said, "Had they entered it, they would have never emerged from it (because after death they would have entered the fire of Jahannam). Obedience is only in matters of good." (3)

⁽¹⁾ Bazzaar, Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.224) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg. 163).

⁽³⁾ Bukhari and Muslim. Bukhari and Muslim have also reported the narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 劉斯德, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg 226). Ibn Jareer has also reported the narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 劉斯德 while Ibn Abi Shaybah has reported it from Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri 劉斯德. According to a narration in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg 170), Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Khudri 劉斯德 has named the Ansaari Commander as Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Hudhaafa Sahmi 劉斯德. As quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg 296), Bukhari has also given the same name in the narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 劉邦德.

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Grant Concerning Respecting the Ameer

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar when he turned to them and said, "Do you not know that I am verily the Rasul of Allaah sent to you?" The Sahabah when he turned to them and said, "Do you not know that I am verily the Rasul of Allaah sent to you?" The Sahabah when he turned to them and said, "Do you not know that I am verily the Rasul of Allaah." Rasulullaah when them asked them, "Do you not know that whoever obeys me obeys Allaah and obedience to me is part of obedience to Allaah?" The Sahabah when the said of the said of

The Advice Rasulullaah ag gave to Hadhrat Abu Dharr Concerning Showing Respect to the Ameer

Hadhrat Asmaa bint Yazeed (1986) reports that Hadhrat Abu Dharr Ghifaari (1986) used to serve Rasulullaah (1986) and would return to the Masjid after he had completed. The Masjid was his home where he used to lie down (to sleep). Rasulullaah (1986) happened to enter the Masjid one night where he found Hadhrat Abu Dharr (1986) sleeping on the ground. Rasulullaah (1986) prodded him gently with his foot until Hadhrat Abu Dharr (1986) sat upright. Rasulullaah (1986) then said to him, "Did I not see you sleeping in the Masjid?" "Where should I sleep?" asked Hadhrat Abu Dharr (1986). "I have no home besides this."

Rasulullaah then sat with him and said, "What will you do when the people expel you from the Masjid?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr to replied, "I shall then go to Shaam, which is the place of migration (of the previous Ambiyaa), the place where mankind will be resurrected and the land of many Ambiyaa. I shall then become one of its people." Rasulullaah asked further, "What will you then do if they exile you from Shaam?" "I shall then return (to Madinah), which will be my home and place of residence." Rasulullaah ask again enquired, "And what if they exile you from here for the second time?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr resolved, "I shall then take up my sword and fight until I die."

Rasulullaah smiled at him and placed his hand on him saying, "Should I rather guide you to something that is better than that?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr call call call call to the sacrificed for you!" Rasulullaah smiles said, "Follow them wherever they lead you and go along to wherever they drive you until you eventually meet me in that condition." (2)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ya'la and Ibn Asaakir, both narrating from reliable sources, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.168).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.168). Ahmad has also reported the narration but Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.223) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Dharr states that Rasulullaah asked, "What will you then do when you are removed from there (Madinah)?" Hadhrat Abu Dharr Figure replied, "I shall take my sword and strike anyone who wants to remove me." Rasulullaah then placed his hand on the shoulder of Hadhrat Abu Dharr t and said, "Overlook (what they do) O Abu Dharr. You should rather follow them wherever they lead you and go along to wherever they drive you even though you have to adopt this attitude even with an Abyssinian slave." Hadhrat Abu Dharr says, "When I settled in Rabdha (on the instruction of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Uthmaan (1996), it once occurred that the Igaamah (for salaah) was already called out and an Abyssinian man who had been appointed to collect Zakaah went forward (to lead the salaah). However, when he saw me, he started going back and putting me forward. I said to him, 'Stay where you are, for I am obeying the command of Rasulullaah (2011) Another narration states that when Hadhrat Abu Dharr went to Rabdha, he once found an Abyssinian slave of Hadhrat Uthmaan there. The man called out the Adhaan and the Igaamah and then asked Hadhrat Abu Dharr 劉爾爾 to go forward (to lead the salaah). Hadhrat Abu Dharr 劉爾爾 said, "No. Rasulullaah : instructed me to listen and to obev even an Abyssinian slave." The slave then went forward and Hadhrat Abu Dharr sperformed salaah

Hadhrat Umar said, "Listen and obey (your Ameer) even though the person appointed as your Ameer is an Abyssinian slave with mutilated lim bs. Exercise patience if he harms you and if he gives you an instruction, carry it out. Also exercise patience if he deprives you and even if he oppresses you. However, if he ever intends to diminish your Deen, then tell him, 'You may have my blood but not my Deen!' Also ensure that you never separate from the Jamaa'ah." (3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Umar (See Sourcerning Showing Respect for the Ameer and his Incident with Hadhrat Alqama in this Regard Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Alqama bin Alaatha once met Hadhrat Umar will late at night. Because Hadhrat Umar resembled Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed (Hadhrat Alqama mistook him as Hadhrat Khaalid will late at night. Because Hadhrat Umar will late as a Hadhrat Khaalid will late as a Hadhrat Khaalid will late as a Hadhrat Chaalid will late as a Hadhrat Chaalid will late as a Hadhrat Chaalid will late as a Hadhrat late will late as a Hadhrat late will late as a Hadhrat Chaalid will late will late as a Hadhrat Chaalid will late will late as a Hadhrat Chaalid will late will late behind him. (2)

⁽I) Ibn Jareer.

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.168).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, İbn Jareer, Bayhaqi, Nu'aym bin Hammaad and others, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.167).

when we fulfil the rights we owe to them."

The next morning, Hadhrat Umar saked Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Waleed, "What has Alqama said to you since last night?" Hadhrat Khaalid said, replied, "By Allaah! He has not said anything to me!" Hadhrat Umar said, "And you are even swearing in Allaah's name about it." The narration of Hadhrat Abu Nadhrah adds that Hadhrat Alqama then said to Hadhrat Khaalid said, "Be quiet, O Khaalid (Do not deny it)." Another narration(1) concludes with the words of Hadhrat Umar said who said, "You are both speaking the truth." The narration of Zubayr bin Bakkaar states that Hadhrat Umar said then granted Hadhrat Alqama what he wanted and thus satisfied his need. This narration also adds that (during the night conversation) when Hadhrat Umar said asked Hadhrat Alqama what he had to say, Hadhrat Alqama replied, "All I can advocate is that we listen and obey. Hadhrat Umar said (to Hadhrat Alqama) that if everyone else shared his attitude, it would be more precious to him (Hadhrat Umar share) than all the wealth in the world. (2)

An Incident of a Leper Concerning Respect for the Ameer

Hadhrat Ibn Abi Mulaykah says that Hadhrat Umar woman. He said to her, "O servant of Allaah! Do not cause difficulty to the people (because they are afraid to perform Tawaaf with you here). It would be best for you to remain at home." She then remained at home (and stopped going to the Masjidul Haraam). It later occurred that a man passing by her said to her, "The person who had prevented you has passed away. You may now come out." She responded by saying, "It is not befitting of me to obey him while he was alive and then disobey him after his death." [3]

The Consequences of Disobeying the Ameer

Hadhrat Shamar narrates from a man who had been the chief of an area during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Ali when that Hadhrat Ali when once issued an order to them and then asked, "Will you do as you have been ordered?" When the said that they would not, Hadhrat Ali when said, "I swear by Allaah that you must do as you have been commanded otherwise the Jews and the Christians will definitely mount you necks." (4)

Co-operation between Leaders

The Incident Between Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas May Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah May and Hadhrat Umar May

Hadhrat Urwa bin Zubayr 資本的 narrates that Rasulullaah 課題 once sent

⁽¹⁾ From Sayf bin Amr, also narrating from Hadhrat Hasan.

⁽²⁾ Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan and Zubayr bin Bakkaar, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.504).

⁽³⁾ Maalik, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.192).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg. 167).

Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (as Ameer) on a military expedition to the rural towns of Shaam, where the Battle of Dhaatus Salaasil was fought. The towns were those of the Banu Baliy tribe, the Banu Abdullaah tribe and the Banu Qudaa'ah tribe next to them. It was from the Banu Baliy tribe that the maternal uncles of Aas bin Waa'il hailed (Aas bin Waa'il was the father of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (Amr). When Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (Amr) arrived at the place, he was apprehensive of the large numbers of the enemy and sent a message to Rasulullaah (Amr) asking for reinforcements.

Rasulullaah prepared the early Muhaajireen for the task and amongst the most senior Muhaajireen who got ready for the task were Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar see. Rasulullaah see appointed Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah see as their Ameer and when they met Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas see as he said to them, "I am your Ameer now for I had sent the message to Rasulullaah see asking for you to come here as reinforcements. However, the group of Muhaajireen said, "You may be the Ameer of your army, but our Ameer is Abu Ubaydah sees." Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas see reiterated what he said by saving. "You are only the reinforcements that I had requested."

Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah was a man of excellent character and very soft-hearted. When he saw what was happening, he said, "You ought to know O Amr that the parting instruction Rasulullaah gegave to me was, When you reach your companion, co-operate with him.' I shall therefore obey you even if you wish to disobey me." With this, Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah was handed over the commend to Hadhrat Amr (1)

Another narration from Zuhri states that Rasulullaah dispatched two expeditions against the Banu Kalb tribe, the Ghassaan tribe and other Kuffaar tribes located in the rural towns of Shaam. Rasulullaah is appointed Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah is as Ameer of one expedition and Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas is as Ameer of the other. Marching in the army of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah was Hadhrat Abu Bakr is and Hadhrat Umar is when the two armies were about to leave, Rasulullaah is called for Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah is and Hadhrat Amr is and said to them. "Never oppose each other."

When the two armies had left (Madinah), Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah (Madinah), Hadhrat Amr (Maginah), The Tather that you obey me." Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah (Maginah), who became the commander of both armies.

Hadhrat Umar 经递多 became angry at this arrangement and said (to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah 经减多), "You have chosen to be under the command of Naabigha's son and have made him your Ameer, the Ameer of Abu Bakr 经减多 and our Ameer?!" What sort of idea is this?" Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah 经增多 pacified Hadhrat Umar 经多数 by saying, "Dear brother! Rasulullaah 经等 emphatically ⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.273), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.310), Ibn Asaakir has also reported the narration but instead of the saying "the rural towns of Shaam" he mentions "the east of Shaam".

The Rights that Subjects Owe to their Ameer

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar in this Regard

Hadhrat Salama bin Shihaab Abdi reports that Hadhrat Umar (Salama bin Shihaab Abdi reports that Hadhrat Umar (Salama bin Shihaab Abdi reports that you owe to us. It is that you always wish well for us even in our absence and that you assist us in all good works. Take note that there is nothing more beloved to Allaah and which has a more widespread benefit than the tolerance and compassion of an Ameer towards his subjects. On the contrary, there is nothing more detested by Allaah than the foolishness of an Ameer and his harshness." (2)

Another narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Akeem states that Hadhrat Umar said, "There is no tolerance more loved by Allaah than the tolerance and compassion of an Ameer (towards his subjects). There is also no foolishness that is more detested by Allaah than the foolishness and harshness of an Ameer. Those who overlook things that happen to him will receive health and safety and those who exercise justice between people even when it concerns himself shall be granted success in his affairs. Suffering disgrace when being obedient is closer to goodness than winning honour through sin." (3)

Prohibition from Speaking ill of the Ameer

The Narration of Hadhrat Anas (in this Regard

Hadhrat Anas (Fig. 6) narrates, "The senior companions of Rasulullaah (Fig. 6) used to prevent us from certain misdeeds. They would say, 'Never speak ill of your leaders, never betray them and never disobey them. Fear Allaah and exercise patience because the event (Qiyaamah/death) is close by." (4)

Refraining from Speaking the Truth Before Leaders

In this Regard, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Tells Hadhrat Urwa Simo that they used to consider this as an act of Hypocrisy

Hadhrat Urwa (Ties) narrates that he once approached Hadhrat Abdullaah bin

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.319).

⁽²⁾ Hannaad, as quoted in Kanzul Uminaal (Vol.3 Pg.165), Tabari (Vol.5 Pg.32) has reported a similar narration.

⁽³⁾ Hannaad, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.165).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Jareet, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.168).

Umar bin Khattaab (and said. "O Abu Abdur Rahmaan! Sometimes we sit with these leaders of ours and we confirm what they say even though we know that it is not true. Even when they make unjust decisions, we still support them and make it seem credible to them. What do you think about this?" Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "Dear nephew! During the time we were with Rasulullaah ﷺ we regarded this to be an act of hypocrisy but I do not know what you regard it to be." (1) Another narration from the father of Hadbral Aasim bin Muhammad slates that someone once said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (When we are with our leaders, we say things that are quite the opposite of what we say when we leave them," Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (Signer) commented, "We used to regard this as an act of hypocrisy." (2) Bukhari has reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Muhammad bin Zaid but adds that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sies said. "During the time of Rasulullaah , we regarded this to be an act of hypocrisy." Hadhrat Mujaahid reports that when a man came to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 生物管, the latter asked him, "How is the relationship between you people and Abu Unays (the Ameer)?" The man replied, "Our relationship is that when we meet with him, we tell him what he likes to hear and sing a different tune when we go away from him." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar & commented. "When we were with Rasulullaah (38), this is the thing we regarded as hypocrisy." (3) Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that they once said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar المنتقبة, "When we enter the courts of these people (our leaders), we say the things they like to hear but then say the opposite when we leave their presence." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar said, "During the time of Rasulullaah said," we used to regard this as an act of hypocrisy." (4)

The Narration of Hadhrat Alqama bin Waqqaas Concerning the Prohibition of Laughing and Jesting in the Presence of the Ameer

Hadhrat Alqama bin Waqqaas narrates that there was a useless man who used to enter the courts of the governors and make them laugh. Hadhrat Alqama's grandfather said to the man, "Shame on you! Why do you enter the courts of these people and make them laugh?! I have heard from Bilaal bin Haarith who was a companion of Rasulullaah that Rasulullaah is said, 'A servant (of Allaah) may utter a word that pleases Allaah without him realising its true potential and because of it, Allaah becomes pleased with him until the day he meets Allaah. On the contrary, a servant (of Allaah) may utter a word that displeases Allaah without him realising its true potential and because of it, Allaah becomes displeased with him until the day he meets Allaah." (5)

Another narration from Hadhrat Alqama states that Hadhrat Bilaal bin Haarith

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.165).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg. 164), as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg. 382),

⁽³⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.1 Pg.93).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.4 Pg.332).

⁽⁵⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.165).

Muzani said to him, "I see that you enter the courts of these governors and overwhelm them. Do check what you are saying to them because I have heard Rasulullaah say, " A servant (of Allaah) may utter a word..." The rest of the narration is like the one mentioned above.

The Statement of Hadhrat Hudhayfa (1996) that the Doors of the Rulers are Dens of Evil

Hadhrat Hudhayfa ("Beware of the dens of evil!" "What are the dens of evil, O Abu Abdullaah?" someone enquired from him. He replied, "The doors of the rulers. A person enters the court of a ruler and then confirms the lies he speaks and praises him for qualities he does not possess." (1)

The Advice Hadhrat Abbaas gave his Son in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in arrates that his father (Hadhrat Abbaas once said to him, "Dear son! I notice that the Ameerul Mu'mineen calis for you, allows you to be close to him and even consults with you together with the Sahabah of Rasulullaah on Now remember these three things that I am telling you. Fear Allaah and never let him encounter any lies from you (never tell him a lie). You should also never disclose any of his secrets and never backbite about anyone in his presence." One of the narrators by the name of Aamir says that he said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas ("Each one of these advices are better than a thousand." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas in turn said, "Each one of them is better than ten thousand." (2)

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that Hadhrat Abbaas (1986) once said to his son Hadhrat Abdullaah (1986), "I notice that that great man (referring to Hadhrat Umar (1986)) allows you to sit close to him and includes you amongst people with whom you do not belong (the veterans of Badr). You should therefore remember three things that I shall tell you. Never let him encounter any lies from you (never tell him a lie), never disclose any of his secrets and never backbite about anyone in his presence." (3)

Speaking the Truth to the Ameer and Rejecting his Command if it Conflicts with the Commands of Allaah

The Incident between Hadhrat Ubay (and Hadhrat Umar (and his Statement that there is no Good in an Ameer in whose Presence The Truth Cannot be Spoken Hadhrat Hasan (1) Abu Nu'aym in his Hilva (Vol.1 Pg.227).

(3) Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.197).

⁽²⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol. 1 Pg.318). Tabraani has also reported the narration but Haythami (Vol.4 Pg.221) has commented on the chain of narrators...

accept a verse of the Qur'aan from Hadhrat Ubay (saying that it is either not in the Qur'aan or not as Hadhrat Ubay said it appeared). Hadhrat Ubay said, "I had heard it from Rasulullaah is at a time when you were preoccupied with trade in Baqee." Hadhrat Umar sometimes then said, "You have spoken the truth. (I knew that the verse is in the Qur'aan but I refused to accept it because) I only wanted to test whether there are people amongst you who would speak the truth (before the Ameer). There is no good in an Ameer in whose presence the truth cannot be spoken and who does not speak the truth." (I) Hadhrat Abu Mijlaz reports that Hadhrat Umar (Si) accused Hadhrat Ubay (Si) gwhen he recited the verse (2):

"مِنَ الَّذِيْنَ اسْتَحَقَّ عَلَيْهِمُ الْأَوْلَيْنِ"

Hadhrat Ubay Fetorted by saying, "Your lie is worse!" Someone reprimanded Hadhrat Ubay Fees by saying, "Are you calling the Ameerul Mu'mineen a liar?" Hadhrat Ubay Fees replied, "I have more respect for the rights of the Ameerul Mu'mineen than you have. However, I have falsified him only to confirm the truth of Allaah's Book and I can never confirm what the Ameerul Mu'mineen says when it entails falsifying the Book of Allaah." Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Basheer bin Sa'd Says to Hadhrat Umar "If you do that, we will Set you Straight as an Arrow is Straightened"

Hadhrat Nu'maan bin Basheer Freports that in a gathering of Muhaajireen and Ansaar, Hadhrat Umar Free once asked, "What will you people do if I were permissive in certain matters?" When everyone remained silent, Hadhrat Umar Free repeated the question for a second and then a third time. Hadhrat Basheer bin Sa'd then responded by saying, "If you do that, we will set you straight as an arrow is straightened." Hadhrat Umar Free commented, "You are then certainly the ones!" (4)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar (Simos) and Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama (Simos) in this Regard

Hadhrat Moosa bin Abu Isa narrates that when Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab went to the pond of the Banu Haaritha, he met Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama where. Hadhrat Umar was asked him, "What do you think of me?" Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama word replied, "I swear by Allaah that in my opinion you are as I like to see you and as anyone who likes good likes to see you. I see that you are meticulous in collecting wealth, are also abstinent from it

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Raahway, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.2).

⁽²⁾ Surah Maa'idah, verse 107.

⁽³⁾ Abd bin Humayd, Ibn Jarcer and Ibn Adi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.) Pg.285).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Asaakir and Abu Dharr Harawi in his Majaami, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg. 148).

and distribute it justly. If however, you stray, we shall straighten you just as arrows are straightened with weights." Hadhrat Umar (You say,) 'If however, you stray, we shall straighten you just as arrows are straightened with weights'. All praise belongs to Allaah Who has placed me amongst people who will rectify me when I stray." (1)

Hadhrat Mu'aawiya tells someone who Objected to his words, "This Man has Given me Life, May Allaah give him Life"

Hadhrat Abu Qabcel narrates that Hadhrat Mu'aawiya Gonce ascended the pulpit on the day of Jumu'ah and said in his lecture, "The wealth is all ours and the spoils of war are all ours. We shall give it to whom we will and refuse whoever we will." Since no one responded to this statement, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya repeated it the following Jumu'ah. When no one objected this time as well, he again repeated it on the third Jumu'ah. On that occasion, a man in the Masjid stood up and said, "Never! The wealth is ours and the spoils of war are ours. If anyone poses an obstacle between us and it, we shall have him dealt with by Allaah or by our swords."

After Hadhrat Mu'aawiya After Hadhrat Mu'aawiya After Hadhrat Mu'aawiya After Hadhrat Mu'aawiya After Hadhrat Mu'aawiya After He people commented. However, when the people entered the court of Hadhrat Mu'aawiya
The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah sims and Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed sims in this Regard

Hadhrat Khaalid bin Hakeem bin Hizaam reports that when Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah 劉德德 was governor of Shaam, he punished some of the local (Kuffaar) persons (for not paying the Jizya⁽³⁾). Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 劉德德 stood up and spoke to him (about the error of his act). The people commented, "You have made the Ameer angry." Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed 劉德德 said. "I had never intended to make him angry but I have heard Rasulullaah 劉德 say that

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Mubaarak, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.381).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani in his Kabeer and Awsat and Abu Ya'la, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.236).

⁽³⁾ According to a narration of Baawardi

the people who will be most severely punished on the Day of Qiyaamah will be those who punished people most severely in this world." (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Hasan wife in this Regard

Hadhrat Hasan reports that when Ziyaad dispatched Hadhrat Hakam bin Amr Ghifaari was as governor of Khurasan, the Muslims there managed to win a large amount of booty. Ziyaad then wrote to Hadhrat Hakam saying, "The Ameerul Mu'mineen (Hadhrat Mu'aawiya was) has written to say that all the gold and silver should be reserved for him and should therefore not be distributed amongst the Muslims." Hadhrat Hakam wrote back to Ziyaad saying, "You have written to me about the letter of the Ameerul Mu'mineen. However, I have received the Book of Allaah before the letter of the Ameerul Mu'mineen (I shall therefore not obey his command which contradicts that of the Qur'aan). I swear by Allaah that even if the skies and earth have to close up on a person, Allaah will create an escape for him between them and give him peace if he is one who fears Allaah."

Hadhrat Hakam (Simes) then had an announcer announce to the people that they should present themselves for the booty by the morning. He then distributed the booty (including the gold and silver) amongst the people. When he did this, Hadhrat Mu'aawiya (Simes) sent some people to arrest Hadhrat Hakam (Simes) passed away in these shackles and was buried in Khurasan. He said, "I shall contest (my case against Mu'aawiya (Simes) in the court of Allaah)." (2)

Another narration adds that after Hadhrat Hakam (William had distributed the booty amongst the people, he prayed, "O Allaah! If You have any good for me with You, then raise me to You." He then passed away in the town of Maroo in Khurasan. (3) Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.347) states that it was actually when Hadhrat Hakam (Fig. 1) received the letter of Ziyaad noting his displeasure, he prayed to Allaah (for a swift death), after which he passed away.

Hadhrat Ataa reports that Ziyaad or his son once sent Hadhrat Imraan bin Husayn (he brought nothing back, "Where is the money?" asked Ziyaad (or his son). "Did you send me to bring back any money?" Hadhrat Imraan (he asked, "I collected it as we used to do during the time of Rasulullaah (I distributed it amongst the needy of the area)." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Aasim, Baghawi, Ahmad, Bukhari in his Taareekh, Baawardi and Tabraani, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.403). Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.234) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.442).

⁽³⁾ Isti'aab (Vol.1 Pg.316).

⁽⁴⁾ Haakim (Vol.3 Pg.471), narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Dhahabi.

The Rights that the Ameer Owes to his Subjects Hadhrat Umar Email: Enquires from Delegations about the Qualities of Their Governors

Hadhrat Aswad bin Yazeed narrates that whenever a delegation came to Hadhrat Umar (Description), he would ask them about their governor. He would ask, "Does he visit the ill? Does he respond to the pleas of slaves? How does he treat those who stand at his door (to have a need fulfilled)?" If the delegates had to give a negative answer to any of the questions, Hadhrat Umar (H) would dismiss the governor.

Hadhrat Ibraheem reports that when Hadhrat Umar (appointed a governor to an area and a delegation had to come to him from the same area, he would ask them, "How is your governor? Does he visit the slaves? Does he follow funeral processions? How is his door (is he accessible)? Is it welcoming?" If the people replied that the governor's door was welcoming and that he visited the slaves. Hadhrat Umar (would leave the man in his post. Otherwise, he would send a messenger to dismiss him. (2)

The Conditions Hadhrat Umar Made with his Governors

Hadhrat Aasimbin Abi Nujood states that whenever Hadhrat Umar bispatched governors, he would make the conditions with them that they should never ride Turkish horses, should not eat refined white flour, should not wear fine clothing and should not lock their doors to those who were in need. He made it clear to them that if they were ever to do any of this, they would be liable for punishment. It was only after making these conditions that he saw them off (walked a distance with them). When he was about to return, he would further tell them, "I am not sending you to give you sovereignty over the blood of people, over their skins, over their honour and over their wealth. I am sending you to ensure that the people establish salaah, to distribute the spoils of war amongst them and to judge between them with justice. If you encounter any difficulties, do refer it to me. Beware that you never hit an Arab for this would humiliate them, Never prevent them from returning to their homelands because this would place them in great difficulty and never level false accusations against them because you would then be depriving them (of their rights). Also ensure that you keep the (words of the) Qur'aan separate (from the Ahadeeth and from commentaries so that these are nor confused as part of the Qur'aan)." (3)

Another similar narration states that Hadhrat Umar said, "Keep the Qur'aan separate and report fewer narrations from Rasulullaah . I shall also join you in doing this." Hadhrat Umar said would also enforce the necessary Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.166). Tabari (Vol.5 Pg.33) has also reported a similar narration.

⁽²⁾ Hannaad, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaai (Vol.3 Pg.166).

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.148).

punishment on his governors (when they deserved it) and whenever a complaint was brought to him about any governor, he would gather the complainant and the governor in one place. Thereafter, if the complaint was proven to be valid and the governor needed to be taken to task, Hadhrat Umar would take him to task. (1)

Hadhrat Abu Khuzayma bin Thaabit (Sims) reports that whenever Hadhrat Umar appointed someone as governor, he would make a group of the Ansaar and some others witness (to the appointment) and say (to the new governor), "I am not sending you to give you sovereignty over the blood of people..." The rest of the narration is similar to the one quoted carlier. (2)

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar (Concerning the Duties of an Ameer

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Saabit reports that Hadhrat Umar wow once sent for Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir Jumhi wow and said to him, "We wish to appoint you in command of this regiment whom you should lead into enemy territory to wage war with them." Hadhrat Sa'eed wow said, "O Umar! Please do not try me." Hadhrat Umar wow resolved "I shall never leave you. You people have cast this responsibility (of Khilaafah) on my neck and now you wish to leave me all alone! I am sending you with a group of people from whom you are not the best. I am not sending you to whip them or to humiliate them but only to lead them in Jihaad against their enemies and to distribute their booty amongst them." (3)

The Statement of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari woo once addressed the people saying, "The Ameeru! Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab woo has sent me here to teach you the Book of your Rabb, the Sunnah of your Nabi woo administrate over municipal affairs," (4)

Condemning Rulers who Live Lives Above the Standards of the Common People and who Veil Themselves from people in Need

An Incident Between Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas in this Regard Hadhrat Abu Saalih Ghifaari narrates that Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (while in Egypt) once wrote to Hadhrat Umar (www.stating: "We have reserved a house

⁽¹⁾ Tabari (Vol.5 Pg.19).

⁽²⁾ Ion Abi Shavbah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.148).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.149).

⁽⁴⁾ ibn Asaakir and Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.149), narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.213).

for you here next to the Jaami Masjid." Hadhrat Umar words wrote back saying. "Why should a man living in Hijaaz have a house in Egypt?" Hadhrat Umar then ordered that the area be converted into a marketplace for the Muslims. (1)

Hadhrat Umar William Writes to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas to Demolish a Pulpit

Hadhrat Tameem Jayshani 劉延錫 reports that Hadhrat Umar 劉延錫 wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 劉延錫:

"The news has reached me that you have had a pulpit made by which you climb high above the people's necks (when delivering a sermon). Is it not sufficient for you to remain standing with the Muslims beneath your heels. I command you in the name of Allaah that you should demolish it." (2)

The Letter of Hadhrat Umar to Hadhrat Utba bin Farqad about not Raising his Standards above that of the Public

Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan reports that Hadhrat Umar wrote a letter to them when they were in Azerbaijan. He wrote:

"O Utba bin Farqad! Your position and wealth has not been the fruits of your efforts, nor the fruits of your father's or mother's efforts. Feed the people in their homes with that which you feed yourself in your home. Guard yourself against indulging in luxuries, from imitating the appearance of the Mushrikeen and from wearing silk clothing." (3)

Hadhrat Umar Takes the Ameer of Hims to Task for Constructing a Lofty Residence

Hadhrat Urwa bin Ruwaym narrates that Hadhrat Urnar was inquiring about the condition of the people (during the Hajj) when some people from Hims passed by him. "How is your Ameer?" asked Hadhrat Urnar was. They replied, "He is the best of Ameers except for the fact that he had built a lofty residence in which he lives.

Hadhrat Umar the building down. When the messenger reached Hims, he gathered firewood and set fire to the door. When the Ameer was informed about it, he said, "Leave him alone because he has been sent (by the Ameerul Mu'mineen)." The messenger then handed the letter over to the Ameer. (After reading the letter) The Ameer did not even put the letter down when he rode off to Hadhrat Umar the Ameer to meet him at Harra where the Zakaah camels were kept.

(When he met him there) Hadhrat Umar (Wiss asked him to remove his clothes and then gave him a garment of camel hide to wear. Hadhrat Umar (Wiss then instructed him to fetch water from the well to give the camels to drink. The man continued going in and out of the well until he was exhausted. Hadhrat Umar then asked him, "How much longer will you be in this world?" "For only a short while," came the reply. Hadhrat Umar commented, "Then is it for this short while that you have built the mansion and adopted a standard of living that exceeds those of the poor, the widows and orphans? Go back to your post and never repeat yourself." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abdul Hakam, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.148).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abdul Hakam, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.166).

⁽³⁾ Muslim, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.458).

Hadhrat Umar Takes Hadhrat Sa'd to task for Building a Mansion

Hadhrat Altaab bin Rifaa'ah narrates that Hadhrat Umar (Singles) once received the news that Hadhrat Sa'd (Singles) had built a mansion and had a door put on it, saying that the noise from the marketplace has now been cut off (form entering the mansion). Hadhrat Umar (Singles) then dispatched Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama (Singles), whom he always sent when he needed a task done exactly as he wanted. The instructions he gave Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama (Singles) was to bring Hadhrat Sa'd (Singles) to him and to burn down the door.

(When Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama (about the arrival) and when the features (of Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama (bin Maslama (bin Hadhrat Sa'd (bin Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama (bin Hadhrat Sa'd
When Hadhrat Sa'd Sies offered to provide Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama Sies with provisions for the journey, he refused to take any and rode off until he reached Madinah. When Hadhrat Umar Sies saw him, he said, "If I did not have a good opinion of you, I would have thought that you did not fulfil the task." Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama Sies informed Hadhrat Umar Sies that he had hurried back and assured Hadhrat Umar Sies, "I have fulfilled the task. However, Sa'd Sies excuses himself and swears that he had never made the statement."

Hadhrat Umar asked, "Did he give you any provisions for the journey?" Hadhrat Muhammad bin Maslama replied, "No, but what prevented you from giving me provisions?" Hadhrat Umar said, "I disliked giving you any provisions because although you would have had ease, I would have had to suffer for it (in the Aakhirah) since hunger is killing the people around me in Madinah. Have you not heard Rasulullaah say say that a Mu'min should not fill his belly while his neighbour goes hungry?"(2)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.166).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Mubaarak, Ibn Raahway and Musaddad, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.165). The

Another narration from Hadhrat Abu Bakrah (See and Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah States that the news that reached Hadhrat Umar (See stated that Hadhrat Sa'd (See kept aloof from the people and locked them out of his house. Hadhrat Umar (See then dispatched Hadhrat Ammaar bin Yaasir (See with instructions to go to Hadhrat Sa'd (See and if he found the door locked, he was to burn it down. (1)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar was and a group of Sahabah in Shaam

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa some sought permission from Hadhrat Umar to go to Shaam. Hadhrat Umar stold him that he would be allowed to go there only on condition that he became a governor of one of the areas. When Hadhrat Abu Dardaa some refused to be a governor, Hadhrat Umar street to grant the permission. Hadhrat Abu Dardaa some then said, "I shall go there to teach people the Sunnah of their Nabi some and lead them in salaah." Hadhrat Umar some then granted him permission.

Hadhrat Umar later visited Shaam and when he drew close to where the Sahabah wore staying, he stopped until evening fell. When the night cast its veil over him, he called to his slave saying, "O Yarfa! Let us go to Yazeed bin Abi Sufyaan wow. You will see that he has story-tellers with him, lanterns will be burning and rugs of silk⁽²⁾ and velvet will be spread out, which have been taken from the booty belonging to the Muslims. You will greet him and he will reply, after which you will ask permission to enter and he will not grant permission until he enquires who you are."

The two men proceeded until they reached the door of Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abi Sufyaan (Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Yazeed (Hadhrat Umar (Had entire narration is reported in Isaaba (Vol.3 Pg.384) except that the narrator's name appears as Abaaya bin Rifaa'ah instead of Attaab bin Rifaa'ah. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.167) has commented on the chain of narrators.

Hadhrat Umar and Yarfa then left Hadhrat Yazeed . Hadhrat Umar

⁽¹⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.8 Pg.168) has commented on the chain of narrators.

⁽²⁾ These rugs may not have been pure silk, but a mixture of silk and more of another fabric. There were also some Sahabah (2006) who were of the opinion that although wearing clothing of silk is Haraam, there was nothing wrong with sitting on silk rugs. It is also possible that the rugs were being used by the governors of the Byzantine Empire who were the former rulers of the region and the Sahabah (2006) were only temporarily using the quarters of these rulers until they could consolidate their own quarters.

said, "O Yarfa! Come with me to Amr bin Al Aas saids. You will see that he has story-tellers with him, lanterns will be burning and rugs of velvet will be spread out, which have been taken from the booty belonging to the Muslims. You will greet him and he will reply, after which you will ask permission to enter and he will not grant permission until he enquires who you are."

The two men proceeded until they reached the door of Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Sies. Hadhrat Umar Sies greeted by saying, "As Salaamu Alaykum!" to which Hadhrat Amr Sies replied, "Wa Alaykumus Salaam." When Hadhrat Umar Sies asked whether he could enter, Hadhrat Amr Sies first asked, "Who are you?" To this Yarfa replied, "This is the one who is about to spoil your fun. This is the Ameerul Mu'mineen." Hadhrat Umar Sies then opened the door and found story-tellers there, lanterns burning and rugs of velvet. Hadhrat Umar Sies with his whip right between the ears. Hadhrat Umar Sies then folded up all the goods and placed it at the centre of the room. He then issued the command that no one should move until he returned.

After leaving Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas (Mass). Hadhrat Umar (Mass) said, "O Yarfa! Let us go to Abu Moosa Ash'ari (Mass). You will see that he has story-tellers with him, lanterns will be burning and rugs of wool will be spread out, which have been taken from the booty belonging to the Muslims. You will greet him and he will reply, after which you will ask permission to enter and he will not grant permission until he enquires who you are."

The two men proceeded until they reached the door of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (Ash'ari (Ash'ari Umar (Ash'ari to which Hadhrat Abu Moosa Wies replied, "Wa Alaykumus Salaam," When Hadhrat Umar 经延延 asked whether he could enter, Hadhrat Abu Moosa 经膨胀 first asked. "Who are you?" To this Yarfa replied. "This is the one who is about to spoil your fun. This is the Ameerul Mu'mineen." Hadhrat Umar with then opened the door and found story-tellers there, lanterns burning and rugs of wool spread out. Hadhrat Umar wife struck Hadhrat Abu Moosa with his whip right between the ears and then said, "You too, O Abu Moosa (have you also changed since leaving Madinah)?" Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Ameerul Mu'mineen! This is what I have (which is less than the others) You have already seen what my companions are doing whereas I had also received what they have received (but have not gone to the extent they have)." Hadhrat Umar 细胞的 asked. "Then what is all this about?" Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari 短距离 replied. "The people of the city believe that this is the only way by which to rule." Hadhrat Umar which folded up all the goods and placed it at the centre of the room. He then issued the command that no one should move until he door will be unlocked. You will greet him and he will reply, after which you will ask permission to enter and he will grant you permission without enquiring who you are."

When the two had left Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Umar (Hadhrat Abu Dardaa (Hadhrat A

The two men proceeded until they reached the door of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa William. Hadhrat Umar William greeted by saying, "As Salaamu Alaykum!" to which Hadhrat Abu Dardaa William replied, "Wa Alaykumus Salaam." When Hadhrat Umar William saked whether he could enter, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa William granted permission. As Hadhrat Umar William pushed open the door, he found that it had no lock. The two men entered the dark room and Hadhrat Umar William had to feel his way around until he found Hadhrat Abu Dardaa William. When Hadhrat Umar William felt the pillow of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa William, he found that it was made from the blanket used on animals. When he felt the ground, there was only sand and when he felt the clothing of Hadhrat Abu Dardaa William, he discovered that it was a flimsy shawl.

Hadhrat Abu Dardaa was asked, "Who is this? Is it the Ameerul Mu'mineen?" When Hadhrat Umar so confirmed that he was the Ameerul Mu'mineen, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa said, "You are late. We had been waiting for you all year." Hadhrat Umar said, "May Allaah have mercy on you. Have I not granted you sufficient wealth? Have I not given you plenty?" Hadhrat Abu Dardaa said, "O Umar! Do you not remember a Hadith that Rasulullaah mentioned to us?" "Which Hadith?" asked Hadhrat Umar said, 'The limit of a person's possessions in this world should be like the provisions of a traveller." "Oh yes (I have heard the Hadith)" confirmed Hadhrat Umar said, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa should be like the provisions of a traveller." "Oh yes (I have heard the Hadith)" confirmed Hadhrat Umar said, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa should be like the provisions of a traveller." "Oh yes (I have heard the Hadith)" confirmed Hadhrat Umar said, Hadhrat Abu Dardaa should be like the provisions of a traveller." The two Sahabah the said then continued reminding each other (of the words of Rasulullaah with tears in their eyes until morning arrived. (1)

Enquiring about the Condition of the Citizens

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Bakr and Hadhrat Umar in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Saalih Ghifaari narrates that there was an extremely old blind lady living on the outskirts of Madinah whom Hadhrat Umar was used to regularly visit at night. He would go there to fetch water for her (from the well) and do other chores for her. However, whenever he got to her, he would find that someone else had beat him there and had already seen to her needs. He went to her many times only to find that he was not the first to get there. (One day) He sat in wait for the person (who always beat him) and found that the person was Hadhrat Abu Bakr would tend to the old lady even though he was the Khalifah. Hadhrat Umar would exclaimed, "By my life! It could only be you!" (2)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir and Yashkari, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.77).

⁽²⁾ Khateeb, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.347).

Hadhrat Awzaa'ee reports that Hadhrat Talha (Imar Source spotted Hadhrat Umar Source) late at night. Hadhrat Umar Source entered a house and then another house. The following morning, Hadhrat Talha (Imar Source) went to the house, where he found an old woman who was blind and crippled. Hadhrat Talha (Imar Source) saked her, "Why does that man come to you?" She then informed Hadhrat Talha (Imar Source) had been frequently coming to her for many years to see to her needs and remove all the filth from her house. Hadhrat Talha (Imar Source) shad to himself, "Shame on you, O Talha! Were you searching for faults in Umar?!" (1)

Passing Judgement by what is Apparent

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar (in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Utba bin Mas'ood says that he heard Hadhrat Umar say, "People would be taken to task by means of revelation during the time of Rasulullaah (when Allaah would send revelation to disclose the secrets of some people). However, revelation has been terminated and now we are able to take you people to task by your apparent actions. Therefore, we will trust and bring close to us only those people whose apparent actions appear good to us because we have no knowledge of his inner self. Allaah is the One Who will take him to task for his inner condition. On the other hand, we cannot trust and cannot believe those whose apparent actions appear evil to us even though he may claim that his inner condition is good." (2)

Hadhrat Hasan states that in the first lecture that Hadhrat Umar wife delivered (after becoming the Khalifah), he first praised Allaah and then said:

"(Now that I have become Khalifah) I am being tested through you people and you will be tested through me. I have been made the Khalifah after my two companions (Rasuluilaah and Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Masuluilaah). We shall therefore deal directly with those in our presence and to deal with those who are not in our presence, we shall appoint over them people who are capable and trustworthy. We shall treat well those people who do good and punish those who do evil. May Allaah forgive you and I." (3)

Inspecting the Performance of those Appointed to Posts

The Statement of Hadhrat Umar in this Regard

Hadhrat Tawoos narrates that Hadhrat Umar wow once asked (the people), "Tell me whether I would be discharging my responsibility if I appoint over you a person who is the best of you in my knowledge and then I command him to be just?" "Most certainly," came the reply. Hadhrat Umar the said, "No (I would still not have discharged my responsibility), unless I inspect whether or not he is doing what I have commanded him to do." $^{(1)}$

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.48).

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.147). Bayhaqi (Vol.8 Pg.201) has also reported a similar narration and states that Bukhari has also reported it in his Sahech.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.196) and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.147).

Continuously dispatching Troops

The Statement of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ka'b bin Maalik in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ka'b bin Maalik Ansaari with that a regiment of the Ansaar were posted to Persian territory with their Ameer. Although Hadhrat Umar would continuously dispatch troops every year (to relieve others), he happened to be preoccupied (with other tasks) and failed to relieve the particular regiment. When their term expired, the troops posted at that border (the regiment of Ansaar) returned. Hadhrat Umar were became very angry and threatened action against them (because he had not yet sent anyone in their place). They all happened to be Sahabah work of Rasulullaah was and they said, "O Umar! You were too preoccupied to worry about us and failed to implement the command of Rasulullaah to continuously dispatch troops." (2)

The Consideration the Ameer ought to Give to the people when they are Faced with a Problem

The Incident between Hadhrat Umar (1996) and Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah (1996) During the Plague of Hadhrat Abu Moosa (Hadhrat Dimark) heard about the plague that was affecting the people in Shaam, he wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (Fig. 1) require you to fulfil a need I have and I cannot do so without you having it fulfilled. If this letter of mine reaches you at night, I emphatically command you not to let the morning arrive without you riding off to me (in Madinah). If this letter of mine reaches you in the morning, I emphatically command you not to let the evening arrive without you riding off to me."

Amwaas

(After reading the letter) Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah (After remarked, "I know well what need has presented itself to the Ameerul Mu'mineen. He wishes to preserve someone who cannot remain living (he wants me to escape the plague by returning to Madinah)." Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah (William) then wrote back to Hadhrat Umar (William) saying:

"I am part of a Muslim army. I am not prepared to leave them to save my own life. I am well aware of the need that has presented itself to you. You wish to preserve someone who cannot remain living. When this letter of mine reaches you, do absolve me of your command and permit me to remain here."

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.165).

⁽²⁾ Abu Dawood and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.148).

When Hadhrat Umar 劉德德 read this letter, his eyes welled with tears and he began to weep. The people with him asked, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Has Abu Ubaydah 劉德德 passed away?" "No," replied, Hadhrat Umar 劉德德 then wrote back to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah t saying:

"Indeed the entire land of Jordan has been affected by the epidemic whereas the region of Jaabiya is free from it. You should therefore take the Muhaajireen there."

When Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah t had read the letter, he said, "We shall certainly listen to and obey this command of the Ameerul Mu'mineen." Hadhrat Abu Moosa was reports further, "Abu Ubaydah was then ordered me to mount my animal and to keep the people in their living quarters. In the meantime, my wife also got affected by the plague. When I reported this to Abu Ubaydah was, he personally proceeded to confine the people to their quarters, after which he was also afflicted and passed away. The plague then came to an end." Hadhrat Abul Muwajjih says, "It is believed that Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah was part of an army of thirty six thousand people. Every one of them save six thousand died." (1)

Another narration states that (when he read the letter from Hadhrat Umar Mu'mineen. He wishes to preserve the lives of people who cannot remain living (forever)." Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah Hadhrat William wrote back to Hadhrat Umar Saying, "Verily, I am with an army from amongst the armies of the Muslims whom I am not prepared to leave to save my own life from that which had afflicted them." (2)

Yet another narration states that Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah 協議的 wrote to Hadhrat Umar 認識的 saying:

"O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I knew well your need from me. However, I am part of a Muslim army that I do not wish to leave to save my own life. I have no desire to leave them until Allaah passes His decree concerning me and concerning them. O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Do release me from your command (to return to Madinah) and leave me with my army." (3)

Compassion of the Ameer

The Hadith of Hadhrat Abu Usayd in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Ja'far reports that Hadhrat Abu Usayd (Wiese) once brought to Rasulullaah (Wiese some captives from Bahrain. Looking at a woman from amongst them weeping, Rasulullaah (Wiese asked, "What is the matter?" She replied, "He has sold my son." "Have you sold her son?" Rasulullaah (Wiese asked.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.324)

⁽²⁾ Haakim, narrating from reliable sources, as confirmed by Dhahabi.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Is'haaq, as quoled in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.7 Pg.78). Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.201) has also reported the narration.

"Yes," replied Hadhrat Abu Usayd 经验验。"To which tribe?" Rasulullaah 變達 asked further. Hadhrat Abu Usayd 经验验 replied, "To the Banu Abs tribe." Rasulullaah 緩緩 then instructed Hadhrat Abu Usayd 签述多 saying, "Ride to them and bring him back yourself." (1)

The Lecture of Hadhrat Umar (in this Regard

Hadhrat Buraydah wis narrates that he was sitting with Hadhrat Umar when he heard a scream. Hadhrat Umar instructed his slave Yarfa to see where the noise was coming from. After checking, Yarfa reported, "The mother of a girl from the Quraysh is being sold (as a slave, because of which the child is screaming)." Hadhrat Umar with then instructed him to summon the Muhaajireen and the Ansaar. After a short while, the room and the entire house was filled. After praising Allaah, Hadhrat Umar when the severing of family ties was amongst the teachings that Rasulullaah with brought?" When they replied in the negative, Hadhrat Umar continued, "Because it has started to spread rapidly amongst you." He then recited the following verse of the Quraan:

(سورة محمد آیت ۲۲)

It is possible that if you are given authority (to rule over others), you would spread corruption on earth and (let alone harming others, you would even) sever family ties. {Surah Muhammad & verse 22}

Hadhrat Umar ("What form of severing family ties is worse than selling the mother of a girl from amongst you when Allaah has given you abundance?" The Sahabah ("Do as you see fit." Hadhrat Umar (then wrote to all the regions (of the Islaamic Empire) instructing that the mother of no free woman should be sold (as a slave) because it entails severing family ties which is not permissible. (2)

A Hadith of Abu Uthmaan Nahdi in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Uthmaan Nahdi reports that after Hadhrat Umar had appointed a man from the Banu Asad tribe as governor, the man came to him to collect the certificate of appointment. In the meantime, one of Hadhrat Umar simples children was brought to him and he started kissing the child. The man from the Banu Asad tribe asked, "Do you kiss children, O Ameerul Mu'mineen? By Allaah! I have never kissed a child to this day." Hadhrat Umar compassionate towards people. Give the certificate of appointment back. You should never act as governor for me ever again." Hadhrat Umar then cancelled his appointment. (3)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.229).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Mundhir, Haakim and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.226).

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.41) and Hannaad, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.165).

A narration of Hadhrat Muhammad bin Sallaam states that Hadhrat Umar said (to the man), "What crime is it of mine that mercy has been extracted from your heart? Allaah has mercy only on those servants of his who show mercy." Hadhrat Umar then removed him from the post and said, "If you have no mercy for your own children, how will you have mercy on the masses?" (1)

The Justice and Equity that Rasulullaah American and the Sahabah American Practised

The Incident of the Makhzoomiyyah Woman and the Lecture Rasulullaah Gave Hadhrat Urwa simin narrates that in the time of Rasulullaah is a woman stole during the conquest of Makkah. The members of her tribe (the Banu Makhzoom) hurried to Hadhrat Usaama bin Zaid simin to ask him to intercede (on her behalf before Rasulullaah is so that her hand should not be cut off). When Hadhrat Usaama simin spoke about it to Rasulullaah is Rasulullaah is face turned red (with anger) and he said, "Are you talking to me about (waiving) a penalty that Allaah has imposed?" Hadhrat Usaama simin cowered and said, "Seek Allaah's forgiveness for me, O Rasulullaah is tood up to deliver a lecture. After duly praising Allaah, he said: "The nations before you were destroyed because whenever a noble person amongst them stole, they let it be. However, when a weak person (from a family holding no status) stole, they imposed the penalty on him. I swear by the Being Who controls my life that even if Faatima is the daughter of Muhammad is has to steal, I would cut off her hand."

Rasulullaah 機瓣 then issued the necessary instructions and the woman's hand was cut off. She then repented sincerely to Allaah and even got married. Hadhrat Aa'isha 障礙 says, "Thereafter, she used to come to me and I would present her needs to Rasulullaah 變變." ⁽²⁾

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Qataadah (in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Qataadah (Freports, "After we had left with Rasulullaah (Freports), "After we suffered a temporary defeat. When I saw a man from the Mushrikeen overpowering one of the Muslims, I used my sword to strike his subclavian vein (on the shoulder) from behind. My blow cut through his armour and he turned to me. He then grabbed hold of me and started squeezing me so hard that I could get the smell of death. Fortunately, (because he had lost a lot of blood,) death overcame him and he let go of me. I then met Hadhrat Umar (Freports), "After we had left with Rasulullaah (Freports), "After we suffered a temporary defeat."

⁽¹⁾ Daynowri, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.310).

⁽²⁾ Bukhari in two instances, as well as Muslim, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.418). The other four books of the Sihaah Sitta have also reported the narration, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg.26).

(Why did the Muslims suddenly flee)?' He replied, 'It was the command of Allaah.' (However, the Muslims then regrouped and fought back to defeat the Mushrikeen). When the Muslims returned (from the battlefield.) Rasulullaah (sat down and said. Whoever killed someone and has a witness to testify shall have the possessions of the dead man.' I stood up and asked, 'Who will testify for me?' (When I received no response) I sat down again. When Rasulullaah (### repeated the announcement, I again stood up and asked, 'Who will testify for me?' (When I again received no response) I sat down. Rasulullaah 🕮 repeated the announcement and again I stood up and asked. 'Who will testify for me?' (When I received no response this time) I sat down yet again. When Rasulullaah again repeated the announcement. I stood up, Rasulullaah asked. 'What is the matter, O Abu Qataadah?' After I had informed him of the incident, someone said, 'He had spoken the truth and the dead man's possessions are with me. O Rasulullaah (Satisfy him on my behalf (give him something else so that I may keep the possessions).' Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1986) then said, 'Never! By Allaah! In that case, whenever one of the lions of Allaah fight for Allaah and His Rasool should he give you what is taken from the enemy?' Rasulullaah confirmed what was said by saying, 'He is right, Hand over the possessions.' The man handed me the possessions and with it I bought an orchard in the Banu Salma district. This was the first time that I had received any wealth as a Muslim "

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad William with a Jew

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad Aslami in narrates that he owed four Dirhams to a Jewish man, who then complained about him (to Rasulullaah saying, "O Muhammad in that man owes me four Dirhams but he keeps overpowering me (refuses to pay whenever I ask him). Rasulullaah said to Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad in Fay this man his dues." Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad in Fay this man his dues, "Rasulullaah see repeated. Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad in Fay this man his dues, "Rasulullaah in Fay this man his dues," It would then be able to pay him back with this." However, Rasulullaah in Fay again instructed, "Pay the man his dues." It was the habit of Rasulullaah in that he never repeated anything after the third time (saying something three times meant that it was final).

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Hadrad (1996) then proceeded to the marketplace. He was wearing a turban on his head and a shawl as his lower garment. He removed the turban from his head and used it as a lower garment. He then removed the shawl and said (to the Jew), "Buy this shawl from me." The Jew bought it from him for four Dirhams. An old woman then passed by and asked,

"What is the matter, O companion of Rasulullaah ($\overline{\overl

The Incident of Two Men from the Ansaar in this Regard

Hadhrat Ummu Salama reports that two men from the Ansaar brought to Rasulullaah their dispute concerning some inheritance for which they could produce no evidence nor any witnesses. Rasulullaah said to them, "You are bringing your dispute to me when I can pass judgement only by my estimation in matters concerning which no revelation has come to me. Therefore, if I decide in the favour of someone because of his stronger case, thereby severing any right of his brother, he should not accept it. In that case, I would be apportioning for him a part of Jahannam. On the Day of Qiyaamah he will come with it as a yoke around his neck."

The two men started weeping and each one of them said, "O Rasulullaah [25]! I hand over my right to him." Rasulullaah [25] said, "Since you want it that way, go and ponder about the right, divide it between yourselves and draw lots (to decide who should have which share). Each one of you should then permit his share for the other (so that none stands responsible for taking the right of the other)." (2)

An Incident of a Bedouin in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Sa'eed Feports that a Bedouin once came to Rasulullaa't to demand payment of a debt Rasulullaah owed to him. He behaved very harshly with Rasulullaah saying, "I shall continue plaguing you until you pay the debt!" The companions of Rasulullaah admonished the man saying, "Shame on you! Do you know with whom you are talking?!" The man said, "I am only asking for my right." Rasulullaah say said to them, "Why are you not defending the one who has a right?"

Rasulullaah then sent for Hadhrat Khowla bint Qais was and asked her, "Borrow me some dates if you have any and I shall pay you back when I receive some dates." She said, "Most certainly! May my parents be sacrificed for you, O Rasulullaah will." She then borrowed the dates to Rasulullaah will, with which he paid the Bedouin off together with something extra. The man then said, "You have given me full payment, may Allaah give you in full." Rasulullaah then said, "They are the best of people (who support those with a right). There is no good in a nation whose weak people cannot claim their right without hesitation." (3)

^{(1) (}bn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.181). Ahmad has reported a similar narration, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.2 Pg.295).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah and Abu Sa'eed Nacqaash, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.182).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Maajah, Bazzaar and Tabraani, as quoted in Targheeh wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg.271).

The Narration of Hadhrat Khowla bint Qais (1995) in this Regard

Hadhrat Khowla bint Qais who was the wife of Hadhrat Hamza bin Abdul Muttalib was narrates, "Rasulullaah was owed a Wasaq⁽¹⁾ of dates to a man from the Banu Saa'idah tribe. When the man came to claim repayment, Rasulullaah was instructed someone from the Ansaar to pay it. When the Ansaari paid the man in dates which were of an inferior quality, he refused to accept it. The Ansaari said, "Are you refusing Rasulullaah was?" The man said, "Yes. Who is more worthy of exercising justice than Rasulullaah was?" Rasulullaah was eyes welled with tears as he said, "He is right. Who is more worthy of exercising justice than me? May Allaah not bless a nation whose weak ones cannot claim their rights from their powerful ones and cannot demand them either." Rasulullaah then said, "O Khowlai Count and settle his debt because when a creditor is satisfied when he leaves his debtor, all creatures on earth and fish in the oceans pray for him (the debtor). However, when a debtor delays in paying when he has the means to pay, Allaah records a sin in his records for every day and night that passes (without him paying)." ⁽²⁾

The Justice of Hadhrat Abu Bakr

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Amr bin Al Aas 墨屬酚 reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉榮國 stood up one Friday and announced, "Bring the Zakaah camels tomorrow" morning so that we may distribute them. Remember that none should come to see us without permission." A woman said to her husband, "Take this rein (to be given with the camels to the poor). Perhaps Allaah shall make it a means of providing a camel for us." The man arrived at a time when Hadhrat Abu Bakr শুক্তির and Hadhrat Umar শুক্তির were with the camels and entered (the enclosure) with them. Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Who allowed you to come here?" Hadhrat Abu Bakr 色質過過 then took the rein from the man and hit him with it. After he had completed distributing the camels, Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉延延 summoned the man and handing him the rein, said, "Take your revenge." Hadhrat Umar 连瞬時 quickly intervened and said, "By Allaah! He should not take revenge from you. You should not make this a custom (that people should take revenge from an Ameer who needs to teach a lesson to people)." Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉璋崎 said, "Then who will defend me in Allaah's court on the Day of Oiyaamah?" Hadhrat Umar 经遗迹 replied, "Compensate him somehow." Hadhrat Abu Bakr www then instructed his slave to give the man a riding camel together with its carriage and blanket. In addition to this, he also gave him five Dinaars (gold coins). In this manner, Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经能够 secured the man's pardon. (1)

⁽¹⁾ A unit weight equal to approximately 25 kg.

⁽²⁾ Tabraani and Ahmad, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (vol.3 Pg.270), narrating from reliable sources.

The Justice of Hadhrat Umar Farooq The Incident of Hadhrat Umar And Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b Mass

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that a dispute arose between Hadhrat Umar said and Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b said. Hadhrat Umar said said, "Appoint someone to decide the matter between us." They then agreed to appoint Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit said (to settle the matter) between them. When the two men came to Hadhrat Zaid said, "hat is the first wrong you have committed in your decision-making procedure. I shall rather sit with my contestant." The two men then sat in front of Hadhrat Zaid said. Hadhrat Ubay said to Hadhrat Ubay said fefuted it. Hadhrat Zaid from taking an oath, which is the next step of the procedure since no witnesses were presented). I would not have asked for this concession for anyone else besides the Ameerul Mu'mineen." However, Hadhrat Umar said still took the oath and then said. "Zaid will be unable to judge unless he treats Umar as a man from the ranks of the common Muslims." (2)

The narration of Ibn Asaakir states that Hadhrat Umar 细胞 and Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b 细胞 disputed about the harvesting of a date crop. With tears in his eyes, Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b 细胞 said, "Is this how it will be under your rule, O Umar?" Hadhrat Umar 细胞 said, "Then appoint someone to decide between us." When Hadhrat Ubay 细胞 suggested the name of Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit 细胞,Hadhrat Umar 细胞 accepted and the two of them went to him. The rest of the narration is like the one above. (3)

The Dispute Between Hadhrat Umar and Hadhrat Abbaas Concerning the Expansion of the Masjidun Nabawi

Hadhrat Zaid bin Aslam reports that Hadhrat Abbaas (Fig. 6) had a house next to the Masjid of Madinah. Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 6) asked Hadhrat Abbaas (Fig. 6) to sell the house to him because he intended adding it to the Masjid. However, Hadhrat Abbaas (Fig. 6) refused to sell it. When Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 6) requested him to give it as a gift, Hadhrat Abbaas (Fig. 6) refused this as well. Hadhrat Umar (Fig. 6) said, "You have no option but to accept one of the two proposals." When Hadhrat Abbaas (Fig. 6) told him to appoint someone (todecides the matter between them). Hadhrat Abbaas (Fig. 6) appointed

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg. 127).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Asaakir, Sa'eed bin Mansoor and Bayhaqi.

⁽³⁾ Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.174) and (Vol.3 Pg.181).

Hadhrat Ubay (and the two men took their case to him.

(After hearing the case,) Hadhrat Ubay said to Hadhrat Umar sime, "I do not see any way in which you can remove him from his house without his consent." Hadhrat Umar saked, "Tell me whether you found this judgement in the Book of Allaah or in a Hadith of Rasulullaah sime," "It is in a Hadith of Rasulullaah saked for substantiation, Hadhrat Ubay said, "I have heard Rasulullaah sas say that while Hadhrat Sulaymaan such the son of Hadhrat Dawood say was constructing Baytul Maddas, he found the walls destroyed every morning after he had them built. Allaah then sent revelation telling him that he would be unable to build anything on the land of another person without the person's consent."

Hadhrat Umar (The Hadhrat Abbaas (Hadhrat Abbaas) (Hadhra

A Narration of Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib in this Regard

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib narrates that Hadhrat Umar woo once intended to take the house of Hadhrat Abbaas woo to include it in the Masjid. However, Hadhrat Abbaas woo refused to hand the house over. When Hadhrat Umar woo preserved that he would certainly have possession of the house, Hadhrat Abbaas woo proposed that they appoint Hadhrat Ubay bin Ka'b woo to pass judgement between them. Hadhrat Umar woo agreed and they both approached Hadhrat Ubay woo. After they had related the matter to him, Hadhrat Ubay woo said, "Allaah sent revelation to Hadhrat Sulaymaan bin Dawood instructing him to construct the Baytul Maqdas. The land belonged to a man whom Hadhrat Sulaymaan wow approached to buy it from him. However, when Hadhrat Sulaymaan wow handed over the money to the man, he asked, 'Is this price that you are paying better or is that which you are taking from me better?' Hadhrat Sulaymaan wow replied, 'Certainly that which I am taking from you is better.' 'In that case,' said the man, 'I shall not accept it.'

Hadhrat Sulaymaan then gave the man a higher price. The man then did the same thing two or three times until Hadhrat Sulaymaan made a condition with him, 'I am buying this land from you at the price you fix. You may therefore not ask me which of the two is better.' Hadhrat Sulaymaan took the purchased land from him at the price he fixed, which happened to be twelve thousand Qintaar of gold (one Qintaar equals four thousand gold coins). Hadhrat Sulaymaan then felt that the amount was too big to give the man. Allaah then sent revelation to him saying, 'If you are paying him from something that is your own, then you know best (what you have to do). However, if you are paying him from what We have provided for you, then give him whatever he is pleased with.' Hadhrat Sulaymaan then paid the amount."

Hadhrat Ubay (Continued, "I feel that Abbaas (Continued) has a greater right to his house, which cannot be taken from him until he is pleased." Hadhrat Abbaas (Continued) have made the decision in my favour, I wish to make it Sadaqah for the Muslims." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Umar bin Khattaab and Abu Saroo'ah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar wee reports that his brother Abdur Rahmaan and Abu Saroo'ah both drank some wine while they were in Egypt during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar wee. They were both intoxicated and the following morning they approached Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas who was the Ameer of Egypt. They said to him, "Purify us (by imposing the penalty) because we had both become intoxicated with what we drank."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says, "When my brother mentioned to me that he had become intoxicated, I said to him, 'Come into the house and I will purify you.' I did not know then that he had already been to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas says. When my brother told me that he had already informed the Ameer of Egypt, I said, 'Your head will not be shaved in front of all the people today. Go into the house and I will myself shave your head.' The practice of governors in those days was that they shaved the heads of criminals together with imposing the penalty. The two men then entered the house. I shaved my brother's head with my own hand and then Hadhrat Amr shau them lashed."

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar (When Hadhrat Umar (When

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar www and a Woman whose Husband was Missing

Hadhrat Hasan narrates that Hadhrat Umar 劉潔德 once sent for a woman whose husband had gone missing. Hadhrat Umar 劉潔德 objected to the fact that ⁽¹⁾ Abdur Razzaaq, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.260). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.13) has reported a similar narration, Ibn Asaakir has also reported a similar narration in great detail from Saalim Abu Nadhar and the chain of narrators are reliable save for the fact that Saalim was not a contemporary of Hadhrat Umar 歌範。 Bayhaqi and Ya'qoob bin Sufyaan have reported the narration briefly from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 歌範 with a reliable chain of narrators, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.65), in this narration, Hadhrat Hudhayfa 歌範 is mentioned instead of Hadhrat Ubay 歌範.

⁽²⁾ Abdur Razzaaq and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.422), narrating from reliable sources. Ibn Sa'd has also reported the narration in detail from Aslam who narrates from Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 劉瑙德, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.420).

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH 後國國國 (vol 2)

'Respond to the call of Umar." She bemoaned, "Alas! I am destroyed! What does Umar want with me?!" (She was pregnant and) As she was still on her way, she people used to frequently visit her. When she was summoned, it was said to her, became so frightened that labour pains struck. She entered a house where the child was born Howares the child erreamed and turice and then it died

Umar Sizes said, "You killed him because of his intentions! Which of us does not make intentions (to do evil)? Had it not been for the fear that it would become routine. I would have killed you for (killing) him." (1)

The Hadith of Zaid bin Wahab in this Regard

Hadhrat Zaid bin Wahab narrates that Hadhrat Umar some once emerged from his home with his fingers in his ears and saying, "If only I could have been at your service! If only I could have been at your service!" When the people asked what the matter was, Hadhrat Umar some informed them that a messenger had come to him from one of his governors stating that a river presented an obstacle to the progress of their army and they could not find a boat to cross over. The Ameer of the army instructed the others to find a man who knew how to gauge the depth of a river. They brought an old man who pleaded to the Ameer saying, "I fear the cold." Although it was winter, the Ameer forced him to go into the river and it was not long before the cold overcame him and the last thing he shouted before he drowned was, "Help me, O Umar!"

Hadhrat Umar words wrote to the Ameer (to come to Madinah) and when he arrived, Hadhrat Umar words ignored him for a few days. Hadhrat Umar words usually did this when he was angry with someone. Hadhrat Umar words then asked him, "What wrong was done by the man you killed?" The Ameer said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I never intended to kill him. Because we could find nothing with which to cross over, we only wanted to ascertain the depth of the water." He then went on to enumerate the many territories they had conquered. However, Hadhrat Umar words said, "A single Muslim is more valuable to me than all your achievements. Had I not feared that it would become a common practice, I would have executed you. Pay the Diyah to his family and go somewhere where I would not see you again." (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari and another man and the Letter Hadhrat Umar Wrote in this Regard

Hadhrat Jareer narrates that a man who was with Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'arl (in a battle) managed to gain a large booty. Although Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari gave the man some share of the booty, it was not the complete share. The man refused to accept anything less than his complete share. Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari gave then gave the man twenty lashes and shaved off his hair. The man collected his hair and went to Hadhrat Umar gaves. He then took out the hair from his pocket and thrust it on Hadhrat Umar gaves chest. "What is the matter?" asked Hadhrat Umar gaves. After the man recounted the incident to Hadhrat Umar gaves, the Khalifah wrote a letter to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari gaves. After greeting Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari gaves. Hadhrat Umar stress wrote the name of the person who had informed him of the incident and also wrote the details of what he heard. Thereafter, he wrote:

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Abdul Hakam, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg. 298).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.299)

"I order you in the name of Allaah that if you had carried out the act in public, you should sit in public and allow him to have his revenge from you. If you had done so in private, then you should sit in private and allow him to have his revenge."

When this letter reached Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (1996), he sat down for the man to take his revenge, but the man said, "I have forgiven him for the pleasure of Allaah."

The Incident of Hadhrat Fayrooz Daylami and a Youngster from the Quraysh

Hadhrat Hirmaazi reports that Hadhrat Umar 鉴疑够 wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Fayrooz Daylami 密障够:

"The news has reached me that you are very occupied with eating refined bread with honey. When this letter of mine reaches you, come to me in the name of Allaah and fight in the way of Allaah."

When Hadhrat Fayrooz Daylami sarrived (in Madinah), he sought permission to see Hadhrat Umar safes and permission was granted. Just then, (as he was about to enter) a youngster from the Quraysh also rushed in and jostled Hadhrat Fayrooz safes. Hadhrat Fayrooz safes lifted his hand and slapped the Qurayshi on the nose. The Qurayshi entered the presence of Hadhrat Umar safes with a bleeding nose and Hadhrat Umar safes was still standing at the door and then entered after Hadhrat Umar safes gave him permission to do so.

Hadhrat Umar William is then asked, "What is this, O Fayrooz?" he replied, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! It was just recently that we had been kings. You had written to me (to come here) but did not write to him. You had also permitted me to enter and did not permit him. However, he wanted to enter before me with the permission I had been granted. I then did what he has informed you about." Hadhrat Umar William in the word of the word of the hadhrat Fayrooz William in the word of the word of the hadhrat Fayrooz William in the word of the hadhrat Umar William interrupted by saying, "Hold it boy until I inform you about what I heard Rasulullaah was say one morning. He said, 'Last night Aswad Anasi the great liar (who claimed to be a Nabi) was killed last night. It was the pious servant Fayrooz Daylami who killed him.' Can you see yourself taking revenge from him after hearing this from Rasulullaah with this statement of Rasulullaah in after you have informed me about this statement of Rasulullaah with the word of the word of the word of Rasulullaah with this statement of Rasulullaah with the word of Rasulullaah Hadhrat Fayrooz then asked Hadhrat Umar , "Tell me whether my

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.299).

The Incident of a Slave Woman and the Justice of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas "reports that a slave woman once came to Hadhrat Umar and said, "My master has accused me of fornication and made me sit on a fire until my private organ was burnt." Hadhrat Umar saked her, "Did anyone witness you commit the act?" When she replied in the negative, he asked further, "Did you make any confession before him?" When she again said that she did not, Hadhrat Umar saked, "In shall deal with him." When Hadhrat Umar saked with him. "When Hadhrat Umar saked, "Do you punish with punishment that is reserved for Allaah (with fire)?!" The man entreated, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I was suspicious of her." "Did you see her commit the act?" Hadhrat Umar sended to know. "No," came the reply. Hadhrat Umar enquired further, "Did she then confess to you that she committed the act?" Again he said, "No."

Hadhrat Umar then exclaimed, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I would have definitely taken retribution from you had I not heard Rasulullaah say, 'Retribution cannot be taken from a master for anything he does to his slave and also not from a father for anything he does to his child.' Hadhrat Umar had the man lashed a hundred times and then said to the woman, "You may go because you are now freed for the pleasure of Allaah. You are now the freed slave of Allaah and His Rasool say. I testify that I have heard Rasulullaah say, 'The person who is burnt by fire or disfigured by it is a free person and is the freed slave of Allaah and His Rasool

The Incident Between a Farmer and Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit and the Justice of Hadhrat Umar simes in the Matter

Hadhrat Makhool narrates that Hadhrat Ubaadah bin Saamit woo once called a non-Arab Christian farm labourer to hold his animal next to Baytul Maqdas. When the labourer refused, Hadhrat Ubaadah woo hit him so hard that his head was cut. The labourer sought help from Hadhrat Umar bin Khattaab woo, who then asked Hadhrat Ubaadah woo, "What made you do that to him?" Hadhrat Ubaadah woo replied, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! He refused to hold my animal when I asked him to do so, so I hit him because I am a short-tempered man." Hadhrat Umar with then instructed Hadhrat Ubaadah with to sit down so that the labourer could have his revenge. Just then, Hadhrat Zaid bin Thaabit with interrupted by saying, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Will you allow your slave to take revenge from your brother?" Hadhrat Umar with then left out the retribution and determined that Hadhrat Ubaadah whould compensate the labourer in money. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.83).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani in his Awsat, Ibn Asaakir and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg. 299).

The Incident of Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik Ashja'ee with a Jew and the Justice of Hadhrat Umar wife in this Matter

Hadhrat Suwayd bin Ghafala reports that when Hadhrat Umar once arrived in Shaam, a man belonging to the Ahlul Kitaab said to him, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! A man from amongst the Mu'mineen did this to me." The man's head was cut and he had been beaten. Hadhrat Umar became extremely angry and then said to Hadhrat Suhayb Go, "Go and investigate who is responsible for this and then bring the culprit to me." Hadhrat Suhayb proceeded and discovered that the person responsible was Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik Ashja'ee Go. Hadhrat Suhayb Good said to Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik Good, "The Ameerul Mu'mineen is extremely angry with you. Bring along Mu'aadh bin Jabal Good to speak to him because I fear that he will be very hasty in deciding your matter."

Hadhrat Umar said." When Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik said, went to her, her father and her husband said. "What do you want with our woman? You have already disgraced us (by relating the story)." However, the woman said, "By Allaah! I shall definitely go with him!" Her father and husband then said, "We shall rather go and relate the incident on your behalf." The two men then went to Hadhrat Umar said and related the story just as Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik said, then had the Jew crucified and said (to the Jewish population), "This (type of behaviour) was not amongst the clauses of our treaty with you." He then said, "O people! Fear Allaah with regard to those under the guardianship of Muhammad (the Dhimmis). However, there shall be no guardianship for those of them who do this (who rape Muslim women)." Hadhrat Suwayd says that the Jew was the first person he had seen crucified in Islaam. (1)

⁽¹⁾ Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.303).

The Incident of Hadhrat Bakr bin Shaddaah with a Jew and the Justice of Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abdul Malik bin Ya'la Laythi narrates that Hadhrat Bakr bin Shaddaah Laythi used to serve Rasulullaah when he was a child. After he came of age, he approached Rasulullaah saying, "O Rasulullaah lage I used to go into the homes of your wives, but I have now reached the age of a man. Rasulullaah then prayed for him saying, "O Allaah! Make his speech always truthful and grant him success."

It happened during the Khilaafah of Hadhrat Umar that a Jew was found murdered. Hadhrat Umar regarded this to be a very serious matter and was very perturbed. He mounted the pulpit and said, "Will people be suddenly killed during the period in which Allaah has made me the Khalifah? In the name of Allaah do I beseech anyone with any knowledge (of the murder) to inform me likewise." Hadhrat Bakr bin Shaddaah then stood up and said, "It was I who did it." Hadhrat Umar succeeded exclaimed, "Allaahu Akbar! You are confessing to the murder! Explain your excuse." "Certainly," said Hadhrat Bakr bin Shaddaah with the murder! Explain your excuse." "Certainly," said Hadhrat Bakr bin Shaddaah with the said hadhrat Bakr bin Shadd

"Islaam has deceived Ash'ath (the Muslim out in Jihaad) so much that I have spent the entire night alone with his wife I spent the night on her breasts While she spent the night on bare-backed and lean camel It appears that at the place where her thighs meet Are waves crashing on to waves"

Hadhrat Umar Sings believed Hadhrat Bakr bin Shaddaah Sings because of the prayer of Rasulullaah (2) and acquitted him for the murder. (2)

The Letter that Hadhrat Umar Wood Wrote to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah Concerning the Murder of a Jew

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Abi Bazza reports that a Muslim once killed a Dhimmi in Abu Ubayd, Bayhaqi and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.299); Tabraani has reported a similar narration in brief from Hadhrat Awf bin Maalik $2,226. He has narrated from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami (Vol.6 Pg.13).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Mandah and Abu Nu'aym, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg. 13). Ibn Abi Shaybah has also reported a similar narration from Imaam Sha'bi, as quoted in Isaaba (Vol.1 Pg.52).

Shaam. The case was brought before Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah (William), who then wrote to Hadhrat Umar (William). Hadhrat Umar (William) wrote back with the instruction that if killing Dhimmis is a habitual practice of the Muslim, he should be executed. However, if he did it in a fit of rage, he should pay a penalty of four thousand Dirhams. (1)

Hadhrat Umar Wiss Writes to the Commander of an Army Forbidding the Killing of Mushrikeen (who surrender)

It is reported that Hadhrat Umar (Singles) once wrote the following letter to one of the army commanders he had dispatched:

"The news has reached me that some of your men seek out the burly Mushrikeen soldiers and even if they flee to the mountains where they feel safe, your men tell them 'Matras' (a Persian word meaning 'Have no fear', used to assure the person that he would not be harmed). Thereafter, when they have the man in custody (after he had given himself up upon the assurance of safety) they kill him. I swear by the Being Who controls my life! If the news reaches me that any of you does this. I shall have him executed. (2)

Another narration from Abu Salama states that Hadhrat Umar said, "I swear by the Being Who controls my life! If any of you points your finger towards the sky for any Mushrik (assuring him safety) and then kills him when he surrenders himself, I shall have him executed." (3)

The Incident of Hurmuzaan and Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Anas (their leader) Hurmuzaan eventually surrendered on the verdict of Umar (their leader) Hurmuzaan eventually surrendered on the verdict of Umar (their leader). I then brought him to Umar (When We arrived, Umar (When told Hurmuzaan to speak. Hurmuzaan asked, 'Should I speak like a dead man or like a living person?' Hadhrat Umar (When their Proposed Hurmuzaan then said, 'O Arabs! As long as Allaah had left you and us to ourselves, we used to enslave you, kill you and usurp your wealth. However, since Allaah has been with you, we have no strength against you.'

What have you to say?' Umar was asked me. I said, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I have left behind me a large enemy force who have tremendous strength. If you kill him, his people will lose hope in living and their strength will be even greater (so do not kill him).' Umar was said, 'Can I allow the murderer of (great people like) Baraa bin Maalik (the brother of Hadhrat Anas was young and Hajza bin Thowr was to remain alive?' When I feared that Umar was was going to kill Hurmuzaan, I said, 'You have no right to kill someone to whom you have sad, 'You may speak 'Laa Ba's' (because this is an assurance of amnesty).' Umar wasked, 'Did you receive a bribe or anything else from him?' I replied, 'I swear by Allaah that I neither received a bribe nor anything else from him.' Umar then warned, 'You will have to bring forth someone besides yourself to testify (that the words 'Laa Ba's' is an assurance of amnesty) otherwise I shall punish you first.'

⁽¹⁾ Abdur Razzaq and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 7 Pg. 298).

⁽²⁾ Maalik.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Saa'id and Laalka'ee, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 2 Pg. 298).

I left and found Zubayr bin Awwaam (who testified on my behalf. Umar then restrained himself from killing Hurmuzaan. Hurmuzaan then accepted Islaam and Umar (fixed an allowance for him from the public treasury." (1)

Hadhrat Umar Fixes an Allowance from the State Treasury for an Old Dhimmi

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abi Hadrad Aslami the narrates that when they arrived with Hadhrat Umar in Jaabiya, they came across an old Dhimmi man begging for food. When Hadhrat Umar the enquired about the man, he was informed that the man was a Dhimmi who had grown very old and weak and even had a family to support. Hadhrat Umar then absolved him of paying the Jizya he was obliged to pay and said, "You have made him pay the Jizya and when he eventually became weak, you left him to beg for food?" Hadhrat Umar then fixed an allowance of ten Dirhams for the man from the state treasury. (2)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar wife and a Dhimmi

Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abi Maalik reports that Hadhrat Umar was with the Muslims of Jaabiya when a Dhimmi reported to him that people had ransacked his vineyard. Hadhrat Umar went to investigate and even found one of the Sahabah was carrying a shield full of grapes. "You also?" gaped Hadhrat Umar was said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! We are starving." Hadhrat Umar was then left him and gave instructions that the owner of the vineyard should be paid (from the state treasury) for his grapes. (4)

Hadhrat Umar Spasses Judgement in Favour of a Jew Against a Muslim

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib narrates that a Muslim and Jew once brought their

- (1) Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.96). Imaam Shaafi'ee has reported a similar narration in brief, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.298). Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.96) has also reported the narration in more detail from Jubayr bin Hayya and another very detailed account appears in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.7 Pg.87).
- (2) Ibn Asaakir and Waaqidi.
- (3) Abu Ubayd, Ibn Zanjway and Uqayli, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.301,302).
- (4) Abu Ubayd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.22 Pg.299).

dispute to Hadhrat Umar (I). Because Hadhrat Umar (I) saw that the Jew was right, he passed judgement in his favour. The Jew then said to him, "By Allaah! You have judged by the truth!" Hadhrat Umar (I) rapped him with a whip and asked, "How do you know?" The Jew replied, "By Allaah! We read in the Torah that whenever a judge resolves to pass judgement by the truth, there is an angel by his right and another by his left who continue guiding him aright and inspiring him. However, as soon as he forsakes the resolve to Judge by the truth, they ascend (to the heavens) and leave him." (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umar salama and Hadhrat Salama

Hadhrat Iyaas bin Salama narrates from his father (Hadhrat Salama), "Hadhrat Umar once passed through the marketplace with a whip in his hand. He lightly struck me with the whip which hit the edge of my clothes as he said, 'Move from the path.' The following day when he met me, he asked, 'O Salam! Do you intend performing Hajj?' When I replied in the affirmative, he led me by my hand to his house and gave me six hundred Dirhams. He then said, 'Use this to help you in your Hajj and you should know that it is in compensation for the lash that I gave you.' I said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I do not even remember it.' He said, 'And I have never forgotten it." (2)

The Justice of Hadhrat Uthmaan

An Incident that Transpired between him and his Slave

Hadhrat Abul Furaat narrates that Hadhrat Uthmaan (Singles) once said to his slave, "I once twisted your ears and I want you to take retribution. When the slave took hold of his ears, Hadhrat Uthmaan (Singles) told him to twist harder and said, "How delightful is retribution in this world without any in the Aakhirah." (3)

His Justice with a Bird

Hadhrat Naafi bin Abdul Haarith narrates, "Hadhrat Umar wow once arrived in Makkah where he went to the Daarun Nadwa⁽⁴⁾ on a Friday. He intended to reach the Masjid earlier in this way. He hung his shawl on a peg in a room and a pigeon came to sit on it. When Hadhrat Umar wow chased the pigeon away, a snake attacked it and killed it. After he had led the Jumu'ah salaah, Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan wow and I came to him. He said, 'Do pass a verdict concerning something that I had done today. I had entered this room with the intention of reaching the Masjid earlier and hung my shawl on this peg. When a pigeon perched on top of it, I feared that it would mess the shawl with its ⁽⁴⁾ The place where the Quraysh used to convene before Islaam. It later became part of the Masjidul Haraam.

⁽¹⁾ Maatik, as quoted in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.3 Pg. 455).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani (Vol.5 Pg.32).

⁽³⁾ Sammaan in his Muwaafaga, as quoted in Riyaadhun Nadhrah (Vol.2 Pg.111) by Muhib Tabari.

droppings and I therefore chased it off. It then perched on another peg where a snake attacked and killed it. It now occurs to me that it was I who had chased it away from a place of safety to one of danger (I had been the cause of its death).' I said to Hadhrat Uthmaan William, 'What do you think about having the Ameerul Mu'mineen pay with a white goat three years of age?' Hadhrat Uthmaan way.' Hadhrat Umar then had it paid." (I)

The Justice of Hadhrat Ali

Hadhrat Ali Wiss Distributes the Booty Won at Isfahan

Hadhrat Kulayb narrates that when the booty won at Islahan came to Hadhrat Ali Sisse, he divided it into seven shares. He found in it a loaf of bread and even divided that into seven parts, placing a piece of it on every one of the seven portions. He then summoned the commanders of the seven parts of the army and had them draw lots to decide which of them will be given their share first. (2)

The Incident of an Arab Woman and Her Freed Slave

The grandfather of Hadhrat Isa bin Abdullaah Haashimi narrates that two women came to ask from Hadhrat Ali (See The one was an Arab woman and the other was her freed slave. Hadhrat Ali (See Instructed that each of them be given a bag of grain and forty Dirhams. The freed slave took what she was given and left. The Arab woman said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! You have given me as much as you have given her whereas I am an Arab and she is a freed slave?" Hadhrat Ali (See Treplied, "I have studied the Book of Allaah and have not found in it anything denoting that the progeny of Isma'eel (Arabs) should be given preference over the progeny of Is'haaq (See Instance).

An Incident that took place between Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Ja'dah bin Hubayrah

Hadhrat Ali bin Rabee'ah reports that Hadhrat Ja'dah bin Hubayrah once said to Hadhrat Ali (O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Two people will come to you (to judge their dispute). The one is more beloved to you than your own self (or he said "more beloved to you than your family and your wealth") while the other would readily slaughter you if he got the chance. You should therefore pass judgement in favour of the first rather than the second." Hadhrat Ali (O Lipst) hit him on the chest and said, "If this (passing judgement) was to please myself, I would have certainly done this. However, this is something that is done to please Allaah (and I shall therefore pass judgement according to the truth)."

⁽¹⁾ Imaam Shaff'ee in his Musnad (pg.47).

⁽²⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.348), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.116), ibn Abdul Birr has also reported the narration in his Istl'aub (Vol.3 Pg.49).

⁽³⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.6 Pg.349)

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg. 166).

The Narration of Hadhrat Asbagh bin Nabaatah in this regard

Hadhrat Asbagh bin Nabaatah narrates that he once accompanied Hadhrat Ali to the marketplace. When Hadhrat Ali tespassed their boundaries, he asked, "What is this?" When the people confirmed that the traders had indeed trespassed their boundaries, Hadhrat Ali the traders had indeed trespassed their boundaries, Hadhrat Ali they have no right to do that. The Muslim marketplace is like the place where they perform salaah. Whoever arrives first at a place, it is his for the day unless he chooses to forfeit it." (1)

The incident of Hadhrat Ali with and a Jew has already passed in the chapter dealing with incidents about the character and actions of the Sahabah with that inspired people to accept Islaam.

The Justice of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha

The Incident Concerning his Justice with the people of Khaybar

In a lengthy narration concerning the Mushrikeen in the Battle of Khaybar, Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Says says that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Rawwaaha says used to go to Khaybar every year to estimate their crop output and would then make them pay half the amount (according to the agreement they made with Rasulullaah says). The Jews complained to Rasulullaah about the harshness of his estimations and even tried to bribe him. He however said to them, "O enemies of Allaah! Do you wish to feed me of food what is forbidden? By Allaah. I have come to you from someone whom I love most of all people while I detest each of you people more than apes and pigs. However, my hatred for you and my love for him will not prompt me from being unjust towards you." The Jews then said, "It is because of this (such justice) that the skies and the earth remain in existence." (2)

The Justice of Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad

The Narration of Hadhrat Haarith bin Suwayd in this Regard and the statement of Hadhrat Miqdaad who said, "I Shall die while Islaam is Dominant" Hadhrat Haarith bin Suwayd narrates that Hadhrat Miqdaad bin Aswad was once part of a military expedition that was surrounded by the enemy. The Ameer of the army gave explicit instructions that no one should take their animals for grazing. However, the news did not reach one of the men and he grazed his animal. The Ameer therefore beat him for it. The man then returned saying, "Never before have I been treated as I have been treated today." Hadhrat Miqdaad happened to pass by and asked the man what the matter was. When the man related the incident, Hadhrat Miqdaad hung his sword around his neck and proceeded with the man to the Ameer. Hadhrat Miqdaad said said (to the Ameer), "Allow him to take retribution from you." When the Ameer allowed the man to do so, the man forgave him. Hadhrat Miqdaad ham went back saying, "(Inshaa Allaah) I shall die while Islaam is dominant (when the weak are able to redress the wrong that the powerful do to them)."(1)

⁽I) Abu Ubayd in his Amwaal, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Fg.176). (2) Bayhagi, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.4 Pg.199).

The Fear that the Khulafaa had for Allaah The Narration of Hadhrat Dahhaak about the fear that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Mass had for Allaah

Hadhrat Dahhaak reports that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq wo once saw a bird perched on a tree and said, "How fortunate you are, O bird! By Allaah! I wish I had been like you. You perch on trees, eat fruit and then fly off without (fear of) any reckoning or punishment. By Allaah! I wish that I was a shrub on the roadside that a passing camel takes into its mouth, chews and then swallows to eventually emerge as dung. I wish I had never been a human (with worries of reckoning and punishment)." (2)

Another narration also from Hadhrat Dahhaak bin Muzaahim states that Hadhrat Abu Bakr was once looking at a sparrow when he said, "How fortunate are you, O sparrow. You eat from the fruit, fly amongst the trees and have no (worries of) reckoning or punishment. By Allaah! I wish that I had been a sheep that some family fattens and when I eventually become as big and fat as I possibly can be, they slaughter me. Thereafter, they roast a part of me, dry parts of me and then eat me. They then dispose of me as excrement in the toilet. I wish that I was never created as a human being." (3)

Yet another narration quotes that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Said, "I wish that I had been a hair on the body of a Mu'min." (4)

A Narration of Dahhaak About the fear that Hadhrat Umar Mass had for Allaah

Hadhrat Dahhaak narrates that Hadhrat Umar wow once said, "I wish that I had been the sheep of a family who fatten me up as much as they please. When I then become as fat as I can be, some of their loved ones pay them a visit and they roast a part of me, dry a part of me and then eat me. They then eventually

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.176).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Abi Shaybah, Hannaad and Bayhaqi.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Fathaway in his Wajal.

⁽⁴⁾ Ahmad in his Zuhd, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.361).

dispose of me as excrement. If only I had never been a human being," (1)

A Narration of Ibn Asaakir and Abu Nu'aym about the Fear that Hadhrat Umar

A Narration of Ibn Asaakir and Abu Nu'aym about the Fear that Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Aamir bin Rabee'ah reports that he once saw Hadhrat Umar (wise) pick up a twig from the ground and say, "I wish that I had been this twig, I wish that I had never been created. I wish that I had been nothing, I wish that my mother had never given birth to me. I wish that I had been something gone and forgotten." (2)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Umar saids said, "If a caller from the heavens had to announce, 'O people! Each one of you shall enter Jannah besides one person' I would fear that the one person may be me. On the other hand, if the announcer had to announce, 'O people! Each one of you shall enter Jahannam besides one person' I would wish that the one person should be me." (3)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Umar (1986) and Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (1986)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 銀廠廠 narrates that Hadhrat Umar 銀廠廠 once met Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (and asked him. "O Abu Moosa! Will it please you to have for yourself (the rewards for) all the good deeds you carried out during the time of Rasulullaah (2) and that (when it concerns the deeds you did after the demise of Rasulullaah est, especially during your term as Ameer) you should emerge with a clean sheet i.e. your good deeds should be cancelled out with your evil acts and your evil acts with your good deeds so that you neither have rewards (for your good deeds) nor punishment (for your evil acts)?" Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari (1986) replied, "No, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! By Allaah, when I arrived in Basrah, insolence was rife amongst its people. I then taught them the Our'aan and the Sunnah and fought with them in the path of Allaah. I now aspire to reap the benefits of this." Hadhrat Umar with then said, "However, I wish to emerge with a clean sheet, having my good deeds cancelled with my evils acts and my evil acts cancelled with my good deeds. All that I require to have for myself are the good deeds that I carried out during the time of Rasulullaah 德雄 "(4)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas Concerning the Fear Hadhrat Umar had for Allaah

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Sies) says, "After Hadhrat Umar (Sies) was stabbed, I went to him and said, 'Glad tidings to you, O Ameerul Mu'mineen because it was through you that Allaah has populated cities, repulsed hypocrisy

⁽¹⁾ Hannaad, Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.52) and Bayhaqi.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Mubaarak, Ibn Sa'd, Ibn Abi Shaybah, Musaddad and Ibn Asaakir.

⁽³⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.53).

⁽⁴⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.401).

and made sustenance widespread.' Hadhrat Umar (Sussess asked, 'Are you praising me for my leadership, O son of Abbaas?' 'For other reasons as well,' I replied. He then said, 'I swear by the Being Who controls my life that I wish to emerge from it just as I had entered into it without any rewards and without any sin." (1)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas said to Hadhrat Umar said, "Accept the glad tidings of Jannah for you have been in the company of Rasulullaah for a very long time. Thereafter, when you became the Ameer of the Mu'mineen, you lent tremendous strength to them and fulfilled the trust placed on your shoulders." Hadhrat Umar responded by saying, "As for the glad tidings of Jannah that you have given me, I swear by the Being besides Whom there is none worthy of worship that if I owned the world and all its contents, I would have offered it as ransom to be saved from the frightening scene that lies ahead of me. As for what you have said about my leadership over the Mu'mineen, I swear by Allaah that I wish it were a clean sheet without any rewards in my favour nor any punishment. As for what you have mentioned about my companionship with Rasulullaah . this is something (precious, for which I can expect great rewards)." (2)

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Ubayd bin Umayr narrates that a lengthy narration in which he states that Hadhrat Umar (Singles) asked those around him to help him sit up. When they did this, he asked Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Singles) to repeat what he had said. When Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Peretain to repeat what I mar (Singles) asked, "Will you testify to this before Allaah on the day you meet Him?" "Certainly," replied Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas (Singles) Hadhrat Umar (Singles) then became very happy and was pleased. (3)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar and Hadhrat Miswar Concerning the Fear Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar says, "Umar says's head was on my lap when he was suffering the illness that eventually claimed his life. 'Put my head on the ground,' he said to me. I said, 'What difference would it make if it is on my lap or on the ground?' However, he again ordered me to place it on the ground and I complied. He then said, 'My mother and I are destroyed if my Rabb does not have mercy on me!"

Hadhrat Miswar reports that when Hadhrat Umar (1986) was stabbed, he said, "If I possessed enough gold to fill the earth, I would have given it to ransom myself from the punishment of Allaah before I can even see it." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.52). Tabraani has also reported the narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar 劉帝師 in great detail, as has Abu Ya'ta reported it from Abu Raafi, as quoted in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.9 Pg.76). Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.254) has also reported a similar narration from Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abbaas 劉治師.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.256).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.257).

⁽⁴⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hillya (Vol.1 Pg.52)

Should an Ameer Fear Anybody's Criticism?

The Narration of Hadhrat Saa'eb bin Yazd (1986) in this regard Hadhrat Saa'eb bin Yazd someone once asked Hadhrat Umar someone once asked Hadhrat Umar someone, "Is it better for me not to fear anybody's criticism in matters pertaining to Allaah or to rather look into myself (for reformation)?" Hadhrat Umar some replied, "Those who have been entrusted with overseeing the affairs of the people should not fear anybody's criticism in matters he has to do for Allaah. As for the person who is not charged with any public duty, he should look to his own reformation and advise the one who is entrusted to oversee public affairs." (1)

The Advices that the Khulafaa Gave to other Khulafaa and leaders

The Advice that Hadhrat Abu Bakr sizes gave to Hadhrat Umar sizes when He intended to Appoint him as his Successor

Hadhrat Aghar from the Banu Maalik tribe reports that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr decided to appoint Hadhrat Umar as as his successor, he send for him. When Hadhrat Umar as came, Hadhrat Abu Bakr said to him, "I am summoning you to a duty that tires the person it is entrusted to. O Umar! Fear Allaah by obeying Him and obey Him by fearing Him because the one who fears Allaah is safe (from fears) and protected (from all harm). You should also understand that (whatever you do in) this position will be presented before Allaah (for reckoning). None is worthy of this post except the one who fulfils it rights. None of the hopes of a person is realised when he commands people to do what is right while he engages in wrong and who enjoins good while doing evil. All this person's deeds will soon be wasted (will not benefit him in the Aakhirah). Therefore, if you are appointed as the Ameer of the people, you should do your best to keep your ends dry of their blood, your stomach empty of their wealth and your tongue free of their honour. There is no power (to do good) except from Allaah." (2)

The Advice that Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave on his deathbed about the Appointment of Hadhrat Umar as his Successor and his Advice to Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Saalim bin Abdullaah bin Umar Will narrates that when death came to Hadhrat Abu Bakr (1986), he gave the following parting advices:

⁽¹⁾ Bayhagi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaa! (Vol.3 Pg.163).

⁽²⁾ Tabraani. Haythami (Vol.5 Pg. 198) has commented on the chain of narrators, as has Haafidh Mundhiri in Targheeb wat Tarheeb (Vol.4 Pg. 15).

This is a parting repuest from abu Bakr that he is making during his final moments in this world as he is leaving it and during his initial moments in the Aakhirah as he enters it. This is a time when a Kaafir accepts Imaan, a sinner develops fear for Allaah and even a liar speaks the truth. I have appointed Umar bin Khattaab as my successor. If he exercises justice, then this has always been my expectation of him. However, if he changes and oppresses, then my knowledge of the unseen.

shortly (after death) the oppressors (wrongdoers) will come to know to which place they will return (jahannam). (Surah shu`araa, werse 227)

Hadhrat Abu Bakr 包括 then sent for Hadhrat Umar 图像 (When he arrived) Hadhrat Abu Bakr 经路路 called him in and said, "O Umar! There are those who hate you as well as those who love you. It is however, a very old practice for people to hate good and to love evil." Hadhrat Umar (1986) interjected, "I have no need for Khilaafah." "But the Khilaafah has a need for you," added Hadhrat Abu Bakr 💯 6. Hadhrat Abu Bakr 🕮 6 then continued, "You have seen Rasulullaah as and spent time in his company. You have also seen how he gave preference to us over himself. In fact, we used to actually give his family what was left over from that which came to us from him (he gave us before even giving his family). Then you have also seen me and spent time in my company. I have only been following in the footsteps of the one who passed before me. By Allaah! I am not sleeping and dreaming this nor am I in doubt about what I am seeing. I shall also not turn off the course I am taking. O Umar! Take note that Allaah has a right during the night that He does not accept during the day a right that He does not accept during the night. The scales of those with heavy scales on the Day of Oiyaamah have only become heavy because they have always followed the truth. It is also the right of the scales to weigh heavily when they contain nothing but the truth. On the other hand, the scales of those with light scales on the Day of Qiyaamah have only become light because they have always followed falsehood. It is also the right of the scales to be light when they contain nothing but falsehood. The first thing that I wish to warn you about is your own self. I also wish to warn you about the people because their eyes are always envious and their desires have swollen. However, when they are disgraced (because of these evil traits), they become alarmed, so beware of becoming a cause of this. They will always remain in awe of you as long as you fear Allaah. This is my parting advice. I now wish you peace." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3#g.146).

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Saabit and Others About the Advice that Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave to Hadhrat Umar Before his death

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan bin Saabit, Hadhrat Zaid bin Zubayd bin Haarith and Hadhrat Mujaahid all report that when death approached Hadhrat Abu Bakr he summoned Hadhrat Umar and said, "Fear Allaah, O Umar! Take note that Allaah has some acts (owing to Him) during the night that He does not accept during the day and some acts (owing to Him) during the day that He does not accept during the night. Also note that Allaah does not accept Nafi acts until the Faraa'idh are fulfilled. The scales of those with heavy scales on the Day of Qiyaamah have only become heavy because they have always followed the truth in this world and have had high regard for it. It is also the right of a scale in which the truth is placed tomorrow that it should weigh heavily. On the other hand, the scales of those with light scales on the Day of Qiyaamah have only become light because they have always followed falsehood in this world and have made light of it. It is also the right of a scale in which falsehood is placed tomorrow that it should weigh lightly. Where Allaah has made mention of the people of Jannah, He has mentioned the best of their deeds and overlooked their sins. Whenever I think of them, I say, 'I fear that I may never join them.' Wherever Allaah has also made mention of the people of Jahannam, He has mentioned them by the worst of their actions and rejected their good deeds. Whenever I think of them, I say, 'I fear that I may be from amongst them,' Allaah has mentioned verses of mercy and verses of punishment so that Allaah's servant should become hopeful (of Allah's mercy) and fearful (of His punishment). Never entertain false hopes in Allaah (by continuing with sin in the hope that you would be forgiven) but also never lose hope in Allaah's mercy. Never throw yourself into destruction by the doings of your own hands. If you remember this advice of mine, there will never be an unseen thing more beloved to you than death, which will certainly come to you. However, if you put it to waste, there will never be an unseen thing more hated to you than death, which you will never be able to escape." (1)

The Advice that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Gave to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas and Others

The Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr sees gave to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas sees when He Appointed him Commander of the Armies Proceeding to Shaam

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Abu Bakr bin Muhammad bin Amr bin Hazm (1) ibn Mubaarak, ibn Abi Shaybah, Hannaad, ibn Jareer and Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.363).

that Hadhrat Abu Bakr stress had resolved to combine the armies marching to Shaam. The first of the commanders to march was Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sie had instructed him to pass Eela en route to Palestine. His army numbered three thousand and consisted of many Muhaajireen and Ansaar. (When seeing them off) Hadhrat Abu Bakr walked by the side of Hadhrat Amr Sixos's animal and advised him saying, "O Amr! Fear Allaah in private and in public and feel shamed before Him because He sees you and the actions you do. As you can see, I have put you ahead of people who are your seniors and who are more valuable to Islaam and the Muslims than you are. You should therefore act for the Aakhirah and do everything to please Allaah. Be a father towards the people and never disclose their secrets. Suffice yourself with their apparent condition and apply yourself to your task. Be steadfast when you meet the enemy in battle and never show cowardice. Give importance to (eradicating) misappropriation of the booty and punish people for it. Keep your talk brief when you address your people and as long as you keep yourself straight, your subordinates will also remain straight." (1)

The Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr Gave to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas and to Hadhrat Waleed bin Ugaba

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Muhammad narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr once wrote a letter to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas and to Hadhrat Waleed bin Uqaba will, both of whom were appointed to collect half the Zakaah of the Qudaa'ah tribe. When he dispatched them to collect the Zakaah, Hadhrat Abu Bakr will saw them off and gave both of them the same advice. He said, "Fear Allaah in private and in public because whoever fears Allaah, Allaah will create for him an exit (from every difficulty) and provide for him from sources he does not expect. Whoever fears Allaah, Allaah will annul his sins and grant him an immense reward. This is because Taqwa is the best thing about which Allaah's servants encourage each other. You are in a path from amongst the paths of Allaah. You have no scope of compromising, dropping measures and being negligent concerning those matters that ensure the stability of your Deen and the best interests of your duty. You should therefore never weaken and never be careless." (2)

The Letter Hadhrat Abu Bakr 等等 Wrote to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 等等 Concerning Hadhrat Khaalid bin WAleed 等等

Hadhrat Muttalib bin Saa'ib bin Abu Wadaa'ah 劉德德 narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr 劉德德 wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas 劉德德:

ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg. (33). ibn Asaakir (Vol.1 Pg. 129) has also reported the narration.

⁽²⁾ Ibn Jareer Tabari (Vol.4 Pg.29). Ibn Asaakir (Vol.1 Pg.132) has also reported a similar narration.

I have written to Khaalid bin Waleed to march upwards as to reinforce you. So when he comes to you, you should behave well with him and never assert your authority over him. You should also never make any decisions without him merely because I have placed you ahead of him and others (by making you the Ameer). Consult with the others and never oppose their views." (I)

The Narration of Ibn Sa'd About the Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr Gave to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas III

Hadhrat Abdul Hameed bin Ja'far narrates from his father that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Said to Hadhrat Amr bin Al Aas Said." I have appointed you as Ameer of all the people you pass, the Baliy tribe, the Udhra tribe, the remaining branches of the Qudaa'ah tribe and all the other remnants of Arab tribes. Encourage them to wage Jihaad in the path of Allaah and motivate them for this. Provide transport and provisions for those of them who follow you and foster a bond between them. Treat every tribe according to their status and keep their quarters separate (from other tribes)." (2)

The Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr sign gave to Hadhrat Shurahbeel bin Hasanah

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Ibraheem bin Haarith Taymi reports that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr relieved Hadhrat Khaalid bin Sa'eed of his duties, he gave the following advice to Hadhrat Shurahbeel bin Hasanah who was also one of the Muslim governors:

"Give due regard to Khaalid bin Sa'eed and acknowledge the rights he has over you just as you would like him to acknowledge the rights you have over him had he been the governor over you. You know well the status he has in Islaam and that at the time when Rasulullaah passed away, he had been a governor for Rasulullaah Although I had planned to reinstate him as governor, I later decided to relieve him of the post. Perhaps this will be better for his Deen because I do not envy the governorship of any person. When I gave him the choice of choosing a commander from all the army commanders, he chose you over even his own cousin. If you are ever faced with a matter that requires the advice of a pious and well-wishing person, let the first person you consult be Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah. Thereafter, consult Mu'aadh bin Jabal and the third should be Khaalid bin Sa'eed. In these men you will certainly find excellent counsel and good results. Beware of ever implementing your opinion without taking theirs and of concealing any intelligence from them." (3)

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.133).

⁽²⁾ fbn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.133). Ibn Assakir (Vol.1 Pg.129) has also reported the narration.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.4 Pg.70), as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg. 134).

The Advice Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave to Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan

Hadhrat Haarith bin Fadhl reports that when Hadhrat Abu Bakr gave the flag to Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan (appointed him commander of the army), he said to him, "O Yazeed! You are a youthful person who is well thought of on account of an act that you have been observed doing in private. I have decided to put you to a test and to take you away from your family, so carefully watch yourself and how you exercise your authority. I shall also be informed about you. Should you do well, I shall promote you and should you botch-up, I will have to dismiss you. I am now appointing you to the post of Khaalid bin Sa'eed."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr sais then briefed Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan sabout the responsibility ahead. He said, "I advise you to treat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah well. You well recognise his status in Islaam and that Rasulullaah said, 'Every Ummah has a trustworthy person and the trustworthy person of this Ummah is Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah.' You should therefore acknowledge his virtue and his being one of the earliest Muslims. You should also show due regard to Mu'aadh bin Jabal. You know well the battles he fought with Rasulullaah said that Rasulullaah said, '(On the Day of Qiyaamah) He (Hadhrat Mu'aadh said) would come ahead of the Ulema holding a distinguished position.' You should therefore never make a decision without the two of them for they will never fail to give you good advice."

Hadhrat Yazeed saked, "O Khalifah of Rasulullaah se! Do advise the two of them about their behaviour with me as you have advised me about them." Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "I shall not fail to advise them about their behaviour towards you." Hadhrat Yazeed said then gave the following du'aa, "May Allaah shower His mercy on you and may Allaah grant you the best rewards on behalf of Islaam." (1)

Hadhrat Yazeed bin Abu Sufyaan Fire narrates that Hadhrat Abu Bakr Called him and said, "O Yazeed! The worst that I fear from you is that you might give preference to your relatives when appointing people to posts of leadership. Rasulullaah Sie said, 'Whoever is given charge over the affairs of the Muslims and then wrongfully appoints someone to any post over the people merely because of his love for the person, Allaah's curse will be on him and Allaah will neither accept any of his Fardh or Nawaafil until Allaah enters him into Jahannam. Whoever gives the wealth of his brother to another person merely because of his love for him, Allaah's curse will be on him (or Allaah's protection will take leave from him)." (2)

^{(1) (}bn Sa'd, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.2 Pg.132).

⁽²⁾ Ahmad, Haakim, Mansoor bin Shu'ba Baghdaadi in bis Arba'een, who has commented on the chain of narrators, as did Allaama Ibn Katheer, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.143). Haythami (Vol.5 Pg.232) has also commented on the chain of narrators.

The Advices of Hadhrat Umar

The Advice Hadhrat Umar William gave to his Successor

Hadhrat Umar who once said, "My parting advice to my successor is that he recognises the rights of the early Muhaajireen and upholds their honour and respect. I also advise him to give recognition to those Ansaar who do good and to overlook those who do wrong because the Ansaar are the ones who adopted the place (Madinah) as their home before them (before the Muhaajireen) and (had adopted) Imaan. I also advise him to treat well the people of the other cities because they are the assistants of Islaam, an invaluable source of income (for the Muslim state) and a source of fury for the enemy. He should take from them only their excess wealth and only with their consent. I also advise him to treat the Bedouins well because they are the native Arabs and the foundation of Islaam. He should take only from their young animals, which should then be given back to the poor amongst them. I also advise him to honour the treaty of those in the custody of Allaah and His Rasool is i.e. the Dhimmis. He should fight those who threaten them (should defend them) and should not charge them with more than they can bear." (1)

Hadhrat Qaasim bin Muhammad narrates that Hadhrat Umar successor should know that many close and distant people will want to take the Khilaafah away from him. Even I have to exert myself to fight people off. Had I known of anyone who will make a more powerful Khalifah than myself, I would prefer that (he be the Khalifah and that) I should be executed rather than be appointed to the post." (2)

The Advice that Hadhrat Umar gave to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah

Hadhrat Saalih bin Kaysaan narrates that the first letter that Hadhrat Umar Sies wrote after becoming the Khalifah was to Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah Sies to give him command over the army of Hadhrat Khaalid bin Waleed Sies. He wrote:

I advise you to fear Allaah Who will remain forever and besides Whom all will come to an end. It is He Who has guided us after being astray and Who has removed us from darkness and brought us into the light. I have appointed you as commander of the army of Ibn Waleed, so fulfil the task that is binding on you. Never send the Muslims to their destruction with the hope of winning booty. Never let them camp at a place until you have had it examined for them and until you know its approaches. Whenever you dispatch any group, send them as a complete unit and guard against ever sending them to their destruction. Allaah has put you to test through me and put me to test through you, so lower your İbn Abi Shaybah, Abu Übayd in his Amwaal, Abu Ya'la, Nasa'ee, İbn Hibbaan and Bayhaqi, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol. 4 Pg. 439).

⁽²⁾ Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.) 97) and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.147).

gaze to the world and detach your heart from it. Beware that the world should ever destroy you as it destroyed those before you, whose places of destruction you have already witnessed," (1)

Hadhrat Umar (Sie)'s Advice to Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas (Sie)

Hadhrat Muhammad and Hadhrat Talha both narrate that Hadhrat Umar sonce sent for Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas sonce sent for Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas sonce sent for Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas sonce sent for Hadhrat Umar sonce appointed him commander of the military offensive in Iraq. Hadhrat Umar sonce then advised him saying, "O Sa'd! Sa'd of the Banu Wuhayb tribe! Let the fact never deceive you that you are called the maternal uncle of Rasululiaah sonce and that you have had the opportunity of being in his company. Allaah never erases evil with evil but erases evil with good. Allaah has no relation with anyone besides the relation of obedience to Him. All of mankind whether they are respectable or not are equal in the sight of Allaah. Allaah is their Rabb and they are all His servants. They attain superiority over each other only by their abstinence and they attain what is with Him only by obeying Him. Consider everything you saw Rasulullaah of from the time he announced his Nabuwaat until the time he left us. Hold fast to this because this is the actual objective. This is my advice to you. Should you ignore it and turn away from it, your deeds would be destroyed and you would be amongst the losers."

Thereafter, when Hadhrat Sa'd bin Abi Waqqaas was about to leave, Hadhrat Umar (Sies) again called for him and said, "Since I have appointed you to command the offensive in Iraq, remember my advice. You are going towards an extremely difficult and unpleasant task from which nothing but treading the path of the truth will deliver you. Make yourself and those with you accustomed to doing good and seek Allaah's assistance through this good. Remember that every good habit requires preparation. The preparation for good deeds is patience and this patience entails enduring every condition that comes to you. By this, you will attain the fear of Allaah. You should know that the fear for Allaah is found in two things, in obeying Allaah and in abstaining from disobedience to Him. Those who obey Him obey Him because of their disgust for this world and their love for the Aakhirah, while those who disobey Him disobey Him because of their love for this world and their disgust for the Aakhirah. You should also know that hearts have certain realities that Allaah has created most wonderfully. The one is hidden while the other is apparent. As for apparent one, it is when those who praise a good act and those who condemn it are viewed in the same light (when a good deed is done solely for Allaah regardless of whether people praise or condemn it). As for the hidden reality, it is recognised when wisdom from the heart surfaces on a person's tongue and when the people love him. You should not abstain from earning the love of people because even the Ambiyaa asked Allaah for the love of the people. Whenever Allaah loves a person,

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer (Vol.3 Pg.92).

Allaah makes him loved (by others) and whenever Allaah dislikes someone, He makes him disliked (by others as well). You can therefore assess your position in Allaah's sight by your position in the eyes of those people who are always with you." (1)

The Advice that Hadhrat Umar gave to Hadhrat Utba bin Ghazwaan gave

Hadhrat Abdul MalikbinUmayr narrates that when Hadhrat Umar wife dispatched Hadhrat Utba bin Ghazwaan (1986) to Basrah, he said to him, "O Utba! I have appointed you as governor of India(2), which is amongst the strongholds of the enemy. I have great hope that Allaah will suffice for you against those around you and will assist you against them. I have already written to Alaa bin Hadhrami to reinforce you with Arjafa bin Harthama who is a fierce fighter against the enemy and a great strategist against them. When he comes to you, you should consult with him and keep him close to you. Call people towards Allaah and welcome those who respond. As for those who refuse (to accept Islaam), they will have to pay the Jizya in humiliation (and live under Muslims rule). Otherwise (if these two options are refused), it will have to be the sword without any sympathy. Fear Allaah in the post that you have been appointed to and beware that your carnal self should ever pull you towards pride because this will ruin your Aakhirah. You had been a companion of Rasulullaah and through him. you had attained honour after being disgraced. Through him did you attain strength after weakness so much so that you have become an Ameer in a position of great authority and a ruler whose commands are obeyed. People listen when you speak and your commands are obeyed. What a great bounty this is on condition that it does not make you think that your status is higher than it is and that it does not make you display arrogance over those of lower ranks. Guard against this bounty just as you would guard against sin. This post is one of the two things (sin being the other) that I fear most for you, that they should gradually deceive you and then drop you so hard that they eventually lead you into Jahannam. I seek Allaah's protection for you and for myself against this. People rush towards Allaah (towards doing the work of Allaah) when the world is lifted for them (when they stand to receive worldly gain by it) and they then make it their objective. You should therefore have the intention of pleasing only Allaah and not to acquire worldly gains. You should also always beware of the place where oppressors will fall (Jahannam)." (3)

The Advice that Hadhrat Umar Gave to Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami

Hadhrat Sha'bi reports that Hadhrat Umar (1996) once wrote the following letter

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Jareer (Vol.3 Pg.92).

⁽²⁾ Basrah was referred to as India because it borders the Persian Gulf, which leads to the Indian subcontinent.

⁽³⁾ Ibn Jarcer (Vol.4 Pg.150). Ali bin Muhammad Madaa'ini has also reported a similar narration, as quoted in Al Bidaaya wan Nihaaya (Vol.7 Pg.48).

to Hadhrat Alaa bin Hadhrami & who was in Bahrain:

"Proceed to Utba bin Ghazwaan because I have appointed you to his post. Remember that you are going to someone from the very first Muhaajireen for whom Allaah has already decreed Jannah. I am not dismissing him because he has not been chaste, strong and a good fighter. I am dismissing him only because I feel that you would be of more use to the Muslims of that region. You should therefore respect his status. I had already appointed someone else to this post before you, but he passed away before he could reach there. Therefore, if Allaah wishes that you take charge there, you will become the governor. However, if Allaah wills that Utba remains the governor, then all creation and decisions are the prerogative of Allaah the Rabb of the universe. Remember that every decision that Allaah makes is protected by Him (and will certainly come to pass). You should therefore concern yourself only with the purpose for which you were created (Allaah shall see to the rest). Apply yourself to this task and forsake everything else because this world is destined to come to an end while the Aakhirah is eternal. You should therefore never allow yourself to be preoccupied with something the good of which will soon end rather than something the evil of which is everlasting. Hasten towards the pleasure of Allaah away from His displeasure. For those whom he wishes, Allaah combines high merit in their leadership as well as in their knowledge. We beseech Allaah to grant you and usassistance to do good and protection from His punishment." (1)

The Advice that Hadhrat Umar signs gave to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

Hadhrat Dabba bin Mihsin narrates that Hadhrat Umar Sies wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari Sies.

People usually develop a dislike for their rulers. I therefore seek Allaah's protection that this should even happen to me or to you. Ensure that you enforce the penalties of the Shari'ah even though it be only for a while during the day (if not more often). If you are faced with two decisions, the one being for Allaah and the other for worldly gain, then give preference for the one that is for Allaah because this world will come to an end while the Aakhirah is everlasting. Instil fear into criminals and keep them separate (so that they never have the opportunity to conspire together). Visit the sick Muslims, attend their funerals, keep your door open and do the work of the Muslims yourself because you are after all a man from amongst them. The only difference is that Allaah has placed a heavier burden on you. The news has reached me that you and your family have adopted a trend in your clothing, your food and your conveyance that the (average) Muslims cannot afford. O servant of Allaah! Beware that you should become like a beast that passes by a lush valley and then has no other objective but getting fat, whereas it is getting fat that will kill it. Remember that when a governor becomes corrupt, his subordinates become corrupt and the most wretched of all people is the person who is the cause of his subordinates becoming corrupt." (1)

Hadhrat Dahhaak reports that Hadhrat Umar wrote the following letter to Hadhrat Abu Moosa Ash'ari

"Strength in leadership is attained when leaders refrain from postponing today's tasks for tomorrow. When you do this, the tasks accumulate to the extent that you do not know which one to begin with. They are all eventually destroyed. When you are faced with two matters, the one being for this world and the other for the Aakhirah, opt for the one that is for the Aakhirah rather than the one that is for this world because this world will come to an end while the Aakhirah is eternal. Always remain afraid of Allaah and study the Book of Allaah because it is the fountainhead of knowledge and springtime of the hearts (because it revives the heart and is a balm for it)." (2)

The Parting Advices of Hadhrat Uthmaan Dhun Nuravn (1986)

Hadhrat Alaa bin Fadhl narrated from his mother that after Hadhrat Uthmaan was martyred, the people searched for his wealth and found a locked box. When they opened the box, they found in it a paper on which the following was written: "This is the parting advice of Uthmaan. I begin with the name of Allaah the Most Kind the Most Merciful. Uthmaan bin Affaan testifies that there is none worthy of worship but the One Allaah Who has no partner and that Muhammad was was Allaah's servant and Rasul. He also testifies that Jannah is real, Jahannam is real and that Allaah shall resurrect those in the graves on a day about which there is no doubt. Indeed, Allaah never breaks a promise. Upon this did I live, upon this did I die and with this will I be resurrected, Inshaa Allaah."

A narration of Nizaamul Mulk states that the following couplets were written on the reverse side of this paper (which mean):

"Independence makes one so content that his status soars
Even though it suppresses him to the extent that poverty threatens
Though you should be patient when it strikes, remember that difficulty
Never comes without ease following on its heels
Whoever does not compare times cannot understand grief
The promises of time are to be found in the changing of the days" (3)

The Incident Between Hadhrat Ali and Hadhrat Uthmaan On the Day his House was Under Siege

Hadhrat Shaddaad bin Aws (Shadh narrates that when the siege of Hadhrat

(2) Ibn Abi Shaybah.

(3) Fadhaa'ili Raazi.

⁽¹⁾ Daynoorwi, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.3 Pg.149). Ibn Abi Shaybah and Abu Nu'aym in his Hillya have also reported the narration briefly from Sa'eed bin Abi Barda, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.8 Pg.209).

Uthmaan () Servants of Allaah!" Hadhrat Shaddaad () says that he then saw Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib () outside his house wearing the turban of Rasulullaah () and his sword around his neck. In front of him was Hadhrat Hasan () Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar () and a group of the Muhaajireen and Ansaar. They launched an assault on the rebels (surrounding the house) and dispersed them all. They then entered the house where Hadhrat Ali () said to Hadhrat Uthmaan (), "As Salaamu Alayka, O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Verily Rasulullaah () did not attain this (dominance) until he struck those who turned away with those who came forward. By Allaah! I believe that these people want nothing but to kill you, so issue the command for us to fight them. Hadhrat Uthmaan () said, "In the name of Allaah do I implore a person who acknowledges the right he owes to Allaah and the right he owes to me that he should not spill even a cupping-glass of blood because of me and that he should not even spill his own blood because of me."

When Hadhrat Ali we repeated his request, Hadhrat Uthmaan of Allah! You know well that we have tried our level best." He then entered the Masjid, where it was time to perform salaah. "O Abul Hasan!" the people said to him, "Go forward and lead the salaah." Hadhrat Ali we replied, "I shall not lead you in salaah when your Imaam is under siege. I shall rather perform salaah by myself." He then performed the salaah by himself and then went to his house. His son met him and said, "Dear father! I swear by Allaah that the rebels have barged into the house." Hadhrat Ali we sighed, "Innaa Lillaahi wa Innaa Ilayhi Raaji'oon! By Allaah! They will certainly martyr him." Some people asked, "O Abul Hasan! Where will Hadhrat Uthmaan when the will enjoy an extremely close position to Allaah." Then they asked, "And where will they (the murderers) be, O Abu Hasan?" Hadhrat Ali where epided, "By Allaah! They will be in Hell." (1)

The Narration of Abu Salama bin Abdur Rahmaan in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Salama bin Abdur Rahmaan reports that Hadhrat Abu Qataadah and another person went to Hadhrat Uthmaan while his house was under siege. They requested permission to proceed for Hajj and he granted them permission. They then asked, "With whom should we affiliate if these rebels gain the upper hand?" Hadhrat Uthmaan reports, "Stick with the majority." They then asked, "But what if these rebels who gain the upper hand form the majority? Who then should we affiliate with?" Hadhrat Uthmaan repeated, "Stick with the majority wherever they may be."

The narrators says, "We were leaving when we met Hasan bin Ali says at the door as he was going to Uthmaan says." We returned with him to hear what he had to say. He greeted Uthmaan was and then said, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Command us to do as you wish.' Uthmaan was replied, 'Dear nephew! Go and sit in your home until Allaah brings His decision to pass.' When he left, we left with him but then met Ibn Umar was at the door as he was going to Uthmaan was was going to Uthmaan was and then said, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! I had been in the company of Rasulullaah was and I listened and obeyed. Thereafter, I had been in the company of Abu Bakr was and I listened and obeyed. After that, I had been in the company of Umar was and I also listened and obeyed, dutifully acknowledging his rights as my father and as the Khalifah. I am now present to obey you, O Ameerul Mu'mineen. Command us to do as you wish.' Hadhrat Uthmaan was twice repeated, 'May Allaah reward you with the best rewards, O family of Umar was.' He then added, 'However, I do not need blood to be spilt."

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ahmad, as quoted in Riyaadun Nudhra fi Munaaqibil Ashara (Vol.2 Pg.128).

The Narration of Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah in this Regard

Hadhrat Abu Hurayrah Says, "I was under siege with Uthmaan Says in his house when one of our men was struck by an arrow. I said, 'O Ameerul Mu'mineen! Now that one of our men has been killed, it is alright for us to fight back.' He replied, 'O Abu Hurayrah! I strictly command you to throw down your sword. It is my life that is wanted and am prepared to save the Mu'mineen by giving my own life.' I then threw away my sword and do not know where it is to this day." (2)

The Advice that Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib Gave

His Letter to his Governors

Hadhrat Muhaajir Aamiri narrates that in the letter of appointment that Hadhrat Ali bin Abi Taalib wrote to some governors of certain towns, he wrote: "Never be away from the populace for an extended period of time because when governors are away from the populace, it frustrates the people and reduces his knowledge of their affairs. In fact, by being away (and not interacting with the people), the governors will have no knowledge about that which they had been absent from. As a result of this, small things (and people) will seem big to them while big things (and people) will seem small to them. In a like manner, they will see evil as being good, good as evil and confuse the truth with falsehood. A governor is after all a human and had no idea about what people hide from him and their mere speech bears no indications by which the truth can be deciphered from falsehood. A governor should therefore guard against interferences in people's rights by reducing his absence (he should make himself accessible so that he can remain in touch with affairs and will not be misled into abusing the rights of people). You are either one of two persons. You may be a person who has a magnanimous nature and who always gives where is its right. In that case, why should you remain aloof from people, thereby refraining from giving them what is rightful and from displaying your generous disposition? On the other hand, you may be a miserly person. In that case, people will very soon stay away from you and stop asking from you when they give up hope of receiving anything. However, most of the needs people will ask from you require no effort on your part because it will either be a complaint of injustice or an appeal for justice (in this case also you have nothing to fear and therefore have no need to keep aloof from them). Reap full benefit from what I have described. I shall suffice with these few words which will Inshaa Allaah benefit and guide you." (1)

⁽¹⁾ Abu Ahmad, as quoted in Riyaadun Nudhra fi Munaaqibil Ashara (Vol.2 Pg. 128).

⁽²⁾ Abu Umar, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.9 Pg.129).

Another of His Letters to his Governors

Hadhrat Madaa'ini reports that Hadhrat Ali sees wrote the following letter to some of his governors:

"Slow down and imagine that you have reached your death and that your actions have been presented before you in a place where a person is deceived by the world will lament, where the one who wasted his life will wish he had repented and where the oppressor would wish to return to the world (to redress the wrong he did)." (2)

His Advice to the Governor of Ukbara

A man from the Thaqeef tribe narrates that Hadhrat Ali sees once appointed him as governor of Ukbara. While the local people of the area were with him, Hadhrat Ali sees advised him saying, "The people of rural Iraq are deceitful people so beware that they never deceive you. Also ensure that you take all that is due from them."

He then told the man to see him that evening and when he did, Hadhrat Ali said, "I had mentioned to you what I did so that those people should hear it, Never lash any one of them for a Dirham and never punish them by letting them stand in the sun. You should also never take from them a goat or a cow. We have been commanded only to take from them what is extra (not difficult for them to give). Do you know what is extra? It is obedience." (3)

Another narration states that Hadhrat Ali Sissi said, "Never sell off their grains, their summer and winter clothing or their animals of labour. Never make any of them stand in the sun (as punishment) to receive a Dirham." The man said, "In that case, O Ameerul Mu'mineen, I shall return to you as I have left (without receiving anything from them)." Hadhrat Ali Sissi said, "Even if you have to return as you have left (it matters not) because we have been commanded to take from them only what is more than their needs." (4)

⁽¹⁾ Deenowri and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.58):

⁽²⁾ Deenowri and ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Muntakhab Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.5 Pg.58).

⁽³⁾ Ibn Zanjway, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (vol.3 Pg.166).

⁽⁴⁾ Bayhaqi (Vol.9 Pg.205).

The Advice that the Populace give to their Rulers

The Advive that Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir gave to Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar

Hadhrat Makhool Sizes states a Sahabi of Rasulullaah Sizes by the name of Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Aamir bun Judhaym Jumhi Sizes once told Hadhrat Umar that he wished to offer some advice. "Certainly! Go ahead," Hadhrat Umar told him. Hadhrat Sa'eed then said, "I advise you to fear Allaah when dealing with the people. Never let your words and deeds contradict each other because the best of words are those that are confirmed by actions. Never pass two conflicting judgements for one matter, for then conflicts will arise and you will turn away from the truth. If you accept the position that is backed by evidence, you will be successful, Allaah will assist you and reform your citizens for you, Devote your attention and your judgements for those Muslims over whom Allaah has made you the ruler, whether they are far away or close by. Like for them what you would like for yourself and for your family and dislike for them what you would dislike for yourself and for your family. Dive deep to extract the truth and never fear the condemnation of anyone who condemns what you have done for Allaah."

Hadhrat Umar was asked, "Who can possibly do this?" Hadhrat Sa'eed replied, "Someone like yourself whom Allaah has given charge over the Ummah of Muhammad and who will not allow anyone to come between himself and Allaah." (1)

The Narration of Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Buraydah in this Regard

Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Buraydah narrates that Hadhrat Umar Sees once gathered the people upon the arrival of a delegation. He then said to Azina bin Arqam, "Look out for the Sahabah of Rasulullaah & and allow them in first. You may then allow the groups after them to come in when the people gathered and formed rows before Hadhrat Umar Sees, he looked at them all. When his gaze fell on a hefty man wearing a patterned shawl, he motion d him to come forward. When the man came forward, Hadhrat Umar Sees thrice said to him. "Say something." However, each one of the three times the man said, "No, you say something." Eventually, Hadhrat Umar Sees said, "Shame on you! Stand up." The man stood up (and left).

When Hadhrat Umar sagain looked at the people, he noticed an Ash'ari. The man was fair in complexion, slender, short and languid. When Hadhrat Umar motioned to him, he came forward. "Say something," Hadhrat Umar said. "You rather say something," the man responded. When Hadhrat

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Sa'd and Ibn Asaakir, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.4 Pg.390).

Umar said, "O Ameerul Mu'mineen! You start a conversation and we will talk." Hadhrat Umar said, "Shame on you! Stand up. A sheep herder (like myself) can never be of any use to you?" The man stood up (and left).

When Hadhrat Umar saain looked at the people, his eyes fell on a man who was also fair in complexion and thin. Hadhrat Umar saais motioned to him and he also came forward. When Hadhrat Umar saked him to say something, he jumped to the occasion. He praised Allaah, spoke about Allaah and then said, "You have been given charge of this Ummah, so fear Allaah with regard to the position you have been given over the Ummah and your citizens. Fear Allaah especially with regard to your personal self because you will be taken to task and questioned. You are in a position of trust and are responsible to fulfil what you have been entrusted with. You will be rewarded only according to what you do."

Hadhrat Umar then said, "Since I became the Khalifah no one besides you has ever spoken so frankly to me. Who are you?" "I am Rabee bin Ziyaad," he replied. "The brother of Muhaajir bin Ziyaad?" Hadhrat Umar saked. 'Yes," came the reply. Hadhrat Umar said to him, "Watch Rabee bin Ziyaad. If he proves true to his word, he will be of great help in your task. You may then also appoint him to a post of leadership. You should then inspect him every ten days and write to me about his conduct as a leader in so much detail that I can feel as if I had appointed him." Hadhrat Umar then added, "Rasulullaah the once advised us, 'What I fear most for you after me is the hypocrite with the tongue of a knowledgeable person."(1)

The Letter that Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah and Hadhrat Mu'aadh Woose Wrote to Hadhrat Umar and his Response

Hadhrat Muhammad bin Sooqa reports that he once went to Hadhrat Nu'aym bin Abu Hind who took out a paper on which the following was written:

"From Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah and Mu'aadh bin Jabal to Umar bin Khattaab.

"سَلَامٌ عَلَيْكَ"

We have observed that you are always concerned about your self reformation. You have now been given charge of this Ummah, Arabs and non-Arabs alike. You have before you people who are noble and ignoble as well as people who are enemies and those who are friends. Each of them should have their share of justice. O Umar! You should therefore watch how you deal with all of them. We caution you about a day when faces will be cast down, hearts will dry up (with fear) and all evidence will hold no weight against the evidence of the Sovereign Whose supremacy overpowers all of them. All of creation will stand before Him in humility, hoping for His mercy and fearing His punishment. We have been informed of a Hadith stating that towards the end of time the condition of this Ummah will retrogress to the extent that on the surface people will be friends but are actually enemies on the inside. We seek refuge in Allaah that this letter of ours should be interpreted to mean what our hearts never intended to mean. We have written this only to give you good advice.

⁽¹⁾ Ibn Raahway, Haarith, Musaddad and Abu Ya'la, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaal (Vol.7 Pg.36).

Hadhrat Umar www wrote the following letter back to the two: From Umar bin Khattaab to Abu Ubaydah and Mu'aadh.

Your letter has reached me in which you state that you two have observed that I have always been concerned about my self reformation. (You mentioned) 'You have now been given charge of this Ummah, Arabs and non-Arabs alike. You have before you people who are noble and ignoble as well as people who are enemies and those who are friends. Each of them should have their share of justice.' You have also stated. 'O Umar! You should therefore watch how you deal with all of them.' However, Umar has neither the power nor the strength to do any of this without the help of Allaah. You have also cautioned me about something that all the nations before us were cautioned about. Since ancient times have the days and nights been interchanging with the deaths of people continuing. This system draws closer those who are far, makes every new thing old, brings every promise to pass and will continue until people have reached their places in Jannah or Jahannam. You have also warned me saying that towards the end of time the condition of this Ummah will retrogress to the extent that on the surface people will be friends but are actually enemies on the inside. However, the two of you are not like this, neither is this that period of time. That will be a period when people will have great motivation and also great fear. However, their motivation to meet each other will be solely to improve their lot in this world. You have also written to seek refuge in Allaah that your letter should be interpreted to mean what your hearts never intended to mean. You say that you had written the letter only to give me good advice. You are both true and should never stop writing to me because I cannot do without the two of you.

"وَالسَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمًا" (1)

The Advice of Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah

His advice to the Muslims at the Time of his Death in Jordan

Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib says that when Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah

⁽¹⁾ Abu Nu'aym in his Hilya (Vol.1 Pg.238), Ibn Abi Shaybah and Hannaad have reported a similar narration, as quoted in Kanzul Ummaai (Vol.8 Pg.209). Tabraani has also reported the narration from reliable sources, as confirmed by Haythami in Majma'uz Zawaa'id (Vol.5 Pg.214).

was afflicted by the plague in Jordan, he summoned all the Muslims with him and said. "I am about to give you some advices which will keep you on the path of righteousness if you accept them. Establish salaah, fast during the month of Ramadhaan, pay Zakaah, perform Hajj, perform Umrah, encourage each other (to do good), wish well for your leaders, never deceive them and never let the world preoccupy you (from preparing for the Aakhirah). Even if a person is given a life of a thousand years, he will have no option but to head towards the falling place (death) that you see. Allaah has decreed death for the children of Aadam will amd therefore they will all have to die. The wisest of them is he who is most obedient to his Rabb and who works the most for the day for his return (to Allaah).

"وَالسَّلاَمُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَهُ اللهِ"

Lead the salaah, O Mu'aadh bin Jabal."

When Hadhrat Abu Ubaydah bin Jarraah Sassis passed away, Hadhrat Mu'aadh bin Jabal Sassis addressed the people saying, "O people! Repent to Allaah for your sins because when a servant meets Allaah after having repented for his sins, Allaah has to forgive him. Whoever has debts should settle them because a person will be detained because of his debts (and will not be allowed to move on the Day of Qiyaamah until he settles them by paying with his good deeds). Whoever has broken ties with his brother should meet him and reconcile with him for it behoves not a Muslim to severe ties with his brother for more than three days. O Muslims! You have been given the shocking news of the death of a great man. I do not think that I have seen any servant of Allaah with a more righteous heart than his, who was further from evil than he, who had more love for the masses than he and who was more well wishing than he had been. You should therefore pray to Allaah to shower His mercy on him and present yourselves for his Janaazah salaah." (1)

The Lives of the Khulafaa and Leaders The Life of Hadhrat Abu Bakr Siddeeq His Life Before Becoming the Khalifah and Afterwards

Ibn Sa'd has combined Ahadeeth reported by Hadhrat Abdullaah bin Umar Sa'es, Hadhrat Aa'isha Sa'es, Hadhrat Sa'eed bin Musayyib and others to relate that people pledged their allegiance to Hadhrat Abu Bakr Sa'es on the day that Rasulullaah Se passed away, which was Monday 12th Rabee-ul Awwai II A.H. He was then living in the area of Sunh with his wife Hadhrat Habeebah bint Khaarija bin Zaid bin Abu Zuhayr who belonged to the Haarith bin Khazraj tribe. He lived in a tent woven from animal hairs and did not add to this until he moved to his house in Madinah. He continued living here in Sunh for six months after becoming the Khalifah and would walk in the mornings to Madinah. He sometimes also rode to Madinah on his horse and he wore only a loin cloth and a shawl that was dyed a reddish colour. He would come to Madinah to lead the people in salaah and return to his family in Sunh after performing the Isha salaah. Whenever he came, he would lead the people in salaah but when he could not make it, Hadhrat Umar would lead the salaah. On Fridays he used to remain at home during the morning to apply henna to his head and beard and then arrive (in Madinah) at the time of the Jumu'ah salaah when he would lead the people in salaah.

⁽¹⁾ Riyaadun Nudhra fi Munaaqibil Ashara (Vol.2 Pg.317) by Muhib Tabari.

He was a businessman by trade and would proceed to the marketplace every morning to buy and sell. He also had a flock of goats that would come to him in the evenings. He sometimes took them out himself for grazing and sometimes had someone else graze them. He used to milk goats for the people of his locality so when he became the Khalifah, a little girl said, "Now there will be none to milk our animals." When he heard her saying this, Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Why not! I swear by my life that I shall definitely still milk for you. I hope that what I have entered into will never change the personality I always had." He then continued milking for the people and would sometimes say to the little girl of the locality, "Dear girl! Would you like me to make the milk foamy or without foam?" At times she would ask for foamy milk while at times she asked for it to have no foam. He then did exactly as she asked.

In this way, he stayed in Sunh for six months, after which he moved into Madinah. When he started living there, he thought about his post and said, "By Allaah! The affairs of the people can never be set right if I am to continue with my trade. Their affairs can be rectified only If I free myself from trade and look into their matters. However, my family still needs their necessities." He then left trade and drew from the public treasury only what he required for himself and his family for each day and what he needed for performing Hajj and Umrah. Those in charge of the public treasury fixed an amount of six thousand Dirhams per annum for him.

When he was on his deathbed, Hadhrat Abu Bakr said, "Return to the public treasury whatever of its money we have in our possession because I do not wish to derive any benefit from it." He also instructed that a certain piece of land he owned should be given to the Muslims (the public treasury) in lieu of the money he had been using from there. (After he passed away) The land, a milk-giving camel, a slave who sharpened swords and a shawl valued at five Dirhams were all handed over to Hadhrat Umar said, "Abu Bakr said" has set a difficult example for his successors to follow." In the year 11 A.H., Hadhrat Abu Bakr said appointed Hadhrat Umar said, "Ahu. Hadhrat Abu Bakr said appointed Hadhrat Umar said appointed Hadhrat Umar said appointed Hadhrat Abu Bakr said arrived in Makkah at midmorning and when he went to his residence, (his father) Abu Quhaafa said was sitting at the door talking to some youngsters. When someone said to him that his son had arrived, Hadhrat Abu Quhaafa (Quickly started to stand up. Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Quickly started to seat his camel and jumped off while it was still standing as he said, "Do not stand, dear father!" He then met his father, hugged him and kissed him between his eyes. The old man then burst out crying out of joy at his son's arrival.

The governor of Makkah Hadhrat Attaab bin Usayd (Subay) bin Amr (Subay), Ikrama bin Abu Jahal (Subay) and Haarith bin Hishaam (Subay) all came to greet Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Subay), "As Salaamu Alaykum, O Khalifah of Rasulullaah (Subay), "When they all shook his hands and when they spoke of Rasulullaah (Subay), Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Subay), he said, "O Ateeq (a title of Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Subay)). These are all leaders, so do treat them well." Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Subay), "Dear father! There is no power (to do good) and no strength (to abstain from evil) except with the help of Allaah. I have been charged with an extremely great task which I have no power to fulfil without the assistance of Allaah."

Hadhrat Abu Bakr (Sizes) came out again at the time Zuhr and again performed Tawaaf. He then sat close to Daarun Nadwa and said, "Is there anyone who wishes to lodge a complaint of injustice or who wants to demand a right?" However, no one came forward and they all praised their governor. He then performed the Asr salaah and remained sitting for the people to greet him. Thereafter, he left for Madinah.

When Hajj arrived in 12 A.H., Hadhrat Abu Bakr William led the people in Hajj. He performed the Ifraad Hajj (donned the Ihraam only for Hajj and not for Umrah) and appointed Hadhrat Uthmaan bin Affaan William as his deputy in Madinah. (1)

The Incident of Hadhrat Umayr bin Sa'd Ansaari

The Incident When Hadhrat Umar spointed him as Governor of Hims

Hadhrat Antara narrates from Hadhrat Umayr bin Sa'd Ansaari (1996) that Hadhrat Umar (1996) send him to be the governor of Hims but after a year had still not received any news from him. Hadhrat Umar (1996) then said to his (1) lbn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.131). Allaama lbn Katheer has stated that the chain of narrators is sound, that

 Ibn Sa'd (Vol.3 Pg.131). Allaama Ibn Katheer has stated that the chain of narrators is sound, the numerous other narrations support the content and that it has been widely accepted. scribe, "Write a letter to Umayr. By Allaah! I feel that he has betrayed us!" The following was then sent to Hadhrat Umayr (1986):

"Come here as soon as this letter reaches you. When you look at this letter, you should immediately come with all the booty of the Muslims that you have collected."

Hadhrat Umayr William then took his leather bag, put his journey's provisions and a dish into it and hung his water bag onto it. He also took his spear with him and left Hims on foot. When he arrived in Madinah, he was pale, his face was covered in dust and his hair was very long. He went to Hadhrat Umar was and greeted him saying, "Peace be on you, O Ameerul Mu'mineen together with Allaah's mercy and His blessings," "What is wrong with you?" asked Hadhrat Umar Wise. Hadhrat Umayr Wise responded by saying, "What do you see wrong in me? Do you not see that I am in good health, with pure blood and that I am dragging the world along with its horns?" Thinking that he had brought much wealth along, Hadhrat Umar was asked, "What do you have with you?" Hadhrat Umayr Figure replied, "I have my bag with me in which I have my provisions. I have my dish in which I eat and wash my hair and clothes in. I also have my water bag in which I carry the water for my wudhu and for drinking. Then I have my spear from which I take support and use to fight off any enemy that confronts me. By Allaah! The world is dependent only on these possessions of mine (they are enough for all my needs)."

Hadhrat Umar with then asked, "Have you come walking?" When Hadhrat Umayr with replied in the affirmative, Hadhrat Umar with said, "Was there no one who could lend you their animal to ride?" Hadhrat Umayr with replied, "Neither did they offer nor did I ask." "What terrible Muslims you have come from!" Hadhrat Umar with exclaimed. Hadhrat Umayr cautioned, "Fear Allaah, O Umar! Allaah has prohibited us from backbiting and I have seen them perform their Fajr salaah (those who perform their Fajr salaah are in the custody of Allaah and none should harm them in any way, physically or verbally)."

Hadhrat Umar then asked him, "Where did I send you? (Tabraani reports that he asked, "Where is that for which I had sent you?") what have you done there?" "What are you asking?" queried Hadhrat Umayr then explained, "Were it not for the fear that it would depress you, I would not have informed you. However, you sent me and I reached the place, I then gathered all the pious people from amongst them and charged them with collecting the booty of the Muslims. When they had done so, I spent it all in the appropriate avenues. Had there been a share for you in it, I would have surely brought it to you." "Then you have brought back nothing?" asked Hadhrat Umar to "Nothing at all," came the reply. Hadhrat Umar then issued the command for Hadhrat Umayr stem as governor to be renewed. However, Hadhrat Umayr submitted, "This (being a governor) is something that I can neither do for you nor for anyone else after you. By Allaah! I have not been saved (from the evils of governorship). I once said to a Christian woman, 'May Allaah humiliate you!' This is the evil that you have exposed me to, O Umar. The worst of my days were those in which I stayed behind (in this world without dying earlier) with you, O Umar. Hadhrat Umayr then sought leave and Hadhrat Umar then granted it. He then returned to his home, which lay a few miles outside Madinah.

After Hadhrat Umayr had left, Hadhrat Umar said, "I still think that he has betrayed us (he has brought back much wealth and kept it at his house)." Hadhrat Umar then gave a hundred Dinaars (gold coins) to a man called Haarith and sent him with the instructions, "Go to Umayr as if you are a guest. If you see signs of a good life, return to me immediately. However, if you see him in extreme poverty, give him these hundred Dinaars. When Hadhrat Haarith arrived at the house, he found Hadhrat Umayr sitting against a wall and removing lice from his upper garment. Haarith greeted Hadhrat Umayr swip, who said to him, "Why not dismount, may Allaah have mercy on you." Hadhrat Haarith dismounted and Hadhrat Umayr saked him, "Where are you coming from?" When Hadhrat Haarith replied that he was coming from Madinah. Hadhrat Umayr saked, "How was the Ameerul Mu'mineen when you left?" "He was fine," replied Hadhrat Haarith. "And how were the Muslims?" was the next question. "They were also fine," Hadhrat Haarith replied.

"Does the Ameerul Mu'mineen enforce the penal code?" asked Hadhrat Umayr "Oh yes," responded Hadhrat Haarith, "he even lashed his son who had done wrong, because of which he died." (This was not so because he died of natural causes a month after the lashing.) Hadhrat Umayr ("O Allaah! Assist Umar because as far as I know, he has great love for You." Hadhrat Haarith then stayed there for three days. The family had nothing to eat besides a loaf of barley bread, which they fed to Hadhrat Haarith while they stayed hungry. Eventually, when the hunger was too much for them to bear, Hadhrat Umayr said to Hadhrat Haarith, "Your presence has caused us hunger, so if you can, would you please go somewhere else?"

Hadhrat Haarith then took out the hundred Dinaars and handed it to Hadhrat Umayr saying, "The Ameerul Mu'mineen has sent this for you, so use it." Hadhrat Umayr sighed deeply and said, "I have no need for this. Take It back." His wife then came and said, "Use it if you need it, otherwise spent it where it should be spent." Hadhrat Umayr sighes said, "By Allaah! I have nothing to spend it on." His wife then tore off the bottom part of her scarf and gave it to him. He put the money in the piece of cloth and then went out to spend the money on the children of the martyrs and the poor. He then returned, Hadhrat Haarith thought that Hadhrat Umayr would give him also something, but all that Hadhrat Umayr said was, "Convey my Salaams to the Ameerul Mu'mineen."

When Hadhrat Haarith returned, Hadhrat Umar (What did you see?" "O Ameerul Mu'mineent" Hadhrat Haarith replied, "I see an extremely

